Mitra - Varuna Devata, Bahuvrkta Atreya Rshi

आ मित्र वर्णं वयं गीर्भिर-जुहुमं अत्रिवत।
नि बहिष्ठि सदतं सार्म्पीतयं ॥ १ ॥

1. Ā mitre varuṇe vayaṁ gīrdbhir-juhumo atrivat.
   Ni barhiṣi sadataṁ somapītaye.

Like the sage free from threefold suffering of body, mind and soul, with songs of adoration, we invoke Mitra and Varuna, leading lights of love and justice, offer yajnic homage in their honour and service, and pray that they may come and grace our seats of yajna for a drink of soma and bless our accomplishment of the creative and productive programme.

वतनं स्था धृवं पर्भ धर्मण्य यात्यज्जना।
2. Vratena stho dhruvaksemā dharmanā yātayajjanā. Ni barhiṣi sadatāṁ somapītaye.

O constant protectors of achievement and progress, unshakable leaders dynamic at the centre of movement, dedicated to the vows of piety, guides of the people on the march forward and onward by the laws of Dharma, come, grace the seats of yajna in the world order and drink the soma of success and advancement.

3. Mitraśca no varuṇaśca jüetāṁ yajñamiṣṭaye. Ni barhiṣi sadatāṁ somapītaye.

Let Mitra and Varuna, loving friend and discriminative judge of circumstance with comprehensive vision making the right choice, cherish, join and guide our yajna, corporate programme of progress, sit on the holy seats of yajna and celebrate the finale with a drink of soma in honour of success.

Ashvins Devata, Paura Atreya Rshi

1. Yadadya sthā parāvati yadarvāvatyaśvinā. Yad vā purū purubhujā yadantarikṣa ā gatam.

Ashvins, twin divines, complementary currents of the circuit of nature’s divine energy, wind and electricity, you are present far and near in the middle sphere of the sky and operative far and near here and now, abundant, sustaining all and sustainable by all. O men and women, let us try these currents of energy come to us for the benefit of all.

2. Iha tyā purubhūtāmā purū dāṁśāṁsi bhibhratā. Varasyā yāmyadhrigū huve tuviṣṭamā bhuje.

Here I invoke and practically realise the abundant and extensive currents of natural energy bearing many and mighty potentials, highly useful, most powerful and non-stop in operation for our purpose of power and comfort.

Ashvins, instantly moving harbingers of light and energy, one brilliant wheel of your chariot, one part of your circuit, you have set in motion for the expression of your brilliance by the sun. By the other, like night after the day and by the circle of night and day, you complete the circle of the day and year and thereby with your might and splendour you illuminate the terrestrial and ethereal regions and count up the ages of humanity on earth.
4. \[ Tadū śu vāmenā kṛtam viśvā yad vāmanu śtave. \]
\[ Nānā jātāvarepasā samasme bandhumeyathuḥ. \]

Ashvins, complementary, powers of nature, and humanity like teachers and preachers, leaders and followers, for all these that you have done for us, for all that, I honour and adore you in consequence. Born and arisen without sin and free of negativity, come and guide our friends and brothers for our sake.

आ यद्वं सूया रथं तिष्ठद्धृष्यदं सदां।

5. \[ Ā yad vāṃ sūryā rathāṁ tiṣṭhad raghusyadam sadā. Pari vāmaruṣā vayo ghṛṇā varanta ātapah. \]

When the dawn, daughter of the sun, like a bride, comes and rides your fast moving chariot, ruddy, shining and blazing, birds, beasts and humans always look up to you and adore you all round.

युवरत्रिशिवकति नरं सुमन्त चत्तसा।

6. \[ Yuvoratriśiketati narā sumnena cetasā. Ghar-\]
\[ manā yad vāmarepasam nāsatyāsnā bhuranyati. \]

Ashvins, leading lights and pioneers of life on the path of truth and rectitude, Atri, the sage who has conquered threefold suffering of existence knows you fully with an undisturbed mind and adores you with hymns of praise when he experiences and receives from you the fire of life free from sin and untruth.

उगा वां ककुहा यथि: शृणव चार्मपु स्नतिनि: ।

7. Ugro vāṁ kakuho yayih śṛṇve yāmeṣu saṁtaniḥ.
   Yad vāṁ damśobhīr-aśvinā’trir-narāvavartati.

Ashvins, leading lights and path finders of humanity, the mighty rumble of your advance expanding in all directions is heard at every stage of your movements when Atri, the celebrant sage of threefold freedom turns his attention to you by virtue of your noble actions.

8. Madhva ū ṣu madhūyuvā rudrā siṣakti pipyuṣī.
   Yat samudrātī parṣathāh pakvāḥ prkṣo bharanta vām.

Ashvins, roaring powers of nature like sun and wind, mixers and makers of the sweets of earth, when you fill the oceans of ethereal and terrestrial regions and abundant showers slake the thirst of honey sweets of green, they ripen and bear and bring offers of ripe fruit and nourishing food for you.

Ashvins, leading lights of nature and humanity, earth and heaven, sages and scholars, true it is as they say you are the harbingers and givers of peace and well-being. Most kind and responsive to the call of devotees, we pray, come and bring us the highest bliss on the wings of wind and light.
May these songs of praise and celebration be pleasing and exalting for the Ashvins and bring peace and prosperity for us, the songs which we conceive, design and structure like chariots of power and felicity while we compose words of yajnic homage in ecstasy.

Mandala 5/Sukta 74

Ashvins Devata, Paura Atreya Rshi

1. Kūṣṭho devāvaśvinā’dyā divo manāvasū.
   Tacchrawatho vṛṣaṇvasū atrirvāmā vivāsati.

Divinities of the earth, Ashvins, rich at heart, abiding in the mind, harbingers of showers of wealth from the heights of heaven, Atri, the sagely celebrant who enjoys three-fold freedom of body, mind and soul today prays in service to you. Pray listen to him.

2. Kuha tyā kuha nu śrutā diva nāsatyā.
   Kasminnā yatatho jane ko vāṁ nāḍināṁ sacā.

Where are they? Where are they heard and renowned, the brilliant ones in heaven, ever dedicated to truth in heavenly conduct and behaviour? O brilliant divines, Ashvins, in which community do you operate? Who shares and benefits from your flowing rivers and rolling oceans?

Who do you go to? To what course or goal? For what purpose do you harness your chariot? Whose songs do you love to hear and enjoy? We love and felicitate you for our cherished desire.

O citizen, you proceed to the citizen in deep waters and resume and raise him to new life for the citizen and the coming generation for the extension of their action and achievement already made and like a lion even jump into the den of hate and enmity to protect and promote them.

Like a physician and surgeon you discard the debility of age like an old and worn out garment when you renew it back to youth which could be fascinating even for the love of a damsel.

(So does a dynamic society change over i.e., retire, and aging person from an exacting public position to replace him with a young, energetic, intelligent man capable of take him over the onerous duty and responsibilities of a youthful nation.)

Here for sure is your dedicated devotee and celebrant. We abide within your eye sight for the sake of the beauty and grace of life. Listen to us and come with your modes of protection, Ashvins, who command treasures of food, energy and the forces of renewal, rejuvenation and advancement.

Who of the many many mortals today could win your love and favour, O favourite celebrities of the saints and scholars? Which one of the wisest? Which one at last could win your recognition and favour, O commanders of the treasures of food, energy, wealth, power and the forces of life? By all yajñas at his command, could he? Probably, for sure may be.

8. आ वां रथ रथानां यष्ट्रा यात्रविशिवा।
   पुरुष चिददस्मयुस्तिर आंडगुष्णा मत्यष्वा॥ ८ ॥

Ashvins, leading lights for humanity, may your chariot, fastest of all, adorable among mortals, victorious over many negativities, hate and enmities, be directed hitherward, reach us and take us across the oceans. (Let us create the chariots as divine gifts and sail over the oceans across the skies.)

9. श्रमू षु वां मधूयुवाच्चमार्कमस्तु चकृति:।
   अवाचीना विचतत्सा विचिन्द्र: श्ययुवर्म दीयतम॥ ९ ॥

Ashvins, leading lights, masters of speed and direction, creators of the honey sweets of life, may that creation, invention and achievement of yours be ours, adorable for our good. Most modern intellectuals, eminent scientists of imagination, give us the chariot with wings to fly with the birds, by winds like the eagle, and shine.

10. आश्विन्य यद्वो चं चिद्चत्त्रायांतिम्यं हरवम।
    वसव्रूस्तु षु वां भुजेऽ प्रज्ञन्ति सु वां पृच्छ॥ १० ॥

Ashvins, leading lights of humanity, wherever you be and whatever you do, please listen to this invocation, adoration and invitation of ours to live and justify existence, and please know: All your plans and actions for peace, prosperity and progress in life fructify in full, all your ambitions are fulfilled. We love and admire you and all those who work together to realise our dreams.

Ashvins Devata, Avasyu Atreya Rshi

Ashvins, leading lights of humanity, the celebrant visionary of life’s reality and mantric meaning, adores your achievement in befitting words of song in response to the beauty of your dearest chariot which is the carrier and harbinger of showers of wealth and well being. O creators and makers of the sweets of existence, the celebrant prays: Listen to my song of adoration and accept the invitation to live and create the joy of life.

2. Atyāyātamaśvinā tiro viśvā aham sanā. Dasrā hirṇyavartanī susumna sindhuvaḥasā mādhwī mama śrutāṁ havām.

Ashvins, leading lights of life in existence, destroyers of suffering, harbingers of peace and prosperity, creators of honey sweets, listen to my prayer: Come over regions of earth across the spaces, travelling by golden chariots over golden highways, navigating by rivers and oceans, so that I may cross all hurdles of existence and live as the immortal that I am.

3. Ā no ratnāni bibhratāvaśvinā gacchataṁ yuvam. Rudrā hirñavartanī juśāṇā vājinīvasū mādhwī mama śrutam havam.

Ashvins, come you both to us, bearing jewel wealths of life; come, O Rudras, dispensers of justice and punishment, travelling by golden chariot over golden highways, loving and listening partners, givers of food, energy and speedy progress, creators of the sweets of life, come in response to our invocation and listen to our prayer.

Ashvins, harbingers of the showers of wealth and joy, haven of the abundant and generous, the celebrant is delighted in your chariot and feels elevated. His song is dedicated to you, and he, mighty strong, handsome of body, seeker of your favour and purity, prepares the offering of homage for you. O creators and givers of the sweets of life, listen to my prayer and praise.

Ashvins, leaders and guides of enlightened mind, travelling far and fast by chariot, responsive to praise and prayer, you reach the sincere searching man of holy mind free from duplicity as by flight of birds. O creators and givers of honey sweets, listen to my invocation.

Ashvins, leaders and pioneers of adventurous men, may your horses, flying birds, controlled by thought, consuming burnt fuel, bring you hither with gifts of peace and well being for a drink of the soma of success and splendour. O creators and harbingers of honey sweets, listen to my prayer.

Ashvins, come hither, noble masters, indomitable leaders ever dedicated to truth. Even if you are far away, pray do not be indifferent, slacken not the reins, cross over the winding paths and come. O creators and givers of honey sweets, listen to my prayer.

8. Asmin yajñe adâbhyā jaritāram ūbhhaspatī. Avasyum-aśvinā yuvam grñantamupa bhūṣatho mādhvī mama śrutaṁ havam.

   In this yajña of creation, invention and production for social good, O masters, indomitable Ashvins, twin protectors and promoters of creative people and noble works, come and grace the celebrant, supplicant with songs of homage for protection and patronage. O creators and givers of showers of honey sweets, listen to my prayer.

9. Abhūduṣā ruṣat-paśurāgnir-adhāyyṛtvīyah. Ayoji vāṁ vṛṣaṇvasū ratho dasrāvamartyo mādhvī mama śrutaṁ havam.

   The dawn is risen. The holy fire, giver of shining wealth, is placed in the vedi according to the season. Your chariot, Ashvins, is in harness, invincible and immortal. O destroyers of hate and suffering and givers of showers of wealth and honey sweets, come, listen to my prayer.
1. Ā bhātyagnir-uṣasāmanīkam-ud viprāṇāṁ devayā vāco asthuḥ. Arvāṅcā nūnāṁ rathyeha yātāṁ pipivāṁsām-aśvinā gharman-accha.

The holy fire of the sun shines here while the splendour of the dawn radiates as advance forces of the solar fire, and the holy voices of the sages arise in adoration. O Ashvins, vitalities of divinity, reach here by chariot of the dawn and join the rising fire of the house-hold yajna of noble men and women.

Ashvins, divinities of nature and humanity, most auspicious harbingers of peace and joy, invoked and invited to the yajna here, celebrated and adored, coming at the fastest, almost instantly reaching with protection and promotion at the rise of the day, you do not destroy, nor restrict, nor confine what has been refined, seasoned and sanctified by yajna. In fact, you bring safety and security against adversity and self-betrayal for the generous yajamana at his closest.
3. \textit{Utā yātāṁ saṁgave prātar-ahno madhyāndina uditā śūryasya. Divā naktam-avasā śaṁtamena nedānāṁ pītiraśvinā titāna.}

And this exuberance of yajnic celebration and joy is not confined to the present moment only, it extends over days and nights. Come Ashvins, divinities of nature and nobilities of men and women, come at the rise of dawn, at mid day when the sun is risen up on high, in the evening when the cows come home. Come all day and night with your gifts of safety and security, peace and joy.

4. \textit{Idaṁ hi vāṁ pradivi sthānamoka ime grhā aśvinedaṁ duroāṇam. Ā no divo bhṛhataḥ parvata-tādā’dbhyo yātām-iṣamūrjaṁ vahantā.}

Ashvins, harbingers of light, enlightened men and women, this house, these inmates, this open door home, all this is your ancient abode in the very light of heaven. Come here, bearing and bringing for us nutriments and energy from the vast regions of light and space, cloud and mountains, and from the waters of earth and space.

5. \textit{Samaśvinor-avasā nutanena mayobhuvā supra-ṇīti gamema. Ā no rayim vahatamota vīrān-ā viśvānya-mṛtā saubhagāṇi.}

Ashvins, leading lights of divinity, scholars, scientists and engineers, your chariot comes hither laden with gold, honey sweet and charming, bringing showers of water and ghṛt, carrying wealth of food and energy. It is fast as mind and powerful as wind and storm by which you cross over all hurdles and evils of the world.

One who serves and works with the Ashvins, leading lights of divinity and humanity, all free from untruth and falsehood, achieves by his creative works abundant cherished food. He shares the food and success with others in yajnic living, advances his rising generation by the same works, surpasses those who do not raise the sacred-fire, and always destroys the evils.

Mandala 5/Sukta 78

Ashvins Devata, Saptavadhri Atreya Rshi

1. Āśvināveha gacchatam nāsatyā mā vi venatam. Hamsāviva patatamā sutāṇ upa.

Ashvins, complementary sustainers of life as air and water, men and women, teachers and disciples, ever true to reality, come together into the world, be not ill-disposed or hostile, fly like a pair of swans hither to the distilled sweets of life.

2. Āśvinā hariṇāviva gaurāvivānu yavasam. Hamsāviva patatamā sutāṇ upa.
Ashvins, twin harbingers and sharers of divine love and joy, come like a couple of golden deer, like a pair of white fawns to the cherished green, fly like a couple of swans hither to share the distilled soma of joys with us.

3. Aśvinā vājiniṇavasū juṣṭhāṁ yajñamiṣṭaye.
Haiṁśāvīva patatamā sutāṁ upa.

Ashvins, twin divines like teachers and researchers, creators and developers of food and energy for speed and progress, come and join our programme of development for the realisation of our cherished goals. Fly like a couple of swans to the pleasures of life’s achievement.

5. Vi jihśva vanaspate yonih sūṣyantyā iva. Śrutāṁ me aśvinā havāṁ saptavadhriṁ ca muñcatam.

O man, spirit of desire, as the baby on maturity leaves the folds of the mother’s womb, so give up the bonds of mortality to freedom. O Ashvins, harbingers of knowledge and freedom, listen to my call of prayer, release saptavadhri, the spirit that has lived out the fivefold sense experience and the two-fold adventure of thought and desire.

Ashvins, complementary powers of evolution, discrimination and vision, for the man in fear of existence, for the supplicant in sufferance, for the sage of vision, and for the man of sevenfold bondage of sense and mind, for all these, with your divine powers, let the tree of life seed and grow well for experience and then let it fall off for the soul’s freedom.

Expectant mother, just as the breeze of life feeds and vibrates the pool of lotus life all round, so may your foetus in the womb vibrate with life and growth and be born when it matures in ten months.
8. Yathā vāto yathā vanamī yathā samudra ejati.

   Evā tvam daśamāsya sahāvehi jarāyunā.

   O baby in the womb, just as the breeze, as the forest, as the sea ripples with vitality, so may you vibrate and move in the womb and, maturing in ten months, be born along with the sheath of life.

9. Daśa māśāṅchaśayāṇah kumāro adhi mātari.

   Niraitu ājīvo aksato ājīvo ājīvantyā adhi.

   Let the individual soul reposing in the mother’s womb for ten months be born as the baby, healthy and unhurt, in the mother’s state of good health and perfect life and live on as extension of the mother beyond her life.

Usha Devata, Satyashrava Atreya Rshi

1. Mahe no adya bodhayoṣo rāye dividitmaī. Yathā cinno abodhayah satyaśravasi vāyye sujāte aśvasūnṛte.

   O dawn, lady of morning light brilliant with splendour, arouse us and enlighten us today for the achievement of grandeur, wealth and excellence of life.
as you have been the giver of enlightenment and generosity ever before, O majesty of renown, symbol of life’s extension, nobly born, commander of the nation’s power, achievement and love of noble truth.

(Swami Dayananda interprets this mantra as an address to the lady of the house.)

 Daughter of the light of heaven, lady of justice and moral guidance who ride a chariot of pure brilliance, as you have shone before, so may you ever shine now and after in future, O lady, forbearing and challenging, renowned for truth and righteousness, extensive, nobly born and blest with prosperity, achievement and discrimination between truth and untruth of thought and speech.

 May she, daughter of the light of heaven, harbinger of all wealth, establish us today in the light of life. She is most forbearing, dedicated to truth and prosperity, lovable, nobly born, the enlightened lady of knowledge and eternal truth who herself shines in as you have been the giver of enlightenment and generosity ever before, O majesty of renown, symbol of life's extension, nobly born, commander of the nation's power, achievement and love of noble truth.

4. Abhi ye tvā vibhāvari stomairgrñanti vahnayāḥ. Maghair-maghoni suśriyo dāmanvantāḥ surā-tayaḥ sujāte aśvasūṇte.

O lady of light, glorious dawn, nobly born, enlightened and dedicated to eternal truth and noble achievement, those celebrants who are rich and generous and command the beauty of grace and heat of fire in dedication and adore you with holy songs of praise and liberal gifts of yajna deserve and enjoy your favour for advancement.

5. Yacciddhi te gaṇā ime chadayanti maghattaye. Pari cid vaṣṭayo dadhur-dadato rādho ahrayam sujāte aśvasūṇte.

O lady of light, nobly born and enlightened, truthful and progressive, these celebrants of yours who adore you for gifts of wealth and splendour receive, hold and command creditable means, materials and wealth for success while, loving and shining, they give lots in charity.

6. Aiṣu dhā vīravad yaśa uṣo maghoni sūriṣu. Ye no rādhāṃsyahrayā maghavāno arāsata sujāte aśvasūṇte.
O dawn, lady of light, nobly born, enlightened, progressive and truthful, commanding wealth and power, vest these brave and generous celebrants with honour and excellence worthy of heroes, who, blest with wealth and honour, give us means and materials for success in life which are free from discredit and shame.

O dawn, lady of light, mistress of honour and excellence, nobly born and enlightened, truthful, dynamic and progressive, bear and bring vast wealth and honour of high order for those brave celebrants who produce wealth, means and materials for success in terms of food and speed, cattle wealth and transport, progress and prosperity and in their generosity share it with us.

And O daughter of heaven, nobly born and enlightened, spirit of truth and progress, come with the rays of the sun, pure and purifying, sacred and sanctifying, and bring for us food and energy, lands and cows.
9. Vyuchchā duhitardivo mā ciraṁ tanuthā apah.

Nettā venaṁ yathā ripum tapāti sūro arciṣā sujāte aśvasūnṛte.

Daughter of the light of heaven, nobly born and enlightened, truthful and progressive, rise and shine, and let us shine too. Do not procrastinate, do not protract your sacred act, accomplish the act and rise. Just as the ruler punishes the thief and the enemy, just as the sun burns dry grass with its heat of light, that way let no one torment you.

10. Etāvad veduṣastvaṁ bhūyo vā dātumarhasi. Yaṁ stotṛbhyo vibhāvaryucchanti na pramīyase sujāte aśvasūnṛte.

O dawn, lady of light, nobly born and enlightened, ever true and progressive, brilliant and enlightening, such you are and more competent and pleased to give to your dedicated celebrants, whom you never neglect, never frustrate, but ever bless and promote higher and higher.

Mandala 5/Sukta 80

Usha Devata, Satyashrava Atreya Rshi

Saints and sages with holy mind and hymns of adoration honour and celebrate the divine dawn, crimson hued, shining brilliant, grand and sublime, illuminating hours of time and regions of space, observing universal law of eternity by simple natural conduct, and bringing the morning light and bliss of the sun.

This glorious dawn, vast and great, goes forward riding her mighty chariot, arousing humanity from sleep, lighting up easy paths for movement, all illuminative, giving light in advance of the day.

Harnessing the crimson rays of the sun to her chariot, she goes unerringly, assiduously, creating unfailing wealth of light and rejuvenation. Marking paths of movement for the good of the people, the divine dawn shines, loved and adored by the people as the source of universal good.

2. This glorious dawn, vast and great, goes forward riding her mighty chariot, arousing humanity from sleep, lighting up easy paths for movement, all illuminative, giving light in advance of the day.

3. Harnessing the crimson rays of the sun to her chariot, she goes unerringly, assiduously, creating unfailing wealth of light and rejuvenation. Marking paths of movement for the good of the people, the divine dawn shines, loved and adored by the people as the source of universal good.

4. Revealing her body of light from the east, this lady of light radiates fast on both sides right and left over day and night. It follows the path of eternal law and, knowing well everything in nature, it neither violates nor goes astray over the quarters of space.

5. The sacred dawn, revealing her radiant majesty like the lady of light for us to see and admire, this daughter of the sun stands above pure and sanctified as if doing her morning ablutions and, dispelling hate and darkness, warding off negativities, she walks with her train of splendour.

6. Yonder stands this daughter of heaven like a maiden, holy and inspiring to the best of men, and then moves to the west, revealing the day’s phases of her splendour and opening up new possibilities of cherished achievements for the generous man of yajnic action. Ever bright and youthful, she thus moves the daily rounds of light anew as ever before since times immemorial.

Note: Swami Dayananda gives an extended interpretation of the Dawn by implication: He interprets Usha as the newly married woman rising like the dawn over the world of her new home, bringing new light and new possibilities of life’s achievements. The wedding of the couple is a new morning for the family, life moves on, new phases of the day move on westward, new generations follow, life goes on and on like the daily round of night and day. The sun remains the same, days and nights are new. Life remains the same, the phases are new. The bride is holy, sacred, inspiring, worthy of love, respect and reverence.

1. Yuñjate mana uta yuñjate dhiyo viprā viprasya bṛhato vipaścitaḥ. Vi hotrā dadhe vayunāvideka inmahī devasya savituh pariṣṭutih.

   Enlightened sages concentrate their mind and senses and meditate on the infinite, omniscient and vibrant omnipresence of Divinity who alone as sole power and ruler knows and governs all the laws and ways and facts of existence and watches, rules and dispenses the karma of yajakas and others. Great indeed is the glory, and high the praise of Savita, lord of life and self-refulgent giver of light.

1. Yuṣjate mana uta yuṣjate dhiyo vipraṁ vipraṁ bhaṭato vipaścitaṁ. Vi hotrāṁ dadhe vayunāvṛdhaṁ inmahāṁ devasya savitāṁ pariṣutiṁ.

Enlightened sages concentrate their mind and senses and meditate on the infinite, omniscient and vibrant omnipresence of Divinity who alone as sole power and ruler knows and governs all the laws and ways and facts of existence and watches, rules and dispenses the karma of yajakas and others. Great indeed is the glory, and high the praise of Savita, lord of life and self-refulgent giver of light.

2. Viśvā rūpāṇi prati muñcate kaviḥ prāsāvid bhadram dvpade catuspade. Vi nākamakhyat savitā vareṇyo'nau prayāṇamuṣas ao vi rājati.

The omniscient creator, eternal poet and maker, creates and pervades all forms of existence and produces all good things for the well being of humans and animals. He, Savita, creator and energiser, lord of love worthy of our choice, manifests and illuminates the heaven of light and joy, inspires the rise of the dawn with light and rules and shines the sun and after.

Savita is the lord of life, creator, self-refulgent, all pervasive, whose majesty, Law and ways, all other powers of nature and humanity with all their potential follow, the lord omnipresent who, with his grandeur and omnipotence, creates, pervades and transcends all regions of the universe.

Savita, lord of light and life, you pervade and illuminate three orders of light, sun, moon and electric energy and love to play with the sun’s rays. You envelop the night at both ends and, with your laws and function, O lord self-refulgent, you become the friend and measure of everything.

5. Uteśiṣe prasavasya tvameka iduta pūṣā bhavasi deva yāmabhiḥ. Utedaṁ viśvaṁ bhuvanaṁ vi rājasi śyāvāśvaste savitaḥ stomamānaṣe.

Savita, spirit of life and inspiration, self-refulgent giver of light, you alone by yourself rule over the world of existence. O generous and self-refulgent lord, by every stage of evolution in order of time you remain the giver of light and nourishment for growth. And you pervade, illuminate and rule over this entire world of existence so that the sun itself receives light and adoration by virtue of your light of illumination.
Mandala 5/Sukta 82
Savita Devata, Shyavashva Atreya Rshi

1. Tat saviturvṛṇīmahe vayaṁ devasya bhojanam. Šreṣṭham sarvadhātamaṁ turam bhagasya dhīmahi.

We choose to pray to the lord creator Savita for his love and favour so that we may receive the highest, all sustaining and all victorious glory of the lord self-refulgent and omnipotent.

Whoever it be, whoever might try, no one can violate or impair the self-glorious dear absolute dominion of lord Savita’s divine freedom.

3. Sa hi ratnāni dāṣuṣe suvāti savitā bhagaḥ. Tam bhāgam citramīmahe.

Only Savita, lord of power, honour and excellence, creates and augments the jewel wealths of life for the man of yajnic generosity. We pray we may know and receive his favour and grace for a share of that wonderful glory.

O generous lord Savita, create for us here and now honour and good fortune full of noble people and progeny. Drive away bad dreams and ward off dreamy ambitions.

5. Viśvāni deva savitarduritāni parā suva.
Yad bhadram tanna ā suva.

O lord Savita, ward off and sterilise all the evils of the world. Grant us that which is good. Vitalise, energise and promote all that is good.

अनागसा अदितय दुवस्य सवितुः सुव।
विश्वार चामानिर धीमहि॥ ६॥

6. Anāgaso aditaye devasya savitūḥ save.
Viśvā vāmāni dhīmahi.

Free from sin and evil in the yajnic world of lord Savita’s creation, we pray, we may receive the cherished gifts of life in service of the mother, mother earth and nature.

आ विश्वदेवं सत्वतं सूक्तविया वृणीमह।
सत्वसनें सवितारम॥ ७॥

7. Ā viśvadevaṁ saptatimi sūktairadyā vṛṇīmahe.
Satyasavaṁ savitāram.
With songs of adoration we worship and celebrate lord Savita, cosmic yajaka of eternity, self-refulgent generous father inviolable protector and sustainer of the world of existence.

8. Ya ime ubhe ahanī pura etyaprayucchan.
   Svādhīrdevaḥ savitā.

   We adore and worship self-refulgent, self-existent lord of creation, Savita, who transcends both the day and night of existence and self-abides without relent.

9. Ya ima visvā jātānyāśrāvayati ślokena.
   Pra ca suvāti savitā.

   We invoke and adore lord Savita who informs all these born ones by his Word, who creates and inspires them all, without exception.

Mandala 5/Sukta 83

Parjanya Devata, Atri Bhauma Rshi

1. Acchā vada tavasam gīrbhirābhīḥ stuhi parjanyaṁ namasā vivāsa. Kanikradad vṛṣabho jīrādānū reto dadhātyoṣadhiṣu garbham.

   Hail the mighty cloud well with these holy words of song, serve, celebrate and energise it with homage in yajna for peace and a happy home. Roaring and thundering with passion, the virile cloud, giver of life and freshness, impregnates the herbs with the seed of generation.

2. Vi vrksan hantyuta hanti rakasos visvam bibhaiya bhuvanam mahavidhata. Utanagai isate vrsnyavato yat parjanyah stanayan hanti duskritah.

The cloud shakes the trees, destroys the demons whom the whole world fears, and when it roars and releases the water of rain pregnant with life, it kills the evil doers with the terrible bolt and saves the sinless and the generous forces of life.

3. Rathiva kasyasyav an abhikshipannavirdutvan krntve varsy an aha. Durat simhasya stanathau dirate yat parjanyah krntve varsyam nabha.

Indeed like a charioteer urging on the horses by the whip, the cloud condenses and intensifies the rain carrier showers down to the earth, and, for that, when it strikes the ocean of vapours in the sky with thunder to turn it into rain, the space resounds from far like the roar of a lion.

Fast and fresh blow the winds, lightnings flash, herbs spring up, the sky swells and overflows, food grows, spirits arise and songs resound over the world when the cloud fertilises the earth with the showers of life.

O cloud, rain shower of life and fertility, in consequence of your commitment to the laws of sun and shower, the earth submits and surrenders, the animal stirs with passion and fire, the herbs burst forth in all forms of life. O cloud, such as you are, give us a great home of peace, joy and excellence.

May the Maruts, windy currents of energy, bring us rain from the regions of the sun. May the mighty cloud showers of fertility bring us growth. O cloud, harbinger of vitality come down here with showers of rain flooding the earth and giving us breath of life and sustenance like a father.

Thunder and roar, O cloud, bring the vitalities of life and fertilise the earth for generation. Go far and wide by chariot run on water, draw the reservoir of waters released unto yourself, and conduct them downward so that the upward vapours may be brought down in showers.

The sun holds the mighty reservoir of vapours up on high, the cloud pours it down in showers. Let the lakes and rivers flow with waters released to freedom. O cloud, fill the earth and sky with water so that there may be ample food and water for the cows.
9. Yat parjanya kanikradat stanayan hamisi duṣkṛtaḥ. Praśīdaṁ viśvam mode yat kīṁ ca pṛthivyāmadhi.

When the cloud roars and thunders and destroys all the negativities which do evil, then in response to the cleansing and vitalising rain this entire humanity and all else that is on earth rejoices in celebration.

Pour down the showers, O cloud, take over the earth for generation, fertilise the thirsting lands for growth, produce herbs and plants and trees for food of the people, and win the thanks of a grateful humanity.

Mandala 5/Sukta 84

Prthivi Devata, Atri Bhauma Rshi

1. Balitthā parvatānāṁ khidraṁ bibharsi prthivi. Pra yā bhūmim pravatvati mahā jinoṣi mahini.

Truly, O terrestrial mother, revered earth, you bear the thunder breaker of the clouds, bear the burden of mountain ranges, hold on the flood of rivers and contain the rolling oceans. O mighty one on the onward move, you are the one who thus with your great power and force rule and sustain the land and her people.

2. Stomāsastvā vicāriṇī prati śṛobhantyaktubhiḥ.
   Pra yā vājaṁ na hreśantaiṁ perumasyasyarjuni.

   O moving one, the celebrants adore you day and night with songs, you, O bright one, who shake and impel the roaring cloud like a war horse onward to victory.

3. Drīhā cid yā vanaspaṭīṁ kṣmayā dardharsyō-jasā.
   Yat te abhṛasya vidyuto divo varṣanti vṛṣṭayāḥ.

   Surely you are strong and firm who, with your strength and splendour, sustain the herbs and trees, since the rains of wealth and sustenance shower for you down from the thunder and lightning of the regions of light.

Mandala 5/Sukta 85

Varuna Devata, Atri Bhauma Rshi

   Offer homage and reverence of the highest and deepest order full of love to Varuna, the one sovereign ruler and lord of love and judgement over all, who hammered and shaped the earth into form and, like the host of a yajna of peace and non-violence, overspread the earth with the atmosphere as a protective and promotive cover as a shield for the sun, as protection against heat for the sake of generative power and fertility. His divine voice resounds across the universe.

Vaneṣu vyantarikṣam tatāna vājamarvatsu paya usriyāsu. Ḫṛtsu krtum varuṇo apsvagnim divi sūryamadadhāt somamadrau.

Varuna, lord of love and judgement for life, extensively vested sap in vegetation, energy in horses and others that move, milk in cows, faith, love and will to act in the hearts, vitality in waters, sun in heaven and soothing joy in the cloud and soma plant on the mountain.

Nīcinavāraṁ varuṇaḥ kabandham pra sasārja rodasī antarikṣam. Tena viśvasya bhuvanasya rājā yavam na vṛṣṭirvyunattī bhūma.

Varuna brings into existence heaven, earth and the middle region of the sky, and he forms the cloud for shower on the earth down below. By that the sovereign ruler of the whole universe, the supreme, brings about the rain which fertilises the earth as it nourishes the Varuna fills the earth and sky and the regions of the sun with vapour when he desires to create the milk of life, thereafter the clouds are laden with vapour, and then forceful currents of wind energy strike the clouds from within and release the showers of rain.

5. Imāmū śvāsurasya śrutasya mahīm māyāṁ varuṇasya pra vocam. Māneneva tasthivāṁ antrikṣe vi yo mame pṛthivīṁ sūryeṇa.

This marvellous omnipotence of the renowned life giver Varuna, I celebrate in words, who pervades the space and, abiding in the middle regions of the universe, marks out the earth as if by measure, purpose and design, and creates it from the sun.

This great power of the most creative lord, who can challenge and violate? None, just as all the streams and rivers flooding the lands and rushing on do not fill the ocean with water.

   Indra and Agni, divine power and knowledge, celestial and terrestrial energy of electricity and fire, both ruler and enlightened leaders, whosoever the mortal you protect, guide and promote, he breaks through massive obstructions in the battle business of life, and wins his way to wealth, honour and splendour, just like the sagely scholar of threefold freedom of body, mind and soul who penetrates through three layers of language, vaikhari, madhyama and pashyanti, i.e., word, thought and deep memory, and reaches the vision of the para, the supreme Word and silence of Divinity.

2. Yā pṛtanāsu duṣṭarā yā vājeṣu śravāyyā.
   Yā pañca carṣaṇīrabhīdrāgni tā havāmahe.

   We adore and solicit Indra and Agni which, among the forces of life, are indomitable, in the battles for power and prosperity, admirable, and among the five orders of society and among the five pranic energies are of prime importance.

From energies, by scholars is received strength, energy and power, materials for yajnic investment and development, ghṛta, delicacies, like water showers sanctified by the clouds. May they, we pray, bring and bestow upon the scholars and celebrants high renown and abundant wealth, may they bring and bestow upon the admirers food and energy for a happy life.

Maruts Devata, Evayamarut Atreya Rshi

1. Pra vo mahe matayo yantu viṣṇave marutvate girijā evayāmarut. Pra śardhāya prayajyave sukhādaye tavase bhandadiṣṭaye dhunivratāya śavase.

O vibrant man of vision, all ye men and women, let all your songs and flights of thought and vision born of the voice of the heart reach Vishnu, all pervasive lord, commander of the winds and warriors, indomitable, highly majestic, adorable and cooperative, blissfully appreciative, relentlessly active and absolute in justice and power.

Evayamarut, O vibrant visionary and celebrant of the Maruts, these warriors and pioneers of humanity are self-made, risen by themselves who proclaim themselves through their knowledge and self-awareness. O Maruts, stormy leaders, that power and force of yours is unchallengeable by virtue of your noble acts, grandeur and generosity. O men, their force is indomitable, they are inviolable, unshakable like mountains.

Evayamarut, O celebrant of the Maruts, they hear the voice of Divinity from the light of heaven, they are heard by their voice from the heights of heaven. Pure and brilliant, they live in holiness and felicity. No tyrant, impeller or compeller, can bend them in their right and abode. Self-refulgent like the flames of fire, they radiate, they make the winds blow and set the rivers aflow.

He, Evayamarut, Vishnu, lord of infinite action and commander of the Maruts, universal energies, transcends by infinite possibility the great constant, central and universal seat of his presence, that is, this universe. When evayamarut, the man of vision, master of his senses and faculties, connects with the lord by heart and soul by the guidance of dynamic teachers and preachers, unenvious and brilliant, he rises from his own state of existence and joins the lord omnipotent of infinite felicity.

Like the rumble of the Big Bang of creation, may the lord of the Maruts, Vishnu, shake you, O men and women of the world, shine you and inspire you, the lord omnipresent, generous, self-refulgent, omnipotent, everfelt in the heart, by virtue of whom the Maruts, natural energies and pioneers of humanity shining by themselves, unshaken yet dynamic like rays of the sun, golden gloried, self-armed and nobly ambitious, stand the challenges of existence and achieve their end and aim.

Unbounded is your greatness, O heroes of ancient might. May your brilliant power protect and promote evayamarut, vibrant sage of vision and knowledge. In the heat of battle when missiles are shot, stay firm in the open view unshaken. Such as you are, O Maruts, blazing as flames of fire, protect us against the maligners and the revilers.

7. Te rudrāsaḥ sumakhā agnayo yathā tuviḍyumnā avantvevayāmarut. Dīrgham prthu paprathe sadma pārthiṇāṁ yeṣām-ajmeśvā mahaḥ śardhāṁ-syadbhutinasāṁ Heroes of the winds, scholars of the middle order, dispensers of justice and punishment, performers of holy creative actions, commanding power and glory like flames of fire may protect and promote us and the sagely scholar of vision and dynamic performance. Wide and lofty grows the earthly abode of humanity by virtue of those whose grandeur grows high and onslaughts grow terrible in the battles against the evil and wickedness of unimaginable order.

8. Adveśo no maruto gātumetana śrotā havam jairituryevarāmarut. Viṣṇormahāḥ samanyavo yuyotana smad rathyo na daṁsanā'pa dveśāṁsi sanutaḥ.

O lord, people both simple and learned, glorify you on earth, people’s wealth both material and spiritual exalts you. Pray, O lord, you be the people’s protector and saviour toward their success and freedom, giver of light in their heart and soul, father, mother and the ultimate home of humanity.

That Agni worthy of yajnic service and, affectionate, yajaka and giver of yajnic gifts, rejoicing provider of happiness abides among people as adorable presence. O lord, in a posture of reverence and faith, with homage and surrender, we pray, let us be seated in the home where you ever shine in your refulgence.

Agni, adorable giver of light, we, blest with holy intelligence and aspiring for well being and light of divinity, pray that you, shining with universal light and knowledge, lead the people to the state of enlightenment and freedom.

We celebrate and exalt Agni, giver of light and wisdom, visionary creator, ruler and protector of the people who never go out of existence, destroyer of suffering, generous benefactor of the people, inspiring leader for progress and development, holy purifier, refulgent power and adorable guide for the sake of wealth, honour and excellence.

Agni, giver of light and life, that man does honour and worship to you who brings and offers you yajna with sacred fuel and holy materials, who knows what to offer and offers the oblations with faith and surrender. Such a man protected and promoted by you is blest with honour and admirable capacity for action.

Agni, refulgent giver of light and power and knowledge, which overspreads heaven and earth with light, also renowned for gifts of sustenance and energy, is the saving power for life. O refulgent power, shine for us more and ever more with abundant and expansive gifts of food and energy and stable forms of wealth and power.

O father and guardian of humanity, Agni, giver of life and beneficence, give us a blessed home for our children and grand children, full of material and cattle wealth, abundant and expansive food and energy, freedom from sin and evil, where there may be ample means of well being, honour and excellence.

Agni, O leading light of life and humanity, brilliant by virtue of knowledge, power and generosity, may we by your kindness and grace obtain wealth and prosperity of various kinds and orders. O giver of knowledge, power and excellence, Agni, universally loved and adored, infinite are your gifts of wealth abiding in your dominion which you hold in treasure for the dedicated supplicant.

You alone people adore with yajnic acts and songs of praise. The warlike, the non-violent, the mover of the skies, the all watchful, everyone comes to you.

3. Sajoṣastvā divo naro yajñasya ketumindhate.
Yaddha sya mānuṣo janaḥ sumnāyurjuhve adhvare.

Loving and friendly people, leading lights of humanity, all of one accord, kindle and light you, the light and symbol of yajna, for which reason the rational communities aspiring for peace and well being invoke and invite you to their noble programmes of love and non-violence.

ऋध्रुद्यस्त सुदानव धिया मतः श्राष्मत।
उत्ती ष बृहत्ता दिवा द्विषा अंहा न तरति॥ ४ ॥

Úṭī śa bṛhato divo dviṣo aṅho na tarati.

The man who with his intelligence and holy action serves, worships and offers homage to you and thus promotes you, generous giver, he enjoys peace and prosperity under protection of the vast heaven and crosses over all hate and jealousy as well as sin and evil.

5. Samidhā yasta āhutiṁ niśitiṁ martyo naṣat.
Vayāvantamāṁ sa puṣyati kṣayamagne śatāyuṣam.

The mortal who responds to your urgent call and with holy fuel offers you intense and abundant oblations of yajna obtains and prospers in a happy home for a hundred years.

6. Tveṣaste dhūma ṛṣṇvati divi ṣaṅchukra ātataḥ.
Sūro na hi dyutā tvam kṛpā pāvaka rocase.

Shining bright and rising high, your flames and fragrance reach unto the height of heaven. O pure and purifying fire, with light and splendour you shine like the sun.

7. Adhā hi vikṣvīḍyo’śi priyo no atithiḥ.
Raṇvah purīva jūryah sūnurna trayayāyyah.

O light and fire of life, you are adorable among the people, welcome to us like a cherished guest, delightful like a venerable senior in the sacred city, darling as a child running to the parent for protection and security.

8. Kratvā hi drome aıyase’gne vājī na kṛtvyah.
Parijmeva svadhā gayo’tyo na hvāryah śiśuḥ.

Agni, holy light and fire, you manifest by attrition in the wood, by yajna in the home, active, sportive and restive like a courser, moving everywhere like wind, soothing and satisfying as food, intimate as self will, comfortable as home, vibrant as a wave of energy and pure and innocent as a baby.

Dhāmā ha yat te ajara vanā vṛścanti śikvasah.

Agni, eternal light and fire of existence, for all those solid objects of existence, apparently imperishable regions of the universe, you are as the bull is for the grass since, O lord of eternity, your mighty flames of annihilation consume them as the bull consumes the grass.

Samṛdho viśpate kṛṇu juṣasva havyam-aṅgirah.

Angira, vital fire of life pervading every limb of the body, breath of life vibrating in every part of the universe, eternal highpriest of cosmic yajna, enter, pervade and bless the home of the devotees conducting the yajna of love and non-violence. O lord protector and ruler of the people, make them prosperous, accept and enjoy their holy offering.

11. *Acchā no mitramahā deva devānagne vocaḥ

O most adorable friend, venerable and refulgent light of the world, speak well to the noble and brilliant holy men of the eternal Word of universal knowledge and wisdom of heaven and earth. Bear and bring prosperity and well being on the blessed earth in happy homes to the loving and dedicated people. We pray help us cross over all sins and evil, hate and jealousy. Let us cross over all negativities and undesirables, cross over all of them, cross over to the life divine by your protection and grace.

Mandala 6/Sukta 3

Agni Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

1. Agne sa kṣeṣadṛtapā rtejā uru jyotirnaśate devayuṣte. Yaṁ tvaṁ mitrena varuṇah sajoṣāḥ deva pāṣi tyajasā martamaṅhaḥ.
Agni, leading light and ruler of the world, guardian of Truth and Law, manifesting in truth and law and the fire and fragrance of yajna, that mortal man lives in peace who protects the truth and abides in truth, and he receives the gift of your infinite light and grace who loves Divinity and noble humanity, and whom you, O lord of love and justice, loving, kind and generous father, with loving care and merciful justice, you protect and save by abandonment of sin and evil.

If the mortal does good to others with humility and yajna, lives in peace with auspicious acts of holiness, and does service to Agni, giver of success and prosperity, with acts of charity and self surrender, then, for sure, neither want of honour and glory, nor sin and evil, nor pride and arrogance can ever touch him.

The holy sight of Agni, leading light of humanity, like the sun, and the message of thought and wisdom of the brilliant light that radiates, is pure and immaculate, and yet it is awesome and comes as terrible to the vitiated. Indeed wherever the source and abode of this blazing destroyer of the night of darkness and of his prophetic voice be, as that of light in sunrays and of fire in the wood, it is delightful and elevating.

Sharp is his path like the razor’s edge we may like to follow, great his form and appearance shining brilliant, open his mouth self-controlled as the horse’s, sharp his tongue as an axe, and he melts rigidities like a smelter and burns wooden prejudices like fire.

Free from dead wood, he shoots his target like an archer freely. He sharpens his blaze like the edge of an axe. Swift and wonderful in speed, relentless in work, he discards rest and slow speed of movement like a bird of flight flying off from the branch of the tree of his night’s rest.
6. Sa īṁ rebho na prati vasta usrāḥ śociṣā rārapūti mitramahāḥ. Naktaṁ ya īmaruṣo yo divā nṛṇ-amartyo aruṣo yo divā nṛṇ.

He, leading light of the world, wears the light of the morning sun and, in return, like crackling fire, proclaims himself with the light and blaze of the new day, being the greatest friend of humanity. Red as flames, bright as sunlight, he lights up the night of darkness and arouses humanity into the day of light, awareness and activity, being the harbinger of the immortal light of Divinity. Yes, bright and blazing, he rouses people into the light of day.

7. Divo na yasya vidhato navīnād vṛṣṭa rukṣa oṣadhiṣu nūnāt. Gṛṇā na yo dhrajasaśa patmanā yannā rodasī vasunā daṁ supatnī.

Whose presence as of the light and grace of heaven, and order, the generous cloud worships and proclaims, whose light and vitality is manifested in herbs and trees, and who, by his flight and velocity and omnipresence, vests the spaces of motherly heaven, earth and sky with the wealth of living sustenance as with his light and grace.

8. Dhāyobhirvā yo yuyeybhir-arkair-vidyunna davidyot svebhiḥ sūṣmaiḥ. Sardho vā yo marutāṁ tatakṣa ṛbhurna tveṣo rabhasāno adyaut.
Who flashes like lightning, shines with his self-refulgence and potent presence, and constantly illuminates by his manifestation by the beneficiary stars, planets and plants, by his associates and assistants, and by his celebrants and worshippers of his virtues, and who, blazing and impetuous, like the divine intelligence and maker, fashions the forms and force of the winds and the stormy powers of humanity: that is Agni, life of existence and leading light of the world.

Mandala 6/Sukta 4

Agni Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

Agni, leading light of life, ruler of the world, child of strength, source of strength and courage, yajaka and generous giver, as you do selfless yajnic service to life and Divinity like any human, so you today in our battle of life, out of love for loving and dedicated people, pray invoke the divinities of nature and nobilities of humanity to join us.

May that lord, Agni, refulgent as the sun, light of the day, adorable, worth knowing and realising, bear and bring us food for life and energy for action, that lord who is life of life, immortal among mortals, manifests like a cherished guest at dawn and knows all that is born in existence by omnipresence.

3. Dyāvo na yasya panayantyabhvam bhāsāmśi vaste sūryo na śukraḥ. Vi ya inotyajaraḥ pāvakośnasya cicchiśnathat pūrvyāṇi.

Like the lights of heaven, sages celebrate the lord’s glory. Pure and immaculate, like the sun, he wears the lights and colours of existence. Purifying like fire, he pervades the forms of the world of existence, and at the ultimate end withdraws all that existed before, and remains, ageless and eternal, the sole and absolute presence.

4. Vadmā hi sūna asyadmasadvā cakre agnirjanuśājmānnam. Sa tvam na ūrjasana ūrjam dhā rājeva jeravrake kṣēsyantah.

O inspirer of life, Agni, self-manifestive loud and bold, you are all pervasive in everything that is food for life since by nature and operation you generate both food and energy. O creator and giver of energy, bear and bring us food and energy, be victorious like a ruler and abide in peace and non-violence as an inspiration.
5. Nitikti yo vāraṇamannamatti vāyurṇa rāṣṭryatyetyaktūn. Turyāma yasta ādiśām-arātir-atyo na hrutaḥ patataḥ parihrut.

Agni sharpens his instant weapon of radiance against darkness, consumes the consumables for energy, rules over existence like breath of life, surpasses even the rays of light. O lord of radiation pervading all round by waves of omnipotence, destroyer like a superlative missile of those crooked ones who fall in its way, may we too likewise overcome those who negate your gifts of life.

6. Ā sūryo na bhānum-adbhir-arkair-agne tatantha rodāsi vi bhāsā. Citro nayat pari tamāṃsyaktaḥ śociśā patmann-auśijo na diyan.

Agni, light of life, as the sun with thunderous rays of light, so you pervade heaven and earth with splendour and majesty. Marvellous and sublime, with light radiating all round, brilliant as sublimity incarnate, you rule dispelling all kinds of darkness.

7. Tvām hi mandratamam-arkaśokair-vāvṛmahe mahi naḥ śroṣyagne. Indraṁ na tvā śavasā devatā vāyuṁ pṛṇanti rādhasā nṛtamāḥ.

Agni, light of life, as the sun with thunderous rays of light, so you pervade heaven and earth with splendour and majesty. Marvellous and sublime, with light radiating all round, brilliant as sublimity incarnate,
you rule dispelling all kinds of darkness.
Agni, lord most charming and blissful, with brilliant songs of adoration we celebrate you. Listen to our song of sublimity. Like Indra, lord of omnipotence, like Vayu, breath of life, the best of leading lights of humanity adore you with all their might and sense of fulfilment.

Agni, lord of light, wealth and bliss, with honest and loving people lead us to wealth and honour, peace and well being by paths of holiness, cleanse us of sin, blow off evil from us. That peace and joy you bestow upon brilliant and brave celebrants and upon the supplicant, bestow upon us too, we pray, so that we, blest with brave children, may rejoice for a full life of hundred years.

Mandala 6/Sukta 5

Agni Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

For you all, I invoke and invite Agni, giver of Agni, lord most charming and blissful, with brilliant songs of adoration we celebrate you. Listen to our song of sublimity. Like Indra, lord of omnipotence, like Vayu, breath of life, the best of leading lights of humanity adore you with all their might and sense of fulfilment.

In you, lord of eternal flames of power and generation, cosmic yajaka and generous giver, holy performers of yajnic acts repose their confidence, and to you, day and night, they attribute all the gifts of life. By virtue of you, cleanser and purifier, all regions of the universe like earth bear cherished gifts of nature for humanity.

Come you, leading light wrapped in the light of divinity, sit and abide among these people with your knowledge and yajnic action. Be like a chariot harbinger of choice gifts of life. You are wise and you command universal awareness. You know all that is born in existence and, integrated with life and society, you inspire and promote the wealths of the world for the dedicated celebrant.

\text{Yo naḥ sanutyo abhidāsadagne yo antaro mitramaho vanuṣyāt. Tam-ajarebhīr-vṛṣabhis-\text{tava svaistapā tapiṣṭha tapasā tapasvān.}

Agni, O dearest and greatest friend, tempered in the crucibles of austere discipline to the highest degree of intensity, whatever the force or power internal or external, close around or far off which might weaken, attack, injure or destroy us, pray burn up and eliminate by your own essential, unaging, generous and most youthful power of discipline and fire.

\text{Yaste yajñena samidhā ya ukthair-arkebhiḥ sūno sahaso dadāsat. Sa martyēsvamṛta pracetā}

Agni, O source giver of strength and inspiration, whoever serves you with yajnic acts of self-sacrifice and offers you homage, worship and songs of celebration with sacred fuel to keep the fire burning, rises in knowledge and life’s awareness, advances in wealth, honour and fame, and shines out with immortal excellence among mortals.

Agni, lord of forbearance and challenging might, loved, inspired and impelled, do that fast with your power and force, resist and repel the envious contenders, for which you are admired by the celebrants. Do that, O lord wearing the aura of light and fire, and accept the devoted supplicant’s thanks and homage expressed from the depth of mind and soul.

7. Aśyāma taṁ kāmamagne tavoti aśyāma rayiṁ rayivaḥ suvīram. Aśyāma vājamabhi vājayanto ’śyāma dyumnam-ajarājarām te.

Agni, leading light of the world, ruler and pioneer of humanity, by virtue of your protection and spirit of advancement, let us realise that will and desire we pray for. O lord creator and giver of wealth, let us achieve that wealth and honour blest with the brave we cherish. O lord imperishable, let us win, while we press forward, that energy, sustenance and progress, let us be blest with that honour and excellence which is immortal.

Mandala 6/Sukta 6

Agni Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

Whoever desires and plans for advancement into new ways of progress, defence and protection, tries and experiments with newest forms of yajna, socio-scientific developments in pursuit of Agni, heat, light and electric energy, source and generator of power, breaker of the clouds, illuminator of pathways into darkness and the unknown, bright catalytic agent, giver of peace and prosperity for well being and divine agent of cosmic evolution.

That energy, Agni, which is brilliant, expansive and roaring, constant in light without a flicker, abiding in imperishable thunder and lightning, is the fire purifier which lies dormant in many forms in solids, and it is versatile and explosive.

Agni, cosmic energy, those universal waves of your power impelled by nature’s currents radiate all round, pure and purifying, embracing everything, celestial, ever moving anew, beautiful, forceful, making, breaking and remaking everything that comes their way.

Life and light of the world, those vitalising pure and radiant waves of your energy flowing down like horses freed from their bound, fertilise and impregnate the earth, and then their circulation across the sky, taking over the mountain tops shines all over the earth.

5. Adha jihvā pāpaṁti pra vrṇno gośuyudho nāśaniḥ sṛjānā. Śūrasyeva prasitiḥ kṣāṁ agner-durva-rturbhīmo dayate vanāni.

Further, the tongue of flame, the flash of lightning, like the thunderbolt of mighty Indra, warrior of the flash and thunder’s roar, shakes and shines with the blaze, striking and shattering things like a warrior’s blow, and thus the terrible onslaught of irresistible Agni destroys the forests.
6. Ā bhānunā pārthivāni jrayāmiśi mahastodasya dhṛṣataḥ tatantha. Sa bādhasvāpa bhayā sahobhiḥ spṛḍho vanuṣyaṇ vanuṣo ni jūrva.

Agni, leading light and ruler of the world, with your light spread over all places and activities of the earth, and shine by the great and glorious radiation of your power. With your force and power, resist and repel all fears and envious contenders and, saving and protecting those who ought to be served and protected, break down the enmities and negativities.

7. Sa citra citram citayantamasme citrakṣatram citratamaṁ vayodhām. Candram rayim puruvīram bhantam candra candrābhir-ṛṣṇate yuvasva.

Agni, marvellous leading light of the world, ruler of the wonderful human order of brilliance, inspirer of love, benevolence and bliss, join and mix various wonderful elements with beautiful and soothing elements and then create for us enlightening, most surprising, invigorating, blissful, life giving, self-expansive wealth inspiring for all the youth and for the dedicated celebrant.

Mandala 6/Sukta 7
Vaishvanara Agni Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

The divinities of nature and humanity light the sacred fire: supreme light of heaven, vital fire of life of the earth, Vaishvanara, leader and energiser of the world, born of cosmic law and the fire of cosmic yajna. It is the visionary, even the revolutionary, poet, ruler of the world, sacred as a chance visitor, voice of the people, sustainer of life and its order.

Divines and brilliant people light and sing in praise of Vaishvanara, sacred fire of the world, centrehold of yajna and creative programmes of development, treasure source of wealths, divine challenge and cherished deity of their service, motive power of non-violent projects, the real symbol and the very life of yajna.

O leading light of the world, Agni, by you arises the dedicated scholar, energy, sustenance and progress, and the warriors who brave the challenges and win. O Vaishvanara, fire of earthly existence, brilliant leader and ruler, lead us to wealths of the world worthy of being fought for and won.

4. \[Tvāṁ viśve āmrta jāyamāṁ niśūṁ na devā abhi saṁ navante. Tava krutubhir-āmrata-tvamāyaṇ vaiśvānara yat pitroradideḥ.\]

O Vaishvanara Agni, light and vitality of the world, all brilliant scholars and divines of humanity love you as a baby and celebrate you all round like the rising sun at dawn, or like a young scholar emerging from the home of his parents and teachers like the sun from heaven over the earth. By virtue of your holy acts, the mortals achieve the immortality of holiness and excellence.

5. \[Vaiśvānara tava tāni vratāni mahānyagne nakirā dadharṣa. Yajjāyamāṇaḥ pitrorupasthe 'vindaḥ ketum vayunēsvahnām.\]

Vaishvanara, leading light and fire of life, Agni, the great ordinances of yours none can challenge, those which you, arising in the lap of your parents from heaven over the earth take on as your essential character and identity in the light of days in relation to the laws of existence from the earth to the Supreme Spirit and Lord of the universe.

By the vision and radiance of immortal Vaishvanara, the tops of heaven are pervaded, measured and transcended. On him, as base which is also the summit of existence, rest all the worlds of the universe which manifest like hair on the head, grow like seven branches from the one root, or flow like seven streams from the centre source.

Vaishvanara, merciful lord of the world and humanity, cosmic yajaka and visionary creator, who conceives, creates and ordains all regions of the universe, who illuminates the radiance of heaven, who pervades, expands and transcends all the worlds of existence, is the sole lord supreme, unchallenged ruler, sustainer and protector of the mortal world and the state of immortality.
Mandala 6/Sukta 8

Vaishvanara Agni Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

Spontaneously I sing and celebrate the knowledge and omnipotence of Jataveda, omniscient lord creator, omnipresent, generous, refulgent and merciful. The holy thoughts and words of the song flow ever fresh, pure, soothing and sanctifying like the streams of soma in honour of the universal lord and leading light of the world.

He, Agni, ordainer of the laws of existence, manifesting in the highest heavens like the sun, protects and sustains the laws of life, being ordainer and observer of the laws of existence. Vaishvanara, immanent in the heart of humanity, holy protector of yajnic actions, pervades the firmament and, with his grand potential, gives the magic touch of refulgence to the heaven of joy.

Vaishvanara, leading light and life of existence, universal friend and light giver, marvellous and all immanent unmoved mover, holds the heaven and earth in balance, covers, i.e., dispels darkness with light, revolves heaven and earth, day and night, wearing both like changing and alternate forms and thus sustains the entire living, organismic generous universe.

In the midst of spatial oceans of particles in the firmament, great scholars and scientists perceive, receive and develop Agni celebrated in the Rks and closely abide by it in study like people abiding by the ruler for their benefit. Vayu, currents of cosmic energy abiding in space, acts as carrier and bears Vaishvanara, universal energy of heat and light from the far off sun for the benefit of the world.

Agni, leading light of the world, from year to year, age by age, bear and bring for the dedicated celebrants latest and newest wealth and honour for advancement in knowledge and action. O brilliant ruler, unaging and imperishable, strike down the agent of sin and crime as you strike down a tree or a cloud by thunder and lightning.

6. \textit{Asm\textasciitilde{\acute{a}}kamagne maghavatsu dh\textasciitilde{\grave{a}}ray\textasciitilde{\acute{a}}’n\textasciitilde{\acute{a}mi k\textasciitilde{\textasciicirc{a}}tramajara\textasciitilde{\acute{a}} suv\textasciitilde{\acute{i}}ryam. Agni, leading light of the world, Vaishvanara, kindly ruler of the hearts of humanity, among our people who are blest with wealth, honour and power by virtue of your gifts of protection and advancement, establish a noble, courteous, inalienable and unaging social order of freedom worthy of the brave. We pray we may win a hundredfold and a thousandfold victories of food and sustenance, energy and progress under your protection and promotion.
7. Adabdhebhistava gopābhiriṣṭe’ṃ smākaṁ pāhi triṣadhashtha sūrīn. Rakṣā ca no daduṣām śardho agne vaiśvānara pra ca tārīḥ stavānaḥ.

Agni, refulgent leader, Vaishvanara, gracious ruling presence of the world, loving and adorable guardian present in the three worlds of earth, heaven and the firmament, presiding power of the three councils of governance, legislation and education, with your loving, non-violent and irresistible forces of defence and protection for advancement, pray protect and promote our saints and sages, scholars and the brave heroes and leaders. And protect us all, sustain and advance the courage and morale of all the celebrants and generous givers and yajakas. Save us all, O lord adorable, lead us all across the seas of darkness to the cherished goal.

Mandala 6/Sukta 9
Vaishvanara Agni Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

The dark half of the earth’s daily round, the night, and the bright half, the day, revolve alternately in the terrestrial atmosphere alongwith their cognizable characteristics. Vaishvanara Agni, the sun, darling of the world, as it rises, overcomes and dispels the darkness with light like a ruler eliminating the dark and evil forces of society.

2. Nāham tantuṁ na vi jānāmyotuṁ na yāṁ vayanti samare’tamānāh. Kasya svit putra iha vaktvāni paro vadātyavareṇa pitrā.

   I know not the warp nor the woof of the web of life. Nor do I know the design of the web which the weavers weave together in their constant concourse of nights and days. Whose son here or far off, pure and purifying, could say what ought to be said by virtue of the father, or teacher or the supreme teacher at the closest? Who knows?

3. Sa it tantuṁ sa vi jānātyotuṁ sa vaktvānyṛtuthā vadāti. Ya īm ciketadāmr̥tasya gopā avaścaraṇ paro anyena paśyan.

   He surely knows the warp, he knows the woof, he speaks of what ought to be spoken according to the season and the circumstances, he who knows the flow of the stream of life and time, who is the master and keeper of the eternals, and eternal knowledge, who knows and moves up and down, far and near, seeing the reality by the eye of the other, the supreme lord of eternal light.

4. Aṁy hātā paṭham: paśyātma-mārṣyāṁ jyātir-mūrangatvāṁ maṭyāṣu. Aṁy s jāṅg śr̥c̥va aṁ nisṣūñ̥c̥c̥c̥tāc̥tāc̥taṁśtvāṁ vṛdhāṁs hitvāṁs.

This supreme lord is the prime yajaka, giver and receiver. See and know this immortal light among the mortals. And this is that other, the individual soul, unshaken, immovable, firmly seated in the personality, immortal, growing in knowledge and vision and the body in which it is born.

In order that the individual soul may see the one immovable blissful divine light enshrined in the cave of the heart, there is the mind, fastest of psychic faculties in the personality of all those who direct themselves to the one centre. All the organs of perception, in fact all the illuminative elements of nature, all of equal competence, united together and in unison with the mind efficiently move toward the individual soul.

6. Vi me karṇā patayato vi cakṣurvidāṁ jyotirhṛdaya āhitaṁ yat. Vi me manaścarati dūra ādhīḥ kim svid vakṣyāmi kimu nū maniṣye.

My ears, as I feel impelled to have a vision of the inner light of divinity, my eyes, the light of the spirit enshrined in the heart, my mind which connects with far off things, all move to help me see the light of divinity within me. What at all shall I say more? What shall I think more?

Viśve devā anamasyan bhiyānāstvāmagnē tamasi vatūtaye nah.

Agni, light of life, life of the universe abiding at the centre of darkness and mystery of existence, all divinities of nature and humanity with all their sense and power bow to you in awe. We pray may Vaishvanara, immortal light of the soul and the universe, protect us for safety, security and well being, protect us for peace and progress.

of yajnic development free from violence, first and foremost, with right formulae and right process, place in the fore front Agni, holy fire and leading light, charming presence, brilliant and pure power leading to the right goal by the right path. That power and presence alone, kind and loving, immanent in all that exists, leads holy acts of love and kindness to sure success.

2. Tamu dyumah purvanika hotaragine agnibhirmanusa idhanah. Stomaṁ yamasmai mamateva śūṣam ghṛtaṁ na śuci matayah pavante.

Agni, sagely yajaka brilliant in knowledge and fiery in will and action who inspire people with passion and enthusiasm, pray listen to the song of celebration, powerful as love and pure as ghrta, which wise and thoughtful people sing and sanctify in honour of this holy fire.

As Agni rises and manifests itself like the sun, it is seen from afar and, going over areas of darkness by the paths it makes for itself, it fills the wide spaces of heaven and earth with its light. The light and fire, pure and purifying, thus overcomes the deep darkness of the night with splendour and reveals its glory and the reality of things.

Agni, leading light of life, for all time with wonderful vigour, power and forces of action in perfect safety and protection, bear and bring abundant wealth and excellence for us and for those leaders of magnificence who stand out before other people by means and materials, honour and fame, courage and fortitude.

Agni, leading light of life, loving and anxious for the success of this yajnic programme of development and service, bring holy food, energy and sustenance. You always bless the men of munificence, power and success with glory and excellence. Protect us in the battles for science and energy and the wealth and values of our choice.

Agni, leading light of life, drive away hate, jealousy and the enemies. Promote food and energy, protect and replenish the earth and her resources, advance knowledge and holy speech. Bless us that we may be happy and live a hundred years with heroic progeny.

Agni Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

Yajñasvā hātariśītata yajñīyaṇam brah' mṛṣṭāṁ n påyuṣṭi. Aṁ n' mitrāvarṇam nārsatya dṛṣṭvā hātraḥ pṛthivi vāṁśvāṁ.

1. Yajasva hotariṣito yajīyānagnē bāḍho marutāṁ na prayuktī. Ā no mitrāvaruṇā nāsatya ḍyāvā hotrāya pṛthivy āṃśvāṁ.

Keep the fire of yajna burning, O yajaka, loved, inspired and invoked, leading light of life most reverential, bulwark of defence and protection like the force and freshness of winds for the unity and engagement of the people in common causes of creation and development. Bring up for us Mitra and Varuna, powers of love and friendship, judgement and protection, the Ashvins ever true, heaven and earth, keep them on ever active together for the advancement of our yajnic endeavours.

2. Tvaṁ hota mandratamo no adhrugantardevo vidathā martyeṣu. Pāvakayā juhvā vahnirāsā 'gne yajasva t anvam tava svām.

Agni, you are our leading light of yajna, charming and blissful, free from jealousy among mortals, radiant and generous creator giver in our yajnic endeavours, harbinger of wealth by the purifying flames of fire with havis offered with the holy ladle of ghrta and catalysed to fragrance. O lord of us all, develop your own self of radiant fire and develop the social structure of order.

Blessed is the mind and intelligence in pursuit of life’s wealth and grace which concentrates on you, Agni, for the celebrant soul to realise the manifestations of Divinity when the devotee, most vibrant sage among the Angirasas, wise saints and scholars, sings as a poet in ecstasy for the cherished attainment.

4. Adidyutat svapäko vibhāvā'gne yajasva rodasī urūcī. Āyuṁ na yaṁ namasā rātahavyā aṁjanti suprayasam paṁca janāḥ.

O Brilliant, self-refulgent, glorious power of noble action, Agni, leading light of the world, rise over the wide earth and heaven. All the five classes of people bearing sacred offerings honour and celebrate you with submission and homage as abundant giver of life’s blessings, indeed as the very spirit of life. O man, rise and join the Spirit omnipresent.

5. Vṛṇje ha yannamasā barhiragnāvayāmi srugghṛtavatī suvṛktih. Amyakṣi sadma sadane pṛthivyā aśrāyi yajñāḥ surye na cakṣuh.

Surely when the grass is gathered with reverence, the ladle overflowing with ghṛta is raised over the fire with sacred hymns, the vedi is firmly settled on the ground, then the yajna is accomplished on the earth as the eye is established in the sun (from birth to death with the last rites).

Agni, leading light of life, shining in infinite manifestations, cosmic yajaka and giver of fragrance, blazing with divine flames of fire, omnipotent generator of strength, bestow on us wealths of existence so that, blest with the light of Divinity, we may complete our life’s journey and avoid the paths of sin.

Mandala 6/Sukta 12

Agni Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

帚.Mathyā hatai dūrāṇa bṛhiṣa pala niṣṭādavasya rādeṣī yajjyuddhagrnd advocate sūnuḥ saḥ. Ωtūm a νayati yajadhyai. Ayaṁ sa sūnuḥ sahasa ṛtāvṛ dūrāṃ sūrya na śociṣa tatāna. ॥ 1 ॥

Agni, ruling light of the world, cosmic yajaka in the midst of the yajnic house of space, radiates as light of the sun to join the heaven and earth together. So does this yajaka, child of courage and forbearance, observing the laws of truth and yajna in the midst of the house of yajna, shine from afar like the sun and extends over earth and heaven (with the fragrance of fire).

आ यस्मिन्न्त्व स्मर्यं यजन्त्र यदाधर्म सुभवतात्तव नु य्रांग्र विद्वद्धस्थाप्ततुर्षा न जह' हव्या मूढाः मानुषा यज्ञेथ्यर्थ ॥ ॥

Ā yasmin tve svapāke yajatra yakṣad rājant-sarvatāteva nu dyauḥ. Trīṣadhasṭhastataruṣo na jaṇho havyā maghāni mānuṣā yajadhyai.

Agni, adorable self-refulgent ruling power of life and yajna, let the light of the sun join your radiance as in yajna for universal good so that the light pervasive in heaven, firmament and earth like a dynamic saving power of vitality may create and develop means and materials for wealth and prosperity, honour and excellence for humanity.

Tejiṣṭhā yasyāratirvanerāṭ todo adhvan na vṛdhasāno adyaut. Adrogho na dravitā cetati tma-nnamartyo’vartra oṣadhīṣu.

Agni, whose brilliant pervasiveness blazing in the rays of the sun and shining over the forests radiates advancing on its path like the sun in orbit, manifests by its self-refulgence in herbs and trees as a power free from hate and jealousy, a presence indispensable and inevitable, dynamic and imperishable.

Sāsmākebhireṭarī na śūṣairagnīḥ śṭave dama ā jātavedāḥ. Drvanno vanvan kratvā nārvosraḥ piteva jārayāyi yajñaiḥ.

That refulgent ruling power of the world, Agni, knows and resides with all that exists and it is honoured and celebrated in our welcome homes by us with all our strength and enthusiasm. Manifest even in the simplest forms and in wood and forests, loving, noble by intelligence and holy action, Agni is honoured with homage and yajnas as father, celebrated like a tempestuous power and loved like the light of dawn.

5. Adha smāsya panayanti bhāso vṛthā yat takṣadananuyāti prthvīm. Sadyo yah spandro viṣito dhavīyānṛṇo na tāyurati dhanvā rāṭ.

And then people admire and celebrate its light and splendour which it releases, refines and intensifies into forms as it goes along on way by the earth, which power whoever knows, always and instantly radiating, flowing, pervading, flying, moving and shaking like flood and storm, the man becomes brilliant with knowledge and shines with the power of superior arms and armaments.

Agni, ruling light of the world, instant dynamic and omnipresent power burning with all kinds of light and fire, protect us from reproach, create and bring us wealth, honour and excellence, ward off and destroy hate, enmity and evil, and let us all enjoy and celebrate a full hundred years of life in the company of brave children and heroic warriors of the earth.

Mandala 6/Sukta 13

Agni Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

Agni, ruling light of life, lord of good fortune, honour and excellence of the world, from you arise and grow all riches, honours and graces of life like branches of the tree growing and extending from the same one root. Sure and beneficent wealth, strength and spirit to break the demon of darkness, thunder for the cloud and rain from the skies, glorious showers of the waters of life and the adorable flow of holy action, all these too arise and expand from you alone.
the circumambient wind, omnipresent. O refulgent and generous friend of the world like the sun, you are the light and path-maker for our pursuit of the highest and widest paths of universal truth and life’s onward flow, and you are the gracious dispenser of the fruits of human action.

3. Sā saptatīḥ śavasā hanti vṛtramagne vipro vi panērbharti vājam. Yaṁ tvāṁ praceta ṛtajāta rāyā sajoṣā napṭrāpāṁ hinoṣi.

Agni, leading light of life, only that wise and vibrant sage, observer, protector and promoter of truth and the paths of truth, destroys the evil and darkness of the world with strength and courage, and only he commands the knowledge and power of a worthy leader whom you, O lord omniscient and omnipresent in the world of truth, call, inspire and bless with wealth and fire for action and success, and whom you accept as your own.

4. Yaste sūno sahaso gīrbhirukthairyaṅairmarto niśitīṁ vedyānaṭ. Viśvaṁ sa deva prati vāramagne dhatte dhānyāṁ patyate vasavyaiḥ.

Agni, O child of omnipotence and maker of the brave, generous and brilliant ruler of the world, whoever is the mortal who with songs of praise and prayer and noble yajnic deeds receives by the vedi, seat of yajna, his focus and favour for action, he abounds in cherished gifts of life and commands the wealth and power of the world with all treasure sources of prosperity.

5.  \[\text{T}ā \text{nṛbhya} ā saūśravasā suvīrā’gne sūno sahasā puṣyase dhāḥ. }\text{Krṇoṣi yacchavasā bhūri paśvo vayo vṛkāyāraye jasuraye.} \]

Agni, leader and ruler of the world, creator of strength, courage and forbearance, bear and bring those renowned acts of enlightenment and brave heroes and that abundant food and nourishment, cattle wealth, health and age which you create with your strength and power for sustenance and support of the people and weaker sections of the community and in defence against the wolffish thieves and violent enemies.

6.  \[\text{Vadmā sūno sahaso no vihāyā agne tokāṁ tanayāṁ vāji no dāḥ. }\text{Viśvābir-girbhir-abhi pūrtima-śyāṁ madema śatahimāḥ suvīrāḥ.} \]

Agni, leading light of the world, creator and giver of strength and forbearance, great and eminently enlightened leader, speak to us of truth and knowledge. Lead us to have brave progressive children, grand children and heroic warriors. Let us have complete happiness and fulfilment with all our songs of praise and prayer and let us enjoy life for a full hundred years in the company of our brave children.

Mandala 6/Sukta 14

Agni Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

1. Agnā yo martyo duvo dhiyaṁ jujoṣa dhītibhiḥ.
   Bhasanu śa pra pūrya iṣam vuritāvase.

   The mortal who dedicates his faith and worship, reason and intelligence with all his thoughts and intentions, devotion and prayers to Agni, light and fire of life, surely shines as first and foremost in excellence, blest with food and energy, knowledge and enlightenment for all round protection and progress.

   अग्निरिद्धि परचंता अग्निवधस्तम ऋषिं: ।
   अग्निं ह तारमीलत युज्ञु मनुष्य विश्रो: ॥ २ ॥

2. Agniriddhi pracetā agnirvedhastama ṛṣiḥ.
   Agnim hotāramiḷate yajñēṣu manuṣo viśaḥ.

   Agni is enlightened and giver of enlightenment, wisest and most worshipful, a seer of ultimate reality and revelation. Thoughtful people honour and adore Agni, high priest of cosmic yajna and giver of all blessings, in their yajnic acts of creation and development.

   नाना द्युत्यांगचर्वस्स स्पद्धंतत राय' अयः ।
   तूर्वन्त्तत दस्युपमावत' वृत्तस्सी न्त्ता अव्रतम ॥ ३ ॥

3. Nānā hyagne'vase spardhante rāyo aryāḥ.
   Tūrvanto dasyumāyavo vrataih sīkṣanto avratam.
Successful people in the socio-economic field vie with each other in various ways for protection and progress, overcoming anti-social elements for the purpose of challenging and defeating the unprincipled by their ways of discipline.

Agni blesses and makes way for the rise and advancement of the brave man of action who challenges and conquers the attacks of evil and protects and promotes the good life of truth, because in the face of his courage and valour the enemies shake with fear and flee.

Agni, generous and brilliant leader, for sure, with his knowledge and power protects mortals from hate, jealousy and enmity. He is an open and spontaneous protector, and whoever the man he protects, his wealth and honour is safe, open and unchallengeable in the battles of life.
6. Acchā no mitramaho deva devānagne vocah sumatim rodasyoḥ. Vīhi svastim sukṣitim divo nṛn dviṣo aṁhāmsi duritā tarema tā tarema tavāvasā tarema.

Agni, leading light of life, generous and refulgent lord, greatest friend adorable, speak to us well, specially to men of brilliance and the people who love to know of the knowledge of heaven and earth, and of the three fires of earth, firmament and the solar sphere: fire, wind, and electricity and light. Bring us the good life of truth and all round well-being and a happy home for peaceful living. Help us get over jealousy, sin and crime and evil conduct, help us get over malignity, reproach and enmity, protect us, save us and let us cross over the seas of life by your grace.

Mandala 6/Sukta 15

Agni Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya or Vitahavya Angirasa Rshi

1. Imamū ṣu vo atithim-uṣarbudhaṁ viśvāsāṁ viśāṁ patim-ṛṇjase gīrā. Vetīd divo januṣā kaccidā sucirjyok cidatti garbho yadacyutam.

O sage and scholar, this holy guest of yours visiting and waking you up at dawn, guardian and sustainer of all people of the world, you honour and adore with sacred words of song. He comes from the heaven of light, is wholly pure and immaculate by nature and, subsisting in the earth and everywhere, constantly consumes what never perishes, never decreases.

Agni whom the wise ones discover in sun rays and generate in arani wood is firm, well placed, sweet as nectar and adorable. As such, O leading light of marvellous knowledge, kind as a friend and rising high in flames of fire and light of life, ever pleased with the supplicant, you are honoured and exalted with holy songs of celebration day by day by the devotees.

Agni, child of omnipotence, leading light and giver of strength and courage, loving ruler free from jealousy and grabbing cruelty, be promoter of the efficient and the expert, be the master of external, internal and victorious power and honour, bring settlement, peace and comfort for the people, rise in expansion for the giver and receiver of yajnic creations, and honour the man of science and technology with recognition and advancement.

Honour and felicitate with songs of praise and place of eminence the radiant Agni, leading light and pioneer, dear as an honoured guest, harbinger of peace and joy, holy organiser and creative high priest of the joint programmes of humanity, like a vibrant sage and scholar, speaker of heavenly words, giver and carrier of yajnic materials of fragrance and wealth of honour and above all a beacon of light for advancement.

Free from age and decay, Agni, with purifying splendour of enlightenment, shines over the earth like the dawns with light at break of day, rushing and overpowering darkness like a war hero on course in battle, thirsting for victory in its blaze.
6. Agnimagnim vaḥ samidhā duvasyata priyam-priyam vo atithim grñīṣanī. Upa vo gīrbhiramṛ-taṃ vivāsata devo deveṣu vanate hi vāryam devo deveṣu vanate hi no duvah.

In the daily business and holy observances of life, honour and serve Agni regularly day by day with offers of fuel and fragrant food. Agni is dear and dearer, welcome as a learned visitor worthy of honour and felicitation. Serve and exalt imperishable Agni with words of faith and reverence. Refulgent Agni vests brilliant divinities of nature and eminent scholars with valuable wealth and knowledge and blesses us with cherished gifts of life.

7. Samiddhamagnim samidhā girā grñē śucim pāvakām puro adhvare dhruvam. Vipram hotāraṃ puruvāramadruhāṃ kaviṃ sumnairīm-ahe jātavedasam.

I glorify the lighted fire, pure and purifying power, firm and foremost in holy works of love and non-violent development. In our state of peace and comfort, we celebrate and pray to the vibrant light giver of gifts, universally admired, free from jealousy, poetic creator, all knowing and present in all that exists.

Agni, life of life, light of existence, brilliant saints and sages and ordinary mortals too for ages and ages have meditated on you, light divine, with homage and self-surrender and found their haven and home in your presence, O lord disseminator of fragrance, receiver of homage and giver of grace, immortal, protector, adorable, ever awake, infinite, ruler and sustainer of humanity.

Agni, lord beatific, purifying fire, gracious to both wise and innocent according to your eternal law, self-refulgent light giver for the brilliant and generous, you pervade heaven and earth with your saving presence. As we meditate on your holy light and vision of knowledge, in consequence by your grace be kind and good to us, O lord of three worlds, omnipresent, omniscient and omnificent.
10. Tam supratikam sudṛśām svañcamavidvāṁso viduṣṭaram sapema. Sa yakṣad viśvā vayunāni vidvāṁ pra havyam-agnir-amṛteṣu vocat.

We, people of limited knowledge, honour, adore and worship Agni, lord of glorious flames of action, of beatific vision, gracious wielder of the universe, lord almighty over all. May he, Agni, omniscient presence in all knowable objects and laws of existence, bless us and reveal to us, immortal souls, all that ought to be known.

11. Tamagne pāsyuta tam piparṣi yasta ānaṭ kavaye sūra dhītim. yajñasya vā niṣitīm voditīm vā tamit prṛṇaksi śavasota rāyā.

Agni, lord of light and grace, him you protect and promote with fulfilment who dedicates his thought and action to you and meditates on you, lord omnipotent of universal vision and poetic creation. And whoever offers you rising flames of yajna and progressive action, you shower him with wealth, power, honour and courage.

Agni, lord of force and forbearance, we pray, you protect us, the devotees, against the violent and the malignant.

May food and water free from negativity, mighty powerful against the violent come to you. May cherished wealth and power of a hundred and thousandfold efficacy come to you.

Agni is the cosmic highpriest of the dynamics of existence, lord protector of the house of life, ruler omniscient and omnipresent of all that is, and he knows the origin of all that comes into existence. He is the most adorable lord of the bounties of nature and of mortal humanity. May he, lord of truth and law, accept us as participants of cosmic yajna and carry on the yajna of creativity for us.

14. Agne yadadya viśo adhvarasya hotoḥ pāvakaśoce vėstvāṁ hi yajvā. Ṛtā yajāśi mahinā vi yad bhūrhavyā vaha yaviṣṭha yā te adya.
Agni, lord of light and fire of purity, high priest of cosmic yajna, receiver and giver of fragrance of the people’s non-violent programmes of life, harbinger and overwatcher like a bird of flight, breaker and integrator of natural evolution, you pervade the laws and processes of nature. Let the universe grow ever expansive by your omnipotence and, O youthful spirit of life, bring us today what the noblest gifts of life are for us from you for our progress.

अभि पवांसि सुधितानि हि ख्या नि त्वा दधीता रादसी यज्ञध्रध्रध्रव्या अवा न मधवन्वाज्ञसाताव्या किर्तिनि दुरिता तरस्म ता तरस्म तनवासस तरस्म॥ १५॥

Agni, light of life, Maghavan, lord of cosmic glory, you reveal to us, bring us, the daintiest delicacies and strongest powers of life and wield the heaven and earth together to sustain the expansive universe. Protect us in the struggles of life so that we may cross over all evils of the world, cross through all of them, win over all of them by your grace and protection.

अग्र विश्वाभि: स्वानीक दुर्भ्रमणावन्तं पश्चः सीतू यानिम।

Agni, lord commander of glorious flame and power, highpriest and foremost yajaka, with brilliant nobilities of nature and humanity, take over this home and sit on this vedi covered with holy grass, the home full of people and prosperity and overflowing with fragrant ghrta, and lead the yajna to a noble end for the yajamana in honour of Savita, lord creator, the cosmic organiser of Nature’s yajna.

This actual as well as potential vibrant energy of fire and electricity, scholars of nature produce by rotative friction as described in the Atharva science of Veda, the energy which travels in waves and is far reaching and deep penetrative for darkness and things hidden in darkness.

18. Janīśvā devavītaye sarvatātā svastaye. Ā devān vakṣyamṛtān ṛtaṇvṛdho yajñam deveṣu pispṛśaḥ.

Produce the fire and generate the energy for noble humanity, for universal good and total well being. Bring up the brilliant scholars together, collect generous and imperishable energies of nature which advance the truth of science and glorify the laws of nature, and let the yajna reach the heights of heaven.
Vayamu tvā grhapate janānām-magnē akarma

Agni, leading light and power, sustainer of people’s homes, we exalt you and develop power and energy higher and higher with knowledge and inputs of fuel so that our multipower transports and domestic needs be fulfilled. O brilliant lord, enlighten us, teach us by your penetrative and far reaching lustre of knowledge and vision.

Mandala 6/Sukta 16

Agni Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

1. Tvamagne yajñānāṁ hotā viśveṣāṁ hitaḥ.
Devebhīr-mānuṣe jane.

Agni, self-refulgent leading light of the universe, you are the chief highpriest of all yajnic developments of nature and of all creative and developmental programmes of humanity for common universal good along with the brilliancies of nature and nobilities of humanity among the human community.

2. Sa no mandrābhīr-adhvare jīhvābhīryajā mahaḥ.
Ā devān vakṣi yakṣi ca.
O lord almighty, with inspiring words of enlightenment and bliss, consecrate our yajna, join us, bring up noble and brilliant divinities and with them make our yajnic programmes fruitful.

O refulgent lord of knowledge and wisdom, Agni, you are the prime agent of holy action in corporate programmes, you know the highways and byways of existence, and you command the brilliant powers of nature and humanity by your instant moving presence across time and space.

I worship you, lord both immanent and transcendent, with all my knowledge, power and potential. You are the ordainer and sustainer of life. I pray for your gift of peace and well-being and yearn for your company, adorable lord, in the yajna of corporate action.

You are the source giver of all these many cherished gifts of life for the enlightened, generous, creative yajaka, master of knowledge, wealth and honour dedicated to social service and charity.

6. \textit{Tvāṁ dūto amartya ā vahā dāivyam janam. Śṛṇvan viprasya susṭutim.}

Imperishable harbinger of light and wisdom, like a divine messenger, listen to the praise and prayer of the vibrant sage and scholar and bring up the man of exceptional brilliance who commands the knowledge of nature and Divinity.

7. \textit{Tvāmagne svādhyāṁ martāso devavītaye. Yajñeṣu devamīlāte.}

Agni, leading light of the world, learned mortals worship and adore you, refulgent giver of abundance, in corporate acts of creativity and development for the achievement of divine gifts of success and enlightenment.

8. \textit{Tava pra yakṣi saṁdṛśamuta kratum sudānavaḥ. Viśve juṣanta kāminah.}

All generous and charitable people inspired with love and desire yearn for a vision of your presence and holy action. O lord, let us have the vision and let us join all such charitable acts.

Agne hakṣi divo viśaḥ.

Agni, leading light of life, ruler of the world, you are the generous performer of the yajna of existence, deeply benevolent to humanity by holy words of wisdom. O lord, bless the loving people with the light and wisdom of heaven, most enlightened as you are.

Agna ā yāhi vītaye grṇāno havyadātaye.
Ni hotā satści barhiṣi.

Come Agni, sung and celebrated, to join our feast of enlightenment, accept our homage to create the gifts of life and yajnic development, and take the honoured seat in the assembly.

Mūrdhno viśvasya vṚghataḥ.

Agni, light of life, the wise scholar and devotee, Atharva, dedicated to love and non-violence, discovers and churns you out without violence from the highest sphere above the skies which supports and sustains the entire universe.

11. Sā naḥ pṛthu Uravyaṅmaṇaḥ deva vivāsati.
Bṛhadagnē suvṚṣyaṁ.

Agni, lord of light and lustre, mighty expansive power, you bless us graciously with admirable strength and courage worthy of universal honour and fame.

Bṛhacchocā yaviṣṭhya.

Angira, breath of life, light of the world, expansive, lustrous pure and most youthful, we honour and exalt you with offers of fuel and ghrta to raise the flames of fire to the heights.

Agni, lord of light and lustre, mighty expansive power, you bless us graciously with admirable strength and courage worthy of universal honour and fame.

Agni, light of life, the wise scholar and devotee, Atharva, dedicated to love and non-violence, discovers and churns you out without violence from the highest sphere above the skies which supports and sustains the entire universe.

The seer divining into the meaning of Veda-mantra, who is the child of love and non-violence dedicated to scholarly teachers, lights and develops you, breaker of the clouds and shatterer of the strongholds of darkness.
15. Tamu tvā pāthyo vṛṣā samīdhe dasyuhantamam.

The bold and generous scholar, leading light of the paths of life, lights and develops you, Agni, destroyer of the darkness of life and winning source of life’s wealth in battle after battle for progress and prosperity.

Ebhirvardhāsa indubhiḥ.

Agni, leading light and pioneer, come, listen, thus do I speak in honour of you, and listen further to higher words, and rise higher with these words sweet and soothing like rays of the moon and exciting as draUGHTs of soma.

17. Yatra kva ca te mano dakṣaṁ dadhasa uttaram.
Tatrā sadaḥ kṛṇavase.

O leading light, where, wherever in fact, is your mind, there you hold your efficiency and identity, and there indeed you create your haven and home.

18. Nahi te pūrtamakṣipad bhuvannemānāṁ vaso.
Athā duvo vanavase.

Never is the perfection, abundance and fruitfulness of your food and sustenance ever wasted away, instead it increases, O haven and home of life and creator of its sustenance. Hence accept our homage and reverence.

Āgniṛgāmī bhārato ṛṣtriḥ purucetanaḥ.
Divodāsasya satpatiḥ.

Agni, light of life, sustainer of existence, breaker of the clouds of darkness and giver of the bliss of rain, all enlightened and protector of generous enlightened souls, is attained by relentless service, yajña and practice of meditation by the man of universal charity.

Sa hi viśvātī pārthivā rūdhī dāśan-mhitvaḥ.
Vānvanvato astṛtaḥ.

That Agni, light of the world, all loving, destroying all evil, unassailable, unshaken, bestows upon us all the wealth, honour and excellence of the world solely by his greatness and power.

Sa pratnavānviyasā’gne dyumnena samyataḥ.
Bṛhat tatantha bhānunā.

Agni, light of life, pioneer of the world, just as the sun with its splendour of light reveals and illuminates the world more and more as ever before, so you too, as ever before, with latest, well controlled and onward moving light and wealth, honour and excellence of knowledge, pervade, illuminate and expand the world of humanity.

O friends, offer your songs of adoration and yajnic programmes of corporate action and advancement in dedication to Agni, leading light of humanity, with full strength and unshakable courage. Thus you worship the lord and sing songs of exaltation in honour of the all knowing illuminant power of divinity.

23. Sa hi yo manusha yugam siddhahatah kavikratuah.

May that Agni, cosmic highpriest of nature’s yajna, receiver of oblations and giver of the fruits of corporate action, visionary power of creative holiness, harbinger and disseminator of fragrance like a messenger, creator and distributor of the finest things of life, join us and be seated with us on the vedi for all ages of human history.

Agni, leading light of the world, giver of peaceful and progressive settlement, bring up and honour in unison those refulgent powers of purity and self discipline of universal law, Mitra and Varuna, sun and moon with coolness of the oceans, love and friendship, brilliant divinities of nature and humanity, human and natural forces vibrant as winds, and the wealth of heaven and earth on the vedi of our corporate programmes of yajna.

ऊर्जा’ नपादमृतस्य। २५॥

Agni, leading light of the world, immortal source of universal strength, your equal vision and provision of earthly settlement and peace for all the mortals yearning for love and sustenance in life is all time sure and true.

कत्वा द अस्तु श्रमणचद्य त्वा वन्वन्त्य्ुर्क्ष्णाः।
मत’ आनाश सुब्रह्मिम। २६॥

O lord, may the holy man of yajnic action and charity, generously giving, loving and offering homage in adoration to you, rise to eminence here and now, be master of noble wealth and follow the path of rectitude to ultimate freedom.
27. Te te agne tvotā iśayanto viśvamāyuḥ.
Taranto aryo aratiḥ-vanvanto aryo aratiḥ.

Agni, all those devotees of yours, who enjoy your protection and pray for food, energy and sustenance for a full happy life, cross over indigence and hostility, wiping off the envious and the stingy hoarders away from their path.

28. Agnistigmena śociśā yāsad viśvāṁ nyatriṇam.
Agnirno vanate rayim.

Agni, with the flaming light of pure refulgence, dries up and burns off all hostility of the world and brings the wealth of life for us, dedicated supplicants and celebrants.

29. Suvīraṁ rayimā bhara jātavedo vocarṣaṇe.
Jahi rakṣāmsi sukrato.

Lord omniscient, all immanent of universal vision, bring us the wealth of life coupled with noble strength and brave progeny. O lord of creative action, eliminate the cruel and wicked forces of negativity in the interest of progress.

30. Tvaṁ na pāraḥsasā jātaveda agraṁayat:
ṛ gāṇa bhāvanaskav

Lord omniscient, all immanent of universal vision, bring us the wealth of life coupled with noble strength and brave progeny. O lord of creative action, eliminate the cruel and wicked forces of negativity in the interest of progress.
30.  Tvaṁ naḥ pāhyaṁhaso jātavado aghāyataḥ.
    Rakṣā ṇo brahmaṇaṣkave.

    Save us, O lord omnipresent in existence, from sin and evil. O lord of omniscient vision, O voice of divinity, give us the ultimate protection and security in our creative endeavours.

31.  Yo no agne dureva ā marto vadāya dāśati.
    Tasmānnaḥ pahyaṁhasaḥ.

    Agni, leading light of purity and justice, whatever the malignant force of negation, whatever the mortal power that strikes to eliminate us, give us the strength and protect us against that evil, to survive and move on.

32.  Tvaṁ taṁ deva jihvayā pari bādhasva duṣkṛtam.
    Marto yo no jighāṁsatī.

    Brilliant lord of love and justice, with your flames of fire, the power of your word of judgement, prevention and punishment, stop that person alongwith the evil deed that intends or is intended to hurt us and to destroy us.

33.  Bharadvājāya saprathaḥ śarma yaccha sahantya.
    Agne vareṇyaṁ vasu.
Agni, lord of power and forbearance, give a spacious and comfortable home and security to the person who commands knowledge and means of service and sustenance for the society.

समिद्वद्व: शुक्क आहुतः॥ ३४॥

34. Agnirvrāṇi jaṅghanad draviṇasyurvipanyayā. Samiddhaḥ sukra āhutah.

Agni, leading light and ruler of the world, bright, pure and purifying, invoked, invited and lighted in the seat of yajna, keen on wealth, honour and excellence with self-approbation and public exaltation, should destroy the evils and endeavour to raise the power and prosperity of the human nation.

35. Garbhe mātuḥ pituspitā vididyutāno akṣare. Sīddannṛtasya yonimā.

Agni, life of life and light of the universe, present in the interior of mother earth, sustainer of the sun, father of earth and her children, shining in his own eternal self, in the individual soul and in the world of imperishable Prakṛti, the spirit of the universe, pervades and inspires the ruling laws of eternal truth and the world of existence.

38. *Upacchāyāmiva gṛṣneraganma śarma te vayam.
Agne hirṇyasamāndṛṣṭaḥ.*

Agni, lord of bliss and eternal protection, just as a person runs to the shade for relief from the blazing sun, so may we, shining as pure gold, rise and come to your presence, the blissful shade of divinity, our ultimate haven and home.

य उग्राइव शायवः तिग्मश्रृं्गः न वंसंगः ॥
अग्नि पुरु' सूरार्जिथ ॥ ३९ ॥

39. *Ya ugra iva śaryahā tigmaśṛṅgo na vaṁsagah.
Agne puro rurocitha.*

Agni, lord protector of life, destroyer of killer arrows like a fierce warrior, burning off negativities like the fierce rays of the sun, you destroy the strongholds of the enemies of life.

40.  Ā yam haste na khādināṁ śīsum jātāṁ na bibhrati. Viśāmagnim svadhvaram.

     Like the darling new born baby held in the hand, like a beautiful bracelet worn on the wrist, the yajakas place the fire in the vedi, light and raise it, since it is the blessed source giver of wealth and joy for the people.

41.  Pra devaṁ devavītaye bharatā vasuvittamam. Ā sve yonau ni śiḍatu.

     Place, light and raise the brilliant and generous fire in your home for favour of the bounties of nature and humanity since it is the immense source giver of wealth, honour and excellence. Let the holy fire be instituted and maintained so that you abide in peace and joy.

42.  Ā jātāṁ jātavedasi priyam śaśītātithim. Syona ā grhapatim.

     Sharpen and constantly intensify the light of universal Agni, spirit of life, manifested in the all immanent fire of yajna, like a dear guest worthy of reverence in the delightful home, the spirit which is protector, promoter and really the head of family.
Agne yukṣvā hi ye tavā’śvāso deva sādhavaḥ. Arāṁ vahanti manyave.

Agni, leading light of knowledge and power, generous creator and giver, yoke those motive powers of yours to the chariot which are best and fastest and which transport you to the destination of your love and passion gracefully without fail.

Acchā na yāḥa vahāchbi pāyāṃsi vītaye.
Ā devāntsomapītaye.

Agni, leading light of knowledge, generous pioneer, come fast in all your glory, bring us the dearest powers for sustenance and advancement for the sake of peace and well-being, and bring the noble brilliancies along to celebrate success with the delight of soma.

Udagne bhārata dyumad-ajasreṇa davidyutat. Śocā vi bhāhyajara.

Agni, unaging sustainer of life, shining with the light of excellence and blazing with glory, rise up with flames of fire and shine on with inexhaustible splendour, and help the shining people too to rise in the light of knowledge and excellence of life.
46. Viśī yo devaṁ marto duvasayedagnimūlitādhware havismān. Hotāram satyayajāṁ rodasyoryutānahastost vivāset.

The mortal, who, bearing holy materials of yajna with love and reverence, serves and worships Agni, generous and brilliant yajaka of the universe abiding and operative in the unity of cosmic law and universal truth, and who prays to the lord with folded hands raised in surrender and supplication, would shine over earth and heaven with divine favour and joy.

47. Ā te agna ṛcā havir-hṛdā taśtam bharāmasi. Te te bhavantūkṣaṇa ṛṣabhāso vaśā uta.

Agni, O lord of light, omniscience and omnipotence, thus do we bear and offer the homage of surrender and self-sacrifice to you, prepared with love of the heart and sanctified with holy chant of Rgveda, and we pray may all our people be for you, virile and generous, inspired with love and brilliance of excellence.

Thus do brilliant sages light the holy fire and worship Agni, leading light and pioneer, lord of action, foremost leader, highest breaker of the densest clouds and harbinger of the showers of generosity, who bears and brings for us the wealth and honours of the world and who, with his omnipotence, destroys the wicked hostilities of humanity.

Mandala 6/Sukta 17

Indra Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

Indra, mighty invincible lord of the force of cosmic energy, wielder of the thunderbolt in hand, drink and celebrate with soma while you are sung and celebrated since you break the cloud of showers as the sun, release the vast and great wealth of cows, milk and ghrta, and with your powers and action destroy all unfriendly and antilife forces of the world.

The one that is simple and natural in conduct, saviour across the seas, splendid and self-protected, mightiest among people, breaker of clouds and hostile strongholds, wielder of the thunderbolt and strongest winner, such is Indra, and such, O lord, defend, protect and promote what is won, release the wonderful energies and overcome the on-slaughters of hostile forces.

एवा पाहि पत्रत्या मन्दृतु त्वा श्रुधि बह्दु वातृधस्वात गीत्यि: ।
आविः सूर्य तूणुहि पीपिन्हीय जूघि शतारभि गा ईन्द
तृत्यि ॥ ३ ॥

3. Evā pāhi pratnathā mandatu tvā śrudhi brahma vāvṛdhāsvota girbhīḥ. Āvih sūryāṁ kṛṇuhī pīpihiṣo jahi śatrūṇrabhi gā indra ṭṛṇdhi.

Thus protect and promote life and humanity as ever before, and let the adventure give you the pride of pleasure. Listen to the Veda, protect the Word of knowledge, and be exalted by our songs of celebration. Uncover the light of the sun, enjoy food and drink, destroy the hostilities, release the speech of humanity to freedom, and unshackle the lands from bondage into liberty.

त त्वा मदाव ब्रह्मदिन्द स्वधाव इम पीता उ यत्व ज्ञामतं ।
महामनूनं तस्मं विभूतं मत्सुरास ' जह्पत्यं पुसाहम ॥ ४ ॥

4. Te tvā madā bhṛhadindra svadhāva ime pītā ukṣayanta dyumantam. Mahāmanuṇam tavaśaṁ vibhūtiṃ-matsurāso jahṛṣanta prasāham.

Indra, self-refulgent lord of your own essential power and grandeur, exalted ruler, may these drinks of soma thus enjoyed shower you with the joy and ecstasy of victory. So do the people moved with the excitement of self-confidence and divine exaltation celebrate you, great, perfect, potent, magnificent, and victorious yet forbearing lord of power as you are.

5. Yebhiḥ sūryam-uṣhasāṁ mandasāno’vāsayo’pa dṛḍhāṇi dardrat. Mahāmadriṁ pari gā indra santāṁ nutthā acyutaṁ sadasaspari svāt.

Indra, lord ruler of the world, by the powers and forces with which you place the sun in orbit and rouse the dawn on course, and vest them both in light and splendour, and with which you break the strongest mountain asunder, by the same power and force, O lord of love and bliss, from your own assembly seat, inspire and strengthen the great inexhaustible human energy, generous as cloud of showers, across the earth to rise and shine.

With your wisdom, holy deeds and divine power, you develop ripeness in the unripe and maturity in the immature minds and open the strong doors and fill them with light for the bright people. Thus does the lord of life and breath energy of freedom liberate the lands and their speech from the violence of tyrants.

7. Paprātha kṣāṁ mahī daṁso vyurvīnupa dyāmṛṣvo bṛhadindra stabhāyah. Adhārayo rodasī devaputre pratne mātarā yahvī ṛtasya.

Indra, almighty lord of glorious action and potential, you create, pervade and sustain the wide earth and heaven and you sustain, support and order the compact earth, heaven and the expansive universe, and you sustain the compact earth, firmament and the solar sphere, ancient, great and generous mothers of the children of divinity and themselves the children of mother Prakṛti and the divine law of nature.

8. Adhā tvā viśve pura indra devā ekāṁ tvaṁ dadhire bharāya. Adevo yadabhyaḥiṣṭa devāntsvarṣātā vrṇata indrātmatra.

Indra, lord almighty of bliss and enlightenment, all the noble powers of nature and humanity hold on to you, lord absolute and omnipotent, for success in their life’s endeavours. And when anyone bereft of light engages in contest against the enlightened, then the enlightened people maintain their faith in the heavenly power and win the battle for light and bliss here itself.

And then even the light of heaven doubly bows to you, first in awe of the thunderbolt and then also in awe of your majesty of divine passion, when Indra, cosmic energy, strikes the approaching dark cloud and lays it down in showers and sends it to sleep.

O lord of blazing glory, simple, natural and forceful, Tvashtā, the cosmic maker of forms, shaped in nature the mighty hundred-angled thousand pointed thunderbolt of your cherished design for relentless strikes by which you break the roaring cloud of darkness for showers of rain in the cycle of seasons.

Indra, O potent spirit of the cosmos, let all vibrant creative and constructive forces of nature and humanity join in unison and exalt you, ruler of the world, ripening and maturing a hundred mighty gifts of vitality.
in your service. May Vishnu, omnipresent sustaining power of universal nourishment, ever active on the move, fill the three oceans of earth, heaven and the middle regions with life giving nectar of bliss and excitement for this Indra to break down the cloud of darkness, evil and want.

12. Ā kṣodo mahi vṛtam nādināṁ pariṣṭhitamasṛja ūrmiṃapām. Tāsāmanu pravata indra panthāṁ prārdayo nīcīrpaṣaḥ samudram.

Indra, ruling power of the world, creates the great flood of the rivers collected and controlled all round and releases the waves of the waters to flow. Accordingly he prepares the paths of water movement downward and lets the waters join the sea (thereby completing the natural cycle of water energy across the three oceans).

Thus may our new homage of praise, prayer and yajnic service reach Indra, omnipotent lord of the universe, absolute doer of all actions, mighty, refulgent, unaging and imperishable, giver of strength and forbearance, commander of heroes, all armed and wielder of the thunderbolt of nature’s cyclic energy, and may our prayer move the lord for our protection and
May Indra, lord ruler of the universe, accept us, vibrant seekers of light, for the gift of speed and progress toward victory, honour and excellence, food and energy, and all round wealth of life. May Indra bless the brave leaders of humanity, and may the lord establish us all in the light of divinity and guide us on the path of total worldly fulfilment and freedom of ultimate salvation.

Thus do we offer ardent praise and seek to share divine favour and inspiration fit for dedicated humanity and pray we may live happy a full hundred years blest with noble and heroic generations of progeny.

Mandala 6/Sukta 18

Indra Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

Adore him who tames and controls brute force, loves and shares life with all, unshaken and all admired, that is Indra, potent ruler of the world, intrepidable, blazing refulgent, challenging yet forbearing, most generous and creative of people. With these words of celebration, exalt him, and you too would rise.

Indra is a hero, strong and realistic, a warrior, socially committed, all loving and friendly, eloquent, simple, natural and honest, dynamic, stormy in movement, and a unique embodiment of courage and tolerance among the best of thinking humanity.

3.  Tvaṁ ha nu tyaddamāyo dasyūṇrekaḥ kṛṣṭira-

Indra, you for sure are the one who fight out and control the wicked and violent elements and bring the world communities together for a united world of progressive and cultured humanity. That indeed is your strength, real heroism, is it not? Pray speak of that courage, competence and vision according to the needs of time and season.
Adore him who tames and controls brute force,

That age-old friendship of ours with you may, we pray, be firmly established in you and remain thus with the vibrant celebrants too who speak this same way in praise of you, and just as the sun breaks the cloud and opens the flood gates of rain showers, so may you, O lord imperishable and generous, shaker of the otherwise unshaken, destroy the darkness of evil, inspire and advance the dynamic leaders, and open all the gates of the human cities on the world highways.
6.  Sa hi dhībhir-havyo astyugra ṯāṇakṛṇ-mahati vrtratūrye. Sa tokasatā tanaye sa vajrī ṣivantaśāyyo abhavat samatsu.

That is the lord worthy of homage with all our intelligence and holy actions, refulgent maker of leaders and achievers in the great human struggle against evil and deprivation. That wielder of adamantine power is to be exalted and glorified in the battles of humanity for the advancement and progress of our children and grand children for future generations.

With immortal power he continues and extends the name and identity of humanity and, as highest leader of supreme human virtues and all pervasive with human presence, he advances the human generations with honour and excellence, courage and valour, wealth and fame, and manly vigour and splendour.

The man who never suffers from error, never feels bewildered, stupefied, infatuated or perverted but remains self-possessed, conscious of his essential identity and constancy of character, who shakes the ogre, the hoarder, the vociferous bully and the exploiter, and favours the generous, peace loving and enlightened persons, is Indra, worthy to be the ruler for the peace and progress of the common-wealth of nations for sure.

Just as fire burns down dry forest woods to ash, so Indra, O lord ruler awful as thunder, shatter the forces of terror and destruction, you who, with a mighty blow of the weapon of justice and punishment, crush the evils of fear, deceit and terror.
11. Ā sahasram pathibhirindra rāyā tuvidyumna tuvivājebhirvāk. Yāhi sūna sahaso yasya nū cidadeva īše puruhūta yotoḥ.

Indra, ruler of the world, lord of abundant wealth, power, honour and excellence, child of omnipotence, universally invoked and adored, who join and reshape the uniform and various powers of nature and humanity, come here to a thousand devotees by a thousand ways with wealth of a thousand forms of food, energy and advancement, lord whose favour and friendship even the semipious desire to have.

The greatness and glory of this lord of abundance, most ancient and venerable, self-refulgent tamer of evil, transcends the bounds of the earth. There is no enemy, no equal measure or rival, nor any defined seat of stability of this self-sufficient, omnipotent and forbearing lord.

Surely great are your acts, activities and ways of earthly accomplishment today, as you bring a thousand gifts of wealth, knowledge and competence to this mighty, vibrating and hospitable humanity and raise the earth to the heights of speed and progress.

Refulgent lord, brilliant sages of the world rejoice in unison with you in honour as the dispeller of demonic darkness and adore you as wisest of divine visionaries since, adored and exalted by them, you bring gifts of freedom and deliverance for the distressed as well as for the brilliant and give them health and material well being.

Indra, lord omnipotent, heaven and earth and the immortals and brilliants of nature and humanity move in observance of that support and splendour of... yours. O lord of action, inspire us to accomplish what is yet to be accomplished and to create the latest songs of adoration by yajnas and yajnic acts of social development for all.

Mandala 6/Sukta 19

Indra Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

   May the great Indra, the sun, overseeing and commanding cosmic energy inspiring humanity, pervasive and expansive over heaven and earth, impetuous but unafflictive, come to us with auxiliary forces and grow vast and high, helping noble work by the assistance of active and expert workers.

2. Indrameva dhīṣanā sātaye dhād bhramantṛṣvamajaram yuvānam. Aśāḥena śavasā śūṣuvāṁsaṁ sadyāścid yo vāyṛdhe asāmi.

   Whoever with relentless action and intelligence and unchallengeable power and courage, for the sake of development and progress, dedicates himself to Indra, sun and cosmic energy, vast and high, pervasive, impetuous, indestructible, ever fresh and youthful, and forceful, soon for sure grows to power and prosperity.

Heroic Indra, destroyer of the evil, leader of the brave and tempestuous forces of humanity, bring us the strongest power and valour, most burning and blazing lustre and dignity, and give us showers of all the wealth and honours of the world good for the people for their joy and celebration.

Indra, invincible hero, ruler of life, bless us with that righteous passion of yours, challenging and victorious yet forbearing and unhurtful, which inspires all good virtues and by which, under your protection, we may triumph in life and live happy in the company of our children and grand children.

8. Indra, lord of life and ruler of the world, bless us with that overwhelming vigour and power victorious in our struggles for wealth and prosperity ever rising in excellence, expertise and generosity by which, under your guidance and protection, we may be successful in our battles of life against negative forces and win over our own people and others unrelated, strangers and aliens.

9. Indra, ruler of the world, may overwhelming and generous vigour, force and power come and flow for you all round from above and below, front and behind, all ways and every way constantly without break, and may it come to us from all sides. O lord of peace, prosperity and happiness, hold, protect and promote the wealth, honour and excellence of life for us and bless us with the grace of holy living on earth.

Lord of humanity, leader of world pioneers, illustrious ruling power, refulgent Indra, we pray may we share and enjoy your most human favour and protection and have the cherished graces of life with revelations of the Word and actions of holiness. O refulgent lord, I see your divine glory of both heaven and earth prevailing among rulers and the people, and pray sustain this glory of life, great, constant, expansive and infinite.

Here on the vedi of this dear green earth, for the protection of life and the environment and for progress of the latest order, we invoke, invite and celebrate Indra, lord of glory, commanding humanity and the winds, generously valorous, ever rising, free from detractors, divinely refulgent, all ruling, all forbearing and victorious, illustrious giver of both tolerance and fighting power over evil for victory of the good for constant growth.
12. *Janaṁ vajrin mahi cinmanyamānaṁ-ebhyaḥ nṛḥbhyaḥ randhayā yeṣvasmi. Adhā hi tvaḥ prthiv-

O lord of the thunderbolt of power, justice and punishment, humble that man who proudly holds himself as the greatest and mightiest against these people among whom I live and justify my existence. And now, O lord, for the sake of these very people on earth and in the battles of the brave for victory, we invoke, invite and celebrate you among our children, our cows, our lands and waters, and in the onward flow of our life and progress.

We are yours, O lord universally invoked and adored, and we pray that by these friendly words and acts of service we may be constantly superior to one enemy after another enemy of life and progress, fighting out and destroying the evils of darkness and want in both spiritual and material fields of life on earth, so that, under the umbrella of your protection and guidance, we may enjoy life with wealth, honour and excellence, rising higher and higher.

Indra Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

Indra, lord of life, creator giver of strength, commander of power and forbearance, give us that wealth and life’s value and that master ruling power vast as skies and bright as sun which, by its intrinsic strength of character can stand by people in the face of hostile forces in our struggle for progress, fight a thousand battles with success, give us lands of fertility and smiling greenery, and overcome the darkness of ignorance, poverty and injustice.

Indra, ruler of the world, observer of the original law and keeper of the honest simplicity of natural conduct, when in union with omnipresent Vishnu, omnipotent cosmic energy, you break the cloud of serpentine motion holding showers of the waters of life in hiding, then, together with the showers, universal life breath of vital energies is received, like light of the sun from heaven, by the brilliances of humanity and of nature such as earth to bless you and your people.

1. द्यावनं या इंद्रेभिः भुमरेष्टस्थायं यात्रा नासहारभूमरूपस्थे।
   चावसदुपुण्यस्वरूपार्द्धेऽदर्शनवेयस्यास्यान्तिविशवंस्नाय

Indra, refulgent and illustrious leader, is mightiest of the mighty. Breaking the clouds for shower, having created abundance of food, energy and literature of vision and wisdom, and having raised a team of veteran assistants, he becomes the real ruler of humanity, commander of honey sweets of peace and joy and saviour of all cities of the common wealth against the assailant and destroyer.

4. सतायरपद्रान्त पान्याय इंद्रात्र दशोनयं कवयुक्तसांतां वहुत्रं
   विश्वास्याशुरस्या शात्रोऽपि नारिरेचित्कं च।

Here in the world of business and administration in the advancement of life and light for the men of vision and wisdom protected from all ten directions, misers, thieves and robbers all run off by a hundred onslaughts of the ruler’s admirers. Indra, O lord ruler of light and life, can any one exhaust, surpass or defeat the power, knowledge and abundance of the mighty and generous ruling order? None.

5. Maho druho apa viśvāyu dhāyi vajrasya yat patane pāḍi śuṣṇāḥ. Uru śa saratham sārathaye karindraḥ kutsāya sūryasya sātau.

When on the fall of the mighty thunderbolt of justice and punishment the demon of darkness and denial is fallen and the sustaining force of all hate, jealousy and enmity is withdrawn, then the mighty Indra, further, opens and extends the field for the positive leaders and pioneers of vision, creativity and power for the nation on the march in the higher battle of light and culture.

6. Pra śyeno na madiramaṁśumasmai śiro dāsasya namucermathāyan. Prāvannamīṁ sāpyamīṁ sasan-taṁ pṛṇagrāyāṁ samiśā sam svasti.

Crushing the head of the violent destroyer, churning the mind of the persistent sabotager to correction, saving the humbled opponent at the end of his tether now lying at peace for mercy, and providing all such with adequate means and materials with food and sustenance for a life of comfort and well being, the leader, commander, ruler, Indra, like a victorious eagle, should bring the exhilarating drink of new life and joy of celebration for this social order.

7. Vi piprorahimāyasya drīḍhāḥ puro vajriṅchavasā na dardah. Sudāman tad rekṣo apramṛṣyam-ṛjiśvane dātraṁ dāśuṣe dāḥ.
O lord of the power of thunderbolt, with your power and force, pray never destroy the strongholds and cities of the protective and promotive leader of versatile genius and competence. Instead, O lord of generosity, for such a philanthropic leader of simple and honest law and conduct of pious virtue, provide generous gifts and grants of irresistible and permanent value.

Indra, refulgent ruler commanding noble peace and cherished well being, in order to continuously advance the dominion and raise it to splendour, adopt, nurse and promote the world famous, ten ways versatile, ten ways expansive, powerful and ambitiously receptive and progressive social order as your own family, just as the mother elephant nurses, guides and promotes her calf to maturity without let up.
his dominion seat of power, he aims like an archer and rides his chariot driven by word-controlled horse powers which drive the mighty ruler over the expanse of his dominion.

10. Sanema te’vasā navya indra pra pūravah stavanta enā yajñaiḥ. Sapta yat purah śarma śāradīrda-rdhan dāśiḥ purukutsāya śikṣan.

Indra, lord of honour and excellence, by virtue of your protection and promotion, we enjoy the latest gifts of life, and the citizens adore you by these programmes of yajna since you establish seven cities for comfortable living, open out seven abundant autumnal streams against drought and deprivation, and destroy all forms of slavery and impiety for the education and advancement of the heroic wielder of power and weapons of defence.

Indra, lord ruler of honour and excellence, knowledge, wisdom and generosity, be the first and foremost leader in the service of the great advancing human nation, specially for the inspired and ambitious pioneer of art, science and culture. Give the best and latest home and infrastructure worthy of being granted to the great father figure of future development which must not be self-destructive or self-defeating in any way.

Indra, you are the shaker and arouser of life and passion. Arouse, accelerate and control the roaring streams of the nation’s life and wealth like the pulsating veins and arteries of the human system. O brave hero, you cross the seas and traverse the skies, let there be peace and well being with the industrious, self-controlled and dynamic humanity.

Indra, lord sustainer and giver of peace and joy, in the business of life, all that roaring action or sufferance or consumption, all is your world, for you: the idle, the restful, the sleeping, the shining, the violent, the faithful bearing holy fuel, the cook, whether preparing soma with sacred work or doing homage with songs and prayers of adoration, everything is yours, all is for you.
Mandala 6/Sukta 21

Indra, Veshvedeva Devata, Bharadvaja
Barhaspatya Rshi

Heroic Indra, leader of the world, you are ageless, ever new, ever fresh. These creations of the most versatile artist worthy of presentation glorify you, adorable lord, and they are offered to you in homage since all creations of intelligence, all wealth and celebrated glory reach you, lord of the nation’s chariot, and everything flows from you.

2. Tamu stuṣa indraṁ yo vidāno girvāhasaṁ gīr bhīryajñavṛddham. Yasya divamati mahnā pṛthivyāḥ purumāyasya ririce mahitvam.

Indra is the lord omniscient who alone knows the ultimate mystery of existence. I adore and glorify him who is the ultimate content of all speech, who is exalted by songs of adoration in yajnas, and whose glory by its sublimity and omnipotence transcends the light of heaven and the magnitude of the world of nature.

The lord of his own absolute omniscience and omnipotence illuminates the world of darkness and ignorance by the light of expansive knowledge like the sun which dispels the darkness of night. The mortals, O lord immortal, who seek to join your domain never violate your laws.

Who is that Indra and where, that lord omnipotent who does all those things? Which people does he favour and visit? Among which community or nation? O lord omnipotent, which sacred act of yajna is that which pleases you at heart and gives you the satisfaction of your choice? What sort of praise and adoration? Who is the yajaka you listen to and respond?

O lord of universal acts, universally invoked and adored, all are your friends, pray know and enlighten... bodhi.

O lord of universal acts, universally invoked and adored, all are your friends, pray know and enlighten them all here and now, all those who are ancient, old and eminent, middling ones, moderns, most recent ones, existing and active all over the world.

6. Tan pṛcchanto'varāsaḥ parāṇi pratnā ta indra

Indra, lord of knowledge and power, brave leader and ruler of the world, the seekers of truth young and old, ancient and modern all, trying to know you by question and answer in faith, go by the Word which is eternal and highest. O lord giver of divine vision, sustainer of the life and wealth of existence, the more we know, the greater we find you and worship you as lord supreme.

7. Abhi tvā pājo rakṣaso vi tasthe mahi jajñāna-

Against you stands the force of evil powers, O potent lord of courage and valour, face that firmly and, with your age old ally and friendly thunderbolt of justice and punishment, crush those forces and wipe them out before they rise to dangerous proportions.
8. Sa tu śrūdhīndra nūtanasya brahmaṇyato vīra kārudhāyaḥ. Tvam hyāpiḥ pradivi pitṛṇāṁ śaśvad babhūtha suhava eśtau.

Indra, potent lord of courage and valour, sustainer of the artist, scientist and their creations, listen to the prayer of the latest seeker of the wealth and wisdom of existence. O lord responsive to our call in cherished plans and programmes, you are and have been the constant friend and guardian of our forefathers in their search divine for light and fulfilment.

O scholar of science, study, research, realise and bring for our protection and advancement the divine bounties of nature: vital udana and prana energies, electricity, winds, nourishing vitality of samana energy, vyana and dhananjaya energies, heat, cosmic energy of universal sustenance, solar energy, herbs, clouds and mountains for showers and herbs.

10. Ima u tvā puruśāka prayajyo jaritāro abhyar- cantyarkaiḥ. Śrūdhī havamā huvato huvāno na tvāvāṁ anyo amṛta tvadasti.

O lord omnipotent, adorable in yajna, these celebrants of your divine powers honour and worship you with their offers of homage and adoration. Listen to the devotee’s call and supplications while invoked. There is none other than you who is like you and who commands powers and virtues such as yours, immortal as you are.

Nū ma ā vācamupa yāhi vidvān viśvebhiḥ sūno sahaso yajatraih. Ye agnijihvā ātasāpa āsurye manum cakruruparam dasāya.

O lord of knowledge, creator and giver of strength, listen to my words of prayer and come to me with all universal forms of wealth and those adorable powers worthy of being cherished who have the tongue of fire, serve the truth of divine law and who raise humanity high like the cloud for charity toward the weak and exhausted.

May he, Indra, the lord all-knowing, know us and enlighten us, the leader who goes forward as pioneer over paths both easy and difficult, carving new channels of progress over annals of history, and may he bring us those modes of energy, power and transport which are wide and versatile beyond wear and tear, indefatigable, inexhaustible.

Indra Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

   The one sole lord of humanity worthy of yajnic homage is Indra, whom I adore with these words of praise. He it is, lord generous, giver of showers of strength and bliss, eternal, imperishable, omnificent, omnipotent and forbearing who protects and sustains life as supreme father and guardian.

   Him our ancient forefathers and the seven sages, like our five senses, mind and intellect, alongwith their fellow men, have celebrated and glorified, the lord that is tamer and controller of opposition, saviour from suffering, pervasive in clouds and over mountains, sweet of tongue and strongest in force and power.
3. Tamāmaha indramasya rāyah puruvirasya nṛvataḥ purukṣoḥ. Yo askṛdhoyurajaraḥ svarvān tamā bhara harivo mādayadhyai.

We pray to Indra for his gifts of wealth, happy progeny, man power and generous abundance which he, lord of unlimited potential, ageless and blissful, commanding men and transport, would, we hope, bring us for his joy and ours.

Indra, speak to us how the ancient celebrants of yours were blest with the gift of peace and joy. Say what is your share and contribution therein, what joy and ecstasy of being, O lord irresistible, forceful, universally invoked, commanding immense riches, destroyer of evil and the wicked.

5. Tamā prṛcchanī vajrahastāṁ ratheṣṭhāmindraṁ veppī vakvarī yasya nū giḥ. Tuvigrābham tuvi-kūrmim rabhodāṁ gātumīse nakṣate tumrmaccha.

If the voice and words of a person are vibrant with devotion and eloquent with enquiry in right earnest about Indra, lord of power, honour and excellence, wielder of the thunderbolt in hand, riding the chariot of life, strong with iron grasp, bold in action, giver of tempestuous strength and commander of cosmic force, then such a person wins the lord’s favour of dominion over land for food, energy and the happiness of his heart’s desire.

O lord of your own essential strength and splendour, divine and exuberant, with this thunder force of yours fast as mind, imperishable and indomitable, pray shatter that stronghold of evil growing by illusion firmly fixed and even reinforced by deceptive reason.

May Indra, lord of infinite knowledge and power, bless us and you all with the best and latest vision and intelligence in order that we may adore and glorify the omnipotent eternal lord as ever, and may the lord saviour of the celestial chariot bring the universal strength of action, otherwise unattainable, and take us across all impassable impediments.
8. Ā janāya druḥvaṇe pārthivāni divyāṇi dīpayo’-ntarikṣā. Tapā vṛṣan viśvataḥ sōciṣā tān brahmadviṣe sōcaya kṣāmapaśca.

O lord of generous showers of light and purity of peace, light up and reveal the blazing magnificence of the regions of earth, firmament and heaven for people stricken with hate, jealousy and enmity against life, humanity, divinity and revelation of the glory of existence. Let them feel the heat and light of the blaze from all sides, heat up even the green earth and cool waters for them and thus let them be cleansed through suffering and penitence.

9. Bhuvo janasya divyasya rājā pārthivasya jagat-tveṣasaṁdrk. Dhiṣa vajraṁ dakṣiṇa indra haste viśvā ajurya dayase vi māyāḥ.

Indra, self-refulgent ruler of earth and the world of light, of humanity and the moving world, ageless lord of light and justice, take the thunderbolt of light and justice in the right hand, destroy the wiles of the wicked and give the light of knowledge to the seekers.

10. Ā saṁyatamindra ṇaḥ svastim śatruṭūryāya bahaṭīṁ-amṛdhṛāṁ. Yayā dāsānyāryāṇi vṛtrā karo vajrint sutukā nāhuṣāṇi.

Indra, lord of adamantine will and power, ruler of the world, bring in that wide ranging and inviolable peace and well being in a state of constant vigilance and dynamism to win over enmity and opposition by which darkness and ignorance can be replaced by light and knowledge and the lower and average orders of society can be raised to higher state of enlightenment and action.

O lord all wise and worshipful, universally adored and invited, come to us by well controlled and well directed modes and means of advancement with those laws and policies of universal interest and value and application, which neither the impious obstruct nor the pious camouflage. Come straight here to us with these without delay.

Indra Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi
1. Suta it tvam nimiśla indra some stome brahmaṇi śasyamāna ukthe. Yad vā yuktābhyaṁ maghavan haribhyāṁ bibhrad vajram bāhvorindra yāsi.

   Indra, lord of honour, wealth and excellence of the world, when the soma is distilled, songs of prayer and adoration are sung and the music of Vedic hymns swells in the air, and when you move and come, one with us, loving and ecstatic, drawn by your own fiery motive powers of saving grace and holding the thunderbolt in hand, you are great and glorious.

2. Yad vā divi pārye soṣvimindra vṛtrahatye’vasi śūrasātau. Yad vā dakṣasya bibhyuṣo abiblyad-arandhayaḥ śardhata indra dasyūn.

   Or when, O mighty lord Indra, free from fear, you protect the creator of the soma of life’s joy in the battle of the brave for the elimination of darkness and want and for advancement of light and showers of love and cherished prosperity, or when you scare away even the mighty fearsome warriors against life, you shine in divine glory. O lord Indra, we pray, subdue the forces of violence, fear and destruction.

May the lord be the creator of a world of beauty for the brave who endeavour to contribute to the health and joy of life. May the lord bless the divine poet and celebrant with wealth and prosperity in life.

4. Ganteyãnti savanã haribhyãm babhrirvajram papi¬ somam dadirgãh. Kartã vîram naryãm sarvavîram šrotã havamã grñataḥ stomavãhãh.

Listen ye all celebrants and yajakas, Indra, ruler of the world, is he who reaches all programmes of positive and creative development by the fastest transport with dynamic experts of theory and practice both, who wields thunderous power and weapons, protects, promotes and shares the soma, invigorating joys of life, gives cows, fertile lands and brilliant words of wisdom and guiding policy, creates bravest of the brave leaders, and listens and appreciates the songs and celebrations of the admirers among the people.

5. Asmai vayaṁ yad vāvāna tad viviṣma indrāya yo nah: pradīvo apaskaḥ. Sute some stumasi śāmsa-dukhthendrāya brahma vardhanam yathāsat.
Whatever Indra, lord ruler of light and love, wishes, we do for him since he creates for us the holy acts and does all other divine acts of sustenance. When the soma is distilled and the songs of praise arise, we celebrate and exalt him so that knowledge, food, energy and moral rectitude may arise and grow the way it should.

Indra, lord ruler, the more noble acts of growth and development you do, the more with our intelligentsia and our people we do our acts of duty for you. O lord lover of honour and excellence, when the work is done, the soma is distilled and the time is come for celebration, we do praise worthy acts with yajnas and sing most delightful songs of joy in your honour.

7. Sa no bodhi purolāśaṁ raraṇaḥ pibā tu somāṁ gorjīkamindra. Edaṁ barhir-yajamāṇasya sīdorūṁ kṛdhi tvāyata u lokam.

Indra, lord of majesty, know and enlighten us, happily taste the delicious pudding and drink the exhilarating soma seasoned with cow’s milk so soothing to the mind and senses. Come, be seated on the yajamana’s vedi, and create a wider and higher world of beauty for your devotees.

Indra, refulgent lord, enjoy and rejoice in response to these yajnic acts of our homage as they may please you, and may these our addresses of invocation reach you, lord universally loved, and may this song of adoration and enlightened awareness appeal to you for our protection and advancement.

O friends, in all your acts of divine service, admire and adore Indra, lord giver of light and food, with yajnic offers of water and endeavours of creative joy dedicated to him so that the great and magnanimous lord would be gracious in the sustenance and protection of you and us all, since he never forsakes the earnest creator of soma.
10. Evedindraḥ sute astāvi some bharadvājesu kṣayadinmaghonaḥ. Asad yathā jaritra uta sūri-rindro rāyo viśvavārasya dātā.

Thus is Indra admired and adored among saints and scholars in the world of honour and excellence when the soma is distilled and ready for celebration so that he, lord of honour, power and knowledge, may settle and abide by men of power and prosperity and be the giver of universal wealth of value to the devoted celebrant.

Mandala 6/Sukta 24

Indra Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

Indra, refulgent ruler, is generous as a cloud of showers in the holy programmes of peace and progress of the social order, joy incarnate, delightful as a poem, sacred as a hymn, loved as a friend, lover and protector of the people’s happiness and achievement, simple, honest and natural in conduct, admired, revered and consecrated for the people and celebrated by the holiest of their voices, lord of honour, power and glory wrapped in heavenly light, inviolable, ever protective, a very haven of peace and security.

Pressing fast forward against the enemies, brave, leader of leaders, wide awake and all aware, attentive to the call of the supplicant, all round protector of the people, haven and home and real asset of the nation, admired by the people, patron of artists and expert professionals, swift and powerful, adored in yajnic programmes, Indra, the ruler, gives speed and sustenance to the nation’s progress.

3. Akṣo na cakryohṣūra bṛhan pra te mahnā ririce rodasyoḥ. Vṛkṣasya nu te puruhūta vayā vyoṭayō ruruhūrinḍra pūrvīḥ.

Like the axis of two moving bodies such as two wheels or stars and planets or sun and earth, O mighty lord of majesty, Indra, universally invoked and adored, the eternal processes of your creation, protection and promotion of the expansive universe grow and extend like the branches of a tree by virtue of your infinite power and excell the light of the sun and generosity of the earth.
Indra, refulgent lord ruler of the world, destroyer of suffering, manifold are your deeds, unbounded your intelligence, and countless your people. The abundant streams of your generous acts are expansive, associative and convergent like waves of light rays and paths of cows and orbits of stars, and, like tethers of the calves and axes of planets, they are controllers and yet givers of freedom, O generous lord of law and liberty.

Anyadadya karvaramanyadu śvo’sacca sanmuhurācakririndraḥ. Mitro no atra varuṇaśca pūṣā’ryo vaśvasya paryetāsti.

Indra, our friend here, great and just, life giver and sustainer, master and over all controller of controllers does one act today, another tomorrow, creative and destructive, integrating and disintegrating, making and unmaking, and goes on doing thus again and again in a positive cyclic order.

Vi tvadāpo na parvatasya pṛṣṭhāduṇḍhābhārindrānayanta yajñaiḥ. Tam tvabhiḥ suṣṭutibhir-vājayanta ājīṁ na jagmūrgirvāho aśvāḥ.
homage and yajnas performed with these hymns of praise and songs of adoration, and then, just as rain showers pour from the heights of clouds and streams flow down from the top of mountains, so do fruits of piety and gifts of divine grace shower down and flow, from you.

Winters and years wither him not, nor months weaken him, nor the sun and days wear out Indra celebrated by hymns of divine praise and songs of adoration. May the existential manifestation of the lord supreme, eternal Indra grow on and on in majesty. May the body and mind of this eternal jiva, individual soul, grow by the chant of sacred songs and hymns of divine praise.

He bows not to the strong and forceful, nor bends before the resolute, nor does he praise or flatter the bold nor anyone allied to the wicked. Mighty mountains are, for Indra, plain as fields, and for him the ocean in the depth becomes firm ground and a fordable flow.

9. Gambhīreṇa na uruṇāmatrin preśo yandhi sutapāvan vājān. Stha ु śu ārdhva ुtī arishanyanaktoryuṣṭau paritakmyāyām.

Mighty lord, purifier and sanctifier of things in the world of creation, with deep love, profound purpose and grace unbound, give us abundance of food and energy and wide ranging knowledge and success. Stay with us constant with your protection high over us, at dawn and at dusk, night and day without hurt or let up.

10. Sacasva nāyamavase abhīka ito vā tamindra pāhi riṣāh. Amā cainamaranye pāhi riśo madema šatahimaḥ suvīrāḥ.

Indra, ruling lord of the realm, be with us, our leadership and our policy, and justice for protection and progress. Save the system here and afar, at home and abroad, from fear and violence so that, blest with the brave, we may live and rejoice for a full hundred years.

Mandala 6/Sukta 25

Indra Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

1. Yā ta ātiravamā yā paramā yā madhyamendra śūśminnasti. Tābhirū śu vṛtrahatyeye’vīrna ebhiśca vājair-mahān na ugra.

Indra, mighty ruler, dispenser of justice and giver of inspiring vigour and vision, whatever your modes of safety and security at the primary level, whatever at the middle level and whatever of the highest level of the order, with all those protect us in the battle against darkness, want and negation, and bless us with these flights of progress and victory, O lord great and refulgent.

2. Ābhīḥ śṛḍho mithātirāriṣanyannamitrasya vyathayā manyumindra. Ābhīrīśvā abhiyujo viṣūcīrāryāya viśo’va tārīrdāsiḥ.

Indra, mighty ruler and commander, with these forces of defence and protection engaged in action, break down the pride and morale of the enemy and, with these, without loss of men and materials or interests of the country, protect and advance the cooperative powers employed across the land, the people, and the services for the noble citizens of the nation.

3. Indra jāmaya uta ye’jāmaya ’rvācīnāso vanuṣo yuyujre. Tvameśāṁ vithurā śavāmsi jahi vṛṣṇyāni krṇuhī parācaḥ.
Indra, mighty ruler and commander of the common wealth, whether it is your own people or other distant ones or sabotagers who join upfront against you to injure the system, you destroy their forces of sabotage, eliminate their growing potential and throw them out.

When the brave engage the brave in battle with brilliance of physical force of body, or when people argue, dispute and shout over rights and inheritance in relation to children and grand children, or about fertile lands and cows or waters, then, too, judge and resolve the dispute.

Neither the brave nor impetuous nor violent nor warrior, however great and proud, can stand and fight against you. Indra, lord almighty, none is your equal, none adversary, you are supreme over all those that are born and existent.
6. Sa patyata ubhayornṛṣṇaṁmayoryadī vedhasahaṁ samithe havante. Vṛtre vā maho nṛvati kṣaye vā vyacascvantā yadi vīrantasaite.

If two partners in the matter of integration or division or separation of finances or management of a large corporate organisation of men dispute, then he gets control of the money or the assets whom judges of piety and penetrative intelligence call upon to manage, and above all Indra, the ruler, is the ultimate master.

7. Adha śmaṁ te carṣaṇayo yadejānindra trātota bhavā varūtā. Asmākāso ye nṛtamāso arya indra sūrayo dadhīre puro naḥ.

And also, O lord ruler and master, giver of honour and excellence, destroyer of evil and wickedness, Indra, be the saviour and protector of all your people specially of those who are stricken with fear. Be the defender and promoter of those people of ours who are the highest leading lights and bravest heroes who hold the forts and maintain the cities for us.

8. Anu re dāyi maha indriyāya satrā te viśvamanu vrtrahatye. Anu kṣatramanu saho yajatrendra devebhīranu te nṛṣahye.

Consequently, O lord most adorable, supreme ruler, protector of life and destroyer of negation, appropriate to your greatness and majesty, in keeping with the honour and dignity of the world social order, and in view of the courage and fortitude required to face the challenges to humanity, the whole world is given unto you and entrusted, in truth, by the leading lights and brilliant visionaries of nations in the battle of light against darkness, of goodness against evil, and of prosperity against want and squalor.

Thus, O lord Indra, giver of honour and victory, we pray, inspire us to advance in our ambition to win over our rivals in the battles of life. O lord destroyer, subdue the warring forces of darkness and selfishness. Let us all, celebrants and men of knowledge and action, singing and celebrating your honour day and night, know you for sure and win the victories by virtue of your guidance and protection.

Mandala 6/Sukta 26

Indra Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

1. Śrūdhī na indra hvayāmasi tvā maho vājasya sātau vāvrśāṇāḥ. Sam yad viśo’yanta śūrasātā ugram no’vah pārye ahan dāḥ.
Indra, lord ruler and giver of honour and excellence, listen to us: overwhelming and exuberant we call upon you in the great battle of sustenance and advancement. When the people march on in the battle of the brave, then on the decisive day give us the blazing passion of your force and protection to victory.

The war-like scion of a heroic family of learned leaders and scholars, seeker of a great new success just at hand in the field of food, energy, knowledge and progress, invokes you, Indra, potent lord victor, you saviour of devotees and defender of truth, and, fighting hand to hand, looks up to you at the decisive moment of victory for the acquisition of new wealths of light and development of lands, cows and branches of energy.

You enthuse and inspire the creative visionary in the work on solar energy, thunder and lightning. You break open the secrets of concentrated energy for the man of power and generosity. Thus you shake and subdue the head of invulnerable pride and intransigence and do praise-worthy service to the leader who honours and keeps open house for visiting scholars.

Tvam ratham pra bharo yodhamṛṣvamāvo yudhyantam vrṣabham daśadyum. Tvam tugraṁ vetasave sacāhan tvam tujīṁ ghanantamindra tūtoḥ.

Indra, ruler and commander, you create and maintain an invulnerable war chariot and protect the strong fighting force shining in ten directions for days on end. In full dedication to the honour and brilliance of the social order, destroy violence and terror and advance the strong, promotive and allied powers that do honour to the nation.

Tvam tadukthamindra barhaṁ kaḥ pra yacchatā sahasrā śūra darṣi. Ava girerdaṁ śambaram han prāvo divodāsaṁ citrābhirūṭī.

Indra, mighty destroyer of evil and preserver of the good, it is praise worthy that with your great force you destroy a hundred thousand evils, O brave lord, and, with wondrous saving powers, release from the cloud pent up showers, so soothing and refreshing, and thus relieve and protect humanity dedicated as a liberal servant of divinity.
Indra, ruling lord destroyer and preserver, rejoicing with faithful homage and joyous celebrations of dedicated followers, you send the oppressive ogre to sleep in order to save the oppressed and, favouring the man of right conduct in keeping with your holiness, you give him the right direction and ward off a sixty thousand obstacles from his path.

Indra, bravest lord of the house of the brave, I pray, may I too, along with the learned and the wise and great, attain that high order of vigour and splendour, peace and well being, with the grace of your presence bestowed by you, lord of three worlds, which the brave and learned people value, admire and pray for.

Indra, ruling lord destroyer and preserver, rejoicing with faithful homage and joyous celebrations of dedicated followers, you send the oppressive ogre to sleep in order to save the oppressed and, favouring the man of right conduct in keeping with your holiness, you give him the right direction and ward off a sixty thousand obstacles from his path.

Indra, bravest lord of the house of the brave, I pray, may I too, along with the learned and the wise and great, attain that high order of vigour and splendour, peace and well being, with the grace of your presence bestowed by you, lord of three worlds, which the brave and learned people value, admire and pray for.

Indra, ruling lord destroyer and preserver, you create and maintain an invulnerable war chariot and protect the strong fighting force shining in ten directions for days on end. In full dedication to the honour and brilliance of the social order, destroy violence and terror and advance the strong, promotive and allied powers that do honour to the nation.

Indra, mighty destroyer of evil and preserver of the good, it is praise worthy that with your great force you destroy a hundred thousand evils, O brave lord, and, with wondrous saving powers, release from the cloud pent up showers, so soothing and refreshing, and thus relieve and protect humanity dedicated as a liberal servant of divinity.

Indra, ruling lord destroyer and preserver, rejoicing with faithful homage and joyous celebrations of dedicated followers, you send the oppressive ogre to sleep in order to save the oppressed and, favouring the man of right conduct in keeping with your holiness, you give him the right direction and ward off a sixty thousand obstacles from his path.

Indra, bravest lord of the house of the brave, I pray, may I too, along with the learned and the wise and great, attain that high order of vigour and splendour, peace and well being, with the grace of your presence bestowed by you, lord of three worlds, which the brave and learned people value, admire and pray for.
Indra, greatest lord of grace and glory, may we, in this yajnic programme of power and prosperity of the human nation, be your dearest friends and supportive participants, and may the rising generosity and gracious glory of the world order rise highest in our battle against darkness of ignorance, injustice and poverty for the achievement of all round prosperity and well being.

Mandala 6/Sukta 27

Indra Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

किमस्य मदु किम्बस्य पीताविन्दूः किमस्य सुख्य चंकार।
रणां वा य निषिद्धं किं त अस्य पुरा विविदु किमु
नूतनास: II 1 II

What does Indra, destroyer of suffering, do in the ecstasy of this soma, for the beauty and glory of this order? What in the exuberance of the drink, in the joyous experience of its management and satisfaction therefrom? What in the friendly identity with it and its people? And what do they know and discern, the veterans and the youngest of the new generation, who joyously celebrate in the company of this Indra in the House? What do they gain?

2. Sadasya made sadvasya pītāvindraḥ sadasya sakhye cakāra. Raṇā vā ye niṣadi sat te asya purā vividre sadu nūtānāsaḥ.
Noble deeds of the truth of its reality does Indra perform in the rapture of its dignity, noble and true indeed when he drinks of the soma of that experience, nothing but the truth and dignity of action and policy in friendly identity with this social order. And they who joyously sit in his company in the House identified with the glory of this order, veterans as well as new ones, they too know and realise the truth and the reality, nothing but the truth, whole and undiluted.

2. Sadasya made sadvasya pıtŒvindra¬ sadasya sakhye cakŒra. RaČ vŒ ye ni¦adi sat te asya purŒ vividre sadu nµutanŒsa¬.

Noble deeds of the truth of its reality does Indra perform in the rapture of its dignity, noble and true indeed when he drinks of the soma of that experience, nothing but the truth and dignity of action and policy in friendly identity with this social order. And they who joyously sit in his company in the House identified with the glory of this order, veterans as well as new ones, they too know and realise the truth and the reality, nothing but the truth, whole and undiluted.

Indra, lord of wealth, power and majesty, we know not anyone equal to you in greatness and glory, nothing like your regality and munificence, nothing so perfect as your perfection which reveals ever new possibilities. None comprehends your omniscience and your omnipotence.

Indra, lord of power and perfection, this omnipotence of yours is apprehended when with it you strike and destroy the greatest and highest adversary to the very end, which too is just the tip of the might of omnipotence, and when, by the force of the mere roar and rumble of the thunderbolt hurled, the proudest enemy is shattered.

5. \textit{Vadhïdindro varaśikhasya šeso’bhyaavartine cāyamānāya śikṣan. Vṛcīvato yaddhariyūpīyāyāṁ han pūrve ardhe bhīyasāparo dart.}

Just as Indra, the sun, breaks the cloud on high to the last drop of rain, so should Indra, eminent teacher as well as the ruler, in the act of giving instruction to the dedicated learners all round vigilant in a sustained manner, while giving them pioneering enlightenment in their love of scholars and scholarship, dispel their basic fear, ignorance and negative tendencies and thus eliminate the possibilities of later resurgence of evil with the healthy fear of unknown and unexpected consequences.

6. \textit{Trīṃśacchataṁ varmiṇa indra sākaṁ yavyāvatyāṁ puruhūta śravasyā. Vṛcīvantah śarave patyamānāḥ pātrā bhindānā nyarthānyāyan.}

Indra, mighty lord ruler universally invoked and honoured, let thirty hundred renowned warriors in armour in a well provided army in top gear breaking through the enemy lines, shattering the defences, achieve their decisive goal.

The ruler whose power and law, internal policy and external defence, both like two healthy, ruddy and loving cows, well provided and happily self-satisfied, operate in the dominion, he, training the efficient force in radiative communication and productive science, would throw off the destructive elements of the state.

Agni, refulgent ruler, commanding wealth, power, honour and excellence, dynamic leader ever on the move for progress and victory, revered and celebrated all round, gives me both chariot warriors for defence of the nation and happy families and a team of twenty creative ministers to bear the burdens of the nation, which gift from any of global rulers is invulnerable indeed.
Gavah or Indra Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

1. Ā gāvo agmannuta bhadram-akrantsūdantu goṣṭhe raṇayantvasme. Prajāvatīḥ pururūpā iha syurindrāya pūrviruṣaso duhānāḥ.

Let the cows come as rays of the sun, sit and rest in the stalls, be happy and bring us happiness and good fortune. May they be fertile with many calves, of many colours and breeds, abundant, yielding plenty of milk for the health and prosperity of the nation, and thereby let them be harbingers of light like the morning dawns.

1. Gaṇaḥ or Indra Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

Let the cows come as rays of the sun, sit and rest in the stalls, be happy and bring us happiness and good fortune. May they be fertile with many calves, of many colours and breeds, abundant, yielding plenty of milk for the health and prosperity of the nation, and thereby let them be harbingers of light like the morning dawns.

Indra, the ruler, gives protection and maintenance grants to the man dedicated to yajna. He engages him in creative and educational work and thus gives him fulfilment and purpose in life. This way too he does not deplete his own knowledge and culture but maintains it. Constantly and continuously he adds to the wealth of the nation and, in every region of the land, he looks after and maintains the devotees of learning, society and divinity without taking away anything from them materially.

Knowledge, fruits of yajna, generosity, patronage of learning and culture, these rays of light do not perish nor deplete nor fade away. The thief steals them not, no enemy can afflict them, nor can anyone injure or insult them. The lord of these cows, lights and radiations, with which he serves the divinities, learned and the wise, gives, creates and adds to life’s beauty, also, he constantly and continuously lives, lasts and rises with them.

Neither a vociferous brute raising clouds of dust like a war horse attains to these rays of light and culture, nor do these radiations penetrate the thick head of a violent man insulated against enlightenment. Like cows, the rays of refinement roam freely round the open pastures of the generous man of yajna and social service, a boundless world of freedom and fearlessness.
5. Gāvo bhago gāva indro me acchān gāvah somasya prathamasya bhakshaḥ. Imā yā gāvah sa janāsa indra icchāmīddhīdā manasā cidindram.

May Bhaga, lord of wealth and good fortune, give me cows. May Indra, lord of power and majesty, give me good cows. May Bhaksha, adorable lord of primal food, energy and ecstasy of life, give me good cows for milk. O people, O lord of power and glory, Indra, I love and love to have all that is cows, i.e., mothers of food and energy, sources of sweetness, light and culture, masters of knowledge and wisdom, honour and excellence. I love that all with my heart and mind, the beauty, the glory, the ecstasy!

You develop the cows of life, mother spirits of body, mind and soul. Give health and vigour to the weak and emaciated, turn the ugly and unpleasant to beautiful, graceful and illustrious. Make the home overflow with peace, prosperity and the bliss of good fortune. You command noble speech in the assemblies of the wise and powerful leaders so that your life and work is praised and appreciated wide and high in the world.

O fertile and abundant cows blest with calves, feeding on fine green grass and drinking pure water from transparent pools, may no thief ever overpower you, may no strike of the cruel and sinful butcher ever slaughter you.

(Swami Dayanand applies this mantra to the duties of the ruler: The ruler should look after the cattle wealth of the country. The government must protect and promote the cows. Not only that. Even the people and their education culture and efficiency are, like the holy cow, to be protected against violence and promoted with good food and water and all means of prevention of social crime and violence.)

In this social order and in the policy, let there be a union and identity of the ruler with the people, their lands and their languages. Indra, noble and illustrious ruler, all giver, let the people share, join and support you in your creative acts of courage and development.
Mandala 6/Sukta 29

Indra Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

1. Indraṁ vo naraḥ sakhyāya sepurmaho yantaḥ sumataye cakānāḥ. Maho hi dātā vajrahasto asti mahāmu raṇvamavase yajadhvam.

O citizens of the land, leading lights of humanity in love with knowledge, wisdom and guidance, to win your friendship and to rise to the heights of life for your sake, honour and serve Indra, supreme ruler, lord of knowledge and power. Great is he, all giver, and wields the sceptre of light, power and justice. Join the great lord of love and joy and honour him with homage and yajnic service for protection and progress.

2. Ā yasmin haste naryā mimikṣurā rathe hiranyayē ratheṣṭhāh. Ā rāśmayo gabhastyoḥ sthūrayō rādhvannaśvāso vṛṣaṇo yujānāḥ.

Indra in whose hands are all the gifts of life for mankind rides the golden chariot of the cosmos, holding reins of the world in his mighty hands, controlling the potent forces of nature like horses on the course of time and destiny.
1. Indraham yena narade sakhyadeva sepurmaho yanta cumati cakrenyo. Mahoh hi deva vajrahasto asti mahamravadavase yajadhvam.

O citizens of the land, leading lights of humanity in love with knowledge, wisdom and guidance, to win your friendship and to rise to the heights of life for your sake, honour and serve Indra, supreme ruler, lord of knowledge and power. Great is he, all giver, and wields the sceptre of light, power and justice. Join the great lord of love and joy and honour him with homage and yajnic service for protection and progress.

2. Yasmin haste naryadhvan mimikurudhavan rathe hiraevayaye rathe. Arsamayo gabhastya sthumravyayavasuvravaradhanivasa vauvayo yujanayo.

Indra in whose hands are all the gifts of life for mankind rides the golden chariot of the cosmos, holding reins of the world in his mighty hands, controlling the potent forces of nature like horses on the course of time and destiny.

3. Sriye te padā duvaś mimikṣurdhṛṣṇurvajrī śavasā dakṣiṇāvān. Vasāno atkam surabhim dṛṣe kam svarṇa nṛtaviśiro babhūtha.

Gracious are your feet firmly fixed in liberality and compassion. The devotees offer their homage of soma there for glory. You are all conquering, wielder of the thunderbolt, mighty generous by your own essential power and munificence, and, wearing a fragrant, glorious and heavenly robe, blissful sight for all to see,
O director of the cosmic dance, you are the all moving,
all inspiring, omniscient presence and power.

4. Sa soma āmiślatamaḥ suto bhūdu yasmin paktih pacyate santi dhanaḥ. Indram narāḥ stuvanto brahmakārā ukthā śaṁsanta devavātatamāḥ.

That is the blessed dominion of Indra, ideal world order raised to systemic purity and integrated to organismic unity wherein soma is distilled and seasoned in plenty, ample food is prepared for all, food grains are grown in abundance, and leading lights of the people, divinely occupied, sing songs of appreciation in praise of Indra and rise to the heights of excellence bordering on divinity.
5. Na te antah śavaso dhāyyasya vi tu bābadhe rodasī mahitvā. Ā tā sūriḥ prṇati tūtujāno yūthevāpsu samījamāna ūtī.

No one can reach the end of your power, the force that binds up heaven and earth as a handful of dust in space. Still the man of courage and vision without fear, moving at supersonic speed under the cover of your protection, does attain that pleasure of fulfilment which a host of thirsty travellers finds at a shady fount of holy waters.

Thus may the lord sublime, omnipotent Indra, ever active in golden glory, listen to the prayers of universal humanity in all direct and indirect modes of divine protection and grace. Thus does the lord, self-manifest in boundless power and glory, create and preserve the abundant wealth of good and destroy darkness, enmity and negation of evil.

Mandala 6/Sukta 30

Indra Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi
1. Bhūya id vāyrdhe vīryāyaṇ eko ajuryo dayate vasūni. Pra ririce diva indraḥ prāthivyā ardhamidasya prati rodasī ubhe.

   Again and again the one ageless Indra grows in manifestation to express his power and creates, preserves and gives all wealths of the world. The sun from the regions of light covers half of the earth and relieves the other half. In turn, the earth and the sky both receive only half of the light and heat, and the sun exceeds and excels both.

2. Adhā manye brhadasyur'amasya yāni dādhāra nakirā mināti. Divedive sūryo darśato bhūd vi sadmānyurviyā sukraturdhāt.

   And I know and honour the extensive luminous life giving power and energy of this sun and of the many planets that it holds and sustains, which no power can deny, disturb, diminish or destroy. Day by day, every morning, the sun rises glorious and, holy participant in the cosmic yajna of Indra, it generates and sustains many abodes of life along with the wide earth.

3. Adyā cinnū cit tadapo nadīnāṃ yadābhya ar̥da gātumindra. Ni parvtaa admasado na sedus-tvayā dri̯hāni suktaa rajāṃsi.

   Indra, refulgent lord, now as ever you draw up the waters of the rivers by evaporation, shower them and let them flow in river beds to the sea. You attract the earth by gravitation and let it move in orbit. You fix the mountains in place and float the clouds in windy courses, everything in place like guests in a dinner party. Indeed, O lord of holy action in cosmic yajna, by you are all regions of the universe set in place, firm and secure.

Indra, refulgent lord eternal, true it is there is no one else divine or human as great as you who break the dark and dormant cloud, release the showers of rain and let the whirling streams flow and join the rolling ocean. Similarly, O lord omnipotent, you break the dark silence of sleeping nature from the state of inertness and set the processes of creative evolution aflow and let them ultimately recede into the fathomless ocean of silence again.

5. Tvamapo vi duro viṣūcīrindra dhṛhamarujāḥ parvatasya. Rājābhavo jagataścaraśanāṁ sākaṁ sūryaṁ janayan dyāmuṣāsam.

Indra, you break open the impenetrable doors of the cloud and release the rain showers. You break the adamantine mountains and let the waters flow in river courses. You break the bottomless inertness of life energy and let it flow in evolutionary channels of human action and courses of history. Creating the children of the moving world along with the sun and dawn of the day and the regions of heaven and earth, you reign supreme as light of the world, refulgent creator and ultimate dispenser.

Mandala 6/Sukta 31

Indra Devata, Suhotra Bharadvaja Rshi

Abhūreko rayipate rayiṇāmā hastayoradhithā indra kṛṣṭiḥ. Vi toke apsu tanaye ca sūre’vocanta carṣaṇayo vivācaḥ.

Indra, lord ruler of the world, in you vests the governance and control of the entire wealth and assets of the nation, pray be the sole possessor and custodian of national wealth, O lord of honour and excellence. In your hands alone lies the direction of the nation, producers, workers and defence forces all. The wisest people of the land speaking different languages in different styles, in their words and actions describe and celebrate the brilliance of the rule and governance of Indra to their children and grand children.

Indra, sole lord of law and power, by the fear and pressure of your presence, all the unshakables on earth and in the skies stir and move along their functional course. Heaven and earth, clouds and mountains, deep forests, indeed the entire fixed and functionary world of existence fears the unmoved motion of your pervasive presence and dare not relent in their function.

Indra, lord ruler and giver of light, having fought out the voracious drought and bad harvest with the thunderbolt of natural energy, keen for success in the development of lands and cows and the project of solar energy, you deplete ten injurious impediments and ride the chariot of the dominion like the sun in orbit.

Break open the hundreds of hidden strongholds and treasures of the wealth and power of the dark clouds and hoards collected by the thief, and there, O lord of light and power of knowledge and wisdom, with knowledge and expertise, provide the means and materials of prosperity and well being for the advancement of the generous scientist, creative artist, pharmacist, technologist and celebrant of divinity.

5. Sa satyasatvan mahate raṇāya rathamā tiṣṭha tuvinṛmṇa bhīmam. Yāhi prapathinnavasopa madrik pra ca śruta śrāvaya carṣanibhyah.

O lord commander of the power of truth and reality, master of manifold wealth and splendour, ready for the arduous battle of life, ride the awesome chariot, go forward, traveller of the path of rectitude, come to us too with the wisdom of revealed omniscience with all your modes of defence and protection and proclaim the truth for the people.

1. Apūrvyā purutamānyasmai mahe vīrāya tavase turāya. Virapśine vajriṇe šantamāni vacāṁ-syāsā sthavirāya takṣam.

Let me compose an original and comprehensive song of praise in my own, words in a state of peace overflowing with reverence in honour of this great hero, Indra, mighty performer of action, admirable wielder of the thunderbolt of justice and punishment, unshakable embodiment of tranquillity.

By the light of the sun, he illuminates the heaven and earth, protectors and inspirers of poets like father and mother. Breaking the cloud of showers, shaking the mountains of impediments and inhibitions of mind, sung and celebrated in songs of praise and jubilation, pleased, inspiring and illuminant in response to the homage of reverence, he opens the flood gates of light and song in words, breaking off all impediments to the original vision and imagination of the poet.

He is the ruler, himself a visionary, friend of friends, relentless hero of abundant action, breaker of the strongholds of darkness, and with the company and support of assisting partners, celebrants and poetic creators sitting in meditative posture, he breaks the overflowing with reverence in honour of this great hero, Indra, mighty performer of action, admirable wielder of the thunderbolt of justice and punishment, unshakable embodiment of tranquillity.

Indra, mighty brave and generous ruler, sung and celebrated in song, come well to the celebrant for the well being of the people and bless them with high spirits and ambition for victory and latest great powers and forces manned by many heroic leaders and warriors of the rising generation.

Indra, mighty ruler, instant victor, come happy and jubilant with vibrant new forces of creation, with dynamic pioneers advancing like winds who may, thus, creating, preserving, reconstructing, discovering new goals day by day, move on, realise anew indestructible eternal values and never look back.

1. Ya ojiṣṭha indra taṁ su no dā mado vṛṣanta-svabhīṣṭir-dāśvān. Sauvāśvyāṁ yo vanavat svaśvo vṛtrā samatsu sāsahadamitrān.

   Indra, lord of honour and excellence, ruler most illustrious, generous, victorious and beneficent, inspired with ardent passion, give us that stormy force of dynamic action for achievement which, equipped with instant and unfailing capability, may fight out the unfriendly powers of darkness in the contests of life and win the wealths of high value in the world for our cherished goal.

2. Tvāṁ hīndrāvase vivāco havante carṣaṇayaḥ śūrasātau. Tvāṁ viprehiṁ paṇīṁraśāyastvota it sanīṁ vājamarvā.

   You alone, O lord ruler, Indra, the people of diverse speech adore and invoke in diverse words in battles of the brave for protection and success. You alone, with the wise and vibrant, subdue the uncreative and greedy, and you alone give peace and rest to the celebrants. Indeed, under your protection only, does the cavalier and the warrior win the light of knowledge and victory in action.

3. Tvāṁ tāṁ indro bhayaṁ amitrān dāśā vṛtrānyāryā ca śūra. Vadhīrvasa eva sudhītehbir-ātkairā pṛtsu darṣi nṛṇāṁ nṛtama.

   Indra, brave ruler, leading light of the leaders, with focussed, objective and decisive judgement, distinguish between both opponents and supporters, the vile and the noble, split open both clearly to full exposure, and, with decisive blows of unfailing tactic, fight out the negatives in the contests of the dominion just like a forester felling the dead wood with sharpened axe.
Indra, brave ruler, leading light of the leaders, with focussed, objective and decisive judgement, distinguish between both opponents and supporters, the vile and the noble, split open both clearly to full exposure, and, with decisive blows of unfailing tactic, fight out the negatives in the contests of the dominion just like a forester felling the dead wood with sharpened axe.

Indra, lord ruler of the world, life of life and giver of showers of bliss, be our friend and protector with all your modes of defence and protection for our advancement without reserve or restriction. Fighting our battles of life, O brave and generous hero, defender of good against evil, we invoke and call upon you to come and help us with love and grace.

Indra, lord of life, for sure be our friend and protector, and saviour of others too, for now and for ever, and for the attainment of our cherished goal be kind and gracious. Singing, celebrating and glorifying the splendour of the great lord, we pray, may we abide in the high heaven of divine felicity and, blest with the sacred Word of Divinity, swim across the seas of suffering to freedom.

Mandala 6/Sukta 34

1. Saṁ ca tve jagmurgira indra pūrvirvi ca tvad yanti vibhvo maniśāḥ. Purā nūnaṁ ca stutaya ṛṣīnāṁ pasprdhra indre adhyukthākā.

Indra, lord giver of thought, speech and knowledge, all universal thoughts and diverse forms and words of the eternal Word, all languages past, present and future, proceed from you, return unto you and abide in you. For sure, all ancient hymns and recitations, all interpretive adorations of the seers divining into the visions and meanings of the mantras vie with each other to reach and concentrate on the glory of Indra.

Indra who is invoked by many, admired by many, sole lord adored by many, is sought after by the wise through creative and reflective yajnic endeavours for the pursuit of great vision and power with concentrated mind in meditation. May he be like a chariot for us across the world of life and consequently give us ultimate freedom and joy.

No thoughts can violate Indra, the ruler, nor hurt him, nor can words comprehend him. In fact, the thoughts and words of devotees exalt and glorify him. And when celebrants offer a hundred and thousand adorations to this lord of exaltation, he is pleased and then peace and bliss of well being descends on the devotee.

Just as soma, nectar juice of nature, mixes with the moon and the moon mixes fully with the sun once in the month on full moon night, so in this heavenly relation of life and action between Indra, the ruler, and the devotee, I join with Indra, and just as showers of rain in the desert exhilarate the people so may the sessions of yajna advance the devotees and thereby may they exalt and glorify the lord.

of life, is this exalted song of praise and adoration sung and offered by faithful and intelligent devotees so that for the victory of light over darkness and ignorance in this battle of life Indra, lord of all life and the world, may be our protector and guardian for advancement.

When would your chariots come to rest in the garage? When do you give away a thousand prizes of support and sustenance at the victory celebration? When do you reward the celebrant with wealth for his song?
And when do you make our acts of thought and will fructify with the wealth of success and victory?
2. Karhi svit tadindra yannṛbhīnīṃ vīrairvīrān nīlāyāse jayājīn. Tridhātu gā adhi jayāsi goṣvīndra dyumnāṃ svarvad dhehyasme.

When is it, Indra, brilliant ruler, that you bring people to meet with people, the brave to meet with the brave, vying in contest to win the battles of progress, conquer threefold wealth of knowledge and minerals over the lands and create and bring us celestial and blissful wealth, honour and excellence?

Indra, most potent ruler of the world, when would you bring that wealth of knowledge and holiness of universal form and character which we too desire for the celebrant? Commanding highest virtue, when would you join and inspire our thought and will to rise for the grand leap forward? When would you lead us to win the cherished honour, splendour and glory of the earth worthy of you?
4. Sa gomaghā jaritre aśvaścandrā vājaśravaso adhi dhehi prkṣāḥ. Pipihīṣaḥ sudughāmindra dhenum bharadvājeṣu suruco rurucyāḥ.

Indra, ruler of the world, give us the honour and excellence of a free world order, liquid wealth of gold in circulation, progressive advancement and renown in abundance for a planned programme, and drink the soma of attainable success worthy of a nation of knowledge, virtue and love of divinity, and thus help us create and structure an earthly order of fruitful prosperity for the dynamic bearers of science and action, a lovely world of beauty and splendour indeed.

Indra, valiant ruler, lord of knowledge and power, destroyer of darkness, hate and enmity, let the paths of love and progress you approve and proclaim and the doors of new knowledge you open never be otherwise, keep them wide open onwards. O vibrant lover of knowledge and advancement, never forsake the faithful scholars of divine nature’s fertility, vitality and virility, never desert the visionaries of the divine Word of Veda, serve and advance them with means and materials for relentless pursuit of knowledge and life’s sanctity.
Mandala 6/Sukta 36

Indra Devata, Nara Bharadvaja Rshi

Truly all your joys and inspirations, Indra, are universal, meant for the world. Truly all your earthly wealth, power and honour is for all children of the earth. Truly you are the wielder and distributor of all forms of food and energy which you bear and bring forth in the divinities of nature and humanity as the very breath of life.

Consequently people honour, value and worship the vigour and splendour of Indra in this world, and truly they develop it for the attainment of higher strength and vitality, and, for the attainment of united advancement of the progressive forces and countering the forces of negation in the battle against darkness, they gather their powers, perform concerted yajnic action and root out evil and wickedness.

All modes of protection and security, showers of strength and generosity, manliness and vigour and allied virtues and actions converge to Indra, join and abide in him. Just as rivers flow and reach the sea, so do all resonant voices of adoration and admirable qualities of life reach the lord all pervasive in the wide world.

Indra, sole ruler of the whole world, be the one unequalled master and protector of the people and of the golden wealth of the land, and, adored and glorified by them, release the streams of wealth, honour and excellence of the world for us.

   तान: । ॥ ५ ॥

Listen to our prayers and adorations, Indra, lord ruler who love the prayers and adorations of devotees, who are resplendent as sun and boundless as space, master, protector and giver of wealth, honour and excellence, so that shining by wealth and power, growing in knowledge and awareness day by day, you be, as you have been, kind and gracious to us as ever before.

Mandala 6/Sukta 37

Indra Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

1. Arvāgrathāṁ viśvavāraṁ ta ugliendra yuktāso harayo vahantu. Kiriṣciddhi tvā havate svarvān-

2. Pro droṇe harayaḥ karmāgman punānāsa ājñyataḥ abhūvan. Indro no asya pūrvyāḥ papīyāḥ dyukṣo madasya somyasya rājā.

Let the people go forward and higher in the measure of action and achievement and continue to rise in the sacred manner of simple and natural rectitude. And may Indra, ancient ruler of the world bright as heaven on earth, shining and ruling over the delightful order of bliss, rise exuberant and drink of the joy of soma, peace and glory of the order.

3. Āsasrāṇāsah śavasānamacchendraṁ sucakre rathyāso aśvāḥ. Abhi śrava ṝjyanto vaheyurnū cinnu vāyoramṛtam vi dasyet.

May the motive powers of the chariot of mighty Indra, ever on the move in the divine orbit in a simple and natural manner, gracefully bear the lord to the chant of our yajnic programmes of humanity. Let the immortal breath of life never be exhausted, let no one waste away the nectar vitality of immortality.

Indra, highest power of the dominion and fastest performer among men of wealth and splendour, achieves and raises the strength and honour of this social order by which, O lord of courage and power, wielder of the thunder of justice and punishment, you remove sin and crime and give rich gifts of reward and recognition to the scholars and the brave heroes.
5. Indro vājasya sthavirasya dāteindro gīrbhirvirdhatām vṛddhamahāḥ. Indro vṛtraṁ haniṣṭho astu satvā’’tā sūrīḥ pṛṇati tūtujānaḥ.

Indra is the giver of solid strength and stable progress. May Indra, celebrated by the great and exalted by our words of adoration, rise in glory. Indra is the destroyer of darkness in the extreme, brilliant and brave in the essence, and, instant performer as he is, learned, he is, and the giver of complete fulfilment.

Mandala 6/Sukta 38

Indra Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

1. Apāditā udu naścitatratamo mahīṁ bhārṣad dyumatīṁ-indrahūtim. Panyasīṁ dhitīṁ daivyasya yāmañjanasya rātim vanate sudānuḥ.

May Indra, lord immaculate, wondrous power and glorious ruler, perfect, self-existent and self-sustained, be here direct and accept and exalt our sincere, abundant and brilliant voice of adoration in honour of divinity. The lord is a generous and munificent giver, loves the celebrative voice of the heart and cherishes the homage of noble godly people on way to divinity.

2. Dūrāccidā vasato asya karṇā ghoṣād-indrasya tanyati bruṇāṇah. Eyamenāṁ devahūtirvavya-ṛtyānmadryag-indram-ṛcyamānā.
The ears of this lord Indra receive the voice of the speaker even from far off wherever he be, and from that voice, speaking in response, he raises it to the roar of thunder. May this voice of mine in honour of divinity, reaching and celebrating the lord of glory, come back to me, complete the circuit and bless me as voice divine.

For you all with the best and highest of mind and faith I proclaim and celebrate the ancient and unaging Indra, cosmic energy of the Divine with yajnic gifts of homage. The eternal consciousness of omniscience and the voice of the Vedas all resound in this cosmic medium and the mighty yajna of creation and evolution too renews, evolves and expands under this same Indra, divine energy.

Let yajna, corporate programmes of research and development, advance Indra, power and application of the electric energy of nature. Let soma, positive creations and the scholar dedicated to peace and universal happiness extend the possibilities of power. Let the divine words of the Vedas and the achievement of food and energy of universal value exalt Indra, lord of divine energy. And let the dawns, days and nights, hours, months, seasons, earth and heaven, all glorify Indra, lord of the universe. Let our thought and chants of holy word glorify him.
and the scholar dedicated to peace and universal happiness extend the possibilities of power. Let the divine words of the Veda and the achievement of food and energy of universal value exalt Indra, lord of divine energy. And let the dawns, days and nights, hours, months, seasons, earth and heaven, all glorify Indra, lord of the universe. Let our thought and chants of holy word glorify him.

Thus for the sake of strength and power, patience and fortitude as well as for challenge, for defence, protection and victory in our battles against darkness, want and evil, for the sake of onward achievement of wealth and success, and for the use and advancement of the vibrant learned scholar, O holy sage, let us all dedicate ourselves decisively and relentlessly to the great, illustrious, and perfect energy of divine nature, evolving, rising, and constantly developing it for us by our yajnic efforts, and let us thus serve and glorify Indra, omnipotent lord of the universe.

Mandala 6/Sukta 39

Indra Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi
1. Mandrasya kaśvedīvyasya vahnerāśram-anmano caranasya madhvāḥ. Apā nastasya sacanasya deveṣo yuvasva gṛṇate goagraḥ.

Taste the honey sweet of the Word of this happy and blissful divine poet, celebrant of light, inspirer of passion and vision of wisdom, and friend of Divinity.
O refulgent lord of generosity, protect and promote the brilliant and revealing Word of the poet, bless the servant of divinity with energy and sustenance and reveal the words of divinity for the celebrant.

2. Ayamūśānaḥ paryadrimusrā ṛtadhitibhir-ṛtayu-gyujānaḥ. Rujadarugāṇaḥ vi valasya sānum panīṇāravacobhirabhi yodhadindraḥ.

This poet, like the sun, loving, inspiring and impassioned, in unison with the truth and law of existence, with waves of energy bearing rays of light and showers of rain, breaks the clouds of darkness, lights up impenetrable tops of mighty mountains, opens up treasures of wealth, and blesses the untainted and the celebrants. Thus does Indra fight and shine.

3. Ayam dyotayadadyuto vyaktūn doṣā vastoḥ śarada indurindra. Imaṁ ketum-adadhur-nū cidahnaṁ śucijanmanma uṣasāścakārā.

Thus does this sun, this cosmic drop of divine soma, light up the unlighted: the nights, the mornings, days and seasons of the year. Thus does Indra create the light of immaculate dawns which bear up the light as banner of the days.

This Indra, the sun, itself refulgent, lights up the lightless such as earth and moon, and it lights up the ancient dawns, by the operation of cosmic law. It goes on in orbit by the centre pin of cosmic gravitation with other heavenly bodies such as planets and satellites, drawn by the motive forces of cosmic law and giving light and comfort primarily to the people of the earth.

Rajan, brilliant ruler, ancient power, praised and celebrated by devotees, develop and increase abundant food, energy and wealth for the dedicated liberal giver of charities, and for the development and accomplishment of holy programmes give waters, herbs, inobnoxious forests, cows, horses and brave leaders and competent manpower for the celebrant.
Indra Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

1. Indra piba tubhyaṁ suto madāyā’va sya harī vi mucā sakhāyā. Uta pra gāya gaṇa ā niṣadyā-’thā yajñāya gṛṇate vayo dhāh.

   Indra, refulgent ruler, drink the soma of joy distilled for your pleasure and majesty, let the motive power of the dominion, the government and the people, too be free and relax since they are friends. Sit in the assembly of the dominion and sing and inspire the people to celebrate the holy occasion, and bear and bring food, good health and long age for the celebrant of the dominion to carry on the corporate business of governance and administration as a yajna for the lord.

2. Asya piba yasya jajñāna indra madāya kratve apibo virapśin. Tamu te gāvo nara āpo adri-rindum samahyan pītaye samasmai.

   Indra, mighty ruler, drink of this nectar sweet of soma which you tasted at your birth and which you drank for passion and exhilaration while you arose for great action in the field of knowledge and governance, the same soma which the cows and rays of the sun, men and leaders, waters, clouds and mountains have collected and seasoned for this drink of yours.
3. Samiddhe agnau sutā indra soma ā tvā vahantu harayo vahīṭhāḥ. Tvāyata manasā johavīmī-indrā yāhi suvitāya mahe naḥ.

When the fire is kindled and rising and the soma is distilled, let the strongest motive forces of transport and the most powerful leaders who can bear the burdens of the commonwealth bring you here. And when you are here I invoke and invite you with a mind wholly dedicated to you, Indra, destroyer of pain and suffering, come for our great pleasure and prosperity of well being.

4. Ā yāhi śaśvaduṣatā yayāthane mahā manasā somapeyam. Upa brahmāṇi śrṇava imā no’thā te yajñastanve vayo dhāt.

Indra, mighty ruler and dispenser of peace and prosperity, come here without let up with inspired sages and leaders with magnanimous mind and morale to this nectar drink of the soma of governance and enlightenment. Listen carefully to these songs of adoration and words of the Veda, and, we pray, may this yajnic business of governance and administration bear and bring us good food, energy and a long age of good health for our person and the social order.
5. Yadindra divi pārye yadṛdhagyad vā sve sadane yatra vāsi. Ato no yajñamavase nīyutvānt-sajōśāḥ pāhi girvaṇo marudbhiḥ.

Indra, enlightened ruler, admired and adored in refined words of homage and reverence, whether you are in a far off land of your choice you love to promote in a special direction or in your own place of residence, or wherever you happen to be, from there, O loving and friendly leader dedicated to the yajnic order of governance for its defence and protection, develop and promote the order by the most vibrant force of daring commandos.

Mandala 6/Sukta 41

Indra Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

Indra, lord ruler of glory and power, giver of freedom and dignity, come loving and favourable, grace our yajna of life and living. Drops of soma flow from the press for you and sanctify and brighten up the yajna. O lord of thunder and justice, first and foremost of the holiest guardians of yajna, just as mother cows rush to their stalls for their calves, so eagerly come to us and bless the devotees.
2. Yā te kākut sukṛtā yā variṣṭhā yayā śaśvat pibasi madhva ūrmim. Tayā pāhi pra te adhvaryur-asthāt saṁ te vajro vartatāmindra gavyuḥ.

   Indra, ruling lord of Dharma and rectitude, by that sophisticated and discriminative palate of yours by which you always taste the sweets of the flow of life, and by that discriminative and sublimated thought and speech by which you always distil the essence and value of the sweets and shades of life and respond to human action, taste the sweets of our yajnic performance, and protect and promote us by your words of wisdom through the rise and fall of life’s movement. The high-priest dedicated to love and non-violence awaits you at the altar. May your wheel of justice and governance over the earth ever revolve over the order of humanity.

3. Eṣa drapso vrṣabho viṣvarūpa indrāya vrṣṇe samakāri somah. Etam piba harivaḥ sthātarugra yasyeśiṣe pradīvi yaste annam.

   This soma of the order of beauty and sweetness of bliss, flowing, free from intoxication and illusion, creative and exuberant, universal and open in form and performance, is distilled to the essence in honour of the generous and potent lord of power and glory. Drink of it, taste and judge of it, O lord illustrious ever on the move by motive forces yet settled at centre, rule over it in the light of heaven, live it, it is the very food for your life and existence.

4. Sutaḥ soma asutādindra vasyānayaṁ śreyāṇci-kituṣe raṇāya. Etam titirva upa yāhi yajñam tena viśvāstaviṣīrā pṛṇasva.

This soma, blissful order of life fashioned into form from the raw materials of life and thought, O lord of power and glory, is better, more fragrant and inspiring for the man of intelligence and culture in search of a life of knowledge, achievement and happiness. Come, O lord victorious over opposition and contradictions, to this yajnic order of society and thereby strengthen all forces of action for advancement and total fulfilment.

5. Hvayāmasi tvendra yāhyarvāṇāram te soma-stanve bhavāti. Śatakrato mādayasvā suteṣu prāsmāṇ ava pṛtanāsū pra vikṣu.

Indra, ruler and protector, we invoke and exhort you, go forward, let the soma of exhilaration and social dignity be sufficient and inspiring for your health and the body politic. O lord of a hundred great actions and yajnic victories, rise and celebrate the glory of life among the people raised and refined to the sweetness and beauty of culture. Guide on, protect and promote us among the nations and powers of the world.

Mandala 6/Sukta 42

Indra Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

Indra, ruler and patron of knowledge and culture, provide all facilities of the world for this bold and courageous leading scholar thirsting for knowledge and constantly going forward to reach the expansive bounds of his subject, never tarrying, never looking back.

1. Pratyasmai pipiṣate viśvāni viduṣe bhara. Araṇgamāya jagmaye’paścāddadhvane nare.

In consequence and return, O scholars and citizens of the land, be grateful to this Indra, brilliant ruler, lover of the peace and pleasure of the soma of knowledge and enlightenment and promoter of scholars and men of truth and naturalness. Do all possible homage to him with ample measures of work and knowledge distilled like soma in the essence from your brilliant work and noble conduct.

If you honour the lord ruler with the homage of pure and brilliant soma of knowledge and yajnic action in response to his magnanimity, the wise and adorable lord of the world would acknowledge and appreciate each act of homage.

O high priest of the yajnic order, bear and bring an equable share of bright and inspiring food and maintenance for every one. And may the great and wise one, the lord, preserve, protect, promote and defend the rightful constancy of the admirable force and power of the order against violence and calumny.

Mandala 6/Sukta 43

Indra Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

1. Yasya tyacambararāṁ made divodāsāya randhayaḥ. Ayaiṁ sa soma indra te sutāḥ piba.

Indra, lord of power and glory, this is that soma distilled and seasoned for you in the exhilaration and ecstasy of which you, like the sun on high, break down the forces of darkness and evil to promote the spirit of light and generosity. Pray drink of it to your heart’s content and protect and promote the spirit of it.

2. Yasya tīvrasutam madam madhyamantam ca rakṣase. Ayāṁ sa soma indra te sutaḥ piba.

   Indra, lord ruler, this is that soma, the power and glory of the yajnic order, distilled and refined in your honour, the brilliant and pure spirit of which in the essence you protect and promote in the beginning, in the middle and at the end of its completion. Pray drink of it to your heart’s content and rejoice in the splendour and ecstasy of it.

3. Yasya gā antaraśmāno made dṛḍhā avāsarjāḥ. Ayāṁ sa soma indra te sutaḥ piba.

   Indra, lord of glory, this is that soma of knowledge and power distilled and refined for you under the force and exhilaration of which you release mighty waves of energy confined in the thickest cloud and most solid materials. Drink of it to your heart’s content and protect and promote the science and power of it.

4. Yasya mandāno andhaso māghonam dadhiṣe śavaḥ. Ayāṁ sa soma indra te sutaḥ piba.

   Indra, lord of vision, knowledge and power, happy and worshipful devotee of the sweetness, beauty and ecstasy of life, this is that soma of existence distilled and refined in the essence for you, the mighty energy, force and exuberant vitality of which you bear, protect and promote. Live it, enjoy it to your heart’s content, and protect and promote its glory on and on.

Mandala 6/Sukta 44

Indra Devata, Shamyu Barhaspatya Rshi

   Indra, supreme lord of your own nature, power and law, that soma beauty and bliss of the world of existence created by you, which is most abundant in wealth and brilliance, which is most glorious in splendour and majesty, is all yours, all for yourself, all your own pleasure, passion and ecstasy.

   Indra, O mighty lord most kind, master of your own power and potential, that exciting peace and pleasure of life created, those gifts of wealth showered on rational humanity, the exuberance of munificence, all is yours, for your own pleasure and ecstasy, and rendered back to you in homage and gratitude.

Indra, mighty ruler, protector and sustainer of your own creation, your power and potential and your own forces of protection by which you promote the good and positive and destroy the evil and negative like the ancient and eternal father guardian and like a protective destroyer for preservation, that is the beauty and glory and assertive energy of life created by you. That is yours, your fatherly pleasure and ecstasy. Pray let it evolve and rise.

All ye children of the earth, for you all I praise and celebrate that Indra, lord dispenser of justice and punishment without anger or violence, commander of power and forces of the nation, challenger of all negative forces of the world, leader of humanity, and great and glorious ruler of the men of vision and acts of universal value.
5. \(\text{Yaṁ vardhayantīd giraḥ patiṁ turasya rādhasaḥ.} \\ \text{Taminnavasya rodasī devī śuṣmaṁ saparyataḥ.}\)

Indra whom universal voices of the world exalt and celebrate in adoration, is the ruler and protector of all the effective achievers of the world of nature and humanity. Him, in truth, the brilliant heaven and the green earth both serve under his power and law. To him our homage is always due.

6. \(\text{Tad va ukthasya barhaṇendrāyopastṛṇīśanī.} \\ \text{Vipo na yasyotayo vi yad rohanti sakśiataḥ.}\)

That lord you exalt by the beauty and sublimity of your holy song of praise in honour of Indra whose protections and modes of advancement then rise together like shoots of soma inwardly stirred by the song under his umbrella.

7. \(\text{Avivad dakṣāṁ mitro navīyān papāno devebhyo} \\
\text{vasyo acait. Sasavāntstaulābhirdhautarībhī-} \\
\text{rurusyā pāyurabhavat sakhibhyāḥ.}\)

The rising youth, friendly and protective, knows and achieves strength and expertise, and provides a place of rest and security for the noble and the wise. Well provided with food and means of sustenance, eager to protect and promote, he rises as a guardian power for friends and companions with unshakable forces of defence and protection.
8. Rtasya pathi vedhā apāyi śriye manāmsi devāso akran. Dadhāno nāma maho vacobhirvapurrīśaye venyo vyāvah.

On the path of truth and eternal law, the man of knowledge and wisdom is protected, and the noble and the wise control and transform their minds for the beauty and grace of manners and culture. May the Great one, kind and loving, bearing the holy name, reveal his divine presence in response to our prayers and protect us through the paths of life.

9. Dyumattamaṁ dakṣaṁ dhehyasme sedhā janāṇāṁ pūrvarāthiḥ. Varṣīyo vayaḥ krṣṇuhi śacībhir-dhanasya sātāvasmāṁ aviddhi.

Grant us strength and expertise of the brightest order, accomplish the tasks on hand and ward off the age-old adversities of the people, bless us with a long age of charity and generosity, and let us join and participate in the battles for wealth and success with the best of actions and intelligence among people.

10. Indra tubhaminmaghavannabhūma vayaṁ dātre harivo mā vi venāḥ. Nakirāpirdadrśe martyatrā kimaṅga radhracadanāṁ tvāhuḥ.

Indra, lord of power and majesty, let us be, let us live and work only for you, generous and charitable ruler. Pray do not ignore us, do not neglect us. There is none visible among the mortals around here our own such as you, lord of horse and men, otherwise, O lord dear as breath of life, why would they call you the inspirer for the achievement of honour and excellence in life?

Indra, mighty generous destroyer of suffering, deliver us not to the unjust and the hungry grabber. Let us never suffer in the friendship of the generous lord nor fall off from loyalty. Let us take advantage of the age old facilities of success among the people. Eliminate the uncreative and keep us away from ungrateful negationists.

And like thundering clouds, Indra moves and declares the gifts of success and munificence, horses and fast accomplishment, cows and abundant food and drink. O lord, you are the patron sustainer of brilliant artists, inventive scientists and expert technologists. Let the miserly non-giver never deceive you or injure you, and never let him deceive the generous and prosperous people.

अध्वर्य वीरः पुरूष वर्षिके विद्वानिन्द्रः वृत्राण्यपुत्री जयान।
तमु प हि मधुमन्त्रमस्माम वीराय शिष्यण पिबाध्यः ॥ १४ ॥

13. Adhvaryo vīra pra mahe sutānāmindrāya bhara sa hyasya rājā. Yaḥ pūrvyābhiruta nūtanābhir-girbhirvārdhe grṇatāmṛśiṇām.

O brave high priest of the social order of the yajna of love and non-violence, bear the best of soma distilled for homage in honour of the great Indra, ruler of the world. He alone is the ruler of this order worthy to rule who rises in personal and social esteem by the holy voices, both old and new, of the admirers and the wise seers of the land.

अस्य मद्दः पुरुष वर्षिके विद्वानिन्द्रः वृत्राण्यपुत्री जयान।
तमु प हि मधुमन्त्रमस्माम वीराय शिष्यण पिबाध्यः ॥ १५ ॥

14. Asya made puru varpāṃsi vidvāṇindro vṛtrāṇyapraṭi jaghāna. Tamu pra hoṣi madhumantamasmai somaṁ vīrāya śipriṇe pibadhyai.

Under the inspiration and ardent passion of this soma, Indra, irresistible lord ruler all wise, destroys many covert forces of darkness and evil. That same soma, honey sweet and exhilarating you bear for a drink to this brave hero who shines in brilliant helmet and armour.
15. Pātā sutamindro astu somaṁ hantā vrtraṁ vajreṇa mandasānah. Gantā yajñāṁ parāvata-ścidacchā vasurdhūnāmavitā kārudhāyāḥ.

Let Indra, the ruler, drink the soma distilled from exhilarating herbs and protect the spirit and honour of the nation arisen from the noble rule of the order. Let him, happy and inspired, destroy the demon of evil and darkness with the thunderbolt of justice and power. Let him go and attend the yajña of the order well even from afar, provide happy and peaceful settlement for all the people, protect and promote intellectual work and programmes of corporate action, and sustain and advance the experts in art, science and technology.

16. Idam tyat pātramindrapānānmandrasya priyamamṛtamapāyi. Matsad yathā saumanasāya devam yasvad dveṣo yuyavad vyāmhaḥ.

This is that life-giving cup of Indra’s nectar drink, his favourite, from which he drinks the dear delicious elixir of life so that he feels happy at heart and inspires the divine force of cosmic energy to ward off hate and enmity from us and cast away all sin and evil, and thereby save and strengthen the immortal soul.

17. Enā mandānā jahi śūrā satrūṇ-jānimajānim maghavannamitrān. Abhiṣeṇāṁ abhyādediś-ānāṁ parāca indra pra mṛṇā jahi ca.
This way Indra, O valiant hero, happy at heart and joyous, commanding wealth, power and excellence of the world, give up all enemies whether among the related or unrelated people, all unfriendly and menacing forces, all oppositions up front, and all those who order you about like bullies, ward them off, throw them out far away, destroy them all. Keep the soul untainted and free.

In these battles of life, among these forces of positive action, O lord of wealth, power and majesty, Indra, destroyer of negativities and enmities, make the way clear for us for the achievement of life’s great honour and excellence. Indra, lord of glory and victory, bless us with bravery and spirit of heroism, high intelligence, and power and prosperity of success in our struggle and attainment of the waters of life, noble actions and brave children and grand children.

18. Āsu śmā ṇo maghavannindra prṛsvasmabhhyam mahi varivah sugam kah. Apām tokasya tanayasya jēṣa indra sūrīn kṛṣṇihī smā no ardham.

Indra, O leading light and spirit of the nation of humanity, may the pioneers, brave and heroic, united with you in thought and action, blazing as sunrays and falling as showers, instant in initiative and perfect in aim, riding mighty chariots, concentrating on our defence and protection, generous and magnanimous, wielding thunder and lightning, willing warriors all, conduct and bring you here for our strength and joy of life’s victory.

आ ते व्रषन्व्रष्णां दार्शनस्थुष्टपुष्णा नामया मद्दनः। इन्द्रं

20. Ā te vṛṣan vṛṣaṇo dṛṇamasthur-ghṛtapruṣo normayo madantaḥ. Indra pra tubhyāṁ vṛṣabhiḥ suturaṁ vṛṣṇe bharanti vṛṣabhāya somam.

Indra, lord of power and glory, delightful showers of soma, exuberant and exhilarating like dancing waves of the sea, come and fill your cup of nectar and sprinkle your altar of yajna with ghṛta. Thus do the leading lights of nature and humanity bear and bring the soma of life’s light and joy distilled by brave and generous leaders of the yajnic order for the mighty and magnanimous lord ruler of the world.

वृषासिद्धा दिवा वृष्णं पृथिव्या वृषा सिन्धूलां वृष्णं:
स्तिर्यानाम। वृष्णं ते इन्द्रवृष्णं पीपाय स्वादूः रसं मधुपया

21. Vṛṣāsi divo vṛṣabhah prthivyā vṛṣā sindhūnāṁ vṛṣabhah stiyanāṁ. Vṛṣṇe ta indurvṛṣabha pīpāya svādū raso madhupeyo varāya.

You are the showerer of the light of heaven. You are the inspirer of the life of earth. You are the showerer of the waters of rivers and the seas. You are the life breath of things moving and non-moving all together. This is the homage, honey drink, bright, delicious, the very nectar of life for the lord ruler.

This brilliant and divine soma rising and manifesting with exhilaration and ardent passion, friend of Indra and one with his glory, stabilises the admirable rule and order of the world and strengthens the supporters of it. This soma, bright and blissful as the moon, keeps the arms and armaments and the justice and administration of its creator and ruler in order, and it frustrates the plans and wiles of the unruly and the unholy.

This ardent passion of Indra, lord omnipotent creator, makes the dawns bright and blissful inspirers of love and devotion, vests the sun with light within, creates the universe of three natural principles of mind, energy and matter, and infuses the immortal spirit, as mysterious and immanent spirit, in the three bright worlds of heaven, earth and the firmament, and helps us to discover the immortal bliss with ardent passion of holiness.

This passion and omnipotence of Indra wields and stabilises the heaven and earth in orbit. It ordains the seven-rayed chariot of the sun in the system. With its power and action it places mature living energy in the fertility of earths, milk in cows and warmth in the rays of sunlight, and thus it holds and sustains soma, life energy of existence, in the universe, thereby making it a living system of tenfold nature, i.e., five elements and five pranic energies.

Mandala 6/Sukta 45

Indra (1-30) and Brbustaksha (31-33) Devata,
Shamyu Barhaspatya Rshi

Ya ānayat parāvataḥ sunīti tuvāṃ yadum.
Indraḥ sa no yuvā sakhā.

May Indra, that eternal lord omnipotent, that youthful ruler, and that forceful leader, be our friend and companion so that he may lead the man of instant decision and action and the hardworking people on way to wisdom and right living even from far off distance.

He brings food, health and age, life and light of knowledge for the innocent and for the ignorant and unintelligent too and wins wealth and honour for the good life at the fastest without haste and impatience.

Nāsya kṣīyanta utayāḥ.

Great are this ruler’s policies and acts of leadership, universal and admirable. Never do his honour, reputation and modes of defence, protection and progress go down.

4. Sakhāyo brahmavāhase’rcata pra ca gāyata.
Sa hi naḥ pramatirmahī.

Come ye friends and comrades, adore the harbinger and protector of divine sustenance and light of universal knowledge, celebrate him in song and proclaim his gifts of kindness. He is the light of sublimity, he alone is our vision and wisdom.

5. Tvamekasya vṛtrahannavitā dvayorasi.
   Utedṛśe yathā vayam.

   O lord destroyer of evil like the sun, breaker of the clouds, you are the saviour and protector of the one, the lonely and helpless as well as of both the people and the officers of administration as we too likewise are supporters of the ruler and the people.

   Nṛbhīḥ suvīra ucyase.

   You control, guide and manage even the stubborn haters and convert them to ardent admirers of positive knowledge as men of faith and enlightenment. So you are called the real heroic leader and ruler by the leading lights.

7. Brahmāṇam brahmavāhasam gīrbhīḥ sakhāy-amrgmiyam.
   Gām na dohase huve.

   I invoke and celebrate in holy words the seer and scholar of the universal knowledge of the Vedas, adorable friend and exponent of divine knowledge as one would serve and milk the cow for living energy or study and meditate on the holy Word for living light.
8. Yasya viśvāni hastayorūcurvasūni ni dvitā.

Seers and scholars say that in the hands of the heroic leader and ruler, brave challenger and subduer of all forces, lie and abide all treasures of the world both material and spiritual. (The real scholar too is one who commands the knowledge of nature as well as of the spirit, of this world and of the world beyond.)

9. Vi dṛṅhāni cidadrivo janānāṁ śacīpate.

Vṛha māyā anānata.

O bold and intrepidable ruler and protector of the people, lord of mighty action, you break the clouds and shake the mountains. Pray strengthen the strongholds of the people and uproot the wiles of the wicked.

10. Tamu tvā satya somapā indra vājānāṁ pate.

Ahūmahi śravasyavah.

Indra, lord ever true and redoubtable, protector of the spirit and culture of the good life, ruler and promoter of food, energy and progressive advancement of the people, we invoke and call upon you to lead us in our pursuit of sustenance, progress, honour and excellence and immortal fame.

11. \[ \text{Tamu tvā yāḥ purāsīthā yo vā nūnāṁ hite dhane.} \]
\[ \text{Havyaḥ sa śrūdhī havam.} \]

You who have ever been with us and for us since eternity, who surely are with us in our best of prosperity and ever at the call of action, the same, O lord adorable, we invoke and pray listen to our call and come and bless.

12. \[ \text{Dhībhir-arvadbhir-arvato vājāṁ īndra śravāyyān.} \]
\[ \text{Tvayā jeśma hitaṁ dhanam.} \]

With our intelligence and actions, with our drive and horses, and with your helping hand and grace, O lord of victory, destroyer and preserver, Indra, rising and advancing, we pray, let us succeed in our battles of life and win wholesome and reputable treasures of peace and prosperity.

13. \[ \text{Abhūru vīra girvaṇo mahāṇ īndra dhane hite.} \]
\[ \text{Bhare vitantasāyyaḥ.} \]

Indra, lord giver of honour and excellence, great, adored in words of praise and prayer, when the call is given, the forces are in array and the battle is raging, then, O lord of victory, be with us. And when the treasure is won and abounds for the good in life, then too, O lord pervasive, be with us.

    Tayā no hinuḥī ratham.

    And when your umbrella of protection and promotion grows most extensively fast and wide, then by that accelerate our chariot of honour and glory and let it range wider and wider.

15.  Sa rathena rathītamo’smākenābhiyugvanā.
    Jeśi jiśno hitaṁ dhanam.

    O leader and ruler, Indra, bravest commander of the fastest chariot of our social order, thirsting for victory, by that united chariot of ours in unison with us you win the treasures of life good for the nation of humanity.

16.  Ya eka it tamu śtuhi krṣṭīnāṁ vicarṣaṇiḥ.
    Patirjaiṇe vṛṣakratuḥ.

    O man, invoke, admire and celebrate that one alone who is unique by himself, ever watchful guardian of the people, generous performer and showerer of blissful fruits of his action, and who emerges and rises as the protector and ruler of all.
17. Yo grññatāmidāsithā’pirūṭī śivah sakāh.
   Sa tvāṁ na indra mṛlaya.

   Indra, potent lord of action, destroyer of suffering and giver of bliss, who are good and kind, friendly and one with the celebrants as our kith and kin, all protective under your umbrella, such as you are, we pray, be kind and gracious to us and lead us to the peace and happiness of the good life.

18. Dhiṣya vajraṁ gabhastyo rakṣohatyāya vajrivaḥ.
   Sāsahīṣṭhā abhi spṛdhaḥ.

   O wielder of the thunderbolt of defence and power, take up the adamantine mace and thunder of power and justice in your hands for the destruction of evil and wickedness and face, challenge, resolve and win the battles ahead.

   Brahmavāhastamam huve.

   I invoke and celebrate that most eminent sage and scholar of universal Vedic knowledge who is great as ancient seers, friend, and inspirer of dedicated disciples to win the wealth of life both spiritual and material.
20.  Sa hi viṣvānī pārthivāṇ ēko vāśūṇī patyate.
Girvanastamo adhriguḥ.

He alone, most adorable, instant mover and omnipresent lord of the universe, solely by himself, rules, protects and promotes all treasures of the earth.

(He alone deserves to be ruler of the world who is an earthly embodiment of such universal virtues.)

21.  Sa no niyudbhirā pṛṇa kāmāṁ vājebhir-aśvibhiḥ.
Gomadbhir-gopate dhrṣat.

O lord of land with controlled mind and senses, bold and resolute, come to us with your teams of harnessed services and commissioned forces commanding speed and movement, warriors of horse and armour, managers of lands and cattle wealth, controllers of information and communication, and with all this infrastructure fulfil our desires and ambitions for the good life of success and progress.

22.  Tad vo gāya sute sacā puruhūtāya satvane.
Śaṁ yad gave na śākine.

In your soma yajna in the business of the world of the lord’s creation, sing together songs of homage in honour of the universally adored, ever true and eternal almighty Indra, songs which may be as pleasing to the mighty lord as to the seeker and the celebrant.

न घा वसुनि यमत दानं वाजस्य गार्तं: ।
यत्सीमुपु श्रवद्व: || २३ ||

23. Na ghā vasurni yamate dānāṁ vājasya gomataḥ.
   Yat sīmupa śravad girah.

And surely the lord giver of settlement and gifts of knowledge, power and speedy progress does not withhold the gifts since he closely hears the prayers of the devotee and responds.

शारीशिरप ना वरत || २४ ||

24. Kuvitsasya pra hi vrajam gomantam dasyuhā gamat. Śacībhirapa no varat.

May the lord destroyer of evil, negativity and poverty visit the homestead of the prayerful devotee blest with lands, cows and divine knowledge and open up the flood gates of wealth, power and divine grace for us with his vision and powers.

इमा उ त्वा शतकताचिभि प ण 'नुवृगिरः: ।
इन्द्रे वत्सं न मात्तरः || २५ ||

25. Imā u tvā śatakato’bhi pra ṇonuvurgiraḥ.
   Indra vatsam na mātaraḥ.

Indra, lord ruler of the world and guardian of the people, just as mother cows look toward and low out of affection for the calf, so do these people look up to you with love and reverence, and their voices of adoration exalt you, O lord of a hundred acts of kindness and holiness.

Indra, potent lord ruler of multifarious acts and potential, never can your friendship toward the people be lost or destroyed, it is permanent and versatile. You are all love and revelation to a person in search of faith and knowledge, and you are all impetuous victor for a person thirsting for speed and progress. (The way we think and act, you respond.)

27. Sa mandasvā hyandhaso rādhase tanvā mahe.
Na stotāram nide karaḥ.

Indra, ruler of the world of knowledge and action, be happy at heart by body, mind and soul with good food, energy and soma, and make others happy. Subject not your devoted celebrant to the malignity of revilers.

28. Imā u tvā sutesute nakṣante girvaṇo girah.
Vatsam gāvo na dhenavaḥ.

These words and voices of adoration, O spirit adorable, reach you, in every yajna, in every cycle of creation, like cows rushing to the calf with love.

29. Purūtamaṁ purūnāṁ stotṝṇāṁ vivāci.
   Vājebhir-vājayatāṁ.

   May the most ancient and eternal knowledge in the speech of the ancient celebrants of divinity, enlightening and energising humanity with the vital spirits of existence, reaching the primeval soul, come to us too, enlighten and energise us too.

30. Asmākamindra bhūtu te stomo vāhiṣṭho antamaḥ.
   Asmān rāye mahe hinu.

   Indra, lord giver of honour and excellence, may our song of celebration in your honour carry our message of homage closest to your heart to exalt you, and may you, we pray, inspire us to achieve the highest wealths of life.

31. Adhi bṛbuḥ paṇīnāṁ varṣisṭhe mūrdhanniṣṭhāt.
   Uruḥ kakṣo na gāngyāḥ.

   Let the maker, artist, analyst and architect, occupy and preside over the highest position in the world of business, wide and high like the embankment of a mighty river, to contain and control the flow of the current of waters.

Yasya vāyoriva dravad bhadrā rātiḥ sahasriṇī.
Sadyo dānāya maṁhate.

Whose gifts to society flow in a thousand directions like the currents of wind, his generosity and charities always and instantly, rise and continue to rise for the progress of humanity.

Tat su no viśve aryā ā sadā grṇanti kāravah.
Bṛbuṁ sahasradātamam surīṁ sahasrasāt-amam.

All our artists and artisans always appreciate and admire the chief architect, learned, wise and brave, giver of a thousand gifts and sharer of a thousand things with thousands of people. He indeed is the head of our business world.

Mandala 6/Sukta 46

Indra Devata, Shamyu Barhaspatya Rshi

1. Tvāmiddhi havāmahe sātā vājasya kāravah. Tvāṁ vṛtresvindra satpatim narastvāṁ kāṣṭhāsvar-vataḥ.

Indra, lord of power and advancement, you alone we invoke and call upon for acquisition of food, energy, honour, excellence and progress. All of us, leading people, makers, poets, artists, artisans and architects of the nation, fast advancing in all directions, invoke and exhort you, protector and promoter of universal truth and values in human struggles for light, goodness and generosity, and the wealth of life.

Indra, lord of wondrous powers and performance, wielding the thunderbolt of justice and punishment in hand, great and glorious, breaker of the clouds and shaker of mountains, invoked and adored in song, with truth and science, power and force, collect, organise and win for us the wealth of lands, cows and rays of the sun, horses, transports and chariots like the victories of wealth and glory for the ambitious nation.

3. Yaḥ satrāhā vicarṣaṇir-indrāṁ tam hūmahe vayam. Sahasramuṣṭa tuvinṛmṇa satpate bhavā samatsu no vrđhe.

We invoke and adore Indra, lord of glory, constant watcher of humanity and human actions, and pray: O lord protector of truth, commanding thousandfold vitality and flames of fiery forces, master of universal wealth, be with us for our advancement in the struggles of life.

Indra, ruler of the world, sacred as hymns of Rgveda, as a bull controls the herd, so you control as well as defend people with righteous passion and justice when they rub against each other or face great conflicts. O lord, be our saviour, giver of enlightenment in the great battles for wealth, health care, water management and the harnessing of solar energy.

5. Indra jyeṣṭhaṁ na ā bharāṁ ojīṣṭhaṁ papuri śravaḥ. Yeneme citra vajrahasta rodasī obhe suśīpra prāḥ.

Indra, lord of noblest virtue and knowledge, bear and bring us that best and most lustrous food for the nourishment of body and mind by which, O wondrous hero of golden helmet and wielder of thunder in hand, you may reach both this earth and this sky upto the heaven.

For our defence and protection, O ruler, of all the brilliant, generous and mighty powers, we invoke you, illustrious challenger of the enemies of humanity. O lord giver of peace and settlement in security, crush and scatter the obdurate negative forces within and outside, and turn the opponents into friends and unquestionable supporters.

7. Yadindra nāhuṣīsvāṇ ojo nṛṁṇam ca krṣṭiṣu. Yad vā pañca kṣītīnāṁ dyumnamā bhara satrā viśvāni pauṁsyā.

Indra, ruler of the world, whatever the lustre and splendour in humanity across history, whatever the power and wealth among communities, whatever the virtue and quality in the five elements of nature or lands of the earth, or whatever the strength and vigour of the world of existence, you bear and symbolise all that. Pray, O lord, bear and bring us all that.

8. Yad vā trkṣau maghavan druhyāvā jane yat pūravau kacca vrṣṇyam. Asmabhyaṁ tad rirīhi sam nṛṣāhye mitrān pṛṣtu turvaṁ.

O lord of wealth and power of the world, whatever the wisdom among the learned, whatever the energy among people of anger and hostility, or whatever strength and vigour among people of fullness of virility and generosity, at their best, bring us all that in the battles of human contest and competition so that we may face, fight out and eliminate anger, enmity and malice.

\[ \text{इन्द्र त्रिधातुं शरुणं त्रिवर्तं स्वस्तिमतं। छुदियांच्छ माधवकरणबर्ष पहं च यावया दिद्युभ्यं:} \]

9. Indra tridhātu śaraṇāṁ trivarūthamä svastimāt. Chardir-yaccha maghavadbhyaśca mahyāṁ ca yāvayā didyumebhyāḥ.

Indra, lord ruler of the wealth of nations, for the men of wealth, power, honour and generosity of heart, and for me too, give a home made of three metals and materials, comfortable in three seasons of summer, winter and rains, a place of rest, peace and security for complete well being. Give the light for them, keep off the blaze from them.

\[ \text{व गन्यता मनसा शत्रुमादभुरभिमण्डलं धृष्णुया। अर्थ स्मा ना मधवान्निन्द्र गिवनस्तनूपा अन्तमा भवं:} \]

Indra, lord of peace and power, exalted by words of adoration, give us warriors who, with their love of cows, lands and speech and with the force of their mind and strength of arm and courage, press down the enemies and destroy their arms and armies, and then, also, O lord protector of our person and body politic, be with us at the closest, deep within.

\[ \text{अर्थ स्मा ना वृद्ध भृवन्दे नायमेवा युधिः। चढंतरीं परत्यन्ति} \]

11. पुणिनं दिद्यावलिष्ठगममूढान:.

Indra, chief of defence forces, give us those flying birds of defence and protection which blaze through skies and spaces carrying deep penetrative war heads in front, and then, also, be with us for our leadership, defend and protect us in the battles for our advancement.

Give us the sweet home where the brave extend the honour and achievement of their forefathers, and then, for further extension of the honour, achievement and tradition of the nation, give us peace and security free from mental worry and keep off all jealousy, malice and hostility.

And when, in the effort for creation and in the struggle for extension of honour and achievement of new wealth, you inspire the stormy pioneers and ambitious warriors thirsting for fame, and urge them on to fly like eagles on unequal paths and winding ways of progress and possibility, then also, O lord, be with us all through.

The pioneers and warriors of new projects on earth fly on and move like rivers rushing down to the sea. They move by superfast carriers whose controls are held fast in hands, and instantly act in response to the sound signal and pounce upon the target like birds on food at sight, intensively.

Mandala 6/Sukta 47

Soma, Indra, Dana, Ratha, Dundubhi Devatah,

Garga Bharadvaja Rshi

1. Svāduṣkilāyaṁ madhumāṁ utāyaṁ śivraṁ kilāyaṁ rasavāṁ utāyaṁ. Uto nvasya papi-vāṁsamindrāṁ na kaścana sahata āhaveṣu.

Soma: of course it is delicious, honey sweet, and it is sharp and strong and intense, and also it has wonderful flavour. And when Indra, the mighty one, has happily drunk of this soma, this nectar of life, none can withstand him in battles.
2. Ayaṁ svāduriha madiṣṭha āsa yasyendro vṛtrahatye mamāda. Purūṇi yaścyautnā śambarasya vi navatīṁ nava ca dehyo han.

It is delicious, most exhilarating here in the business of life. Indra, mighty ruler, having drunk of it, exults in the battle against want and wickedness for the achievement of prosperity and, waxing in strength and passion, destroys the multitudinous forces of evil and breaks ninety and nine strongholds of darkness like the sun breaking clouds for rain.

3. Ayaṁ me pīta udiyarti vācamayaṁ maniṣāṁ-uṣatīmaĵīgaḥ. Ayaṁ saḷurvīramimīta dhīro na yābhyo bhuvanam kaccanāre.

This ecstasy of soma stimulates and refines my speech, it energises and sublimates my mind and awareness to love and passion for divinity. Man in the state of mental stability and spiritual constancy realises the six dimensional universe of existence beyond which there is no world of matter or mind higher or lower.

This soma is that cosmic energy which causes the showers of vitality from the sun and creates the fertility of the earth. It bears the nectar sweets of three rolling oceans of heaven, earth and the middle region and sustains the vast skies.

This generous and exuberant energy of the universe commanding the force of the currents of nature’s inherent power vests the beatific ocean of the glorious sunrays of immaculate beauty of the mornings. It is great and, by its mighty gravitational force, sustains the solar region in position above.

Bold and resolute Indra, ruler, destroyer of darkness and poverty, drink the soma from the vessel for the battle of life’s wealth. Come to the mid-day session of yajna and bring the showers. As you yourself are the treasurehold of wealth, bless us with the wealth of life.
7. Indra pra ṇaḥ pura-eteva paśya pra no naya prataram vasyo accha. Bhavā supāro atipārayo no bhavā sunītiruta vāmanītiḥ.

Indra, leader and commander of world power, look at us and watch like a leader moving fast forward. Lead us to wealth of the world across the oceans. Be the unswerving pilot of the nation, take us to the shores beyond and lead us on by the policy and practice of nobility and gracious living.

8. Uruṁ no lokamanu neşi vidvānt-svarvaj-jyo-tir-abhayam svasti. Rśvā ta indra sthavirasya bāhū upa stheyāma śaraṇā bṛhantā.

Indra, sagely scholar and just ruler of the world, lead us to the higher regions of life, fearless, full of heavenly light, a haven of bliss and well being. O lord of constancy, we pray, may we abide in the shelter and security of the umbrella of your mighty protective hands.

9. Vариṣṭhe na indra vandhure dhā vahिष्ठhayoh śatāvannaśvayorā. Iśāmā vakṣīśāṁ varṣiṣṭhāṁ mā nastārīn-maghavan rāyo aryaḥ.

Indra, ruler and guardian of the people, master and controller of the wealth and power of the world, let us ride and abide in the best chariot of our choice in your well managed system of governance run by the strongest and most efficient leaders and forces. O lord of a hundred powers and actions, bring us the best and most abundant food and sustenance, energy and power. Let no one as master tread over our wealth, power, and basic rights of life and freedom.

O lord of a hundred powers and actions, bring us the best and most abundant food and sustenance, energy and power. Indra, ruler sustainer of all, be kind and gracious to me, please to wish me the good life, sharpen and inspire my mind and intellect like the razor’s edge. And whatever I wish out of love and devotion, to you I say this: Please to accept and grant, and raise me up to the love and favour of divinity.

Trātāram-indram-avitāramindraṁ havehave suha-vam śūramindram. Hvayāṁ śakram pura-hūtamindraṁ svasti no maghavā dhātvindraḥ.

In every battle of life one after another, I invoke Indra, lord giver of wealth, honour and power, saviour Indra, protector Indra, brave Indra invoked with love and devotion, pure and powerful, universally invoked and adored. May Indra bring us the good life and all round well being.

Indra, lord omniscient, mighty protector and sole lord of his own essential powers may, we pray, be kind and gracious with his modes of protection and advancement, ward off hate and enmity and grant us freedom from fear so that we may be masters and promoters of the noble strength and honour of life.

May we enjoy the favour, kindness and love of that lord adorable, all protective Indra, sole master of his own essential powers and forces, who may always ward off from us all hate and enmity far or near.

Indra, O ruler of the world, like streams of flood rushing down to the sea, all voices of prayer and adoration, offers of homage and chants of the holy Word dedicated to your service rise, reach and concentrate in you. O wielder of the thunderbolt of power and justice, you hold, integrate, treasure and distribute immense wealth of means and materials of success, yajnic sessions and inspirations, wide ranging waters and social programmes of action, lands, cows and lights of knowledge, and all things of beauty and joy leading to mental and spiritual bliss of peace.

Who can praise and fully celebrate him? Who can finally serve and join him?

Whoever is passionately dedicated and whom the lord of glory may favour, govern, and protect day and night, the lord who, like a man on the walk alternating his feet in motion moving the hind one forward and leaving the forward one then behind, dispenses people up and down according to their actions and the law of karma.

I hear that Indra, potent lord, controller of all proud and passionate ones, leading all up and down by their performance, favouring the good and punishing the rising proud and arrogant, rules all communities of humanity, good and evil, and calls them up for justice and dispensation.

With love and understanding, Indra, lord ruler, gives up the dead wood of the old and goes forward taking on other new forms of life and society like waves of the sea pressing on fast forward. Shaking off the callous who refuse to learn by experience he goes on like the sun crossing over the years of time gone by and living and shaping new eras of time.

Indra, the supreme soul, pervades all forms of existence to reveal that pervasive form of presence according to each form. The individual soul, the jiva,
16. I hear that Indra, potent lord, controller of all proud and passionate ones, leading all up and down by their performance, favouring the good and punishing the rising proud and arrogant, rules all communities of humanity, good and evil, and calls them up for justice and dispensation.

17. With love and understanding, Indra, lord ruler, gives up the dead wood of the old and goes forward taking on other new forms of life and society like waves of the sea pressing on fast forward. Shaking off the callous who refuse to learn by experience he goes on like the sun crossing over the years of time gone by and living and shaping new eras of time.

18. Indra, the supreme soul, pervades all forms of existence to reveal that pervasive form of presence according to each form. The individual soul, the jiva, takes on one form of life after another to reveal that existential form of its real self. The ruler takes over each form of the institutions of his governance to reveal his power and presence through that institution. Indra thus, of many many forms of manifestation goes on by manifold powers and potentials, assisted by thousands of its motive forces like the master of a chariot drawn by horses.

19. With its powers and potentials yoked to its chariot-like body form, Tvashta, the soul, shines gloriously in its existential form here. It takes the best form of its love and choice by karma, for who would choose to be with the malicious fools day and night when the wise and visionaries are sitting close by?

20. O noble people, brilliant pioneers, let us take over the vast virgin land which is a field good enough for warriors of action to develop and cultivate. O Brhaspati, lord of knowledge, protector and promoter of great things, Indra, destroyer of suffering, master of diagnostics and correctives, let us make the pathway for the development of cattlewealth and advancement of knowledge and education in the service of the present generation of the celebrants of divinity and nobilities of humanity.

Day by day the sun dispels the equal cover of darkness arisen at night from its abode to the other half of the globe. The mighty solar power of showers breaks the dark vapours concealed in the cloud, strikes the blazing lightning and opens the flood gates of rain to flow into streams on land.

(So does the ruler dispel the darkness of ignorance, injustice and poverty and open the flood-gates of light and knowledge with justice and prosperity.)

Indra, lord ruler, the celebrant of your means and materials of success and accomplishment has given ten treasure gifts of land and ten modes of fast transport.
We accept and reciprocate the gifts of the lord’s showers of generosity and hospitality from the celebrant giver of the treasures of means and materials of success, water showers and the gifts of land, home and wealth for sustenance.

Let me receive and enjoy in common ten transports, ten treasures of wealth, ten garments, ten kinds of food and ten pieces of gold from the brilliant and generous giver.

(Swami Dayanand suggests in his commentary that the ratio at the maximum between the lowest and highest paid working partner in the social order should be one to ten.)

Let the treasurer give ten chariots equipped with powerful steer and motive force to the guard and a hundred cows for the non-violent scholars of the physical and spiritual sciences of the Atharva Veda tradition.

Let the ruler, descendant of the creators of all lawful forms of wealth, support and maintain the scholars and scientists who create, provide and manage the great wealth and power of universal value.

O vanaspati, ruler, protector and promoter of forests and light of the sun for energy, be strong of your systemic body of governance and strong in the constituent parts of the system. Manned with noble young supporters, be our friend, pilot and saviour across the seas. You are self-controlled in mind and senses, strongly endowed with refined speech and manners, strengthen us who are committed to you, and let your forces win the battles with high morale.

Enlightened ruler and scholar, the energy collected and raised from the sun and earth, the energy, vitality and patience received and learnt from the trees and forests, the liquid power of the waters rising and reinforced with rays of the sun, and the forceful current of electric energy, with all these energies together harnessed, create and serve the chariot, the fast progressive social order worthy of your governance.

28. Indrasya vajro marutāmanīkaṁ mitrasya garbho varuṇasya nābhih. Semāṁ no havyadātim juṣāṇo deva ratha prati havyā grībhāya.

Enlightened ruler, lord of grace and pilot of the nation, loving and kind to participants in yajnic governance, you are the thunder and lightning of the cloud break of showers, you are the power and splendour of the people, you are offspring of the light of sun and love of divinity, you are the centre spring of justice and discrimination. Lord ruler, accept this offer of homage as our share of Raja-dharma in the service of the system.

O victorious lord ruler of the world, let the roar of the victory drum fill heaven and earth with a fresh lease of joy and new life. Lord of the whole nation, let the wide world moving and non-moving know of you and your glory. Blow over the world, equipped with armaments of thunder and vision of the wise, ward off the dangers and throw out the enemies far away.

30. Ā krandaya balamojo na ā dhā niḥ śṭaniḥi duritā bādhamānaḥ. Apa protha dundubhe ducchunā ita indrasya muṣṭirasi viḷayasva.

Call out the forces, challenge the enemies all-round, inspire us with vigour and splendour, roar like thunder, repel all evils and negativities, scare away the barking maligners. You are the strike of lightning, rise and let us rise too with might and main.

31. Āmūraṇa pratyāvartayemāḥ ketumad dundubhirvāvadīti. Samaśvaparṇāścaranti no narośmā-kamindra rathino jayantu.

Indra, lord ruler, throw out the enemy forces. Rally our forces back in form and array, ever ready. Let the battle drum boom, with the flag flying. Our warriors on the wing in armour and our leaders in the forefront advance and fight out the challenges. Let our heroes of the chariot come out with flying colours.
Mandala 6/Sukta 48

Agni (1-10), Maruts (11, 12, 20, 21), Maruts or others (13-15), Pusha (16-19), Prshni or Dyava bhumi (22)

Devatah, Shamyu Barhaspatya Rshi

1. Yajñāyajñā vo agnaye girāgirā ca dakṣase. Pra-pra vayamamṛtaṁ jātavedasāṁ priyam mitram na śaṁsiśam.

   In every yajnic programme of your creative and constructive work, in every word of our voice, join and let us honour, appraise and develop agni, imperishable energy pervasive in all things of existence and adore Agni, omniscient and omnipresent lord giver of knowledge and enlightenment.

2. Ûṛjo napātaṁ sa hināyamasmayurdāśema havyadātaye. Bhuvad vājeśvavitā bhuvad vṛdha uta trātā tanūnāṁ.

   Let us honour and serve Agni, infallible cosmic light and energy, power that is surely our own, lover and benefactor in matters of creation and development. May Agni be our protector and promoter in our struggles for progress and may he be the saviour and cleanser of our health of body, mind and social order.
3. \(Vṛṣā\) hyagne ajaro mahān vibhāsyarciṣā. Ajasreṇa śociṣā śośucacchuce sudītibhiḥ su dīdihi.

Agni, generous lord giver of showers of light and energy, wealth and power, you are great, unaging and immortal. You shine with lustre and purity. O lord pure and purifying, blazing with universal light and glory, enlighten us blissfully with the divine rays of eternal light, knowledge and purity.

4. \(Maho\) devān yajasi yakṣyānuṣak tava kratvota daṁsanā. Arvācaḥ sīṁ kṛṇuhyagne’vase rāsva vājota vaṁsva.

Agni, giver of light and power, you join, honour and serve the bounties of nature and brilliances of humanity. Join the great ones in order by holy acts of yajna, raise your actions and turn the divinities hitherward for our protection and advancement. Give us the courage and power to act and win, and join us in the celebrations of success.

5. \(Yamāpo\) adrayo vanā garbhamṛtasya piprati. Sahasā yo mathito jāyate nṛbhiḥ prthivyā adhi sānavi.

Agni, eternal vitality is the generator as well as the generation of the cosmic heat of vitality and the cosmic law, whom, in the state of existence, the waters
3. Agni, generous lord giver of showers of light and energy, wealth and power, you are great, unaging and immortal. You shine with lustre and purity. O lord pure and purifying, blazing with universal light and glory, enlighten us blissfully with the divine rays of eternal light, knowledge and purity.

4. Agni, giver of light and power, you join, honour and serve the bounties of nature and brilliancies of humanity. Join the great ones in order by holy acts of yajna, raise your actions and turn the divinities hitherward for our protection and advancement. Give us the courage and power to act and win, and join us in the celebrations of success.

5. Agni is that heat of vitality which fills both heaven and earth with sun light and rises to the skies from earth by smoke. It is seen to dispel the darkness prevailing over dark nights, shining red as harbinger of rain, while it shines in sun rays too as harbinger of the showers of light and rain.

6. O resplendent Agni, most youthful unaging power, bright and pure, kindled and rising in the mind and soul of sagely scholars in pursuit of science, energy and progress, shine with mighty flames of light, purity and power, and bring us the wealth of life replete with light and enlightenment. O generous light and fire of and actions of men, clouds and mountains, and the forests and sun rays feed and promote to the full, and which arises and kindles when it is produced by the force of attrition and churning by men on the surface of the earth.
life, shine and enlighten us.

8. Viśvāsāṁ grhapatir-viśāmasi tvamagne mānu-śiṇām. Śataṁ pūrbhir-yaviṣṭha pāhyaṁhasaḥ sameddhāram śataṁ himāh stotṛbhyo ye ca dadati.

Agni, unaging light and fire of the youthful spirit of life, you are the master and guardian of the home of all the human communities of the world along with all the cities and settlements taken together. O destroyer of evil and purifier of life in the crucibles of existence, save from sin the yajamana, who kindles, raises and develops the fire energy, with a hundred ways of protection and bless those who support the developers and celebrants of fire with means and materials so that they live and work for a full hundred years.

9. Tvaṁ na缵itra ūtya vaso rādhāṁsi codaya. Asya rāyastvamagne rathīrasi vidā gādham tuce tu naḥ.

Agni, wonderful lord of versatile action, giver of shelter and security of the home, with protection and advancement, inspire and raise our means and materials for success and achievement. O lord of knowledge and vision, you are the guide and pilot of the chariot and wealth and honours of this generation. Give us the message and inspiration of peace, progress and security for our children.

Agni, lord of light and culture, you cleanse, refine and enrich our children and teenagers with all nourishments and safeguards for body, mind and soul with unfailing and unchallengeable modes and methods of education and refinement. Resist and overcome the passions and negativities which attract natural wrath and fight out impious temptations from us.

Come ye friends all, let us develop the language and culture of versatile possibilities of creative achievement by the latest methods and media of communication, and let us create a new and unshakable body of knowledge and language of lasting value.

O mother teacher, O divine speech, you are the one who create, kindle, refine and raise the word and vision of immortal value for the strength and refinement of dynamic people for self-enlightenment, and who are a divine messenger for the good and well-being of vibrant people of fast action with gifts of comfort and cultured behaviour.

Bharadvājāyāva dhukṣata dvitā. Dhenuṁ ca viśvadahasam-iṣam ca viśvabhojasam.

O mother, you bear and bring the milk of twofold efficacy for the brilliant celebrant and bearer of science, power and fast action: divine speech yielding universal knowledge and enlightenment for all, and universal food for the body, mind and soul for the nourishment of all without discrimination.

Tam va indraṁ na sukraṁ varuṇamiva māyi-nam. Aryamaṇaṁ na mandraṁ srprabhojasam viṣṇuṁ na stuṣa ādiṣe.

O lovers of knowledge and fast action, for the sake of your guidance and enlightenment, I admire and pay homage to the divine teacher who is the hero of instant good action like Indra, cosmic electric energy, who is versatile and resourceful like Varuna, universal power of judgement and discrimination, who is happy and rejoicing like Aryaman, universal guide, and who provides universal food of delicate flavour like Vishnu, all pervasive preserver and sustainer of the universe.

I admire the divine teacher, harbinger of knowledge and power, I admire the power like the blazing force of the winds, I admire the resounding automotive chariot and the nourishing food products for sustenance so that wealth may be raised to hundred and from hundred to thousand for the people, hidden riches may be revealed from the depths, and the brilliant scholar may create further wealth and power for our peace and security of well being with knowledge and enlightenment.

Do not uproot the trees such as the banyan which provide shelter to the poor innocent birds, but do remove the revilers and deplorables. The strong must not hurt the weak and their supports like the hunters who catch birds by the neck.

Lord giver of nourishment and sustenance, let your friendship be non-violent, and unexploitative. Immaculate you are, spotlessly clean, totally self-fulfilled, and you command immense plenty, prosperity and impeccability.

19. Paro hi maryairasi samo devairuta śriyā. Abhi khyāḥ pūṣan pṛtanāsu nastvamavā nūnāṁ yathā purā.

Pusha, giver of nourishment and sustenance, you are highest among mortals by nobility and grace, equal to the brilliant in nature and humanity in generosity. Watch us, guard us in the battles of life and protect and promote us as ever before.

O Maruts, tempestuous heroes, movers and shakers in action and holy creative performers, let the policy, programmes and acts of the people be noble and graceful, inspired and directed by truth and righteousness, promotive for all, whether the person is exceptionally noble, or brilliant, or ordinary mortal, or a priest and yajaka.

21. Sadyaścid yasya carkṛṭih pari dyāṁ devo naiti sūryāḥ. Tveṣaṁ śavo dadhire nāma yajñiyam maruto vṛtraḥam śavo jyeṣṭhaṁ vṛtraḥam śavaḥ.

The ruler, whose action is instant, constant and ever true, whose people, leaders and warriors command sure, brilliant and yajnic force and power of the highest order to dispel darkness, evil and wickedness, rises and shines like the bright sun across the heavens.

The sun is born one and once unique, the earth is born one and once, unique, the skies and stars, milk and waters all are one, born once and unique. None else is born after exactly the same. That other, the creator is never born.

Mandala 6/Sukta 49

Vishvedevah Devatah, Rjishva Bharadvaja Rshi

   With latest words and fresh voice, I honour and admire the man committed to duty and discipline, Mitra, the friend, and Varuna, the man of judgement and clear vision, both givers of peace and pleasure of well being. May they come here, I pray, and listen, They command the wealth and honour of the admirable social order, Mitra, Varuna and brilliant blazing Agni, all three like sun, ocean and fire.

   I admire and adore Agni, leader of light and fire, honoured and worshipped in every community, calm and delighted in yajnic projects of love and non-violence, free from illusion and infatuation, generated by youthful parents, i.e., sun and earth, child of cosmic energy, symbol and column of yajna, and crimson red like the dawn which is brilliant and soothing. I pray may Agni come and join us at our yajna.

1. Stuê janaÅ suvrataÅ navyas¶bhirg¶rbhirmitrŒ- varuČ sumnayantŒ. Ta Œ gamantu ta iha Üruvantu suk¦atrŒso varuÄo mitro agni¬. With latest words and fresh voice, I honour and admire the man committed to duty and discipline, Mitra, the friend, and V aruna, the man of judgement and clear vision, both givers of peace and pleasure of well being. May they come here, I pray, and listen, They command the wealth and honour of the admirable social order, Mitra, V aruna and brilliant blazing Agni, all three like sun, ocean and fire.

Two daughters of the glowing fire, the night and the day, different in form, one adorned with stars, the other lighted by the sun, move on alternating with each other. Both of them, pure, purifying and sanctifying, adorable and adored, pervade the world, and may they, we pray, inspire our thought and mind. (So may men and women be complementary to each other.)

O venerable scholar of vision and imagination, dedicated to in-depth research with ambition for the honour and glory of success, with your brilliant and far-reaching intelligence and application, you study and plan to harness the abundantly rich and powerful universal energy of the divine wind and its carrier forces of energy, immensely useful to drive the chariot over the paths of light in space. Venerable scholar, honour the visionary seer, his vision and learning.
(Swami Dayananda applies this manta also to the control of breath, pranic energy and mind for flights of the soul in samadhi for the achievement of suprasensuous experiences of universal nature.)

That brilliant chariot of the Ashvins, complementary currents of universal energy of divine nature, directed by the mind, may, I pray, vest my body and mind with light and energy, the chariot by which leading lights of humanity dedicated to Truth and Divinity go by the path of righteousness in search of enlightenment for themselves and their children.

O generous and showerful winds and clouds, move the vapours of water from the earth and the firmament. O men of vision and imagination, established leaders and scholars of the world dedicated to truth and the voice of truth, listen to the scholar by whose words of knowledge you discover the world and work for its prosperity.
7. Pāvīravī kanyā citrāyuḥ sarasvatī vīrapatnī dhiyāṁ dhāt. Gnābhiracchidram śaraṇaṁ sajośā durādharṣaṁ grñate śarma yaṁsat.

Gracious Sarasvati, mother harbinger of knowledge and sacred speech, wondrous of form and life energy, spirit of purity and sanctity inspired and protected by omniscient and omnipotent Lord, may, we pray, bring us knowledge and wisdom in words of divine revelation and, loving and kind as the mother is, may she bless the celebrant with faultless haven and home of peace and well being free from fear and violence.

8. Pathaspathaḥ paripatim vacasyā kāmena krto abhyānaḷarkam. Sā no rāsacchurudhaścandrā- grā dhiyāṁdhiyāṁ sīṣadhāti pra pūṣā.

Let the supplicant inspired by love and reverence offer homage in holy words to adorable Pusha, giver of health and sustenance and guardian of people in all paths of life, and may that lord grant the supplicant invigorating herbs and brilliant life saving drugs. Pusha matures our mind and intelligence and gives us success in action and achievement.

Let agni, generous yajaka, join and offer abundant homage and service to Tvashtaa, maker of forms and institutions for humanity. Who is freely sociable, and first to be invited, famous and adorable, giver of health and long age, expert of hand in action, generous, brilliant, exceptionally intelligent, adorable and openly accessible and responsive to the brilliant host, agni.

With all these words of homage by day and in the night, adore and exalt Rudra, guardian sustainer of the world and destroyer of suffering and disease. Inspired and exhorted by the wise poet of vision, let us all in truth and sincerity invoke and adore Rudra, dispenser of justice and punishment, great giver of advancement, unaging and blissful giver of peace and well being.

11. Yuvānaṁ kavayo yajūiyāso maruto ganta gṝātato varasyām. Acitraṁ ciddhi jinvathā vṛdhanta itṭhā naṅkantō naro aṚgirasvat.

Come O Maruts, youthful, creative visionaries and adorable yajakas vibrant as winds, and listen to the exhortations of the celebrants: you are leading lights of nature and humanity, messengers and harbingers of the breath of life, reaching everywhere, advancing yourself and raising all thus, you revitalise even the less than ordinary lands and rejuvenate worse than terminable cases of suffering and bless them with new life.

Reach the brave, the courageous and the instant destroyer of suffering and darkness, and, like a shepherd leading the flock home, let your words of prayer and adoration rest there, and just as the sky is decked and adorned by the stars, so the listener is touched at heart by the words of the prayerful man of the revealed Word.

O lord all pervasive, Vishnu, who have created...
11. Ā yuvānāḥ kavayo yajñīyāso maruto grṇato varasyām. Acitraṁ ciddhi jinvathā vṛdhanta itthā nakṣanto naro aṅgirasvat.

Come O Maruts, youthful, creative visionaries and adorable yajakas vibrant as winds, and listen to the exhortations of the celebrants: you are leading lights of nature and humanity, messengers and harbingers of the breath of life, reaching everywhere, advancing yourself and raising all thus, you revitalise even the less than ordinary lands and rejuvenate worse than terminable cases of suffering and bless them with new life.

Reach the brave, the courageous and the instant destroyer of suffering and darkness, and, like a shepherd leading the flock home, let your words of prayer and adoration rest there, and just as the sky is decked and adorned by the stars, so the listener is touched at heart by the words of the prayerful man of the revealed Word.

O lord all pervasive, Vishnu, who have created the three regions of the universe for humanity and sustain the three to save us from the limitations of suffering and darkness, we pray that with the abundant and expansive gifts of health and wealth we may live and enjoy life in this vast home given by you.

That blessed home of ours, Lord of the deep caverns of the clouds formed in the sky, may sustain us with showers of waters and rays of the sun. That home, the mountain and the lord creator, Savita and sun may sustain and bring gifts of food for us therein. And the same, the lord abundant giver of wealth, power and honour and sustainer of the world, Bhaga, may promote and vitalise with herbs for us to live in plenty and prosperity.

O lord creator and generous giver, give us the commonwealth equipped with chariots, good for all people, blest with many heroic children and warriors, great and protector of the truth and law of the world in existence. May the lord giver give us an unaging home land and shelter by which we may face and overcome the impious rivals contesting against us and build a nation of brilliant and God fearing people so that both the simple and the sophisticated people may live well.

Mandala 6/Sukta 50

Vishvedeva Devata, Rjishva Bharadvaja Rshi

For your happiness and felicity I invoke, invite and honour with reverence and hospitality the Vishvedevas, powers and people of generous and divine nature: the brilliant mother scholar, the lady of exalted nature and character, and indestructible Aditi, Mother Nature, Varuna, udana energy of vitality and the man of elevating wisdom, Mitra, pranic energy and the friend dear as breath of life, Agni, fire and the man of passion and purity of action, Abhikshada, the generous person who is a spontaneous giver and fighter against adversity, Aryaman, the person who guides with judgement and discrimination between good and evil, the person committed to selfless service of the community, all noble and brilliant powers and people who help as saviours and path finders, Savita, giver of light and inspiration as the sun, Bhaga, lord of universal wealth and power, and the man who counts for the honour and excellence of humanity.

O man bright as the sun, if you want to maintain your simplicity, innocence and freedom from sin, approach, honour and exalt the generous and brilliant seniors of parental nature who command the holy light of knowledge, expertise of action and greatness of character, who are nobly born and divinely educated, who are true to the bone and unshakably committed to nothing but the truth and the law of Dharma, and who enjoy perfect peace of mind with an open door hospitality but have a tongue of fire that brooks no nonsense and burns double dealing with a whiff of air.

And O heaven and earth, give us the strength of a mighty social order, O magnetic and electric energy of the earth and firmament, great givers of peace and comfort, provide us a vast home of comfort and joy. O noble and generous divinities of nature and humanity, great things as you do, give us the best of wealth and competence for our life on earth so that our home and family may be free from sin and violence.

4. Ā no rudrasya sūnavo namantāmadyā hūtāso vasavo’dhrṣṭāḥ. Yadīmarbhe mahati vā hitāso bādhe maruto ahvāma devān.

May the off-springs of Rudra, lord of justice and nature’s vitality, come down to us, invited they are today. Modest yet invincible, brilliant and vibrant as winds they are, givers of home and comfort, and since they are appointed to fight out adversaries in battles big or small, we call upon them.

5. Mimyakṣa yeṣu rodasī nu devī siṣakti pūṣā abhyardhayajvā. Śrutvā havāṁ maruto yaddha yātha bhūmā rejante adhvani pravikte.

O Maruts, vibrant warriors of nature and humanity with whom the energy and generosity of heaven and earth is joined and whom Pusha, vital energy of nature and humanity, blesses with reverence and recognition, go quick in response to the call and meet the purpose. And when you proceed in response to the call and march on the path, all those who inhabit the earth tremble on the route of your advance.
6. Abhi tyam vīraṁ girvānasamarcendram brahmaṇā jaritarnavena. Śravaddhavamupa ca stavāno rāsad vājāṁ upa maho grīṇānaḥ.

O celebrant of nature, divinity and the best of humanity, sing in praise of that mighty adorable Indra, commander of glory and power, with the best and latest of your songs of celebration. And the great Indra, sung and celebrated thus, would closely hear the song and prayer and would grant you food and sustenance and fast progress and victories in the battles of life.

O waters of purity, Apah, O leaders of humanity pure at heart like holy waters, you are a bliss for humanity. Bear and bring nourishing, protective and unsullied food for our children and for our youth and bring about a state of peace free from sin and evil. You are the most motherly harbingers of health, the best physicians. You are the makers of a new generation for all the moving and non-moving world. Pray stay constant and friendly as you are.
8. Āno devaḥ savītā trāyamāṇo hiranyapāṇir-yajato jagamyāt. Yo datravāṇi uṣaso na pratikam vyūrṇute dāśuṣe vāryāṇi.

May the divine and refulgent Savita, creator, preserver and generator of golden handed charity, loving and adorable, come and bless us, he who, all giving, opens up treasures of wealth for the generous giver like the first lights of the dawn.

9. Uta tvam sūna sahaso no adya devān asminna-dhvara vavṛtyāḥ. Syāmahaṁ te sadamid rātau tava syāmagne’vāsā suvīraḥ.

O light and fire of life, Agni, off-spring of divine strength and vitality, in this yajnic programme of love and non-violent creation of an enlightened society, let the divine values and virtues of nature and humanity turn and come our way and flow on. O lord of brilliance, let me stay established for all time in the bliss of your generosity and, under your protection and guidance, let me command the heights of heroism with the brave.

10. Uta tyā me havamā jagmyātaṁ nāsatyā dhībhir-yuvamaṅga viprā. Atrim na mahastamaso’-mumuktaṁ tūrvataṁ nara duritādabhīke.

And may the Ashvins, those two complementary currents of nature’s energy, the teacher and the preacher, leading lights of the world, vibrant benefactors dear as breath of life, both committed to truth and eternal law, come in response to my invitation with gifts of intelligence and competence for holy action, protect me as Atri, the man free from physical, mental and spiritual ailments, save me from deep darkness and release me from sin and evil all round prevailing.

11. Te no rāyo dyumato vājavato dātāro bhūta nṛvataḥ purukṣoh. Daśasyanto divyāḥ pārthivāso gojātā apyā mṛlatā ca devāḥ.

O divine powers of nature and humanity, learned and wise teachers and scholars, be you all givers of rich gifts of wealth, light, speed and success, human resources and food for sustenance. And may all the divinities celestial, terrestrial, spatial and aqueous bless us with peace and felicity.

12. Te no rudraḥ sarasvatī sajoṣā mīḥuṣmanto viṣṇurmṛlantu vāyuḥ. Ṛbhukṣā vājo daivyo vidhātā parjanyāvātā pipyatāmiṣaṁ nah.

May Rudra, lord of justice and punishment, Sarasvati, mother of knowledge and speech, Vishnu, omnipresent spirit of the universe, Vayu, the winds, Rbhuksa, expert artist, universal energy, divine favour, law giver, clouds and winds, all virile and friendly, bring us food and energy and give us peace and felicity.

And that refulgent Savita, the sun, Bhaga, pranic energy, Apam-napat, unfailing electric energy born of waters, Tvashta, maker of forms with brilliant generative powers, the heaven with all its lights, the earth with the seas, may all these together, friendly and supportive, generously giving and fulfilling, protect and promote us in life.

उत्त नाचहिंसुध्वः: श्रुणात्सुज एकपात्मृतिवी समुद्दः।

And the deep cloud in the firmament, the unborn Spirit of the universe, the sole divine support of existence, the earth, the sea, all the divine forces of the universe which prove and maintain the eternal law invoked and adored, and Veda mantras taught by seers, may all these listen to our prayers and protect us.

एवा नर्पाण भम तस्य ध्रीभिभ्रध्रांजा अभ्यचन्त्यक्षः
ग्रा हुतासा वस्वाच्छेद्या विश्वव सतुसाः भूता चज्ञतः॥ १५॥

Thus do we bearers of science and power and our descendants and disciples offer homage with thoughts, words and actions of devotion and pray that the Vishvedevas, universal creators and unifiers of nature and humanity, and their potentials, invoked and admired, free and fearless, may continue to be providers of peace and shelter for all for ever.

Mandala 6/Sukta 51

Vishvedevah Devatah, Rjishva Bharadvaja Rshi

Lo! the sun, that glorious eye of the universe, darling of the day and night, rises up undaunted, and like the pure, resplendent, golden face of heaven unveiled shines from the regions of eternal light.

(The sunrise is a metaphor which may be applied to the rise of any great light - giving power, say a great leader, giver of enlightenment, a teacher, a reformer, or a great movement.)
2. Veda yasto viṣṇyeṣāṁ devānāṁ janma sanutarā ca vipraḥ. Rju marteṣu vṛjinā ca paśya-

_The lord of light who is all wise, too, knows, reaches and pervades three orders of the world, i.e., the earth, the middle regions of the skies, and the highest regions of the light of heaven; three fields of life, i.e., jnana or knowledge, karma or action, and upasana or prayer and meditation; and three departments of the social order, i.e., teaching and research, governance and administration, and dharma or values of life, law and justice. He also knows the birth and life of these Vishvedevas, i.e., the divinities of nature and humanity. And watching the simple and straight paths and performances as well as the tortuous and crooked movements of the mortals, the potent master reveals where they reach in consequence._

3. Stuṣa u vo maha ṛtasya gopānāditiṁ mitraṁ varuṇam sujātān. Aryaṁnaṁ bhagamada-

_Happy and blest, I admire and celebrate in words of song all of you, Vishvedevas, great observers and protectors of the eternal law of Truth and righteousness: Aditi, indestructible mother nature, Mitra, sun and brilliant friend, Varuna, ocean and venerable judge, Aryaman, universal guide and discriminative path maker, Bhaga, lord of honour and excellence,_ universally known, dauntless, intelligent and wise purifying powers all.

I reach, admire and celebrate Aditi, mother spirit of nature, and the offsprings of Aditi, destroyers of evil and protectors of the good and true, irresistible great rulers, givers of peaceful homes, ever young and unaging, makers of great social orders, well established leaders of light and all refulgent suns. I approach them with prayers for blessings, they love the supplicants.

5. Dyauspitaḥ pṛthivi mātaradhrugagine bhrātarvasavo mṛlatā naḥ. Viṣva ādityāṁ adite sajoṣā asmabyaṁ śarma bahulaṁ vi yanta.

O refulgent sun, O father, O earth, O mother, compassionate, free from hate and anger, O fire, O brother, givers of shelter and protection, give us peace and felicity. O children of mother Infinity, O Mother Nature, all ever our own, loving friends, pray bring us a homely settlement of joy and all round prosperity.

Adorable friends and unifiers, divinities of nature and humanity, throw us not to the wolf and the thief nor to the rule of the sinner, nor relegate us to seizure, deprivation and exploitation. Pray stay you constant as our guide in matters of body, health and action and in the working of our social institutions, and be the carrier medium of the word and voice of the eminent expert.

O Vasus, givers of peace and settlement, dispensers of the laws of nature and humanity, let us not suffer your dispensation’s punishment for the sin and crime committed by others, nor let us do that act which you hate and prohibit. You are the rulers of the world and dispensers of justice and punishment, O divinities of nature and humanity. Let the hater and the evil doer be the instrument of his own self-infliction.

Nama idugraṁ nama ā vivāse namo dādhāra prthivimuta dyām. Namo devebhyo nama īśa eśāṁ kṛtaṁ cideno namasā vivāse.
Namas, the thunder of omnipotence and universal law, is mighty. Reverence on the human plane too has power. I respect law and reverence. Law and reverence sustain the earth and the sun. I offer reverence to the nobilities and the divinities. The power of the Divine and reverence for life rule the actions, good as well as evil, of all these people. I accept the power and value reverence with humility and submission to the divine dispensation.

O great divinities of nature and nobilities of humanity, I, moving forward by the chariot of law and reverence, bow with homage and surrender to you all, powers strengthened and sanctified by the law of eternal truth, invincible presences in human homes, who are vastly watchful guardians of all the people and their actions in the world.

They alone are Vishvadevas, men of highest excellence, they alone lead us over and across all evil and suffering of life, and they alone are the right rulers and managers of the social order, who are men of wisdom, right judgment and discrimination as Varuna, universal ruler, unifying sustainers and saviour friends as Mitra, the sun, and pure and purifying agents of action as Agni, the fire, who are committed in thought, word and action to universal truth and eternal values of life, and who have the courage of the conviction to speak the truth in matters of governance and administration in the political order of the world state.

11. Te na indraḥ prthivī kṣāma vardhan pūṣā bhago aditiḥ pañca janaḥ. Susārmanāḥ svavasaḥ sunīthā bhavantu naḥ sutrātrāsah sugopaḥ.

May those divine powers of nature and humanity, cosmic energy, the firmament, the earth, the sustainer, glorious God, mother nature, all people dear as five pranic energies, all happy home dwellers nobly protected and well guided, be our saviours and protectors.

O divine powers, the bearer of knowledge who invokes the divinities and serves the nobilities in yajnic programmes is blest with divine peace and settlement and enjoys wisdom and divine guidance. The yajamana in pursuit of wealth and excellence, sitting with inspiring and adorable yajakas, obtains the vision of rising divinities in his life.

13. Apa tyam vṛjinam ripuṁ stenamagne durā-

Agni, O divine leader, cast away that crooked thief, that strenuous enemy, far from the path of the aspirant. O protector and promoter of the good and the true, make it easy for him to follow the course simple and straight.

14. Grāvāṇah soma no hi kaṁ sakhitvanāya vāvaṣuḥ.
Jahī nyatriṇam paṇīṁ vrko hi ṣaḥ.

O Soma, giver of peace and inspiration, our holy ones generous as clouds and strong as granite love peace for divine favour and friendship. Throw away the ogre of crooked behaviour, he is a wolf only.

यूयं हिष्ठा सुदानवं इन्द्रेयश्चा अभिद्ववः।

15. Yūyaṁ hi ṣṭhā sūdānapa indrajyeṣṭhā abhidyavaḥ.
Kartā no adhvannā sugaṁ gopa amā.
O Vishvedevas, bounties of nature divine and leading lights of humanity, stay you all generous as ever, shining as the sun on high above all. Make our march of progress simple and manageable, and protect our hearth and home.

And also, let us move on by the path which is faultless, auspicious, sinless and inviolable, which leads to noble attainments with peace, and by which holy brave people remove all hate, jealousy and enmity and realize all wealth and self fulfillment.

Mandala 6/Sukta 52

Vishvedevah Devatah, Rjishva Bharadvaja Rshi

1. Na tad divā na prthivyānu manye na yajñena nota śamībhirābhiḥ. Ubjantu tam subvah parvatāso ni hīyatāmatiyājasya yaṣṭā.

I believe the enthusiastic performer of yajna would not be forsaken by heaven or earth, nor would he be deprived of the rewards of his yajna or of all these noble actions. I pray may the showers of generous clouds bless him. (Let none neglect yajna.)
2. Ati vā yo maruto manyate no brahma vā yaḥ kriyamāṇam ninitśāt. Tapūṃṣi tasmai vrjināni santu brahmadvāṣamabhī taṁ śocatu dyauḥ.

O maruts, vibrant heroes, whoever hates us, or despises our wealth and piety, or deprecates our acts and holy programmes in progress, must have his tortuous paths exposed by the blazing light of truth. Let the loving and brilliant wise men subject the hater of nobility and eternal values to disapproval until he feels sorry.

3. Kimaṅga tvā brahmaṅṇah soma gopāṁ kimaṅga tvāḥurabhiśastipāṁ naḥ. Kimaṅga naḥ paśyasi nidyamānān brahmadvāṣe tapuṣīṁ hetimasya.

O dear lover of peace and joy, would they not call you protector of the honour and wealth of humanity? O friend, shall we not call you protector of our honour and reputation? O leader, dear as breath of life, don’t you see our detractors and maligners? Pray strike the blazing thunderbolt upon the hater of nobility and universal values of spirituality.
Let the rising dawns inspire me. May the swelling seas raise and promote us. Let the steadfast mountains, deep clouds and generous warriors defend me. May the paternal powers of nature and humanity protect and advance us in our holy programmes of advancement in values and culture.

May we always be happy at heart and see the sun rise and sojourn in space higher and higher. May the lord protector of health and wealth and honour come with all modes of protection and progress, call upon us to rise and raise us to the heights of brilliance and generosity.

Let Indra, the ruler, come closest to us with modes of protection and progress. May Sarasvati, mother of knowledge and dynamic speech swelling with streams and showers of culture and refinement, come and bless. Let Agni, adorable leader of light and fire of action, responsive to our invocation, blissful like a father and guardian, come with herbs and comforts for health, honour and advancement.

8. Yo vo devā ghṛtasnunā havyena pratibhūṣati. Tam viṣva upa gacchatha.

O generous and brilliant scholars and leading lights of the world, whoever the person that invites you and honours you with homage of yajna seasoned and refined with fragrant materials overflowing with ghrta, come to him and bless him with light, sweetness and advancement in knowledge, honour and wealth of life.

उपं न: सूनवा गिरेः श्रृणवन्त्वमृतस्य य ।
सुमृतीका भवन्तु न: ॥ ९ ॥

May the Vishvedevas, eminent brilliancies of humanity, children of immortality and creators of the language of immortality in knowledge, come and listen to the prayers of the seekers and be givers of bliss to us. May the children listen to the voices of the immortals and be givers of joy to us.

Juṣantām yujyaṁ payah.

May the leading lights of the world, sages and scholars, generous and brilliant, expanding the bounds of knowledge and universal law in truth and development, listen to our invitation, love, honour and bless the liquid and milky investments in the yajnic programmes of research and progress according to the seasons of time and social requirements.

May Indra, gracious ruler, leading group of dynamic people consisting of expert makers and designers, Mitra, expert of vision and future possibilities, brilliant and universal friend like the sun, and Aryama, pioneer of the paths of progress with judgement and directive control, accept, love and honour these offers of holy yajnic investments for us.

12. Imaṁ no agne adhvaram hotarvayunaśo yaja.

Agni, leading light and majestic ruler, generous giver and highpriest of the yajnic order of humanity approved and honoured by enlightened people, you know the enlightened people and the peaceful non-violent order. Pray take over, rule and administer this order of ours according to the people’s performance and the law.

O Vishvedevas, leading lights and generous bounties of nature and humanity, listen to this invocation and invitation of ours, you who abide and operate in the middle region and the highest region of light, who have the tongue of fire and light of truth. You are lovable and adorable. Come, sit on this seat of holy grass in this yajna, rejoice and let us rejoice with you.

O Vishvedevas, adorable leading lights, protective like both earth and sky, the fire divine, listen to my thought and word. Never shall I speak any words against your life sustaining powers and science worthy of universal celebration. Pray let us rejoice at the closest with you in comfort and joy of all aspects of life.

15. Ye ke ca jmā mahino ahimāyā divo jañire apāṁ sadhasthe. Te asmabhyaṃiṣaye viṣvamāyuḥ kṣapa usrā varivasyantu devāḥ.

And whatever great powers of divine nature born on the earth and in the regions of firmament waters born of the sun, all these divine powers of nature and humanity may bring us universal life energy and happy days and nights for our sustenance and enlightenment.

16. Agni-parjanyāvavatāṁ dhiyaṁ me’smin have suhavā suṣṭutiṁ naḥ. Ilāmanyo janayad garbhanyaḥ prajāvaṭīrīṣa ā dhattamasme.

May the vital fire energy of light and electricity and the clouds of vapour in space protect and augment my intellect, and in this yajnic business of life promote our honour and fame in response to our invocation and invitation to yajna. One of these, the fire divine, generates and inspires our speech, and the other, the vapours, generate the cloud which fertilises earth and produces food. May the two bring us food, energy and noble progeny.

17.  Sūrṇe barhiṣi samidhāne agnau sūktena mahā namasā vivāse. Asmin no adya vidathe yajatrā viśvedevā haviṣi mādayadhvam.

O Vishvedevas, holy bounties of nature and humanity, the sacred grass is strewn on the vedi, the fire is kindled and rising with the holy chant of mantras and oblations of fragrant homage of havi. Today in this our yajnic programme, O adorables, accept and enjoy our offer of homage and hospitality and let us rejoice with you.

Mandala 6/Sukta 53

Pusha Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

O Pusha, lord giver of food and energy and guide and director over all our paths of life, for the sake of vision and wisdom and to reach the goal in our mission of life we take to you as one rides a chariot piloted by an all-wise driver.

Take us to a plentiful home and gracious master, a brave leader of men and generous giver of the gifts of life's wealth.

Pusha, generous lord of light and grace, motivate the non-giver to give in charity and soften the heart of even the mean and miserly.

O resplendent leader and master of life force, select and secure for us the paths of advancement to energy and success, cast off the obstructions, and lead our plans and programmes of action to success.

5. Pari tṇḍhi paṁrām hṛdayā kave. Athemasmabhya ārcaya.

O lord of vision and creativity, smite the hearts of the callous niggards with a goad, and subdue them to correction and maturity for the sake of us all.

Take us to a plentiful home and gracious master, a brave leader of men and generous giver of the gifts of life’s wealth.

अदित्सन्तं चिदाघृणः पूषन्दानांय चादय ।
पुण्यिष्ठित्वा मंदा मनः || ३ ||

Pusha, generous lord of light and grace, motivate the non-giver to give in charity and soften the heart of even the mean and miserly.

वि पुथा वाजसातयं चिनुहि वि मृदं जहि ।
साधन्तामुग ना धियं || ४ ||

O resplendent leader and master of life force, select and secure for us the paths of advancement to energy and success, cast off the obstructions, and lead our plans and programmes of action to success.

परितृप्ति पणिनामारंयं ह्रदयं कव ।
अथमथस्मभयं रन्धयं || ५ ||

O lord of vision and creativity, smite the hearts of the callous niggards with a goad, and subdue them to correction and maturity for the sake of us all.

Pusha, lord giver of life, nourishment and inspiration, smite the callous, calculating and miserly in the heart with the pangs of affliction, wish him well for love and season him in the crucibles of remorse for our sake.

O creative lord of vision and foresight, write out the balance sheet of life’s hagglers and bargainers, touch their hearts, let them mature all round and let us be happy.

Pusha, lord of light and grace, giver of food and growth for life, you command that analytical intellect which discriminates between truth and untruth and inspires the mind to have the vision of divinity. With that inspiring intelligence, imprint the settled mind with holiness and let it expand with ideas.
9.  \[ Yā \ te \ aṣṭrā \ go-opāśā’’ghṛṇe \ paśusādhanī. \]
\[ Tasyāste \ sumnamīmahe. \]

Lord of creative knowledge and development, that versatile vision and expertise of yours which develops cattle wealth and builds vast dairies and veterinary institutions, we love, and we pray for the gifts of that vision for comfort and well being.

10. \[ Uta \ no \ goṣaṇinīm \ dhiyamaśvasāṁ \ vājasāmuta. \]
\[ Nrvat \ kṛṇuhi \ vītaye. \]

Lord of light and life’s development, give us the gift of that knowledge and intelligence which may develop the wealth of cows and horses and create modes and means of success and prosperity. Give us that intelligence inspired with love for people so that we may live in peace and joy.

Mandala 6/Sukta 54

Pusha Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

1. \[ Sam pūṣan \ viduṣā \ naya \ yo \ añjasānuśāsati. \]
\[ Ya \ evedamiti \ bravat. \]

Pusha, giver of food and nourishment for body and mind, take us forward truly with that scholar who teaches us of truth with confidence and definiteness, saying: This is what it is, and it is not otherwise.

2. Samu pūṣṇā gamemahi yo ṛghāṇ abhiśāsati. Ima eveti ca bravat.

Let us go forward in life with that teacher, giver of nourishment for body, mind and soul, that family physician, who rules the home and governs home life, saying with confidence and definiteness: This is it, this way and not otherwise.

3. Pūṣṇaścakram na risyati na koṣo’va padyate. No asya vyathate paviḥ.

The wheel of Pusha, lord of life and provider of growth and sustenance, never slackens, nor does it violate anything. His treasury never depletes, and his knowledge and arms of defence never hurt anything positive.

Pusha, lord ruler and giver of nourishment and growth, does not hurt or challenge him who offers homage with creative and constructive projects in honour of him. Indeed, the first and original inventor and maker of basic things wins rewards of wealth for the invention.

Athāriṣṭābhīrā gahi.

Let none be frustrated. Let none frustrate anyone. Let none throw anyone into the pit of darkness and nothingness. O lord of nourishment and growth, come, bless us with everything whole and unhurt, with inviolable acts and unchallengeable policies.

8. Śṛṇvantam pūṣaṇāṃ vayam-iryam-anaśṭav-edasam. Īśānam rāya īmahe.

Pusha, lord of nourishment and growth, is listening, inspiring and all round ruler and guardian of indestructible wealth and knowledge. We pray to the lord for wealth and honour of permanent nature.

Lord of life, we are your devotees, celebrants here in life. Let us never suffer in the observance of your laws and discipline.

May Pusha grant us the perfect umbrella of his right hand all over and help us recover the losses and accelerate our gains.
Mandala 6/Sukta 55

Pusha Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

Come resplendent spirit of freedom indestructible, be our guide and saviour as master and pilot of the chariot on the path of eternity and divine truth and we shall be ever together.

We adore the highest chariot hero of flying hair, our friend and saviour, great ruler and ordainer of the wealth of existence and pray to him for wealth and power for advancement in life.

O resplendent lord unborn and eternal, riding the waves of light, you are the treasure house of wealth and happy settlement, and you are a ceaseless flow of honour and excellence, a happy friend for every person blest with intelligence and wisdom.
4. Pūṣaṇaṁ nvajāśvamupa stoṣāma vājinam.
Svasuryo jāra ucyate.

We honour and adore the sun, Pusha, giver of vitality and potency, rider of the eternal chariot flying like a courser in space which steals away the dawn, its own creation, they say.

5. Mātur-didhiṣum-abravaṁ svasurjāraḥ śrṇotu naḥ. Bhrātendrasya sakhā mama.

I speak of the sun, sustainer of the earth mother, lover of its own creation, the dawn, brother of electric energy of the cosmos, and my friend and companion for life. May the sun be close to us and respond to our prayer.

6. Ājāsaḥ pūṣaṇaṁ rathe niśṛmbhāste janaśriyam.
Devaṁ vahantu bibhrataḥ.

May the radiations of the sun, waves of light energy firmly yoked in its chariot bearing life and lustre for humanity, bring the divine light and life into this world.

Mandala 6/Sukta 56

Pusha Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

य एनमादिदिर्दशति कर्मभादिति पूष्णम ।
न तर्न दुब आदिः †† १ ††
1.  \( \text{Ya enamādideśāti karambhāditi pūṣaṇam.} \)
\( \text{Na tena deva ādiše.} \)

If one were to describe this Pusha, the sun or the universal chemistry of nourishment and vital energy, and say: It is from the solar suction of waters from earth and all space, or that, on the level of the individual human, it is from oat meal cooked with milk, then by this the divine process is neither to be defined nor to be determined nor, yet, to be exaggerated.

2.  \( \text{Uta ghā sa rathītamaḥ sakhyā satpatiryujā.} \)
\( \text{Indro vṛtrāṇi jighnate.} \)

In fact, that fastest energy, Indra, heroic ruler of the chariot, supportive of the positive forces of nature and humanity in combination with friendly powers such as electric energy, breaks the clouds of darkness and want and thus remains the protector, promoter and ruling controller of natural truth.

3.  \( \text{Utādaḥ paruṣe gavi sūraścakram hirṇyayam.} \)
\( \text{Nyairayad rathītamaḥ.} \)

And that mighty hero, solar energy in combination with electric energy, at the fastest chariot like velocity, sets in motion the golden circuit of developmental evolution in the fierce rays of the sun, in the battles of life and in the fiery communication of powerful speech.
4. Yadadya tvā puruṣṭuta bravāma dasra mantumah. Tat su no manma sādhaya.

O universal destroyer, preserver and promoter, most perceptive and conscientious, universally adored Pusha, lord giver of life, whatever we speak to you or wish to day, we pray, fructify and accomplish that thought and plan of ours.

5. Imaṁ ca no gaveśaṇamāṁ sātaye sīṣadho gaṇam. Ārāt pūṣannasi śrutaḥ.

And this body of thought and speech of our socio-economic plan, pray, lead to completion and success. O lord, you are renowned far and wide as giver of success and onward progress for the achievement of wealth and honour.

6. Ā te svastimīmahe āre aghāmupāvasum. Adyā ca sarvatātaye śvaśca sarvatātaye.

We pray for your gifts of happiness and well being of the perfect order for all for today, for tomorrow and for all time for the elimination of sin and evil and for the attainment of wealth and excellence in a state of peace and harmony.
1. Indrā nu pūṣaṇā vayam sakhyāya svastaye. Huvema vājasātaye.

We always invoke and call upon Indra, lord commander of power, honour and excellence, and Pusha, giver of nourishment energy and intelligence, for the sake of friendship and all round joy and well being and for the achievement of success and victory in the battles of life.

One of them, Indra, abides in the middle region between earth and heaven and drinks the soma distilled there, i.e., it catalyses the vapours of the clouds into rain through electric charge, while the other, Pusha, loves karambha, i.e., the sun sucks up the vapours of water and herbal juices and turns them into soma clouds. Thus the two sit together and act.

3. Ajrā anyasya vahnayo harī anyasya sambhṛtā. Tābhyaṁ vṛtrāṇi jighnate.

The carriers of one, Pusha, are the sun beams while those of the other, Indra, are positive and negative currents of electricity, and thereby the duo, Indra and Pusha, work together and break the clouds, and humanity gets the boons of food, energy and wealth.

4. Yadindro anayad rito mahīrapo vṛṣantamaḥ.

   When most generous Indra moves and brings about heavy showers of rain, then Pusha too is the corporate power of natural energy. (Thus making and breaking, consumption and creation are simultaneous processes of natural metabolism in life.)

   That immanent will and wisdom of Pusha, divine nature’s creative and promotive power, and that catalytic power of Indra, natural electric energy, we love, join and apply at our level to have results like extensive branches of the tree.

6. Ut pūṣaṇaṁ yuvāmahe’bhīśūṇriva sārathīḥ.
   Mahyā indraṁ svastaye.

   Just as a charioteer joins, holds and controls the reins of his horses, and just as the supreme charioteer of the universe holds and controls the activity of natural forces such as radiations of the sun and exudations of the earth or the gaseous vapours and electric charge, so do we join Pusha and Indra, study and apply complementary forces and processes for the earth and for the great happiness and well being of her children.

Mandala 6/Sukta 58

Pusha Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

1. Śukraṁ te anyad yajataṁ te anyad viṣurūpe ahanī dyaurivāsi. Viśvā hi māyā avasi svadhāvo bhadrā te pūṣannīha rātirastu.

O Pusha, giver of nourishment for body, mind and soul, you are the light of the world as the sun. Two are the forms of your beauty and glory, both different yet alike like the twin forms of the day: one is bright and inspiring, the other is soothing sweet adorable as the night. Lord of your own essential might, you animate, inspire, preserve and promote all intelligence, energy and powers of the world community. We pray, may your gifts of generosity be good for all in this world.

Conducted by radiating beams for horses as motive power, protector of animal life, giver of plentiful homes, inspirer of intelligence and wisdom, the brilliant sun, generous light of life dedicated to the entire world, moves on and on watching the regions of the world and inspiring and elevating general intelligence and unambitious minds to initiative.

O sagely scholar and realised soul, Pusha, giver of nourishment for body, mind and soul, golden are your vessels moving over the sea and in the sky. By these vessels you go round the world with love and desire for further food for knowledge and acting as messenger of the sun for the world.

4. Pūṣā subandhurdiva ā prthivyā ṭilaṣpatirmaghavā dasmavarcāh. Yam devāso adaduḥ sūryāyai kāmena kṛtaṁ tavasam śvaṅcam.

Pusha, giver of nourishment, is a noble friend and brother of all from earth to heaven, master of holy speech and light, possessing power, honour and excellence, and commanding extraordinary brilliance. A realised soul inspired with love and desire, mighty strong and self-cultured, the divinities dedicate him to Surya, dawn of a new day.

Indragnî Devate, Bharadvaja Barhасpatya Rshi

1. Pra nu vocā suteṣu vāṁ vīryā yāni cakrathuh. Hatāso vāṁ pitaro devaśatrava indrāgni jīvatho yuvam.

   Indra and Agni, electric and heat energies of nature and their parent sources, I celebrate deeds of wondrous order you have performed in the yajnic creations of the world of nature. Gone are the opposite forces, and you two are alive and active.

   Indra and Agni, great and true and most admirable is your might and majesty. Your father, source of generation, is one and the same, you are twins, and your mother is right here, Nature, Shakti of the Supreme sovereign Spirit.

   Indra and Agni, wielders of the thunderbolt, homogeneous powers in this business of life and nature, voracious consumers, like stormy war horses and creators, we, enlightened yajakas in developmental yajna, invoke, invite and develop you with all your protective and promotive powers right here.

4. \textit{Ya indrägni suteṣu vāṃ stavat teṣyṛtāvṛdhā. Joṣavākam vadataḥ pajrahoṣinā na devā bhasatha-scana.}

Indra, lord of power and energy, Agni, lord of light, bold speakers of truth, observers and promoters of the law of truth, whoever honours and adores you in creative yajnic acts of life, you respond to him in words of truth and favour loud and bold. The divines never speak words void of value.

5. \textit{Indrāgni ko asya vāṁ devau martaściketati. Viṣūco aśvān yuyujāna iyata ekaḥ samāna ā rathe.}

Indra and Agni, energy and power of heat and electricity, who is the mortal man in this world that knows both of you divines and who, using the all pervasive fire and electricity like horses moving in all directions, solely travels in a uniformly structured systemic chariot all by himself?

6. \textit{Indrāgni aparādyam pūrvaarātatyuddhavībhyaḥ. हिल्विर शिरं जिह्वया वार्दुच्छरे तिरिश्चत्पदा न्यंकपीतं.}

Lightning and fire divine, this light of the dawn, shaking up its locks of hair and proclaiming its rise with its flames, radiates before life on the earth is on wheels, and moves on thirty steps of time and space.

Indra and Agni, cosmic energy and heat of life, leaders and best of humanity, stretch their bows between their arms. In this great battle business of life, pray do not forsake us in the heat of action in which light and fire must be integrated as life and inspiration.

8.  Indrāgni tapanti mā’ghā aryo arātayah. Apa dveṣāṁsyā kṛtaṁ yuyutaṁ sūryādadhi.

Indra and Agni, lords of existence, enmities and sinful negativities of life heat up and consume me. Throw off all hate and enmities and keep them away from the light of the sun.

9.  Indrāgni yuvorapi vasu divyāṇi pārthivā. Ā na iha pra yacchataṁ rayim viśvāyupoṣasam.
Indragni, give us here not only your own gifts but also the wealths and honours of the earth and heaven and bless us with full life and health distilled from the world of nature.

1.  Śnathad vrtramuta sanoti vājamindrā yo agnī sahuṛi saparyāt. Irajyantā vasavyasya bhūreḥ sahastamā sahastā vājayantā.

One who honours and adores challenging and victorious Indra and Agni, vibrant, stormy and fiery electric forces of nature and humanity, conquers restraining opposition and wins food, energy and wealth of life. Both are most courageous and enduring commanders of power and victory, givers of honour and excellence, ample peace and settlement and harbingers of the glory of success and fulfilment.

2. Tā yodhiṣṭamabhi gā indra nūnamapaḥ svaruṣūṣaṇaḥ agna āliṣṭaḥ. Dīśāḥ svaruṣasa indra citrā apo gā agne yuvase niyutvān.

Indra, lord of power and excellence, Agni, lord of light and vision, like lands and waters, sun and dawns joined together, defend and fight for lands and waters, words and wondrous actions to expand to the quarters of space, and shine and join the sun and the dawns. Indra, O controller, you join the sun and dawns, and Agni, O ruler, you control the lands and waters, words and actions.
4. \( Tā huve yayoridāṁ papne viśvam purā kṛtam. \)
\( Indrāgni na mardhataḥ. \)

Indra and Agni, powers of will and vision of action in nature and humanity, these songs of adoration celebrate you. O givers of peace, prosperity and well being, drink of the nectar of this joy and bliss distilled.

8. Yā vām santi purusprīho niyuto dāśuṣe narā.
Indrāgni tābhirā gatam.

Indra and Agni, leading powers of humanity, come to the generous giver and celebrant yajaka with all those gifts and powers of yours which are loved and cherished by all.

Indrāgņi somapītaye.

Indra and Agni, leading lights, with those cherished gifts and powers come and join this yajnic session to drink of the soma of joy distilled.

10. Tamālīśva yo arciṣā vanā viśvā pariśvajat.
Kṛṣṇā kṛṇoti jihvayā.

O celebrant, love and adore that power of divinity which with its refulgence pervades all rays of the sun, moves all floods of water, and envelops all forests and makes them green with its radiations.

   Whoever the mortal that honours and adores the favour and grace of Indra when the fire is burning for the sake of excellence, the waters of his life and the flow of his actions would be blest with fulfilment.

   May the two, Indra and Agni, electricity and fire, give us food and sustenance full of energy and excellence and provide us with modes of travel and transport. Let us too develop the fire and electricity, energy for transport and communication.

   I invoke you both, Indra and Agni, lords of cosmic electricity and fire energy, to develop both heat and electricity in order to celebrate both with honours and wealth of success. And I honour and adore you both, beneficent givers of food, energy and wealth, for the winning of victory in life’s battle for excellence and advancement.

Mandala 6/Sukta 61

Sarasvati Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

Iyamadadād rabhasamṛṇacyutaṁ divodāsam vadhryaśvāya dāśuṣe. Yā śaśvantamācakhādā-vasaṁ paṇiṁ tā te dātrāṇī taviṣā sarasvatī.

Sarasvati, this perennial stream of divine awareness, which stabilizes a permanent, all protective and adorable perspective dedicated to the light of Divinity, gives to the generous man of yajna blest with expansive mind and senses the zeal for action dedicated to fulfilment of obligations, a dynamic spirit which leads the man to freedom from all debts of life. These are thy brilliant gifts, O mother, to humanity.

Iyam śuṣmebhir-bisakhā ivārurat sānu girīnāṁ taviṣebhir-ūrmibhiḥ. Pārāvataghñīṁ-avase suvṛktibhiḥ sarasvatīṁā vivāsema dhītibhiḥ.

This stream of divine awareness and knowledge, with fierce blows and powerful waves of light and inspiration, breaks through the height of mountains and depths of clouds covering darkness and concealing treasures and opens them out like one who digs up and out the roots of lotus flowers. Let us adore and serve this brilliant mother stream, Sarasvati, breaking over the banks of floods, with sincere thoughts and holy actions and let us root out darkness and ignorance from life.

Sarasvati, this perennial stream of divine awareness, which stabilizes a permanent, all protective and adorable perspective dedicated to the light of Divinity, gives to the generous man of yajna blest with expansive mind and senses the zeal for action dedicated to fulfilment of obligations, a dynamic spirit which leads the man to freedom from all debts of life. These are thy brilliant gifts, O mother, to humanity.

Sarasvati, mighty stream of light and inspiration, uproot the maligners of divinity and divine knowledge, take over the children of the wise givers of enlightenment across the world, adopt lands and nations, and let the streams of knowledge and culture flow for all peoples of the earth.

May Sarasvati, bright mother of divine light and knowledge, overflowing with streams of wealth, honour and spirit, protector and promoter of intelligence, will and enlightened action, save us from darkness and evil and advance us into the light of life.

O brilliant and generous Mother Sarasvati, whoever calls upon you like one who calls upon Indra, omnipotent ruler, for the destruction of the demon of evil at the time when the battle is raging at the door, you listen, come and save the supplicant.

6. Tvaṁ devi sarasvatvavā vājeṣu vājini.
Rādā pūṣeva nāḥ sanim.

O brilliant and generous mother of divine vision and wisdom, dynamic giver of knowledge, strength and energy in the struggle of life, remove the veil from our intelligence, give us nourishment like the earth and light of discrimination like the sun, and then draw out the plan of our destiny.

7. Uta syā nāḥ sarasvatī ghorā hir añyavartaniḥ.
Vṛtraghnī vaṣṭi suṣṭutim.

And may that Sarasvati, awful breaker of the clouds of darkness, come by the golden paths of light, listen and, with love and grace, acknowledge our song of praise.

8. Yasyā ananto ahrutas-tveṣaś-carisṇur-arṇavaḥ.
Amaścarati roruvaṭ.

Whose radiation of light and dynamic flow of speech moves on and on endless, straight and upright, roaring across the ocean of space, that is the Mother Sarasvati.

Sā na viśvā ati dviśah svasīranyā rātāvarī.

And may that flow of speech, warding off all hate and enmity, bearing truth like the light of dawn, lead us to other, different, sister streams of knowledge like the sun moving to other successive days, the same yet new.

Uta naḥ priyā priyāsu saptasvasā sujuṣṭā.

And may Sarasvati, dynamic stream of light, knowledge and speech, dearest among seven lovely sister streams of knowledge, word, and mind and senses, loving and blissful, be adorable and remain favourable.

Āpaprūṣī pārthivāṇyuro rajo antarikṣam.

11. Āpaprūṣī pārthivāṇyuro rajo antarikṣam. Sarasvatī nidaspātu.

Pervading the objects of earth, the vast skies, the middle regions and the particles of nature, may the divine awareness and enlightening speech protect us against hate and enmity.

\text{12. } & \text{Trisadhisthā saptadhātuh pañca jātā vardhayantī. Vājevāje havyā bhūt.} \\
\text{Existent and all pervasive in three regions of the world, sustained in seven, five elements, ahankara and mahat tattva, produced by five pranic energies, rising and expanding, Sarasvati, fluent speech and awareness, may, we pray, arise at our invocation.} \\
\text{13. } & \text{Pra yā mahīmnā mahināsā cekite dyumnehbhiranyā apasāmapastamā. Ratha iva brhaḥi vibhvane kṛtopastutyā cikitusā sarasvatī.} \\
\text{She that is distinguished as great by her grandeur in these things and regions, appears different and exceptional to different people by her light and lustre. She is most dynamic in the dynamics of existence, vast and expansive as space, created for the glory of Infinity by the lord creator, adoroble by the celebrant: that is Sarasvati, dynamic spirit of omniscience.} \\
\end{align*}
Sarasvati, perennial harbinger of divine gifts of enlightenment and prosperity, pray bring us all that is lovely and excellent more and ever more. Pray do not spurn us, don’t cast us away, nor let us be consumed by excess of exuberance and power. Help us with love and friendship, and let us never fall off from you into lands forlorn and void of joy.

Ashvins Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

   I praise and celebrate the Ashvins, leading lights of heaven pervasive in this world, and worshipfully invoke them with holy chant of mantras. Complementary powers of nature’s circuitous energy and fertility, they always conduct the rays of the sun at dawn and fill the earth from end to end with choice things of excellence.

   Continuously energising nature’s sacred operations and augmenting the yajna with purest splendours, they light up the light of this beautiful world on the move with showers of mist and energies. Creating many gifts and waters of measureless value, they pass over and across regions of space yet untraversed.

They are the divinities vibrant and blazing as wind and lightning that reach the yajna by unfailing radiations of energy fast as mind and sensitive as thought. They inspire the mind and will of the mortal man otherwise groping in the pathless woods of action and raise the generous yajnic giver so that he may cross the hurdles and rest in peace with a perfect sense of fulfilment.

They bless the mind and fructify the intentions of the new celebrant in search of knowledge and power. Ever young and energetic as wind and lightning, using seven currents of nature’s centrifugal and centripetal energy, they bear and bring excellent gifts of water, food, energy and psychic determination. Let the learned yajaka, then, free from hate, jealousy and pride, dedicate... himself to the youthful powers with faith and persistence.

ता बृण्यो दुर्गा पुरुषाकारकः पुत्र नय्यसा वचसा विंवासः।
या शंस्त स्तुतां शंभविष्ठा वधूवतुग्रणां चित्राराती॥ ५ ॥

With the latest words of homage, I celebrate and glorify the twin Ashvin divinities: graceful, destroyers of want and suffering, most versatile of power, ancient and eternal powers of the divine, who may, we pray, be good and blissful to the devoted celebrant and bring an immense variety of wondrous gifts for the yajaka.

ता भुज्युं विभिरद्वयं: समुदातुग्रस्य सूनेमूह्र्थुः रज्ज्ठ्वः।
अरणुक्षियानंभिभुजान्तः पत्त्रिभिररण्सा निरूपस्थ्वा। ॥ ६ ॥

I celebrate and glorify the twin Ashvins, protectors and sustainers of life, who raise by radiation usable products of nature’s energy from the waters and the seas by the regions of light, and who by forces of gravitation bring down by dustless usable paths of space energy from the depths of spatial waters.

वि जयुष्या रथ्या यात्मदिकं श्रुतं हवं वृष्णणा वधिमत्या:।
दूषस्यन्तः श्रवव्य पिप्यथुगामिति च्यवाना सुमुति भुरण्यू। ॥ ७ ॥

Ever anxious for all round victory and riding the chariot of waves of energy, you top the mountain and reach the cloud. Generous givers of showers, you perceive the invitation of the productive earth and the expansive skies. Mighty strong, you promote the earth and prompt the voice of her people so that they may be at peace, and, ever vibrant on the move, nourishing and sustaining, you inspire the mind with noble thoughts and will for holy actions.

8. Yad rodasī pradivo asti bhūmā heło devānāmōta martyrārā. Tadādityā vasavo rudriyāso rakṣoyuye tapuragham dadhāta.

O heaven and earth, O light of the world, howsoever great be the anger of the holy ones and of the average mortals, that same anger, O Adityas, seasons of time, Vasus, shelter homes of life and sustenance, Rudras, powers of natural justice and dispensation, all that sin and sufferance, bear on and reserve for correction of the negative forces of hate and enmity.

Let Mitra, man of love, and Varuna, man of judgement and discrimination, who fully knows and serves the Ashvins, pervasive and dynamic lights and rulers of world regions, according to the seasons of time, wield and duly order their power and force in respect of the inscrutable, the demoniac, the malignant as also for the latest word of praise or calumny.

O brilliant lords of humanity and nature, come by the chariot of internal wheels of the social order with leading lights of the people, making new paths for the coming generation with inspiring message of selfless performance of duty and also take off the heads of the terrorist forces of destruction.

Ashvins, complementary ruling powers of love and judgement of the nation of humanity, creators and givers of wondrous gifts of plenty, come here by the highest, middling and lowest order of cooperative participants in the social order and open the doors of the fixed as well as of the movable treasures of the nation for the celebrant.

Ashvins Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

1. Kva tyā valgū puruhūtādyā dūto na stomo’-vidannamasvān. Ā yo arvāñnāsatyā vavarta presṭhā hyasatho asya manman.

   Where are the handsome twin divines, universally adored, today? Let the song of adoration reach them like an humble messenger so that the divines ever true come here and abide as the dearest divinities celebrated in song.

2. Araṁ me gantām havanāyāsmai grñānā yathā pibātho andhaḥ. Pari ha tyad vartiryātho riśo na yat paro nāntaratuturyāt.

   Come well and happy in response to this invitation of mine and, revered and adored, drink the nectar sweets offered. Pray come by the path and to the home where no adversary far or near within may hurt us.
3. Akāri vāmandhaso varīmannaśtāri barhiḥ suprā-yaṇatamam. Uttānahasto yuyayurvavandā’vām nakṣanto adraya āṃjan.

Most excellent foods and drinks have been prepared for you and the softest grass carpet has been spread for you. With raised hands the high priest welcomes and adores you with love and reverence, and the devotees wait to honour and anoint you like the clouds of rain approaching.

4. Īdhrvo vāmagnir-adhvareśvasthāt pra rātireti jūrṇinī ghṛtācī. Pra hotā gurtaṃañā urāṇo ’yuḥta yo nāsatyā havīman.

Brilliant leaders ever true, in honour of you both, up goes the fire in flames in the creative acts of love and non-violence. The abundant overflowing ladle of powerful ghrta moves forward with the oblation. And the zealous dedicated priest with faithful mind calls upon you to come and bless the yajna.

5. Adhi śriye duhitā sūryasya ratham tasthau puru-

Just as the dawn, off spring of the sun, rides the radiant chariot of light with a hundred gifts of beauty and grace, similarly, O twin divines of nature, leaders of humanity, sustainers of many, lords of vision and power, come hither with all your gifts of light and graces and be inspirers of humanity in the life of revered performers of sacred acts of yajnic creation.

Yuvaṁ śrībhir-darśatābhirābhiḥ ābhābhināḥ puṣṭimūhḥuḥ sūryāyāḥ. Pra vāṁ vayo vapuṣe’nu paptan naksad vāṇī susūṭutā dhiṣṭiyā vām.

Ashvins, twin divines of nature’s dynamics, generous, devout and bold, with these open and gracious radiations of the light of dawn, you bring inspiring rejuvenation for the good of humanity, and then, like birds on the wing, excellent hymns of thanks and praise rise and reach you to do honour to your grace.

Ā vāṁ vayo’śvāso vahiṣṭhā abhi prayo nāsatya vahantu. Pra vāṁ ratho manojāvā asarjīṣaḥ prṛkṣa iṣidho anu purvīḥ.

Ashvins, twin divines ever real beyond destruction, may your strong carriers flying as birds, bring you to the food and fragrance of our yajna, and may your chariot of nature’s energy radiations faster than mind create food, energy and delicacies to our heart’s desire as of all time for our yajnic libations for further development.

O sustainers of all, great are your gifts. Pray give us and increase the food and gifts of the cow, the earth, the knowledge and the language of knowledge beyond challenge and deterioration. Celebrated are the songs of adoration in your honour, and honey sweet the flavours of your gifts which are all appropriate and enjoyable in respect of your generosity.

9. Uta ma ṛjre purayasya raghvī sumīlhe śataṁ perseke ca pakvā. Śaṅḍo dāḍhiraṇiṇāḥ sma-ddiśṭiṁ daśa vaśāso abhiśāca ṛṣvān.

In the simple, straight and bountiful social order of the pioneer ruler, let all the small and sophisticated rights and duties toward all simple and sophisticated projects be mine in a hundred ways, and let the giver of peace, freedom and refinement give me great, focussed, obedient and efficient assistants and co-workers directly responsible to me, in tens and hundreds of strength.
10. Saṁ vāṁ śatā nāsatā yā sahasrā’śvānāṁ purupanthā gire dāt. Bharadvājāya vīra nū gire dāddhatā rakṣāṃsi purudāṃsasā syuḥ.

Ashvins, ever true and indestructible powers of divinity, let the brave pioneer of your manifold path give hundreds and thousands of your motive forces to the celebrant and the man of science and energy with directions for noble policy and communication in correct language and then, O givers of a thousand gifts, the wicked and the destroyers shall be eliminated of their own destiny.

आ वां सुमन विरिंमन्त्यूरिभिः याम ॥ ११ ॥

11. Ā vāṁ sumne varimant-sūribhīḥ syām.

Ashvins, pioneer lights of Divinity, let us ever abide in the peace and well being of the highest order under your protection along with the wise and the brave.

Bright and blazing, the lights of the dawn arise like waves of the sea for the beauty and glory of the earth. It brightens all noble paths of the world and makes them easy for us to follow. Bearing treasures of wealth and energy, let it be generous for the people of the world, we pray.

Excellent and blissful you look and shine along the wide earth, the pure bright rays of light rising to heaven. O refulgent lady of morning divinity, graceful with the beauty and dignity of holiness, you reveal the heart and love of your bosom by the light apparel you wear.

"Bhadṛā dadṛkṣṣā urvīyā vi bhāsyaṭāśocirbhānānavo dyāmapaptan. Āvirvakṣāḥ kṛṇuṣe śumbhamānoṣo devi rocāmānā mahobhiḥ.

Bright red and crimson rays of light conduct the glorious dawn expanding over the earth, the sun takes her over as a smart bride-groom leads away the bride, and, as a brave warrior shoots away the enemies like an archer, it dispels the darkness of the night.

"Sugota te supathā parvatesḥavāte apastarasi svabhāno. Sā na a vaha prīthuṇāmānṛṣvē rayim divo duhitariṣayadhyai.
O self-refulgent dawn, holy and easy are your paths over the clouds and mountains over which you radiate across the calm oceans of space without a stir of the wind. O glorious child of the light of heaven, commanding wide expanses of the universe, bring us the wealth, honour and excellence of the world for complete fulfilment of our heart’s desire.

5. Sā vaha yokṣabhiravātoṣo varam vahasi joṣa-

O dawn, you who rise with the love and excellence of your heart’s desire freely without the obstruction of even a whiff of air, come and bless us with the virilities and fertilities of the world. You, O child of heavenly light, brilliant and generous, be comely and gracious with all your glory at the first invocation of the day’s opening yajna.

6. Ut te vayaścid vasaterapaptan naraśca ye pitu-

O brilliant dawn, at the rise of the day, birds and men leave their dwelling to work for the day and enjoy their family dinner in the evening. O generous and brilliant lady of the morning light, you bring ample gifts of a happy home and delicious dinner for the mortal man of yajnic generosity abiding with you in love and faith.

Note: Swami Dayananda interprets the dawn as the bride and the sun as the groom coming together in marriage by choice and beginning a new day of their life.

Mandala 6/Sukta 65

Usha Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

Lo! there is the dawn, born daughter of heavenly light awakening and shining up our human habitations. Shining by the light of the sun, it is perceived shooting her rays of light across the darkness of the nights.

The dawns proceed by the golden chariot of bright crimson rays of the sun and wonderfully illuminate the world of humanity. Leading the yajnic business of the wide world, they dispel and stem away the darkness of the night.

O glorious dawns, bearing food, energy, knowledge and the message of divinity for the generous mortals, your lights descending like brave powers of heaven, bear and bring protection, advancement and the jewel wealth of life for the celebrant devotee.

O dawns, here and now is the jewel wealth for the servant, for the brave, and for the generous giver. Here it is for the wise sage and for the worshipper. Here is the word of worship as before, pray bring the wealth of life as before for the celebrant like me.

Here and now itself, O dawn of the light of heaven riding the heights of clouds, the sages of science and wisdom sing and celebrate in praise of you with chant of the Veda and offer of yajna and worship and break open the treasures of knowledge divine and secular. May the people’s yajna and worship be true and fruitful at the call of the divinities.

O dawn, child of the light of heaven, harbinger of light and glory, shine as ever before and let us shine too like the celebrated sage of knowledge and power and servant and celebrant of the dawn of divinity. Bestow love and care upon the worshipful admirer, bless the supplicant with wealth and noble progeny, and favour us with honour, fame and excellence of universal order.

Note: Swami Dayananda interprets this hymn as a metaphor of the virtues of women. He says that the birth of a girl child and the bride’s coming to her new home is like the dawn of a new day which brings light, grace and prosperity to the family.

Mandala 6/Sukta 66

Maruts Devataḥ, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

1. Vapurnu taccikituṣe cidastu samānaṁ nāma dhenu patyamānam. Marteṣvanyad dohaṁ pīpāya sakṛcchukram duduhe pṛśnirūdhaḥ.
For the man of vision and wisdom, the motherly form of nature is equal and similar by one name, Dhenu, mother cow. One on earth abounds with milk among the mortals to nurse her children, the other is Prshni, the middle region, mother of Maruts, winds or pranic energies, which simultaneously feeds the cloud with the purest soma of life energy.

2. Ye agnayo na śośucannidhāṇā dviryat trimaruto vāyṛdhanta. Areṇavo hirṇyayāsa eṣām sākaṁ nṛṃṇaīḥ pauṃsyebhiśca bhūvan.

They, the Maruts, vital pranic energies, pure and shining like fires, grow double and triple. Non-particle and golden are their forms and conductors carrying simultaneously both bio-energy and intelligence for life on earth.

These Maruts are children of Rudra, virile spiritual energy, and the mother is there to receive, hold and nourish them in her womb. For the reason of conceiving and bearing ‘the great ones, the mother is known as the great’, the Mother, the mother cow, the mother earth, the holy and the noble, the one who bears and gives birth to life.

Na ya īṣante januṣo’yā nva’ntaḥ santovadyāni punānāḥ. Niryad duhre śucayo’nū jośamanu śrīyā tanvam-ukśamāṇāḥ.

The Maruts neither hurt nor forsake their nativity, nor do they neglect any creature by their ethics and policy, but being noble, pure and shining in the midst of life, purging away weaknesses and perfecting virtues, vitalising and refining their body and personality with beauty, virility and splendour according to their love and ambition, they absorb the essences of nature, distil the soma and give showers of joy.

Makṣū na yesu dohase cidayā ā nāma dhṛṣṇu mārutaim dadhānāḥ. Na ye staunā ayāso mahnā nū cit sudānurava yāsadugrān.

There is none among them but instantly moves forward with showers of generosity. Bold and vibrant, they bear the name of children of the winds. They move not like thieves and sluggards by virtue of their might and grandeur, and only the generous man of holiness can approach and pacify these blazing heroes.

Shining and blazing by strength and superior power, commanding mighty forces of nature, they join the beautiful heaven and earth by their presence. And when these forceful presences pervade heaven and earth, therein abides the self-refulgent electric energy like light and splendour itself.

O Maruts, vibrant powers of nature and humanity, let your course and chariot be free from sin and error. Let it be powered without horses and let it be driven without the driver. Let it be protected without external forces, moving without food and fuel, without reins, dispelling waves, clouds and the dust of earth and space, and let it go by paths of heaven and earth, fulfilling the ambitions of humanity.

O Maruts, in the serious warlike business of life, whoever you protect and promote for the sake of children, grand children, or lands and cows or waters, no one can overwhelm or circumvent, no one can cross, defeat and destroy. Indeed he will be the breaker of new paths and open new treasures and then cross through the skies to the bounds of the regions of light.

O men of learning, bear and offer unique and wonderful songs and presentations of reverence for the adorable, vibrant, prompt and forceful band of heroes of their own essential power and excellence, those who meet the challenges of life and confrontations by their own strength and courage. O brilliant sage, Agni, the earth itself vibrates and shines by the holy and mighty exploits of the Maruts, heroes of the winds.

Bright and blazing, flames of a great yajna of love and non-violence, instantly moving to action and adorable, brave warriors born of light and fire, intrepidable heroes of the winds are shakers of the earth like the heroes of heaven. Such are the Maruts.
With homage and reverence I adore and serve that rising and exalting hero of the winds and the blazing lance of action who is a very child of Rudra awful divine power of force and justice, whom, for the sake of celestial power, the pure, immaculate heroes of fire and conscientious intelligence envy and emulate.

Mandala 6/Sukta 67

Mita-Varunara Devate, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

Mitra and Varuna, complementary pranic energies, holy powers of love and justice, I adore and exalt you both, highest of the divinities of the world, with the best of my voice and words, you both, unique and incomparable, most self-controlled controllers of humanity who guide and lead the people on the right path with your own hands, holding them by the reins and the light rays of their own inner mind.
2. Iyam mad vam pra striete manisopa priya namasa barhiraccha. Yantam no mitravarunav-adhrstam chardiryad vam varuthyam sudanu.

Mitra and Varuna, dear, loving and just teachers and preachers, the holy grass is well spread for you on the vedi, and this sincere address and invitation from the core of my heart reaches out to you with homage and humility. O generous masters of holiness and knowledge, come and bless us with your gifts of the peace and happiness of a comfortable home free from fear.
Fast, strong and bright as heat and light all pervasive, akin to the purity of brotherly relationship, embodiments of truth and law of the universe, mother nature bears you for eternity, O Mitra and Varuna, who ever move forward as greater than the great ones, emerging, rising and blazing as terrible to the enemies of mankind from birth itself.

Since you pervade over and across the wide earth and heaven by your presence, the brilliant and generous great powers of the world, rejoicing by virtue of your grandeur and majesty, loving and cooperative together, hold sway over the social order of the earth and rule, intelligent and enlightened, undaunted and perceptive all over like watchful eyes and ears of the nation.

Indeed, you hold the wealth of the nation, and you sustain and expand the bounds of world order day by day like the sun, for example, expanding the bounds of light over the world. It is through you that the refulgent lord of the universe expands and lights the world of heaven and earth in existence by the food and ergy of life.

7. Tā vīgram dhaithe jaṭhāraṁ pṛṇadhyā ā yat sadma sabhṛtayah pṛṇanti. Na mṛsyante yuva-tayo’vātā vi yat payo viśvajinva bharante.

They bring the heave of passion and they bring the food too to quench the fire of that passion, and thus they sustain the wise with the food they aspire for, they who also lead the bearers of holy materials to fill the house of yajna and to feed the fire. And just as the sparkling sacred streams bear the waters of life, and unmarried maidens bear life-giving vitality, but they are never neglected and never injured in any way, so the wise and the sustainers of the wise must never be neglected, never injured.

8. Tā jihvayā sadamedamā sumedhā ā yad vāṁ satyo aratirṛte bhūt. Tad vāṁ mahitvam ġhṛtānnāvastu yuvaṁ dāśuṣe vi caiṣṭamaṁhāḥ.

Mitra and Varuna, givers of ghrta and food for the fire, whoever the disciple, intelligent, faithful and true, established in truth and the law of truth by virtue of your voice of truth in this house of yajna, let that be your gracious gift of achievement. And we pray throw out all sin and crime for the sake of the giver in this holy programme of moral culture.

O Mitra and Varuna, divinities of love and justice, those holy persons, who emulate and follow the rules and injunctions loved and ordained by you, and never violate them by their power and potential, are like your children by their karmas. On the other hand, those, who envy and are jealous, who violate the principles and institutions dear to you, who are not good and generous people, and in spite of their power and potential are mortals of inferior calibre without the love and performance of noble acts, deserve to be neither you, friends nor your children.

The wise ones bear and offer words of praise in honour of you. Some others, thoughtful and faithful, offer songs of celebration. Then we too chant and address hymns of adoration to you. Joining with all holy ones by your grace and grandeur, there is none you hurt or injure.

Mitra and Varuna, thus under your care and protection and in matters of family peace and prosperity of the home gifted by you, the beneficiary feels great and grateful. And in the battle business of life which is exciting and delightful, you engage the brave, generous, simple and straight man of truth and honesty celebrated in words of praise and adoration all round.

Mandala 6/Sukta 68

Indra-Varuna Devate, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

Indra, glorious lord of power, and Varuna, lord of justice, peace and excellence, this yajna of evolution and advancement, kindled, conducted and jointly sustained by people in your honour, is for the union and cooperation of men dedicated to yajnic development and progress of the world community. Let it go on today and for ever onward for the growth of abundant food, energy and sustenance and for a high order of peace and excellent well being of life as a whole.

2. Tā hi śreṣṭhā devatātā tujā śūrāṇāṃ śaviṣṭhā tā hi bhūtam. Maghonām maṁhiṣṭhā tuviśuṣma ṛtena vṛtraturā sarvasenā.

You are the best and holiest, dedicated to the divine scheme of evolution, development and progress, being most vigorous, bravest of the brave, commanding highest power and excellence among the excellent and powerful, most high spirited by dedication to truth and the law of truth, breakers of the darkest clouds for showers of vitality. Indeed you are the leaders and commanders of the total forces of nature and humanity on the paths of universal progress.

3. Tā grṇīhi namasyebhiḥ śūsaiḥ sumnebhirin-drāvarūṇā cakānā. Vajreṇānyah śavasā hanti vṛtram siṣaktyanyo vṛjaneṣu viprah.

Honour and celebrate the two, Indra and Varuna, lords of peace, power and justice, with reverence and homage. Brilliant with strength and power, over-flowing with vitality and generosity, they are loving and kind.
One of them, Indra, like the sun, breaks the clouds and destroys the enemies with the force of thunder, and the other, Varuna, cool as water and vibrant as the winds, follows to bless humanity with strength and energy on the paths of life.

Gnāśca yannaraśca vāyṛdhanta viśve devāso narāṁ svagūrtāḥ. Praibhya indrāvaruṇā mahitvā dyauśca pṛthivi bhūtamurvī.

All the holy voices, men and women, leading lights of humanity and the holiest of the holy for the world, grow on by their own vision and performance in the course of nature. For all these who grow thus, O lords of power and peace, vision and wisdom, be good, kind and generous by your own grace and grandeur like the light of heaven and the wide expanse of mother earth.

Sa it sudānūḥ svavāṁ ṛtāvendrā yo vāṁ varuṇa dāśati tman. Iśā sa dviṣastared dāsvān vaṁsad rayim rayivataśca janān.

He that is liberal, self confident and upright in matters of truth and divine law, and in his very soul does honour to you, shall, with his resources, conquer his opponents and enemies and, with his generosity, achieve wealth and power and win over men of wealth and power to his side for support and cooperation to give and share.

Indra and Varuna, lords of brilliance, power and wisdom of justice, that wealth and power which you bear and bestow upon the liberal yajaka of love and non-violence may, we pray, be for us too so that we share the honour and excellence which silences and shatters the calumny and criticism advanced by the selfish opposition.

And for us, O lords of power and justice, for the wise and brave whose force of arms and intelligence challenges the enemy and wins the victory in battles of life, let there be that common wealth of nations and that ruler who protects the protectors, defends and supports the wise and brilliant, and, as a superleader, wins wealth, honour and excellence for humanity always in the struggles for progress.

Indra and Varuna, brilliant and generous lords of nature and humanity praised and adored by all, bless us with abundant wealth for honour and excellence of life so that grateful and worshipful, celebrating the power and glory of your grace and grandeur, we may cross over the difficult problems, evils and negativities of the world as we cross the seas by boat.

Offer the dearest homage and sincere adoration in full self-knowledge and awareness to the refulgent, generous and mighty benevolent ruler of the world, this lord Varuna who is vast as earth and shines by his glory and universal law, and illuminates the world by his holy action and light of glory blazing as refulgence beyond the rule and order of time and age.

10. Indrāvaruṇā sutapāvimam sutaṁ somaṁ pibatam madyam dhṛtavratā. Yuvo ratho adhvaram devavītaye prati svasaramupa yāti pītaye.

Indra and Varuna, rulers of power and justice, dedicated to your own law and discipline, protectors and sustainers of your own creation, come and drink of this exhilarating nectar of joyous celebration distilled for you. Your chariot moves to the constant self-sustaining yajna of love and non-violence every day so that you may drink of the soma in the company of divines.

Generous Indra and Varuna, give us abundant showers of the most exhilarating honey sweets of soma. This nectar of devotion is distilled and seasoned for you. Come, sit on the holy grass and rejoice with us and for us.

Mandala 6/Sukta 69

Indra-Vishnu Devate, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

Indra, lord commander of energy and power, Vishnu, lord provider of sustenance, wholeheartedly I call upon you with food and energy and with action to take us successfully to the end of this programme of work and development. Join and enjoy the yajnic programme, create and bring wealth and honour. Indeed, you are pilots of the nation to lead us on by paths of freedom without fear and danger.

Indra and Vishnu, you are creators and producers of all things of the world. You are inspirers of the mind and intelligence of all people. You are the treasure caskets of wealth, honour and joyous excellence of the world. May our voices of invocation and invitation and our songs of adoration full of appreciation, praise and homage reach you with our reverence and holy presentations.

Indra and Vishnu, ruler of power and sustainer of life, you are creators and protectors of the joy of life. Come and join the joyous celebrants over a drink of life’s soma of excellence and ecstasy, and bring the wealth and honour of human values for us. And may the songs of our leading intelligent people full of homage and service exalt you by day and by night with a chant of Vedic mantras.

Indra and Vishnu, leaders of the world vibrant as wind and brilliant as light of the sun, may the greatest and fastest challengers of want and enmity escort you to the joyous fellowship of the world. There share the offers, invitations and common wealths of the peoples of the world, and then listen to my voices of exhortation too.

5. Indrāviṣṇī tat panayāyyaṁ vāṁ somasya mada uru cakramāthe. Akṛṣṇutam-antarikṣam varīyo-'prathataṁ jīvase no rajāṁsi.

Indra and Vishnu, lord omnipotent and lord omnipresent of generosity, admirable is that act of yours by which, in the ecstasy of creation, you conceive, create and expand the excellent middle region of the universe between heaven and earth, and then for the sustenance of our life you create and expand other regions of earth and space.

Indra and Vishnu, you are exalted by the oblations of sacrificial havi and thereby you exalt all others. First receivers and consumers of food and homage, you give back every thing finer in return for others. O lords, receiving oblations of ghrta and blessing others with the best of things, bear and bring the wealth and honour of life for us. Be like the sea full of jewels, be like a cask of soma and the ecstasy of life.

7. Indrāviṣṇu pibataṁ madhvo asya somasya dasrā jaṭharam prṇethām. Ā vāmandhāmsi madirāṇya-gmannupa brahmāṇi śṛṇutam havam me.

Indra and Vishnu, destroyers of want and suffering, drink of the honey sweets of this soma and quench the hunger and thirst of body, mind and soul. Both of you together, receive the exhilarating food and drinks of life, acknowledge our offers of homage, and listen to my voice of invocation and celebration.

Both Indra and Vishnu are ever victorious. They are never defeated. Neither of them is ever vanquished or deprived. Indra and Vishnu, when you act together and contend with others, you stabilise your thousand forces, threefold raise their power and potency, and reduce the adversary to the lowest degree of efficiency.

Mandala 6/Sukta 70

Dyava - prthivi Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

   Radiant and fertile, beauties of the worlds, vast and abundant, extensive, replete with honey sweets, the sun and the earth are sustained by the laws of nature with the immanent will of Varuna, centre-hold of the universe. Undecaying they are, immensely creative and exuberant with the waters of life, beautiful, blissful.

   Both separate yet releasing together abundant streams of liquid vitality, they are holy in action and pure of purpose and discipline of the divine law, and they give us ceaseless showers of milk and water. Shining over and illuminating this world, O sun and earth, let streams of vitality, virility and fertility flow down to us for the good of humanity.

3. \textit{Yo vāṃṛjave kramaṇāya rodasī marto dadāśa dhiśaṇe sa sādhati. Pra prajābhirjāyate dharmaśa manāspari yuvoḥ siktā viṣurūpāṇi savratā.}

O heaven and earth, sustainers of life and illuminators of mind and intelligence, whoever the mortal that dedicates himself to you and abides by the laws you manifest for the sake of simple, straight guidance in the natural course of his life, wins success and honour and advances in life with his progeny higher and higher in the observance of Dharma, since it is from you that the diverse forms of life proceed alongwith the laws and manners of their species.

4. \textit{Ghṛtena dyāvāprthivī abhīvṛte ghṛtaśriyā ghṛtapṛcā ghṛtaṃvṛdhā. Urvī prthvī hoṭṛvūrye purohite te id viprā īlete sumnamiṣṭaye.}

Heaven and earth are surrounded by cosmic waters, they are brilliant in beauty by waters, they are joined and grow in and by waters. O vast earth and heaven, wise sages serve and pray to you for the fulfilment of their desire and attainment of happiness, you being foremost in their selection of the highpriest who would lead them to honour and success.

May heaven and earth create and provide for us the honey sweets of life. They shower the sweets of honey and honeyed pleasures of life and they are dedicated to the holy laws and purposes of nature for us. Divine they are, great and generous, they conduct nature’s yajnic cycle of life, they hold the treasures of the world for us, wealth and honour, knowledge and progress, and the virility and fertility of life’s continuity for us.

Let the light of heaven and fertility of the earth, divine source givers of all achievement and performance of good works like father and mother, create, radiate and increase food and energy, knowledge and science.
May they, abundant earth and heaven together, brilliant and joyous givers of comfort and happiness, both sources of bliss, bring us wealth and honour and fulfilment in togetherness.

Mandala 6/Sukta 71

Savita Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

That refulgent and generous Savita, creator, generator and inspirer, ruler of the world, lord of holy action may, we pray, raise his golden hands and bless us with will and wisdom to perform creative and productive actions for common good. With showers of waters and grace, the lord of generous and adorable hands blesses the world regions and their people, as he is holy, creative, youthful, generous and perfect in various specific fields of action.

Let us be established with dedication in the highest generosity, prosperity and abundance of the refulgent and gracious lord Savita’s dynamic creation. You, O lord, are absolute and omnipresent in the creation, generation, evolution and sustained development of the multitude of humans and animals of the wide world of peace and settlement for all.

Savita, ruling lord of inspiration, protect and promote our home, our people and our wealth and honour by benevolent and inviolable modes of defence, peace and development. O lord of golden word and voice, bless us with the latest forms of protection, progress and well being. Let no thief or sinner dare rule or boss over us.

That brilliant and generous lord Savita of yajnic action, inspiration and advancement, golden generous of hands and honeyed sweet of animating voice, wearing a steel helmet, rises like the sun every day after night and abides by us, and blesses the generous giver and yajaka with abundant wealth, honour and graces of life. A friend and protector of the home and family, no one dare oppress, suppress or terrorize him.

5. Udū ayāṁ upavakteva bāhū hirānyayā savitā supratikā. Divō rohāṁsyaruhat pṛthivyā arīramat patayat kaccidabhvam.

Savitā, refulgent illuminator and ruler of the world, glorious in form, raises his golden gracious arms like a rousing orator, ascends the heights of heaven, and sets in motion, conducts, directs and enjoys the great systemic business of the earth over day and night.

O Savitā, lord of illumination and inspiration, great creator and ruler of the world, create the best and most beautiful, the most satisfying and blissful, intentions, actions and results today and tomorrow in endless succession. O lord generous and refulgent, bless us with bright intelligence and spirit of holy action so that by virtue of that intelligence and action we may abide in and enjoy the peace and well-being of a home of great comfort, peace and grace divine.
Indra, lord of cosmic energy, and Soma, spirit of cosmic vitality, the greatness of your lustrous grandeur is this that you have done the first elemental grand acts of creation: you fashion forth the sun, you create the regions of light and the peace and paradisal bliss of existence, you dispel the darkness and ignorance of life, and you ward off the malice and negativities of the earthly community.

Lords of cosmic energy and universal bliss of life, you light up the dawns and lead the sun on course with its light. By the balance of forces you hold up and sustain the regions of light, and you unfold and sustain the earth in her motherly expense and variety of life.
3. Indrāsomāvahimapaḥ pariṣṭhāṁ hatho vṛtram-anu vāṁ dyauramanyata. Prāṇāṁ-syairayatam naḍīnāmā samudrāṇi paprathuḥ purūṇi.

Lords of cosmic lightning energy and vibrating winds, you break the dark clouds of vapour up on the high skies and release the closed up waters, and as the skies are clear, the heavens acknowledge your grandeur with cheer and thankfulness. You set the floods of rivers aflow and fill the wide expanses of boundless seas in abundance.

Lords of sun light and vital energy, you infuse the unripe forms of vegetation with ripe herbal juice, the udders of cows with delicious milk, the flowing streams with energising waters, and you concentrate the unbound energy of sun rays and put this shining vitality into these various and wonderful forms of existence.

5. Indrāsomā yuvamaṅga tarutramapatyasācaṁ śrutiyaṁ rārāthe. Yuvāṁ śuṣmaṁ naryāṁ carṣaṇībhyaḥ saṁ vivyathuḥ pṛtanāśāhamugrā.

Indra and Soma, lords of energy and life’s vitality, both dear as breath of life and bright as sun and moon, give us the light of knowledge worthy of remembrance that may save us from want and suffering across the present and future generations of our children. Interweave for all people strength and power worthy of leading heroes with which we may face and win all our battles of life against the adversaries of life and human society.

Mandala 6/Sukta 73

Brhaspati Devata, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

Breaking the clouds and shattering mountains, first self-manifested among things born, the very embodiment of universal law and the truth of existence, Brhaspati, lord creator, ruler, protector and promoter of the expansive universe is the very essence of the life and breath of existence who wields and governs all matters and materials of the world. Lord and master of the earth by virtue of knowledge and power of action, illustrious with the light and fire of life, he is our father generator who, like the mighty thunder, proclaims his power and presence across heaven and earth.

Breaking the clouds and shattering mountains, first self-manifested among things born, the very embodiment of universal law and the truth of existence, Brhaspati, lord creator, ruler, protector and promoter of the expansive universe is the very essence of the life and breath of existence who wields and governs all matters and materials of the world. Lord and master of the earth by virtue of knowledge and power of action, illustrious with the light and fire of life, he is our father generator who, like the mighty thunder, proclaims his power and presence across heaven and earth.

Brhaspati, lord ruler of all, is he who, for the people in need, creates and gives a world of beauty and plenty when they approach him in the mood and spirit of supplication and prayer. When people invoke the divine lord, he breaks the thickest clouds of darkness and suffering, shatters the strongholds of exploitation and slavery, and challenges and wins over enemies and adversaries standing up in arms against humanity.

This divine and illustrious lord of the universe, Brhaspati, overcomes the enemies, wins wealth and happiness, and reveals mighty treasures of lands and light of knowledge. Ruling over the dynamics of waters, energies and the karmic flow of nature’s law and light of heaven and bliss of life, himself unseen and undefeated, Brhaspati destroys all unfriendly forces confronting humanity by the strikes of his thunderbolt of justice and punishment by law.

Mandala 6/Sukta 74

Soma - Rudra Devate, Bharadvaja Barhaspatya Rshi

O Soma and Rudra, lords of health and well being and of the health and vitality of life, ruler of the land and powers of health services, you maintain the balance of nature and environment and the health and vitality of the community so that the desired results of social welfare be achieved to your satisfaction. Bearing seven-fold jewels of health and prosperity, bless the inmates of every home so that our people may be happy and healthy in peace and joy, and our bipeds and quadrupeds too may be healthy and happy.

2. Somārudrā vi vṛhataṁ viśūcīm-amīvā yā no gayam-āviveśa. Āre bādhethāṁ nirṛtīṁ parācair-asme bhadrā sauśravasāṁi santu.

O Soma and Rudra, lords of peace and vitality, uproot sickness, ill health, disease and epidemics such as cholera and others which spread to our homes and affect our children and institutions. Ward off want and adversity and keep it far away so that they never recur and we enjoy good health, well being and abounding graces.

Soma and Rudra, lord of health and vitality, ruler and physician, bear and bring all those herbs and medicaments for our body’s health and mental and spiritual strength by which you may throw off and eliminate from us whatever pollutes our body system and whatever sin or trespass or indiscretion has been committed by us.

तिग्मायुधहाँ सुप्रभातिः सुविरामपरस्वाभिः सु मृढङ्गः नः।
प न मृज्ज्वले वरहमण्य पाश्रायणायं नः सुमनस्यमाना।

4. Tigmāyudhau tigmāhetī suṣevasa somārudrāv-iha su mṛṣatam naḥ. Pra no muñcataṁ varuṇa-sya pāśād gopāyatam naḥ sumanasyamānā.

Soma and Rudra, lords of health and total well being, bearing weapons of blazing efficacy and shattering blows of thundering strength, givers of peace and joy, bless us with health of body, mind and soul and lasting well being. Release us from the snares of Varuna, bondage of sin and disease by the laws of nature. Happy, kind and gracious, protect and promote us in life against sin, disease and indiscretion.

Mandala 6/Sukta 75

मंडल ६/सुक्त ७५
1. Jimūtasyeva bhavati pratiṅkaṁ yad varmī yāti samadāṁ-upasthe. Anāviddhayā tanvā jaya tvam sa tvā varmaṇo mahimā pipartu.

When a warrior in armour advances to the battle front of war he looks like a mighty rain cloud. Go forward with your body unhurt, win the battle, and may the grandeur of your armour protect and defend you in war and peace.

2. Dhanvanā gā dhanvanājīṁ jayema dhanvanā śīvṛāḥ samado jayema. Dhanuḥ śatrorapakā-maṁ kṛṇoti dhanvanā sarvāḥ pradiśo jayema.

Let us preserve and win lands and cows by the bow and reach our targets by the bow. Let us fight out the fiery passions by the bow and arrow of concentrated meditation. The bow and arrow thwarts the evil designs of enemy forces within and without both. Let us advance in all directions by the bow.

3. Vakṣyantīvedā ganīganti karnāṁ priyaṁ sakhāyaṁ pariṣasvajānā. Yośeva śinkte vitatādhi dhanvaṁ-ṣyā iyaṁ samane pārayanī.

Like a maiden embracing her dear lover and whispering into his ear as if saying something sweet, this string of the bow, its ends like loving hands clasping the ends of the bow, is stretched to the archer’s ear, rings and seems to say: Shoot, advance and make way through the opposite ranks.

Just as a young mother holds the baby in her lap with both hands, so may the two ends of the bow operative together in balance hold the string at both ends and shoot the arrow upon the enemies and thus scatter the unfriendly forces out of gear.

Like a guardian having many children under his care, the quiver borne on the warrior’s back holds many arrows and rattles as the warrior enters upon the battle. The warrior with the bow and arrows in the quiver emerging on the battle field scatters all the enemy forces and wins all the battles of life.
6. \textit{Rathe tiṣṭhan nayati vājinaḥ puro yatrayatra kāmayaṭe susārathih. Abhīśūṇāṁ mahimānāṁ panāyata manah paścādanu yacchanti raśmayaḥ.}

An expert driver on the steer of the chariot directs and leads the horses forward wherever he wants. Know this and admire the great importance of the bridle strings. As the driver controls the horses so does the mind control the senses. Control the strings of the mind and the senses would follow in your conduct of the chariot of life.

7. \textit{Tivrāṇ ghoṣāṇ kṛṇvate vrṣapāṇayo’śvā rathebhiḥ saha vājayaṇtaḥ. Avakrāmantaḥ prapadair-amitrān kṣīṇanti śatrūṅr-anapav-yayantaḥ.}

Rushing on with the chariots, the warriors of mighty arm and war horses roar with awful war cries and, crushing the unfriendly forces with their advances without ever retreating, they eliminate the enemies.

8. \textit{Rathavāhanaṁ havirasya nāma yatrāyudham nihitamasya varma. Tatrā rathamupa śaṁgaṁ sadema viśvāhā vayaṁ suṁanasyamānāḥ.}

Where the chariot war materials of this warrior are collected and deposited, and where his arms and armour which routed the enemy are secured and guarded, there let us find our chariot of peace and well being for all time, planning and designing as we are always for the peace and joy of the mind.

Those who abide in the home or sit in the assembly with peace and joy at heart, who are senior parental people, advanced and experienced in age, observing Dharma without fluctuating from peace and rectitude even in crises, commanding strength and depth of wisdom, leading wonderful armies, having full forces of arms and armaments but never violent and destructive, brave heroes of truth and honesty, many, mighty and magnanimous, observers of self-chosen discipline and law of conduct, let such be our friends, ideals and leader guardians for a life of peace and happiness.

Sagely scholars, parental seniors, men of peace and good will, holy and blissful sun and earth which hurt no one, protective and promotive powers of nature and humanity, all observers and protectors of truth and law, may, we pray, protect us from sin and evil and defend us against violence. May no evil and violent power, no thief, rule over us.

The sun wears the beauty of a divine bird and flies. The earth, its mountain tops illuminated by sun rays, moves on, urged and energised by the sun. On this earth where men run around together yet scattered, may the arrows of defence and protection and the light of the sun provide us a home of peace and stability.

O ruler, let natural honesty and rectitude protect and promote us. Let our bodies be adamantine strong. Let soma, nectar juice of herbs, inspire us with its message of good health and rejuvenation. Let mother earth bless us with peace and comfort in a happy home.

O inspirer of the brave like a goad, inspire the wise and brave warriors of the earth who break down the forces of these enemies of humanity and strike down the saboteurs and terrorists in the battles of life.

Wrapped round the arm of a warring man of action like the coils of a snake, like an arm guard protecting the shooting arm against the strike back of the bow string after the shot of an arrow, or against the recoil of a gun, the man of knowledge well versed in all the ways of life and the world should protect the man of bold action all round.

15. Ālāktā yā ruruśirṣṇyatho yasyā ayo mukham. Idam parjanyaretasa iva devyai bṛhannamaḥ.

Poison-tempered with head like a doe’s and a mouth of steel, generous and abundant like a rain cloud is the brave ruling queen of arrows. For the lady of divine velocity, unbounded praise and homage of a thousand salutations!

O sharpest and fastest of missiles, tempered and tested by the best of defence scientists, shot and released, fly far, reach the target and fall upon the enemies. Spare none of them whatsoever even at the farthest distance.

17. Yatra bāṇāḥ sampatanti kumārā viśikhā iva. Tatrā no brahmaṇaspātir-aditiḥ śarma yacchatu viśvāhā śarma yacchatu.

O ruler, where the young soldiers with shorn hair fall upon the enemy and showers of missiles rain down upon the targets, there let the controller of nation’s wealth provide us total security and let the mother earth provide us a safe and comfortable shelter, a shelter of all round security.

O warrior of the bow, I cover the vital limbs of your body with armour for protection. Let the ruler Soma, immortal spirit of life’s vitality, give you close cover against death and mortality. Let the wise and judicious commander of the forces provide you the best and most abundant food and maintenance, and let the excellencies of the nation rejoice with you when you win the battle.

या नः स्वा अर्जण यशच्छ निष्ट्य जिघांसति ।
दुवास्तं सवं धूतन्तु बह्य वम ममान्तरम् ॥ १९ ॥

19. Yo naḥ svo arano yaśca niṣṭyo jighāṁsatī. Devā-

Any one, whether our own or a stranger far away non-fighting, or far off and low, that hurts and violates us deserves that the best and enlightened of the nation punish him to nullity. For me, the Lord Almighty and the divine knowledge and awareness within me is my best armour for protection.

MANDALA 7

Mandala 7/Sukta1

Agni Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

O leading lights of yajna, let the people produce fire by the heated friction of arani woods done with the manual motion of hands. Fire is an admirable power seen from afar and shining far and wide, sustaining home life like a guardian but otherwise silent, implicit in nature and non-violent. Further create this domestic energy by your acts of research and intelligence.

O mighty fire and light of divinity, with luminous intelligence and noble action give us that honour and excellence of life and that brave, admirable and seasoned progeny worthy of us which no force

The energy of fire and electricity, scholars of basic science and original vision produce for domestic purpose or for communication and transportation somehow from something they know best. It is of versatile use for defence and protection, universal in nature and character, and an all purpose asset in the home for any service.

O leading lights of yajna, let the people produce fire by the heated friction of arani woods done with the manual motion of hands. Fire is an admirable power seen from afar and shining far and wide, sustaining home life like a guardian but otherwise silent, implicit in nature and non-violent. Further create this domestic energy by your acts of research and intelligence.

2. Tamagnimaste vasavo nòvantsupraticakàmvase kòticàcit. Dàkàyò yò dàma èrsa nòtì.

The energy of fire and electricity, scholars of basic science and original vision produce for domestic purpose or for communication and transportation somehow from something they know best. It is of versatile use for defence and protection, universal in nature and character, and an all purpose asset in the home for any service.

3. Preddho agne dòdihì puro no ’jasrayà sùrmyà yaviśtha. Tvàm šaśvanta upa yanti vājāḥ.

O fire divine, ever youthful power and presence, well kindled and raised, shine on, radiate and illuminate us, constantly, through the continuous channel of nature’s dynamics. All things in constant motion reach you and flow on in the cosmic cycle.

O light divine, brighter and stronger than flames of fire are those vibrant radiations of yours, all illuminating, purifying and sanctifying, which arise when leading lights of yajnic vision and action, well educated and holily cultured, sit together on the vedi and kindle you to join the cosmic circuit of intelligence.

1. Dà no agne dhiyà rayìṃ suvìraṃ svapatyàṃ sahasya pràṣastam. Na yaṃ yāvā tarati yātu-māvān.

O mighty fire and light of divinity, with luminous intelligence and noble action give us that honour and excellence of life and that brave, admirable and seasoned progeny worthy of us which no force would be able to violate or overcome.

6. \textit{Upa yameti yuvatiḥ sudakṣaṁ doṣāvastorha-viṣmaī gḥṛtācī. Upa svainamaramatirvasūyuḥ.}

The creative vitality of Agni is active and operative day and night: the youthful maiden approaches her versatile lover and stays with him in marriage for life, the yajna ladle overflowing with gṛtṛa reaches the kindled fire of the vedi, the rich dark night looks up to the moon and terminates with the sun, the virgin nature, divine lord’s own consort, with the passion for creation, joins him for ever and creates the living world.

7. \textit{Viśvā agne’pa dahārātīryebhistapobhiradahoa jarūtham. Pra nisvaram cātayasvāmīvām.}

O divine fire, burn off all the negativities and adversities of the world with those flames of light with which you burn, eliminate the ailments, sickness and disease from the very roots, and recreate life anew.

8. \textit{Ā yaste agna idhate anīkāṁ vasiśṭha sukra dīdivaḥ pāvaka. Uto na ebhiḥ stavathairiha syāḥ.}

O divine fire of life, Agni, destroyer, purifier and recreator, haven and home of the living world and blazing ruler, let your power and forces which shine all round shine on and illuminate our life, and, with all these our songs of praise and prayer, stay with us as protector and promoter and strengthen us for our self defence and protection.

वि य ते अग्नि भजिष्ठ अनीकः पतं नरः पित्यासः पुत्रत्र।
उत्ते ने पुभि: सुमनाः दुह स्वर्यः ॥ ९ ॥

Agni, light of life and fiery power, many are the mortals, leading lights, good and kind as parents, dedicated to you and serving your powers and forces of existence. With all these be kind and gracious at heart toward us here in life and now.

इम नरः वृत्रहत्येषु शूरा विश्वा अद्वीरभिः सन्तु माया: । य मु धियं पुनर्यंत दशस्ताम ॥ १० ॥

10. Ime naro vrtrahatyēsu śūrā viśvā adevīrabhi santu māyāḥ. Ye me dhiyāṁ panayanta prāśastām.

All these leaders of the world, best and bravest in the battles of life against evil, who approve and admire my work and intelligence consecrated to you, are unchallengeable. The wiles and tactics of the wicked would be dull and ineffective before the brave dedicated to you, O light and leader of the world.

मा शून्ते अग्नि नि सदाम नृणां माशं साचाचवीरताः परि त्वा ।
प्रजावतििषु दुर्यसु दुय ॥ ११ ॥

Agni, lord of light and fire, may we never sit idle in a state of depression or in a state of swollen pride. Among our men, let there be none without descendants. O lord sustainer of happy homes, let there be no trace of cowardice among the happy communities settled in happy homes wholly dedicated to you.

12. Yamaśvī nityamupayāti yajñaṁ prajāvantam svapatyam kṣayaṁ naḥ. Svajanmanā śeṣasā vāvṛdhanam.

Agni, lord of life, ruler and sustainer of happy homes and settled communities, give us a blessed home bubbling with the joy of noble children and the presence of happy people, rising and advancing with our own posterity, a happy place for yajna blest by daily visit and constant presence of Agni, lord of sun rays.

Agni, lord of all power and inexhaustible energy, save us from monsters void of love, loyalty and friendship. Protect us against the wicked, violent and sinful. With you as friend, ally and protector, let me face and overthrow even whole armies of adversaries.

That Agni, vision, power and energy, excels other forms of power and energy where the energy, like an offspring, fast and strong a thousand ways of application as working power of hands, is joined with the imperishable source and flows therefrom therewith like water.

That Agni, power and energy, is real agni which promotes the supplicants and protects them from the violent, which saves the kindler and augmenter from sin, and which the brave, cultured and enlightened leaders, well educated, serve and promote for a common cause.

This is that Agni, light and fire of existence for the sake of life, served and honoured universally, which the lord ruler of the universe commanding the creative resources of existence lights and raises, and which the yajaka with all his resources invokes all round in yajnic acts of service and development for the common cause of love and non-violence.

Agni, light of life, with all the resources at our disposal we always offer you abundant materials in yajna, promoting thereby both the priest and the host in the holy act of love and non-violence for development.

18. Imo agne vītatamāni havyā’jasro vakṣi devātātimaccha. Prati na īm surabhīṇi vyantu.

Agni, life of life, universal power, carry well these cherished, holiest and most expansive oblations offered to you in honour of the divinities and, in consequence, let the sweets and fragrances of nature come to us from all sides.

19. Mā no agne’vīrate parā dā durvāsase’mataye mā no asyai. Mā naḥ kṣudhe mā rakṣasa ṛtāvo mā no dame mā vana ā juhūrthāḥ.

Agni, refulgent lord and ruler of life, give us not up to a state of cowardice and impotence. Reduce us not to a state of rags and destitution. Subject us not to such indigence and intellectual imbecility. Reduce us not to hunger. Throw us not to the evil and the wicked. O lord observer and protector of truth and law, lead us not astray in the home and in the forest.
20. Nū me brahmāṇyagna ucchaśādhi tvamī deva maghavadbhyaḥ suśūdaḥ. Rātau syāmobha-yāsa ā te yūyam pāta svastibhiḥ sadā naḥ.

Agni, brilliant and generous lord of enlightenment, you are the divine reservoir of learning and the laws of Dharma. Teach me and the commanders of power and prosperity the laws and values of Dharma. We pray let us both, the priest and yajamana, ruler and ruled, high and low, abide in the orbit of your generosity. And may you both, teacher and preacher, and the divine power promote us with peace, prosperity and well being all round all time.

Agni, lord of light, invoked with love and eagerly responsive, blissful of form and bright of flame, born of omnipotence, you shine and illuminate. Let not the devotee, always dedicated to you in holy work for the child’s sake, be consumed by the fire of evil. Let the noble and brave son never be indifferent and callous toward us.
22. Mā no agne durbhṛtaye sacaisu deveddheśva-gniśu pra vocah. Mā te asmān durmatayo bhṛmāccid devasya sūno sahaso naṁanta.

Agni, child of omnipotence, lord generous and brilliant, devoted as we are to you in all these yajnic fires kindled by holy ones, pray do not condemn us to indigent living and poor maintenance. Let not your displeasure, O bright and generous lord, even by mistake ever touch us.

23. Sa marto agne svanika revān-amartye ya ājihoti havyam. Sa devatā vasuvaniṁ dadhāti yaṁ sūrirarthi precchamāna eti.

Agni, lord of light and life, noble of flames and potent of forces, blest is that mortal with wealth of life who offers holy libations to the immortal fire of yajna. The immortal lord bears immense wealth and honour of life to gift the man of enlightenment who calls upon the lord in a mood of prayer and supplication.

24. Maho no agne suvitasya vidvān rayim sūribhya ā vahā brhantam. Yena vayam sahasāvan mademā’vikṣitāsa āyuṣā suvīrāḥ.
Agni, lord of light and life, you know our great desire and prayer. Pray bring us abundant and expansive wealth and enlightenment for the brave by which, O lord of power, we may live and enjoy a long life with lustre and noble progeny without hurt, waste or corruption.

Agni, lord of light and wealth of life, brilliant, generous and divine, give us more and more of food and plenty of wealth for the dedicated men of honour and power and enlighten us how to live with honour and joy. O lord, we pray let us all, givers and receivers both, abide in the bliss of your grace and generosity. O leaders of power and enlightenment, always protect and promote us on the path of peace, plenty and total well being.

Mandala 7/Sukta 2

Apra Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

Agni, light of the world, accept our homage of yajnic fuel today, let the sacred flames and fragrance rise illuminating and purifying the wide space, touch the heights of celestial skies with the holy chant of mantras upto the pinnacles of purity and expand with the rays of the sun.

With yajnic acts of holy offering, we honour and celebrate the grandeur of this sacred Agni, light of life, adored by humanity in the midst of the enlightened divinities, performers of creative actions, who are pure and purifying, intelligent in heart and mind, and who accept and taste both kinds of yajnic offerings for the development of both mental and physical faculties.

Let us always and for all of you honour and exalt the adorable, inspiring, efficient and generous Agni operative like a human ambassador between heaven and earth, between body and spirit, true of speech like a superman, enlightened and inspired by the wisest of humanity for the sake of creation and development with love and non-violence for progress of the world. (Agni here is the leader of humanity brilliant as light and inspired with will and enthusiasm like fire.) humanity for the sake of creation and development with love and non-violence for progress of the world. (Agni here is the leader of humanity brilliant as light and inspired with will and enthusiasm like fire.)

4. Saparyavo bharamāṇā abhijñu pra vrñjate namaśī barhiragnau. Ājuhvānā ghṛtaprṣṭham prṣadvadadhvaryavo haviṣā marjayadhvam.

Worshippers sitting on their knees, bearing sacred grass and fragrant materials, offer the preliminary oblation of holy grass and ghrta with reverence into the fire. O priests invoking and raising the fire burning bright with flames of ghrta as rain from the cloud, feed the fire with holy oblations of havi and thereby purify the hearts of the worshippers.

5. Svādhyo vi duro devayanto 'śisrayū rathayurdevatātā. Pūrvī śiṣuṇ na mātārā rihāṇe samagruvo na samaneṣvañjan.

Devout thinkers and dedicated scholars committed to yajna and the divinities move at the speed of chariots in holy works, wide open the doors of heavenly bliss and beautify them for all in the battles of life. Loving and bold they are like young mothers to the child and advance forces for the ruler.

And may the holy and divine night and the dawn, both celestial maidens of the universe abiding in spaces between heaven and earth, abundant with beauty and power, universally invoked and adored, worthy of worship, come and bless us in life for happiness and well being, like the mother earth, like the generous mother cow, and like the infinite speech of divine revelation.

7. Viprā yajñēsu mānuṣeṣu kārū manye vāṁ jātavedasā yajadhyai. Īrdvam no adhvaram kṛtam haveṣu tā deveṣu vanatho vāryāṇi.

O scholars and scientists, artists and craftsmen, you know all the facts, values and requirements of the world around. I honour you in the yajnic programmes of humility and invite you to participate in the creative programmes of development. Pray take the challenge and raise our corporate programmes of love and non-violence to the heights of achievement. May you all create, acquire and bring in the cherished objects of value for the noble humanity.

May Bharati, goddess of world speech, knowledge and culture come. May Ila, goddess of divine speech, knowledge and grace come. May Sarasvati, mother dynamics of universal speech, knowledge and culture come. May the three divinities, loving, kind and gracious, come with the enlightened daughters of the earth, men and divines of enlightenment, and dedicated scholars of eternal and historical knowledge, come and grace our sacred seats of yajna. May Agni, lord omniscient, come and bless us in the soul.

O Tvashta, brilliant maker of forms and shaper of men, generous and joyous giver of all round nourishment, physical, mental and spiritual, give us that vitality and that virility, that perfection of form, education and culture without delay from which is born the brave hero of action, expert scientist and technologist, specialist of clouds and rain dedicated to divinity as well as to noble humanity.
Giver of life and nourishment to the woods, lord of light and sun rays, take up the fragrance and reach it across to the generous powers of nature and humanity. Agni, fire of yajna, has catalysed and refined the holy materials in the vedi for diffusion. Agni, that’s the yajaka of nature, ever true and more which coexists with the divine elements of nature from their origin, joins them, and refines and intensifies them for the common good of nature and humanity.

11. Ā yāhyagnē samidhāno arvāṇindreṇa devaiḥ saratham turebhīḥ. Barhirna āstāmaditiḥ suputrā svāhā devā amṛtā mādayantām.

Agni, fire of life, light of the sun, brilliant scholar and teacher, come to us right here, burning, blazing, shining and illuminating, with Indra, light and power as that of thunder and lightning. Come by chariot across the spaces with the divines and forces of instant action, sit on the holy grass, and let Aditi, mother earth and nature, with her children of virtue and the immortal divinities all be happy and give us joy in truth of word and deed.

Mandala 7/Sukta 3

Agni Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi
1. Agniḥ vo devamagnibhiḥ sajoṣā yajaśṭhaṁ dūtamadhvare kṛṇudhvam. Yo martheṣu nidhr-uvirṛtāvā tapurmūrdhā ghṛtānnaḥ pāvakaḥ.

O learned scholars and scientists, in your yajnic programmes of corporate endeavour for human purposes, light and produce that adorable agni, energy, from various forms of heat and sunlight, which is brilliantly useful and universally helpful and which acts as a messenger between region and region and earth and space. It is permanently present in all forms of mortal creation, abides by the laws of nature, is vested with heat and power at the highest, consumes finest food and it is fiery and purifying.

2. Prothadaśvo na yavase’viṣyan yadā mahaḥ saṁvaranād vyasthāt. Ādasya vāto anu vāti śoci-radha sma te vrajanaṁ kṛṣṇamasti.

Roaring and consuming its food like a horse exulting in grass, it rises from its source and moves like velocity itself, splitting, protecting, accomplishing. Currents of wind and energy follow the rise of its power. O fiery energy, attraction and repulsion, that’s your path of motion.

3. Ud yasya te navajātasya vṛṣno’gne carantyajarā idhānāḥ. Acchā dyāmaruṣo dhūma eti sam dūto agna īyase hi devān.
Agni, abundant energy divine, as your flames arise, new and undecaying, the radiant waves traverse the heights of heaven in space, and thus you move like a messenger to the divinities of nature at the one end and to the brilliant scholars at the other.

4. Vi yasya te prthivyām pājo aśret trṣu yadannaṃ samavṛkta jambhaiḥ. Seneva srṣṭā prasitiṣṭā eti yavāṁ na dasmā juhvā viveksi.

Your power and force spreads in and all over the earth instantly as you consume the inputs by the jaw-like motion of your flames and release the energy. The radiation of energy moves like a fighting force forward on the advance when, O mighty power, you receive the materials and convert them into energy as grain is converted into vitality.

5. Tamid doṣā tamuṣasi yaviṣṭham-agnimatyāṁ na marjavyanta naraḥ. Niśīśānā atithimasya yonau didāya socirāhutasya vrṣṇaḥ.

O leading lights of science and technology, as riders groom a race horse for better performance, similarly strengthen and sharpen the power of this radiant and most youthful, unaging, Agni, serving and refining it like an undated but most welcome visitor, and increase the light and speed of this abundant treasure.
of energy fed with greater inputs at source, and let it shine at night and at dawn and let it radiate more and ever more.

Radiant Agni, commander of noble ensign, power and force, beautiful is your form when, close at hand, you shine like radiant gold. The light of your power radiates and blazes like lightning from the sky, and you display your splendour like the wonderful sun.

7. Yathā vaḥ svāḥagnaye dāśema parīlabhir-ghṛtavadbhiśca havyaiḥ. Tebhirno agne amitairmahobhiḥ śatāṁ pūrbhir-āyasībhir-ni pāhi.

Agni, refulgent ruler of the world, as we offer homage and yajna to you in truth of word and deed with fragrant materials soaked in ghrta and exalt you with streams of holy songs without reserve, you too, we pray, in gracious response, protect and promote us a hundred-fold with great unbounded golden citadels of steel security, prosperity and culture.

Or what we know are your divine voices, loud, bold and unchallengeable, gifted to the generous yajnic giver, by which you protect your people who comprise the best men and women, by them, O child of omnipotence, Jataveda, present with every thing in existence, protect and promote us and the learned brave celebrants of divinity.

Agni, refulgent ruler of the world, emerging like fire from its mother source of arani woods or like heat and light from earth and heaven, arises from the land and her people and goes forward blazing like a thunderbolt of crystal, pure and purifying, bright by the grace of his body and mind, illuminating, sanctifying, dedicated to the service of divine nature and noble humanity.

These are our good fortunes, O fire divine, O lord of light. Shine and illuminate these so that we may attain noble intelligence and will to do good works. O lord, let all these riches be for the celebrant and servant of Divinity too. O children of the earth, O divine powers, protect and promote us always all round with peace and joy of well being.

Mandala 7/Sukta 4

Agni Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Pra vaḥ śukrāya bhānave bharadhvaṁ havyaṁ matim cāgnaye supūtam. Yo daivyāni mānuṣā janūṁśyantarviśvāni vidmanā jīgāti.

For your strength and vitality and for your light and wisdom, bear and offer purified fragrant oblations and songs of praise to Agni, refulgent spirit of Divinity which, with its light and awareness, inspires and enlightens all human and superhuman manifestations of life within.

2. Sa gṛtso agnis-taruṁścidastu yato yaviśṭho ajanīṣṭa mātuh. Saṁ yo vanā yuvate śucidan bhūri cidannā samidatti sadyaḥ.
Let that Agni, spirit of life, be young, ever fresh and progressive since it is the youngest born of Mother Nature. As fire abides with the woods for food, so does the spirit abide with sun rays for food and energy, and as one consumes food with pure white teeth so does the fiery youth always consume lots of food for energy and growth in the physical form.

3. \textit{Asya devasya saṁsadyanīke yaṁ martāsaḥ śyetam jagrbhre. Ni yo grbham pauruṣeyīmu-voca durokam-agnir-āyave śuśoca.}

The grandeur of this brilliant lord of light, the mortals perceive and realise in his splendid assembly and in the blazing armies of his power. He defines spiritual excellence as the very embodiment of it in manifestation and shines as an unassailable hero for humanity.

4. \textit{Ayanī kavirakaviṣu pracetā martēsvagniramṛto ni dhāyi. Sa mā no atra juhuraḥ sahasvaḥ sadā tve sumanasaḥ syāma.}

This Agni, intelligent, brilliant and a poetic visionary among the unwise and unintelligent, pervades and shines, the immortal spirit among the mortals. O lord most potent and patient, forsake us never, never abandon us to the wicked in the world, let us always enjoy your good will, love and grace.
Let that Agni, spirit of life, be young, ever fresh and progressive since it is the youngest born of Mother Nature. As fire abides with the woods for food, so does the spirit abide with sun rays for food and energy, and as one consumes food with pure white teeth so does the fiery youth always consume lots of food for energy and growth in the physical form.

That Agni, universal spirit, which by his creative yajna resides in the cosmic home created by divine powers of Prakrti in association with the supreme lord, and which redeems the immortal souls in mortal forms to freedom, the same cosmic creator and sustainer, the herbs, the trees and the earth bear at heart in seed form in the state of existence as the principle of growth and sustenance of the universe.

Agni, lord of light and life, commands abundant gifts of nectar-like food and immortal values, and he commands the gifts of wealth, honour and excellence. O lord of power and patience, we pray, let us always be with you but not as cowards, not without progeny, not without obedience and service in faith, not in a state of ugliness and gracelessness.

Wealth, but without debt and fight, is to be sought for. Let us be masters of wealth of permanent, undiminishing character. The child born of another is not your own as wealth earned by another is not yours. O lord Agni, pray do not vitiate the paths of the simple and ignorant, protect the innocents.

8. Nahi grabhāyāraṇaḥ suśevo ’nyodaryo manasā mantavā u. Adhā cidokah punarit sa etyā no vājyabhiṣāletu navyaḥ.

The child born of another even though well disposed is but distant and not ideal for adoption because ultimately he is drawn to his native home by nature. O lord, bless us with our self-born, patient and intelligent child.

Agni, brilliant commander of knowledge and power, protect the supplicants from the violent. O lord of power and patience, protect us from sin and evil, jealousy and calumny. May food and wealth of honest imperishable nature flow to you with noble and most desirable honour and excellence.

\[ \text{एता नः अग्नि सांस्कृतिक दिदीहायपि कतृत्व सुचत्वत्सं वतम।} \]
\[ \text{विश्वास्तात्वभं गृहः च सन्तु यूः पात स्वस्तिभि: सदाः} \]

10. Etā no agne saubhagā didīhyapi kratum sucetasam vatema. Viśvā stotṛbhyo gṛṇate ca santu yūyam pāta svastibhiḥ sadā naḥ.

These are the glories and good fortunes of life, Agni, which, pray, give us, shine and refine so that we may achieve the holiness of yajnic action and divine awareness. Let all these be the share of supplicants, singers and celebrants of life and divinity. O divinities of nature and humanity, may you all protect and promote us with the gifts of honour, excellence and the prosperity of well being all round.

Mandala 7/Sukta 5

Vaishvanara Agni Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

Bear and offer words of praise and thankfulness in honour of mighty Agni which, ever active without rest at the heart of heaven and earth and all things beyond destruction, is the living light and life of the world, Vaishvanara, and rejoices with all those that are awake and keeps them alive and growing.

Note: Vaishvanara Agni is the divine fire and vitality of the earth and the terrestrial sphere, Vayu is the electric energy of the middle region, and Aditya, Taijas is the light and life of the heavenly solar region of the universe.

2. Prṣṭo divi dhāyyagniḥ prthivyāṁ netā sindhūnāṁ vṛṣabhaḥ stiyānām. Sa mānuṣīrābhi viśo vi bhāti vaiśvānaro vāvṛdhāno vareṇa.

The divine fire is pervasive in the heaven and over the earthly sphere. It is the mover of rivers and showerer of rains. It shines among all the human communities and inspires them to action. This is Vaishvanara Agni growing with the expansive world by its own divine glory.

By virtue of your awe and pressure of law, human communities move forward, each in its own way, leaving behind the suffering of their experiences. O Vaishvanara Agni, shine on illuminating the people as you have ever been shining and eliminating the sufferings of mankind.

4. Tava tridhātu prthivī uta dyaurvaiśvānara vratamagne sacanta. Tvam bhāsā rodasī ā tatanthā’jasreṇa śociśā śośucānah.

O Vaishvanara Agni, lord omnipresent and leading light of the universe, the heaven and earth and the threefold Prakṛti (Nature) of Sattva, Rajas and Tamas, that is, mind, motion and matter, all these observe and move by your law. You pervade and enliven heaven and earth and the middle regions with your self-refulgence, shining, illuminating and purifying the world by your eternal heat and light.

You, O fire divine, Vaishvanara Agni of the universe, the resounding quarters of space, eloquent voices of poets, roaring winds and silence of the nights, all adore you, protector of humanity, end and aim of all wealth and honour, glory of the dawns and the blaze of days.

The Vasus, abodes of life such as earth, abide by you, find life energy in you, and while they join your universal yajna of life’s creation and sustenance, they find their end and aim in you as the greatest friend and sustainer. O light divine, Agni, you reach the ignorant and their abodes and you create the vast light of life for the noble and the wise.

7. Sa jayamānāḥ parame vyoman vāyurna pāthah pari pāsi sadyah. Tvaṃ bhuvanā janayann-abhi krann-apatyāya jātavedo dāsasyan.

O Jataveda, lord omniscient of created existence, self-manifested in the highest heaven of space you create, and universal breath of life like Vayu, you all time sustain fire, water and earth, thus creating and perfecting all regions of the world and providing everything for the children of creation.

8. Tāmagne asme iṣamerayasva vaiśvānara dyumatīm jātavedah. Yayā rādhah pinvasi viśvavāra prthu śravo dāśuṣe martyāya.

Agni, leading light of life, lord omniscient all adorable, bring us that illuminating food and energy for body, mind and soul by which you perfect and sustain the means of success, and unbounded honour and excellence for the generous mortals dedicated to yajnic charity.
The Vāsūs, abodes of life such as earth, abide by you, find life energy in you, and while they join your universal yajna of life's creation and sustenance, they find their end and aim in you as the greatest friend and sustainer. O light divine, Agni, you reach the ignorant and their abodes and you create the vast light of life for the noble and the wise.

Agni, giver of light and life, for us, for our men of honour and excellence, create, provide and manage food for all, energy, wealth and honour and honourable success. O Vaishvanara, leading light of life, Agni, fire divine, give us a great home full of love and peace, in association with Rudras, pranic energies of nature, and the Vasus, generous life sustainers such as earth.

Mandala 7/Sukta 6
Vaishvanara Agni Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

I speak in honour of the universal Vaishvanara, leading artist and light of the world: I honour and celebrate the glory of the self-refulgent, generous, virile, beloved hero of the nations like the exploits of mighty Indra, the sun, joy of the world.
2. Kaviṁ ketun dhāsim bhanumadrerhinvanti śaṁ rājyaṁ rodasyoh. Purandarasya gīrhirā vivāse ānervratāni pūrvyā mahāni.

Poets invoke and celebrate the omniscient, self-manifested, life sustaining light and blissful ruler of heaven and earth. The same Agni, omnipotent lord breaker of the clouds and mountains, I adore, and I sing and celebrate his great eternal laws and acts with the holiest words of praise.

Agni, highest ruler of the world, reforms, removes, or reduces to nullity the saboteurs, misguided plotters, evil-tongued scandalisers, retrograders, reactionaries, selfish exploiters, wicked and antisocial elements of society.

4. Yo apācine tamasi madantih prācīścakāra nrtamaḥ śacībhiḥ. Tamīśānāṁ vasvo agnim gṛṇiśe’nānatam damayantaṁ pṛtanyūn.

I glorify Agni, that highest and dauntless leader of humanity, lord ruler of world power and wealth who, with his noble words and actions, converts the powers wallowing in dark negation to brilliant and progressive forces of the world and subdues the stubborn powers raising their fighting forces against humanity.

Agni, ruler of the world worthy of homage and support, controls the lawless by the force of justice and punishment and brings about the dawn of new days and new protections for the noble people. Observant of the law, dedicated to truth, the great Agni energises the people and, with his power and patience, enlightens the people to pay homage and in turn be the beneficiaries.

By Agni’s house of peace and protection all people abide, by virtue of knowledge, virtue and karma, sharing the common good will and natural intelligence. Vaishvanara Agni abides between heaven and earth, in the bosom of the parents.
7. Ā devo dade budhnyā vasūni vaiśvānara uditā suryasya. Ā samudrādavārādā parasmādāgnir-dade divā ā pṛthivyāḥ.

Brilliant Vaishvanara on sun rise takes away the darkness and gives us the wealth of light through the space and sky. Similarly from the lower sky and the farther space he takes away the darkness and gives us the light of the earth from the solar region. (Such is Agni, leading light of the world, this is Vaishvanara, Agni, brilliant ruler, leader of all.)

Mandala 7/Sukta 7

Agni Devata, Vasisththa Maitravaruni Rshi

Citizens of the world, for you all, just as a rider spurs on the war horse on the course to achieve his goal, so do I, with homage and adorations, invoke, invite and inspire Agni, brilliant, generous and brave leader of the world, dynamic and warlike achiever, and I say: O lord all knowing, well known for your wisdom and observance of the laws among the nobilities, be the messenger and leader of our yajnic social system of peace, non-violence and all round progress for all. Conscientiously be so, and move at a measured pace.

आ याह्यागे पृथ्याधूः अनु स्वा मुन्दा दुःखानां सुखां ज्ञापनः।
आ सानु शुभ्ययंदयनपृथ्याय जम्भे भिनिविश्वपुःश्शाद्गव- नानि॥ २ ॥
2. Ā yāhyagne pathyā anu svā mandro devānāṁ sakhyam juṣāṇaḥ. Ā sānu śuṣmairnadayan pṛthivyā jambhebhirviśvamūsadhagvanāṇī.

Come Agni, warm as fire, brilliant as light, forceful as lightning, happy and rejoicing, to your own people, eager for the love and friendship of noble people who love and value the paths of rectitude. Come on top of the world, proclaiming loud and bold your knowledge and power and illuminating the thickest forests of darkness with the radiations of your light.

3. Prācīno yajñāḥ sudhitaḥ hi barhiḥ pṛīñite agnirīlito na hotā. Ā mātarā viśvavāre huvāno yato yaviṣṭha jajñiše suṣevāḥ.

The yajña is organised right here in front. The holy seats of grass and fragrant materials of yajña are laid. Agni as the ruling high priest invoked, anointed and initiated, is happy with a sense of fulfilment. O brilliant high priest and ruler, Agni, invoking the blessings of your twin mothers, heaven and earth, and serving them here, you arise as the most youthful favourite child of heaven and earth.

Agni, high priest and ruler of the social order, whom people of discernment and wisdom create and initiate as the leader of leaders in the yajna without delay, is happy at heart, sweet of tongue and observant of the laws of truth. He is the ruler and protector of the people and is held in high esteem in the heart and home of these people who have elected him to the office.

Agni, light of life, living fire and passion of the world, elected and adored, abides in the heart and home of the people, carrying the burdens of society, radiating all round in the world of humanity, ruling and conducting the business of living as the presiding power and vision. That is the universal power and presence whom heaven and earth advance and whom the yajaka honours and adores in yajna.

Those leading personalities find total fulfilment across the world with all honours and excellence who conceive and fashion forth the rule of law to the purpose of Agni, light and lord of life. And those people too cross over the seas of existence who listen and spread the light of the truth of this song of mine.

7.  Nū tvāmagnā īmahe vāsiṣṭhā īśānaṁ sūno sahaso vasūnām. Iṣāṁ stotrāḥ yo maghav-adbhya ānaḍ yūyāṁ pāta svastibhiḥ sadā naḥ.

Agni, light of life, manifestation of omni-potence, ruler and ordainer of the wealth and honours of the world, we, the people, happily settled adore you: pray bless the celebrants and leading lights with honour and sustenance. O leading lights, pray always protect and promote us all with peace, comfort and total well being.

Mandala 7/Sukta 8

Agni Devata, Vasishtha Maitrarununi Rshi

The spirit of life, Agni, which the ruling leader challenging the battle of life kindles with faith, reverence and fragrant oblations, feeding its physical symbol, the yajnic fire, with ghrta, honour and dignity of life, the leading lights of the nation take over, augment it and celebrate it with the best offers of yajna, and then, just as the light of the sun earlier obstructed by nightly darkness rises and shines with the dawns in advance of the day, so does the spirit of the nation earlier suppressed arise on the clarion call of yajna.

This is Agni, that ruling spirit of life felt and known, that great and good arouser and yajaka, happy and joyous, human and mighty over all, unchallengeable, who brings out the lights of life from within, wielding great powers and forces, creating and making new things and institutions, and ruling over the earth.

Agni, self-refulgent lord ruler of the world, what is the method and manners of life by which your grace would shine upon us? What is the song of adoration, what fragrance of yajna you love by which we would adore and celebrate your majesty? O generous lord giver, when shall we be masters, producers and sharers of rare excellent wealth, power and honour for ourselves and others?

This Agni always listens and attends to the bearer and sharer of the wealth of life when he shines with vast splendour, like the sun. He stands by the ruler, commander and supporter of the people in all battles and problems of life, shining bright, divine, welcome as a guest, magnificent.

5.  Asannit tve āhavanāni bhūri bhuvo viśvebhiḥ sumanā anīkaiḥ. Stutaścidagne śṛṇviṣe gṛṇānaḥ svayam vardhasva tanvam sujāta.

Agni, light and spirit of life, good and gracious at heart, all these many adorations and oblations of the earth with all powers and splendours of the world are for you and abide in you only. And when you are thus adored and celebrated, you listen, absorbed approvingly blissful. Listen then, O nobly born and self-manifested, wax with joy, and let your light of glory shine more and more on us.
6. Idam vacaḥ śatasāḥ saṁsahasramudagnaye janīṣiṣṭa dvibarhāḥ. Śaṁ yat stotrbhya āpaye bhavāti dyumadamīvacātanaṁ rakṣohā.

This song of adoration full of a hundred thousand-fold power and virtue of both knowledge and humility is created in honour of Agni so that, for the enlightened celebrant, there may be peace and well being full of light, freedom from ailment, and protection against evil and wickedness.

We people happily settled in peace and plenty earnestly adore you, Agni, giver of patience and fortitude and ruler of wealth and power. Pray bring us cherished knowledge and enlightenment for the devoted celebrants and people endowed with wealth and honour. And may you all, men of knowledge, wealth and power, always protect and promote us with the gift of peace and well being.

Mandala 7/Sukta 9

_Agni Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi_

See, the holy fire of morning sun is risen from the lap of early dawn, the sun having stolen away the darkness of night. It is the morning yajaka, delightful, and the most poetic symbol of divinity. It radiates light to reveal the identify of both coming and going living forms, carries our oblations to the elements and bestows wealth upon the noble performers.

He is the noble performer of action who opens the doors of divinity for the celebrants, blesses and sanctifies light and food, giving protection and nourishment for all, performs yajna, gives delight, controls and organises people with discipline, removes darkness of the nights and appears blissful.

Far-sighted wise, creative visionary, constant as mother nature, refulgent, noble in assembly, friend, welcome as holy guest, giver of peace and prosperity, light of wonder ahead of the dawns, seed of cosmic dynamics, inspirer of life, he emerges and manifests in us all.

The adorable one going on through the battles of existence for ages, the one omniscient and omnipresent with all that is born in the world, who purifies, sanctifies and enlightens you all humans with the blissful light of life and knowledge, and the refulgent one to whom the earths, planets, satellites, and the rays of light respond with brilliance, that is Agni, that is the sun, that is the Enlightened One.

Agni, light and radiance of nature and humanity, go, radiate and reach for communication and enlightenment without hurting or injuring any good natural or human powers. Go well by the body of means created by nature or by words of divine language. Go by the flow of correct language, winds and currents of energy, the stars, the waters and other noble powers of means and men to bring about here all the jewel wealth of the world.

Agni, light and fire of life, the celebrant settled in peace and prosperity enkindles you. Bright and blazing, all knowing all present, burn off the dead wood, develop the living resources of nature and the cities for the sake of wealth. Extend the creative and productive programmes. And you all, Agni and other enlightened ones, always protect and promote us with happiness and all round well being.

Mandala 7/Sukta 10

Agni Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

Like the lover of the light of dawn, the sun, Agni, commands and diffuses light on a vast scale, blazing, illuminating, burning and purifying, giving abundant showers of rain, eliminating want and suffering, pure and immaculate, shines with light, inspiring the mind, intelligence and will, and exhorts men of passion and will to awake and rise for action. (Such is Agni, such is the scholar, sagely teacher and the leader.)

\begin{quote}
\textit{स्वर्ण वस्त्रूषसामरोचि याज्ञाम तानवानाः उषिजाः न मन्म।}
\textit{अग्निर्जन्यानी दुष्क आ विद्वानदुवंद दृत दंववाया वानिष्ठाः}।
\end{quote}

2. \textit{Svarṇa vastoruṣasāmaroci yajñāṁ tanvānā uṣijo na manma. Agnirjanmāṇi deva ā vi vidvān dravad dūto devayāvā vaniṣṭhaḥ.}

Like the light of dawn and splendour of the day, Agni shines and radiates the light of life as inspired priests enact the yajnic business of the morning and expand the thoughts of the day. Thus Agni, knowing and pervading the origin of things, most generous messenger and carrier of nature’s bounties, radiates all round conducting and distributing the vitalities of life.

\begin{quote}
\textit{अच्छा गिर्मूतयं द्वयपन्तीरुग्री यन्ति द्विवं भि रत्नाणा}।
\textit{सुसन्द्रों सुपतींके स्वर्णं हययवाहरतं मानुषयाणाम}।
\end{quote}

3. \textit{Acchā giro matayo devayantīragnim yanti dravīnāṁ bhikṣamāṇāḥ. Susandṛṣāṁ supratī-kaṁ svāṅcaṁ havyavāhamaratiṁ mānuṣāṇāṁ.}

All holy voices of prayer, all acts of thought and will of the people dedicated to the bounties of divinity, seeking their share of the world’s wealth and honour move and converge on Agni, blissful of sight, noble in manifestation, easy of access and attainment and the fastest carrier of oblations and relentless harbinger of the cherished fruits of the yajnic actions of mankind.

Agni, lord of light and life, generous, loving and kind to all, pray bring us, lead us, to Indra, cosmic energy with the wealth and abundance of earth and other supports of life, to Rudra the soul, with pranic energies, to Aditi, infinite and eternal time and space, with a vision of the suns and origin of the universe, and to the universal lord and spirit of existence with divination into the original revelation.

In their acts of vision, creation and development, with love and non-violence, people of the world inspired with love and faith invoke, kindle and adore Agni, light and life of the world of existence, most youthful, blissful and generous giver of every thing. He alone presides over the deep night before the dawn of creation. He alone, ever free from inertness and sleep, is the prime mover and harbinger of wealth, honour and excellence.
to bless the noble souls in life.

Mandala 7/Sukta 11

Agni Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

Agni, prime high priest of the cosmic yajna of creation, come by the chariot of nature itself with all the divine powers of existence and grace our vedi here. Great you are, the very soul and spirit of yajna. Not without you do the immortals rejoice.

1. Mahān asyadhvarasya praketo na ōte tvadāmṛtā mādayante. Ā viśvebhiḥ saratham yāhi devair-nyagne hotā prathamaḥ sadeha.

People of the world with offers of homage and havi always invoke and adore you, unaging and immortal Agni, for the sake of radiation and communication. When you come and grace the seats of yajna with the powers of nature’s divinity, whosoever be the man, all the days of life turn into days of good fortune for him.

2. Tvāmīlāte ajirām dūtyāya haviṣmantah sada- minmānuṣāsaḥ. Yasya devairāsado barhiragane 'hānyasmai sudinā bhavanti.

People of the world with offers of homage and havi always invoke and adore you, unaging and immortal Agni, for the sake of radiation and communication. When you come and grace the seats of yajna with the powers of nature’s divinity, whosoever be the man, all the days of life turn into days of good fortune for him.

The wise know that there are three fold valuable gifts in you for the general mortal in the day and night. Come here like a human power, Agni, meet the brilliant wise, contact the powers of nature and be like a messenger to protect us against calumny and imprecation.

Agni rules the great yajnic programmes of development without violence. Agni conditions and controls the entire yajnic materials of the world. The Vasus such as earth and other life supports take to the creative action of Agni for sustenance. Among the wise, scholars of the Vasu order of twenty four year’s study specialise in Agni’s gifts. And thus the generous and the wise all depend on this harbinger of life sustaining means and materials.

5. Āgne vaha haviradyāya devānindrajyeṣṭhāsa iha mādayantām. Imaṁ yajñam divi devesu dhehi yūyam pāta svastibhiḥ sadā naḥ.

Agni, scholar of the first order, light and fire of life, bring us the delicacies of yajnic production for the brilliant people so that they may taste them with delight and rejoice with the ruler on top. Take this yajna to the heights among the divinities. O holy ones, scholars and scientists, protect and promote us all time with gifts of peace, prosperity and all round well being.

Mandala 7/Sukta 12

Agni Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Aganma mahā namasā yaviśṭham yo didāya samiddhaḥ sve duroṇe. Citrabhānum rodasī antarurvī svāhutām viśvataḥ pratyañcam.

With profound homage and reverence, let us move and rise to the most youthful Agni, light, fire and electrical energy, which shines well kindled in its own region, is wondrously bright and forceful between the vast heaven and earth, and when it is well invoked it moves in all directions for all.

2. Sa mahnā viśvā duritāni sāḥvānagniḥ śṭave dama ā jātavedāḥ. Sa no rākṣiṣad duritādava-dyādasmān grṇata uta no magonāḥ.

May that Agni, self refulgent lord of cosmic energy, omnipresent percipient of every thing in existence and destroyer of all negativities and evils by his greatness in the world on prayer, save us all, devotees life, bring us the delicacies of yajnic production for the brilliant people so that they may taste them with delight and rejoice with the ruler on top. Take this yajna to the heights among the divinities. O holy ones, scholars and scientists, protect and promote us all time with gifts of peace, prosperity and all round well being.

Mandala 7/Sukta 12

Agni Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Agnma mahŒ namasŒ yavi¦¢haÅ yo d¶dŒya samiddha¬ sve duroÄe. CitrabhŒnuÅ rodas¶ antarurv¶ svŒhutaÅ viÜvata¬ pratyaÛcam.

With profound homage and reverence, let us move and rise to the most youthful Agni, light, fire and electrical energy, which shines well kindled in its own region, is wondrously bright and forceful between the vast heaven and earth, and when it is well invoked it moves in all directions for all.

2. Sa mahnŒ viÜvŒ duritŒni sŒhvŒnagni¬ ¦¢ave dama Œ jŒtavedŒ¬. Sa no rak¦i¦ad duritŒdava-dyŒdas-mŒn g¾Äata uta no magona¬.

May that Agni, self refulgent lord of cosmic energy, omnipresent percipient of every thing in existence and destroyer of all negativities and evils by his greatness in the world on prayer, save us all, devotees and celebrants blest with wealth, power and excellence, from sin and scandal.

3. TvaŒr varuña uta mitro agne tvŒm vardhanti matibhir-vasiŒthāh. Tve vasu suŒsaŒnanāni santu yūyam pāta svastibhiŒ sadā naŒh.

O lord of light and life, Agni, you are the judge, you are the friend. Devotees and celebrants blest with settlement and prosperity exalt you with their will and wisdom. May those who repose their love and faith in you enjoy the gifts of your generosity. And may you all, scholars and leading lights, protect and promote us with peace, prosperity and all round well being of life.

Mandala 7/Sukta 13

Vaishvanara Agni Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

1. PrŒgnaye viŒsaŒuce dhiyaŒdhe ’suraghne manma dhŒtiŒm bharadhvam. Bhare havirna barhiŒsi prŒnāno vaiŒvānarāya yataye maŒinām.

To Agni, purifier of the world, inspirer of the mind and soul, and destroyer of evil and darkness, bear and offer all your thought, will and action in dedication as I, happy at heart in the assembly house of social yajna, dedicate mine to the leading light of the world, selfless guide and pioneer of action and endeavour for humanity.
2. \textit{Tvamagne śociśā śošucāna ā rodasī aprṇā jāyamānah. Tvaṃ devaṃ abhiśasteramuñco vaiśvānara jātavedo mahītvā.}

Agni, bright purifier of the world with light and inspiration, rising in action you fill the heaven and earth with light and purity. O spirit all pervasive and all knowing, leading light of humanity, with your might and majesty, protect the noble people from pride, calumny and imprecation.

3. \textit{Jāto yadgne bhuvanā vyakhyaḥ paśūn na gopā iryah parijmā. Vaiśvānara brahmāne vinda gātuṁ yūyam pāta svastibhiḥ sadā nāh.}

Agni, rising, manifesting and moving all round every where freely, you shine and fill all regions of the world with light and inspiration, and, as a shepherd looks after, protects and guides his flock so, O leading light of humanity, all knowing and all pervasive, find ample appreciation and comfortable settlement for the scholar and teacher of the universal Vedic knowledge of existence. O scholars and leading lights of humanity, always protect and promote us with peace, prosperity and all round well being of life.
Mandala 7/Sukta 14

Agni Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Samidhā jātavedase devāya devahūtibhiḥ. Havirbhīḥ sukraśociṣe namasvino vayam dāṣe-māgnaye.

Bearing holy fuel for the fire and fragrant materials for oblations, chanting divine words of invocation and invitation, and bowing in profound reverence, we offer homage in yajnic service of love and non-violence to Agni, self-refulgent lord of light, pure and potent giver of life and the universal vision and knowledge of life in the Veda.

2. Vayam te agne samidhā vidadhema vayam dāṣema suṣṭuṭi yajatra. Vayam ghṛtenādhvar-asya hotar-vayam deva haviṣā bhadraśoce.

Agni, light divine and fire of life, we offer you service with holy fuel for the rise of living flames. O lord adorable, most sociable, we offer you hymns of praise and worship. O lord high priest of the cosmic yajna of love and creation, giver of light and purity of well being, we offer you service and worship with ghrta and fragrant oblations of self-surrender to your glory of self-refulgence.
Agni Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

1. \textit{Upasadyāya mīṃhuṣa āsyē juhutā haviḥ.}
\textit{Yo no nediṣṭhaṁpyam.}

Let us offer the best of havi, holy food, into the holy fire, and homage to Agni, most generous, potent and generative power sitting next to us, a very closest of friends with an open door, ready with the best we need and desire.

2. \textit{Yaḥ paṇca carsanīrabhi niṣasāda damesame.}
\textit{Kavir-ṛhpatisr-yuvā.}
To Agni, who abides with and stabilises the five orders of society in every household from door to door, the wise visionary, master protector and promoter of the home and family, youthful spirit and power of the light and fire of life and pranic energy.

3. Sa no veda amātyamagnī rākṣatu viśvataḥ.
   Utāsmān pātvañhasah.

May he protect our wealth and knowledge and our family all round and also guard us against all sin and sinners.

4. Navaṁ nu stomamagnaye divā śyenāya jījanam.
   Vasvah kuvud vanāti naḥ.

I create a new song of adoration for Agni. who, like an angel of heaven, wise and great, begets us the wealth, honour and excellence of the world.

5. Spārhā yasya śriyo drśe rayirvīravato yathā.
   Agre yajñasya śocataḥ.

Like the wealth, honour and magnificence of a chief of heroic brave, the flaming splendour of Agni is glorious to the sight when it shines first and foremost of the graces of yajna.
   Yajiṣṭho havyavāhanaḥ.

   May that friendly and most adorable Agni, receiver of oblations and disseminator of fragrance, accept with pleasure this offer of service and oblations of ours and accept with love our words of celebration and submission.

7. Ni tvā nakṣya viśpate dyumantaṁ deva dhīmaḥi.
   Suvīramagna āhuta.

   Agni, loving and accessible protector and ruler of the people, brilliant and generous chief of heroic brave, universally honoured and invoked, we love and enshrine you in our heart and home with faith and reverence.

8. Kṣapa usraśca dīdihi svagnayastvayā vayam.
   Suvīrastvamasmayuḥ.

   Shine forth, beatify the night and brighten up the day with the light of sun rays, and by virtue of your brilliance let us shine too like holy fires. Chief of the youthful brave you are, our own, always for us.
Upākṣārā sahasriṇīḥ.

Leading lights of humanity and holy sages approach you, meditate on you, for the acquisition of wealth of wisdom, you who are imperishable giver of a thousand gifts.

10. Agni raksāṃsi sedhati śukraśociramaryāḥ.
Śucīḥ pāvaka īḍyaḥ.

Agni counters, corrects, also destroys, wickedness. Immortal, purifying, adorable, the lord blazes with dazzling refulgence of fire and the sun.

11. Sa no rādhāṁsyā bhareśānaḥ sahaso yaho.
Bhagaśca dātu vāryam.

And that ruling power, a very image of patience, fortitude and omnipotence, may, we pray, bring us the best of means, materials and modes of success, and may the lord of power, honour and excellence bring us all we cherish and value in life.

Ditiśca dāti vāryam.

Agni, refulgent ruler, Deva Savita, generous creative power of inspiration, Bhaga, commanding power of wealth and excellence, Diti, law and ethics of universality, you bless us with honour and magnificence with noble progeny of our choice and ambition of the best order with freedom from suffering.

13. Agne rakṣā ṅo añhahasḥ prati śma deva rīṣataḥ.

Agni, fiery ruler and generous lord of enlightenment, save us from sin, protect us from the sinful and the destroyers. Lord eternal and unaging, with your blazing law, justice and discipline, burn out evil, evil deeds and evil doers.

14. Adhā mahī na āyasyanādhrśto nrpītaye.

Pūrdbhavā śatabhujih.

And O lord redoubtable, let the earth, the land, and the governance of the state, firm as adamant and strong as steel, be like a mother city of a hundred-fold defences for the protection, promotion and progress of the people.

O lord undaunted and unchallengeable against the violent, the saboteur and the terrorist, save us and protect us from sin, inequity and violence in the day and at night.

Mandala 7/Sukta 16

Agni Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

O people, for your sake, with food, homage and self-surrender, I invoke and serve Agni, giver of light and fire of life, product as well as the source of unfailing energy, strength and power, cherished and valuable friend, most enlightened and constant agent of the holiest programmes of love and non-violent development, and imperishable carrier and messenger of world communications.

That Agni, leading power of nature and humanity, uses bright natural elements of universal value such as sun rays, fire and water, like horses harnessed to the chariot, and, when invoked and raised, would move at the fastest speed. He is the master of natural knowledge and natural materials, adorable, noble and potent worker, and the accomplisher of means, materials and projects of humanity for common success and progress.

High rises the radiant glory of this fire of Agni fed on holy food while the flames and fragrance soar and touch the skies, when people light and raise the fire with profuse oblations of ghrta offered to the bountiful power.

We light, raise and develop the holy fire as messenger and harbinger of excellent gifts of life’s light and fragrance. So do we elect, adore and anoint you on the highest and most glorious office of the nation. Bring us the divine nobilities and brilliancies of the world of nature and humanity together and give us all the cherished blessings of life for which purpose we love and adore the fire and you, O lord of power and honour manifest and embodiment of excellence.

त्वमेव गृहपातिस्वरूप ह तौ न अध्वर।
त्वं प तौ विश्ववार विचार तेजं वर्षे च वायुम॥ ५ ॥

5. Tvamagne gṛhapatistvaṁ hotā no adhvare. Tvaṁ potā viśvavāra pracetā yakṣi veṣi ca vāryam.

Agni, fiery and enlightened ruling power of nature and humanity, you are the protective and promotive head of the family and the home land. You are the receiver and giver of every thing in the loving and non-violent business of the nation’s governance and administration. You are the purifier, sanctifier and giver of enlightenment universally adored. You organise, accomplish and pervade the yajnic business of life and living together by choice and common will.

कृढ़ि रत्नं चर्जमानाय सुकल्यं त्वं हि रंगुण असि।
आ न रथ शिशिः विश्ववृक्षां सुरंस्य यश्च दत्त॥ ६ ॥

6. Kṛdhī ratnam yajamānāya sukroṣṭa tvam hi ratna-dhā asi. Ā na ṛte śiśiḥ viśvamṛtvijam suśaṁso yāsca daksate.

O presiding power of holy actions in life, bestow the jewels of life upon the yajamana as you are the lord ruler and disburser of the world’s wealth. Shine, sharpen and inspire us to do well in the truth and law of the world of nature and humanity and advance the person whoever commands honour and excellence and rises as expert performer in the universal yajna of evolution and progress at the social level.

Agni, ruling light of the world, invoked with reverence and adored, let those brave leaders and eminent scholars commanding wealth and power be dear and closer to you who move forward, and lead, control and protect the defenders and promoters of the people, lands and cows.

8. Yeśāmīlā ghrtaḥastā duroṣa āṁ api prāta niṣīṭati. Tāṁstraśyasva sahasya druho nido yacchā naḥ śarma dīrghaśrut.

Patient and potent lord ruler of light, strength and power, protect from jealousy and malignity those good people in whose home sweet and sacred speech and manners, like a gracious lady of generosity with sweetened hands perfumed with ghrta and holy water, reigns and resides and, O lord of wide reputation and long experience of the voice of divinity, give us the home abounding in peace and comfort, love and courtesy.

Agni, leading light and fire of life, most pervasive power ever on the move, all aware and self-conscious, receiver of the inputs into the fire of consumption and disseminator of the fragrances for the living system of existence by charming flames, pray refine and intensify the holy inputs of havi and bring higher returns of honour, excellence and generosity for those who manage the wealth and power of humanity for the common good.

O lord most youthful, power enlightened, there are those generous souls who, of their own will and desire, provide all possible and attainable means and materials for successful living, food and energy, wealth and power, and great honour and reputation for excellence. O lord, protect them from sin and evil, promote them with a hundred safeguards and fortifications.

11. Devo vo dravīṇodāḥ pūrṇāṁ vivaṣṭyāsīcam. Ud vā siṅcadhvamupa vā pṛṇadhvamādīd vo deva ohate.

Agni, self-refulgent lord giver of wealth, honour and excellence, loves to have your fire of yajnic action sprinkled with overflowing ladle of ghrta and the highest refined action. Serve him closely, feed the fire to the full, let the flames rise, and the generous lord refulgent would lead you to the heights of prosperity and excellence.

Let the brilliant, noble and generous leaders of humanity choose, sanctify and anoint that intelligent all-aware person as Agni, leader, ruler and high-priest of the yajnic social order of love, peace and non-violence, who would create and bear the jewel wealth and values of life and high power and prestige of the noblest order for generous self-sacrificing people dedicated to the yajna of the social system.

Mandala 7/Sukta 17

Agni Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

Agni, O leading light, O brilliant seeker, O fire divine of yajna, be kindled with the holy fuel offered, and let the heat and light and fragrance of life spread over the wide earth, the skies and the vast spaces.
2. Uta dvāra uṣātīrvi śrayantāmuta devāṇ uṣata ā vaheha.

And let the doors of love and ecstasy be thrown open, and let the divinities inspired with the light and love of holy ambition enter. O leading light, bring them in hither.

3. Agne vīhi haviṣā yakṣi devāntsvadhvarā kṛṇuhi jātavedaḥ.

Agni, light and fire of life and intelligence, all knowing, all reaching, go to the bounties of nature and brilliances of humanity, join them with the light and fragrance you bear by the oblations of havi received, and win their favour of blessings for our yajna of the business of life and living.

4. Svadhvarā karati jātavedā yakṣad devāṇ amṛtāṇ piprayacca.

Jataveda, all knowing, all reaching power of nature and humanity, yajna fire and teacher, communicates with the undecaying bounties of nature and the immortal souls of enlightened humans and seekers of enlightenment, renders them favourable to the yajnic programmes of peace and non-violent development and thus gives them fulfilment.
5. Vaṁśva viśvā vāryāṇi pracetaḥ satyā bhavantvāśiṣo no adya.

O man of knowledge and enlightenment, acquire and disseminate all the cherished gifts and virtues of the world so that all our hopes and ambitions for a full living may be truly fulfilled here and now.

6. Tvāmu te dadhire havyavāham devāso agna ūrja ā napātam.

Agni, light and fire of life and humanity, all divinities of nature and humanity acknowledge, take over and advance you for their life’s fulfilment, you being the source of infallible hope, energy and karma and bearer as well as harbinger of the divine invitations to live.

7. Te te devāya dāsataḥ syāma maho no ratnā vi dadha iyānah.

O great one, as you come, you bear and bring for us the jewel wealths, honours and excellences of life. We pray may we too with gratitude be servers and givers in honour of the generous and brilliant light and fire of life.

Mandala 7/Sukta 18

Indra (1-21) and Sudasa Paijavanasya Dana stuti (22-25) Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi
1. Tve ha yat pitaraścinna indra viśvā vāmā jaritāro asanvan. Tve gāvah sudughāstve hyaśvāstvam vasu devayate vaniṣṭhaḥ.

   Indra, lord of power, splendour and beneficence, ruler of the world, all beauties and graces of life which our parents and sustainers pray for and achieve, all fertile cows, lands and lights with high yield, all horses and fast communications are there for them because you are there. All wealth of home, habitat and materials, you alone give to the devotee who prays for the favours and light of divinity.

2. Rājeva hi janibhiḥ kṣesyevā’va dyubhirabhi viduṣkaviḥ san. Piśā giro maghavan gobhiraśvai-stvāyataḥ śīśiḥ rāye asmān.

   Like a brilliant prince you live with the people all round, every way, every day. Being a scholar, poet and visionary, inspire us, your admirers, with your lights of wisdom, and refine our voices of admiration with gentle forms and manners. Lord of wealth, power and honour, sharpen our plans and initiatives with the development of lands and cows, horses and transport for our assets and prosperity.

3. Imā u tvā pasḍādhānasā atra mandrā giro devayanfīrupa stuhḥ. Arvācī te pathyā rāya etu syāma te sumatāvindra śarman.
Indra, glorious ruler, these are the people and our voices of admiration, earnest and joyous, vying with each other in love and reverence on this occasion, which may, we pray, reach you and be accepted. May your modern ethics and policies lead us all to wealth, honour and excellence. May we always abide in peace and prosperity in a happy home under your care and kindness.

As a shepherd goes to the cow in a rich pasture for good milk, so the man of peace and enlightenment approaches you seeking fulfilment and creates songs of appreciation in praise of your policy and performance as a ruler. Indra, O lord ruler of the world, the whole world calls you the preserver, defender and promoter of the earth and her social order for me, and I pray you enjoy the favour and goodwill of the people for our sake.

5. Arṇāṃsi cit paprathānā sudāsa indro gādhān-yakṛṇot supārā. Śardhantāṁ śimyum-ucathasya navyaḥ śāpaṁ sindhūnām-akṛṇod-aśastīḥ.

Indra, brilliant ruler, rising anew like the sun, controls and bounds overflooded expansive waters into fordable limits for comfortable movement of business, converts the violent to peaceable beneficence, silences the imprecations of the vociferous and controls the erratic behaviour of the rivers and the seas.

6. Purolä it turvaśo yaksurāśid rāye matsyāso niśitā apīva. Śruṣṭim cakrur-bhrgavo druhyā-vaśca sakhā sakhāyam-atarad viśucoḥ.

The ruler is chief of all, all controller and instant achiever, keen yajaka and sociable with open doors, sharpest reacher to the target like fish in the ocean, for economic and social progress. Men of economic ambition, science and wisdom do him honour, enemies cower before him, and as a friend he saves and supports the friend of versatile genius.

7. Ā pakthāso bhalānaso bhanantā’lināso viṣāninah śivāsah. Ā yo’nayat sadhamā āryasya gavyā tr̥ṣubhyo ajagan yudhā nṛṇ.
people and organise the defence forces to deal with the violent, destructive and lawless elements from within and without.

Thoughtless men of evil disposition try to fail his policy of universal and inviolable values and grab lands of fertility. But Indra, a man of vision, all round perceptive, saving the land and policy frustrates their designs and maintains national integrity and rests in peace and fearlessness.

When Indra, generous ruler and commander equipped fully with assistant forces, overcomes unfriendly powers and evil voices rampant in society and thus reaches his target of correction and achievement in the daily business of life’s governance and administration including the optimum means of sustenance and development, the people too realise the ends of his universal policy and achieve their goals of life in definiteness without any delay.
people and organise the defence forces to deal with the violent, destructive and lawless elements from within and without.

Thoughtless men of evil disposition try to fail his policy of universal and inviolable values and grab lands of fertility. But Indra, a man of vision, all round perceptive, saving the land and policy frustrates their designs and maintains national integrity and rests in peace and fearlessness.

Just as cows free from the cowherd rush to the master from the pasture, as friends rush to meet a friend, as people having performed good actions by nature and law advance to receive their prize, and as the sun rays radiate across space and sky to meet the variegated earth, so do the forces of Indra, whether organised in battle order or resting off duty, and the people at peace rally and rush to Indra, the ruler, for service immediately on the clarion call.

The ruler, personally resigned and socially committed as a trustee, commanding power and brilliance as Indra, dedicated to the elimination of want and suffering, creates and ministers a senate of twenty and one reputed people over a variety of views and opinions and thus, brave and brilliant as he is, organises the nation into a dynamic social order like a high priest organising and energising the vedi in the house of yajna.
12. Adha śrutatāṃ kavāsacī vṛddham-apsvanu druhyuṇā ni vṛṇag-vajrabahuḥ. Vṛṇānā atra sa-khyāya sakhyāṃ tvāyanto ye amadann-anu tvā.

The lord of thunder power and justice engages the scholar, the teacher, the senior and even the jealous critic and opponent into the thick of social action, choosing some positively and others to weed out negativity. Thus they too, O ruler, opt for you, some opting for you as a friend for friendship, and others to be with you and around, but all in order to be happy and joyous in consonance with you.

13. Vi sadyo viśvā dṛṁhitānyeśāmindraḥ purah sahasā sapta dardah. Vyānavasya trtsave gayam bhāgjesma pūruṁ vidathe mṛdhravācam.

Let the ruler with his enlightened forces always and at the earliest rule out and destroy the sevenfold citadels of these outmoded enemies, and let him serve and support the home and institutions of values anew for the rising people of free thought and action. Let us always realise and win the values of the eternal and liquid flow of the holy voice in our yajnic business of systemic life.

All the wondrous deeds of the world are accomplished by Indra, since sixty-six of his brave warriors devoted to their lord, all fervent, new and ferocious fighters dedicated to the land and light, send to eternal sleep sixtysix thousand of his enemies.

15. Indreṇaite trtsavo vevisāṇā āpo na srṣṭā adhavanta nīcīḥ. Durmitrāsāḥ prakalavinmimāṇā jahurviśvāni bhojanā sudāse.

There furious warriors overwhelming the enemy like turbulent waters rushing down hill are the creation of Indra, and they, over-coming and cutting to size the enemies and strategists camouflaged as friends, are prepared to renounce all comforts for the sake of their devotion to the generous master and ruler.

Indra, ruler of the earth, inspires and promotes the person who promotes the brave, prepares ripe inputs for yajnic development, and challenges and eliminates want and dishonour from the world. Being the destroyer of pride and anger, he reduces the proud and angry to zero, and promotes, defends and serves the paths of rectitude and processes of law and justice.

17. Ādhreṇa cit tadvekāṁ cakāra sīṁhyaṁ cit petvenā jaghāṇa. Ava sraktīr-veśyāvṛścad-indraḥ prāya-cchad viśvā bhojanā sudāse.

By patience, fortitude and stabilized power, Indra, destroyer of evil and enmity, unites and consolidates the world into one socio-political order. With limited but committed powers of love and creativity, he defeats the tigers of violence and destruction. With pointed advance like the penetration of a needle, he routs deep formations of hostility and opposition. And thus he provides all sustenance and peaceful comfort and prosperity for a happy and generous humanity.

18. Śaśvanto hi šatravo rāradhuṣte bhedasya cicchardhato vinda randhim. Martāṁ enaḥ stuvato yaḥ kṛṇoti tigmaṁ tasmin ni jahi vajra-mindra.

Indra, lord destroyer of division, opposition and hostility, let your persistent enemies be subdued... relentlessly. Let the persistent purveyors of division and dissidence be brought to justice. And whoever does evil and violence to the supportive and celebrative people among humanity, strike the sharp and instant bolt of justice upon them.

19. Āvadindrāṁ yamunā trītsavaśca prātra bhedaṁ sarvatātā muśāyat. Ajāśaśca śigravo yakṣavaśca balim śirśāṇi jabhrurasvyāṇi.

Let the powers of justice, keepers of law and order and defence guards provide security cover for Indra, ruler of the social order. Let the ruler eliminate all elements of division, dissension and secession from this one, united and universal order of governance and human welfare. And let the weapon launchers, intelligence network using code language, supporting and cooperative yajnic powers of the system bear and offer him the highest loyalty and conduct fastest services of defence and communication for him.

20. Na ta indra sumatayo na rāyaḥ saṁcaḵṣe pūrvā uṣaso na nūtnāḥ. Devakaṁ cinmāṇyamāṇaṁ jaghanthā’va tmanā bṛhataḥ śambaranāṁ bhet.

Indra, lord ruler of power, honour and excellence, like the beauty, blessedness and grandeur of the dawns old and new, your knowledge and wisdom, ethics and policies and your wealth and excellence cannot be described, since you achieve the adorable light of divinity, shatter the pride and pretence of simulated brilliance, and by your innate power and splendour break the greatest and deepest clouds to bring down showers of rain.

By virtue of your blazing glory and showers of generosity, the sage who dispels evils, the warrior who goes forward with a hundred and faces many hundreds, and the host who provides the best shelter and hospitality like mother earth, all who rejoice in the home as well as outside, would never neglect, forget or forsake the kindness and friendship of yours who are the ruler and protector of the world community. And we pray may happy days ever shine upon these brave, learned and generous people.

Two hundred cows and two chariots drawn by double motive powers are the gifts of the generous yajamana, grand child of a dynamic, pious and progressive God-fearing yajaka. O Agni, lord and leader of the light and fire of the corporate life of humanity, happily acknowledging, singing and celebrating the gift of the man of peace and progress, I go round the house of yajna with reverence like the high priest and the yajaka myself.

23. Catvāro mā paijavanasya dānāḥ smaddiṣṭhayah kṛṣanino nireke. Rṛāso mā prthiviṣṭhāḥ sudāsa-stokam tokāya śravase vahanti.

Four-fold gifts of the generous yajamana, grand child of the pious progressive yajaka, golden majestic and moving straight on the right course in life in the most stable manner without jolt or deviation on the earth, bear me like a child of divinity to my grand child for the achievement of honour and excellence.

34. Yasya śravo rodaśī antarurvī śīrṣeśīrṣe vibabhājā vibhaktā. Saptedindrāṁ na sravato grñanti ni yudhyāmadhim-āśiśād-abhīke.

One whose honour and fame rings in the skies and over the wide earth, whose gifts of generosity are distributed over from person to person of eminence, whom the seven fluent regions of heaven and earth celebrate and glorify like Indra, lord of light and fire and power, and who fights out a war monger in battle close at hand as one would eliminate a disease, such a person and power is fit to be the ruler.

25. Imaṁ naro marutaḥ saścatānu divodāsam na pitaram sudāsaḥ. Aviśṭanā paijavanasya ketaṁ dūṇāsaṁ kṣatramajaraṁ duvoyu.

O leading lights of humanity and vibrant people of the world in general, join, support and celebrate this generous giver of light and life like the father creator of the generous yajaka and high priest of world yajna, and there by join and integrate with the divine and undecaying social order which is the irresistible will and creation of the gracious lord of peace and forgiveness.

Mandala 7/Sukta 19

Indra Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Yastigmaśrṅgo vrṣabho na bhūma ekaḥ krṣṭi-ścyāvayati pra viśvāḥ. Yaḥ śaśvato adāśuṣo gayasya prayantāsi suśvitarāya vedāḥ.

Indra, lord commander of weapons sharp and blazing as rays of light, virile, generous and yet fearsome as a bull, is the one supreme who guides, controls, rules and inspires the world community, and he is the one who always is the supporting power of the house and children of the indigent who cannot afford to pay for education and development. O lord, you are the guide and giver of wealth and knowledge to the man dedicated to the yajnic development of humanity.

2. \textit{Tva\textit{ṁ} ha tyadindra kutsam\textit{āvah} śuśrūṣam\textit{ā}- \textit{ṇast anvā samarye. Dāsa\textit{ṁ} yacchus\textit{nāṁ} kuyava\textit{ṁ}

O bold and determined ruler, with all your power and determination and with all your methods and tactics of defence and offence, protect and preserve the assets of the nation acquired, support the commander of services, guard the wielders of high class weapons and protect their families, defend the powers of law and order against crime, and in the battle against want and darkness and for victory in the battle field of defence and development, protect the supply line and citizens of the land.

4. Tvaṁ niṣṭhīnäsya devavētām apārāṇī vṛṣṭraharyāśva hamśi. Tvaṁ ni dasyaum cumurirī dhunimī cāsvāpayo dabhītaye suhantu.

O leader and commander equipped with transport, communications and armoured fighting forces, cherished and honoured ruler of the heart of the nation, in the battle business of the protection and advancement of the divinities of nature and humanity you fight out and eliminate the cumulated forces of darkness and destruction with the assistance and cooperation of the leading people. You lay to sleep and totally destroy the violent criminal, the thief and the terrorist in order to suppress and root out the forces of negation and destruction.

5. Tava cyautnānī vajrahasta tāni nava yat puro navatīm ca sadyāḥ. Niveśane satatamaṁviveśīrahaṁca vṛtraṁ namucimutāhan.

O wielder of the thunderbolt, those frightful forces of yours which instantly destroy nintynine citadels of want and darkness and hundreds more for the entry of light and justice, pray demolish the unbreakable walls of the forts of impenetrable ignorance, superstition, prejudice, hatred and violence.

6. \(San\) \(\text{t}a \text{ } \text{t}a \) \(\text{i}ndr\) \(\text{a} \) \(\text{bhoja}n\)\(\text{ā}n\)\(i \) \(r\)\(āt\)\(ah\)\(av\)\(y\)\(ā\)\(y\)\(ā\) \(dā\)\(śu\)\(ṣe \) \(s\)\(udā\)\(se\). \(Vṛ\)\(ṣ\)\(ṇ\)\(e \) \(t\)\(e \) \(h\)\(a\)\(r\)\(ā \) \(v\)\(r\)\(ṣ\)\(ṇ\)\(ā \) \(y\)\(u\)\(n\)\(a\)\(j\)\(m\)\(i \) \(v\)\(y\)\(a\)\(n\)\(t\)\(u \) \(b\)\(rahmā\)\(ṇ\)\(i \) \(p\)\(uru\)\(ś\)\(ā\)\(ka \) \(vā\)\(j\)\(a\)\(m\).

Indra, lord of light and power, those permanent gifts and protections of the world of existence you have created and granted for the oblation bearing yajaka, for the generous man of charity, and for the commander of the protective forces of humanity, and those mighty motive forces of life’s power and generosity which I harness in your service may, O lord of all ruling power, we pray, bring us all voices of Divinity, all means and modes of sustenance, and all success and progress in our life.

7. \(Mā \text{ } t\)\(e \) \(a\)\(s\)\(yām \) \(s\)\(ahas\)\(ā\)\(v\)\(a\)\(n\) \(p\)\(ari\)\(ṣ\)\(ṭ\)\(ā\)\(v\)\(a\)\(gh\)\(ā\)\(ya \) \(b\)\(hum\) \(h\)\(ar\)\(i\)\(v\)\(a\)\(ḥ \) \(p\)\(ara\)\(d\)\(a\)\(i\)\(). \(Trā\)\(y\)\(a\)\(s\)\(v\)\(a \) \(n\) \(v\)\(ṛ\)\(k\)\(e\)\(bhi\)\(r\)\(v\)\(a\)\(r\)\(ū\)\(th\)\(a\)\(i\)\(-\)\(s\)\(t\)\(a\)\(v\)\(a \) \(p\)\(ri\)\(y\)\(ā\)\(s\)\(a\)\(ḥ \) \(s\)\(ūrī\)\(ṣu \) \(s\)\(yā\)\(m\).

O lord of peace, patience and justice, ruler of dynamic powers and people, in this social order of your governance, let us not be exposed to a state of throw away sin and crime. Save us by virtue of the company of non-violent, best and wisest protective people. Let us abide among your dearest favourites and loved ones, among the brave, the wise and the virtuous.

Lord of wealth, honour and excellence, let us all, leaders and friends of yours, abide and rejoice as your dearest in the protective shelter of your love and good will for our desired aims. Inspire and refine the nearest settled neighbour as well as the traveller on the move, raising the generous host in honour and praise for hospitality.

O lord of light, honour and excellence of generosity, select us for dedication to that holy work which, under the protection of your love and goodwill, leading scholars and interpreters of the Divine Word relentlessly pursue, reciting and teaching the Vedic songs of divinity and, by recitation and exhortation, converting even hard headed businessmen to generous givers of charity in the service of Divinity.

These songs of adoration offered to you, O highest leader of the leaders of men, in fact, come back to us, giving wealth, honours and excellence of life. O lord, in these people’s battle against darkness, want and injustice, be their friend, wise protector and kind defender.

Indra, wise and brave leader and ruler of the world celebrated in song, exhorting the brave, commanding the defence and protection and the wealth of power, prosperity, food, energy and divine wisdom, grow in body, mind and soul by your body politic, and help us grow as a united commonwealth blest with honour, excellence and prosperity, and let there be no alliances of opposition and enmity against humanity. O lord and leaders of the world, protect and promote us in a state of honourable peace, prosperity and all round well being for all time.
1. Ugro jajñe vīryāya svadhāvāṃcakrirapo naryo yat kariśyan. Jagmiryuvā nṛṣadanan-avyobhis-trātā na indra enasato mahaścīt.

   Indra, the ruling soul, a great performer blest with innate powers, rises bright and blazing to do great heroic deeds when he undertakes the manly acts he plans to do. Youthful and bold, he goes to the house of the people with his powers of protection as a saviour of us all from great sin and transgression.

2. Hantā vrtramindraḥ śūṣuvānah prāvīnno viro jaritāramūtī. Kartā sudāse aha vā u lokāṁ dāta vasu muhurā dāśuṣe bhūt.

   Growing and rising, Indra is breaker of the clouds and destroyer of want and darkness of ignorance. The youthful hero protects the dedicated celebrant with his powers of protection. He is the creator of a beautiful world for the man of service and charity and he is the giver of wealth again and again to the generous man of charity and gratitude to Divinity.
3. Yudhmo anarvā khajakṛt samadvā śūraḥ satrāśād januṣemaṣāḷhaḥ. Vyāsa indraḥ pṛtanāḥ svojā adhā viśvam śatrūyantam jaghāna.

Veteran warrior, relentless campaigner, passionate fighter, magnanimous hero, always victorious, Indra is unconquerable by nature. In the face of tumultuous conflicts he blazes with holy splendour and destroys all hostility from the earth.

4. Ubhe cidindra rodasī mahitvā’’paprātha taviṣṭhi-bhis-tuviṣmah. Ni vajramindro harivān mimikṣa- ntsamandhasā madeṣu vā uvoca.

Mighty Indra with his splendour and irresistible forces pervades both earth and sky by the strength of his presence felt all round. Wielding his thunderbolt of justice, protection and correction, commanding humanity and mixing with the people by perceptible presence as well as social gatherings over joyous celebrations, he maintains his dialogue with them.

5. Vṛṣā jajāna vṛṣaṇam raṇāya tamu cinnāri naryam sasūva. Pra yah senānīradha nṛbhyo astīnaḥ satvā gaveṣaṇāḥ sa dhrṣṇuḥ.

Him the omnipotent generous father begets, and him the supreme creative mother nature bears and nurtures as the mighty, virile and generous leader for the battle of humanity for a full joyous life on earth, the mighty ruler Indra who then rises as the commander of armies and glorious protector promoter of the world community: brave and true, seeker of truth and the divine Word of nature, the ruler irresistible for the people.

Never does that person waver or go astray, never does he fail or face disaster, never does he hurt anyone, who obeys and serves the venerable thought and will of this awesome master. Whoever reposes his trust and prayers by love, self-sacrifice and yajna in him abides in peace for the achievement of wealth, honour and excellence, serving truth and rising in stature in truth and divine law.

What the former generation teaches and bequeathes to the next, and what the elder generation may learn and obtain from the younger one as a valuable gift, and that immortal wealth of life far out of sense, experience and time, O lord sublime, that sits eternal, O lord of omniscience and omnipotence, Indra, bear and bring us, that wondrous, super existential wealth and vision of life.

8. Yasta indra priyo jano dadāśadasannireke adri-vah sakha te. Vaṁ te asyāṁ sumatau caniṣṭhāḥ syāma varūthe aghanato nṛpītau.

Indra, lord ruler of the world over clouds and mountains, whoever the person that pays homage to you, may he be dear to you as a friend in the open honest business of living. In this social order of goodwill and human welfare of the lord of love and grace free from violence, let us live in peace at home blest with sustenance and security in comfort and divine grace.

9. Eṣa stomo acikradad vrṣā ta uta stāmurma-ghavannakripiṣṭa. Rāyaskāmo jaritāram ta āgaṇ tvamaṅga śakra vasva ā śako naḥ.

O lord of wealth, honour, power and excellence, this song of adoration vibrates with prayer for your attention and the celebrant prays for your grace. May your gift of wealth and fulfilment flow to the celebrant. O lord of power dear as breath of life, make it possible for us to win all wealth, honour and excellence we pray for.

Indra, lord giver of energy and vitality, sustain us and those who join you vitally and spiritually for the gift of energy and pranic vitality in contact with universal energy. May your universal vitality be the harbinger of universal wealth, honour and excellence for the celebrant. O lord and divinities, all time protect and promote us with success, prosperity and good fortune all round.

Mandala 7/Sukta 21

Indra Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

Distilled is the spirit of life, divine, brilliant, the very essence of earth and nature’s energy. Let Indra, the ruling lord of life, by his very nature and origin, join and address the assembly and make it resound. O lord of instant powers and faculties, we invoke and invite you by our yajnic adorations. Join us in the ecstasy of our celebration and inspire our congregation to awake into enlightenment.
1. Sa na indra tvayatŒyŒ i¦e dhŒstmanŒ ca ye maghavŒno junanti. Vasv¶ ¦u te jaritre astu Üakti-ryµuyaÅ pŒta svastibhi¬ sadŒ na¬.

Indra, lord giver of energy and vitality, sustain us and those who join you vitally and spiritually for the gift of energy and pranic vitality in contact with universal energy. May your universal vitality be the harbinger of universal wealth, honour and excellence for the celebrant. O lord and divinities, all time protect and promote us with success, prosperity and good fortune all round.

2. Pra yanti yaj№nm vipayanti barhiŒ somam№do vidathe dukhrav‰ca‰. Nyu bhriyante ya‰aso gërhd‰ d‰ra-upabdo vr‰‰o nr‰‰ca‰.

Lovers of soma ecstasy march forward to join the yajna of the social order, their shouts of joy resounding to the skies. The brave and generous leaders of the nation move forward from the home, with resounding proclamations bearing vibrations of their characteristic home and fame, to join the assembly.

3. Tvamindra sravitav‰ apaska‰ pari‰hit‰ ah‰‰a‰ Šu‰r‰ p‰‰v‰. Tv‰d v‰v‰k‰ rathy‰ na dhen‰ rejante vi‰v‰ k‰tr‰m‰‰ bh‰‰.

And you Indra, leader and ruler, set aflow the natural voice and energies of the nation otherwise withheld from expression by diffidence, fear and darkness of ignorance. Freed by you, the energies of the nation flow freely into action like words of eloquence directed to a definite purpose like streams flowing to the sea and chariot horses directed to a destination, and then all artificial creations of fear tremble like fear itself.
4. Bhīmo viveśāyudhebhir-eśāmapāṃsi viśvā naryāṇi vidvān. Indraḥ puro jarhrṣāṇo vi dūdhodvi vajrahasto mahinā jaghāṇa.

Indra, formidable scholar and fearsome warrior, enters with his weapons of offence and defence and inspires all the will and actions of the people which are in the interest of humanity and which are humanly possible. Happy and rejoicing, wielding the thunderbolt of power and justice in hand, he shakes to naught the strongholds of evil, sin and crime with his grandeur.

5. Na yātava indra jūjuvurno na vandanā śaviṣṭha vedyābhiḥ. Sa śardhadaryo viṣuṇasya jantormā śiśnadevā api gurūtām naḥ.

Indra, lord most potent, let not the wicked and violent approach and hurt us. Let them not affect our holy works in spite of their tactics worth knowing though they be. O noble lord, control and nullify the various and disorderly people. Let not the sensual and licentious sex slaves vitiate our moral conduct and rectitude.

6. Abhi kratvendra bhūradha jman na te vivyaṅ mahimānam rajāṃsi. Svenā hi vṛtram śavasā jaghantha na śatrurantam vividad yudhā te.

Indra, lord of splendour, by your own strength

Indra, formidable scholar and fearsome warrior, enters with his weapons of offence and defence and inspires all the will and actions of the people which are in the interest of humanity and which are humanly possible. Happy and rejoicing, wielding the thunderbolt of power and justice in hand, he shakes to naught the strongholds of evil, sin and crime with his grandeur.

Indra, lord most potent, let not the wicked and violent approach and hurt us. Let them not affect our holy works in spite of their tactics worth knowing though they be. O noble lord, control and nullify the various and disorderly people. Let not the sensual and licentious sex slaves vitiate our moral conduct and rectitude.

6. Abhī kratvendra bhūuradha jman na te vivyāsā mahimāna rajāsāsi. Svenō hi vītraā āvavāsī jaghantha na ātramūta āvātā yudhā te.

Indra, lord of splendour, by your own strength overthrow the enemies of humanity on earth. They do not know the greatness and glory of your powers. By your innate powers you destroy the demon of darkness, want and ignorance. O mighty warrior, the enemies do not realise the expanse of your power and grandeur.

7. Devāscit te asuryāya pūrve’nu kṣatrāya mamire sahamśi. Indro maghānī dayate viṣahyendram vājasya johuvanta sātau.

Indra, ruling power of the world, brilliant divines, scholars and scientists of veteran eminence value your courage and bold actions in the field of energy and spirituality for the development, prosperity and well being of the social order. Having faced challenges with patience and fortitude, Indra commands and shares powers, privileges and prosperity, and the people invoke and support him for leadership in their struggle for peace, prosperity and progress. Therein lies honour and victory.

For protection and advancement, the devotee calls upon you, Indra, lord ruler and giver of abundant power and prosperity, honour and excellence. O lord of a hundred protective powers, be the guardian, protector and saviour of our abundant power and prosperity. And our guardian and protector against the challenging enemy too, may, we pray, be brave as you.

O saviour triumphant, while we worship and glorify you daily with greater and greater love, faith and strength of loyalty, pray let us be your friends for ever. O lord and master of the people, let us all be close to you and, under your protection, let us all win and enjoy freedom from fear and strength worthy of the seekers of Divinity.

10. Sa na indra tvayatāyā iṣe dhāstmanā ca ye maghavāno junanti. Vasvī ṣu te jaritre astu śaktirūyaṁ pāta svastibhiḥ sadā naḥ.

Indra, lord of life and majesty, hold us all, sustain us all, all the blessed souls who by their sincere devotion enjoy the glory of your favour and grace so that we may continue to enjoy the strength and success granted by you. May your power and grace be the source of wealth and excellence for the celebrant. All you divinities of nature and humanity, protect and promote us for all time with all freedom and security.

Mandala 7/Sukta 22

Indra Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

पिबा साममिनद्र मन्दतु त्वा यं ते सुषाव हयश्वार्दिः। सातुबाहुभ्यं सुर्यता नावः॥ १ ॥

1.  Pibä somamindra mandtu tvā yāṁ te suṣāva haryaśvādriḥ. Soturbāhubyāṁ suyato nārvā.

Indra, lord ruler and controller of the dynamic forces of the world, drink this soma of ecstasy which, I am sure, would exhilarate you. The cloud, generative power of nature, has distilled it and showered on you. And just as a horse well controlled by the hands and reins of the driver moves to the right destination, so is this soma generated by the hands of the creator meant to exhort you to take the dominion to its destination.

यस्त मदा चुन्यश्रास्रस्ति यन्न वृत्राणि हयश्रव हंसि।
स त्वामिन्द्र पश्चूव्स्या ममत्तु॥ २ ॥

2.  Yaste mado yujyaścārurasti yena vrtrāṇi har-yaśva haṁsi. Sa tvāmindra prabhūvavo mamattu.

That beauty and joy of the governance of your dominion which is agreeable, inspiring and worthy of support and participation, and by which joy, O controller of the dynamic forces of the people, you break the negative forces of darkness, sin and crime, want and ignorance like the sun breaking dark clouds for showers, may that joy, O sovereign lord of power for settlement and prosperity, give you the real pleasure of creative governance and administration.
3. Bodhā su me maghavan vācamemāṁ yāṁ te vasiṣṭho arcati praśastim. Imā brahma sadhamāde juṣasva.

O lord of honour, power and magnificence, pray know well this voice of mine which the sage well settled at peace offers you in adoration of your glory. And accept, honour and apply these holy words of vision and wisdom in practice in the assembly house of the wise for governance and administration.

4. Śrudhī havāṁ vipipānasyādṛrerbodhā vipras-yārcato maniṣām. Kṛṣvā dvāṁsyantamā sacemā.

Listen to the cloud shower of exhortation from the vibrant sage, joyous participant in the congregation, know the thought and will of the wise scholar in adoration of your honour, and honour these prayers, most sincere and intimate, in action.

5. Na te giro api mṛṣye turasya na suṣṭutimasuryasya vidvān. Sadā te nāma svayaśo vivakmi.

Never shall I forget your words, instant and mighty of action as you are, nor shall I, knowing your power and potential, ever neglect your appreciation and adoration. I value and appreciate the significance of your name and your innate honour and excellence.

6. Bhūri hi te savanā mānuṣeṣu bhūri maniṣiḥ havate tvāmit. Māre asmanmaghaṇāṇjyok kaḥ.

   O lord of honour and excellence, many are your acts of generosity and magnificence in the world of humanity. Many are the acts of adoration the dedicated wise offer to you. O lord, never let these be alienated from us.

   Tubhyedimā savanā śūra viśvā tubhyam brahmāṇi vardhanā kṛṣṇomi. Tvaṁ nṛbhīrhavyo viśvadhāsi.

   O lord of honour and excellence, wise and brave, all these yajnic acts of service and adoration are for you. All these acts of holy creation and development for progress I do, are for your honour and majesty. You are the ruler and sustainer of the world, accepted and adorable for the leading people of the world.

   Nū cinnū te manyamānasya dasmodaśnurvanti mahimānamugra. Na vīryamindra te na rādhaḥ.

   Indra, lord of blazing splendour, destroyer of suffering and darkness, adored by the world, the people of the world acknowledge your grandeur but they comprehend it not, much less equal and surpass. Nor can they surpass, equal or even comprehend your power and potential or your munificence.

All the songs of adoration and acts of homage and worship which the veteran seers of ancient wisdom and new scholars of modern vision and wisdom create and offer to you, mighty ruler of the world, may they all be friendly and blissful for us all. O seers and scholars, O lord Indra, pray always protect and promote us with all modes of protection, promotion and all round well-being.

Mandala 7/Sukta 23

Indra Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Udu brahmāṇyairata śravasyendraṁ samarye mahayā vasiṣṭha. Ā yo viśvāni śavasā tatānopa-śrotā ma īvato vacāṃsi.
that my words of prayer reverberate across the spaces.

2. Ayāmi ghoṣa indra devajāmirirajyanta pacchu-rudho vivāci. Nahi svamāyuścikite janeṣu tāṇī-danīhmāṁsyati ṕarṣyasmān.

   I come, lord Indra, the sound of prayer rises like a battle cry with the divine waves of nature, charming, mastering, the notes resounding in the tumultuous roar. No one knows the thread of his span of life in humanity. O lord, cleanse us of those sins which pollute us to darkness.

3. Yuje rathāṁ gaveṣaṇāṁ haribhyaṁupa brahmāṇi jujuśaṇamastuḥ. Vi bādhiṣṭa sya rodasī mahitve-ndro vṛtrānyapratī jaghanvān.

   I ride the chariot of worship in pursuit of the light of truth harnessing the two carriers of mind and intellect alongwith the senses. My prayers reach the lord of love who accepts the supplicant with grace. The lord pervades both heaven and earth with his might, prevents evil, and destroys the demons of sin and darkness which we cannot even perceive with our human eyes of ordinary vision.
4. Āpaścit pipyuh staryo na gāvo nakṣannṛtam jaritārasta indra. Yāhi vāyurna niyuto no acchā tvam hi dhībhirdayase vi vājān.

Indra, lord of light and action, just as waters flow and rays of light radiate over darkness, so let your celebrants, men of holy action, rise and attain to the light of truth. O lord of the cosmic chariot, come like the wind to your servants of action with grace since you bless us with mercy and with gifts of intelligence, vision and the light of divinity.

5. Te tvā madā indra mādayantu śuṣmināṁ tuvirādhasam jaritre. Eko devatrā dayase hi martān-asmińchūra savane mādayasva.

Indra, lord of might, mercy, magnanimity and giver of all round success, may the devotees blest with joy and vision of action win your pleasure and favour for the gift of strength and power, sure success and excellence in all fields to bless the celebrant. You, the one adorable lord, bless the mortals with love and mercy. Come and share our celebrations of yajnic ecstasy with us in this session.

Thus do the brilliant poets of vision and heroes of action settled and settlers at peace with homage and adorations celebrate Indra, lord ruler and commander of world forces, giver of showers of joy and wielder of thunder arms for the world order. The lord commands forces of the youthful brave and prosperity of the world’s commonwealth. Praised and celebrated thus, may the lord protect and promote us. O lord, and O men of vision and potent action, protect and promote us all time with all modes of happiness and well being.

Mandala 7/Sukta 24

Indra Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

Yoniṣṭa indra sadane akāri tamā nṛbhiḥ puruhūta pra yāhi. Aso yathā no’vitā vṛdhe ca dado vasūni mamadaśca somaiḥ.

Indra, lord ruler and commander of the world, the holy seat for you is created and reserved in the house of nations. Elected and invited by all equally, pray come and take it with the leading lights of humanity in the manner that you may be our saviour and protector for advancement, receive and disburse the means and materials of life’s wealth and comfort, and be happy and celebrate the joy of life with the soma of the world’s excellence.
2. Grbhītaṁ te mana indra dvibarhāḥ sutāḥ somaḥ pariṣiktā madhūni. Visṛṣṭadhenā bharate suvṛktiriyamindraṁ johuvaṁ maniśā.

Indra, brilliant lord, accepted is your mind wholly, both wish and will, ideas and intentions, philosophy and policy, ethics and action. The soma of joy and celebration is distilled and ready. The honey sweets are exuberant and overflowing. The general will, single voice and enthusiastic resolution of this generous land initiates, invites and anoints you in your seat.

Indra, mighty lord of natural simplicity and grace, lover of joy, come to this holy seat of ours from wherever you are, from the regions of heavenly light or the dark green earth to drink of the soma of celebration for the land. May the leading personalities of the nation well conduct you to receive our felicitations with us here.

4. Ā no viśvābhir-ūtibhiḥ sajośā brahma juśāṇo haryaśva yāhi. Varīṛjat sthavirebhiḥ suśiprā'-sme dadhad vrṣaṇaṁ śuśmamindra.
Indra, friendly ruler, lover of divinity and the best things of life, commanding the best of assistants, blest with a gracious personality, come to us with all the means of protection and progress for us, bringing showers of strength, honour and excellence for the nation and warding off all opponent forces, come supported by the wisest veterans of the land.

This inspiring song of felicitation and this vibrant institution of governance is created and offered to Indra, great and brilliant lord ruler and sustainer of the world, like the leading power of the nation’s chariot. O lord Indra, this supplicant and celebrant prays to you for the gift of wealth, honour and excellence for the nation. Pray raise our honour and fame to the regions of bliss over the sky and light of the sun.
and good will. Protect and promote the honour, energy and sustenance of the nation blest with youthful brave for the noble people. O lord and veterans of the world, protect and advance us with the peace, prosperity and all round well being for all time.

Mandala 7/Sukta 25

Indra Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Ā te maha indrotyugra samanyavo yat samaranta senāḥ. Patāti didyunnaryasya bāhvormā te mano viṣvadryagvi cārīt.

   Indra, blazing lord of glory and illustrious commander of the forces of defence and protection, when your armies impassioned by ardent zeal march forward, the thunderbolt in your hands, O magnificent leader of humanity, flashing and blazing, falls upon the enemy. O lord, your mind instantly traversing over spaces otherwise, would never ramble from us but hit the target.

2. Ni durga indra śnathihyamitrānabhi ye no martāso amanti. Āre tam śaṁsaṁ kṛṇuhi ninitso-rā no bhara sambharaṇām vasūnām.

   Indra, lord destroyer of want and suffering, strike upon the strongholds of the enemies and break down the hostilities of mortals that afflict us with violence and disease. Throw out far off that curse and calumny of the malevolent and bring us fulfilment with abundance of health, wealth, honour and excellence of life.

3. Śatarīṇ te śiprinnūtayaḥ sudāse sahasraṁ śaṁśā uta rātirastu. Jahi vadharvanuṣo martyasyā’śme dymnamadhi ratnaṁ ca dhehi.

O lord of golden helmet, hundreds be your favours and protections for the man of generosity, thousands your blessings and gifts of grace. Destroy the weapons of death in the hands of the violent mortal and vest us with that wealth, honour and excellence of life which is the supreme jewel of existence.

4. Tvāvato hīndra kratve asmi tvāvato’vituḥ śūra rātau. Viśvedahāni taviṣīva ugraṁ okah kṛṣṇuṣva harivo na mardhīḥ.

Indra, mighty lord beyond fear, in submission to your will, I abide in holy action and pray for the gift of your protection and grace. O lord illustrious of blazing power, pray dwell in my heart for ever. Forsake us not, O lord of tempestuous forces.
5. Kutsā ete haryaśvāya śūṣamindre saho devajū-tamiyānāḥ. Satrā kṛdhi suhanā śūra vṛtrā vayām tarutrāḥ sanuyāma vājam.

All these arms and armaments of thunder power, all the sagely people who have come to peace and power, patience and fortitude inspired by divinities for the attainment of honour and excellence: all these are dedicated to Indra, lord ruler of vibrant powers and people of the world. O lord giver of freedom from fear and violence, make it easy for us to dispel the evil and darkness of life. Let us be victors of light over ignorance and darkness and cross over the seas to the realms of bliss.

6. Evā na indra vāryasya pūrdhi pra te mahīṁ sumatiṁ vevidāma. Iṣaṁ pinva maghavadbhyāḥ suvīrāṁ yūyāṁ pāta svastibhiḥ sadā naḥ.

Thus O lord Indra, bless us with honour and excellence of our choice in abundance. Let us have the divine bliss of your love and good will. Sustain and promote food, energy and knowledge for the noble people blest with youthful and brave warriors of freedom. O lord, O noble people, O saints and sages, O youthful brave, protect and promote us with all modes of good fortune and well being for ever.
Mandala 7/Sukta 26

Indra Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Na soma indramasuto mamāda nābrāhmaṇo maghavānam sutāsah. Tasmā uktham janaye yajjujoṣan-nīrmanavīyaḥ śrṣṇavad yathā naḥ.

Undistilled soma does not please Indra, lord of humanity. Nor do distillations of soma unsanctified by divine chants of Veda satisfy the lord of power and divinity. Therefore I create and compose the latest song of adoration with Vedic vision with the distillation so that the lord may listen and accept our homage of soma with pleasure.

With every chant of song divine, the soma pleases Indra. At every stage of adoration, at every step of the song, the draughts of soma exhilarate the lord. For this reason, surely, eager supplicants, equally proficient, invoke and offer homage to the lord for protection and progress like children approaching parents with love to have their blessings.

What the sages and scholars say and proclaim in matters of science and development of soma, let the pursuant follow and do even more, and just as the ruler protector and sustainer looks after the people and the father looks after the children by himself equally well, so should Indra first and foremost look after and refine the development of knowledge and all the pursuers.

Only Indra they celebrate in holy words. Only of him do we hear, that he is the giver of all power, progress, honour and excellence and he alone is the saviour and protector. Instant and unfailing are his powers and forces of protection and defence, unbreakable as ever. May all dear and cherished good things of life come to us by the lord’s kindness and grace.

5. Evā vasiṣṭha indramūtaye nīn krṣṭināṁ vṛṣabhāṁ sute grṇāti. Sahasriṇa upa no māhi vājān yūyāṁ pāta svastibhiḥ sadā naḥ.
Thus does the ardent sage settled in peace and wisdom celebrate Indra, the soul and generous ruler of the world and leading lights of humanity for the sake of defence and protection in the social order of the lord’s creation. May the lord bring us a thousand fold honour and excellence in food, sustenance and knowledge. O lord and leaders, protect and promote us with all your gifts of good fortune and all round well being as ever.

Mandala 7/Sukta 27

Indra Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Indram naro nemadhitā havante yat pāryā yunajate dhiyastāḥ. Śūro nṛṣātā śavasaścakāṇa ā gomati vraje bhajā tvam naḥ.

Leading people call upon Indra, lord ruler of the world, in their serious struggles of life and pray for those concentrative faculties of mind and intelligence by which they can join the divine presence and win their goal. The lord is the brave, generous and fearless leader of humanity in their corporate life, lover of strength and inspirer of heroic souls. O lord, give us the grace of your divine presence and lead us in our development of lands and cows and in our plans of education, enlightenment and our vision of the divine Word.

य ईँधु शुष्यः मधवन्तः अस्ति शि ॥ सचिब्यः पुरुषूत नृथ्यः । तवं हि त्रृढ़ हा मधवन्विचरता अर्थ वृक्षि परंवर्तते ॥ राधे: ॥ २ ॥
2. Ya indra śuṣmo maghavan te asti śikṣā sakhibhyaḥ puruhūta nr bhyaḥ. Tam hi dṛḍhā maghavan vicetā apā vṛdhi parivṛttaṁ na rādhah.

Indra, lord of power, honour and excellence, that strength and power of yours for which you are invoked by all humanity, pray give us, your friends and leaders of a free world. O lord of honour and majesty, unshakable lord of universal vision and knowledge, remove the cover of darkness and open out our potential like a hidden treasure revealed.

3. Indro rājā jagataścarṣaṇīnāmadhi kṣami viṣurūpaṁ yadasti. Tato dadāti dāśuṣe vasūni codad rādha upastutascidarvāk.

Indra is the sovereign ruler of the moving world and her people on the earth. Whatever various and manifold wealth there is on the earth, he alone is the master ruler. And therefrom he gives profusely of wealth, honour and excellence to the generous man of charity, inspires our potential strength and success, and when he is closely adored in meditation, he reveals his presence to our direct vision and experience.

Surely Indra, lord of honour and glory, is the generous and instant giver on invocation and prayer. He gives sustenance, protection and progress, and he controls and guides our advance to victory in life. Boundless is his grace which ever inspires and promotes our will and action, and it is freely available to people who seek his love and friendship.

   O lord of might, since you protect and preserve the voice of the seers of divine vision, your grandeur vests in the holy voice and holy projects of humanity. Awful lord of blazing lustre, when you wield the thunderbolt in hand in a state of divine passion for action you rise invincible for any power of the world.

3. Tava praṇītiṇḍra johuvānāntsam yannīn na rodaśī ninetha. Mahe kṣatrāya śavase hi jajn̄e’ṭṭujiṁ cit tūṭujiśaśn̄at.

   Indra, by your ethics and policy you guide the leading lights of humanity and those called upon to duty as you light up the earth and space, and thus surely by nature and character you rise to the mighty power of the governance of the great social order. Indra, lord ruler of the world, in these few days bless us that the evil in friends be purged and they become good citizens. O lord, if the man of judgement and discrimination were to see untruth and false conduct, then he, Varuna, with justice and power, may cause it to be reduced to half and then purged off.

We speak and sing, thus, of Indra, this lord of power, honour and excellence who gives us great wealth and further capacity for success and victory and who accepts homage as the most loving protector of the worshipper. O lord, may you and your divine forces protect and promote us with all gifts of good fortune and well being for all time.

And all songs and adorations of the seers of all time which you graciously listen and accept are but human adorations of the visionaries in your honour. I too, O lord of universal knowledge, vision and glory, offer the same song of invocation and adoration. O lord and master, Indra, you are our teacher, protector and provider like the father.

5. Vocemedindrāṁ maghavānamenaṁ maho rāyo rādhaso yad dadannāḥ. Yo arcato brahma-kṛtimaviṣṭho yūyāṁ pāta svastibhiḥ sadā nah.

Such is Indra, glorious lord of knowledge and power whom we celebrate in song. He gives us the grandeur and abundance of wealth, honour and excellence and the competence for higher and higher success. And he loves and accepts the homage and adorations of the celebrant supplicant of divinity. O lord, O visionaries, poets and teachers, protect and promote us with all modes of honour and well being for all time.

Indra, lord divine, generous and most potent ruler, come to us with strength and power and be the promoter of this commonwealth. O lord ordainer of humanity, heroic wielder of the thunderbolt of defence and order of law and justice, come for the rise of this great social order, for wealth and splendour and for the manly character, courage and vigour of the nation.

In their discussions, debates or differences of opinion, in matters of language and education, in their heart of hearts and in all organisational bodies of the common wealth, and in their struggles for light, enlightenment and brilliance of the order, brave and fearless leaders of the nation call upon you, the real adorable leader. You are the leader and commander among all powers and forces of humanity. O leader and commander, Indra, expose all strongholds of darkness and negation, eliminate all evil and wickedness, for there... is no evil too difficult for you to destroy.

   Indra, lord ruler, leader and commander of the nation, when the days of enlightenment and good fortune shine and you bear the banner of light and victory in battles of progress, symbol of the nation’s excellence, then Agni, brilliant leader and light giver, having called up the wise and brave, sits at peace among them at the head of yajna as the priest giving life and energy for further good fortune and higher progress.

   Indra, generous lord ruler of glory, brave and fearless leader of the nation, we are yours and we stand for you, and so are all those who praise and celebrate the giver and creator of wealth and excellence for all. Pray give to the learned and the wise a good home, sustenance and security worthy of them, noble seniors they are in their own right, moving on forward to a whole fulfilled life.

We sing and celebrate the honour and glory of this Indra, lord of magnificence, leader and ruler of the nation, who creates and gives us great wealth and honour and all means and materials of success and victory for life’s fulfilment, and who loves and accepts, protects and promotes the homage and adoration of the devotee. O lord, O learned and wise leaders, protect and promote us with all good fortune and all modes of well being for all time.

Mandala 7/Sukta 31

Indra Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Pra va indrāya mādanam haryaśvāya gāyata. Sakhāyaḥ somapāvne.

O friends, sing exciting songs of celebration in honour of Indra, your leader, commander of dynamic forces who loves the nation’s honour and excellence and thirsts to celebrate the grandeur of it.

2. Śaṁseduktham sudānava uta dyukṣam yathā naraḥ. Cakṛmā satyarādhase.
Say adorable words of praise for Indra, generous giver, and sing heavenly songs for him as leading lights of the nation do. Let us too do the same honour to him, the great accomplisher of truth.

3. \textit{Tvaṁ na indra vājayustvāṁ gavyuḥ śatakṛato.}
\textit{Tvaṁ hiraṅyayurvaso.}

Indra, glorious ruler, you are giver of peace and settlement, you are accomplisher of a hundred yajnic acts of truth, you are giver of victory and progress to us, you are lover of the land and culture and you are creator of golden wealth, honour and excellence.

4. \textit{Vayamindra tvāyavo’bhi pra ṇonumo vṛṣan.}
\textit{Viddhī tvasya no vaso.}

Indra, generous and valorous lord ruler, giver of settlement, peace and progress, we are your admirers, and we stand for you. O lord, know this of us, for us and for the nation.

5. \textit{Mā no nide ca vaktave’ryo randhīrarāvne.}
\textit{Tve api kraturmama.}

O lord ruler of the nation, leave us not to the reviler, malignant scandaliser, and the selfish miser. My strength, intelligence and action sustains in you and flows from there.

Tvāṁ varmāsī saprathaḥ puṣrīṣadhaśca vṛtrahas.
Tvayā prati bruve yujā.

You are the celebrated armour of defence and all round protection, front rank warrior, destroyer of evil, darkness and want: committed to you in covenant, I say so and bind myself.

7.

Mahāṁ utāsī yasyā te’nu svadhāvarī sahaḥ.
Māmāte indra rodasī.

You are great and glorious, Indra, and accordingly your courage and fortitude is great. The abundant heaven and fertile earth both acknowledge your grandeur.

8.

Taṁ tvā marutvati pari bhuvad vāṇī sayāvari.
Nakṣamāṇā saha dyubhiḥ.

The voice of admiration, expression of your essential nature and power, raised by vibrant humanity, reaching you incessantly with the light and truth of your power and performance, may ever abide around you.
9. \textit{Urdhvāsastvānvindavā bhuvan dasmamupā dyavi. sam te namanta kṛṣṭayah.}

People of the world together in unison bow to you in homage and subsequently joyous voices of admiration rise for you, mighty lord destroyer of enemies, like mists of soma unto the heights of heaven.

\textit{प व’ मृह महिवृध्धिभरध्रं पचरतस्म प सुप्रभृति कृष्णुधवम्}
\textit{विश्ण: पूज्य: प चरा चरणप्रिपाः:} ॥ १० ॥

10. \textit{Pra vo mahe mahāvṛddhe bharadhvāṃ pracetase pra sumatiṁ kṛṇudhvam. Viśāḥ pūrviḥ pra cara carṣaṇiprāḥ.}

Bear and bring homage, assistance and cooperation and offer positive thoughts and advice to Indra, your leader and ruler. Great is he, promoter of great people and the common wealth, and a leader wide-awake with deep and distant foresight. O leader and ruler of the land, be good to the settled ancient people and take care of the farming communities and other professionals so that all feel happy and fulfilled without frustration.

\textit{उरुव्यचरस महिन मुहुक्तिमिन्द्रवं बह्द्व जनयंति विपरा:} ॥
\textit{तस्य चतानि न मिनति धीराः:} ॥ ११ ॥

11. \textit{Uruvyacase mahine suvṛktim-indrāya brahma janayanta viprāḥ. Tasya vratāni na minanti dhūrāḥ.}

To the great Indra, the ruler widely perceptive and all aware, vibrant people of the land, the learned and the wise with a sense of dynamism, all offer homage, rooting out dead wood, planting new saplings, generating new forms of sustenance and energy, and creating new forms of appreciating and realising the eternal spirit. And they, people of constancy and settled mind, never violate the laws and discipline of the lord’s Eternal Law.

All voices of the people, all sessions of yajnic programmes of action, uphold and support only the brilliant ruler, Indra of constant vision and passion, in order to maintain the social order of governance without obstruction. O friends and citizens of the land, exhort your people in support of Indra, leader of the dynamic nation of humanity.

Mandala 7/Sukta 32

Indra Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Mo şu tvā vāghataścanā’’re asmanni rīraman. Ārāttāccit sadhamādam na ā gahīha vā sannupa śrudhi.

Let not your worshippers be far away from us, nor let them detain you. Come to our house of celebration from the farthest distance even, and when you are here, listen to our songs of celebration and divine adoration.

When the celebrants have distilled and seasoned the soma of homage and worship for Indra, ruler of the social order of governance, they sit together like bees clustering round honey. The celebrants dedicated to the honour and prosperity of the ruling order place their trust and faith in Indra, the ruler and the law of governance, like travellers who place their foot on the step and ride the chariot to reach their goal.

Dedicated to the honour and prosperity of the human nation, and keen to realise the excellence of life for myself too, I invoke generous Indra, lord ruler of the world, wielder of the thunderbolt of defence and protection in hand as keeper of the law and justice of the order of governance. I invoke him like a child yearning for the father for his generosity.

4. Ima indrāya sunvire somāso dadhyāsīraḥ. Tān ā madāya vajrahasta pītaye haribhyāṁ yāhyoka ā.
These somas of the nation’s honour and excellence energised by the ferment of inspiration and enthusiasm have been distilled to celebrate the dignity and majesty of the land and the ruler Indra. O lord wielder of the thunderbolt, come to our hall of fame for the joy of a drink of them. Come fast by the chariot drawn by horses of the winds.

5. Śravac-chrutkarṇa īyate vasūnāṁ nū cinno mardhiśād girāḥ. Sadyaścid yāḥ sahasrāṇi śatā dadan-nakir-ditsantam-ā minat.

The lord has a keen ear to listen to the supplicant. He listens, therefore he is approached for the gift of wealth, honour and excellence. May the lord never ignore our prayers, may he, instead, soften and sanctify our supplications. Indeed, instant giver of a hundred thousand gifts of good fortune as he is, no one can withhold him when he extends his hand of generosity.

These somas of the nation’s honour and excellence energised by the ferment of inspiration and enthusiasm have been distilled to celebrate the dignity and majesty of the land and the ruler Indra. O lord wielder of the thunderbolt, come to our hall of fame for the joy of a drink of them. Come fast by the chariot drawn by horses of the winds.

O lord of power and glory, be the shelter home and all round protector of those who wield, control and rule the wealth and honour of the nation — you who impel and inspire the bold and daring, and humble the defiant. Let us share the knowledge and learn from the painful experience of those who have been punished by you. O lord indestructible, bless our home and give us fulfilment.

Extract, mature and prepare the nectar of life for the lord, Indra, wielder of the thunderbolt of justice and punishment and destroyer of evil, who loves the soma spirit of life’s beauty and joy. Ripen and perfect the drinks and drugs for health care and protection of life, and create the state of comfort and well being, giving success and fulfilment for those who work for the joy and fulfilment of all in general.

Relent not, O makers of soma. Hurt not the lovers of soma. Perfect the nectar for life’s grandeur, strengthen the makers for the beauty and glory of life. Work on and on for the growth of life and for the strong defence of life’s vitality. The one that runs wins the race, lives in peace as well as provides for peace and security, grows and contributes to growth. The brilliant and generous are not for the lazy, the miser and the selfish.

No one can counter turn the chariot of the generous nor stop it for rest or entertainment. The rider whose patron is Indra, destroyer of obstructions, and Maruts, vibrant defenders of life, stops not until he reaches the goal where abides the treasure of his love and ambition.

Indra, lord of light and life, the mortal whose guardian protector you are runs the race and reaches the victory post of enlightenment. O lord of might and fearlessness, take care of us too, enlighten us and be the guardian protector of our chariots and our people.

High rises the victor’s share of excellence as his wealth of life increases when Indra, guardian protector of the brave, vests his love of victory and soma-sublimity with the will and expertise of yajnic living. And then no enemies can ever defeat and destroy him.

Offer perfect, well structured and graceful mantric thoughts, adorations and actions to the divinities in yajnic programmes of creativity and development. Then even the oldest bounds of will and passion take the yajaka across the seas who dedicates his actions to the service of Indra.
Indra, lord ruler of the world, who can assail that mortal who wholly lives under the shade and shelter of your protection? O lord of the wealth and power of existence, whoever reposes his faith and dynamism in you as the sole saviour and pilot while he is in action receives his share of victory in the light of divinity.

O lord commander of world forces, in the battles against darkness, want and evil, inspire those leaders of wealth, honour and power who contribute to world service in the manner dear to you. O ruler of the dynamics of nations, we pray, may we, along with the wise and the fearless, cross over all evils of the world under the guidance of your ethics, morals and policy in matters of universal values.

16. Tavedindrāvamaṁ vasu tvāṁ puṣyasi madhyaḥ-mam. Satrā viśvasya paramasya rājasi nakīṣṭvā goṣu vṛṇvate.

Indra, you protect, promote and rule over the lower orders of wealth of the world. You promote and rule over the middle order of the world’s wealth. And you rule and shine over wealth of the highest order of the world. You are the true and the eternal power. No
Indra, lord ruler of the world, who can assail that mortal who wholly lives under the shade and shelter of your protection? O lord of the wealth and power of existence, whoever reposes his faith and dynamism in you as the sole saviour and pilot while he is in action receives his share of victory in the light of divinity.

You are the wealth giver of the world, universally heard and acclaimed, universally invoked in all battles of the world that there are, since the whole humanity on earth in search of protection looks up to you and prays for sustenance and progress.

Indra, lord ruler of the world, giver of wealth and excellence, as much as you grant, so much I wish I should control and rule. I would hold it only to support the devotees of divinity and would not spend it away for those who indulge in sin and evil.

Every day I would wish to give wealth and support for the person who seeks to rise for enlightenment wherever he be. O lord of wealth, power and honour, there is none other than you worthy of love and attainment as our own, as father indeed.

20. Taraṇīrit siṣāsati vājaṁ purandhyā yujā. Ā va indraṁ puruhūtamāṁ name girā nemim taṣṭeva sudvam.

Only the saviour, a person of dynamic will and action joined in the soul with a controlled and dedicated mind, would share wealth and knowledge with the people and distribute it over the deserving. With words of prayer I bow to Indra, the ruler invoked by you all and draw his attention to you just like the carpenter bending flexible wood round as felly of the wheel. (The lord is flexible too, his heart melts with sympathy for the people.)

By protest and violence the mortal does not win the wealth of life. Nor does wealth oblige the inactive and malevolent. O lord of honour and excellence, right competence dedicated to Divinity is your gift for a person like me which is good on the day of the cross over.

O lord almighty, we adore you and wait for your blessings as lowing cows not yet milked wait for the master. Indra, lord of glory, you are ruler of the moving world and you are ruler of the unmoving world and your vision is bliss.

There is none other like you, neither heavenly nor earthly, neither born nor yet to be born. O lord of power and glory, we invoke you and pray for veteran scholars, dynamic scientists and technologists and the light of the divine Word of knowledge.

Indra, lord of honour, power and excellence, you are the eternal lord of universal wealth and shelter home of all existence, invoked and worshipped in all challenging situations. Pray bring us the knowledge and experience of that essence of ultimate reality which is smaller than the smallest and greater than the greatest.

Lord of wealth, honour, power and excellence, treasure home of glory and grandeur, throw off the enemies far away. Give us the wealth of life. Give us the knowledge and awakening for good living. Be our saviour and protector in the strife of existence which is otherwise too great for us. Be the promoter of all friendly forces.

26. Indra kraturiṁ na ā bhara pitā putrebhyo yathā. Śīkṣā ṇo asmin puruhūta yāmanī jīvā jyotiraśī- mahi.

Bring us the divine vision, will and intelligence as father does for his children. O lord universally invoked and worshipped, instruct us as a teacher at this present time so that we, ordinary souls, may have the new light of life and living experience of Divinity.
27.  Mā no ajñātā vrjanā durādhyo māśivāso ava kramuḥ. Tvayā vayām pravataḥ śaśvaṭīrapo ’ti śūra tarāmasi.

O lord almighty beyond fear, let not the ignorant and unknown, crooked intriguers, evil designers, and malevolent opponents in ambush attack us on way to you. May we, guided, directed and protected by you, cross the universal streams of life rushing down the slopes of time.

Mandala 7/Sukta 33

Indra, Vasishtha Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni & Vasishtha Putrah Rshis

1. Śvityaṅco mā daksīṇataḥ-kapardā dhiyāmjīn-vāso abhi hi pramanduḥ. Uttiṣṭhaṇ voce pari barhiṣo nṛṇ na me dūrādavītave vasiṣṭhāḥ.

Celibate disciples of the first order of scholars wearing locks of hair on the right side, settled for studies to collect knowledge for intellectual advancement come from far to study under my care and give me delight. I arise from my seat of grass, speak to them and speak of them as leading lights of the future.
2. Dūrād-indram-anayannā sutena tiro vaiśan-tamati pāntam-ugram. Pāśadyumnasya vāyatas-ya somāt sutādindro’vṛṇītā vasiṣṭhān.

From far off and in view of their achievement in preference to others’, they invite and bring over Indra, pioneer of knowledge and power and strong supporter of people settled in peace, and Indra agrees and accepts the invitation of the aspiring scholars in recognition of the progress and prosperity of the producers of wealth, scholarship of the learned and the governance and justice of the organisers.

(The mantra points to the free movement of scholars and specialists across the globe for advancement of knowledge and culture on the international level.)

3. Evannu kam sindhumebhistatārevennu kam bhedamebhirjaghāna. Evennu kam dāśarājñe sudāsam prāvadindro brahmaṇā vo vasiṣṭhāḥ.

This way, for sure, Indra, leader of knowledge and power, crosses with ease any river of difficulty by virtue of these scholars. This way too he easily overcomes difference, division and disunity. This way, again, O scholars and leaders settled at peace, by your vision, wisdom and mantric formulae, he defends and promotes generous rules for the advancement of good government and administration.
4. \textit{Juśfī naro brahmaṇā vaḥ pitṛṇāmakṣam-avyayaṁ na kīlā riśātha}. \textit{Yacchakvariṣu bṛhatā raveṇendre śuṣmamadadhātā vasiṣṭhāḥ.}

O leading lights of the nation, by your vision, wisdom and active homage, the tradition of the ancients is preserved and happily advanced. Therefore, never for any reason, obstruct the relentless wheel of the nation and never disturb the inviolable equilibrium of forces which, O leading lovers of peace, by your reverberating words and heroic action in the great battles of humanity, you vested in the nation and its governance as the centre of stability.

5. \textit{Ud dyāmivet trṣṇajo nāthitāso’dīdhayur-dāśa-rājñe vrṛtasaḥ}. \textit{Vasiṣṭhasya stuvata indro aśroduruṁ tṛśubhyo akṛṇodu lokam.}

The leading lights of the nation, selected and duly appointed, thirsting to cross over the hurdles of life, shine and glorify the generous ruler like the sun for the advancement of the liberal order for the people. Let Indra, enlightened ruler, listen to the leading lights and scholars and create vast and brilliant channels and possibilities for the defence and developmental forces of the nation.
6. \textit{Daṇḍā ived go-ajanāsa āsan paricchinnā bharatā arbhakāsaḥ. Abhavacca pura-etā vasiṣṭha ādit tṛṣūnām viśo aprathanta.}

Let the pioneers and bearers of the burdens of social order be straight and strong like the sceptre of authority, eloquent and progressive in language, education and culture, definite and judicious in law and policy and youthful in energy. Let the leader of these, wise and stable in mind, be ever first and foremost in the advance specially of the people and of the defence and development forces.

7. \textit{Trayaḥ kṛṇvanti bhuvasē su retastisraḥ prajā āryā jytiagrāḥ. Trayo gharmāsa uṣasāṁ sacante sarvāḥ it tāṁ anu vidurvasiṣṭhāḥ.}

Three vital fires, of earth, sky and the sun, generate life energy in world regions and life forms. Three are the people’s classes dynamic and enlightened. Three vital fires, heat, light and electricity, serve the dawn, and the enlightened scholars know all of them.

8. \textit{Sūryasyeva vakṣatho jyotireshāṁ samudrasyeva mahāmā gabhīraḥ. Vātasyeva prajavo nānyena stomo vasiṣṭhā anveta vaḥ.}

Let the rise of these leading lights be like the splendour of the sun, their grandeur as profound as the depth of the sea, their drive like the wind, and let their organisation and its magnitude be impossible for anyone else to follow or rival.

Leading scholars and sages by the reflections of divine light of their heart sojourn over the mystery of the thousand branched tree of existence, going round and round across, and by the bounds of this web of life woven by the cosmic law giver and by their imagination rise up to the wonders of heaven in the clouds.

10.

O holy sage of knowledge, peace and power, sun and moon, heat and air, virility and fertility, pranic energies, receive and bear you when, as light of life you leave your sojourn in nature. That is one birth of yours. Then Agastya, the teacher scholar free from sin and stain brings you back to the community of people (as a complete and finished human being, i.e., dvija).
11. Utāsi maitrāvaruṇo vasiṣṭhovāśyā brahman manaso'dhi jātah. Drapsaṁ skannaṁ brahmaṇaṁ daiyena viśve devāḥ puṣkare tvādadanta.

Vasishtha, sage and scholar, living soul, you are a child of sun and moon, born of the heart of Mother Nature nurtured by mother knowledge. Like a drop of distilled soma, all divine powers of the world nourish you in the lotus cradle on celestial wealth of food for vitality and light for knowledge.

Vasishtha, man of enlightenment, scholar of both heaven and earth, blest with a thousand gifts, and giver of a thousand gifts traverses the very bounds of the web of life woven by the mover and law giver of the world and rises over the winds and clouds.

Inspired teachers and scholars risen to eminence over yajnic sessions of teaching relentlessly feed the disciples with gifts of vital knowledge, and from that rises the faithful scholar and sage whom they call Vasishtha, brilliant seer and visionary.

O men of noble mind and heart, the brilliant sage who bears the knowledge of Rgveda and Samaveda and who commands the secrets of yajna relating to the clouds and mountains for rain, and who proclaims the knowledge to dispel the darkness of ignorance, comes to you. Receive him, and welcome him for your good.

Mandala 7/Sukta 34

Vishvedevah, Ahi, Ahirbudhnya Devatah, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Pra śukrātīt u devī manīśā asmat sutaśto ratho na vājī.

May divine intelligence of pure and brilliant order come to us like the dawn riding a wonderfully crafted chariot drawn by flying horses.

2. Viduḥ prthivyā divo janitram śṛṇvantyāpo adha kṣarantīḥ.

Those who listen to words of knowledge as earth receives the showers of rain know the cause and creator of heaven and earth.

3. आपाश्चिदस्मेक्षिन्वतं पृथ्वीवृत्रुषु शूरा मंस्तंत उण्यः ॥ ३ ॥

The showers of rain nourish the earth and her progeny for this Indra, social order of humanity, and in the battles of life the blazing brave bow down in honour to it.

4. आधृष्टस्मेक्षिन्वतं पृथ्वीवृत्रुषु शूरा मंस्तंत उण्यः ॥ ४ ॥

Like Indra of the thunderbolt and golden hands of charity, rally the fastest forces and harness them to the centre pole of the earthly order in the service of Indra, the ruler.

5. Abhi prasthātāheva yajñam yāteva patman tmanā hinota.

Like the dawn go forward to the yajna of the day and, like the pilgrim of divinity, advance on the way with self-confidence and enthusiasm.

6. Tmanā samatsu hinota yajñam dadhāta ketum janāya viram.

Advance the yajna in the battles of life conscientiously and keep the flag of victory flying high in the service of humanity.
7. Udasya śūsmād bhānurnārta bibharti bhāram pṛthivī na bhūma.

And the sun rises by its own essential power and bears the burden of the earth, so does the earth bear the burden of her children, so let us be like the sun and the earth.

8. Hvayāmi devāṇ ayāturagne sādhannṛtena dhiyāṁ dadhāmi.

Agni, lord of light and life, I invoke the divinities of nature and humanity, living life by the practice of truth and eternal law, and I acquire the wisdom of life and action from the teacher dedicated to peace and non-violence.

9. Abhi vo deviṁ dhiyāṁ dadhidhvaim pra vo devatrā vācaṁ kṛṇudhvam.

Acquire and maintain your intelligence and wisdom of the order of divinities and speak the language worthy of noble sages.

Just as the refulgent sun, lord of a thousand eyes, watches and reveals the course of the streams of water, so does the brilliant sage of the Word and wisdom commanding a thousand streams of speech oversee the flow of holy speech and communication.

11. Rājā rāṣṭrānāṁ peśo nadīnāṁ-anuttam-asmaī kṣatram viśvāyu.

If the ruler of nations, Varuna, of a thousand eyes, be of the form of flowing streams, dynamic and fluent in speech, policy and action, his order of governance would be better than the best, i.e., permanent, of universal sway over the world.

12. Aviśṭo asmān viśvāsu vikṣvadyum kṛṇota śaṁsaṁ ninitsoḥ.

Give us safety and security among people of the world, black out the envy and malignity of scandal mongers, and turn criticism into appreciation.

13. Vyetu didyud dviṣāmaśevā yuyota visvagr-apas-tanūnām.

Let the flaming arrow and pernicious ill will of the jealous be thrown off far away. Eliminate all the ailments, ill health and infirmities of our body.

14. Avīnno agnir-havyān-namobhiḥ preṣṭho asmā adhāyi stomah.
May Agni, light of life, dearest ruler, consume and eliminate negativities, protect and preserve us with good food and health care, and accept our song of praise and prayer in appreciation.

15. Sajūr-devebhir-apāṁ napātaṁ sakhāyaṁ kṛdh-vam śivo no astu.

Be friends with Agni, fire and the sun, which creates the indestructible waters of space and the firmament, along with other nature’s divinities, so that there may be happiness and well being in our life.

With songs of praise adore the sun which creates the cloud born of waters and which, while abiding in high space, also abides in every particle of river waters.

17. Mā no'hirbudhnyo riṣe dhānmā yajño asya sri-dhadṛtāyoḥ.

May the yajnic governance and administration of this ruler dedicated to truth and eternal law never rule us with the motive of hurt and exploitation. So may also the cloud in the firmament never hurt us by excess or drought of rain.

18. Uta na esu nṛṣu śravo dhuḥ pra rāye yantu śardhanto aryah.
And may the ruler and governors generate and consolidate food, sustenance and prosperity among these noble people and move forward on way to honour and excellence, strengthening the devoted faithfulels and overcoming the envious rivals and hostile forces of opposition.

Leaders and commanders of mighty forces, they mortify and purge or defeat and destroy the enemies by these forces. Let us then be happy as in heaven on earth.

And when wives come and meet us, may Tvashta, lord destroyer of suffering and dexterous maker of graceful forms, bless us with brave and handsome children.

May Tvashta, creator and ruler of world forms and institutions, accept our praise and prayer and, lord of vision and intelligence as he is, may he be the giver of wealth, honour and excellence for us.
And may the ruler and governors generate and consolidate food, sustenance and prosperity among these noble people and move forward on way to honour and excellence, strengthening the devoted faithfuls and overcoming the envious rivals and hostile forces of opposition.

May the heaven and earth, generous and judicious givers of gifts, overflowing with liquid wealth and energy, listen to our prayer and give us peace and comfort in a settled state of life. May Tvashta, creator and maker of forms, with all modes of protection and promotion be our shelter home, and may he, generous giver of the best things of life, bring us wealth, honour and excellence.

That wealth, honour and excellence of ours, the clouds and mountains, the waters, the liberal givers, the herbs, the solar region, the dear motherly earth with her trees and forests and both heaven and earth protect, preserve and promote for us all round.
21. Anu tadurvä rodasä jihätämanu dyukśo varañña indrasakhä. Anu viśve maruto ye sahäsó rāyah syäma dharuññam dhiyadhyai.

May the wide earth and heaven be kind and favourable to us and procure for us the wealth, honour and excellence of life we pray for. May the refulgent sun, the ocean, the friendly powers of the ruling lord Indra, and all the winds of space and vibrant heroes of the world who command both challenging force and fortitude be favourable so that we may be able to hold and manage the wealth, honour and excellence of life which the divinities of nature and humanity have given us.

25. Tanna indro varuñño mitro agniräpa oșadhīrva-nino juñanta. Śarmantsyäma marutämupasthe yūyäm pāta svastibhiḥ sadä nah.

May Indra, ruling lord of the world, Varuna, the ocean and the world’s powers of judgement and discrimination, Mitra, the sun and our brilliant friends, Agni, cosmic fire and the leaders, Apah, spatial waters and our people of holy action, and the herbs and trees of the earth, all brilliant and inspiring, be favourable and generous. May we, we pray, live close under the protection of the best of human world and nature. O divine powers of nature and humanity, protect, preserve and promote us with all good fortune and well being of life all round, all ways, all time.
Mandala 7/Sukta 35

Vishvedevah Devatah, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Šaṁ na indrāgni bhavatāmavobhiḥ šaṁ na indrā-varunā rātahavyā. Šamindrāsomā suvitāya šaṁ yoḥ šaṁ na indrāpūṣaṇā vājasātau.

   May cosmic energy and fire with all means of protection and advancement be for our peace and happiness for the good life. May solar energy and waters, givers of all good things of life be for our peace and joy. May life energy and the herbs be for our peace and honour for well being. May pranic energy and vital nourishment be for our peace and joy in our striving for the ultimate victory.

2. Šaṁ no bhagaḥ šamu naḥ šamso astu šaṁ naḥ purandhiḥ šamu santu rāyāḥ. Šaṁ naḥ satyasya suyamasya Šaṁsaḥ šaṁ no aryamā purujāto astu.

   May our honour and glory and our praise and approbation prevailing around be for our good and well being. May our law and order for social sustenance and our wealth and honour be for peace and well being. May our honour and respect for true Dharma and law and for the proper pursuit of Dharma and law in effective governance and administration be for our joy and prosperity for the good life. And may our law and justice of universal value and fair application be for our good and well being in peace.

3. \(\text{Śaṁ no dhātā śamu dhartā no astu śaṁ na urucī bhavatu svadhābhīḥ. Šaṁ rodasī bṛhatī śaṁ no adriḥ śaṁ no devānam suhavāni santu.}\)

May the lord creator, ruler and sustainer be good and gracious and give us peace and joy of well being. May the extensive space and the wide earth be good with gifts of sustenance for our peace and well being. May the great firmament, and the regions of light and the cloud and the mountain be for our good, peace and joy. And may our invocations and adorations of the divinities of nature and humanity be good and bring us peace and joy.

4. \(\text{Śaṁ no agnirjotiranīko astu śaṁ no mitrāva-ruṇāvaśvinā śaṁ. Śaṁ naḥ sukṛtāṁ sukṛtāni santu śaṁ na iśiro abhi vātu vātaḥ.}\)

May the fire and the light and splendour of life be good for our peace and well being. May the prana and udana energies and the circuitous dynamics of nature be for our good and joy of well being. May the noble works of good artists and great men be for peace... and happiness for us, and the ever blowing winds blow and inspire us for peace and joy.

5. Śaṁ no dyāvāpṛthivī pūrvahūtau śamantarikṣaṁ dṛśaye no astu. Śaṁ na oṣadhīrvanino bhavantu śaṁ no rajasaspatirastu jiṣṭuḥ.

May the heaven and earth invoked since eternity in the first yajna, and the middle regions so charming to see be good for our peace and joy. May the herbs instilled with the vitality of sun rays be for our peace and joy of good health, and may the victorious lord of life on earth and in distant regions be good and bring us peace, prosperity and happiness.

6. Śaṁ na indro vasubhirdevo astu śaṁāditye-bhirvaruṇaḥ suśaṁsah. Śaṁ no rudro rudrebhirjalāṣaḥ śaṁ nastvaṣṭa gnābhiriha śrṣotu.

May the self-refulgent sun with life sustaining planets be good for peace and happiness in our life.
May the ocean so adorable be good for our peace and joy all the year round with the sun in Zodiacs. May the lord of nature’s life energy, Rudra, with pranic energies warding off pain and suffering be good for our peace and well being, and may the lord maker of forms, Tvashta, with his fires of evolution and new structures be good and gracious for our peace and happiness and listen to us here itself.

6. Śaṁ na somo bhavatu brahma śaṁ naḥ śaṁ no grāvāṇaḥ śaṁ mu santu yajñāḥ. Śaṁ naḥ svarūṇāṁ mitayō bhavantu śaṁ naḥ prasvaḥ śamvastu vediḥ.

May the moon give us peace and joy. May the lord supreme with gifts of sustenance bless us with peace. May the clouds bring us peace. May the yajñas give us peace. May the pillars of the vedi and Vedic chants structured to sensitive measure bring us peace. May the vedi bring us peace. May the newly sprouting herbs bring us peace.

8. Śaṁ naḥ sūrya urucakṣā udetu śaṁ naṣcatasraḥ pradiśo bhavantu. Śaṁ naḥ parvata śrūvayo bhavantu śaṁ naḥ sindhavaḥ śaṁ mu santvāpaḥ.

May the sun of universal eye rise for our peace and joy. May the four directions with their subdirections be for our peace and joy. May the mountains be stable and undisturbed to give us peace. Let the seas be calm and peaceful, and let all forms of water be for us and our peace and joy.
Shan na aditirbhavatu vratabhi śaṁ no bhavantu marutah svarkāḥ. Śaṁ no viṣṇuḥ śamu puṣā no astu śaṁ no bhavitram śamvastu vāyuḥ.

May the indestructible nature mother with her laws and mother earth be peaceful for us. May the holy and adorable winds and vibrant humanity of brilliant virtues be for peace and joy for us. May Vishnu, lord omnipresent, be gracious and give us peace and joy.
May nature’s nourishment be for our peace and happiness. Let the future possibilities be for our good and happiness of well being. Let the air be for our peace and happiness. Let all laws and disciplines be for peace.

Shan na duc: śabājīta taṛāyamāṇaḥ: Shan na bhavantu

Śaṁ no devaḥ savitā trāyamāṇaḥ śaṁ no bhavantūṣasato vibhātiḥ. Śaṁ naḥ parjanyo bhavatu praśābhīyah śaṁ naḥ kṣetrasya patirastu śaṁbhuḥ.

May lord creator Savita, generous saviour and refulgent giver of guidance, grant us peace and happiness. May the glorious dawns shower us with peace and joy. May the cloud of rain be harbinger of peace and joy for the people. And may the lord of peace, sustainer of the world, master of our field of action and cultivation, be gracious and give us peace and happiness.
11. Śaṁ no devā viśvadevā bhavantu śaṁ sarasvatī saha dhībhīrāstū. Śamabhīśācaḥ śamu rātiśācaḥ śaṁ no divyāḥ pārthivāḥ śaṁ no apyāḥ.

May the generous divines of the world be good and gracious to us at peace. May Sarasvati, eternal mother knowledge and divine speech with universal intelligence, be for our peace and well being. May the overpowering yajnic energies and all generous tendencies be for our good and peace of well being. And may all the divinities of heaven, earth and ocean give us peace and joy.

12. Śaṁ naḥ satyasya patayo bhavantu śaṁ no arvantaḥ śamu santu gāvah. Śaṁ na ṛbhavaḥ sukṛtaḥ suhastāḥ śaṁ no bhavantu pitaro haveṣu.

May the keepers and observers of truth be at peace for our good and well being. May our horses and transports be at peace, may our lands and cows be at peace for our peace and well being. May our wise veterans, noble artists and expert craftsmen, be at peace for happiness and comfort for us. And may our seniors be at peace and give us peace at our programmes of holy action when we call upon them.
13. Šāṁ no aja ekapād devō astu šāṁ no ’hirbudhnyāḥ šāṁ samudraḥ. Šāṁ no apāṁ napāṁ perurastu šāṁ naḥ prśnirbhavatu devagopā.

May the generous and self-refulgent lord unborn and eternal, sole sustainer of the universe, be gracious and give us peace. May the cloud floating in the sky be at peace and give us peace. May the ocean be at peace. May the boats and ships to cross the seas be at peace for us, and may the space and colourful sky sustaining divine generosities be at peace and give us peace and happiness.

14. Ādityā rudrā vasavo juṣantedaṁ brahma kriyamāṇaṁ navīyaḥ. Śṛṇvantu no divyāḥ pārthi-vāso gojātā uta ye yajñiyāsah.

May the Adityas, cosmic lights, Rudras, catalytic agents of nature, and the Vasus, sustaining abodes of life, receive this song divine of homage being sung at the latest and be at peace for us, and may the divinities of heaven and earth born of nature and the holy Word sung in divine voice, and those who are venerable sages dedicated to yajna be at peace and give us peace and happiness.
15. Ye devānāṁ yajñīyā yajñīyānāṁ manoryajatrā amṛtā ṛtajñāḥ. Te no rāsaṁtāṁ-urugāyam-adya yūyāṁ pāta svastibhiḥ sadā naḥ.

Those who are most venerable of the venerable divines of brilliance honoured by the wise, immortal knowers of truth and divine law, may bless us with knowledge universally celebrated. May you all, O divine sages and natural powers of divinity, protect and promote us with peace and joy for happiness and well being for all time.

Mandala 7/Sukta 36

Vishvedevah Devatah, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

Let the knowledge of existence arise from the divine centre of universal truth: the sun radiates light with its rays and illuminates the earths, the wide earth moves on with her peaks of mountains, and fire rises and blazes over the vedi, symbol of cosmic yajna.

2. Imāṁ vāṁ mitrāvaruṇā suvrktimīṣam na kṛṇe asurā navīyaḥ. Ino vāmanyah padavīradabdho janaṁ ca mitro yatati bruvaṇaḥ.

15. Those who are most venerable of the venerable divines of brilliance honoured by the wise, immortal knowers of truth and divine law, may bless us with knowledge universally celebrated. May you all, O divine sages and natural powers of divinity, protect and promote us with peace and joy for happiness and well being for all time.

1. Let the knowledge of existence arise from the divine centre of universal truth: the sun radiates light with its rays and illuminates the earths, the wide earth moves on with her peaks of mountains, and fire rises and blazes over the vedi, symbol of cosmic yajna.

2. O Mitra and Varuna, sun and cosmic energy and intelligence, both givers of life energy to the living world, I offer this new song of adoration as homage to you. One of you, Varuna, is resistless, all pervasive and coexistent with every stage of life’s evolution, and the other, Mitra, the sun, as a friend enjoins humanity to the life of activity proclaiming its rise as direct presence.

3. The currents of sportive wind play around like abundant cows yielding milk, and the mighty cloud laden with vapour, born of the great regions of heaven, roars in its house of mid skies.

4. Indra, all powerful ruler of the world, I pray, let me come to have the benefit of the power and presence of Aryama, chief power of justice, holy in action, who, with his order and invitation deploys the noble and efficient forces that run the chariot of your social order, who controls and punishes the violent deeds and corrects the violent attitudes of the negative and destructive forces.
5. Yajante asya sakhyam vayāṣca namasvinaḥ svanṛtasya dhāman. Viḥ prakṣo bābadhe nṛbhīḥ stavāna idāṃ namo rudrāya preṣṭham.

In their own house of truth, justice and yajna, devotees with reverence and homage pray for life energy and the friendship and company of this Rudra, destroyer of suffering and injustice, and giver of pranic energy. Loved and adored by the people, he releases for them nourishment and energy in abundance. This cherished homage and adoration is offered to Rudra.

6. Ā yat sākaṁ yaśaso vāvaśānāḥ sarasvati saptathī sindhumātā. Yāḥ suṣvayanta sudughāḥ sudhārā abhi svena payasā pīpyānāḥ.

Sarasvati, the eternal stream of life, of cosmic waters, and of speech and sacred knowledge, the seventh over the streams flowing through five senses and the mind, through five elements and the stuff of mind and intelligence, and through the poetic streams of the Veda, all these streams which flow abundantly, exuberant, magnificent, roaring with splendour, all of them ever growing and rising with their own flood of water: may all these continue to flow together gloriously for us.
7. Uta tye no maruto mandasānā dhiyam tokaṁ ca vājino'vantu. Mā naḥ pari khyadakṣarā cara-ntyavīrḍhan yujyām te rayim naḥ.

And those happy and joyous Maruts, vibrant scholars and sages, leaders of the nation, pioneers of science, manners and traditions, protect and advance our rising generation and our knowledge, intellect, imagination and culture. May the eternal mother stream of light and knowledge continuously flow for us and never forsake us. And may the Maruts augment and consolidate our wealth, honour and excellence for use and future progress.

8. Pra vo mahīmaramatim kṛṇudhvaṁ pra pūṣaṇ-aṁ vidathyāṁ na vīram. Bhagaṁ dhiyo’vitāraṁ no asyāḥ sātau vājaṁ rātiṣācaṁ purandhim.

O Vishvedevas, divinities of nature and brilliant scholars, sages and leaders of humanity, create, cultivate, increase and consolidate a high order of intelligence, nutrition and health care, a force of the brave to face the warlike business of life, a high standard of honour and excellence, protection for our order of knowledge, culture and tradition, and a generous and abundant state of this stable polity equipped with instant powers of defence and advancement.

O Maruts, vibrant forces of divinity in nature and humanity, may this song of celebration reach you well and gracefully. And so may it reach Vishnu, protector of the initiated dedicated to Dharma, who protects us with all methods of protection and advancement. We pray bring us life energy and a full span of good health and age for the celebrant and the people. O divinities, protect us always with all means of protection and advancement for our well being all round.

Mandala 7/Sukta 37

Vishvedevah Devatah, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Ā vo vāhiṣṭho vahatu stavadhyaī ratho vāja ṛbhukṣaṇo amṛktaḥ. Abhi triprśṭhaiḥ savaneṣu somairmade suśiprā mahabhiḥ pṛṇadhvam.

O Rbhus, high spiritual experts of science and technology, equipped with noble visor and helmet, come and join this celebration of ours to enjoy yourselves on abundant thrice distilled and seasoned drinks of soma in our yajnic meets. Let your strongest, fastest and unbreakable chariot transport you here. Regale yourselves and refine the yajna to perfection.
2. \(\text{Yūyaṁ ha ratnam maghavatsu dhattha svardrśa ṛbhukṣano amṛktam. Šaṁ yajñese svadhāvantah pibadhvam vi no rādhāṁsi matibhirdayadhvam.}\)

O scholars of science and technology, visionaries of light, you bring jewels of imperishable wealth for men of power and excellence. O commanders of food, sustenance and power, drink the soma of success in the yajnas of corporate programmes, and with your research and intelligence create the infrastructure for the development and success of our nation.

3. \(\text{Uvocitha hi maghavan deśṇaṁ maho arbhasya vasuno vibhāge. Udbhā te pūṛṇā vasunā gabhastī na sūṛtā ni yamate vasavyā.}\)

Lord and master of wealth, you take delight in charity and love to give and share, whether the giving and distribution involves a large or a small amount. Both your hands are full of plenty, your voice of truth from the heart overflows with generosity and nothing ever restrains your hands from giving.
4. \textit{Tvamindra svayaśā ṛbhukṣā vājo na sādhurāstamesyṛkvā. Vayam nu te dāśvāṁsaḥ syāma brahma kṛṇvanto harivo vasiṣṭhāḥ.}

Indra, enlightened and generous ruler and commander of wealth, innate honour and wisdom, manager of experts and manpower in general, you are good, versatile and efficient in function like food, energy, speed and success itself, you come home to people like the sun on the day’s completion. We pray let us be beneficiaries of your grace, generous like yourself, creator of food and wealth in the spirit of piety and well established in charity.

5. \textit{Sanitāsi pravato dāśuṣe cid yābhirviveṣo haryāśva dhībhīḥ. vavanmā nu te yujyābhirūtī kadā na indra rāya ā daśasyeḥ.}

Indra, lord commander of manpower, speed and success, you are the giver of overflowing wealth to the generous man of charity. O lord, we pray, when would you bless us with that wealth, honour and excellence, that practical intelligence and expertise, and that security and protection by which you prevail over the world of nature and humanity.

Indra, giver of settled security and peace, intelligent and dedicated devotees as we are, when would you listen to our voice of prayer as to people settled in peaceful homes? O lord of dynamic forces, commander of speed, power and success, visit our home, bless us with divine vision and wisdom and bring us wealth, honour and excellence, food and energy and a noble progeny.

The lord whom the divine earth glorifies from the depth of her being, to whom the seasons of the year abundant with food and flowers look up and resort, to whom the friend and brother in bond with three worlds and humanities attains, to that lord and spirit of unending age without his own essential form comprehended in matter, thought or time, the mortals look up and pray.

8. Ā no rādhāṁsi savitaḥ stavadhyā ā rāyo yantu parvatasya rātau. Sadā no divyaḥ pāyuḥ sīṣaktu yūyāṁ pāta svastibhiḥ sadā naḥ.
O Savita, glorious lord of generation, sustenance and resolution, may all means and materials of life come to us for success and self-fulfilment, may all forms of wealth, honour and excellence come to us so that we adore and amply glorify you through the gifts of the clouds of abundance. O Vishvedevas, divines of the world, pray you protect and promote us with all modes of peace and security for all time.

Mandala 7/Sukta 38

_Savita, Vajinah, Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi_

Let us rise and attain to that golden glory of divinity which the self-refulgent Savita radiates — Savita, lord of splendour and treasure-hold of universal wealth who truly rules and gives the jewel glories of existence. The lord alone is to be worshipped by humanity.
O Savita, glorious lord of generation, sustenance and resolution, may all means and materials of life come to us for success and self-fulfilment, may all forms of wealth, honour and excellence come to us so that we adore and amply glorify you through the gifts of the clouds of abundance. O Vishvedevas, divines of the world, pray you protect and promote us with all modes of peace and security for all time.

1. Udu ya deva¬ savitŒ yayŒma hiraÄyay¶m-amatiÅ yŒmaÜiÜret. NµunaÅ bhago havyo mŒnu¦ebhirvi yo ratnŒ puruvasµurdadhŒti.

Let us rise and attain to that golden glory of divinity which the self-refulgent Savita radiates — Savita, lord of splendour and treasure-hold of universal wealth who truly rules and gives the jewel glories of existence. The lord alone is to be worshipped by humanity.

2. Udu ti¦¢ha savita¬ Ürudhyasya hiraÄyapŒÄe prabh¾tŒv¾tasya. Vyurv¶Å p¾thv¶m-amatiÅ s¾jŒna Œ n¾bhyo martabhojanaÅ suvŒna¬.

O Savita, lord creator of the world and giver of light with golden hands of infinite generosity, arise and shine at the dawn of the light of truth in the heart and listen to the prayer of this soul in mortal body. You create the wide wide earth of golden beauty and you generate the food for mortals for the sake of living humanity on earth.

May Savita, lord refulgent and generous, be praised and celebrated, the lord whom all learned saints and sages worship and adore. May he, worthy of homage and obedience, accept our songs of celebration and prayer and protect and promote the learned brave with all modes of protection and advancement.

3. Api ʂṭutaḥ savitŒ devo astu yamŒ cid višve vasavo grññanti. Sa naḥ stomān namasyaḥcanao dhād viśvebhiḥ pātū pāyubhirni sūrīn

The holy mother, divine earth and indestructible nature, all adore lord Savita, enjoying and celebrating the generous lord’s creation. So also do brilliant rulers, men of choice merit, friends of life and humanity, and the lord of justice and dispensation, Varuna, all enjoying and appreciating the lord’s creation, adore and worship
5. Abhi ye mitho vanuṣaḥ sapante rātim divo rātiṣā-\ncaḥ pṛthivyāḥ. Ahirbudhnyā uta naḥ śṛṇotu varūtryekadhenuḥbhirni pātu.

We are the supplicants all together who seek and pray for the grace and gifts of generous heaven and earth. May the lord creator, original cause of the universe all pervasive in space, listen, and may the divine mother protector and giver of vision protect us with all those virtues which converge and focus on a single thought, voice and decisive action.

6. Anu tanno jāspatirmamāṁśiṣṭa ratnaṁ devasya savi-turiyānāḥ. Bhagamugro’vase johavīti bhagamanugro adha yāti ratnam.

Let the ruler and protector of the people know and believe that whatever the jewel wealth for life he receives from Savita, self-refulgent lord giver of light and life, all that is for the people, for all of us, so that whatever honour and prosperity the man of passion and ambition invokes and achieves, the same after all, the man of peace and dispassion who receives in consequence.
7. Śaṁ no bhavantu vājino haveṣu devatātā mitadravaḥ svarkāḥ. Jambhayanto'him vrkaṁ rakṣāṁsi sanemyasmad yuyavannamāvāḥ.

Let the war-like leaders of knowledge, arms and creativity, brilliant, balanced and dedicated to divine service in action, be for our peace and prosperity in the battles of life, crushing the surreptitious, thievish and demoniac forces of society and removing all ill health and evils from us.

O immortal heroes commanding knowledge, strength of arms and production in matters of eternal truth and law and the science of yajna, protect and promote us at every stage in the battles of life. Drink of the honey sweets of this celebration of the organised system of life, celebrate joyously and, self-fulfilled here, go forward by the paths of divines.

Mandala 7/Sukta 39

Vishvedevah Devatah, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Úrdhvo agniḥ sumatiṁ vasvo aśret praṭīcī jūrṇir-devatātīmeti. Bhejāte adri rathyeva panthāmṛtam hotā na iṣito yajāti.
The fire on high radiates light inspiring pleasure and enlightenment. The dawn as veteran lady of the house goes forward to offer homage to the divinities. The yajamana and his wife together move forward as by chariot on way to yajna to adore the lord, and the priest offers to join the yajna like one inspired.

Pra vāvrje suprayā barhiresāmā viśpaīva bīrīta iyāte. Viśāmaktoruṣasah pūrvahūtau vāyuḥ pūṣā svastaye niyutvān.

The yajna of these people proceeds, richly provided with holy materials. Vayu and Pusha, wind and life-giving sun, like guardian rulers and protectors of the people, move across the skies as if riding a chariot drawn by horses at the sacred call of night and dawn to yajna early for the good of humanity.

Jmayā atra vasavo ranta devā urāvantarikṣe marjayanta śubhrāh. Arvāk patha urūjrayaḥ kṛṇudhvam śrotā dūtasya jagmuṣo no asya.

Let the Vasus, life giving energies of nature, and enlightened people settled at peace in learning, abound and rejoice here on earth. Let radiant purities of divine refulgence from yajna rise to the vast sky and purify the atmosphere. Let divine energies of vast extension receive and respond to this yajnic code of our participation in nature’s dynamics and converge on this way to our earth.

All those divinities of the world, adorable and conjoined in nature’s dynamics of cosmic yajna, are catalytic agents of protection and promotion keenly concentrative toward life’s evolution and advancement. O generous yajamana, O bright fire, keen and passionate as they are in yajna, join them in yajna right away: join Bhaga, universal treasure of wealth, honour and excellence, Nasatya, constant complementarities of nature and natural law, and Purandhi, keeper and protector of habitations and institutions.

5. Āgne giro diva ā ṁrthivyā mitraṁ vaha varuṇa-mindramagnim. Āryamaṇḍadaṁtiṁ viṣnum-eṣāṁ sarasvaṁi maruto mādayantām.

O sage and scholar, bring us the knowledge and the language of the knowledge of heaven and earth. Bring us the gifts of Mitra, sun and pranic energy, Varuna, water and air, Indra, electric energy, and Agni, fire and light, of Aryaman, cosmic gravitation, Aditi, nature’s constancy, Vishnu, omnipresent cosmic intelligence, so that Sarasvati, corresponding language of their expression may grow and children of the earth may rejoice with enlightenment.

Let us offer oblations of holy materials to Agni with the thoughts and words of adorable sages so that the desires of mortals bound in love may be fulfilled. May the lord ruler of the world bring us imperishable wealth of universal value, and may we join with brilliant people worthy of association.

Thus heaven and earth are adored and celebrated by brilliant sages. May Varuna, Mitra and Agni, lords of truth and law, justice, love and light, grant us gifts of exemplary beauty, bliss and brilliance. O Vishvedevas, pray always protect and promote us with all modes of peace, progress and all round well being.

1. O śruṣṭirvidathyā sametu prati stomam dadhīsyāmāsyā ratnino vibhāge.

Let instant perception and active response worthy of our yajnic social system come to us in peace for every group and class of people, vibrant and really fast, and let us internalise it in every detail so that whatever the refulgent creator and ruler, Savita, inspires and creates today, right now we may share and, in participation together, be beneficiaries of this lord’s jewel gifts of life.

मित्रस्ता॥ चरुणा रादसी च दुर्धृतकमिन्द' अयुमा देवातु।

2. Mitrastanno varuṇo rodasī ca dyubhaktamindro aryamā dadātu. Dideṣṭu devyaditī rekṇo vāyuṣca yanniyuvaite bhagaśca.

May Mitra, lord dear as friend, Varuna, oceans of earth and space, the heaven and the earth and sky, Indra, lord ruler of energy, power and excellence, and Aryama, lord of justice, give us heavenly gifts of divinity. And may Aditi, imperishable generous Mother Nature, Vayu, the wind, and Bhaga, lord of power and glory, bestow upon us what they produce, promote and preserve for us.

Surely that person would be strong and brilliant whom the Maruts, great commanders of the power of fire, wind and water, protect and promote. Indeed, none would be able to counter his power and prosperity whom Agni, brilliant leader of divinities, and Sarasvati, spirit of knowledge and speech, inspire, energise and motivate.

And this leader of the yajnic social order of truth and dynamism of society and supportive ruling powers, judicious Varuna, friendly Mitra, far seeing guiding force Aryama, and self-directive brilliant and indestructible spirit and policy, Aditi, all adorable powers faithfully invoked and invited, may, we pray, guide and direct our actions and purge us of evil, sin and crime without hurt or violence.
5. Asya devasya mîlhuṣo vayā viṣṇoṛesasya pra-bhṛthe havirbhiḥ. Vide hi rudro rudriyam mahi-tvam yāsiṣṭāṃ vartir-aśvināv-irāvat.

Of this generous, self-refulgent, creative and omnipresent lord Vishnu, all divinities and varieties of existence are extensive manifestations like branches of a tree, in this well sustained system of the universe by virtue of the homage they offer and the sustenance they receive. Rudra, lord sustainer of the good and scourge of evil, alone knows the mighty majesty I adore, and I pray may the Ashvins, sun and moon and twin divine complementarities of nature’s energy, come by the paths of divine bounties and bless us.

6. Mātra pūṣannāghṛṇa irasyo varūtrī yad rātiśācaśca rāsan. Mayobhuvo no arvanto ni pāntu

O Pushan, refulgent lord giver of health and sustained growth, worthy of attainment as you are, pray sustain me here and sustain all that what Mother Nature and divine speech and generous givers of society give us. May the universal givers of peace and well being protect and promote us. May the winds blowing all round for all alike bring us showers of rain and bliss.

Thus are the heaven and earth adored and celebrated by sages of enlightenment settled at peace in divine bliss. May Varuna, lord of justice and universal choice, Mitra, lord of universal love and light, and Agni, lord of leadership and enlightenment, all sustainers of truth and law, shower us with exemplary gifts of beauty, bliss and enlightenment for maintenance of piety. O Vishvedevas, divinities of nature and humanity, pray protect and promote us with all modes and means of progress and well being for all time.

Bhaga, lord of power and glory, you are the leader. Lord of light, you are the giver of victory in the field of truth. Lord omniscient, protect and promote this wisdom and intelligence of ours, giving us more and ever more of it. Lord of universal prosperity, promote us with lands, cows and the light of knowledge and with speed and success in the field of transport, communication and achievement. O lord of life and humanity, let us be blest with leaders and manpower of exceptional order.

And let us be happy and prosperous now at this very time and at the end of the day, and also at the middle of the day through the seasons. And also, O lord of power and glory, let us enjoy the good will and kindness of the divinities at the rise of the sun.

5. Bhaga eva bhagavāṁ astu devāstena vayaṁ bhagavantaḥ syāma. Tam tvā bhaga sarva ijjoha-vīti sa no bhaga pura etā bhaveha.

Bhaga, lord of glory, is really the lord of glory. By virtue of his grace, let us too be masters of power, prosperity and excellence, brilliant and generous. O lord of universal power and grace, all life and humanity does you homage and obeisance. O lord of power, prosperity and excellence, you alone be our guide, pioneer and leader here in life.

As the dawns arise and bless our morning yajna with holiness, as the sun inspires us to rise to the highest and purest divine attainment, as the motive forces of energy drive the chariot and lead the master to the desired destination, so may the Vajins, scholars, sages and warlike leaders lead us and thus bring us the latest and highest honour and excellence overflowing with the wealth and values of life.

May the blessed and blissful dawns, vibrant with energy and light of the sun, full of inspiration for the bright and brave youth, showering milk and honey all round with hands overflowing with generosity, arise and bless our home with light and prosperity. O dawns of light and knowledge, O youthful ladies of the home bright as dawn, pray you all protect, promote and advance us with all life’s modes of peace, progress and protection for all time.

Mandala 7/Sukta 42

Vishvedevah Devatah, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

Let the sagely scholars of Veda and the vibrant scientists dear as life breath come and join the yajna all round, let the chant of hymns and fragrance of yajna rise to the skies, let the fertile cows, overflowing streams and vaulting voices celebrate divine generosity, and let the clouds and mountains take the blessed form of yajna full of peace and prosperity.

2. Sugaste agne sanavitto adhvā yukṣvā sute harito rohitaśca. Ye vā sadmannaruṣā vīravāho huve devānāṁ janimāni sattaḥ.

Agni, lord of light and fire, master of divine knowledge, simple and straight is your path of motion and radiation, ancient, known, pursued and followed in this world of the lord’s creation. Join the forces of nature and divinity wide as quarters of space, fluent as streams of water and passionate as flames of fire, which lead the brave to the house of yajna wherein, sitting and meditating, I sing and celebrate the origins of the divinities of nature and humanity.

Together and holily they sing, celebrate and glorify your yajna with reverence and homage while close at hand the happy and meditative yajaka and generous priest excels in faith and generosity. O lord of manifold forces, Agni, join the divinities of nature and humanity and keep on the holy and yajnic vision and wisdom of the life divine for us without relent.

4. Yadā vīrasya revato durenē syonaśīratithirācīketat. Suprīto agniḥ sudhito dama ā sa viśe dāti vāryamiyatyai.

When Agni, brilliant and blissful honoured guest, is welcomed in the house of the brave and prosperous host, then Agni, happy, well provided and comfortably rested at home, gives to the host and his people the gifts of knowledge and wealth they desire.

5. Imaṁ no agne adhvaram jūṣasva marutsvindre yaśasaṁ kṛdhī naḥ. Ā naktā barhiḥ sadatāmu-śāsośantā mitrāvaruṇā yajeha.

Agni, venerable and brilliant guest of the house, accept and enjoy this yajnic hospitality of ours for the sake of the people and our social order and thereby enhance our honour and virtue. For the night and day, grace the yajnic seat and join the people who respect you, for the advancement of love, friendship and sense of justice in society.
6. Evāgniṁ sahasyaṁ vasiṣṭho rāyaskāmo viśvapsn-yasya staut. Iṣāṁ rayiṁ paprathad vājamasme yūyam pāta svastibhiḥ sadā naḥ.

Thus does Vasishtha, the brilliant sage settled at peace in love with the pursuit of life’s wealth and excellence, adore Agni, omnipresent inspirer of life forms with fire and passion alongwith moral stability and spiritual constancy, Agni that creates, expands and gives us food and energy, wealth and honour, and speed, success and progress in social and cultural life. O divinities, protect and promote us with all round good fortune all time.

Mandala 7/Sukta 43

Vishvedevah Devatah, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

prthivi iṣadhyai. Yeṣāṁ brahmāṇyas-amāni viprā viṣvagviyanti vanino na śākhāḥ.

In your yajnas of science and research, let vibrant scholars dedicated to the pursuit of divinity study heaven and earth with reverence and homage for self fulfilment so that their exceptional adorations of universal knowledge rise and spread all round like branches of the universal tree.

Let the yajna expand and rise like a tempestuous flying horse, and you, altogether of one mind, fill the ladle full, raise it and offer the oblation into the yajna of love, peace and non-violence to cover the sky with fragrance. Let the bright and blissful flames rise high to the divinities.

3. Ā putrāso na mātaram vibhrtrāḥ sānau devāso barhiṣāḥ sadantu. Ā viśvācī vidathyāmanaktyoga mā no devatātā mṛdhaskāḥ.

Just as children in the mother’s lap rest blissfully, so let the conductors and organisers of yajna, all noble and brilliant souls, rise and reach the heights of skies. And then let universality of values adorn and sanctify our yajnic policy of governance and administration so that, O lord of light, fire and power, Agni, no one may violate us in our divine programme of development and progress.

And let those divinities of nature committed in love and accord with you, all of them abundant and adorable, harbingers of rain and revelations of nature’s truth, come and bless you. O people of the land, thus may the first and highest of the wealth of existence come to you, and thus may you abide, all with one mind, in your common programme and yajnic commitment.

Thus O lord of light, fire, power and constancy, Agni, bless us along with all peoples of the earth so that, O lord of challenge, patience and fortitude, committed as one with you and blest with wealth, honour and excellence, we may live happy and abide healthy and unhurt in the land and her yajnic order. O divinities of nature and humanity, pray protect and promote us all round with all good fortune for all time.

Mandala 7/Sukta 44

Mantrawise Devatah, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Dadhikrāṁ vah prathamam-aśvinoṣasam-agnim samiddhaṁ bhagamūtaye huve. Indram viṣṇum puṣaṇaṁ brahmaṇāspatim-ādityān dyāvāprthivī apah svah.
For your protection and progress, I invoke and adore Dadhikra, original divine energy which moves, sustains and energises all movers and sustainers of existential forms, Ashvins, the sun and moon, the dawn, the burning fire, and Bhaga, honour and glory of life, Indra, electrical energy, Vishnu, cosmic wind energy, Pushan, cosmic vitality and nourishment, Brahmanspati, cosmic Soul, Adityas, Zodiacs of the sun, heaven and earth, the cosmic waters, and eternal happiness and well being.

Awakening cosmic motive energy with reverence and homage, rising and moving to the yajna with full knowledge, sanctifying the holy grass on the vedi with holy speech, we invoke and invite the ready and instant moving Ashvins like the sagely teacher and the preacher to guide and conduct our yajnic business of life.

Knowing full well the all-motive cosmic energy, I specifically speak of fire power, and I celebrate the dawn, the sun and the earth, and I speak of the great integrative and sustaining power of the cosmic oceans of waters, and I pray that these natural energies may ward off all evils and ailments away from us.

That cosmic energy is the primary intelligent dynamic force which moves at the fastest velocity, and that energy is basically the first motive and transportive power of everything in motion, like a horse in front of a chariot, whether it is in relation to the dawn or the sun or motion of the sun in orbit through the Zodiacs or the abodes of life such as earth or the pranic energy forms of nature and life.

5. Ā no dadhikrāh pathyāmanakṛtvāsya panthā- manvetavā u. Śrṇotu no daivyāṁ śardho agniḥ śṛṇvantu viśve mahiṣā amūrāḥ.

May the cosmic forms of energy and may the supreme mover of cosmic energy adorn, illuminate and sanctify our path and our movement over the path of truth and eternal law so that we may safely tread the holy paths of living. May Agni, lord omniscient, listen to our prayer and be favourable to our brilliance and divine gift of strength and power. May the mighty sages of the world listen to us and favour us with gifts of wisdom.

1. Ā devo yātu savitā suratno’ntarikṣapṛā vahamāno aśvaiḥ. Haste dadhāno naryā purūṇi niveśayaṁca prasuvaṅca bhūma.

May the self-refulgent Savita, giver of light and life, come and bless, bearing jewels of life, radiating through the sky, carried by light rays, bearing in hands manifold treasures for humanity, suffusing and fertilising the earth with life and vitality. We pray we too may be brilliant and generous like the sun.

उदर्स्य बाहू शिखिरा बृहत्तो हिरणयया दिवा अन्ताँ अनंधाम ॥

2. Udasya bāhū śithirā bṛhantā hiranyayā divo antāṁ anaśtām. Nūnam so asya mahimā paniṣṭa sūraścidasmā anu dādapasyām.

Mighty are his hands and arms, vast and extensive, golden generous, reaching unto the bounds of heaven. Truly that grandeur of his is adorable. May the brave refulgent sun inspire us with will and passion for initiative and action.

May that refulgent creator and inspirer Savita, mighty and friendly, lord and master of wealth, radiating his wide expansive glory, provide vital food and energy for the mortals.

4. Imā girāḥ savitāramśu sujihvaṃ pūrṇagabhasṭim-īlate supāṇim. Citram vayo bṛhadāsme dadhātu yūyam pāta svastibhiḥ sadā naḥ.

These celebrant voices adore and glorify Savita, life giver and inspirer, bright and benedictive of light and flame, generous of hands full of blessings. May the lord bear and bring us universal health and life full of wonderful wealth and value. O lord Savita, O brilliances of nature and humanity, protect and promote us with all modes of good fortune and well being for all time.

Mandala 7/Sukta 46

Rudra Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi
1. Imā rudrāya sthiradhanvane girah kṣipreṣave devāya svadhāvne. Aṣaḷhāya sahamānāṇya vedhase tigmāyudhāya bharatā śṛṇotu naḥ.

Offer these words of adoration and prayer to Rudra, brilliant destroyer of evil and injustice, wielder of the unshakable bow, shooting flying arrows of lightning speed. He bears his own essential power and sense of justice, irresistible is he, unconquerable, a challenger with unfailing fortitude, all knowing and equipped with blazing arms and armour. May the lord listen to us and accept our call.

2. Sa hi kṣayeṇa kṣamyasya janmanaḥ sāmṛājyena divyasya cetati. Avannavantirupa no duraścarā-’namīvo rudra jāsu no bhava.

He is known by his own divine refulgence and, by the same exceptional brilliance and by close proximity of his presence and residence among the peace loving people of his blessed dominion, he proclaims himself and enlightens the people while he is perceived and glorified by them. O Rudra, protecting, sustaining and promoting our defence forces, be at the doors of our settlements by your presence and power among our people, and ever be giver of freedom from ailments and evil.
3. Yā te didyudavārsrṣṭā divaspari kṣmayā carati pari sā vṛṇaktu naḥ. Sahasraṁ te svapivāta bheṣajā mā nastokeṣu tanayeṣu rīriṣaḥ.

The blaze of your lightning power released from heaven prevails over earth which may, we pray, spare us and not uproot us. O lord of refreshing winds, thousands are your rejuvenations and medicaments. Pray strike not upon our children and grand children, refresh, nourish and strengthen them to full maturity.

4. Mā no vadhī rudra mā parā dā mā te bhūma prasitauv hīlitasya. Ā no bhaja barhiṣi jīvaśāmse yūyāṃ pāta svastibhiḥ sadā naḥ.

O lord of justice, punishment and good health, strike us not, forsake us not to alienation. Let us not fall into the snares of your anger. Be with us on the vedi over earth and spaces for the joyous celebration of life. O lord ruler and physician of health, protect and promote us with all good fortunes of well being for all time.

Mandala 7/Sukta 47

Apah Devatah, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

O cosmic waters, seers and sages in pursuit of divinity, we love and yearn for that pure, divine, delicious and honey sweet primordial thrill of the ecstasy drink of yours which you distilled from the Cosmic Word, original nature and the earth for the taste of Indra, the human soul, at the dawn of creation.

The blaze of your lightning power released from heaven prevails over earth which may, we pray, spare us and not uproot us. O lord of refreshing winds, thousands are your rejuvenations and medicaments. Pray strike not upon our children and grand children, refresh, nourish and strengthen them to full maturity.

O lord of justice, punishment and good health, strike us not, forsake us not to alienation. Let us not fall into the snares of your anger. Be with us on the vedi over earth and spaces for the joyous celebration of life. O lord ruler and physician of health, protect and promote us with all good fortunes of well being for all time.

O cosmic waters, seers and sages in pursuit of divinity, we love and yearn for that pure, divine, delicious and honey sweet primordial thrill of the ecstasy drink of yours which you distilled from the Cosmic Word, original nature and the earth for the taste of Indra, the human soul, at the dawn of creation.

That sweetest of honey thrill of joyous ecstasy of existence in which Indra rejoices with the wealth, honours and excellences of life may, we pray, the holy fire, infallible extension of cosmic waters, protect and promote. That same thrill and ecstasy, we pray, may we too in our pursuit of divine joy attain here and now.

The holy and ecstatic waters, hundred ways pure and flowing with their innate inspiring vitality, move on and converge to the divinities, centre yajna of the cosmos. They do not violate the divine laws of Indra, lord of existence. O men and women, offer oblations with ghrta for augmenting the rivers and the seas.

4. \( Yāḥ sūryo raśmibhir-ātatāna yābhyā indro aradad gātumūrmim. Te sindhavo varivo dhātanā no yūyaṁ pāta svastibhiḥ sadā naḥ. \)

The vapours and waters which the sun expands with its rays in space, the showers of rain for which Indra, cosmic electricity, breaks the clouds of vapour to fall and flow, and the currents of water which dig out the river beds on earth, may all those oceans, seas and rivers bear and bring us treasurefuls of choice food, energy and wealth to sustain and support us. O cosmic waters, sun and showers, rivers and seas, protect and promote us with the best of good fortune for well being for all time.

Mandala 7/Sukta 48

\textit{Rbhavah Vishvedevah Devatah,}

\textit{Vasishta Maitravaruni Rshi}

1. \( Ṛbhukṣaṇo vājā mādayadhvamāsme naro maghavānāḥ sutasya. Ā vo’rvācaḥ kratavo na yātāṁ vibhvo rathaṁ naryāṁ vartayantu. \)

O great scientists, leaders of humanity commanding power and excellence, rejoice and let us rejoice in the excellence of our science, power and culture. Come to us and let the Kratus, expert workers of holy will and resolution, as the Vibhus, artists and technologists, turn your chariot worthy of the human nation towards us.

Let us be scientists with the great scientists, let us be experts with the experts and command powers and forces with the power and knowledge of the scientists and technologists. May the warriors of power and speed protect you and us in the battles of life’s freedom and success in excellence. And let us join Indra, lord of power and excellence and cross over evil, darkness and want to light, freedom and prosperity.

Te ciddhi pūrvi-rabhī santi śāsā viśvāṁ arya uparatāti vanvan. Indro vibhvāṁ ṛbhukṣā vājo aryaḥ śatror-mithatyā krṇavan vi nṛṃṇam.
Craftsmen, and, having scattered out all enmities in conflicts, they develop new wealth and prosperity for the nation.

O divine brilliant Rbhus, wondrous scientists, artists and craftsmen of the world, creators of wealth and providers of settlement at peace, create the best of comfort and prosperity for us. Loving and cooperative all, be for our safety, security and progress. Eminent masters of knowledge and expertise, provide the best of food, energy and sustenance for us. O Rbhus, O Vasus, pray always protect and promote us with all the good fortune for life’s well being all round, all time.

Mandala 7/Sukta 49

Apah Devatah, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

The divine waters, chief of which is the ocean, arise from the heart of cosmic energy as a surge of liquidity and ceaselessly flow, purifying, sanctifying everything they suffuse. Indra, the sun and electric energy of the firmament, power of thunder and generosity, creates the channels for their flow. May those streams of waters inspire and impel me too with the initiative and drive of life for initiative and action here in the world and protect me against evil and sloth.

2. Ya āpo divyā uta vā sravanti khanitrimā uta vā yāḥ svayamjāh. Samudrārthā yāḥ śucayaḥ pāvakāstā āpo devīriha māmavantu.

May those divine streams of water and cosmic energy which flow in channels made by man and those which flow their own way and rush to join the sea, all of which are pure and sacred, purifying and sanctifying, may all those streams protect and promote me onward here in the world of dynamic activity.

3. Yāsāṁ rājā varuṇo yāti madhye satyānṛte avapaśyañ-janānām. Madhuścutah śucayo yāḥ pāvakāstā āpo devīriha māmavantu.

Those liquid streams of waters and divine energy in the currents of which the cosmic ruler of universal law, Varuna, vibrates with universal judgement and omnipotence, watching the truth and untruth of the people’s actions within the rules of divine law, the streams which are replete with the honey sweets of life’s joy, pure and purifying, may all these streams of divinity protect, inspire and promote me here in this world of action.

4. प्रविष्टस्ता आपि दुर्विरिह मार्म-चन्तु || ४ ॥

Yāsu rājā varūṇa yāsu somo viśve devā yāsūrjaṁ madanti. Vaiśvānarō yāsvagniḥ praviṣṭastā āpo devīriha māmavantu.

Those streams of water and cosmic energy in which Varuna, self-refulgent ruler, pervades, in which Soma, peace and life’s vitality and joy, resides, in which all divinities of nature and brilliances of humanity find their breath of life and rejoice, in which Vaishvanara, vital heat of earth life, resides and inspires her children, may those divine streams of the waters of existence inspire, protect and promote me here in this world.

Mandala 7/Sukta 50

Mitra, Varuna, Agni, Vishvedevah, Nadyah
Devatah, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

1. mām mitrāvaruṇeḥa rakṣatam kulāyayad viśvayamā na āgan. Ajakāvam durḍrśikam tiro dadhe mā māṁ padyena rapasā vidat tsaruḥ.

May the sun and waters, curative and preventive health care, protect me here. Let no bodily infirmity, no insidious or infectious disease come to me. Let me keep off all diseases that spread through animals and insects, all those that spread through germs and viruses difficult to see with naked eye. Let all those ailments be off which arise from external contact or from internal weakness such as lack of resistance, depression or self-guilt.

2. Yad vijāman paruṣi vandanāṁ bhuvad-aṣṭhīv-antau pari kulphau ca dehat. Agniṣṭacchocanna-apa bādhatāmīto mā māṁ padyena rapasā vidat tsaruḥ.

Let Agni, heat treatment and fire element, burn away and keep off all tumours or rheumatic disease corresponding to the joints and bone density, pain which swells and burns ankles and knees and reaches up to the hips and stomach. Let no surreptitious disease beginning with the feet and creeping up by infection touch me.

3. Yacchalmalau bhavati yannadoṣu yadiṣadhī-bhyaḥ pari jāyate viṣam. Viśve devā nirītastat suvantu mā māṁ padyena rapasā vidat tsaruḥ.

Whatever poison there be in the cotton plant or silktree or in the streams of water or what is produced by herbs and trees, let the scholars of science and medicine of the world isolate and eliminate from there as antibiotic. Let no surreptitious ailment from external or internal causes come and afflict me.

All streams of water, wind and energy, rushing, flowing, rising, on mountains, slopes and valleys or plains with abundant or lean content, may be for us full of nourishment, health giving, blissful and sparkling generous. May they ward off all disease, may they never be destructive.

Mandala 7/Sukta 51
Adityah Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

May we join the Adityas, eminent sagely scholars of knowledge and science, and benefit from their latest modes of protection and promotion and from the peace of a blessed home. May they, swift and powerful of action, listen to our prayer and conduct this social yajna of ours in a state of sinlessness and invincibility.

1. Ādityāsa aditir-mādayantāṁ mitro aryamā varuṇo rajiṣṭhāḥ. Asmākāṁ santu bhuvanasya gopāḥ pibantu somam-avase no adya.

We pray, may the Adityas, brilliant sages and the seasonal phases of the sun, Aditi, mother nature and the ethics and policy of universal values, Mitra, the sun and the friendly ruler, Aryama, leader and pioneer, Varuna, chief of law and justice, all straight powers of rectitude, rejoice, be protectors of our social system and give us a life of joy. May they too join us today and share the taste of life’s ecstasy and excellence for further progress.

2. Ādityāśā vishvā pravatā nivata udvata udanvātāṁ pravatā mādayantāṁ mitro aryamā varuṇo rajiṣṭhāḥ. Asmākāṁ santu bhuvanasya gopāḥ pibantu somam-avase no adya.

All the Adityas, refulgent powers of nature and humanity, all the Maruts, winds and heroic men, all devas, brilliancies of nature and humanity, Rbhus, all artists and craftsmen, Indra, ruling power and electricity, Agni, fire and the brilliant leader, Ashvins, complementary currents of natural energy and teachers and preachers, all happy, adorable and appraising, may protect and promote us with all good fortune and well being for all time.

Mandala 7/Sukta 52

Adityah Devatah, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

आदित्यास_ अदितियः_ स्याम_ पूर्वेद्वृत्रा_ वैसवा_ मत्यत्रा। सन्तन- मित्रावरुण तन्नता_ भव्यम_ द्वावपृतिर्वी_ भव्यन्त्:॥ १ ॥

1. Ādityāso aditayaḥ syāma pūrdevatrā vasavo martyatrā. Sanema mitrāvaruṇā sananto bhavema dyāvāprthivī bhavantaḥ.

O Adityas, dynamic unassailable lights of the world, may we too be brilliant and unassailable. O Vasus, shelter homes of life, let us be servants of divinity and servants of humanity, shelter and comfort for all, holy as the city. O Mitra and Varuna, sun and ocean, joining and serving you, let us acquire depth and brilliance. O earth and heaven, trying to be like you, let us be generous and free and blest beyond all bonds of lower existence.

मित्रस्त् ॥ वर्ण्णा मामहन्तु शर्मः_ ताकायः_ तन्न्यायः_ गापः। मा_ व' भुजमाध्यजातमन्य: मा_ तर्कम_ वसवा_ वच्चय्यध्व॥ २ ॥

May Mitra and Varuna, protectors like friends, the sun and the vast ocean, promote the peace and joy of our hearth and home to honour and glory for our children and grand children. O Vasus, shelter homes of life, let us not suffer afflications born of sin committed by others, nor should that, O children of the earth, affect you, and may the karma you do and accumulate never be that sinful.

Men of initiative, swift in thought and action, zealous as life energy, study, meditate on and attain the jewel gifts of Savitá, refulgent and generous lord creator and inspirer. That adorable lord creator, our father and sustainer, and all brilliant sages and scholars of the world working together with one united mind may, we pray, give us that bliss of divine gifts and grandeur.

Mandala 7/Sukta 53

Dyava-prthivyau Devate, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

Challenged by difficulties on the way forward, I invoke high heaven and mother earth with offers of homage and adoration. Vast and abundant they are, close friends and generous givers, divine sources of hope and energy, whom noble men serve and exalt with songs. To these, for sure, celebrant poets and visionaries of all time look up and these they adore for inspiration with offers of homage and adoration.

2. Pra pūrvaje pitarā navyasībhīr-gīrbhīh kṛṇudhvām sadane ṛtasya. Āno dyāvāprthivī daivyena janena yātām mahi vāṁ varūtham.

O noble men and women of the world, in the house of the yajnic study of the laws of nature and advancement of light and waters, flow, adore the ancient fatherly sun and motherly earth with the latest words of research and knowledge, and let the highest light of heaven and the great abundance of the earth come to your homes with the holiest and most brilliant people.

O sun and nature, fatherly sun and mother earth, generous givers of all time, yours are the jewel treasures of life for the generous giver, whatever they are. Bear and bring us whatever be the finest and most abundant gifts of your eternal jewels. Pray preserve, protect and promote us for all time with peace, happiness and well being.
Vastoshtari Deva, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Vāstoṣpate prati jānīhyasmāntsvāveśo anamīvo bhavā naḥ. Yat tvemahe prati tanno juṣasva śaṁ no bhava dvipade śaṁ catuṣpade.

O Vastupati, master architect and guardian of the home, know us for certain and approve what we want, be for us the provider of a happy and comfortable home free from pollution and disease. Be pleased to give us the facilities we ask you to provide, and let there be peace and well being for humans and for animals.

O master and guardian of the home, giver of peace and bliss, be our saviour and protector all round, promote the homestead and the inmates along with the cows and horses. In love and friendship with you, let us be free from disease and ravages of age. Pray love and protect us and promote us as father for the children.
3. Vāstoṣpate śagmayā saṁsadā te sakṣīmahi ranvayā gātumatyā. Pāhi kṣema uta yoge varam no yūyam pāta svastibhiḥ sadā naḥ.

Master architect, maker and guardian of the home, the family and the nation, may we, by your kindness and favour enjoy a settled home in peace, comfort, joy and good fellowship and prosperity with you and the nation’s assembly. Pray protect and promote us in the preservation, acquisition and advancement of our wealth and excellence in the best manner. O guardians and protectors of the human nation, all time protect and promote us with the best of happiness and all round well being.

Mandala 7/Sukta 55

Vastoshpati and Indra Devate,

Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

अमीवाहा वास्तोषपति विष्णु रूपाण्यविश्वान।

1. Amīvahā vāstoṣpate viśvā rūpāṇyāviśan.

   Sakhā suśeva edhi naḥ.

Vastoshpati, father and guardian of the abode of life (in body, family and the nation), destroyer of pain, suffering and disease, in all forms of life and its organisation your power and presence is reflected. Pray be our friend and saviour, giver of peace and bliss free from strain.

यर्द्धजुन सारमय दुः: पिन्धाह यच्छेस। वीव भाजनत्न ऋष्टयः

2. Yadārjuna sārameya dataḥ piśaṅga yacchase.

_Vīva bhrājanta ṛṣṭaya upa srakvēṣu bapsato ni ṣu svapa._

Lord of purity and blazing power, creator and controller of values and the essence of things and institutions, handsome and versatile in form and performance, you raise, wield and control your weapons of defence and offence, devouring missiles target oriented in readiness in defence labs beaming like a trail of light in the sky, and thus you may rest in peace and security in the state of readiness.

3. Stenaṁ rāya sārameya taskaram vā punah sara.

_Stotṛn-indrasya rāyasi kimasmān ducchunāyase ni ṣu svapa._

Lord of wealth and glory, lover of values and essence of things in life, keep on pursuing the thief and the smuggler and bring them to book. And don’t you appreciate and encourage those who support and augment the wealth of the nation and the ruling order and assure that we are safe against evil and the negationists? You do. If so, you may thus rest in peace and security in the state of readiness.

4. *Tvam sūkarasya dardṛhi tava dardartu sūkaraḥ._

_Stotṛn-indrasya rāyasi kimasmān ducchunāyase ni ṣu svapa._
Promote with incentive the forces of positive action and let the forces of good action promote you and the social order. You advance the supporters and admirers of the order and you protect us against saboteurs and evil doers for sure. In such a state of vigilance and readiness you may rest in peace and security.

सस्तु माता सस्तु पिता सस्तु श्वा सस्तु विश्वपति: ।
सस्तु सर्व ज्ञातयः सस्तुयामभिता जनः। ५ ॥

In the ideal state of order, let the mother sleep in peace, let the father rest at peace, let the watch guard be sure of peace and security, let the head of the community rest at peace. And let this nation of humanity be at peace all round all ways.

6. Ya āste yaśca carati yaśca paśyati no janaḥ. Teṣāṁ saṁ hanmo aksāṇi yathedaṁ harmyaṁ tathā.

The person who sits and works in an appointed place, the one who is always on the move on tours, and the one who is appointed to watch us all round, of all these we centralise the orbits of movement and activity as this house is, which is the centre and capital of the social order.

7. Sahasraśṛṅgo vrṣabho yah samudrādudācarat.
   Tenā sahasyenā vayam ni janānt-svāpayāmasi.

   Thousands are his rays of light and peaks of achievement, profuse his showers of peace and generous favours, as he, ruler of the order like the sun, rises and rules over earth, sea and the sky. By virtue of his might and courage, patience and fortitude, we provide for the peace and comfort of the people.

8. Proṣṭheśayā vahyeśayā nārīryāstalpaśīvāriḥ.
   Strīyo yāḥ puṇyagandhāstāḥ sarvāḥ svāpayāmasi.

   The women who sleep in large homes and open court yards, who sleep while on the move in travel, who sleep in comfortable beds and those who are fragrantly dressed with perfumes, for all these we provide for peace and safety to sleep in security.

Mandala 7/Sukta 56

Maruts Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Ka īṁ vyaktā narāḥ sanīḷā rudrasya maryā adhā svaśvāḥ.

   What for sure are these individual, specified, kindred, mortal and human life forces of Rudra, cosmic vitality, the soul, the commander, the destroyer of suffering, forces which ride noble steeds like currents of wind?
2. \textit{Nakirhyośām janūṃṣi veda te aṅga vidre mitho janitram.}

O dear seeker, no one really knows their origin and places of birth except that they together manifest in action and reveal their origin and generative power.

3. \textit{Abhi svapūbhirmitho vapanta vātasvanasah śyenā aspṛdhran.}

Roaring like winds, flying like eagles, together they rival each other and generate energy and vitality of life by their essential purity of character and action.

4. \textit{Etāni dhīro niṇyā ciketa pṛśnir-yadūdho mahī jabhāra.}

The wise and resolute scholar knows these mysterious forces, he who knows how the sun and the starry sky hold the earth, and the earth, like the cow, holds the milky food for life.

5. \textit{Sā viṭ suvīrā marudbhirastu sanāt sahanī puṣya-nī nṛṇṇam.}

That nation commands the brave which maintains its stout and vibrant people by its constant values and policy of action, which observes hard discipline patiently to challenge the enemies, and which strengthens and sustains its manliness of character.
6. Yāmanīṃ yeṣṭhāḥ śubhāḥ śobhiṣṭhāḥ śriyā saṁmiślā ojobhirugrāḥ.

   The Maruts, warriors of the nation, are unfailing marksmen shooting to the target straight, most decent of manners and courtesy, graceful with culture and chivalry, and blazing with heroic splendour.

7. Ugrāṃ va aojaḥ sthirā śavāṃsyadhā marudbhiraṅgaṇastuvuviṣmān.

   Your vigour is bright and passionate, your courage and valour is constant and inviolable, and your republic is strong and invulnerable by virtue of the vibrant warriors.

8. Śubhro vah śuṣmaḥ krudhmī manāṃsi dhunirmuniriva śardhasya dhrṣṭoḥ.

   O nation of Maruts, redoubtable challengers of the enemy, blazing white and pure is your strength and courage, righteous and passionate, your minds are alert, agile and thoughtful like that of a sage and your power is invulnerable.

9. Sanemyasmad yuyota didyum mā vo durmatiriha praṇaṇā naḥ.

   Reject the outmoded weapons, always take to the bright and blazing ones. Keep off from us, citizens, the old as well as the new and bright ones. Let not evil thought and intention ever vitiate and damage you or us.

O Maruts, mortals, pure are your yajnic transactions, clean your gifts, receipts and dispensations. I invoke and augment the pure and non-violent yajna of and love and creativity of the pure for the sake of pure and sacred people who, committed to truth, advance the truth by observance of truth and divine law of rectitude. Bright and pure is your birth and origin, pure you are and sanctifying.

Wielders of wondrous weapons, anxious creators of food and energy, noble and meticulous in matters of wealth and vitality, and keeping your form and personality in top condition of dignity and grace, that's what you are.

O Maruts, warriors vibrant as winds, on your shoulders you wear deadly weapons which, bright and blazing, decorate your chest. Thus wielding and whirling your weapons in keeping with your innate strength and chivalry, in your yajnic endeavours of development and progress, you shine like flashes of lightning with showers of rain.

Adorable Maruts, admirable advancers of the bounds of progress, your fame and glory rises to clouds over the vast skies. Go forward and win the battles. Play this part of yours with love and faith worthy of the home.
like a fragrant yajna of thousand possibilities.

15. Yadi stutasya maruto adhīthethā viprasya vājino havīman. Makṣu rāyaḥ suvīryasya dāta nū cid yamanya ādabhadaravā.

O Maruts, vibrant workers and vibrant yajakas, if thus you know and remember the holy yajnic programmes of positive value enacted by dynamic and progressive people, then create and give us abundant wealth of highly productive and progressive order at the earliest lest others and uncreative forces take over and sabotage the plans and programmes.

16. Atyāso na ye marutaḥ svāṅco yakṣadrśo na śubhayanta maryaḥ. Te harmyeṣṭhāḥ śiśavo na śubhrā vatsāso na prakṛiḷināḥ payodhāḥ.

The Maruts ever on the move by themselves like never resting forces of nature, mortals pure and graceful like those who go to meet the divines, they are ever bright and happy like innocent children of the palace of majesty and playful like sucklings of the cow.
17. Daśasyanto no maruto mṛṅgantu varivyasyanto rodasī sumeke. Āre gohā nṛhā vadho vo astu sumnebhirasme vasavo namadhvam.

May the Maruts, leaders and pioneers serving and replenishing the beautiful heaven and earth, be kind and gracious and bring us peace and joy. May the butcher and the murderer be far from us. May the weapon of death be far from you and from us. O givers of peace and settlement in joy and prosperity turn to us with happiness and well-being.

18. Ā vo hotā johavīti sattāḥ satrācāṁ rātim maruto grñānāḥ. Ya īvato vrṣaṇo asti gopāḥ so advayāvī havate va ukthaiḥ.

The yajaka settled on the vedi invokes you, O Maruts, praising and praying for your blissful generosity which is the harbinger of truth and life of real value. He is the protector of the dynamic and the generous. He is free from double dealing and he invokes and celebrates you with the right works of truth and sincerity.

19. Ime turaṁ maruto rāmayantime sahaḥ sahasa ā namanti. Ime śaṁsaṁ vanusyato ni pānti guru dveṣo araruṣe dadhanti.

They sustain and strengthen the fast moving progressive forces and bend the might of the mighty. They protect the prayer of the supplicant and advance the song of the celebrant against the violent and they bear and maintain deep opposition to the jealous and the wicked.

20. Ime radhram cinmaruto junanti bhṛmim cid yathā vasavo juṣanta. Apa bādhadhwam vṛṣaṇastamāṃsi dhatta viśvaṁ tanayam tokamasme.

These vibrant Maruts, leading lights of wealth and settlement, inspire the settled prosperous as they encourage the migrant seeker and explorer on the move since they command the sources of wealth and production. O generous powers, shut off all forms of darkness and sloth, bear and bring us dynamic children and grand children ranging over the vast world of possibilities and achievement.

O Maruts, dynamic explorers, creators and distributors, masters of the chariot, never shall we stop you from giving and never must we be left behind in sharing and distribution. O generous powers, whatever your wealth of desirable value worthy of life and settled peace, let us share it with you.

If people with rage and passions join together and strike and kill, then O Maruts, brave heroes of the line of Rudra, saviour with drugs and medicaments and with justice and punishment, you be our saviours and defenders and defend the ruler and master of the land in the strifes and contests of life extending to the people and great herbs and forests.

O Maruts, vibrant leaders and pioneers of humanity, many are your deeds and songs in honour of the forefathers which have been sung and celebrated since times immemorial. It is by virtue of the Maruts that the haughty warrior wins the battles, and it is by the Maruts that the sharer gets his food and the contesting horse wins the race.
24. Asme viro marutaḥ śuṣmyastu janānāṁ yo asuro vidaṁtā. Apo yena sukṣitaye tareṁā’dha svamoko abhi vaḥ syāma.

O Maruts, let our young hero be strong and powerful who, vibrant as energy itself, may defend and sustain the people, and by virtue of whom we may cross the seas of life for the achievement of success on earth and live free in our own home as friends with you.

25. Tanna indro varuṇo mitro agnirāpa oṣadhīr-vanino juṣanta. Śarmantsyāma marutāmupasthe yūyāṁ pāta svastibhiḥ sadā nah.

May that success, freedom and happiness, Indra, power and energy, Varuna, night and peace, Mitra, sun and the day, Agni, light and fire, Apah, waters and dynamic progress, Oshadhis, greenery of nature and good health, vanins, herbs and forests, may, we wish and pray, support, augment and share our happy home which may be in close vicinity with the Maruts, vibrant heroes and energising winds. O divinities of nature and humanity, protect and promote us always with all happiness and well being all time.
Mandala 7/Sukta 57

Maruts Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

O Maruts, cosmic winds of vitality, admirable is your name and action worthy of the life force and humanity which worshipful yajakas invoke and celebrate with strength and enthusiasm in yajnic programmes. When the raging winds blow they shake the heaven and earth, swell the cloud and shower the earth with life giving waters.

You are inspiring guardians of the celebrant and leading lights for the mind and vision of the yajamana devotee. Come today right now for our good and grace our seats in our yajnas rising to the skies, happy, rejoicing, and inspiring us with joy and enthusiasm.
3. Naitāvadanye maruto yatheme bhrājante rukmairāyudhais-tanūbhīḥ. Ā rodasī viśvapiśaḥ piśānāḥ samānam-aṅjyaṅjate śubhe kam.

   No other powers are like them, nor can anyone else do as much as they do, shining in body with weapons of golden radiance, pervading heaven and earth, wearing blessed brilliance and soothing comeliness equal with the beauty and grandeur of nature to enhance their innate grace.

4. Ṛdhak sā vo maruto didyudastu yad va āgaḥ puruṣatā karāma. Mā vastasyāmapi bhūmā yajātrā asme vo astu sumatiś-caniśṭhā.

   O Maruts, best of the human world powers, may that beauty and brilliance of your policy and performance be ever distinguished and true. Even though out of our human frailty we may transgress your law or commit sin, O venerable heroes of the yajnic social order, let us not fall out of favour with you. Let that goodwill of yours still stay constant for us with love and grace.

5. Kṛte cidatra maruto raṇantā'navadyāṣaḥ śucayāḥ pāvakāḥ. Pra ṇo'vata sumatiḥbhir-yajatrāḥ pra vājebhis-tirata puṣyase nah.
O Maruts, irreproachable, pure and sanctifying powers of nature and humanity, heroic in action, in this yajnic order of positive action, abide in joy. O friendly powers of joint yajnic creativity, protect and promote us with love and good will and noble laws and policy in the company of noble people and, for the sake of good health and all round progress, lead us across the world of action to perfection.

6. Uta stutāso maruto vyantu viśvebhir-nāmajhār-naro havīṃśi. Dadāta no amṛtasya praśayai jīgṛta rāyaḥ sūrṇtā mahānī।

O Maruts, leaders and pioneers of humanity, sung and celebrated with all words of praise and appreciation, receive the best of honours and presentations of the social order. Give us wealths of the immortal order for the people and create the values and prosperity of the highest order of truth and Dharma.

आ सूर्तास् मुरुति विश्व ऊँटी अच्छा सूरीन्त्युत्ताता जिगात। य नूत्मन्न शतिन् व्यायन्ति यूर्यं पौश स्त्तिभिः

7. Ā stutāso maruto viśva utī acchā sūrīntarvatātā jīgāta. Ye nastmanā śatīn vardhayanti yūyaṁ pāta svastibhiḥ sadā naḥ.

O Maruts, vibrant powers of nature’s energy and admirable leading lights of the world, come well with all your powers and methods of protection and promotion and, in the universal service of life and humanity, go and exhort those brave pioneers of knowledge and action who sincerely work for our advancement in a hundred ways. O Maruts, O brave scholars, teachers and scientists, producers and administrators, pray you all protect and promote us for all time with the best of happiness and well being in life.

Mandala 7/Sukta 58

Maruts Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Pra sakamukse arcatah ganaya yo daivyasya dharmnas-tuvisman. Uta krodanti rodasi mahitva naksnte nakam niruteravamisat.

Honour the group of vibrant forces and leading heroes which arises mighty from the very light of heaven, creatively works together for progress, and reaches unto the very heights of divinity. Heaven and earth reverberate with the music of their honour and fame and they rise to celestial bliss of the spirit even across a state of adversity and denial of familial continuance.

O vital energies, mighty heroes, your very birth and nature is vested with splendour. Fearsome of mien, overwhelming in passion, you are like dynamites in action. You are instantly proclaimed by your grandeur and majesty, and the world that looks up to the sun and the skies looks at you with awe on way to the higher life.

3. Brhad vayo maghavadbhyo dadhāta jujośanni-nmarutah sūṣṭutim naḥ. Gato nādhvā vi tirāti jantuṁ pra ṇaḥ spārhābhīr-ūtibhis-tireta.

O Maruts, leading lights of life, accept our homage and praise and bring us long life and vast possibilities of achievement for the noble people. The path you follow and show hurts no one living, help us to go forward in life with the ways of protection, and advancement worthy of the noble ones’ love and desire.

4. Yuṣmoto vipro marutaḥ śatasvī yuṣmoto arvā sahaṛiḥ sahasrī. Yuṣmotaḥ samrāḻuta hanti vṛtram pra tad vo astu dhūtayo deṣṇam.

O Maruts, vibrant powers of nature and humanity for action, the sage and scholar under your patronage rises to a hundred achievements. The dynamic leader and pioneer protected by you wins a thousand races, victories with patience and fortitude. The noble ruler under your aegis destroys enemies and dispels forces of darkness and ignorance. O mighty movers and shakers, may that gift of yours, of that protection and advancement be ours.

5. Tān ā rudrasya mīlhūso vivāse kuvinnaiṃsante marutah punarnah. Yat saśvartā jihīliere yadāvi-rava tadena īmahe turānām.

I honour and adore those Maruts, offsprings of Rudra, lord of the showers of success, power and justice, who come and inspire us again and again in many ways. And if for reasons of discourtesy, overt or covert, they feel angry we shall expiate for that displeasure of the dynamic powers of instant punishment for correction.

This song of adoration of the mighty glorious powers is expressed in holy words. May the Maruts accept it with pleasure. O generous benefactors and protectors, cast off far from us all hate, anger and jealousy. O scholars and sages, dynamic Maruts, pray protect and promote us with all good and well being of life without relent for all time.

O divine Maruts, vibrant, brilliant and generous leading lights, givers of enlightenment, whosoever you protect, defend and save and whosoever you lead at every step in every way by word and deed, for him, you all and, O Agni, sage and scholar giver of light, Varuna, man of judgement and discrimination, Mitra, enlightened friend, and Aryaman, man of justice and rectitude on the paths of life, you give a happy home, firm settlement and peace of mind.

O vibrant powers of light and justice, by virtue of your patronage and protections, the man of yajnic action, who works for the growth and progress of society and performs holy acts of creativity in good time, overcomes all adversaries. The generous man who gives abundantly in terms of lands, food and energy in word and kind to people in your honour for the good of all expands his house and dominion and rules out all waste, impairment and decay.

O Maruts, vibrant givers of light and energy, leading lights of humanity, the celebrated sage best settled and giver of settlement mentally and spiritually does not ignore or neglect even the last of you but honours you all. O lovers and benefactors of the nation, come today now itself, join and enjoy the delicious taste of our achievement in your honour in the structure and order of a great society.

Nahi va ṛṣita: pṛtanaṣu marditā yasya arādhyaṁ naraḥ.

Never does your protection and patronage in the battles of life forsake the man whom you, O leading lights of humanity, favour, mature and protect. Let the latest and most developed vision and noble policy of yours be on the move constantly while, O leaders, thirsting for defence, protection and progress, you hasten to wherever the nation calls upon you.

O Maruts, mighty and munificent accomplisher of the means and materials of achievement in life, go forward to enjoy the taste of success and prosperity of society. I offer these gifts of homage and song of success to you. Pray neglect us not, go not elsewhere.

6. Ā ca no barhiḥ sadatāvītā ca naḥ spārhāṇi dātave

O Maruts, leading lights of the nation, come and sit on the holy seats of our house to protect us and, without hurting and destroying anything, to give us the wealth and honours we love and desire. Come and enjoy the honey sweets of the most soothing soma of life offered with sincerest word and deed.

7. Sasvaściddhi tanvaḥ śumbhamānā ā hamsāso

Gracious in body and bearing yet unrevealed in modesty, the Maruts, leading lights of the nation like hansa birds of blue beauty of the plume, rejoicing in unison like leaders of the congregation, they descend with dignity and sit around me, the very strength and power of the world.

8. Yo no maruto abhi durhṛṇāyustiraścittāni vasavo jighāṁsati. Druhaḥ pāśān prati sa mucīṣṭa tapiṣṭhena hanmanā hantanā tam.

O Maruts, leading lights and givers of wealth, honour and peaceful settlement, whoever is evil at heart toward us and seeks to damage our dignity and identity, let him be forced to withdraw his snares of hate and enmity back to himself and strike him with an unfailing weapon of punishment which scorches his enmity to smoke and naught.

O Maruts, leaders of the world and vibrant energisers, chastened in the fire of discipline and subduers of the violent by your methods of law, protection and defence, accept our homage and cooperation offered in obedience to law and discipline of peace.

O Maruts, guardians of the home and family as a sacred institution of social yajna, come, stay not away, forsake us not. Let your divine protection remain constant, O generous givers of prosperity, joy and domestic bliss.

We invoke and do homage to lord Tryambaka, creator and protector of the three worlds, whose immanent fragrance of energy and bliss enhances the life and joy of existence all three times. O Rudra, destroyer of evil and suffering, giver of bliss, release me from the bonds of mortality like the ripe fruit falling off from the stalk and redeem me into the infinite presence of Immortality.

Mandala 7/Sukta 60
Surya, Mitra-Varuna Devatah, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

O sun, while you arise today, purify us and proclaim to Mitra and Varuna, presiding powers of day and night and upholders of earth, sky and heaven, that we are free from sin. O Aditi, immortal mother earth and Infinity, O Aryaman, lord of justice and the paths of rectitude, dedicated as we are to the divinities, celebrating and glorifying them, hold us dear as dedicated to you.

Mitra and Varuna, this is the sun that pervades both gross and subtle worlds, watcher and light giver of humanity, which rises across the sky over the earth and witnesses both the simple and the crooked ways of action among the mortals. It is the protector, life giver and promoter of the moving and the unmoving world.

sūryāṁ ghṛtācīh. Dhāmāni mitrāvaruṇā yuvākuḥ sam yo yūtheva janimāni caṣṭe.

The sun, like a charioteer harnessing his horses, radiates seven rays of light which from the solar region carry the energy of light and cosmic waters and bring about the nights as they withdraw. The sun, also, joining and pervading various regions, the prana and udana energies of life and the origins of causal entities, proclaims them all as one multitudinous living system of which it is the centre.

4. Ud vāṁ prkṣāso madhumanto asthurā sūryo radanti mitro aryamā varuṇaḥ sajośāḥ.

For you, O men and women, the friendly cloud and the vast skies replete with honey sweets abide on high and the sun raises vitalising oceans of vapour, the sun for which the Adityas, months of the year, Varuna and Aryama, Adityas all together, prepare the paths across the zodiacs, Mitra.

इम चतारा अरुकृतस्य भूर्मित्रा अर्यमा वर्णा हिसन्तिः।
इम ऋकृतस्य वारुणस्य श्रमास्सः पुत्रा अदित्यरद्यधः॥ ५ ॥
5. Ime cetāro anṛtasya bhūrermitro aryamā varuṇo hi santi. Ima ṛtasya vāvṛdhurduroṇe śagmāsah putrā aditer-adabdhāḥ.

These Adityas, Mitra, Varuna and Aryama, loving friend, discriminative judge, and the path maker of rectitude, give us the sense and awareness of right and wrong, of falsehood as distinct from truth and correctness, in all varieties of situations. And they persist, and they augment the order of truth and right in the house of divine law, children of mother Infinity as they are, happy at peace, loving and kind, yet dauntless and unchallengeable.

6. Ime mitro varuṇo dūḥabhāso ’cetasam ciccitayanti dakṣaiḥ. Api kṛtuṁ sucetasam vatantastiraści-darīnḥaḥ supathā nayanti.

These powers of love and friendship, judgement and rectitude and universal truth and law are rare and undaunted, and with their intelligence and expertise of method, they awaken even the stupid and ignorant to sensitivity and wisdom. Further, inspiring the man of noble mind and holy action, they protect him from crookedness and sin and lead him on by the path of truth, goodness and beauty to higher attainment.
7. Ime divo animiśā prthivyāścikitvāṁso acetasam nayanti. Pravrāje cinnadyo gādhastamī pārāṁ no asya viśpitasya parṣan.

The ever vigilant powers of light and love, judgement and discrimination of right knowledge and right action, know of heaven and earth and constantly guide the ignorant to wake up and move on the right path. Even in the depth of rivers in flood, there is ground to stand on, a ford to cross. May Mitra, Varuna and Aryama take us across the deep seas of existence by our karma.

8. Yad gopāvavadaditiḥ śarma bhadraṁ mitro yacchanti varuṇaḥ sudāse. Tasminnā tokaṁ tana-yaṁ dadhānā mā karma devaheḷānāṁ turāsaḥ.

When, like the lord ruler of the earth and protector of her children, Aditi, Mitra and Varuna, mother nature and her law, and divine powers of love, friendship and judgement provide a blessed home of peace, plenty and joy for the generous man of noble action and charity, then in that state of good fortune we, all dynamic and enthusiastic fast achievers, in the joyous company of our children and grand children must not do anything to affront our sages, seniors and scholars or to violate the sanctity of the divinities of nature and suffer their anger.

One who dishonours and desecrates the vedi of yajna with unholy chant and stingy insulting libation of holy offerings suffers. What sin and suffering does he not face when he is shaken by Varuna, power of justice and discrimination? May Aryama, divine guide and path maker, keep him away along with the jealous and the hostile, and may Mitra and Varuna, liberal givers, create and award the generous yajaka with a happy home and vast freedom of spirit in an age and environment of bliss.

The nature, character and policy of these divine powers of love and friendship, justice and discrimination, and thought and action in rectitude is mysteriously integrated, brilliant and blazing. They move and act with patience, fortitude and irresistible force. O generous powers, shakers of the jealous and the enemies with fear, save us and let us prosper in peace and joy with the grandeur of your power and force.

या बह्नेण सुमृतिमायजाति वाज्ञस्य साताःपरमस्यथरो य:। सी तैन्त मन्यु मघवर्णा अयु दुर्यायं चकिर मुधास्तु॥ ११ ॥

Whoever applies his holy and faithful mind for the vision of Divinity and for the achievement of food and energy and supreme wealth, honour and excellence of life, the generous divine powers energise his righteous passion and bless his action, and they create a vast house of joy and prosperity for him and award him golden wealth and irresistible vitality.

12. Iyam deva purohitiryuvabhāyāṁ yajñeṣu mitrāva-ruṇāvakāri. Viśvāni durgā pipṛtaṁ tiro no yūyāṁ pāta svastibhiḥ sadā naḥ.

O divine Mitra and Varuna, powers of love and judgement of nature and humanity, this homage of reverence is created and offered in your honour in the congregations of academic and socio-economic yajna. Pray protect us, promote us, help us cross the hurdles of life with action and bless us with complete fulfilment. O generous powers, save us, defend us and let us advance with all round peace and security for all time.

Mandala 7/Sukta 61

Mitra- Varuna Devate, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

O Varuna, up rises the sun, bright and beautiful eye of you both, Mitra and Varuna, divine pranic energies of the universe, spreading the light far and wide over spaces. It illuminates and reveals all regions of the world, and awakens and inspires all mortals’ love for life and living.

O Mitra and Varuna, divinities of nature and humanity, your hymns of knowledge and power, that vibrant sage and scholar, a veteran reader and long time listener dedicated to truth and the laws of nature, studies, proclaims and extends by application. O powers of divine action, inspire, strengthen and protect his studies and fulfil his mission with intelligence and revelations as you fulfil the seasons of the year with natural evolution of their spirits.

O Mitra and Varuna, light and life of the universe, generous love and intelligence of nature and humanity, you transcend the wide earth and the vast heaven by your dynamic power and sublimity. You vest life energy and distinct form in herbs and trees and specific identity in people and their communities while you preserve and protect the truth of law and the pursuers of truth with relentless vigil.

Study and meditate on the origin and abode of Mitra and Varuna, pranic energies of nature and human virtue of love and friendship, light and enlightenment, and justice and discrimination. By virtue of their great universal power and force they hold and sustain the earth and heaven together and yet apart. The time, months and years of those who do not perform yajna, corporate acts of social and environmental value, pass by without the joy of children. On the other hand, those who serve Divinity, nature and humanity with their heart and soul cross the paths of life and reach the ultimate freedom of Moksha.
O wise and generous powers of the world, Mitra and Varuna, these words of adoration are for you and your divine gifts to humanity, in which there is nothing that is not marvellous and nothing that is not divinely consecrated. Only the jealous and hostile among humanity indulge in scandal and falsehood, and even your smallest favours are too deep for the ignorant to perceive and appreciate.

O Mitra and Varuna, I invoke and join your great yajna of universal grandeur with homage especially when I am faced with challenges and limitations. Your latest thoughts, visions and revelations are created, structured and gifted to us for the advancement of knowledge and wisdom in relation to the highest reality of existence.

7. Iyāṁ deva purohitir-yuvabhyāṁ yajñeṣu mitrā-varuṇāvakāri. Viśvāni durgā piṭṛtaṁ tiro no yūyaṁ pāta svastibhiḥ sadā naḥ.

O divines, Mitra and Varuna, this song of adoration is offered to you in your holy congregations of yajnic creation. Pray reduce our difficulties and help us cross them to success and fulfilment. O saints and sages, scholars and teachers, come you all and all time protect and promote us with all happiness and well being.

Mandala 7/Sukta 62

*Surya, Mitra - Varuna Devatah, Vasishtha
Maitravaruni Rshi*

1. Ut sūryo bṛhadarcīṁsyāśret puru viśvā janima mānuśāṇām. Samo divā dadṛśe rocamānaḥ kratvā kṛtaḥ sukṛtaḥ kartṛbhīr bhūt.

The cosmic Sun, self refulgent life of the universe, rises and radiates his vast and mighty abundant rays of light, constantly shining day and night and revealing the birth and evolution of all people of the world. Sung and celebrated, adored and worshipped by holy performers of yajna, he himself is the cosmic yajna by virtue of his manifestive creation, the supreme yajamana as well as the presiding Deity.

2. Sa sūrya prati puro na ud gā ebhiḥ stomebhir- etaśebhirevaiḥ. Pra no mitrāya varuṇāya voco’- nāgaso aryamṇe agnaye ca.

O Sun, self refulgent lord giver of light and life, come in response to these songs of adoration and specified waves of thought energy stimulated by our songs. Let the light arise in our heart and mind, and speak to Mitra, Varuna, Aryama and Agni, powers of love and friendship, judgement, discrimination and integration, guidance and leadership with rectitude, and energy and enlightenment in our human community. Speak to us so that we may maintain a state of purity and freedom from sin and crime.

May they, Varuna, Mitra and Agni, happy and beneficent, healers and destroyers of suffering, keepers of divine laws of truth and nature in word and deed, when properly celebrated and appreciated in nature and character, give us a thousand forms of peace, power and joy, bless us with unique light of knowledge, and grant us complete fulfilment of our desire and ambition.

O sun in high heaven and noble earth, both dynamic, inviolable and sublime life giving powers, protect us with your creative and rejuvenating powers.
Fortunately born and educated as humans, we know your energy and efficacy. Give us the energy and resistance so that we may never suffer the disorder of prana and aparna vitalities of wind and respiration, dearest to humans in the health system.

5. Pra bāhavā sīsrītāṁ jīvase na ā no gavyūtim-uksatamāṁ ghṛtena. Ā no jāne śravayatamāṁ yuvānā śrūtamāṁ me mītrāvanunāḥ havemā.

O Mitra and Varuna, loving and discriminative pranic vitalities of our health system, extend your power and energy like helping hands for our life and health and sprinkle the vital movement of our senses and mind with liquid rejuvenation and replenishment of energy. O youthful powers of rejuvenation, vest our people with the glow of health and light of intelligence in response to my invocation and input of pranayamic exercise for the pranic energy system.

Thus O Mitra, Varuna and Aryama, powers of cosmic as well as earthly love and friendship, reason and discrimination, justice and advancement in order, guiding everything from the smallest particle to the cosmos and from the individual human to the world community, bless us with the best of life’s gifts for the enlightenment of our soul and the continuation of our race. Let all our paths of life and living be simple and straight, noble and easy to follow. O powers of health and enlightenment, protect and promote us on our way onward with all modes and means of happiness and well being all round for all time.

Mandala 7/Sukta 63
Surya, Mitra-Varuna Devatah, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

The glorious Sun, self-refulgent sovereign lord of the universe, rises high and higher, watching the world, giving light and intelligence to humanity in general. The lord that gives light to the day and depth to the ocean dispels all darkness and confusion as the storm dispenses leaves of dry grass. (The mantra refers to the rise of the light of Divinity in the soul of the individual human being during meditation. The Light blesses any one who practices meditation under the instructions of a teacher and continues the practice with unquestionable faith.)

High rises the progenitor and inspirer of humanity, supreme light of omniscience, inexhaustible ocean of omnificence, keeping the chariot of the sun and the wheel of time constantly moving, omnipotent motive force at the centre of the moving universe.

Self-refulgent and all illuminative since the origin of eternal dawns, the light of Divinity rises, inspiring and enlightening, when sung and celebrated by worshipful devotees. May this lord of cosmic light bless me with spiritual fulfilment, the lord who never frustrates his loved celebrant and never remisses on his own majesty nor compromises with his own generosity.

The self-refulgent lord of heavenly light all-watching, all-saviour, present far and wide everywhere, emerges and shines in the heart of people when they, inspired and reborn into self-consciousness by the light of divinity, follow the meaningful paths of life and perform their karmic acts with piety.

Where the immortals have carved and shown the path for this mortal humanity to reach this divine source of eternal light, to that lord giver of immortal bliss the same path leads as by the speed of light. O Mitra and Varuna, light of day and peace of night, sun and cosmic ocean, sage and scholar, giver of knowledge and leader to judgement and rectitude, when the rising light emerges and the mind is awake, we honour and serve you with homage and reverence and with presentations of yajnic fragrance.

Thus the loving light of life, the leading light of judgement and discrimination, and the path maker to the divine destination of eternal truth and bliss may, we pray, bless us with the best gifts of life for our soul and the continuance of our race. May all our paths of life and progress be simple, straight and easy to follow. O saints and sages, scholars and teachers, protect and promote us by the paths of rectitude with all modes and means of happiness and well being for all time without relent.

Mandala 7/Sukta 64

Mitra-Varuna Devate, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Divi kṣayantā rajasaḥ pṛthivyāṁ pra vāṁ gṛ-\thāsyā nirṇijo dadārān. Havyaṁ no mitra aryamā sujāto rājā sukṣatro varuṇo juṣanta.

O Mitra and Varuna, sun and ocean, the vapours of your potential waters of soma abiding in the solar region and the mists and vapours abiding in the earthly atmosphere and the sky form into clouds and give us showers of purifying and vitalising waters. May Mitra, the sun, Aryama, the carrier wind, Varuna, cosmic vitality, and the ruler of the social order nobly born and justly appointed join and share our offers of holy materials into the rain yajna for well being of the social order and bring us life giving waters and peace and progress.

2. Ā rājānā maha ṛtasya gopā sindupaṭi kṣatriyā yāt-\tamāvā. Iḷāṁ no mitrāvaruṇoṭa vrṣṭimava diva invatam jīradānu.
O rulers and keepers of the law of truth of the great social order, O controllers and protectors of the rivers and the seas, O defenders and ordainers of the people and the land, come forward and join us, offer homage and oblations with us so that Mitra and Varuna, sun and the cosmic ocean, both liberal givers in instant response, may bring rain, protection and nourishment to the earth from the high regions of light.

May the teacher, Mitra, giver of light, the discriminative judge, Varuna, and the brilliant ruler, Aryama, all lead us by the paths of rectitude with all good means of life and living, just as the lord supreme, self-refulgent and generous, would speak and illuminate the path of progress for the man of generosity so that, under the protection of the lord supreme and the brilliant leaders, we may enjoy and celebrate the gifts of life all together with plenty and prosperity.

O Mitra and Varuna, lord of light and love, lord of judgement, discretion and discrimination, whoever may, with meditative mind and soul, realise your profound revelation and define the meaning and purpose for the self, raising his intelligence and imagination high to heaven and stabilising it there, pray bless him with showers of peace and bliss. O rulers and ordainers of life on earth, let them, all such, have complete fulfilment in a happy home in a land of freedom and joy.
of judgement, discretion and discrimination, whoever may, with meditative mind and soul, realise your profound revelation and define the meaning and purpose for the self, raising his intelligence and imagination high to heaven and stabilising it there, pray bless him with showers of peace and bliss. O rulers and ordainers of life on earth, let them, all such, have complete fulfilment in a happy home in a land of freedom and joy.

This song of homage and adoration I offer to you, O Varuna, lord of profound judgement and generosity, and to you Mitra, lord of infinite love and light, the song pure and exhilarating as soma, and it is for Vayu too, the dynamic force of cosmic order. Pray inspire our mind and will and enlighten our rulers and intelligentsia. O generous and refulgent lords, protect and promote us with all modes and means of happiness and all round well being all time.

Mandala 7/Sukta 65

Mitra-Varuna Devate, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

Early at the dawn of sun rise, with songs of adoration, I invoke and worship Mitra, lord of infinite love and universal friendship, Varuna, lord of omniscient wisdom, judgement and justice, lords of pure omnipotence whose life giving energy and power is boundless and imperishable, first, foremost and highest, and when invoked and realised, it is all victorious in the battles of life.

2. \( Tā \) hi devānām-asurā tāvāryā tā naḥ kṣitīḥ karatam-ūrjayanīḥ. Aṣyāma mitrāvaruṇā vayam vāṃ dyāvā ca yatra pīpayann-ahā ca.

Mitra and Varuna, manifestations of the Supreme Lord’s generous love and justice, are the best and highest of nature’s bounties. They strengthen and energise our lands and people and make them fertile and creative. O Mitra and Varuna, may we receive your favours whereby the earth and heaven, both exuberant, may promote us day and night.

3. \( Tā \) bhūripāśāvanṛtasya setū duratyetū ripave martyāya. Ṛtasya mitrāvaruṇā pathā vāmapo na nāvā duritā tarema.

Many are their bonds and chains, bridges to cross over untruth and sin, which are difficult to approach and cross for the mortal man of enmity and jealousy. O Mitra and Varuna, we pray, let us cross over sin and evil by your divine path of truth and law just as we cross the seas by the boat.

4. Ā no mitrāvaruṇā havyajuṣṭiṁ ghṛtair-gavyū-tim-ukṣatam-ilābhiḥ. Prati vāmatra varamā janāya pṛṇātumudno divyasya cāroḥ.

O Mitra and Varuna, Supreme Lord’s manifestations of cosmic love and justice in the integrative and analytical forces of nature’s bounties working in the centripetal and centrifugal operations of world, enforce and energise our yajnic inputs of creative production and let our programmes of land, language and knowledge development soar high by the vitalities of liquid energies and inspirations of new visions of divinity and faith in action, ethics and policies, and may you, in response to our yajnic performance, grant us the best of your gifts of blissful light and dynamic energy for our people.

5. Eṣa stomo varuṇa mitra tubhyaṁ somaḥ śukro nā vāyave’yāmi. Aviṣṭaṁ dhiyo jīrgtam purandhīr-yūyaṁ pāta svastibhiḥ sadā naḥ.

This yajnic homage and song of celebration, O Mitra and Varuna, is for you, pure and exhilarating as soma, and I offer it for the divine energy of Vayu too, the dynamic force of cosmic order. Pray protect and promote our mind and will, and enlighten our rulers and intelligentsia. O generous and brilliant powers of nature and humanity, protect and promote us with all modes of happiness and all round well being all time.

Mandala 7/Sukta 66

Devatah: Mitra - Varuna (1-3, 17-19), Adityah (4-13), Surya (14-16), Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Pra mitrayor-varuṇayōḥ stomo na etu śūṣyaḥ.
   Namasvān tuvijātayōḥ.

   May this peaceful yet powerful song and yajna of ours in praise of Mitra and Varuna, unborn and distinctive yet integrated manifestations of the Lord Divine’s potent love and justice vested in nature, go forward full of energy and reverential gratitude and stimulate the consequential process in nature for the prosperity of humanity and the environment.

2. Yā dhārayanta devāḥ sudakṣā dakṣapitarā.
   Asuryāya pramahasā.

   Generous saints and sages, brilliant scholars and teachers, hold on to Mitra and Varuna, love and justice of the Supreme Lord, omniscient, omnipotent and father protector of the wise experts and scientists, for the attainment of knowledge, power and courage.
3. \textit{Tā naḥ stipā tanūpā varuṇa jaritṛṇām. Mitra sādhayataṁ dhiyāḥ.}

O Mitra and Varuna, love and justice of the omnipotent lord of our choice, protectors, promoters and sanctifiers of the health and home of grateful celebrants and all mortal humanity, pray inspire, promote and accomplish our mind, intellect and will to the state of perfection.

4. \textit{Yadadya sūra udite’nāgā mitro aryamā. Suvāti savitā bhagaḥ.}

Whatever wealth of energy and blessed light of wisdom today at the dawn of sunrise the lord immaculate and sinless Mitra, universal love and friendship, Aryama, guide and judge on the path of rectitude, Savita, inspirer and generator, and Bhaga, omnipotent and glorious, generate and radiate, that we pray may come and bless us.

5. \textit{Suprāvīrastu sa kṣayaḥ pra nu yāmantsudānavaḥ. Ye no ainho’tipiprati.}

O self-refulgent Adityas, immortal powers of light, generous givers of wisdom and vision, who protect us from sin and darkness, may that home, homeland and dominion of ours be protected, protective and full of peace throughout our paths of onward progress.

उत्त स्वराजा आदिनिगर्भाय वर्तस्य य।

Maho rājāna īśate.

And the self-refulgent Adityas, self-governing and great imperishable ruling powers of nature, and mother Infinity, who observe and maintain the great law of existence and disciplines of life, may guide us and protect us over the paths of progress.

7. Prati vāṁ sūra udite mitram gṛṇiṣe varuṇam.
Aryamaṇam riśādasam.

O self-refulgent and self-governing protectors and light givers, in grateful response to your light and protection, at the dawn of sunrise I praise and celebrate Mitra, Varuna and Aryama, lord Infinite’s love, justice and divine light of guidance, all destroyers of sin and darkness.

राया हिरण्यया मृतिरियम्बृक्राय शर्वस।
इयं विप्र मुद्धसातय ॥ ८ ॥

Iyam viprā medhasātaye.

O saints and sages of dynamic will and wisdom, let this golden wealth of divinity, this intelligence and the song of praise be for the growth of holy strength free from sin, and for the accomplishment of yajnic acts for human progress and prosperity.

हर्ष स्वरच धीमहि॥ ९॥

9. Te syāma deva varuṇa te mitra sūribhiḥ saha.

Iṣaṁ svāṣca dhīmahi.

O lord self-refulgent Varuna, lord of justice, Mitra, just friend of humanity, give us the will and wisdom that with all our wise and brave we be dear and dedicated to you and we meditate to achieve the strength and bliss of Divinity.

बहवः सूरच गसचग्रिजः ह्रहतावृद्धः। त्रीणि य यमुविदः

10. Bahavaḥ sūracakṣaso’gnijihvā ṛtāvṛdhaḥ. Trīṇi

ye yemur-vidathāni dhītibhir-viśvāni paribhūti-

Many are the leaders and pioneers, with vision bright and pure as light of the sun and speech as flames of fire, who extend the bounds of truth, law and selfless service of life through yajnic creativity and, with their wisdom, will and commanding action, lead and conduct the three basic institutions of research and education, governance and economy, and human culture and values of life through beauty, goodness and truth with gratitude to Divinity for the world.

वि य दुधु: शरदूँ मासमादहृयृजमुक्तुं चादृचांम।

अन्तायं वरुणा मित्रा अयुमा त्रृं राजीन आशत॥ ११॥

They, Varuna, Mitra and Aryama, brilliant leaders and rulers with dedication to Dharma and justice, love and friendship, and the right sense of action and direction in the light of universal knowledge and eternal values, conduct the yajnic governance and administration of the social order through years and months, days and nights, relentlessly holding on to the Vedic vision of eternity. They achieve what has not yet been achieved and thus extend the possibilities of the good and happy life in the united world order.

Today at the rise of dawn, with Vedic hymns and meditation, we think and deliberate upon that social order which is desired and which is to be achieved. For that we call upon Varuna, Mitra and Aryama, leaders of justice and order, love and light and the universal laws of rectitude and direction. That we pray for, O lords, since you command the chariot of the laws of truth, action and progress on the right path.

O brilliant scholars, rulers and all those who are redoubtable leaders, lovers and seekers of truth by knowledge and action, born in truth and extending the bounds of the values of truth in the social order, terrible in action with no tolerance for untruth and social evil, let us abide in law in your good will and in the felicity of a happy home in peace and security.

And now (when we are at peace), the glorious vision of Divinity arises on the horizon of consciousness when the divine frequency of the illuminative mind with the divine communicates it to the consciousness instantly in response to meditative concentration for the man of universal vision.

By virtue of the highest human intelligence in respect of person and practice, seven dynamic faculties, i.e., five senses, mind and intellect, carry the light of Divinity to the soul at the right time for its good during its meditative sojourn in the vehicle of this beautiful body. This is the light of the self-refulgent Sun, creator, sustainer and ordainer of the moving and non-moving world from the particle to the entire universe through eternity.

   Paśyema saradaḥ śataṁ jīvema saradaḥ śatam.

That Light Divine, pure and potent, universal eye that watches all and blesses noble humanity, rises and radiates for all time. May the Lord bless us that we may live a hundred years watching it full for all the hundred years.

17. Kāvyebhir-adābyāḥ yātāṁ varuṇa dyumat.
    Mitraśca somapītaye.

May Varuna, blazing lord of fearless justice, and Mitra, fearless, loving and enlightened friend, come with saints and sages to protect and promote our soma yajna and join the celebration.

18. Devo dhāmabhīr-varuṇa mitraścā yātāṁ-adruḥā.
    Pibatāṁ somamāṭuji.
O Varuna and Mitra, powers of love and judgement free from hate, malice and jealousy, come and drink of the soothing and exhilarating soma at the yajna.

Come Mitra and Varuna, leaders and pioneers of light and judgement, delighting in our yajna and oblations of soma, protect our yajna, drink of soma and advance the law of truth and rectitude.

Mandala 7/Sukta 67

Ashvins Devate, Vasishtha Maitrarununi Rshi

O rulers and protectors of the people, wise and bold, harbingers of light to the inauguration of the morning yajna, to celebrate your chariot of the ruling order and do honour to your yajnic rule with a mind dedicated in homage to the order, like a son doing honour and reverence to the father, I compose and offer a song of celebration which would reach you as a messenger and stimulate your love and favour.
2. Aśocyagnih samidhāno asme upo adṛśran tamasaścidantāḥ. Aceti keturuṣasah purastā-cchriye divo duhiturjāyamānaḥ.

The fire of morning yajna is kindled and shines for us, and the end of darkness is seen close at hand. The sun is rising in the east like an honour flag of the glory of the dawn, daughter of heaven.

3. Abhi vāṁ nūnam-aśvinā suhotā stomaiḥ siṣakti nāsatyā vivakvān. Pūrvibhir-yātaṁ pathyābhi-rarvāk svarvidā vasumatā rathena.

Ashvins, twin harbingers of light dedicated to truth of the ruling order, for sure the host and performer of the inaugural session of the yajna of social order, speaking words of truth and piety celebrates you and your light in songs of adoration. O prophets of the light of heaven commanding the wealth, honour and excellence of the world, ascend your chariot and come by the eternal paths of universal truth and rectitude.

4. Avorvāṁ nūnamāśvinā yuvākurhuve yad vāṁ sute mādhvī vasūyuh. Ā vāṁ vahantu sthāvīrāso aśvāḥ pibātho asme suṣutā madhūni.
O sweet and kind twin divine powers of nature and humanity, Ashvins, harbingers of a new dawn for the social order of the world, dedicated to your means and modes of preservation, defence and progress, and desirous of advancement in the wealth, honour and excellence of the nation, I invite you to take over the conduct of this great yajna of the ruling order. May seasoned and strong sages, scholars and experts of the nation lead you hither. Come, share and promote for us all the honey sweets of our yajnic planning and achievement.

O brilliant and generous Ashvins, commanders of the twin powers of nature and humanity, inspire my simple, ancient and progressive intelligence and will, strengthen it and make it inviolable in the pursuit of higher wealth, honour and excellence. In all our battles of life, protect our mind and will and, with all the powers and potential at your command, strengthen us to move forward and rise higher and higher.

O sweet and kind twin divine powers of nature and humanity, Ashvins, harbingers of a new dawn for the social order of the world, dedicated to your means and modes of preservation, defence and progress, and desirous of advancement in the wealth, honour and excellence of the nation, I invite you to take over the conduct of this great yajna of the ruling order. May seasoned and strong sages, scholars and experts of the nation lead you hither. Come, share and promote for us all the honey sweets of our yajnic planning and achievement.

O brilliant and generous Ashvins, commanders of the twin powers of nature and humanity, inspire my simple, ancient and progressive intelligence and will, strengthen it and make it inviolable in the pursuit of higher wealth, honour and excellence. In all our battles of life, protect our mind and will and, with all the powers and potential at your command, strengthen us to move forward and rise higher and higher.
Ashvins, divine powers of creation, preservation, recuperation and procreation, protect us in all our acts of thought, will and action for achievement. May our creative and procreative vitality remain intact and inviolable for our posterity. By virtue of your inspiration and invigoration for the sake of children and grand children, let us be blest with jewels of posterity and let us rise to the company of the divines.

Ashvins who command the honey sweets of knowledge and culture, this gift of homage as a treasure trove already committed to you is offered for the sake of company and friendship with you. Come forward, join us here with a joyful mind free from hate and anger, be among the human community of the earth and share with us the sweets of good fellowship in faith and love.

Ashvins, responsive givers of fulfilment, pranic energies of nature and mind, dedicated to a common purpose with humanity, the radiant inspiration of your spiritual power as a carrier of vision goes past the fluctuations of the five senses, mind and intellect. The seven, which otherwise involve the soul with fluctuations of the mind, when converted, inverted and converged on to the spirit of your vision at the centres of consciousness, no longer distract the soul, instead they become the carriers of consciousness to the divine goal of spiritual bliss.

Never forsake the generous: Be inexhaustible sources of incentive and encouragement for those who support charity with means and materials, those who help out friends and relatives in distress, and those who give liberal gifts of lands, cows and knowledge and things the needy love and desire.

O youthful Ashvins, complementarities of nature and humanity, listen to my prayer and invocation: come home to the house of liberal donor in yajna, bear and bring the jewels of life for the givers, honour and appreciate the wise and bold, and thus protect and promote us all time with all happiness and well being.

4. Ayaṁ ha yad vāṁ devayā u adirūrdhavo vivakti somasud yuvabhyām. Ā valgū vipro vavṛṭīta havyaiḥ.

When this divine chariot of yours, dedicated to the moon for peace and joy roars over mountains and clouds, then the eminent scholar and the yajnic scientist turns it for you with new inputs.

5. Citraṁ ha yad vāṁ bhojanaṁ nvasti nyatraye mahiṣvantamaṁ yuyotam. Yo vāmomānaṁ dadhate priyāḥ san.

Whatever your food that may be special or surplus, keep that in reserve exclusively for people for the time of distress. They would love you for that because they honour the protector dear to them.

उत्तर त्यद्वां जुरूत अश्विना भूच्चवानाय पतीतं हविद।

And let that insight, incentive and experiment of your help for people in need be for the weak and elderly, for those on the move such as the deprived, the fallen, uprooted and refugees, and let it be for those who give in charity for the sake of charity. That is the philanthropic role you take on for the protection of people.

And be friends with the man who was once affluent but now is in distress since jealous friends and associates deserted him and cast him insolvent into the sea of misfortune. Save him, take him across the sea, he is loyal and looks up to you for help.

Ashvins, harbingers of light and energy of a new day, against the wolfish thief and the aggressor, for the powers of law and punishment against exploitation, and for the lazy and the backward, bring force and counsel whenever the situation calls on you to act. You who command the competence for correction and rejuvenation with your powers can revitalise old cows and waste lands and make them overflow with milk and honey like abundant streams of water.
Thus does the divine poet, wakeful in advance of the rise of dawn, with holy mind and faithful intelligence, celebrate in song the divine Ashvins, twin harbingers of new life to nature and humanity. May the inviolable Mother Nature and Infinity advance him in life with vision, will and energy. O saints and scholars, ruler and administrators, O Ashvins, protect and promote us with peace, happiness and all time well being in life.

Mandala 7/Sukta 69

Ashvinau Devate, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

O harbingers of light and fresh life for the dawn of a new day, let your golden chariot traversing heaven, earth and the skies by powerful forces on blazing wheels across the cosmic waters come to us loaded with nourishments and inspiring energies and be the guide and protector of humanity for higher victories. (The mantra is an address to the brilliant powers of social governance and management for the protection and progress of the people. These powers should act as harbingers of fresh life and energy with the light of a new sun at the rise of a new dawn every day.)

2.  Sa paprathāno abhi pañca bhūmā tribandhuro manasā yātu yuktaḥ. Viśo yena gacchatho devayantīḥ kutrā cid yāmamaśvinā dadhānā.

Let this chariot structured on five-fold body bound by three bonds come to us evolving day by day.
It is structured on a five-fold chassis fixed by three bonds in an ascending order and it moves forward as controlled by the mind. By this, O Ashvins, you come to the people and radiate light and energy to those who are in search of divinity. On way, you choose your own stages of rest and travel for further progress.

(This mantra is a metaphor of the human body in which the ruler is soul, the controller is mind, and motive forces for perception and volition are senses.
The body is made up of five elements: earth, water, fire, air and space, and characterised by three conditioning qualities of nature: sattva, rajas and tamas which are intellectual, sensual and material qualities of personality.
It is through this body-chariot that the Ashvins, circuitous complementarities of divine nature radiate and inspire light and energy to the human being and to humanity too as one personality.)

3.  Svavarā yāraṇa yātmavaardhaṁ niḥdhiṁ mārṣyaṁ pitaśāḥ. Vi caṁ raṇa vṛdhvā́ṁ dārmaṇasāṁtaṁtvāṁ bādhitaṁ vātana-ḥyāmaḥ.

O mighty honourable heroes commanding speedy motive forces, destroyers of jealousy, enmity and suffering, come hither to us and share the honey sweets of the human world. Let your chariot heading to the destination with your associates reach the bounds of heavenly space by its whirling wheels.

The youthful dawn, daughter of the mighty sun, by choice takes on to your grace and splendour as her mate over and across the soothing night, since while you protect and promote the devout with your energies, your power with its potential circumambulates the light of the sun.

5. Yo ha sya vāṁ rathirā vasta usrā rathō yujānah pariyāti vartiḥ. Tena naḥ śaṁ yoruṣaso vyuṣṭau nyaśvinā vahatam yajñe asmin.

And that which is the master of your chariot and, wearing the splendour of the sun, rides it and goes about on the ways of life over the paths of existence and comes home to human habitations, by that very divine light and grace, O charioteers of Divinity, at the rise of dawn, bring in the peace and bliss of life to this our universal yajna of the world’s social order.

6. Narā gaureva vidyutāṁ tṛṣāṇā’śmākamadya savanopa yātam. Purutrā hi vāṁ matirbhir-havante mā vāmanye ni yaman devayantaḥ.

O leaders of humanity, pioneers of light, eager like a planet drawn by the sun, come today to our yajnic social order and bring in the dawn of a new day. The all time seekers of Divinity through eternity have invoked you with the best of their thought, will and action. Let not anyone stop you on way.

7. Yuvaṁ bhujyum-avaviddhāṁ samudra udūha-thurarṇaso asridhānaiḥ. Patatribhiraśr-amairavyathibhir-damsanābhir-aśvinā pārayantā.

O leaders and pioneers of the world, harbingers of light and power, you retrieve the ruling powers sunk in distress, recover the resources of wealth and joy hidden in the oceans, and you take them across the oceans of water and space to the shore to the wanted destination by unfailing, indefatigable and inviolable floating and flying machines created by your marvellous and, wearing the splendour of the sun, rides it and goes about on the ways of life over the paths of existence and comes home to human habitations, by that very divine light and grace, O charioteers of Divinity, at the rise of dawn, bring in the peace and bliss of life to this our universal yajna of the world's social order.

Listen to my call, O youthful Ashvins, twin powers of nature and humanity, leading lights of the nation, go to the basic sources of wealth and knowledge over land and sea and across the skies, bear and bring the jewels of life, appreciate, honour and admire the brilliant and the brave, and protect and promote us with all time peace and prosperity of well being.

Mandala 7/Sukta 70

Ashvins Devath, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

Ashvins, world heroes of universal choice, come to our yajna. The seat on the earth vedi is fixed, reserved and proclaimed for you and stays like a war horse at rest after victory. That you would occupy without disturbance as in your own home and there be firm as the pole star.

Ashvins, O complementary currents of nature, the yajnic process in song and action with holy offerings of fragrant havi reaches you and serves you. The fire of yajna is burning in the house of the yajamana, which, like the radiations of sunlight, activates the catalysis of heat and water in nature and fills up the streams and seas with rain.

Whichever places, Ashvins, you occupy, abiding on top of mountains or clouds, you carry food and energy from the regions of light and vest it in great forests, herbs and trees and communicate it among people of the world for the man of yajnic generosity.

Divine Ashvins, life giving powers of natural and human complementarities, whatever appropriate gifts of food and energy worthy of the sages you radiate and vest into herbs and waters, bearing jewels of eternal value, give us too in continuance at the present time as you have been doing for ages immemorial, as you yourself have revealed.

5. Śušrvāṁsā cidaśvinā purūṇyabhī brahmāṇi caksāthe ṛṣīnām. Prati pra yātāṁ varamā janāyā-śme vāmastu sumatiścaniśṭhā.

Ashvins, learned scholars of knowledge and practical application of knowledge, speak to us of the earlier and eternal knowledge and formulations of the seers of Divinity and nature. Come and grace our yajña, and may your knowledge and wisdom be appropriately good and beneficial for our people.

Ashvins, observers of truth and law in theory and practice, this yajña of adoration and liberal havi presided over by Vedic scholars and conducted with Vedic hymns for you in honour of Divinity is dedicated to the unity and victory of humanity over want and suffering. Come and join this holy programme of brilliance, peace and settlement for all. These words of song are chanted for you and radiate for you in living vibrations.

7. Iyaṁ maniśa iyamaśvinā gīrimāṁ suvrktiṁ vrṣanā juṣethām. Imā brahmāṇi yuvayūnyagmanyūyam pāta svastibhiḥ sadā nah.

O generous and brilliant Ashvins, divine and human givers of success and fulfilment, come and join this thoughtful programme of yajna, this song of adoration, this divine praise and prayer. These sacred words of adoration and acts of homage are offered in your honour. O saints and scholars, divine powers of nature and humanity, listen, and protect and promote us with all time peace, prosperity, happiness and well being all round.

Mandala 7/Sukta 71

Ashvinau Devate, Vasisthha Maitravaruni Rshi

The night takes leave of her sister dawn, darkness departs and clears the path for the light of day. O harbingers of light and wisdom, pioneers of action and achievement, masters of plenty and prosperity, Ashvins, we invoke you at this hour of the dawn, pray come and bless us, and dispel all sin and evil, darkness and ignorance, inaction and poverty far off from us day and night relentlessly.

Ashvins, harbingers of a new dawn of sweetness and light of culture and prosperity, come by your chariot laden with riches of beauty and bliss for generous mortals, ward off from us sufferance and disease, and protect and promote us day and night relentlessly.

On the rise of the new dawn when darkness is cleared, O devout, generous, gracious and powerful pioneers of light and wisdom, turn and guide your chariot towards us. Ashvins, harbingers of light and joy, steer your chariot laden with wealth, controlled by reins of sun rays and powered by the wise dedicated to the truth of divine laws, come to us and bless all.
4. Yo vāṁ ratho nṛpaṭi asti volhā tribandhuro vasumāṅ usrayāmā. Ā na enā nāsatyopa yātāmabhi yad vāṁ viśvapsnyo jīgāti.

Ashvins, protectors of humanity dedicated to the truth and law of nature and Divinity, may your chariot laden with wealth and wisdom, inbuilt with three-fold bonds of physical, mental and spiritual discipline, going by the light of sun, transport you hither to us. Come by this chariot to us following the paths which the lord of universal vision and eternal wisdom reveals to you.

You exempt the active and dynamic from the decay of age, raise the relentlessly progressive commonwealth to higher achievements in no time, you save the man of threefold freedom of body, mind and soul from sin and ignorance, and you rejuvenate the optimist back to inner light and strength when he feels exhausted.

Ashvins, leaders of light and action, generous givers of fulfilment, this reflection and prayer, these words of adoration, this act and song of homage offered to you, pray accept with pleasure. May these holy tributes reach you. May you, saints and scholars, leaders and pioneers, harbingers of light, freedom and progress, protect and promote us with happiness and well being all round all time.

Ashvins, harbingers of the light of knowledge and wealth of the world, dedicated to truth and law of nature and divinity, come to our yajna by your chariot in the company of divine sages and brilliant scholars, with all your strength of mind and soul. Your friendship and ours and our ancestral traditions and also our fraternity, pray know of this and give us the benefit of this commonalty.

3. Udu stomāso aśvinor-abudhraṁ-jāmi brahm-

And the songs of praise in honour of the Ashvins and the hymns of adoration in honour of their sister dawn awake, inspire and arouse all, and they reverberate and fill the vast heaven and earth. O brilliant Ashvins, the vibrant devotee chants these well in faith with love for the brilliant lights of truth.

4. Vi ceducchantyaśvinā uṣāsaḥ pra vāṁ brahmāṇi

Ashvins, harbingers of light, wisdom and wealth of life, when the dawns arise and shine, poets and priests sing hymns of praise in your honour, the lord creator Savitā in the glory of self-refulgence sends up the orb of sun for the day, and the fires of yajna fed on holy fuel rise in flames to glorify the light of Divinity.

Ashvins, harbingers of the light of truth and law of eternity and permanent values, pray come from behind, come from front, come from below, come from above, come all round from all directions of the world with the wealth of life for all the people of the earth. O holy powers of light and wealth of excellence, protect and promote us with all time peace and well being for all people.

Mandala 7/Sukta 73

Ashvinau Devate, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

The voice of the worshipper invokes and celebrates the Ashvins, harbingers of the light and bliss of divinity, most versatile in generous action, most ancient, original and immortal. Offering songs of praise in homage to divinity in meditative search for the life divine, we cross over this darkness and ignorance of our existence.

2. Nyu priyo manuṣaḥ sādi hotā nāsatyā yo yajate vandate ca. Aśnītam madhvo aśvinā upāka ā vām voce vidatheṣu prayasvān.

O light and love of life divine, Ashvins, harbingers of bliss, the person who joins the divine consciousness in concentration, worships the lord of bliss and surrenders his carnal self in communion, gets settled in the peace of samadhi. Come close into the heart, O light of divinity and radiations of super life, suffuse this spirit in the honey sweets of bliss, so says the yajamana in union to you in the sessions of yoga yajna.

3. Ahema yajñāṁ pathāmurāṇāṁ imāṁ suvṛkṣtīṁ vrṣaṇāṁ juṣethām. śrusṭiśiveva preśito vāmabodhi prati stomair-jaramāṇo vasiṣṭhaḥ.

O mighty generous powers of the divine circuit of light, harbingers of energy and enlightenment, we extend the possibilities of yajna and follow the path of achievement wider and wider from the individual to society on the physical, mental and spiritual level. Listen and accept this homage and invitation to join us. The most enlightened high priest celebrating divinity with hymns of adoration is awake and, as on the waves of thought, comes and exhorts you.

5. Ā paścaṭānāsatyā purastādāśvinā yātāmadharādudaktāt. Ā ivvataḥ pāncajanyena rāyā yūyām pāta svastibhiḥ sadā naḥ.

O mighty generous powers of divinity in nature and humanity, dedicated to truth, come from the back, come from front, come from below, come from above, come from all quarters of the world and bring the wealth of life for all our people, whatever their class or social status. O saints and sages, scholars and scientists, divinities of nature and humanity, protect and promote us all time with all round peace and fulfilment.

Mandala 7/Sukta 74
Ashvinau Devate, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

Brilliant Ashvins, these yajakas dedicated to life divine invoke and call upon you for light, and I too, O versatile commanders of the wealth of knowledge, power and vision, invite you and pray for protection and advancement since you visit and bless every individual and every community.

O leading lights of humanity, you provide wonderful food for the body, mind and soul, provide inspiration and incentive for the man of truth and rectitude. With an equal mind with us all, bring up your chariot, add to the joy of the community and share the honey sweets of peace and pleasure.
Ashvins, creators as well as harbingers of light and inspiration, come hither to us, add to the power and grace of our corporate programme and share the honey sweets of our achievement. O creators and winners of wealth, honour and excellence, brave and generous, enjoy the showers of milk and nectar. Pray come, do not neglect us.

Ashvins, leading lights of nature and humanity, the transports which bear you to the house of the generous yajamana radiate and shine and illuminate the hall of yajna. O brilliant and powerful lights of humanity, twin divines, come by the fastest powers of sun rays and grace our yajna.

And now, Ashvins, leading lights of the truth and law of nature and humanity, brilliant sages and scholars are on the move and come to join you in pursuit of knowledge. To them, grant honour and fame with the wealth of achievement, and bless us with a happy and peaceful home.

Pra ye yayur-avṛkāso rathā iva nrpātāro janā-

Those who are simple, honest and non-violent saviours and protectors of the people go forward shining as by royal chariots. They, leaders and pioneers, rise by their own strength and find a happy home in the promised land of their own choice.

Mandala 7/Sukta 75

Usha Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

The dawn arises from the light of heaven, revealing the awful splendour and majesty of Divinity by the law of eternity, dispelling the odious darkness, hate and jealousy, and illuminates the paths of daily activity with inspirations of highest freshness of life energy for humanity.

O dawn, light of divinity, at the rise of this new day inspire us to rise to higher faith and greater good fortune and lead us forward to achieve greater happiness and well being. O divine harbinger of new life and vision, bless us with wondrous wealth, honour and excellence and awaken mortal humanity to self-recognition and the human condition with gratitude to Divinity.

These are radiations of light divine at the break of dawn, wonderful, sublime and immortal that come and inspire, creating a deep sense of awareness of the ways and disciplines of life divine. They radiate through the cosmic spaces out and vibrate in the space within in the heart and abide in the soul.

This is that light divine, child of heaven arising at dawn from afar, which instantly and always awakens and illuminates all children of the earth, whatever their class or status, and unites the human soul with the divine. It watches the ways and karmas of people and sustains and inspires life across the universe.

5. Vājinīvatī sūryasya yoṣā citrāmaghā rāya īse vasūnām. Rṛṣīṛṣutā jarayantī maghonyuṣā ucchati vah nibhirgrāṇāṁ.

The youthful light of the rising sun, inspiring and energising sustainer of life, commands the wealths of the world and rules the life and homes of people on earth. Studied and celebrated by sages and seers, seeing the devout rise in age and experience, the magnificent dawn shines on, adored by the yajakas when the fires of yajna are kindled early morning.

6. Prati dyutānām-aruṣāsā aśvāscitrā adṛśrannu-

The radiations of light carrying the glorious dawn shine in splendour of various and wondrous rays and appear like steeds of the celestial chariot by which the heavenly maiden goes forward on her journey of light dispelling darkness of the world and bears and brings the jewels of wealth for the people.

Ever true, served by the truthful, ever great honoured by the great, ever glorious adored by the brilliant sages and devout yajakas, the dawn destroys strongholds of darkness and gives freedom and energy of morning radiations to those who love and wait for the rise of a new day of divine awareness.

8. Nū no gomad vīravad dhehi ratnamuṣo āsvāvat purubhojo asme. Mā no barhiḥ puruṣatā nide karyūyam pāta svastibhiḥ sadā nah.

O light divine, give us jewels of the wealth of lands and cows and brilliance of speech and knowledge, swiftness of transport and achievement, food and prosperity for all, and a heroic line of descendants. Let none malign our manliness and house of yajna. O saints and sages, protect and promote us all ways all time with all happiness and well being.
Mandala 7/Sukta 76

_Usha Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi_

1. Udu jyotiramṛṭam viśvajanyam viśvānarah savitā devo aśret. kratvā devānāmajaniṣṭa cakṣurāvira-karbhuvaṇam viśvamūṣāḥ.

   Self-refulgent Savita, leading light of the world and inspirer of life, radiates universal and immortal light for the benefit of humanity. The sun, eye of the divinities of nature and humanity, is risen by the cosmic yajna of divinity and the light of dawn illuminates and reveals the entire world to view.

2. Pra me panthā devayānā adṛśrann-amardhanto vasubhīrīṣkṛtāsaḥ. Abhūdu keturuṣasah purastāt praṭīcyāgādadhi harmyebhyaḥ.

   The paths of divinity are clearly visible for me, blissful, unobstructed and unobstructing, showing the order of stars and planets. The morning light of dawn, symbol of divinity, is risen in the east and spreads westward dispelling darkness over high altitudes.

3. Tāṇidahāni bahulānyāsan yā prācīnamuditā sūryasya. Yataḥ pari jāra ivācarantyuṣo dadṛkṣe na punaryātīva.

   Men of vision dedicated to common and equal programmes of vast significance join together not only in mutual covenant but also in absolute union, and together endeavour to realise their divine aim without ever contending against one another. They do not break the laws and disciplines of truth and divinities, nor do...
Many and intense are those resplendent lights of the divine sun arisen long before antiquity from where the dawns are seen rising like fire but never seen returning, deserted or deserting or forsaken.

They alone share communion and union with divinities in the house of meditative yajna who, dedicated to divine truth and law, are veteran visionaries and creative poets, who are sagely father figures and realise the mysterious sublimity of light divine, and who, having realised and mastered the activating mantra, recreate and reveal the light of divinity in spiritual vision.

5. Samāna ūrve adhi saṁgatāsah saṁ jānate na yatante mithaste. Te devānāṁ na minanti vratā-nyamardhanto vasubhir-yādamānāḥ.

Men of vision dedicated to common and equal programmes of vast significance join together not only in mutual covenant but also in absolute union, and together endeavour to realise their divine aim without ever contending against one another. They do not break the laws and disciplines of truth and divinities, nor do they violate the conventions and traditions of the wise and, marching forward by the light of stars and wealth of Vedic knowledge without violence to any one, they attain their aim.

O dawn, lady of light and good fortune, nobly born of the sun divine, generous sustainer and giver of inspiration and energy, harbinger of light and controller of mind and senses, brilliant and celebrant sages of highest faith and intelligence awake at dawn offer you homage with songs of adoration: Come, first born, light of divinity, shine and bring us too the life divine.

This light divine of eternal life that arises at dawn shines and dispels the darkness of the external and internal world of humanity. It illuminates the mind and soul of the people dedicated to holy truth and the divine law of eternity, perfects their faculties and guides them over the paths and ways of divine pursuits to the accomplishment of success and glory. It bears and brings us the wealth, honour and excellence of life we have heard of since time immemorial and leads us to the eternal light of divinity. Thus is it celebrated by the most brilliant sages of knowledge and wisdom. Pray save us, protect us and advance us with the means and modes of peace and fulfilment all ways, all time.

Lo, there arises the dawn and shines like a youthful maiden breathing, radiating and inspiring life energy and light for the moving world. Let the holy fire be kindled. When it is kindled, it creates the light and dispels the darkness of humanity. This too is the holy fire kindled at the dawn of creation which radiates light and life for the living beings and dispers the darkness of the pre-creation state.

It rises, advancing, expanding, shining, wearing the light of glory, bearing the power and purity of divinity, and thus it beams forth over the world in golden majesty and blissful beauty as the mother of light and holy speech and shines as harbinger of days, each anew every morning.

3. Devānāṁ cakṣuḥ subhagā vahāntī śvetāṁ nayantī sudrśikamaśvam. Uśā adarṣi raśmibhir-vyaktā citrāmaghā viśvamanu prabhūtā.

   It is the eye of divinities, revealing and radiating the glory of divinity, bearing light and good fortune, leading the glorious sun like the white horse of the universal chariot of existence. Thus appears the dawn manifested in rays of light in wondrous majesty prevailing all over the world.

4. Antivāmā dūre amitramucchorvīṁ gavyūtima-bhayāṁ kṛdhīḥ nah. Yāvaya dveṣa ā bharā vasūṁi codaya rādhō grīṇate maghoni.

   O lady of light, O dawn of a new day, be close at hand with wealth and loveliness, let the unfriendly be far off, pray shine and illuminate the wide world, and let all our paths of progress be free from fear and violence. Ward off hate, jealousy and enmity, bring us the wealth, honour and excellence of life, and inspire and energise the power, prosperity and generosity of the celebrant, you who command the wealth, power and majesty of the world.

O dawn, nobly born of the sun, child of Divinity, brilliant sages, poets and scholars adore and glorify you with holy words, thoughts and actions. O light divine, bear and bring to bless us excellent wealth, honour and glory rising and ever rising. O saints, sages and heroes of humanity, protect and promote us with peace, progress and all round well being all time.
Mandala 7/Sukta 78

Usha Devata, Vasishtha Rshi

1. Prati ketavaḥ prathamā adṛśrann-ūrdhvā asyā añjayo vi śrayanto. Uśo arvācā bṛhatā rathena jyotiṣmatā vāmamasmabhyaṁ vakṣī.

The first flames of the dawn are visible, the rays of its light rise and radiate upward on the firmament. O dawn, light of divinity, come hither to us and bring us the beauty and glory of the wealth of the world by your great and grand chariot of light.

In response, the kindled fire of yajna honours the rising dawn while the vibrant priests adore the light divine with holy thoughts, actions and words of song. The dawn, brilliant light of divinity, rises higher in flames and expands with light, dispelling all darkness of the world and warding off all evil, sin and crime.

And there in front yonder are seen those higher radiations of the dawn, lights of flame shining and illuminating the world. Up rises the sun, the fire of yajna grows and the flames of the holy fire expand, and thus all disagreeable darkness goes out, dispelled by the light divine.

4. Aceti divo duhitā maghonī viśve paśyan-tyuṣasam vibhātīm. Āsthād ratham svadhayā yujyamānāmā yamaśvāsah suyujo vahanti.

The resplendent and munificent dawn, child of heaven, is perceived rising on the horizon, riding her chariot efficient in service, powered by her own energy and drawn by efficient, well trained and well directed horses. All people of the world see this brilliant dawn and feel blest.

You, O Dawn today, people of noble mind, our own, wealthy, honourable and excellent, and we all, invoke, admire and adore. O resplendent and magnificent lights of dawn, inspire us with love and refinement. O lights of divinity, saints and sages, protect and promote us with all peace, prosperity and happiness all ways, all time.

Mandala 7/Sukta 79

_Usha Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi_

The lights of the dawn arise, rejuvenating, revealing the paths of life for the day and awakening all five communities of the people for their daily chores. She reveals the birth of the sun by beatific radiations and as the sun rises it illuminates heaven and earth and fills them with light.

1. _Vyuṣā āvak paṭhyā janaṇāṁ pañca kṣitīrmānu-

The lights of the dawn radiate their rays and fill the space from earth to the bounds of heaven. Together they radiate in succession and act like a divine force in unison. Constantly those radiations turn out the darkness and, like the circuitous operations of solar radiation, they give light and life to the world in sequence.

O dawn of the light of divinity, give us ample wealth and competence for the good life, as much as you grant to the devout celebrants who have adored you since eternity and known you by the roar of thunder, the shower of clouds, and the bellowing of the bull, when you open the caves of mighty mountains and clouds and unveil the folds of darkness from over the light of the sun.

Inspiring every noble person for the attainment of wealth and competence for the good life, radiating the light of divinity and holy intelligence for us, enlightening our thought and will with the original message of divinity for advancement in generosity, O lights of the dawn, protect and promote us with all modes and means of success for peace, progress and the good life all ways all time.

Mandala 7/Sukta 80

_Usha Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi_

Brilliant saints and vibrant sages at the very first dawn of life receive the light of divinity in revelation, celebrate the dawn of light in inspired songs of adoration, the same light of dawn that illuminates and enlightens all regions of the universe within the bounds of heaven and earth every revolution of the day.

_पूर्वा स्या नव्यमायुद्धा ना गृही तमा ज्यातिष्ठा अन्वाधि। अर्थं एति युवतिहर्ष्याणा पाचिचित्तसूर्यं युवंगिनि।_

This is the dawn bearing and bringing new life and energy, that deep and sublime light of divinity which Enlightens ignorance with knowledge and informs even darkness with light. It goes forward first before sunrise, youthful, bold, enlightened, unrestrained and free, and gives light to the sun and life to the yajna fire.

May the blissful dawns every morning, abounding in light and dynamism, energy, fertility and procreation of the race in heroic generations, illuminate and energise our home and family, give us showers of water, milk and honey, and bless us with total fulfilment from all quarters of the world. O lights of dawn, protect and promote us with all peace, progress and happiness of the good life always all time.

Mandala 7/Sukta 81

Usha Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

The great and glorious dawn, child of the light of divinity, is seen rising, dispelling mists and darkness, and illuminates with light the world of our actions, brilliant guide as she is for the day.

And then the sun, friend and associate together, takes over and, blazing with splendour, sends forth radiations of light and illuminates the planet earth. O dawn, in your original revelation of light divine and in the solar radiations, we pray, let us abide and act with faith and delightful experience of the illumination.

O dawn, daughter of heaven, receiver of divine light and giver of inspiring radiations, who bring us cherished gifts of eternal and infinite blessings like the jewels of life for the generous man of charity, we pray, may we be instant and faithful recipients of your light divine, peace and joy, every morning.
The great and glorious dawn, child of the light of divinity, is seen rising, dispelling mists and darkness, and illuminates with light the world of our actions, brilliant guide as she is for the day.

O dawn, daughter of heaven, receiver of divine light and giver of inspiring radiations, who bring us cherished gifts of eternal and infinite blessings like the jewels of life for the generous man of charity, we pray, may we be instant and faithful recipients of your light divine, peace and joy, every morning.

Generous and divine dawn, great and glorious, who with your splendour enlighten the world to have the vision and awareness of divinity, we pray that we too may experience that vision and share those jewels of life, and thus abide in life like favourite children of the divine mother.

O light of dawn, bear and bring for us that vision, wealth and competence of life, wonderful, various, versatile and infinite, heard over the longest time and widest space which, O light of self-refulgent heaven, is your gift to mortal humanity as food for the body, mind and soul. Give us that wealth of food for our benefit and enlightenment.

O dawn, inspirer of the wealthy and powerful, commanding the light and truth of existence in action, bring immortal food and wealth, honour and fame to the wise and brave. Bring food and energy and the wealth of lands and cows for us all, and ward off all sin, error and enmity from us, shine and give us settlement in peace.

Mandala 7/Sukta 82

Indra-Varunau Devate, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

Indra, lord of ruling power, and Varuna, lord of justice, you both together for our people in general provide a very home and comfortable security of life so that they may do their creative and productive work in peace without fear and violence and, in our joint ventures for the nation, we may defeat, better win over, the person who out of hate and malevolence injures or violates the peace of a citizen engaged in continuous work for the nation.

1. Indrāvaruṇā yuvamadhvarāya no viśe janāya mahi śarma yacchatam. Dīrghaprayajiyumati yo vanuṣyati vayam jayema prtanāsu duṭhyah.

Indra, lord of ruling power, and Varuna, lord of justice, you both together for our people in general provide a very home and comfortable security of life so that they may do their creative and productive work in peace without fear and violence and, in our joint ventures for the nation, we may defeat, better win over, the person who out of hate and malevolence injures or violates the peace of a citizen engaged in continuous work for the nation.

O Indra, lord ruler, and Varuna, lord of justice, grand powers of the common wealth, one of you is called ‘Samrat, sovereign ruler of the nation as one collected person’, the other is called ‘Swarat, autonomous ruler of the judiciary as a sub-system of the sovereign state’. O brave and generous lords, may all the brilliant sages and scholars of the nation and all the divinities of nature in this vast sovereign common wealth of humanity vest you with dignity and power.

(This mantra may also be interpreted as pointing to the two extreme ends, though both mutually balanced, of the sovereign social order, whether the order is a nation or the entire human world on earth. One is ‘Samrat’ the total sovereign system with one supreme head, the other is ‘swarat’, the autonomous individual, the citizen with his or her freedoms and loyalty to the national law, and the balance of rights and duties of the ‘swarat’ individual.)

3. \textit{Anvapāṁ khānyatṛntam-ojasā sūryam-airayataṁ divi prabhum. Indrāvaruṇā made asya māyino’-pinvatam-apitaḥ pinvataṁ dhiyaḥ.}

With your light and lustre, O Indra and Varuna, sovereign ruler and lord of independent judgement, state and the individual, general will and collective power and individual will and autonomous judgement, together you break open the flood gates of waters and national energy in social dynamics. You raise the social brilliance in the regions of culture and enlightenment to the highest degrees of freedom and sovereignty.

O lords of power and judgement, together in the joy of this wonderful ruling order, you replenish the dry streams of life to flow with fresh energy and energise our bored will and intellect with new vision, ambition and resolution all round.

4. Yuvāmid yutsu prtanāsu vahno yuvāṁ kşema-sya prasave mitajñavaḥ. Īśānā vasva ubhayasya kārava indrāvaruṇā suhavaḥ havāmahe.

Indra and Varuna, ruler and preserver of both the citizen and the state for earthly as well as for higher values, men of fiery passion and action call upon you in their joint struggles for advancement and fresh acquisitions. Men of settled vision and judgement seated on firm ground call upon you in their efforts for peace, preservation and stability. Creators of the wealth of the nation thus, we all call upon you in our battles for both yoga and kshema, progress and preservation in balance, constant watchers and instantly responsive as you are.

5. Indrāvaruṇā yadimāni cakrathurviśvā jātāni bhuvanasya majmanā. Kṣeṣeṇa mitro varuṇaṁ duvasyati marudbhirugraḥ śubhamanya īyate.

Indra and Varuna, with your strength and vision you rule and advance and thus serve all these children of the earth. Mitra, power of love and friendship with warmth of passion for peace and stability serves and supports Varuna, judgement and discrimination for the collective good, and the other, Indra, power and passion for advancement, with all his storm troopers fast as winds fights for the defence and advancement of the good of all.

For the greatness and rising prosperity of the social order of peace and progress, Indra and Varuna augment its power and lustre and preserve and increase what its basic and consolidated national asset is. One of them, Indra, overthrows its unfriendly and hostile opponents who try to sabotage and arrest its progress, and the other, Varuna, even with minimum but convincing power, subdues many devastating critics.

Na tamaṁho na duritāṁi matyām-iddrāvarunā na tapaṁ kutāścana. Yasya deva gacchatho vītho adhvaram na tam martasya naśate parihṛṭih.
No sin, no evils, no suffering, nor any man’s crookedness can ever touch or disturb that mortal man, that ruler of the social order, whose yajna of individual freedom of action and loyalty to the social order and its laws, O Indra and Varuna, lord of omnipotence and lord of justice and mercy, glorious and generous rulers of the universe, you bless, visit, lead and guide.

8. Arvāṁ narā daivyenāvasā gataṁ śrṇutaṁ havam yadi me jujoṣathaḥ. Yuvorhi sakhyamuta vā yadāpyaṁ mārdīkamindrāvaruṇā ni yacchatam.

O Indra and Varuna, leading lights of nature and humanity, lords of power, justice and mercy of the social and natural order, since I enjoy your love and friendship, come hither to me with protection and promotion, listen to my call, and bear, bring and give me the benefit of your friendship and whatever is peaceful, blissful and attainable.

Indra and Varuna, ruling powers of the people and the social order, be the front leaders and warriors in every battle of ours since the leading lights of both the people and the ruling services invite you in their struggles for the progress of their children and grand children.

May Indra, Varuna, Mitra and Aryama, lord of power, justice and generosity, love and friendship, and guide and lord ruler of the world order, bless us with honour and excellence and give us great good peace and prosperity ever increasing. We pray for the kind and beneficial light of mother Infinity and celebrate the glory of the self-refulgent Savita, lord creator, inspirer of life and protector of the truth and law of this expansive universe.

Mandala 7/Sukta 83

Indra-Varunau Devate, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Yuvāṁ narā paśyamāṇāsa āpyāṁ prācā gavyan-tahṛṇtṛ prthuparṣavo yayuh. Dāsā ca vṛtrā hatamāryāṇi ca sudāsamindrāvaruṇā-vasāvatam.

Indra and Varuna, O warrior and tactician of the commanding order, the bold and brave front rank leaders, seeing your power and performance, march forward and join you with large axes in hand and reach you as leaders with an open door. O fighters, having destroyed the forces of darkness and sabotage, with all your forces protect and promote the noble, the generous and the dedicated people of society.

Where the leading brave of the nation meet with banners in hand, where there would be but little good in battle or in contest, where the people of the earth quake with fear though they see the light and joy of heaven otherwise, of that, O Indra and, Varuna, speak to us.

Indra and Varuna, destroyers of the evil and the violent, look to the ends of the earth, let the clang of arms and roar of battle rise to the sky, let the people’s enemies stand at the door and face me, and in any crisis, as you hear the signal and the clarion call, come forward with all the defence forces.

4. \textit{Indrāvaruṇā vadhanābhirapratī bhedāṁ vanvantā pra sudāsamāvatam. Brahmānyēśāṁ śṛṇutamāṁ havīmanī satyā tṛtsūnāṁ-abhavat purohitih.}

Indra and Varuna, leading warrior and enemy destroyer and saviour and rebuilder, facing and breaking the difficult enemy lines of offence with fatal weapons, protect the generous ruler of the land. In this strife of battle, listen to the earnest voices of the priests engaged in yajnic development of the nation, and let the priest-like prophecy and expectations of the people seeking peace and freedom come true.

5. \textit{Indrāvaruṇāvabhyā tapanti māgḥānyaryo vanu-śāmaratayāḥ. Yuvam hi vasva ubhayasya rāja-tho’dha smā no’vataṁ pārye divi.}

Indra, lord of power, Varuna, lord of justice and mercy, the evil deeds of the violent and the adversities caused by the saboteurs torment me all round. You alone rule and order the power and prosperity of both terrestrial and celestial worlds. Protect us on the earth and lead us to the light and joy of freedom beyond the bounds of earth.
6. Yuvāṁ havanta ubhayāsa ājiṣvindraṁ ca vasvo varuṇaṁ ca sātaye. Yatra rājabhīr-daśabhīrnibādhitam pra sudāsāmāvatāṁ tṛtsubhiḥ saha.

Both the people and the leaders call upon you in battles, O Indra and Varuna, for victory in battle and regaining of success and prosperity. They call upon you in battle where you defend the generous ruler against tens of tormenting dictators and, alongwith the ruler, you save three orders of scholars and sages in three fields of arts, sciences and universal values of Dharma and justice.

7. Daśa rājānaḥ samitā ayajvayaḥ sudāsamindrā-varuṇā na yuyudhuḥ. Satyā nṛṇām-admasadām-upastutir-devā eśām-abhavan devahūtiṣu.

Indra and Varuna, spirit of life and sense of judgement victorious over evil and impiety, even ten brilliant but impious and impulsive forces together cannot fight against the versatile and generous ruler of the self and society. The prayers of holy men dedicated to divinity in the house of yajna and charity come true and the divinities of humanity and nature both join the invocations of these holy men in their acts of piety and divine service.
8. Dāsārājñē pariyaṭṭāya viśvataḥ sudāsa indrā-varuṇāvaśikṣatam. Śvityaṅco yatra namasā kapardino dhiyā dhīvanto asapanta tṛtsavaḥ.

Indra and Varuna, you come to the help of the liberal man of charity and the benevolent ruler surrounded by hostilities all round, and you join his house of yajnic discipline and ruling order where intelligent and pious sages help the priestly performers with offers of oblations and thoughts of wisdom.

9. Vṛtrāṇyanyah samitheṣu jighnate vratāṇyanyo abhi rakṣate sadā. Havāmahe vāṁ vṛṣṇā suvṛkṛtibhrasme indrāvaraṇā śarma yacchatam.

Of Indra and Varuna, one destroys evil and darkness in the battles of life, the other always protects the laws and observances of pious people’s holy disciplines. O generous and divine lords of power and wisdom, we invoke you and offer you homage with adorations and holy presentations. May Indra and Varuna give us a happy home of peace and prosperity.
10. Asme indro varuṇo mitro aryamā dyumnam-yacchantu mahi śarma saprathaḥ. Avadhram jyotir-aditer-ṛtāvṛdho devasya ślokam savitur-manāmahe.

May Indra, Varuna, Mitra and Aryama bless us with power, justice, love and friendship, and passion for progress, honour and excellence with settlement in a happy home wherein, ever advancing, we may live a life of truth, observing the eternal law of Dharma operative in nature and humanity. We pray for the blissful light of mother Infinity and celebrate in song the glory of Savita, lord giver of the light of life and inspiration for the True, the Good and the Beautiful in existence.

Mandala 7/Sukta 84

Indra- Varunau Devate, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

आ वां राजानावध्वर वंवृत्यां हृव्यभिरिन्दावरुणां
नमंभिः। प वां घृताची बाह्याद्वौनां परि तमना विपुरुपा
जिगाति॥ १ ॥

1. Ā vāṁ rājānāvadhvare vavṛtyāṁ havocebhir-indrā-varuṇā namobhiḥ. Pra vāṁ ghṛtācī bāhv-or-dadhānā pari tamanā viṣurūpā jīgāti.

Indra-Varuna, self-refulgent rulers of life, Supreme Lord’s power and justice, light and rectitude, law and freedom, reward and punishment, I pray, let me turn to you and abide there. I invoke you with salutations and homage worthy for divinity in this yajna of life full of love and free from violence. The ladle in all universal forms overflowing with ghṛta held in hands spontaneously moves to you to make the offer of total surrender to the sacred fire.

Yuva rāṣṭram bṛhadinvati dyauhyau setṛbhira rajjubhiḥ sīnithaḥ. Pari no heḻo varuṇasya vṛjyā urum na indraḥ kṛṇavadu lokam.

The mighty heaven of light feeds the vast social order under your rule. You join, you bind, with bonds without snares. May the displeasure of Varuna and consequent suffering be far off from us. May Indra bless us and create a vast expansive world of light for us.

Kṛtaṁ no yajñaṁ vidatheṣu cārūṁ kṛtaṁ brahmāni sūriṣu praśastaḥ. Upo rayirdevajūto na etu pra ṇaḥ spārḥābhir-ūtibhis-tiretam.

Indra-Varuna, pray raise our yajnic acts in the business of life to beauty and grace. May you vest our songs of adoration and gratitude with love and faith among the wise and brave of the community. May wealth, honour and excellence of life inspired by divinities come to us. May you, Indra-Varuna, help us cross the seas of life with cherished means of protection and progress.
4. \textit{Asme indrāvaruṇā viśvavāram rayīṁ dhattam vasumantaṁ purukṣum. Pra ya ādityo anṛtā minātyamitā śüro dayate vasūni.}

Indra-Varuna, pray bear and bring for all of us wealth, honour and excellence of universal order in plenty, full of the world’s riches. The lord of light that frustrates and destroys untruth is the lord of power and gives boundless forms of wealth, joy and peaceful settlement on earth.

\textit{Iyamindraṁ varuṇamaṣṭa me gīḥ prāvat toke tanaye tūtujānā. Suratnāso devavītim gamema yūyam pāta svastibhiḥ sadā naḥ.}

Let my voice of adoration reach Indra and Varuna at the earliest and bring protection and progress for our children and grand children at the fastest. Let us all blest with the jewels of life reach the house of yajna and attain the blessings of Indra and Varuna. O divinities of nature and humanity, saints and sages, protect and promote us with all modes and means of safety, security and all round well being of life for all time.

\textbf{Mandala 7/Sukta 85}

\textit{Indra-Varuna Devate, Vasishtha Mitravaruni Rshi}

I dedicate and sanctify the song of adoration free from evil, enmity and malice, and offer it to Indra and Varuna, having made a presentation of holy soma to the ruler warrior and the chief of justice. It is soft and sweet and brilliant, full of power like the divine dawn. May Indra and Varuna come and inspire us to shine in our battle of life against evil with full divine protection.

2. Spardhante vā u devahūye atra yeṣu dhvajeṣu didyavah patanti. Yuvāṁ tāṁ indrāvaruṇāva-mitrān hataṁ parācaḥ śarvā viṣūcaḥ.

And those who fight and oppose us in this struggle of the social order, and in those battles in which the enemy weapons fall upon our flags of honour, all those enemies and crooked adversaries, O Indra and Varuna, pray frustrate and destroy with the force and justice of the social order.

3. Āpaściddhi svayaśasah sadahsu devīrindram varuṇām devātā dhuḥ. Krṣṭīranyo dhārayati praviktā vṛtrāṇyanyo apraṭīni hanti.

Intelligent and brilliant people in their own right of quality and social prestige select, appoint and consecrate Indra and Varuna, brilliant and noble authorities, in their offices and assemblies. One of them, Varuna, manages the different orders of people, the other, Indra, destroys forces of darkness and enmity who refuse to be managed otherwise.

Surely that individual is a good citizen of noble action, a true yajaka, dedicated to universal values of truth and law, who, of his own free will, with his power and potential and high degree of endeavour and application, turns to you, O brilliant Indra and Varuna, with sincere loyalty and homage for the sake of protection and advancement. And surely he deserves all round happiness and well being.

5. Iyamindraṁ varuṇamaṣṭa me gīḥ prāvat toke tanaye tūtujānā. Suratnāso devāvītim gamema yūyam pāta svastibhiḥ sadā naḥ.

May this earnest and vibrating voice of homage and prayer reach Indra and Varuna for the protection and progress of our children and grand children. May we, blest with the jewels of life, reach and join the noble assembly of the enlightened and participate in the yajnic business of the nation. O Indra and Varuna, O enlightened citizens and leaders of humanity, protect and promote us with all safeguards and securities and all modes of happiness and well being all ways all time.
Mandala 7/Sukta 86

Varuna Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

Firm in balance are the creations of this Varuna, light of the universe, by virtue of his greatness as he holds and stabilises the heaven and earth and indeed the expanding universe. He energises and impels the high heavens of bliss and the distant stars and lights them both day and night, pervading the vast world of existence. Only the wise and brave know this.

And when would I, by my own individual self, commune with the lord? When would I join the innermost presence of Varuna? Would he accept my homage and prayer with pleasure? When would I, with peace in the mind, experience the bliss of that presence and power?

O Varuna, I ask myself what sin is. Keen for the vision of divinity, I go and meet the wise, and freely I ask what sin is. And the wise sages all say the same thing to me: This Varuna feels displeased only for your sake, to save you from sin.

Varuna, what is the greatest sin or crime for which you punish your friend and celebrant? Speak of that to me, O lord rare to be attained, self-refulgent and self-omnipotent. Save me, lord. A sinless innocent soul, post haste I come to you with homage, prayer and surrender.

5. Ava drugdhānī pitryā sṛjā no’va yā vayaṁ cakṛmā tanūbhiḥ. Ava rājan paśutṛpaṁ na tāyuṁ sṛjā vatsāṁ na dāmno vasiṣṭham.

Loosen and free us from weaknesses inherited from the forefathers. Save us from the sins and evils committed by ourselves in person. O sovereign ruler, free us from animal passions, like the thief from jail, and relieve the earnest celebrant from passions and slavery, like the calf set free from bonds of the tether.

It is not our own essential virtue, competence and expertise that is the cause of evil and the fall. It is liquor, anger, gambling and infatuation, ignorance and loss of good sense that is the cause of evil. It is also the company of the wrong senior with the junior and the dreams of unrealistic ambition that tempt a person to fall a victim to falsehood and evil.

7. Aram dāso na mīḷhuṣe karāṇyaham devāya bhūrṇaye’nāgāḥ. Acetayad-acito devo aryo gr̥tsaṁ rāye kavitāro jūnāti.

Let me, an innocent person free from evil, do unreserved service and offer sincere prayers like a dedicated servant to Varuna, refulgent and generous lord giver of sure and complete fulfilment. He, brilliant and generous lord of all, wiser than any one else, omniscient master, enlightens the ignorant and inspires the holy and intelligent, and leads them to honour and prosperity.
8. Ayaṁ su tubhyāṁ varuṇa svadhāvo hṛdi stoma upaśritaścidastu. Śaṁ naḥ kṣeme śamu yoge no astu yūyaṁ pāta svastibhiḥ sadā naḥ.

Varuna, self-existent lord of omniscience and omnipotence, may this song of adoration reach your heart and be graciously accepted. Let there be all good and full protection for what we have achieved, and all good grace and advancement for what we may further achieve. O lord, O divinities of nature and humanity, pray protect and promote us with all happiness and well being all ways all time, bless us with yoga and kshema in peace.

Mandala 7/Sukta 87

Varuna Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

Radat patho varuṇaḥ sūryāya prārṇāmsi samudriyaḥ nadinām. Sargo na srṣṭo arvatīr-ṛtāyaṁ-cakāra mahīr-avanīr-ahabhyaḥ.

The universe is a mighty explosion of thought, energy and matter let free like a cosmic horse on course: Varuna, lord of supreme power, intelligence and imagination, carving out orbits for the self-refulgent stars, setting cosmic oceans into floods of rivers heading for the sea, structuring mighty moving galaxies and great planets and satellites from the stars, all moving in observance of the cosmic law.

आत्मा त बाला रजु आ नविनात्यशुन भूणियर्वस ससुवान। अन्तमही बृहती रादसीम विश्वां त धामं वरण प्रियाणि॥ २ ॥

2. Ātmā te vāto raja ā navīnot paśurna bhūrṇirya-vase sasavān. Antarmahī bṛhatī rodāsīme viśvā te dhāma varuṇa priyāṇi.

Your spirit, O Varuna, sets the currents of energy in motion like winds and energises the cosmic particles anew, once asleep all, now rushing restless for food for existence like a horse moving for grass. O lord immanent and transcendent, all this great expansive universe of heaven and earth, all these abodes of existence, are homes of life dear to you, dear to the living forms.

परि स्पशा वर्तकगस्य स्मदिब्धा तु भण्यस्य्ति रादसीम सुमरक।
ऋहतावान: कवय’ यज्ञधीरा: पर्चतसा य दृष्यतं मनम्॥ ३ ॥

Currents of cosmic intelligence which are observant forces of Varuna appointed to their task, together watch both heaven and earth and they also observe and inspire to thought and imaginative creation, poets, intellectuals and devotees constantly dedicated to yajna all of whom observe the laws of eternal truth and Dharma and celebrate the divinity of Varuna.

उवाच म वर्तकग मधिरायश्रि: सम नामाध्य बिभित।
विद्वान्यदस्य गुह्या न व कच्छुगायं विप्र उपराय श्रि च ।४ ॥
4. Uvāca me varuṇo medhirāya triḥ sapta nāmā-ghnyā bibharti. Vidvān padasya guhyā na vocad yugāya vipra uparāya śikṣan.

Varuna, vibrant lord of cosmic intelligence, supreme teacher, spoke to me, dedicated faithful disciple, that divine nature, divine speech, divine earth and sacred cow, each inviolable, bears thrice seven names. Enlightening the scholar approaching the teacher with homage and reverence, the omniscient lord speaks of the supreme state of freedom and bliss as the mystery of existence.

5. Tisro dyāvo nihitā antarasmin tisro bhūmīru-parāḥ śaṇvidhānāḥ. Gr̄tsa rājā varuṇāścakra etam divi preṇkham hirānyayaṁ śubhe kam.

Three heavens of light are contained in the presence of this lord Varuna and there are three orders of the earthly globe over which there are six variations. The all-wise refulgent omnipotent ruler Varuna created all this universe including the vibrant and glorious sun in the blissful heaven high up for light of the world.

6. Ava sindhuṁ varuṇo dyauriva sthād drapso na śveto mṛgas-tuvīśmān. Gambhīraśaṁsō rajaso vimānah supārakṣatraḥ sato asya rājā.
Varuna places the sea below as the heaven above, the lord immaculate who, as a drop of crystal, is mighty powerful as the lion, supreme adorable, creator of space and stars, sovereign of the mighty universal order, sole ruler and law giver of this world of reality.

O Varuna, lord who save even the sinner, bless us that we may be sinless, observing the laws of mother Infinity’s discipline. O lord, O saints and sages, teachers and rulers, protect and promote us with peace, progress and all round well being all ways all time.

Mandala 7/Sukta 88

Varuna Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

Holiest sage and brilliant scholar, develop pure, purifying and transparent intelligence of the dearest order and offer reverence and yajnic homage to Varuna, potent and generous lord inspirer of life, who creates, energises and brings us the great adorable sun and the expansive and deepening cloud of showers bearing a thousandfold wealth of life.

Meditating on the blissful presence of Varuna, lord of light and wisdom, when I feel the flames of fire and divine exhilaration, then, I pray, the lord of bliss and sovereign of the world may reveal to me his divine presence as it is so that I may experience it in the inner being and live the ecstasy of life divine.

3. Ā yad ruhāva varuṇaścā nāvaṁ pra yat samudra-mīrayāva madhyam. Adhi yadapāṁ snubhi-ścarava pra preṅkha īṅkhayāvahai śubhe kam.

And when I ride on the wings of Ananda samadhi with the presence of divine Varuna, I float through the boundless ocean of his infinite omnipresence, and when I fly over the world of karmic existence and all that goes with it, I transcend it with the divine presence and roll in the infinite ecstasy of pure bliss above the world of existence.

Varuna, lord of love and omniscience, helps the man of vision and enlightenment to rise to the plane of bliss and salvation with great good actions, leads the dedicated celebrant through the holy light of his days of meditative actions to the dawn of light divine, and extends the dawn to the continuous light of a heaven of infinite bliss.

O lord, where are those days of dawn, that flight of bliss, that friendship and intimacy we lived together ever before without violation? What happened? O Varuna, lord of absolute power and bliss, let us come home with you, to that very state of bliss open a thousand ways, that grace abounding and infinite.

Varuna, lord of judgement and love, if some one who is always your devotee, ever a friend dear to you, by remiss indulges in sin, let him not do so. O lord adorable let us not live this life in sin. O lord of love, omniscient power, bring a home of peace, the bliss of light for the devoted celebrant.

Living in these settled homes in these peaceful lands of mother earth, we pray, may Varuna release us from the bonds of sin and sinful existence. Enjoying peace and protection received from the lap of inviolable earth and mother Infinity, O saints and sages, protect and promote us with all modes of peace and well being always without relent.

Mandala 7/Sukta 89

Varuna Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

Varuna, refulgent ruling lord of the world, just and merciful, let me not be destined to go to the house of clay. Be gracious, O holy lord of the world order, give me peace and joy.
2. Yademi prasphuranniva dhṛtirna dhmāto adrivah. Mṛḷā suṣatratra mṛḷaya.

If at all I go blown about as a leaf or floating around as a cloud of dust in mere existence, even then, O gracious ruler of the order of existence, be kind, save me and give me joy.

O lord of holy action and magnanimity, if by weakness or error I go astray or move into the opposite direction, then, O noble ruler, be gracious and kind and save me.

I stand stranded in the midst of waters, but still thirst torments me, the celebrant. I stand rooted in the heart of karma, yet ambition overwhelms me, the devotee. O lord of magnanimous order, save me, bless me.

O Varuna, in the midst of noble humanity whatever wrong we commit as humans against divinity out of ignorance or negligence, whatever code of Dharma we violate, be not angry because of that trespass. O lord of grace, save us, bless us.

Mandala 7/Sukta 90

Vayu, Indra-Vayu Devatah, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

Vayu, vibrant source giver of wind energy, come hither, bring all the appointed forces, pure honey sweets of food and drink distilled by specialists of the art are prepared and offered for you. Come and taste of the purest foods for the inspiration and motivation of the brave.

Vayu, ruler, controller and giver of energy, whoever the person makes an offering to you with yajna for energy and serves you with pure soma of delight, you raise him to honour and fame among mortals and, O protector, promoter and lover of purity and energy, he grows stronger and more powerful as he emerges in one manifestation and birth after another.

3. \[ \text{Rāye nu yaṁ jajñatū rodasīme rāye devī dhiṣaṇā dhāti devam. Adha vāyuṁ niyutaḥ saścata svā uta śvetāṁ vasudhitim nireke.} \]

Vayu is the brilliant and generous power of energy which the heaven and earth generate for the production of wealth, the light of which the divine voice of omniscience, Veda, holds and bears for the knowledge of humanity. This pure and brilliant power, treasure hold of wealth and prosperity, Vayu, its own companion forces serve, and bear it to fight out want and poverty where they prevail.

4. \[ \text{Ucchannuṣasah sudinā ariprā uru jyotir-vivi- dur-dīhyānāḥ. Gavyam cidūrvamūṣijo vi vavru- steśāmanu pradīvah saśrurāpah.} \]

Pure and immaculate lights of dawn arise and shine to bring in the happy day. Shining they collect and radiate vast light for the world, and, brilliant with beauty and living energy, they uncover and reveal the wealth of the earth and vast sky. Consequently the lights of dawn lead to radiations of light from the sun and the day’s activities follow and proceed.

5. Te satyena manasā dīdhyaṅnāḥ svena yuktāsah kratunā vahanti. Indravāyū vīravāham ratham vā-mīśānayorabhī pṛksah sacante.

They, Indra and Vayu, electric and wind energies, kindled, energised and developed by sincere application of the scholar’s mind and, together augmented with homogeneous means and materials, give power, by yajnic combustion, to the chariot for transport of the brave. O scientists of wind and electricity, ruling the field of energy, all friends, associates and colleagues in the field join you in kindred programmes.

Indra and Vayu, scholars and scientists of wind and electric energy, those leaders, pioneers and rulers, who bear and bring us peace, prosperity and joy with lands, cows and holy speech, horses and other means of transport, and golden wealths of the world, are brave heroes. They attain full health and longevity in the world for themselves and others, and win in the battles of life over enemies and negativities by virtue of warriors provided with fast and efficient means of transport and communication.

Noble and brilliant scholars, fast and dynamic in their search for honour, fame and prosperity, warriors fighting for victory and success in the battles of life, and citizens for the sake of peace, protection and progress in life, all of us with songs of praise and appreciation call upon scientists and engineers of energy and power of wind and electricity with the exhortation: you all protect and promote us with all means and modes of happiness and well being all ways all time.

Mandala 7/Sukta 91

Vayu, Indra-Vayu Devatah, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

Often indeed the veteran scholars of old who were brilliant and admirable beyond reproach and question, working with reverence and dedication for the advancement of knowledge and for giving new inspiration and vibrant motivation to humanity in crisis, kindled the yajnic fire at dawn and ushered in a new era with the rise of the sun.

2. Uśantā dūtā na dabhāya gopā māsaśca pāthah śaradaśca pūrvih. Indravāyu suṣṭutir-vāmiyānā mārdikamīṭṭe suvitaṁ ca navyam.

Indra and Vayu, leaders of power and vibrancy of passion motivated like prophets, you are not for oppression but for the defeat of oppression. You are protectors of humanity and pioneers over paths of progress for many many months, seasons and years. O harbingers of power and progress, our song of adoration addressed to you seeks compassion and prays for a new rise in wealth and well being.

3. Pīvo-annāṁ rayivrdaḥ sumedhāḥ śvetāḥ siṣakti niyutāmabhiśriḥ. Te vāyave samanaso vi tasthur-viśvennarah svapatyāṁi cakruḥ.

Leaders and pioneers of holy intelligence and yajna augment foods, they augment wealth, which the sun like a white orb of heaven favours as it energises the grace and power of the yajnic acts of pioneers with the light of its rays. The Dedicated Scholars together of one mind and resolution for the inspiration and motivation of the people stay strong and, being leaders of the world, they execute holy programmes leading to nobler generations of the future.

4.  Yāvat tarastanvo yāvadojo yāvannaraścaķṣasā dīdhyanāḥ. Śucīṁ somaṁ śucīpa pātamasme indravāyū sadataṃ barhiredam.

Indra and Vayu, leaders of light and power, as long as life and health continues, as long as honour and lustre lasts, as long as leading lights retain their vision and intelligence, so long abide by this house of advancement in knowledge and power and, O protectors of truth and purity, participate and promote our soma yajna of peace, purity and prosperity in holiness.

5.  Niyuvānā niyutāḥ spārhavīrā indravāyū sarathāṁ yātamarvāk. Idāṁ hi vāṁ prabhṛtam madhvo agra madre prīṇānā vi mumukta-masme.

Indra, universal power and presence of all human action, Vayu, universal inspiration and motivation for progress, loved and revered heroes of universal life, users and supporters of all human energy, the entire humanity takes recourse to you. Come hither to us with your wealth of knowledge, action and advancement. This best of the honey sweets of our yajnic achievement is reserved and first offered to you. Pray take it and, pleased and loving, release us from the snares of sin and evil.
6.  Yā vāṃ śatām niyuto yāḥ sahasram-indravāyū viśvavārāḥ sacante. Ābhiryātaṁ suvidatrā-bhirarvāk pātaṁ narā pratibhṛtasya madhvaḥ.

Indra and Vayu, leading lights of knowledge and action, heroes of universal faith and choice, hundreds are your supporters, thousands indeed, who join and support you. With these, come hither to us by propitious paths with blissful gifts and, O leaders and pioneers, accept the honey sweets of our homage of abundant soma.

7.  Arvanto na śravaso bhikṣamāṇā indravāyū suṣṭutibhir-vasiṣṭhāḥ. Vājayantaḥ svavase huvema yūyāṁ pāta svastibhi sadā naḥ.

Flying on the wings of vision and imagination like riders of the skies, motivated and ambitious for honour and fame, aspiring for power and victory, brilliant sages and scholars and all of us invoke and invite you, Indra and Vayu, lords of knowledge and power, inspiration and motivation, with songs of admiration for the sake of protection and progress. O saints and sages, Indra and Vayu, pray bless us and advance us with all means and modes of peace, prosperity and all round well being all ways all time.
Vayu, Indra-Vayu Devatah, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Vayu, lord of inspiration, motivation, action and achievement, lover and protector of truth and purity, commanding love, reverence and choice of the world, come and grace our house of yajnic action where your supportive devotees await in thousands. I bring you inspiring food for presentation which you, O lord divine, you regard as your first priority and which, pray, please to accept.

2. The active press and the soma maker stand ready in holy yajnas of love and non-violence to offer hospitality to Indra and Vayu, masters of knowledge and enlightenment and action and advancement. O Indra and Vayu, holy yajakas seeking the favour of divinity with their best and holiest actions prepare the best and sweetest soma and keep it for you as homage with reverence.

Vayu, lord of knowledge and motivation, come by superfast transport with supportive knowledge and expertise with which you proceed to the house of the liberal host of yajna for the fulfilment of his desired aim. Bless us with delicious food and wealth for comfortable life, brave generation of youth, plenty of lands and cows, horses and transport, and the success mantra to attain what is possible further on.

Those who offer reverence and homage in honour of Vayu, who admire and celebrate Indra, respect the noble and brilliant people and destroy the enemies of the generous and brilliant, with all such brave and far sighted people, heroic warriors and leaders, let us take up the challenges and destroy the enemies and wipe out the demons of darkness, ignorance, injustice and poverty.

O Vayu, leader and giver of stormy inspiration and motivation, come with your forces of a hundredfold and thousandfold calibre to our yajna of non-violent production and progress and celebrate the glory of the social order in this session. O Indra, O Vayu, O heroic wise, protect and promote us with all means and modes of happiness and all round well being all ways all time.

Mandala 7/Sukta 93

Indra-Agni Devate, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Śucīṁ nu stomāṁ navajātamdhyendrāni vṛtra- haṇā juṣṭethāṁ. Ubhā hi vāṁ suhavā johavīmi tā vājaṁ sadya uṣate dheṣṭhā.

Indra and Agni, leaders of power and enlightenment, destroyers of darkness, ignorance, injustice and poverty, accept this song of purity newly created in your honour and come to our yajna session. I invoke you both, who, readily responsive to the call, instantly grant food, energy and success to the faithful devotee inspired for action.

Universally adored and victorious, you rise together, mighty with force and power. You command treasures of boundless wealth and grandeur. Pray grant us abundance of stable strength, sustenance and inviolable power for success and victory.

When men of vision, courage and faith proceed to join the yajna of social order, and vibrant sages desiring super intelligence and wisdom proceed with lightning speed to reach the climax of their ambition, then they invoke you, Indra and Agni, and they rise to be the leaders of humanity with their intelligence, will and actions.

The vibrant visionary, the poet, seeking super intelligence and wisdom, celebrates you, Indra and Agni, with songs of adoration and prays for wealth and honour of the first and universal order. Indra and Agni, lords of light and action, destroyers of darkness with thunderbolt in hand, grant us the latest gifts of light, wealth and honour and help us cross the seas of life.

5. Saṁ yanmahi mithati spardhamāne tanūrucā śūrasātā yataite. Adevayuṁ vidathe devayubhiḥ satrā hataṁ somasutā janena.

When two great forces, contesting against each other in the battle of the brave, fight with their bodily might and lustre, then, O warrior, devoted joining with the forces dedicated to divinity in the strife, destroy the impious power with righteous arms. Save the devotees of soma and divinity with your knowledge and application of knowledge in action.

Indra and Agni, lords of action and light of knowledge, come and grace this soma yajna of ours for the joy and fulfilment of our heart. After all you accept us as your own and never neglect us. Therefore I constantly invoke and invite you with homage and yajnic gifts of never failing order and value.
7. So agna ena namasā samiddho ’cchā mitram varuṇam-indram voceh. Yat sím-āgaś-cakrīnā tat su mṛla tadaryamāditiḥ śiśrathantu.

Agni, lord of light and knowledge, thus adored and kindled, pray speak to Mitra, Varuna and Indra, friend, judge and ruler, that whatever trespass we have committed, they be gracious and ward off with sympathy, and may Aryama, lord of rectitude, and Aditi, mother nature, loosen the bonds of negative snares.

8. Etā agna āsusānāsa īśīryuvoḥ sacābhyaśyāma vājān. Mendro no viṣṇurmarutah pari khyan yūyam pāta svastibhiḥ sadā naḥ.

Agni, lord of light and knowledge, we, your devotees, reaching you in earnest with ardent desire, pray that we may have the favour of fulfilment with knowledge and power and win strength and success in our battles of life, and may Indra, lord omnipotent, Vishnu, lord omnipresent, and Maruts, energies and inspirations of all moving Vayu, never forsake us. O lords of light, power and inspiration, O saints and scholars, pray you all protect and promote us with all means and modes of well being and fulfilment all ways all time.

Mandala 7/Sukta 94

Indra-Agni Devate, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

इद्यं वामस्य मन्मथं इन्द्रैयी पूर्वस्तुतिः। अभाद वृषिरिवाजनी॥ १॥
1. Iyam vāmasya manmanā indrāgni pūrvyastutiḥ. Abhrād vrṣṭirvājani.

Indra and Agni, lords of action and enlightenment, this principal and ancient song of adoration for you from the celebrant flows spontaneously like rain from the cloud.

2. Śrṇutaṁ jaritur-havam-indrāgni vanatamā girah. Īśāna pipyataṁ dhiyāḥ.

Indragni, lords of action and enlightenment, listen to the celebrant’s song of adoration, accept and appreciate the words, O sovereign lords, and refine and energise his thought and imagination to flow into expression and action.

Indragni, leaders of humanity, pioneers of progress and enlightenment, deliver us not to the sinner, not to the tyrant, not to the reviler. Let us be free.

Salutations and high honour to Indra and Agni, leading lights of action and advancement with enlightenment. Let us offer them high praise and gratitude in the best of words with the best of thoughts. We need protection, and they are protectors and guides in our course of progress.

ता हि शश्वर्न्तः इच्छत इत्था विपास ऊतयः।
सुभाषतः वाजसातयः॥ ५ ॥

Beset with difficulties, saints and sages, scholars and pioneers always look up to them and thus pray for protection and guidance to move further and win their goal.

ता वां गीर्भिविपण्यः पर्यस्वन्तः हवामह।
मधसातः सनिष्यवः॥ ६ ॥

With songs of praise, bearing homage and havi for the holy fire, we invoke and invite you to our yajna in search of higher initiative and further self advancement.

7.

इन्द्राणीं अवसागर्तमस्माः चरणीसह।
मा न दुःशांसे इशत॥ ७ ॥

Indrāgni avasāgatam-asmabhyam carṣaṇīsahā. Mā no duḥśaṁsa īśata.

O lords of light and action, Indra and Agni, leaders of the people with patience and spirit of challenge, destroyers of hostilities, come to us with protection, guidance and the prize of victory. Let no evil, no malicious or disreputable forces rule over us.

8. Mā kasya no ararūṣo dhūrtiḥ praṇāṁmartyasya.
Indrāgniḥ śarma yacchatam.

Let no violent man’s evil design ever touch and injure us. Indra and Agni, pray give us the peace and felicity of a happy home.

Indrāgniḥ tad vanemahi.

Indra and Agni, whatever gifts of lands, cows and the language of enlightenment, whatever wealth of gold and gracious manners and culture, horses, transport, initiative and achievement we ask of you and pray for, help and guide us that we may win the desired goal.

10. Yat soma ā sute nara indrāgniḥ ajohavuh.
Saptīvantā saparyavaḥ.

When the soma is pressed out and distilled in yajna and the leading performers with full faith offer it to you in homage, then O Indra and Agni, guides and pioneers of light and action for success, pray accept the call and come post haste to join and enjoy the celebrations.

उक्तेर्प्रशस्तरहन्तमा या मन्दाना चिदा गिरा।
आङ्गुष्टिविवासत: ॥ ११ ॥

O greatest destroyers of evil and darkness, when with the holy chant of Vedic hymns and songs of adoration in words of faith and sincerity you are invoked and invited, then come rejoicing and enlighten the yajna with grace.

ताविर्दुःशांसं मत्र्यु दुर्विद्वांसं र गस्विन्यम।
आभागं हन्मय्या हतमुदुब्धिं हन्मय्या हतम॥ १२ ॥

Destroy with a fatal blow the despicable and disreputable mortal, the negative scholar who abuses knowledge, the demonic destroyer and the rapacious ogre. Churn the sea of evil with heat and burn it up with a single fatal blow.
1. Pra kšodasā dhāyasā sasra eśā sarasvatī dharunāmāyasī pūḥ. Prabābadhānā rathyeva yāti viśvā apo mahīnā sindhurstanyāḥ.

This Sarasvatī, perennial stream of living waters and dynamic knowledge, is a treasure fortress of gold that holds all wealth of the world of knowledge. It is a constantly running stream that flows with waters, ever rushing and ever refreshing, towards the infinite ocean of omniscience wherefrom it arises and where it terminates. It goes on and on like a chariot on course in race, collecting and comprehending all other streams of world knowledge by virtue of its all inclusive majesty of character.

2. Ekācetat sarasvatī nadināṁ śucityaṁ giribhyā ā samudrāt. Rāyaścetantī bhuvanasya bhūrer-ghṛtam payo duduhe nāhusāya.

Sarasvatī is the one stream of streams which is crystalline pure, receives her content from the eternal ocean, emerges from the mountains and flows to the ocean, collecting on way reflecting and revealing the wealths of this great existential world and yielding water, milk, honey and the cream of enlightenment for humanity.

3. Sa vāvrdhe naryo yoṣanāsu vṛṣā śiṣurvedabho yajnīyāsu. Sa vājīnāṃ maghadvṛṣabho dadhāti vi sātaye tanvaṁ māmrjita.
That human wealth of knowledge revealed by the eternal stream grows for humanity. It is inspiration in the divine hymns of the Veda, holy fire in the yajña vedis, destroyer of ignorance, and the shower of rains for the yajnic priests of the world of business. It bears and brings passion and ambition for the people of honour and excellence and strengthens and refines the body, mind and spirit for success and victory in the battles of life.

And that perennial living stream, Sarasvati, loving and gracious, overflowing with wealth, honour and excellence, may come, we pray, and listen to us in this yajña of life. When approached by the yajnics of discipline with reverence and homage, she showers her favours full of wealth higher and ever more on her devoted friends.

Sarasvati, eternal stream of the waters of life, these adorations presented to you with homage and reverence, we pray, accept and cherish at every yajña.
Enjoying your gift of peace and a happy home, let us abide under your divine shelter and sustenance as birds nestle on the tree.

अयमुः त सरस्वति वपिश्रा द्वारावृतस्य सुभव व्यावः। वर्धे
शुभ स्तुवत रूपि वार्ज्ञयूयं पात स्वस्तिनभिः सदा न।॥ ६ ॥

6. Ayamu te sarasvati vasiṣṭho dvārāvrṭasya subhago vyāvaḥ. Vardha śubhre stuvate rāsi vājān yūyaṁ pāta svastibhiḥ sadā naḥ.

Sarasvati, crystalline stream of the life and light of eternity, this sagely scholar in search of brilliance opens the double doors of truth, Rtam, the eternal law of the dynamics of existence, and Satyam, the world of existence living constant under the law at the levels of matter, energy and mind enveloping the spirit. O divinity of purity, power and excellence, grow and rise to manifest in the mind and spirit for the celebrant. You give the ultimate wealths and victories of the world. Pray come, arise and bless with the perennial flow. O Mother stream, O saints and sages, teachers and preachers, protect and promote us with all means and modes of happiness and well being all ways all time.

Mandala7/Sukta 96

Sarasvati, Sarasvan Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

ब्रह्मदु गायिषा वच चसुया नूदैनाम। सरस्वतीमन्महया
सुवृक्तिनभिः स्तार्मवसिस्ठ रादैसी॥ १ ॥

1. Bṛhadu gāyiṣe vaco ’suryā naḍīnām. Sarasvati-minmahayā suvṛktibhiḥ stomair-vasiṣṭha rodasī.

O brilliant sage, sing and celebrate in lofty song
Sarasvati, most powerful stream of heaven and earth among streams of life, glorify her in holy poems by homage and reverence in yajnas.

उभ यरः महिना शुभं अन्धसी अधिगृहस्तिः पूरवः।
सा न' बाध्यविन्नी मरुत्सरखः चाद राधः मधानीम्।

2. Ubhe yat te mahinā śubhre andhasi adhikṣiyanti pūravaḥ. Sā no bodhyavitrī marutsakhā coda rādho maghonām.

O divine stream of crystalline power and purity, by the grandeur of your light of knowledge devoted celebrants of all time receive both material nourishment and spiritual enlightenment, and thereby achieve both worldly honour and ultimate freedom. O saving spirit, protective mother, companion of the vibrations of divinity, awaken us and inspire in us the power and potential of eternal wealth and grandeur implicit in us and raise it to realisation and perfection.

भूदमिन्दुदा कृत्रिम्वसरस्वत्यक्ष्वरी चतति चाजिनीवती।
गृण्याना जमदग्निवत्स्तुवाना च वसिष्ठवत।

Gracious Sarasvati does good, opposes the evil, and, radiant as light celebrated by the fiery sage and celebrated by the brilliant poet, she enlightens all for success and victory.

जनीयन्तान्तः न्यवं तः पुत्रीयन्तः सुदानंबः।
सरस्वतन्तः हवामहः।

Wishing for marriage, or looking forward to good progeny, liberally giving in charity, or meditating to realise the light of divinity, we pray for the living flow of the waters of Sarasvati, radiating light of divinity, the eternal ocean whence flow the light and the waters of life.

5. Ye te sarasva ūrmayo madhumanto ghṛtaścutaḥ. Tebhirno’vitā bhava.

O divine ocean of the eternal flow of existence and the cosmic light of omniscience, be our light giver and saviour with waves of the honey sweets of nectar and the radiance of light divine.

O lord, let us live and enjoy life with food, energy, knowledge and enlightenment unto the ultimate freedom, drinking the divine nectar at the overflowing ocean source of eternal life, the sovereign who watches and governs everyone, everything, of the universe.
Mandala 7/Sukta 97

Indra, Brhaspati, Indra-Brahmanaspati, Indra-Brhaspati Devatah, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

Where in the yajna in the house of assembly, leading lights of humanity from the earth and leading lights of life from heaven join and rejoice in pursuit of divinity, and where the exhilarating essences of soma are distilled for celebration in honour of Indra, lord of the world, there let us join and pray, and may the lord arrive in the first and foremost manifestations of divinity for young and old.

And there, O friends, let us pray for the protection and blessings of divinity, and may Brhaspati, lord of the mighty universe, exalt us in the spirit so that we grow sinless in the eyes of the generous lord of life and vitality who alone is our generous giver and supreme saviour as father for children.
3. Tamu jyeṣṭhaṁ nāmasā havirbhiḥ suśevāṁ brahmaṇaśaspatiṁ grñīṣe. Indraṁ śloko mahi daivyaḥ sīṣaktu yo brahmaṇo devakṛtasya rājā.

The same lord supreme of the universe, merciful protector and saviour, I adore with humility, reverence and offers of homage, and may this song of divine adoration reach the great lord Indra who rules this world of divine creation and reveals the divine Word of the Veda, universal knowledge.

4. Sa ā no yonīṁ sadatu preṣṭho bhṛhaspatirviśvavāro yo asti. Kāmo rāyaḥ svuīryasya tāṁ dāt parṣanno ati saścato ariṣṭān.

May that dearest lord of supreme love, creator and ruler of the mighty universe and giver of eternal knowledge of the Veda, who is the universal choice and sole object of adoration and prayer for the world, bless our house of yajna and manifest in our heart, give us fulfilment of our heart’s desire for wealth, virility and noble progeny, and wash off our sins and ailments which pollute us, and thus may the lord cleanse us of our existential dirt.
5. Tamā no arkamamṛtāya juṣṭamime dhāsuraṁṛtāsah purājāh. Śucikrandām yajatāṁ pastyā-nāṁ bṛhaspatim-anarvāṇaṁ huvema.

That self-refulgent adorable Brhaspati, lord sustainer and ruler of the vast world, loved and worshipped for the attainment of the immortal state of bliss, may these Sages of primeval and original vision reveal to us and bring us close to it. That same Brhaspati, incomprehensible supreme lord all loving and enemy to none, celebrated in the purity of divine hymns of the Veda, sole object of the worship and yajnic homage of our citizens in our homes, we invoke and adore.

The powerful red rays of the rising sun in their united majesty, wearing the glorious mantle of his sublime form expansive as space, and bearing at heart the message of his omnipotence immanent in the universe like the treasure of Infinity, reveal, express and communicate the presence of Brhaspati, sustainer and ruler of the world of existence.

7. Sa hi śucīḥ śatapatraḥ sa śundhyur-hiraṇyavā-śiriṣirah svarṣāḥ. Bṛhaspatiḥ sa svāveṣa ṛṣvah purū sakhibhya āṣutim kariṣṭhāḥ.
That lord, Brhaspati, is pure, purifying and sanctifying, infinitely manifest in the countless leaves of the cosmic tree, golden sweet of word and voice in the Veda, ever dynamic in nature and ever rejoicing in the self. He is easy of access, being immanent in the universe and beatific, creating abundant peace, prosperity and joy for the devotees.

Divine earth and heaven manifest Brhaspati and glorify him by the revelation of his greater glory. O friends, glorify the boundless lord of omnipotence who reveals the Veda for our knowledge of the vast reality of existence and makes the path to divinity through the ocean easy to follow.

O Brahmanaspati, lord sustainer and protector of the vast reality of existence and its law and divine knowledge, this holy song of adoration is addressed to you and Indra in honour of the might and majesty of your glory and divine protection against darkness and evil. Pray listen, and protect our mind and action, awaken the rulers and protectors of our social order, fight out and destroy the enemies and oppositions of the devotees.

Brhaspate yuvamindraśca vasvo divyasyeśāthe uta pārthivasya. Dhattāṁ rayiṁ stuvate kīraye cid yūyaiṁ pāta svastibhiḥ sadā naḥ.

Brhaspati, lord of this vast universe, and Indra, you are lords omnipotent of the glory and majesty of the world, you rule and order the light of heaven and the wealths of the earth. Pray bear and bring the light of divinity and wealth of the world to bless the celebrant and the worshipper. O lords and divinities of nature and humanity, protect and promote us with all modes and means of peace, prosperity and excellence all ways all time.

Mandala 7/Sukta 98

Indra, Indra-Brhaspati Devate, Vasishtha
Maitravaruni Rshi

Adhvaryavo’ruṇaṁ dugdhamanṁśuṁ juhotana vrṣabhāya kṣiṭinām. Gaurād vediyāṁ avapāna- mindro viśvāhed yāti sutasomamicchan.

O devotees of creative yajna, at the dawn of the fiery sun, offer refined and energised soma and milk into the fire of yajna in honour of Indra, generous omnipotent ruler of the worlds. Having received exhilarating soma inspiration from the sacred vedi of light, Indra, the ruler, the scholar, the human soul, proceeds to the day’s activity with passion for consecrated action every new day.

2. Yad dadhiṣe pradivi cārvannāṁ divedive pītimidasya vakṣi. Uta hṛdota manasā juṣāṇa uśannindra prasthitān pāhi somān.

Indra, since you have received and internalised the exhilarating soma of the mission of life at the vedi in earlier days, and love to live the taste and message of it every day, then, loving the soma by heart and soul and passionately anxious for action, take the soma offered, and inspire and exhort these yajakas for the appointed tasks of the day.

Aware of the self, knowing your tasks in life, recognising your powers and potential, dedicated to your yajna and your yajnic performers, you drank the soma of initiation for the realisation of your power, patience and passion, and Mother Nature spoke to you and dedicated you to the Infinite and Omnipotent. You fought with courage and fortitude, achieved wondrous peace and prosperity with your warriors for noble humanity, and rose to the skies with honour and fame.

When you fight against those who attack, believing they are great, we shall fight out those violent enemies with arms even in hand to hand fight. And when in formation with your warring heroes around, you engage in contests, then with you we shall win that contest with honour and fame.

Let me thus proclaim and celebrate the exploits of Indra, those accomplished earlier and the latest which the illustrious hero has achieved when he challenged and frustrated the evil designs of the crafty enemies and became the sole winner of the soma of honour and fame.

MANDAL - 7 / SUKTA - 98 341 342 RGVEDA
6. \textit{Tavedaṁ viśvamabhitaḥ paśavyaṁ yat paśyasi caṅsaśā sūryasya. Gavāmasi gopatireka indra bhakṣīmaḥi te prayatasya vasvah.}

Indra, yours is all this living wealth around which you see under the light of sun. You are the sole master, possessor, ruler, protector and promoter of lands and cows and the lights of knowledge and culture of this earth. We ask of you and solicit wealths of the world for ourselves, because you are the giver.

7. \textit{Brhaspate yuvamindraśca vasvo divyasyeśathe uta pārthivasya. Dhattāṁ rayim stuvate kīraye cid yūyāṁ pāta svastibhiḥ sadā naḥ.}

Brhaspati, lord of the vast universe, Indra, omnipotent and illustrious ruler, you are the lord of the beauty and majesty of the light of heaven and wealths of the earth. You alone rule and order these. Pray bear and bring light and wealth to bless the celebrant and the worshipper. O lord and divinities of nature and humanity, protect and promote us with all modes and means of peace, prosperity and excellence all ways all time.

Mandala7/Sukta 99

\textit{Vishnu, Indra-Vishnu Devate, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi}

पुरा मात्रया तत्वां वृद्धान्त न तें महत्वमन्वेशनुष्ठनति। उभ ते
विशु रजसी पृथिव्या विष्णु'दच्व तम पर्यमस्य वित्स॥ १ ॥

Vishnu, omnipresent lord supreme, manifesting by the expansive world forms of mother nature, no one comprehends your greatness and majesty. We apprehend both your worlds from earth to heaven but, O lord self-refulgent, you know and are the ultimate beyond these too. (You are immanent and transcendent.)

2. Na te viṣṇo jāyamāno na jāto deva mahimnah paramantamāpa. Udastabhna nākamṛṣvam brhantam dādhartha prācīṁ kakubham prthivyāḥ.

Vishnu, self-refulgent lord immanent and transcendent, no one born either in the past or at present can reach the ultimate bounds of your grandeur and majesty. You uphold the high heaven of boundless glory and divine beauty and joy, and you hold the expanse of the directions of universal space.

3. Irāvati dhenumati hi bhūtaṁ sūyavasinī manuṣe daśasya. Vyastabhna rodaśī viṣṇavete dādhartha prthivīmabhito mayūkhaiḥ.

O heaven and earth full of food and energy, milk and honey, herbs and rejuvenation, givers of food, energy and light of knowledge, both of you are generous for humanity. Vishnu, omnipresent and omnipotent, upholds these heaven and earth worlds and stabilises the earth all round by solar radiations of cosmic energy.

Indra-Vishnu, lord omnipotent and omnipresent, leader and maker of the world, creating the sun, dawn and fire you make up this vast world for yajna, evolution and expansion of things at the level of nature and humanity. You also destroy the wiles and crookedness of negative powers even though they be strong and well armed, in close battles among human forces.

5. Indrāviṣṇū draṁhitāḥ śambarasya nava puro navatiṁ ca śnathīṣṭam. Śataṁ varcinaṁ sahasraṁ ca sākaṁ hatho apratyasurasya vīrān.

Indra-Vishnu, lord of unrivalled might and universal presence, you break through the nine and ninety fortified strongholds of the dark and expansive citadels of hoarded treasure and destroy a hundred, even thousand, of the brave warriors together even before the unique evil power is up for defence and offence.
6. \textit{Iyam maniśā brhatī brhanṭorukramā tavasā vardhayanī. Rare vām stomaṁ vidatheṣu viśṇo pinvatamiṣo vṛjaneṣvindra.}

This resounding song of thoughtful and conscientious adoration exalting the grand, versatile and mighty Indra-Vishnu, I offer in honour of the lord. Indra-Vishnu, pray exhort our power and exalt our honour and excellence in our yajnic battles of life on the paths of progress.

7. \textit{Vaśaṭ te viśṇavāsa ā kṛṇomi tanme juśasva śipiviṣṭa havyam. Vardhantu tvā suṣṭutayo giro me yūyam pāta svastibhiḥ sadā naḥ.}

Vishnu, lord omnipresent of unbounded power, this holy song of adoration I sing and offer to you directly. O lord of blazing lustre, pray accept this homage of mine. May the holy words of my adoration please and exalt you. O lord, O divine powers of nature and humanity, protect and promote us with all modes and means of happiness, prosperity and well being all ways all time.
Mandala 7/Sukta 100
Vishnu Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Nū marto dayate saniṣyan yo viṣnava urugāyāya dāśat. Pra yaḥ satrācā manasā yajāta etāvantāṁ naryamāvivāsāt.

That mortal for sure finds success and fulfilment who, while he loves Vishnu, lord omnipresent, gives in charity in service to the lord, and who, with concentrated mind, meditates, worships and exalts the lord of such universal love of infinite measure.

Vishnu, lord omnipresent and omnificent, who fulfil the aspirations of all humanity, bless us with such intelligence, understanding and faith in values of pure and universal character by which we may achieve our target of untarnished happiness and plenty of universal wealth of honour, beauty and complete fulfilment of earthly ambition.

MANDAL - 7 / SUKTA - 99 345 346 RGVEDA

This self-refulgent and self-potent generous lord Vishnu has made and set in motion the three dimensional world of matter, energy and mind by virtue of his own essential power and has vested it with the light of countless stars. Immanent in the world, mighty Vishnu manifests mightier and mightier. The very name of this lord beyond motion is ‘Lord of Light.’

Vishnu, this lord omnipresent, with the desire to give humanity a place of birth and a home for dwelling and sphere of action, made this wide earth and set it in motion. Poet celebrants of this lord, men with constant mind, celebrate the glorious manifested maker and sing that he it is that made the wide earth for their dwelling and place of action.

O lord self-refulgent, you that have made this wide world, I adore today, celebrate and glorify your name: You are the master, lord omniscient of the ways and laws of existence. You are the mighty power, all pervasive far and wide in the moving world, and you are transcendent even beyond.

\[\text{kāmāt' viśṇa pariṇa yāṁ bhūtā yathāḥ 1 shāṅkivikṣa ṣāmī 1} \\
\text{ma vapaḥ āśmadya gūhā puṇḍravardhṇyakṛpāḥ: saṃśād bhaḥūrya 1} 6 11\]

6. \(\text{Kimit te viṣṇo paricaksyaṁ bhūt pra yad vavakṣe śipiviṣṭo asmi. Mā varpo asmadapa gūha etad yadanyarūpaḥ samithe babhūtha.}\)

Vishnu, can that manifestive form of your presence be described or ignored? You yourself reveal in the Veda that you are self - refulgent. Pray do not hide off that form of yours from me, nor the other one which manifests in the divine wrath and punishment in the existential battle between good and evil.

\[\text{vāṣṭaḥ te viṣṇavāsa ā kṛṇomi tanme juṣasva śipiviṣṭa havyam. Vardhantu tvā suṣṭutayo giro me yūyaṁ pāta svastibhiḥ sadā naḥ.}\]

Vishnu, lord omnipresent, I do honour to your presence in song and offer it to you as homage in words. O lord of universal light of life, pray accept this offer of homage. May my words of celebration exalt your presence in manifestation. O lord, O divinities of nature and humanity, pray protect and promote us with all means and modes of peace, prosperity and all round well being all ways all time.

Mandala7/Sukta 101

Parjanya Devata, Vasishtha or Kumara Agneya
Maitravaruni Rshi

Chant aloud three voices of the divine Word, Rk, Sama and Yajush verses of the four Vedas headed by the light of Divinity symbolised by the eternal Name: AUM. (They comprise the knowledge, action and prayerful gratitude of total human endeavour, the three being ‘jnana, karma and upasana.) With yajna they distil from the cosmic ocean the milky essence of liquid vitality, soma, elementary form of the cloud, parjanya. That parjanya produces the fiery electric current (herein called the calf) which then gives rise to the seed of vegetation in the form of cloud laden with living rain waters. ‘The calf’ then full grown as ‘the virile bull’ i.e., the cloud, upon the instant roars and thunders, rains and fertilises the earth with the seed of vegetation.

Note: An extension of this knowledge of the evolution of life on earth is found in the science of ‘Panchagni’, five fires, in Chhandogya Upanishad 5, 4-9, and in Brhadaranyaka Upanish 6, 2, 9-14. Chhandogya Upanishad is an explanatory extension of parts of Sama Veda, and Brhadaranyaka Upanishad is a similar work on parts of Yajur Veda. An indication of this science is given in Kathopanishad 1, 1, 12-19. Kathopanishad is an explanatory footnote to Yajur-Veda.

2. \textit{Yo vardhana ośadhīnāṁ yo apāṁ yo viśvasya jagato deva īṣe. Sa tridhātu śaraṇāṁ śarma yamsat-trivartu jyotiḥ svabhīṣṭyasme.}

He that generates and augments the vegetation and generates the waters and the power that orders and rules over the entire moving universe may, we pray, give us three fold health and peace of body, mind and soul and bless us with threefold shelter against heat, cold and rain, and give us threefold light of earth, heaven and the middle regions for our well being all round.

3. \textit{Starīru tvad bhavati sūta u tvad yathāvaśaṁ tanvāṁ cakra eṣaḥ. Pituh payaḥ prati grībhāṇati mātā tena pitā vādhatē tena putraḥ.}

By virtue of you the heifer becomes fertilized, from you this soul assumes the body form it takes according to its latencies, the mother receives the shower of fertility from the father, by which, again, the father receives extension of the self and the off spring grows in body.
4. Yasmin viśvāni bhuvanāni tāsthustisro dyāvastredhā sasrurāpah. Trayaḥ kośāsa upa-secanāso madhvaḥ ścotaṁtyabhito virapām.

(What is the ultimate parjanya, source of life and its joy?) That in whom abide all regions of the universe, all three heavens, i.e., highest, middle and the lower, or the earth, the sky and the heaven of light, in whom the three currents of air, light and water energy flow, or the three grades of karma operate, i.e., sanchit (past), kriyamana (present) and prarabdha (conditional) rule the soul, and in whom three body-forms of the soul, i.e., karana sharira (causal body), suṣkṣma sharira (subtle body) and sthula sharira (gross body) overflow with energy and shower the honey sweets of pleasure, enlightenment and the ecstasy of ananda upon the soul in abundance: that is the ultimate cloud from whom life flows.

5. Idaṁ vacaḥ parjanyāya svarāje hṛdo astvantaram tajjujoṣat. Mayobhuvo vrṣṭiyaḥ santvasme suippalā oṣadhīr-devagopāḥ.

This song of adoration, spontaneous flow of love from the heart, in honour of the self - refulgent sovereign cloud, lord infinite, supreme source of life, may the lord accept and cherish to the very core of divine being, and may the imprint abide in our heart too. May the showers of rain be full of peace and abundance for us. May the herbs and trees be profuse in fruit, give life and protective health to noble humanity and be protected and promoted by noble humanity.

That lord is the infinite reservoir of the seeds of existence, mighty abundant and generous, from whom flows the eternal cycle of life. Therein abides the very soul of existence in motion and stabilised in motion. May the lord sustain, protect and promote the abundant flow of truthful life in action for me for a full span of hundred years. O lord, O clouds, O showers of rain, protect and promote us by all modes and means of happiness and well being all round all ways all time.

Mandala7/Sukta 102

Parjanya Devata, Vasishtha or Kumara Agneya Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Parjanyāya pra gāyata divasputrāya mīḷhuṣe.
   Sa no yavasamicchatu.

   Sing in praise of the mighty generous and virile
Parjanya, the cloud that gives us showers of life and joy. It is the child of light and saviour of the brilliant. May the cloud, that bearer and harbinger of life and joy, give us lovely food for body, mind and soul.

Celebrate the Parjanya, cloud of the showers of life and existence, who generates the Golden Egg, Hiranyagarbha, the seed of moving stars and revolving planets, herbs and trees, cows and horses and the humans, and the cloud which then brings the showers of living waters and vests the seeds of life in earth for vegetation and all that moves and achieves and all the human race for the continuance of life in existence.

To him, the omnipotent omnificent Parjanya, life bearing cloud, offer the sweetest oblations into the fiery mouth of the yajna vedi with selfless surrender of love and non-violence so that he may keep and help us keep the unity and integrity of the earth and environment well in order and maintain the integrity and harmony of humanity and culture in a state of creativity and progressive continuity of a familial order.
Mandala7/Sukta 103

Mandukah (Parjanya) Devata, Vasishtha
Maitravaruni Rshi

Devoted Brahmanas dedicated to Brahma, supreme spirit of the universe, observing the sacred vows of discipline in silence for a yearly session, spontaneously burst into the chant of divine hymns, inspired by the cloud of divine showers and celebrate the divine spirit, the divine voice and the divine shower with enthusiasm.

When the heavenly waters shower upon these celebrants, like rain on frogs who have been hybernating in a dry pond like empty leather bags, they revive with exhilaration, they burst into chant, and the chant of these celebrants seems like the eager lowing of mother cows for their calves or like the excitement of the heart on the reflection of a new revelation on the imagination.

And when the rainy season has set in, then, if the cloud showers rain upon these longing celebrants of life, thirsting for the divine waters of life, one goes to meet another, chanting and shouting hilariously like the child going to meet the father.

On the fall of divine showers they seize upon each other while both experience the ecstasy of meeting and the rain. When the celebrant is soaked in the rain, the spotted versatile one springs forward and communicates with the green one in concentration in the language of intimacy.

5. Yadeśāmanyo anyasya vācam śāktasyeva vadati śikṣamāṇaḥ. Sarvāṁ tadeśāṁ samṛdheva parva yat suvāco vadathanādhyapsu.

When one of these speaks to the other, they seem to repeat each other’s language like pupils repeating the words of the teacher. While communicating like this they jump and play on the water, their bodies swell with joy and the pride of being.

Gomāyureko ajamāyurekahaḥ pṛśnireko haritā eka eśām. Samānaṁ nāma bibhrato virūpāḥ purū-trā vācam pipiśurvedantāḥ.

One of them croaks like a cow, another like a goat, one of them is spotted, another is green. Of different voice and colour, they bear the same one name, the “manduka”, the celebrant, but they seem to communicate in many different languages.

Brāhmaḥasāḥ atirātre na some saro na pūrṇa-mabhitā vadantuḥ. Saṁvatsarasya tadaḥ pariṣṭha yanmanḍūkāḥ prāvrṣīṇāṁ babhūva.

O Brahmanas, devotees of supreme Brahman, at the end of the annual session when the last night is over, then, at the time before dawn, abide as in meditation and yajnic celebration just like the frogs who play, rejoice and celebrate around the overflowing lake when the showers of the season begin.

Brāhmaṇāsah somino vācamakrata brahma kṛṇvantāḥ parivatsariṇāṁ. Adhvaryavo gharna ke cit.

Brahmanas engaged in the yearly soma yajna for peace and harmony conduct the yajna in honour of the Supreme Brahman and chant the Vedic mantras at the end of the first year. The priests facing the fire and soaked in sweat emerge as if from seclusion in the cave.

These Brahmanas, leading lights of the yajnic order, do not neglect, never violate, but strictly abide by the divinely ordained twelve month seasons and the discipline and observances prescribed. At the end of the year when the rains set in they emerge seasoned and tempered in the heat of yajnic fire and attain their freedom.

All those that speak and sound like nature in motion give us something; all those that speak and sound like nature and spirit unborn and eternal give us something; all those that speak and sound like the spectrum of colours in various forms give us something; all those that speak and sound like the dark and green in life and nature give us something: all these give us wealths of the world. Indeed all that speak and sound and celebrate nature and the eternal spirit of nature give us hundreds of wealths and values of existence on the move, advance us and give us full health and age in the thousandfold business of creative living and lead us to fulfilment and ultimate freedom. (Such is the gift of nature in the rainy season.)

Indra-Somau, Indra, Soma, Agni, Devah, Gravana, Marutah, Vasishtha, Prthirvi-Antarikshe, Devatah, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi.

Indra-Soma, O lord and commander of power, peace and justice, O lord and master keeper of love, peace and harmony, subject the evil and wicked to the heat of discipline and correction or punish and reduce them to nullity. O generous and virile lord and ruler, let not the forces of darkness grow, keep them down, let not the misguided rise and spread out, shut these down and far off. Let the hoarders, grabbers, ogres and devourers be subjected to law and punishment, destroy the exploiters, stop them and let their fangs be blunted and rooted out.

Indra-Soma, lord and master of peace and power, love and justice, let the sinner and the criminal, the supporter and admirer of sin and crime along with the sin and crime, and the tormentor of the good and innocent go to the fire of discipline, punishment, or elimination like a handful of dirt meant for the fire. Never compromise with the enemy of nature, divinity, humanity and the wisdom of humanity. Rule out the cannibal and the carrion eater, the man of hate and evil eye, the sceptic, the cynic and the negationist. For them, have the disdain they deserve and either correct them or eliminate them.

Indra-Soma, fix the evil doer and throw him into a deep dungeon of darkness without remission so that by reason of that punishment no one again may raise his head for evil doing. That power of yours full of patience, fortitude and courage, that righteous passion of yours be for the destruction of evil and sabotage against life and social harmony.

4. \textit{Indrāsomā vartayatāṁ dīva vadhā saṁ pṛthivyā aghaśarinsāya tarhaṇam. Ut takṣataṁ svaryaṁ parvatebhyo yena rakṣo vāvṛdhānaiṁ nījūrvathāḥ.}

Indra-Soma, from heaven and earth, from thunder and lightning and the showers of clouds, from the light of idealism, love and generosity and down to earth realism, bring unfailing laws of punishment and correction against sin and crime, acts and policies against poverty, disease, unemployment and wilful sloth, and against the supporters of sin and crime as well as against compromisers with negativities and negationists of evil. Enact law of incentive and encouragement for the generous, and blazing prohibitions for the adamantine evil so that you nip and burn off rising crime and evil in the bud.

Indra-Soma, lord of power and force, lord of peace and harmony, turn all round, revolve your search lights and from the skies shoot out your weapons of defence and offence, and with fiery, thunder-tipped, fatally destructive, irresistible and inviolable weapons fix the voracious ogres, strike them on the precipice and throw them into the abyss, running off into silence and oblivion without uttering a sigh of pain or voice of protest.

Indra-Soma, leading powers of governance and peace, like mighty forces in harness ruling the nation, may this prayer of mine, which, with the best of my intention and understanding I address to you as an exhortation, reach you and inspire you and guide you all round, and may you, like the protector and ruler of the nation as you are, make these words of prayer, exhortation and adoration fruitful.

And remember, be watchful and alert against the malignant, evil and treacherous forces, ward them off and eliminate them with the fastest interceptors and destroyers at the very outset. Indra-Soma, let there be no peace, nothing easy, for the evil doer whoever any time may try to injure, sabotage or enslave us out of jealousy, malignity or enmity.

8.  Yo mā pākena manasā carantam-abhicašte aṁrtebhīr-vacbhiḥ. Āpa iva kāśinā samgrbhītā asannas-tvāsata indra vaktā.

And while I live and act and behave with a mature mind of purity and truth, if someone malign me with false words, let him be caught up like water in the hand grip and evaporate in the heat and, O lord Indra, ruler and law giver of power, let him be reduced to nothing because he speaks nothing but falsehood.

O Soma, lord of peace and justice, if there are those who with their smartness and fast actions malign, lacerate and deprive the man of purity, truth and immaculate honour and spotless reputation, or with their powers and prestige denigrate the man of goodness and charitable action and bring disgrace upon him, deliver such men to the sufferance of darkness and the pain of remorse or let them suffer the fangs of deprivation themselves.

10. Yo no rasaṁ dipsati pitvo agne yo aśvānāṁ yo gavāṁ yastanūnām. Ripuḥ stenaḥ steyakṛd dabhrametu ni ṣa hīyatāṁ tanvā tanā ca.

Whoever pollutes the flavour, taste and vitality of our food and injures or impairs the vigour and power of our horses, cows and our bodies, let such an enemy, the thief, the robber and saboteur, O lord of light and vitality, Agni, be reduced to nullity and himself suffer debility of body and even deprivation from self-extension and further growth.

11. Paraḥ so astu tanvā tanā ca tisraḥ pṛthivīradho astu viśvāḥ. Prati śusyatu yaśo asya devā yo no divā dipsati yaśca naktam.

O divinities of nature and humanity, he who wants to injure and destroy us in the day and in the night, must stay far off by his personal presence and also by the progeny of his evil tendencies and even fall lower than all the three orders of earthly existence, i.e., lower far than the good, the bad and the indifferent. His honour and reputation would dry up and evaporate to zero and there would be none even to remember him after. Let it be so with such a person.

Words of truth and words of untruth rival and contend with each other. Of these, the one that is true to the extent it is true and that which is simple and natural, this Soma, lord of peace, harmony and the goodness of life, preserves and protects, and the untrue, he destroys. This simple and straight natural knowledge, the lord reveals for the man who has the desire and ambition to know the truth and reality of life.

Soma, lord of truth, peace and harmony, does not call forth the crooked to the distinction between truth and untruth, nor does he impel the selfish kshatriya, ruler administrator, who parades his power and valour in a false manner, nor does he incite the two toward the untrue. But he does destroy the evil and the wicked and also the one who speaks the untruth, since both the evil and the liar end up in the bonds of Indra, lord of justice and power.

If I were a worshipper of falsehood as my divine ideal, or if I adore the lord and divinities falsely, deceiving them as if, then O lord of light and truth, Agni, you would be angry with me. But I have not been thus, then why would you, knowing everything born in existence, feel angry with us? Not at all, because only the speakers of falsehood would suffer your wrath and punishment.

If I were a demon on the move, and if I tormented any person in life, then let me suffer death today just now. But I am not such, nor have I done so. Then let that man be forsaken of all his ten faculties of power and prana who falsely proclaims that I am a demonic tormentor of others.

Whoever says that I am a devil even though I am not a devil, and whoever says that he is innocent and immaculate even though he is a devil, may Indra, lord of power and justice, punish such a person with his mighty thunderbolt. May such a falsifier fall to the abyss as the worst of all living beings.

17. Pra yā jīgāti khargaleva naktamapa druḥā tanvāṁ gūhamānā. Vavrāṁ anantāṁ ava sā padiṣṭa grāvāṇo ghnantu rakṣasa upabdaiḥ.

And she that goes about at night, hiding her person like the spirit of hate and violence, a she owl as if, let her fall into the bottomless deep of darkness where the stones of evil and darkness itself would destroy her with a clang.

O Maruts, vibrant social powers of vigilance and action, stay among the people, keenly watch for the forces of evil and violence, and there, grab them and crush them all that fly about like birds over the nights and cause disturbance and violence in the divine morning yajnas of love and non-violence for creative production and advancement.

Indra, lord of power and justice, from the light of heaven and wisdom of the sages, bring up and strike the thunderbolt of justice and correction tempered and sharpened with soma for peace and progress, and refine and enlighten the noble people dedicated to peace and happiness. From front and back, up and down, seize the wicked and the destroyers and punish them with the bolt.

20. Eta u tye patayanti śvayātava indraṁ dipsanti dipsavo’dābhyam. Śiśīte śakrah piśunebhyo vadham nūnaṁ sṛajadaśāniṁ yātumadbhyaḥ.

These miscreants with the mentality of street curs roam around, pull people down, and try to damage Indra, the ruler, who is otherwise indomitable. Indra then, commander of power and force, sharpens the thunderbolt, the edge of justice and punishment, for these crafty saboteurs on the prowl and strikes the fatal blow upon them.

Indra is the lordly power that throws off the upcoming saboteurs who damage the inputs and infrastructure of yajnic development, he does so for the peace and progress of the human community. He is mighty powerful just like what the axe is for the wood, breaking down the evil and wicked destroyers like pots of clay whenever they raise their head.

22. Ulūkayātuṁ śuśulūkayātuṁ jahi śvayātumuta kokayātum. Suparṇayātumuta grdhrayātuṁ dṛṣadeva pra mṛṇa rakṣa indra.

Indra, refulgent and potent ruler of the world, crush the evil and the wicked like pieces of clay with a stone: the fiend in the garb of an owl or an owlet or a dog or a wolf or a hawk or a vulture. They are covert, stealthy, clever, jealous and growling, cruel destroyers, cunning and voracious.
23. Mā no rakṣo abhi naḍyātumāvatāmapocchatu mithunā yā kimīdīnā. Prthivi naḥ pārthivāt pāṭvamhaso’ntarikṣaṁ divyāt pātvasmān.

Let no wicked demonic forces harm and destroy us. Let the darkness of tormentors harming us either by joint force or by doubt and scepticism be off. May the earth protect us against earthly sin and crime. Let the sky protect us against dangers from above.

Indra, punish and eliminate the man demon. Punish and eliminate the woman demon who destroys by deception and crafty design. Let the stranglers of life who play with life and death lose their own throat and let them never see the rising sun.

Indra and Soma, lord of power and peace, justice and governance, love and majesty, watch everything that happens and enlighten us too. Shine, reveal and proclaim what is happening and warn us too. Keep awake and let us rise too into awakenment. Shoot the arrow upon the demon destroyers, strike the thunderbolt upon the covert saboteurs.

O friends, do not worship any other but One, be firm, never remiss, worship only Indra, sole lord absolute, omnipotent and infinitely generous, and when you have realised the bliss of the lord's presence, sing songs of divine adoration spontaneously, profusely, again and again.

Worship Indra only, who most spontaneously rushes to the devotee for protection and upon the evil for punishment, correction or destruction. He is profusely and potently generous, free from age and decay, patient and forbearing giver of peace and nourishment to people like the meek cow and motherly earth, saviour from hate and jealousy, most adorable, giver of both material well being (abhyudaya) and spiritual freedom (nihshreyas), most munificent and majestic, and lord ruler and protector of both nature and the soul.

Although these many people invoke you and pray for protection and progress for themselves in many different ways, yet, we pray, our adoration and prayers and all this wealth, honour and excellence bestowed upon us by you be dedicated to you and always, day and night, exalt your munificence and glory.

O lord of might and majesty, the wise, the noble and the vibrant leaders of the people, by your grace, cross over all obstacles of their struggle for life and success, whenever they face any. Pray, come lord and give us instant energy of versatile form for our protection and victory at the earliest.
5. Mahe cana tvām-adrīvah parā śuṅkāya deyām. Na sahasrāya nāyutāya vajrivo na śatāya śatāmagha.

O lord of infinite wealth, power and majesty, wielder of the thunderbolt of justice and punishment, breaker of the clouds and mountains, bless me that I may never give up my devotion to you for the greatest material return, not for a thousand, not for a million, not even for the boundless wealth of the world.

6. Vasyāṁ indrāśi me pituruta bhrātur-abhuñjataḥ. Mātā ca me chadayathāḥ samā vaso vasutva-nāya rādhase.

You command greater wealth, power and prestigious settlement for me than my father, you are closer to me than my indifferent brother. Only my mother and you are equal to provide me solace and protection, O shelter of the universe, for my wealth and celebrity in success (my mother as individual mother and you as universal mother).

7. Kveyatha kvedasi purutrā ciddhi te manaḥ. Alarṣi yudhma khajakṛt purandara pra gāyatrā agāsiṣuḥ.

Where do you move and reach? Where do you reside and abide? No one can say. Your mind and presence is everywhere, universal. O lord of the warlike dynamics of existence, pivot and churner of the universe, breaker of the citadels of darkness and ignorance, come and bless us, the celebrants and singers of Gayatri hymns invoke and adore you.

Prāsmai gāyatram-arcata vāvāturyaḥ purandaraḥ. Yābhiḥ kāṇvasyopa barhirāsadamḥ yāsad vajrī bhinat puraḥ.

O celebrants of Indra, lord of the thunderbolt, sing hymns of adoration in Gayatri music in honour of Indra who is breaker of the strongholds of darkness which oppose and oppress the lord’s devotees, so that, pleased by these adorations, the lord may reveal his presence and grace the mind and vedi of the enlightened sages and break through the citadels of darkness to bless the devotees.

Ye te santi daśagvināḥ śatino ye sahasrīṇaḥ. Aśvāso ye te vṛṣaṇo raghudruvas-tebhir-nas-tūyamā gahi.

Indra, breaker of the citadels of darkness and ignorance to light, come post haste to us with all those lightning powers and forces of yours which are vigorous and generous, radiating into all the ten directions in a hundred and a thousand ways.

Today I invoke Indra, I invoke the motherly spirit of the universe, giver of total fulfilment of the heart’s desire, pleased and stirred by the chant of Gayatri songs of adoration, omnipotent and omnificent, generous as Mother Nature, giver of ample gifts beyond the earth and the earthly cow, harbinger of showers of the cherished nectar milk of life, all blissful and gracious.

Indra, lord immanent, omnipresent and all energiser, gives the initial stroke of motion to everything on the move such as the sun and the cloud by the waves of cosmic energy. Thus the lord of countless actions of cosmic yajna brings the thunderstroke of cosmic energy to move the sun, wielder of the earth, and he brings the thunder stroke of lightning to break the cloud into rain. (Indra thus is the unmoved, all immanent, original mover of the universe.)

Indra, lord almighty, maker and breaker of clouds and mountains, free from anger and fear we adore you and pray: Give us the grace that we may never be like the lowest of human species with nothing to be proud of, let us never be like the indifferent and the depressed, let us never be reduced to the state of forsaken thicket of dead wood.

Indra, omnipotent lord, destroyer of darkness and ignorance, we pray that, gently and at peace without anger or impatience, we always worship and meditate on you and, by virtue of your grandeur and glory, we should celebrate and exalt your honour and rejoice with...
12. Ya rte cidabhiśriṣaḥ purā jatrubhya ātṛdaḥ. Samdhātā samdhimī maghavā purūvasur-īṣkartā vihrutam punaḥ.

Indra is that vibrant immanent lord of unbounded natural health and assertive life energy who, without piercing and without ligatures, provides for the original jointure of the series of separate vertebrae and collar bones and then, later, heals and sets the same back into healthy order if they get dislocated or fractured.

Indra, lord almighty, maker and breaker of clouds and mountains, free from anger and fear we adore you and pray: Give us the grace that we may never be like the lowest of human species with nothing to be proud of, let us never be like the indifferent and the depressed, let us never be reduced to the state of forsaken thickets of dead wood.

Indra, omnipotent lord, destroyer of darkness and ignorance, we pray that, gently and at peace without anger or impatience, we always worship and meditate on you and, by virtue of your grandeur and glory, we should celebrate and exalt your honour and rejoice with exciting songs and yajnic sessions.

And if the lord omnipotent, Indra, listen to my song of divine celebration, then may the offers of homage and oblations of soma, quick and fast, augmented by holy waters, reaching the pure and immaculate lord, please and exalt him and delight us with success.

O lord, pray come and accept the joint praise and adorations of your friends and devotees. And may the spontaneous and heart felt prayers and adorations of the wealthy and powerful also reach you today. And now it is my time and desire to offer my song of adoration.
O friends and celebrants of Indra, lord omnipotent, extract the soma with grinders, mix and stir it in waters. Then leading lights of yajna, refining it like the concentration of sun rays, offer it into the fire and milk out waters in showers from space for the flowing streams.

Note: This mantra is a metaphor of meditation and spiritual realisation also. When you churn the world of your sense experiences, thought and memory, extract the essential value and offer it into the fire of meditation, then the light of divinity descends on you and your life is changed. It is then that the light of divinity flows into the channels of your thought and action.

अध्रु व्या अस्थ तन्वो गिरा ममाच्छव्यज्ञाता सुंक्ता पृण ॥ १८ ॥

O lord refulgent and omnipotent, whether on earth or in the regions of light or even beyond the expansive light of heaven, be pleased and exalted by this refined and radiating voice of adoration and, O lord presiding spirit of yajna, bless us and our children with perfect fulfilment.

इन्द्राय सु मुदिन्ताम्ब सामं साता वर्णयम् ॥
शक्र एण्ण पीपयद्विययाधिया हिन्वां न बौजयम ॥ १९ ॥

19. Indrāya su madintamāṃ somaṃ sotā vareṇyam. Śakra eṇam pīpayad viśvayā dhiyā hinvānam na vājayum.

O celebrants of Indra, seekers of spiritual perfection, for the attainment of holiness of thought, karma and vision, extract the choicest, most exhilarating soma from life and offer it to Indra, spirit of the universe, and the lord omnipotent would bless this seeker of fulfilment calling upon the lord with universal intelligence and will for a life of perfect action.

मा त्वा सार्मस्य गल्दया सदा याच्छेण हिरी ।
भूरिणि मूर्णि न सर्वन्यु चुकुढं क इर्षानं न यांचिषत ॥ २० ॥

O lord, always beseeching you for one thing or another with my words of prayer as with each drop of soma offered to you, I pray, I may not provoke you to anger in yajna, you who are infinite giver and sole ruler of the universe like a lion of the forest. Listen, O lord, who doesn’t ask of the ruler and the munificent?

मदनिष्टं मद्युगमुगणण शर्वसा ।
विश्वषां तस्त्तारं मदुच्युतं मदु हि ष्मा ददाति नः ॥ २१ ॥

When the lord is pleased with our devotion, then he grants us the most exciting joy along with brilliant strength and power which we love and pray for with enthusiasm and which eliminates all pride of the ego and helps us cross over all challenges of life.
22. Śevāre vāryā puru devo marīya dāśuṣe. Sa sun-vate ca stuvate ca rāsate viśvagūrto ariṣṭutaḥ.

In the treasure hold of yajna, the self-refulgent lord universally adored keeps wealth and excellence of choice for the generous mortal which he, acknowledged and adored even by adversaries, gives to the celebrant and the worshipful lover of soma for homage to the lord.

एन्द्र याहि मत्स्व चित्रणे द्रव राधःसा।
सरा न पौर्युदरं सपीतिभिः सार्मभिःसूर स्तिफरम्। २३।

23. Endra yāhi matsva citreṇa deva rādhasā. Saro na prāsyudaram sapītibhirā somebhiruru sphen-

Indra, lord of glory, come with various wondrous forms of wealths of the world and let us rejoice in the bliss of your presence. Like the universal reservoir, fill our vast world of existence with exciting and soothing wealth, honour and excellence for complete self-fulfilment.

आ त्वां सहस्रमा श्रातं युक्ता रथ्य हिरणययेः।
बहुयुजा हरय इन्द्र कृशिनः वहैन्तु सार्मपीतयः। २४।

24. Ā tvā sahasramā śataṁ yuktā rathe hirṇyaye. Brahmayujo haraya indra keśino vahantu soma-

May the hundreds and thousands of forces of nature and humanity harnessed to the golden chariot of the universe, radiant with light and dedicated to divinity, invoke and invite you hither into the heart so that we may experience the bliss of divine presence.
25. Ā tvā rathe hiranyaye harī mayūraśepī. Śitisṛṣṭā vahatāṁ madhvo andhaso vivakṣaṇasya pītaye.

May the vibrant forces of divine energy, joined to your golden chariot of the universe with rhythmic majesty like the peacock’s feather tail and mighty power with circuitous motion of energy currents, radiate your presence here so that you may acknowledge and accept our love and homage and we experience the bliss of divine presence.

Like the eternal lord of love fond of the celebrant’s homage, come and accept the devotee’s love and faith distilled from life’s experience. The flow of the ecstatic celebrant’s clairvoyance pure and sweet is full of ananda and radiates from the heart for spiritual bliss.

He is one, unique and incomparable, great by his omnipotence and action, refulgent and supreme by his laws and observance. May the lord, like the light of grace, descend on us, may he never be away, may be ever respond to our call and come to our yajna and never forsake us.

28. Tvaṁ puraṁ cariṣṇvaṁ vadhaiḥ śuṣṇasya sam piṇak. Tvaṁ bhā anu caro adha dvitā yadindra havyo bhuvah.

With fatal strokes of arms, you destroy the forces of evil and exploitation on the rampant, you are the light of life and bless the lights of life in action, and thus you are doubly adorable and worshipped in two complementary aspects, as destroyer and as preserver, O lord omnipotent and self-refulgent.

29. Mama tvā sūra udite mama madhyandine divaḥ. Mama prapitve apiśarvare vasavā stomāso avṛt-sata.

O lord of the universe, shelter of life and existence, at the dawn of sunrise let my prayers and songs of exaltation reach you. At the middle of the day when the sun is on the high, let my prayers and songs of adoration reach you. And when the day is over and night is fallen and the stars shine, let my songs of prayer and peace reach you.
30. Stuhi stuhīdete ghā te maṁhiśṭhāso maghonām. ninditāśvah prapathī paramajyā maghasya medhyātithe.

O Medhyatithi, venerable traveller on life’s highway, O guest, O host, pray to Indra, adore him, and these too around you, all richest of the rich and mightiest of the mighty, should adore him: omnipresent, faster than the fastest, instantly moving all round over paths of infinity, commanding the rule and dispensation of the highest wealth and power of existence.

31. Ā yadaśvān vananvataḥ śraddhayāham rathe ruham. Uta vāmasya vasunaścikelati yo asti yādvaḥ paśuh.

When I control the outgoing senses and mind and look within riding as if the body chariot with faith, then in that state of experience whoever is refined and watchful knows the inner secrets of this beautiful world of existence.

32. Ya ṛjrā mahyāṁ māmahe saha tvacā hiraṇyayā. Eṣa viśvānyabhyaṣṭu saubhaga’’saṁgasya svanadrathah.

Who gives me dynamic and powerful gifts of life with a golden cover and thus does me honour may be blest with the highest good fortunes of the world and may this devoted man go forward in life by a resounding chariot.

Agni, omnipresent light of life, the dedicated man of charity conducting yajnic and spiritual projects in science and spirituality exceeds others by tens and thousands especially when he gives to me ten highly brilliant and creative gifts rising like lotus from a lake.

34. Anvasya sthūraṁ daśrśe purastād-anastha āururavarambamāṇaḥ. Śaśvatī nāryabhi-cakṣyāha subhadram-arya bhojanam bibharṣi.

The gross form of the universe is seen emerging from the infinite transphysical spiritual reality. The eternal Mother Nature watches and says: O lord of gracious charity, you alone hold the blessed food for the life of mortal humanity.
1.  Idaṁ vaso sutam-andhaṁ pibā supūrṇam-udaram.
   Anābhayin rarimā te.

   O lord of the world’s treasure of wealth, honour and excellence, here is this exhilarating soma nectar of love and devotion distilled from the heart and soul. Pray drink of it to your heart’s content. We offer it to you, lord beyond fear.

2.  Nrībhirdhūtaṁ suto aśnairavyo vāraiḥ paripūtaḥ.
    Aśvo na nikto nādiśu.

   Stirred by best of men, crushed and filtered by men of adamantine character, purified and guarded by best of the brave, it is sparkling like sun rays reflected on the river waters.

3.  Taṁ te yavam yathā gobhiḥ svādumakarma śrīṇantaḥ.
    Indra tvāsmint-sadhamāde.

   That sparkling soma drink of devotion seasoned with barley, mixed with milk and cream, we, blenders, having prepared it, offer to you in this house of celebration.

4. \textit{Indra it somapā eka indraḥ sutapā viśvāyuḥ. Antardevān martyāṁśca.}

Among ordinary mortals and among divines of wisdom and vision, Indra, the karmayogi, alone is the protector of soma, Indra, the man of knowledge and dedication, alone is the valuer of the worshipper’s devotion and homage as he alone has the world vision.

5. \textit{Na yam śukro na durāśīrṇa ṭprā uruvyacasam. Apasprṛṇvate suhārdam.}

Neither the most sparkling soma of devotion nor the most sophisticated and aromatic, nor the most delightful, ever satiate the lord infinite of the holiest heart and love.

6. \textit{Gobhir-yadīmanye asmanmṛgaiṁ na vrā mṛga- yante. Abhitsaranti dhenubhiḥ.}

Multitudes of people other than us approved him and try to inveigle him with creamy entertainment and sweet flattering words of adoration just like a hunter baiting a lion (but they fail).

For self-refulgent and generous Indra who is fond of the soma dedication of devotees, there are three sessions of soma distilled and offered in homage in the devotee’s own home of yajna and prayer, at dawn, at mid-day and in the evening before night fall.

In the same one session of yajna, there are three vessels of soma dripping with the nectar and three ladles of ghrta overflowing with homage for the fire in honour of the lord.

Celestial soma, divine devotion of the dedicated, you are pure and potent, dedicated to the joy of many and the lord eternal, and seasoned in the process with milk, cream and curds. Surely you are the most delightful love of the heroic brave.

10. Ime ta indra somāsah sostvār asme sutasah. Ākṣrā ŒÜiraÅ yœcante.

These are for you, Indra, soma oblations of the most potent order distilled by us. Pure and powerful they are, offered in homage with prayer and hope for a share of the celestial bliss of faith and love.

Indra, lord of glory, come and join this soma celebration of milk and barley delicacies with joy. You command the wealth, honour, excellence and glory of the world, I hear. I believe, I share and celebrate.

12. H¾tsu p¶tosopho yudhyante durmadŒso na surŒyŒm. Udharna nagnŒ jarante.

12. \textit{Hṛṣu pītāso yudhyante durmadāso na surāyām.} \\ \textit{Udharna nagnā jarante.}

Draughts of soma create exhilarations in the heart unlike intoxication and illusions of wine, and the celebrants adore the spirit divine as the ocean of ecstasy.

13. \textit{Revāṅ id revataḥ stotā syāt tvāvato maghonah.} \\ \textit{Predu harivaḥ śrūtasya.}

Indra, master and commander of dynamic forces, may the celebrant of the brilliant, bountiful and renowned like you be brilliant, prosperous and celebrated. That is but natural.

उक्थथे चून श्रस्थ्यमाणुमगारूरिरा चिंकत।
न गायत्रे गीयमानम्॥ १४॥

Na gāyatrami gīyamānam.

Indra, lord of power and piety, the man attached to divinity in faith and opposed to doubt and disloyalty knows the words of praise spoken by a man of doubtful faith as much as he knows the songs of adoration sung by a man of faith (and makes a distinction between the two).

मा ने इन्द्र पीवलव मा शर्दुः परस्य दा:।
शिष्ठे शाचीवः: शाचीभि:॥ १५॥

15. Mā na indra pīyatnave mā śardhate parā dāḥ.
Śikṣā śacīvaḥ śacībhiḥ.

Indra, lord of refulgent power, give us not away to the scornful abuser nor to the wild tyrant. With your laws and powers, pray discipline, rule, instruct and enlighten us.

वायमु त्वा ततित्तत्वा इन्द्रे त्वायन्तः: सक्षायः।

16. Vayamu tvā radidarthā indra tvāyantah sakhāyah.
Kanvā ukthebhir-jarante.

Indra, we too have the same aims and objectives as you. We are your friends and admirers. We know and wish to achieve, and with all words of praise and appreciation, we adore you as others, wise devotees, do.

\textit{Na ghemanyadā papana vajrinnapaso} naviṣṭau. \textit{Tavedu stomāṁ ciketa.}

Indra, lord of thunder and justice, in the beginning of a new plan, action or programme of holiness, I adore none else but only you. I know only one song of adoration and that is for you alone.

\textit{Icchanti devāḥ sunvantāṁ na svapnāya} spṛha-yanti. \textit{Yanti pramādam-atandrāḥ.}

Divines of brilliance and holy action love those engaged in creative actions of piety. They care not for dreams and love no dreamers. Active, wakeful and realistic beyond illusion, they achieve the joy of success in life.

\textit{O śu pra yāhi vājebhirmā hṛṇīthā} abhyasmān. \textit{Mahāṁ iva yuvajāniḥ.}

Come along with us with all your strength and enthusiasm without hesitation or embarrassment, and go forward like a great hero inspired by a youthful maiden.
20. Mo śvadya durhaṇāvāntsāyam karadāre asmat. Aśrīra iva jāmātā.

Invincible and unconquerable, come to our yajnic celebrations today, delay not till the last hour, of evening, hesitating like an indigent son-in-law.

21. Vidmā hyasya virasya bhūridāvarīṁ sumatim. Triṣu jātasya manāmsi.

We know the mind, noble intentions and generous liberty of this brave hero, Indra, who is risen high in life’s three active fields of thought, energy and stability.

22. Ā tū śiṅca kaṇvamantāṁ na ghā vidma śavasānāt. Yaśastaram śatamūteḥ.

O man, with the nectar of soma, regale Indra, who commands wisdom and the wise and a hundred ways of defence, protection and progress. Indeed for reasons of his heroism and grandeur we know no one else more honourable and renowned than he.
23. \textit{Jyeṣṭhena sotarindṛayā somāṁ vīrāya śakrāya. Bharā pibannaryāya.}

O maker of soma, bring and serve a drink of prime soma first for Indra, brave, brilliant and manly leader of men, and see that the lord accepts.

या वर्तिष्ठा अव्यधिष्ठवॉवान्तं जमिक्ष्यः ।
वाजं स्तातुक्ष्यं गामन्तं ॥ २४ ॥

24. \textit{Yo vediṣṭho avyathiśvaśvāvantām jaritṛbhyaḥ. Vājaṁ stotṛbhyo gomantam.}

Among men of yajnic love and non-violence, he is the most venerable on the vedi, harbinger of wealth and success for the celebrants and giver of nourishing food and energy full of milk and honey of the land for the singers of hymns.

पन्यंपन्यामित्स्तातार आ धावत मद्दाय ।
सामं वीराय शूराय ॥ २५ ॥

25. \textit{Panyampanyamit sotāra ā dhāvata madyāya. Somāṁ vīrāya śūrāya.}

O makers of soma, to Indra, offer the drink of soma, brave, ecstatic and heroic, and let each draught be more and more delicious and adorable.

पात्रार वृत्रहा सूतमा घो गम्प गर अस्पत ।
नि चमात शूतमूळा ॥ २६ ॥

May the connoisseur of distilled soma, destroyer of darkness, dishonour and destitution, come and never be far away from us. The lord who commands a hundred forces of defence, protection and progress rules all, friends and foes.

27. Eha harī brahmayujā� saṃgāṃ vākṣataḥ saṅkāyam.

Let the brave veterans of knowledge and yajnic karma, dedicated to Veda Brahma and humanity, with holy songs of divinity, invoke the most venerable and celebrated lord here on the vedi as our friend and companion.

Indra, hero of the visor, commander of wisdom and powers of nature and humanity, patron of poets and sages, come and have a drink of delicious soma, come and enjoy the seasoned and matured soma with the celebrant’s devotion. We invoke and invite the leader, friend of the hall of celebration.

29. Stutaścā yāstvā vardhanti mahe rādhase nṛ- mnāya.

Indra, adoring and exhilarating you as the great achiever, honoured by songs of praise, the devotees celebrate and exalt you for the sake of greatness, wealth and excellence of life and their songs glorify you.

30. \textit{Giraśca yāste girvāha ukthā ca tubhyam tāni.}
\textit{Satrā dadhire śavān insi.}

O lord of voice divine and lover of holy song, your words of the holy Veda and the songs sung in your honour, all these together inspire and exalt the grandeur and glory of life divine.

31. \textit{Evedeṣa tuvikūrmir-vājāṇ eko vajrahastah.}
\textit{Sanādamṛkto dayate.}

Only this lord omnipotent of universal karma, the one lord of thunder and justice in hand, inviolable and imperishable, gives us food and energy, success and victory since eternity.

32. \textit{Hantā vrtraṁ daksinenaendraḥ purū puruhūtah.}
\textit{Mahān mahībhīḥ śacībhiḥ.}

Destroyer of darkness and evil by his power and versatility, Indra is universal and universally adored and celebrated. great is he by his glorious majesty, sublime by infinite possibilities.
33. Yasmin viśvās-carṣanāyā uta cyautnā jrayāmsi ca. Anu ghenmandī maghonāḥ.

He in whom entire humanity of the world, and all powers and forces and expansive victories abide and are sustained, surely he is the giver of happiness and competence to humanity for wealth, honour and excellence.

34. Eṣa etānī ca kāreṇḍro viśvā yoṭī śṛṇve. Vājādāvā maghonām.

This Indra does all these wonders, the lord who is celebrated all over the world and who is the giver of power and prosperity to men of honour and excellence.

The one who sustains and supports all and protects the chariot of life moving on course from the unforeseen is the lord who is also the bearer and harbinger of the world’s wealth.

The one that commands knowledge, power and energy with commitment is the generator and harbinger of wealth by dynamic forces. He is the destroyer of darkness and harbinger of light. He is brave and commands the brave. He is ever true to himself and the world and he is the protector of those who are dedicated to work.

37. Yajadhvainām priyamedhā indraṁ satrācā manasā. Yo bhūt somaiḥ satyamadvā.

O lovers and performers of yajna, honour and serve this Indra by homage and yajnic devotion together with heart and soul, he really feels honoured and exalted by the soma of love, devotion and commitment.

O men of knowledge and wisdom, sing in praise of the lord celebrated in song, defender of truth and the truthful, lover of honour and excellence, versatile in form and spirit and instantly victorious in action.

Indra is a friend and mighty commander of forces and, without visible motion or lure of office, gives the gift of speech and powers of perception and intelligence to people who surrender their desires and ambitions to him and act selflessly, depending on him for success.

40. Itthā dhīvantam-adrivaḥ kāṇvam medhyātithim. Meṣo bhūto’bhiyannayah.

Thus, O lord commander of the clouds and mountains, do you reach and guide the celebrant sage of the line of the wise and bless the honoured guest, being a very shower of peace and pleasure of soma.

41. Śiksā vibhindo asmai catvāryayutā dadat. Aṣṭā paraḥ sahasrā.

Indra, destroyer of the fortresses of evil, enmity and poverty, thus teaches and gives his celebrant forty and eight thousand powers and potentials to fight his battles and win.

42. Uta su tye payovṛdhā mākī raṇasya naptyā. janitvanāya māmahe.
O heaven and earth, givers of the liquid energies of life, sustainers of the excitement of the battle of existence, I pray for your favour of generating those powers of sustenance and advancement.

Mandala 8/Sukta 3

1. Pibā sutasya rasino matsvā na indra gomataḥ. Āpirno bodhi sadhamādyo vṛdhe’smāṇ avantu te dhiyāḥ.

   Indra, resplendent and mighty, karma yogi, great performer, come and have a drink of our delicious festive soma distilled and mixed with milk and cream, share the ecstasy, enlighten us, your own people, for progress and prosperity, and may your thoughts and wisdom protect, promote and guide us in life.

   In your guidance and goodwill may we be prosperous and progressive with vibrancy. Hurt us not lest we fall a prey to an enemy. Protect us and advance us to all kinds of success with fulfilment of our aspirations, and lead us in a life of happiness, refinement. and grace.

4. \textit{Ayaṁ sahasram-ṛṣibhiḥ sahaskṛtaḥ samudra iva paprathe. Satyah so asya mahimā griṇe śavo yajñeṣu viprarājye.}

This Indra, adored and exalted by poets and sages a thousand ways to power and glory, rises like the sea. Ever true and inviolable is he, and I celebrate his might and grandeur expanding in the yajnic programmes of the dominion of the wise.

इन्द्रमिद्यतात्तयं इन्द्रं पयुत्यव्ध्वर। ।
इन्द्रं समीक्ष वृनिं हवामुह इन्द्रं धर्यस्य सातयं। । ।

5. \textit{Indramid devatātaya indraṁ prayatyadhvare. Indraṁ samīke vanino havāmaha indraṁ dhana-sya sātaye.}

We invoke Indra for our programmes of natural and environmental development. We invite Indra when the yajna of development is inaugurated. Lovers and admirers dedicated to him, we pray for his grace in our struggles of life, and we solicit his favour and guidance for the achievement of wealth, honour and excellence.

6. Indra, by the power and abundance of his omnipotence, expands and pervades heaven and earth. Indra gives the radiance of light to the sun. All regions of the universe and her children are sustained in life and order in Indra, and in the infinite power, presence and abundance of Indra flow all liquid energies of life’s evolution to their perfection and fulfilment.

7. Indra, men in general, learned experts of vision and wisdom, illustrious powers of law and order, and fighting warriors of defence and protection all together, raising a united voice of praise, prayer and appreciation, with songs of holiness and acts of piety, invoke and invite you, ancient, nearest and most excellent lord of power and lustre, to inaugurate their yajnic celebration of the soma session of peaceful and exciting programme of development.

In the ecstasy of this soma success of achievement through the yajnic programme, Indra augments the strength and enthusiasm of this host and master of the programme, while now as ever before, the people appropriately adore and exalt the greatness of this lord.

O lord resplendent, I come to you and ask for that vigour and wisdom, that knowledge of reality and divinity, that prime acquisition and awareness of values by which, when the battle rages and money and materials are called for, you provide for the retired holy men, scientists, technologists and the inventors and by which you protect the man of advanced special knowledge.

Give us the strength and power by which you protect the citizen for this yajamana, the intelligentsia, and the obedient workers, the strength and power by which you protect the citizen for this yajamana, the intelligentsia,
10. Yenā samudram-asṛjo mahīrapas-tadindra vrṣṇi

Indra, lord omnipotent of creation, I pray for the knowledge and experience of that overwhelming power and potential of yours by which you create the mighty waters and the oceans to roll and flow. That mighty power of this lord is not easily to be realised, the heaven and earth obey it, and when they move they celebrate it in the roaring and resounding music of stars and spheres.

11. Śagdhi na indra yat tvā rayim yāmi suvīryam. Śagdhi

Indra, first and leading power of the world, give us the vigour, wealth and power we ask for. Give us the strength of the first order for the advancement and victory of the dedicated and law abiding, and bless him who celebrates your glory in song.

12. Śagdhi no asya yaddha pauramāvitha dhiya indra kṛpamindra prāvaḥ svarṇaram.

Give us the strength and power by which you protect the citizen for this yajamana, the intelligentsia, and the obedient workers, the strength and power by which you protect and promote for advancement the brilliant, the poor, the weak and disabled and the leading men of the nation on way to common joy and prosperity.

Who among mortals, even the most ardent of constant celebrants, can offer a new song of homage and adoration? Even those who have been singing in praise of Indra have not been able to comprehend his sublime majesty.

Who is the seer and scholar among those who adore you, honour you by yajna, or do homage to your refulgence, that can deliberate on you and understand you? When would you, O lord of honour and glory, Indra, respond to the call of the sage who presses the soma for you? When would you grace the yajnic home of the celebrant?

Brilliant scholars and sages as well as brave heroes of the human nation and loving and intelligent citizens of the land, praising and exalting Indra in one vaulting voice, rise and reach the presence of the lord in a world their own like rays of the sun filling the world of space they know.
The sweetest of honeyed songs of praise and vibrations of homage rise to you flying like victorious, unviolated and invincible chariots laden with gold heading for higher destinations.

Brilliant scholars and sages as well as brave heroes of the human nation and loving and intelligent citizens of the land, praising and exalting Indra in one vaulting voice, rise and reach the presence of the lord in a world their own like rays of the sun filling the world of space they know.

O greatest destroyer of darkness, Indra, omnipotent lord of glory and majesty, blazing ruler and controller of the world, take to the chariot, harness the fastest vital forces of radiance and come from the farthest to us right here and now, with brilliant and indefatigable powers of light, wisdom and bravery, to join us in the soma celebrations of our yajnic victory.
18. Ime hi te kāravo vāvaśurdhiyā viprāso medhasātaye. Sa tvāṁ no maghavannindra ghirvaṇo veno na śṛṇudhī havam.

Indra, lord of power and glory, these scientists, designers and workers, vibrant and intelligent all, love and honour you and shine with their intellect and expertise. O lord adorable of all, listen to our prayer like a lover and admirer of your own celebrants and receive their homage on the success of their yajnic endeavour.

Indra, even from far and wide regions you destroy the forces of darkness and evil, free helpless victims of the mighty violent and crafty demon, set in motion showers of the cloud and open out treasures of the mountain.

When you broke the mighty cloud in showers from the sky and destroyed the evil from earth, the fires of earth shone and rose bright, the sun shone in glory and the soma juices for the celebration of Indra, lord of might and majesty, flowed from the herbs. That was a great deed of prowess worthy of the lord.

(Similarly when Indra, lord almighty, and also the individual soul, throws out the evil from the heart and mind, then the inner light shines bright, the fire of good life is kindled and rises, and the soma spirit of divine joy flows and rolls in the heart. That indeed is a mighty deed of the lord’s prowess, and of the individual soul too.)

21. \textit{Yam me durindro marutaḥ pākasthāmā kaurāyāṇaḥ. Viśveṣāṁ tmanā śobhiṣṭhamupeva divi dhāvamānam.}

The light of knowledge and spiritual enlightenment which Indra, self-refulgent lord, and vibrant saints and sages have given me is stable, mature and universally dynamic, it is the brightest of all wealths of the world in the spiritual essence, and it shines within like the sun coursing in the spaces of light as a divine horse.

22. \textit{Rohitāṁ me pākasthāmā sudhuraṁ kakṣya-prāṁ.
Ādād rāyo vibodhanam.}

Indra, lord of divine and inviolable power, has given me a chestnut horse, a rising sun of crimson hue, the mind, and a smooth axled and strongly built chariot, the body, and wealths of the world, intelligence, awareness and enlightenment.

23. Yasmā anye daśa prati dhurāṁ vahanti vahnayāḥ.
   Astaṁ vayo na tugryam.

   And to me he has given ten others, carriers which carry me forward like birds or sun-rays bearing a mighty king to his royal home. These are ten senses of perception and volition, and the ten pranic energies.

24. Ātmā pitustanūrvāsa ojodā abhyāñjanam. Turīya-mid rohitasya pākasthāmānaṁ bhojaṁ dātāram-abravam.

   The individual self is but filial manifestation in reflection of the father, giver of the soul’s dwelling in body, giver of light and lustre, purifier and sanctifier, divine destroyer of evil, giver and cleanser of mind and its colourful fluctuations. I celebrate the holy father of purity and sanctity, giver of food and energy for the world of stability.

1. Yadindra prāgapāgudaṁ nyagvā hūyase nṛbhiḥ.
   Simā purū nṛṣūto asyānave’śi praśardha turvaśe.
Indra, illustrious lord of the world, ruler and commander of human forces, karmayogi, when you are invoked by people anywhere east or west, north or south, up or down, then, O lord of excellence, you feel highly impelled by those many and come and act as the destroyer of many evils for the people of reverence and exceptional strength.

Yad vā rume ruśame śyāvake kṛpa indra mādayase sacā. Kaṇvāsastvā brahmabhiḥ stomavā-hasa indrā yacchantyā gahi

And since, O lord Indra, you go to the celebrants, illustrious, child-like innocent and the humble and kind alike, sit with them, socialise and enjoy, so the dedicated admirers and learned men of vision and wisdom offer homage and reverence, exalt you with sacred hymns and say: Come, O lord, and accept our tributes and homage.

Yathā gauro apā kṛtam tṛṣyannetyaveriṇām. Āpitve naḥ prapitve tūyamā gahi kaṇveṣu su sacā piba

Just as a thirsty stag in the desert rushes to a pool full of water so, O friend in family of the wise, come morning, come evening, come fast and drink the soma of love and reverence in joy.

Indra, lord of power and glory, may these soma drinks exhilarate you for the bestowal of wealth and honour upon the dedicated lover of the soma of honour and enlightenment. Having won over the soma of victory prize in the contests of competing parties, you drank of the soma of ecstasy of the highest order and for that reason you command the courage and confidence of the victor.

Indra, with courage and confidence you fight out challenges and win victories. With your light and lustre you break down anger and arrogance. O mighty one, all your contestants and adversaries stand motionless against you, fixed as trees.

The youthful warrior who pays you homage and does honour and reverence to you, and the one who gives in charity, in service to you, with holy chants and humility receives the strength of a thousand heroes and, under the guidance and care of the lord, renders his progeny unconquerable and exclusive in merit and prowess.

Let us never feel afraid, let us never tire or feel depressed under your kind care and friendship, commander of blazing lustre. Admirable is your action and prowess, mighty generous lord. We celebrate you and pray we may see that our people and our progeny be industrious and high achievers.

The joyous world of soma in relation to the earth, you illuminate and rule with a fraction of your prowess. Whoever plays his part well and renders his share to the refulgent ruler never regrets nor displeases the ruler ever. Come fast, O lord, rush in and drink the soma mixed with sweets of honey and seasoned with milk.
9. Aśvī rathī surūpa id gomāñ idindra te sakhā. Śvātrabhājā vayasā sacate sadā candro yāti sabhāmupa.

Indra, lord of light and ruling power, your devoted friend ever blest with the powers of life’s progress onwards like a chariot hero of war, enjoying grace of person and culture, wealth of knowledge and riches of the earth, has his full share of good health, full age and gifts of existence, and he goes forward to the assembly of people like the full moon among stars.

Just like a white antelope thirsting for water, come to our yajna and have a drink of soma to your heart’s content. O lord of power, prosperity and blessings of grace, like a cloud of showers you bear and bring the most lustrous courage, patience and fortitude day by day to face the challenges of life.

Hasten, O master of ceremonies, let the soma be prepared and flow forth for service. Indra is thirsty, he has harnessed his mighty chariot forces, indeed the thunderous breaker of clouds has arrived.

Indra, the devout yajamana regards himself as divinely blest when you visit and drink the soma of hospitality. Here is the soma fit for you, matured and poured, pray accept it and drink.

O performers of the yajna of love, loyalty and non-violence, prepare the soma offering of devotion for Indra, lord of the chariot of the world. On the heights of space, the mighty lord’s thunder and clouds of rain are seen pouring forth showers of bliss on the devout yajamana’s love and loyalty of yajnic service.

Across heights of the firmament, mighty currents of divine energy transport Indra, love and power of the spirit of divinity. O lord, may the swift currents of divinity radiating your light and love to the fire of yajna bring you hither to us and bless us in the act of homage.

For our loyalty and the lord’s favour of friendship, we choose to do homage to the lord of universal wealth and bliss of health and nourishment. May the lord almighty, giver of freedom from fear and sin, universally invoked and solicited, enlighten us with intelligence and bless us with the spirit of action for the attainment of freedom, victory and prosperity.

Timely sharpen us and temper us, our intellect, will and action, like the sword in the hands of a warrior, give us the freedom and wealths of life, O lord deliverer from sin and slavery. In you lies all that well-known easily and freely available radiant wealth of life which you set in motion for humanity to achieve.
Across heights of the firmament, mighty currents of divine energy transport Indra, love and power of the spirit of divinity. O Lord, may the swift currents of divinity radiating your light and love to the fire of yajna bring you hither to us and bless us in the act of homage.

I know you, lord giver of health and nourishment, for the sake of favour and success. I know you, lord adorable, for the sake of worship and brilliance. I know no one else, none else delights me. O lord of world’s wealth, shelter of the universe, I offer homage to the divinity, adorable, omnipotent and blissful.

O lord of light and immortality, our cows go far and wide for pasture, let that wealth of ours be always constant and imperishable. O lord most potent giver of health and generous nourishment, be our protector and saviour, and our source of peace and well being for the sake of ultimate victory.

O lord of light and immortality, our cows go far and wide for pasture, let that wealth of ours be always constant and imperishable. O lord most potent giver of health and generous nourishment, be our protector and saviour, and our source of peace and well being for the sake of ultimate victory.
In our love of flight into the regions of light for success of the distinguished man of scientific ambition in his brilliant plans and programmes, and among the most generous gifts of the refulgent and powerful ruler of the earth, one unique among men of ardent action, we acknowledge the strongly built and perfected hundred horse power flying chariot as the object of fulfilment.

By virtue of the achievements of the intellectual pursuits of the vibrant man of exceptional intelligence and by the visions and conceptional imagination and reflections of the lovers of united programmes of yajnic research, the sage received sixty thousand streams of pure knowledge of life into his awareness and consolidated memory.

On my attainment of the streams of knowledge, the selective, the indifferent, even the critics, burst into applause. Abundent are the streams of knowledge they have got, abundant the body of technology they have achieved!
Mandala 8/Sukta 5

Ashvinau (1-37), Danastuti (37-39) Devatah,
Brahmatithi Kanva Rshi

1. Dūrādiheva yat satyaruṇapsur-aśīśvitat.
   Vi bhānum visvadhātanat.

   The bright red dawn from far off, which yet appears so close, wraps the world in crimson glory and then spreads it over with the light of the sun.

2. Nravad dasrā manoyujā rathena prīthupājasā.
   Sacethe aśvinośasam.

   The Ashvins, wondrous charming divine currents of complementary energies, the yajamana and the participants, the yogi dedicated to knowledge and karma, devout men and women arise and move by the vast and strong chariot of the mind and spiritual energies and go forward to share the divine glory of the dawn like world leaders.

3. Yuvābhyāṁ vājinīvasū prati stomā adṛkṣata.
   Vācam dūto yathohiše.

   O Ashvins, commanders of wealth and energy on way, the chants of adoration in your honour you seem to hear, and I, too, like an appointed messenger, send up my voice of adoration to you and the dawn and I wait to hear the divine voice in response.

_Stuše kaṇvāso aśvinā._

Ashvins, dear and favourite with many, givers of joy to many, commanding great wealth of the world, we of the family of the learned and the wise admire and praise you for the sake of our protection and advancement.

5. Mamhiṣṭhā vājasātameṣayantā śubhaspatī.

_gantārā dāśuṣo grham._

Ashvins, you are great and generous, givers of nourishment and energy, loving and inspiring, promoters and protectors of good, you visit and bless the homes of the generous yajakas. As such, we adore you.

_Ghṛtair-gavyūtim-ukṣatam._

For the generous yajaka dedicated to divinity, we pray, bring noble intelligence of the saving order and sprinkle and energise his path of progress with inspiring waters and sparkling ghrta.

Ashvins, fly to our congregation of yajna and divine adoration and come to us by flying horses upon the earliest instant. Ashvins, you are great and generous, givers of nourishment and energy, loving and inspiring, promoters and protectors of good, you visit and bless the homes of the generous yajakas. As such, we adore you.

8. Yebhistisraḥ parāvato divo viśvāni rocanā. Trīṇraktūn paridīyathah.

Come by those eagles and horses by which in three days and three nights you traverse over the farthest regions of light and beauty across the universe.

And bring us food and energy and inspiration with lands and cows and the light of knowledge, and bring us possibilities of victory, and clear our paths of progress free from difficulties.

Ashvins, bring us wealth of lands and cows, brave progeny, fast chariots and progress, and bring us nourishment, energy and advancement with motive forces of the highest order of attainment.

वावृधाना शुभस्पति दस्रा हिरण्यवतनी । पिर्बतं साम्यं मधुं ॥ ११ ॥

11. Vārṇḍhāna śubhaspaṭī dasrā hirāṇyavartanī.
Pibataṁ somyaṁ madhu.

Rising and exalting, protectors and promoters of good, destroyers of enmity, moving by golden paths of advancement to victory, drink and enjoy the honey sweets of soma, peace and progress.

अस्माथं वाजिनीवसू मघवद्धःचरं सुपर्दः ।
छदियङ्ततमदाभ्यं ॥ १२ ॥

And, O harbingers of wealth, victory and progress, bring for us and for the leading lights of power, honour and excellence spacious and peaceful homes free from fear and pressure.

नि षु ब्रह्मा जनानां चाविष्टं तूयमा गतम ।
मा ष्वायं न्यां उपारतम ॥ १३ ॥

Mo śvanyāṁ upāratam.

Come soon to the yajna of the people and protect and promote their creative development, but please neglect not the others too, nor offend and grieve them.

Adorable Ashvins, bold and resolute harbingers of a new dawn, drink of this charming, exciting and honey sweet soma offered by us as a tribute of love and gratitude.

Bring us a hundredfold and a thousandfold wealth of universal value in abundance for all humanity which would sustain the world in a stable state of peace and progress.

Learned men, thinkers and leading lights of humanity all over the world invoke and invite you many times in many ways. Ashvins, pray come by supersonic transports at the earliest.
17. \textit{Jan\=\=s\=\=o} \textit{v\=\=tyka\=\=b\=\=a\=\=rhi\=\=s\=\=o} \textit{havi\=\=ś\=\=m\=\=anto} \textit{ara\=\=mk\=\=ṛ\=\=ta\=\=ḥ}. \textit{Yuvām} \textit{havante} \textit{aśvīnā}.

Ashvins, the people in top form of readiness, having prepared the hall of yajnic reception in top gear with provisions of homage, invoke you and call upon you to come.

18. \textit{Asmākamadya} \textit{vāmayaṁ} \textit{stomo} \textit{vāhiśṭho} \textit{anta-} \textit{maḥ}. \textit{Yuvābhyāṁ} \textit{bhūtvaśvinā}.

Ashvins, may this song of our invocation, adoration and yajnic prayer be most touching for you at heart and impel you to respond and come.

19. \textit{Yo ha} \textit{vāṁ madhuno} \textit{dṛśtirāhito rathacarṣaṇe}. \textit{Tataḥ} \textit{pibatam-aśvinā}.

Ashvins, the soma cask of honey sweets installed in the chariot and the pathway is full. Therefrom drink as you come.

20. \textit{Tena no} \textit{vājinīvasu} \textit{paśve} \textit{tokāya} \textit{śam} \textit{gave}. \textit{Vahatam} \textit{pīvarīriṣaḥ}.

And thereby, O lords of power and wealth, bring us abundant and ever growing food, energy, wealth and peace for our children, our animals, our lands and cows, and for our knowledge and culture, and let all that grow higher.

उत ना दिव्या इष्ट उत सिन्धूराघविदा।
अष्ट द्वारैः वषथः॥ २१॥
21. Uta no divyā िष्ठ uta sindhūnraharvidā.
Apa dvāreva varṣathah.

And, O harbingers of a new day, while you bring us heavenly food and energy in plenty, open the floods of streams and rivers and control the flow as by doors.

कदा वान ताङ्गा विधत्समुद्र जहिता नरा।
यद्वां रथ्या विधिष्ठतात॥ २२॥
22. Kadā vāṁ taugryo vidhat samudre jahito narā.
Yad vāṁ ratho vibhiṣpatāt.

O leading lights of life, some day the powers jettisoned or installed on the sea would glorify you when your chariot flying by wings would rescue them or take off from there.

युवं कण्वाय नासुत्याच्यिरिसा व्रम्य।
श्रवंदुर्तीदशशस्यथः॥ २३॥
23. Yuvāṁ kaṇvāya nāsatyā’piriptāya harmye.
Śaśvad-ūtir-daśasyathah.

Ashvins, observers and protectors of truth without fail, you always provide protection for the oppressed man of knowledge and wisdom in his home.

ताभिरा वानप्रित्यक्षसंतं।
यद्वां वृषपन्वस्तु हुव॥ २४॥
24. \textit{Tābhīrā yātam-ūtibhir-navyasībhiḥ suśastibhiḥ. Yad vāṁ vṛṣaṇvasū huve.}

O generous lords of wealth and power, come to us with those most modern and most admirable means and methods of protection whenever we call upon you.

25. \textit{Yathā cit kaṇvam-āvatam priyamedham-upastu-tam. Atriṁ śīnjāram-aśvinā.}

Come the same way as you protect and save the man of knowledge and wisdom, the celebrated intellectual and the sage loud and bold who has broken off all his three snares of body, mind and soul.

26. \textit{Yathota kṛtvye dhanemī’suṁ goṣvagastyam. Yathā vājeṣu sobharim.}

Come the way you protect and promote the earnest beginner in matters of possible success in business, the man of moral values in matters of self-control, and the man of charity and social awareness in matters of social success.

17. \textit{Etāvad vāṁ vṛṣaṇvasū ato vā bhuyo aśvinā. Gṛnantaḥ sumnamīmahe.}

O virile and generous harbingers of wealth and power, Ashvins, thus do we so far and even more, celebrating your glory, pray for your favour and good will.

Ashvins, you ride a chariot of golden structure and golden control which flies and touches the borders of the regions of light on high.

O travellers of the skies, golden is the chassis of your chariot, golden the axle, and both the wheels are golden too.

O winners of wealth and victory, by that golden chariot come from far, from the farthest wherever you be, and accept this holy song of mine in praise of you.
31. Ā vahethe parākāt pūrvirāśnanto vāśvinā.
    Iṣo dāśīramartyā.

    Immortal Ashvins, winners and harbingers of ancient sources of wealth, you bring us food, energies and wealths of tremendous positive value from farthest places and since times beyond memory.

32. Ā no dyumnairā śravobhirā rāyā yātamaśvinā.
    Puruścandrā nāsatyā.

    Ashvins, observers and protectors of truth, blest with grace and glory of universal character, come to us with lights of knowledge, honour and wealth of imperishable value.

33. Eha vāṁ pruśitapsavo vayo vahantu parṇināḥ.
    Acchā svadhvarāṁ janam.

    May carriers consuming combustible fuel for energy transport you here on flying wings and you join the holy man at his yajna of love and non-violence.

34. Rathāṁ vāmanugāyasamī ya iṣā vartate saha.
    Na cakramabhiḥ bādhate.

    Your chariot which moves on fuel and energy and the wheel of your progress thereby, no one can Ashvins, ever truthful and imperishable powers, flying at the speed of thought by a golden chariot running by the power of revolving hands (like pistons, cranks or turbines and motors), no one can obstruct your course of progress.

36. Yuvām mṛgaṁ jāgrvāṁsāṁ svadatho vā vrṣaṅ-vasū. Tā naḥ pṛṅktamiśā rayim.

O generous and virile leading lights of the day, you take delight in hunting the hunter on the wake (not in ambush). Similarly join the wealth of victory with the taste of food and season it with the sweets of honey.

37. Tā me āśvinā sanīnāṁ vidyātaṁ navānāṁ. Yathā ciccaidyāḥ kaśuḥ śatamuṣṭrānāṁ dadat sahasrā daśa gonaṁ.

Such as you are, Ashvins, harbingers of the sweets of life, please know the newest and most favourite gifts I love just as the perceptive ruler knew when he granted me a hundred camels and ten thousand cows.
38. Yo me hiranyasamādrśo daśa rājino amāṇhata.
Adhaspadā iccaidyasya kṛṣṭayaścarmamnā abhito janāḥ.

Similarly that ruler knew who gave me ten estates of real beauty and value like gold. All people are under control of the wise ruler and men in armour stand round in readiness to serve and obey.

Anyo net sūrirohate bhūridāvattaro janaḥ.

No one else goes by the path by which the wise people go. And no one else is as brave as they, no one excels them in charity and generosity.

Mandala 8/Sukta 6

Indra (1-45), Dana-stuti (46-48) Devata,
Vatsa Kanva Rshi

1. Mahāṁ indro ya ojasā parjanyo vṛṣṭimāṁ iva.
Stomairaṁvatsasya vāvṛdhe.

Great is Indra by his power and splendour like the cloud charged with rain and waxes with pleasure in the dear devotee’s awareness by his child like hymns of adoration.
Yo me hirañasya ādhibo dañño amañhat. Adhaspado iccaidyasya kṣayañcarmamnā abhito janay. Similarly that ruler knew who gave me ten estates of real beauty and value like gold. All people are under control of the wise ruler and men in armour stand round in readiness to serve and obey.

Májiren pathañ gød yeneme yanti cedayañ. Anyo net surañtrohate bhuridovanattaro janay. No one else goes by the path by which the wise people go. And no one else is as brave as they, no one excels them in charity and generosity.

Mahin indro ya ojasā parjanyo vṛtihimān iva. Stomairvatsasya vadhue. Great is Indra by his power and splendour like the cloud charged with rain and waxes with pleasure in the dear devotee's awareness by his child like hymns of adoration.

Prajámrtasya piprataḥ pra yad bharanta vahnyāḥ. Viprā ōtasya vāhasā. When the forces of nature carry on the laws of divinity and sustain the children of creation through evolution, and the enlightened sages too carry on the yajna of divine law of truth in their adorations, Indra, immanent divinity, waxes with pleasure.

Kanvā indrañ yadakrata stomairyajñasya sādhanañ. Jámi bruvata āyudham. When the wise sages with their adorations rise to Indra and surrender to him as their yajnic destination, they exclaim: Verily the lord of thunder is our brother, father, mother, sister, everything.

Kañvā indrañ yadakrata stomairyajñasya sādhanañ. Jámi bruvata āyudham. When the wise sages with their adorations rise to Indra and surrender to him as their yajnic destination, they exclaim: Verily the lord of thunder is our brother, father, mother, sister, everything.

Samasya manyave viśo viśvā namanta kṛṣṭayāḥ. Samudrāyeyeva sindhavañ. The people, in fact the entire humanity, bow in homage and surrender to this lord of passion, power and splendour just as rivers flow on down and join into the sea.
5. Ojastadasya titviṣa ubhe yat samavartayan.
   Indraścarmeva rodasī.

   When Indra, lord almighty, pervades and envelops both heaven and earth in the cover of light, the light that shines is only the lord’s divine splendour that blazes with glory.

6. Vi cid vrtrasya dodhato vajreṇa śataparvanā.
   Śiro bibheda vṛṣṇinā.

   And when the lord of might and munificence with his thunderbolt of a hundred potentials shatters the head of Vṛtra, terror striking demon of darkness, drought and despair, the bolt is nothing but the blazing omnipotence of the lord.

7. Imā abhi praṇum evipāmagreṣu dhītayāḥ.
   Agneḥ śocirna didyutah.

   These hymns of ardent adoration like rising flames of radiant fire, we among the front ranks of vibrant sages offer are homage and surrender to the lord omnipotent, Indra.

8. Guhā saṭirupa tmanā pra yacchocanta dhītayāḥ.
   Kaṇvā rtasya dhārayāḥ.
Hymns of adoration which abide in the depths of the heart, wise sages let flow and shine forth spontaneously with the overflowing streams of natural truth and law divinely embedded in the soul.

9. Pra tamindra naśīmahi rayīṁ gomantamaśvinam. Pra brahma pūrvacittaye.

Indra, lord of light and power, pray let us realise that wealth and honour of earthly character overflowing with motherly generosity and superfast achievement which is the prologue to perfect realisation of the nature and divinity of the ultimate reality of Brahman.

10. Ahamiddhi pituspari medhāmṛtasya jagrabha. Aham sūrya ivājani.

I have received from my father super intelligence of the universal mind and law, I have realise it too in the soul, and I feel reborn like the resplendent sun.

11. Aham pratnena manmanā giraḥ śumbhāmi kaṇvavat. Yenendraḥ śuṣmamid dadhe.

With the realisation of ancient and eternal knowledge I sanctify and adorn my words and voice in song like a wise sage, and by that, Indra, lord of light and power, vests me with strength and excellence.

There are men who do not adore you, and there are sages who adore you, (both ways you are acknowledged and adored by praise or protest). O lord thus adored by me and pleased, pray accept my adoration and let us rise.

When the lord’s passion rises and roars, breaking the dark cloud stage by stage, showers rain and rivers flow to the sea.

Indra, when you strike the mighty thunderbolt on the devil of drought and cloud of denial, then you are celebrated as the lord of showers and divine passion.

Neither heavens nor the middle regions nor earths with all their lustre and power can violate, comprehend or even contain Indra, lord of the thunderbolt of omnipotence, justice and punishment.

Whoever chooses to hold up and stand in the way of the mighty flow of your waters, will and action, you pierce and break open like the dark cloud and make him flow with the flow into the channels of nature, the universal flow.

17. Ya ime rodasī mahī samīcī samajagrabhīt. Tamobhīr-indra taṁ guhaḥ.

That nature, Prakṛti, which comprehends these great heavens and earths together, that same you cover and hide in deep darkness when this universe is withdrawn into zero during Pralaya, annihilation.

18. Ya indra yatayastvā bhṛgavo ye ca tuṣṭuvuh. Mamedugra śrūdhī havam.
Indra, those self-controlled sages, those veteran scholars of disseminative knowledge who cleanse themselves of negativities, all who adore and celebrate you, while you listen to all, among them, O lord of blazing resplendence, listen to my invocation, adoration and prayer.

\[\begin{align*}
\text{19. } & \text{Imāsta indra prśnayo ghṛtaṁ duhata āśiram.} \\ & \text{Enāmrtyasya pipyuṣīḥ.}
\end{align*}\]

Indra, these spotted cows of yours, various earths, starry skies which yield and shower honey sweets of milk and life giving soma are augmenters of the divine yajna of universal evolution.

\[\begin{align*}
\text{20. } & \text{Yā indra prasvastvā’’sā garbham-acakriran.} \\ & \text{Pari dharmeva sūryam.}
\end{align*}\]

All these stars and planets are fertile and creative, and all round, like the nature and action of the sun, they suck up vitality in by the divine mouth and hold the seed of life for new birth.

\[\begin{align*}
\text{21. } & \text{Tvāmic-chavasaspate kaṇvā ukthena vāṛdhuh.} \\ & \text{Tvāṁ sutāsa indavaḥ.}
\end{align*}\]

O lord of universal power and potential, wise sages with their hymns of adoration exalt only you, and so also the distilled soma offers of initiated devotees exhilarate you alone.

Indra, in all matters of right ethics, morals, policy and social conduct in the world, it is your glory only that inspires, it is all a version of your universal yajna, lord mover and ruler of the world.

23. Ā na indra mahīmiṣam puram na darṣi gomaṭīm. Uta prajāṁ suvīryam.

Indra, bestow upon us abundant food and high quality energy as well as a great city for habitation, rich in cows, culture and excellence and bless us with a noble virile progeny.

Indra, lord omniscient and omnipotent, give us that dynamic energy and refulgent power strategy for sure and certain targeted achievement which you bestowed upon earlier people of the world committed to the pursuit of truth and rectitude in the social struggle between good and evil, positive and negative, and between love and hate.

अथ व्रजं न तत्तिष्ठ सूरे उपाकर्षित सम।
यद्यदं मृणयांसि न: || २५ ||

25. Abhi vrajami na tatniṣe sūra upākacākṣasam.
Yadindra mṛlayāsi naḥ.

For when you are kind, O lord of light and power, you switch on the light for us and reveal the target close at hand in sight and you mark the way too by which we must reach our aim and object of love.

यदुद्भ तत्तिष्ठेयसु इन्द्र पुराजितसि गिती: ।
मुहूः अपूर आर्जसः || २६ ||

26. Yadaṅga taviṣṭiyasa indra prarājasi kṣitih.
Mahāṁ apāra ojasā.

Indra, lord of life and love, dear as our very breath, when you shine and blaze ruling over lands and people, then you reveal your grandeur, you are incomprehensible by virtue of your self-refulgence.

तं त्वा हविष्मतिविश उपे बुवत्त ऋतयः ।
उरुरजयसमुमिन्दुभि: || २७ ||

27. Taṁ tvā haviṣmaṭirvīṣa upa bruvata ātaye.
Urujrayasam-indubhiḥ.

People with most exhilarating offers of soma in hand for homage invoke and adore you for protection and advancement, lord omnipresent and ever vibrant in the expansive universe.
In seclusion over mountain slopes and in the caves and on the confluence of rivers, the vibrant presence of the lord within reveals itself by illumination in the self.

Thence the enlightened devotee rising over the ocean of existence watches how and from where the vibrant omnipresence descends into inner consciousness.

And then the devotees see like day light the self-refulgence of the eternal lord and source of life who shines above and beyond the day through the night of annihilation too.

Indra, lord most potent, all the learned sages of the world celebrate and exalt your omniscience, creative power and universal generosity.

32. Imāṁ ma indra suṣṭutiṁ juṣasva pra su māmava. Uta pra vardhayā matim.

Indra, just and merciful lord, pray accept this hymn of adoration for my sake and protect me from evil, and bless me that my intelligence and awareness may grow and rise in piety.

33. Uta brahmaṇyā vayāṁ tubhyāṁ pravṛddha vajrivaḥ. Viprā atakśma jīvase.

Indra, highest and eternal lord of thunder and justice, we, enlightened sages dedicated to divinity with piety, offer these hymns of prayer and adoration for the sake of our life and advancement.

34. Abhi kaṉvā anuṣatā’’po na pravatā yaṭiḥ. Indram vananvaṭi matih.

Wise sages offer prayers to Indra and, like streams of water flowing and reaching the sea, the prayers rise and reach the lord almighty with love and adoration.

इन्द्रमुख्यानिः दावृद्धः समुदर्मिव सिन्धवः।
अनुत्तमन्युमजर्मम् ॥ ३५ ॥

35. Indramukthāni vāvṛduḥ samudramiva sindhavah. Anuttamanyum-ajaram.

Hymns of adoration and prayer and yajnic performances exalt Indra, unaging and eternal lord beyond anger and agitation, just as rivers augment the ocean beyond overflowing.

आ नां याहि परावता हरिभ्यं हयताभ्योः।
इदुमिदं सुतं पिंब ॥ ३६ ॥

36. Ā no yāhi parāvato haribhyāṁ haryatābyām. Imamindra sutaṁ piba.

Indra, come hither to us to join our yajna even from the farthest borders of the universe by brilliant vibrations of natural presence and illuminating rays of light divine and accept this distilled soma of our prayer and adoration.

त्वामिद वृत्रहन्तम् जनासा वृक्तवहिष्यः।
हरवन्तु वार्जसातयं ॥ ३७ ॥

People, dedicated celebrants, seated on the vedi with homage in hand, invoke and adore you, lord most potent destroyer of darkness and evil, and they pray for victory in their struggle of life for advancement.

Just as a chariot wheel turns and moves in correspondence with the horse so do both heaven and earth and all other soma transactions of life turn and move in obedience to your will and law.

And Indra, O lord of love and power, in the regions of the earth and its environment close to the middle regions of space where violence is possible, pray bless the people with joy and feel exalted by the pious thought and will of the yajnic humanity.

Exhilarated and exalted, in the heavens over the middle regions of the skies, the virile and munificent wielder of thunder, Indra, roars in response to the yajnic acts of humanity. He is destroyer of darkness and evil, drought and despair, and the greatest lover of peace and the soma of success.
41. Rṣirhi pūrvajā asyeka īśāna ojasā. Índra cośkīyase vasu.

Indra, you are the omniscient poet and visionary of the universe, all seer, eternal and first manifestation of existence in creation, sole one and absolute ruler of the universe by your might and majesty, and you love to give wealth, honour and excellence with highest joy to humanity.

42. Asmākaṁ tvā sutāṁ upa vītapṛṣṭhā abhi prayaḥ. Śatarīṁ vahantu harayaḥ.

Indra, may the hundreds of your festive forces travelling like light rays transport you hither to our distilled soma and delicious foods offered in homage.

43. Imāṁ su pūrvyāṁ dhiyaṁ madhorghṛtasya pipyuṣīṁ. Kāṇvā ukthena vāvṛdhuḥ.

Learned sages by chanting hymns and performing yajna exalt the glory and efficacy of this ancient science of yajnic action which augments the honey sweets of water, ghṛta and all other delicacies for universal nourishment.
44.  Indramid vimahīnāṁ medhe vrñīta martyāḥ.
  Indram śanisyurūtaye.

Mortals of the highest order of humanity choose Indra for honour in yajna, and the seeker of wealth and power too invokes Indra for protection and advancement.

अवाच्चं त्बा पुरुष्टुतं पियमथस्तुता हरीः ।
साम्मपर्यायं व यतः ॥ ४५ ॥

45.  Arvāñcam tvā puruṣṭuta priyamedhastutā harī.
  Somapeyāya vakṣataḥ.

O lord of universal adoration and worship, natural vibrations of divine energy loved and honoured by the devotees of social yajna transport you hither to the heart to accept the sweets of our love and homage.

शुचमहं तिरिन्दिर सहस्रं पशावा दंद ।
राधांसि याद्रानाम ॥ ४६ ॥

46.  Śatamahāṁ tīrindire sahasraṁ parśāvā dade.
  Rādhāṁsi yādvānām.

Thousands of gifts of intellectual value and means of practical success I have received from Indra to give away to help others and for the destruction of darkness from humanity.

त्रीणि शतान्यवर्ततां सहस्रा दश गान्यम ।
दुहुष्प्रजाय साम्र ॥ ४७ ॥

47.  Trīṇi śatānayarvatāṁ sahasrā daśa gonām.
  Daduṣpajrāya sāmne.

Three hundred horses and ten thousand cows the lord has given to the celebrant of Sama Veda. (Horses and cows are symbols of achievement and generosity.)

48. \textit{Udānaṭ kakuho divam-uṣṭrāṇ-caturyuyo dadat. Śravasā yādvam janam.}

Having given four bullocks or camels in charity and raised a class of intellectuals, a prosperous devotee rises to divine heights of honour and fame.

\textbf{Mandala 8/Sukta 7}

\textit{Marutah Devata, Punarvatsa Kanva Rshi}

1. \textit{Pra yad vastriṣṭubham-iṣam maruto vipro akṣarat. Vi parvateṣu rājatha.}

O Maruts, warriors of the nation, when the vibrant controllers of the nation’s finances in yajnic management canalise national expenditure into three streams, physical, mental and spiritual, then you rise to the clouds and shine.

2. \textit{Yadaṅga taviṣīyavo yāmāṁ śubhrā acidhvam. Ni parvatā ahāsata.}

O dear bright Maruts, blazing bold warriors, when you detail your vehicles on parade for action, then even mountains shake with fear and awe.

Children of earth and heaven chanting holy songs with the winds, the Maruts bring down streams of food and energy from the skies.

4. Vapanti maruto mihāṁ pra vepayanti parvatān. Yad yāmaṁ yānti vāyubhiḥ.

When the Maruts take to their vehicles with the winds, they shoot out showers of rain and shake up mountainous strongholds of energy.

Out of fear and awe of your motion and power which is opposed to their strength and character, mountains hold back and rivers pant and flow.

We invoke you at night for peace and protection, in the day for action and advancement, and in the beginning of yajna for completion and fulfilment.

O Maruts, warriors of exceptional order, listen to this voice of mine, accept this poetic tribute and cherish this invocative call of mine.

Mothers of the Maruts distil the nectar drink of life for them from three reservoirs: the solar region of light or the sattva element of nature, the cloudy sky or the rajas element of nature, and the earth or the tamas element of nature’s balance and firmness, and they feed their children on the light of knowledge and culture, energy of the winds and generosity of rain showers, and the sweetness and stability of the earth.

11. Maruto yaddha vo divaṁ sumnāyanto havāmahe. Ā tū na upa gantana.

Maruts, O tempestuous heroes, as we call upon you for the sake of peace, progress and prosperity, pray come fast from the heavens through the skies close to us on earth.

You are generous, uncompromising agents of justice and punishment, highly intelligent and scholarly. Stay that in your element in the field of peace and discipline, and in a state of exhilaration keep your soul and your brains about you.

O Maruts, bring us from the light of heaven wealth, honour and excellence full of joy for all and amply sufficient for the sustenance of world life.

Heroes of the wind, radiant and pure, when you harness your chariots to ride over the mountains, then with the showers of soma you rejoice and move the world to rapture.

To these warriors of the winds of this high order of indomitable powers, let mortal man pray for peace and joy with thoughts and words of full awareness of the giver and the supplicant.

O Maruts, bring us from the light of heaven wealth, honour and excellence full of joy for all and amply sufficient for the sustenance of world life.

Heroes of the wind, radiant and pure, when you harness your chariots to ride over the mountains, then with the showers of soma you rejoice and move the world to rapture.

To these warriors of the winds of this high order of indomitable powers, let mortal man pray for peace and joy with thoughts and words of full awareness of the giver and the supplicant.

Milking the imperishable cloud of space oceans like the cow, they sprinkle heaven and earth with rain like showers of elixir.

Yena turvaśaṁ yaduṁ yena kaṇvaṁ dhanas-pṛtam. Rāye su tasya dhīmahi.

Of the Maruts, we solicit that wealth and power by which they protect the man fighting against violence and the wise sage who too prays for wealth and honour in the world.

19.

Imā u vaḥ sudānavo ghṛtaṁ na pipyuṣiśrīaḥ. Vardhān kāṇvasya manmabhīḥ.

O warriors of charity and generosity, we pray that these animations, inspirations and exhortations of ours which, like ghrta, feed the fire of life and rise in flames, may, exalt you by the thoughts and prayers of the wise sage.
Children of the winds, heavens and the skies emerge and advance from their abode with winds and roars by chariots to the accompaniment of songs of jubilation.

Generous Maruts, where are you now rejoicing, seated on the holy grass? And who is the high priest conducting the yajnic celebration for you?

O Maruts, isn’t it true that seated on the holy grass you have been augmenting the power and efficacy of the yajna of truth by your exhortations ever before?

Those Maruts support and hold together in cosmic balance the mighty floods of water, the earth, the sun, and the force and power of thunder stage by stage.
Doing acts of mighty vigour and splendour they break the clouds of darkness and evil and split open cavernous mountains step by step and bring light and showers of rain.

26. Uśānā yat parāvata ukṣṇo randhramayātana.
Dyaurna cakradad bhiyā.

Impassioned for action when the virile Maruts rush to a region of low pressure in the sky from afar, the cloud, as the higher regions, roars under fear and pressure.
They reinforce the powers of life struggling for positive forces fighting against three negativities of body, mind and soul, and they support and reinforce the ruler in his battle against evil and darkness.

Thunder in hand, all round refulgent, wearing golden helmets on the head, they shine bright and pure for the beauty and glory of life.

When the fiery force drives the Maruts in their chariot towards regions of abundant water or to the clouds laden with vapour, then these heroes go forward bright and pure splitting and flying off the vapours and waters.

The leading Marut forces proceed to beautiful regions of peace and joy on higher altitudes and to the simple natural planes without vehicular medium by direct currents of energy.

O Maruts, when would you thus reach the vibrant scholar who calls you to yajna and awaits, and carry gifts of prosperity to the suppliant?

For the sake of latest forms of happiness, prosperity and well being, I turn to the virile and generous, most adorable and wondrous versatile warriors of the winds and abide by them.

34. Girayaścinni jihate parśānāsau manyamānāḥ. Parvatāścinni yemire.

Mountains give way before them, formidable peaks pant and turn into chasms and clouds change their course under the force of Maruts.

35. Āksṇayāvāno vahantyantarikṣeṇa patataḥ. Dhātaraḥ stuvate vayaḥ.

Chariots flying at the speed of eye-light over the paths of space transport the Maruts, harbingers of food, energy, health and full age for the celebrant.

36. Agnirhi jāni pūrvyaśchando na sūro arciṣā. Te bhānubhir vi tasthire.

Agni, earliest ruling light of the world, came into existence with self-refulgence like the sun and the music of Vedic voice, and the Maruts manifested and ever abided by rays of the sun and flames of fire.
Mandala 8/Sukta 8
Ashvinan Devate, Sadhvansa Kanka Rshi

1. Ā no viśvābhīr-ūtibhīr-aśvinā gacchataṁ yuvam. Dasrā hiranyavartanī pibataṁ somyaṁ madhu. 1 ॥

Ashvins, twin powers of natural and human action, destroyers of evil, travellers by paths of light on golden chariots, both of you come to our yajna with all your means and modes of protection and promotion, appreciate our devotion and have a drink of our honey sweets of soma.

2. Ā nūnam yātamaśvinā ratheṇa sūryatvacā. Bhujī hiranyapeśasā kavi gambhīracetasasā. 2 ॥

Ashvins, lovers of life and living, far sighted, imaginative and creative thinkers and makers, come sure to our yajna by your radiation oriented, gold coated and highly monitored chariot (and bless our programme).

3. Ā yātaṁ nahuśasparvya'ntarikṣāt suvṛktibhiḥ. Pibātho aśvinā madhu kaṇvānāṁ savane sutam. 3 ॥

Ashvins, come here from the world of humanity, from the skies, with the best of light, knowledge and technique you have collected, accept and enjoy the soma sweets of the scholars’ creations achieved and perfected in their joint programme, and assess the taste of soma.

4. \( \text{Ashvins, twin powers of natural and human action, destroyers of evil, travellers by paths of light on golden chariots, both of you come to our yajna with all your means and modes of protection and promotion, appreciate our devotion and have a drink of our honey sweets of soma.} \)

5. \( \text{Ashvins, lovers of life and living, far sighted, imaginative and creative thinkers and makers, come sure to our yajna by your radiation oriented, gold coated and highly monitored chariot (and bless our programme).} \)

6. \( \text{Ashvins, harbingers of complementary revelations, come and listen closely to what we have conceived and imagine and say. Come to have a taste of this soma of our making. By the truth of your divine reflections, words and actions you extend the possibilities of our holy achievements. O leading lights, visionary creators, come with your thoughts, ideas and imaginations for our advancement.} \)

Ashvins, whenever the ancient sages called upon you for encouragement and advancement, you came and listened. O leading lights of vision and imagination, come and listen to this prayer and adoration of mine too.

Visionaries of the light of omniscience, committed in conscious covenant with dear ones, responsive to the devotee’s call, come to us from the heights of heaven with refulgence, knowledge, expertise and action.

Ashvins, harbingers of the light of heaven, do people other than us adore you with hymns of prayer? The sagely son and disciple of the wise scholar and devotee, dear as a child, exalts you with hymns of prayer.

Ashvins, twin harbingers of heavenly light, the vibrant devotee invokes you here for protection and progress with hymns of adoration. O sinless divines, highest dispellers of the clouds of sin and darkness, come here and be for us light givers of universal peace and happiness.

आ यद्वा यार्थणा रश्मगतिष्ठत्वा जिवनीसू।

10. À yad vām yoṣaṇā rathamatiṣṭhad vājinīvasū. Viśvānyāśvinā yuvam pra dhītānyagacchatam.

Ashvins, when the youthful dawn of a new day ascends your chariot with you, then, O divine harbingers of wealth and energy, you reach all that what the world thinks of for self-fulfilment.

अर्तं: सुह्वचनिणिजा रथना यातमश्विना।

For this reason, Ashvins, come by the chariot bearing a thousand beauties of wealth and divine bliss. The poet’s poet, a darling admirer of yours, adores and glorifies you with honey sweets of his sacred words.

पुरुमन्द्रा पुरुवसू मनात्तरा रघीणाम ॥
स्ताम म अश्विनाविविप्तमुख वद्धी अनूषाताम॥ १२ ॥

Ashvins, harbingers of universal peace and joy for all, creators and dispensers of wealth, honour and excellence, bless this song of mine with divine grace, you being the burden bearers and hallowed leaders of the world to higher regions.

आ ना विश्वाव्यविशिवा धृतं राधामस्यहृदय।

13. Ā no viśvānyaśvinā dhattam rādhāṁsyahrayā. Kṛtam na ṛtviyāvato mā no rīradhatam nide.

Ashvins, lead us to all bold, abundant and creditable honours, wealth and competence of the world, make us yajnic workers and observers of natural laws according to the seasons of time and place, and never let us fall to the violence of scandal, shame and disrepute.

य गृहस्त्य परावति यद्य स्था अध्यम्बर।
अते: सृहस्त्रिणिजा रथ्ना यात्मशिविना। ॥ १४ ॥

Ashvins, ever dedicated to truth and laws of divinity, whether you are in far off space or in the skies, come form there by your chariot of thousandfold beauty and sanctity.

या वा नासत्यावृर्षिणीभिवत्त्वा अवीवृढः।

Ever true and relentless observers of the laws of divinity, to the poet sage, your darling celebrant who exalts you with his words of song, bear and bring food, energy and vision of wisdom vibrating with divine illumination and grace.

Ashvins, presiding powers of divine dispensation and charity, whoever adores you for peace and well being and prays for wealth, honour and excellence, to him, pray, give energy and power of will overflowing with inner light and brilliance of grace.

17. Ā no gantaṁ riśādasemaṁ stomam purabhujā. Kṛtaṁ naḥ suśriyo naremā dātamabhiṣṭaye.

Leading lights of life and nature, counter powers of violence, and harbingers of universal prosperity, come, listen to our adoration, assess our yajnic achievement, bless us with the beauty and graces of life, and give us all these and competence for the desired peace, progress and self-fulfilment.

18. Ā vāṁ viśvābhirūtibhiḥ priyamedhā ahūṣata. Rājantāvadhvarāṇām-aśvinā yāmahūtiṣu.

Ashvins, all the ruling lights of yajnic performances and programmes of creation and production, lovers and devotees of solemn ceremonies, at all stages of their mission, invoke you with all your means and modes of protection and promotion of the holy projects.

Ashvins, harbingers of peace, pleasure and well being in prosperity, lovers and admirers of joyous programmes, come both of you to us who, your darling celebrants, exalt you with our words, thoughts and actions.

20.

Ashvins, harbingers of health and energy, leading lights of life and nature, come, protect and promote us with all those powers, potentials and efficacies by which you protect the sagely scholar and his wisdom and promote his hospitality and good fellowship, by which you protect and strengthen the body, physical abode of ten senses and ten pranic energies, and by which you rejuvenate and advance the invalid who has lost his sense faculties and suffers from total debility.
performances and programmes of creation and production, lovers and devotees of solemn ceremonies, at all stages of their mission, invoke you with all your means and modes of protection and promotion of the holy projects.

Ashvins, leading lights of law and defence of humanity, come with all those powers and potentials by which you keep the law and order and shatter the forces of violence and terror for the economic and social advancement of humanity. With those very powers and potentials, protect us too for the achievement of success in our struggles.

Ashvins, protectors and promoters of life and humanity, greatest destroyers of the forces of darkness and destruction, may our hymns of adoration composed in the choicest words, finished in finest form and sung in the sweetest notes and accents, please and exalt you. May you ever be the darling heroes of universal love and admiration of humanity.

Three stages of the Ashvin’s advent hidden deep in the cave of mystery, namely, the victory of progressive forces of good against the negative forces of evil, maintenance of peace against violence, and law and justice against lawlessness are thus revealed. May the Ashvins, harbingers of the light of knowledge, justice, peace and prosperity, come by the paths of rectitude, divine law and the process of yajnic action for the good of living beings all over the world.

Mandala 8/Sukta 9

Ashvinau Devate, Shashakarna Kanva Rshi

आ नूनमाशिवनाएः युवं व्यतस्य गत्समवस ।
पास्माक्षच्छतमवृक्कं पृथु च्छदियुर्युतं या अरातयः ॥ १ ॥

1. Ā nūnamaśvinā yuvāṁ vatsasya gantamavase. Prāsmāy yaccatam-avrkaṁ prthucchardir-yuyutaṁ yā arātayaḥ.

   Ashvins, harbingers of light and peace, for sure now come for the protection and progress of your loved people and provide for them a spacious peaceful home free from violence and insecurity and ward off all forces of malice, adversity and enmity.

   यदनतारीं यदि विच वर्षाच्य मानुषाः अनु।
   नृपां तत्समवसिना ॥ २ ॥

   Whatever manly strength and wealth there be in heaven and mid space worthy of five classes of people, Ashvins, bear and bring for us.

   य वां दृंस्यशिविनेन विपासः परिमामृशुः ।
   पुव्वत्रकाण्वस्य बाध्यतम ॥ ३ ॥

Ashvins, whatever your actions and achievements which the scholars have known and thought over, reveal the same to the modern scholar too.

4. Ayaṁ vāṁ ghumā ṛṣṇivāṇa stāmāṇu pari vičhyat
Aryaṁ sāmā māḍumā्बanvājinīvamsū yān vṛtvāṁ ciketathāḥ.

This is the yajnic fire of the season, Ashvins, which is dedicated and exalted in your honour with the chant of hymns, and this is the soma sweetened and seasoned for you, O heroes of the battle for wealth and victory, by which you would know and dare the enemy, the demon of darkness, ignorance, injustice and poverty.

Ashvins, heroic powers of nature’s complementary forces, the power and vitality which you have vested in the waters, herbs and trees is multifarious. Pray, with that same vitality and power, bless and protect me too and let me advance.

Y gāsātvā bhūraṇyathā yada dva vr hi gacchātha: ||
Aryaṁ vāṁ vutpa mṛtikhiṁ vinchnāt huviṁṣantā hi gacchātha: ||

Ashvins, harbingers of energy, health and replenishment, ever true unfailing agents of natural law and life’s growth, when you vibrate, radiate and energise, when you nourish, heal, resuscitate and revive things to live and grow, this conscientious darling seeker of your power and presence understands you not by observation, analysis and thought, in your entirety, because you reveal yourself only to the faithful who come to you with homage. (Life is a mystery. You can know the secret of this mystery only by being what it is, by identifying with it in meditation.)

7. Ā nūnamsvinor-\-rṣiḥ somāṁ ciketa vāmayā. Ā somāṁ madhumattamam gharmaṁ siṁcād-atha-\-rvaṇi.

In truth, the visionary sage has realised the song and story of the Ashvins, radiations of life energy, in every detail from inception to completion by faithful intention and relentless application of mind, and he has fed the fire of his yajnic search and research with the sweetest and most vibrating soma of his life’s passion into the vedi.

8. Ā nūnaṁ raghuvartaniṁ ratham tiṣṭhātho aśvinā. Ā vāṁ stomā ime mama nabho na cucyavīrata.
8. Ashvins, take to the fastest chariot now and come by the shortest straight path. These hymns of adoration burst forth from me like an explosion in space, reach you like the sun and draw you hither.

8. Ashvins, take to the fastest chariot now and come by the shortest straight path. These hymns of adoration burst forth from me like an explosion in space, reach you like the sun and draw you hither.

9. Ashvins, ever dedicated to the divine truth of nature’s law, when we invoke you with hymns of adoration or by yajnic sessions or by words of yajakas today, pray take it that the call is the conscientious voice of the visionary sage in search for the light of his mission.

9. Ashvins, ever dedicated to the divine truth of nature’s law, when we invoke you with hymns of adoration or by yajnic sessions or by words of yajakas today, pray take it that the call is the conscientious voice of the visionary sage in search for the light of his mission.

10. Ashvins, when the cavalier or the pedestrian or the sagely seer or the long time plodder or the ruler or the intellectual calls on you to the yajnic session, you listen. Hence, pray listen to our call too and come.

10. Ashvins, when the cavalier or the pedestrian or the sagely seer or the long time plodder or the ruler or the intellectual calls on you to the yajnic session, you listen. Hence, pray listen to our call too and come.
Come, be protectors of our home and family, be protectors of others too, be protectors of the world and protectors of our body’s health and social structure. Come home to us for the sake of our children and grand children.

Whether you move with the cosmic force on the same chariot or abide with the wind in the same region, or you move across the sun’s zodiacs or with the cosmic makers, or you move and abide with the vibrance of the omnipresent, wherever you be, pray come to us too.

When I call upon the Ashvins, defenders of humanity and protectors of life, for the sake of victory in our struggle for existence, or I call on them against the enemies in our conflicts with negativities, they would come, because their courage and force for the defence and protection of life is highest and best.

14. Ā nūnāṁ yātamaśvinemā havyāni vāṁ hitā. Ime somāso adhi turvaśe yadāvime kaṇveṣu vāmatha.

Come, Ashvins, for sure without fail. These presentations, adorations and offerings of hospitality are reserved for you whether they are in the house of the stormy warrior or dynamic intellectual or artist or citizen or the sagely seer, they are for you and you alone.

Ashvins, versatile powers of health and longevity, whatever food or sanative or efficacious remedies be there far or near, by that without fail, O masters of knowledge and expertise, provide a home of health and peace for the dear devotee free from the pride and arrogance of drugs and intoxication.

O divine dawn, great lady of truth and leading light of a new day, awaken the Ashvins, harbingers of new knowledge and awareness, and O inspirer of the day’s yajnic activity, relentlessly exhort men and women to work for the joy of life and win great prosperity, honour and fame.

18. Yaduśo yāsi bhānunā saṁ sūryeṇa rocase. Ā hāyamaśvino ratho vartir-yāti nṛpāyyam.

O dawn, harbinger of a new day, when you rise with the first sun-rays and then join the sun and shine together with it, then the Ashvins’ chariot rolls on on its usual course of the day which preserves and promotes humanity in life and leads it to advancement.

19. Yadāpītāso aṁśavo gāvo na duhra ūdhabhiḥ. Yad vā vāṇīranuṣata pra devayanto aśvinā.

When the stout stalks of lotus receive their drink of green vitality from the sun as cows draw and receive their milk with the udders from nature, and just when the stalks yield pranic energy as cows yield milk, and when the voices of humanity rise in adoration of the Ashvins in prayer.
20. Pra dyumnāya pra śavase pra nṛṣāhyāya śarmāṇe. Pra dakṣāya pracetasa.

Then for wealth, honour and excellence, for strength and courage and joy and prosperity for the peace and protection of humanity and achievement of dexterity and competence. O harbingers of light and awareness, bless them.

21. Yannūnaṁ dhībhir-aśvinā pituryonā niśidathaḥ. Yad vā sumnebhir-ukthyā.

Adorable Ashvins, when with your thoughts and acts of the day you go back and sit in the parental home with all rest in peace, then come again and bless us with peace and prosperity of an active life.

Mandala 8/Sukta 10

Ashvinau Devate, Pragatha Kanya Rshi

Wherever you abide, in lofty halls or in the light of the high heaven, or rest in the sea or space or in an ornamented palace, wherever you are, come to us, Ashvins, harbingers of light and inspiration.
2. Yad vā yajñāṁ manave saṁmimikṣathurevet kāṇvasya bodhatam. Brhaspatim viśvān devāṁ ahaṁ huva indrāviṣṇū aśvinā-vāśuḥṛṣyasā.

If you sprinkle the yajna of the learned man of thought with ghrta and feed it with havi compounds, know, value and sprinkle the yajna of the children of the sages too the same way. Ashvins, I invoke Brhaspati, lord of the cosmos and cosmic knowledge, all learned men of the world, Indra, ruler of world powers, and Vishnu, lord omnipresent.

I invoke the twin Ashvins, great and generous achievers, who are committed to receive our homage at yajna and whose friendship and love for us is on top of all divine favours we can have.

4. Yayoradhi pra yajñā asūre santi sūrayah. Tā yajñasyādvharasya pracetasā svadhābhīryā pibataḥ somyāṁ madhu.

The Ashvins’ yajnas are specially performed even in the lands of the agnostics where they shine boldly and brilliantly. They are specialists of the yajnic programmes of creation and production without violence and they come in response to invocations and yajnic offerings and drink the sweets of soma.

5. "Yadadāśvināvapāg yat prāk stho vājinīvasū. Yad druhyavyanavi turvaśe yadau huve vāmatha mā gatam."

Ashvins, commanders of the wealth of victorious forces, today whether you are in the west or in the east, in the areas of hate, opposition and conflict, among the fast achievers or ordinary citizens, I invoke and call upon you, pray come to us.

Ashvins, commanders of manifold wealth, power and popularity, whether you fly in the firmament or across heaven and earth, or you stay in your chariot with self-contained powers and provisions, from there come in response to our call.

Mandala 8/Sukta 11
Agni Devata, Vatsa Kanva Rshi
1. Tvamagne vratapā asi deva ā martyēṣvā.
   Tvam yajnēṣvīḍyāḥ.

   Agni, self-refulgent lord giver of light, you are preserver and protector of karmic laws, moral commitments and sacred vows among mortals. Hence you are adored and worshipped in yajnas.

2. Tvamasi praśasyo vidatheṣu sahantya.

Mandala 8/Sukta 12

Indra Devata, Parvata Kanva Rshi

1. Ya indra somapātamo madaḥ śaviṣṭha cetati. Yenā hamsi nyatriṇāṁ tamīmahe.

Indra, lord most potent, highest protector and promoter of the beauty and joy of life, that ecstatic passion of yours which universally pervades, manifests and reveals your might and glory and by which you destroy the negative forces of life, we adore and pray for.

That omnipotent passion and ecstasy of yours by which you protect and promote the individual soul working with ten faculties of perception and volition, the unchallengeable wind and electric energy, the solar radiation which shakes and vibrates, and the ocean of water on earth and in space, that we adore, that we pray for.

That power and passion of ecstasy by which you energise and move the river and the sea, the earths and waters like rolling chariots to flow and follow the path of the divine law of nature, that we adore, that we pray for, to follow the path of truth and yajna ourselves too.

Lord of clouds and mountains, commander of adamantine will and power of ecstasy, pray accept this song of adoration, radiant and pure like sanctified ghṛta, by which we adore and pray for that power and ecstasy by which, through your splendour and glory, you reveal yourself in manifestation for ever.

5. Imāṁ juṣasva girvaṇah samudra iva pinvate. Indra viśvābhir-ūtibhir-vavakṣitha.

O lord adorable and worshipped, accept and cherish this song of homage and celebration which rolls and rises and swells you too like the sea, and you too, O lord omnipotent, manifest in glory higher and higher with all modes of protection and promotion.

The lord self-refulgent, to extend the grace of his love and friendship to us, waxes from heaven and blesses us like intense showers of abundant rain from the regions of light.

4.

Vavākṣurasya ketava uta vajro gabhastyoḥ. Yat sūryo na rodasī avardhayat.

The banners of his manifestation and the thunderbolt in his hands exalt his glory as the sun illuminates and glorifies heaven and earth.

5.

Yadi pravṛddha satpate sahasraṁ mahiṣāṁ aghaḥ. Ādit ta indriyam mahi pra vāvṛdhe.

O lord exalted, protector and defender of truth and positive reality, when you strike down hundreds of evils and great calamities, then your glory and the grandeur of your creation rises beyond measure.

6.

Indraṁ sūryasya raśmibhir-nyarśasānamoṣati. Agnirvaneva sāsahiḥ pra vāvṛdhe.

When Indra with sun-rays kills antilife agents such as disease carrying bacteria in the atmosphere, he rises victorious and exalted like fire over forests.
10. Iyam ta ṛtvīyāvātī dhūtireti navīyasi.
    Saparyantī purupriyā mīmīta it.

    O lord, this ever new divine intelligence of yours constantly operative in nature according to time and seasons is universally sympathetic, loving and honoured, serves life and the environment, and continues to create and cover new forms of life and nature.

11. Garbho yajñasya devayuh kratum punīta ānuṣak.
    Stomair-indrasya vāvṛdhē mīmīta it.

    The devotee of Indra and lover of divinities of nature and humanity, enactor of yajna as well as shaped by yajna, continuously performs holy actions with sanctity and faith, creates new forms of holy actions and rises in life by divine songs and tributes in honour of Indra.

    Prācī vāśīva sunvate mīmīta it.

    Indra, friend and benefactor of humanity and all loving beings, rises in omnipresent glory to watch and protect the beautiful world of his creation, and, like the prime voice of the Veda, reveals new forms of truth for the dedicated maker of yajnic soma.
13.  \textit{Yain\ vipr\ ā  ukthavāhāso’bhipramandurāyavah. Ghṛtam na pipya āsanyṛtasya yat.}

Indra is the lord whom vibrant sages and people in general all adore and exalt, singing hymns of worship in his honour, and I too offer songs of adoration while I offer oblations of ghrāta into the vedi of yajna.

14.  \textit{Uta svarāje aditiḥ stomam-indrāya jījanat. Purupraśastam-ūtaya ṛtasya yat.}

And mother Prakṛti, inviolable Nature, too bursts into songs of adoration in honour of self-refulgent Indra, which, being all elevating and inspiring, moves him to protection and advancement of the world of his dynamic creation.

15.  \textit{Abhi vahnaya ātaye ’nūṣata praśastaye. Na deva vivratā harī ṛtasya yat.}

O lord, the sages who conduct the yajna of divine adoration, and nature’s powers which conduct the yajna of world creation, sing songs for adoration of divinity and for protection of life. O lord divine, let not these conductive powers ever relent in the creative process which is the dynamic course of existence, cosmic yajna.

Indra, the soma nectar which you infuse in the sun and in the three worlds of experience, i.e., earth, heaven and firmament and which you infuse in the winds and enjoy to the last drop, we pray for.

17. Yad vā śakra parāvati samudre adhi mandase. Asmākamit sute raṇā samindubhīḥ.

And which, O lord of power, you infuse and energise in the far off sea and in this soma distilled by us and enjoy to the last drop - we pray for.

18. Yad vāsi sunvato vṛdhoh yajamānasya satpate. Ukthe vā yasya raṇyasi samindubhīḥ.

And you, O lord protector of eternal truth, who lead the yajamana maker of soma to progress in his yajna and songs of adoration and enjoy the soma homage to the last drop, we pray for.

O dedicated performers of yajna, for the sake of your protection and progress in your acts of homage and adoration, may all these soma joys of life reach you to every generous and brilliant yajaka, to every yajaka of power and prominence, for the elimination of all obstructions in the way of corporate action.

And may all participants in corporate action join in unison and adore and exalt Indra, greatest protector and promoter of the joy of soma and the united action, with homage, with offers of soma and oblations of havi into the sacred fire of joint and creative living for the common good.

And may the eternal lights of this lord Indra’s splendour and guidance come to bless the generous yajaka with all wealths and honours of the world.

22. Indraṁ vṛtrāya hantave devāso dadhire purāḥ. Indraṁ vānīranuṣatā samojase.

Saints and sages honour and adore Indra as their first and foremost leader and guide for the destruction of darkness and evil, and their songs of homage and prayer too adore and glorify Indra for the attainment of light and splendour.

23. Mahāntamaḥ mahinā vayaṁ stomebhir-havana-śrutam. Arkair-abhi pra ṇonumaḥ samojase.

With highest songs of adoration and offers of homage we worship omnipotent Indra who listens and responds to our call and prayers and we bow to him for the attainment of strength and splendour.

24. Na yaṁ vivikto rodasī nāntarikṣāṇi vajriṇam. Amādidasya titviśe samojasaḥ.

Neither heaven nor earth nor the middle regions comprehend the lord of thunderous power, nor do they shake or disengage him. Indeed the universe shines and vibrates by the one and sole power of this lord of splendour.

25. Yadindra pṛtanājye devāstvā dadhire puraḥ. Ādit te haryatā hariḥ vavakṣatuh.

Since the learned sages have accepted and followed you as front leader for the attainment of victory in their struggles of life, we pray, may your radiant currents of divine energy reveal your presence and bring us the vision of divinity for our illumination.

26. Yadā vṛtran naḍīvṛtāṁ śavasā vajrinn-avadhīḥ.
Ādit te haryatā harī vavakṣatuḥ.

O lord of the thunderbolt, as with your divine might you destroy the negativities of darkness and drought which obstruct the flow of the waters of life, we pray may your divine currents of light and will reveal your power and presence to us.

27. Yadā te viṣṇurojasā trīṇi padā vicakrame.
Ādit te haryatā harī vavakṣatuḥ.

Since the sun, by virtue of your might and refulgence reaches and illuminates the three worlds of existence, we pray, your radiations of light reveal your presence and illuminate our soul.

28. Yadā te haryatā harī vāvṛdhāte divedive.
Ādit te viśvā bhuvanāni yemire.

Since the radiations of your dynamic forces expand day by day, the entire worlds of the expansive universe are sustained in order in obedience to your law.
19. Yada te mārūṭair-viśas-tubhyamindra niyemire. Ādit te viśvā bhuvaṇāni yemire.

Since the entire world of vibrant winds and humanity bow to you in obedience to the divine law, the entire worlds of existence are sustained in the order of the divine law.

30. Yadā sūryam-amuṁ divi śukraṁ jyotiradhārayaḥ. Ādit te viśvā bhuvaṇāni yemire.

Since you have sustained that sun, radiant light, pure and powerful, the entire worlds of existence observe your divine law.

31. Imāṁ ta indra suṣṭutim vipra iyarti dhītibhiḥ. Jāmim padeva pipraūṁ prādhvare.

Indra, glorious lord of existence, the vibrant sage raises his voice and directs this joyous hymn of adoration and prayer to you in sincerity of thought, word and deed, which rises as if step by step in Holy Communion of yajna to you as to his own friend and brother.

When in the favourite hall of this lord Indra, the congregations on the yajna vedi, exuberant with soma and fragrance, raise the voice of adoration and prayer in unison aspiring for the milky gifts of yajna—

अस्वीये स्वस्वयं सुगव्यृप्तिनं दशति न: ।
हातवं पुवर्वचिन्त्यं पाध्यर ॥ ३३ ॥

Then O lord omnipotent and self-refulgent, like a generous host of cosmic yajna, bring us the wealth of prosperity and progress and a brave and honourable progeny as the first gift and attainment of the yajna.

Mandala 8/Sukta 13

Indra Devata, Narada Kanva Rshi

1. Indraḥ suteśu someśu kratuṁ punīta ukthyaṁ. Vide vṛdhasya daksasxo mahān hi śaḥ.

When a special yajnic programme for the realisation of special knowledge, power and expertise in a particular field is completed with hymns of thanks and praise to divinity, then Indra, lord omnipotent and omniscient, sanctifies the joint endeavour of holiness and blesses the programme with success. Great is he.

स पर्ष्प्रम् व्याप्नमिनि द्रवानां सदेन वृध: ।
सुपार: सुधर्वस्तम: समयत्सजित ॥ २ ॥
2. Sa prathame vyomani devānāṁ sadane vṛdhaḥ.
   Supāraḥ suśravastamaḥ samapsujit.

   At the first expansive manifestation of space, at the centre of all divine mutations of nature, he is the efficient cause of nature’s evolution, supreme pilot, most abundant and most glorious, omnipotent victor over conflicts and negativities in the way of evolution of nature and humanity in relation to will and action.

3. Tamahve vājasātaya indraṁ bharāya śuṣmiṇam.
   Bhavā nah sumne antamaḥ sakhā vṛdhe.

   That Indra, potent and abundant, I invoke for victory in the race for life, for growth and fulfilment. O lord, be our friend, our innermost centre of conscience for our progress, peace and all round well being.

4. Iyaṁ ta indra girvaṇo rātih kṣarati sunvataḥ.
   Mandāno asya barhiṣo vi rājasi.

   O lord adorable and adored, Indra, this abundant generosity of yours who create and enact this soma yajna of the universe rains in showers and flows free, in which you rejoice, shine refulgent and rule over the yajnic vedi of nature in evolution.
5. Nūnam tadindra daddhi no yat tvā sunvanta imahe. Rayim naścitramā bharā svarvidam.

Indra, lord of power and potential, bless us with that wealth and prosperity, abundant and versatile, bear and bring us that power and potential full of strength and light of joy which we ask of you and pray for in our joint yajnic efforts of creation and cooperation.

When the celebrant, perceptive, loud and bold, sings his songs with passion, then, as the songs are accepted and cherished, they rise in response to the acceptance and approval like branches of a tree.
The divine words of this lord, Indra, sparkle and flow like streams down the slopes, Indra who is celebrated as the lord and master of the regions of light and joy.

9. Uto patirya ucyate kṛṣṭīnāmeka idvaśi.
Namovṛdhair-avasyubhiḥ sute raṇa.

And lord and master he is called, of the people also, the one and only master, controller and sustainer. O lord, delight in the soma, songs and acts of homage created, sung and performed by devotees who exalt you with homage and obedience and aspire for sustenance and protection.

Praise the lord who is wise and all watching and whose glory resounds all over the universe, and whose overwhelming gifts of blessings flow and reach the house of the obedient and generous giver of charity.

11. Tūtujāno mahemate 'śvebhiḥ pruṣitapsubhiḥ. Ā yāhi yajñamāśubhiḥ śamiddhi te.

O lord instant mover and omnipresent, mighty wise, pray come to our yajna by the fastest radiations of light draped in beauty and majesty. Peace be with all celebrants, that’s your gift only.

\[\text{Indra śāvistha satpate rayin grṇatsu dhāraya. }\]
\[\text{Śravaḥ sūribhyo amṛtaṁ vasuvam.}\]

Indra, lord omnipotent, protector of truth and promoter of the truthful, vest the celebrants with wealth and wisdom and bring honour and fame and riches of immortal value for the wise, bold and brilliant intellectuals.

\[\text{Have tvā sūra udite have madhyandine divaḥ. }\]
\[\text{Juśaṇa indra saptibhirna ā gahi.}\]

Indra, lord of refugence, I invoke you at the rise of the sun, at the middle of day from the heights of heaven. O lord loving and kind, come by instant radiations of light and take us on with divine blessings.

\[\text{Ā tū gahi pra tu drava matsvā sutasya gomataḥ. }\]
\[\text{Tantum tanuśva pūrvyaṁ yathā vide.}\]

Come lord instantly, take us on at the yajna, be kind and gracious, let the flames of fire rise with the joyous music of Vedic hymns and oblations of the gifts of earth. Extend the eternal link of life so that we join you, we join the cosmic yajna, and we join with the life link of our fore-fathers and mother earth, so that we may know that link and live it too with our future generations.

Yacchakrāsi parāvati yadarvāvati vṛtrahan.

\[ \text{Yad vā samudre andhaso 'videdasi.} \]

O lord omnipotent, destroyer of darkness and obstruction, who are far off in space and closest at hand, in the sea and in the skies, wherever and everywhere you are the protector of life and of the food for life.

Indraṁ vardhantu no girā indraṁ sutāsa indavaḥ.

\[ \text{Indre haviśmatīrviśo arāṇiṣuḥ.} \]

Let our songs of adoration exalt the lord omnipotent. Let the soma essences of our yajnic performance in unison do honour to the lord. Let the citizens of the world bearing homage of self sacrifice in hand rejoice in the gifts and glories of Indra.

Tamid viprā avasyavaha pravatvātibhir-ūtibhiḥ.

\[ \text{Indraṁ kṣoṇīr-avardhayan vayā iva.} \]

Vibrant sages, aspirants for protection and progress of the world, exalt Indra with abundant songs of praise with gratitude for divine protection. Indeed, the earths and their children all, like growing branches of a tree, do him honour and celebrate his glory.

Brilliant people and divine forces of nature all enact and expand the cosmic yajna of the lord’s creation in all the three worlds of heaven, earth and the firmament. Let our voices too celebrate the same omniscient lord of the expansive universe and thereby rise in meaning and value.

19. Stotā yat te anuvrata uktthānyērtuthā dadhe. Śucih pāvaka ucyate so adbhutaḥ.

The real celebrant is the person dedicated to the observance of your discipline of divine law, the one who creates and sings songs of adoration according to the seasons of time, songs in which the lord of wonder and majesty is celebrated as radiant and pure who purifies the celebrant too into radiance and sinlessness.

That same omnipotence of Indra as Rudra, lord of natural justice, is ever awake and shines in the ancient regions of the universe wherein the wise and wakeful sages concentrate and stabilise their mind through meditation in thought experiments.

21. Yadi me sakhyamāvara imasya pāhyandasaḥ.

O lord, if you graciously accept me as a friend, then save this blind-folded world of ignorance, save this soma vitality of life’s positivity too by which we may win over all the forces of hate and enmity in the world.

22. Kadā ta indra girvaḥ stotā bhavāti śantamaḥ.

Indra, lord adorable, lord of all adorations, when would your celebrant settle in perfect peace? When would you establish us in the stable wealth of lands, cows and the holy voice, horses, advancement and the ultimate wealth and aim of life?

23. Uta te suṣṭutā harī vṛṣaṇā vahato ratham.

O lord beyond age and suffering, mighty
That same omnipotence of Indra as Rudra, lord of natural justice, is ever awake and shines in the ancient regions of the universe wherein the wise and wakeful sages concentrate and stabilise their mind through meditation in thought experiments.

We worship that universally adored, omnipotent lord with his universal modes of protection and progress who is both just and merciful, promoter and restrainer and who pervades the beautiful world of cosmic existence and watches over the cosmic yajna.

Help us advance and prosper, lord universally adored and celebrated by sages, protect us with all help and bless us with abundant nutriments for body and mind.

Indra, lord omnipotent, controller of clouds and mountains, wielder of the thunderbolt of justice and punishment, you are the saviour and protector of the celebrant who thus adores you. I concentrate and direct my thoughtful intelligence with controlled mind arisen from meditation on the laws of universal truth and divine law to you.

27. Iha tyā sadhamādyā yujānaḥ somapītaye.

Harī indra pratadvasū abhi svara.

Indra, lord all gracious, engaging your divine forces of cosmic dynamics working in centrifugal and centripetal complementarity and creating the world’s wealth and joy with you, pray come here, shine on top of our joint endeavour of creative production and bless our yajna.

28. Abhi svarantu ye tava rudrāsah sakṣata śriyam.

Uto marutvatīrviśo abhi prayah.

And let your enlightened celebrants dedicated to the wealth of beauty, grace and culture with love and justice, and all the vibrant communities engaged in creative production come and join this delightful yajnic endeavour for the common good in a state of prosperity and progressive stability.

29. Imā asya pratūrtayaḥ padaṁ juṣanta yad divi.

Nābhā yajñasya saṁ dadhuryathā vide.

All these dynamic communities dedicated to this lord of glory know the highest rung of the existential ladder to attain that state of joy which is in the light of divinity, they join together here on earth on the holy seat of universal yajna and eliminate negativities so that they may attain the state of enlightenment and eternal joy.

अय्यं दीप्याय च ैस पार्चि पयत्यध्ववः।
मिमीतं युज्ञमानुष्किवच येन् ॥ ३० ॥

This power of universal vision and potential in advance of the cosmic yajna of creative evolution instantly and simultaneously measures and projects the cosmic plan so that it can be watched and assessed on a long term basis from the beginning to the end.

वृषायमिन्द्र तु रथं उत्ता तु वृष्णणा हरी।
वृषा त्वं वृत्तकता वृषा हवः ॥ ३१ ॥

Indra, this cosmic chariot of yours moving on and on is exuberant and generous, the natural forces which carry it on are mighty, you, lord of infinite actions are generous and inexhaustible, and the homage and prayer offered to you is highly effective and infinitely rewarding.

वृषा गावा वृषा मदा वृषा सामां अर्यं सुतः।
वृषा यज्ञ यमिन्वस्चैव वृषा हवः ॥ ३२ ॥

Abundant and mighty are your clouds of showers, powerful is your excitement and joy, abundant is the beauty and power of this soma you have created in the world of existence, mighty and far reaching is the beauty of the cosmic dynamics you have enacted and energise, and mighty is the order and command of your invitation to life.

33. Vṛṣā tvā vṛṣaṇāṁ huve vajrīṇ-cirābhir-ūtibhiḥ. Vāvantha hi pratiṣṭutim vṛṣā havaḥ.

Indra, I, your celebrant, am vibrant, exuberant and powerful too by your grace. Lord of thunder and clouds, I invoke you who command inexhaustible power and generosity along with your wonderful protections and modes of advancement. You listen and you love and bless the songs of adoration and prayer, and the invocation and prayers addressed to you are powerful and rewarding.

Mandala 8/Sukta 14

Indra Devata, Goshuktyashvasuktinau Kanvayanaau Rshis

1. Yadindrāhanā yathā tvamīśīya vasva eka it. Stotā me gośakhā syāt.

Indra, lord of universal knowledge, power and prosperity, if I were, like you, the sole master of wealth, wisdom and power in my field, then pray may my dependent and celebrant also be blest with wealth and wisdom of the world. (Let all of us together be blest with abundance of wealth and wisdom under the social dispensation of our system of government and administration.)

2. Śīkṣeyamasmai ditseyam śavīpate maniśiṇe.
Yadahaṁ gopatiḥ syām.

O lord and master of world power and prosperity, Indra, if I were master of knowledge and controller of power, I would love to share and give wealth and knowledge to this noble minded person of vision and wisdom.

3. Dhenuṣṭa indra sūnṛtā yajamānāya sunvate.
Gāmaśvam pipuṣi duhe.

Indra, the divine voice of your omniscience, omnipotence and bliss overflows with universal truth and rectitude of the law of existence and showers the abundance of prosperity and advancement upon the dedicated yajamana who distils and creates the soma of joy for the world.

4. Na te vartāsti rādhasa indra devo na martyaḥ.
Yad ditsasi stuto magham.
Indra, when you are pleased to bless the celebrant with power, prosperity and excellence, then neither mortal nor immortal can restrain the abundant flow of your grace and generosity.

Yajna, joint creative endeavour which protects and replenishes the earth and environment, pleases and elevates Indra, the ruler, and creates a place of bliss in the light of heaven for the doer.

Indra, we pray for your power and protection, the lord whose glory rises with the expansive universe and who rule over the entire wealth and power of the worlds of existence.

When Indra, lord omnipotent and blissful, eliminates all obstructions and negativities from our paths of progress, then we see the entire space in... existence shines with light and overflows with the joy of soma bliss.

When the lord shakes up our psychic energies to the depths and throws out our darkness and negativities, then he sharpens our senses along with pranic energies and opens out our spiritual potential hidden in the cave of the heart.

The bright and beautiful, blessed and blissful stars and planets of refulgent space, expansive, firm and constant by virtue of the omnipotence of Indra, no one can shake or dislodge from their position of stability.

Like exulting waves of the sea, this hymn of adoration rises and reaches you, and the vibrations of your joyous response too emanate and pervade everywhere.

By you the songs of praise and adoration thrive and exalt, by you the songs of celebration and prayer vibrate and fructify. Indeed, you do all the good to the celebrants.

Radiations of light with expansive vibrations, herbs and trees with branches, leaves and filaments carry the spirit of divinity and nature’s energy to the creative centres of life’s bounty.

When you fight out the adversaries of life and humanity, you crush the head of the demon of drought and famine with the sea mist and the cloud.

With your mysterious powers and tactics, you destroy the crafty thieves and saboteurs roaming around even if they have risen to the heights of clouds.

15. Asunvāmindra saṁsadaṁ viṣūcīṁ vyanāśayaḥ.
   Somapā uttaro bhavan.

   Indra, protector of the creative joy and prosperity of life and humanity in a state of peace, you being the better and higher of all others, you frustrate, dismiss and dissolve the factious assembly which has failed to be creative and cooperative as a corporate body.

Mandala 8/Sukta 15

Indra Devata, Goshuktyashvasuktinau Rshis

   O celebrants, glorify Indra, universally invoked and praised, the lord who blazes with light and power, serve him with words and actions and let him shine forth in your life and achievement.

2. Yasya dvibharaso bṛhat saho dādhāra rodasī. Gririrñrañān apaḥ svarvṛṣatvanā.

   Glorify Indra, who sustains the cosmic yajna in the two worlds, your life here and hereafter, whose cosmic potential sustains heaven, earth and the middle regions, who moves and controls the mighty gusts of winds and motions of mountainous clouds, and who gives us heavenly showers of rain for joy and vital energies.

3.

Sa rājasi puruṣṭutaṇ ēko vṛtrāṇi jighnase.
Indra jaitrā śravasyā ca yantave.

Indra, universally praised and celebrated, you rule and shine alone, one, unique, without an equal, to destroy darkness, ignorance and adversities, to control and contain what is won and to manage what is heard and what ought to be heard.

4.

Tāṁ te madatī gnīmasī vṛṣanāṁ pṛtstu sāsahim.
U lokakṛtnum-adrivo hariśriyam.

Indra, lord of adamantine will and generous disposition like clouds of rain, we celebrate and glorify that power and heavenly joy of yours which is virile and generous, heroic in battles and steadfast against challenges, creative in the worlds of existence and gracious in advancement and gifts of bliss.

5.

Yena jyotiṁśyāyave manave ca viveditha.
Mandāno asya barhiṣo vi rājasi.
We celebrate and adore that power and divine joy of yours by which you reveal the light of life to the mortals from generation to generation and, exalted by which, you shine and rule over the yajnic dynamics of this universe.

That divine power and joyous generosity of yours, today, saints and scholars of the holy Word and song sing and celebrate as ever before. O lord, conquer and control the waters of space collected in the mighty clouds and let them flow day by day.

That grandeur and majesty of yours, that power and potential, that continuous act of divine generosity, that adamantine will and force of natural justice and dispensation of the thunderbolt which overwhelms our will and choice commands our sense of discrimination, and we glorify it, we sharpen it, we accept it with adoration.

The light of heaven glorifies your blazing power, the earth augments your honour and fame, and the rolling floods of water and mighty mountains of majesty do awesome homage to you.

त्वां विष्णुव्रहन् एवं पित्त्रा गृणाति वर्णणः ।
त्वा शाधा मदरत्नु मारुतम् ॥ ९ ॥

Tvāṁ śardho madatyanu mārutam.

Vishnu, cosmic dynamics of nature’s expansive sustenance, Mitra, loving and life giving sun, Varuna, soothing and energising oceans of the universe, and the power and force of the showers of cosmic energy all exalt you and receive their life and exaltation from you.

त्वं वृषा जर्नानां महि इन्द्र जनिष । सृत्रा विश्वव स्वप्त्यानि दधिष ॥ १० ॥

10. Tvāṁ vrṣā janānāṁ mamhiṣṭha indra jajñise.
Satrā viśvā svapatyāni dadhiše.

Most generous and omnificent Indra, in the heart of humanity you arise as the greatest and highest paternal power and presence who sustain the worlds of existence as your darling children all together as one family.

सृत्रा त्वं पुरुषुतां एका वृत्राणि ताशस ।
नान्य इन्द्राकरणं भूयः इन्ति ॥ ११ ॥

11. Satrā tvam puruṣṭutaṁ eko vṛtrāṇi toṣase.
Nānya indrāt karaṇāṁ bhūya invati.

O lord universally adored, you alone dispel and destroy all the strong holds of darkness, ignorance and
The light of heaven glorifies your blazing power, the earth augments your honour and fame, and the rolling floods of water and mighty mountains of majesty do awesome homage to you.

Since all people in all their different lands and places invoke and adore you for protection and self fulfilment according to the voice of their own conscience, O lord, be gracious to our people here on earth and let them win the divine gift of eternal joy.

For peace and settlement of the perfect order, and for honour, dignity and excellence for all of us here on earth, and for our final victory of self fulfilment in ultimate bliss, meditate on the lord’s manifestations, identify with his omnipresence, adore him as the lord of omnipotence, and win the pleasure and grace of Indra.
With songs of celebration glorify Indra, refulgent ruler of humanity, worthy of adoration, leader, destroyer of evil people, the greatest and most munificent.

Unto him all songs of adoration return, to him all honours and fame of the world reach, in him they rejoice like streams and rivers reaching and rejoicing in the sea.

Him with songs of adoration I glorify as the first and highest ruler, constantly active in cosmic dynamics, and the greatest warrior and winner for the celebrant’s good.

Faultless are his joyous exploits, deep and grave, vast and wide, saviours across the seas of life and givers of victory in the battles of the brave.
With songs of celebration glorify Indra, refulgent ruler of humanity, worthy of adoration, leader, destroyer of evil people, the greatest and most munificent.

Unto him all songs of adoration return, to him all honours and fame of the world reach, in him they rejoice like streams and rivers reaching and rejoicing in the sea.

Him with songs of adoration I glorify as the first and highest ruler, constantly active in cosmic dynamics, and the greatest warrior and winner for the celebrant’s good.

Faultless are his joyous exploits, deep and grave, vast and wide, saviours across the seas of life and givers of victory in the battles of the brave.

When the call is given and the battle rages, people invoke him for defence, and they win who enjoy the favour and protection of Indra.

Men of vision and wisdom celebrate him with inspiring songs and noble actions while average people please him with usual performance of their daily duties. This lord Indra is the creator, controller and dispenser of wealth and rewards.

Indra is Brahma, great and omniscient, the all-watching seer, invoked, adored and worshipped by all, universally in many ways. He is really great, magnanimous by virtue of his great actions.

He is adorable with songs of praise, worthy of invocation and homage, eternal, ever true, and by his essential nature he is omnipotent, all creator, all maker of forms, and all alone by himself, he is the power supreme over all.

All people, all communities, all nations adore and exalt Indra, with inspiring verses of Rgveda, with sweet songs of Samaveda and with the exhilarating gayatri verses.

All people, communities and nations adore and exalt Indra who brings wealth, peace and prosperity to humanity, creates light and hope for their battles of life, and challenges and destroys enemies by fighting them out.

He, Indra, lord of deliverance and giver of fulfilment, invoked and adored by all, pilots us across the seas of life by the boat of divine guidance and saves us against all jealousies, enmities and negativities of the world.

Sa tāṁ na Ṇn dṛ vājēbhīdānśīyā ca gātuyā ca.
Achchā ca naḥ sumnam nēṣī.

Indra, lord of power and giver of fulfilment, by gifts of science and energy and with noble acts and persistent endeavour, lead us well by noble paths to peace, prosperity and well being.

Mandala 8/Sukta 17

Indra or Vastoshpati Devata, Irimbithi Kanva Rshi

आ याहि सुषुमा हि त इन्द्र सामं पिबा इमम्।
एदं बुहि सदूः मर्मम् ॥ १ ॥

1. Ā yāhi suṣumā hi ta indra somāṃ pibā imam.
Edaṁ barhiḥ sadō mama.

Indra, lord omnipotent and omnipresent, we hold the yajna and distil the soma of life in your service. Come, grace this holy seat of my yajna dedicated to you, watch my performance, enjoy the soma, and protect and promote the yajna for the beauty and joy of life.

आ त्वा ब्राह्मयुज्या हरि वहहतामिन्द कुशिना।
उपा ब्रह्माणि नः श्रृणु ॥ २ ॥

2. Ā tvā brahmayuṣyā harī vahatāmitra keśinā.
Upa brahmāṇi naḥ śrṇu.
Let the radiant waves of cosmic energy engaged in the service of divinity bring you here. Pray listen to our songs of prayer and adoration.

Dedicated to divinity and the divine voice, meditating on the divine presence with concentrated mind and soul, living in truth the beauty of life and expressing the ecstasy of soma, we invoke and wait for Indra, original maker and lover of soma, to come and bless us.

O lord of cosmic beauty, come to us, listen to our song of adoration and drink of the soma distilled by us with intense love and devotion.

4. Ā no yāhi sutāvatośmākaṁ suṣṭutīrupa. Pībā su śiprin-andhasaḥ.

I create and pour the soma into the body spaces of your creation, taste the sweets with your tongue and let the exhilaration of honey radiate to every particle of the cosmic body.

5. Ā te siṅcāmi kukṣyoranu gātā vi dhāvatu. Gṛbhāya jihvayā madhu.
May the soma be delicious to your taste, O connoisseur of soma, may the honey sweets be exhilarating to your body, and may the soma bring peace and joy to your heart.

6. Svāduṣṭe astu saṁśūde madhumān tanve tava.
   Somāḥ śamastu te hṛde.

   O lord of cosmic vision, let this soma distilled and seasoned, radiate to you from sense to the spirit, inspiring, soothing and beatifying like a bride on top of her beauty and virgin grace.

7. Ayamu tvā vicarṣaṇe janīrivābhi saṁvṛtah.
   Pra soma indra sarpatu.

   In the ecstasy and exhilaration of soma, Indra, lord mighty of head and arms joined at the neck and vast of cosmic belly space, destroys the dark forces of life.

8. Tuvigrīvo vapodaraḥ subāhur-andhaso made.
   Indro vṛtrāṇi jighnate.

   Indra, ruler and ordainer of the world by your power and splendour, come to us and, O dispeller of darkness, go forward, destroy the evils and adversities of ignorance, injustice and poverty.

\begin{verbatim}
इन्द्र पार्विक पुरस्त्वं विश्वस्यराजा आज्ञतः।
वृद्धार्णेऽवृद्धहन्जहि॥ ९॥
\end{verbatim}

9. \textit{Indra prehi purastvam viśvasyeśāna ojasā.}
\textit{Vṛtrāṇi vṛtrahañjaḥi.}

Indra, ruler and ordainer of the world by your power and splendour, come to us and, O dispeller of darkness, go forward, destroy the evils and adversities of ignorance, injustice and poverty.

\begin{verbatim}
दीघस्त्व अस्त्वांकृशा यन्ना वस्तु प्रयच्छिति।
यज्ञामानय सुन्तः॥ १०॥
\end{verbatim}

10. \textit{Dīrghaste astvaṅkuśo yenā vasu prayacchasi.}
\textit{Yajamānāya sunvate.}

Let your arms of law and order be long and far reaching by which you protect and provide peace, prosperity and security for the self-sacrificing performer of yajna who creates soma for the common good.

\begin{verbatim}
अयं स इन्द्र सामा निपूता अर्धी ब्रह्मिषि।
एहैमस्य दवा पिबे॥ ११॥
\end{verbatim}

11. \textit{Ayaṁ ta indra somo nipūto adhi barhiṣi.}
\textit{Ehīmasya dravā piba.}

Indra, this soma pure and sanctified on the holy grass of yajna vedi, is dedicated to you. Come fast, you would love it, drink and enjoy, and protect and promote it for the good of all.
12. Śacigo śacipūjanā’yaṁ raṇāya te sutaḥ.
Ākhaṇḍala pra hūyase.

Lord self-refulgent creator of stars and planets, glorious adorable, this cosmic soma of the universe of your creation is for the joy of life. Therefore, O lord imperishable, you are invoked and adored with love and faith.

O lord, the sun on high which neither falls nor allows others, planets and satellites, to fall is your creation and it is the protector and sustainer of the vault of heaven and the firmament. On this we meditate and concentrate our mind.

O lord of human habitations, creator of the cosmic home of life, may the centre column of our house be firm. May the lord be the protective armour of the makers of soma. May Indra, lover of soma to the last drop, be destroyer of the strongholds of evil which nevertheless persist through time, and may the lord be friends with the sages.
Challenger of poisonous negativities, adorable, giver of earthly prosperity and words of vision and wisdom, Indra by himself alone eliminates many evils. Let the devotee with inspired adoration invoke the refulgent omnipresence of Indra before his inner vision to bless his consciousness and to protect and promote it to universal awareness of the divine presence.

Mandala 8/Sukta 18

Adityah (1-3, 5, 10-22), Aditi (4, 6, 7), Ashvinau (8), Agni-Surya-Anilah (9) Devatah, Irimbithi Kanva Rshi

1. Idam ha nīnam-eśāṁ sumnaṁ bhikṣeta martyah. Ādityānām-apūrvyam savīmanī.

   Let mortal humanity ask for unique favours of these Adityas, brilliant children of Mother Nature, that is, nature’s powers of light, energy and peace, seek for wealth, honour and excellence of life in a state of peace and progress, and live under the inspiration and guidance of nature, her forces of thought, energy and stability without violating nature’s law.
2. Anarvāṇo hyeśāṁ panthā ādityānām.
   Adabdhāḥ santi pāyavaḥ sugevṛdhaḥ.

   Irresistible are the paths and laws of these brilliant powers of nature, undaunted are they, protectors and promoters, and they increase the peace and prosperity of life (if you presume not to challenge and violate them).

   तत्सृ नः: सविता भग वरुणा मित्रा अयमा । शम्य चच्छन्तु सुपथ्या यदीमह ॥ ३ ॥

3. Tat su naḥ savitā bhago varuṇo mitro aryamā.
   Śarma yacchantu sapratho yadīmahe.

   May Savita, life generating sun, Bhaga, inexhaustible wealth and power of divinity, Varuna, oceans of space and divine generosity, Mitra, divine love and warmth of life, and Aryaman, divine laws of the motions of stars, planets and galaxies, guide and lead us to that peace and prosperity which we pray for and which, we wish, may ever increase.

   दुवभिंदव्यदितचरिष्टभम ॥ गहि। स्मत्सूरिरिभिः पुरुषिय सुशम्भिः ॥ ४ ॥

4. Devebhir-devyadite’riṣṭabharmannā gahi.
   Samt sūribhiḥ purupriye susarmabhiḥ.

   Imperishable nature, mother Infinity universally loved and adored, self-refulgent divinity, giver of security in prosperity against adversity, pray come and bring us best of life’s happiness and well being along with brilliant powers of generosity, intelligence and fearless rectitude.
5. Te hi putrāso adīter-vidur-dveṣāṃsi yotave. Amhościd-urucakrayo’nehasaḥ.

Those children of divinity, sages, scholars and redoubtable warriors, pure at heart and great performers of boundless possibilities, know how to remove jealousies, fight out enmities and eliminate sin and crime.

6. Aditirno divā paśum-aditir-naktamadvayāḥ. Aditiḥ pātvamahasah sadāvṛdhā.

May Aditi, Mother Nature, her intelligence, energy and stability, preserve, protect and promote our cattle, property and perception day and night. May the light of divinity, always promotive of positivity, save us from sin.

7. Uta syā no divā matir-aditir-ūtyā gamat. Sā śaṅtāti mayaskaradapa sridhaḥ.

May that beneficent intelligence of the light of divine Mother Nature come to us day by day with her protective faculties, do us good and ward off errors, obstructions, negative values and misbeliefs.

And may nature’s complementary powers of all round protection and growth bring us good and peace and keep off all sin and evil of body and mind from us.

9. Śamagniragnibhiḥ karacchaṁ nastapatu sūryaḥ. Śaṁ vāto vātvarapā apa sridhaḥ.

May Agni, divine fire of life, with its radiations of heat and light, do us good. May the sun shine warm for the good of all in peace. May the wind blow fragrant and free and bring us the breath of life for all in peace, and may all the divinities of Mother Nature drive away and keep off all negativity and adversities from humanity.

10. Apāṁvāmapa sridhamapa sedhata durmatim. Ādityāso yuyotanā no arṇhasaḥ.

May the Adityas, powers of light and life in nature and humanity, drive away all disease of body and mind and keep off negativities of thought and intelligence from us. May the children of imperishable divinity keep us safe, far away from the onslaughts of sin and adversity.
11. *Yuyotā śarumasmadān ādityāśa utāmatim.
Rdhagdveṣah krṣuta viśvavedasah.*

May the Adityas, divine harbingers of light and life, drive away from us all forms of violence and enmity. May they ward off all those stupid fools who lack understanding and refuse to think positively. May the pioneers of enlightenment who know the world and all its ways eliminate hate and malignity from the world of humanity.

12. *Tat su naḥ śarma yacchatā’dityā yanmumocati.
Enasvantaṁ cidenasah sudānavaḥ.*

O Adityas, children of the light of life eternal, holy givers of the best of life, thought and action, bring us that peace and joy which gives us freedom, that freedom which saves and liberates even the worst of sinners from sin and evil.

Svaiḥ śa evai ririśiṣṭa yurjanah.*

Let the mortal who of his own evil nature seeks to injure us by his evil design perish in consequence of his own evil actions. Let such a man be off from us.

Let the sin itself consume and wholly destroy that sinner, evil designer, maligner, mortal enemy of humanity who is a treacherous double dealer and seeks to destroy us.

15. Pākatrā sthana devā hṛtu jānītha martyrāṁ Upa dvayuṁ cādvayuṁ ca vasavaḥ.

O Vasus, brilliant and benevolent providers of peace and settlement for humanity, stand by those who are simple, honest and innocent. In your heart of hearts you know the nature and character of mortal humanity and closely discriminate between the double dealer and the person who is not a double dealer. Stand by the pure at heart, we pray.

16. Ā śarma parvatānāmotāpāṁ vṛṇimahe.
Dyāvākṣāmāre asmad rapaskṛtam.

We pray for the peace and protection of the mountains and the clouds. We pray for the peace and protection of the running waters. May heaven and earth, divine intelligence and holy mother, keep off sin and evil, suffering and disease from us. (Our choice and prayer is freedom from sin and suffering.)

17. Te no bhadreṇa śarmaṇa yuṣmākam nāvā vasavaḥ. Ati viśvāni duritā pipartana.

O Vasus, providers of settlement, peace and joy, Adityas, holy powers of light and life in nature and humanity, we pray, be our guides and pilots and, by your saving ark of life and destiny, lead us over the sins and sufferings of the world with the peace and felicity of the life divine.

18. Tuce tanāya tat su no drāghīya āyurjīvase. Ādityāsah sumahasaḥ kṛṇotana.

O Adityas, refulgent lords of light and mighty masters of life giving energies, for the joyous living and longevity of our children and their off-spring, create and bring the holy gift of good health and long life of peace and felicity.

O Adityas, mighty masters of refulgence and teachers of the secrets of good health and long life of felicity, the yajna, holy act of creativity, is your love

For the sake of a long life of peace and felicity, we approach the brilliant and benevolent lord of the winds of life and life’s energy, the protective and saviour forces of life, the Ashvins, complementary forces of the dynamics of development, Mitra, powers of love and friendship, and Varuna, powers of judgement and justice, all in nature as well as in humanity, we pray for inspiration and enact as a holy performance of yajña a vast home of peace and freedom for humanity on the earth and her environment.

O Mitra, powers of universal love and friendship, Aryaman, guides and pioneers of humanity, and Varuna, powers of universal judgement and justice, and all ye peoples of the world, unite, create and give us a happy home on earth blest with threefold freedom from ignorance and darkness, injustice and violence, and poverty and inequality, admirable as free from sin and evil and the scourge of fear and terror.

22. Ye ciddhi mṛtyubandhava ādityā manavaḥ smasi.
   Pra sū na āyurjīvase tiretana.

O Adityas, powers of light and life, givers of enlightenment, human as we are, all kindred of the fact of death, pray give us the longest span of life for the joy of living and then help us cross over to the life beyond death.

Mandala 8/Sukta 19

Agni (1-33), Adityah (34-35), Trasadayu’sdana-stuti
(36-37) Devatah, Sobhari Kanva Rshi

1. Tam gūrdhayā svarṇaram devāso devamaratim dadhanvire. Devatrā havyamohire.

Praise the self-refulgent lord giver of heavenly bliss whom the divinities of light and enlightenment hold and reflect in all his glory, Agni, the lord adorable, all pervasive yet uninvolved, whom the noble and learned people perceive, realise and worship as the one worthy of worship.

O vibrant scholar, worship Agni, lord of light and enlightenment, infinitely giving, awfully wondrous and self-refulgent, and the sole leader and controller of the world. Worship Him, the lord eternal, O generous man, in order that you may participate in this yajnic system of the lord’s universe which is full of love without violence and overflows with the blissful joy of soma, an inspiring invitation to live and act as the child of divinity.

यजिष्ठ हि त्वा वचृमह दुर्व दश्वत्रा हातारमर्मत्यम ।
अस्य युजस्य सुक्तुम् ॥ ३ ॥

We choose to worship you, Agni, most adorable, worthy of worship, self-refulgent lord over the divinities of existence, imperishable and eternal creator of the yajna of this universal order of the world.

ऊजा नरपां मुर्भं सूदीदितिमुग्गि श्रध्यशाचिष्म ।
स नै मित्रस्य वर्णस्य सा अपामा सुपं च तत दिवि ॥ ४ ॥

4. Urjo napātaṁ subhagaṁ sudīditimagniṁ śreṣṭhaśociṣam. Sa no mitrasya varuṇasya so apāmā sumnāṁ yakṣate divi.

We worship Agni, protector and promoter of energy and men of energy, lord of grandeur and glory and the holy refulgence of nature that shines bright with the highest flames of fire and light. In the light and fire of cosmic yajna, He is the giver of joy in the light of day and the bliss of peace in the night, and He is the giver of the nectar of pleasure in the liquid flow of water and the dynamics of karmic flow.

5. Yaḥ samidhā ya āhuṭi yo vedena dadāśa marto agnaye. Yo namasā svadhvarah.

The mortal man who performs yajna, creative activity without violence, and offers homage by giving in honour of Agni with holy fuel or with havi in ghrta and fragrant materials with the chant of Vedic verses enjoys the peace and bliss of life day and night.

His horses speed on at the fastest and hasten him to victory. His honour and fame shine the brightest. Whatever he does in honour of the divinities or in service to mortal humanity, sin and pride never touch him nor does it pollute his action.

O lord creator of energy and master controller of strength and power, let us, by yajnic experimentations of various forms of heat and light, all your gifts, be masters of fire energies and light radiations. You are the bravest holy power. Pray be ours, close to us as master giver and power divine.

Agni is worthy of praise and admiration as a friendly guest of honour and worthy to be known as a saviour like a chariot leading to cherished destinations. Abiding in you and strengthened by you, O lord, dedicated practitioners rise to be men of perfect success in peace and bliss since you are the ruler and controller of all forms of the wealth of existence.

O lord of universal wealth and grandeur, Agni, we pray, may the mortal come to sure success and good fortune who gives in charity and performs acts of yajnic creativity with love and without violence. May such a man be worthy of praise and appreciation with holy acts of intelligence and may he be rich in acquisitions and liberal in dispensations of charity.

The man for whose acts of yajna you rise high and stay constant is blest with brave progeny and achieves all round success in life. He is blest with horses and incoming wealth and honour. Surrounded by the wise, he is blest with praise and high appreciation. Supported by the brave, he achieves fulfilment in whatever he does and whatever he wants to do.

Blest is the man in whose house Agni, lord of universal acceptance with faith and reverence, through the divine fire form of yajna, receives oblations of holy food and Vedic songs of praise and the fire sends up yajnic food to nature’s divinities. He achieves total fulfilment in every field of life through the bounties of divine nature.

And O child of strength born of yajnic endeavour and sustainer of vitality in human affairs, O Vasu, all pervasive divine fire, living shelter of all, convert the song of the vibrant scholar celebrant to super mortal prayer and raise it to reach the heights of divinity.

या अग्रिं हवयददतिभिनमाधिभवा सुदृढा विमानिवारसति ।
गिरा वैज्ञराधीचित्रम् ॥ १३ ॥

One who lights the versatile yajnic fire and thereby whole heartedly serves the fire divine of imperishable flames with oblations of sacred havis, reverence and holy words of prayer never falls, never fails in life.

सूमिधा या निशिती दाशददित्व धामभिरस्य मत्यतः । विश्ववत्
धीभि: सुभङ्गा जनानं अतिं ध्रुव्यन्नद्रव्य तारिषित ॥ १४ ॥

The mortal who serves Aditi, immortal fire of mother Infinity, with blazing fuel within the radiance of its own laws is blest with the wealth and splendour of all orders of intelligence, honour and fame and surpasses all people of the other order like a captain on the helm crossing the stormy seas.

तदग्ने ध्रुवनमा भरे यत्रासहस्तसदने कं चिंदुत्रिणेम् ।
पतन्युं जनस्य तुद्ध्यर्वः ॥ १५ ॥
Agni, lord of light and life, give us that splendour of spirit and intelligence which may challenge and overcome any voracious friend at the door, in the heart and home, and counter the wealth of any evil minded person anywhere in life.

Agni, lord of light and life, we worship, pray for and try to acquire that light of vision and discrimination of intelligence of yours by which Varuna, man of judgement and justice, Mitra, man of love and friendship, Aryaman, guide and pioneer of society, the Ashvins, complementary agents of development and progress, and Bhaga, man of power, fame and honour, envision things in unison, discriminate right from wrong, and declare for all to see and follow the right so that thereby, O Indra, ruling lord and power version of Agni, we all, most keen to know the paths of progress and follow them, may advance with the power of our will and knowledge under your guidance and protection.

17. Te ghedagne svādhyaḥ ye tvā vipra nidadhire nṛcakṣasam. Viprāso deva sukratum.

Agni, self-refulgent lord of life, vibrant presence of the universe, surely they are the wise and holy men... and they are the blessed men of noble thought and study worthy of reverence who hold on to the light of your presence in the heart and meditate on the presence as the lord observant of humanity and as the high priest of the cosmic yajna.

18. Ta id vediṁ subhaga ta āhutim te sotum cakrire divi. Ta id vājebyir-jigyur-mahad dhanam ye tve kāmam nyerire.

Lord of glory and divine grace, Agni, they alone in reality organise the yajna vedi, they really offer the oblations into the sacred fire, they in truth endeavour to distil the soma of joy in the light of divinity, they in ultimate terms win the wealth of life by their struggle of life, who concentrate their hopes and ambitions in you and attribute and dedicate all their success, honour and fame to you.

Lord of beauty and glory, may the yajna fire with offers of oblations be auspicious for us. May our charity be auspicious. May our yajna and all other acts of kindness and love free from violence be auspicious. And may all the appreciation and praise of our acts and behaviour be auspicious and fruitful.

Agni, leading light of life, turn the mind by which you challenge the adversary in battles and win for us to gracious goodness in the victory over the forces of darkness. Reduce the many strongholds of the violent adversaries to nullity so that by your kindness and favours we may win what we desire in peace.

With words of praise I celebrate Agni, sacred fire energy, benefactor of humanity whom brilliant scholars honour and elevate as messenger, speedy ministrant, most valuable and adorable, and bearer of oblations to the divinities of nature.

O yajaka, you sing and celebrate Agni and offer libations of holy food to the flaming, ever youthful and brilliant fire of yajna which, when fed on ghrta and sung in sacred song, gives you strength and vigour in return for the homage.

When the fire of yajna fed on ghrta rises in flames with a crackle up and down, then it displays its form and power like an earthly version of the sun radiating its light.

Agni is the divine power which receives and carries the holy materials to the divinities by its fragrant vedi-mouth of fire. It is the benefactor of humanity and gives the choicest good things to all. It is the agent of good action and illuminator of the paths of piety. It is the high priest of universal yajna and an immortal divine power.

Agni, light and life of the world, child of omnipotence and creator of the mighty cosmos, mortal as I am, if I could worship you and were to become like you, I too would be an immortal, great adorable friend of the world of existence.

न त्वा रासीयाभिशस्तय वसा न भूपत्वार्य सन्त्य।
न में स्थानतामतीवा न दुर्हितः स्यादस्यु न पापयाः॥ २६॥

Agni, light of life, haven and home of humanity, let me not worship you for the sake of something despicable. Lord adorable, nor must I pray to you for something evil. Let not my own admirer, say my son or my disciple, be stupid and dull, nor malignant, nor sinful.

पितुन पुत्रः सुभृतता दुर्गण आ दुवाँ ऐतु प णा हवि: ॥ २७॥

27. Piturna putraḥ subhrto duroṇa ā devān etu praṇo haviḥ.

Just as the son is cherished in the father’s home and then the son looks after the parents, similarly Agni is cherished in the house of yajna and may Agni carry our oblations to the divinities.

तवाहर्मग्न उत्तिश्चिनदिष्टाभिः सचय जाष्मावसा ।
सदां दुवस्य मत्यः॥ २८॥

Agni, light of life all pervasive, shelter home of humanity, mortal as I am, I pray, may I, by the closest protections of the power divine always enjoy the love and favour of the lord.

By virtue of your mercy and grace, let me love you with yajnic life of holy action. By virtue of your acceptance, appreciation and generosity, let me serve you with all that you have given me. The wise say that you are the wisest, most high, and foremost leader and guide, O shelter of humanity. O lord, be pleased and generous to bless me that I may offer and sing praises in honour of your glory.

Agni, lord of universal love and friendship, he whose love and friendship, devotion and dedication, you accept into your kind care thrives under your protection and promotion and advances in life with noble and heroic progeny, moving from victory to glory.

Agni, giver of the showers of joy in life, the world of your creation flows on like drops of soma from the press, colourful, crackling voluble, exciting and fresh through the seasons, bright and beautiful, passionately lovable. You are darling of the glory of dawns and you shine ever in the glimmerings of the dusk and reflect in the ripples of water.

Blest with wealth and knowledge and bearing gifts of homage, for ultimate protection and further advancement, we have come to the lord almighty of a thousand forces of light and arms, object of universal love and adoration, blazing ruler of the universe and a scourge of the evil destroyers.

33. Yasya te agne anye agnaya upakśito vayā iva. Vipo na dyumnā ni yuve janānāṁ tava kṣatrāṇi vardhayan.

Of you, Agni, lord and light of the universe, on whom do other lights such as the sun depend like branches of the tree, I sing like a poet and, celebrating your ruling orders of the people, I enjoy the honour and pleasures of the world of your creation.

O Adityas, generous givers of light and life free from malice and jealousy, of all the people of wealth, honour and power, whoever the mortal you guide and lead across the world of karma and consequence, he is the man of good fortune.

35. Yūyāṁ rājānaḥ kaṁ ciccarṣaṇīsahāṁ kṣayantaṁ mānuśaṁ anu. Vayaṁ te vo varuṇa mitrāryamant-syāmed-ṛtasya rathyāḥ.

Adityas, powers and givers of light and justice, rulers of the bright order over people, punish whoever does evil and violence toward the law abiding citizens. O Vauna, ruling power of judgement and justice, Mitra, men of love and friendship, and Aryaman, guides and pioneers of the nation, let us be cooperative participants to take over the reins of your law and order of the truth and justice of your vision.

36. Adānme paurukutsyaḥ pañcāsataṁ trasadasyurvadhūnām. Mamhiṣṭho aaryaḥ saptiḥ.

May the lord sustainer of all life and destroyer of negativities, protector against the wicked, most liberal, most respectable defender of truth and goodness, I pray, bless us with many manly sons in the family and give them all noble wives.
May the lord omnipresent, master ruler of all moving things and the three worlds, supporter of all liberal people, be my ultimate guide, inspiration, and abode at the end of my life of karma, moving as I am towards him with concentration on good things in thought and action.

Mandala 8/Sukta 20

Marutah Devatah, Sobhari Kanva Rshi

Come Maruts, warriors of nature and humanity. Do not hurt nor destroy the innocent. Already on the move as ever, pray do not tarry any more far away. Heroes of equal passion, will and desire to accomplish your mission, you can bend even the firmest forces of violence and bring them to reason.

Vişupavibhir-maruta ſbhukṣaṇa ā rudrāsah sudītibhiḥ. Iṣā no adyā gatā puruspr̥ho yajñamā sobhārīyavah.
Mighty leaders of will and intelligence, lovers and protectors of the good, destroyers of want and suffering, honoured and invoked by all, come right now at the fastest by blazing chariots of the strongest wheel with forces of thunder and join our yajnic programme of creation and development with abundant food and energy.

विद्मः हि रुद्रियाङ्गैः शुष्ममुर्गः मरुतां शिमीवताम्।
विष्णूर्षस्यं मीढ़ हुष्मां ॥ ३ ॥

We know the virile Maruts dedicated to peace and justice against violence and injustice. They are harvesters of rain showers of plenty as participative agents of the cosmic will working in the dynamics of nature and humanity.

वि दूरपानि पार्षतन्तिष्ठुच्छुनाभ युञ्जनं राद्सी।
प धन्वायन्यक्षत शुभाखाद्या यदजय स्वभाववः। ॥ ४ ॥

O self-refulgent Maruts, when you in your blazing armour stir and move, islands sink at their banks, the evil stand still, both heaven and earth shake and the deserts rage with flying sands.

अच्युता चिद्म्ब्रो अज्ञा ८ नान्दति पवर्तासा वनस्पति।
भूमियार्घु रजत। ॥ ५ ॥

At your move to battle, fixed mountains roar, ancient trees crack and crackle, and the earth shakes under the force of your pressure.

O Maruts, for the expansion of your force and power on the march, the vast skies give way farther and farther as the heroes of mighty arm put on and display their armour on their person.

These mighty heroes, blazing bright in magnificence, commanding force and power of excellence, generous with moral rectitude, far from crookedness and unshakably upright in conduct, wear and express the grace of culture and behaviour in keeping with their innate merit and dedication to the defence of mother earth and her children.

The missile of these protectors, sustainers and defenders of the earth is shot by the force of sounds in the golden interior of the carrier chariot. May these heroes, friends of the earth, nobly born and trained, great and glorious, stand for our maintenance, food and energy, comfort, love and cooperation.

O generous yajakas, makers of soma, bear and bring homage in thankful response to the generous and mighty force of the Maruts led on the march by a great and formidable generous commander.

10. Vṛṣanaśvena maruto vrṣapsunā rathena vrṣanā- bhinā. Ā śyenāso na pakṣiṇo vṛthā naro havyā no vītaye gata.

O Maruts, stormy troops of nature and leading warriors of the human nation, come freely like the mighty high flying eagle birds and bring us holy yajnic inputs for development and human progress for our protection and advancement by your strongly built chariot drawn by mighty forces, bearing loads of riches in generous plenty for our spiritual and material well being.

The turn out, uniform and movement of these Maruts is steady and alike. So are their golden badges on the shoulders, and their weapons too shine uniformly in their hands.

Bold and fearsome are they, vigorous and generous, strong of arm, so that they don’t have to exert to defend their bodies and battle formations. Their arms and ammunitions are safe and strong, ready in position in their chariots, and in their battles they come out victorious with credit and admiration.

Ever ready and on the move without relent, their name and fame is unique, wide as the sea and expansive. So is their courage and patience to be enjoyed like ancestral heritage.

Honour the Maruts, celebrate them all closely and fervently. As the spokes of the wheel are all equal, so all of these shakers of the evil and the wicked are equal, none is the highest, none the lowest. Hence also the gifts of protection and security of all of them are equally great.

Fortunate is that man, and prospers, O Maruts, who has been under your care and protection since early dawns and who for sure remains under your care for now and all time.

O Maruts, leading lights of life, movers and shakers of negativities and opposition, whoever the man with yajnic gift when you approach to protect and partake of his offerings, is blest with peace and comfort and he prospers with honour and fame and wins victories in the battles for food, energy and wealth with prestige.
17. Yathā rudrasya sūnava divo vaśantyasurasya vedhasaḥ. Yuvānastathādasat.

As the Maruts, youthful children of Rudra, cosmic justice, light divine and universal life-giving intelligence, would wish, so may it be with us and all.

18. Ye cārhanti marutaḥ sudānavaḥ smanmīḥhu-ṣaścaranti ye. Ataścidā na upa vasyasā hṛḍā yuvāna ā vavṛdhvam.

There are those people who honour the virile and generous Maruts, warriors and rain bearers of the nation. There are also those generous and charitable people who act and conduct themselves according to the Maruts’ good wishes. For this reason, O youthful heroes, come and promote us with a very liberal and sympathetic heart as your own.

19. Yūna ū śu naviṣṭhayā vrṣṇaḥ pāvakān abhi sobhare girā. Gāya gā iva carkṛsat.

As a farmer yokes and exhorts his bulls while ploughing the land, so should you, O manager of the nation, appreciate and celebrate the youthful, virile, generous and purifying Maruts, exhorting them with exciting words of latest praise and commendation.

Those who accept challenges of hostile and formidable forces in battles of the human nation in the world and, like a veteran celebrated boxer, repulse the challengers and win, those virile Maruts, generous as cloud bearing winds, handsome as the golden moon, and most reputed in humanity, O poet, sing and celebrate in spontaneous and most exciting words and voice.

O Maruts, heroes of equal mind bound in brotherhood, even cows, by virtue of the same species sit together and love each other under your kind care even though they may be moving around in different directions.

Mortals too, O Maruts, singing and dancing celebrants of life wearing golden corselet on the chest, come to realise their kindred unity under your kind care and direction. Sing and speak to us over and above us since our brotherhood with you is always inviolable.

O Maruts, sojourners of lands and skies, moving in formations of seven coursers, noble and generous friends of the community, bring in for us medicaments of the air for our health and environment.

O heroes of lands and seas and skies, free from hate, jealousy and enmity, bring us that tactic and policy and modes of defence and protection by which you guard the sea, repulse encroachment, and dig and construct tanks and wells and give them to people. O heroes of peace and well-being, be good and kind with safeguards of all type, safe guards and defences of auspicious and benevolent kind.

O Maruts, who sit on the holy seat of yajna, bring us the sanatives and medicaments that are in the rivers and the seas, in the darkness of caves, in the oceans and on the mountains.

O Maruts, you watch the world and all that it contains. You bear and bring all that knowledge and competence on your person, and with that pray, bless our physical body system and our body politic. By virtue of that knowledge and experience speak to us. O heroes of nature and humanity, cure the weakness, sin and suffering of our sick and restore to full health and efficiency whatever is broken and lost.

Mandala 8/Sukta 21
Indra (1-16), Chitra (17-18) Devate, Sobhari Kanka Rshi

O lord sublime, eternal, first and most excellent, we, bearing almost nothing substantial but praying for protection and advancement, invoke you in our battle of life for food, energy, knowledge and ultimate victory.
2. Upa tvā karmannūtaye sa no yuvогraścакrāма yo dhṛṣat. Tvāмiddhyavitāram vairṛmahe sakhāya indra sānasim.

We approach you for protection and success in every undertaking. O lord youthful and blazing brave who can challenge and subdue any difficulty, pray come to our help. Indra, friends and admirers of yours, we depend on you alone as our sole saviour and victorious lord and choose to pray to you only as the lord supreme.

3. Ā yāhīma indavo’śvapate gopata urvarāpate. Somaṁ somapate piba.

Come lord of cows, horses and fertile lands, giver and protector of the nation and its glory, knowledge and wisdom and our creative activities, the somas of our success are for you to appreciate. O lord of life and life’s joy of soma, come and join the ecstasy of our achievement and its celebration.

Bereft of any permanent brotherhood in mortal humanity, we are drawn by ourselves to you, enlightened as we are and universal brother as you are in kinship divine. O lord of universal vigour and generosity, with all the world regions you command, come with the glory of all those worlds, join our soma celebrations, accept our devotion and protect this social order.

Nestled like birds in the nest, in your exuberant, exciting, honey sweet yajnic world of light and joy overflowing with delicacies of food and drink, we bow to you and worship you in thankfulness.

6. Acchā ca tvainā namāsā vadāmasi kim muhuṣcid vi dīdhayaḥ. Santi kāmāso harivo dadiṣṭvam smo vayam santi no dhiyāḥ.

Profusely with this salutation and homage, we honour and praise you and pray to you again and again. Why do you hesitate, in thought? O lord of the moving world, we have our desires and ambitions. You are the giver of fulfilment. We are here, our prayers are here, and we are yours. We have our thoughts and intelligence too, hence we pray: Grant our prayers without delay.

7. Nūtnā idindra te vayamūtī abhūma nahi nū te adrivaḥ. Vidmā purā parīṇasaḥ.
O lord of the thunderbolt, mountains and the clouds, ruler of the world, Indra, it is not that we are just new to your beneficence, protection and promotion, we have indeed enjoyed and known your wealth and munificence since time immemorial.

8.  Vidmā sakhitvamuta śūra bhojyamā te tā vajrinnī- mahe. Uto samasminnā śiśīhi no vaso vāje suśipra gomati.

O lord of might, wielder of the thunderbolt of justice and power, we know and enjoy your love and friendship and your liberal provisions of life’s enjoyment, and the same we solicit of you. And we pray, O lord of the golden helmet, power and knowledge, giver of peace and settlement, establish us in this noble order of lands and cows, food and energy, knowledge and action and the holy life of freedom and happiness.

O friends, for the peace, freedom, progress and protection of you all, I pray to the same Indra, lord almighty, who has provided this beautiful world of joy for us since the very time of creation.

10. Haryāśvam satpatiṁ carṣaṇīsaham sa hi ṣmā yo amandata. Ā tu naḥ sa vayati gavyamaśvyaṁ stotṛbhyo maghavā ṣatam.

He alone is happy indeed and prospers who glorifies Indra, lord of the moving universe, protector and promoter of truth and reality and ruler and justicier of humanity, who, lord almighty, weaves for us this web of a hundredfold variety of earthly provision and all attainable possibility for the celebrants.

11. Tvayā ha svidyujā vayam prati śvasantam vrṣabha bruvīmahi. Samsthe janasya gomataḥ.

By you alone as our friend and comrade, O lord almighty, generous giver, can we counter a gasping contestant in this settled world order of humanity full of lands and cows, blest as we are with the light of knowledge and culture.

12. Jayema kāre puruhūta kāriṇo’bhi tiṣṭhema dūḍhyaḥ. Nṛbhirvṛtrām hanyāma śūṣuyāma cā’verindra pra ṇo dhiyāḥ.

Indra, lord of power and light of life, universally invoked, let us win over the violent in the struggle of life, discipline and subject to rule and order the obstinate and intransigent with reason, dispel darkness and destroy evil with the help of the leading lights of society, and thus grow and march forward and higher. O lord, protect and guide our thoughts and actions against temptations to go astray.

अभातुः अना त्वमनापिरिन्द जनुषा सनादिसिः।
युध्ददीपितविमिच्छस॥ १३॥

Indra, lord of absolute might by nature, since birth of the universe, indeed for eternity, you are without a rival, need no leader, no friend and no comrade, but in the dynamics of human life you do want that the human should be your companion in and for his struggle for self-evolution and social progress.

नकी रवन्त्सुण्याध्याय विन्दसु पीयान्ति त सुराश्वः।
यदा कृष्णार्षि नदनुं समूह्स्यादित्तित्वं हूयस॥ १४॥

You do not just care to choose the rich for companionship, if they are swollen with drink and pride and violate the rules of divine discipline. But when you attend to the poor and alter their fortune for the better, you are invoked like father with gratitude which the voice of thunder acknowledges and approves.

मा तें अमाजुरं यथा मूरासं इन्द्र सुध्यम त्वार्वतेः।
नि बंदामु सर्चा सुत॥ १५॥

Indra, Lord of yajnic evolution and social development, let us not like stupid fools sit at home and grow to age in years, but let us, in enlightened friendship with a power like you, sit on the yajna vedi and grow in knowledge and wisdom.

Indra, lord giver of lands and cows, knowledge and enlightened culture, let us never fall from your gifts of divine munificence. Let us never take anything from anyone other than you. O lord of the world’s wealth, bear and bring us your gifts of permanent value. No one can ever disturb or stop the flow of your gifts of love and charity to humanity.

17.
Is it Indra, ruling power of the mortal world, that gives so much wealth to the man of yajnic charity? Or is it Sarasvati, holy speech, abundant stream and dynamics of nature that gives so much wealth to the charitable humanity? Or is it you, Lord Supreme, sublime mystery of the world of existence, who give so much wealth to the liberal donor?
18. Citra id rājā rājakā idanyake yake sarasvatīmanu. Parjanya iva tatanaddhi vrṣṭyā sahasramayutā dadat.

The mysterious divine power immanent and transcendent is the supreme ruler and ultimate giver. Other ruling divinities, human rulers or natural forces, flowing speech or rivers or river benefactors in consonance with Sarasvati, are but subservient to the supreme. Just as the cloud soaks the earth all round and over so does the lord of wonder and sublimity give thousands and tens of thousands of wealth to humanity.

Mandala 8/Sukta 22

Ashvinau Devata, Sobhari Kanva Rshi

आ त्यमः आ रथमुद्या दंसिष्ठमूत्य।
यमशिवना सुहवा रुदवतनी आ सूर्यायञ्जस्थरुः॥ १ ॥

Ah, on this auspicious day I invoke, imagine and structure that most wonderful and versatile chariot for protection and progress which the Ashvins, twin harbingers of the freshness of a new morning, most welcome invitees, would ascend and come by paths of love and justice free from violence for the advancement of life’s light and glory.

पूवापुष्यं सुहवं पुरुस्यृहं भृज्यं वार्जप्यं पूव्यं।
सूचानावन्तं सुमतिभिः साभर विद्वृषसमानहसं॥ २ ॥
2. Pūrvāpuṣām sahavāṃ purusprḥam bhuṣyam vājeṣu pūrvyam. Sacanāvantāṃ sumatibhiḥ sobhare vidveṣasam-anehasam.

O Sobhari, scientist and technologist, with your best of intelligence and intention, design, structure and perfect the chariot which has supported the life of the nation since earliest times, which is welcome and available to all easily, universally acceptable and enjoyable, first and foremost in the battles of life, friend of all on land, sea and sky, inviolable and unchallengeable by the jealous rivals and enemies.

3. Iha tyā purubhūtamā devā namobhir-aśvinā. Arvācīnā svavase karāmahe gantārā dāśuṣo grḥam.

Here on the earth for the sake of protection and progress of the human nation, with all honours and reverence, we invoke, appoint and consecrate the Ashvins, universally acceptable, brilliant and generous complementary twin powers of the nation such as the ruler and the governing council or ruler and the commander of defence forces, who are harbingers of fresh life, energy and prosperity for humanity, who are latest in knowledge and competence and freely mix with the generous citizens at their homes.
4. Yuvo rathasya pari cakramīyata īrmānyad vāmi-ṣaṇyati. Asmān acchā sumatirvām śubhaspatī ā dhenuriva dhāvatu.

One chariot of yours is ever on the wheel going all round and round, the other serves, inspires and flies you anywhere when you need. O protectors of the auspicious good fortune of the human nation, may your good will and benevolence hasten to reach us like the mother cow rushing to her calf.

5. Ratho yo vāṁ tribandhuro hiraṇyābhīṣur-aśvinā.
Pari dyāvāprthivī bhūṣati śrutastena nāsatya gatam.

Your famous and celebrated three-stage chariot controlled by golden steers traverses over heaven and earth. O lovers of truth and righteousness, come to us by that glorious chariot.

aśvinā pra stuvīmahi.

O twin powers of socio-economic complementarities, rulers and protectors of the nation’s auspicious good fortune, you till the land with the plough giving the people the gift of barley and setting a generous example of enlightened behaviour of permanent value.
O leaders of eminence and splendour, with sincere thought, intention and action we celebrate you both this holy day of thanks giving for the nation.

7. Upa no vājinīvasū yātamṛtasya pathibhiḥ. Yebhistrkṣiṁ vrṣaṅā trāsadayavaṁ mahe kṣatrāya jinvathāḥ.

Generous and victorious lords of strength and progress, come to us by those paths of truth and righteousness by which, O brilliant harbingers of rain showers of prosperity, you strengthen and empower the high command of the nation to maintain the splendour of the nation’s social order and keep down the forces of violence and terror in peace and submission.

अर्यं वामदिनिभि: सूत: सामा' नरा वृषणवसू।

8. Ayaṁ vāmadribhiḥ suta somo narā vrṣaṅvasū.
Ā yātāṁ somapīṭaye pibataṁ daśuṣo grhe.

O leading lights of humanity, generous harbingers of the showers of prosperity, this soma of pleasure and honour distilled with the complementary forces of our social dynamics is for you. Come to participate in the celebrations of the nation for the taste of glory and ecstasy and drink the soma in the yajnic house of the generous giver and performer of yajna.

आ हि रुहतमश्विना रथ्य काश्रं हिरण्यय्य वृषणवसू।
युञ्जार्था पीवरिरिर्षः॥ ९॥

9. Ā hi ruhatamaśvinā rathe kośe hiranyaye vrṣaṇvasū. Yuṇjāthāṁ pīvarirīṣaḥ.
Ashvins, harbingers of the showers of prosperity, ascend the chariot, seat yourselves in the golden interior of the chariot, come and settle us into a powerful social order of energy and prosperity.

Ashvins, rulers and administrators of the social system of health and security, come with those protections and securities by which you protect and maintain the healthy veterans of knowledge and practical action, by which you assist the disabled and help the support system for the weak and the destitute. Come fast without delay to sustain the weak and suffering in a state of emergency and provide them medical aid.

We men of the mantra in need, celebrants of the irresistible Ashvins, powers of wind and electric energy, ministrants of succour and security, invoke them with voices of praise at this time of the day to come and help us.

Ashvins, leading lights of humanity, virile harbingers of showers of health and life’s joy, listen to my manifold and persistent invocation expressive of universal love and devotion and come. Most generous and exceedingly rich all round universal presences, come with those foods and medications for recuperative energies by which you revive and strengthen the man fallen into utter depression. With those protective and promotive sanatives, pray, come in response to my call.

At this time of the day every morning, saluting and celebrating the twin powers of human and natural complementarity, the Ashvins, I speak to them intimately, and this is how with homage and prayer we invoke them to come and bless.

Those two lords of auspicious good fortune moving by paths of rectitude, justice and punishment, we invoke and celebrate at night, early morning at dawn.
and all times of the day. May they, lord commanders of wealth and victory, scourge of evil and violence, never forsake us to the mortal enemy, never throw us far off to the hungry wolves.

15. Ā sugmyāya sugmyāṁ prātā ratheṇāśvinā vā sakṣaṇī. Huve piteva sobharī.

Like my father rich in knowledge and enlightenment, I invoke the Ashvins, twin, inseparable powers of complementarity in unison, in the morning to come by chariot as they please and to bring riches and joy for the devotee praying for riches and joy.

मन्नाजवसा वृषणा मदच्चुता म पुंगमाभिक्तिभिः।
आरात्ताच्यां घूर्तमस्म अरथ्य पूवीभिः पुरुभाजसा। १६।।

O Ashvins, complementary harbingers of showers of joy, moving at the speed of mind to provide sustenance and pleasures of life for all, come and be at the closest to us for our protection and progress by instant modes of defence and security as you have ever been since the earliest times of creation.

आ नू अश्वावदशिवना वृतियासिष्टं मधुपातमा नर।

17. Ā no āsvāvadaśvinā vartiryāsiṣṭāṁ madhupāt- amā narā. Gomad dasrā hiraṇyavat.
Ashvins, mighty blissful complementary twin powers of humanity in the social order, leading lights of life, commanding wealth of cows and horses, lands, culture and advancement, givers of success in high attainment, greatest protectors and promoters of the honey sweets of life and golden wealth of the world, come and bless us with the wealth we pray for.

Ashvins, lords of wealth, power and victory, may we, upon this happy arrival of yours receive, value and meditate upon all the beauties and treasures of the world of distinguished wealth spontaneously given, creative and energetic, highly lovable and unchallengeable even by the demonic strong as our prize possession.

Mandala 8/Sukta 23
Agni Devata, Vishvamana Vaiyashva Rshi

इन्ठिप्पा हि पतीव्यः यजस्व जातवदसम।
चरिष्णुद्रूमगृःभीतशाचिषम॥ १ ॥

1. *Īliśvā hi pratīvyam yajasva jātavedasam.
Cariṣṇudhūmam-agrībitaśociṣam.*

Study, celebrate and by yajna develop the fire divine, immanent and omnipresent energy, versatile power whose smoke rises freely and whose light of flame no one comprehends, no one can obstruct.
2. Dāmānam viśvacarṣanे’gniṃ viśvamano girā.
   Uta stuṣe viśpardhaso rathānām.

   And watching the world of existence and thinking and meditating at heart on its dynamics of evolution, I adore Agni with the holy voice of faith, lord and power, that giver of chariots for onward movement to those who vie with one another for progress in various ways.

3. Yeṣāmābādha ṛgmiya iṣaḥ pṛkṣaśca nigrabhe.
   Upavidā vahīr-vindate vasu.

   Those seekers whose inputs of food and energy, the all powerful Agni, adored and served with Vedic formulae, receives, consumes and directs within the dynamic laws of nature, through their investigations receive new wealth and knowledge.

4. Udasya śocir-asthād didiyuṣo vyajaram.
   Tapurjambhasya sudyuto gaṇaśriyaḥ.

   And the radiance of this burning, flaming, consuming fire, blazing brilliant, all illuminative, rises high, unaging and imperishable, adding to the wealth and glory of all classes of people.
And watching the world of existence and thinking and meditating at heart on its dynamics of evolution, I adore Agni with the holy voice of faith, lord and power, that giver of chariots for onward movement to those who vie with one another for progress in various ways.

Those seekers whose inputs of food and energy, the all powerful Agni, adored and served with Vedic formulae, receives, consumes and directs within the dynamic laws of nature, through their investigations receive new wealth and knowledge.

And the radiance of this burning, flaming, consuming fire, blazing brilliant, all illuminative, rises high, unaging and imperishable, adding to the wealth and glory of all classes of people.

O Agni, light and fire of life, adored and served with yajnic service of love and non-violence, rise high by the laws and grace of Divinity, shining ever bright with wider and higher light, power and magnificence.

Go, Agni, with the hymns of adoration, constantly receiving, returning, and transmitting the holy materials of yajna to the divinities as, like a messenger, you are the carrier of fragrance of the havi offered into the vedi.

O devoted people, for you I invoke Agni, eternal power and universal high priest of humanity. By this song of adoration, I worship Agni and exhort you too to adore the universal light and power of divinity.
8. Yajñebhir-adbhutakratuṁ yaṁ kṛpā sūdayanta it.
Mitraṁ na jane sudhitam-ṛtāvani.

Agni showers his love and grace on people who follow the path of rectitude and light, serve and exalt the lord of marvellous action with yajnas as a benevolent friend.

9. Ṛtāvānam-ṛtāyavo yajñasya sādhanam āgirā.
Upo enaṁ jujuṣur-namasaspade.

O men of yajna and followers of the paths of universal truth, with songs of holiness, in the house of yajna, love, exalt and closely serve this Agni, lord of universal truth and eternal law and the end and aim of the perfection of yajna.

10. Acchā no aṅgirastamaṁ yajñāso yantu saṁyataḥ.
Hotā yo asti vikṣvā yaśastamaḥ.

May all our yajnas and other yajnic actions well conducted, together, reach Agni, supreme, most vital life breath of existence and most honourable high priest of yajna among people, who is the ultimate end and aim of the perfection of yajna.
11. Agne tava tye ajarendhānāso brhad bhāh.
Asvā iva vraṇas-taviśīyavah.

O unaging and imperishable Agni, those blazing flames of expansive brilliance, generous and virile like solar radiations, are reflections of your supreme power and glory.

12. Sa tvaṁ na ūrjāṁ pate rayim rāśva suvīryam.
Prāva nastoke tanaye samatsvā.

Agni, lord protector of universal energy, pray bear, bring and bless us with manly vigour, and in the battles of life protect us and our children and grand children.

13. Yad vā u viśpatiḥ śitah suprīto manuṣo viśi.
Viśvedagniḥ prati rakṣāṃsi sedhati.

When Agni, presiding spirit of human life, is animated, energised and sharpened by yajna, then, active in the human settlements, it counters and dispels all evil influences and forces of negativity.

14. Śrūṣṭyagne navasya me stomasya vīra viśpate.
Ni māyinas-tapuşā rakṣaso daha.

Mighty brave Agni, lord of the people, saving spirit of life, hearing my new song of praise and prayer, burn off the destructive wiles of the evil forces with your heat.

\[ \text{न तस्य मायया चून रिपुरीशित मत्या}! \]

15. \text{Na tasya māyayā cana ripurīśīta martyrā.}
\text{Yo agnaye dadāśa havyadātibhiḥ.}

Whoever offers homage to Agni with sacred oblations into the holy fire is safe, no mortal enemy even with the worst of his fraudulent power or sorcery can prevail over him or his home.

\[ \text{व्यास्वस्त्वा वसुविद्मु एण्युर्णीणादृष्टि:।} \]

16. \text{Vyaśvas-tvā vasuvidam-ukṣanyur-aprīṇād-ṛśiḥ.}
\text{Maho rāye tamu tvā samidhīmahi.}

The sage in search of dynamic energy and showers of the wealth of knowledge and bliss adores and serves you, giver of the world’s wealth and knowledge. We too light you well in the correct manner for the attainment of the same great wealth of life.

\[ \text{उर्णी काव्यस्त्वा नि ह्यातारमसादयत।} \]

17. \text{Uśānā kāvyastvā ni hotāram-asādayat.}
\text{Āyajiṁ tvā manave jātavedasam.}

The lover with passion and the poet with paternal vision attain to you, Agni, high priest of the real cosmic yajna and immanent and omniscient presence in existence for the good of humanity.

18. Viśve hi tvā sajaśa devāso dūtamakrata. Šrusṭi deva prathamo yajñīyo bhuvaḥ.

All the brilliant sages and scholars of the world in unison with love accept you, Agni, as the messenger of Divinity, and, being the fastest carrier, O brilliant and generous power, you become the first adorable yajaka of existence.

19. Imaṁ ghā vīro amṛtam dūtam krṣṇita martyāḥ. Pāvakam krṣṇavartaniṁ vihāyasam.

Let the brave mortal accept the imperishable and immortal Agni as the messenger of Divinity and medium of the dynamics of existence, purifier, agent of cosmic gravitation and sustenance and the mightiest natural power.

20. Tāṁ huvema yatasrucaḥ subhāsāṁ śukraśo-ciṣam. Viśāṁ-agnim-ajaram pratnam-īḍyam.

We invoke Agni and, holding ladles of ghrta and havi, feed and serve the divine fire blissfully shining bright in flames, unaging prime power adorable for the people.
21. Yo asmai havyadātibhir-āhutim marto’vidhat.
Bhūri pośaṁ sa dhatte vīravad yaśaḥ.

The mortal who, with faith and reverence, dedicates himself to this Agni and offers oblations into the fire divine with holy fragrant materials receives the blessings of ample health and nourishment, honour and fame and the gift of heroic progeny.

To Agni, first and prime power immanent in everything born in existence, every ladle full of holy materials moves with chant of faith, reverence and selfless service in yajnas.

With these oblations and the chant of highest and most powerful hymns, let us, like the sage of perfect discipline of mind and sense, offer service and submission to Agni, yajnic power of purest flame.

Holy sage of mental and moral discipline, like a yajaka of eminence and unshakable faith, offer honour and reverence with songs of adoration and selfless service to Agni, presiding power of the home and infinite presence of the universe.

\[ \text{Tva}ṁ \text{ hi supratūra}ṣi \text{ tva}ṁ \text{ no gomafīrīṣaḥ.} \\
\text{Maho rāyaḥ sātimagne apā vṛdhi.} \]

Agni, you are the holy giver, you are the giver of food, energy and victory, and abundant wealth of lands and cows, culture and enlightenment. Give us liberally of our share of wealth and grandeur and promote our possibilities of progress.
Agni, you are great and glorious. Pray bring us Mitra and Varuna, rule of love and friendship, reason and justice, through scholarly Brahman as and brilliant Kshatriyás, men of rectitude, brilliant will and intellect and purity and excellence of culture and enlightenment in their field.

Mandala 8/Sukta 24

Indra, Danastuti Devata, Vishvamana Vaiyashva Rshi

1. Sakhāya ā śiśāmahi brahmendrāya vajriñe.
   Stuṣa ū śu vo nṛtamāya dhṛṣṇave.

   Come friends, let us for your sake sing a song of adoration in honour of Indra, lord of power, wielder of the thunderbolt of justice and punishment in order to glorify the noblest leader of resolute will and inviolable command.

2. Śavasā hyasi śruto vṛtraḥatyena vṛtraḥā.
   Maghair-maghono ati śūra daśası.

   O heroic leader and ruler, by virtue of your strength and will you are renowned as the destroyer of evil for having eliminated evil, want and suffering. You are famous as the lord magnanimous of glory for your wealth and generosity because your generosity exceeds the expectations of the richest generous people.

Such as you are, O lord of glory and magnanimity, sung and celebrated for your munificence, bear and bring us wealth and honour of the highest renowned order of excellence since, O ruler and controller of the dynamics of life, you are the sole giver of wealth and peace and prosperity in a state of good life beyond all doubt and question, suspicion and fear.

Indra, lord of glory, give us a vision of the commonwealth of humanity of the dearest and most eminent order and, O lord of resolute will and action, sung and celebrated as such, bring us that wealth and order with the spirit of your will and resolution beyond doubt and question, fear and suspicion.

The forces of negativity and destruction cannot stay your left hand of generosity nor can they resist your right hand. Nor do preventive forces stand in the ways of your progress and evolution, O lord controller of the dynamics of existence.

6. Ā tvā gobhiriva vrajam gīrbhir-ṛṇomyadrivah. Ā smā kāmaṁ jariturā manah pṛṇa.

O lord of clouds and mountains, wielder of the thunderbolt, like a cowherd reaching the stalls along with the cows do I come to you with my songs of adoration. O lord, fulfil the desire and prayer of the celebrant and bless my mind with peace and divine love.

7. Viśvāni viśvamanasā dhiyā no vṛtrahantama. Ugra praṇetaradhi śū vaso gahi.

O greatest destroyer of evil and darkness, blazing bold and irresistible leader of the world, lord giver of wealth and peaceful settlement, pray sanctify all our thoughts and acts, well wishers of the world of humanity as we are, and inspire us with divine wisdom.

O destroyer of evil and darkness, bold and resolute hero universally invoked and adored, pray let us know and obtain the latest, most lovable and effective forms of your wealth and honour, peace and progressive modes of life.

Indra yathā hyasti te’ pare rātaṁ nṛto śavaḥ. Amṛktā rātiḥ puruhūta dāsuṣe.

Indra, lord and leader of humanity, just as your power and force is irresistible and indestructible, O lord universally invoked and adored, so is your charity and magnanimity to the generous devotee unrestricted and inviolable.

Avaḥ maḥāmah maha nṛtma rādhase.
Dṛḍhahṣcid dṛhya maghavan maghattaye.

O greatest of the great, supreme guide and leader of life, for the greatness and glory of humanity on earth, shower your munificence of knowledge, will and action on us and, O lord of honour and grandeur, for our honour and progress break down the strongholds of evil, darkness, ignorance and inertness.

Nū anyatā cidadrivas tvanno jagmuraśasah.
Maghavaṃchaṇḍadhi tava tanna ūtibhiḥ.

O lord of glory, wielder of the thunderbolt of justice and retribution, our hopes and prayers have never wandered elsewhere, to anyone other than you. Pray strengthen our will and action with your modes of protection and promotion for advancement.

12. Nahyaṅga nṛto tvadanyāṁ vindāmi rādhase.
   Rāye dyumnāya śavase ca girvaṇaḥ.

   O lord watcher and controller of the dance of creation, dear as breath of life sung and celebrated in songs of adoration, I find none else other than you for inspiration and action for the sake of competence and success, wealth and power, honour and excellence, and strength and moral courage.

    Pra rādhasā codayāte mahitvanā.

    Prepare, offer and regale Indra with the nectar drink of faith and performance. He values, enjoys and promotes the honey sweets of peace, pleasure and progress and inspires the people with will and competence and ambition for progress and excellence.

    Nūnaṁ śrūḍhi stuvato aśvyaśya.

    I reach the lord protector and controller of the moving worlds, the omnipotent who enjoins the soul with the world of nature, and I closely whisper in prayer: Listen to the celebrant devotee who is keen to move from humanity to divinity and deserves to be accepted.

\[ \text{नह्यं ध्य पुरा चन जुज मीरतरस्वत} \]
\[ \text{नकी राय नबध्या न भन्दना} \]

15. Nahyaṅga purā cana jajñe vīratarastvat.
Nakī rāyā naivathā na bhandanā.

Pray listen, Indra, dearest lord of life, true it is that no one born ever before or after was greater or mightier than you, none by wealth and power, none by competence and advancement, none by songs of prayer and adoration, none like you.

\[ \text{एदु मध्वा मुदिन्तरं सिज्ज वाध्वया अन्धसं} \]
\[ \text{पुवा हि वीरं स्तवत सुदावृधं} \]

And O high priest of the creative yajna of love and non-violence, offer the most delightful and ever exhilarating of honey sweets of the soma of faith and devotion to Indra, since thus is how the mighty hero is served and worshipped.

\[ \text{इन्द्र स्थातहरीणां नकिष्ठ पूव्यस्तुतिम} \]
\[ \text{उदानंशा शावसा न भन्दना} \]

17. Indra sthātarharīṇāṁ nakiṣṭe pūrvyastutim.
Udānamśa śavasā na bhandanā.

Indra, glorious lord president of the moving worlds of existence, no one ever by might or by commanding adoration has been able to equal, much less excel, the prime worship offered to you.

Puti to vājānāṁ patim-ahūmahi śravasyavaḥ. Aprāyubhir-yajñebhir-vāvṛdhenyam.

O people we, seekers of honour and fame, invoke and adore the protector and promoter of your food, energies and victories, by assiduous congregations of yajna and thereby exalt the splendour and glory of the lord supreme.

Eto nvidraṁ stavāma sakāyāḥ stomyāṁ naram. Krṣṭīryo viśvā abhyastyeka it.

Come friends all together and let us adore Indra, lord and leader worthy of joint worship and exaltation, who, by himself alone, rules over all peoples of the world.

Agorudhāya gaviśe dyuksāya dasmyaṁ vacaḥ. Ghrētā svādiyo madhunaśca vocata.

Sing delightful songs of adoration in words more delicious than the taste of ghrta and sweetness of honey in honour of Indra, heavenly lord of light, who loves sweet speech and never feels satiated with songs of exaltation.

Let us sing in adoration of Indra whose wondrous deeds of divinity are unbounded, whose potential is unrestricted, and whose generosity radiates over the world like the light of the sun.

Like the sage of perfect mental and moral discipline, worship Indra, constant lord of eternity without fluctuation, omnipresent power over universal energy, controller and guide of the evolution of the universe, omnificent lord giver of a prosperous household to the generous devotees of yajna.

O child of the holy sage of mental and moral discipline, verily worship Indra only, the lord ever new though eternal, worshipped as the tenth supreme over... all among humans, lord omniscient solely worthy of the worship of dynamic humanity.

24. Vetthā hi nirṛtināṁ vajrahasta parivṛjam.
   Aharahāḥ śundhyuḥ paripadāmiva.

   O lord of the thunderbolt of justice and right action, you know and wield the counter-active measures against adversities just as the sun, purifier of nature’s impurities, has the capacity to counter them day by day.

25. Tadindrāva ā bhara yenā daṁsiṣṭha kṛtvane. dvitā kutsāya śiśnatho ni codaya.

   Indra, wondrous lord of beauty and glory, bring us that protection and immunity by which you protect the active sage of holy action against negativities and destroy the twofold mental and physical ailments of humanity. We pray, O lord, inspire and activate those internal and natural defences of good health.

   Sa tvam no viśvā abhimātīḥ sakṣaṇiḥ.

   O lord of highest beauty and sublimity, for our acquisitions as well as for our freedom from acquisition we worship you only, the same lord of protection and defence, ever new though constant and eternal. You as the same lord are our friend and protector, and the destroyer of all our enemies of the world.

27.
Ya ṛksādaṁhaṇaṁ mucad yo ṛvṛyāt sapta sindhuṣu.
Vadhar-dāsasya tuvinṛṇaṁ nīnanaḥ.

To Indra, who saves from sin and violence, and releases the waters of life into the seven seas of existence, we bow and pray: O lord of the world’s wealth and power, honour and glory, strike down the fatal weapon of the saboteur and the destroyer.

28.
Yatha varo sūṣāṁṇaṁ sūnibhyā āvahō rayim.
Vyaśvebhyaḥ subhage vājinīvati.

Just as the lord supreme, choice of the wise for worship and service, brings wealth and honour to the Sama celebrants and supplicants, so may you, O lady of good fortune possessed of food, energy prosperity of life, and divine intelligence, bring wealth of honour and knowledge to the sages of mental and moral discipline.

29.
Ā nāryasya dakṣiṇā vyāśvāṇ etu somināḥ.
Sthūraṁ ca rādhah śatavat sahasravat.

May the gifts of soma celebrants and generous lovers of mankind reach the dynamic sages of mental and moral discipline who may also get gifts of permanent assets in hundreds and thousands.

30. Yat tvā prechādījānāḥ kuhāyā kuhayākṛte.
_Eṣo apaśrito valo gomaśimava tiṣṭhati._

O seeker of the where and why of active life, if someone were to ask you where the yajaka of love and non-violence is, then say: This man of yajnic dynamism is gone and lives in the region of lands and cows, culture and enlightenment.

Mandala 8/Sukta 25

Mitravarunau (1-9, 13-24), Vishvedeva Devatah,
Vishvamana Vaiyashva Rshi

1. Tā vāṁ viśvasya gopā devā deveṣu yajñiyā.
_Rṭāvānā yajase pūtadakṣasā._

I join you and adore you both, Mitra and Varuna, protectors of the world, brilliant and generous divinities of sacred power, adorabe among the adorable divines and observers of the paths of rectitude and universal law.

(In Swami Dayanand’s tradition, Mitra and Varuna in this Sukta are interpreted as Brahmanas, intellectuals, teachers and researchers, and as Kshatriyas, rulers, administrators and the defence forces.)

रत्रे वरुणा यशच सुकर्तः ।
सुनात्सुजाता तन्नया धृतवर्ता ॥ २ ॥

Sanāt sujātā tanayā dhṛtavratā.

Mitra of the noble chariot, and Varuna who too is a noble performer of yajnic actions, both are leaders like charioteers of the nation who develop and expand the socio-cultural wealth and vision of humanity. They are nobly born and brought up and trained, children of humanity for all time dedicated to the sacred laws and discipline of life.

ता माता विश्ववर्दनसात्तुया परमहसा ।
प्रही जाजनादितिःशतवर्ती ॥ ३ ॥

3.  Tā mātā viśvedasā’śuryāya pramahasā.
Mahī jajānādītir-ṛtāvari.

Great mother Aditi, inviolable Nature, concrete embodiment of infinite divinity and divine law operative in existence, brought forth these two mighty refulgent pioneers of life, knowing and commanding the world for the realisation of their innate vision and power.

प्रही भित्रावरुणा सुमाजे दुवावसुरा । ऋतावर्तचृत्ति घाँषता बृहत ॥ ४ ॥ ṛtāvānāvṛtamā ghoṣato brhat.

The great Mitra and Varuna, mighty refulgent rulers, are generous and divine, commanding the vision and vitality of spiritual life and vigour. Dedicated to the law of eternity, in their life they define and proclaim that universal law in the living form of yajnic action.

5. \(Napātā  śavaso mahaḥ  sūnū  dakṣasya sukratū.\)
\(Sr̥pradānū  iṣo  vāstvadhi  kṣitaḥ.\)

Protectors and supporters of great strength, they never allow a break down of the strength of law and order. Being products of strength and efficiency themselves, they are protectors of the same strength and efficiency. Dedicated to holy action, creation, production and expansive generosity, they live in the very house of plenty and prosperity of food, energy and advancement.

6. \(Samī  yā  dānūni  yemathurdivyāḥ  pārthivīrīṣaḥ.\)
\(Nabhasvatīrāḥ  vāṁ  canantu  vrṣṭayaḥ.\)

You hold, control, expand and direct the generous gifts of earthly and heavenly foods, energies and nourishments, so we pray that your showers laden with vapours from the sky may serve you, rain down and bless us.

7. \(Adhi  yā  br̥hato  divo‘bhi  yūtheva  paśyataḥ.\)
\(R̥tāvānā  samrājā  namase  hitā.\)

You who observe the life below on earth from the vast skies, life like hosts of people and herds of cattle, then you, brilliant generous rulers who maintain the laws of eternity, are invoked and invited for the presentation of homage and yajnic service.

8. \( \text{Rtavānā ni śedatuḥ sāmrājyāya sukratuḥ.} \)

\( \text{Dhṛtavratā kṣatriyā kṣatramāśatuḥ.} \)

Committed to the universal law of eternal truth, dedicated to the laws and discipline of governance, performing every action from the yajnic point of view of social value, the Kshatriyas, rulers, administrators and commanders of the defence forces, ought to take on to the sovereign social order and occupy the seat of governance for the glory of self-governing humanity in the spirit of Mitra and Varuna, that is, universal love and justice.

9. \( \text{Aksnaścid gātuvittarā’nuḷaṇena cakṣasā.} \)

\( \text{Ni cinmiśantā nicirā ni cikyatuh.} \)

With open eyes and distant vision, they know and watch the paths of social development better than the eye itself and, ever alert and vigilant, they can perceive, judge and decide things in the twinkling of an eye.

May Mother Nature divine and the mother power of humanity of inviolable strength protect and promote us. May the Ashvins, ever true, complementary powers of natural and social dynamics protect and promote us. May the Maruts, distinguished people of veteran strength and power protect and promote us.

May they all, nobly generous and giving, protect our ships day and night, and may we all, unhurt and unviolated, ally and cooperate with our protectors.

Let us all, unhurt and unviolated, work for the unassailable and generous Vishnu, universal ruling spirit of the nation of humanity, who knows everything in advance. O lord of self-judgement and independent action, generous as the sea, pray listen to our prayer and protect us.

We elect to choose that wealth and protection which is the best and most promotive and which Mitra, Varuna and Aryama, Brahmana, Kshatriya and Vaishya, communities of vision, judgement and determination, and positive creativity, value and secure for us.

And that wealth and security, we pray, may the ocean of waters and vapours, Maruts, winds and the stormy troops of the nation, Ashvins, complementary forces of nature and humanity, sun and moon, and Indra and Vishnu, universal energy and omnipresent divinity, all loving, cooperative and generous, protect and promote for us.

All of them, adorable leaders of life, blazing brilliant and irresistible, counter and shatter any enemy as a mighty flood shatters and washes off the firmest obstacles.
Tasya vratānyanu vaścarāmasi.

O people of the world, this one Integrity of the two, Mitra and Varuna, lord ruler and promoter of the people, thus watches the vast and various wealths of the world for protection, and for your sake we observe and follow his rules and laws of discipline.

17. Anu pūrvānyokyā sāmrājyasya saścima.
Mitrasya vratā varuṇasya dīrghaśrut.

We observe and follow the rules and laws of the discipline of Mitra and Varuna, lord of universal glory, in accordance with the internal statutes and ancient traditions of the sovereign social order.

18. Pari yo raśminā divo’ntān mame pṛthivyāḥ.
Ubhe ā paprau rodasī mahitvā.

Mitra, Brahmana, is the brilliant scholar who, like the sun, with his vision reaches and measures the bounds of heaven and earth and with his knowledge and grandeur traverses both earth and heaven.

19. Udu śya śaraṇe divo jyotirayaṁsta sūryaḥ.
Agnirna śukraḥ samidhāna āhutaḥ.
19. And that sun up to the regions of heaven radiates the light and, shining pure and bright, is invoked, invited and honoured as the holy fire.

Vacha  dīghapsadgnaṇīśa vajāṣṭya gārmaṁ. ||

20. Vaco dirghaprasadmanīše vājasya gomataḥ.
Īše hi pitvo’viṣasya dāvane.

Mitra, the Brahmana, rules the Word in the vast house of yajna, and the yajamana who is master of the wealth of lands and cows and prospers in food, energy and social achievement, as he also, rules over the food which is pure and poisonless and which is meant for gifting away.

Tat sūryaṁ rodasī ubhe doṣā vastorupa bruve.
Bhojēṣvasmāṁ abhyuccionā sadā. ||

21. That sun of light and knowledge and both heaven and earth, I adore day and night and pray that the lord may establish us in a prosperous state of food and enjoyment.

22. Blest with the grace of the lord of mercy, we receive the gift of efficient mind and senses, from the lord destroyer of darkness and suffering, we receive the light of knowledge, and from the lord of celestial Samans, we receive the versatile chariot of the human body.
lord destroyer of darkness and suffering, we receive the light of knowledge, and from the lord of celestial Samans, we receive the versatile chariot of the human body.

23. \( Tā\ me\  āsvyānāṁ\ harīṇāṁ\ nitośanā. \)
\( Uṭa\ nu\ kṛtyānāṁ\ nṛvāhasā. \)

Among the gifts of dynamic achievables, let the mind, senses and knowledge be destroyers of darkness and suffering, and among the organs of will and action, let the human body be the chariot of passage to salvation across the world.

24. \( Smadabhīśū\ kaśāvantā\ viprā\ navīṣṭhayā\ mañī. \)
\( Maho\ vājināvarvāntā\ sacāsanam. \)

From the highest lord of glory I have achieved, by grace, the gift of twin faculties of vibrant senses and mind for thought and will, equipped with the latest knowledge and intelligence, fast and achieving, spurred by enthusiasm and controlled and directed by discrimination.

Mandala 8/Sukta 26

Ashvinau (1-19), Vayu (20-25) Devate, Vishvamana Vaiyashva or Vyashva Angirasa Rshi
1. Yuvoru śū rathāṁ huve sadhastutīyāya sūriṣu. Atūrtadaṅkṣā vrṣaṇā vrṣaṅvasū.

O generous and virile Ashvins, commanders of inviolable power and dexterity, harbingers of a new day of showers of bounteous wealth, I call for your noble chariot to bring you hither for your joint felicitation among distinguished men of knowledge and power.

(In Swami Dayananda’s tradition, Ashvins, twin divines who drive in the dawn of a new day, are interpreted as the ruler and the ministers council who are supposed to bring in a new day of freshness, light and prosperity in the corporate life of the social order.)

2. Yuvaṁ varo suśāmṇe mahe tane nāsatyā. Avobhiryātho vrṣaṇā vrṣaṅvasū.

O virile and generous Ashvins, harbingers of showers of wealth and enlightenment, ever true and far from untruth, you go forward with your protections and promotions for the good and exhortation of the Sama celebrants and men of great and expansive philanthropy (who work for the advancement of society).

Ashvins, lovers of food and energy and total well being of a life of universal values, harbingers of new victories in the advancement of power and prosperity, at this hour of the dawn when the night is gone, we invoke you with offers of the sweetest fragrances of homage and yajnic service.

O Vayu, protector and keeper of the universal law of truth and wonderful valuer and refiner of the creations of Tvashta, maker of all fine and gross things of life and destroyer of dangers internal and external, we opt for and choose all your plans and modes of peace, defence and security.

22. Tvāṣṭur-jāmātaraṁ vayam-īśānam rāya īmahe.
Sutāvanto vāyuṁ dyumnā janāsaḥ.

For the achievement of wealth, honour and excellence, we, the people dedicated to yajna and the soma of life, adore Vayu, ruler of the world of existence and protector and refiner of things made by the universal maker.

23. Vāyo yāhi śivā diva vahāsva su svaśvyam.
Vahasva mahaḥ prthupākṣasā rathe.

Vayu, blissful power of defence, security and refinement, come from the regions of light, yoke the great transportive forces to your chariot and bring us the best things we ought to obtain.

24. Tvām hi supersarastamāṁ nṛṣadanesu hūmahe.
Grāvāṇam nāśvaprṣṭham maṁhanā.

Vayu, blissful of form, strong and renowned all round by your own strength and grandeur, we invoke and invite you to people’s halls of yajna, power adorable as a rock in its place, position and function.

O Vayu, such as you are, brilliant and generous, happy and joyous at heart, always in the forefront of defence and advancement, pray develop our resources of food and water, energy, power and progress, and extend the possibilities of the reach of our science and intelligence.

Mandala 8/Sukta 27

Vishvedeva Devata, Manu Vaivasvata Rshi

1. Agnirukthe purohito grāvāṇo barhiradhvare. Rcā yāmi maruto brahmaṇaspatiṁ devān avo vareṇ-yam.

In the yajna of love and non-violence, Agni, prime light of life, is the first adorable, then the holy fire, the priest, the soma stone and the holy grass are cherished. Therefore with the chants of Rks I invoke the Maruts, cosmic energies, Brahmaṇaspati, giver of the Veda and the vedic scholar, and other venerable divinities for protection and promotion of our choice.

2. Ā paśuṁ gāsi prthivīṁ vanaspatīṇuṣāsā naktamo-ṣadhīḥ. Viśve ca no vasavo viśvavedaso dhīnāṁ bhūta prāvitāraḥ.
O yajaka, you sing of animals, the earth, herbs and trees, day and night. And may all the powers which provide us with shelter and comfort, present all over the world, be the protectors and promoters of our thoughts and actions.

प सू ने एत्वध्वरांच्या दूर्घुष्ण पूव्यः।

3. Pra sū na etvadhvaro’gnā deveṣu pūrvyāḥ. Ādityeṣu pra varuṇe dhṛtavrate marutsu viśva-bhānuṣu.

May our yajna of universal order join the fire and rise to the divinities of nature, the sun in progressive Zodiacs, the oceans of earth and space in the fixed order of cosmic law, and all the light radiations of the universe across the suns.

विश्व हि ष्मा मनव विशववदससा भुर्वन्वृध रिषादंसः।
अरिष्टदभि: पायुभिविशववदससा यन्ता नाचथृक्कं छदिः॥ ४ ॥

May all the divine powers of the universe, destroyers of negativities, be for the protection and progress of mankind. May all the divinities of the universe in possession of wealth, power and knowledge along with modes of protection free from hurt and injury bring us a peaceful home on earth free from sin and crime.

आ ना अद्य सर्मनसा गन्ता विश्व सुजाष्पंस॥
ऋषचा गिरा मरुतां दश्वदित्त सरदैन पत्यां महि॥ ५ ॥
5. Ā no adya samanso gantā viśve sajoṣasaḥ.

Rcā girā maruto devyadite sadane pastye mahi.

All powers of love and friendship of the world with equal mind may come in to us in our great halls and homes in response to our Rks, hymns of adoration, come all Maruts, friends and brave associates, great inviolable Aditi, motherly figures, come today.

6. Abhi priyā maruto yā vo aśvyā havyā mitra prayāṭhana. Ā barhirindro varuṇasturā nara ādityāsaḥ sadantu nahā.

O Mitra, O Maruts, sun and winds, friends and brave associates, come and bring us all your dear and lovely gifts worthy of presentation and prize possession. O Indra, lord of power, thunder, lightning and rain, Varuna, waves of cosmic energy and justice in human affairs, and Adityas, solar radiations of the universe, all leading lights of nature and humanity, come fast and bless our homes and seats of yajna.

7. Vayam vo vṛktabarhiṣo hataprayasa ānuṣak.
Sutasomāso varuṇa havāmahe manusvadiddhā- gnayaḥ.

O Varuna, lord of light and justice, day and night, and other divine powers of nature and humanity, like men of love and faith we invoke and adore you now as ever. The grass carpets are spread and occupied, the sacred fires are lit, the fragrant havis is ready for offering, and the soma is pressed and distilled for the oblation.

Come forth to us, O Maruts, stormy forces of nature and humanity, Vishnu, all pervasive ruling power, Ashvins, complementary powers of natural and social dynamics, and Pushan, powers of health, nourishment and growth, come in response to my prayers and acts of yajna. Indra, lord of showers who are destructor of evil and darkness, first and foremost power, come with the first and best associate powers, I adore you and pray.

O brilliant and generous divinities of nature and humanity, Vasus, lord of wealth and providers of home and security, free from jealousy and enmity, pray give us a faultless home, a place of security which no power from far or near might dare to violate or attack and hurt.
10. Asti hi vaḥ sajātyaṁ riśādaso devāso astyāpyam. Pra ṇaḥ pūrvasmai suvitāya vocata makṣū sumnāya navyase.

O divinities of nature and humanity, destroyers of negativities and enmities, there is a kinship among yourselves and between you and ourselves. There is a natural affinity too among yourselves and between you and ourselves, a friendship and alliance. Pray enlighten us about our ancient welfare and prosperity and lead us as ever to a new phase of prosperity and well being, the latest way.

11. Idā hi va upastutimidā vāmasya bhaktaye. Upa vo viśvavedaso nasasyurāṁ asṛksyanyāṁiva.

O divinities of the world who know and command all wealth and honours of life, just now I, searching for new attainments and cherished joys of life with all reverence and humility, compose and offer to you this sincere song of latest adoration like a new stream of spontaneous creation.

O noble divinities of holy thought, intention and policy, when the lord of light and life, the sun, which is the love and choice of all, rises high up in heaven, then the humans, animals and birds all go about in pursuit of their daily business.

Every one of you, divines, for the sake of protection, every one of you, holy ones, for our cherished aims and objects of well being, every one of you, divinities, for advancement and victory in life, we invoke and adore, singing and praising with holy thoughts, words and actions.

14. Devāso hi śmā manave samanyavo viśve sākaṁ sarātayah. Te no adya te aparāṁ tuce tu no bhavantu varivovidaḥ.

All divinities of the world in nature and humanity, all together with gifts of wealth, knowledge and excellence, with equal mind and intention, have been generous to men of holy thought and noble purpose in search of divinity. May they be, today and ever in future, givers of the best of life’s wealth for us and our future generations in peace and plenty.
15. Pra vaḥ śaṁśāmyadruḥaḥ saṁstha upastuṁ-nām.
Na taṁ dhūrtir-varuṇa mitra martyam yo vo dhāmabhyo’vidhat.

In the house of prayer and adoration, I exalt you, Vishvedevas, free from jealousy and enmity. O Mitra, loving friend, O Varuna, lord of judgement and wisdom, no fraud, no mischief, no damage can be done to the mortal who dedicates himself with the strength of his body, mind and soul to your light and grace.

He thrives in his home and abounds in plenty of wealth, honour and excellence, who gives in charity in obedience to you, Vishvedevas, for the sake of progress. He rises higher and higher with his progeny and friends in Dharma and, unhurt by sin and violence, grows stronger and higher in life.

17. Ṛte sa vindate yudhaḥ sugebhir-yātyadhvanah.
Aryamā mitro varuṇaḥ sarātayo yam trāyante sajośasah.

Without fight and struggle, he achieves, he wins everything, and he goes further forward by simple and straight paths of honesty without obstruction whom Aryama, guide and pioneer of the ways of life, Mitra, enlightened friend, and Varuna, lord of judgement and wisdom, all generous and affluent, in love and unison together, favour protect and exhort to rise and advance.

Even the simple path you make simpler for him, and the difficult one, easy to follow and cross over. Let the thunder arm go far off from him and fall away ineffective and be destroyed.

Omnipresent Vishvedevas in command of the world’s wealth, honour and knowledge, whether it is the time of sun-rise or sunset or the early dawn or middle of the day, hold on to the law of universal truth. You are the committed lovers of strength.

20. Yad vābhipitve asūra ṛtaṁ yate chardiryema vi daśuše. Vayaṁ tad vo vasavo viśvavedasa upa stheyāma madhya ā.
The devotee having offered service in worship of truth and divine law, morning, evening or any time, you bless the man of charity with a peaceful home, then, O harbingers of pranic energy, and commanders of the world’s wealth and givers of peace and shelter, pray may we too abide in your midst close to you under your protection and care.

Since at sun-rise or at mid-day or in the evening, that is, any time, O powers of world knowledge and world’s wealth, you bear and bring cherished wealth and fulfilment to the man of holy karma, knowledge, wisdom and discrimination, we pray to be in your company under your kind protection.

Just as a child asks the father for manifold gifts of food and joy, so we choose to ask of you, O brilliant and generous rulers, the same boon of versatile nature: We who offer yajnic service pray, O lords of light and grace, Adityas, let us obtain that holy gift of favour by which we may realise whatever wealth, honour and excellence we cherish in life.

Mandala 8/Sukta 28

Vishvedeva Devata, Manu Vaivasvata Rshi

Ye trimśati trayasparo devāso barhīrāsadan.
Vidannaha dvitāsanan.

May thirty three divine powers come and sit on the holy grass of yajna vedi to join my yajna, know and secure for me twofold gifts of material and spiritual fulfilment.

(Thirty three divine powers or divinities or ‘gods’ are eight Vasus, eleven Rudras, twelve Adityas, Indra and Prajapati. Swami Dayanand enumerates and describes these as follows:

8 Vasus: earth, water, fire, air, space, sun, moon, and the stars. They are Vasus because they are the abodes and sustainers of life.

11 Rudras: ten pranic energies and the soul.

12 Adityas: twelve phases of the sun in the zodiacs.

One Indra, cosmic energy, and one Prajapati, creative energy of nature which creates life and its supports.

वर्तमाणा मित्रा अंगुर्मा स्मर्दंतिष्ठाचा अग्रायः।
पलावन्तां वर्षेत्कृताः॥ ॥ २ ॥
2. Varuṇo mitro aryamā smadrātiṣāco agnayah.
   Patnīvantō vaṣaṭkṛtāḥ.

   May Varuna, the ocean, Mitra, the sun, Aryama, the cosmic law, and the vital fires with their creative energies for life sustenance, all givers of the cosmic wealth of life energy, invoked and served with yajnic food, arise, join the yajna and help us with material and spiritual fulfilment.

   (At the individual level, we may interpret Varuna as our sense of justice, Mitra as our sense of love and friendship, Aryama as our sense of judgment and will, and fires as our vitalities working with our will to live.)

3. Te no gopā apācyāsta udakta itthā nyak.
   Purastāt sarvayā viśā.

   Be they our protectors with all their vital powers from the west, north, south, east, above and below.

4. Yathā vaśanti devāsthathādesat tadeśāṁ nakirā mināt. Arāvā cana martyah.

   Whatever these bounties of divine nature wish and desire, the same does come about. No one can resist them, no uncharitable person can move them either.
5. Saptānāṁ sapta ṛṣṭayaḥ sapta dyumnānayeṣām.
   Sapta adhi śriyo dhire.

   Seven are the potencies of seven, seven are their glories and over and above, seven are the graces they command.

   (These seven may be interpreted as the five senses, mind (mana) and intelligence, (buddhi). They may also be interpreted as seven Maruts, nature’s stormy forces.)

Mandala 8/Sukta 29
Vishvedeva Devata, Manu Vaivasvata or Kashyapa
Marica Rshi

1. Babhrureko viṣuṇaḥ sūnaro-yuvāñjyaṅkte hiraṇ-yayam.

   One is alert and active, all inspiring and versatile, youthful leader, joyous and true, wrapped in golden hue. (The one is interpreted as Soma, moon, and the mind.)

2. Yonimeka ā sasāda dyotano’ntardeveṣu medhirah.

   Another, seated in its own place, wise and illuminant is venerable among the divinities. (This divinity is interpreted as Agni, the eye, and truth.)

3. Vāśimeko bibharti hasta-āyasīm-antardeveṣu nidhruviḥ.
Another, constant and unshakable among the divinities holds an iron axe, shaper of things. (This has been interpreted as Tvashta, divine shaper, maker and refiner of things, or the ear or Kratu, performer of holy acts.)

वज्रमको बिभति हस्त आहितं तन वृत्राणि जिघने॥ ४ ॥

4. \textit{Vajrameko bibharti hasta āhitam tena vr̥trāṇi jighnate.}

Another holds the thunderbolt, wielded firmly, by which he destroys evil and dark forces of ignorance, want and suffering. (This is Indra, cosmic energy, or soul, or Daksha, omnipotent will and action.)

तिगममको बिभति हस्त आयुर्धं शुचिरुर्गाग जलाश-भषज: ॥ ५ ॥

5. \textit{Tigmameko bibharti hasta āyudhami sucirugro jalāṣa-bheṣajah.}

Another holds a razor edge weapon in hand, being pure, brilliant and terrible, and controls healing powers of medicine and immunity. (This is Rudra, also inner happiness, which is the essential and primary force of good health.)

प्रथ एकः पीपाय तस्कराय यथाँ पुष वद्व निधिनाम ॥ ६ ॥

6. \textit{Patha ekaḥ pīpāya taskaro yathāṅ eṣa veda dhidhīnām.}

Another watches and guards the paths of life like a sensitive watchman as it knows the secrets of the sources of life’s wealth. (This is Pushan, health energy, or the protective arm of the individual and society.)

And one of universal fame worthy of homage pervades and covers all three regions of space whereon all the divinities rejoice. (This is Vishnu, omnipresent dynamic spirit of life which wards off stagnation in the living world.)

8. Vibhirdvā carata ekayā saha pra pravāseva vasataḥ.

Two with flights like desire and ambition move around with one, intelligence, and reach wherever they choose to distant places like travellers. (These are the Ashvins, twin divinities of nature’s dynamics, or, at the individual’s level, ambition and ego which fly on the wings of imagination.)

And two of royal magnificence in closest proximity receive and enjoy oblations of ghrta and take their position in the regions of heavenly light. (These are Mitra and Varuna, sun and ocean, heat and cool of nature, or love and judgement, or sunlight and air in human life.)

10. Arcanta eke mahi sāma manvata tena sūryamarocayan.
Some of them sing great hymns of Sama and glorify their lord and thereby light the sun. (These are the Adityas or universal powers free from threefold suffering, or the ten pranas which strengthen the soul for worship of the supreme lord of life and thereby enlighten the soul.)

Mandala 8/Sukta 30

Vishvedeva Devata, Manu Vaivasvata Rshi

1. \textit{Nahi vo astyarbhako devāso na kumārakaḥ. Viśve sato mahānta it.}

O Vishvedevas, divinities of nature and humanity, none of you is a child, none an adolescent. All of you are equal and great.

2. \textit{Iti stutāso vasathā riśādaso ye stha trayāsca trimśacca. Manordevā yajñiyāsah.}

Three and thirty Vishvedevas thus sung and adored are destroyers of sin and suffering, and therefore you are lovable and adorable by humanity in all their yajnic acts.

3. \textit{Te nastrādhvam te’vatata u no adhi vocata. Mā naḥ pathaḥ pitryān-mānavādadhī dūram naiṣṭa parāvataḥ.}
Such as you are, pray save us, protect and promote us, speak to us and enlighten us. Let us not stray out far from the right path of our ancestors or the right path of humanity.

4. Ye devāsa iha sthana viśve vaiśvānarā uta. Asma-bhyam śarma sapratho gave’śvāya yacchata.

All the divinities of nature and humanity who are here or who are anywhere in the world as leading lights of humanity may, we pray, give us a spacious and comfortable home for the advancement of our knowledge and culture and for our working potential, success and progress.

Mandala 8/Sukta 31

_Yajna Yajamana (1-4), Dampati (5-9), and Dampatyashisha (10-18) Devatah, Manu Vaivasvata Rshi_

1. Yo yajāti yajāta it sunavacca pacāti ca. Brahmedindrasya cākanat.

The yajamana who performs yajna himself or has yajna performed by a priest, presses and prepares the soma himself or has it prepared through a priest pleases Indra and obtains the knowledge of Divinity and Veda.
2. Purolāśaṁ yo asmai somaṁ rarata āśiram.
Pādīt tam śakro aṁhasaḥ.

Whoever offers food to the fire and to the deserving poor in honour of this omnipresent lord, Indra, and offers him oblations of soma mixed with fragrant havis, the lord almighty saves him from sin and evil.

His chariot would shine with wealth and lustre and he, inspired by divinity, would rise in life with wealth and knowledge, honour and social prestige, removing obstructive difficulties and adversities from his path of progress.

Ila, constant mother stream of total prosperity, flows inexhaustible into his home, blessing him with progeny, cows, culture and enlightenment, honour and excellence, day in and day out.

5. Yā dampaṭi samanasā sunuta ā ca dhāvataḥ. Devāso nityayāśirā.
The couple who, with dedicated mind, perform yajna in unison, give in charity, and thus cleanse themselves and their soul, the divinities always bless them with sweets of milk and honey.

Na tā vājeṣu vāyataḥ.

Together in love and respect they sit on the holy grass, perform yajna and receive divine gifts of delicious food and drink in plenty, and never do they fail in their battles of life for progress.

7. Na devānāmapi hnutāḥ sumatim na jugukṣataḥ.
Sravo bṛhad vivāsataḥ.

Never do they neglect the divinities nor do they minimize the gifts of their favour and good will, and thus indeed do they shine bright in glory and exalt the gifts of divinity.

Ubhā hiranyapeśasā.

They live a full happy life blest with sons and daughters and golden means of living in prosperity and decency.
   Smudho romaśām hato deveṣu kṛṇuto duvaḥ.

Performing yajna with generous hospitality, creating wealth and giving in charity, contributing to the peace and comfort of all in general for the sake of divine gifts of immortality, blest with milch cows and woolly sheep and goats, they live the good life doing reverence to the divines and enjoying the liberal gifts of divinity.

10. Ā śarma parvatānāṁ vṛṇīmahe nadinām.
    Ā viṣṇoḥ sacāhuvah.

Living in the presence of Vishnu, all pervasive and protective Spirit divine and universal friend of all life, we pray for the Lord’s gift of the peace, protection, freedom and comfort of the rivers, mountains and the clouds.

11. Aitu pūṣā rayirbhagah svasti sarvadhātamaḥ.
    Ururadhvā svastaye.

Come Pusha, lord of health and nurture, Bhaga, gracious lord of wealth and power, wielder and controller of all power and prosperity for happiness and well being, and may our path of progress be wide open for all round happiness and well being.

Ādityānām-aneha it.*

The world’s obedience and service to irresistible divinity rendered sincerely with mind and soul and the grace of the Adityas gives freedom from sin and selfishness.

Sugā ṛtasya panthāḥ.*

Since Mitra, lord of love, light and friendship, Aryama, universal guide and path maker, and Varuna, lord of judgement and justice, are our protectors, may our paths of advancement and rectitude be simple, straight and easy.

Saparyantaḥ purupriyam mitraṁ na kṣetrasā-dhasam.*

With sincere word and thought I serve and adore Agni, eternal and gracious lord of wealth and prosperity. You too serve the same lord of universal love as a friend, the lord giver of fulfilment to us in our existential state
The chariot of the man of reverence to divinities moves fast forward, and the hero himself, who, with sincere mind and action, performs yajna and offers service to the divinities, goes far forward in the battles of life and surpasses the uncharitables who perform no yajna in the service of humanity and divinity.

O man of charity and yajnic service to humanity and divinity, you will never suffer wrong or damage, O creator of soma dedicated to yajna to the divinities, you will never be hurt and never fail in your life’s mission. The yajamana who, with sincere mind and actions, performs yajna in service to the divinities of nature and humanity surpasses the uncharitables who never perform yajnic service in the field of creative fellowship and cooperation with others, human and divine.

The yajamana who with sincere mind and action, serves the divinities, no one can equal by action, much less destroy. Nor does he forsake his own path, nor can anyone else lead him astray. Indeed he surpasses all those who are uncharitable and perform no yajnic service to divinity and humanity.

May there be heroic power and prowess, fast victory and life’s fulfilment for him who performs yajna in service to the divinities of nature and humanity with truth of mind and action, and may he surpass all those uncharitables who perform no selfless service in creative action to divinity and humanity.
beauty and grandeur of life, sing and celebrate the wondrous works of Indra, ruler, power, energy and inspirer of life in nature and humanity in the world.

The awful lord of might and action stems the rising wicked, subdues the bullying exploiter, restrains the greedy devourer, cracks the senseless saboteur and the crooked deceiver, and having destroyed the negative forces, releases the free flow of waters and freedom of action, development and progress.

Indra, cosmic power of nature, you break the stronghold of the cloud of showers from the tip of vast heaven and thus accomplish that wondrous feat of divine power.

O people, for your protection and promotion, I invoke and call upon the victorious Indra of the glorious beauty and grandeur of life, sing and celebrate the wondrous works of Indra, ruler, power, energy and inspirer of life in nature and humanity in the world.

ś gāraśvāsya vī vṛṇj māndātān: sāmāyabhya: । purāṇa n śūra dārśasi । ।

5. Sa goraśvasya vi vrajam mandaṇāḥ somyebhyaḥ. puraṁ na śūra darṣasi.

Indra of such fame and prowess, heroic leader, happy and joyous, you open the gates of knowledge and victory in action and attainment, as you open the stalls of cows and horses and the gates of a fortress for the performers of soma yajna.

śaṁ m gāraṇa: sūta uṇkha vā dārśaṇ chana: । āraṇḍupā svaṁgha । । 6 ।

6. Yadi me rāraṇaḥ suta ukthe vā dadhase caṇaḥ. Ārādupa svadhā gahi.

If you take delight in the soma distilled by me and feel the ecstasy of my song of homage, then come from far and come from near and, by your own divine nature, take me on for the food of life you hold for me.

vṛṇaḥ ghā tu arīṣyasi sātārāṁ śrāvī gaccha: । tvaṁ na jīva sāmpha: । । 7 ।

7. Vayaṁ ghā te api śmāsi stotāra indra girvaṇaḥ. Tvāṁ no jīva somapāḥ.

Indra, lord celebrated in song, your devoted celebrants as we are, O lord protector and promoter of the beauty, honour and excellence of life, pray give us the food and fulfilment of life we love and aspire for.
8. Uta naḥ pitumā bhara saṁrarāṇo avikṣitam.

   Maghavan bhūri te vasu.

   And, O lord of the power, honour and glory of the world, all joyous and generous, bring us the food of life inexhaustible. Infinite is your wealth and boundless your munificence.

9. Uta no gomataskṛdhi hiranyavato aśvinaḥ.

   And make us rich in lands and cows, knowledge and culture, make us masters of the golden glories of life. Advance us with horses and victories of high and higher attainments in honour and excellence. And lead us to exert ourselves in unison with songs of adoration and libations of homage and gratitude with holy words of joy.

10. Bṛbadukthamḥ havāmahe śṛṇprakarasnam-ūtaye.

    Sādhu kṛṇvantam-avase.

    We invoke the lord divine and master ruler who is highly adorable, of long and supple arms of generosity, and always does good for the protection and promotion of all.

We invoke the lord adorable who does a hundred great favours to the man at peace and, dispelling the darkness in the mind and heart, sublimates the soul too with the spirit of a hundred good works of piety. Indeed, the lord is of infinite wealth, honour and bliss for all his devotees and destroys their evil and ignorance.

The Lord Almighty strengthens us, is generous, and enriches our inner self with vision and love and with all strength and modes of protection and progress.

Sing in honour of Indra, that mighty lord and ruler who commands the wealth, honour and excellence of the world, is universal protector and preserver, saviour of his devotees and friend of the lovers of soma and yajna.

Honour and adore the lord and ruler who is great, controller of the world and its law, constant in the dynamics of existence wherein he is the sole conqueror of honour and glory and who, with his power and grandeur, is the ruler of the vast riches of the world.

None is the controller of his mighty acts and powers universally pleasant and true, and there is none who can ever say: He has failed to give and bless.

There is no recompense due from men of divinity, from the guests and those actively working for yajna and the extraction of soma. The creator of soma, the giver of knowledge and the social worker do not drink for nothing (they pay with service).

17. Panya idupa gāyata panya ukthānī śaṁsata. Brahmā kṛṇota panya it.
Sing in honour of adorable Indra, recite your hymns of praise in honour of admirable Indra, create your orations to celebrate the glorious Indra.

18. Panya ā dardiracchatā sahasrā vājyavṛtah.
   Indro yo yajvano vṛdhaḥ.

   Indra, potent lord who commands supreme power and, unobstructed, breaks down a hundred and a thousand adversaries, strengthens and exalts the devotees of yajna.

19. Vi śū cara svadhā anu kṛṣṭināmanvāhuvah.
   Indra piba sutānām.

   Go forward, Indra, in response to the invitation to yajna of the people and drink of the soma extracted, distilled and offered by them.

   Utāyamindra yastava.

   Drink of the joy and exhilaration of your powers and perceptions which is all associated with your own performance, the super-power that’s you and yours. Indeed, it is all your own power and glory.
   Imaṁ rātaṁ sutāṁ pība.

Ignore the man who offers yajnic soma in a mood of anger, frustration and protest. Ignore the man who offers yajna and soma but in a joyless and conflictive mood. Accept this soma of homage distilled and offered in a state of delight, love and faith.

22. Ihi tisraṁ parāvata ihi paṁca janāṁ ati.
   Dhenā indrāvacākaśat.

Indra, come from far, cross over the five classes of people to exhaust the possibilities of their life, transcend the three versions of knowledge, action and prayer, and listen with love and approval the sole one voice of my soul.

23. Sūryo raśmiṁ yathā sṛjā’’tvā yacchantu me girāḥ.
   Nimnamāpo na sadhryak.

Just as the sun radiates the rays of light over space, just as waters flow down swift and straight, so may the voice of my soul reach you.

O organiser and performer of yajna, offer the soma of devotion profusely to Indra, mighty lord of the helmet, and fill the vessel of your heart with divine love and pranic energy to enjoy life to the full.

Indra breaks the clouds of rain, releases the waters for the rivers to flow down to the sea, and provides mature milk in the cows, knowledge and wisdom in the words of language and ripe grain in the fields of earth.

The refulgent sun breaks the heavy cloud of vapours moving around like a crooked snake, in the middle regions of space.

27. Pra va ugrāya niṣṭure’sāḷhāya prasakṣiṇe. Devattam brahma gāyata.

O celebrants and yajakas, sing the most heavenly song of praise worthy of divinity in honour of refulgent, impetuous, invincible and ever enduring friend, Indra, leader and commander of the ruling and defensive forces of nature and humanity.

\[
\text{Yo viśvānyabhi vratā somasya made andhasaḥ.}
\]

Celebrate Indra, soul and ruling spirit in nature and humanity, who, in the excitement and ecstasy of the taste of food and soma, awakens in humans and divines the awareness of all the rules and laws of discipline and commitment to the vows of discipline in life.

\[
\]

Here in life on earth, those two golden and refulgent motive powers of nature’s circuitous energy, jubilant and festive co-workers for the chariot of Indra, lord ruler of nature and humanity, may, we pray, bring in holy food for health and energy for the good of all living beings.

\text{Arvāṅcam tvā puruṣṭuta priyamedhastutā harī.}

Indra, lord universally sung and celebrated, may the two motive powers of your chariot, loved and adored by scholars dedicated to yajnic pursuit of knowledge and wisdom, bring you here to join us and share the ecstasy of soma celebration with humanity.

Mandala 8/Sukta 33

Indra Devata, Medhatithi Kanva Rshi

वृंयं घै त्वा सुतार्वन्त आपा न वृक्कर्मिष्यः।
पुनीत्रस्य पुस्वर्वेणु वृत्रह-परि स्तातार्न आसतः।

Indra, destroyer of evil, darkness and suffering, we, your celebrants, having distilled the soma, spread and occupied the holy grass, we, sit and wait on the vedi for your presence in the flux of life as holy performers, while the flow of pure immortality continues all round in the dynamics of existence.

स्वरंतिः त्वा सुत नर वसा निरतं उक्तिधिन:।
कः सुतं तृषाणान्त आक्ष आ गमं इन्द्रे स्ववधीवं वंसेगः।

Indra, Vasu, giver of peace and security in self-settlement, while the soma of faith and love has been distilled in the heart and the devotees sing and celebrate your honour in hymns of praise, when would you, keen to join us at the celebration, come to the yajnic hall thirsting to meet the people you love and admire.

Indra, lord of universal vision, resolute will and irresistible action, ruler and commander of the world’s wealth, power and force, we pray, conceive, plan and bring about for the intelligent people of action and ambition a social order of golden beauty and progressive achievement, full of a hundred-fold prosperity of lands and cows, education and culture, and invincible will, strength and advancement free from indecision and delay in action.

O man, you are a visitor and respectable guest on this earth of a golden order of beauty, prosperity and culture. Observe the rules of this order, advance the beauty and prosperity of it, and in the pleasure and ecstasy of its plenty of soma hospitality, sing and celebrate the glory of Indra, lord ruler of vision and action united, commander of the nation’s forces, dynamic and creative, friendly and cooperative, wielder of the thunderbolt of justice and retribution, burden bearer and pilot of the golden chariot of humanity.

5.  Yah suṣavyah sudakṣiṇa ino yah sukhratvagṛṇe. Ya ākaraḥ sahasrā yah satāmagha indro yah pūrbhidāritaḥ.

I sing and celebrate the glory of Indra who is generous with both hands right and left, magnificent, holy in action, treasure home of a thousandfold riches, who commands a hundredfold power, honour and excellence and who breaks down the strongholds of evil, darkness and suffering. Indeed he is glorious and adorable.

I celebrate the glory of Indra who is bold and resolute, unbounded irresistible, wears the marks of manly vigour, commands honour and excellence, is an inspirer, mover and shaker, universally respected for his acts of piety, and who for the men of mighty dynamism is generous as earth, gracious as holy speech and loving as mother cow.

Who would for certain know Indra in this created world of beauty and glory, how much power and force he wields while he rules and sustains it, Indra who wears the helmet and breaks down the strongholds of negativities with his lustrous might, the lord who shares and enjoys the soma of his own creation?

Indra is generously giving, preventive, counteractive and invincible like a lion, and holds and rules the world of immense variety in motion. O lord of grandeur and majesty, as you move around everywhere by your might and lustre, pray come, bless our yajna and taste the soma of our creation. No one can restrain you, no one counter your will.

Indra who is blazing strong, uncountered and irresistible, constant and unshakable, is ever in perfect harness for the human’s battle of existence, and if he hears the call of the celebrant, the lord of might and majesty never forsakes him, he comes, he saves, he blesses.

7. Ka ¶Å veda sute sacŒ pibantaÅ kad vayo dadhe.

Who would for certain know Indra in this created world of beauty and glory, how much power and force he wields while he rules and sustains it, Indra who wears the helmet and breaks down the strongholds of negativities with his lustrous might, the lord who shares and enjoys the soma of his own creation?

8. DŒnŒ m¾go na vŒraÄa¬ purutrŒ carathaÅ dadhe.

Indra is generously giving, preventive, counter-active and invincible like a lion, and holds and rules the world of immense variety in motion. O lord of grandeur and majesty, as you move around everywhere by your might and lustre, pray come, bless our yajna and taste the soma of our creation. No one can restrain you, no one counter your will.

9. Ya ugra¬ sann-ani¦t¾ta¬ sthiro raČya saÅsk¾ta¬.

Indra who is blazing strong, uncountered and irresistible, constant and unshakable, is ever in perfect harness for the human’s battle of existence, and if he hears the call of the celebrant, the lord of might and majesty never forsakes him, he comes, he saves, he blesses.

10. SatyamitthŒ vṛṣedasi vṛṣajūtir-no’vṛtaḥ. Vṛṣā hyugra śṛṇviśe parāvati vṛṣo arvāvati śrutaḥ.

True it is thus you are virile and generous yourself and an inspiration and driving force for the virile and the brave, unbound, uncountered, brave and illustrious, harbinger of the showers of peace and joy and known as omnificent and sublime all over the world far and near.

11. Vṛṣañanaṭe abhīśavo vṛṣā kaśā hiraṇyayī. Vṛṣā ratho maghavan vṛṣaṇā hari vṛṣā tvam śatakṛato.

Indra, lord of the power, wealth and glory of the universe, agent of infinite acts of creation in the world of existence, strong and golden are the reins of your cosmic chariot, golden is the goad that maintains and controls the speed of its motion, strong and laden with riches is your chariot, strong and virile the motive powers, and you yourself are all potent and generous.

(This mantra may be interpreted as a description of the human soul in its own individual sphere provided that it is self-controlled and free from external forces which bind it in the fetters of worldly interests of a selfish and transitory nature.)
12. \textit{Vṛṣā sotā sunotu te vṛṣann-rjīśinnā bhara. Vṛṣā dadhanve vṛṣaṇam nadīśvā tubhyām sthātarhara-} \textit{rīṇām.}

O lord of omnipotence and omnificence, may the brave and generous yajaka prepare the soma juice of devotion for you. O lord of the law of truth and lover of the rules of rectitude, bring us the showers of peace and prosperity in rectitude. O lord controller and keeper of world forces in order, the generous yajaka receives the showers of your blessings and holds them in trust actively in the streams of existence for yajnic offers to your honour for your service.

Indra, lord most potent, come to taste the honey sweets of soma. Unless you come and bless with grace, this man of power and earthly honour, though devoted to good actions, would not well listen otherwise to songs of devotion and the voice of Veda.

14. \textit{Vahantu tvā ratheśṭhāmā harayo rathayujah. Tiraścidaryāṁ savanāṁ vrātrahann-anyeśāṁ yā śatakraṭo.}
May the motive forces which power and drive your chariot, we pray, bring you hither, O lord of infinite acts of grace, destroyer of evil and dispeller of darkness, past the acts and voices of others without faith in divinity and prayer.

15. _Asmākamadyāntamaṁ stomain dhiṣya mahā-maha. Asmākaṁ te savanā santu śaṁtamā madāya dyukṣa somapāḥ._

O lord of heavenly light, greatest of the great, lover and protector of the soma pleasure and grandeur of life, accept our most intimate prayer and praise today and grant that all our acts of homage in your honour and service be for the peace and dignity of the life we live.

16. _Nahi śastava no mama śāstre anyasya raṇyati. Yo asmāṁ vīra ānayat._

The mighty one who has brought us under his order of law does not accept with delight your decree nor mine nor anyone else’s.

(Indra, the soul, is the ruler and controller of the mind and senses. It is not ruled and controlled by the mind or the senses or anyone else.)
17. Indraścid ghā tadabravīt striyā aśāsyāṁ manah.
   Uto aha kṛatuṁ raghum.

   If Indra, the husband, were to say: “The mind of woman is not controllable” and, also, “that her thought and intellect too is inferior”, (then it is less than half the truth).

18. Saptī cidgha madacyutā mithunā vahato ratham.
   Eved dhūrvṛṣṇa uttarā.

   If the two ardent horses of Indra’s chariot together draw the burden of the home-state, then the shaft of the chariot is better and stronger.

   Mā te kaśapakau dṛṣantstrī hi brahmā babhū-vitha.

   O man, O woman: Keep your eyes down on the earth, not up on the sky. Walk on with both the feet together (as the two wheels and the two horses draw the chariot together), Let your lower feet be not bare and exposed (cover them). Let woman be the high priest of the home yajna.

   (The last three mantras describe the home-state of the social order. The husband and the wife together run the home. The husband is, or may be, the greater burden bearer, still the wife is the chief home
mandala 8/sukta 34

indra devata,nipatithi kanva (1-15) and sahasram vasurochisha angirasa (16-18) rshis

Indra, ruler of the world, come with all your powers and perceptions to the sage’s adoration and instruction, and from the light and exhortation of the elevating sage, O seeker of enlightenment, go and rise to the heights of divinity.

2. Ā tvā grāvā vadannihā somī ghoṣeṇa yacchatu. Šīv amuṣya śāsato divaṁ yaya divāvaso.

The maker of soma, creator of the joy of a new life, would welcome you here with a loud proclamation and exalt you with the voice of thunder, and from the light and power of the sage’s revelation, O lover of light, go and rise to your own essential heaven of freedom.

mandala 8/sukta 34

Indra Devata, Nipatithi Kanva (1-15) and Sahasram Vasurochisha Angirasa (16-18) Rshis

1. Indra Ücid ghŒ tadabrav¶t striyŒ a܌syaÅ mana¬. Uto aha k¾atuÅ raghum. If Indra, the husband, were to say: “The mind of woman is not controllable” and, also, “that her thought and intellect too is inferior”, (then it is less than half the truth).

If the two ardent horses of Indra’s chariot together draw the burden of the home-state, then the shaft of the chariot is better and stronger.

O man, O woman: Keep your eyes down on the earth, not up on the sky. Walk on with both the feet together (as the two wheels and the two horses draw the chariot together), Let your lower feet be not bare and exposed (cover them). Let woman be the high priest of the home yajna.

(The last three mantras describe the home-state of the social order. The husband and the wife together run the home. The husband is, or may be, the greater burden bearer, still the wife is the chief home minister, and the husband ought to realise this in love, in courtesy, in chivalry, or at least in practical wisdom. Arrogance, pride, anger, passion, all this on either’s part must be subjected to reason and respectful cooperation with mutual recognition.)
3. \textit{Atrā vi nemir-ēsām-urām na dhūnute vṛkaḥ.}
\textit{Divo amuṣya śāsato divam yaya divāvaso.}

Here the very edge and foundation of these sages of knowledge and wisdom would shake you and reveal you to yourself as thunder shakes the earth and lightning lights it up all over. And then from the light and thunder of these commanders you would rise, liberated, to your own heights of heaven, O lover and ruler of the light of day.

\textit{Aa tva kaṇvā ḍhāvāṃs ṣaṃvatsa hāṃstha vājāṃsāthyā. ।}
\textit{Divā āmuṣya śāstha diṃvā yā yām diṃvāsasa ॥ ४ ॥}

4. \textit{Ā tva kaṇvā ihāvase havante vājasātaye.}
\textit{Divo amuṣya śasato divam yaya divāvaso.}

The sages call you here for the art and science of defence and protection and for the victories of peace and progress. And from the light and wisdom of the enlightening sages, O lover and ruler of the light of day, rise to the light and heaven of your own imagination.

\textit{Dadhāmi te sutānam vṛṣṇe na pūrvapāyyam ।}
\textit{Divā āmuṣya śāstha diṃvā yā yām diṃvāsasa ॥ ५ ॥}

5. \textit{Dadhāmi te sutānam vrṣne na pūrvapāyyam.}
\textit{Divo amuṣya śāsato divam yaya divāvaso.}

As the sun vests vapours of rain in the cloud of showers, so do I vest in you the first, original and eternal knowledge, protected, protective and enjoyable, of the prime order distilled by sages from experience and vision. Then from the light of this knowledge of the sages of universal law and command, O lover of light, rise to the heaven of light on earth.
3. AtrŒ vi nemir-e¦Œm-urŒÅ na dhµunute v¾ka¬.

Divo amu¦ya ܌sato divaÅ yaya divŒvaso.

Here the very edge and foundation of these sages of knowledge and wisdom would shake you and reveal you to yourself as thunder shakes the earth and lightning lights it up all over. And then from the light and thunder of these commanders you would rise, liberated, to your own heights of heaven, O lover and ruler of the light of day.

4. tva kaÄvŒ ihŒvase havante vŒjasŒtaye.

Divo amu¦ya Üasato divaÅ yaya divŒvaso.

The sages call you here for the art and science of defence and protection and for the victories of peace and progress. And from the light and wisdom of the enlightening sages, O lover and ruler of the light of day, rise to the light and heaven of your own imagination.

5. DadhŒmi te sutŒnŒÅ v¾¦Äe na pµurvapŒyyam.

Divo amu¦ya ܌sato divaÅ yaya divŒvaso.

As the sun vests vapours of rain in the cloud of showers, so do I vest in you the first, original and eternal knowledge, protected, protective and enjoyable, of the prime order distilled by sages from experience and vision. Then from the light of this knowledge of the sages of universal law and command, O lover of light, rise to the heaven of light on earth.

Divo amu¦ya ܌sato divaÅ yaya divŒvaso.

Indra, enlightened with the thought and wisdom of universal order, equipped with the power and competence of a ruler of cities, come and take over the reins of government for our protection and advancement, and from the light and wisdom of the sages of vision and command, O lover and giver of a rule of peace and enlightenment, rise to the light and heaven of your imagination.

7. Ā no yāhi mahemate sahasrote śatāmahga.

Divo amuṣya śāsato divam yaya divāvaso.

Come to us Indra, lord wise and great, commander of a thousand forces of protection and progress, ruler of a hundredfold wealth and power of the world, and from the light of the ruling master of this world of knowledge and wisdom, O lover of the light of heaven, rise to the supreme light of existence.

8. Ā tvā hotā manurhito devatrā vakṣadīḍyaḥ.

Divo amuṣya śāsato divam yaya divāvaso.

The host yajaka, yajamana, well wisher of humanity, respectable among the noble and generous, worthy of reverence, invites, exhorts and exalts you. Come, and from the light of the world of rule and order here, O lover of light and wisdom in peace, rise to the heights of heaven.

9. आ त्वां मदुच्युता हरी श्रुतयं पू एवं व गतः।
दिवा अमुश्या शास्ता दिबं यय दिववासस।

And may the mighty transportive powers stronger than all obstructive forces of pride and arrogance, transport you here to us like the powerful wings of the eagle flying the king of birds to his destination, and may you, from the light and power of this world of rule and order, O lover of light and peace, rise to the light and peace of heaven.

10. आ याह्याय आ पारी स्वाहा सामस्य पीतयं।
दिवा अमुश्या शास्ता दिबं यय दिववासस।

O lord ruler of the world, come to us to join the soma celebration of this social order offered with sincerity of thought and word in action, and from the light and joy of this world of rule and order, O lover of light and peace, rise to the light and peace of heaven.

11. आ ना याह्युपश्रुतयुक्थ्या रणयः इह।
दिवा अमुश्या शास्ता दिबं यय दिववासस।
Come close to us, listen to our songs of adoration of divinity, and enjoy the holy celebrations, and from the light and joy of the earthly world of rule and order, O lover of the light of divinity, rise to the light of heavenly peace and freedom.

सर्पुपञ्ज सु ना गाहि संभृतंड-संभृतात्रवः।
दिवा अमुष्या शार्स्ता दिवं यय दिवावसा ॥ १२ ॥

12. Sarūpairā su no gahi sambhṛtaiḥ sambh-ṛtāśvaḥ.
Divo amuṣya śāsato divam yaya divāvaso.

Vested with the fullness of a dynamic personality with sensitive perceptions, conceptions and apprehensions, come to us with colleagues and companions of equal calibre and take over the reins of leadership, and from the light and wisdom of the earthly order, O lover of light and heaven, rise to the heavenly light of love and benediction.

आ याहि पवंत्भय: समुदस्याधि विष्छपः।
दिवा अमुष्या शार्स्ता दिवं यय दिवावसा ॥ १३ ॥

13. Ā yāhi parvatebhyah samudrasyādhi viṣṭapaḥ.
Divo amuṣya śāsato divam yaya divāvaso.

Come from the mountains and the clouds, come over the seas and hasten from the farthest regions of the globe, rule, and from the light of this order of rule, O lover of light and giver of peace and settlement, rise to the light of heaven.

आ ना गब्यान्यश्च्या सृहस्सा शूर ददृहि।
दिवा अमुष्या शार्स्ता दिवं यय दिवावसा ॥ १४ ॥
14. Ā no gavyānasyāvyā sahasrā śūra dardṛhi.
Divo amuṣya śāsato divam yaya divāvaso.

Give us a thousand riches of lands and cows, culture and enlightenment, O brave ruler, give us and develop communications and transport, and from the light and rule of this earthly order, O lover of heavenly light, rise to the light of heaven and eternal joy.

15. Ā naḥ sahasraśo bharā’yutāṇi śatāni ca.
Divo amuṣya śāsato divam yaya divāvaso.

Bring us, give us, riches, powers and excellences in hundreds, thousands and lacs, even more, unbounded all, and from the light and culture of this order of earthly rule, O lover of peace and light of heaven, rise to heavenly light and eternal joy.

16. Ā yadindraśca dadvahe sahasram vasurociṣah.
Ojiṣṭham-āśvyaṁ paśum.

Let us all, and Indra too, lovers of peace, wealth, honour, power and excellence, win a thousandfold wealth of brilliant progress and advancement.

17. Ya ājrā vātaramhaso ’ruṣāso raghusyadaḥ.
Bhrājante sūryā iva.
Those who follow straight paths of truth and rectitude, advance vibrant like the winds, love brilliance without violence and move forward at the shortest wave length of speed, shine like stars.

पारावतस्य रातिःूधु द्रवर्चकम्ब्राशुः।
तिष्ठे वर्त्त्वेत मध्य आ। \(18\)।

O lord of light and power, let me be established among the generous and profuse gifts of the farthest spaces, moving at the fastest in the dynamics of the whirling wheels of time, ultimately at peace somewhere at the centre of eternal truth, goodness and beauty of divinity.

Mandala 8/Sukta 35

Ashvinau Devate, Shyavashva Atreya Rshi

अग्निन्द्रेण वरुणनाविष्णुनाथानादि द्विवसयुः सचा-भुवाः। सुजार्षस्रालोक्य सूर्यण च सामं पिबतमाशिवा। \(1\)।

1. Agninendreṇa varaṇena viṣṇunā’’dityai rudra-rasubhiḥ sacābhuvā. Sajoṣasā uṣasā sūryeṇa ca somaṁ pibatam-aśvinā.

Ashvins, complementary powers and forces of nature and humanity working in circuit, associated with Agni, fire energy, Indra, electric energy, Varuna, water energy, Vishnu, solar energy, Adityas, seasonal energies, Rudras, pranic energies, and Vasus, earth energies, in union with the dawn and the sun, absorb, protect, promote and bring the soma joy of life for the benefit of humanity.

2. \(Viśvābhir-dhībhir-bhuvanena vājinā divā\) prthivyā-dribhiḥ sacābhuvā. Sajoṣasā uṣasā sūryeṇa ca somaṁ pibatamaśvinā.

Mighty and dynamic Ashvins, complementary powers of humanity, associated with the twin forces of attraction and repulsion of nature and the world, the regions of light in space, the earth, clouds and mountains, and united with the sun and dawn, receive, protect, promote and bring the soma energy and joy for the benefit of humanity.

Ashvins, associated with all the thirty three brilliant, plentiful and generous divine powers of nature and humanity, scientifically energised liquids, vibrant pilots and controlled winds, intellectuals and scientists who dispel the darkness and ignorance of society, and in union with the dawn of a new sun in life, receive, preserve, develop and bring the soma energy for the peace and joy of humanity here and now.

4. \(Juṣṭaṁ yuṣṭaṁ bārāṁḥ tvaṁ viśvāṁ dhāvaṁ\) stomaṁ \(Viśvābhir-dhībhir-bhuvanena vājinā divā\) prthivyā-dribhiḥ sacābhuvā. Sajoṣasā uṣasā sūryeṇa ca somaṁ pibatamaśvinā.
4. Juṣṭhāṁ yajñāṁ bodhatāṁ havasya me viśveha devau savanāva gacchatam. Sajoṣasā uṣasā sūryeṇa ceṣam no voḷham-aśvinā.

Divine Ashvins, twin harbingers of nature and humanity, listen to our call, know our purpose, come and join all our sessions of yajnic creation and, equally in tune with the soothing glory of the dawn and blazing intensity of the sun, bring us food and energy here and now.

Divine Ashvins, twin complementarities of nature and humanity, generous brilliances, listen and cherish our song of adoration as youthful lovers listen to a lovely brilliant maiden’s, come to our sessions, understand our purpose, and united with the dawn and the sun, transmit to us food and energy in plenty here and now.

Divine Ashvins, listen to our song and understand, join and cherish our yajnic project of non-violent creation, come to all our sessions, O generous harbingers of food, energy and wealth and, united with the dawn and the sun, bring us plenty of food, energy and all round advancement to our heart’s desire here and now.

7. Hāridraveva patatho vanedupa somaṁ sutaṁ mahiśevāva gacchathāḥ. Sajoṣasā uṣasā sūryeṇa cā trir-vartir-yātam-aśvinā.

Ashvins, you reach our yajna eagerly as a thirsty bird flies to water and, like a veteran scholar, you understand and recognise the nectar sweet soma that we have distilled from our yajnic project and you anticipate the future possibilities too. O divine twin powers of the circuitous energy of natural and social dynamics, in unison with the sun and dawn, come to our project thrice a day.

8. Haṁsāviva patatho adhvagāviva somaṁ sutaṁ mahiśevāva gacchathāḥ. Sajoṣasā uṣasā sūryeṇa
cā trir-vartir-yātam-aśvinā.

Ashvins, just as two hansa birds fly to water and as two thirsty travellers rush for a drink, so do you two like veteran scholars fly to our soma results of yajnic projects, understand and assess the positives and negatives of merits and anticipate the possibilities. O twin divines, in unison with the sun and the dawn, come thrice in the day and help us advance forward.

9. Śyenāviva patatho havyadātaye somaṁ sutaṁ mahiśevāva gacchathaḥ. Sajoṣasā uṣasā sūryeṇa ca trirvartiryātamaśvinā.

Like falcons you fly carrying holy gifts to the generous yajaka. Like veteran scholars you fly to assess the merit of our soma distilled in yajnic experiments and to anticipate its future possibilities. O twin divines united with the sun and the dawn, come thrice in the day, visit our sessions and help us to advance.

Ashvins, come, drink the soma, satisfy yourselves about the taste and value of it. Go to the people and carry wealth, strength and power for them. O twin divines, come, bring us energy and advancement in unison with the sun and the dawn of a new day.

Win the victories of life, O divinities of the nation’s morning, thank and adore the Lord Supreme, protect the people, bear and bring wealth, strength and power for them and hold it too. O twin divines, come and bring us energy and advancement in unison with the sun and the dawn of a new day and hold on.

Eliminate the adversaries, adversities and the negativities, exercise and advance the friendly forces with love for cooperation, sustain and maintain the people in a state of happiness, bear, bring and hold wealth and power with assets for the nation. O twin divines, come and bring us energy and advancement in unison with the sun and the dawn of a new day, hold on and relent not.

Ashvins, complementary powers of the nation’s social dynamics in balance for the march ahead, blest with Mitra, people of love and friendship, Varuna, distinguished people of judgement and discrimination, Maruts, vibrant youth and pilots of the nation, all holding on to Dharma, duty in the law of universal truth, listen and rise to the call of the celebrant. O twin divines, come with the Adityas, the sun in progressive zodias, and in unison with the sun and the dawn of every new day.

Blest with Angirasas, continuous freshness of life breath and vital energy, Vishnu, omnipresent vision and power of divinity, Maruts, vibrant force and velocity of the winds, rise instantly to the call of the celebrant, Ashvins, and come with the Adityas in progression like the sun’s in the zodias and in unison with the sun and the dawn at the rise of every new day.

15.  Ṛbhumnatā vrṣaṇā vājavantā marutvantā jariturgacchatho havam. Saajośasā uṣasā sūryeṇa cā’ dityair-yātam-aśvinā.

Ashvins, generous divinities of humanity, blest with the Rbhus, engineers, technicians and craftsmen, Vajins, pioneers moving forward at top speed, Maruts, vibrant forces of defence and protection, rise to the call of the celebrant and go forward with the Adityas, visionaries of the nation, children of mother earth, in unison with the sun and the dawn of every new day.

Animate and energise the visionaries of universal values, animate and energise the intellectuals, animate and energise the people in general, destroy the evil and destructive forces, fight out diseases and create the soma of good health and joy in unison with the sun and the dawn of every new day.

Animate, energise and develop the defence and administrative forces, sustain and inspire the people in general whosoever they are, destroy the evil and the violent, eliminate ill-health and disease and in unison with the sun and the dawn of every new day create new soma of joy and life’s excitement.
Ashvins, complementary powers of the nation’s development and progress, develop the animal wealth for milk, develop and energise the agricultural, industrial and commercial classes, destroy evil and the saboteurs, eliminate all negativities and, in unison with the sun and the rise of every new day, create and recreate the soma of new joy and enthusiasm for life.

अत्रिविव शृणुम पूव्यस्तुतिं श्यावाशवस्य सुन्वता मदच्चुता।

19. Atraceriva śṛṇutam pūrvyastutiṁ śyāvāśvasya sunvato madacyutā. Sajośasā uṣasā sūryeṇa cā
  ’śvinā tiroahnyam.

Ashvins, who humble the arrogance of the proud, just as you listen to the universal adorations of the sage of threefold freedom of body, mind and soul, so pray listen to the appeal and adorations of the scholar of solar energy, and, in unison with the sun and the dawn of every new day, provide for the people’s security for the night at the close of the day, and thus create another new joy for the people.

सगान्हैव सृजतं सुष्टितीर्पण श्यावाशवस्य सुन्वता मदच्चुता।

20. Sargān iva srjataṁ susṭitirupa śyāvāśvasya sunvato madacyutā. Sajośasā uṣasā sūryeṇa cā-
  ’śvinā tiro-ahnyam.

Ashvins, breakers of pride and arrogance, listen to the prayer and exhortation of the scholar of solar rays who creates something new toward the improvement of life and, in unison with the sun and the dawn, support and augment his invention like a new creation completed the day before.

रेश्मीरित यष्टतमधुरां उपेभ्यावावस्य सुन्वतां मंद-च्युता। सुजायप्सा उषप्सा सूय्यणा चाचस्विना तिराअं-ह्रयम्॥ २१ ॥

21. Raśmīnīriva yacchatamadhvarāṇa upa śyāvā-śvasya sunvato madacyutā. Sajoṣasā uṣasā sūryeṇa cā’śvinā tiro-ahnyam.

Ashvins who shatter the pride and arrogance of evil forces, take over the yajnic programmes of the scholar of solar science and promote them like radiations of the sun and steer them by controls in unison with the sun and the dawn to advance them further than the last stage completed till the last day.

अवागथं नि यष्टतं पिबतं साम्यं मधुं। आ योतमश्चिन्ना गंतमवस्युहाृतं हुव ध्रुवं रत्नानि दाशुष्प॥ २२ ॥

22. Arvāg rathaṁ ni yacchataṁ pibatam somyam madhu. Ā yātam-aśvinā gatam-avasyur-vāmaham huve dhattam ratnāni dāśuṣe.

Ashvins, divine twin powers of the social order, direct the chariot hitherward, drink the honey sweets of soma distilled by us. Come, go round and come again. Praying for protection and support for advancement, I call upon you: Come and bring the jewel gifts of life for the generous yajaka.

नमावाक पस्तित्त अध्वर नरा विव रणस्य पीतथय। आ योतमश्चिन्ना गंतमवस्युहाृतं हुव ध्रुवं रत्नानि दाशुष्प॥ २३ ॥

Ashvins, complementary leading powers of humanity, the yajna of love and non-violence with words of reverence and homage is begun, the soma is refreshing and overflowing, pray come to drink the soma and join the celebration. Come and come again. Praying for protection and promotion, I call upon you to come and bless the generous yajaka with the jewels of life.

Ashvins, twin and complementary divinities of nature and humanity, come, drink of the soma offered with selfless homage and reverence to your satisfaction. Praying for protection and promotion I call upon you to come and bless the generous yajaka with the jewels of life.

Mandala 8/Sukta 36

Indra Devata, Shyavashva Atreya Rshi

1. Avitāsi sunvato vṛktabarhiṣaḥ pibā somaṁ madāya kam śatakrato. Yaṁ te bhāgam-adhārrayan viśvāḥ sehānaḥ prtanā urujrayaḥ samapsujin-marutvāṁ indra saptate.
Indra, omnipotent lord of existence, omnipresent in wide wide space, commanding over cosmic waters and winds, winner of all the universal battles of evolution and doer of a hundred acts of divinity, you are the ultimate protector of the maker of soma, the devotee on the vedi waiting for the emergence of divine consciousness. O lord, arise in the heart and drink the soma of his devotion to your satisfaction, most exhilarating and reserved for you.

Indra, lord of the wealth and power, honour and excellence of the world of existence, pray save the celebrant, he is the protector too of your presence in the heart. Arise in the consciousness and drink the exhilarating soma of his devotion, the share he has reserved for you, O doer of a hundred acts of grace. You are the ultimate conqueror in all battles of existence, omnipresent in wide space, rolling in cosmic waters, blowing in wind shears and solely presiding over the worlds of reality.
3. Ùrj̄a devāṁ avasyojasā tvāṁ pibā somaṁ madāya kam śatakrate. Yaṁ te bhāgam-adhārayaṁ viśvāḥ sehānāḥ pṛtāṇā urujrayaḥ samapsujin-maruvāṁ indra satptate.

Indra, you protect the divine forces of existence and vest them with energy, lustre and grandeur, and thereby they reflect your presence and protect you for our perception therein. O lord, rejoice with them in the divine presence in nature and humanity and, through their ecstasy, drink the exhilarating soma of divine celebration, the share they have reserved for you in devotion, lord and doer of a hundred acts of majesty. You are the ultimate conqueror in all battles of existence, omnipresent in wide space, rolling in cosmic waters, blowing in wind shears and solely presiding over the worlds of reality.

Indra, lord omnipotent, you are the generator of the regions of light and happiness. You are the generator of the earth. O lord of a hundred great acts of creation, accept, enjoy and protect the exhilarating portion of devotion and ecstasy of the celebrants which they have dedicated to you, and let the ecstasy move their hearts too to your satisfaction. You are the conqueror in all battles of the world between good and evil forces. You are the immanent presence in the expansive space and beyond. You are the life and energy in cosmic waters and in the mighty storms of winds, O lord of truth and justice and master saviour of the good and holy people.

You are the generator of the horses. You are the generator of cows. O lord of a hundred acts of divinity, accept the soma of the ecstasy of your creations who celebrate the joy of their being to the extent that they reflect your kindness and grace in their love of life. You are the conqueror in all world’s struggles for existence and survival, immanent in expansive spaces and beyond, the life of cosmic waters and the breath of mighty winds, lord of the truth of existence and saviour of noble humanity.

Indra, lord generator of the suns, breaker of clouds and mover of mountains, wielding the thunderbolt of justice and retribution, accept and exalt the happy sage’s song of adoration, enjoy the exhilarating soma of devotion to the last note of the song and bless them, O lord of a hundred acts of love and kindness, to the utmost extent of their capacity. You are the victor in all the battles of existence, lord immanent in and transcendent beyond the expansive space, rolling in cosmic waters and blowing in tempestuous winds, O lord of the truth of existence and saviour of noble humanity.

7. Śyāvāśvasya sunvatastathā śṛṇu yathāśṛṇor-atreḥ karmāṇi kṛṇvataḥ. Pra trasadasyamāvitha tvameka innṛṣāhya indra brahmāṇi vardhayan.

Indra, mighty lord of humanity, listen to the prayer of the sage creator of soma and his songs of ecstasy created with a disciplined mind and sense as well as with disciplined will and imagination, just as you listen to the songs of the sage of threefold freedom doing acts of service to humanity and divinity. You protect the sage fighter against evil, tyranny and exploitation all by yourself in the battles of humanity, thereby exalting the songs and actions in honour of divinity. Won’t you listen to me?

Indra, lord of song and acts of bravery, saviour of poets and warriors in the battles against darkness and evil within the personality and without in the objective world, with all your modes and methods of protection and promotion, protect and exalt this holy song and the creator of the song and soma for the betterment of life. O lord of the thunderbolt, destroyer of the demon of darkness, evil and suffering, impeccable beyond reproach, come, join us and taste the joy of creative soma of the mid-day session of our yajnic action.

2. \textit{Sehāna ugra prtanā abhi druhaḥ śacāpata indra viśvābhirūtibhiḥ. Mādhyandinasya savanasya vrtrahannanedyā pibā somasya vajrivah.}

Indra, lord of blazing might and glory of word and action, challenger of the forces of jealousy and enmity, wielder of the thunderbolt of justice and punishment, destroyer of the demon of darkness and evil, want and suffering, adorable beyond reproach, come with all your modes and means of protection and promotion and taste the soma of our mid-day height of yajnic action.

   Indra, lord of song and acts of bravery, saviour of poets and warriors in the battles against darkness and evil within the personality and without in the objective world, with all your modes and methods of protection and promotion, protect and exalt this holy song and the creator of the song and soma for the betterment of life. O lord of the thunderbolt, destroyer of the demon of darkness, evil and suffering, impeccable beyond reproach, come, join us and taste the joy of creative soma of the mid-day session of our yajnic action.

   Indra, lord of blazing might and glory of word and action, challenger of the forces of jealousy and enmity, wielder of the thunderbolt of justice and punishment, destroyer of the demon of darkness and evil, adorable beyond reproach, come with all your modes and means of protection and promotion and taste the soma of our mid-day height of yajnic action.

   Indra, lord of holy word and great action, with all your protections and promotions you shine and rule over the one earthly world of existence. O lord of the thunderbolt, destroyer of darkness and evil, adorable beyond criticism and calumny, come and taste the soma of our success at the mid-day session of our yajnic programme.

   Indra, ruler and master of tactics and power of governance, you balance, join or separate two equal parties from clashing all by yourself by your strength and protective and promotive policies. O lord of adamantine power, decision and action, destroyer of evil, darkness and demonic exploitation, adorable beyond criticism and calumny, come and taste the sweetness of our soma at the peak of our day’s cooperative programme.

Indra, mighty ruler presiding over the nation, master of divine eloquence and decisive action, with all your safeguards, precautions and tactical actions you govern and promote our consolidated assets, investments and acquisitions safely and positively. O lord of thunderous power, implacable law and inevitable justice, O destroyer of evil, suffering and poverty, adorable beyond question and criticism, come and taste the pleasure and progress of our yajnic programme at the peak of the day’s success.

Indra, lord of sacred word and irresistible action, with all your methods and policies of protection and progress you deploy your forces for the defence and advancement of the nation, not for your own personal security. O lord of awesome power and justice, destroyer of demonic violence and exploitation, come and taste the pleasure of our soma of peace and progress at the peak of our day’s achievement.

7. Śyāvāśvasya rebhastastathā śṛṇu yathāś-rnoratreḥ karmāṇi kṛṇvataḥ. Pra trasadas-yumāvitha tvameka innṛṣāhyā indra kṣatrāṇi vardhayan.

Indra, ruler of the world, listen to the eulogies of the dynamic scholar and poet as you listen to the exhortations of the man of action and threefold freedom of body, mind and soul. O lord, you alone by yourself protect and exhort the hero who destroys ogres and saboteurs and exalts the defence powers in the national meets of leaders and pioneers among people.

Mandala 8/Sukta 38

Indra-Agni Devate, Shyavashva Atreya Rshi

1. Yajñasya hi stha ṛtvijā sasnī vājeṣu karmasu. Indrāgni tasya bodhatam.

Indra, wielder of power and justice, ruler of the nation, Agni, enlightened sage and scholar, high priest and leading authority on the values of the system of governance, be firmly joined together in the cleanest programme of government in all decisions, actions and developmental plans and their completion for advancement, and know it well that this is the purpose of governance and the social order. You are two leading participants in this sacred yajna. Know this and abide in your position.

2.  Toṣāsā rathayāvānā vṛtrahāṇāparājitā.
   Indrāgni tasya bodhatam.

   Ruling to the satisfaction of the people, going by chariot and reaching fast wherever needed, destroying the evils of darkness, ignorance, want and demonic injustice and exploitation, never frustrated or defeated but always victorious, Indra and Agni, ruler and enlightened sage and scholar, know this purpose well, follow and never relent.

    Indra and Agni, ruler and enlightened leader, the people, leading lights and all, create these exhilarating honey sweets of soma with mountainous efforts to felicitate you. Know this, recognise it, and honour them.
4.  Juṣethāṁ yajñamiṣṭaye sutam somam sadhastuṁ.
Indrāgniā gataṁ narā.

Indra and Agni, come to the people’s house of yajna, honoured ruler and leader, join us and enjoy the honey sweets of soma distilled for you so that we may all realise the aim and purpose of the social order the way we want.

5.  Imā juṣethāṁ savanā yebhirhavyānyūhathuh.
Indrāgniā gataṁ narā.

Indra and Agni, leaders of the nation’s enlightened rule and order, come, join the yajnic sessions of the social order and accept the holy offerings with the powers by which you reach out to the people and give them the facilities they need.

6.  Imāṁ gāyatra-vartaniṁ juṣethāṁ suṣṭutim mama.
Indrāgniā gataṁ narā.

Indra and Agni, leaders of the world order, come, listen and accept this exhilarating gayatri homage of mine in your honour.

7.  Prātaryāvabhirā gataṁ devebhirjenyāvasū.
Indrāgni somapītaye.
Indra and Agni, victorious creators of wealth for the nation, come with the early morning divinities and leading lights of generosity to join the yajna and have a taste of the soma of the nation’s honour and success.

Indra and Agni, listen to the call of the dynamic scholar and poet who offers the soma of yajnic homage, and honour the call of the leaders of thrice won freedom of the body, mind and soul so that you may enjoy the soma celebration of the nation at the yajna vedi.

Indra and Agni, leaders of the nation’s light and fire energy, just as holy scholars and sages invoke you for protection and promotion, so do I invoke and call upon you to come and join us at the soma session of our yajna.

I choose and opt for the protection of Indra and Agni who value and honour the knowledge and enlightenment gifts of eternal and constant revelation of divinity by which the dynamism of human culture and grace and the honour and excellence of humanity is defined and celebrated.

Mandala 8/Sukta 39
Agni Devata, Nabhaka Kanva Rshi

I worship Agni, lord of light and fire of life, giver of enlightenment, adored in Rks of the Veda. I invoke and adore Agni to join me at yajna for advancement and pray that it may inspire and bring us the benefit of other divinities of nature and humanity. The poet, creator, omniscient power at yajna, traverses between both heaven and earth and communicates between body and spirit like a messenger, an inspiration, and while Agni is at work all adversaries and negativities would vanish.

Agni, lord of light and fire, by this new word of adoration may the negativities of thought and emotion in the personalities of these yajakas, frustrations of the bountiful, all adversaries and adversities, all stupidity, violence and enemies go away and vanish from here.

\[3.\text{ Agne manmāṇi tubhyāṁ kam ghṛtaṁ na juhva āsani. Sa deveśu pra cikiddhi tvam hyasi pūrvyah śivo dūto vivasvato nabhantām-anyake same.}\]

Agni, lord of yajna, as I offer charming oblations of ghrta into the fire I offer hymns of adorations to you. Pray know and accept these among and with other divinities. You are the oldest, eternal and gracious messenger of the sun. May all negativities and adversities vanish.

\[4.\text{Tattadagnirvayo dadhe yathāyathā kṛpanyati. Uṛjāḥutir-vasūnām śaṁ ca yośca mayo dadhe viśvasyai devahūtyai nabhantām-anyake same.}\]

Agni bears, brings and bestows upon the supplicant all the food, energy, health and joy as it is asked for. Agni is the giver of plenty of energy, peace, happiness and freedom from suffering and disease for liberal service in honour of all the divinities of nature and humanity. May all negativities and adversities

MANDAL - 8 / SUKTA - 39

Agni, lord of light and fire, by this new word of adoration may the negativities of thought and emotion in the personalities of these yajakas, frustrations of the bountiful, all adversaries and adversities, all stupidity, violence and enemies go away and vanish from here.

5. Sa ciketa sahīyasā’gniścitreṇa karmanā. Sa hotā šaśvaṭināṁ daksinābhīr-abhīvṛta inoti ca praṇīvyāṁ nabhartām-anyake same.

Agni is known by his powerful and marvellous actions. He is the initiator and original high-priest of the eternal yajnas of the cycles of creation. Self-provided, generosity incarnate, universally chosen and adored, he comes to bless whoever reposes faith in him with prayer. May all negativities and adversities vanish.

Agni knows the origin of immortal divinities of nature. He knows the secrets and mysteries of the mortals. Agni is the treasure giver of universal wealth, power, honour and excellence. Invoked and served with latest researches into light and fire energy and its applications, Agni opens the doors of immense possibilities of wealth and power. May all negativities and adversities vanish.
7. Agnirdeveya sanivasuh sa vikṣu yajñīyāsvā. Sa mudā kāvyā puruviśvam bhūmeva puṣyatī devo deveṣu yajñīyo nabhattām-anyake same.

Agni pervades the divinities of nature and humanity as vitality, energy, plenty and generosity. He resides in humanity specially among those who are dedicated to yajña and creativity. As the earth nurtures and sustains the entire world life on it, so Agni nurtures and sustains all living beings with joy and inspiration for celebration in song. He is indeed the chief adorable divinity among divinities. May all negetavities and adversities vanish.

The Agni which pervades and vitalises the seven yajakas, i.e., five senses, mind and intelligence, and also the seven pranic energies, among humans, which energises the rolling oceans and flowing rivers of the world, which pervades the three regions of earth, skies and the regions of light in the universe, which sustains and inspires the wise and dedicated people and which destroys the violent, to that Agni, first and foremost adorable power in yajnas, let us attain in worship. May all negativities and adversities vanish.

Agni pervades the divinities of nature and humanity as vitality, energy, plenty and generosity. He resides in humanity specially among those who are dedicated to yajna and creativity. As the earth nurtures and sustains the entire world life on it, so Agni nurtures and sustains all living beings with joy and inspiration for celebration in song. He is indeed the chief adorable divinity among divinities. May all negativities and adversities vanish.

Omnipresent and omniscient Agni pervades three regions of the universe wherein reside three realities worth knowing, i.e., Prakrti (nature), soul, and the Super Soul, Parameshvara. Here in He, the one by himself pure, all knowing, all vibrating like super energy of life, feeds and vitasalises thirty three divinities of nature and sustains us with all that we need and desire. May all negativities and adversities all vanish.

Agni, ancient and eternal power of existence, you alone among humanity and among divinities rule the entire wealth and power of existence. All around you the dynamic energies of life unfold and flow by themselves, provide vitality of life as messengers of Agni to forms of existence, and ultimately merge with you. May all negativities, adversities and contradictions vanish from our life for all time.

Indra-Agni Devate, Nabhaka kanya Rshi

1. Indrāgni yuvāṁ su naḥ sahantā dāsatho rayim. Yena dṛ́lḥā samatsvā viḷu cit sāhiśimahyagnirvāneva vāta innabhantām-anyake same.

Indra, lord of power and honour, Agni, lord of light and knowledge, commanding lightning and fire, patience and endurance, strength and courage, give us that positive and irresistible wealth of life by which we may face, resist and throw off strong and violent adversaries as fire fanned by winds destroys forests. May negativities, adversities, alienations and enmities all vanish.

नहि वां ववयामहच्छदनुमिद्यजामहु शविष्ठं नृणां नरसं। स नः कुदा चिद्रवता गमदा वाजसात्यं गमदा मुधसात्यं नर्थन्तामन्युक संभ ॥ २ ॥

We do not shrink from you, Indra and Agni, nor do we in any way neglect you both. Indeed we invoke and invite Indra, strongest leader of the strong, to be with us. When, for sure, would the lord come to us, come with Agni at the speed of lightning to inspire us with strength for struggle and victory, to bless us with piety, wisdom and intelligence for corporate action with the spirit of yajna? May all negativities, adversities, alienations and enmities vanish.

1. Indrasyuva sahantah rayim. Yena düh samatsv cit sahi mahyagnirneva veta innabhantm anyake same.

2. Nahi vavray mano’thendramid yajomahe’sthu nram. Sa nah kad cidarvatgamad vjastaye gamad medhastaye nabhantm anyake same.

Both Indra and Agni like fire and lightning reside and rule at the heart of life struggles. May they, we pray, leading lights, prophetic voices and patriarchal spirits for the loving and friendly, invoked for guidance and answers to questions and mysteries of life, come and, with their vision and wisdom, resolve our doubts and questions to settled certainties of decisive action. May all negativities, adversities, frustrations and enmities vanish from the world.

O man, with a voice friendly and inviting, like a missionary eager to eliminate the negativities and adversities of life, invoke and adore Indra and Agni, lord omnipotent and the leading light of omniscience, in whose treasure hold of nature are held, controlled and protected for promotion and progress this entire world, the moving expansive universe, the heaven, the middle regions, the great mother earth and unbounded wealth, power and excellence for the children of divinity. May all negativities, adversities, deprivations and alienations vanish from the face of the earth.

Like the sage eager to throw off the veils of ignorance, send up your prayers to Indra and Agni, lord omnipotent and omniscient who, ruling the world of existence with their lustre and majesty, open up the seven fold ocean of obscure and tortuous nature to evolution and reveal the seven stage treasure of mysterious knowledge across fivefold evolution of nature to biological and spiritual stages of knowledge. May all ignorance, frustrations, and alienations vanish.

Also prune, cut off and throw out like the dead wood of a tangled creeper the hoarded wealth, unethical power and outmoded knowledge of the exploiter and the antisocial luxury of the selfish consumer, and control and eliminate the fiendish force of the evil so that we may share and enjoy renewed and refreshing wealth, power and knowledge reorganised and recollected into living forms by Indra. May all poverty, superstitions, alienations and enmities vanish from progressive humanity.

When these our people, with one persistent voice and relentless exhortation, invoke and call upon Indra and Agni who command irresistible power and unquestionable knowledge, then with our dynamic people we would face and fight out all violent oppositions and defeat destructive forces. May all violence, destruction, terrorism and sabotage vanish from progressive society.
8. Yā nu śvetāvavo diva uccarāta upa dyubhiḥ.
Indrāngnyor-anu vratam-uhānā yanti sindhavo yāntśīṁ bandhād-amuñcatāṁ nabhantāṁ-anyake same.

Whoever Indra and Agni, commanding ruling power and light of knowledge, raise from lower regions of ignorance and darkness, and take them to the higher regions of knowledge and culture, and the seas which they release from bondage, all of them, thus raised and guided, observe their divine laws and live a dynamic life of freedom and enlightenment. May all darkness, ignorance, superstition and slavery vanish from the world, giving way to freedom and progress.

O Indra, commanding lord of perceptive and communicative powers of enlightenment, inspirer and rejuvenator of the celebrant, first, foremost and universal are your gifts of generosity, ancient and universal are your acts and songs of adoration. The grace and beneficence of the almighty are givers of settlement which may, we pray, inspire our mind, senses and actions and lead us to fulfilment and salvation. May poverty, suffering, pride and frustration vanish giving way to universal joy and freedom.

For progress and prosperity in life, honour and glorify V aruna, this lord supreme, ruler and dispenser of justice who, with his powers, judgement and actions, protects and promotes humans, animals, birds, etc., just as he protects and regulates stars, planets and satellites, all like the sacred cow. Honour and adore scholars and vibrant youth and warriors also and then all differences, oppositions, contradictions, alienations and enmities would vanish.

Him you adore and glorify with sincere mind, holy voice, songs of forefathers and hymns of sages risen above the problems of lower world. Adore the lord at the heart of things, at the head of the seven streams of existence and at the beginning of the rise of creative evolution of the seven oceans of Prakrti across five gross elements, subtle elements and the spiritual and intelligential world. Do that and all oppositions, contraries and contradictions would disappear.

Sa kṣapaḥ pari ṣasvaje nyusro māyayā dadhe sa

He joins and pervades the nights, super-glorious sun as he is, and with his might holds and sustains the world. All people of the world do homage to him in obedience to his law and glorify him through three phases of the day and time, morning, evening and midday, past, present and future. May all phases of contraries, contradictions and enmities vanish from the world.

4. Yaḥ kakubho nidhāraḥ prthivyāmadhi darśataḥ.

   Sa mātā pūrvyaṁ padaṁ tad varuṇasya saptyaṁ sa hi gopā idveryo nabhantām-anyake same.

   Glorious, he holds and maintains the bounds of space over the earth. He is the original mother source of existence, he is the ultimate protector and sustainer, the highest adorable worthy of service for the knowledge and attainment of that eternal state of divine existence when and where all contraries, contradictions and enmities would disappear.

5. Yo dhartā bhuvanānāṁ ya uṣrāṇāmapīcyā veda nāmāṇi guhyā.

   Sa kaviḥ kāvyā puruḥ rūpaṁ dyauriva puṣyati nabhantām-anyake same.

   Glorify Varuna who is the holder and sustainer of the galaxies, solar systems and worldly regions of the universe, who knows the nature, forms and names of sun rays, mysteries and even the deepest secrets of existence. He is the omniscient poet and with his creative vision inspires the mind and imagination of poets for creation as he energises and sustains the heaven of light. May all contraries, contradictions, oppositions and enmities vanish.

In him originate, abide, and centre all the imagination, wisdom and poetic creations of the world as in the nave centre all spokes of the wheel. Serve and adore the lord of three worlds and reach him without delay as cows hasten to the stall or as you hasten to yoke the horses to the chariot. May all distortions, dislocations, contradictions and enmities vanish from our life.

Varuna is the one who vibrates at the heart of all these people and pervades all things born, immanent in and transcending over all regions of the universe. Indeed the divinities of nature and humanity stand ready in harness before the presence of Varuna, all committed to his law and their duty in the law. May all negativities and enmities vanish from the world.

He is the bottomless ocean womb of existence, and at the heart of everything, superfast, instant reacher, like the light of heaven all expansive, and when he vests these people with the spirit of action rising to the heights of heaven, he dispels evil and craftiness with the touch of divine refulgence. May all darkness, evil and enmity be eliminated from life.

The refulgent glory of Varuna who rules over everything illuminates the three worlds of earth, skies and heaven and rises over the three higher heavens. Indeed he pervades and rules over the constant universe of sevenfold order and illuminates it with light and beauty. May all darkness, ugliness and enmity be eliminated.
Varuna, who creates the beautiful world of white and black, light and dark, and the living beings of white and dark character, creates the worlds as ever in accordance with the rules and vows of the law of Dharma and Dharma in action in the earlier life of human beings and others. Thus he, the unborn, maintains the world as he does heaven and the middle regions by his constant might. May all darkness and evil vanish from life.

Mandala 8/Sukta 42

Varuna, Ashvinau Devatah, Nabhaka Kanva or Archanana Atreya Rshi

1. Astabhnād dyāmasuro viśvavedā amimīta varimāṇam prthivyāh. Āśidad viśvā bhuvanāni samrāḍ viśvet tāni varuṇasya vratāni.

Varuna, lord of light and energy, omniscient and omnipotent ruler of the universe, makes and sustains the heaven of light and the wide earth. The glorious lord and ruler rules all regions of the universe and they all observe the laws of Varuna, infinite they are, beyond description.

Thus worship and adore Varuna, great and infinite, worthy of reverence, undisturbed, protector of the laws of Dharma. May the lord provide us the threefold world of earth, heaven and the skies as a home of peace and security in freedom and joy. May the heaven and earth hold, protect and caress us as their darling children in their lap.

3. Imāṁ dhiyaṁ śiṣṭāmānasya deva kratuṁ dakṣāṁ varaṇa saṁ śiśādhi. Yayāti viśvā durītā tarema sutarmāṇamadhi nāvaṁ ruhema.

Varuna, self-refulgent lord of vision and omniscience, a seeker of light and wisdom as I am, pray sharpen, energise and confirm my intelligence, will and expertise by which we may ride on the efficient ark of navigation and cross over all the evils and difficulties of the world.

4. Aṁ vāṁ gārvaṇa āśiṇaṁ śrībhūṭaṁ ānarucīṁ: 1 nāṃsatya śāmīpītya nābṛntāmaṁyak śaṁ 2 Ṛgveda.
4. Ā vāṃ grāvāṇo aśvinā dhībhirviprā acucyavuḥ. Nāsatyā somapītaye nabhantām-anyake same.

Ashvins, complementary powers of vision and action, teacher and ruler, dedicated to truth and truth alone, to you repair the scholar and the maker of soma with their intelligence, will and wisdom so that they may have a taste of the soma of knowledge and wisdom, and piety. May all fears insecurities and enmities be eliminated.

Ashvins, powers dedicated to truth and rectitude, as the vibrant sage, who loves and values threefold freedom of body, mind and soul, calls upon you in holy words of freedom and discipline for the protection and promotion of the honour, excellence and joy of life, pray see that all fear, insecurity and adversities are eliminated.

Ashvins, lovers of eternal truth and the laws of existence, harbingers of peace, progress and happiness for mankind, just as sages and scholars dedicated to the yajnic advancement of corporate life call upon you for protection and promotion, so do I invoke you for peace.
and protection and invite you to share the soma celebration of hymn achievement. May all contraries, contradictions and adversities disappear, may peace, harmony and happiness prevail over the earth.

Mandala 8/Sukta 43

Agni Devata, Virupa Angirasa Rshi

1. Ime viprasya vedhaso’gnerastṛtayajvanaḥ.
   Giraḥ stomāsa īrate.

   These swelling notes of the songs of adoration in honour of Agni, light of life, sung by the vibrant, learned and dedicated sage of indefatigable faith and yajnic service resound in space all round.

2. Asmai te pratiharyate jātavedo vicarśane.
   Agnе janāmi suṣṭutim.

   This holy song of worship, Agni, all-knowing, all pervasive lord of light, vision, and love, I raise to you, hoping your grace would accept and respond.

3. Āroka iva ghedaha tigmā agne tava tvīṣah.
   Dadbhirvanāni bapsati.

   3. Like the light of the sun, surely, the brilliant showers of your grace and splendour, with your gifts, illuminate and intensify the beauties of life.

4. Harayo dhūmaketavo vātajūtā upa dyavi.
   Yatante vṛthagagnayāḥ.

   The fire, the sun, the lightning and the falling stars moved around by cosmic energy, all receptive and transmissive in their own orbit on earth, in heaven and across the skies, all giving the light and shade and fragrance of their nature and character in their own way, roam around in space as versions of Agni.

5. Ete tye vṛthagagnaya iddhāsaḥ samadṛkṣata.
   Uṣasāmiva ketavaḥ.

   All these versions of Agni, lit up, shining, blazing, all in their own way, appear beautiful as ensigns of dawns, lights and glories of Agni.

   Agniryad rodhati kṣami.

   Shaded, coloured and black turn the particles, clusters and spheres of solid materials in the way of the movement of Agni, omnipresent in things born in existence when fire travels in and on the earth or earthly materials.
Punaryan taruṇīrapī.

Conducting itself into herbs and trees, making them as if a dwelling for itself, energising them and, as fire even consuming them, Agni does not feel satiated, and takes on to new budding ones on and on. (The life cycle of birth, death and rebirth, growth, decay and growth thus continues.)

8. Jihvābhiraha nannamadarcisā jañjañābhavan.
Agnirvaneṣu rocate.

Burning and blazing with its flames of fire and light, subjecting things to its force and power, Agni shines in the forests and the beauties of life.

9. Apsvagne sadhiṣṭava sauṣadhīranu rudhyase.
Garbhe sañjāyase punah.

Agni, your home is in the waters, you dwell in the herbs and trees, you abide in the womb of nature and you are born again and again, ever youthful in various forms.

MANDAL - 8 / SUKTA - 43
683
10. Udagne tava tad ghṛtādarcī rocata āhutam.

   Nimsānam juhvo mukhe.

   Agni, that flame of yours fed and served with ghṛta rises and shines, having received its beauteous energy from the ladle in yajna.

11. Ukṣānnāya vaśānnāya somapṛṣṭhāya vedhase.

   Stomairvidhemāgnaye.

   With songs of adoration, let us offer honour and worship to Agni and develop the science of fire and energy which provides life and sustenance to the cow and the sun and all dependent forms of life in existence and bears and brings the soma of health and joy for all.

12. Uta tvā namasā vayam hotarvareṇyakrato.

   Agne samidbhirīmahe.

   Agni, lord of great divine action worthy of choice, high priest of cosmic yajna, we offer you service and worship with holy fuel and homage of humility and fragrant food.

13. Uta tvā bhṛguvacchuce manuṣvadagna āhuta.

   Aṅgirasvaddhavāmahe.

   Agni, invoked and invited for honour and service, pure and unsullied by nature, like brilliant scholars and scientists who burn off superstition and dispel darkness, like dedicated humans, and like lovers of the breath of life and soma of joy, we invoke and invite you for the gifts of light and life.

ত্বম্‌ হাৰ্ম্ম। অগ্রিন্নাসুপা বিপ্রঃ বিপ্রেণ সন্ত্সত।
সর্পাঃ সর্পাঃ সামি:ধ্যস্ত। ১৪।

You rise and shine, O lord of light and life, as fire with the fiery, as vibrant scholarship with the vibrant scholar, as holy spirit with the holy people, and as love and friendship with the friend.

स त्वम्‌ विप्रायं दाशुष्ये रुचि देहि सहस्त्रिणम्।
अग्ने चीर्वंतिमिष्म। ১৫।

15. Sa tvam viprāya dāśuṣe rayim dehi sahasriṇam. Agne vīravaṭimīṣam.

So generous and responsive as you are, Agni, give a thousandfold wealth, honour and excellence for the vibrant scholar and generous yajaka, give him life sustaining food and energy and generations of brave progeny.

अग्ने धृतम्‌ सहस्त्रकृत: राहिदश्क: शुचिब्रवत।
हूर्म्‌ स्ताम्‌ जुष्म: म। ১৬।

Agni, sustainer of the world as a brother and master, mighty creator and performer, rider of the red flames of fire and the sun, lord and protector of the unsullied laws of nature, pray accept this holy song of mine with love and respond with the gift of your grace.

उत त्वाग्ने मम स्तुता वाम्राय पतिहयं।
गावस गावेवाणाः ॥ १७ ॥

17. Uta tvāgne mama stuto vāśrāya pratiharyate.
Goṣṭhāṁ gāva ivāśata.

Agni, lord of generosity and infinite plenty, may my songs of adoration reach you as cows hasten to the stall for the lowing calf eager to receive the motherly grace of sustaining milk.

तुथ्यं ता अंजिरस्तम् विश्वः सुषितयः पृथक्।
अगुर कामाय यमिर् ॥ १८ ॥

Agni, lord of highest light and giver of the breath of life, all people of the entire world pray and approach you, all for the fulfilment of their ambition and desire.

अगिङो धीभिमनोषोणो मधिरासा विपश्चितः।
अन्धश्र्यो हिन्निरि ॥ १९ ॥

Thoughtful intellectuals, men of yajnic actions and wise sages all with their thoughts, words and actions invoke, invite and call upon Agni for the common welfare of the world.

Agni, holy men of action, extending various and versatile forms of yajna in all their projects of social development without waste, violence and bloodshed, invoke and pray to you, lord of light and giver of universal wealth, source of knowledge, progress and prosperity, guide and burden bearer of the world, and high priest of the cosmic yajna of existence.

Agni, universal presence, lord and ruler of all people, giving equal care and attention to all nations and regions, in all the battles of our life we invoke you and pray for justice and success.

Worship him who, lord of light and omniscience, invoked and served with ghrta and fragrance, shines and rises in the vedi and the heart. May the lord listen and accept this song of invocation for us.

You, Agni, we adore who are listening, omnipresent and omniscient, destroyer of the jealous and violent adversaries.

I adore and worship the ruler of the people, wonderful power, lord protector and controller of Dharma and laws of the earth. May the lord listen to our prayer.

We enthusiastically adore Agni as a friend, as a magnetic force that is our well wisher and giver of energy and success in life.

Eliminating violent enemies and jealous adversaries, always burning off the evil, Agni, shine and energise this land with flames of fire and blazing light.

27. Yamā tvā janāṣa indhate manuṣvadaṅgirastama.
   Agne sa bodhi me vacaḥ.

Agni, light and power dearest as life breath, whom people kindle, raise and adore as a friend of humanity, pray listen, acknowledge and appreciate the truth and sincerity of my word and prayer.

28. Yadagne divijā asyapsujā vā sahaskṛta.
   Tamā tvā gīrbhir-havāmahe.

Agni, whether you manifest in heaven, or in the waters or shine in acts of universal divine power, we adore, worship and invoke you in the holiest words.

   Dhāsim hinvantyattave.

Those people far away and all these people settled here, all in their own ways, offer you homage as their haven and home for the gift of their own food and sustenance.
Eliminating violent enemies and jealous adversaries, always burning off the evil, Agni, shine and energise this land with flames of fire and blazing light.

Doing good works in your service, always watching all the people around, may we become breakers of the most difficult oppositions and cross over the challenging seas of life.

Agni, light and power dearest as life breath, whom people kindle, raise and adore as a friend of humanity, pray listen, acknowledge and appreciate the truth and sincerity of my word and prayer.

Agni, whether you manifest in heaven, or in the waters or shine in acts of universal divine power, we adore, worship and invoke you in the holiest words.

Those people far away and all these people settled here, all in their own ways, offer you homage as their haven and home for the gift of their own food and sustenance.

With songs of heartiest love and joy, with enthusiasm, we invoke and adore Agni, blissful giver of happiness, dear to all people, omnipresent in existence and pure refulgent sanctifier of life.

Agni, self refulgent giver of light, wealth, honour and excellence, rising like the sun with the rays of your splendour and growing in strength, you dispel and destroy the darkness of evil, ignorance, want and injustice.

Tartho bhagvatah dharmastava stotram 30

30. Te ghadagne svādhyo’ha viśvā nṛcakṣasah. Tarantaḥ syāma durgahā.

32. Sa tvamagne vibhāvasuḥ sṛjantsūryo na raśmi-bhiḥ. Śardhan tamāmsi jighnase.
33. Tat te sahasva īmahe dātram yannopadasyati.
   Tvadagne vāryaṁ vasu.

Agni, lord of strength and life’s challenges, omnificent giver, of you we pray for that gift of generous wealth, honour and excellence of our choice and heartfelt preference which never diminishes, never fails.

Mandala 8/Sukta 44

Agni Devata, Virupa Angirasa Rshi

1. Samidhāgniṁ duvasyata ghṛtairbodhayatātithim.
   Āsmin havyā juhotana.

   Feed the sacred fire with holy fuel, awaken and arouse it with ghrta, offer fragrant food worthy of the divine, and serve it as an honoured guest who visits at his own free will.

2. Agnī stomāṁ juḥasva me vardhasvānena manmanā. Prati sūktāni harya naḥ.

   Divine Agni, leading light of life, accept my adoration and rise, by this conscientious eulogy, listen in response to our songs, grow higher and let us rise and grow higher too.

   "Aṣṭiṃn dvītīya dandaḥ havyavāhmuṛṣṇ bhuv.

MANDAL - 8 / SUKTA - 44 691 692 RGVEDA
3. Agniṁ dūtam puro dadhe havyavāhamupa bruve. Devāṁ ā sādayādiha.

I place the divine fire in front of me, speak closely to the sacred bearer of oblations and pray that it may bring the divinities with divine blessings here to join us.

4. Ut te bṛhanto arcayaḥ samidhānasya dīdivaḥ. Agne śukrāsa īrate.

Agni, lord of light and fire, kindled, fed and rising, your lofty and expansive flames, shining and blazing, pure, powerful and purifying, go on rising higher and higher.

5. Upa tvā juhvo mama ghṛtācīr-yantu haryata. Aghe havyā juṣasva naḥ.

Agni, lord of beauty and bliss, let my ladles overflowing with ghrta rise and move close to you. Pray accept and enjoy our oblations and our songs.

6. Mandraṁ hotāramṛtvijāṁ citrabhānum vibhā-vasum. Agnimīle sa u śravat.

I adore Agni, lord of light and fire, blissful, generous yajaka, high priest of regular seasonal yajna, wondrous illustrious, blazing brilliant lord of wealth and honour, and I pray may the lord listen and bless.

I adore Agni, ancient and eternal, generous giver, worthy of reverence and celebration, loved and worshipped, poetic visionary of holy action and gracious performer of yajnic projects of love and non-violence for corporate development.

Agni, dearest life of life, constantly loving and cherishing the sweets of celebration and yajna, pray guide and extend the yajna according to the seasons.

Excellent and benevolent Agni, bright and gracious of pure and powerful flame, all knowing and illuminating, pray bring here on the vedi pious people of divine generosity and intellectual brilliance.

With prayer and adoration we honour and approach Agni, omniscient lord vibrant in existence, giver of fulfilment, free from jealousy, rising in flaming fragrance, universal lord of light, wealth and honour, and symbolic ensign of yajna.

Agni, self-refulgent lord of universal generosity and power, protect us from the violent and, O lord creator of the mighty universe, break down the jealous and the enemies.

Agni, omniscient visionary of existence, gracious and refulgent by virtue of ancient and eternal light of knowledge and age-old songs of the poet, is exalted along with the celebrant.
13. Ūrjo napātamā huve’gniṁ pāvakāśociṣam. Asmin yajñe svadhvare.

In this noble yajna of love free from violence, I invoke and celebrate the unfailing master and protector of energy, blazing with holy light and fire of purity.

Agni, greatest friend of humanity, with pure and purifying flames of fire, you sit on our holy seats of grass on the vedi alongwith the divinities. (All our senses and mind are suffused with the presence of divinity.)

15. Yo agnim tanvo dame devaṁ martaḥ saparyati. Tasmā id dīdayad vasu.

Whoever the mortal that offers devotion to self-refulgent Agni within his yajnic home of the body, the lord would bless him with the wealth of spiritual illumination.

This Agni is the highest lord and master of all on top of heaven and earth and gives energy and sustenance to the seeds of life in the waters of the universe.

20. Adabdhasya svadhāvato dūtasya rebhataḥ sadā.
Agneḥ sakhyam vṛṇīmahe.

We choose, claim and pray for the love and friendship of Agni, indestructible and benevolent, inherently powerful, bearer and dispenser of energy, light and wisdom, and omniscient lord of speech.

Śucī rocata āhutaḥ.

Agni is the purest uncompromising lord of law and discipline, lord of purest unclouded knowledge and wisdom, master of purest transparent creative vision and imagination, and he shines ever pure, unsullied, invoked and worshipped.

22. Uta tvā dhītayo mama giro vardhantu viśvahā.
Agnē sakhyasya bodhi naḥ.

Agni, lord of united existence, may all my thoughts, words and actions adore, exalt and glorify you day and night. O lord of humanity, pray acknowledge and ever remember and maintain our bond of love and friendship with you.

23. Yadagne syāmahāṁ tvāṁ tvāṁ vā ghā syā aham.
Syuṣṭe satyā ihāśiṣāḥ.
Agni, lord of love and life’s bonding, if and when I were you and you were me, then would your love and blessings for me be truly realised.

24. Vasurvasupatirhi kamasyagne vibhāvasuḥ.
   Syāma te sumatāvapi.

Agni, you are the shelter home of all, lord protector and ruler of the world’s wealth, blissful, refulgent lord of kindness and love. We pray let us be under the protection of your goodwill.

25. Agne dhṛtavratāya te samudrāyeva sindhavaḥ.
   Giro vāsrāsa īrate.

Agni, lord of light and life, our yearning voices of love and adoration for you flow free and reach you, lord ruler and keeper of the laws of nature in existence, as rivers flow to join the sea.

26. Yuvānāṁ viśpatiṁ kaviṁ viśvādāṁ puruvepasam.
   Agniṁ śumbhāmi manmabhīḥ.

With my words, thoughts and reflections in meditation, I adore, adorn and exalt Agni, self-refulgent lord and leader of life, youthful creator who joins the soul and prakṛti in living forms, rules and protects humanity, is the one universal poet of cosmic imagination, performs actions of infinite variety and ultimately withdraws the entire world of existence unto himself.

27. Yajñānāṁ rathye vayaṁ tigmajambhāya vīḷave. Stomairiṣemāgnaye.

With songs of adoration we love to celebrate and exalt the glory of Agni and reach him who, like a charioteer, is the foremost guide and high priest of all yajnas of creation, evolution and development, rolls his mighty jaws of justice and judgement, and is the highest, omnipotent, power.

Agni, lord of light and life, may this celebrant be spontaneous and profuse in praise of you and, O fiery purifier, may you too be kind and gracious to him.

Agni, you are magnanimous as a vibrant sage at peace, ever awake in the heart’s core in the soul, and you shine refulgent on the highest heaven in the celebrant’s meditation.

Mandala 8/Sukta 45

Indra-Agni, Indra Devata, Trishoka Kanva Rshi

1. \( आ घा य अग्निमिन्धत स्त्रृणत्ति बहिरानुषक। \)

\( यज्ञामिन्दा युवा सखा। \)

Blessed are they for sure who kindle the fire of yajna, Agni, and spread the seats of grass open for all in faith and love and whose friend is Indra, the mighty youthful soul who brooks no nonsense and delay.

2. \( ब्रह्मिदिध्मा एवान्भूरिः शस्त्रं पृथुः स्वरः। \)

\( यज्ञामिन्दा युवा सखा। \)

Great is their fuel and fire, profuse their praise and song of adoration, expansive their yajna and high their ensign whose friend is Indra, youthful soul, their ruler and defender.

3.  आयुद्धा इद युधाः वर्ताम सुरा अजाति सत्ववभी।
 येषांमिन्द्रो युवा सक्षा।

Unequalled is Indra, irresistible, even when there is no war. The mighty hero by the very force of his presence and character throws off the enemy supported by brave warriors all round. Blessed are they whose friend is Indra, the mighty youthful heroic soul.

4.  आ बुन्दां वृत्रहा दंदं जातः पृच्छद्रि मातर्म।
 Ka ugrāḥ ke ha śṛṇvire.

When the mighty soul, destroyer of evil, born to self consciousness, takes to the bow and arrow, blazing, fearsome, breaker of foes, he asks the mother, spirit of higher vision and discrimination: Who are the enemies renowned to be terrible and irresistible?

5.  Prati tvā śavasī vadad girāvapo na yodhiṣat.
 Yaste śatrutvamācake.

Indra, lord of power and excellence, to you then the mighty mother, divine intelligence, would say: Whoever would take a hostile attitude toward you would fight against you like a seductive sorceress on the magic mountain.

Now then, O lord of power, wealth and excellence, listen: Whoever asks of you something he desires, you bear and bring for him. Whoever you strengthen, he becomes strong. Are you not real mighty then?

७. Yadājīṁ yātyājikṛdindraḥ svaśvayurupa.

Advancing at a steady-pace, O lord of the clouds, mountains and the thunderbolt, we would be thriving with horses and a hundredfold attainments of new wealth and power and, free from sin and evil, we would come closer to you.

\[ \text{ऊध्वा हि ते दिवदिव सहस्रा सून्रता शता।} \]
\[ \text{ज्रितिुष्ठ्या विरिःहत: ॥ १२ ॥} \]

12. \textit{Ūrdhvā hi te divedive sahasrā sūnṛtā śatā. Jaritṛbhyo vimamḥate.}

Your kindness and generosity rises day by day
May Indra, mighty warring soul, turn our chariot of body and the body politic to the heights of the first and foremost order of strength and excellence for the achievement of success and victory in the battle of life so that no enemies can violate it.

We know you, Indra, as our very haven and home, winner of wealth, honour and excellence, strong and firm, destroyer of evil and breaker of the strongholds of darkness, superstition and misery.

While we pray to you, generous lord, and ask for what we want, O cosmic poet and visionary, may our yajnas and soma celebrations please you, most high and supreme lord of power, justice and award.

If a man is rich and yet neglects and fails to pay to you, generous one, wielder of power, what is due for social causes, in that case make up from his money or property what is required for our sake, i.e., for the sake of society.
16. Ima u tvā vi cakṣate sakhāya indra somināh. Puṣṭāvanto yathā paśum.

Indra, these friends, celebrants of soma and holiness, holding offerings of precious homage, look and wait for you as the seeker waits for the sight of his wealth.

And from afar we invoke and call upon you for protection and progress. You are everywhere, your ears are sensitive and you are eager to hear the call of the seeker.

As you hear this call of ours, take it as unforgettable and be our closest and ultimate friend and brother.

And also, when we approach you in our mind and, like supplicants in distress, remember you and pray, then attend to us and be generous. You are the giver of cows, lands and light of knowledge.

22. Abhi tvā vṛṣabhā sute sutamāṃ sṛjāmi pītaye. Ṭīmpā vyaśnuḥī madam.

Lord of generous and creative power, when the yajna is on and soma is distilled, I prepare the cup and offer you the drink. Pray accept, drink to your heart’s content and enjoy the ecstasy of bliss divine.

Let the fools and scoffers never get round you, even if they profess that they are keen to please you, for protection and support. Never support the negationists of knowledge, piety, existence and divinity.

24. Iha tvā goparīṇasā mahe mandantu rādhase. Saro gauro yathā piba.

Here may the lovers of cows entertain you with milk and soma for the achievement of great competence and success so that you may drink like the thirsty stag drinking at the pool.

25. Yā vrtrahā parāvati sanā navā ca cucyuve. Tā sarīṃsatu pra vocata.

Whatever gifts of wealth or titles of honour old or new, Indra, destroyer of evil and darkness, you grant far off or near, all those, announce in the assemblies.

In the thousand armed dynamic battles of the elements in evolution, Indra, as the sun, drinks the soma of the earth and therein shines the potent majesty of the lord.

ऋभुं गणं न वर्तवं उव्वर्षु तुग्रावर्धेऽः।
इन्द्रं सामु सचा सुत॥ २९॥

29. Ṛbhukṣaṇaṁ na vartava uktheṣu tugryāvṛdhham.
İndraṁ some sacā sute.

When the soma is distilled and seasoned and the hymns are sung in the yajna, then to win the company and favour of mighty Indra, I adore the mighty lord, a friend and protector of the strength and power of the people.
30. Yahā krntadīd vi yonyaṁ triśokāya girīṁ prthum. Gobhyo gātum niretave.

I adore Indra who makes and breaks the cloud, womb of waters, and the mighty mountain for the humanity of threefold purity of nature, character and behaviour and who makes the paths for rivers to flow on earth.

Indra, whatever you hold, whatever you think and desire, whatever you give, why not for me? O lord, pray be kind and gracious.

Just a little done by someone like you or someone protected by you resounds on the earth. O lord, I pray, may your gracious attention turn to me also.

Indra, if you were kind and gracious to us and we were happy, all the graces would be your renown, they would be reflections of your glory.

34. Mā na ekasminnāgasi mā dvayoruta triṣu. Vadhirmā śūra bhūriṣu.

O lord of magnanimous glory among the great heroes, not for one trespass, not for two, not for three, not even for many, uncountable, pray, hurt us not, and strike us not.

I would feel fear and awe for a person like you, illustrious, destroyer of the evil, magnificent and scourge of the challengers of truth and law.

36. Mā sakhyuḥ śūnamā vide mā putrasyā prabhū-vaso. Āvṛtvad bhūtu te manah.

I pray I should never suffer want of friends, never be deprived of children. O lord of wealth, honour and grandeur of the world, let your mind turn to me with kindness.
Kā nu māṇya ātimśhitāṃ: sakhā sakhāyamabāvītān. 37.
Jahā kā āsmparīṣate. 37.

O people, which friend without provocation would revile a friend, who would forsake a friend in distress, who runs away from us like that?

Evāre vṛṣabhā suteśvinvan bhūryāvayaḥ. 38.
Śvaghnīva nivatā caran.

Generous and virile Indra, come to the yajna and the soma celebration, youthful, insatiable like a player going to the hall of contest, and give us inexhaustible food and energy.

Aṁ taṁ pūta vṛchchayuṣa hṛīṁ gṛthāṇa sūpadhā. 39.
Yadīṁ brahmabhya iddadaḥ. 39.

I receive the word-controlled motive powers and steers of the chariot which fly you on high on liquid fuel, the ones you have given to the scholarly sages.

Bhindhi viśvā apa dviṣaḥ pari bādho jahī mṛdhāḥ. 40.
Vasu spārham tadā bhara.
Break off all the jealous adversaries, remove all obstacles, eliminate the enemies and violence and fill the world with cherished wealth, honour and prosperity.

2.  Tvāṁ hi satyamadrivo vidma dātāramiṣām.
Vidma dātāraṁ rayiṇām.

Lord of the thunderbolt, we know you are eternal and constant, ever true, giver of all foods and energies, and we know you are the giver of all kinds and forms of wealth, honour and excellence.

आ यस्य त महिमानं शतमूतं शतकता ।

3.  Ā yasya te mahimānam śatamūte śatakrota.
Girbhirṇantī kāravaḥ.

Lord of a hundred forms of protection, high priest of a hundred forms of cosmic yajna, we know you whose majesty poets and artists celebrate with songs of adoration.

सुनीथा गा स मत्या यं मरुता यर्मर्मयमा ।
भित्र: पात्यदुहः ॥ ४ ॥

4.  Sunītho ghā sa martyo yam maruto yamaryamā.
Mitraḥ pāntyadruhaḥ.

True it is that that man is morally right, well guided and secure whom the Maruts, vibrant powers of defence and protection, Aryama, power of right conduct and justice, and Mitra, power of love and enlightenment, all free from hate and jealousy, lead and protect on the right path.

Inspired and energised by Aditya, lord of light and enlightenment, blest with cows, lands and culture, horses, advancement and achievement, bearing courage and creative vitality of high order, he grows and goes forward with cherished wealth, honour and excellence.

We pray to Indra, omnipotent and fearless lord ruler of the world, for the gift of wealth, honour and excellence.

In him centre and abide all protections free from fears of the world, integrated. That same lord of world’s wealth and peace, the waves of cosmic energy and vibrations of the mind may, we pray, awaken in our consciousness which is in tune with the lord’s omnipresence for spiritual joy.

8. Yaste mado vareṇyo ya indra vṛtrahantamaḥ.
   Ya ādadiḥ svar-nṛbhir-yah pṛtanāsu duṣṭaraḥ.

   That spiritual joy, Indra, which is our highest choice, which is the highest destroyer of moral and spiritual darkness, which is the giver of heavenly peace and which is ordinarily unattainable by people in mortal struggles, that joy, that ecstasy, that bliss of yours we ask of you.

9. Yo duṣṭaro viśvavāra śravāyyo vājeśvasti tarutā.
   Sa naḥ śaviṣṭha savanā vaso gahi gamema gamati vraje.

   Indra, lord omnificent of the world, omnipotent, haven and home of the universe, that divine joy, Ananda, which is difficult to attain, most renowned and profuse, ark of success over the seas and struggles of life, that Ananda, O lord, come and bring us, which may we attain in our yajnic sessions of meditation at the centre of our personality wherein the mind and senses converge and merge with spiritual consciousness.
10. Gavyo śuṇo yathā purā’svayota rathayā.

Varivasya mahāmaha.

Lord greatest of the great, Indra, come now as ever before and bring us wealth of lands and cows and discipline of the mind and senses, wealth of horses, progress and meaningful attainments, and scientific transports and spiritual adventures of the soul in meditation and yajnic sessions.

11. Nahi te śūra rādhaso’ntam vindāmi satrā.

Daśasyā no maghavannū cidadrivo dhiyo vāje-bhirāvitha.

O lord generous and brave, I do not find the end and bounds of your gifts of wealth and competence. Lord of wealth, wisdom and excellence, wielder of the thunderbolt of justice and power, grant us the gifts of material, mental and spiritual wealth, and protect and promote our mind and senses with speed and energy for progress in action and attainment.

12. Ya ṛṣvaḥ śrāvayatsakhā viśvet sa veda janimā puruṣṭutah.

Tām viśve mānuṣā yugendraṁ havante taviṣam yatasrucaḥ.

The lord sublime who is universally worshipped is a friend and promoter of the celebrants and knows the origins of the entire forms of existence. That same lord illustrious and refulgent, Indra, the entire people of the world with ladlefuls of ghṛṭa in hand always invoke, adore and worship.

रः ना वाज्ञविता पुरुस्वरः पुराः स्थाता मधवा वृत्त्रह भृजक्।

13. Sa no vājeśvavitā purūvasuḥ puraḥ sthātā maghavā vṛtrahā bhuvat.

That lord Indra, haven and home of the world, ever present everywhere, we need and invoke. That commander of wealth and power, dispeller of darkness and destroyer of evil, may, we pray, be our protector and promoter in the material, moral and spiritual struggles of our life.

अभि वा वीरमन्धसा मदर्शु गाय गिरा महा विचतसम।
इन्द्रं नाम श्रुतं शाखिनं वचा यथा। १४।

In the ecstasy of your soma celebration, with the best of word and voice, sing in praise of Indra, mighty brave, highly knowledgeable and wise, renowned of name and versatile in power and competence.

दृढ़ी रक्षास्तन्वेव दुर्दिवसु दुर्दिवाजशु पुरुहूतं वाजिनम।
नूनमथ। १५।

Indra, lord universally invoked and adored, give us health for our body, give wealth, give us power and speed in our battles of life, and give us all this soon and for sure.

16. Viśveṣām-irajyantam vasūnāṁ sāsahvāṁsaṁ cidasya varpasah. Kṛpayato nūnamatyatha.

Sing in praise of Indra, ruler and promoter of the wealth and beauty of this world as it is and as it might be in future. He is challenger and vanuisher of the enemies.

17. Mahaḥ su vo aramiṣe stavāmahe mīlhuṣe aramīgamāya jagmaye. Yajñebhir-gīrbhir-viśvam-anuṣāṁ marutāmiyakṣasi gāye tvā namasā girā.

For the sake of ample food and energy for you all, O people, we adore, with holy yajnic hymns, the great, generous, all round mover and obliging visitor, Indra, loved of all people in general and vibrant divines in particular. You love to be with us, O lord, and I celebrate and felicitate you with hymns and homage.

18. Ye pāṭayante ajmabhir-girīṇāṁ snubhiresāṁ. Yajñam mahiṣvaṇāṁ sumnaṁ tuviṣvaṇāṁ prādhvare.
We celebrate the roaring and tempestuous winds, Maruts, who, with their power and force, shake the clouds and streams down these mountains, give us gifts of yajnic well-being and joy in our creative and developmental programmes of love and non-violence.

Prabhaṅgaṁ durmaṁ-indra śaviṣṭhā bhara. Rayim-asmabhyaṁ yuṣyāṁ codayanmate jyeṣṭham codayanmate.

Indra, lord most potent, bring us the intelligence and other means to break down the negative and anti-social thoughts and actions of adversaries. O lord inspirer of right thinking, bring us the mind and materials usable in constructive thinking and planning and bring us the best and highest thought and competence, O lord inspirer of rational and scientific minds.

Sanitaḥ susanitarugra citra cetiṣṭha sūṃṛta. Prāsaḥā samrāṭ sahurim sahantam bhujyum vājeṣu pūrvyam.

O generous lord, most charitable giver, mighty, wonderful, most conscientious and attentive, most truthful, tolerant and courageous, supreme ruler, bring us the mind and material, power and force which is patient and courageous, challenging, useful and of permanent value.
We celebrate the roaring and tempestuous winds, Maruts, who, with their power and force, shake the clouds and streams down these mountains, give us gifts of yajnic well-being and joy in our creative and developmental programmes of love and non-violence.

Come that sage and scholar of human virtue, just human, not a god, who has received the feel of full and universal spirit of divinity, just as the man in the clutches of karmic sufferance experiences the bliss of divinity in the twilight and beauteous glory of the dawn of universal light and renown.

I have got sixty-and-ten thousand horses, twenty hundred camels, and ten hundred dark brown, ten hundred tawny red, in all ten thousand cows.

Ten fleet dark brown horses with straight long tails instantly rushing to the target turn the whirling wheels of my chariot and beat the opposing forces.
24. Dānāsah pṛthuśr-vasaḥ kānītasya surādhasaḥ.
Rathāṁ hiraṇyayaṁ ādān-māṁhiṣṭhaṁ sūrira-bhūd-vaṁśiṣṭham-akṛta śravaḥ.

The gifts of generosity of the supreme giver universally renowned, sublime and bountiful, giving a golden chariot to the devotee, earn him the tributes of being most glorious and spread his fame as the most munificent hero.

25. Ā no vāyo mahe tane yāhi makhāya pājase. Vayaṁ hi te cakṛmā bhūri dāvane sadyaścinmahī dāvane.

O Vayu, lord of mighty motion, come for the great expansion of the speed and power of our yajna. Lord of high generosity, we adore you always and glorify you as a great, liberal and universal ultimate giver.

26. Yo aśvebhir-vahate vasta usrāstriḥ sapta sapta-śīnām. Ebhiḥ somebhiḥ somasudbhīḥ somapā dānāya śukrapūtapāḥ.

Come he who travels by radiations of cosmic energy, vested in and carrying thrice seven of seventy rays of the sun, he, protector of the pure and holy, protector of soma joy, come with these somas of bliss, with the makers of soma for giving us the gifts of joy.

27. Yo ma imaṁ cidu tmanā mandaccitraṁ ādāvane.
Araṇve akṛte nahuṁ sukṛtvani sukṛttarīṁ sukra-tuṁ.

He who by himself rejoices in giving me this wonderful gift of light and yajnic expansion, the same lord of holy action rejoices in giving more to enhance higher charity of the grown up man of holy deeds in practical life.

28. Ucathye vapui yaṁ svarūpta vāyosvantaṁ. Aśveśitaṁ rajeśitaṁ āneśitaṁ prajma tadidaṁ nu tat.

Vayu, refulgent ruler of the world of purity, decency and generosity soft as consecrated in ghrta, in this beautiful life of admirable nature and character, whatever you give for social achievement, emotional satisfaction and spiritual realisation is the same as you have given to me.

29. Adha priyamīrīṁ āśiṁ sahasraṁ sanam.
Aśvinīṁminna vṛūdaṁ.

And I have received sixty thousand gifts of value dear to the strong and ambitious, like horses of the most virile breed dear to the warriors.

29. Adha priyami¬ṣirāya śaṣṭim¬ sahasrÄsananam. AŚvÄnÄminna vrÄṇām.

And I have received sixty thousand gifts of value dear to the strong and ambitious, like horses of the most virile breed dear to the warriors.

30. गावा न गृथ्यपुर्ण यन्ति वर्धय उप मा यन्ति वर्धयः॥ ॥
30.  Gāvo na yūthamupa yanti vadhraya upa mā yanti vadhrayaḥ.

As cows join the herd for protection and support so the weaker people come to me for sustenance and support, yes the needy come for succour and support.

31.  Adha yaccārathe gaṇe śatamūṣṭrāṇ acikradat.
Adha śvītneṣu viṁśatim śatā.

And then the blessed man calls for a hundred camels and twenty hundred from amongst the white herd, all out of the active and working ones, for giving away to the needy.

32.  Śataṁ dāse balbūthe viprastarukṣa ā dade. Te te vāyavime janā madantīndragopā madanti devagopāḥ.

The man of power and prosperity has given away a hundred, the vibrant sage and saviour has received. O Vayu, your beneficiaries, these people, protected and supported by Indra, the generous, rejoice, celebrate and exhilarate you.

33.  Adha syā yoṣaṇā mahī pratiśī vaśamaśvyam.

Now then that youthful maiden, great and glamorous in golden finery, is led forth to the seasoned bachelor of her love and desire on the wedding vedi.

Adityah (1-13), Adityah - Ushah Devatah, Trita Aptya Rshi

   O Varuna, Mitra, powers wise, just and loving, choice and love of all, great is your protection, noble ones, for the generous man of charity. O Adityas, brilliant powers of light and enlightenment, children of indestructible mother life, whoever you protect from the jealous and the malignant, no sin ever touches. Sinless are your protections, noble and holy are your protections (free from jealousy, anger and violence).

2. Vidā devā aghānāmādityāso apākṛtīm. Pakṣā vayo yathopari vyasme śarma yacchatānehaso va ītayaḥ su-ītayo va ītayaḥ.

   O divine powers of light, love and justice, you know how to remove sin and cleanse us of evil. As birds shade their young ones with wings, so give us shelter and protection all over. Sinless are your protections, noble and holy are your protections.

All round, all over us, spread your cover of protection like birds. You know and command the wealth and powers of the world. We pray for shelter, peace and protection. Sinless are your protections, free from evil, noble and holy are your protections, free from jealousy, anger and violence.

Whoever these Adityas, powers of light, most wise, provide a peaceful shelter home for a comfortable living, that man’s wealth, power and honour they overwatch, control and rule for protection. Sinless are your protections, noble and holy your safeguards.

Pari ṇo vrñajannaghā durgāṇi rathyo yathā.
Syāmedindrasya sarmānyādityānāmutāvasyanehaso va ātayaḥ su-ūtayo va ātayaḥ.

Just as charioteers avoid difficult and impossible roads, so let sins and crimes go by, leaving us aside. Let us be in the homely protection of Indra and under the protective umbrella of the Adityas. O Adityas, free from sin and evil are your protections, noble and holy your safeguards.

Pariḥvṛtedanā jano yuṣmādattasya vāyati. Devā adabhramāśa vo yamādityā ahetanānehaso va ātayaḥ su-ūtayo va ātayaḥ.

Adityas, powers of light and lightning speed, even though a person might be living in distress, he raises and expands what you give him and rises to higher joy and prosperity when you approach him and bless. Sinless are your protections, holy and noble your safeguards and securities.

7.

Na tam tigmaṁ cana tyajo na drāsadabhi tam guru. Yasmā u śarma sapratha ādityāso arādhva-manehaso va ātayaḥ su-ūtayo va ātayaḥ.

Sharpest envy and violent anger do not terrify or demoralise him, O Adityas, whom you give a large home and wide margin of tolerance. Sinless are your protections, noble and holy your safeguards and securities.

Yuṣme devā api śmasi yudhyanta iva varmasu.
Yūyaṁ maho na enaso yūyamarbhāduruṣyatā-nehaso va ātayaḥ su-ūtayo va ātayaḥ.

Brilliant and brave Adityas, in you we are safe like warriors in armour. You save us from heinous sins and major crimes, you save us from minor faults and lighter trespasses. Sinless are your protections and holy and noble your safeguards.

Aditirna uruṣyatvaditiḥ śarma yacchatu. mātā mitrasya revato’ryamno varuṇasya cānehaso va ātayaḥ su-ūtayo va ātayaḥ.

May Aditi, Mother Nature, save us. May Aditi, mother earth, provide us a restful home. May Aditi, mother of Mitra, prosperous Aryama and Varuna provide us peace and happiness. Sinless are your protections, holy your safeguards, holily protected.

   Adityas, brilliant leaders of the mother nation, the home that is a restful place to live in, which is beneficial, which is free from want and ailments, and three-metalled furniture and appliances, all that is needed in a good and comfortable home, pray provide, secure and insure among us, the people of the land. Sinless are your protections, noble your safeguards, holily protected.

   Adityas, brilliant leaders of the nation, just as people stand on the bank of a river above and look below upon the flowing waters, so look below upon the people on the march, and just as they take the horses across the stream by the safest ford, so lead the nation forward by the safest paths of progress. Sinless are your protections and safest your securities.

12. Neha bhadram rakṣasvine nāvayai nopayā uta. Gave ca bhadram dhenave vīrāya ca śravasyate-'nehaso va ūtayaḥ su-ūtayo va ūtayaḥ.
No good here for friends of evil, no possibility of escape, no appeasement. But for the cow, the lands, literature and culture, for the milch cow, for creative and productive forces, for the brave warriors and philanthropists of renown, for all these, yes, all good, all safe, all opportunities. Sinless are your protections, unfailing your safeguards.

O brilliant leaders of the world, all evil thoughts, deeds or practices, whether open or covert, which may be prevalent in the three spheres of body, mind and soul of the individual and society, all those, pray, ward off, keep away from us. Sinless are your protections, noble your safeguards.

O daughter of the light of dawn, heavenly revelation of wisdom, descent of divinity, all bad dreams and ambitions for the maker of gold ornaments or the maker of flower garlands, or in relation to the pride of body, mind and soul, we throw off. Sinless are your protections, holy your safeguards.

For the sake of the man whose food is bad dreams, whose karma it is, whose entire share of life is this, for the sake of the man of threefold world of body, mind and soul, and for the good of the twice born humanity, O dawn of divine light, take away the bad dreams far off. Sinless are your protections, holy your safeguards.

O brilliant leaders of the world, all evil thoughts, deeds or practices, whether open or covert, which may be prevalent in the three spheres of body, mind and soul of the individual and society, all those, pray, ward off, keep away from us. Sinless are your protections, noble your safeguards.

O daughter of the light of heaven, holy dawn, noble intelligence, holy wisdom, whatever evil thought, dream or ambition there be in or in relation to our mind and senses or in relation to anything else of our life, O light of the dawn, take away far off from us for the good of the self and the world of threefold virtue of body, mind and soul. Sinless are your protections, holy your safeguards.

Soma Devata, Pragatha Ghaura Kanva Rshi

1. Svādorabhakṣi vayasaḥ sumedhāḥ svādhyaḥ varivovittarasya. Viśve yaṁ deva ātva martyāso madhu bruvanto abhi saṁcaranti.
An intelligent and dedicated reader of holy literature, I have enjoyed the delicious soma food of higher and holier quality which all divines and mortals of the world enjoy, saying ‘it is honey sweet and savoury’, when they meet in sacred gatherings.

अन्तःच दागा अद्वितिभवास्यवायता हरसा द्वारस्य।
इन्द्रविन्दस्य सुखं जुषाणं: श्रांश्रीव धुरमपृणु राय ऋध्या:॥ २ ॥

O soma, reaching the core of personality, you are internalised, assimilated as one with the body and creative mind of man, dispeller of divine anger, and friend of Indra, the soul. O soma, just like willing and obedient horses of the chariot harnessed and yoked, inspire us toward the wealth, honour and excellence of life.

अपामसार्मममुृतां अभूमार्गम्य ज्यातिर्विद्याम दुवान।

3. Apāma somamamṛṭā abhūmāganma jyotira-vidāma devān. Kim nūnāmasmān kṛṇavadar-ātiḥ kimu dhūrtiramṛṭa martyasya.

We have drunk the soma of immortality, we have become immortal, attained to the light of divinity, have known the organs of perception and imagination, and realised the divinities of light, power and excellence. What can the enemies internal and external do now against us? O lord immortal, soma, what can the violence of mortals do against us?
शं ना भव हृद आ पीत ईन्द्रा पितवं साम सूनवें सुशर्वः ।

4. Šaṁ no bhava hṛda ā pīta indo piteva soma sūnave suśevah. Sakheva sakhya uruśamśa dhīraḥ praṇa āyurjīvase soma tārīḥ.

O soma, drink of immortality, be good and blissful for the heart. O nectar soma, when drunk, be as good and blissful as father is to the child. Soma, universally admired, brave and heroic, patient and constant, as a friend for the friend, give us a long age of good health so that we may live a full life of joy to our heart’s content.

5. Ime mā pītā yaśasa uruṣyavo ratham na gāvaḥ samicāha parvasu. Te mā rakṣantu visrāsascaritrāduta mā srāmādyavayantvindavaḥ.

These soma drinks, protective of honour, may secure and strengthen my joints as straps secure the chariots at joints, and inspire me to apply myself to noble projects as bullocks draw the chariot to good destinations. These drinks may save me from weakness of character and protect me from depression and disease.

अभिमः न मा मधितं सं दिंदीपः प च च च य कृणुहि वस्यसा

Light and shine me like fire from wood by friction, give me the eye to see the light and raise us to be masters of wealth, honour and excellence. O soma, drink of immortality, in the ecstasy of exhilaration, I concentrate and meditate on the self in the peace of divinity like a wealthy man of spiritual profusion. O bliss of exuberance, stimulate, inspire and raise me well to perfect health of body, mind and soul.

7. Iṣireṇa te manasā sutasya bhakṣīmahi pitryasyeva rāyah. Soma rājan pra ṇa āyūṃṣi tārīrahānīva sūryo vāsarāṇi.

O bright soma, with stimulated and inspired mind, let us drink at the fount of your exuberant flow like children enjoying on the wealth of their parents. O ruling light of soma divine, pray lengthen our life and rejuvenate our health like the sun lengthening the light of days.

O soma, ruling light of life, be kind and gracious, give us peace and well being, we are your devotees, observers of your rules of life in joy, pray know this. O fluent life of joy, pray know that confidence and competence and righteous passion is fresh and vibrant in us, do not forsake us, give us not up to the will and pleasure of the enemy.

O soma, you are the protector and promoter of our body and personality. Watcher and leading light of humanity, seep in and energise every part of our body. And if we default on your rules of discipline, even so, O noble friend, generous power superior, be good and gracious to us and help us to be happy.

Indra, O soul and spirit of intelligence, let me be friends with soma as with a friend of noble nature and drink it as it would do me no harm. I pray to Indra, lord omnipotent giver of bliss, that the soma which I have drunk in may increase and enrich my life.
अपि त्वा अस्थुरनिर्गत अमीषा निरंत्रसृतमिषीचीरभंकुः। आ सामार्गासूर्ध्रद्विहल्या अर्गार्गन यत्र पतिरत्न आयुः॥ ११॥

Let those difficult ailments subside and go far from here. Even though they are strong and fearful, let them be off from here. Potent soma has risen up in vigour and has energised us, and we have reached where life increases and delights through age in ecstasy.

O parents and seniors of wisdom, the soma which is immortal is consumed and absorbed in the hearts and spirits of mortals. For that soma of immortality, we pray with love and homage to divinity and hope we shall abide in peace, pleasure and a settled mind, all which is the gift of this drink of immortality.

O soma, immortal joy and inspiration of existence, known well and abiding by the ancients and pranic energies of nature, you pervade over heaven and earth. O soma, peace, power and joy of the world, we pray to you for strength and joy with homage and oblations so that we may be masters, protectors and promoters of the wealths, honours and excellences of life.

O brilliant divines, saviours and leading lights of humanity and life’s joy, speak over to us of the pleasure and power of soma so that neither sloth and slumber nor chatter, prattle and inarticulation may overtake us. We pray we may all time, seasons and days be favourites of immortal soma of bliss and, wide awake and brave, we may realise knowledge, wisdom and a happy well governed order of society.

Soma, immortal spirit of peace, power and bliss, you are the treasure giver of food, energy and life for the world. You are the treasure giver of heavenly joy and watcher and leading light of the people. O soma, fluent stream of life energy, loving and friendly, with all your powers and protections, safeguard and promote us in front, on the back and all round.

Mandala 8/Sukta 49

Indra Devata, Praskanva Kanva Rshi

To the best of your intention and purpose and for whatever you wish to achieve, pray to Indra, lord of glory, world power and promotion and means of success, who gives a thousandfold wealth, honour and excellence to his celebrants.

Like the commander of a hundred armies, with his power and force, Indra rushes forward to fight and win, and he destroys the demons of darkness and want for the charitable giver. The gifts of this universal giver of food and sustenance feed and support humanity like streams flowing down from the mountains.

3. Ā tvā sutāsa indavo madā ya indra girvaṇaḥ. Āpo na vajrinnanvokyaṁ sarāḥ pṛṇanti śūra rādhase.

Indra, celebrated lord of the thunderbolt, may the songs of adoration presented by the celebrant with prayers for desired wealth and means of success, flowing spontaneous like ecstatic streams of soma, please and exhilarate you to fullness of kindness and grace as flowing waters, brooks and rivers, fill their original home, the lake and the sea.

4. Anehasaṁ prataraṇaṁ vivakṣaṇaṁ madhvaḥ svādiṣṭhamīṁ pība. Ā yathā mandasānaḥ kirāsi nah pra kṣudreva tmanā dhṛṣat.

Indra, lord of joy and fulfilment, pray accept the innocent, overflowing, inspiring song of adoration, enjoy it like a draught of soma sweeter than honey, so that happy and joyous at heart and soul, ignoring all minor considerations, you may pour out your gifts of generosity like showers of mist.

5. Ā nah stopamupa dravaddhiyāno aśvo na sotrbiḥ. Yam te svadhāvantsvadayanti dhenava indra kaṇveṣu rātayaḥ.
Indra, lord of joy and fulfilment, love and generosity, come to accept our song of adoration like a courser urged on and rushing to its destination, a song created like soma by the pressers which the profuse voices of the wise and your gifts showered on the celebrants sweeten all the more and energise.

With homage and adorations, we approach Indra, illustrious, brave, glorious, lord of inexhaustible wealth, honour and ultimate shelter. As an overflowing spring fills a well with water, so do our thoughts and imagination create the flow of spontaneous praise for the generous lord’s satisfaction.

7. Yaddha nūmaṁ yadvā yajñe yadvā prthivyāmadhi. Ato no yajñam-āśubhir-mahemata ugra ugrebhirā gahi.

Illustrious Indra, whether you are at some yajna or somewhere on earth or anywhere else, from there come to our yajna by the fastest and mightiest forces, illustrious lord, wisest of the wise.

Come by indefatigable forces, fastest and tempestuous as the winds, by which you reach the unwavering children of humanity and go round to see and reveal the light of heaven.

Indra, lord of grandeur, glorious as you are, we pray of you the wealth of the peace and prosperity of sense, mind and wisdom by which you protect and promote the man of dynamic intelligence, and the sage of imagination who dives deep into the mysteries of life in the struggle to understand the riddles of existence.

Indra, lord of glory, we pray for that generosity of yours by which you award the wealth of lands and cows, sense, mind and wisdom, and the golden excellence of honour and culture, to the wise celebrant, the opponent of violence and terror, the veteran scholar, the controller of sense and mind in meditation, the energiser of perception and intelligence, and the man of simple and straight paths of truth and rectitude.

Mandala 8/Sukta 50

Indra Devata, Pushtigu Kanva Rshi

For the sake of life’s fulfilment, honour and adore Indra, renowned and mighty master and controller of the superstructure of existence, who grants desired wealth, power and honour, and augments it a thousandfold for the celebrant who seeks and works for the soma joy and excellence of life with yajnic effort.

Hundreds of great and invincible forces of this lord almighty, protective, promotive and overladen with sustenance, power and prosperity like the pregnant cloud and abundant mountain, shower gifts of desire and fulfilment on the seekers of excellence and grace when the soma creations of the yajnic celebrants please the lord.
3. Yadīṁ sutāsa indavo’bhi priyam-amanḍiśuḥ. Āpo na dhāyi savanaṁ ma ā vaso dughā ivopa-dāśuṣe.

When the flowing drops of yajnic homage of soma please and exhilarate this dear lord, then, O lord of wealth, excellence and grace, like the showers of rain and generous cow, pray bless the invocation, homage and oblations of the yajna with plenty for the generous yajamana.

4. Anehasaṁ vo havamāna-mūtaye madhvaḥ kṣaranti dhītayah. Ā tvā vaso havamānāsa indava upa stotreṣu dadhire.

O yajakas, to the incomparable lord you invoke for protection, your thoughts and honey sweet songs of adoration rise and flow. O lord of wealth, honour and excellence, shelter home of the universe, the soma celebrants who call upon you cherish your presence they feel in the hymns they offer in adoration.

5. Ā naḥ some svadhvara iyāno atyo na toṣate. Yam te svadāvant-svadanti gūrtayaḥ paure chanda-yase havam.

Indra, lord of the holy yajna of creation, come to our soma yajna, reaching like the constant flow of joy where soma flows and pleases. O lord most generous and connoisseur of taste, the songs of praise please you, and while the soma flows you delight in our adoration.

I pray to Indra, brave, illustrious, discriminative, giver of wealth and excellence and all majestic, for greatness of honour and success. O lord of thunderbolt, action and justice, like an over-flowing spring of generosity, you bless the liberal giver with ample wealth of the world.

Indra, lord omnipotent and omniscient, whether you are in a far off place or close by on earth or far above in the light of heaven round the sun, come, lord of grandeur and divine wisdom, with all your innate divine powers of cosmic dynamism. O lord most attainable and sublime, come with instant elevations of the spirit and bless us.

Instant and omnipresent are your powers of motion, conduction and integration, creators of the joy of accomplishment which, unfailing, unerring, unhurting and instant, swell the mighty motions of the winds and energise the pranic forces, by which you silence the violent saboteurs of humanity for our sake and by which you move across the regions of heaven.

O lord omnipotent, shelter home of the universe, adorable and worshipped, thus do we know you, thus do we celebrate your glory, as you protect the man of action and advancement when the battle of existence begins for him, and as you promote the man of self control to seek fulfilment of his mind and senses while his life lasts in the human body.

O lord of glory, Indra, as much as you have granted for the intellectual, for the scholar teacher, for the yajna, for the long time leader, for the home and for the man of self control, so much, O lord of the clouds and mountains, pray grant me too for guidance on the path to divinity.

Mandala 8/Sukta 51

Indra Devata, Shrushtigu Kanva Rshi

Yathā manau sāṁvaraṇau somam-indrāpibah sūtam. Nīpātithau maghavan medhyātithau puṣṭigau śruṣṭigau sacā.

Indra, lord ruler of glory and majesty, just as you appreciate and protect the soma of sacred knowledge and wisdom treasured in the mind of the dedicated thinker, so pray protect, confirm and promote the knowledge, wisdom and values treasured in the man of deep introspection and spirituality, the lover of purity and sanctity of yajnic science, the scholar of physical and psychological health and advancement and the man of supersensuous perception and instant action.

Pārśadvāṇah praskaṇvaṁ samsādayaccha-yānaṁ jivrim-uddhitam. Sahasrāṇyasiṣāsad gavām-ṛṣistvoto dasyave vrkhaḥ.

When debility of mind and speech took over the old, unsettled and depressed intellectual, then the sage, inspired and strengthened by you as a thunderbolt made him sit in a thousand rays of the sun for treatment and cure.

3. Ya ukthebhirna vindhate cikidya ṛṣicodanaḥ. Indraṁ tamacchā vada navyasya matyariṣyan-taṁ na bhojase.

He who is not attained by mere words of song, who knows, and who inspires the sages to know, that Indra you adore and worship well with sincere mind and thought in order to experience the lord as one who never hurts anyone, who always loves and blesses.

To do honour to Indra, people adore the seven-rayed sun in high heaven who lights and sustains three worlds of heaven, earth and the middle regions. He creates all regions of the universe and thus reveals his power and generosity.

5. Yo no dātā vasūnāmin-dvāṁ tāṁ hūmahe vayam. Vidmā hyasya sumatīṁ navīyasīṁ gamema gomati vraje.

We invoke and adore Indra who is the giver of wealth, honour and excellence to us. We know and adore the gifts of his love and good will ever new and newer and pray we may abide in the light of his knowledge and follow the paths shown by the light divine.

Whoever you enlighten, enable and empower to give in charity, O lord of wealth and shelter home of the universe, he obtains wealth, sustenance and progress further and further. O lord of magnificence and majesty, Indra, most adorable and celebrated, blest as we are with wealth, excellence and the spirit of homage, we invoke, invite and adore you and pray bless us with love, charity and grace.

Never are you unfruitful, never uncharitable, you are always with the giver, closer and closer, more and more, again and again, O lord of wealth and honour, and the charity of divinity ever grows higher and promotes the giver.

   When he had expanded and pervaded the heavens and firmed the higher regions, seized the cloud with his blazing might and struck the drought to naught, then he caused the earthly forms of life to emerge.

9. Yasyāyaṁ viśva āryo dāsah śevadhipā ariḥ. Tiraścidarye ruśame paviravi tubhet so ajyate rayiḥ.

   This entire world whether it is dynamic and progressive, or reactionary and slavish, whether it guards the wealth of life or destroys it, all this wealth, directly or indirectly, is circulating within the presence of Indra, the master, awfully armed, destroyer of destroyers, to whom it really and ultimately belongs.

   Dynamic scholars and vibrant sages offer to Indra the song of adoration replete with honey sweets and liquid power of exhortation. Let the beauty and prosperity of life increase among us, let generous and virile strength and vitality grow, and let streams of inspiring soma flow.
Mandala 8/Sukta 52

Indra Devata, Ayu Kanva Rshi

   Omnipotent Indra, just as you drink, protect and promote the soma of the ecstasy of divine vision distilled and collected in the mind of the brilliant meditative sage, as you join the divine joy of the devotee who has achieved threefold freedom of body, mind and soul, so you join the divine joy and celebration at the heart of the sage of experience and discriminative vision.

   Indra, O divine soul, enjoy soma ecstasy in the company of the inspired celebrant, the vibrant sage of cosmic imagination, abundantly fulfilled devotee of divinity, the realised visionary of the light of knowledge, and the sage of natural and simple rectitude.

3. Ya ukihā kevalā dadhe yah somam dhṛṣitāpibat. Yasmāi viṣṇustrīṇi pādā vicakrama upa mitrasya dharmabhiḥ.

Who loves and accepts only the pure, original, un-interpolated hymns of the Veda, who is keen for victory worthy of the brave and cherishes the joy of that ecstatic ambition, for whom Vishnu, lord omnipresent, energises the three orders of earth, skies and heaven in existence, out of love for him in the cosmic law, that is Indra, the divine soul.

In whose hymns of adoration and victorious deeds you delight, O hero of a hundred grand deeds and victory, the same we, seekers of sustenance, honour and fame, invoke, you Indra, and pray for blessings as milkmen love and treat a generous cow for the gift of milk.

5. Yo no dātā sa naḥ pitā mahāṁ ugra īśānakṛt. Ayāmann-ugro maghāvā purūvasur-goraśvasya pra dātu naḥ.

He who is the giver of every thing for us, he is our father, great, illustrious, ruler and creator of ruling glory, unretreating, blazing brave, glorious, universal shelter and treasure home of wealth. May he, we pray, give us the wealth of lands and cows, knowledge and culture, and horses, achievements, success and constant progress.

O lord of wealth and honour, whoever you ask and inspire to give in charity, rises in wealth, health and advancement. We, seekers of wealth, honour and fame, invoke and glorify Indra, lord ruler and protector of the world’s wealth and grandeur, hero of a hundred acts of holiness, with hymns of adoration.

Eternal lord immanent and transcendent, when is it you neglect your devotee? Never. You bless both lives, this here and the next hereafter. Indeed the very call on you in prayer means honour and glory immortal which abides in heaven.

Indra, lord adorable and glorified, eternal teacher, whoever the generous giver you inspire to give, and, in response to his charity, you bless, like him and like the divine response to prayers of the wise, pray listen and accept our adoration and prayer, respond to our invocation, O lord of world’s wealth and excellence.

Eternal and adorable song of divine praise has been presented. Chant that for Indra, the divine soul. Sing the grand old hymns of divine law and glorify the lord. Inspire and augment the mind and soul of the celebrant.

10. Samindro rāyo bṛhaṭīradhuṇuta sam kṣoṇi samu sūryam. Sam śukrāsah śucayaḥ sam gavāsirah somā indram-amandiṣuḥ.

Let Indra, divine soul, chant and liberate the grand abundance of spontaneous divine hymns in honour of Indra, let the earth and heaven resound, let the hymns reach the sun. Let the pure, powerful and sanctified soma abundance of divine celebration please Indra, lord omnipotent and omnificent.
1. Upamāṁ tvā maghonāṁ jyeṣṭhāṁ ca vrṣabhāṇāṁ. Pūrbhittamāṁ maghavannindra govida-mīśānam rāya imahe.

Indra, lord of royal magnificence and divine glory, for wealth, honour, excellence and magnanimity, for charity and generosity, we pray to you, prime symbol of the wealthy, powerful and glorious, first and highest of the generous and virile, most potent breaker of the strongholds of want and ignorance, master of the earth and stars and ruler of the universe.

2. Ya āyuṁ kutsam-atithigvam-ardayo vāvṛdhāno divedive. Tam tvā vayaṁ haryaśvaṁ śatakratum vājayanto havāmahe.

Seekers of food and energy, honour and excellence, and advancement and success in life, we pray to you, lord of a hundred great acts of holiness, commander of the dynamic forces of achievement, you who give life, thunderbolt of power and justice, and the spirit of hospitality to people while you lead them on the path of progress day by day.
3. Ā no viśveṣāṁ rasaṁ madhvaḥ śiṅcantva-drayaḥ.
Ye parāvati sunvire janesvā ye arvāva-tīndavāḥ.

May the clouds and mountains, and the generous sages among people, whether far off or close by who distil for us the honey sweet essence of all the facts of life, bless us like showers of rain.

4. Viśvā dveṣāṁsi jahi cāva cā kṛdhi viśve sanvantvā vasu. Śīṣṭeṣu citte madirāso aṁśavo yatrā soma-sya tṛmpasi.

Indra, divine soul, destroy all hate and enmities, protect the yajamana and others, do good, let all create all wealth and joys of the world in the heart of the educated and cultured where you drink and enjoy the exhilarating draughts of soma.

5. Indra nedīya edīhi mitamedhābhir-ūtibhiḥ. Ā śaṁtama śaṁtamābhir-abhiṣṭibhirā svāpe svāpibhiḥ.

Indra, closest power divine, come at the earliest with sure protections of definite resolution of mind. Lord of supreme peace, come with most peaceful fulfilment of desire, come, dear friend, with most friendly powers of protection and progress.
6. Ājiturāṁ satpatim  viśvacarṣanāṁ kṛdhi praśivā- bhagam. Pra sū tirā śacībhirye ta ukthinaḥ kratum punata ānuṣak.

Create among the people and their coming generations that power, prosperity and grandeur which gives victory and progress, protects and promotes truth and the good people, and which is universally good, positive and creative. With your noble powers and actions help and save those who are your celebrants and perform noble yajnic actions in your honour with love and faith.

Whoever is the most efficient and eligible for your love and protection, we pray, the same we may be to achieve in your divine projects and obligations. Seekers of honour and excellence, with all our invocations, homage and service to the divinities, we adore you and pray for protection and advancement.

O lord omnipotent, you are the master and controller of the powers and dynamics of the world. Seeker of strength and victory, always by virtue of your protections I go forward to any great battle. Seeker of victory and earthly prosperity, I depend on you only, first and foremost of the warriors of the world.

Mandala 8/Sukta 54

Indra (1, 2, 5-8), Vishvedevah (3-4) Devatah,

Matarishva Kanva Rshi

    Indra, gracious lord of omnipotence, poets and artists with their holy voices, celebrate and exalt this virility, valour and heroism of yours. Singing and celebrating, they obtain energy and self-assurance, and the people, with their thoughts, actions and meditation realise joy, ananda, of the highest gracious order.

2. Nakṣanta indramavase sukṛtyayā yeṣāṁ suteṣu mandase. Yathā samvarte amado yathā kṛṣa evāsme indra matsva.

    Indra, the people, in whose realised strength and joy you delight, obtain honour and grace by their noble action. We pray just as you take delight in the acts of the self-controlled man and appreciate the limitations of the attenuated, so accept and cherish whatever homage we are able to offer for protection and grace.
3. Ā no viṣve sajōṣaso devāsō gantanopa naḥ. Vasavō rudrā avase na ā gamaṃchṛṣṭavantu maruto havam.

Let all friends and divinities of the world come to us and bless. Let all Vasus such as earth, all Rudras such as pranic energies, come and bless us for our protection and sustenance, and may the Maruts, vibrations of divinity and high priests of yajna, listen to our call and come with gifts of grace.

4. Pūṣa viṣṇur-havanam me sarasvatyavantu sapta sindhavah. Āpo vātaḥ parvatāso vanaspatiḥ śṛṇotu prthiviḥ havam.

May Pusha, sun and other powers of nourishment, Vishnu, omnipresent divine power, Sarasvati, divine vibrations of cosmic awareness, and the seven seas attend to my call, honour it and protect me. May Apah, nature’s flow of liquid energies, Vatah, the winds, mountains and the clouds, herbs and trees and the earth perceive my call and help.

5. Yadindra rādho asti te māghonam maghavatta-

ma. Tena no bodhi sadhamādyo vṛdhe bhago dānāya vṛtrahan.
Indra, lord of highest glory among the powerful, your munificence and power of accomplishment under control of your majesty is great. By that power of majesty, O lord of honour and liberal grandeur, friend of the house of yajnic celebration, destroyer of evil and want, enlighten us for advancement and inspire us with the spirit of charity.

Guide and protector of our struggles and our people in struggle for advancement, ruler of the human nation, inspirer of noble acts of charity, you alone conduct us successfully through our battles for progress. Seekers of honour and excellence win fame and glory by cherished yajnic performers and their service and devotion to the divinities of nature and humanity.

The hopes and ambitions and the health and age of humanity depend on Indra, lord of the world and humanity. O lord of glory, pray accept us close to you for the sake of protection and advancement and bless us with energy and inspiration to rise high.
Indra, lord of highest glory among the powerful, your munificence and power of accomplishment under control of your majesty is great. By that power of majesty, O lord of honour and liberal grandeur, friend of the house of yajnic celebration, destroyer of evil and want, enlighten us for advancement and inspire us with the spirit of charity.

Vayam ta indra stomebhir-vidhema tvamasmā-kaṁ śatakṛato. Mahi sthūram śaśayaṁ rādho ahrayaṁ praskaṇḍvāya ni toṣaya.

Indra, lord of glory, we do homage to you with hymns of adoration. O lord of a hundred acts of kindness and magnificence, bless the dedicated sage with great, lasting, dynamic competence for success which is creditable and honourable.

Mandala 8/Sukta 55

Indra, Praskanva Danastuti Devata, Krsha Kanya Rshi

Let me describe in detail the heroic power of Indra. O destroyer of the violent and wicked, your strength and competence against the destroyer shines all round, that’s your bounty and grandeur.

Śaṁts śvataṁ āraṁ dīvī tāra na raṁcārt. Mahnā divāṁ na tastabhuḥ.

Hundreds of brilliant acts of virile generosity shine like stars in the skies as if with your might and grandeur they hold up the heavens of light.
3. Śataṁ veṇūñchatam śunah śataṁ carmāṇi mlātāni. Śataṁ me balbajastukā aruṣāṇāṃ catuh-śatam.

Hundred clusters of trees, hundred other such gifts of generosity, hundred shields well polished, hundred bundles of grass and four hundred fields of shining fertile land, that’s the gift of generous Indra.

Celebrants of knowledge and wisdom, teachers and students, be good, generous and brilliant, go on strong and stronger, moving and rising higher and higher like real men of ambition.

5. Ādit sāptasya carkirann-ānūnasya mahi śravaḥ. Śyāvīrātīdhvasan pathaścaśuṣā cana sarinnaše.

And then do honour to the greatness and glory of the perfect lord of sevenfold world of existence, Indra. The man who can cross through the darkest paths of life can see and attain to the lord even through his own eyes.
Mandala 8/Sukta 56

1. Prati te dasyave vṛka rādho adarśyahrayam.
Dyaurna prathinā śavaḥ.

O scourge of the evil, your power and generosity is blameless and admirable, and your power and glory, expansive as the light of heaven is seen shining through space.

Daśa mahyān pautakrataḥ sahasrā dasyave vṛkah.
Nityādrāyo amarīhata.

The heroic ruler, scourge of evil and the grabbers, doing good and blameless actions, gives me ten thousand gifts and grants from the wealth of his regular collections.

3. Śataṁ me gardabhānāṁ śatamūrṇāvatīnām.
Śataṁ dāśaṁ ati srajaḥ.

He gives me a hundred mules, a hundred woolly sheep, and grants me a hundred permanent assistants and garlands of honour.

And therein too, for the sake of greater and nobler strength and efficiency, the dynamic leader infused exceptional collective strength and spirit as if of a regiment of horse.

Agni is self-conscious, enlightens and, self-conducted on its own waves of radiation, carries the fragrance of yajnic havi as well as the light of knowledge from the vedi all round. Agni, brave and expansive like space shines with the flames of fire and purity and blazes with splendour like the sun in heaven.

Ashvins, harbingers of knowledge, adorable guides worthy of association and cooperation, this part of our yajnic pursuit of knowledge and development is reserved for you. O seekers of truth, committed to truth, come and listen to what we have to say, share and enjoy the soma pleasure of the honey sweets of peaceful advancements in knowledge, and with your powers and blessed actions protect and promote the generous and committed yajaka who surrenders to you in faith and obedience.

Mandala 8/Sukta 58

Vishvedevah or Rtvijah Devatah, Medhya Kanya Rshi

यमृत्विज्ञा बहुधा कुल्पयत्नः सच्चतसा यज्ञमिम कहन्ति।
या अनूच्चानार्कामण्युक्त आसीलका स्वित्त्व्य यज्ञमानस्य संविच। ॥ १ ॥

In the yajna of existence and human life, which the yajakas, Vishvedevas, natural forces of divinity in the cosmic yajna, and human senses and mind in the individual yajna of life, all vital, alert and expert in their own ways, organise, conduct and carry on harmoniously in many different participative ways, and in the same yajna when some pious, intelligent and fortunate soul in communion is joined with the supreme divinity of the yajna, then in that state of samadhi what is the nature and character of this yajamana’s state of knowledge and spiritual awareness?

2. Eka evāgni-r-bahudhā samiddha ekaḥ sūryo viśvamanu prabhūtaḥ. Ekaivoṣāḥ sarvamidaṁ vi bhātyekam vā idaṁ vi babhūva sarvam.

The nature of awareness in communion is this, and this same is the understanding of an intelligent soul: Only one Agni, fire, lighted in many ways, only one sun risen all over the world, only one dawn rising daily anew, lights this entire world, and only one universal spirit pervades this entire universe, the entire existence is one.

Further: Of you all Vishvedevas, the one that is self-refulgent, self-revealing, three wheeled-one centred, blissful, gloriously moving, a seat of bliss, full of treasure, by the power and inspiration of which the dawn of light arises and illuminates the world, that supreme spirit I invoke for you and call you to experience the absolute bliss beyond the relative.

Mandala 8/Sukta 59

Indra-Varunau Devate, Suparna Kanka Rshi

1. Imāni vāṁ bhāgaheyāṇi sivrātā indrāvaruṇā pra mahe sutesu vāṁ. Yajñeyajñē ha savanā bhuraṇ-yatho yat sunvate yajamāṇāya śikṣathah.

   Indra and Varuna, power and judgement of divinity, these are your contributions to life which in this grand yajna of human life vibrate in the yajnic projects of life inspired by you: In every yajna of life you energise and shine the holy activities when you bless and inspire the yajamana who creates and contributes to the joy of life.

2. Niṣṣadhvāriṇāśadhirāpa āstām-indrāvaruṇā mahimānam-āśata. Yā sisrātu rajasaḥ pāre adh-

   Indra and Varuna, powers of natural energy and natural selection for evolution and growth, herbs and trees, waters and liquid flows attain efficiency and rise higher in munificence when you cross the paths across the skies, come and vibrate, and there is no defiling power in operation to negate your efficacy.

Indra and Varuna, symbolic powers of love, judgement and social cohesion, true it is that for you the sevenfold voices of the dedicated sage distil the honey sweet vibrations of divine energy in your service and with these you, protectors and promoters of the good and auspiciousness of life, strengthen and advance the generous yajaka who, with sincere thoughts and actions, without fear, serves and augments you with devotion and resolution.

Endowed with gifts of goodness and grace, kind and generous, givers of life energy, seven sisters of yours, five senses, mind and intellect, O Indra and Varuna, loving and judicious divine powers of humanity, in this house of truth and divine law of yajna in human life, are replete with the beauty and splendour of life. With these, pray bring in the knowledge and wisdom of divinity and nature revealed by the sages and enlighten the yajamana.

अवोचाम महत सांस्कृतिक सत्त्वं त्वाष्ट्राभं महिमानमिन्द्रियम ।
अस्मान्त्विन्द्रावरुणा घृटशचुतस्त्रिभि सांस्किर्ततं शुभस्यति ॥ ५ ॥

We speak and celebrate, for the sake of great goodness and prosperity, the truth, grandeur and power, honour and excellence received from the mighty and magnificent Indra and Varuna. O Indra and Varuna, gracious and benevolent protectors of the greatness and goodness of life, protect and promote us by the sevenfold voice of the seven sisters and seven sages at the three levels of body, mind and soul.

इन्द्रावरुणा यदृष्टिभ्यं मनोऽघानो वाचा मृति श्रुतमदत्ताम ।
यानि स्थानान्यस्फुजन्त धीरो युज्यतेन वानास्तर्पसाभ्य-पश्यम ॥ ६ ॥

Indra and Varuna, divine powers of vigour and intelligence, judgement and imagination, what words of knowledge and thoughts of wisdom by virtue of meditation, study and speech you gave to the sages of vision earlier, and what orders of discovery and invention through yajnic extension of research, the patient, persistent sages achieved later, all these, with my austere discipline of study and application, let me see and realise for myself.

इन्द्रावरुणः सामनासमाद्रप्तम् रायसपोसाम् यजमानेशु धत्तम। पुजां पुष्टिः भूतिमस्मासु धत्तं दीघायुवायु प तिरतं न आयुः। ॥ ७ ॥

Indra and Varuna, good disposition, wealth and advancement free from pride, bear and bring to bless the yajamana. Progeny, vigorous health, and prosperity, bring for us, prolong our life for us to enjoy the beauty of living for as long as possible.

Mandala 8/Sukta 60
Agni Devata, Bharga Pragatha Rshi

अग्नि आ याह्यायनिधिः भिहारां त्या वृणीपह।
आ त्वार्मचन्तु पर्यता हृदिष्यती यजिष्ठं बहिरासदे। ॥ १ ॥

Agni, universal fire of life, come with other fires such as the sun. We opt to worship you alone, the cosmic yajamana. The yajaka people holding ladlefuls of havi would honour and celebrate you and seat you on the holy grass.

Agni, creator of energy and power, dear as breath of life omnipresent, the ladles of ghrta feed you well in the holy fire of yajna. We honour and adore the divine fire, prime power, infallible product of cosmic energy and rising in flames in yajnas.

3. Agne kavirvedhā asi hotā pāvaka yakṣyaḥ. mandro yajiṣṭho adhvaresvīḍyo viprebhiḥ śukra manmabhiḥ.

Agni is the poet of the cosmos which is his poem. He is maker and disposer of the universe, chief performer of cosmic yajna, purifier and sanctifier of the polluted, loving and adorable. O lord of power and purity, you are blissful, most honourable and companionable, adored by sages in yajnas with hymns of love and worship.

Most youthful Agni, eternal power and presence, bring the loving and generous divinities to receive the homage and bless the innocent and guileless yajaka. O lord of the world’s wealth, haven and home of all, accept the most cherished offerings and, adored with our sincere thoughts and acts of yajna, rejoice yourself.

5. Tvamit saprathā asyagne trātar-rtaskaviḥ. Tvāṁ viprāsah samidhāna didiva ā vivāsanti vedhasah.

Agni, you are infinitely expansive, boundless, all saviour, eternally right poet of cosmic rectitude, omniscient creator. Self-refulgent ever, light of the universe, the wise sages and masters of law and right action glorify you as the lord supreme.

Lord most pure and refulgent, rise and shine and enlighten the world. Bless the people and the celebrants with peace and goodness. You are great and glorious. May our wise and brilliant leaders enjoy the goodwill of the divinities, be keepers of the holy fire and controllers of hate and enmities.
7. Yathā cid vṛddham-atasm-agne samījūrvasi kṣami.
   Evā daha mitramaho yo asmadhrug durmanmā kaśca venati.

   Agni, just as you burn to dust the withered wood on the earth, so, O greatest friend, pray burn him to naught whoever hates us and thinks ill of us.

   Throw us not to the mortal who is an enemy, demoniac and a sinner. O lord most youthful, keep us and protect us with the non-violent, the saviours, good and peaceful, protectors of the good.

   Agni, save us by the first voice, and by the second, by three voices, and, O lord of cosmic power, ultimate haven and home of existence, save us by the four.

7. Yathā cid vaḍḍham-ātasm-āgni sañjñurvasi kañmi. Evā daha mitramaho yo asmadhrug durmanmā kañca venati. Agni, just as you burn to dust the withered wood on the earth, so, O greatest friend, pray burn him to naught whoever hates us and thinks ill of us.

8. Mā no mātrāya ripave rakṣasvine māghasya riradhābhis-taraṁyaviṁhyā yivebhiṁ pāhi pāyubhiṁ. Throw us not to the mortal who is an enemy, demoniac and a sinner. O lord most youthful, keep us and protect us with the non-violent, the saviours, good and peaceful, protectors of the good.

9. Pāhi no agna ekayā pāhyuta dvitīyayā. Pāhi gṛbhis-tis trochę pate pāhi catas্bhir-vaso. Agni, save us by the first voice, and by the second, by three voices, and, O lord of cosmic power, ultimate haven and home of existence, save us by the four.

(This is a very simple and yet a most comprehensive verse. The first voice could be the voice of average humanity; second, words of the sages; third, voice of the soul; fourth, the voice of divinity. Another way to understand: One, two, three or all the four Vedas' voice. Yet another: voice of the soul in the rising sequence of the four mantras of Aum as described in the Upanishads. And then the four stages of language in the descending order from divine to the human: Para, Pashyanti, Madhyama and Vaikhari)

Save us from all evils of the world, from all selfish grabbers. Protect us in our struggles and lead us to victory. We approach you and pray to you, closest to us, our own, for the success of our divine yajna and rising advancement in life.

11. Ā no agne vayovṛdham radio pāvaka saṁsyam. Rāsvā ca na upamāte purusprāham sunīṭī svaya-saṣṭaram.

Agni, saviour and purifier of life, closest and friendly, give us wealth which is admirable and leads to progress in food, health and age and cattle wealth. Give us the way of life leading to universally loved wealth, honour and excellence, renowned and rising.

12. Yathā vāṃśaṃ pūrṇānuṣu śaṅkṣaṣṭrānta uya ānādirā. S tva naḥ vṛdh paraṁśa śaṅkṣiccā jayā Śāṣṭraṃ vasyāṃdirā.

Give us the wealth of competence by which, rising in strength and power, moving forward, countering opposite intentions, designs and plans, we may defeat our enemies in the battles of life. O lord of knowledge, power and action, help us advance with food and sustenance, inspire and enlighten our vision and intelligence in action so that we may rise to be masters of wealth, honour and excellence.

13. Śiśāno vrṣabho yathāgniḥ śṛṅge davidhvat. Tigmā asya hanavo na pratidhṛśe sujambhaḥ sahaso yahuḥ.

Just as a bull whets and brandishes his horns against his rival, so does Agni shake his opponents. Fiery is his visor, strong his jaws, mighty his courage, he is invincible, uncounterable, irresistible.

नहि तं अग्र वृषभ पतिध्रुप जम्भाःसा यहर्विषेष।

Agni when you rise and expand no one can brave your flaming jaws. Pray accept our homage and make it fruitful. Give us ample wealth of our choice and desire.
Yena vaṣṇa pṛthuśram ādityaṁ. Sa tvā no vardha prayāsa ādi devaṁ rājasī।
Give us the wealth of competence by which, rising in strength and power, moving forward, countering opposite intentions, designs and plans, we may defeat our enemies in the battles of life. O lord of knowledge, power and action, help us advance with food and sustenance, inspire and enlighten our vision and intelligence so that we may rise to be masters of wealth, honour and excellence。

Śeṣe vaneṣu mātroḥ sam tvā martāsa indhate. Atyāntrapī havyā vahasi haviṣkṛta ādīd deveṣu rājasī।
You pervade in the forests and in the earth upto heaven. The mortals light and raise you holily, and, without sloth or delay, you carry the sacred offerings of the devoted celebrants to the divinities over earth and heaven and shine among them.

Śam haṁtrārāṣṭṁādīṇāṁ tvaḥ śaṁ tvā susūyāmḥayam।

Agni when you rise and expand no one can brave your flaming jaws. Pray accept our homage and make it fruitful. Give us ample wealth of our choice and desire.

Sapta hotāras-tamidīlata tvā’gmne sutyājamahraṇam. Bhinatsyaadrim tapasā vi śociśā prāgne tiṣṭha janān ati।
Agni, seven yajakas adore and serve you, all giver, imperishable and eternal. You cleave the mountains and expand and evaporate the clouds with your heat and flames of fire. Pray, Agni, stay among the people at the closest and rise high.

Mandala 8/Sukta 61

Indra Devata, Bharga Pragatha Rshi

उभयं शृणवैच्च न इन्द्रं अवागिदं वर्चः ।
सृत्राच्यं मृधवां सांमपीत्य धियां शार्विष आ गमत ॥ १ ॥

May Indra, lord omnipotent, master of the world’s wealth and power, directly listen to our joint prayer for worldly and spiritual advancement with attentive ear and sympathetic understanding, and may the lord of supreme power come to protect and promote our yajnic programme and prayer and taste the pleasure of success.

तं हि स्वराजं वृषभं तमाजैस धिषणं निष्ट्वत गर्तुः ।
उतापमानां पश्चां नि षीदसि सांमकांसं हि त नरः ॥ २ ॥

2. Taṁ hi svarājam vrṣabhāṁ tamojase dhiṣaṇe niṣṭatakasatuḥ. Utopamānāṁ prathamo ni śidasi somakāmaṁ hi te manah.

That self-rulled, self-refulgent, brave and generous human character and programme, that human republic, the heaven and earth vested with divine will and intelligence conceive, create and fashion forth for self-realisation of innate glory. O man, among similars and comparables, you stand the first and highest, and your mind is dedicated to the love of soma, peace, pleasure and excellence of life.

3. Ā vrṣasva purūvaso sutasyendrāndhasah. Vidmā hi tvā harivāḥ pṛtsu sāsahimadhrṣṭaṁ cid dadhr-śvaṁ.

Indra, lord of universal wealth, honour and excellence, haven and home of all life in existence, give us showers of the purest distilled soma, food for health and divine joy. O lord of the dynamics of existence, we know you, fearless and unconquerable hero in battles.

Indra, lord of might and majesty, unchangeable truth itself, imperishable, as you wish by holy thought and will, so does everything happen. Pray bless us to win the victory in our battles for life, O lord of splendid vizor, under your protection without delay while we move on, O lord of clouds and mountains.
generous human character and programme, that human republic, the heaven and earth vested with divine will and intelligence conceive, create and fashion forth for self-realisation of innate glory. O man, among similars and comparables, you stand the first and highest, and your mind is dedicated to the love of soma, peace, pleasure and excellence of life.

Indra, lord of omnipotent action and infinitely various victories, with all powers, protections and inspirations, strengthen and energise us for excellent works without delay. As the very honour, splendour and treasure-home of the universe, O potent and heroic lord, we live in pursuit of your glory to justify our existence and win our destiny.

You are the sole One omnipresent citizen of the universe, creator of all lands, cows, lights and knowledges of the world, maker of the motions, ambitions, advancements and achievements of nature and humanity, fountain head of universal joy, and golden refulgent generous lord supreme. No one can ever impair or obstruct your gifts to humanity. O lord, I pray, bring us whatever we ask for.
Come to give gifts of wealth and honour to the devotee so that the people may be happy and prosperous. O lord of honour and majesty, Indra, bring us showers of the wealth of cows, lands, knowledge and culture for the seekers of light, and horses, advancement and achievement for the seekers of progress.

8. Tvaṁ purū sahasrāṇi śatāni ca yūthā dānāya maṁhase. Ā purandaraṁ cakṛma vipravacasa indraṁ gāyanto'vase.

Indra, you command and grant many hundreds and thousands of heaps of wealth for gift to the devotees, and as many troops of soldiers for defence and protection. We, poets of holy words of adoration, do service to Indra, breaker of the strongholds of darkness and sing in praise of him and exhort him for the sake of protection and patronage.

Indra, lord of infinite holy acts of kindness, commanding irresistible adour and passion, whether one is a sagely scholar or a simple unlettered person, whoever offers words of praise and prayer to you is blest with divine joy by your grace, O lord of the name “I AM”.
Come to give gifts of wealth and honour to the devotee so that the people may be happy and prosperous.

O lord of honour and majesty, Indra, bring us showers of the wealth of cows, lands, knowledge and culture for the seekers of light, and horses, advancement and achievement for the seekers of progress.

If the lord of mightiest arms, breaker of evil strongholds, divine destroyer, would listen to my invocation and prayer, we, seekers of wealth, honour and excellence in life, would adore and exalt Indra, protector and giver of wealth and supreme lord of infinite divine acts of grace, hymns of praise in his honour.

We are neither sinners nor uncharitable nor non-yajakas as we honour and adore Indra, generous lord of showers of grace, and win his favour as a friend in our holy acts of creation and yajna.

The blazing vibrant lord of existence, we join in the battles of life from strife upto communion, the power and presence most bold and courageous, indomitable, to whom we owe the debt of allegiance. Whoever approaches him thus as the ever moving spirit at the closest as a friend, munificent giver, sole controller of the chariot of life and the universe, the ultimate warrior and conqueror, realises him, joins him, becomes identified with him as the self itself.

13. Yata indra bhayāmahe tato no abhayaṁ kṛdhi.

Maghavaṁ-chagdhi tava tanna ūtibhir-vi dviṣo vi mṛdho jahi.

Indra, lord indomitable, whoever, whatever and wherever we fear, make us fearless from that. O lord of might and world power, pray strengthen us with your powers and protections of the highest order. Eliminate the jealous, the malignant, the disdainers and contemners.

Taṁ tvā vayāṁ maghavann-indra girvaṇaḥ sutāvanto havāmahe.

Indra, lord of the world’s wealth, munificence and achievement, you alone are the protector, and promoter of the wealth, grandeur, home and honour of the supplicant worshipper. O lord of all power and honour, adored and worshipped in hymns of glory, we invoke, invite and exalt you for the munificence and grandeur of life you grant, protect and advance.

15. Indraḥ spaṭuta vrtrahā paraspā no vareṇyāḥ. Sa no rakṣiṣaḥc-caramām sa madhyamām sa paścāṭ pātu naḥ purāḥ.

Indra is all cognizant, destroyer of evil and universal protector, and him alone we ought to choose for worship and prayer. May he protect us all, the highest, the middling and the lowest, and may he protect us at the far back and the farthest coming up front.

Indra, pray you protect us back and front, up and down, all round. Remove from us all fear of the divinities, all dangers and strikes from the evil forces.

17. Adyādyā śvah śva indra trāśva pare ca naḥ. Viśvā ca no jaritṛnt-satpate ahā divā naktam ca rakṣiṣaḥ.

Day by day every today, day by day every tomorrow and beyond, lord saviour and protector of the good and true, Indra, save and protect us, your celebrants and supplicants, all days, day and night.
18. Prabhaṅgi śūro maghavā tuvāmaghaḥ samāmiślo vīryāya kam. Ubhā te bāhū vr̥ṣanā satakrato ni yā vajramaḥ mimikṣatuḥ.

A crushing warrior, commanding magnificence, power and universal riches, self-sufficient, virile, joiner of all with karmic destiny, O lord of infinite good actions, both your arms are abundantly generous and hold the thunderbolt of justice, reward and punishment both as deserved.

Mandala 8/Sukta 62

Indra Devata, Pragatha Ghaura Kanva Rshi

O celebrants, sing aloud and send up your prayers to Indra who listens and loves them. The soma yajis with songs of praise exalt the great glory and magnificence of Indra. Great and good are the gifts of Indra.

The lord of immense generosity pervades and rules the world moving on with its own innate law without external imposition. O lord, that divine omnipotence of yours and mighty acts of virile divinity are admirable. Great and good are the gifts of the lord’s charity.
Sole and self-sufficient, unequal, one supreme among humanity, beyond the power of mortals, he excels and transcends all those born ever before or at present or to be born in future, by virtue of his lustre and magnanimity. Great are the powers and gifts of Indra’s generosity.

अहितेनं चित्रदर्शं जीर्दानां: सिषास्तिः पवाच्यमिन्दु तत्तत्वं वीराणि करिष्यता भूदा इन्दरस्य रूत्ययः ॥ ३ ॥

The lord of immense generosity pervades and rules the world moving on with its own innate law without external imposition. O lord, that divine omnipotence of yours and mighty acts of virile divinity are admirable. Great and good are the gifts of the lord’s charity.

आ याहि कृणावौम तं इन्द्रं बह्वाणि वध्राणा। यथिः: शविष चाकनां: भद्रमहः श्रवस्यत भूदा इन्दरस्य रूत्ययः ॥ ४ ॥

4. Ā yāhi kṛṇavāma ta indra brahmāṇi vardhanā. Yebhiḥ śaviṣṭha cākano bhadramiha śravasyate bhadrā indrasya rātayaḥ.

Come Indra, here we sing exalting hymns in your honour by which, O lord most powerful, you would love to do immense good for the celebrant. Great and gracious are the charities of Indra.

ध्रूषतश्चित्त ध्रूषन्नम: कृणार्धीन्द्र यथ्चम। तीव्रसामान्द्र सप्तयता नमाभिः पतिभूष्यता भूदा इन्दरस्य रूत्ययः ॥ ५ ॥

As you raise the man of courage at heart to a bolder and more courageous hero, men with homage and potent soma oblations serve and glorify you. Great and glorious are the charities of Indra.

The lord lover of Rks and soma yajna looks below with love at the yajakas like a thirsty man looking anxiously at the water below in the well and, happy with the noble expert soma yaji, he accepts him as friend and companion. Great and good are the gifts of Indra.

Indra, universally celebrated and exalted, ruler and protector of the worlds of the universe, all divinities of nature and humanity in obedience and pursuit of your divine acts bear your generous strength and vitality. Great and good are the gifts of Indra.
8.
\textit{Gṛne tadin\textit{dra} te śava upamaṁ deva\textit{tā}taya.}
\textit{Yaddhay\textit{si} vṛtramojasā śacīpate bhadrā indrasya rātayaḥ.}

In praise of that admirable power and grandeur of yours, Indra, I sing for the pleasure of divine favour, by which, O lord of mighty noble acts, you destroy the demon of darkness and want by your force and splendour. Great and good are the gifts of Indra.

9.
\textit{Vide tadin\textit{dra}ś-cetanam-adhā śruta bhadrā indrasya rātayaḥ.}

Like men united in assembly or forces united in battle, he joins people into assemblies and communities unto himself. That knowledge of art, Indra knows, and for that he is renowned and celebrated. Great and good are the gifts of Indra.

10.
\textit{Bhūriga bhūri vāvṛdhur-maghavan tava śarmanī bhadrā indrasya rātayaḥ.}

Indra, lord of great wealth and knowledge, honour and excellence, the celebrants repeatedly sing and exalt your glory manifested around, they celebrate you and your holy work under the umbrella of your protection. Great and good are the gifts of Indra.
11. Ahaṁ ca tvaṁ ca vṛtrahant-saṁ yujyāva sanibhya ā. Arāṭīvā cidadrivo’nu nau śūra maṁsate bhadrā indrasya rātayah.

Let us both, I and you, destroyer of want and evil, join for the attainment of wealth and fulfilment. O lord of might, controller of clouds and breaker of mountains, even the malignant and niggardly would agree to our cooperation. Great and glorious are the gifts of Indra.

Let us all worship Indra and adore only truth, never untruth. There is the terrible thunderbolt for the impious uncreators, and profuse lights and showers of bliss for the creators of soma, divine joy and fulfilment for life. Great and gracious are the gifts of Indra.

Mandala 8/Sukta 63

Indra (1-11), Devah Devatah, Pragatha Kanva Rshi
He, eternal spirit of the universe, love and desire and indeed the ideal of the great among humanity, is realised through holy acts of prayer and yajna, by the doors of whose grace the thinking man, fatherly man sustainer of life, attains noble knowledge and competence for action among the divinities of nature and humanity.

2. Divo mānāṁ notsadant-somapṛṣṭhāso adrayaḥ.

*Lokāya vahṛ cha śāntyā

The mountains overgrown with soma do not forsake the spirit and presence of divinity since it is manifested there. Hence hymns of praise and songs of adoration ought to be sung in honour of divinity.

3. Sa vidvāṁ aṅgirabhya indro gā avṛṇodapa.

Stuṣe tadasya pauṁsyam.

That omniscient and omnipresent Indra brought the earths and stars into existence for the living and breathing forms of being. Therefore I sing and celebrate his divine power and love.

4. Sa pratnathā kavivṛdhā indro vākasya vakṣaṇāḥ.

Śivo arkasya homanyasmatra gantvavase.

He, Indra, as ever before, strengthens the poets and promotes and extends the divine speech. May the lord of peace and bliss, we pray, come and join our yajna of worship.

5. Ādū nu te anu kratum śvāhā varasya yajyavaḥ. Śvātramarkā anūṣatendra gotrasya dāvane.

   And then they, the yajakas, in pursuance of the holy act of chosen yajna offer oblations in truth of word and deed, and the singers immediately start the song of adoration in honour of Indra for the gift of wealth and joy.

   In Indra abide all the great works done and to be done, and the pious sages know him as loving and, non-violent worthy of worship.

7. Yat pāñcajanyayā viśendre ghoṣā asṛkṣata. Aṣṭrṇād barhaṇā vipo ’ryo māṇasya sa kṣayarḥ.

   When the universal community of five classes of people join together and raise their voices of prayer to Indra, then with his might he wards off their enemies and misfortunes. That same lord of the people, omniscient and master is the centre of my worship too.

8. Iyamu te anuṣṭutiś-cakrṣe tāni paumṣyā.
   Prāvaś-cakrasya vartanim.

   Indra, lord of glory, this song of worship is for you. You alone do all those admirable grand works of valour I praise and you alone protect and direct the orbits of the moving universe.

   Yavaṁ na paśva ā dade.

   On receiving the variety and versatility of food, energy and inspiration from this generous and virile Indra, life rises and springs forward for the joy of living as an animal gets the grass for food and energy and plays around.

10. Taddadhānā avasyavo yuṣmābhirdakṣapitaraḥ.
    Syāma marutvato vṛdhе.

   Bearing that energy in body and that divine source of energy in mind, let us all, seekers of protection and promotion, be masters of strength and expertise and try to be commanders of that energy and ambition to achieve higher progress in corporate life.

O mighty lord of energy, ambition and victory, with resounding hymns of joy in homage we bow to you, treasure home of life and progress, creator and promoter of strength and energy through seasonal yajnas, and we pray that joined to you in body and mind we may win in our struggles for life and living.

Indra, lord ruler of power and progress, for us, in our fight against suffering, may the Rudras, powers of justice and desperation, mighty generous clouds of shower, mountains and great men, all loving and cooperative, indeed whoever fast and strong may hasten and advance for the celebrant and worshipper, all the wisest and seniormost brilliant powers of generosity in nature and humanity, come and help us in our struggle for the conquest of darkness, want, evil and ignorance prevailing in society.
Mandala 8/Sukta 64

Indra Devata, Pragatha Kanva Rshi

1. Ut tvā mandantu stomāḥ kṛṣṇuṣva rādho adrivah. Ava brahmadvīṣo jahi.

Indra, lord almighty, commander, controller and inspirer of clouds, mountains and great men of generosity, may our hymns of adoration win your pleasure. Pray create and provide means and methods of sustenance and progress in life, and cast off jealousies and enmities against divinity, knowledge and prayer, our bond between human and divine.

Keep off under foot the haves who hoard and share not. You are great, simply great, the only one. There is none equal, alike or more.

You rule over the creative and cooperative men of positive action. You rule over the uncreative and destructive men of negative action as well. Indra, you are the ruler, the ultimate ordainer of good and evil both.

Obhe pṛṇāsi rādasī.

Your presence abides in the regions of light and heaven, in the minds of the enlightened and the divines. Arise, O divine presence, to heaven and come again. Let the presence resound among humanity. Your presence fills and fulfils both earth and heaven with the light and joy of divinity.

5. Tyaṁ cit parvataṁ girīṁ śatavantaṁ sahasriṇam.
Vi stotṛbhyaṁ rurojitha.

You break and break open the cloud and the mountain bearing a hundred and a thousand gifts for the divine singers, celebrants and dedicated yajakas.

Asmākaṁ kāmamā pṛṇa.

We singers, celebrants and yajakas, invoke and invite you in our soma yajna in the day and in the night and pray fulfil our prayer and desire for humanity and divinity.
7. Kva sya vṛṣabho yuvā tuvigrīvo anānataḥ.
Brahmā kastam saparyati.

Where does the generous lord of showers, ever youthful and eternal, of broad shoulders unbent, reside? Which sage and scholar can ever comprehend and serve him in full knowledge and competence?

8. Kasya svit savanam vṛṣā jujuśvān ava gacchati.
Indraṁ ka u svidā cake.

Whose yajna does the generous and virile Indra visit and bless out of love and kindness? And who really knows Indra, in all fairness?

Ukthe ka u svidantamaḥ.

O destroyer of darkness and evil, whom do your gifts of generosity reach? And whom do your strength and energies reach? In the chant of hymns and in yajna, who is your closest friendliest devotee?

10. Ayaṁ te mānuṣe jane somaḥ pūruṣu sūyate.
Tasyehi pra dravā pība.
Indra, this soma yajna is performed and soma is distilled in your honour in the human communities all over the world. Lord, come fast, drink, protect and promote the soma.

In this mortal body, in this vibrant intellect, in these fresh and harmonious senses and mind, this lovely and most exhilarating yajna is being performed.

To that soma yajna being performed for gifts of great wealth and power, excitement and joy, and the destruction of negativities, pray come fast and drink the soma of love, faith and homage.

Mandala 8/Sukta 65

Indra Devata, Pragatha Kanva Rshi

Indra, lord of universal power and energy, when you are invoked and invited east, west, north and south, front or back, up or down, by people performing yajna, then come fast by the fastest modes you command.

2. Yadvā prasravaṇe divo mādayāse svarṇare.
    Yadvā samudre andhasaḥ.

   Whether in the heavenly radiations and cascades of light or in the middle regions of the sky or on the earthly regions of food and soma, wherever you rejoice and rain down showers of joy:

3. Ā tvā gīrbhir-mahām-urūṁ huve gāmiva bhojase.
    Indra somasya pītaye.

   Indra, I invoke you, glorious lord immanent in the vast world, to come and protect the beauty and joy of your creation and taste the soma of its grandeur, as I would call the cow to its favourite love of food.

4. Ā ta indra mahimānam harayo deva te mahaḥ.
    Rathe vahantu bibhrataḥ.

   Indra, refulgent lord, may your radiating forces of transport and communication bear and bring you here to us with your grandeur and your majesty in the chariot.
5. Indra grṇiśa u stuše mahāṇ ugra iśānakṛt.
Ehi naḥ sutam piba.

Indra, great, blazing brave, ruler and glorifier of rulers, I adore and exalt you. Pray come, drink the soma of our achievement and protect and promote the world of your creation.

6. Sutāvantastvā vayaṁ prayasvanto havāmahe.
Idam no barhirāsade.

Dedicated to noble acts of yajna and soma creation, bearing havi for yajna and food for yajnic charity, we invoke and invite you to come and be seated on the holy seats of our vedi and bless our heart and soul.

7. Yacciddhi śaśvatāmasīndra sādhāraṇas-tvam.
Tāṁ tvā vayaṁ havāmahe.

As you bear and sustain the common generality of people since time immortal and the people bear common allegiance to you, we invoke and adore you in all our holy projects of common universal value.

8. Idam te somyaṁ madhvadhukṣann-adribhir-naraḥ.
Juṣāṇa indra tat piba.
People have pressed and extracted this honey sweet of soma with stone presses for you. Happy with cherished soma in expectation, pray come and drink that soma of our achievement and divine adoration.

\[ \text{विश्वाँ अर्या \ विपश्चिताचति \ ख्यसूयमा \ गग्नि} \]
\[ \text{अस्म \ दधिः श्रवं बृहत} \]

9. \[ \text{Viśvān aryo vipaścito’ti khyas-tūyamā gahi.} \]
\[ \text{Asme dhehi śravo brhat.} \]

Indra, you are the ruler and controller of the world. Pray come soon and watch all the exceptional sages and scholars of the world, and bring us food, energy, honour and fame of universal value.

\[ \text{दाता म पृथ्वीनां राजा हिरण्यवीनाम} \]
\[ \text{मा दंवा मुघवा रिषत} \]

10. \[ \text{Dātā me prṣaṭīnāṁ rājā hiraṇyavīnām.} \]
\[ \text{Mā devā maghavā riṣat.} \]

Indra is the giver of golden gifts of lands and cows and he is the ruler and controller of the golden gifts of divinity. O divinities of heaven and earth, may Indra never be neglected, and may Indra never neglect and hurt us.

\[ \text{सहस्र पृथ्वीनामाधिर्न श्रचन्द्रं बृहत्पृथ्व} \]
\[ \text{शुक्रं हिरण्यमा दंद} \]

11. \[ \text{Sahasre prṣaṭīnāṁ-adhiścandram brhat prthu.} \]
\[ \text{Śukram hiraṇyamā dade.} \]

Besides thousands and more golden gifts of lands and cows, I have received beautiful, great and abundant pure gifts of gold from Indra, ruler of the earth.

नर्यांता दुःगहस्य म सुहस्त्रण सुराध्यसः।
श्रवणा दुवष्ट्यकत ॥ १२ ॥

12. Napāto durgahasya me sahasreṇa surādhasaḥ. Śravo deveṣvakraṭa.

My honour and renown, unfallen, unmatched and blest as I am with a thousandfold gifts of divine munificence, may, I pray, reach and abide with the divinities.

Mandala 8/Sukta 66

Indra Devata, Kali Pragatha Rshi

तराभिवा विदद्धसुमिन्दं सुवाधः उत्तयः।
बृहद्गैयान्तः सुतसाम्भ अध्वर हुव भरेन न कृपिणम् ॥ १ ॥

In the yajna of love and non-violence where everything is perfect and soma is distilled, I invoke Indra like Abundance itself, giver of wealth, honour and fulfilment. Singing songs of adoration with energy and enthusiasm for your protection and progress, O devotees, celebrate Indra who brings wealth, honour and excellence at the earliest by fastest means.

न यं दुधा वर्तन्त्व न सिद्ध्रा मुरा मद्द सुशिपमन्ध्यसः।
य आद्र्याः श्रामानायं सुनवत दाताः जरित्व उवथ्यम् ॥ २ ॥

2. Na yam dudhrā varante na sthirā muro made suśipram-andhasaḥ. Ya ādṛtyā śaśamānāya sunvate dātā jaritra ukthyam.
Indra whom none can stop in his state of ecstasy and abundant charity, neither the impetuous, nor the constant, nor demon nor mortal, Indra who is the giver of cherished wealth and joy to the celebrant, the creator of soma and the zealous worshipper with deep reverence and homage.

3. Yañ sakro mrkśo aśvyo yo vā kījo hiraṇyayah. Sa āuryasya rejatyavṛtim-indro gavyasya vṛtrahā.

Indra who is mighty of action, pure and purifying, great achiever, and wondrous rich in wealth and golden grace, who shakes off the erosion of land fertility and cattle wealth and augments produce and prosperity, destroyer of want, ignorance and evil as he is.

4. Nikhātaṁ cidyāḥ purusāṁbhṛtaṁ vasūdidvapatī dāśuṣe. Vajrī suśipro haryaśva it karadindrāḥ kratvā yathā vaṣat.

Indra who for the generous giver digs out and opens up abundant wealth deep buried, hidden and held in the earth, wields the thunderbolt of justice and award, and wears a golden vizor, commanding tempestuous forces, thus by his noble yajnic actions, does for us what he thinks right and pleases to do.

5. Yadramāṇy-puṣṭat porna chinḍhūr nūṇām. Vayant tvat evaṁ saṁ bherāmasī yugmukynta tūrṇe vṛcch.

   Indra, lord omnipotent universally adored and exalted, as you wish and want of humanity at the earliest in the beginning of creation, that we honour, abide and do without doubt or delay, the yajna, songs of adoration, word and worship all.

6. Sacā someṣu puruhūta vajrivo madāya dyuṣkṣa somapāḥ. Tvamiddhi brahmakṛte kāmyam vasu deṣṭhaḥ sunvate bhuvaḥ.

   Lord all-invoked and adored, wielder and commander of thunder, clouds and mountains, light of life in heaven and on earth, connoisseur, protector and promoter of the soma joy of humanity, join and be with us in our yajnic creations of soma joy in action.

   Here today as before we have regaled this lord of the thunderbolt. For him, again, now, all of one mind, bear and bring the distilled soma of homage, and worship him who would, for certain for joy of the song, grace the celebrants.
5. Yadvantha puruṣuta puruṣa cicchām. Vayaṁ tat ta indra saṁ bharatasi yajūm-ukthaṁ turaṁ vacaṅ. Indra, lord omnipotent universally adored and exalted, as you wish and want of humanity at the earliest in the beginning of creation, that we honour, abide and do without doubt or delay, the yajna, songs of adoration, word and worship all.

6. Sac someu puruṣuta vajriva madru dyukha somapuṣ. Tvamiddhi brahmakaṁ yām vasu dehaṁ sunvate bhuvaṁ. Lord all-invoked and adored, wielder and commander of thunder, clouds and mountains, light of life in heaven and on earth, connoisseur, protector and promoter of the soma joy of humanity, join and be with us in our yajnic creations of soma joy in action.

8. Vṛkaścidasya vāraṇa urāmathirā vayunēsu bhūṣati. Semam naḥ stomam jujūśaṇa ā gahīnda pra citrayā dhiyā. The wolf, its counterforce elephant, and the thief all have to accept and follow the laws of this lord Indra. May he, loving and cherishing this our song of adoration, listen and come with gifts of clear and un-illusive intelligence and understanding.

9. Kadū ṭvā śyaśakūṭumāndrasyaśāstī pṛṣyam. Kena nu kaṁ śromatena na śuśruve januṣaḥ pari vṛtraḥ. What wonder work is that which is not the achievement of Indra’s valour? By which person hasn’t his glory been perceived through his wonder deeds? He is the destroyer of evil and darkness by his very nature.

10. Kadū mahīradhrṣṭa asya taviṣīḥ kadu vṛtraghno astraṁ. Indro viśvān bekanātiṁ ahardṛśa uta kratvā paṇīṅrabhi. How great and irresistible are his blazing powers! How great and invincible is he, the destroyer of evil and darkness! To the usurers and the exploiters who count only their days tally he shows the light only for the day according to their action, not beyond.

11. \(\text{Vayaṁ ghā te apūrvvyendra brahmāṇi vrtrahan.}\)
\(\text{Pūrūtamaśaḥ puruhūta vajrivo bhṛtim na pra bharāmasi.}\)

Indra, destroyer of evil and darkness within and without in the outer world, universally adored, wielder of the thunderbolt, we, all together, old and young, offer you in faith new and ever fresh songs of adoration and exaltation as daily obligation in return as thanks for your favours.

12. \(\text{Pūrvīściddhi tve tuvikūrminnāśaso havanta indrotayaḥ. Tiraścidaryāḥ savanā vaso gahi śaviṣṭha śrudhi me havam.}\)

Indra, lord of infinite acts, shelter home of the universe, highest and omnipotent, all hopes of humanity, all protections and progress for them, past, present and future, rest in you and emanate from you. Hence all people invoke you and call on you for help. O master protector, listen to my call and come like radiations of light to our yajnas of divine adoration and soma creation.

13. \(\text{Vayaṁ ghā tva Ṛva Ṛiva apībhavīḥ vādhiḥ ॥ ॥}\)
\(\text{Nahi tvadanyāḥ puruhūta kaścchān mṛtyuṁ āṣṭiḥ maṁhitāḥ ॥ ॥}\)

Indra, we are yours. Sages and celebrants, we all abide in you. There is none whatever other than you, lord of power, honour and world’s wealth, universally invoked and adored, who is kind and gracious as you.

12. Purvañ ciddhi tve tuvikūrmināh ahamatra samta udbhāva avaita avastre nāmāh śrīśā śaśīṣhā gātūvita. Indra, lord of infinite acts, shelter home of the universe, highest and omnipotent, all hopes of humanity, all protections and progress for them, past, present and future, rest in you and emanate from you. Hence all people invoke you and call on you for help. O master protector, listen to my call and come like radiations of light to our yajnas of divine adoration and soma creation.

O lord, pray you save us from this ignorance, hunger and want, and imprecation and calumny. You give us protection, enlighten us with your unique wisdom and understanding. O most potent master of the knowledge of the laws and paths of life, guide us on the paths of the world.

O budding scholars and sages, let the soma of hope and joy be distilled and poured for you. Fear not. This terror and destruction is going away. Self-destroyed, it is going away, vanishing of itself.
Mandala 8/Sukta 67

Adityah Devatah, Matsya Sammada, or Manya Maitravaruni, or various Matsya Jalanaddhah Rshis

1. Tyān nu kṣatriyāṁ ava ādityāṁ yāciṣāmahe.
   Sumrīkāṁ abhiṣṭaye.

   For the sake of protection and to achieve our cherished objects, we call upon the Kshatriyas, warriors of the nation, bright as children of light and firm as children of Infinity, providers of peace, happiness and security.

2. Mitro no atyaṁhatiṁ varuṇah parśadaryamā. Ādityāso yathā viduḥ.

   To the best of their knowledge and intention, power and purpose, may Mitra, teachers and preachers, intellectuals and researchers, universal friends of humanity, Varuna, chosen representatives, governors and administrators, and Aryama, leaders of law, guides of the nation, Adityas all, children of light and givers of enlightenment, protect, promote and defend us against violence, injustice and ignorance and cleanse us of sin and crime.
3. \( Teṣāṁ hi citramukhyam varūthamasti dāṣuṣe. \)
\( Ādityānām-aramkṛte. \)
Ample means and materials, wonderful, various and admirable, vest in the brilliant Adityas, enlightened powers of governance and administration, for the people of generosity, and beauty, decency and grace.

4. \( Mahi vo mahatāmavo varuṇa mitrāryaman. \)
\( Avāṃsyā vrṇīmahe. \)
O great Varuna, Mitra and Aryama, great are your powers of protection and defence. We choose to ask and do ask for protection and defence by you.

5. \( Jīvān no abhi dhetanā’’dityāsah purā hathāt. \)
\( Kaddha stha havanaśrutaḥ. \)
Wherever you are or happen to be stationed, pray listen to our call and rush in for our life and protection before the strike of violence and possibly death and destruction.

6. \( Yadvaḥ śrāntāya sunvate varūthamasti yaccha- \)
\( rdiḥ. Tenā no adhi vocata. \)
Whatever be your defence, protection and relief for the worker, producer or creator of soma while he works to the point of weariness, exhaustion and retirement, for that plead for us and get us the relief needed, deserved and allowed.

7. Asti devā anihorurvasti ratnamanāgasah. Ādityā adbhutainasaḥ.

Adityas, children of light, rulers and administrators, generous and unpolluted by corruption, the relief for the distressed is ample freedom from distress, and the reward for the sinless is jewel graces of life.

8. Mā naḥ setuḥ siśedayāṁ mahe vṛṇaktu naspari. Indra iddhi śruto vaśī.

Let this bond of sin and crime never fetter us. Let it fall off far from us so that we may be free to do great. The renowned Indra, lord supreme, is the master controller and dispenser of reward and punishment.

O protectors and defenders of the people, brilliant and generous rulers, let not the violence and calumny of crooked enemies ever smear and injure us.
Pray cover us all round with safety and security.

अ तः त्यामिदम महानं दुःखुपयं बुधः।
सुमृढीकामभिध्यं।।

Sumṛṭikām-abhiṣṭaye.

And O great, brilliant and sovereign assembly of the nation, generous and gracious power, conscientiously I speak to you, pray save us from harm and injury, help us achieve our heart’s desire and cherished objectives.

परिः दीन गंभीर आँ उग्नपुत्र जिंगांसतः।
माक्रिस्ताकस्य ना रिषत्।।

11. Parṣi dīne gabhīra āṁ ugraputre jighāmsataḥ.
Mākistokasya no riṣat.

Aditi, mother of brave and blazing Adityas, pray anoint us, make us immune and help us cross the seas of violence both deep and shallow, let no enemy, violence or disease harm and injure our coming generations.

अनुहा ने उसवजं उस्लंचिं वि पर्संतव।
कृृधि ताकायं जीवसं।।

Kṛdhi tokāya jīvase.

Sacred and sovereign mother of vast extensive powers, save us from sin and violence to range over the earth and strengthen us that not only we but also our coming generations may live happy and free.
13. \( Ye \ mūrdhānāḥ \ kṣītinām-adabdhasaḥ \ svayaśasaḥ. \) Vratā rakṣante adruhaḥ.

Those who are on top of the average people, active, bold, unbending, and gifted with innate honour and reputation in law and personal values of virtue, free from jealousy and enmity, they maintain, uphold and protect the laws, values and commitments of the land. (They are the chosen children of mother earth, Adityas, worthy of being members of the mother’s household, council of the nation.)

14. \( Te \ na \ āsno \ vrkānām-ādityāso \ mumocata. \)

\( Stenaṁ \ baddham-ivādite. \)

Mother Aditi, caught up like thieves, we are in the jaws of wolves. May the Adityas save us from the mouth of wolfish exploiters.

15. \( Apo \ ṣu \ na \ iyam \ śarur-ādityā \ apa \ durmatiḥ. \)

\( Asmadetvajaghnuṣī. \)

O Adityas, let this violent force go off from us, let this evil genius too get away from us, leaving us unhurt.
16. Śaśvaddhi vaḥ sudānava ādityā ātibhir-vayam. Purā nūnām bubhujmahe.

Adityas, generous givers, by virtue of your protections we have been enjoying life always, now as ever before.

17. Śaśvantāṁ hi pracetasah pratiyantarāṁ cidenaṁ. Devāḥ krṇutha jīvase.

O wise brilliancies, whoever turns to you ever and any time, even from sin, pray sustain and strengthen him to live his life to the full.

O Adityas, O mother Aditi, we hope and pray may that ever new strength and sustenance of yours, which you give us for our good and protection, which saves us like people fettered in bondage and released, be extended to us ever as before.

O Adityas, leaders of the human nation, that power and competence you give us to get over our problems is not our own, it is yours. Pray be kind and gracious and keep it up as ever before.

O Adityas, brilliant powers of nature and humanity, let not the onslaught of time or an artificial weapon made by man strike us before we have lived and enjoyed a full age of fulfilment to the last day of old age.

O Adityas, brilliant rulers and leaders of the nation, totally destroy jealousy and enmity, eliminate distress and depression, sin and crime, wipe out organised crime, terror and combined attacks, and uproot all disease, infirmity and disability from the earth.

Mandala 8/Sukta 68

Indra (1-13), Rkshashvamedhau (14-19), Devatah, Priyamedha Angirasa Rshi
Indra, bravest of the brave, protector of the good and true, just as we turn the chariot, so do we draw your attention and pray you turn to us and come for our protection, welfare and enlightenment, lord of infinite action and conqueror of enemies.

2. Tuviṣuṣma tuvikrato śacīvo viśvayā mate. Ā paprātha mahitvanā.

Lord omnipotent of infinite action, infinitely helpful, omniscient, with your cosmic power and grandeur you pervade the whole universe.

Indra who are infinitely great by virtue of your omnipotence, your hands wield the thunderbolt of justice and golden grace which reaches everywhere over the universe.

I pray to Indra, your lord and father, master controller of the irresistible powers and forces of the universe, for divine protection of the people by the dynamics of his moving powers of nature and humanity.

Abhiṣṭaye sadāvṛdhāṃ svarmīḥetuṣu yaṃ naraḥ. Nānā havanta ētaye.

I pray to Indra, ever more munificent in human struggles for light, happiness and welfare, whom people invoke and adore in many ways for protection and progress and for the fulfilment of their cherished objects and ambitions.

Paromātramiṃciṣamam-indramugram surā-dhasam. Īśāṇam cidvasūnām.

I invoke and pray to Indra, boundless presence, lover of hymns of adoration, illustrious, all competent and master ruler of the wealth and power of the world.

Tantamid-rādhase maha indraṁ codāmi pītaye. Yah pūrvyām-anuṣṭutim-īṣe kṛṣṭināṁ nṛtuḥ.

For every great success, for all wealth and high competence in life and also for the joyous pleasure of it all, I invoke and celebrate Indra, ultimate leader and guide of the people who listens to the prayers and adorations of humanity since time immemorial and rules them all.

O lord of universal power, no mortal has ever been able to attain equal fellowship with you, then who can claim to attain equality with your power and potential?

O lord of thunderous energy and power, protected by you and in close association with you, we pray, we may discover great wealth in the waters and in the sun and win far reaching victories in our battles of life.

Indra, lord most adorable, we honour you by yajnas of corporate research and development, and we adore you in many languages as you guide, advance and protect the man of knowledge in our human endeavours for new achievements and further advances.
11. Yasya te svādu sakhyāṁ svādvī pranītir-adrivaḥ. Yajño vitantasāyyah.

O lord of the clouds of shower, knowledge and wealth, delightful is your association, exciting is your guidance. The yajña of corporate action and advancement must go on.

12. Uru ṇastane tana uru kṣayāya naskṛdhī. Uru ṇo yandhi jīvase.

Excellence for our body’s health, rise and expansion for our children and grand children, expansion, comfort and safety for our home, O lord, grant, grant us rise and advancement for life’s excellence and joy.

13. Uruṁ nṛbhyā uruṁ gava uruṁ rathāya panthām. Devavītin manāmahe.

Rise and advancement for the people, expansion and development for lands and cattle, expansion and improvement of highways for transport, we pray for, and for that we think and research and plan, and we seek the favour of divinity.

In the ecstasy of soma joy and exhilaration of achievement, six in twos come to me, leading lights they are, abundant and delightful are their gifts and contributions.

I have got two sensitive and dynamic organs of communication protected and promoted by Indra for the body form of the spirit and for efficient working of the body system.

For the body in service of the visiting resident soul, I get another two fast and controlled organs in fine shape for the systemic and yajnic working of the body system.

17. Ṣaḷaśvāṁ ātithigva indrote vadhūṃataḥ. Sacā pūtakratau sanam.

Six organs of perception in this body system, sophisticated and pervaded by Indra, the soul, with a partner house keeper, the intellectual faculty, I have received. They are all friendly participants in the holy working of the system in divine service.

In the midst of these simple and straight organs of sense, fast but well steered, there is one which is extremely generous and creative, the intelligence, which holds the whip and the reins both, that is, the acceleration and the steer and the brakes for proper movement of the systemic chariot.

O brotherly team of dynamic workers and winners in the battles of life, no mortal even addicted to malignity and scandal can foist any blame or censure on you.

Mandala 8/Sukta 69

Indra (1-10, 13-18), Vishvedevah (11), Varuna (11-12) Devatah, Priyamedha Angirasa Rshi
1. Prapra vas-triṣṭubham-iṣāṁ mandadvīrāyendave. Dhiyā vo medhasātaye purandhyā vivāsati.

For your progress, offer libations of holy fuel and fragrance, triple refined and intensified, with trishtubh hymns of Vedic formulae in the service of Indra, cosmic spirit of energy and power, happy and exciting, who inspires the brave and shines you with versatile creative intellect for the advancement of your science of yajna for further development.

2. Nadaṁ va odatīnāṁ nadaṁ yoyuvatīnāṁ.
Patim vo aghnyānāṁ dhenūnāṁ-iṣudhyasi.

Indra is the resounding source of fresh energies, roaring expression of maiden youthfulness, protector and promoter of sacred sources of production and nourishment such as cows which must not be killed or hurt, and he is the relentless inexhaustible keeper of your arrows for your targets of defence and development.

3. Tā asya sūḍadohasah somam śrīṇanti pṛśnayaḥ.
Janman devānāṁ viśaṣtriṣvā rocane divaḥ.

Just as on the rise of dawn in the divine heaven of light, the edifying rays of the sun beatify the Indra-born beauty and freshness of life in the three regions of earth, heaven and the skies, similarly, on the dawn of divine vision in the intelligence of the soul, the revelations of divinity and reflections of omniscience refine, intensify and edify the energy, power and beauty of the soma gifts of Indra, this oceanic source of matter, energy and excellence of life, for the trinity of body, mind and soul.

4.  \textit{Abhi pra gopatim girendramarca yathā vide.}
\textit{Sūnuṁ satyasya satpatim.}

To the best of your knowledge and culture and with the best of your language, worship and adore Indra, protector of stars and planets, lands and cows, language and culture, creator of the dynamics of existence and protector of its constancy.

5.  \textit{Ā harayaḥ saṣṭįjrire’ruṣīradhi barhiśi.}
\textit{Yatṛābhi saṁnavāmahe.}

Let the vibrations of divinity, like crimson rays of dawn which bring the sun to the earth, bring Indra on to our sacred grass where we humans meet and pray and celebrate the lord in song together.

6.  \textit{Indrāya gāva āśīram duduhre vajriṇe madhu.}
\textit{Yat sīmupahvare vidat.}

Lands and cows, suns and planets, indeed all objects in motion, exude for Indra, wielder of thunder, the ichor of emotional adoration seasoned with ecstasy like honey sweet milk mixed with soma which he receives close at hand and cherishes.

उद्दद ब्रह्मस्य विष्णुः गृहमिन्दि दश्च गन्त्वहि।
मध्वः पीत्वा संचवहि त्रिः सम सख्युः पद ॥ ७ ॥

Up let us rise on top of the sun and vast spaces, reach the abode of Indra, and, having drunk the soma sweet of ecstasy, let us be together across and over the thrice seven stages of being in evolution in the purely spiritual state of the lord’s presence as a friend.

(The thrice seven are the steps of physical, mental and psychic evolutionary phases of existence in three qualitative modes of being in the process of becoming. The seven states of evolution in descending order from pure being are: mahat, Ahankara and the five elements, akasha, vayu, agni, apah and prthivi. The three qualitative modes are sattva, rajas and tamas or thought, energy and matter. Another way to explain the twenty one is: five elements, five pranic energies, five perceptive organs and five organs of volition, the twenty-first is antahkarana or psychic self. When the psychic self or the soul in the existential state wishes to rise back to the purely spiritual state, it has to cross the twenty one stages and then be in the company of Indra, the cosmic self, and even later, in the transcendental state of absolute Being, the Spirit, the Brahmic state.)
This is set out in detail in the Sankhya, Yoga and Vedanta philosophy.)

अर्चंत पारंतं पियमधासा अर्चं।
अर्चंतु पुत्रका उत्त पुरुष न ध्वस्वर्चंत॥ ८ ॥

8. Arcata prārcata priyamedhāoso arcata.

Arcantu putrakā uta puraṁ na dhṛṣṭyvarcata.

O lovers of Yajna, lovers of union and communion with the divine, adore and worship Indra, adore and worship again, worship again and again. Worship along with your children and grand children, just as the citizens adore and exalt a great city and the glorious ruler of the celestial city.

अर्च स्वराति गर्गरा गाथा परिं सनिष्वणत।
पिढ्ण परिं चनिष्कददिन-दाय बह्याद्यात्म॥ ९ ॥

9. Ava svarāti gargaro godhā pari saniśvaṇat.

Piṅgā pari caniṣkadad-indrāya brahmodyatam.

The drum booms aloud, the bow string strikes the arm guard, the string bells jingle, let the hymns rise in honour of Indra.

आ यत्यत्पत्तन्त्यन्त्यः सुदुष्णा अर्नपस्फुरः।
अपस्फुरं गृञ्जायत सापमिन्दाय पार्तव॥ १० ॥

10. Ā yat patantyenyah sudughā anapasphuraḥ.

Apasphuraṁ grbhāyata somam-indrāya pātave.

When the dynamic senses of perception and volition, controlled, unagitating and calmly withdrawn, concentrate in the inner mind, then you receive the showers of soma nectar of spiritual ananda for Indra,
11. Apādindro apādagnir-viśve devā amatsata. Varuṇa idīha kṣayat tamāpo abhyanūṣata vatsaṁ samśiśvarīriva.

Indra, the soul, seeking honour, fame and power, loves the soma of ananda. Agni, leading scholar advancing into the light of knowledge, loves the soma of ananda. All brilliances of nature and humanity love the ecstasy of soma. Varuna, powers of love and justice, all abide in the ecstasy of soma. All seekers of yajnic action and divine dedication love the soma of spiritual ananda of their creation like the mother loving her child.

12. Sudevo asi varuṇa yasya te sapta sindhavaḥ. Anukṣaranti kākudamī sūrmyaṁ suśirāmiva.

Varuna, master scholar and teacher, you are divinely brilliant and generous whose seven streams of knowledge and wisdom flow forth in words from the master’s voice to the seekers, like water flowing from a tube into many channels.

13. Yo vaṭīṅrāphāṇayat suyuktāṁ upa daśāse. Takvo netā tadidvapurupamā yo amucyata.

That soul is Indra, man of self control and self power, who withdraws his scattered powers of senses and mind, turns them inward and applies them into meditation for the sake of generosity of the spirit, and then as their patient master and leader, with the power and grace of his self-possession, releases and relaxes them in the state of peace. He is the sovereign soul.

Atidu śakra ohata indro viśvā ati dviṣāh.
Bhinat kanīna odanāṁ pacyamānaṁ paro girā.

Indra, the sovereign soul of self-power, transcends all jealousy, malignity and enmity and, blest with top handsomeness and grace of the spirit, breaks open into words the mature knowledge and self-realised spiritual food for the seekers.

Arbhako na kumārako’dhi tiṣṭhan navāṁ ratham.
Sa pakṣan-mahiṣāṁ mṛgaṁ pitre mātre vibhukṛtaṁ.

Neither a child nor an adolescent, the man of mature mind abiding in a healthy body practices meditation and realises the great, supreme, omnipotent cosmic soul of universal holy action for the enlightenment of all about Mother Nature and the father of creation.

Aṁu pratnasyaukasaṁ priyamedhōsa evaṁ.
Pūrvīmanu prayati sa vṛktabarhi ohiḥ hitaprayasā.
16. अ तु suśipra dampate ratham tiṣṭhā hiranya-yam.
Adha dyuṣam sacevahi sahasrapādam-aruṣamsvastigām-anehasam.

O lord of golden grace, father and sustainer of the house-hold of the universe, come and seat yourself in the golden chariot of this human body and, together as friends and companions, we shall ride this chariot of heavenly light, thousand wheeled, invincible and immaculate, moving on the road to peace and ultimate good.

17. Tam ghemitthā namasvina upa svarājam-āsatē.
Arthān cidasya sudhitāḥ yadetava āvartayanti dāvane.

Thus do yajnic and meditative souls holding havis for homage adore and worship self-refulgent Indra when, in order to realise the nature, character and generosity, indeed the very presence of the lord, they turn their self-controlled mind to the Divine Soul in order to reach him.

18. Anu pratnasyaukasah priyamedhāsa eṣām.
Pūrvāmanu prayatim vṛktabarhiṣo hitaprayasa āsata.

Of these devotees of yajna and lovers of meditative communion, those who sit on the holy grass with a clean mind and offer oblations of spiritual love in the style of the sages of old as ever achieve union with the universal presence of the eternal Spirit.

Mandala 8/SuKta 70

Indra Devata, Puruhanma Angirasa Rshi

1. Yo rājā carṣaṇīnāṁ yātā rathebhiradhriguḥ. Viśvāsāṁ tarūtā pṛtanānāṁ jyeṣṭho yo vṛtrahā grṇe.

I adore Indra, lord supreme, who rules the people, and who is the irresistible and universal mover by waves of cosmic energy, saviour of all humanity, supreme warrior and winner of cosmic battles of the elemental forces and who destroys the evil, darkness and poverty of the world.

2. Indraiṁ tam śumbha puruahanmannavase yasya dvīta vidhartari. Hastāya vajra prati dhāyi darṣato maho dive na sūryah.

O man of universal devotion, exalt and glorify that omnipotent Indra for protection and progress in whom, as ruler and controller of the world, both justice and mercy abide simultaneously, who holds the thunderbolt of power in hand, and who is great and glorious like the sun in heaven.
No one can equal merely by action, much less hurt even by yajnas, that person who has won the favour and grace of Indra, lord divine who is rising as well as raising his devotees high, who is universally adored, universal genius, redoubtable and invincibly illustrious.

Unchallengeable, awful, victorious in cosmic dynamics, in whose pervasive presence great and tempestuous stars and planets, earths and heavens, all in unison move in order and do homage in reverence, such is Indra.

Indra, lord of thunder, if there were a hundred heavens, and if there were a hundred earths, they would not be able to rival you. Not a thousand suns, nor heavens, earths and skies together would match you at the rise in manifestation.
6. Ā paprātha mahinā vṛṣṇyā vṛṣan viśvā śaviṣṭha śavasā. Aśmāṇ ava maghavan gomati vraje vajriṇ-citrābhīr-ūtibhiḥ.

O lord of the thunderbolt, master and controller of world’s wealth, honour and power, most potent and lord of showers of generosity, with your generous and creative power and grandeur you pervade the universe. Pray protect, guide and promote us by your various and wondrous modes of protection and progress in our search for development of lands and cows, knowledge, language and culture.

Never can an impious, ungodly mortal find that food and energy in life which that other person can find who yokes those dynamic energies and powers in his search for progress which Indra deploys in his creative and evolutionary programme of existence.

8. Taṁ vo maho mahāyyam-indraṁ dānāya sakṣa-ṇim. Yo gādheṣu ya āraṇeṣu havyo vājeśvasti havyah.

Invoke that great, adorable and friendly Indra.

MANDAL - 8 / SUKTA - 70  829
for the gift of power, energy and expertise for your progress who is invoked and adored in the depth of the seas, over lands and mountains and in the battles of the brave for new heights.

उदू षु णा वस मह मृशस्वे शूर राधस।
उदू षु महाभजवण्मण्डत्य उदिन्तु श्रवस मह॥ ९ ॥

Brave Indra, lord of the wealth, honour and excellence of the world, haven and home of all living beings, inspire our will and intelligence for the achievement of great wealth and competence for success in life and raise us to great power, honour and excellence to win high fame across the world.

त्वं नेन इन्द्र ऋतुयुस्वानिदा नि तृम्पसिः।
मध्ये वसिष्य तुविनृष्णानानि दासं श्रीशन्ता हर्षेऽ॥ १० ॥

Indra, lover and promoter of truth and rectitude, you fulfil us with your gifts and reduce the maligners of divinity to deprivation. O lord of boundless wealth and power, raise us to the heights of the skies in the midst of heaven and earth, and strike down the violent and the destroyer with blows of retribution.

अन्य्वर्तममूनाृष्टमयज्ञानमदवयुम।
अव स्वः सखादुधुवीत पवैंतः सुधाय दस्मु पवैंतः॥ ११ ॥
Ava svaḥ sakhā dudhuvīta parvataḥ sughnāya dasyum parvataḥ.

Friendly, generous but adamantine ruler, punish the person committed to destructive values, anti-human organisation, anticreative and antisocial actions and antinature and impious plans and programmes, punish him with deprivation of comfort, self-satisfaction and social privileges and assign him to sure elimination or total change. The strong uncompromising ruler should punish the violent, the terrorist and the killer to an equal and opposite fate.

12. Tvaṁ na indrāsāṁ haste śaviṣṭha dāvane.
Dhānanāṁ na saṁ gṛbhayāsmayur-dviḥ saṁ gṛbhayāsamayuḥ.

Indra, most powerful ruler and leader, our benefactor, one of our own, in order to benefit us, pray take up in hand these assets of wealth just as one holds roasted rice in hand for distribution, and give it to us. Take up the wealth again, our own man, and distribute that too.

O friends, try freely to do good by way of yajña, else how shall we serve Indra, lord of the bow and arrow, with worship and adoration? He is the great benefactor and ruler, light giver, abundant and gracious.

Bhūribhīḥ samaha ṛṣibhir-barhiṣmadbhiḥ stavi-ṣyase. Yadittham-ekamekam-icchāra vatsān parādadahaḥ.

O lord of grandeur and glory, destroyer of suffering, ignorance and all difficulties in the way of human happiness, since thus you give gracious gifts of cherished wealth, light and joy to dear and holy beneficiaries, to one and all of them, you are adored by all sages of the sacred grass on the yajna vedi.

Kārṇagṛhyā maghavā śauradevyo vatsaṁ nastrībhya ānayat. Ajāṁ sūrīnā dhātave.

Indra, lord of wealth, power and glory, benefactor of the brave and holy, holds in his power the cherished wealth of perceptible knowledge and awareness which he showers for us from the three regions of heaven, earth and sky, just as, at our human level, the master and sagely scholar holds the eternal Vedic Word for us to hear and enjoy.
Mandala 8/Sukta 71

Agni Devata, Suditi - Purumidhau Angirasau, tayor va anyatara Rshi

त्वं ना अग्नि महाभिः पाहि विश्ववस्या अरातः ।
उत्त द्विषा मत्यस्य॥ १ ॥

1. Tvaṁ no agne mahobhīḥ pāhi viśvasyā arātēḥ.
    Uta diviṣo martyasya.

    Agni, leading light of life, with your mighty powers and grandeur, protect us against all material, moral and social adversity and all mortal jealousy and enmity.

नृहि मन्यः पाहिष्य इभ वैं पियजातः ।
त्वमिदासि रापोवान॥ २ ॥

2. Nahi manyuh pauruṣeyā āše hi vāḥ priyajāta.
    Tvaṃdasi kṣapāvān.

    No wrath of man rules over you, all time dear friend of humanity, since your very birth you are the master and ruler of the earth.

स ना विश्वाभिभुवभिभूजा नपाधदशाच ।
रूढं दैहि विश्ववासम॥ ३ ॥

    Rayiṁ dehi viśvavāram.

    Ruler of the earth as you are, O lord of infallible energy and blissful flames of fire, bless us with universal wealth with all the light, honour and excellence of the world.
4. Na tamagne arātayo martam yuvanta rāyah.
   Yam trāyase dāśvāṁsam.

No adversities, no enemies, can deprive that generous man of his wealth, honour and excellence whom you protect and promote.

5. Yam tvaṁ vipra medhāsātāvagñe hinośi dhanāya.
   Sa tavośi gośu gantā.

   O vibrant power of wealth, honour and excellence, the man whom you inspire and exhort to win wealth and to dedicate himself to the service of divinities goes forward in the acquisition of lands, cows, and the light of knowledge and culture under your protection.

   Pra ṇo naya vasyo accha.

   Agni, lead us to wealth, brave happy progeny and the perfect joy of life for men of charity and unbounded generosity.
7. Uruṣyā ṇo mā parā dā aghāyate jātavedah.

_Durādhya mariāya._

All pervasive, omniscient Agni, protect us and leave us not to the sinner, the criminal, and the man of evil thought and action.

अग्नि माकिष्टे दुवस्यं रतिमदवा युयात ।
त्वमीशिष्य वसूनाम ॥ ८ ॥

8. Agne mākiṣṭe devasya rātim-adevo yuyota.

_Tvamīśiṣe vasūnām._

Agni, lord of brilliance and generosity, let no impious man deprive us of your generosity extended to us. You rule, control and protect the wealth, honour and excellence of the world.

स ना वस्वं उर्प मास्यूर्जां नपान्माहिनस्य ।
सर्खं वसा जरित्रत्थ्यः ॥ ९ ॥

9. Sa no vasva upa māsyūrjonapān-māhinasya.

_Sakhe vaso jaritrbhyah._

Agni, creator and treasure home of the world, infinite energy, giver of peace and settlement, universal friend, give us wealth as well as honour and glory for the celebrants.

अच्छो नः शीर्षाशिष्यं गिरा यन्तु दश्तं ।
अच्छो युज्ञासा नर्मसा पुरुसस्यं पुरुपश्चस्तमृतं ॥ १० ॥

10. Acchā nahī śīrāsociṣam giro yantu darṣatam.

_Acchā yajñāso namāsā purūvasum purupraśa-stamūtaye._

Let all our songs of adoration rise fast to the refulgent and glorious Agni. Let our yajna with homage and havi move and reach the universally adored and universally honoured Agni for the sake of universal protection.

अग्नि सूनूँ सहसा जातवदस्य दानाय वार्याणाम ।
द्विता या भूदमृता पत्येष्वा हाता मन्दतंमा विशि ॥ ११ ॥

Let our prayers reach Agni, all pervasive creator of energy, for the gift of cherished wealth and power. Agni is the immortal presence who appears among mortals in both physical and spiritual forms, universal yajaka, happiest and most blissful, arising in every home stead of the people.

अग्नि वा दययणयाचे ग्रं पंचतय्यधुर ।
अग्नि धीपु पवसममुद्रीपत्याग्रं त्व्रय साधस ॥ १२ ॥

Adore Agni for all your service of the divinities of nature and humanity, light agni in the process of every holy programme, keep Agni in the fore-front in all your acts of thought and will initially, and in every new beginning serve and rely on Agni for every plan in the field of life.

अग्निरिष्यं सध्य दंदातु न इश या वार्याणाम ।
अग्नि ताक तन्यं शश्वदीमह वसुं सन्तं तन्पाम ॥ १३ ॥
13. Agnirishi sakhye dadatu na iše yo vāryāṇām. Agnim toke tanaye śasvadimahe vasum santam tanūpām.

May Agni as a friend give us food and energy for sustenance since he rules over all the wealth and powers of the world. We always serve and pray to Agni for our children and grand children, he being the universal giver of home and settlement as well as the protector and sustainer of our body’s health.

Pray to Agni of bright flames with songs and praise for protection and progress. O generous scholar, study and serve Agni for wealth, famous among people, Agni who provides home and happiness for the man of brilliance.

We adore Agni for driving away our enemies from us and for giving us peace and settlement with happiness. He is like a protector among people, giver of home and adored by sages.
1. Haviṣkṛṇudhvatamā gamad-adhvaryur-vanate punah. Vidvān asya praśāsanam.

   Come, devotees of yajna, celebrants of Agni: Prepare the havi for oblation, let the high priest come, he knows the ministration of this yajna, let him serve Agni again.

2. Ni tigmamabhyamśum śiddaddhotā manāvadhi. Juṣāṇo asya sakhyam.

   Let the hota, offerer of oblations, come and sit close to the fire in bright flames, loving and honouring at heart the friendship of this Agni.

3. Antaricchanti tam jane rudram paro manīṣayā. Gṛbhṛṇanti jihvayā sasam.

   Dedicated priests and scholars among people, with the best of their mind and intelligence, try to raise Agni, mighty fiery power immanent everywhere, and having raised it, they try to describe and adore it with words of homage.
   Drṣadāṁ jihvayāvadhīt.

   Agni, immanent, friendly and rising as the sun, heats up the sky, bearing health and energy for nourishment, it rides the vapours of water and with its catalytic energy breaks the cloud.

5. Caran vatso ruśanniha nidātāraṁ na vindate.
   Veti stotava ambyam.

   Agni, newly risen, playing as hyperactive and shining bright, brooks no obstruction and for its description and assessment needs a celebrant appraiser.

6. Uto nvasya yanmahadaśvāvadyojanam brhat.
   Dāmā rathasya dadṛśe.

   And as its mighty boundless expansion grows on, intensely bright with sun-rays, its sphere of energy is seen like the halo of glorious light round the solar chariot.

7. Duhanti saptaikāmupa dvā paṇca srjataḥ.
   Tīrthe sindhoradhi svare.
Five senses of perception along with two others, mind and intelligence (i.e., mana and buddhi), at work distill the power and glory of Agni, like seven milkmaids milking one cow on the bank of a sacred river, and give it expression in the resounding notes of cosmic hymns.

\text{आ दुशभिविस्वं इन्द्रः कार्षेमचुच्यवीत।}
\]
\[
\text{खद्यम त्रिवृत्ता दिवः।। 8।।}

8. \(\text{Ā daśabhir-vivasvata indraḥ kośam-acucyavīt. Khedayā trivṛtā divah.}\)

Just as Indra, electric energy of the sun in the form of lightning, breaks the cloud and brings down showers from the sky, so does the divine human soul by threefold passion of intellect, will and emotion, with the assistance of ten senses of perception and volition and ten pranic energies, distill down the treasure glory of Agni from the sun into threefold wealth of knowledge, action and prayer committed and dedicated to divinity.

\text{परिं त्रिधातुरुध्वं जूनिरति नवीयसी।}
\]
\[
\text{मध्वा हार्तरा अञ्जत ।। 9।।}

9. \(\text{Pari tridhāturadhvaram jūnṅireti navīyasī. Madhvā hotāro añjate.}\)

Just as Agni rising in threefold flames, white, red and dark, comes at lightning speed to yajna with youthful power and the priests anoint and serve it with homage, so does the light of divinity with revelations of sattva, rajas and tamas and the values of knowledge, action and prayer, youthful, bright and vibrant, come to the mind of the celebrant, and then the yajnic senses, mind and intellect and the pranic energies of the devotee express the power and grace of Agni in celebration.

10. Siṁcanti namasāvatamuccācakram pariṁmānam.

With homage the devotees serve Agni, radiating and vibrating on high, pervading all round, full of peace and joy, just an inverted well, inexhaustible, with release of showers on the down side for the celebrants.

11. Abhyāram-idadrayo niśiktam puṣkare madhu.

When the fount of the divine reservoir is released toward the quiet mind of the devotee, then the lord of clouds and soma fills the lotus of his heart with the honeyed ecstasy of divine grace.

The psychic base of the devoted seeker of meditative communion is highly creative. O mind and senses attended with both knowledge and action of divine character, rise high and reach close to the reservoir of divine grace and win the showers of bliss.
With homage the devotees serve Agni, radiating and vibrating on high, pervading all round, full of peace and joy, just an inverted well, inexhaustible, with release of showers on the down side for the celebrants.

When the fount of the divine reservoir is released toward the quiet mind of the devotee, then the lord of clouds and soma fills the lotus of his heart with the honeyed ecstasy of divine grace.

The aspirants know the one inmate spirit of their common home and they all abide and move together in and with the one intimate spirit of their own kind as children move around attached with their mothers (each with the one that is his, but all mothers are the same, the one common Soul).

Agni, receiving, kindling and consuming the oblations in the flames, turns the havi into light in heaven as offering in the cup of faith to Indra. (So does the yogi turn his thoughts through contemplation into light and joy in the higher personality to offer it as...

May the lord of faith and power accept the offering of nourishing food and energy through seven stages of nature’s evolution, and by seven-rayed chemistry of the sun turn it into showers of spiritual fulfilment for the yajaka.

17. Somasya mitrāvaruṇoditā sūra ā dade. Tadāturasya bheṣajam.

O Mitra, O Varuna, O lord of love and justice, may I, at the rise of the sun, receive the heavenly light and joy of soma, rejuvenating nectar of life for the supplicant yearning for fulfilment.

And then let the devotee with holy voice celebrate and glorify this state of divine fulfilment, promised of Agni, destined for man, unto heaven.
Mandala 8/Sukta 73

Ashvinau Devate, Gopavana Atreya or Saptavadhri Rshi

1. Udīrāthāṁṛtāyate yuṇjāthāṁ-aśvinā ratham.
   Anti ṣadbhūtu vāmavaḥ.
   O Ashvins, harbingers of the new dawn of light and energy, arise for the man of simple straight paths of rectitude, harness your chariot and come. May your power and protection be close to us for us.

2. Nimīṣaścijjavāyasā rathenā yātam-aśvinā.
   Anti ṣadbhūtu vāmavaḥ.
   Within a wink of the eye, come by the chariot of instant speed. Let your protections be with us at the closest.

   Anti ṣadbhūtu vāmavaḥ.
   With the cool of comfort and security like snow, cover the misfortunes of the man bereft of threefold security for body, mind and soul in life. Let your protections be with us at the closest.

Where are you staying? Where had you gone while we called? Where did you fly away like the eagle? Pray be with us always with your constant protections at the closest on hand.

5. Yadadya karhi karhi cicchuśrūyātamimāṁ havam. Anti śadbhūtu vāmavaḥ.

If now anywhere, in fact any time, you hear our call, let your protections be instantly with us at the earliest at the closest.

Openly and instantly approachable Ashvins, I come to you as my own people at the closest. Let your protections be instant and sure for us at the earliest and closest.

Ashvins, for the man of threefold deprivation of health care, housing and employment, provide a home of security and maintenance. Pray let your protections be with us always without delay at the closest.

8.  Varethe agnimātapo vadate valgvatraye.
Anti śadbhūtu vāmavaḥ.

Ashvins, harbingers of protection and relief for the deprived and underprivileged in matters of care, maintenance and education, bring help to the persuasive suppliants and remove the gusts of scorching heat and air from their head and heart. Let your protections be instantly available at the closest.

Anti śadbhūtu vāmavaḥ.

Ashvins, harbingers of peace and appreciation, reward and pacify the poet, master of seven metres who, with his hope and imagination, captures the flames of fire and passion in poetry and let your protection and patronage be with us at the closest.

10.  Ihā gataṁ vrṣaṇvasū śrṇutaṁ ma imaṁ havam.
Anti śadbhūtu vāmavaḥ.

O harbingers of the showers of wealth, honour and excellence, pray come here and listen to my call and adoration. Let your protections and exhortations be with us at the closest in the heart.

निमिदं वां पुराणवजरंतारिव शस्यत।
अन्ति षड्भुतु वामवः॥ ११॥

11. Kimidam vāṁ purāṇavajjaratoriva śasyate.
Anti ṣadbhūtu vāmavaḥ.

What sort of talk is this going round about you in the old outmoded style that you are nothing more than growing in years? O youthful harbingers of new light and freshness, let your protections and inspirations be with us at the closest and newest.

समानं वां सजात्यं समाना बन्धुरेष्विना।
अन्ति षड्भुतु वामवः॥ १२॥

Anti ṣadbhūtu vāmavaḥ.

You are the same class and character as we, equal, the same brotherhood with us. Ashvins, let your protections and promotions be with us at the closest at the same level of class, character and species.

या वां रजाष्यश्विना रथं वियाितं र दंसी।
अन्ति षड्भुतु वामवः॥ १३॥

13. Yo vāṁ rajāṃsyasvinā ratho viyāti rodasī.
Anti ṣadbhūtu vāmavaḥ.

Come by that chariot of yours which goes around to various regions of the universe and specially goes over the tracks of heaven, earth and sky. Pray let your protections be with us at the closest wherever you roam around.

14. Ā no gavyebhiraśvyaiḥ sahasrairupa gacchatam. Anti ṣadbhūtu vāmavaḥ.

Come with a thousandfold wealth of cows, lands and cultures and horses and achievements of progressive victories. Let your protections and promotions be ever closest with us.

15. Mā no gavyebhiraśvyaiḥ sahasrebhirati khyatam. Anti ṣadbhūtu vāmavaḥ.

With all the thousandfold wealth of lands and cows and horses and achievements, pray do not leave us, do not forsake us. Let your protections and promotions ever remain with us at the closest.

The golden glory of the dawn is risen and brings in the light according to the law divine. Let your blessings and protections ever be closest to us.
17.
Aśvinā su vicākaśad vrkṣam paraśumāṇ iva.
Anti ṣadbhūtu vāmavaḥ.

Ashvins, the sun rises and dispels the darkness as an axeman fells the tree. Let your boons and blessings ever be with us at the closest.

18.
Puraṁ na dhṛṣṇavā ruja kṛṣṇayā bādhito viśā.
Anti ṣadbhūtu vāmavaḥ.

Brave humanity, whenever you are obstructed by dark forces, arise and break them down like a fortress of evil. Ashvins, let your forces and protections be ever with us at the closest for inspiration and exhortation.

Mandala 8/Sukta 74

Agni (1-12), Arksha Shrutarva Danastuti (13-15) Devata, Gopavana Atreya Rshi

1.
Viśoviśo vo atithīṁ vājayantah purupriyam.
Agniṁ vo duryāṁ vacaḥ stuṣe śūṣasya manma-bhiḥ.

O people of the world, seekers of light and advancement by every community for every community, for the sake of you all, with sincere thoughts and resounding words, I adore Agni, holy power, your homely friend loved by all for the common good.
2. Yam janāso havīṣmanto mitraṁ na sarpirā-sutīm. Praśamsanti praśastibhiḥ.

Adore and exalt Agni whom yajnic people serve as a friend, with havi in hand and oblations of clarified butter, and celebrate with songs of praise.

Serve and exalt the adorable Agni, all pervasive, who rises, strengthens all divinities of nature and humanity and raises the oblations to the heavens and heightens their vitality and power.

Let us rise and reach Agni, highest divinity, greatest destroyer of evil and darkness and friend of humanity, under whose blessed shelter the great, renowned and distinguished heroes find inspiration and rise.

Let us rise and reach Agni, light of life, immortal, omnipresent, dispeller of darkness and ignorance, glorious, giver of delicious delicacies, and adorable.

Let us adore Agni whom all the yajnic people, in spite of limitations, eagerly invoke and serve with ladlefuls of havi.

Agni, lord of light blissful, gloriously manifested, holy and divine in action, wise, majestic and revered as an honourable guest, this adorable light of your wisdom, we pray, may be vested in us.

8. Sā te agne śaṁtamā caniṣṭhā bhavatu priyā. Tayā vardhasva suṣṭutaḥ.

Agni, that light and wisdom of yours, most blissful, most delightful, may be dear to us. And let our adorations too be dear to you. Exalted by that, arise and grow and let us grow too.

That light and power, splendid and boundless with the might and majesty of divinity, may bear greater and greater potential closer and closer to us in the progressive task of the elimination of darkness and evil.

10. Aśvamidgāṁ rathaprāṁ tveṣamindraṁ na satpatim. Yasya śravāṁsi tūrvatha panyāmpa-nyāṁ ca kṛṣṭayaḥ.

Adore Agni who gives us the wealth of earth and progressive achievement by chariotfuls of glory. Worship him, awfully brilliant, saviour and protector of the good and truthful like Indra, whose renowned victories and astonishing gifts people praise and celebrate one by one, one after another.

Agni, light of the world, dear as breath of life, all purifier, whom the poet visionary of light and the Word celebrates, pray listen to our invocation and song of adoration.
12. Yamā tvā janāsa īlate sabādho vājasātaye.

Agni, O lord of light, whom people adore for victory and advancement enthusiastically in spite of limitations, pray enlighten us in the programme of the elimination of evil and darkness from life.

13. Ahaṁ huvāna ārkṣe śrutarvaṇi madacyuti.

For the good of people in general, for the learned, and for the joy of soma against the intoxication of pride, I invoke Agni as well as the light and powers of divinity to come and sanctify the heart and head of all the four classes of initiated people of the sacred hair.

The four fast and smart celebrants of the most potent Agni riding the holy chariot of life may, I pray, bring me food and energy as well as the light and vitality of divine inspiration.
15. Satyamityā vā mahanadiparuvṣṇya và dediśam.
Nemāpo aśvadātaraḥ śaviśṭhādasti martyaḥ.

O divine powers of light and vitality of perception and imagination, generous and overflowing with spirit and enthusiasm, I say this true of you and to you and of and to the dynamics of cosmic intelligence, there is no mortal power which is a greater giver of bliss and joy than the most potent and most brilliant Agni.

Mandala 8/Sukta 75

Agni Devata, Virupa Angirasa Rshi

Yukṣvā hi devahūtamān aśvān agne rathīriva.
Ni hotā pūrvyāḥ sadaḥ.

Agni, light and life of the universe, as a master of the chariot of creation, harness your powers of cosmic dynamics which carry the divine wealth of life for us and, as the first and original high priest of creation, come and grace our hearth and home of familial creative activity in the service of divinity and observance of Dharma.

Uta no deva devān acchā vācha viduṣṭaraḥ.
Śraddhiśvā vāryā kṛdhi.

And O light of the world, omniscient lord, speak graciously to us, seekers of light and divinity, and reveal in truth the facts and processes cherished and valued on top of everything else for the good of life in existence.

3. \textit{Tvam ha yadyaviṣṭhya sahasaḥ sūnavāhuta.}
\textit{Rtāvā yajñīyo bhuvaḥ.}

You alone, most youthful imperishable power, creator of strength and energy, we invoke, you are the one adorable, giver and keeper of the cosmic law of truth and rectitude.

4. \textit{Ayamagniḥ sahasriṇo vājasya śatinaspatiḥ.}
\textit{Mūrdhā kavī rayīnām.}

This Agni is the protector and promoter of a hundred and thousand forms and degrees of food, energy, advancement and victories of wealth, honour and excellence of the world, lord supreme and all time visionary and omniscient creator and poetic prophet and teacher.

5. \textit{Taṁ nemimṛbhavo yathā’’namasva sahūtibhiḥ.}
\textit{Nedīye yajñamaṅgiraḥ.}

Just as craftsmen bend and complete to perfection the felly of a wheel, so bend in homage to Agni, feed the fire, giver of vitality, with conjoint action and oblations, and O fire of yajna, dear as breath of life, closest friend, pray complete the circuit of yajnic regeneration for the yajakas.

6. Tasmai nūnamabhidyave vācā virūpa nityayā.
   Vṛṣṇo codasva suṣṭutim.

   O man of diverse and conjoint forms of action, with words of eternal voice energise your holy song of adoration and let it rise to that self-refulgent omnificent Agni who is the harbinger of regeneration.

   Paṇīṃ goṣu starāmahe.

   Shall we overcome and throw out the thief hiding within our lands and cows by the force of this all watching Agni of far sighted vision?

8. Mā no devānāṁ viśāḥ prasnātīrivosrāḥ.
   Krśaṁ na hāsuraghnyāḥ.

   Let the forces of the communities of people protected by noble and divine powers never forsake us just as the radiating dawns do not neglect us, and just as cows too, which must not be hurt do not abandon their emaciated calves.
    Urmirna nāvamā vadhīt.
    Let not the malevolent tyranny of the jealous smite us like billows of the sea striking the ship.

    Amair-amitram-ardaya.
    Salutations to you, Agni, refulgent lord of generosity. The people too adore and exalt you. Pray ward off and throw out the enemies and unfriendly forces by your laws and powers.

11. Kuvit su no gaviṣṭaye’gne saṁveṣiṣo rayim.
    Urukṛḍuru ṇaskṛḍhi.
    Agni, refulgent lord, give us ample and high quality wealth for the development and expansion of our lands and cows, and let us too vastly expand and highly rise in life.

12. Mā no asmin mahādhane parā vargbhārabhrdyathā. Samvargam saṁ rayim jaya.
Agni, do not abandon us in this great battle of life like a tired burden bearer throwing off his burden. Instead, win holy wealth like the yajaka gathering sacred grass for the vedi to perform the yajna.

Agni, let this evil and calamity fall upon something else opposed to us and our life and health and frighten all such things away. Pray promote our inward strength and courage like our steadfast patience and vitality.

यस्यार्जुणप्रमस्विनः शमीमदुर्मस्त्वय वा ।
तं घदुग्रिवधावति ॥ १४ ॥

Agni loves and joins the yajnic efforts of the man of humility and generous offerings who, also, shuns negative and unproductive social acts. Such a man, indeed, Agni protects, promotes and advances in life.

Indra Devata, Kurusuti Kanya Rshi

1. Imaṁ nu māyinaṁ huva indram-īśānam-ojasā. Marutvantaim na vṛñjase.

I invoke the almighty Indra, omnipotent spiritual power and presence of existence who commands the winds and pranic energies of nature and rules them by his lustrous vigour and vitality, and I pray that he may never forsake me, never abandon my spiritual salvation over material fluctuations of the mind.

2. Ayamindro marutsakhā vi vṛtrasyābhinac-chirah. Vajreṇa śataparvanā.

Mandala 8/Sukta 76

Indra Devata, Kurusuti Kanva Rshi

1. ĪmaÅ nu mamyinaÅ huva indram-pûrâõnam-ojasvâ.
   MarutvantaÅ na vṛjâjase.

I invoke the almighty Indra, omnipotent spiritual power and presence of existence who commands the winds and pranic energies of nature and rules them by his lustrous vigour and vitality, and I pray that he may never forsake me, never abandon my spiritual salvation over material fluctuations of the mind.

2. Ayamindro marutsakhendro vi vṛtramairayat.
   VajreÄa ÜataparvaČ.

This Indra, friend of winds and pranic energies, with hundred-fold discipline of spiritual power like the thunderbolt can destroy the dominating shadows of the evil of darkness and ignorance on way to the soul’s enlightenment.

3. Vāvṛdhāno marutsakkhendro vi vṛtramairayat.
   Srjjantsamudriyā apah.

Growing in strength, Indra, the divine soul, friend of winds and cosmic energies of universal prana, scatters the clouds of darkness there by releasing the streams of waters from the sky, and the streams of ananda from the heart.

4. AyaÅ ha yena vā idam svarmarutvatā jītam.
   Indreño samapātaye.

This is Indra, for sure, the soul blest with the energy of prana, by whom is won this light of heaven by the grace of divinity for the enjoyment of divine joy.

   Indram gīrbhirhavāmahe.

With various songs of adoration we invoke and worship Indra, lord omnipotent commanding cosmic winds and pranic energies, gracious lover of truth and the truthful, lustrous and sublime.
6. Indramā pratnena manmanā marutvantaṁ havā-mahe. Asya somasya pītaye.

   With the ancient voice of divine revelation, we invoke and worship Indra, commander of cosmic winds and energiser of pranic energies for the protection of this world of the lord’s creation of joy and soma ecstasy.

7. Marutvāṇ indra mīḍhvaḥ pibā somāṁ śatakraṭo. Asmin yajñe puruṣṭuta.

   Indra, lord of pranic energies and giver of showers of joy over a hundred divine acts of grace, universally sung and celebrated, pray protect and advance this world in this yajna of divine and human creation.

8. Tubhyedindra marutvate sutāḥ somāso adrivaha. Hṛdā hūyanta uktihināḥ.

   Indra, lord of cosmic energies, commander of thunder and clouds of shower, in your honour only have these lovers of divine ecstasy enacted the soma yajna of divine worship where the singers of holy song adore you with Vedic hymns.

Indra, friend of cosmic winds and lover of tempestuous humans, whetting your thunderbolt with the light and lustre of justice, protect and promote the ecstatic creations of the lovers of divinity in their cherished programmes of progress.

Indra, lord of the universe, rising with your might and majesty, protect and energise both heaven and earth and promote the soma of life’s vitality created in both heaven and earth by nature and humanity by yajna.

11. Anu tvā rodasī ubhe krakṣamāṇamakṛpetām. Indra yaddasyuhā bhavaḥ.

Indra, when you stimulate and energise the soma vitality of life created by nature and humanity, and when you rise as the destroyer of the negativities of the counterforce, then both heaven and earth vibrate and celebrate your majesty in awe with admiration.
12. Vācam-aṣṭāpadīṁ-ahāṁ navasraktim-ṛtasp-ṛśam. Indrāt pari tanvāṁ mame.

I study, measure, develop and pray for language revealed in eight works, i.e., four Vedas and four Upavedas, spoken across four classes of humanity and through four stages of the individual’s development from birth to death, developing over nine blooming branches like flower garlands across nine regions of the earth, ultimately touching the truth of divine reality, the Word Imperishable descended from and ascending to Indra, lord of omniscience across the countless branches of dialects and structures.

Mandala 8/Sukta 77

Indra Devata, Kurusuti Kanva Rshi

1. Jajñāno nu śatakaturvi pṛcchaditi mātaram. Ka ugrāḥ ke ha śṝṅvire.

Coming to the stage of self-knowledge and responsibility, let Indra, world ruler, ask the mother power: Who are the terrible ones? Who are the notorious ones?

2. Ādīṁ śavasyabravīd-aurnāvābham-ahīśuvam. Te putra santu niṣṭuraḥ.

Let the mother power that makes him rise to the office of Indra, she having the full power to create, advise and decide say: O son, ruler and protector of the state of humanity, one is the demonic spider-like weaver of sinister devouring plots, the other is the serpentine master of crookededness and sabotage, which two you should counter and eliminate.

Having known the two, the plotters and the saboteurs, let Indra, ruler and destroyer of evil and crookedness, divide them into individual roles like spokes of a wheel, press them down into fixed holes in the nave and the rim, work and reel them round to the point of exhaustion, and thus raising himself and the rule to higher power, become a successful manager and destroyer of evil by engagement and application.

With a single stroke of policy, Indra protects and promotes thirty centres of exhilarating soma creativity all together against crooked surreptitious saboteurs of the nation.
5. Abhi gandharvam-atṛṇad-abudhneṣu rajaḥsvā.
   Indro brahmabhya idvṛdhe.

For the advancement of the holy and intelligent people, Indra scatters the selfish forces living purely for physical and material values on stupid and baseless planes of existence.

6. Nirāvidhyad-giribhya ā dhārayat pakvamod-anam. Indro bundaṁ svātataṁ.

   Indra, the ruler, should break the clouds for showers of rain, open out caverns of mountains to drive out destructive elements, build up ample food stocks and expand the armaments for defence.

7. Śatabradhna iṣustava sahasraparṇa eka it.
   Yamindra cakṛṣe yujam.

   Let your arrow, your armour, your target plan, be hundred pointed and thousand phased but one, united and integrated, which, O ruler Indra, you take up as the sole, active characteristic of your rule.

8. Tena stotṛbya ā bhara nṛbhyo nāribhyo attave.
   Sadyo jāta ṛbhuṣṭhira.

   O constant visionary of adamantine will and unshakable action, dynamic and ever new, by that plan and execution bring food and fulfilment for men, women and the celebrants.

_Hṛdā viṣvadhārayah._

All these deeds and enterprises most generous and creative, planned and executed, you hold firmly in your mind with a liberal heart.

10. *Viśvet tā viṣṇurābharad-urukramas-tveṣitaḥ._

_Sataṁ mahiśān kṣiṇapākam-odanam varāham-indra emuṣam._

Indra, Vishnu, too, lord omniscient and omnipotent, as wished and prayed, brings in all these hundreds of great things, cattle wealth, milky delicacies and rain laden clouds.

11. *Tuvikṣaṁ te sukṛtam sūmayām dhanuḥ sādhur-bundo hiran̄yayāḥ._

_Ubhā te bāhū ranāyā susam-skrta ṛdūpe cidrūrvrdhā._

Mighty is your bow, shooting far your arrow, well doing and protecting peace and well being. Safe and secure is your defence, golden gracious. Both your arms, internal security and external defence, are fully trained and civilised, they protect property, safeguard truth and law, and advance culture and refinement.

sharer, none else, O brave and generous lord, a better guide and greater leader of the wise.

5. Nakìmindro nikartave na śakraḥ parišaktave.
Viśvaṁ śrṇoti paśyati.

No one can equal Indra in action, no one in power, he is the powerful, he hears and sees all that is and all that happens in the world.

Purā nidaścikāṣate.

Undaunted and invincible, he watches the pride and passion of mortals, watches and humbles them before they can malign him.
7. Kratva it pūrṇam-udaram turasyāsti vidhataḥ.
   Vṛtraghnaḥ somapāvnaḥ.

He is the doer, perfect and ever self-fulfilled is the passion and desire of the lord who is all conqueror, all ordainer, destroyer of evil and darkness, and loves the peace and joy of life’s beauty and ecstasy as soma.

8. Tve vasūni saṅgatā vīśvā ca soma saubhagā.
   Sudātvaparihvṛtā.

O Soma, lord of peace and joy, in you concentrate all wealth, honour and excellences of the world, all good fortunes, spontaneous generosity, free from crookedness and ambiguity as you are, simple and straight, no double dealing.

   Tvāmaśvayur-eṣate.

My desire for food and fulfilment, for lands, cows, literature and culture, for gold and the beauties of life, and for horses, transport, advancement and achievement, all this concentrates in you, you alone.

    Dinasya vā maghavant-sambhṛtasya vā pūrdhi yavasya kāśinā.
Indra, by virtue of hope and aspiration centred in you, I take up the sickle in hand to reap the ripe grain for my portion. O lord of munificence and glory, fill up my hand with the day’s collection of grain and my mind with the light of day.

Mandala 8/Sukta 79

Soma Devata, Krtnu Bhargava Rshi

This is Soma, lord supreme of peace and joy, doer, maker and creator of the universe, ruler of the world in existence, uncomprehended and incomprehensible yet bursting forth to our vision and knowledge by direct experience of his creative omnipotence. He is all time visionary watching and creating all, vibrant omnipresent power reflected and apprehended through his poetic creation of this world of beauty and mystery.

Soma that clothes the naked, cures all the sick and suffering of the world, gives eyes to the blind to see and legs to the lame to walk.

Ayaṁ kṛtnur-agṛbhīto viśvajid-udbhidit somaḥ.
Śrīr-viprah kāvyena.

2.

Abhyūrnōti yannagnaṁ bhiṣakti viśvāṁ yat turam.
Premandhaḥ khyanniḥ śrōṇo bhūt.

Soma that clothes the naked, cures all the sick and suffering of the world, gives eyes to the blind to see and legs to the lame to walk.

Aṣṭṭhīṣṭaṁ yadā bhiṣakti viśvāṁ yat turam
Uru yuṇtāsī var hauntm.
3. Tvam soma tanūkṛḑbhyo dveśobhyo’nyakṛtebhyaḥ. Uru yantāsi varūtham.

You, Soma, lead the good to extensive freedom and protection against waste and exploitation, jealousy and enmity, and the evil and suffering caused by others.

4. Tvam citī tava dakśairdiva ā pṛthivyā rjīṣin. Yāvīraghasya cid dveṣaḥ.

Soma, lover of peace and joy, protector of the simple and honest people of rectitude, by your divine love and kindness of heart and your universal potential of the light of heaven, drive away the jealousy and enmity of the sinners and criminals from all over the earth.

5. Arthino yanti cedarthāṁ gacchāṇid-daduṣo rātim. Vavṛjyus-trṣyataḥ kāmam.

By the grace and munificence of Soma, the seekers obtain their object of desire, the needy receive the gift of the giver, the thirsty satisfy their thirst with fulfilment.

6. Vidadyat pūrvyaṁ naṣṭam-udīṁ-ṛtāyum-īrayat. Premāyus-tārīd-atīrṇam.
By the grace of Soma, the devotee recovers what he lost earlier, the lord exhorts and exalts the yajnic performer and observer of the law of truth, and he increases, strengthens and fulfils the life which the celebrant has yet to live.

Soma, you are the giver of peace and bliss for us, merciful, sober at heart and beyond all disturbance and agitation. O lord, bless us with peace and well being at heart.

O Soma, ruler and peace giver of the world, disturb us not from our state of settlement, strike us not with fear, torture us not with the flames of passion and pride.

O lord ruler of the world, whatever and wherever I happen to see the displeasure of divinities in our home, pray ward that off. O generous and virile lord of peace and good will, throw out the jealous and the enemies, ward off all the violent and destructive forces from us.

weak, inspiring protector of the creative and progressive as you are, would you not strengthen us and bless us more and ever more?

4. Indra pra ṇo rathamava paścāccit santama-drivah. Purastādenam me kṛdhi.

Indra, lord of thunderous action, pray protect our chariot of life even if it lag behind and let it move on ahead for the sake of our survival and advancement.

Hey Indra, come on, why tarry behind? Move our chariot on to the front rank, let the honour and prize of victory be closer at hand.

Protect our chariot racing for victory. Everything is easy and possible for you every way, is there anything beyond? Pray justify our ambition for victory and make it possible.

Indra, pray strengthen us as determined on good works. You are the stronghold of protection and giver of fulfilment. This conscientious prayer, in truth and according to time and season reaches you. Pray help us reach the target.

The path of life is long and wide, the wealth of life is won. Let no malignity, calumny or dishonour fall to our share. Let all scandalous malcontents and frustrated enemy forces be uprooted.

The yajnic name that you have won for us is the best and highest we love and desire in preference to paternal, maternal or fraternal name, since by that name only you as our master and sustainer have got us the highest identity.

O Immortal divinities of spirit and nature, O holy men and women of spotless character and generous disposition, let the dedicated performer of daily yajna exhilarate and exalt you with yajna and hospitality. You too, pray, create and bless him with honourable wealth, means and materials for success, and may the spirit of light and intelligence, Agni, visit and bless him every morning at yajna.

Lord of mighty arms, Indra, gather by your expert right hand abundant riches for us which may be full of nourishment, energy, wonderful beauty and grace worth having as a prize possession.

2. \textit{Vidmā hi tvā tuvikūrmīṁ tuvidēṣṇāṁ tuvīmagham. Tuvimātramavobhiḥ.}

We know you as lord of universal action, all giving, treasure hold of unbounded wealth and boundless in power and presence with your favour and protections.

When you give to bless mankind, no one can stop you, O brave lord, neither mortals nor immortals, just as no one can resist the mighty sun.

Come, let us sing and celebrate in honour of Indra, lord and ruler of wealth, self-ruler and self-refulgent. No one would harm us in respect of money, materials and power.

5. Pra stōsadupa gāsiṣac-chravat sāma gīyamānam. Abhi rādhasā jugurat.

Let man adore and celebrate Indra, sing in honour of divinity, hear songs of adoration, and with all wealth, power and honour thank and praise Indra as the giver.
6. Ā no bhara dakṣinenaḥ bhi savyena pra mṛśa. Indra mā no vasornirbhāk.

Indra, bear and bring and bless us with wealth, power, honour and protection both by right and by left hand, and never deprive us of this honour and excellence.

Indra Devata, Kusidi Kanja Rishi

आ प दंब परावताचावतंश्च वृत्रहन।

1. Ā pra drava parāvato’rvāvataśca vrtrahan.

Madyāḥ prati prabharmaṇī.

O destroyer of darkness, evil and ignorance, come rushing without delay, whether you are far or near, and join us in this vibrant yajnic economy of the divine order. (O man in search of the soul, rush in from roaming around and join the living systemic world within at the vibrant centre.)

तीव्रः सामासः आ गहि सुतासा मादयिष्णवः।

2. Tīvrāḥ somasya ā gahi sutāso mādayiṣṇavaḥ.

Pibā dadhrgyathociṣe.

Come, grab at the sharp and strong soma draughts of elixir, distilled, energised and most exhilarating, and drink without inhibition to your heart’s desire.

इषा मन्दस्वादु तर्च्य मन्यवर॥

3. Iṣā mandasvadu te’ram varāya manyave.

Bhuvat ta indra śaṃ hṛde.
Be happy with the food, and then let it exhilarate you with the cherished fulfilment of your heart. Indra, O soul of this existential yajna, let there be peace at your heart unto the depth of your soul.

4. Ā tvāsattravā gahi nyukthāni ca hūyase.
Upame rocane divaḥ.

Indra, happy and free from all foes, distractions and contradictions, come in response to the hymns of adoration, invited to the sublime glory of the light of heaven.

5. Tubhyāyamadribhīḥ suto gobhiḥ śrīto madāya kam. Pra soma indra hūyate.

Indra, to you is offered this soma, soothing and exhilarating it is, distilled by celebrated admirers and seasoned with the spirit of light and power of divine ecstasy, especially for you.

6. Indra śrūdhi su me havamasme sutasya gomataḥ.
Vi pītiṁ trptimaśnuhi.

Indra, listen to my call, come and have a drink of our distilled soma seasoned with milk and ecstatic power to your total fulfilment of the heart and soul.
7. Ya indra camaseśvā somaścamūṣu te sutāḥ.

Pibedasya tvamīśiṣe.

Indra, of the soma which is distilled and poured in the cups and ladles of spiritual yajna for you, drink to your heart’s desire since you yourself rule over the ecstasy of the nectar.

8. Yo apsu candramā iva somaścamūṣu dadṛṣe.

Pibedasya tvamīśiṣe.

Drink of the soma which shines in the cups of yajna, in the beauty of human karma, and in the skies like the glory of the moon, drink freely since you alone rule over the nectar.

9. Yaṁ te śyenāḥ padābharat tiro rajāṁsyaspr̥tam.

Pibedasya tvamīśiṣe.

Of the nectar of ecstasy which the mighty sage and scholar distilled by flights of spiritual imagination from heaven and brought in by the rays of light across the spaces, drink and enjoy since now you alone rule over the sublimity and power of this nectar.

नर्मादिव्यं अघस्यं यत॥ ५ ॥

5. वामस्या हि प्रचेतसा इषानासो रिषादसाह।
नेमादित्याः अघस्याः यत॥

O Adityas, generous and brilliant leaders of what is good and noble, all-aware of good and evil, destroyers of violence and negativities, you are the rulers, controllers and guides only of the true, the good and the beautiful. You never favour or approve of what is evil and sinful.

6. अयामिद्वाह सुदानावाह कष्यांतो यांतो अध्वान।
Devā vṛdhāya hūmahe।

O Vishvedevas, generous and leading divinities of earth and heaven, whether we abide in the home or go out on the paths of the wide world, we call upon you only, for the sake of guidance and advancement.

अधिन न इन्द्र्यां विष्णा सजात्यानाम।

7. Adhi na indraiśāṁ viṣṇo sajātyānām.
   Itā maruto aśvinā.

   Indra, lord of glory, giver of power and honour, Vishnu, omnipresent divinity, Maruts, winds and vibrant humanity, Ashvins, harbingers of the new dawn, take it that we have come in advance of these homogeneous communities and accept us as your own.

प भातृव्य सुदानवाच्य त्विता समाया।

8. Pra bhrātṛtvāṁ sudānavo ’dha dvitā samānyā.
   Māturgarbhe bharāmahe.

   Brotherliness and similarity as well as duality and dissimilarity, O generous Vishvedevas, we acquire in mother Prakṛti’s womb and bear from there.

यूयं हि छता सुदानव इन्द्रंधत्यथा अभिद्यावः।
अधी चिद्व उत्प बुध।९॥

   Adhā cidva uta bruve.

   O generous Vishvedevas, you, with Indra, lord omnipotent as supreme, are and abide as heavenly and brilliant in knowledge and divinity. That’s why I speak, celebrate and pray to you.
Mandala 8/Sukta 84
Agni Devata, Ushana Kavya Rshi

1. Preṣṭhaṁ vo atithiṁ stuṣe mitramiva priyam.
Agniṁ ratham na vedyam.

I sing and celebrate the glories of Agni, lord omniscient, light and leader of the world, dearest and most welcome as an enlightened guest, loving as a friend, who like a divine harbinger, reveals the light of knowledge to us.

2. Kavimiva pracetasasāṁ yaṁ devaṁo adha dvitā.
Ni martyeśvādādhuḥ.

I adore Agni whom the divinities established among mortals as the visionary poet and the spirit of enlightenment and awareness, as intelligence and mind, as will and passion, as perception and volition, as male and female and as the yajna fire and the vital heat of the body system, the two ways in which divine vitality expresses itself.

3. Tvaṁ yaviṣṭha dāśuṣo nṛṇḥ pāhi śṛṇudhī girah.
Rakṣa tokamuta tmanā.

O lord eternal, ever youthful beyond age, pray protect and promote the families of the generous people, listen to their voices of prayer and, by all your will and power, protect and promote the children and grand children of humanity.

4. Kayā te aṅgira ārjuna napādūpāstutim.
   Varāya deva manyave.

   O creator, preserver and protector of energy, dear as breath of life and vitality of existence, with words of beauty and bliss, O light of the world, we offer our homage and adoration to you, lord refulgent and great.

5. Dāśema kasya manasā yajñasya sahaso yaho.
   Kadu voca idam namah.

   Agni, to which mighty, potent, adorable power other than you, shall we offer our sincere homage, when and where present these words of prayer?

6. Adhā tvam hi naskaro viśvā asmabhyam suṣṭiḥ.
   Vājadraviṇaso girah.

   And you alone will provide happy homes and peaceful establishment for all our people and bless us with vitality, power, wealth and victory in response to our prayer.

O lord protector of the world, as a happy home and shelter for the people, whose sincere and abundant prayers do you accept and fulfil? His whose prayers to you are enlightened and inspired by knowledge, wisdom and sincere awareness of divinity.

Taṁ marjayanta sukratuṁ puroyāvānamājīṣu. Sveṣu kṣayesu vājinam.

In their battles of life and in their homes, people adore and glorify Agni, that high priest of divine action, first and original initiator, leader and guide and mighty potent creator of the universe.

Kṣeti kṣemebhiḥ sādhubhirnakiryāṁ ghnanti hanti yaḥ. Agne suvīra edhate.

Agni, O lord self-refulgent, the man who lives at peace in his home with the wealth of his peaceable protective good actions and wards off evil, no evil thoughts assail, such a man prospers, brave and blest with holy wealth and good progeny.
Mandala 8/Sukta 85
Ashvinau Devate, Krshna Angirasa Rshi

आ म हवं नासुत्याच्विना गच्छेत युवम।
मध्वः सार्मस्य पीतयः ॥ १ ॥

1. Ā me havaṁ nāsatyā'śvinā gacchataṁ yuvam.
Madhvahā somasya pītaye.

Come in response to my call, Ashvins, both observers and preserves of truth. Come to taste, protect and promote the honey sweets of the soma joy of life.

इम व स्तामपश्विनम म शृणुतं हरवम।
मध्वः सार्मस्य पीतयः ॥ २ ॥

2. Imaṁ me stomam-aśvinemāṁ me śṛṇutam havam.
Madhvahā somasya pītaye.

Ashvins, listen to this call of mine, accept this holy song of adoration, come to taste, protect and promote the honey sweets of soma we have prepared.

अयं वां कृष्णाः अश्विना हरवत् वाजिनीवसू।
मध्वः सार्मस्य पीतयः ॥ ३ ॥

3. Ayam vāṁ krṣṇo aśvinā havate vājinīvasū.
Madhvahā somasya pītaye.

This ardent celebrant invokes you and draws your attention, Ashvins, winners of wealth and victories, to come, enjoy, protect and promote the soma joys of life for peace and progress.

शृणुतं जीतितहवं कृष्णाः स्तुवता नंसः।
मध्वः सार्मस्य पीतयः ॥ ४ ॥
4. Śrṇutam jariturhavaṁ krṣṇasya stuvato narā. Madhvah somasya pītaye.

Listen to the call of the celebrant worshipper who draws your attention to the soma joys and beauties of life. Come, taste, protect and promote the honey sweet efforts of the creators, O brave leaders of the people.

O divine leaders and harbingers of light and peace, give a comfortable home free from fear and violence for the celebrant and vibrant scholar in order that he and others may pursue, create and enjoy the honey sweets of life’s beauty of knowledge, culture and advancement with a drink of soma.

Thus with the gift of a home of peace and freedom, Ashvins, harbingers of light and beauty of a new morning, go to the yajamana who generously offers holy oblations into the creative yajna for new knowledge. Go to enjoy the soma of his achievement, protect and promote his efforts.
7. Yuñjāthāṁ rāsabhaṁ rathe vīḍvaṅge vrṣaṅvasū. Madhvaḥ somasya pītaye.

Ashvins, complementary harbingers of the showers of wealth, honour and excellence, harness the roaring motive power in your strongly built, unbreakable chariot and go to the house of the celebrant to promote the honey sweets of knowledge and power for the peace and joy of the world.

8. Tribandhureṇa trivṛtā rathenā yātamaśvinā. Madhvaḥ somasya pītaye.

Ashvins, come by a three stage chariot powered by a three turbine motive force to promote the honey sweets of new knowledge and celebrate the soma joy of the new achievement.

9. Nū me giro nāsatyaśvinā prāvataṁ yuvam. Madhvaḥ somasya pītaye.

O twin divine powers, preservers and promoters of truth and rectitude, pray honour and fulfil my words of prayer for the advancement of knowledge, power and joy of humanity, and come to honour, protect and promote the soma sweets of success.
1. Ubhā hi dasrā bhiṣajā mayobhuvobhā dakṣāsya vacaso babhūvathuḥ. Tā vām viśvaco havate tanūkṛthe mā no vi yauṣṭaṁ sakhyā mumocatam.

Both of you, Ashvins, nature’s complementary powers of efficacy, are destroyers of suffering, physicians, health givers for peace, and both of you abide by and honour the word of the specialist in the field of health and medicine. The all-prevading spirit of health calls on you to restore the body’s health and efficiency. Pray forsake us not, deprive us not of your natural friendship and organismic companionship in matters of health, release us from pain and suffering.

2. Kathā nūnaṁ vā vimanā upa stavadyuvanā dhiyaṁ dadathurvasya iṣṭaye. Tā vām viśvako havate tanūkṛthe mā no vi yauṣṭaṁ sakhyā mumocatam.

How can a person disturbed in the mind study and honour you for the control of complementary pranic energies of prana and apana? When the pranic energies are controlled in meditation, you give the practitioner the intelligent capacity to achieve the desired concentration for peace and power of the mind. Ashvins, the universal lover of health invokes you for the system’s efficacy. Pray forsake us not, deprive us not of your natural friendship.

1. Ubhëhi dasrëh bhiya hi mayobhuvobhë dakëasya vacaso babhuvathu¬. Të vëhi višvako havate tanukrëthe më no vi yauṣṭam sakhyë mumocatam.

   Both of you, Ashvins, nature’s complementary powers of efficacy, are destroyers of suffering, physicians, health givers for peace, and both of you abide by and honour the word of the specialist in the field of health and medicine. The all-prevading spirit of health calls on you to restore the body’s health and efficiency. Pray forsake us not, deprive us not of your natural friendship and organismic companionship in matters of health, release us from pain and suffering.

2. Kathë nëuna vëhi vimanë upa stavadyuvaÅ dhiyaÅ dadathur-vasya iṣṭaye. Të vëhi višvako havate tanukrëthe më no vi yauṣṭam sakhyë mumocatam.

   How can a person disturbed in the mind study and honour you for the control of complementary pranic energies of prana and apana? When the pranic energies are controlled in meditation, you give the practitioner the intelligential capacity to achieve the desired concentration for peace and power of the mind. Ashvins, the universal lover of health invokes you for the system’s efficacy. Pray forsake us not, deprive us not of your friendship.

3. YuvaÅ hi śmë purubhjemamedhatum viśnëpve dadathur-vasya iṣṭaye. Të vëm viśvako havate tanukrëthe më no vi yauṣṭam sakhyë mumocatam.

   O givers of good health and nourishment to all living beings, you bring knowledge, awareness and wisdom to the aspiring devotee of omnipresent divinity for the attainment of desired honour and excellence. That’s why the whole world calls on you for the health of body and mind. Ashvins, forsake us not, deprive us not of your friendship.

4. Uta tyaÅ vëiraÅ dhanasëmṛjīśinam dūre cit santamavase havāmahe. Yasya svādiṇṭhā sumatiḥ pituryathā më no vi yauṣṭam sakhyë mumocatam.

   We call for that mighty energy of prana which is the source of wealth, simple and natural cleanser and strengthener of body and mind, which though it may be far off, still whose sweetest gift of nourishment of intelligence is like the gift of nature, father, and omniscient God. Ashvins, pray bring us that energy, forsake us not, deprive us not of your friendship, save us with that friendship.

5. \textit{Rtena devah savitā śamāyata ṛtasya śrīgamurviyā vi paprathe. Ṛtam sāsāha mahi cit pṛtanyato mā no vi yauṣṭam sakhyā mumocatam.}

Self-refulgent Savita, creator and energiser, blesses with peace, truth and the laws of life, and he expands the law of life with the expansive universe. Truth and the law of truth overcomes the challenges of even the mightiest opponents. Ashvins, complementary powers of Savita, forsake us not, deprive us not of your friendship, give us freedom by that friendship.

Mandala 8/Sukta 87

\textit{Ashvinau Devate, Krshna Angirasa, or Vasishtha Dyumnika or Priyamedha Angirasa Rshi}

1. \textit{Dyumni vāṁ stomo aśvinā krivirna seka ā gatam. Madhyāḥ sutasya sa divī priyo narā pātam gaurā-viveriṇe.}

Splendid is your song of praise, Ashvins, come like the soothing sprinkle of a fountain, both of you, and drink of the honey sweets of soma, delightful as distilled in the light of heaven. Come, best of men, leaders of life, and drink like thirsty stags at a pool in the desert.

Pibataṁ gharmaṁ madhumantam-aśvinā’’ barhiḥ sīdataṁ narā. Tā mandasānā manuṣo duroṇa ā ni pātam vedasā vayaḥ.

Come Ashvins, leading lights of humanity, sit on the seats of holy grass on the vedi and enjoy and participate in the honey sweet warmth of yajna, social culture, knowledge and discipline of the human community. Happy and joyful in the human home, in the human body, enjoy, preserve and promote life with the wealth and knowledge you have.

O Ashvins, the holy performers who are dedicated to yajna invoke and call you both with all your succour and promotions, so that you go to the place and paths of those yajakas who are ready with the grass spread on the vedi and there join the yajna for the realisation of their higher aims of life.
Ashvins, come from the light of heaven, sit together on the holy grass, drink the honey sweet soma like thirsty deer in the forest, and, exhilarated, listen to the song of adoration offered in honour of divinity.

Ashvins, holy powers of humanity and nature living and acting in complementarity, destroyers of evil and negativities, moving by golden paths of virtue, protectors and promoters of the good and positive values of life, growing to higher life by truth, observing and advancing the laws of truth by following paths of truth, come with your mind and senses inspired and strengthened by nature and enlightenment and enjoy the soma delight of life.

Ashvins, virile men and women, vibrant, wise and devout, we call upon you for victory and advancement in energy, food, honour and excellence. Ashvins, noble and cultured, destroyers of negativities, versatile in various actions, come without delay with active intelligence, full awareness and spirit of action.
Mandala 8/Sukta 88

Indra Devata, Nodha Gautama Rshi

   We invoke and call upon Indra eagerly as cows call for their calves in the stalls, and with songs of adoration over night and day we glorify him, lord glorious, omnipotent power fighting for truth against evil forces, and exhilarated with the bright soma of worship offered by celebrant humanity.

   We pray to Indra, lord of light, omnificent, hallowed with heavenly glory, universally generous like clouds of shower, and we ask for food abounding in strength and nourishment and for hundredfold and thousandfold wealth and prosperity abounding in lands, cows and the graces of literature and culture, and we pray for the gift instantly.
3. Na tvā brhanto adrayo varanta indra vīḷavaḥ. Yadditsasi stu¬vate māvate vasu nakiṣṭadā mināti te.

Not the mighty fixed mountains can restrain you, Indra, generous lord, when you come to give wealth to a celebrant like me. No one can stop and frustrate your will.

4. Yoddhāsi kratvā śivasota daṁsanā viśvā jātābhi majmanā. Ā tvāyamarka ūtaye vavartati yam gotamā ajījanan.

You are a victorious warrior by your strength and yajnic karma. You are supreme over all things born of your wondrous power and majesty. This worshipper adores you for the sake of protection and advancement, the lord whom the imaginative wise realise in their soul at will.

You transcend the bounds of heaven by your might. The regions of earth and skies encompass you not. Indra, lord of majesty and omnipotence, bring us food, strength and the divine power of sustenance for life.
6. Nakiḥ pariṣṭirmaghavan maghasya te yaddāśuṣe daśasyasi. Asmākaṁ bodhyucathasya coditā maṁhiṣṭho vājasātaye.

Lord of world’s wealth, power, honour and excellence, when you bless the generous devotee with the gift of your profusion, there is no restraint on your will and power. O lord most glorious and adorable, inspirer and intensifier of our adoration, let us know the paths for our noble movement forward for the sake of real victory and progress.

Mandala 8/Sukta 89

Indra Devata, Nrmedha and Purumedha

Angirasas Rshis

1. Brhadindrāya gāyata maruto vṛtrahantamam. Yena jyotir-ajanayann-ṛtāvṛdho devaṁ devāya jāgrvī.

O Maruts, vibrant leaders of humanity in knowledge and action, sing the resounding songs of Sama which, like the sun, dispel the darkness and eliminate evil, the same by which the sagely servants of eternal law and cosmic yajna in the service of God vitalise, recreate and extend that divine inextinguishable light of life which is ever awake in the world of existence.

Indra burns and blows away all curses and calumnies and shines in power and glory beyond scandalous criticism. O refulgent lord of power and force, commanding the host of Maruts, vibrant leading forces of nature and humanity, brilliant and generous sages and divines try to achieve kinship as friends with you.

O Maruts, vibrant brilliant leaders of humanity, worship Indra, lord omnipotent beyond all bounds, and study the divine powers immanent in nature, with hymns of Vedic adoration. He is the destroyer of evil, dispels darkness and ignorance, and destroys the negative uncreative forces with his thunderbolt of hundredfold power.

O man of determined mind, boldly with confidence as that of Maruts, offer adorations to Indra. Let your honour and fame rise and ring far and wide and hold it well under control with a bold mind. Let the mother-like pranic energies run through the veins with vitality, destroy evil and darkness, and win the light of heaven.

And then proceeds the cosmic yajna, formation of light, sun and the joyous agni and vayu. And thus you remain and rule as the supreme over what has come into being and what is coming into being.
O man of determined mind, boldly with confidence as that of Maruts, offer adorations to Indra. Let your honour and fame rise and ring far and wide and hold it well under control with a bold mind. Let the mother-like pranic energies run through the veins with vitality, destroy evil and darkness, and win the light of heaven.

5.  Yajjāyathā apūrvya maghavan vrtraḥatyāya. Tat prthivīṃ-aprathayas-tadastabhnā uta dyām.

O lord of glory, Indra, matchless without precedent, when you rise for the elimination of darkness, then you manifest the wide space and plan the heaven, earth and sky in their place in the cosmic order.

6.  Tat te yajño ajāyata tadarka uta haskṛtiḥ. Tadviśvamabhibhūrasī yajjātaṁ yacca jantvam.

And then proceeds the cosmic yajna, formation of light, sun and the joyous agni and vayu. And thus you remain and rule as the supreme over what has come into being and what is coming into being.

7.  Āmāsu pakvam-airaya ā sūryaṁ rohayo divi. Gharmāṁ na sāman tapatā suvṛktibhir-juṣṭaṁ girvaṇase bṛhat.
You move the ripening flow of sap in the veins of maturing forms of life. You raise and place the sun in the high heaven. O celebrants, as in the heat of fire, temper and shine your sama songs of adoration and, with noble hymns of praise, sing resounding Brhat samans of worship with love in honour of adorable Indra.

Mandala 8/Sukta 90

Indra Devata, Nrmedha and Purumedha
Angirasas Rshis

1. Ā no viśvāsū havya indraḥ samatsu bhūṣatu. Upa brahmāṇi savanāni vrtrahā parāmajyā ṛcīśamaḥ.

    Indra, lord of universal energy, world power and human forces, is worthy of reverence and invocation in all our joint battles of life. May the lord of strongest bow, destroyer of evil and dispeller of darkness and ignorance, great and glorious as sung in the Rks, grace our songs of adoration and faithful efforts with the beauty and glory of success.

    You are the original giver of means of effort and success in all fields of life. You are the maker of leaders and giver of the wealth and honours of life. Of such great lord of glory and power, promoter and protector of strength and power, we pray for wealth, honour and excellence worthy of your glory.

Indra, celebrated in holy voice, unsurpassed songs are offered in your honour. O lord commander of instant powers of transport, communication and radiation, pray accept these hymns we conceive, sing and offer to you in response to your glory.

"..."

4. Tvaṁ hi satyo maghavann-anānato vṛtṛa bhūri nṛṣṇjase. Sa tvam śaviṣṭha vajrahasta daśuve 'rvāñcam rayimā kṛdhi.

Indra, lord of wealth and glory, you are eternal, never subdued, and many a form of darkness and evil you rectify or destroy. O lord most potent, armed with thunder in hand, bear and bring the wealth of life for the generous yajaka who offers libations liberally into the yajna vedi and gives help to the needy.

"..."
5. Tvamindra yaśā aṣyṛjīṣī śavasaspate. Tvam vṛtrāṇī haṁsyapraṭīnyeka idanuttā carṣaṇī-dhṛtā.

Indra, lord all powerful, ruler of the world, yours is the honour, yours is the creation of wealth and joy. All by yourself, unsubdued, you eliminate irresistible forms of evil and darkness by the power you wield for the people.

Indra, lord of vibrant energy and power, we look forward to you as our partner, enlightened ruler and master, and competent giver of reward for our action and endeavour. Your very presence is our shelter, a very home like the great mother earth, and we pray we may ever enjoy the favour of your good will and benevolence.

Mandala 8/Sukta 91

Indra Devata, Apala Atreyi Rshi

The maiden having consented to marry, whether she is emaciated in health or bubbling with energy, should get the soma, and while going home should speak...
5. Tvamindra ya asy asvavasaspate. Tva vatriha ha syaprafta idanuttara carya-dhrtam.

Indra, lord all powerful, ruler of the world, yours is the honour, yours is the creation of wealth and joy. All by yourself, unsubdued, you eliminate irresistible forms of evil and darkness by the power you wield for the people.

The invigorating juice of soma which gives strength and vigour of health and radiates from person to person, family to family, O maiden, O youth, drink. It is expressed and invigorated to the last drop. It is delicious, nourishing, seasoned with delicacies, fresh and exhilarating, and invigorating with pranic energies.

3. Ā cana tvā cikitsāmo ’dhi cana tvā nemasi. Śanairiva śanakairivrāyendo pari srava.

O soma, we are trying to know you and your efficacy, we do not yet know you in full. Slowly, O soma, slowly, drop by drop, flow for Indra, health and vigour of life.

May soma give us strength and vigour. May it work for our all round improvement in personality. May it make us happier and wealthier. And may be then we, not yet in favour of matrimony and husbands, grow up, reconcile and regain their love.

5. Imāni trīṇi viṣṭapā tānīndra vi rohaya.

Siras-tatasyorvarāṃ-ādīdamā ma upodare.

These are three vital systemic organs of the growing and continuous body existence which, O soma energy, raise and refine: One is the head, seat of the intelligential system, the other is heart and lungs, seat of pranic system, and yet another is the stomach and pelvic region, seat of nutritional and sexual system. Indra, lord of energy and power, let these three grow to maturity.

6. Asau ca yā na urvarādimāṃ navaṇī mama.

Atho tatasya yacchiraḥ sarvā tā romaśā kṛdhi.

And that which is the heart region and this body system of mine and the head region of the body which is to continue in the family line, let all these grow to maturity.

7. Khe rathasya khe’nasah khe yugasya śatakṛato.

Indra, giver of health and energy, O soul, agent... of a hundred good actions, whatever the weakness of this chariot, the body system, whatever the weakness in the pranic energy system, and whatever weakness there be in the coordination of the various systems of body, prana and mind in relation to the soul, all these weaknesses of the unprotected, under nourished and immature maiden, I pray, make up and give her a radiant personality.

Mandala 8/Sukta 92

Indra Devata, Shrutakaksha or Sukaksha Angirasa Rshi

पान्तमा वा अन्ध्रस इन्द्रमभि प गायत।
विश्वासाहं शतकतुं मंहिंछे चषणीनाम॥ १ ॥

Sing in praise and appreciation of Indra, the ruler, protector of your food, sustenance and maintenance, all tolerant, all defender and all challenger, hero of a hundred noble actions and the best, most generous and most brilliant of the people.

पुरुहुतं पुरुष्टुतं गाध्रान्यं सन्त्रुतम।
इन्द्रु इति बवितन॥ २ ॥

2. Puruhūtāṁ puruṣṭutaṁ gāthānyāṁ sanaśrutam. Indra iti bravītana.

Call him by the name and title of ‘Indra’, invoked by many, adored by all, worthy of celebration in story, all time famous who is also a scholar of universal knowledge.
   Indra is a happy and joyous leader, giver of a high order of living, energy and life’s victories. May he, with love, courtesy and humility, lead us to life’s greatness and glory.

   Let Indra, the ruler, value, protect and promote the soma homage mixed and strengthened with the delicacies of life and offered by the generous and enlightened people. (The mantra points to the circulation of wealth and economy of the nation managed by the tax payers and the ruling powers of the government.)

5. Tamvabhi prārcatendraṃ somasya pītaye. Tadiddhyasya vardhanam.
   Honour and appreciate Indra with words of gratefulness and adoration for the consumption, protection and promotion of the soma homage offered by the people. That tribute of honour is the real exalting strength and success for the ruler.

Exalted by the joyous power of this soma offering of the people, the brilliant and generous Indra rules over all regions of the world by light and lustre worthy of a ruler.

O people of the land, that generous and brilliant victor (Sudaksha) in all sessions of the enlightened citizens and celebrated in their universal voices, you elevate to the office of ruler for your defence, protection and progress.

The ruler, warrior that hits the target, being irresistible, protector and valuer of life’s joy, inviolable and unsurpassable leader in irrevocable action: such is Indra, elevated ruler.
9. Śikṣāṇa indra rāya ā puru vidvān rciṣama.
Avā naḥ pārye dhane.

Indra, leader in knowledge and wisdom, pursuer of the path of rectitude, guide and lead us to ample wealth and protect us through our struggle for victory of honour and excellence.

10. Atāścidindraṇa upā ’yāhi śatavājayā. Iṣā sahasravājayā.

And from here, Indra, come to us, bring us the food of life for a hundredfold and a thousandfold victory of honour and excellence.

O wielder of power and force, let us come to have leaders and warriors endowed with high intelligence and enlightened will for action and, O lord of thunderous power, in the development of lands and breaking of mountains, let us win our battles by virtue of our cavaliers and pioneers.

Indra, achiever of a hundred noble victories, just as cows feel delight in green grass, so we give you the pleasure of victory in our songs of celebration.

13. Viśvā hi martyatvanā’nukāmā śatakraṭo.Aganma vajrinnāśasaḥ.

O lord of a hundred noble actions, all mortals are moved by hopes and ambitions natural to humanity. O wielder of thunder and justice, let us too move forward and realise our hopes and ambitions.

14. Tve su putra śavaso’vrtran kāmakātayaḥ.Na tvāmindrāti ricyate.

O protector and promoter of strength and courage, seekers of ambition and victory look up to you for inspiration and depend on you for encouragement. No one excels you in incentive and exhortation.

15. Sa no vrṣantsaniṣṭhayā sam ghorayā dravitnvā.Dhiyā viddhī purandhyā.

O lord generous as rain showers, come and help us with constant and most favourable, venerable and sublime, instant and munificent friendly intelligence, planning and wisdom for action and advancement of the human community.

O lord of a hundred great actions, Indra, ruler of the world, the most generous, brilliant and ecstatic will and pleasure that is yours, by that, pray, inspire us and let us share the joy of divine achievement.

17. Yaste citraśravastamo ya indra vṛtrahantamaḥ. Ya ojodātamo madaḥ.

That ananda, will and pleasure of yours which is most wonderful and famous, which destroys evil and darkness upon the instant completely and which is most potent in inspiring the celebrant with the courage of action, honour and dignity, with that, prey, inspire us and let us share that ecstasy.

O lord ruler of clouds and mountains, ever true and constant, lover and protector of soma, the joy and beauty of life, glorious destroyer of darkness, we know as we receive that the courage and will, the sense of honour and dignity that prevails among all the people of the world is yours, inspired by you, and a gift of yours to us.

19. Indrāya madvane sutāṁ pari śobhantu no girah.
   Arkam-arcantu kāravaḥ.

Let all our voices of admiration flow and intensify the soma for the joy of Indra, and let the poets sing songs of adoration for him and celebrate his achievements.

20. Yasmin viśvā adhi śriyo raṇanti sapta saṁsadaḥ.
    Indrāṁ sute havāmahe.

In our soma yajna of life, in meditation, and in the holy business of living, we invoke Indra, in whom all beauties and graces abide, whom all the seven seers in yajna adore, in whom all the five senses, mind and intelligence subside absorbed, and under whom all the seven assemblies of the world unite, meet and act.

In three modes of body, mind and soul, the devas, seven senses, the human consciousness and the noble yogis, concentrate on Indra, divine consciousness. In three regions of the universe, noble souls meditate on the universal consciousness of the divine Indra. Thus they perform the yajna of divinity in communion. May all our songs of adoration glorify that supreme consciousness, Indra.

22. Ā tvā viśantvindavaḥ samudramiva sindhavaḥ. Na tvāmindrāti ricyate.

All the flows of soma, joys, beauties and graces of life concentrate in you, and thence they flow forth too, Indra, lord supreme, just as all rivers flow and join in the ocean and flow forth from there. O lord no one can comprehend and excel you.

O lord of universal love and grace as showers of rain, ever awake in the world of existence, your divine bliss pervades all that essence of soma, joy and beauty of life, which is food for the human soul, and it ripples and rolls in the blissful reservoirs of your divine presence.

Indra, O lord of power and joy, destroyer of evil and suffering, let there be ample soma to fill the space in the womb of existence, and let the flow of soma be profuse for all the forms of existence.

अरमश्रवीय गायति श्रुतकक्क अरम गवेः।
अरमिन्द्रस्य धाम्ने॥ २५॥

25. Aramaśvāya gāyati śrutakakṣo aramī gave.
Arāmindrasya dhamne.

The sage, having drunk of the soma of divine love, sings in praise of the dynamics of motion and attainment and the music overflows, he sings of the dynamics of creative production and power of communication such as waves of energy, earth and cows, and he sings profusely of the lord’s refulgent forms of wealth, beauty and excellence.

अरमं हि ष्मा सुतशु णः सामविन्द्र भूषसि।
अरमं त शक दावने॥ २६॥

26. Araṁ hi ṣmā suteṣu ṣaḥ someśvindra bhūṣasi.
Araṁ te śakra dāvane.

Indra, ruler of the world, all potent and competent doer of holy action, when we have distilled and achieved the soma of bright knowledge, action, wealth, honour and excellence of life, you feel highly glorified, and that achievement is a high tribute to your generous munificence also.

प्रकारताविधिदिवस्वां नेन्त ना गिरेः।
अरमं गामात त वयम॥ २७॥
27. Parākāttāc-cid-adrivas-tvām nakṣanta no girah.
   Araṁ gamāma te vayam.

   Indra, lord of clouds and mountains, wielder of thunder and lightning, our songs of adoration reach you even from far where we happen to be. We pray we may realise your presence intimately by direct experience of the spirit, beyond thought and speech.

28. Evā hyasi vīrayurevā śūra uta sthirah.
   Evā te rādhyaṁ manah.

   You love and honour the brave, you are brave yourself, you are definite in intention and undisturbed in attitudes. You are now ripe for the perfection of mind to experience the soul’s beatitude in, divine presence.

   Adhā cidindra me sacā.

   Indra, generous lord of the wealth and glory of the world, thus by practice and meditation, is divine generosity cultivated and achieved by all those who bear and bring the offerings to you. O lord of power and immense generosity, be my friend and companion.

30. Mo şu brahmeva tandrayurbhuvo vājānāṁ pate.
    Matsvā sutasya gomataḥ.
O ruler, protector and promoter of the honour and excellence of life, just as a vibrant scholar of divine knowledge never slackens into sloth from wakefulness, so you too should never be slothful and half asleep. Be ever wakeful, enjoy and guard the distilled essence of knowledge and creative achievement of wealth, honour and excellence.

31. Mā na indrābhyā diśāḥ sūro aktuṣvā yaman.
Tvā yuṣaḥ vanema tat.

Indra, powerful friend and ally in spirit and conduct, let no force, howsoever strong it may be, from any direction come at night and overtake us by violence. With you as a friend and inspirer, let us counter that attack and win.

32. Tvayedinra yajā vayam prati bruvīmahi sprdhaḥ.
Tvamasmākam tava smasi.

Indra, O lord omnipotent, O intelligent soul in the state of divine beatitude, O mind in the state of perfect spiritual control, only with you as friend and companion do we counter and win our adversaries in life. You are ours, we are yours.

33. Tvāmiddhi tvāyavo’nunonuvataścarān.
Sakhāya indra kāravaḥ.
Indra, O lord omnipotent, O ruler of the world, O soul in divine union, O mind in perfect state of spiritual control, may the poets, celebrants, men in action, all assistant forces in unison live their life in dedication to you, working for you and thereby exalting you in song and in action as their friend, guide and protector.

Mandala 8/Sukta 93

Indra (1-33), Indra and Bhavah (34) Devata, Sukaksha Angirasa Rshi

O Surya, self-refulgent light of the world, you rise and move in the service of Indra, lord of the wealth of revelation, generous and virile, lover of humanity and dispeller of the darkness and negativities of the mind, soul and the universe.

(Indra is interpreted in this Sukta as the omnipotent, self-refulgent lord and light of the universe, as the sublime soul, and as the enlightened mind according to the context of meaning reflected by the intra-structure of the mantra.)

Indra who breaks off the nine and niny strongholds of darkness, ignorance and suffering by the force of his lustrous arms and, as the dispeller of darkness, destroys the crooked serpentine evil of the world:

That same Indra who is blissful, a gracious friend and companion, commands the wealth of cows and horses, nourishment and achievement, knowledge and enlightenment and distils for us power, honour and excellence from nature such as the torrential showers of rain.

4. Yadadya kacca vrtrahannudagā abhi sūrya. Sarvamā tadindra te vaśe.

O sun, dispeller of darkness, whatever the aim and purpose for which you rise today, let that be, O Indra, lord ruler of the world, under your command and control.

5. Yadvā pravṛddha satpate na marā iti manyase. Uto tat satyamit tava.

Indra, O mind, O soul, ever rising as the world expands, protector of truth and reality, if you believe and say in all faith that “I shall not die”, then it shall be true, an inviolable reality.

Indra, O dynamic intelligence, protector of the knowledge of truth and reality, whatever somas of knowledge, culture and enlightenment are distilled either far away or close at hand, pray you move there to record and protect them for us.

That Indra, dynamic and enlightened mind and intelligence, we cultivate and strengthen for the elimination of the great waste, deep ignorance and suffering prevailing in the world. May that light and mind be exuberant and generous for us with showers of enlightenment.

Indra, mind and intelligence, was created for enlightenment and for giving enlightenment. Most lustrous and powerful, it is engaged in the creation of joy. It is rich in the wealth of knowledge, praise-worthy, and cool, gentle and at peace in the state of enlightenment.

9. $\text{Gir}ā\ vajro\ na\ sambhṛtaḥ\ sabalo\ anapacyutaḥ$.
$\text{Vavakṣa}\ rśvo\ astrītaḥ$.

Held in and by the voice of divinity like the roar of thunder and like the flood of sun-rays, it is powerful, unfallen, irrepressible and lofty with thought, so let it express itself freely.

10. $\text{Durge\ cinnah}\ sugaṁ\ kr̥dhi\ gr̥ṇāna\ indra\ girvaṇaḥ}$.
$\text{Tvaṁ\ ca\ maghavan\ vaśaḥ}$.

Indra, adorable lord, praised and prayed, turn even the difficult paths to simple and easy ones and, O lord of wealth, honour and power, do it as and when you wish, you are the master.

11. $\text{Yasya\ te\ nū\ cidādiśaṁ\ na\ minanti\ svarājyam}$.
$\text{Na\ devo\ nādhrigurjanaḥ}$.

No power can violate your sphere of self-rule and sovereignty nor what you ordain, neither human nor super human howsoever irresistible it be.

12. Adhā te apratiṣkutam devī śuṣmam saparyataḥ.
Ubhe suṣipra rodasī.

And then, O lord of glorious countenance, both the divine earth and heaven honour and serve your irresistible might.

Paruṣṇiṣu ruṣat payaḥ.

Only you as mind and electric energy bear, hold and maintain in circulation this bright vital liquid energy as sap and blood in the dark and red life sustaining veins and arteries of living forms.

14. Vi yadaheradha tviṣo viśve devāso akramuḥ.
Vidan-mṛgasya tāṁ amah.

When all the divine perceptive senses and conceptive faculties of the mind rise to fight the dark powers of evil, Indra, the soul, the higher mind, realises the fierce powers of evil and stirs:

15. Bodhinmane idastu no vṛtrahantamaḥ bhūryesutiḥ.
Veotu Üakra Üišam.

16. Aydh dhīya ca gavyayā puruṣman puruṣuta.
Yat some soma Œbhavaḥ.

Indra, O higher mind, O soul, O awareness of divinity, who are adored by many, celebrated by many many names in many ways, arise in every person in every soma yajna by with virtue of this intelligence, this knowledge and this awareness which nature has given to every person.

17. Bodhinmane idastu no vṛtrahantamaḥ bhūryesutiḥ.

18. Bodhinmane idastu no vṛtrahantamaḥ bhūryesutiḥ.

Veotu Üakra Üišam.

MANDAL - 8 / SUKTA - 93 921 922 RGVEDA
15. Ādu me nivaro bhuvad-vṛtrahādiṣṭa paumṣyam. Ajātaśatru-astṛtaḥ.

Then Indra, the soul, the higher mind, my saviour, destroyer of evil, provides me strength, and, undaunted, I stir and become unchallengeable by enemies.

16. Śrutaṁ vo vṛtrahantamam pra śardham carṣa-ṇinām. Ā śuše rādhase mahe.

For your strength, high success and advancement, I strive for and try to attain to the highest strength of the people capable of fighting out and eliminating the darkness, ignorance and suffering of life.

17. Ayā dhiyā ca gavyayā puruṇāman puruṣṭuta. Yat some soma ābhavaḥ.

Indra, O higher mind, O soul, O awareness of divinity, who are adored by many, celebrated by many many names in many ways, arise in every person in every soma yajna by with virtue of this intelligence, this knowledge and this awareness which nature has given to every person.

18. Bodhinmanā idastu no vṛtrahā bhūryāsutiḥ. Śrṇotu śakra āśiṣam.
May Indra, lord of universal intelligence, destroyer of darkness, commander of universal success and joy, we pray, know our mind and listen to us for our heart’s desire for success.

\[\text{क्या तवं न उत्त्याचर्भं प मन्दस वृषन} \]
\[\text{क्या स्तुतृभ्यु आ भरं} \]

19.  \text{Kayā tvāṁ na ātyā’bhi pra mandase vrṣan.}
\text{Kayā stotṛbhya ā bhara.}

Indra, lord of power and prosperity, generous as cloud showers, by which modes of protection and promotion do you bless us with the joys we have, by which methods and graces do you bear and bring the wealth which the celebrants enjoy?

\[\text{कस्य वृष्ण सुत सर्चा नियुतव्वा-वृष्णभा रंगत} \]
\[\text{वृत्राहा सार्मपीतय} \]

20.  \text{Kasya vrṣā sute sacā niyutvān vrṣabhō raṇat.}
\text{Vṛtrahā somapītaye.}

In whose soma yajna does Indra, generous giver of showers of joy, master of cosmic dynamics, virile all creative, destroyer of darkness, want and suffering, take delight as a friend and participate in the creation, protection and promotion of the soma joys of life?

\[\text{अभी शु णस्तवं रूथं मन्दसानः सहुक्तिर्यम} \]
\[\text{पुयन्ता बाधित दाशुष्म} \]

21.  \text{Abhī śu ṇastvāṁ rayim mandasānah sahasriṇam.}
\text{Prayantā bodhi dāśuṣe.}

Indra, lord all joy and bliss, our guide, delighted with the soma yajna of the generous yajamana, enlighten him and bring him a thousandfold wealth, honour and excellence.

\[ पल्लीवन्त:  मुः ड्रम उङ्खन्तः यन्ति वीतयः। \\
अणः जम्मिनिचुम्पुणः। \]

22. \[ Patnivantaḥ sutā ima uṣanto yanti vītaye. \\
Apāṁn jagmir-nicumpuṇaḥ. \]

These sparkling life-giving streams of soma joys of life created by Indra in the world flow to the thirsty yajakas for their enlightenment and joy just as streams of water flow to the unsatiating sea.

\[ डहा हात्रा अस्म ततन्द्रं वृधासा अध्वर। \\
अच्छौवभ्रूथमाजसा। \]

23. \[ Iṣṭā hotrā asṛkṣatendram vṛdhāso adhvare. \\
Acchāvabhṛthhamojasā. \]

Cherished and lovely offers of havi offered into the fire in the yajna of life exalt Indra, and with light and lustre lead the yajamana to the sanctifying bath on the completion of the yajna.

\[ इह त्या संध्रमाद्या हरी हिर्रणयकश्या। \\
वाङ्क हामभे प्या हितम। \]

24. \[ Iha tyā sadhamādyā hari hiraṇyakesyā. \\
Voḷhāmabhi prayo hitam. \]

And may those brilliant and jubilant perceptive, creative and communicative dynamics of yajna working in unison conduct Indra, the soul, onward in the business of living and lead the yajamana to the desired wealth.
and nourishment of life.

O lord of light, the soma delicacies distilled and seasoned are ready for you. The holy grass seats are spread on the vedi. Pray come in and bring in Indra, wealth, honour and excellence of life for the celebrants.

O lord of light, refulgent and glorious stars and planets such as sun, earth and moon bear your power and potential and they bear the jewels of life for the generous yajamana. O celebrants, celebrate Indra and pray for the devotees that the lord may bless.

27. Ā te dadhāmīndriyam-uktha viśvā śatakrate. Stotṛbhya indra mṛḷaya.

O lord of infinite acts of grace, I hold in faith and abide by your divine power and law and I stand by all the divine injunctions of holiness and piety set out in holy writ. O lord omnipotent, Indra, be kind and gracious to the devoted celebrants.
28. Bhadram bhadram na ā bhareṣamūrjaṁ śatakrate. Yadindra mṛlayāsi nāḥ.

Indra, lord of infinite actions of grace, when you are kind to us and bless us with joy and well being, you give us food, energy, knowledge and enlightenment so that we may rise towards perfection as good human beings.

29. Sa no visvānyā bhara suvitāṁ śatakrate. Yadindra mṛlayāsi nāḥ.

Indra, lord of infinite acts of kindness, when you are kind and gracious to us, bear and bring us all the good fortunes, prosperity and welfare of life.

30. Tvāmid vrtraḥantarāma sutāvanto havāmahe. Yadindra mṛlayāsi nāḥ.

Blest with the beauty, grace and excellence of life, we invoke and celebrate you only, greatest destroyer of the darkness, evil and suffering of life since you are the highest power kind and gracious to us.
31. Upa no haribhiḥ sutam yāhi madānām pate.

O lord and protector of the joys of life, come to us to taste the soma of life prepared by us with our mind, imagination and senses in your honour, come to us for the soma distilled by our heart and mind for you.

32. Dvitā yo vrtrahantamo vida indraḥ śatakratuḥ.

Indra, hero of a hundred noble actions, greatest destroyer of darkness who know both the way of knowledge and the way of karma for the good life, come to taste our soma of homage prepared by us with our heart and soul for you.

33. Tvam hi vrtrahann-eśāṁ pātā somānāmasi.

Indra, O soul, dispeller of darkness and ignorance, you are the experiencer of the joyous soma pleasures of life. Rise and enjoy the knowledge and wisdom collected and offered by the senses, mind and intelligence.

34. Indra iṣe dadātu na ṭbhukṣaṇam-ṛbhun rayim.

Vājī dadātu vājinam.
For food, energy and knowledge, may Indra, lord of creativity, imagination and power, give us wealth, honour and excellence of broad, versatile and expert nature. May the lord of speed and victory grant us sustenance, energy and advanced success in our pursuit of progress.

Mandala 8/Sukta 94

Maruts Devata, Bindu or Putadaksha Angirasa Rshi

   The cow, the earth, nature herself, mother of magnanimous Maruts, mighty men, is committed to provide sustenance and honourable existence for them and, joined with them in piety, bearing lovely gifts for them, provides the food of life and love as a mother suckles her children.

2. Yasyā devā upasthe vratā viśve dhārayante. Sūryāmāsā dṛṣe kam.

   She in whose lap the Vishvedevas, divinities of humanity and nature, hold, maintain and observe their laws of existence, and the sun and moon wear their beauty and refulgence so that we may see and appreciate the glory of divine existence:
3. Tat su no viśve aṭya ā sadā grṇanti kāravaḥ.
   Marutah somapītaye.

That same beauty and glory of existence and the mother’s magnanimity, all our poets and pioneers celebrate in song and heroic action. O Maruts, magnanimous men of might, come, act, and enjoy this soma of the Mother’s gift of glory.

4. Asti somo ayaṁ sutah pibantyasya marutah.
   Uta svarājo aśvinā.

O Maruts, mighty men of honour and action, this soma of glorious life is ready, created by divinity. Lovers of life and adventure, Ashwins, live it and enjoy, those who are self-refulgent, free and self-governed, and who are ever on the move, creating, acquiring, giving, like energies of nature in the cosmic circuit.

5. Pibanti mitro aryamā tanā pūtasya varuṇaḥ.
   Triṣadasthasya jāvataḥ.

Mitra, men of universal love, Aryama, men of adventure on the paths of rectitude, and Varuna, men of judgement and right choice, continuously drink of this soma created and sanctified by the procreative power of divinity pervading in the three regions of the universe,

And surely the delight and exhilaration of this soma, Indra, the soul, inspirited with the power of brilliance and awareness, like a yajaka at dawn, experiences, and celebrates the ecstasy in dance and song.

How brilliant and blazing are the brave, we scholars and warriors of pure and unsullied power and expertise who, like turbulent waters, break the violent down and move forward on the paths of rectitude!

And when and how can I choose and hope for the protection and patronage of the great, noble and generous leaders and pioneers who are brilliant by virtue of their own innate power and personality?
Those Maruts, pioneers of nature and humanity, who have extended the beauties of existence, both earthly and heavenly, for the experience and higher awareness of the joy and ecstasy of it,

Those Maruts, heroes of power and purity, I call from your regions of light to come and to enjoy, protect and promote this delight and beauty of the world of existence.

Those Maruts, nature’s powers of divine energy who stabilise the regions of heaven and earth in the cosmos, those Maruts, scholars, scientists and pioneers of vibrant nature and energy who maintain the laws and values of heaven and earth in human life, I call, to join them in the experience of the delight and ecstasy of this joyous world of beauty.

That host of Maruts generous as showers of clouds, abiding on high as on the peaks of mountains, I invoke and call to come and join us in the celebration of life’s beauty and glory for the experience and awareness of its divinity.

Mandala 8/Sukta 95

Indra Devata, Tirashchi Angirasa Rshi

1. Ā tvā giro rathirivā’sthuh suteṣu girvaṇaḥ. Abhi tvā samanūṣatendra vatsam na mātaraḥ.

   Indra, adorable lord of glory, when the soma sense of life’s beauty and meaning is realised, let our voices of adoration reach you fast as a charioteer, and as mothers out of love incline to their children, so let our voices too closely abide with you.

2. Ā tvā śukrā acucyavuḥ sutāsa indra girvaṇaḥ. Pibā tvasyāndhasa indra viśvāsu te hitam.

   Indra, lord ruler of the world, adorable soul, let these somas of transparent knowledge and awareness of crystalline purity distilled from life reach in homage to you. Accept these, enjoy, protect and promote these rolling round in space for you as food for life and soul.

(This mantra can also be interpreted as a divine blessing to the human soul in response to its karmic homage presented in the previous mantra. When a devotee offers homage of prasada in the lord’s temple, the lord returns it with blessings for the presenter.)

3. Piba somaṃ madāya kamindra śyenābhṛtam sutam. Tvaṃ hi śaśvatīnāṁ patī rājā viśāmasi.

Indra, enlightened spirit of the universe, enjoy the soothing and illuminating soma of joyous knowledge distilled from life and living literature by dynamic and adorable sages of enlightenment. You are the master, protector, sustainer and ruler of all the universal and eternal generations of the people.

4. Śrudhī havamā tiraścyā indra yastvā saparyati. Suvīryasya gomato rāyaspūrdhi mahāṅ asi.

Indra, listen to the invocation of the devotee’s voice of deep silence who offers service and homage to you, and bless the devotee with wealth of brave progeny, lands, cows, knowledge and total fulfilment. You are great, unbounded is your munificence.

Indra, whoever creates and offers you the latest song of joyous adoration, you bless with a mind and intelligence for eternal illumination, universal understanding and wisdom, and dedication to exuberant awareness of eternal truth and law.

We adore and worship Indra whom hymns and songs of adoration exalt, and we pray to him for the gift of many forms of strength, honour and excellence.

7. Eto nvindraṁ stavāma śuddhāṁ śuddhena sāṁnā. Śuddhair-ukthair-vāvṛdhvāṁsāṁ śuddha āśīrvān mamattu.

Come, friends, and, with happy chant of pure holy Sama songs, adore Indra, pure and bright spirit and power of the world, who feels pleased and exalted by honest unsullied songs of adoration. Let the supplicant with a pure heart please and win the favour of Indra and rejoice.
8. Indra śuddho na ā gahi śuddhaḥ śuddhābhīrū-tibhiḥ. Śuddho rayiṁ ni dhāraya śuddho mama-ddhi somyaḥ.

   May Indra, pure and absolute spirit, come to us and bless us. May the pure immaculate spirit come with pure modes of action and protection. May the pure spirit bring us wealth, honour and excellence. May pure divinity, absolute peace and bliss, be pleased and exalted.

9. Indra śuddho hi no rayiṁ śuddho ratnāni dāśuṣe. Śuddho vrtrāṇi jighnase śuddho vājaṁ siṣāsasi.

   Indra, spirit pure and absolute, may bring us wealth, honour and excellence. The pure may bring jewels of life for the generous yajamana. Indra, the pure, in order to eliminate evil and dispel darkness and suffering, loves to give us strength, sustenance and advancement, the lord pure and blissful that he is.

Mandala 8/Sukta 96

Indra (1-13, 16-21), Indra-Marutah (14), Indra-Brhaspati (15) Devatah, Tirashchi Angirasa or Dyutana Maruta Rshi

1. Asmā uṣāsa ātiranta yāmam-indrāya naktam-ūryaḥ suvācaḥ. Asmā āpo mātaraḥ sapta tasthurnṛbhya-saṅkāya sindhavaḥ supārāḥ.
For Indra, this lord supreme ruler and ordainer of the universe, the dawns advance their course, for Indra, the last hours of the night are sanctified with voices of adoration, for this same lord, seven motherly dynamics of nature, i.e., five elements, mind and pranic energies, keep to their tasks in nature’s law, and for him the rivers and seas ebb and flow for human navigation.

With staggering missile he pierced thrice seven mountain peaks in succession. Neither divine nor human can ever do what the mighty hero in the state of exaltation has at a stroke achieved.

3. Indrasya vajra āyaso nimiśla indrasya bāhyor-bhūyiṣṭhamojah. Śirṣannindrasya kratavo nireka āsanneṣanta śrutyā upāke.

The thunder bolt of Indra is made of unbreakable steel, sharpened and integrated with his body system, in his arms there is tremendous force and lustre, in his head are definite thoughts, plans and actions of high degree, and in his tongue is speech which people are anxious to hear at the closest.

(These two mantras are highly mystical, comprehensively allegorical also. They describe the divine process of evolution. We may interpret the astra as the missile of the Big Bang of the divine will which formally splits integrated Prakṛti into seven stages of mahan, ahankara and the five elements, i.e., akāsha, vāyu, agni, apah and prthīvī over three modes of satva, rajas and tamas of each. The vajra, again is the will continuously operative as Rtam, the law of the dynamics of nature. At the human level, the same dynamic works as living energy of prana in the biological system and converts food into seven ascending stages of rasa, rakta, mansa, meda, majja, asthi and virya which, properly cultivated and preserved, shines as ojas, lustre of the personality.)

मन्ये त्वा चूज्जित्यां चूज्जियोनां मन्ये त्वा च्याब्जनस्यच्चुर्येनामां।
मन्ये त्वा सत्त्वनामिन्दं कुलं मन्ये त्वा वृषभं चार्षणी-नाम।

Indra, hero of invincible power, plan and action,
I honour as the most revered of the powers worthy of love and homage in yajna. Of the unmoved and immovables, I honour you as the greatest mover and the moving at the highest velocity. Of the real, the true, the eternal, I honour you as the first and highest. And of the dynamic visionaries, I honour you as the highest visionary, most dynamic in power and generosity.

आ यदुर्जं बाह्ष्वारिन्दु धार्तं मद्यच्छुतमहैयं हन्तवा च।
प पवित्रता अर्नवन्तु प गावः प बुह्ष्याणां अथििन रूँित इन्द्रं।
5. Ā yadvajramaṁ vāhvorindra dhatse madacyuta-mahaye hantavā u. Pra parvatā anavanta pra gāvaḥ pra brahmāno abhinakṣanta indram.

Indra, when you hold the pride shattering thunderbolt in hands for the destruction of evil forces, mountains bend, earths adore, and divines sing hymns of praise to celebrate your glory.

We worship him that brought all these forms of existence into being after him. Let us win friendship with Indra, and with hymns of adoration presented with homage and humility, abide in his presence at the closest.

O soul of man, when at the frightful breath of evil forces of thought and the external world all your noble faculties who are your friends forsake you out of fear and insecurity, at that time, Indra, O soul, of innate power and self-confidence, hold on, be friends with the Maruts, vital pranic powers, and surely you would win in all the battles against evil.
8. Triḥ śaṣṭistvā maruto vāvṛdhānā usrā iva rāśayo yajñīyāsah. Upa tvemaḥ kṛdhi no bhāgadheyaṁ śuṣmamāṁ ta enā haviśā vidhema.

Thrice sixty Maruts, pranic and psychic energies, venerable cooperative yajnic powers, like floods of light, exalting Indra, stand by Indra, the soul. We stand by you, say they, give us our share of attention and food for life in yajna, and by this very share of recognition and food for life and power, we shall render you back the strength and power you need.

Indra, O soul, the powers of the Maruts, pranas, is really your fiery thunderbolt. Who holds a weapon counter to thunder? The evil forces are, in fact, without any force and weapon. Nor do they have anything positive and divine about them. Rise, move and shoot your wheel of concentrated force and strike them down.

O man, set in motion the long range visionary process of uprooting the evil tendencies with songs of divinity for the sake of the great, lustrous, mighty and most beneficent and peaceable Indra, the inner soul. Collect and offer profuse voices of holy exhilaration and exhortation in honour of the divine lord of song and, O dear as breath of life, he would bless you with ample gifts of health, progeny and prosperity.

O man, direct and send up your thoughts and prayers over to the great omnipotent Indra who loves the devotee’s songs of adoration. Send up the adorations as we cross over the rivers by boat. And with your vision, intelligence and action feel the touch of the dear divine lord of universal presence and glory in the very core of your heart. Would not the lord dear as breath of life not oblige and bless?

O man, do that and enter there where Indra desires you to be. Worship the lord adorable and serve him with homage and praise. O celebrant, sanctify yourself and be close to him, never feel sorry and depressed. Send up your prayers so that he may listen. O dear friend, would he not listen and bless?

The dark passion of pride with its ten thousand assistants and associates comes, occupies the affections and suppresses the emotive and creative streams of life, but Indra, noble leader of men, the soul, with its great thought and action, takes this bully over, controls its violence and covers it with sweetness and love.

I have seen the dark devil of passion and pride roaming around widely and variously on the banks of the vibrant stream of life. O mighty energies of prana and divine potential, I wish you fight in the battle and, like unfailing agents of cleansing of dirt, throw out the dark evil standing out and working boldly as well as surreptitiously.
O man, do that and enter there where Indra desires you to be. Worship the lord adorable and serve him with homage and praise. O celebrant, sanctify yourself and be close to him, never feel sorry and depressed. Send up your prayers so that he may listen. O dear friend, would he not listen and bless?

When the dark passion is cleansed out, then pure vitality, lustrous and sparkling, sustains itself in the lap of creative life aflow. Indra, exuberant soul purified and tempered, in cooperation with wide ranging pranic energies, challenge and fight out the unholy tendencies of carnal mind ranging around.

Thus does Indra become a victorious enemy for the seven unrivalled unholy tendencies of sense and mind and emerges a brilliant unrivalled hero. Thus does he find the real joyous heaven and earth otherwise, for him, covered in deep darkness. Thus do you, O soul, bear and bring happiness to the regions of life vested in dignity and excellence.
You, virile commander of thunderous strength, most daring hero, by your virile and thunderous force of personality you won unequalled lustre and dignity. With your deadly weapons, you overcame the ravages of famine, deprivation and exploitation, and with your courage and conscientious action you won lands and cows and conquered your own carnal self.

Indra, you are the power on top, virile and generous leader of the dynamic human community, destroyer of darkness, evil and exploitation, and a blazing brilliant hero. You release the streams of waters and social energies restrained by forces of repression and suppression, and you free and win over the floods of human potential and action locked up under the force of tyranny.

You are the hero of noble action, happy celebrant of life and divinity in yajnic gatherings of knowledge, enlightenment and advanced action. Unsurpassed is your passion for action, and your splendour and generosity is like the light of day.

With words of welcome and adoration, we invoke, invite and serve the brilliant leader, destroyer of want, ignorance and suffering, and sustainer of the people, He is our protector, trustee of the nation’s wealth, power and honour, defender of our honour and dignity in world forums and giver of honour, prosperity and excellence. He is the power and person adorable.

Indra, destroyer of darkness, ignorance and exploitation, is patron of the wise and intelligent artists, scientists, technologists and pioneers in the fields of development and progress, and constantly born and reborn in manifested glory and dignity, he is the highest adorable power and person. Doing many many noble acts worthy of a dynamic and progressive humanity, he is inspiring as soma, loved, honoured and adorable for friends, companions and co-workers wherever he is.
Indra Devata, Rebha Kashyapa Rshi

Indra, lord of bliss and omnipotence, the food, energy and vitality which you bear and bring from the sources of pranic energy such as sun, air, cloud and cosmic intelligence is great and admirable. O lord of power and glory, pray advance the devotees who appreciate, develop and celebrate this energy and spread the holy grass of yajna in gratitude to you, offer homage to you and develop your gifts.

Indra, lord of glory, the light and energy, nourishment, knowledge and dynamism and all our share of natural and spiritual gifts of divinity which you bear and bring for us, all that, pray, vest in the generous yajamana, the soma maker and the giver of charity (who all keep these in creative circulation) and never in the uncreative, miserly hoarders and selfish exploiters.

Indra, lord of wealth, honour and excellence, he, the hoarder and wastour, who lies idle lost in deep sleep, having forgotten divinity, gratitude and the law of divinity, he destroys that wealth by his own actions and behaviour, though that wealth, otherwise, deserves to be used and developed. Better it is you vest that wealth away from him, elsewhere so that it could be creatively used and developed.

Indra, when we have distilled the soma of life’s knowledge and value, be with us as a friend and let us be together so that we may experience the divine joy of achievement. O lord of glory, create the great divine protective band for the devotee, be our friend in company, the soma of celebration is ready.

O lord of clouds and thunder, the divines comprehend you not, the mortals comprehend you not. By virtue of your supreme power and glory you are above all things born in the world of existence. O lord supreme, the immortal divines comprehend you not.

All the citizens together, in order to elect an equal for the purpose of governance, create and shape Indra, the ruler, the leader who is superior to others in all battles of life, highest by noble creative action, eliminator of negative and frustrative opposition, illustrious, most vigorous and emphatic in expression, courageous and passionate in action.

Let all intelligent people cordially welcome and felicitate Indra for the protection of the honour, integrity, beauty and culture of the nation of humanity, and when they, together, exhort the guardian of their happiness and welfare to advance the beauty of corporate life, then, committed to the values, laws and ideals of the nation, he feels exalted with lustrous courage and positive measures of defence and protection.

Wise and vibrant sages greet the heroic ruler, Indra, giver of showers of peace and joy, and with vision of the future bow to him as the central power and force of the nation’s wheel. O brilliant and inspired people free from jealousy and calumny, smart and bold in action, do him honour with laudable performance.
That Indra, ruler of the world, I invoke and address, illustrious, pious and true, wielder of unopposed powers, and I pray may the most generous and adorable lord of thunderous power, in response to our voice, turn to us constantly and clear our paths of advancement for the achievement of wealth, power, honour and excellence of the world.

Indra, most potent hero of noble action, you know how to break down the strongholds of evil and darkness with this lustrous force of yours. O wielder of the force and power of thunder, by you and by the splendour of your power all regions of the world and even the earth and heaven shake with awe.

Abhi hi satya somap ubhe babhutha rodas.
Indrasi sunvato vdhah patirdiva.

Lord eternal and ever true, lover, protector and promoter of the beauty and joy of existence, you are higher and greater than both heaven and earth. Indra, omnipotent lord and master of the light of heaven, you are the inspirer and giver of advancement to the pursuer of the knowledge, beauty and power of the soma reality of life.

Hantā dasyor-manorvṛdhaḥ patirdivaḥ.

Indra, you are catalyser, breaker and maker, of the eternal forms of existence in cosmic dynamics, destroyer of the destroyer and promoter of thoughtful people. You are the guardian of the light of life, sustainer of the heavens of joy.

And O lord lover of song and celebration, Indra, we send up vaulting voices of adoration and prayer to you like wave on waves of the flood rolling upon the sea.

8. Vārṇa tvā yavyābhīrvaradhantī śūra brahmāṇī.

Indra, lord of vision and hero of a hundred great actions, bring us abundant and illustrious strength, courage and procreative energy by which we may fight out and win many battles of our life.

O lord of infinite action, shelter home of the world and wealth of existence, you are our father, you our mother, and to you, we pray for love and peace, good will and grace.

O lord of cosmic energy universally invoked, hero of infinite acts of kindness and creation, giver of sustenance and victory, we pray in silent sincerity of conscience, bring us and bless us with noble strength and vitality of body and mind and creativity of vision and imagination.

Indra Devata, Nrmedha Angirasa Rshi

1. Tvāmidā hyo naro’pīpyan vajrin bhūrṇayaḥ. Sa indra stomavāhasāmiha śrūdhyupa svasaramā gahi.

Indra, lord of mind and soul, wielder of adamantine will and energy, zealous celebrants and leading lights serve and adore you today as ever before in the past. Thus adored and contemplated, listen to the prayers of the devotees in meditation, come and arise in your own abode of the sage’s heart.

O lord of golden glory, moving and manifesting by vibrations of joyous energy, arise and exult in the heart. You alone, the wise sages exalt and glorify. Indra, lord adorable in song, when the yajnic communion of meditation is fulfilled, the vibrations of your ecstatic presence are ideal and admirable.

3. Šrāyanta iva sūryaṁ viśvedindrasya bhakṣata. Vasūni jāte janamāṇa ojasā prati bhāgam na didhima.

Just as the rays of light share and diffuse the radiance of the sun, so you too share and reflect the golden glories of Indra, the cosmic soul. Let us meditate on the divine presence and for our share enjoy the ecstasy of bliss vibrating in the world of past and future creation by virtue of Indra’s omnipresent majesty.

4. Anarśarātiṁ vasudāmupa stuhi bhadrā indrasya rātayaḥ. So asya kāmam vidhato na roṣati mano dānāya codayan.

Adore and meditate on Indra, giver of wealth, honour, excellence and bliss. Infinite is his generosity, unsatiating, auspicious his gifts. He does not displease the devotee, does not hurt his desire and prayer, he inspires his mind for the reception of divine gifts.

Indra, O inspired soul, in the external conflicts of life and in the internal conflicts of mind, you are the superior over all assailants. You are the destroyer of evil and calumny, creator of goodness and eliminator of impediments. Pray drive off all evil thoughts and oppositions of life and mind.

Just as mothers follow the desires and interests of children, so do the heaven and earth, all living beings from earth to heaven, think and act in conformity with you, evil destroying power. All oppositions slacken and fall exhausted when you strike and destroy the demons of evil and negativity in the interest of man.

Mandala 8/Sukta 100

Indra (1-7, 12), Suparna (8), Indra or Vajra (9), Vak (10-11) Devatah, Nema Bhargava (1-3, 6-12),
Indra (4-5) Rshi

1. Ayaṁ ta emi tanvā purastād-viśve devā abhi mā yanti paścāt. Yadā mahyaṁ dīdharo bhāgamindrā’’dinmayā kṛṇavo vīryāni.

Indra, here I come before you in person and all noble and brilliant sages follow after me. When you secure my portion for me, then you perform noble actions also through me.
2. Dadhāmi te madhūto bhakṣamagre hitaste bhāgaḥ suto astu somah. Asaśca tvām daksīṇataḥ sakhā me’dhā vṛtrāṇi jaṅghanāva bhūri.

I bear my portion of the honey sweets of life primarily for you in gratitude, out of which the soma essence distilled from experience would be offered in homage. May you, I pray, be kind and friendly to me on the right and then together we shall eliminate evil and darkness from life.

O seekers of strength, power and progress in life, offer worship and adoration in honour of Indra if it is your faith in heart and soul that reality is the truth and Indra is the reality. Only some one of raw and sceptical understanding would say: Indra is non-existent, who saw him? And if none saw Indra, who and why should we adore and worship?
4. Ayamasmı jaritaḥ paśya meha viśvā jātānyabhyaśmi mahnā. R̄tasa mā pradiśo vardhanyantyādardiro bhuvanā dardarīmi.

I AM. O celebrant, behold I am here. I am the real on top of all that is born in the world, self-existent by my own grandeur. The laws of existence exalt me with space, and scholars of the laws, R̄tam, adore me all round. I am the creator, I am the destroyer, I split open the seed, I manifest the world forms and I break them back beyond the form into the seed state.

5. Ā yanmā venā aruhann-ṛtasyaṇ ekamāsīnam haryatasya prṛṣṭhe. Manaścinme hṛda ā pratya-vocadikradaṇ-chiśumantah sakhāyah.

When the wise visionaries reach on top of thought and meditation and see me, the lone presence over the glorious order of existence, my mind from the core of my heart of love speaks out: My friends blest with knowledge and vision through the power of prana beyond sufferance have called on me. (This is the voice of divinity, invitation to a higher life of cosmic vision.)

6. Viśvet tā te savaneṣu pravācyā yā cakartha maghavannindra sunvate. Pāravataṁ yat purusaṃbhṛtaṁ vasvapāvṛṇoḥ śarabhāya rśiban-dhave.
Admirable are all those acts of kindness and grace, laudable in yajnic meets of humanity, O lord of glory, Indra, which you do graciously for the meditative soul where by you reveal the climactic, intensely concentrated wealth of beatific vision and presence for the man of austere discipline in communion, brother of the omniscient, all seeing creator, the cosmic poet.

O friends of divinity, with determined will and decision, move forward and run fast, each in your own style, there is none to stop you. Indra, lord omnipotent, strikes the thunderbolt at the core of darkness and destroys the obstructions.

Moving at the speed of mind, suparna, flying human imagination and vision, crosses the iron bounds of the fortress of the body, and having gone to the regions of heavenly light and bliss brings the soma, ecstasy of divine joy for the soul which bears the virile vitality of the spirit, wielder of the soul’s thunderbolt.
9. Samudre antaḥ śayata udnā vajro abhīvṛtaḥ. Bharantyasmai saṁyataḥ puraḥ prasravaṇā balim.

In the liquid vitalities of the body system surrounded by living waters, the virile vitality of the spirit, the vajra, resides in the human body. For this vitality, streams of energy flowing forth in the veins and nerves bear and bring contributive forms of physical and pranic nourishment of the spirit for the soul’s rise to divinity.

10. Yadvāg-vadantyavicetanāni rāṣṭrī devānāṁ niṣa-sāda mandrā. Catasra ūrjam duduhe payāmsi kvasvidasyāḥ paramam jagāma.

When the divine voice, joyous and refulgent, settles in the heart, illuminates the mind and senses, awakens the subconscious and the unconscious, and reveals the secret potentials of the soul in divine communion, then all the four directions of space, all the four Vedic voices, and all the four layers of speech distil the light and wisdom of divine existence for the soul. What is the ultimate reach of that voice? Indra only knows.

11. Devīṁ vācam-ajanayanta devāsthāṁ viṣvarūpāḥ paśavo vadanti. Sā no mandreṣamūrjaṁ duḥānā dhenur-vāg-asmānupa suṣṭutaitu.
Sages and scholars, brilliant and wise, manifest and speak in human language that divine speech of omniscience which, then, all living and seeing forms of beings speak in its extended forms of variety over the world. That divine speech, joyous and generous like the milch cow, giving nourishment and energy, honoured, served and studied, may, we pray, come direct to us and bless.

O friend, O soul progressive like universal Vishnu’s presence, act and advance to redeem your divinity. O light of heaven, give more light and space for the virile vitality of the soul to settle, consolidate and rise. Then we, the human and the immanent divine, together, shall eliminate evil, darkness and suffering from life, release the inhibited streams of life to flow freely, and the floods of human potential may then, we pray, flow abundantly in the blissful yajnic creation of Indra.

That divine speech, joyous and generous like the milch cow, giving nourishment and energy, honoured, served and studied, may, we pray, come direct to us and bless.

1. Řdhagitthā sa martyah śaśame devatātaye. Yo nūnaṁ mitrāvaruṇā-vabhiṣṭaya ācakre havya-dātaye.

Truly does that person find peace of mind for the attainment of divine love and favour who thus wins the balance of Mitra and Varuna, i.e., prana and udana energies for physical, mental and spiritual good for the service of divinity.

Leading men of most generous and disciplined strength and energy of body and mind, with broad vision, refulgent, and steeped in the knowledge of revelation over long time study and discussion, like heroes of mighty arms in action, rise high with the rays of the sun by virtue of divine love and service.

3. Pra yo vāṁ mitrāvaruṇā’jiro dūto adravat.
Ayah śīrṣā maderaghuḥ.

O Mitra and Varuna, love and judgement of divinity, light and dark of life, sun and ocean of the cosmos, external pranic energy and internal udanic energy, the person who is wise and learned and eliminates the negativities and undesirables of life, and with his wisdom and values, realises you both achieves the golden heights of wisdom and intrepid happiness in the simplest way at the shortest time.

4. Na yah sampyrcche na punarhavitave na saṁvādāya ramate. Tasmānno adya samṛteruru-syatam bāhubhyāṁ na uruṣyatam.

One who takes no interest in learning by question and answer, or in the yajnic circulation of wealth, or in social discourse is no good. O Mitra and Varuna, rulers, leaders, teachers and pioneers of love and judgement, save us from unnecessary encounters with him, protect us by your arms of love and wisdom.

O lover of truth and eternal laws and values of cosmic truth, sing together, sing in the home and sing on joyous occasions collective, homely and celebrative songs in honour of Mitra, lord of love and universal friendship, Aryaman, lord of the paths of rectitude, and Varuna, lord of judgement and wisdom. Sing hymns of adoration for all the refulgent divinities.

They, Mitra, Varuna and Aryaman, love, judgement and will of divinity in nature, Aditi, bring forth, move and inspire the one, refulgent, victorious, shelter home of life, protector and illuminator of the three, heaven, earth and the middle regions, the sun, child of Aditi, and they, immortal, undaunted and invincible, all round watch and protect the homes and regions of the mortals.

7. Ā me vacāṁsyudyatā dyumattamāni kartvā. Ubhā yātaṁ nāsatyā sajoṣasā prati havyāni vītaye.

O men and women of the mortal world engaged in creative and cooperative economy, committed to truth and immortal values, listen to my words inspired by the brilliance of divinity, and, together in love and friendship, turn them to practical application and truth of achievement to create valuable materials for yajnic enjoyment of life.
we ask of you and pray for generous creativity and generous gifting free from evil and violence, then come adored by the devotee of lighted fire and advance the ancient and eternal call of life to the joy of living.

9. Ā no yajñaim divisprśaṁ vāyo yāhi sumanm-abhiḥ. Antaḥ pavitra upari śrīnāno ’yaṁ śukro ayāmi te.

O Vayu, vibrant sage of knowledge and science of yajna, come to our project of divine possibilities with your noble ideas and plans, and I, joining this programme with you, offer this bright performance of ours, pure within in purpose and bright and clear in form and structure.

The high priest of yajna unhurting life, moving with love, goes forward by the simplest and most truthful ways of holy working with yajnic materials to create the fragrances of life. Then you, master of yajnic creations, taste and enjoy the soma of our creations both in pure form and as seasoned and strengthened with practical applications for the good of life.
11. Bāṃmahāṃ asi sūrya baḷāditya mahāṇ asi.
    Mahaste so mahimā panasyte’ddhā deva mahāṇ asi.

    O Surya, light of life, you are truly great, lord indestructible, you are undoubtedly great. O lord of reality, highest real, great is your glory, adorable. In truth, you are great, refulgent and generous.

12. Baṭ sūrya śravasā mahāṇ asi satrā deva mahāṇ asi. Mahnā devānāmasuryaḥ purohito vibhu jyotiradābhhyam.

    O Surya, lord self-refulgent, by honour and fame you are great. In truth, you are great, generous lord, by your grandeur among the divinities. Lord of pranic energy, destroyer of the evil, prime high priest of creation in cosmic dynamics, omnipresent and infinite, light unsurpassable, eternal.

13. Iyam yā nīcyarkiṇī rūpā rohinyā kṛtā.
    Citreva pratyadarśyāyatyaantaradāśasu bāhuṣu.

    This light of the dawn coming down, from the horizon, beautiful, created by the golden red rays of the sun, radiating over the earth below like the arms of divinity in the ten directions of space, looks like a wonder gift of divinity.
Three orders of evolutionary creation, sattva or thought, rajas or energy, and tamas or matter, and three regions of the cosmos, heaven, earth and the middle regions proceed to expansive existence at the beginning of the Being manifesting into Becoming, and others, all biological forms depend upon the self-refulgent sun. The infinite spirit of divinity abides immanent in the cosmos, and pure, and sanctifying all forms, manifests in all directions of space and greenery of the earth.

Mother of Rudras, pranic energies, living forms and scholars of the middle order, sustainer of the Vasus, abodes of life such as earth, and scholars of the graduate order, and sister of Adityas, suns and scholars of the highest order, the centre fount of life’s nectar and knowledge: that is Aditi, mother Infinity, Nature, mother knowledge of the Veda, and the mother cow. Speak of mother Aditi to the people who are keen for enlightenment. Do not insult, do not pollute, do not injure, do not kill the innocent cow, Mother Nature and the divine knowledge of Veda.
Vacovidam vācām-udīrayantīṁ viśvābhir- dhībhir-upatiṣṭhamānāṁ. Devīṁ devebhyaḥ paryeyuṣīṁ gāmā māvrkta martyo dabhracetāḥ.

Vak is the eternal Word, the Language, bottomless reservoir of omniscience, inspirer of human language and communication, closely and conscientiously studied and served by all intelligent scholars of the world: this divine gift revealed for the pious and wise, holy as mother, as earth, as the cow, as divinity, come as a blessing to me, no mortal should neglect. If a mortal neglects this mother language, he remains but pitifully ignorant and poor in the mind.

Agni Devata, Prayoga Bhargava or Agni Pavaka Barhaspatya or Agni Grhapati - Yavishtha or Anyatara Rshi

1. ‘Agni, light of the world, brilliant giver of knowledge, you bear and bring abundant wealth and honour of the world for the generous devotee. You are ever young, eternal, omniscient poet creator, lord and master, ruler and sustainer of the house of the universe.

स न इल्लामया सह दुर्वाँ अंग्र दुस्प्युवा।
चिकिदिभानुवा वेह॥ २ ॥
2. Sa na ṭānayā sahadevān agne duvasyuvā. Cikidvibhānavā vaha.

Agni, brilliant lord of omniscience, along with this reverent and worshipful voice of prayer and divine knowledge, bring us brilliant and generous divinities of nature and humanity.

3. Tvayā ha svidyujā vayāṁ codiṣṭhena yaviṣṭhyā. Abhi ṣmo vājasaṭaye.

O most youthful catalytic power of evolution, only in obedience and association with you, highest inspiring spirit and power, shall we be able to move forward and win success in achieving knowledge, strength, wealth and honours of life.

4. Aurvabhṛguvacchucimapnavānavadā huve. Agniṁ samudravāsasam.

Like a mature and self-disciplined sage and scholar of nature and spirit, I invoke and study Agni, the fire energy, concealed in the sea and the sky and the psychic energy abiding in the mind.

5. Huve vātasvanaṁ kavīṁ parjanyakrandyam sahaḥ. Agniṁ samudravāsasam.
I invoke the fire, passion and vision concealed in the whistling wind, roaring thunder, the depth of the sea and the cave of the heart.

LIKE AS THE ARTIST CREATES ALL POSSIBLE FORMS OUT OF HIS PLASTIC MATERIALS, GIVING THEM BEAUTY, POWER AND purposeful meaning, so does this Agni, universal artist, work on us, for us, and brings out our potentials and gives us forms of beauty, power and excellence as a family, community and common humanity for a purpose, a meaning and a direction. His actions are great, gracious and glorious.

Ā vājairupa no gamat.

This Agni among all the divinities of nature and humanity creates, sustains and rules over all the beauties, graces and grandeurs of life. May the lord come to us and bless us with all kinds of knowledge, power, wealth and honour.

10. Viśveśāmiha stuhi hotṛṇāṁ yaśastamam.
Agniṁ yajñeṣu pūrvyam.

Of all the yajnic creative powers of the world here in the field of action, adore Agni, most gracious and glorious, and first, foremost and most ancient power in the eternal yajna of creation.

11. Śīraṁ pāvakaśociśanī jyeṣṭho yo dameṣvā.
Dīdāya dīrghaśruttamaḥ.
Adore Agni, omnipresent, pure, fiery and purifying. Agni is the highest divine, most famous, and shines in us and illuminates our homes.

 unnoticed is born, Agni, all-dwindling, all-animated by the word, all-beautiful, all-radiant.

O vibrant scholar and dedicated yajaka, adore and sing in praise of Agni, victorious giver of wealth and success like an archer getting the target, powerful inspirer of humanity for action and advancement as a friend.

Moving and vibrant adorations of the enlightened celebrant reach you and stay by you in the movements of air in the middle regions.

The three-quality mind of the celebrant with sattva, rajas and tamas, open and unfettered, is the seat of Agni where peace and potential for action both have their seat.

The seat of the refulgent, generous and virile divinity, Agni, with undaunted powers of protection is auspicious and blissful, shining like an inner sun and the second inner eye with inward light and vision.

16. Agne ghṛtasya dhūtibhistepāno deva sōciṣā. Ā devān vakṣī yakṣī ca.

Agni, light of life, brilliant and generous divinity, burning and shining by the flames of fire fed on ghrta, O enlightened scholars and divines, shining by the light of knowledge fed by your own awareness, bring in the divinities of nature and humanity to the vedi and carry on the yajna.

Angira, omniscient Agni, immortal power, enlightened leading yajaka, divinities like mothers manifest you, create you, reveal you, visionary poet and maker of poetic beauties, carrier and harbinger of yajnic wealths of fragrances.
18. Pracetasam tvā kave’gne dūtam vareṇyam.
Havyavāham ni ṣedire.

O wise and visionary, poetic maker, Agni, divinities of nature and humanity, wise sages, have honoured and established you as wide awake, all present carrier and harbinger of yajnic materials of existence, catalyser of evolutionary development and the power worthy of choice for living the good life.

19. Nahi me astyaghnyā na svadhitir-vananvati.
Ahaitādṛg-bharāmi te.

I have neither total immunity nor any essential power of my own, neither milk nor ghrta, nor even the fire fuel to offer. Hence I adore and worship you the way I can, offer you myself for the service I am worth.

20. Yadagne kāni kāni cidā te dārūṇi dadhmasi. Tā juṣasva yaviṣṭhya.

Agni, whatever little fuel we possess, whatever potential to destroy the evil and negativities of life, we offer in service. Whatever weaknesses we possess, we offer into your powers of fiery purification. O power most youthful, pray accept all that with pleasure.
21. Yadattyupajihvikā yadvamro atisarpati. Sarvamā tadastu te ghṛtam.

Whatever your flames of fire consume, whatever the fumes spread over, let all that be food for your dynamics of existence in evolution.

22. Agnimindhāno manasā dhiyamā saceta martyāḥ. Agnim-idhe vivasvabhīḥ.

When the mortal starts lighting the fire in the vedi, let him, with his whole mind in concentration, call up all his faculties of perception, thought and action and say: I light the fire with all my light, will and awareness and awaken the divine in the soul.

Mandala 8/Sukta 103

Agni (1-13), Agni Marutah (14) Devatah, Sobahri Kanva Rshi

1. Adarśi gātuvittamo yasmin vratānyādadhuḥ. Upo śu jātamāryasya vardhanamagnim nakṣanta no girah.

There is seen the light of Agni, best knower of the ways of life, where people concentrate their vows of piety and discipline. Let our songs of adoration rise and reach Agni, self-revealed, who opens the paths of progress and urges us on to reach the goal of rectitude for noble people.

Agni, the sun, lover of holy admirers, sitting as if on top of heaven in glory, turns his rays of light in circuit to the mother earth for her children.

From that gift of light the children of earth shine and continue doing their daily duties. O people, do service in homage to Agni, giver of light and a thousand other gifts as in yajnic generosity. Do so with your heart and soul, sincerely by thought and action.

O Giver of light, wealth and power of life, Agni, the mortal who offers to serve you with self-surrender and gives in charity and whom you lead on the path of prosperity and rectitude is blest with progeny celebrated in song for his thousandfold generosity.

5. Sa dṛśhe cidabhi tṛṇatti vājamarvāta sa dhatte akṣiti śravah. Tve devatrā sadā purūvaso visvā vāmāni dhīmahi.

The mortal you guide breaks open the strongest forts of wealth and honour with his power and force and wins immortal fame. O shelter home of the world, under your protection, dedicated to divinity, we pray, let us concentrate on and receive all good things of life.

Like bowls of honey let our prime songs of adoration reach this Agni who, blissful high priest of existence, gives all the wealths and joys of the world to humanity.

Agni, lord of glory, ruler and sustainer of the people, generous devotees dedicated to charity and love of divinity, with voices of adoration and prayer, exalt you like the motive power of the chariot of life, and pray: Bring us the holy power and prosperity worthy of the magnificent for our children and grand children.

O celebrants of divinity, sing songs of adoration in honour of adorable Agni, most generous, leader of the paths of truth, great and glorious, lord of pure light of divinity and fire of action.

Lord of universal wealth and power, light of life, invoked and lighted, gives us honour and fame worthy of the brave. May his love and good will come and bless us with the latest honours, power and prosperity with progressive success.

O yajaka, creator of the soma joy of life, adore and worship Agni, light of life, dearest of the dear, harbinger of the joy of life in response to your endeavour, and coming up like a visitor at will any time.

Adore and exalt Agni, worthy of worship, who knows, gives and circulates wealth of the world whether open and developed or hidden and potential. Anxious as he is to give wealth and victory by thought and action, his generosity is difficult to surpass, like waves of the sea in flood.

May this Agni, welcome as a venerable visitor, shelter home of the world, universally adored who is the noble giver and generous high priest of cosmic yajna, never feel displeased with us, may the lord give us fulfilment.

May this Agni, welcome as a venerable visitor, shelter home of the world, universally adored who is the noble giver and generous high priest of cosmic yajna, never feel displeased with us, may the lord give us fulfilment.
Agni, shelter home of the world, may they never come to harm who any way by any actions offer honour and worship to you in holy words. The celebrant, bearing havi to perform the holy yajna in service to you, prays to you to bring him knowledge, honour and prosperity in life.

14. Ṛgne yāhi marutsakhā rudrebhiḥ somapītaye. Sobharyā upa suṣṭutim mādayasva svarṇare.

Agni, refulgent lord, friend of the mind and senses, come, arise in the heart with pranic energies for the protection and exaltation of the soul’s joy. Come, accept the adorations and prayers of the self-confident celebrant, join his golden yajna and exalt the ecstasy of his communion.

Pavamana Soma Devata, Madhucchanda
Vaishvamitra Rshi

स्वादिष्ठया मदिष्ठया पववस्व साम धारंया।
इन्द्राय रात्वेव सुतः॥ १ ॥

O Soma, Spirit of Divinity, peace and glory of existence distilled in the essence for the soul’s being, flow in the sweetest and most exhilarating streams of ecstasy, cleanse and sanctify us unto purity and constancy, and initiate us into the state of ananda, divine glory.

(Soma in the physical sense is an exhilarating drink, in the aesthetic sense it is ecstasy, in the psychic sense it is ananda, and in the spiritual sense it is elevation of the soul to the experience of divinity. 2. Rakṣohā viśvacarṣaṇirabhī yonimayohatam. Druṇā sadhasthamāsadat.

You are the destroyer of negativity, destructivity and evil and darkness, you are universal watcher and guardian of all that is, you are centre of the origin and end of existence, veiled in impenetrable womb of gold, you are ever on the move yet settled and constant in the house of life. (Soma is Divinity Itself.)

Be the highest giver of the cherished wealth of life, mightiest munificent, and the destroyer of want, suffering and darkness. Sanctify the wealth of the prosperous and powerful with showers of peace, purity and generosity.

Let your bounty flow free to the yajnic hall of the great and generous divine yajnic givers with gifts of holy food and prosperity, and bring us honour, progress and fame.

Tvāmacchā carāmasi tadidarthāṃ divedive.
Indo tve na āśasah.

Lord giver of showers of joy, we serve you with all our will and dedication, that alone is our end and aim of life day in and day out. All our hopes and aspirations centre in you.

Punāti te parisrutam somaṁ sūryasya duhitā.
Vāreṇa śaśvatā tanā.

The soma of your eternal peace and joy flowing universally, the dawn, daughter of the sun, glorifies with the sanctity of her exquisite cover of beauty.

Tamīmaṇvīḥ samarya ā gṛbhṇanti yoṣaṇo daśa.
Svasāraḥ pārye divi.

That soma, sanctified by the dawn in the holy congregation of peaceful life yajna, ten fine and youthful sisterly senses and pranic energies receive and absorb for the achievement of the light of salvation.
8. \textit{Tamĩm hinvantyagruvo dhamanti bākuram ārtim. Tridhātu vāraṇam madhu.}

That thrice energised honey sweet and sanctified soma for the good of body, mind and soul, the ten prime senses and pranas receive and then stimulate the light of the soul within, which dispels the darkness of ignorance and eliminates the junk of negative fluctuations.

\begin{align*}
\text{अभीद्रैममच्छ्या उत्त श्रीणन्ति धनवः शिषुम।} \\ \text{साममिन्द्रयां पार्तव। ॥ ९ ॥} \end{align*}

9. \textit{Abhīmaghnyā uta śrīṇanti dhenavaḥ śiṣum. Somamindrāya pātave.}

And this soma, further, the ten senses and pranas season and inflame with positive powers of the soul as the milk of inviolable cows seasons and inflames the power of soma juice, and then the enflamed joy of the soul nourishes and inspires the dedicated man like a divine baby for the achievement of spiritual glory.

\begin{align*}
\text{अस्यदिन्द्र्य मदुष्या विश्वा चृत्राणिर्जिग्रत।} \\ \text{शूर्वा मुघा चं महंत। ॥ १० ॥}
\end{align*}

10. \textit{Asyedindro madeśvā viśvā vrṭrāṇi jighnate. Šūro maghā ca maṁhate.}

And in the joy of this soma of peace and spiritual power, Indra, the human soul, blest with strength of body, power of mind and courage of the soul destroys all the evils and shades of darkness and rises in glory.
1. Pavasva devavirati pavitram soma raathya.
Indramindo vṛṣā viṣa.

O Soma, spirit of divinity, flow quick, purify our mind and senses, and fulfil our prayers for piety. Spirit of peace and spiritual joy in exuberance, bring us the glory of life and let it sanctify our heart and soul.

2. Ā vacyasva mahi psaro vṛṣendo dyumnavatta-mahā. Ā yoniṁ dharṇasīḥ sadaḥ.

Blissful Spirit of divinity, give us food for the mind and soul, great you are, delightful, generous, most sublime, the origin, wielder and sustainer of the universe and the truth of universal knowledge.

The stream of soma purity, bliss and knowledge, distilled and flowing from the omniscient, showers honey sweets of life on us, and the holiness of the noble soma internalised inspires our actions.
1. Pavasva devavrati pavitraÅ soma raÅhyŒ.
Indramindo v¾¦Œ viÜa.
O Soma, spirit of divinity, flow quick, purify our mind and senses, and fulfil our prayers for piety.

2.  vacyasva mahi psaro v¾¦endo dyumnavatta¬.  yoniÅ dharÄasi¬ sada¬.
Blissful Spirit of divinity, give us food for the mind and soul, great you are, delightful, generous, most sublime, the origin, wielder and sustainer of the universe and the truth of universal knowledge.

3. Adhuk¦ata priyaÅ madhu dhŒrŒ sutasya vedhasa¬. Apo vasi¦¢a sukratu¬.
The stream of soma purity, bliss and knowledge, distilled and flowing from the omniscient, showers honey sweets of life on us, and the holiness of the noble soma internalised inspires our actions.

4. Mahänantäm tvä mahäranväpo arṣanti sindhavah.
Yadgobhïrvaräsayiṣyase.
Just as great floods of water, rivers and seas join the great ocean, and the great ocean abides by you, O lord omnipotent, similarly all our will and actions abide in you, lord supreme, since by your word and powers you inspire them.

5. Samudro apsu mämrje viṣṭambho dharaṇo divaḥ.
Somäḥ pavitre asmayuḥ.
The lord is Samudra, universal space, from which everything follows. He is integrated with our streams of earthly waters, self-sustained and all sustaining, holder and sustainer of the regions of heavenly light. The lord giver of peace and bliss is ours, with us, in the holy business of our life and karma.

6. Acikradadvrśā harirmahān mitro na darśataḥ.
Samś sūryeṇa rocate.
Soma, Spirit of universal peace and bliss, is generous and virile, destroyer of suffering, great, noble guide as a friend, and proclaims his presence everywhere as he shines glorious with the sun.
7. Girasta inda ojasā marmṛjyante apasyuvaḥ.

Lord giver of peace and grandeur, your voices of the Veda, exponent of karma, by virtue of your divine lustre purify and sanctify the people. By the same voices you shine in divine glory for the joy of humanity.

8. Tam tvā madāya ghrṣvaya u lokakṛtnumīmahe.

For the sake of joy and elimination of the suffering of life, we adore you, creator of the worlds of nature and humanity. O lord, great are your glories sung all round.

For us, O lord of peace and bliss, munificent giver of lustre and grandeur, bring showers of purity and the honey sweets of life as a cloud laden with showers of rain.
10. Goṣā indo nṛṣā asyaśvasā vājasā uta.
   Ātmā yajñasya pūrvyah.

   O lord of peace and glory, you are the very soul of yajna, original and eternal since you are the foremost fount of all giving. You are the giver of cows, lands and the voices of wisdom and culture. You are the giver of children and grand children over ages of humanity. You are the giver of horses and all advancement and progress in achievements. You are the giver of food, sustenance and all powers and victories of success. Pray be that for us all time.

Mandala 9/Sukta 3

Pavamana Soma Devata, Ajigarti Shunah Shepa,
Krtrma Vaishvamitra Devarata Rshi

1. Eṣa devo amartyaḥ parṇavīrīva diyati.
   Abhi droṇānyāsadam.

   This Soma, spirit of divinity, eternal and immortal, expands to regions of the universe like soaring energy and pervades there as an immanent presence.

2. Eṣa devo vipā kṛto’ti hvarāṃsi dhāvati.
   Pavamāno adābhyaḥ.

   This refulgent spirit is celebrated by sages and, being undaunted, overtakes all crookedness, purifying and sanctifying everything and every mind.
3. \textit{Eśa devo vipanyubhiḥ pavamāna ṛtāyubhiḥ. Harirvājāya mrjyate.}

This refulgent spirit, light of life, saviour and harbinger of joy, glorified by celebrants and poets of rectitude is praised and adored for the achievement of victory and advancement.

4. \textit{Eśa viśvāni vāryā śūro yanniva satvabhiḥ. Pavamānah siśāsati.}

This divine spirit, pure, purifying and powerful, advancing by its own essential power as a hero, brings and distributes cherished gifts of life among the celebrants.

5. \textit{Eśa devo ratharyati pavamāno daśasyati. Āvīśkṛṇoti vagvanum.}

This spirit of divinity going forward like a chariot, pure, purifying, gives the gifts of life and reveals new and latest words of advance knowledge as it moves on.
Dadhadratnāṇī dāśuṣe.

This spirit, divine, generous and refulgent, adored and exalted by sages and scholars, and holding jewel gifts of life for people of generous charity, watches and controls the actions of humanity and the laws of nature in operation.

7. Eṣa divaṁ vi dhāvati tiro rajāṁsi dhārayā.
Pavamānaḥ kanikradat.

This spirit with the waves of its power rushes and radiates unto the heavens across the skies and atomic oceans of space, pure, purifying and roaring like thunder.

Pavamānaḥ svadhvarah.

This spirit radiates to the heavens across the atomic oceans of skies and spaces, unhurt and unopposed, pure, purifying, performing the cosmic yajna of love, non-violence and creation of new life in evolution.

Hariḥ pavitre arṣati.
This divine spirit since its timeless manifestation, revealed and manifested for the divines, arises in the pure hearts of humanity, eliminating pain and suffering.

Dhārayā pavate sutah.

This spirit of divinity, power of infinite law and action, creating and providing food, energy and sustenance for life, flows on in continuum, self-sustained, self-revealed, discovered, self-realised.

Mandala 9/Sukta 4

Pavamana Soma Devata, Hiranyastupa Angirasa Rshi

1. Sanā ca soma ājēṣi ca pavamāna mahī śravaḥ.

Aṭhā no vasyasaskṛdhi.

O Soma, divine spirit of peace and joy, eternal power of love and friendship, most renowned giver of food and sustenance, win over the opponents and make us happy and prosperous, more and ever more.

2. Sanā jyotiḥ sanā svarviśvā ca soma saubhagā.

Aṭhā no vasyasaskṛdhi.

Soma, spirit of divine love and joy, give us eternal light, give us heavenly joy, and give us all good fortunes of the world and make us happy and prosperous more and ever more.

3. Sanā dakṣamūta kratumapā soma mṛdho jahi.
   Athā no vasyasaskṛdhi.

Soma, spirit of peace and excellence, give us strength and efficiency, protect and promote our noble actions, and ward off all sin, violence and evil forces, and thus make us happy and successful, more and ever more.

4. Pavītāraḥ punītana somamindrāya pātave.
   Athā no vasyasaskṛdhi.

O sages, harbingers of purity, purify and enhance the soma spirit of peace and joy for Indra, the growth of power, protection and excellence of the world and thus make us happy and prosperous more and ever more.

5. Tvaṁ sūrye na ā bhaja tava kratvā tavotibhiḥ.
   Athā no vasyasaskṛdhi.

O Soma take us high to the light of the sun in knowledge and purity by your noble speech and action and by your paths of protection and progress, and thus make us happy and prosperous more and ever more.

6. Tava kratvā tavotibhirjyok paśyema sūryam. Athā no vasyasaskṛdhi.

By your noble actions, O spirit of peace and piety, and by your protections and promotions, bless us that we may ever see and internalise the eternal light of the sun, and thus make us happy and prosperous more and ever more.

Soma, creative and inspiring spirit of the world, noble wielder and controller of the dynamics of life, bless us with wealth and vision good enough for both this life and the life beyond, and thus make us happy and prosperous for the life divine for ever.

Soma, spirit of divinity, infallible and victorious in the conflicts of nature and humanity, bring us wealth of imperishable and unconquerable character and make us happy and prosperous for ever.
   Aṭha no vasyasaskṛdhi.

Soma, spirit of purity and purifying power for all, celebrants exalt you by yajnic performance in order that you protect them to abide within their bounds of Dharma. Pray protect us in our Dharma and make us happy and prosperous more and ever more.

    Aṭha no vasyasaskṛdhi.

Soma, spirit of divine peace and bliss, bring us wealth, honour and excellence of wonderful, progressive and universal character and thus make us eternally happy and prosperous more and ever more.

Mandala 9/Sukta 5

Apriya Sukta, Mantrawise Devata, Asita or Devala

Kashyapa Rshi

1. Samiddho viśvataspatiḥ pavamāno vi rājati.
   Priṇan vṛṣā kanikradat.

Refulgent sovereign ruler and sustainer of the world, Pavamana, pure and purifying, shines in glory, giving fulfilment to all, generous and virile, roaring as thunder all round.

2. Tanūnapāt pavamānāḥ śṛṅge śiśāno arṣati.
   Antarikṣeṇa rārajat.

   Pavamana, lord pure and purifying, self-manifested, unfallen, infallible and imperishable, blazing on top of all, exists and operates, illuminating and glorifying the heaven and beautifying the earth.

3. Īlenyāḥ pavamāno rayirvi rājati dyumān.
   Madhor-dhārābhīr-ojasā.

   Adorable, immaculate and beatifying lord of light shines by his own lustre with honey sweet showers of beauty and joy on earth.

   Deveṣu deva iṣyate.

   Self-refulgent lord infinite, pure and purifying, pervading the timeless world of existence by his lustre and majesty and withdrawing it unto himself is manifested and operative in all divine things of the universe and is, as such, realised through them.
5. Udātair-jihate brhad dvāro devīr-hiranyayāḥ.
Pavamānena suṣṭutāḥ.

The golden doors of divinity vast as space celebrated along with the divine spirit of universal purity, open to the seekers in response to their effort in meditation and research.

इस्निविस्तर स्वप्नदृश्य स्वरूपमान होता है।
नाकोषासा न दर्शत् ॥ ६ ॥

Nakoṣāsā na darṣate.

Beautiful and beatific, vast and grand heaven and earth, the lord of piety and purity loves to shower with grace and abundance as he does the night and day, the glorious dawn and dusk.

उभा दृवा नृच रसा हार्ता दख्ना हुव।
पवमान इन्द्र वृषा। ॥ ७ ॥

7. Ubhā devā nṛcakṣasā hotārā daivyā huve.
Pavamāna indro vṛṣā.

Indra, generous lord and giver of glory and excellence, and Pavamana, lord giver of peace, piety and purity, both refulgent manifestations of supreme divinity, relentless guardians of humanity, divine high priests of the yajna of creation and showers of grace, I invoke and pray and worship.

भारती पवमानस्य सरस्वतीढ़ी मही।
इमाम ना चुज्ञमा गंमनित्वता दुवी: सुपश्चस। ॥ ८ ॥

8. Bhāraṭī pavamānasya sarasvatīḷā mahī.
Imam no yajñamā gaman tisro devīḥ supeṣasah.
May Bharati, divine mother bearer of earthly life, Sarasvati, dynamic spirit of all-knowledge in flow, Mahi, divine spirit of existential sustenance, and Ila, infinite reservoir of knowledge, will and passion of divinity for being, may this threefold divinity of the supreme lord of existence, immanent and transcendent, gracious and beatifying, pure and purifying, move and bless this yajna of our pious living.

9. Tvaṣṭāramagragajāṁ gopāṁ puroyāvānamā huve.
   Indurindro vṛṣā hariḥ pavamānah prajā-patīḥ.

   I invoke and worship Tvashta, the creative maker, first manifested, protector and sustainer of the world, and first pioneer and guide. I invoke and worship Indra, the same lord of power, excellence and glory, Indu, lord of peace and beatitude, Vrsha, generous giver of showers of wealth and beauty, Hari, creator and sustainer, Pavamana, lord of purity and graciousness, and Prajapati, supreme father of his children in existence.

10. Vanaspatiṁ pavamāna madhvā samaṅgdhi dhārayā. Sahasravalśair haritair bhrājamānair hiranyayam.

   O Pavamana, lord of piety and purity in divine flow, with honeyed showers of health and excellence bless and beautify this world of nature and humanity of a thousandfold variety clothed in dear green gold of blazing beauty and divine grandeur.

May all divinities of the world come and join this holy song of homage in honour of the lord of piety, purity and beatitude. Let the vibrant pioneer, eminent scholar, brilliant giver of enlightenment, enlightened leader, mighty ruler, all dear and united in love and faith, come and join and celebrate in peace and joy.

Mandala 9/Sukta 6

Pavamana Soma Devata, Asita or Devala Kashyapa Rshi

O Soma, divine spirit of peace and beatitude, you are the generous power divine, lover of divinities, pervasive in stars and planets in space. You are for us too, pray flow in exciting streams of joy and bless us with peace and purity.

2. Abhi tyaṁ madyaṁ madamindavindra iti kṣara. Abhi vājino arvataḥ.
O lord of power and peace, love and chivalry, release that exciting and beatifying flow of divine spirit of ecstasy and enthusiasm which blesses us with strength and speed worthy of warriors pressing on way to victory.

अभि त्वं पूर्व्य मदं सुवाना अष पवित्र आ।
अभि वार्तं श्रवः॥ ३ ॥

O spirit of power and purity, you are the creator and giver of eternal passion for life, its honour and excellence. Pray inspire us with passion which leads us to victory, honour and fame.

अनु द्रपसासु इन्द्रव आपा न पवतासरन।
पुनाना इन्द्रमाशात॥ ४ ॥

The streams of that inspiring power and passion flow on without interruption like showers of rain and, inspiring, sanctifying and beatifying, bring us honour, excellence and fame for the soul.

यमत्यामविव वाजिन्यं मृजान्ति यार्षण्यं दर्श।
वनं कीठन्तृत्याविम॥ ५ ॥

5. Yamatyamiva vājināṁ mṛjantī yoṣaṇo daśa. Vane krīḷantam-atyavim.

The soul, now that it is past the process of purification, like soma after filtration, and sports in the world of beauty, ten youthful senses and pranas invigorate and shine like a chivalrous warrior on way to victory.

That exuberant ecstasy distilled through sense, mind and intelligence for the love and worship of divinity, O man, further create and develop through communion with the spirit of peace and beatitude for joyous victory in the battle of life.

Self-refulgent and generous lord divine creates and showers streams of distilled soma for the blessed illustrious human soul in communion since it is the lord who creates the soma originally for the seeker who cares for a drink of the nectar.

8. Ātmā yajñasya raṁhyā suśvāṇaḥ pavate sutah. Pratnaṁ ni pāti kāvyam.

The divine lord of joy and pure bliss, Soma, is the soul of yajna and, all inspiring creator of bliss, pervades and vibrates with power, fulfilling the seeker’s desire, and thus the lord protects and promotes the eternal beauty and poetry of life.

Evā punāna indrayur-madāṁ madiṣṭha vītaye. Guhā ciddadhiṣe giraḥ.

O lover of Indra, the soul of humanity, most joyous spirit, pure and purifying thus, exalt and edify the beauty and ecstasy of life for the peace and ultimate freedom of the soul since, after all, you hold the sacred voice of divinity in the cave of the heart.

Mandala 9/Sukta 7

Pavamana Soma Devata, Asita or Devala Kashyapa Rshi

Asṛggram-indavat pathā dharmannṛtasya suśriyāḥ. Vidānā asya yojanam.

Knowing the relevance of their vibrant action in Dharma, wise sages, brilliant and gracious, move by the path of rectitude following the eternal law of existence created by the lord of peace and glory.

Pra dhārā madhvo agriyo mahārapo vi gāhate. Havirhaviṣṣu vandyah.

Most adorable of the adorables, worthy of worship, Soma, lord of peace and joy, first and foremost of the honey streams of life, pervades the dynamics of existence in the eternal law.

\[ \text{प युजा वाचा अग्निया वृषावच चक्करनं। सद्वाभिः सत्यं अध्वरः।।} \]

3. \textit{Pra yujo vāco agriyo vṛṣāva cakradadvane. Sadmābhi satyō adhvarahḥ.}

First and foremost, generous and eternal lord Soma of love free from violence proclaims the words of truth relevant to yajnic life and calls up the devotees to the hall of yajna in peace and bliss.

\[ \text{परि यत्काव्या कविनूमणा वसाना अष्टि। स्ववाजी संप्रभासति।।} \]

4. \textit{Pari yat kāvyā kavirṇṛmnā vasāno arṣati. Svarvājī siṣāsati.}

When the poetic spirit of omniscience wrapped in glory moves and inspires the vision and imagination of the poet, the creative spirit flies to the heavens and celebrates divinity in poetry.

\[ \text{पवमाना अभिः स्पृधा विशा राजषव सीदति। यदीम्पूणवत्ति वधसे।।} \]

5. \textit{Pavamāno abhi sprṛdho viśo rājeva sīdati. Yadimṛṇvantī vedhasah.}

The pure and purifying Soma rises over all rivals and sits on top of people like a ruler when the wise sages pray and move his attention and love.

\[ \text{अव्या वार परि पिया हरिवन्धु सीदति। रथ्या वनुष्यत मुती।।} \]
6. Avyo vāre pari priyo harirvaneṣu sīdati.
Rebho vanuṣyate maṁi.

Over the regions of light, dear, loved and destroyer of suffering, Soma, Spirit of purity and energy, resides in the heart of happy celebrants and, eloquent and inspiring, illuminates and beatifies their heart and intellect.

7. Sa vāyum-indram-aśvinā sākaṁ madena gacchati. Rāṇā yo asya dharmabhiḥ.

He who happily abides by the laws of this Soma, spirit of vibrant purity, goes forward in life with powers of ruling strength and excellence and sagely people of noble knowledge and unfailing action.

8. Ā mitrāvaruṇā bhagaṁ madhvaḥ pavanta ūrmayah. Vidānā asya śakmabhiḥ.

Those wise sages of knowledge, whose sweet will and loving emotions abide by divine love and friendship, freedom and justice, and excellence and generosity, live happy and prosperous in a state of vibrancy like waves of sparkling streams, by the love and exhilaration of Soma, spirit of peace and purity.
9. Asmabhyāṁ ṛodasī ṛayiṁ madhvo vājasya sātaye. Śravo vasūni saṁ jitam.

May heaven and earth lead us to acquisition of wealth, sweet homes, honour, excellence and fame for winning the higher victories of life.

Mandala 9/Sukta 8

Pavamana Soma Devata, Asita or Devala Kashyapa Rshi

   These soma streams of life flow free and fulfil the cherished desires of humanity and exalt the creative splendour of the soul.

2. Pūnānāsāś-camūṣado gacchanto vāyumaśvinā. Te no dhāntu suvīryam.

   The same soma streams of life distilled from nature, contained in deep reservoirs, vibrating in human veins and nerves, marshalling in social forces energise and motivate the vibrant scholar and the pursuers of jnana-yoga and karma-yoga in knowledge and action. May they bring us the lustre and vitality of creative splendour and graces of culture, sanctifying as they are.
3. Indrasya soma rādhase punāno hārdi codaya. Rūtasya yonimāsadam.

O Soma, peace and power of the divine spirit, purifying and sanctifying the life of humanity, inspire and energise the heart and passion of Indra, the human soul settled at the seed centre of the truth of existence, for winning the ultimate success and victory of life.

O Soma, human soul at peace, ten energized and energizing modes of nature, subtle and gross elements, give you the beautiful body form, and seven inspiring faculties of sense and mind inspire and move you to think and act. Thus equipped, let the wise sages provide you pleasure and enlightenment with secular and sacred literature.

O Soma, man of peace and joy, while you are creating psychic and spiritual joy for the service and pleasure of nature and noble humanity, we, generous mother powers and sagely scholars, nourish and enlighten you with milk and noble voices of wisdom and vision of divinity.
6. Punānāḥ kalaśeṣvā vastrāṇyaruṣo hariḥ. Paripurnaḥyavyata.

Soma, lord of peace and purity, destroyer of suffering, manifests in refulgent forms of existence and pervades all round in stars and planets of the universe.

7. Maghona ā pavaśva no jahi viśvā apa dviṣah. Indo sakhāyamā viśa.

Lord of peace and bliss, come and purify the devotees, men of wealth, power and honour, and ward off all our negativities, oppositions, jealousies and enmities from us and bless us all to live together as friends.

8. Vṛṣṭim divah pari srava dyumnaṁ pṛthivyā adhi. Saho nāḥ soma pṛtsu dhāḥ.

O Soma, shower the lights of heaven and wealth, power and glory over the earth. Give us courage, patience and fortitude, hold on to us in battles of life and give us the final victory.

All-watching guardian of humanity, omniscient lord of bliss, adored and self-realised by the soul of humanity, we pray for the gift of food and energy, light and knowledge, and all round happiness for all people of the world, your children.

Mandala 9/Sukta 9

Pavamana Soma Devata, Asita or Devala Kashyapa Rshi

परि पिया दिव: कविवयांसि नप्य हितः । सुवाना याति कविकर्तु: ॥ १ ॥

1. Pari priyā divaḥ kavir-vayāmsi naptyorhitah. Suvāno yātī kavikratuḥ.

Soma, cosmic soul, darling of the heavens and loved of enlightened people, poetic creator, immanent in his own creations, pervading all regions of the universe, moves around omnipresent, inspiring, creating and doing all those acts which are exclusively worthy of the omniscient and omnipotent creator.

पपु यायं पन्यस्य जनायं जुष्टं अदुहः ।
वीत्यष्ठ चनिष्ठयाः ॥ २ ॥

O Soma, loved and cherished of all, ever move with love and favours of grace to every home and every region of the world for the celebrant and all men free from jealousy and enmity, and bless them all with joy
Mandala 9 / Sukta 9

Pavamana Soma Devata, Asita or Devala Kashyapa Rshi

1. Pari priyā diva¬ kavir-vayāsi naptyorhita¬.
   Suvonō yōti kavikratu¬.

   Soma, cosmic soul, darling of the heavens and loved of enlightened people, poetic creator, immanent in his own creations, pervading all regions of the universe, moves around omnipresent, inspiring, creating and doing all those acts which are exclusively worthy of the omniscient and omnipotent creator.

2. Prapra kāya¬ya panyase janayō ju¬cō adruhayō.
   Vētyarēya cani¬cōhayō.

   O Soma, loved and cherished of all, ever move with love and favours of grace to every home and every region of the world for the celebrant and all men free from jealousy and enmity, and bless them all with joy and life’s fulfilment.

3. Sa sūnur-mātarā śucir-jāto jāte arocayat.
   Mahān mahī ṭāvṛdhā.

   He, creator of the universe, pure and great, self-manifested, illuminates the great and glorious heaven and earth, mothers of the created world which observe and exalt the eternal laws of existence.

4. Sa sapta dhītibhirhito nadyo ajinvad-adruhaḥ.
   Yā ekamakṣi vāvṛdhuh.

   He, exhilarating divine consciousness, is received through seven stages of mental and spiritual realisation and, thus realised, sets seven streams of individual consciousness, negativities eliminated, aflow which reveal the exalting presence of the one universal light of existence.

5. Tā abhi santam-āṣṭram mahe yuvānāma da-dhuḥ. Indum-indra tava vrate.

   Indra, lord of light and joy, those seven mental and spiritual stages of divine perception and reception direct the joyous soul, which is ever existent, ever young and inviolable, to abide in the great discipline of your divine law.

अभि वद्विभस्मत्वः सुस पश्यति वार्वहि: ।
किरिवद्वीरतपयत ॥ ६ ॥

6. Abhi vahnir-amartyaḥ sapta paśyati vāvahiḥ.
Krivir-devīr-atarpayat.

The enlightened soul, immortal and inviolable, user and inspirer of its human mind and sense, whom seven modes of Prakṛti and seven pranas define in the existential state, overwatches the seven and, generous like a fount of nectar, fulfills all the seven, i.e., when they have fulfilled their function he retires them, and they resolve into their mother source of Prakṛti.

अवा कल्पेषु न: पुमस्तमांसि साम याध्या ।
तार्नेन पुनान जड्डन: ॥ ७ ॥

Tāni punāna jaṅghanaḥ.

O Soma, soul supreme, lord of peace and joy, pure and purifying, cast away from us all sin and darkness throughout all ages and all states of existence, eliminate them all and protect us, save us, redeem us.

नू नव्यस्य नवीयस्य सूक्ताय साधया पथः ।
प्रतन्वदाचार्य रुचः ॥ ८ ॥

8. Nū navyase navīyase sūktāya sādhaya pathaḥ.
Pratnavad-rocaḥ rucaḥ.

For sure and in truth, for our latest song of praise and for our new life of divinity, open up the paths of progress so that we reach you with our adorations. O lord of light, shine and illuminate as ever.

Sanā medhāṁ sanā svah.

O lord of purity purifying all, all munificent, give us great fame and excellence, lands and cows, literature and culture, horses and transport, progress and victory and heroic children. Give us vision and intelligence, give us the peace, the light and the joy of supreme freedom.

Mandala 9/Sukta 10

Pavamana Soma Devata, Asita or Davala Kashyapa Rshi

1. Pra svānāso rathā ivā’rvanto na śravasyavah.

Somāso rāye akramuḥ.

The seekers of soma in search of food for body, mind and soul rush on like resounding charioteers and warriors of horse, and go forward for the achievement of life’s wealth.

2. Hinvānāso rathā iva dadhanvire gabhastyoḥ.

Bharāsaḥ kāriṇāmiva.

Dynamic are the seekers like heroes commanding superfast chariots laden with riches, holding controls in their hands, their shouts of victory rising like poet’s songs of celebration.

Like kings celebrated by songs of praise, like yajna beautified by seven priests, the soma seekers are hallowed by songs of praise as soma is energised by sun-rays.

Streams of soma distilled and consecrated by the hallowed voice of the Veda flow round for the joy of mankind.

5. Āpānāso vivasvato jānanta uṣaso bhagam. Sūrā aṇvam vi tanvate.

The brave and brilliant seekers of soma, light of divinity, having drunk the glory of the rising sun at dawn and themselves rising in glory, extend and spread the light of subtle knowledge around like light of the sun.

Veteran scholars and artists, blest with the flames and showers of the light and generosity of the omnificent lord of soma, open wide the doors of divine knowledge and will for all humanity over the world.

Seven priests in unison as brothers, happy and dedicated with peace at heart, sit on the vedi and fulfill the yajna in honour of one sole divinity for one sole purpose in the service of humanity and divinity.

In the core of the heart we hold the yajna and the lord of yajna, our eye fixed on the sun with love and reverence, and thereby we distil the light and peace of existence, reflection of omniscient and creative divinity.

The brave visionary of soma creativity sees the heavenly light and the vision of the light giver, distilled, concentrated and treasured in the core of the heart by the performers of soma yajna.

Mandala 9/Sukta 11

Pavamana Soma Devata, Asita or Devala Kashyapa Rshi

1. Upāsmai gāyatā naraḥ pavamānāyendave.
Abhi devān iyakṣate.

O leading lights of humanity, to win the wealth of life’s joy, work and sing in thanks and adoration for this infinite fount of pure bliss which overflows and yearns to join and inspire the noble creative performers of yajna.

2. Abhi te madhunā payo’tharvāṇo aśiśrayuḥ.
Devāṁ devāya devayu.

O Soma, you are the lover of the noble and divine, and you love to bless humanity to rise to divinity. The Atharvans, people on the rock-bed foundation of piety, are steadfast, they direct their concentrated mind to you and drink the life giving nectar mixed with honey sweets of divinity.
3. Sa naḥ pavasva śaṁ gave śaṁ janāya śamarvate. Śaṁ rājann-oṣadhībhyaḥ.

   O Soma, self-refulgent light, life of life, flow free and bring us fertility for the cow, agility for the horse and maturity for the herbs and trees, undisturbed efficiency for the senses, peace and tranquillity for the mind and soul, and peace, prosperity and joy for the people.

4. Babhraṇe nu svatavase’ruṇāya divisprṣe. Somāya gātham-arcata.

   Offer songs of adoration to Soma, lord sustainer of the universe, self-potent and omnipresent, who pervades boundless even to the heights of highest heavens.

5.  Hastacyutebhir-adribhīṅ sutam somam punī-tana. Madhāvā dhāvatā madhu.

   As soma juice is extracted with stones worked by hands, refined and seasoned with honey and milk, so O lord, let my mind be refined and purified with repeated chants of the sacred voice, and let it be sanctified with the honey of devotion and let it be absorbed in the honey sweet of divinity.
   Indum-indre dadhātana.

   O Soma, eternal peace and joy, come, listen and abide by our homage at the closest, be one with our prayer and meditation, hold our mind and spirit in concentration within the ecstasy of your divine glory.

7. Amitrahā vicarṣaṇīḥ pavasva soma śaṁ gave.
   Devebhyo anukāmakṛt.

   O Soma, lord of eternal bliss, you eliminate the disturbance and negativities of the mind, you are the all-watching divine eye, pray flow in streams of joy and bring us peace and tranquillity of senses, mind and soul, O redeemer and giver of fulfilment to the holy and brilliant seekers of divinity.

8. Indrāya soma pātave madāya pari śicyase.
   Manāścin-manasaspatiḥ.

   O Soma, shower of divine joy, you are the eternal mind, cosmic master, protector and inspirer of all human mind, and you vibrate and constantly flow for the joy and fulfilment of Indra, the soul in the state of spiritual excellence.
O Soma, beauty and joy of life, pure and purifying ever on the flow, our friend united with the mind and soul, we pray bring us courage and creativity of spirit, and wealth, honour and excellence of life, join us with divinity in communion and freedom.

Mandala 9/Sukta 12

Pavamana Soma Devata, Asita or Devala Kashyapa Rshi

   Showers and streams of soma, most inspiring honey sweets of beauty and bliss of the world of divinity created in the house of the cosmic flow of existence and distilled in holy action on the yajna vedi, are created for the soul in the state of excellence.

   Just as mother cows low for the calf so do the sages invoke and glorify Indra, lord of soma, beauty, joy and excellence, so that the lord may bless them with his presence and be happy with their songs of love and adoration.

3. Madacyut kṣetī sadāne sindhor-ūrmā vipaścit.
Somo gaurī adhi śritaḥ.

The joyous waves abide by the sea, the saintly joy of the wise abides in the Vedic voice, and the soma joy that is exuberant in divine ecstasy abides in the hall of yajna.

4. Divo nābhā vicakṣaṇo’vyo vāre mahīyate.
Somo yah sukratuḥ kaviḥ.

Soma, lord of eternal bliss, omnipotent creator of the noble universe, omniscient visionary, centre of the universe of heavenly beauty, all watching, who transcends the best and highest, is the adorable love of all.

5. Yaḥ somaḥ kalaśeṣvāṁ antaḥ pavitra āhitah.
Taminduḥ pari ṣasvaje.

The brilliant, the wise, seek and abide by Soma, joyous lord of the universe, who reflects in all forms of existence and abides in the holy cave of the heart.

Soma, self-refulgent lord of bliss who pervades unto the bounds of space, augments the treasure-hold of the honey sweets of nature, inspires the holy minds, and the voice of divinity overflows in poetry and ecstasy.

Soma eternally sung in hymns of adoration, creator, protector and sustainer of nature, indwelling inspirer of mind, intelligence and will, giver of the nectar of nourishment and joy, inspires and fulfils the couples and communities of humanity as a friend and companion.

Soma, divine poet creator, all peace and bliss, abiding in the heavenly beauty of the universe, inspiring and energising human creativity especially of the wise sage, sends down streams of joy in song overflowing the poetic imagination.
9. Ā pavamāṇa dhāraya rayiṁ sahasravarcasam.
Asme indo svābhuvam.

O Soma, pure, purifying and universally flowing, refulgent and glorious, come, bless and bring us wealth, honour and excellence of thousandfold lustre, self-sustaining and abundant.

Mandala 9/Sukta 13

Pavamana Soma Devata, Asita or Devala Kashyapa Rshi

1. Somaḥ punāṇo arṣati sahasradhāro atyaviḥ.
Vāyorindrasya niskṛtam.

Soma, beauty, joy, power and divinity of life, pure, and purifying, vibrates everywhere and flows free in a thousand streams, inspiring, energising and protecting, it is released and sanctified by Vayu, cosmic energy and empowered by Indra, divine omnipotence, distilled by vibrant sages, received by creative humanity and spread abroad by ruling powers.

2. Pavamāṇamavasyavo vipramabhi pra gāyata.
Suṣvāṇam devavītaye.

O seekers of energy, power and protection, sing and adore the soma of existence, lord creator and energiser, pure and purifying, omniscient giver of knowledge and wisdom, for the sake of divine excellence and felicity in life.

3. Pavante vājasātaye somāḥ sahasrapājasah.
   Gṛṇānā devavātaye.

   The Soma streams of life’s felicity flow in a thousand ways of energy, power and divine inspiration, doing honour to the lord of glory and bliss, refining and purifying us for favour of the divinities and for winning victories of honour and excellence in life.

4. Uta no vājasātaye pavasva bṛhatīriṣaḥ.
   Dyumad-indo suvīryam.

   O refulgent Soma, lord of peace, power, beauty and glory, flow, purify and empower us for victory in the battles of life and give us abundant food and energy and high order of noble creative courage and rectitude.

5. Te naḥ sahasrīnāṁ rayim-pavantāmā suvīryam.
   Suvānā devāsa indavaḥ.

   May those streams of soma, divine showers of beauty and glory, inspiring us, energising us with strength and virility, flow and purify us, and give us a thousand-fold wealth, honour and glory, and high creative potential for further advancement.

6. Atyā hiyānā na hetṛbhir-asrgram vājasātaye. Vi vāram-avyam-āśavaḥ.

The showers of soma, blessings of the lord of peace and protection, like fastest forces electrified to omnipresence by urgent masters, reach to places and people that need light and protection against ignorance and darkness.

7. Vāśrā arṣantīndavo’bhi vatsam na dhenavaḥ. Dadhanvire gabhastyoḥ.

Loving showers of divine light, peace and protection flow to the supplicants as mother cows move to the calf and are held by the dedicated in love and faith.

8. Juṣṭa indrāya matsaraḥ pavamāna kanikradat. Viśvā apa dviṣo jahi.

Let the pure and purifying showers of soma in divine flow, dedicated to omnipotence and to humanity in love roar as a cloud of rain showers, and, O roaring showers, throw out all jealousies and enmities of the world far away from us.

O shower of divine light, love and power, warding off and eliminating all unrighteous and uncreating elements of life, pure, purifying and flowing for humanity’s good, revealing the light of divinity and illuminating humanity, come and settle in the seat of truth and rectitude in the yajnic hall of humanity.

Mandala 9/Sukta 14
Pavamana Soma Devata, Asita or Devala Kashyapa Rshi

Pervading and reposing in transcendence over the dynamics of this expansive ocean of the universe, bearing and sustaining this poetic creation, the omniscient poet creator, Soma, lord of peace, joy and bliss, rolls and rules the world with pleasure and grace.

Five peoples together as kindred, five perceptive organs together with volitional sense organs, dedicated and committed to their law and discipline of Dharma, desirous to do good, all honour and adore the sustainer, Soma, lord of peace and joy, the earth mother, and the master soul with their sacred work and voice.

अदास्य शुष्मिणा रस विश्व दुःवा अमत्सत्।
यदी गार्भिकसायत्॥ ३ ॥

3. Ādasya śuṣmīṇo rase viṣve devā amatsata.
Yadī gobhirvasāyate.

And then in the pleasure and ecstasy of this Soma, lord of bliss, all sages, scholars and divines of the world exult when they are able to apprehend with their mind and senses his presence and when he feels pleased by their songs of adoration.

निरिणाना वि धावति जहच्छयाणि तान्वा।
अत्रा सं जिघत युजा॥ ४ ॥

Atrā saṁ jighrate yujā.

Apprehended with discrimination and clear vision, it descends into the devotee’s consciousness, releasing light by its radiations, and, joining the devotee, it destroys his darkness and ignorance.

नसीभिया विवस्वतं: शुभा न मामृज्ज युज्या।
गा: कृत्त्वाना न निर्निज्य॥ ५ ॥

5. Naptībirno vivasvataḥ śubhro na māṁrje yuvā.
Gāḥ kṛṇvāno na nirṇijam.

Shining as pure and radiant by the mind and senses of the ardent devotee, it joins the sage and, perfecting his mind and intelligence, reveals itself in vision as if in concentrated form and splendour.

6. \( \text{Ati śrīti tīraścatā gavyā jīgātyāṇvyā.} \)
\( \text{Vagnumiyarti yāṁ vide.} \)

Pure and absolute, free from any mode or medium, it reveals itself by the subtlest and most pointed intelligent awareness of the devotee, and this confirms the truth of the Vedic words of revelation for the seeker of divinity and knowledge.

7. \( \text{Abhi kṣīpāḥ samagmata marjayanīriśaspatim.} \)
\( \text{Prṣṭhā gṛbhṇata vājinaḥ.} \)

The intelligent faculties of the soul cleansing themselves, together in concentration, move to the lord omnipotent of food, energy and intelligence and reach the fount and foundation of all action and attainment for the soul.

8. \( \text{Pari divyāṇi marmṛśad viśvāni soma pārthivā.} \)
\( \text{Vasūni yāḥysmayuḥ.} \)

O Soma, lord of peace, power and intelligence, pray, having collected and concentrated all heavenly and earthly wealth, honour and excellence of the world, come and bring them for us.

Mandala 9/Sukta 15

Pavamana Soma Devata, Asita or Devala Kashyapa Rshi

1. \(\text{E}\text{ṣa dhiyā yātyanvyā śuro rathebhir-āśubhiḥ. Gacchann-indrasya niśkṛtam.}\)

This Soma, spirit of peace and joy, brave dispeller of darkness, moves with the subtlest intelligence and awareness and comes by the fastest media of psychic communication and comes to the seat of its presence in the mind and soul of man.

2. \(\text{E}\text{ṣa purū dhiyāyate bṛhate devatātaye. Yatrāmṛtāsa āsate.}\)

This infinite and eternal Spirit of peace, love and joy is ever keen to bless humanity with boundless piety and divinity in which men of immortal knowledge, karma and divine love abide.

3. \(\text{E}\text{ṣa hito vi nīyate’ntaḥ śubhrāvatā pathā. Yadi tuñjanti bhūrṇayāḥ.}\)

This divine Spirit is attained and internalised in the core of the heart and soul by the brilliant path of clairvoyance, when the passionate seekers surrender themselves in obedience to it.

4. \( Eṣa śṛṅgāṇi dodhuvac-chiśīte yūthyo vrṣā. \)
   \( Nṛmṇā dadhāna ojasā. \)

   This Soul, vibrating on top of the highest bounds of the universe, abides in repose in the world of existence, one with all in the multitudinous world, generous and virile, bearing and ruling the entire wealth and powers of the universe by its power and splendour.

5. \( Eṣa rukmibhir-īyate vājī śubhrebhir-amśubhiḥ. \)
   \( Patiḥ sindūnāṁ bhavan. \)

   It pervades every where by its holy brilliance of light and wide creative forces, ruling over the dynamics of the vibrating oceans of space.

6. \( Eṣa vasūni pibdanā paruṣā yayivāṁ ati. \)
   \( Ava śādeṣu gacchatī. \)

   It moves and overcomes hard and rough places of hidden hoarded wealth of negative powers and goes over to protect the powers that observe divine discipline in the battles of life.
7. Etāṁ mṛjānti marjyamupa dṝṇeśvāyavaḥ.
   Pracakraṇāṁ mahīrīṣaḥ.

People adore this glorious power closely treasured in the heart, the divine power that creates and gives great food, energy and advancement.

8. Etamu tyaṁ daśa kṣipo mṛjānti sapta dhītayaḥ.
   Śvāyudham āṅmadintamam.

With ten pranas and seven faculties, five senses, mind and intellect, glorify this Soma, lord of peace and joy, who is most ecstatically blissful and wields noble powers of protection for advancement and progress.

Mandala 9/Sukta 16

Pavamana Soma Devata, Asita or Devala Kashyapa Rshi

1. Pra te sotāra oṣṇyo rasaṁ madāya ghrṣvaye.
   Sargena na taktyetaśaḥ.

O Soma, spirit of peace and bliss, your devotees, in order to win the highest attainments of life and to experience the joy of divinity, meditate and sojourn over spaces between heaven and earth and find the divine essence of existence, and then omnipresent divinity flows like a flood into their consciousness. O man, that
1. Pra te sotūra oṣyo rasaḥ mahāghṛvaye. Sargo na taktyetau.

O Soma, spirit of peace and bliss, your devotees, in order to win the highest attainments of life and to experience the joy of divinity, meditate and sojourn over spaces between heaven and earth and find the divine essence of existence, and then omnipresent divinity flows like a flood into their consciousness. O man, that essence of experience is for you.

That delightful experience of the able practitioner born of active meditation which guides our chariot of life and adorns our actions through the soothing experiences of mind and senses, we seek through our noble karma and feel in every subtle particle of our existence and awareness.

That rare soma joy of divinity rolling in existence, achievable but with relentless practice across trials and tribulations, O man, create in the purity of heart and sanctify for enlightenment of the soul.

The soma joy of the person who is purified through the mind and intellect abides in the purity of heart, and by virtue of his karma he attains his position in the presence of divinity.
5. Pra tvā namobhir-indava indra somā asrksṭata.
Mahe bharāya kāriṇāh.

Indra, lord of power, peace and joy, with songs of honour and salutations to you, I have created and offered joyous adorations to you which flow for the grand fulfilment of the poet creator and man of divine action.

Śūro na goṣu tiṣṭhati.

In the eternal imperishable spirit of divinity, abide and roll all peace, power and glories of the world like waves of the ocean in the midst of which the brave soul, having purified itself of the junk of life, sits and abides as a hero like a star among planets.

7. Divo na sānu pipyuṣi dhārā sutasya vedhasaḥ.
Vṛthā pavitre arṣatī.

Just as rain showers of heaven fall upon the mountain, so do the showers of soma fulfilment and omniscience distilled through meditation fall spontaneously upon the mind and soul of the man of purity and roll in the heart.

O Soma, lord of peace, joy and glory, you purify the wise among general humanity and move continuously to the man of choice for the sake of protection and advancement.

Mandala 9/Sukta 17

Pavamana Soma Devata, Asita or Devala Kashyapa Rshi

Just as rivers flow down the slopes of mountains, so do streams of soma, divine bliss, destroying evil and darkness, universal, rapid and restless, flow for dedicated humanity.

2. Abhi suvānāsa indavo vrṣṭayah pṛthivīmiva. Indraṁ somāso aksāran.

As showers of rain stream forth on the earth and fertilize it, so do streams of soma distilled, released and beatifying flow to dedicated humanity, inspiring it with joy and creativity.
3. Atyūr̥mir-matsaro madaḥ somah pavitre arṣati. Vighnan rakṣāṁsi devayuh.

Overflowing, inspiring and ecstatic, the soma joy of existence across the fluctuations of existential mind flows to humanity, destroying evil and negative tendencies and exciting divine love, and rolls in the sacred cave of the heart.

4. Ā kalaśeṣu dhāvati pavitre pari ṣicyate. Ukthaïr-yajñeṣu vardhate.

This soma of divine vitality runs and ripples in forms of life, spreads from one mind to another through the light of discrimination and waxes and rises by songs of praise in yajnas.

5. Ati trī soma rocanā rohan na bhrājase divam. Iṣṭant-sūryam na codayaḥ.

O Soma, lord of light and bliss, rising as if higher and higher, you transcend the three worlds of earth, skies and the heavens and shower light and glory over the heavens, and then, in a state of passion as if, you animate the sun with power and fertility.

Poets, vibrant scholars and sages and earnest supplicants adore and glorify Soma in the beginning of yajna, reposing perfect faith and love in the all-watching divine lord of peace, power and glory.

That lord of might, all victorious over cosmic dynamics, the leading lights of humanity and vibrant sages in search of peace, protection and advancement discover as pure immaculate universal presence and, by their songs and actions, glorify for attaining the bliss and blessings of divinity.

O lord of bliss and inspiration, release the showers of honey. You are intensely vibrant, bless our hall of yajna, inspire and energise the yajakas. You are glorious and gracious, give us the taste of truth and nectar of divine law beyond satiety.
1. Pari suvāno giriṣṭhāḥ pavitre somo akṣāḥ. Madeśu sarvadhā asi.

   O lord, you are Soma, peace, power and bliss, all creative, fertilising and inspiring, all present in thunder of the clouds, roar of the winds and rumble of the mountains, in purest of the pure. You are the sole sustainer of all in bliss divine.

2. Tvam vipras-tvam kavir-madhu pra jātam-andhasaḥ. Madeśu sarvadhā asi.

   You are the vibrant sage of sages, the visionary poet of poets, and the honey sweet of all tastes born of all food. You are the sole sustainer of all in bliss divine.

3. Tava viśve sajoṣaso devāsah pītimāsāta. Madeśu sarvadhā asi.

   All divinities of nature and humanity in love and faith with you yearn to drink of the divine nectar and they are blest with it. You are the sole sustainer of all in bliss divine.

You who hold in hands the entire wealth of the world, we cherish, you who are the sole sustainer and dispenser for all in bliss divine.

You who fill these great mother-like heaven and earth with the wealth of food and drink and obtain for us all nourishments from these are the sustainer and provider for all in bliss divine.

You who always pervade the dynamics of both heaven and earth with food, energy and the spirit of evolution, are the sustainer and dispenser for all in bliss divine.

7. Sa śuṣmī kalaśeṣvā punāna acikradat. Madeśu sarvadhā asi.
O lord of bliss, all-powerful and all-purifying, you, who pervade all forms and regions of existence and proclaim your presence and power therein in action, are the sustainer of all in bliss divine.

Mandala 9/Sukta 19

Pavamana Soma Devata, Asita or Devala Kashyapa Rshi

1. Yat soma citram-ukthyaÅ divyam pārthivam vasu. Tannaḥ punāna ā bhara.

   O Soma, lord of peace, purity and power, purify for us the wealth, honour and excellence both worldly and heavenly which is wonderfully versatile, valuable and admirable, pray sanctify it and bless us with the sacred gift.

2. Yuvaṁ hi sthaṁ svarpaṁ indraśca soma gopaṁ. iśānā pipyatam dhiyah.

   O Soma, lord of peace and purity, Indra, lord of honour and excellence, both of you are protectors, sustainers and sanctifiers of earth, earthly well being, culture and sacred speech, of heaven and heavenly light and joy. Rulers and sustainers of existence, pray bless us with exuberant intelligence and will for holy thought, action and advancement.
3. \textit{Vṛṣā punāna āyuṣu stanayann-adhi barhiṣi. Hariḥ san yonim-āsadat.}

O Soma, giver of showers of fulfilment to the soul in living forms, purifying and sanctifying the soul of each one among humanity, presiding over the evolving forms of nature with the divine will and voice of thunder, taking on the role of creator through the dynamics of universal law, the divine Spirit abides immanent and pervasive in the womb of nature as the total seed of existence.

\textbf{अवावश्यत्त्र धीतयः वृषभस्याधि रतसि।}
\textbf{सूनावत्तस्य मातरे:॥ ४ ॥}

4. \textit{Avāvaśanta dhītayo vṛṣabhasyādhi retasi. Sūnor-vatsasya mātaraḥ.}

Just as females in season yearn for a darling offspring, so do the evolving forms of Prakṛti, Mother Nature, inspired by desire, long for the life seed of the omnipotent father of universal life.

\textbf{कुविद वृषण्यन्तीभ्यः पुनाना गर्भमादध्रत।}
\textbf{या: शुक्रं दुह्तत पर्यः॥ ५ ॥}

5. \textit{Kuvid-vṛṣanyanībhyaḥ punāno garbhamādada-dhat. Yāḥ śukraṁ duhate payaḥ.}

The great lord omnipotent Soma, pure and immaculate, impregnates the forms of nature overflowing with desire which receive the seed and create living milk for the growth of life.

\textbf{उप शि रापतस्वुषा भिभस्मा ध्रृषि शत्रुषु।} \textbf{पव्वमान विदा रूढिम॥ ६ ॥}
6. Upa śiksāpatasthuṣo bhiyasamā dhehi śatruṣu. Pavamāṇa vidā rayim.

O lord of purity, those who stay far off, bring close and instruct; those who are negative, strike with fear; bring wealth, honour and excellence for life.

7. Ni śatroḥ soma vrṣṇyaṁ ni śuṣmaṁ ni vayastira. Dūre vā sato anti vā.

O Soma, lord of peace, power and purification, negate, overcome and win over the exuberance, power and exploitation, and the spirit of the enemy’s enmity whether he is far or near.

Mandala 9/Sukta 20

Pavamana Soma Devata, Asita or Devala Kashyapa Rshi

1. Pra kavir-devavatyaye’vyo vārebhir-arṣati. Sāhvān viśvā abhi spṛḍhaḥ.

Soma, creative poet and universal visionary, all protective, withstanding all rivalry and opposition, moves on with protection, advancement and choice gifts for the creative souls for their divine fulfilment.

2. Sa hi ṣmā jaritṛbhya ā vājam gomantam-invati. Pavamānāḥ sahasriṇam.
He alone, pure, purifying and dynamic, brings for the celebrants thousandfold food, energy and advancement with victory inspired and infused with intelligence, knowledge, culture and enlightenment.

1. Pra kavir-devatayevyo vërebhir-arëati.
   Sëhvënvënvë abhi spëdha-vë.

   Soma, creative poet and universal visionary, all protective, withstanding all rivalry and opposition, moves on with protection, advancement and choice gifts for the creative souls for their divine fulfilment.

2. Sa hi më Öjarëbhyà vëëja Ågomatam-invati.
   Pavama-na¬ sahashriëam.

   He alone, pure, purifying and dynamic, brings for the celebrants thousandfold food, energy and advancement with victory inspired and infused with intelligence, knowledge, culture and enlightenment.

3. Pari viësvëni cetasë mësase pavase mata.
   Sa nah somà sravo vidah.

   O lord, you give us all good things of the world we love with our heart’s desire. You inspire and energise our intellect, understanding and will for action. O Soma, pray bring us the wealth of honour and fame with all forms of life’s excellence.

4. Abhyarësa bërhadyasë maghavadbhyo dhruva-m rayim. Iësam stotrbhya ì bharà.

   Bring wide and expansive fame for the men of honour and generosity, bring wealth and power, bring food, energy, knowledge and excellence of mind and soul for the celebrants.

5. Tvaëm räjeva suvrato girah somà viveëitha.
   Punâna vahne adbhuta.

   O Soma, you are like a ruler sustainer of the holy laws of existence. You are present in the hymns of the Veda and you inspire the songs of celebrants. Pure and purifying, O wielder and sustainer of the universe, you are wondrous great and sublime, the like of which never was and never shall be, rival there is none.

That lord Soma, burden bearer of existence, is the universal inspirer, energiser and enlightener, the very passion and fire of life, pervasive in the waters of space, unconquerable, blazing in the self-circuit of his own refulgence, and he abides in the holy ladles of yajna as much as in the mighty majestic armies of the universe.

7. "Krīlrurmakho na mamhāyuḥ pavitrāṁ soma gacchasi. Dadhat stotre suvīryam."

O Soma, you are joyous and playful, generous at heart as the very yajnic creation of the exuberant world, you move to the heart of the celebrants with purity of divinity, and inspire and infuse the hymns of Veda and songs of the devotees with the spirit of divinity and creative exuberance.

Mandala 9/Sukta 21
Pavamana Soma Devata, Asita or Devala Kashyapa Rshi

"Ey u dvāśṭi-indraṁ: sāma iṅdāya jūṭhāya. Patsrārs: svāvikād."

These Soma streams of divine joy and exhilaration, agile, mirthful, ecstatic and refulgent, flow free in honour of Indra, lord of the beauty and glory of life.

These streams of soma are graciously favourable, readily helpful, harbingers of wealth, honour and fame for the devotees and naturally and by themselves givers of health and longevity for the singers and celebrants of divinity in song.

These streams of soma, i.e., floods of rivers, circulations and circumambulations of stars, planets and galaxies, by nature and spontaneously move from and back into the One and only One like the fire of yajna arising from and receding into the same one vedi and like the waves of the sea arising from, playing joyously on and receding into peace into the same one sea.
   Hitā na saptayo rathe.

   All these streams of soma of the world, pure, purifying and flowing, abide in the One and only One like seven colours of the spectrum abiding in the light of the sun.

5. Āsmin piśaṅgam-indavo dadhātā venamādiśe.
   Yo asmabhyaṃ-arāvā.

   All these various streams of existential matter and energy bearing colourful forms in this cosmic personality abide by one divinity which brings us total fulfilment.

6. Ṛbhurna rathyāṁ navāṁ dadhātā ketamādiśe.
   Śukrāḥ pavadhvam-arṇasā.

   Just as an expert artist makes a new chariot and controls the motive power in order to reach the destination so, O Soma, let the pure streams flow, purify us, and bring us blissful enlightenment for total fulfilment.

7. Eta u tye avīvaśan kāṣṭhāṁ vājino akrata.
   Sataḥ prāsāviṣur-matim.
Thus do these soma streams of victorious divine light and energy wish and shine and create and lead us to the supreme state of joy, and thus do they animate, inspire and fructify the thought and will of the truly wise.

Mandala 9/Sukta 22

Pavamana Soma Devata, Asita or Devala Kashyapa Rshi

1. Ete somāsa āśavo rathā iva pra vājinaḥ.
   Sargāḥ sṛṣṭā aheṣata.
   These soma streams of nature and humanity fast as chariots on course for victory roar like floods let free.

2. Ete vātā ivoravāḥ parjanyasyeva vṛṣṭayah.
   Agneriva bhramā vṛthā.
   These streams like winds of storm, torrents of rain and flames of fire roar and press forward without effort, spontaneously in their element.

3. Ete pūtā vipaścitaḥ somāso dadhyāśirāḥ.
   Vipā vyānaśurdhiyāḥ.
   These living floods of energy, vibrant courses, soothing moons, blazing suns and whirling galaxies, pure somas all blest by light and will divine of the centre hold of life, inspire the will and awareness of thinking men.

4.
Ete mṛṣṭā amṛtyāḥ sasṛvāṁso na śaśramuḥ.
Iyakṣantah patho raJaḥ.

All these, sparkling pure immortals ever on the move tire not. Pure energy they are, restless, eager to traverse the paths of space.

5.
Ete prṣṭhāni rodasorviprayanto vyānāsuḥ.
Utedam-uttamam rajah.

Pressing forward on the journey all round, they cross the regions of heaven and earth and then reach the highest pinnacle of light and space in existence.

6.
Tantuṁ tanvānam-uttamam-anu pravata āsata.
Utedam-uttamāyyam.

Moving on with the flow of life across the expansive web of creative existence, they reach the ultimate where life can reach, the infinite.
7. \textit{Tvam soma panibhya a vasu gavyani dharaayah.}
\textit{Tatam tantum-acikradaḥ.}

O Soma, peace, purity and wealth of existence, you alone bear and bring the Word, peace of settlement and wealth of culture and enlightenment for humanity, and you turn the wheel of existence, proclaim it with a boom and the web begins to spin out and in.

\section*{Mandala 9/Sukta 23}
\textit{Pavamana Soma Devata, Asita or Devala Kashyapa Rshi}

1. \textit{Somā asṛgram-āśavo madhormadasya dhātayā. Abhi viśvāni kāvyā.}

I create the rapid streams of soma forms of existence in constant motion with the currents of honeyed ecstasy of nature in evolution in consonance with the universal poetry of divinity articulated in the Veda.

2. \textit{Anu pratnāsa āyavaḥ padam navīyo akramuḥ. Ruce jananta sūryam.}

In consequence of the will divine, the eternal particles of Prakṛti move and assume new forms of existence in evolution, and for the sake of light they create the light of stars.
3. Ā pavamāṇa no bharā’ryo adāśuṣo gayam.

Krdhi prajāvatīriṣah.

O Soma, lord of purity and power, socio-cosmic dynamics, production and munificence, win over the ungenerous, uncreative and selfish people and give us all a peaceful abode and food, energy, knowledge and wisdom for sustenance and happy continuance of the human family.

4. Ābhi somāsa āyavaḥ pavante madyaṁ madam.

Abhi kośāṁ madhuścutam.

The joyous worlds of Soma move on pure and free, life for Soma devotees moves on pure and free, they enjoy the ecstatic beauty and sweetness of the world, and their homes abound in honey sweets distilled from life.

5. Somo arṣati dharṇasir-dadhāna indriyaṁ rasam.

Suvīro abhiśastipāḥ.

The world of divine soma joy moves on, all sustaining, bearing cherished sweets for pleasure and celebration, the omnipotent is guardian of our honour and fame.
6. Indrāya soma pavase devebhyaḥ sadhamādyah. Indo vājaṁ siṣāsasi.

O Soma, lord of purity and power, socio-cosmic dynamics, production and munificence, win over the ungenerous, uncreative and selfish people and give us all a peaceful home and food, energy, knowledge and wisdom for sustenance and happy continuance of the human family.

7. Asya pītvā madanāmindro vṛtrāṇyaprati. Jaghāna jaghanacca nu.

Having drunk of the ecstasy of this divine nectar of purity and power, Indra has purified and still eliminates the forces of evil and darkness without confronting them as enemies violently.
in life and glorify noble people.

पुनाना इन्द्रमाशत ॥ ॥

2. Abhi gāvo adhanviṣurāpo na pravatā yatīḥ.
Pūnānā indram-āśata.

The ecstasy and power of soma vibrations energise the mind and senses of the celebrant, purifying and perfecting them, and, thus purified, the senses and mind move to the presence of omnipotent all-joyous Indra like streams and rivers flowing, rushing and joining the sea.

प पवमान धन्वसि सामन्दराय पातव ॥
नृभिययति वि नीयस ॥ ॥

3. Pra pavamāna dhanvasi somendrāya pātave.
Nṛbhiryato vi niyase.

O Soma, universal power and joy of existence, pure and purifying, you vibrate in the universe like an ocean of nectar. Celebrated by men of vision and wisdom, you arise and manifest in your glory in the devotee’s experience and inspire him to rise to divinity.

त्वं सांम नृमदनां पवस्व चषणिसह ॥
सत्तिया अनुमाद्यः ॥ ॥

4. Tvaṁ soma nṛmādanaḥ pavaśva carṣaṇīsāhe.
Sasniryo anumādyāḥ.

O Soma, joyous lover and lord of humanity, let the ecstasy of your presence flow purifying for the protection and fulfilment of humanity, pure, generous and adorable as you are.

5. Indo yadadribhiḥ sutah pavitraṁ paridhāvasti.
    Aram-indrasya dhāmne.

O Soma, shower of divine beauty and bliss, perceived, internalised and realised through the mind and vision of the celebrant, you vibrate and shine in sanctified awareness as the absolute beauty, bliss and glory of existence for the human soul.

    Śuciḥ pāvako abdhutaḥ.

Flow into the heart, beatify the soul, O greatest destroyer of the dirt and darkness of life, in response to our songs of adoration. O Spirit of absolute joy, you are pure, sanctifier and absolutely sublime.

7. Śuciḥ pāvaka ucyate somah sutasya madhvaḥ.
    Devāvīr-aghāsamṣahā.

Soma, creator and energiser of existence, ambrosial honey for the enlightened celebrants, is hailed as purifier, sanctifier and protector of the divines and destroyer of sin, scandal, jealousy and enmity.
Pavamana Soma Devata, Drdhachyuta Agastya Rshi

1. Pavasva dakṣasādhano devēbhyaḥ pītaye hare.
   Marudbhyo vāyave madaḥ.

   O Soma, lord of joy and versatile intelligence of the universe, pure, fluent and all-purifying eliminator of want and suffering, giver of sufficiency, flow, purify and sanctify the powers of noble and generous nature to their full satisfaction, come as ecstasy of life for vibrant humanity, for pranic energy and for the will and intelligence of the seekers of light and dynamism for action.

2. Pavamāṇa dhiyā hito’bhi yonim kanikradat.
   Dharmanāḥ vāyumā viṣa.

   O lord of purity and power, let your presence concentrated by senses and mind in awareness, speaking aloud in the heart and soul, abide in the pranic and intelligent vitality of the soul with living consciousness of divine law and virtues of holy life and thus purify and sanctify us.

   Vṛtraḥā devavītamaḥ.
Soma, omniscient poetic creator, generous and dear, dearest of divinities and destroyer of the evil and darkness of life, vibrating in the cave of the heart shines glorious in the soul and reflects beatific with the senses, mind, intelligence and will in the conduct and grace of the human personality.

विश्वा रूपाण्याविश्वनयुनाना यांति हयत: ।
यत्रामृत्तस्म आसंत ॥ ४ ॥

Soma, pervading all forms of existence in the expansive universe, pure and purifying, goes on blissful, beatific and gracious, the omnipresence in which the enlightened sages abide, having attained freedom from death.

Pavamana Soma Devata, Nrmedha Angirasa Rshi

1. Eṣa kavir-abhiṣṭutah pavitre adhi toṣate.
   Punāno ghnannapa sridhāḥ.

This Soma, creative, inspiring and poetic spirit of universal joy, pure and sanctifying, manifests in the pure and pious consciousness of the devotees, eliminating disturbing negativities when it is contemplated with a concentrated mind.

2. Eṣa indrāya vāyave svarjit pari śicyate.
   Pavitre dakṣasādhanah.

This all potent and versatile divine spirit of universal joy manifests in the pure consciousness of the karma-yogi and wins the light of heaven for the vibrant meditative soul.

This Soma, joyous spirit of divinity, is the summit of heaven, infinitely generous, self-existent and omniscient, and with meditation, the ecstasy of it is collected in abundance in the consciousness by the dedicated sages.

It loves the earth and earthly joys and loves to give, speaking loud and bold its own eternal Word, it is pure and purifier, it loves the golden beauty and prosperity of life and loves to bless, it is soothing and self-refulgent beautiful, conqueror of all battles of cosmic dynamics, and eternally invincible.

It rises and abides with the sun on top of the regions of light and, internalised in the pure mind and clairvoyant consciousness, it is the divine ecstasy of the celebrant.
   Punāna indur-indramā.

This Soma Spirit of eternal joy is omnipotent, all pervasive in space, infinitely generous, eliminator of suffering, and, purifying and sanctifying the human soul, it is the ultimate bliss of existence.

Mandala 9/Sukta 28

Pavamana Soma Devata, Priyamedha Angirasa Rshi

   Avyo vāram vi dhāvati.

This supreme all potent soma light and joy of the universe is realised by earnest sages within. It is all aware over the universe, master controller of the universal mind energy, all saviour and protector, and without delay it rises and manifests in the inner self of its favourite blessed devotee.

2. Eṣa pavitre aksaratre somo devebhyaḥ sutaḥ.
   Viśvā dhāmānīvyāviṣan.

This Soma, divine presence and bliss, emerges and vibrates in holy minds, distilled by them through meditation for the noble souls while it rolls in majesty in and over all regions of the universe.

This self-refulgent, immortal divine presence, highest lover of noble and generous souls, pervades and shines all over in the universe through its mode of Prakṛti, dispelling darkness and eliminating evil.

This omnificent shower of generous divinity vibrating by the dynamics of Prakṛti and her tenfold mode of subtle and gross elements proclaims its presence loud and bold in beauteous forms of mutations and manifestations of nature in the universe.

This soma illuminates the sun, pure, purifying and dynamic, watching all, pervading all regions of the universe, knowing and controlling all that is in existence.
Devāvīr-aghaśaṁsahā.

This mighty undauntable Soma, pure and purifying, pervades and rolls in the universe everywhere, protector and promoter of the good and destroyer of sin and scandal.

In character with its self-refulgence, and glorifying its divine powers in nature and humanity, the streams of this mighty virile Soma, pure and immaculate, flow forth with the light and lustre of its omnipotence.

2. Saptim mṛjantī vedhaśo grṇantāḥ kāravo girā.
Jyotir-jajīnam-ukthyam.

Sages embellish and exalt the might of the omniscient and omnipotent Soma, poets and artists, with the language of their art, celebrate the divine light thus emerging and rising more and more admirable.
3. Suṣahā soma tāni te punānāya prabhūvaso.
   Vardhā samudram-ukthyam.

   O Soma, lord of universal wealth, power and honour, those divine showers of generosity, those songs of adoration and lights of glory, are holy and winsome for your celebrant. Let the admirable ocean rise and expand.

4. Viśvā vasūni samjayan pavasva soma dhārayā.
   Inu dveśāṃsi sadhryak.

   Flow forth profusely, O Soma, lord of peace and glory, by stream and shower, bringing and bestowing abundant wealth, honour and excellence of the world on us, and throw out all jealousy, enmity and malignity far away from us.

5. Raksā su no araruṣah svanāt samasya kasya cit.
   Nido yatra mumucmahe.

   O Soma, save us, protect us fully against the arrogance, pride and malignity of the selfish hoarder and uncharitable exploiter and from whoever else be like that, and let us ever be fearless and free from scandal, malignity and anxiety.
6. Endo pārthivam rayim divyam pavasva dhārayā. Dyumantam śuṣmamā bhara.

   O Soma, blissful as the moon and generous as showers of rain, pure and purifying, flow forth, sanctify us and bring us streams of wealth, honour and excellence of the earth and heaven, bear and bring us divine strength, forbearance and fortitude of a high order of freedom and progress.

Pavamana Soma Devata, Bindu Angirasa Rshi

1. Pra dhārā asya āśmiṇo vṛthā pavitre aksāran. Punāno vācamiśyati.

   For one who, purifying himself, seeks favour of the divine speech, Sarasvati, showers of the light and power of this soma, mighty, creative and energising divinity, spontaneously stream forth into the sacred heart.

2. Indurhiyānaḥ sotṛbhir-mṛjyamānah kanikradat. Iyarti vagnum-indriyam.

   The lord of light and bliss, when solicited by seekers and celebrants, feels exalted, and, speaking loud and bold unto the heart and soul of the supplicant, inspires and augments their perception, intuition and eloquence.

O Soma, blissful as the moon and generous as showers of rain, pure and purifying, flow forth, sanctify us and bring us streams of wealth, honour and excellence of the earth and heaven, bear and bring us divine strength, forbearance and fortitude of a high order of freedom and progress.

3. Ā naḥ śuṣṇamā nṛṣāhyám vīravantam puruspr¬ham. Pavasva soma dhārayā.

O Soma, lord of strength and enlightenment, let showers of strength worthy of the brave and victorious inspiring to prowess and chivalry loved by all flow to us in streams of plenty and abundance.

Let soma, pure and purifying lord of peace, light and power, flow and advance in shower and streams of innocence and purity into the celebrants’ heart and soul.

5. Apsu tvā madhumattamaṁ harim hinvantyadri¬bhiḥ. Indavindrāya pītaye.

O Soma, spirit of light, peace and joy, the celebrants, by earnest words, thoughts and acts, invoke, adore and exalt you, sweetest of the sweets in life’s honey, destroyer of suffering, fear and anxiety, and urge you on to bless the heart of the supplicant to his full satisfaction.

O yajakas, create the sweetest honeyed soma, delicious and exhilarating, to augment the strength, forbearance and fortitude of the adamantine soul and, through words, thoughts and actions, to offer it in gratitude to Indra, lord omnipotent wielder of the thunderbolt of justice and dispensation.

Mandala 9/Sukta 31

Pavamana Soma Devata, Gotama Rahugana Rshi

1. Pra somāsah svādhyah pavamānāso akramuḥ. Rayiṁ kṛṣṇvanti cetanam.

Exhilarating, thoughtful, pure and purifying soma powers of divine nature and humanity flow, advance, create and promote wealth, honour and excellence of enlightenment and divine awareness.

Supremely excellent soma spirit of the universe, be the promoter and exalter of our wealth, power and enlightenment on earth and in heaven and be the protector and promoter of the food, energy and excellence of our human community.

O Soma, lord of supreme felicity, the dearest most pleasant winds blow for you, the rolling seas flow for you, and they all exalt your glory.

4. Āpyāyasva sametu te viśvataḥ soma vṛṣṇyam.
Bhavā vājasya saṅgathe.

Glory be to you, Soma, pray promote and exalt us, may your exalted shower of blessings come from all round. O lord, be with us in all our battles of peace, progress and prosperity.

5. Tubhyaṁ gāvo ghṛtam payo babhro duduhre akṣitam. Varṣiṣṭhe adhi sānavi.

O lord bearer and sustainer of the universe, in your honour do stars and planets, lands and cows and all energies of nature create inexhaustible milky nutriments of life and adore you on top of generosity and universal love.
6. Svāyudhasya te sato bhuvanasya pate vayam.
   Indo sakhitvam-uśmasyi.

   O lord of the universe, excellent and blissful, we desire and pray for your friendship, eternal and imperishable wielder of supreme power of creation, protection and promotion as you are.

Mandala 9/Sukta 32

Pavamana Soma Devata, Shyavashva Atreya Rshi

1. Pra somāso madacyutaḥ śravase no maghonaḥ.
   Sutā vidathe akramuḥ.

   May the streams of soma, nectar sweet and exhilarating, distilled and sanctified in yajna, flow for the safety, security and fame of our leading lights of honour, power and excellence.

2. Ādīṁ tritasya yoṣaṇo harim hinvantyadribhīḥ.
   Indum-indrāya pītaye.

   And the vibrant thoughts and words of the sage beyond three fold bondage of body, mind and soul, with all perceptions of sense and conceptions of mind concentrated, rise, reach and exalt the lord of peace and joy, destroyer of suffering, for the enlightenment and ecstasy of the human soul.
And just as a hansa bird joins its flock and just as a horse is controlled by reins to reach the destination, so does the soul, having controlled and concentrated all senses, mind and intelligence, rise and join the presence of Divinity, its ultimate haven and home.

O Soma, lord of peace and joy over-watching both heaven and earth, as a lion moves and rambles freely at will in the forest, so do you pervade and vibrate in the world of Prakrti well seated at the centre in the vedi of yajna, at the seat of human psyche and in the dynamic laws of existence.

Just as a maiden admires, longs for and meets her darling lover, so do all perceptions of sense and conceptions of mind with the consciousness concentrate on the divine presence as is their love and faith and reach their end and aim.
6. Asme dhehi dyumadyaśo maghavadbhyaśca mahyaṁ ca. Saniṁ medhāmuta śravaḥ.

For all of us, for the leading lights of power, honour and excellence, and for me too, bring honour and fame enriched with enlightenment, bring us food and energy, high order of mind and intelligence and total fulfilment for the soul.

Mandala 9/Sukta 33

Pavamana Soma Devata, Trita Aptya Rshi

Just as waves of water rise to the moon and great men strive for things of beauty and goodness, so do inspired learned sages, lovers of dynamic peace and goodness, move forward to realise the supreme power and Spirit of the Vedic hymns.

Just as pure, powerful, brown nectar streams of soma shower milky energies to fill the casks of exhilarating drink for the aspirants, so do seasoned self-realised scholars and teachers of Vedic knowledge and experience, pure at heart and clairvoyant in vision and intelligence, let flow powerful exhilarating streams of knowledge and enlightenment in channels of truth, law and immortality for competent and conscientious seekers of life’s fulfilment.

3.  Sutā indrāya vāyave varuṇāya marudbhyaḥ. Somā arṣanti viṣṇave.

Knowledge, wisdom and expertise, valuable and blissful as soma, collected and refined by sages and scholars of vision and experience, flows on for Indra, the ruling soul, Vayu, the vibrant people, Varuna, powers of judgement and dispensation, Maruts, stormy warriors, and Vishnu, universal sustaining powers of life and humanity.

Three Vedic voices of knowledge, action and prayer, loud and bold, enlighten and inspire to goodness, organs of perception and volition urge to good action, while earth and milch cows are profuse in fertility, and the lord of bliss, destroyer of suffering, manifests bright and blissful as life goes on in a state of prosperity.
5. Abhi brahmir-anushata yahvīr-ṛtasya mātaraḥ. Marmṛjyante divaḥ śiśum.

Holy voices, creators and sustainers of the rule of truth and rectitude, ceaselessly flow around strong, refining and doing honour to the teacher, scholar and learner as they enlighten and sanctify the child of heaven, the rising generation.

6. Rāyah samudrāṁś-caturo’msabhyaṁ soma viśvataḥ. Ā pavasva sahasriṇaḥ.

Flow free, O Soma, divine power, pure and bright, bring us from all around the four oceans of wealth and knowledge a thousandfold.

Mandala 9/Sukta 34

Pavamana Soma Devata, Trita Aptya Rshi

1. Pra suvāno dhārayā tanendurhinvāno arṣati. Rujad-drīḥā vyojasā.

Creating, inspiring and impelling life onward all round with streams of divine energy and ambition, Soma, blissful creativity of the lord omnipotent, goes on, breaking down strongholds of negativity, evil and darkness all round with its might and lustre.
2. Suta indrāya vāyave varuṇāya marudbhyah. Somo arṣati viṣṇave.

Soma, physical, psychic and spiritual streams of energy released by divine creativity, flow all round for Indra, men of power, Vayu, men of energy, Varuna, men of judgement, Maruts, men of ambition, and Vishnu, men of knowledge, wisdom and sustaining generosity.

Effusive and abundant generative energy of soma, divine creativity, collected and controlled by virile and visionary sages with adamantine discipline of body, sense and mind, later scholarly yogis distil and advance further with their spiritual power and thus create still higher food for the soul.

Soma, lord of peace and bliss, is the object of pure meditation for the yogi past the bonds of body, sense and mind, the object for inspiration and ecstasy for the yogi of power on way to aesthetic meditation, and for the average person he is perceived through the infinite forms of divine reflection in life.
5. Abhīmṛtasya viśṭapanā duhate prāsnimātaraḥ.
Cāru priyatamam haviḥ.

The infinite forms of versatile nature imbibe and assimilate the spirit of divinity on top of the truth and felicity of existence, and that is the dearest and most beautiful divine gift worthy of choice and acceptance.

Dhenūrvāśro avīvaṣat.

These simple and innocent songs of praise and appreciation rising higher and higher reach Soma, lord of peace and bliss, and may he, kind and loving as a parent, accept and cherish it as a gift of love and faith.

Mandala 9/Sukta 35

Pavaman Soma Devata, Prabhuvasu Angirasa Rshi

1. Ā naḥ pavasva dharayā pavamāna rayim pṛ-thum.
Yayā jyotir-vidāsi naḥ.

O Soma, lord of purity, pray purify and sanctify us with showers of divine peace, and bring us wealth, honour and excellence of high order by virtue of which you are the sole lord and giver of light and grandeur to us.

Indo samudram-îñkhaya pavasva viśvamejaya.
Râyo dhartâ na ojasā.
O lord of peace, heavenly light and beauty, all pervasive vitaliser of the oceans of space, energiser of the cosmos to move and expand by your omnipotence and refulgence, wielder, controller and giver of universal wealth, honour and excellence, pray radiate your refulgence and glory, purify and bless us too.

Tvayā vīreṇa vîravo’bhi śyāma pṛtanyataḥ.
Kṣarā ņo abhi vāryam.
By your heroic gift of bravery and fortitude, let us win our rivals, contestants and enemies. Let choice wealth, honour and excellence flow to us.

Pra vājam-indur-isyati siṣāsan vājasā rṣih.
Vratā vidāna āyudhā.
Indu, lord of soma beauty and grandeur, loves and inspires victory, rousing the devotee with strength, courage and fortitude; He is all watching omniscient guardian; knowing and controlling laws and disciplines of Dharma, is ever awake with protection and dispensation by the arms of justice.

With hymns of adoration we exalt and glorify Soma, inspirer of song, purifier, saviour and guardian of humanity and their lands, cows and culture.

We adore and glorify Soma, lord of universal wealth, honour and excellence, ordainer and guardian of Dharma and all purifier, who holds and sustains the entire world of humanity in his law of existence.

Mandala 9/Sukta 36

Pavamana Soma Devata, Prabhuvasu Angirasa Rshi

Just as a passionate champion warrior shoots to the goal straight, so does Soma, potent spirit of peace, purity and glory, invoked and celebrated with devotion in the purity of heart and soul, descends to the centre core of the heart without delay.
2.  Sa vahniḥ soma jāgrvyā pavasva devavīrati.
Abhi kośāṁ madhuścutam.

O Soma, burden bearer of existence, inspirer and giver of enlightenment, ever awake and giver of awakenment, lover of celebrants of divine mind, we pray, let the streams of honeyed soma of light and joy flow free to the heart of the devotee.

3.  Sa no jyotīṁśi pūrvaṁ pavamāna vi rocaya.
Kratve daksāya no hinu.

O Soma, lord of light, peace and joy, pure, purifying and timeless, let the lights of knowledge shine upon us and inspire and motivate us to engage and achieve expertise and success in the science of yajnic creation and production for the common good.

4.  Śumbhamāṇa ṛtāyubhir-mṛjyamāno gabhas-tyoḥ.
Pavate vare avyaye.

Glorious Soma, eternal divine light and energy of the universe, adored and glorified by the lovers of truth, natural law and creative yajna for universal social causes, flows ceaselessly and constantly in the imperishable circuit of its own light and supremacy in the cosmos.
5. Sa viśvā dāśuṣe vasu somo divyāṇi pārthivā. Pavatāṁ-āntarikṣyā.

May Soma, we pray, purify and set aflow all wealth, honour and excellence of the world, earthly, heavenly and of the middle regions for the generous yajamana and all.

O Soma, lord of purity, power and life energy, giver of strength and courage, lover of lands, cows and culture, horses, victory and advancement, brave warriors and noble progeny for humanity, you pervade and prevail not only on earth and in the skies, you shine in glory on top of heaven too for the sake of devoted celebrants.

Mandala 9/Sukta 39

Pavamana Soma Devata, Brhanmati Angirasa Rshi

1. Āśurarśa brhanmate pari priyeṇa dhāmnā.
_Yatra devā iti bravan._

 O Soma, spirit of universal joy and infinite light of intelligence, flow fast forward with your own essential and dear light and lustre of form and come where the divines dwell, and proclaim your presence.
Go forward cleansing, purifying and perfecting the uninitiated, leading people to strive for food, energy and advancement. Indeed, bring the showers of the light of heaven on earth.

Soma, universal watchful guardian and light giver of the world, discovered and realised in the self, wearing its celestial light and lustre, manifests and shines in the pure soul of the devotee.

This Soma is the spirit of joy which, at instant and universal speed, descends and manifests in the devotee’s pure soul from the light of divinity and stimulates oceanic waves of ecstasy to roll in the heart.
5. Āvivāsan parāvato atho arvāvataḥ sutaḥ.
   Indrāya sicyate madhu.

   Self-manifested, illuminating the soul from far as well as from near, it rains showers of honey sweets of divine ecstasy for the soul.

   Yonāvrītasya sīdata.

   Devoted yajakas in faith and perfect form together adore and glorify Soma, eliminator of pain, and with adamantine practice of meditation stimulate its presence to power and ecstasy for themselves. O Soma, pray, arise and bless the yajnic as well as the psychic vedi with your presence, the vedi that is your own seat of Truth and divine Law.

Mandala 9/Sukta 40

Pavamana Soma Devata, Brhanmati Angirasa Rshi

Soma, spirit of universal purity and purification, all watching, faces and overcomes all adversaries of the carnal world. Sages celebrate and glorify the vibrant all prevailing spirit with songs of adoration.

The glorious light of divinity, self-manifested and self-existent, pervades its natural abode, the world of Prakṛti, and the generous spirit pervades the human soul too, and while it seats itself in the unshakable faith of man, the human soul too, purified and sanctified, abides in the eternal presence of divinity.

3. Nū no rayīṃ mahāṃindo’smabhyaṃ soma viśvataḥ. Ā pavasva sahasriṇām.

Soma, lord of universal glory, blissful omnipresence, bring us great wealth, honour and excellence of the world from all around, let it flow to us in a thousand streams.

O Soma, spirit of universal bliss and beauty, bring us the light, lustre and glory of all the world. Bless us with a thousandfold food, energy and advancement in knowledge, culture and values of Dharma.
5. Sa naḥ punāna ā bhara rayim stotre suvīryam. Jaritur-vardhayā girah.

May the lord, Soma, pure and purifying, bring us wealth, honour and excellence, bless us with divine strength and generous heroism for the celebrant, and elevate and exalt the devotees’ songs of adoration.

6. Punāna indavā bhara soma dvibarhasaṁ rayim. Vṛṣannindo na ukthyam.

O Soma, lord of peace, beauty, power and divine bliss, bring us the honour, excellence and glory of both the worlds, earth and heaven, and, O generous lord, bless us with excellence worthy of celebration in sacred song for presentation to divinity.

Mandala 9/Sukta 41

Pavamana Soma Devata, Medhyatithi Kanva Rshi

1. Pra ye gāvo na bhūrṇayas-tveṣā ayāso akramuḥ. Ghnantah kṛṣṇāmapa tvacam.

We adore the ceaseless radiations of divinity which, like restless rays of the sun, blazing with lustrous glory, move and shower on the earth and dispel the dark cover of the night.
2. Suvitasya manāmahe’ti setumā durāvyam.
Sāhvāṁso dasyum-avratam.

We honour and adore that divine bridge to peace and prosperity, otherwise difficult to cross, which faces and overcomes selfish, uncreative and destructive elements of life addicted to lawlessness.

3. Srṇve vrṣṭeriva svanaḥ pavamānasya śuṣmiṇaḥ.
Caranti vidyuto divi.

The music of divinity, pure, purifying and edifying, is heard like showers of rain on earth, like flashes of lightning and roar of thunder which shine and rumble over the sky. This is the reflection of the might, majesty and generosity of Soma.

4. Ā pavasva mahīmiṣam gomadindo hirṇyavat.
Aśvāvad-vājavat sutah.

O Soma, divine presence of might, majesty and bliss concentrated in the mind and soul, let showers of great energy and pure prosperity flow, abounding in lands and cows, knowledge and culture, golden beauties of riches, horses, speed and progress of achievement, and then attainment of the ultimate victory.
5. Sa pavasva vicarśaṇa ā mahī rodasī prṇa.
Uṣāḥ sūryo na raśmibhiḥ.

O lord all watchful, ever awake, fill the great earth and heaven with prosperity, light and beauty of life like the sun which blesses the dawn with the beauty and glory of its rays of light.

Sarā raseva viṣṭapam.

O Soma, spirit of beauty, bliss and peace, just as the universe from centre to summit abounds in the beauty and majesty of divinity, so let us all in heart and soul be blest with showers of peace and pleasure of total well-being from all around our life in space and time.

This divine Soma, light and life of the world, self-realised by the sages and adored with ancient and eternal hymns of the Veda, vibrates for them in the heart and soul and sanctifies them with showers of heavenly bliss.

Mighty powerful streams of Soma, full of thousand-fold vigour and promise flow for the karma-yogi, progressive man of initiative, creative ambition and efficiency of action, sanctifying and preparing him for the achievement of his goal.

Creating the eternal life-giving food of divine ecstasy for the soul, the presence of blissful Soma vibrates in the heart of the celebrant and, calling out as if loud and bold, awakens the dormant divine... potentialities of the devotee to active possibilities.

5. Abhi viśvāni vāryā’bhi devān  ṛtāvṛdhaḥ. Somaḥ punāno arṣati.

Soma, purifying the heart and soul of humanity, creates and brings up all the choice wealth, honours and excellences of the world for the noble and generous brilliances of humanity dedicated in service to the laws and values of truth and rectitude in life.

O Soma, adored and glorified in self-realisation, let streams of pure abundant food, energy, possibilities and achievements flow for us, rich in lands and cows, honour and culture, noble progeny and brave warriors, horses, speedy progress and victories, vibrant initiative and perfect fulfilment.

Mandala 9/Sukta 43

1. Yo atya iva mṛjyate gobhirmadāya haryataḥ. Tam gīrβhir-vāsayāmasi.
energy of nature and most blissful in experience is realised for spiritual joy through the senses, mind and intelligence.

That Soma of beauty, bliss and glory, all our senses, in search of protection and advancement, adore and glorify as ever before for the spiritual joy of the soul.

Pure and purifying, blissful in experience, adored and glorified with songs of divinity by the vibrant sagely celebrant dedicated to the yoga of the knowledge way, Soma vibrates in the soul.

O Soma, gracious and blissful, pure and purifying divinity, bring us wealth, honour and excellence sanctified in truth, beauty and grace of the light and lustre of a thousand suns.
5. \textit{Induratyo na vājasṛt kanikranti pavitra ā.} \textit{Yadakṣārati devayuh.}

O Soma, Spirit of light, beauty and grace of life’s vitality, moving fast like showers of energy in life’s evolution in the service of divine purpose, come into the pure heart of the dedicated sage and flow free loud and bold with the message of the divine presence.

6. \textit{Pavasva vājasātāye viprasya grñato vṛdhe.} \textit{Soma rāsva suvīryam.}

Come, O Soma, bless and sanctify the dedicated celebrant for advancement and achievement of his life’s mission and bring us noble vigour and vitality, a brave progeny and heroic powers of progress.

\textbf{Mandala 9/Sukta 44}

\textit{Pavamana Soma Devata, Ayasya Angirasa Rshi}

1. \textit{Pra ṇa indra mahe tana āraṁ na bhibhradar-ṣasi. Abhi devāṁ ayāsyāḥ.}

O Soma, vibrant and fast, bearing waves of light and energy of divinity, you radiate to the noble and brilliant divine souls for our great advancement and achievement all round in life.
2. Maṭi jūṣṭo dhiyā hitah somo hinve parāvati.
   Viprasya dhārayā kaviḥ.

Soma, omniscient poet creator, whether far or near in human consciousness, invoked by vision and intelligence through concentration of the mind and senses of sagely celebrants in meditation, inspires the devotee with showers of ecstasy.

3. Ayam deveṣu jāgrvihīḥ suta eti pavitra ā.
   Somo yāti vicarśaṇīḥ.

This Soma of divine vigour and ecstasy, all watchful, ever awake among the divines, flows free, and when it is invoked for realisation, it moves and rises to bless the holy heart and soul of the celebrant.

O Soma, blissful, watchful and gracious, lover of vibrant aspirants of divine progress, beautifier and sanctifier of our yajna with holiness and grace, the vedi is prepared, the grass is spread, the fire is awake, the yajamana invokes you, adores and glorifies, pray come and bless the celebrants’ yajna.
5. Sa no bhagāya vāyave vipravīrah sadāvṛdhah.
   Somo devesvā yamat.

May Soma, eternal and infinite, inspirer of the holy and brave, come among our noble and generous congregations of yajna and bless us with honour and excellence of a progressive social order vibrant as the winds.

   Vājam jeśi śravo bṛhat.

Let us celebrate Soma: He, most poetic visionary of the knowledge of holy, creative and progressive action, comes and blesses us with the achievement and victory of success, progress and continuous growth of abundant food, inexhaustible energy, high excellence, universal fame and rising glory.

Mandala 9/Sukta 45

Pavamana Soma Devata, Ayasya Angirasa Rshi

1. Sa pavasva madāya kaṁ nṛcaksā devavītaye.
   Indavindrāya pītaye.

O Soma, spirit of light, and joy, omniscient all watchful guardian of humanity, let streams of peace, joy and well-being, pure and sacred, flow for the soul’s exhilaration in divine experience for its dedication to the service and satisfaction of the divinities.

2. Sa no arśābhi dūtyaṁ tvam-indrāya tośase.
   Devāntsakhibhya ā varam.

   O Soma, come like a harbinger of peace and joy for the divine experience and ecstasy of the soul, and as giver of holy and higher perception and vision for our friends.

3. Uta tvāmaruṇaṁ vayaṁ gobhirañjmo madāya kam. Vi no rāye duro vṛdhi.

   O vibrant lord of light and glory, with concentration of mind and senses and with holy words of praise and prayer, we adore you. Pray bring us peace and joy and perfect well being, and open wide the doors of progress for the advancement of our wealth, honour and excellence.

   As the omnipotent divine energy is on top as burden bearer of the course of existence, so is Soma, peace and exhilaration of the spirit on top of the course of the pure heart and soul of the devotee and it flows into the psyche of the divine souls as the spirit of peace and joy of life.

4. Ā dhāvatā suhastyaḥ śukrā gṛbhṇīta manthinā.
   Gobhiḥ śrīṇīta matsaram.
Experts of noble hand and versatile mind, come, take hold of the pure and powerful materials with specialised tools and, with tempering mix and refinement, create the instruments of joyous social development.

5. Sa pavasva dhanañjaya prayantā rādhaso mahaḥ. Asmabhyaṁ soma gātuvit.

O Soma, lord of joy and noble knowledge, winner of wealth and holy power, creator of great infrastructure for development, pure and powerful expert of the paths of history and social development, pray let the streams of peace and joy flow for us.

This Soma, lord of peace and joy, pure, potent and adorable, ten senses, ten pranas, ten forms of subtle and gross orders of Prakṛti elements serve in conjunction with the mind and intelligence of nature and humanity, and create the joy and excitement of evolution and development in life in honour of Indra, humanity and the lord ruler of humanity.
Mandala 9/Sukta 47

Pavamana Soma Devata, Kavi Bhargava Rshi

अध्याय सामं: सुकृत्याया महशिचुदर्भ्यवधत।
मन्दान उद वृषायत ॥ १ ॥

This Soma, lordly Spirit of peace and joy, feels great by this yajnic act of homage and, happy and exalted, loves to advance and exalt the celebrants.

कृतानीदृश्य कत्वा चर्तन्त दस्युतहर्णा।
ऋफणा चै धृष्णुर्दचयंत ॥ २ ॥

The deeds done and to be done by this Soma, by which he destroys negativities and dispels darkness are known, and, daring and powerful, he acquits the celebrants of debts and obligations.

आत्साम इन्दिया रसा वर्जः सहस्रसा भूवत।
उक्तथं यद्यस्य जायंत ॥ ३ ॥

3. Āt soma indriyo raso vajraḥ sahasrasā bhuvat. Uktham yadasya jāyate.

And when the song of adoration is sung in honour of this Soma, then the spirit of peace and inner strength, inner joy, adamantine courage and rectitude edifying the mind and sense of the celebrant arise a thousandfold in the soul.
4. Svayam kavir-vidhartari viprāya ratnamicchati.

When this Soma is adored and celebrated by thoughts, words and deeds, then he, himself a poet creator and visionary, in order to support and reward the celebrant, decides to bless the devotee with the jewels of life’s wealth of his choice.

5. Siṣāsatū rayīnāṁ vājeṣvarvatāmiva.

O Soma, lord of peace, prize and joy, you love to give and you are the giver of all jewels of wealth and honour to all aspirants: like success to the pioneers in the race for life’s glory, and victory to the ambitious warriors in the battles of life’s excellence.

---

Mandala 9/Sukta 48

Pavamana Soma Devata, Kavi Bhargava Rshi

1. Tāṁ tvā nṛmṇāni bibhrataṁ sadhastheṣu maho divaḥ. Cārum sukṛtyayemahe.

O Soma, Spirit of peace, purity and power, with holy acts of homage in the halls of yajna, we invoke, adore and worship you, lord of beauty and bliss, and exalt you in action, harbinger of the jewels of wealth, honour and excellence from the lofty regions of the light of heaven.

2. Sanvṛktadhṛṣṭum-ukthyam mahāmahivrataṁ madam. Śataṁ puro rurukṣanīṁ.

We worship you, eliminator of arrogance and pride, adorable, observer of lofty vows of discipline, inspiring, and breaker of a hundred strongholds of darkness.

For this reason of your glory and inspiring nature, O lord of holy action and self-refulgent ruler, controller and dispenser of wealth, honour and excellence, the veteran sage and scholar can invoke you from the heights of heaven without fear and difficulty.

The sage and scholar of lofty vision and imagination, in order that all visionaries of the world may perceive your heavenly majesty, communicates his experience of your presence who are present everywhere, who give motion to the energy of nature in the cosmic dynamics and who rule and protect the laws of eternal truth which govern the course of existence.

अर्धा हिन्न्यान इन्द्रियं ज्यायां महित्वमानन्त \nअभिमित्कृत्तीच्छिन्नम्: ॥५ ॥

And so, the inspirer of the power of senses, mind and intelligence, giver of fulfilment to the devotees, all watching Soma, divine Spirit of peace, power and enlightenment, pervades and abides in and over existence as the supreme power of divine glory.

Mandala 9/Sukta 49

Pavamana Soma Devata, Kavi Bhargava Rshi

पवस्व वृष्टिमा सु नाचपामूर्भिं दिवस्परिः।
अय व बृहतिरिष्यः ॥१ ॥

1. Pavasva vrṣṭimā su no’pām-ūrmiṁ divaspari. Ayakṣmā bṛhaṭīriṣaḥ.

Soma, lord of peace and plenty, give us holy showers of waters, wave on wave of the rain, and give us abundant food, energy and knowledge free from pollution and negativities.

तया पवस्व धारया यया गावं कुहाग्मनन्।
जन्यासु उप्य ना गृहम ॥२ ॥

2. Tayā pavasva dhārayā yayā gāva ihāgaman. Janyāasa upa no grham.
Shower and purify us with that stream of power and purity of peace and plenty by which our senses, mind and intelligence, socially and positively motivated, may be balanced in our personality and we may feel at home with ourselves.

Soma, lord of peace and plenty, give us holy showers of waters, wave on wave of the rain, and give us abundant food, energy and knowledge free from pollution and negativities.

2. Tayā pavasva dhārayā yajñēṣu deva-vītamaḥ.

Let ghrta shower in streams, pure and powerful in our yajnas, O lord and guardian of the noble and divine worshippers. Bring us fulfilment and purify all our intentions, purposes and motivations of life.

3. Ghṛtaṁ pavasva dhārayā yajñēṣu deva-vītamaḥ.

Let ghrta shower in streams, pure and powerful in our yajnas, O lord and guardian of the noble and divine worshippers. Bring us fulfilment and purify all our intentions, purposes and motivations of life.

For energy, give us showers in streams of imperishable purity of heart, and let the noble devotees hear the blissful music of the rain.

4. Sa na uṣṇātmē deva-vītamaḥ.

4. Sa na uṣṇātmē deva-vītamaḥ.

5. Pavamāno asisyad-ad-rakṣāṁsyāpajaṅghanat.

May Soma, pure and purifying, all pervasive, destroy all evils and negativities, and continue to illumine the brilliant regions of the universe, macrocosmic as well as microcosmic, as ever before.

Higher and higher rise and roll your powers, purities and forces, roaring like waves of the sea. Keep up the motion of the wheel of life, let the swell of music rise on with the chant going on.

When you rise and reach the pinnacle of yajna which deserves to be protected and promoted, then as you rise in intensity, the priests’ chant of the three voices of Rks, Samans and Yajus also swells to the climax.

The devotees, who are seekers of your protection for advancement in their heart of hearts, intensify their awareness through relentless concentration and meditate on your presence dearer than dearest, eliminator of negative fluctuations of mind, pure and purifying spirit.
of divinity replete with honey sweets of ecstasy.

आ पवस्व मदिन्तम पवित्रं धारया कवः।
अकस्य यानिमपुस्तद्धम इ।

4. Ā pavasva madintama pavitraṁ dhārayā kave.
Arkasya yonimāsadam.

Flow in and purify, O poetic visionary and most exhilarating Spirit of ecstasy, the sacred heart of the celebrant in streams of beauty, light and sweetness to join the celebrant at the centre of his faith and devotion.

स पवस्व मदिन्तम गाभिरञ्जना अतुकर्भः।
इन्द्रविन्दौऽय पीतयः।५।

5. Sa pavasva madintama gobhir-añjāno aktubhiḥ.
Indavindrāya pītaye.

Flow on, most exhilarating Spirit, adored and exalted by concentrative mind and senses of the seeker in meditation, flow on for ecstatic experience of the soul.

Mandala 9/Sukta 51
Pavamana Soma Devata, Uchathya Angirasa Rshi

अध्वया अदितिभः सूतं सामं पवित्रं आ सूजः।
पुनिहीन्द्रयं पातवः।१।

1. Adhvaryo adribhiḥ sutam somam pavitra ā srja.
Punihindrāya pātave.

O high priest of soma yajna, create the awareness of Soma, spirit of purity and divinity collected and concentrated by the senses and mind in the heart, and sanctify and intensify it there for exhilaration of the soul.

Create the highest honey sweet Soma of divine consciousness, highest exhilarating experience of the light of heaven for the soul’s awareness, and then rise to adamantine power against all possible violations.

Then, O Soma, Spirit of divinity, the noblest, most vibrant generous and brilliant souls have a drink of the elixir of your honey sweet presence flowing exuberantly at the purest.

Soma, lord of purity, peace and power, you alone are the object of meditation, supplication and exaltation for the ecstasy, vibrancy and protected progress of life, you alone promote the celebrant to the top of sovereignty and give him showers of joy.
5.  Abhyarṣa vicākṣaṇa pavitram dhārayā sutah. Abhi vājamuta śruvaḥ.

Flow on, O lord all watchful guardian of humanity, and, realised in meditation, rain in showers on the pure heart and bring in abundance of food and energy for the body, mind and soul, and give us the ultimate victory of fame in the world and fulfilment across the world of time.

Mandala 9/Sukta 52

Pavamana Soma Devata, Uchathya Angirasa Rshi

Light of the light of heaven, treasure-hold of world’s wealth, with wealth, food and energy for body, mind and soul arise and manifest in the pure heart, inspiring it to a state of peace and benediction.

Let your dear protected celebrant, sanctified by a thousand streams of divine favours, rise to the cherished state of fulfilment by the ancient and eternal paths of divinity and Vedic lore.

Indu, spirit of peace, plenty and generosity, inspire him who is receptive and generous as a cloud, move him like charity in flow. O shaping power of hard discipline, shape him through hardness and inspire him to the good life of generosity and joy.

Indu, lord of peace and plenty who rule over us, invoked, adored and worshipped pray increase the power and prosperity of those people who follow the rule of your law of discipline and generosity.

5. Śataṁ na inda ātibhiḥ sahasram vā śucīnām. Pavaṣva maṁhayad-rayiḥ.

O lord of light, purity and plenty, with divine powers and protections bless us with hundreds and thousands of life’s purities and shower upon us abundance of wealth, honour and excellence worthy of that purity.
Mandala 9/Sukta 53

Pavamana Soma Devata, Avatsara Kashyapa Rshi

उत्त शुष्मासा अस्थूर गं भिन्दन्ता अदिवः।
नुदस्य या: परिप्रृढः ॥ १ ॥

1. Ut te śuṣmāso asthū rakṣo bhindanto adrivah.
Nudasva yāḥ parispṛdhaḥ.

O lord of mountains, thunder and clouds, your powers and forces stand high, breaking down the negative and destructive elements of life. Pray impel or compel the adversaries to change or remove them from the paths of progress.

अया निजराजसा रथसुज्ञ धन्य हितः।
स्तवा अविभ्युषा ह्रदा ॥ २ ॥

2. Ayā nijaghnirōjasā rathasaṅge dhane hite.
Stavā abibhyuṣā hṛdā.

By this power and valour of yours you eliminate the negative forces. In this battle of the body chariot on hand in this life, we adore you with a fearless heart, you being the protector and guide.

अस्य वृतान्ति नाधृष्ट पर्वमानस्य तृढ्याः।

3. Asya vratānī nādhṛṣe pavamānasya dūḍhyā.
Ruja yastvā pṛtanyati.

The rules and laws of this mighty creative and dynamic power no one can resist with his adverse force. O Soma, whoever opposes you, break open and destroy.

That giver of showers of sweetness and joy, lord of peace and power, destroyer of suffering, energising and flowing in streams of the universal dynamics of existence, people admire and adore, he is the joy and ecstasy of the living soul.

Mandala 9/Sukta 54

Pavamana Soma Devata, Avatsara Kashyapa Rshi

Men of vision and science of yajna, in pursuit of the ancient and eternal Vedic tradition of this lord of light, peace and purity, distil the brilliant, pure and powerful and visionary knowledge of a thousandfold nourishing and inspiring gifts of existence.

2. Ayaṁ sūryaṁ ivopadṛg-ayam sarāṃsi dhāvati. Sapta pravata ā divam.

This Soma, like the sun, all watching and illuminating, sets rivers, seas and energies aflow, pervading therein on earth and in the seven-fold light of the sun upto the regions of light.

\text{अयं विश्वानि तिथिति पुनाना भुवनापरिः ।}
\text{साम्स्त्र दृष्टि न सूयः ॥ ३ ॥}
\]

3. \text{Ayam viśvāni tiṣṭhati punāno bhuvanopari.}
\text{Somo devo na sūryaḥ.}

This Soma, lord of light, peace and power, pure and purifying, pervades all regions of the universe in and above, like the divine light which illuminates all regions of the universe.

\[
\text{परिण दृष्टि तत्तत्वी चार्ज़ अष्टि गाम्यतः ।} \text{पुनान इन्द्रियन्त्युः ॥ ४ ॥}
\]

4. \text{Pari ṇo devavitaye vājāṇ arṣasi gomataḥ.}
\text{Punāna indavindrayuḥ.}

Indu, spirit of peace, beauty and plenty, lover of men of knowledge and power, purifying and sanctifying the world, bring us food and energy for the body, mind and soul for the service and fulfilment of the men of brilliance and generosity.

\textbf{Mandala 9/Sukta 55}

\textit{Pavamana Soma Devata, Avatsara Kashyapa Rshi}

\[
\text{यवंयवं ना अन्धसा पुष्टंपुष्टं परिः स्रवः ।}
\text{साम्स्त्र विश्वानि च साध्यः ॥ १ ॥}

1. \text{Yavam-yavam no andhasā puṣṭam-puṣṭam pari srava. Soma viśvā ca saubhagā.}

Soma, Spirit of peace, power and plenty, flow forth, vitalise, purify and inspire us with fresh energy, power and grace of culture at every stage of our growth, acquisition and progress, beatify all our good fortune and prosperity of life in the world.

2. Indo yathā tava stavo yathā te jātam-andhasah.
   Ni barhiṣi priye sadaḥ.

   O lord of beauty and grace, as you pervade your own glory of adoration, your own creation, power and nourishments of food and inspiration, so pray come, bless our vedi of yajna, our life and work through the world.

3. Uta no govid-aśvavit pavasva somāndhasā.
   Makṣūtamebhir-ahabhiḥ.

   And O Soma, lord of energy, wealth and advancement, master of knowledge and progress, by the shortest time of the days ahead, bless and beatify us with food for body, mind and soul, rich in lands, cows and culture, horses, advancement and progressive power and achievement.

4. Yo jināti na jīyate hanti śatrum-abhītya.
   Sa pavasva sahasrajit.

   You, who always excel, win or vanquish, who no one can excel, win or vanquish, who advance and destroy the destructive adversary, pray advance, energise, purify and empower us too, winner of a thousand battles.

Mandala 9/Sukta 56

_Pavamana Soma Devata, Avatsara Kashyapa rshi_

1. Pari soma ṛtāṁ bhṛhadāśuḥ pavitre arṣāti.
   Vighnan rakṣāṁsi devayuḥ.

   Soma is the universal truth and law of eternity, instant and omnipresent, lover of the noble, brilliant and generous people, destroyer of negative and destructive forces, and it rolls in the heart of pure and pious souls, inspires, energises and advances them.

2. Yat somo vājamārṣati śatāṁ dhārā apasyuvah.
   Indrasya sakhyamāviśan.

   When Soma releases the divine energy and enthusiasm of life, men of initiative and creativity enjoying friendship and communion with divinity experience the ecstasy of life flowing in a hundred streams.

   Adbhūtā śravāṇa dṛśe jārāṁ n kṛṇyānūṣṭat.
   Mūnīyam śaṃ śāntathā.
3. Abhi tvā yoṣaṇo daśa jāram na kanyānūṣata.
Mrjyase soma sātaye.

Ten youthful organs of perception and volition, concentrated, directed and integrated with mind, intelligence and consciousness serve and help the soul to commune with you, Soma, like a loving maiden communing with her lover, and then, O Supersoul and master of the soul, you shine in the heart’s core for the ultimate victory and fulfilment of the devotee.

4. Tvam-indrāya viṣṇave svādur-indo pari srava.
Nṛnt-stotṛn pāhyamhasah.

O Soma, spirit of peace and bliss, let divine ecstasy flow forth for Indra, celebrant of power, and Vishnu, omnipresence oriented soul, and protect and promote the leading lights of humanity free from sin and dedicated to divinity.

Mandala 9/Sukta 57
Pavamana Soma Devata, Avatsara Kashyapa Rshi

1. Pra te dhārā asaścato divo na yanti vṛṣṭayah.
Acchā vājam sahasrīṇam.

O Soma, the ceaseless streams of your inexhaustible ecstasy flow like rains of heavenly light, bringing thousandfold strength, energy and joy for the celebrants.
Abhi priyāṇi kāvyā viśvā cakṣaṇo arṣati. Haris-tuṅjāṇa āyudhā.

Soma, spirit of joy, destroyer of suffering, watching all human activity, flows forth for its dear favourites, striking its arms against adverse forces.

Sa marmṛjāṇa āyubhir-ibho rājeva suvrataḥ. Śyeno na vaṁsu śīdati.

Soma, adored and glorified by people, as a self-controlled, powerful and brilliant ruler ever awake and unfailing power, pervades in the human common-wealth and the entire world of sustenance.

Sa no viśvā divo vasūto prthivyā adhi. Punāna indavā bhara.

Soma, lord of wealth, beauty and excellence, ever pure and sanctifying, may, we pray, bring us all the wealth, honour and fame of life on earth and the light and magnificence of heaven.
1. Tarat sa mandī dhāvati dhārā sutasyāndhasaḥ.
   Tarat sa mandī dhāvati.

   Soma, Spirit of peace, beauty and bliss, saving, rejoicing, fulfilling, flows on. The stream of delight exhilarating for body, mind and soul flows on full of bliss. Crossing over the hurdles of life, delighted all over, the celebrant goes on.

2. Usrā veda vasūnāṁ martasya devyavasaḥ.
   Tarat sa mandī dhāvati.

   Mother source of wealth, honour and enlightenment, divine power that commands the saving art for the mortals, saviour, delightful, giver of fulfilment flows on.

3. Dhvasrayoḥ puruṣantyorā sahasrāṇi dadmahe.
   Tarat sa mandī dhāvati.

   Let us receive a thousand gifts of the divine soma power that destroys evil and exalts humanity. Saving, delighting and fulfilling, the stream of divine bliss flows on.

4. Ā yayostriṁśatāṁ tanā sahasrāṇi ca dadmahe.
   Tarat sa mandī dhāvati.
The divine Soma energy and power, destroyer of evil and saviour of human good, of which we get thirty virtues and a thousand other gifts, flows on saving, delighting, delightful.

Mandala 9/Sukta 59

Pavamana Soma Devata, Avatsara Kashyapa Rshi

Victorious over senses and mind, victorious over will and ambition, victorious over the world, victorious over pleasure, pride and victory, O Soma, life of life, flow on and bring us jewels of children, family life and noble generations.

   Prajāvad-ratnamā bhara.

   O vitality of Soma, divine energy, flow on and energise us with fluent systemic energy of body and mind, redoubtable and undaunted power, flow in and on with herbs and sanatives, energise, purify and sanctify with self-controlled will and invincible will divine.
3. Tvam soma pavamāno viśvāni durītā tara.
   Kaviḥ sīda ni barhiṣi.

   O Soma, pure and purifying energy and divine inspiration, cross over hurdles, eliminate evil tendencies and, O omniscient vision and creativity, be seated on the holy vedi and in the mind.

4. Pavamāna svarvido jāyamāno’bhavo mahān.
   Indo viśvān abhīdasi.

   O Soma, divine spirit of bliss, unborn, great, ever manifesting anew, lord controller and giver of heavenly joy, you are supreme over everything of the world.

Mandala 9/Sukta 60

Pavamana Soma Devata, Avatsara Kashyapa Rshi

1. Pra gāyatreṇa gāyata pavamānāṁ vicarṣaṇīṁ.
   Indum sahasracakṣasam.

   O devotees, sing and enthusiastically celebrate with gayatri hymns Soma, pure, purifying and ever flowing in cosmic dynamics, all moving, omnipresent Spirit of bliss and joy, lord of a thousandfold vision and voice of Infinity.

2. Tāṁ tāṁ sūhrteṇa tāśyaṃ tāśyaṃ sūḥstvabhunāsam.
2.

\[ \text{TvaÅ soma pavamŒno viÜvŒni duritŒ tara.} \]

\[ \text{Kavi¬ s¶da ni barhi¦i.} \]

O Soma, pure and purifying energy and divine inspiration, cross over hurdles, eliminate evil tendencies and, O omniscient vision and creativity, be seated on the holy vedi and in the mind.

3.

\[ \text{Ati vårän pavamäno asi¥yadat kalašän abhi dhåvati. Indrasya hårdyåvisån.} \]

Soma, lord supreme of the dynamic flow of life, giver of choicest favours, pervading and shining at the core of human heart and soul, manifests and vitalises all forms of existence.

4.

\[ \text{Prajåvadreta á bhara.} \]

O Soma, Spirit of peace, power and bliss, all watching, all moving, bring us showers of peace and purity for the soul’s fulfilment, and vest us with creative vitality and virility for continuance of life through generations and generations.

1. Ayā vīti pari srava yasta indo madeśvā. Avāhan navaṭīrnava.

   O Soma, joyous ruler and protector of life, let this creative peace, presence, power and policy of yours prevail and advance, promoting those who join the happy advance, and repelling, dispelling, even destroying ninety-and-nine strongholds of darkness which obstruct the progress.

2. Puraḥ sadya itthādhiye divodāsāya śambaram. Adha tyāṁ turvaśaṁ yadum.

   Go on thus always advancing for the people dedicated to positive good work in thought, policy and action, accelerating, controlling and balancing the forces of peace, progress and restless ambition.

3. Pariṇaḥ aśvam-aśvavid-gomad-indo hiraṇyavat. Kṣarā sahasriṇīriṣaḥ.

   And for us, let abundant streams of food, energy and wealth of a thousandfold riches and variety flow abounding in horses, transport and progress, lands, cows and beauties of culture and literature, gold and golden graces. O creator, ruler and controller of peace and joy, you know the values and dynamics of evolution and progress.
1. Ayō vṛtṝ pari srava yastā indo madevaṁ.
Avēhan navatṝrnava.
O Soma, joyous ruler and protector of life, let this creative peace, presence, power and policy of yours prevail and advance, promoting those who join the happy advance, and repelling, dispelling, even destroying ninety-and-nine strongholds of darkness which obstruct the progress.

2. Puraṁ sadya itthēdhiye divodēsēya Īambaram.

Go on thus always advancing for the people dedicated to positive good work in thought, policy and action, accelerating, controlling and balancing the forces of peace, progress and restless ambition.

Karē sahasrīraṁ.
And for us, let abundant streams of food, energy and wealth of a thousandfold riches and variety flow abounding in horses, transport and progress, lands, cows and beauties of culture and literature, gold and golden graces. O creator, ruler and controller of peace and joy, you know the values and dynamics of evolution and progress.

4. Pavamānasya te vayam pavitram-abhyundataḥ.
Sakhitvamā vrñīmahe.
O Soma, pure and purifying lord and ruler of life, the streams of your peace, plenty and piety overflow. We pray for abiding love and friendship with you.

5. Ye te pavitram-ūrmayo’bhikṣaranti dhārayā.
Tebhirnaḥ soma mṛḷaya.
The streams of your piety, purity, peace and plenty rain in showers for the pure heart and soul in humanity. O Soma, with those showers, pray bless us with happiness, prosperity and all round well being.

6. Sa naḥ punāna ā bhara rayim vīravatīmiṣam.
Īśānāḥ soma viśvataḥ.
O Soma, lord ruler and benefactor of the entire world, pure and purifier of all, bring us food and energy for body, mind and soul, versatile wealth and power abounding in brave and heroic progeny for future generations.
7. Etamu tyaṁ daśa ksipo mṛjanti sindhumātaram.
Samādityebhir-akhyata.

Such as you are, O ruling soul, ten senses, ten pranas, ten subtle and gross modes of Prakṛti and ten directions of space, all glorify you, mother source of all fluent streams of world energies shining with the zodiacs of the sun and all other brilliances of nature and humanity.

8. Samindreṇoṁ tāvunāṁ sūtāṁ ātīṁ pūrvitrā aṁ
Saṁ sūryasya raśmibhiḥ.

O Soma, spirit of peace, plenty and energy of the universe, you flow with the wind and cosmic dynamics and, with the rays of the sun, you shine as the very light of life which, realised and internalised, abides vibrant in the pure heart and soul.

O Soma, beautiful, blissful, honey spirit of the sweets of existence, flow free and purifying for the glory of life, for vibrant forces, for the power of health and growth, and for the friendly and discriminative people among humanity.

MANDAL - 9 / SUKTA - 61
10. Uccā te jātam-andhaso divi śadbhūmyā dade. Ugrāṁ īśāra mahī śravaḥ.

O Soma, high is your renown, great your peace and pleasure, born and abiding in heaven, and the gift of your energy and vitality, the earth receives as the seed and food of life.

11. Enā viśvānyarya ā dyumnāni mānuṣāṇām. Siṣāsanto vanāmahe.

Soma is the lord of humanity and the earth. By virtue of him and of him, we ask and pray for all food, energy, honour and excellence for humanity, serving him and sharing all the benefits together.

12. Sa na indrāya yajyave varuṇāya marudbhyaḥ. Varivovit pari srava.

Soma, lord of peace and purity, power and piety, creator, controller and commander of the entire wealth of life, flow on by the dynamics of nature and bless us for the benefit of power and glory, yajna and unity among the yajakas, judgement and right values and the vibrant forces of law and order.

13. Upo śu jātam-apturaṁ gobhir-bhaṅgam pari-śkṛtam. Induṁ devā ayāsiṣuḥ.
Soma, spirit of beauty, grace and glory, divinely created, nobly born, zealous, destroyer of negativity, beatified and celebrated in songs of divine voice, the noblest powers of nature and humanity adore, share and enjoy.

As mother cows love, cheer and caress the calf, so let our songs of adoration celebrate and exalt Soma, love and grace of the heart of Indra, life’s glory on top of existence.

O Soma, peaceable ruling powers of the world, rise, move forward and create conditions of peace and progress for the earth, work for nature, animal wealth and environment, advance human culture, create nourishing food and productive energy for comfort and common good and, thus, exalt the grace and glory of human life, rolling like the infinite ocean.

Let Soma, progressive, active and zealous power dedicated to humanity and divinity, create the light and culture of universal expansive order from the light of heaven, sublime, awful and beautiful as the light and resounding roar of thunder and lightning.

17. Pavamānasya te raso mado rājannaducchunāḥ.
Vi vāram-avyamarṣati.

O Soma, beauty, grace and joy of life, refulgent power, as you flow, pure and purifying, the pleasure you release, the ecstasy you inspire, and the peace you emanate free from negativities, radiates to the mind and soul of the loved celebrant.

18. Pavamāna rasastava dakṣo vi rājati dyumān.
Jyotir-viśvaṁ svardṝṣe.

O vibrant bliss of the world, the purity, pleasure and ecstasy of yours, versatile and refulgent, radiates over space and time as universal light of divinity for humanity to have a vision of the heaven of bliss.

19. Yaste mado vareṇyas-tenā pavasvāndhāsā.
Devāvīr-aghaśaṁsahā.

The soma ecstasy that’s yours, that is the highest love of our choice. Flow on, radiate, and sanctify us beyond satiation with light divine for the soul, protector and saviour as you are of the holy and destroyer of sin and evil for the good.

Soma, power and peace of divinity, destroyer of the evil and darkness of negative forces, constant catalytic force of nature in creative evolution day in and day out, you are the giver of earthly life and dynamic motion for onward progress.

Be bright and blazing, integrated with creative powers of growth, perception and imagination, sojourning over space and time yet resting in your seat at the centre of existence.

Lord of the joy of existence, for constant conversion, elimination and destruction of negativity you protect and promote the creative, structural and developmental forces of nature in great evolutionary dynamics on way to positive growth and progress.

23. Suvirāso vayaṁ dhanā jayema soma mīḍhvahaḥ.
    Punāno vardha no girāḥ.

    O Soma, virile lord of creation and evolution, bless us so that, blest with noble warlike progeny, we may win the wealth of life. Pure and purifying lord, exalt our intellect and imagination and our songs of adoration for divinity.

24. Tvotāsas-tavāvasā syāma vanvanta āmuraḥ.
    Soma vratesu jāgṛhi.

    Safe under your power and protection, serving and celebrating you in adoration, let us be destroyers of negativities, jealousies and enmities. O Soma, ever awake as you are, keep us awake in the observance of divine law and discipline of holiness.

25. Apaghnan pavate mṛdho ’pa somo arāvṇaḥ.
    Gacchann-indrasya niśkṛtam.

    Destroying the destroyers, eliminating the selfish, ungenerous hoarders and parasites, Soma, divine creativity in nature and humanity attains to its yajnic end and aim in the existential order created by omnipotent Indra.

26. Maho no rāya ā bhara pavamāṇa jahī mṛdhāḥ. Rāsvendo vīravadyaśaḥ.

Lord Supreme of beauty, splendour and grace, pure and purifying, ever awake, bring us wealth of the highest order, eliminate the destructive adversaries and bless us with honour, excellence and fame, and continue the human family with noble and brave generations.

27. Na tvā śatāṁ cana hruto rādho ditsantamā minan. Yat punāno makhasyase.

Lord of peace and purity, purifier and saviour of the celebrants, when you please to bless the devotee with prosperity and fulfilment in life’s yajna, not a hundred adversaries can stop or frustrate you.

28. Pavasvendo vrṣā sutāḥ kṛdhī no yaśaso jane. Viśvā apa dviṣo jahi.

Soma, lord of purity and generosity, light and splendour, served and realised through yajnic life, protect and purify us, help us join the community of honour and excellence, ward off and eliminate all malignity, jealousy and enmity from our life.

अस्य त सुख्य वर्य तर्कन्द्र द्यूम उन्तम्।
सासुसन्नाम पृतन्यतः।॥ २९ ॥

29. Asya te sakhye vayaṁ tavendo dyumna uttame.
Sāsahyāma pṛtanyataḥ.

O lord of truth, beauty and generosity, within the fold of your friendship and in the state of your highest honour and excellence, let us face and win over all the adversaries.

या ते भीमान्यायुधा तिग्मानि सन्ति धूर्वणं।
र ते समस्य ना निदः।॥ ३० ॥

30. Yā te bhīmānyāyudhā tigmāni santi dhūrvane.
Rakṣā samasya no nidaḥ.

Whatever are your sharpest and most awful weapons for the destruction of destroyers, with those weapons, pray, protect us against all maligners and enemies.

Mandala 9/Sukta 62
Pavamana Soma Devata, Jamadagni Bhargava Rshi

एत अस्रगमिन्दवस्तिरः पवित्रमाशवः।
विश्वायुभि सास्यंगा।॥ १ ॥

1. Ete asrgram-indavas-tirah pavitram-aśavaḥ.
Viśvānyabhi saubhagā.

These vibrant forces of humanity dedicated to peace and joy for all, above pettiness and negativities, move on with noble work for humanity toward the achievement of all wealth, honour and excellence.

2. Vighnanto duritā puru sugā tokāya vājinaḥ.
   Tanā kṛṇvanto arvate.

   Overcoming and eliminating the many evils and undesirables of life, creating peace and comfort, wealth and honour for vibrant humanity and their progress through future generations, they go on as warriors and pioneers of the human nation.

3. Kṛṇvanto varivo gave’bhyarṣanti suṣṭutim.
   Iḷām-asmabhyaṁ samiyatam.

   Creating, collecting and preserving noble wealth and strength and sustenance for us and for our lands and cows and the honour and culture of our tradition, they go on winning appreciation and admiration.

4. Asāvyamśur-madāyā’psyu dakṣo giristhāḥ.
   Śyeno na yonimāsadat.

   The peace and pleasure of life’s ecstasy in thought and action, and the expertise well founded on adamantine determination is created by Savita, the creator, like the flying ambition of the soul and it is settled in its seat at the heart’s core in the personality.

5. Šubhram-andho devavātam-apsu dhūto nṛbhīḥ sutaḥ. Svadanti gāvah payobhiḥ.

The radiant food of ambition created by people, energised by noble leaders, sanctified in action, the people enjoy seasoned with delicacies of cow’s milk.

And this ecstasy of the fruit of active ambition, honey sweet of joint achievement in yajnic action, leading lights of the nation like yajakas exalt and glorify as the progressive sociopolitical order of humanity for permanence and immortal honour.

O Soma, spirit of ambition, action and glory of life, the honey sweet streams of your ecstasy flow for the protection and sanctification of life. With those streams come and flow in the holy yajnic hall of action.
8. So arṣendrāya pītaye tiro romāṇyavyayā. Sīdan yonā vanesvā.

O Soma, spirit of holy action and life’s sanctity, settle in your seat of yajnic action in the nation’s heart for the honour and excellence of human values and flow free down the permanent annals of human history and tradition.

O Soma, dynamic spirit of action, joy and glory of life, harbinger of the best of wealth and honour, flow sweet and most delicious for vibrant sages and scholars and release streams of milk and ghrta for humanity.

10. Ayaṁ vicarṣaṇir-hitaḥ pavamānaḥ sa cetati. Hinvāna āpyaṁ bṛhat.

This Soma, divine spirit of action, honour and joy, is all watching, all beneficent, all inspiring, moving and dynamic, ever wakeful, setting in motion the flow on for attainment of vast achievable success and fulfilment.

This virile giver of showers of fulfilment, the very commitment incarnate of divinity to beneficence, always flowing, creating and giving, destroyer of calumny and evil doers, creates and provides wealth, honour and excellence for the generous yajnic givers.

12.  conducive, generating, inspiring, moving and dynamic, ever wakeful, setting in motion the flow on for attainment of vast achievable success and fulfilment.

13.  Such is Soma, spirit of life’s beauty and glory, that flows pure, purifying and sanctifying on top, exalted and glorified by celebrant humanity, universally admired as poetic visionary, creator and harbinger of holiest glory.

14.  Soma, divine spirit and power of a thousand ways of protection, a hundred modes of wealth and power, commanding controller of the energies of life, visionary creator of beauty and poetry, is dynamic, ever fluent, and it creates and releases joy and ecstasy for the honour of Indra, glory of the human social order.

15. Girā jāta iha stuta indurindrāya dhīyate.
Viryonā vasatāviva.

Indra, the best man of supreme spirit and power of light, peace and bliss, born and raised here in the social order, initiated, admired and confirmed by the voice of the land is appointed in place and position of authority for a purpose like an arrow fixed on the bow for a target.

Cāmuṣu śakmanāsadām.

Soma, the spirit and person of peace and joy, pure and purifying, selected and anointed by leading lights of the people, should move and act like power and competence incarnate in places and positions with his powers and obligations for the purpose specified.

17. Taṁ triprṣṭhe trivandhure rathe yuṇjanti yātave.
Rṣiniṁ sapta dhītibhiḥ.
Him they enjoin to the three-level, triple structural chariot of the nation, with sevenfold intelligence, will and execution of the visionaries of life.

तं सात्तरा धनस्पृतभण्डु वाजाय यातवः।
हरिम हिनात वाजिनम्॥ १८ ॥

That leader and dashing pioneer, instant in response and action, winner of life’s battles for wealth, honour and excellence, destroyer of want and suffering, O performers of the nation’s Soma yajna, exalt and exhort for onward progress and fulfilment of humanity’s joint and common mission on earth.

आविशानकुल्लशं सुता विश्वा अश्रुभि श्रीयः।
शूरा न गाष्टु तिष्ठति॥ १९ ॥

19. Āviśan kalaśam suto viśvā arṣannabhī śriyāḥ. Śūro na goṣu tiṣṭhati.

Taking over his positions of office, the leader, pioneer and ruler presides over lands and affairs of the order like a brave warrior moving forward and winning all wealth, honours, excellence and graces for the people, exhorted and exalted by them.

आ ते इन्दृा मद्यॉ कें पयाँ दुहन्त्यायवः।
दुवा दुवभ्यां मधु॥ २० ॥

O lord of peace, grace and joy, to your pleasure and the pleasure of holy powers, the people and the noblest brilliant people of the land create and distil the sweets and sanatives of peace and nourishment from the life around.

O performers and partners of humanity’s yajnic social order, create, preserve and extend our soma of the nation’s joy, beauty and grace, sweetest honeyed soma ever heard of by the divinities, on the sacred earth in honour of the holiest of holies.

These somas of human beauty, culture and graces celebrated in song are created for the great sustenance of fame, honour and excellence of life by the stream of the most exciting annals of human history.

O Soma, exciting peace, pleasure and excellence of the human nation, you move forward, pure, purifying and glorified, to achieve the wealth of lands and cows, culture and literature, and the jewels of human excellence for lasting peace and well being. Go on ever forward, creating, winning and giving food and fulfilment for the body, mind and soul of the collective personality.

24. Uta no gomatīriṣo viśvā arṣa pariṣṭubhaḥ.

\[Gṛṇāno jamadagninā.\]

O Soma, lord of peace, joy and grace, glorified by the sage of vision and lighted fire, bring us all the world’s wealth of food, energy and knowledge abundant in lands and cows and graces of culture of permanent and adorable value.

\[Abhi viśvāni kāvyā.\]

O Soma, you are the leading light. With various and wonderful modes of protection and preservation, purify and sanctify the speech of humanity and let it flow free and fine. Be the same preserver, sanctifier and promoter of all the art and literature of the world.

\[Pavasva vishvamajā.\]
   Pavasva viśvamejaya.

   O mover, shaker and inspirer of the world, you are the first and foremost leading light, flow forth purifying, sanctifying and energising the oceanic vapours and waters of space, and inspiring and preserving the eternal Word and the speech, manners and cultures of the world of humanity.

27. Tubhyemā bhuvanā kave mahimne soma tasthīre.
   Tubhyamarṣanti sindhavaḥ.

   O Soma, lord of omniscient vision and creation, these world regions of the universe abide in constant steadiness in homage to you, and the seas on earth and in space roll in honour to you.

   Abhi śukrām-upastirām.

   Like showers of light from heaven, the streams of your grace shower upon the bright world of humanity below on the wide earth, incessantly.

29. Indrāyenduṃ punītanagam daksāya sādha-nam.
   Īśānam vītirādhasam.
O people of the earth, performers of soma yajna, create, purify and energise the bright soma of passion, peace and vision of life in honour of Indra, ruler, versatile achiever and provider of the means and modes of life for all round happiness and well being.

Dadhat stotre suvīryam.

May Soma, pure, purifying and energising, eternal Truth, omniscient creator, peaceful and blissful, come and bless the pure heart and soul of the devotee vesting the song and spirit with strength and holy passion.

Mandala 9/Sukta 63

Pavamana Soma Devata, Nidhruvi Kashyapa Rshi

1. Ā pavasva sahasринāṁ rayim soma suvīryam.
Asme śravāṁsi dhāraya.

Soma, ruling power of creative wealth, joy and fluent energy, let a thousandfold wealth of virility, courage and creativity, pure and purifying, flow to us and vest us with food, energy, fame and excellence of life.

इग्यूरेेँ च पिन्वसः इन्द्रेय मत्सरित्तमः ।
चन्मूष्या नि ज्ञादिसः ॥ २ ॥
2.  Isamūrjāṁ ca pinvasa indrāya matsarintamaḥ. Camūṣvā ni śīdasi.

Since you, ruler and most ecstatic creator, produce, develop and release an abundance of food, energy and knowledge to fullness and overflowing and preside over the resource centres and organisations of protection and production for the glory of humanity:

Let that soma, plenteous overflow of peace, prosperity and joy, created, distilled and purified, roll in minds and human communities and be as sweet as honey for Indra, leaders of knowledge and power, Vishnu, generality of people all over the globe, and Vayu, vibrant powers of progress and pioneers of constant advancement in every field of activity.

These somas, powers of peace, prosperity and joy, dynamic, fast and determined, advance, overcoming forces of crookedness, intrigue and negativity by the path of universal truth and law.

They advance vibrant, relentless at top speed, glorifying life, making the world noble and nobler, reducing and eliminating the forces of uncreativity, negativity and selfishness.

These determined forces of peace and progress trained and committed to positive values of universality, vibrant and fast, advance in their own essential nature and realise the highest ideals of Indra, central power of united humanity and common values.

Lord of the universe, by the energy with which you give light to the sun, by the same light and energy inspire the will and actions of humanity and purify us.

The light of the world, pure, radiant and inspiring over man and mind, joins the man of super fast intelligence and inspires him to rise and fly over paths of the skies.

Indurindra iti bruvan.

And the man of brilliance and superfast intelligence, yoking ten motive forces to go over paths of the skies exclaims: “Indra is great, kind and gracious!” and he flies over the paths of his holy choice.

Avyo vāreṣu siṅcata.

And now, O celebrants, for the man of vibrant action and power and far reaching vision among the best of choice, pour out showers of sunniest and most exciting soma appreciation and the best of safe guards.

O Soma, lord of light and vibrancy of spirit, pure, purifying and sanctifying, exalted and overflowing, bring us wealth, honour and excellence of the rarest order unassailable by uncreative destroyers.
inspiring over man and mind, joins the man of superfast intelligence and inspires him to rise and fly over paths of the skies.

  Indurindra iti bruvan.

And the man of brilliance and superfast intelligence, yoking ten motive forces to go over paths of the skies exclaims: "Indra is great, kind and gracious!" and he flies over the paths of his holy choice.

10. Par¶to vŒyave sutaÅ gira indrŒya matsaram.
  Avyo vŒre¦u siÛcata.

And now, O celebrants, for the man of vibrant action and power and far reaching vision among the best of choice, pour out showers of sunniest and most exciting soma appreciation and the best of safe guards.

11. PavamŒna vidŒ rayimasm-abhyaÅ soma du¦¢aram. Yo dµuČÜo vanu¦yatŒ.

O Soma, lord of light and vibrancy of spirit, pure, purifying and sanctifying, exalted and overflowing, bring us wealth, honour and excellence of the rarest order unassailable by uncreative destroyers.

  Abhi vājamuta śravaḥ.

Let flow to us a thousandfold wealth of lands and cows, arts and culture, horses and progressive achievements. Bring us also speed, energy, and victorious success, and undying fame and excellence.

13. Somo devo na sūryo’dribhiḥ pavate sutah.
  Dadhānahḥ kalaśe rasam.

Soma, self-existent divine power of creativity, radiates, energises and purifies all like the generous refulgent sun vesting the sap of life in every form of existence.

  Vājam gomantam-akṣaran.

These, showers of soma, divine creative power, great and dynamic, pure and powerful, rain down on earth in streams of life sap and motherly process of natural law, giving the milk of nourishment and vibrant fulfilment to all forms of existence.

15. Puro dhāmānyāryaṁ samāsaṁ dhāmāraṁ.
  Pañcitrīṣṭeruḥ gārṇaṁ.
15. Sutā indrāya vajrīne somāso dadhyāśirah.

Pavitram-atyakṣaran.

The showers of soma, distilled and purified from the motherly womb of nature, for the mighty ruling order of life, wielding the thunderbolt of justice and dispensation, radiate and sanctify every pious heart and soul.

Mado yo devavītamaḥ.

O Soma, lord of peace and bliss, let the highest joy, the best of honey sweets, most exhilarating and most divinely blest, flow free to the pure and pious soul of the celebrant for the sake of wealth, honour and excellence of life’s fulfilment.

17. Tamī mṛjantyāyavo hariṁ nadiṣu vājinam.

Indumindrāya matsaram.

That shower of soma, sparkling brilliant, most exhilarating, destroyer of suffering and pain, seeping in the heart and flowing in the streams of life, the yajakas exalt and adore for the glory of life.

18. Ā pāvasva hiraṇyavad-aśvāvat soma vīravat.

Vājam gorantamā bhara.
15. Sūtra indra-yā vajrīṇe soma-dadhyāraṇa

The showers of soma, distilled and purified from the motherly womb of nature, for the mighty ruling order of life, wielding the thunderbolt of justice and dispensation, radiate and sanctify every pious heart and soul.

16. Pārśa soma madhumattam-ārye pavitra-ye

O Soma, lord of peace and bliss, let the highest joy, the best of honey sweets, most exhilarating and most divinely blest, flow free to the pure and pious soul of the celebrant for the sake of wealth, honour and excellence of life's fulfilment.

17. Tama-mājanta yāvavo hariṇa-nādau vijnām

That shower of soma, sparkling brilliant, most exhilarating, destroyer of suffering and pain, seeping in the heart and flowing in the streams of life, the yajakas exalt and adore for the glory of life.

18. pavasva hiraj-ya vaqvavat soma vravat

Flow, O Soma, purify and exhilarate us, bearing golden graces of beauty, progressive success, brave progeny, vibrant victory and the prosperity of lands, cows, arts and culture.

As in war you send up a heroic warrior to battle, so in times of peace of your choice create the sweetest and most brilliant soma of beauty and joy for the glory of the human order.

Vibrant sages and scholars who need assistance and protection exalt Soma, lord of peace and joy, adorable and omniscient visionary, with songs and creative actions, and the potent and generous lord responds in loud tones of heroism and moves forward to action.

Vibrant poets, sages and scholars, with their thoughts, holy actions and spontaneous songs of truth and sincerity, celebrate Soma, generous giver, brave warrior and instant conqueror.

पर्वस्व दवायुष्णिन्दे गच्छतु त मद्दः।
वायुमा राहु धर्मणा॥ २२ ॥

22.  Pavasva devāyuṣag-indraṁ gacchatu te madaḥ.
Vāyumā roha dharmaṁañā.

O Soma, self-refulgent and self-joyous lord of peace and bliss, let your presence vibrate and purify us. Let your ecstatic bliss reach Indra, the ruler, for the glory of mankind. May you with your divine power and presence emerge and rise in the heart of vibrant devotees.

पर्वमान्त निं तालशंस रथिं साम श्रवाय्यम ॥
पियः समुद्रमा विशं॥ २३ ॥

23.  Pavamāna ni tośase rayiṁ soma śravāyyam.
Priyāḥ samudramā viśā.

Soma, pure and purifying omnificent lord, you grant ample and praise-worthy wealth, honour and excellence to the devotees. Pray, let your dear and blissful presence arise in the ocean-like time and space of human existence, inspire the depth of the heart and save the suppliant.

अपघ्ननप्यवस् मृद्धः कतुवित्सां मत्सरः।
नुदस्वाद्वर्यः जनम॥ २४ ॥

O Soma, lord of absolute peace, purity, power and holiness of action, omnipotent and blissful, you vibrate in existence destroying sin and evil. Pray impel the impious people to truth, piety and creative generosity, or punish and eliminate them like hurdles in the creative paths of piety and rectitude.

पर्वमाना अस्मृ भए सार्वेः शुक्कासु इन्द्रेऽः ।

25. Pavamānā asṛkṣata somāḥ śukrāsa indavaḥ.
   Abhi viśvāni kāvyā.

Streams of bright energising soma flow, pure and purifying, among the songs of universal poetry of divinity.

पर्वमानासा आश्वे शुभा अस्मृगमिन्द्रेऽः ।
प्राण्त्व मित्त्वा अपि द्विपशः ॥ २६ ॥

   Ghnanto viśvā apa dviṣāḥ.

Pure and purifying, instant and effective, bright and blazing streams of soma like warriors of nature flow and advance in action, creating peace and plenty for life, dispelling and eliminating all jealous and destructive forces from society.

पर्वमाना दिवस्पयुन्ति गदस्मृ भए ।

27. Pavamānā divasparyantarikṣād-asṛkṣata.
   Pṛthivyā adhi sānavi.

Pure and purifying Somas, evolutionary powers of nature, divinity and humanity, creative, protective and defensive, are created from the regions of light above, the middle regions and the earth and, on top of the course of evolution and progress, they remain ever active for life in the service of divinity.

O Soma, creative divinity, bright, blissful and dynamic, pure and purifying spirit of holy action, flow by the stream and shower of life and grace, ward off all hurdles of negativity and eliminate all evil forces of destruction.

O Soma, spirit of creative peace and prosperity, dispelling and eliminating negative and destructive forces, roaring with success of positive progress, let streams of peace and prosperity flow full with highest strength, sweetness and light.

O Soma, lord of peace, prosperity and divine bliss, bring us all wealth, honour and excellence of the earth and heavenly light. O spirit of beauty and grace, bless us with all the wealth of success and fulfilment of our highest choice on earth and beyond.

Mandala 9/Sukta 64

Pavamana Soma Devata, Kashyapa Maricha Rshi

1. Vṛṣā soma dyumāṇ asi vṛṣā deva vṛṣavrataḥ.
   Vṛṣā dharmāṇi dadhiṣe.

   O Soma, divine spirit of peace and prosperity, you are virile, omnipotent and generous, refulgent and abundant giver of light, self-committed to showers of generosity for humanity and all life in existence. O generous and mighty lord, you alone ordain, maintain and sustain the laws of Dharma in nature and humanity.

2. Vṛṣṇaste vṛṣṇyam śavo vṛṣā vanam vṛṣā madaḥ.
   Satyaṁ vṛṣan vṛṣedasi.

   Generous as you are, your strength rains in showers, generous is your plenitude, generous is the bliss of your joy and ecstasy. Eternal truth, shower of generosity, you are the ultimate generous giver of the joy of life.

3. Aśvo na cakrado vṛṣā samī gā indo samarvataḥ.
   Vi no rāye duro vṛdhi.

   Like the roar of thunder you are loud and bold... in manifestation in existence. O dynamic presence of infinite light and generous flow of energy, you pervade and energise our perceptions and our will for action and advancement. Pray open and widen the doors of wealth, honour and excellence for us all.

6. Te viśvā dāśuṣe vasu somā divyāni pārthivā.
Pavantāmāntarikṣyā.
May the soma spirits of nature and humanity initiate, purify and direct all world’s wealth, honour and excellence, peace and progress, of earthly, heavenly and middle order of the skies to flow to the generous and creative people of yajna and self-sacrifice.

7. Pavamāṇasya viśvavit pra te sargā asṛkṣata.
Sūryasyeva na raśmayah.

Lord of the universe, pure, refulgent and purifying, as you manifest in the flux of existence your creations of peace and beauty flow and radiate like rays of the sun.

8. Ketum kṛṇvan divaspari viśvā rūpābhyarṣasi.
Samudraḥ soma pinvase.

Creating the lights of your existential presence over the regions of heaven above, you reveal your power by the beauty of forms you create, O Soma, universal home of infinite bliss, and expand the possibilities of life’s joy.

Akrān devo na sūryah.

Invoked in yajna and inspiring songs of adoration you love, pure, purifying and pervasive in the world of various forms and functions, you radiate like the refulgent sun and transcend the world in existence.

इन्द्रः पविष्टः चतनः पियः कबीरां मती।
सूजदश्वं रथीरिव। ॥ १० ॥

Soma, lord of bliss, is self-refulgent and holy, purest and most purifying, omniscient, dearest love of the poets and celebrants, and wisest of the wise. Creating the dynamic world of matter, energy and mind, he abides like the master of the universal chariot.

ऊष्मियस्तः पवित्रः आ देवाविः पुष्य तैरत।

11. Ūrmiryaste pavitra ā devāvīḥ paryakṣarat. Sidannṛtasya yonīmā.

The light divine that is yours, most heavenly, radiates blissfully in the pious heart and soul, abiding in the seat of its own law of eternal truth.

स ना अष पवित्रः आ मद्य या देववीतमः।
इन्द्रविन्द्र्याय पीतय। ॥ १२ ॥

12. Sa no arṣa pavitra ā mado yo devavītamaḥ. Indavindrāya pītaye.

Let that divine ecstasy which is most heavenly radiate and vibrate in our pure heart, O lord of beauty and bliss, for the fulfilment of the soul.
Shower in streams of purity and power and bless us with food, energy and fulfilment, adored and exalted as you are by sages, scholars and thoughtful devotees. O lord of bliss and beauty, come and, with the light and joy of your presence, sanctify our senses and mind, vision and intelligence.

Pure and purifying, adorable, adored and exalted, saviour from sin and evil, want and suffering, create the best of wealth, energy and ecstasy for humanity, giving all round joy and well being for body, mind and soul.

Purified, bright and clear Soma, songs of adoration for service of divinity, go upto the presence of Indra, lord omnipotent. Shining powerful, sent up, inspired by enthusiastic celebrants, rise up to divinity.

Soma songs of adoration, inspired streams of the joyous spirit of poetry, bright and energetic, move to infinite divinity and, energised by thought, pleasure and awareness, flow in concentration to Indra, omnipotent soul.

Purified and sanctified devotees, bright, clear and radiant, spontaneously concentrate on the infinite oceanic presence of divinity and reach the central origin of the moving universe and the dynamics of existence.

O lord of peace, light and beauty divine, lover of us all, bring us all wealths of the world with the light and lustre of glory. Protect our peace and home blest with brave progeny.
19. Mimāṭi vahniretāśaḥ padam yūjāna ṛkvabhiḥ.
   Pra yat samudra āhitaḥ.

   When the mind, agile communicative medium of experience and awareness, joins the object of meditation by virtue of all yajnic senses collected and concentrated in the ocean-like depth of infinity, the yogi reaches divine consciousness, voluable, in a state of undisturbed stability.

20. Ā yadyoniṁ hiraṇyayam-āśūrṭasya sīdati.
   Jahāṭyapracetasaḥ.

   When the soul is established in the golden light of divinity which is the centre origin of the flow of existence, then without any delay it eliminates all junk of ignorance.

   Majjantyavicetasaḥ.

   Enlightened sages adore, exalt and join the divine infinity of bliss while the ignorant get drowned in the existential ocean they fail to cross.

22. Indrāyendo marutvate pavalva madhumatt-amaḥ.
   Ṛtasya yonimāsadam.
O Soma, enlightened joy of spiritual purity and bliss, flow into the consciousness of the vibrant soul of the devotee as an offering to Indra, lord of universal power and joy who abides at the heart of universal truth and law of existence.

O Soma, lord of purity, joy and power of the world, wise sages and the Vedic voice adore, exalt and glorify you, and the people of knowledge concentrate on you as the sole object of meditation.

O creative poet of existence and omniscience, pure, purifying and ever flowing divinity, Mitra, enlightened all-loving people, Aryama, men of judgement and discrimination, Varuna, people of rectitude worthy of universal choice, Maruts, vibrant warriors of peace and heroes of karmic progress, all drink and enjoy the nectar sweets of your presence in company.

O Soma, Indu, pure and purifying joy of divinity, you love, inspire and energise the Vedic voice of wisdom and omniscience which bears a thousand jewels of knowledge and science.

Indu, pure, purifying dearest presence invoked by all, bless the sacred heart of all these people, the heart that is deep as the ocean of love and faith.

दविद्वृत्तत्वा रुचा परिष्ठार्थन्त्या क्रपा ||
सामाः: शुका गर्वशिरः || २८ ||

Pure, powerful and heavenly radiations of divinity flow with beauty, glory and shining sublimity of grace, blessing the mind and soul of the supplicants.
29. Hinvāno hetṛbhīryaṭā ā vājaṃ vājayakramīt.
   Sidanto vanuṣo yathā.

   Just as a warrior spurred on by ambition and love of victory rushes to the field and wins the battle, and just as ardent yajakas sit on the vedi and win their object of yajna, so does the soul assisted by senses, mind and intelligential vision win the target of its meditation on Om, the presence of divinity.

   Pavasva sūryo drśe.

   O Soma, instant and gracious divinity, creative, omniscient and constant radiation of heavenly light, the very sun for the vision of humanity, pray flow on with the radiance and the bliss, purify and sanctify our mind and soul.

Mandala 9/Sukta 65

Pavamana Soma Devata, Bhṛgu Varuni or Jamadagni Bhargava Rshi

1. Hinvanti sūramusrayaḥ svasāro jāmayaspatim.
   Mahāmindum mahīyuvaḥ.

   Just as lights of the dawn like loving sisters fore-run and herald and exalt the sun, so do the senses, mind and intelligence together in service of the great soul reveal the power and presence of the supreme lord of the universe, blissful father sustainer of existence.

2. Pavamāna rucārucā devo deverbhyasparī.
   Viśvā vasūnyā viśā.

May the self-refulgent lord supreme over all divinities of nature and humanity, pure and purifying, by his divine beauty and glory bring us all wealth, honour and excellence of the world and bless our heart and soul.

3. Ā pavamāna suśṭūtin vṛṣṭim deverbhyo duvaḥ.
   Iṣe pavasva saṁnyatam.

O lord pure and purifying, come to accept our joint song of adoration and homage and bring us the shower of your kindness and grace, honour and excellence for the sustenance and advancement of the generous nobilities of humanity.

4. Vṛṣā hyasi bhānunā dyumantam tvā havāmahe.
   Pavamāna svādhyāḥ.

O lord of purity, purifier and sanctifier of heart and soul, you are supremely generous and refulgent by your own light and glory. We, celebrants by our holiest thoughts and words, invoke and adore you for the light and wisdom of your divine glory and generosity.

आ पवस्व सुवीर्यम् मन्दमानन्: स्वायुधः।
इहा चिन्दुवा गाहि॥ ५ ॥

5. Ā pavasva suvīryaṁ mandamānaḥ svāyudha. Iho śvindavā gahi.

O divine spirit of peace, purity and abundance, joyous wielder of noble arms, come to us and let pure, creative courage and virility flow in abundance for us.

यदुद्धः परिषिच्यसं मृज्यमाना गर्भंस्वयः।
दुर्णां सुधस्यममश्नुष॥ ६ ॥

O soul of peace and purity, when you are honoured and anointed with the waters of divine sanctity, refined with the light of knowledge and tempered by yajnic fire, then by virtue of your own progress you attain to your real, innate and rightful position in society.

प सामायं व्यश्ववत्पर्वमानाय गायत।
मुह सुहस्त्रं रस॥ ७ ॥

O celebrants, like people of real attainments, sing songs of adoration in honour of Soma, lord giver of peace and purity, honour and achievement, the lord that is great, who watches everything with a thousand eyes.

Whose essential being and existential identity, honeyed sweet of infinite kindness, destroyer of want and suffering, devotees adore, exalt and move with holy songs and yajnic actions for the satisfaction and beatification of the soul.

Of you, we, seekers of progress and victories of peace and purity, choose to ask for all wealths, honours and excellence of the world and, above all, pray for friendship and spiritual affinity.

O lord of absolute abundance and creativity, sustainer of all worlds of existence by absolute power and grandeur, you are all bliss for the people of vibrancy, action and gratitude. Pray bring us showers of peace, purity and power for the good life.

_ Hinve vājeṣu vājinam._

That lord sustainer of earth and heaven, pure and purifying sanctifier, watchful guardian and giver of bliss, absolute victor in the evolutionary battles of existence, we invoke, exalt and glorify for our good and advancement.

12. Ayā citto vipānayā hariḥ pavasva dhārayā.

_Yujaṁ vājeṣu codaya._

Invoked and moved by this earnest and vibrant adoration, pray bless us with this shower of purity, peace and bliss. You are the destroyer of want and suffering. Pray inspire, strengthen and fortify the friend, your instrument, in the battles of life.

13. *Ā na indo mahīmiṣaṁ pavasva viśvadarṣataḥ._

_Asmabhyam soma gātuvit._

Indu, lord of peace, purity and bliss, light of the world for universal humanity, bring us showers of peace and purity, food and energy, power and prosperity, and knowledge of the world in great abundance. O Soma, you are the absolute master of all the ways of the world and unfailing guide for us.

आ कुलगर अनूष्टतन्त्र धाराभिराजसा।
एन्दस्य पीतवं विशः॥ १४ ॥

14. Ā kalaśā anūṣatendo dhārābhir-ojasā.
Endrasya pītaye viśa.

Indu, lord of light, peace and purity, grateful minds and souls await and adore you in hope and expectation. Pray come and bless them with showers of joyous power, grandeur and spiritual might for fulfilment of the soul.

यस्य त मद्यं रसं तीव्रं दुहन्त्यदिर्भिः।
स पवस्वाभिमातिहा॥ १५ ॥

15. Yasya te madyāṁ rasam ūvram duhantyadri-bhiḥ.
Sa pavasvābhimātihā.

Whose exciting nectar, sharp and exalting in experience, devoted supplicants distil from meditation on life, that same Soma, lord of power and purity, destroyer of negativities, adversaries and enemies, we pray, may come, save and bless us with peace, purity and security.

राजा मुधाभिरीयत वर्म्माना मुनावदिं।
अन्ततं ग्राण यातव॥ १६ ॥

16. Rājā medhābhiriyyate pavamāno manāvadhi.
Antarikṣeṇa yātave.

Refulgent Soma, divine spirit of power and peace, pure, purifying and vibrant, is attained through intelligent communion in meditation for reaching the higher stages of existence into the middle sphere between the earth and the highest regions of bliss.

अ ने इन्द्र शतर्किन गवां पार्ष स्वस्वर्यमः ।
चह भर्गत्तिमूतय ॥ १७ ॥

17. Ā na indo śatagvinaṁ gavāṁ poṣaṁ svaśvyam. Vahā bhagattimūtaye.

Indu, lord of joy, beauty and prosperity, bring us a hundredfold wealth and pleasure of divine service and dedication, rising prosperity of cows and horses, enlightenment and advancement, progress and achievement, all for peace and security.

अ ने साम सहा जुवा रूपं न वर्चस्बरह ।
सुष्माणा दुर्योरीतय ॥ १८ ॥

18. Ā nah soma saho juvo rūpaṁ na varcase bhara. Suṣvāṇo devavītaye.

Soma, lord of vital creativity and lustrous vigour, and fluent power and progressive energy, bring us the courage of constancy, forbearance, vibrant vigour and enthusiasm, and an impressive personality for the sake of illuminative lustre of life so that we may follow the path of divinity while living here and after.

अर्षा साम ह्युमत्तमाचभि दारानि रारङ्गवत ।
सीद्धछ्यना न यानिमाः ॥ १९ ॥

Soma, spirit of divine power and peace of purity, most potent and most refulgent, come roaring at the speed and force of thunder and abide in the heart of the faithful celebrant like the eagle in its nest, purify and sanctify the soul.

Soma, spirit of the innate peace and power of divinity, by its own will and energy, radiates to the heart and soul of the devotee to vest it with the power of cosmic energy (Indra), the speed of winds (Vayu), pioneering spirit of the storm (Maruts), the depth of space (Varuna), and the love of omnipresent divinity (Vishnu).

O Soma, bearing a thousandfold gifts of food, energy, knowledge and will of initiative and assertion from all sides of the world, pray flow to bless us and our future generations with the power and peace of divinity.
22.  Ye somāsah parāvati ye arvāvati sunvire.
Ye vādah śaryāṅavati.

Whatever gifts of power and peace for humanity are created in the farthest nature or in this world of existence or in that unknown transcendent source of all that is in existence, all that, O Soma, lord of supreme power and unfathomable peace, bear and bring for us and our future generations.

23.  Ya ārjīkeṣu kṛtvāsya ye madhye pastyānām.
Ye vā janeṣu paṅcasu.

Whatever powers of peace and energy are created and distilled in active forces, in holy acts, in the homes or among all five peoples of humanity, we pray, may flow and sanctify us.

24.  Te no vrṣṭim divaspari pavantāmā suvīryam.
Suvānā devāsa indavaḥ.

May the divinities of nature and humanity, pure, vibrant and blissful, activated, seasoned and cultured anywhere, bring us showers of power, virility and creativity from the lights of heaven and energise and sanctify us.

Hinvōno gorādhi tvaci.

Soma, lord of power, peace and bliss, saviour and sanctifier of heart and soul, destroyer of suffering, lover of all, adored and exalted by sages and scholars of vision and wisdom, flows and sanctifies life and, presiding over the body, energises and sanctifies the organs of perception, volition and decision.

26.  Pra Ṛukṣro vayojuvo hinvōno sa Ṛṣai?
Ṛrāṇā apsu mṝjata.

Pure and powerful, vital and vitalising, stimulated and stimulating, energised and energising, seasoned and cleansing, sanctified and sanctifying somas, natural and human powers, reflect in the actions and achievements of humanity like the seven rays of light, and they shine and enlighten the world to move on with its daily rounds.

27.  Taḥ tvā suteḥbhovḥ hinvōre devatātaye.
Sa pavavāna rucā.

That lord of soma power and peace, the celebrants adore, exalt and glorify in their yajnic actions in the service of humanity and divinity. O lord, be pleased to accept this charming song of adoration, come, purify and sanctify us.
   Hinvāno gorādhi tvaci.

   Soma, lord of power, peace and bliss, saviour and sanctifier of heart and soul, destroyer of suffering, lover of all, adored and exalted by sages and scholars of vision and wisdom, flows and sanctifies life and, presiding over the body, energises and sanctifies the organs of perception, volition and decision.

   Śrīñānā apsu mṛnjata.

   Pure and powerful, vital and vitalising, stimulated and stimulating, energised and energising, seasoned and cleansing, sanctified and sanctifying somas, natural and human powers, reflect in the actions and achievements of humanity like the seven rays of light, and they shine and enlighten the world to move on with its daily rounds.

27. Tam tvā sutesvābhūvo hinvire devatātaye.
   Sa pavasvānayā rucā.

   That lord of soma power and peace, the celebrants adore, exalt and glorify in their yajnic actions in the service of humanity and divinity. O lord, be pleased to accept this charming song of adoration, come, purify and sanctify us.

Today here and now, we choose for ourselves and pray for your power, peace and bliss, light and fire which is universally loved, all protective, promotive and all sanctifying.

29. Ā mandramā vareṇyamā vipramā manīśiṇam. Pāntama purusprḥam.

We pray for your gift of peace, power and sanctity, delightfully adorable, worthy of choice, stimulating and energising, enlightening, protecting and promoting, universally loved and valued. We pray, let it flow and purify us.

30. Ā rayimā sucetunamā sukrato tanūśvā. Pāntama purusprḥam.

O lord of holy action, we pray bring us the world’s wealth of enlightenment, protective, promotive and valued universally, for our body, mind and soul and vest it in our future generations.
Mandala 9/Sukta 66

Pavamana Soma (1-18, 22-30), Pavamana Agni (19-21)
Devate, Shatam Vaikhanasas Rshis

1. \textit{Pavasva viśvacarṣaṇe’bhi viśvāni kāvyā.}
\textit{Sakhā sakhibhya īḍyaḥ.}

Omniscient Soma, all watching wakeful guardian of humanity, adorable friend of friends as all poets and poetry of the world declare, flow, purify and sanctify our heart and soul.

2. \textit{Tābhyaṃ viśvasya rājasī ye pavamāna dhāmanī.}
\textit{Pratīcī soma tasthatuḥ.}

Vibrant Soma, pure and purifying, by those two media of yours, omniscience of knowledge and omnipotence of action, you shine, illuminate and rule the world both of which too abide as eternal complementarities of nature and divine power.

3. \textit{Pari dhāmāni yāni te tvāṁ somāsī viśvataḥ.}
\textit{Pavamāna Ṛtubhiḥ kave.}

O Soma, you are the light, power and peace of all regions of the world, your domain wherein and whereon you pervade, pure and purifying, and reflect and rule by the law and order of the time and seasons of nature.

4. \( \text{Pavasva janayanniśo’bhi viśvāni vāryā.} \)
\( \text{Sakhā sakhibhya ūtaye.} \)

Flow on, pure and purifying, friend of friends, and flow for their protection, creating food, energy and all cherished means of sustenance for the world.

5. \( \text{Tava śukrāso arcayo divasprṣṭhe vi tanvate.} \)
\( \text{Pavitraṁ soma dhāmabhīḥ.} \)

O Soma, the mighty sublime radiations of your glory extend over the top of heaven and on the earth, spreading the holy light by their beauty and lustre.

6. \( \text{Taveme sapta sindhavaḥ praśiṣṭam soma sisrate.} \)
\( \text{Tubhyāṁ dhāvanti dhenavaḥ.} \)

These seven seas, these seven modes of Prakṛti, all flow in obedience to your order of law. All thoughts, all words, all stars and planets creative and moving in the flux of existence move in honour and homage to you.

O Soma, peace and joy of existence created for humanity, flow forth in constant stream, bearing imperishable food, energy, fame and excellence for fulfilment of the mind and soul.

O Soma, spirit of peace, power and bliss, seven streams of Prakrti, seven metres of divine poetry, seven notes of music, all in their functions and vitality in unison, glorify you, vibrant spirit of existence, in the dynamics of the light of life on the vedi of sacred fire.

When the mind is transparent, consciousness flows in self-concentration, and the presence of divinity vibrates vocal and voluble, advanced yogis with seven sense-prana priests exalt you in higher language of the Veda.

O lord ever flowing in constancy, omniscient poetic creator, omnipotent absolute victor and ruler, streams of creations flow like waves of energy in search of celebrative fulfilment.

अच्छा काशं मधुशुचुतमस्त्रं वारं अवियं।
अवावशशन्त्त धीतयं: ॥ ११ ॥

The honey sweet nectar of soma ecstasy created and vibrating in the presence of the supreme imperishable eternal spirit, the yogi’s thoughts and words exalt in celebration.

अच्छा समुद्धमन्दवाचस्तं गावान धनवं: ॥
अग्म्युतस्य यानिमा ॥ १२ ॥

Just as cows retire into their stall, and words of language retire into the ocean of absolute silence, so do the mental fluctuations of the yogi recede and return into the origin of their flow, into divinity.

प न इन्द्र मह रण आ पर अषण्टि सिन्धवं: ॥
यद्राभिवासचिथ्यस॥ १३ ॥

O spirit of Soma energy and existential flow, Indu, in this great battle field of life, thoughts, energies and actions flow, rivers and seas flow, when you energise and vibrate with the dynamics of Prakrti.

अस्यं त सृष्ट्य वृहित्य गन्त्वस्वातः।
इन्द्रा सर्विन्दुप्रभसि॥ १४॥

14.

Asya te sakhye vayam-iyakṣantas-tvotayah.
Indo sakhitvam-uṣamasi.

O spirit of love and peace, beauty and grace, Indu, so gracious as you are, we offer yajna in honour of your friendship under your protection, and we pray we may enjoy your friendship and we may exalt and glorify that friendship.

आ परस्त्र गविष्ट्य मृह साम नृच रास।
एन्द्रस्य जट्ठर्वि विश॥ १५॥

15.

Ā pavasva gavistaye mahe soma nṛcakṣase.
Endrasya jaṭhare viṣa.

O Soma, spirit of divine purity, come for cleansing and intensifying the perceptions, reason and imagination of humanity, for their enlightenment of high order, and assimilated and internalised, energise their heart and soul.

महाँ अति साम ज्यघ Uगाणामिन्द्र आर्जिष्ठ:।
युध्वा सच्छववजिगथ॥ १६॥

16.

Mahān asi soma jyeṣṭha ugrāṇām-inda ojiṣṭhah.
Yudhvā sañ-chaśvaj-jigetha.

O Soma, you are great, first, greatest and most lustrous of the mighty, and being a fighter, you are always the winner.

You are mightier than the mighty, braver than the brave, more generous than the generous, whoever they be.

O brave and generous Soma, you are the giver of food, energy, honour and excellence, you are the giver of children and grand children. We pray for your favour of friendship, we cherish you for companionship.

19. Agna āyūṃśi pavasa ā suvorjamiśaṃ ca naḥ. Āre bādhasva duchunām.

Agni, heat and energy of life divine, give us good health and long age with purity, create and bring us food, energy and excellence, and throw off and keep away all evils and negativities from us.

Agni is the light of life and fire of passion, pure and purifying energy ever radiative, universal inspirer of all people on earth and energiser of all five faculties, adorable leader of entire humanity and guiding spirit of the corporate life of all human communities together. We adore, serve and pray for the favour of such generous father of the household of humanity.

Dadhadrayim mayi poṣam.

Agni, pray radiate and purify us. Lord of holy action, bless us with holy lustre, noble courage and virility. Bear and bring us wealth, honour and excellence with promotive health and nourishment.

22. Pavamāno ati sridho’bhyarṣati suṣṭutim.

Sūro na viśvadarṣataḥ.

Soma is pure, purifying, radiating, it goes forward, eliminating violence and negativities, and blesses our songs of adoration. Self-refulgent and all watching, it enlightens the world like the sun with its refulgence.

23. Sa marmijāna āyubhiḥ prayasvān prayase hitaḥ.

Induratyo vicakṣaṇaḥ.
Soma is invoked, adored and exalted by humanity, by all living beings indeed. Cosmic high priest offering libations into the creative evolution, generous giver, it is invoked and worshipped for the gifts of life for peace and progress. Refulgent and blissful, it comes and blesses the suppliant, for it watches all, responds, and reveals the mysteries of existence.

Pure, purifying and self-dynamic, it brings into existential manifestation the law and the mighty nature’s model of the cosmos and the refulgent radiations of light, dispelling and replacing the darkness and negations of existence.

Beauteous manifestations and brilliant radiations of eternal light and power of lord creator, destroyer of want and suffering, dispeller of darkness and negation, ever active and constantly flowing, pure and purifying, come into existence and flow according to divine plan and the cosmic model.

Pure and purifying, supreme master of the cosmic chariot and its controller, most refulgent with its light and powers, destroyer of want and suffering, commander and controller of all cosmic powers and forces in action, such is Soma.

पवेमाना व्यंजनवदशिमिभिवाजुसातः
दर्थस्तात्र सुवीर्यम् ॥ २७ ॥

Pure and purifying, omnipresent with its radiations of self-refulgence, omnipotent giver of strength, power and advancement, inspirer of the celebrants and celebrations with divine bliss and energy, such is Soma.

प सुवान इन्दुः ॥ पवित्रमत्यवयम् ॥
पुनः इन्दुरिन्दुमा ॥ २८ ॥

Creative, creator and energiser, peaceable inspirer and self-refulgent Soma absolutely pervades the holy imperishable world of existence and, purifying and sanctifying, all blissful, radiates to the heart and soul of the devotee.

एष सामा अद्धी त्वचि गवां कीठ्ठ्यदिभि: ॥
इन्दुं मद्दयं जाहुवत् ॥ २९ ॥
29. Eṣa somo adhi tvaci gavāṁ krīḷatyadribhiḥ. Indram madāya johuvat.

This Soma, omnipresent spirit of absolute bliss, plays in and on top of the universe with the stars, planets and clouds of its creation and invites and inspires the soul to participate in the play for joy.

30. Yasya te dyumnavat payaḥ pavamānābhirāṇam divaḥ. Tena no mṛṣa jīvase.

O lord of light and glory, pure, purifying and radiating with joy, the nectar of light, power and purity that is yours is distilled in showers of the bliss of heaven. Pray bless us and sanctify us with that for the joy of living for the ultimate fulfilment.

Mandala 9/Sukta 67

_Devatah: Pavamana Soma (1-9, 13-22, 28-30), Pavamana Soma or Pusha (10-12), Agni (23-24), Agni or Savita (25), Agni and / or Savita (26), Agni or Vishvedevah (27), Pavamani adhyetr-stuti (31-32); Rshis: Bharadvaja (1-3), Kashyapa Maricha (4-6), Gotama Rahugana (7-9), Atri Bhauma (10-12), Vishvamitra (13-15), Jamadagni (16-18), Vasishtha (19-21), Pavitra and / or Vasishtha (22-32)_.

_त्वं सामासिः धारयुमन्द आजिष्ठा अध्वर।_
_पवस्व मन्दुयन्ति: || १ ||_

1. Tvāṁ somāsi dhārayur-mandra ojīṣṭho adhvare. Pavasva māṁhayadrayiḥ.
O Soma, you are the spirit and constant stream of love, life and beauty of the life and flux of existence, sustaining integrative power, joyous and most vigorous in the cosmic yajna of love free from violence, hate and destruction. Flow on, O sustaining stream, pure, purifying and sanctifying life, giving showers of wealth, honour and excellence of life in bliss.

2. Tvain suto nṛmādano dadhanvāṇ matsarin-tamaḥ.
Indrāya sūrirandhasā.

You, self-existent spirit, distilled and realised in meditative yajna, are the giver of joy to humanity, most ecstatic sustaining power of affirmation, creative, brave and life-giving inspiration for the honour and dignity of the soul for humanity.

Dyumantaṁ śuśmam-uttamam.

You, stirred by the brave celebrants in yajna and meditation, arise and sanctify loud and bold, bringing us showers of bliss, highest and most vigorous strength and power for living a life of purity and happy fulfilment.

Invoked, exalted and inspiring, divine Soma manifests and vibrates, and across all obstructions gives cherished and imperishable gifts. The spirit that eliminates all want and suffering exhorts us to action and victory.

5. Indo vyavyayam-arṣasi vi śravāṃsi vi saubhagā. Vi vājānt-soma gomataḥ.

Indu, lord of peace, beauty and glory, Soma, you bring and bless us with all foods, energy, honour and fame, all good fortune and victories of the wealth of lands and cows, literature and culture of imperishable value.

Indu, Soma, lord of love, beauty, peace and glory, bear and bring us wealth, honour and excellence of a hundred and a thousand kinds, of lands and cows, horses, advancement and victory, above all settlement, peace and happiness.
7. Pavamānāsa indavas-tiraḥ pavitram-āśavaḥ.
Indraṁ yāmebhir-āśata.

Pure and purifying, instant and vibrant, gifts of Soma, by their own potential of divinity, move and bless the pure heart and soul of the devotee.

8. Kakuḥaḥ somyo rasa indurindrāya pūrvyaḥ.

High, exhilarating and living nectar of eternal Soma bliss ever vibrant in nature, flows to the dedicated heart of the celebrant for his honour and excellence in life.

9. Hinvanti sūramusrayaḥ pavamānam madhuścu-\textsuperscript{tam}. Abhi girā samasvaran.

As morning lights of the dawn exhort and exalt the sun, so do brilliant sages invoke and exalt the honey sweet vibrant and sanctifying soma bliss of divinity while they sing and adore the divinity with their songs of celebration.

10. Avitā no ajāśvaḥ pūṣā yāmaniyāmani.
A bhakṣat kanyāsu naḥ.

May the divine protector and promoter, lord of health and nourishment, Pusha of eternal presence and progress join and bless us at every step on every path of life in the pursuit of all our cherished goals, aims and objects of living.

अर्थ साम्यं कपिदृन घृतं न पवतं मधु ॥

11. Ayan somah kapardine ghṛtāṁ na pavate madhu.
Ā bhakṣat kanyāsu naḥ.

May this honey sweet soma ecstasy of divinity flow and bless the veteran scholar as well as the fresh graduate as ghṛta flows to the vedi in yajna, and inspire us too to join the scholars with absolute dedication and commitment in our cherished pursuits of knowledge, research and advancement.

अर्थ तें आघ्रण सुता घृतं न पवतं शुचि ॥
आ भेः ग्ल्क्न्यासु नः ॥ १२ ॥

12. Ayaṁ ta āghṛṇe suto ghṛtāṁ na pavate śuci.
Ā bhakṣat kanyāsu naḥ.

O lord of light and fire of passion and peace, this soma ecstasy of your love, passion and peace of life, pure, purifying and inspiring, flows abundant like ghṛta into the vedi. May this passion, light and peace inspire us and join us in our cherished pursuits of life with complete commitment and dedication.

वाचा जन्तुः: कविवानं पवस्व साम्यामधारया ॥
दुःवर्षु रत्नधा असि ॥ १३ ॥

Soma, you are the creator, originator and inspirer of the voice of poets. Flow free and abundant in streams and showers of revelation for the poets. You are the sole treasure and harbinger of the jewels of vision into the heart and soul of the poets of divinity.

आ कुलश्षु धार्यति श्यना वम वि गाहत ।

14. Ā kalaśeṣu dhāvati ūyeno varma vi gāhate.
Abhi dronā kanikradat.

Soma, spirit of light and passion fire, dives into the heart and imagination of the creative souls and, like the divine bird of flight and freedom, the eagle, breaks through the seal of mystery, speaking loud and bold into the poetic consciousness to reveal the secrets of existence.

परि प साम त रसाचास्रज कुलश्न सुतः ।
श्यना न तृक्का अपति ॥ १५ ॥

15. Pari pra soma te raso’sarji kalaśe sutah.
Śyeno na takto arṣati.

O Soma, spirit of light and passion of imagination, the ecstatic joy of your creativity distilled and treasured in the poetic soul flows free like the tempestuous eagle bird traversing space and creates songs of divine adoration for life’s mystery.

पवस्व साम मन्द्यरीन्द्रयो मधुमत्तमः ॥ १६ ॥

O Soma, creative spirit, highest honey sweet of divine ecstasy, flow abundant, pure and purifying, energising and rejoice for Indra, the divine soul.

As्रgran devavïtaye vïjayanto rathï iva.

Flowing and creating, Soma streams rush forward like victor chariots in the service of divinity.

Te sutïśso madintamâḥ śukrâ vïyuam-asṛkñata.

Your creative spirits of imagination, powerful and most ecstatic, give birth to the vibrant poet creator, the karma yogi of imagination.

Gravñâ tunno abhiṣṭutaḥ pavitraṃ soma gacchasi. Dadhat stotre suvïryam.

Invoked and adored by the celebrant, O Soma, you move and arise in the pure heart of the devotee bearing creative vision for the celebrant and vesting vigour and power in the song.

Eṣa tunno abhiṣṭutaḥ pavitramati gāhate. Rakṣohñaya vāram-avyayam.

This Soma, thus invoked, stirred and adored, arises and vibrates in the pure heart of the celebrant and, dispelling negativities, confusions and darkness of illusion, energises its favourite and imperishable spirit of humanity.

\[ \text{यदन्ति यच्च दूरक भयं विन्दति मायिह।} \\
\text{पवेमानः वि तज्जहि।} \ ॥ २१ ॥ \]

21. \textit{Yadanti yacca dūrake bhayam vindati māmiha. Pavamāna vi tajjahi.}

O Soma, pure and purifying spirit of divinity, whatever fear there be that is far distant or that which is close at hand and assails me here, pray dispel and destroy the same.

\[ \text{पवेमानः सा अद्य नैः पवित्रेण विचङ्किणः।} \\
\text{यः पाता स पुनातु नैः।} \ ॥ २२ ॥ \]

22. \textit{Pavamānaḥ so adya naḥ pavitreṇa vicarṣaṇiḥ. Yahi pota sa punātu naḥ.}

The Soma that is pure and purifies us now with its sanctity and power, that all watching guardian and universal purifier may, we pray, purify and sanctify us right now.

\[ \text{यतं पवित्रेमचिष्यग्र वित्तममन्तरा।} \\
\text{बहुं तनं पुनीहि न।} \ ॥ २३ ॥ \]

23. \textit{Yat te pavitram-arciṣyagne vitatama-ntarā. Brahma tena punīhi naḥ.}

Agni, lord of light, omniscient Spirit of the universe, whatever power and purity there is pervasive in the rays and radiation of light, with that same light, O lord infinite, illuminate and sanctify us and energise our song of adoration.
24.  Yat te pavitram-arcivad-agne tena punīhi naḥ.
Brahmasavaiḥ punīhi naḥ.

Agni, lord omniscient and self-refulgent, whatever power and purity there is in you and your radiations such as the sun and other stars, with that, pray, purify and sanctify us. Purify and illuminate us with the radiations of your grace.

25.  Udbhābhyāṁ deva savitaḥ pavitreṇa savena ca.
Māṁ punīhi viśvataḥ.

O Agni, Savita, self-refulgent lord of light and creative energy, by both your purifying radiations and the creative living vitality your radiations bear, purify, sanctify, energise and vitalise me all round, all ways.

O Savita, creator, Soma, energiser, and Agni, illuminator, energise and illuminate us with your highest all three powers and potentials of light, purity and vitality. Bless us in the gross, subtle and causal bodies.

May the brilliant generous sages and scholars purify me. May the Vasus, givers of peace and settlement, sanctify me with knowledge and wisdom. May all divinities of nature and humanity vitalise me. O Jataveda, omniscient Agni, pray purify and sanctify me.

O Soma, spirit of life and fulfilment, flow abundant, flow exuberant with all the shoots and sprouts of life and with the best yajnic offerings for the divinities. Make up our wants and deficiencies.

May we, bearing yajnic homage, reach Soma, dear, admirably vocal and expressive, youthful creator and promoter of nature’s and humanity’s yajnic offerings into the divine yajnic evolution of the cosmos.
30. Alāyyasya paraśurnāṇāśa tamā pavasva deva soma. Ākhum cideva deva soma.

O Soma, brilliant lord of life and vitality, destroy the axe of the assailant. Destroy the weapon of the thief. Save that which only turns the soil for food. O power divine, flow, purify us, save us.

Whoever studies the sanctifying Rks, nectar preserved by the sages, he tastes the food seasoned and sanctified by the life breath of divinity.

32. Pāvamānīryo adhyetṛśiḥ saṁbhṛtaṁ rasam. Tasmai sarasvatī duhe kṣīrāṁ sarpir-madhūdakam.

Whoever studies the Rks, sanctifying nectar preserved by the sages, for him, mother Sarasvati, omniscient divinity, herself distils and offers the milk, butter, honey and the nectar essence of life.
Mandala 9/Sukta 68
Pavamana Soma Devata, Vatsapri Bhalandana Rshi

Seekers of the light and soma sweetness of divinity, themselves noble and refined with honey sweets of culture, manners and holy language, approach the refulgent and generous divine lord like calves going to mother cows. Sitting on the holy grass of yajna at dawn, eloquent of tongue and clear of understanding, they receive and treasure the nectar stream of soma, peace and bliss of divinity, as calves receive milk streaming from the udders or as dawns receive radiations of light from the sun over the night’s darkness.

He, eternal preceptor, refulgent dispeller of want and darkness, instant, transcendent, omniscient and eloquent master of the eternal voice, feels delighted with the rising seekers and, accepting and inspiring them, removes all superfluities and impediments, reveals and releases the soma of higher joy of knowledge and thus grants them the sacred boon they desire.

The lord grants that soma joy of divinity which, going over and pervading the great and boundless heaven and earth, energises, vitalises and expands the inviolable twin sisters growing together in glory, with the milky spirit of divinity, and which, thus going forward unobstructed, holds the imperishable power and bliss of divinity.

The lord grants that power and bliss of soma which vibrates with motherly heaven and earth, energising the cosmic waters and the dynamics of nature and humanity, which partakes of the omniscience of divinity, flows and swells the holy spirit of the yajnic meditative soul and which, invoked and served by noble humans of kindred nature with meditation inputs, grows from shoots to flowers and unites with, preserves and promotes the highest faculties of humanity.

   The creative soul, Soma, is born along with mind and noble intelligence, the seed and seat of divine law and wisdom hidden somewhere far deep by the laws of nature. Being together, they, mind and intelligence, are first physically born as in any other creature, the other, higher and enlightened self, is born, rather reborn, as it is raised through purity and elevation of the mind from the depth of its hiding cave.

   The yogis of elevated, enlightened and concentrated mind feel and know the presence of the blissful soma spirit of existence which the vibrant visionary soul perceives, distils and actually realises as food for fulfilment far off and everywhere. The sages adore and worship that very exalting spirit flowing in streams of existence which is passionate and loving, energising, all comprehensive and adorable, sung and celebrated in hymns of the Veda.

7. Tvāṁ mrjanti daśa yōśaṇah sutaṁ soma ṛśibhir-matibhir-dhūṭibhir-hitam. Avyo vārebhiruta devahūṭibhir-ṛṣbhir-yato vājamā darṣi sātaye.

O Soma, Spirit of the bliss of existence, ten youthful senses and vibrant pranas of the soul adore and exalt you, sung and celebrated by the sages of knowledge, thought and meditation, served by the best of men with best of homage and divine presentations, and realised and treasured by the seers. O lord of universal protection and progress, give us a vision of your divine power and presence for our ultimate victory and spiritual fulfilment.

8. Pariprayantam vayyam suṣaṁsadaṁ somam maniśā abhyanuṣata stubhaḥ. Yo dhārayā madhumāṇī urmiṇā diva iyarti vācaṁ rayiśāla-martyah.

Joyous celebrants with sincerity of mind and soul exalt Soma, universally vibrant Spirit, lovely and adorable, holy and companionable who, immortal treasurehold of the wealth and honey sweets of life, gives us streams and showers of the divine voice of omniscience from the heights of heaven.

अर्थं दिवं इज्यति विश्वमां रजं: सामं: पुनानं: कल्पश्पू सीदनि। अन्धिंगार्भिभृज्ञैत्त अदिर्भिः सुतंः पुनानं इन्द्रवरिवा विद्वित्ययम् || ७ ||

9. Ayam diva iyarti visvamā rajaḥ somaḥ punānaha kalaśeṣu siddati. Adbhir-gobhir-mṛtyate adribhiḥ sutaḥ punāna indurvarivo vidat priyam.

This Soma, lord of peace and power, moves all the particles of nature and forces of power from the centre of light and, pure and purifying, sits and pervades in all forms of existence. By the adamantine and generous powers of nature and humanity, it is exalted with the dynamics of energy, will, acts and voices of intelligence, and the holy spirit, thus distilled and realised, pure and purifying, brings us the best and dearest wealth, honour and excellence of immortal value.

एवं नं: साम परिषिच्यर्मानं वयं दर्शन्चित्रतं पवस्व। अद्वृष्ट द्यावृष्पृथिं हुवम् दर्श धृतं यथिस्मस्म सुवीरम् || १० ||

10. Evā naḥ soma parīṣacyamāno vayo dadhacci-tratamaṁ pavasva. Adveṣe dyāvāpṛthiṁ huvema devā dhatta rayimasme suvīram.

Thus adored, exalted and served, O Soma, flow with vibrant presence, bringing us the most wonderful food, health and strength. We invoke the earth and heaven free from jealousy, contradiction and enmity, and pray may the divinities of nature and humanity bear and bring us wealth, honour and excellence worthy of the brave.

Pavamana Soma Devata, Hiranyastupa Angirasa Rshi

> इषुन धन्वन्तरिः धीयत मतिव्रत्ता न मातुरुपम सुण्डरृधनिः । ।

1. Iṣurna dhanvan prati dhīyate matirvatso na māturupa sarjyūdhani. Urudhāreva duhe agra āyatyasya vratesvapi soma iṣyate.

   Like the arrow fixed on the bow, the enlightened mind is directed to the divine mother’s treasure of milk for the baby. Then like the mother cow coming home with milk streaming forth for the calf, the coming life at hand is replete with joyous possibilities of fulfilment. Thus, under the laws of the lord’s dispensation, nectar soma is created, loved and realised for the joy and fulfilment of the soul.

> उपर भृति: पृःध्यत सिध्यत मधुः मन्दार्जनी चादत अन्तरासनिः । पर्वमाण: सन्तनि: पंज्रतार्मिव मधुमान्दप्स: परि बारःमधति ॥ २ ॥

   When the mind is joined in concentration with divinity, honey is released and pours forth, divine ecstasy stirs in the heart within, and the continuous stream of soma, overflowing with joy like the uninterrupted ecstasy of the yogis of perfect renunciation, showers upon the blessed soul.

3. Avye vadhūyuḥ pavate pari śrathnīte napatīraditerṭam yate. Harirakrān yajataḥ samyato mado nṛṃṇa śiśāno mahiṣo na śobhate.

The stream of soma joy flows in the protected heart of the dedicated celebrant, attenuates the extrovert natural tendencies of the mind and augments the inner concentration of the higher mind for the man of natural truth and divine law. And Hari, divine lord controller of agitation and dispeller of darkness, intensifies the controlled flow of the yogi’s joy in communion and, deepening and directing it on the fixed target, shines like a victor with divine strength and glory.

The generous virile soul overflowing with soma joy vibrates with Infinity, the senses having returned inward like cows to the stall. The enlightened mind and thoughts of the holy soul unite with the hallowed centre of the spirit. The soul breaks through its existential cover, returns to its original imperishable purity, and Soma protects it as a pilgrim cleansed and redeemed.

The saviour, destroyer of suffering and darkness, cleansing and sanctifying existence with imperishable light of his glory, pervades, transcends and beatifies the top of heaven and the middle regions of vapour between earth and heaven, vesting them all with his splendour.

6. Sūryasyeva raśmayo drāvayitnavo matsarāsah

The dynamics of the lord’s creation instantly in motion, energising the sleeping existences, joyous and joyously moving everything to ecstatic being, all together move across the web of life conceived and created by the lord omnipotent, Indra. Not without Indra does any particle, any wave, any world, move pure and sacred as it is.

Floods of river waters showered from the clouds flow fast in their happy course down to the sea and mix with the ocean. Like these, may our people, joyous with showers of soma, fast and progressive, flow and proceed like water courses to the divine Indra. O Soma, lord of peace and joy, let there be peace and joy in our homesteads for humans and animals both. May our people and our powers and progress be firm and constant on the forward paths of higher achievement.

8. Ā naḥ pavasva vasumaddhiranyavadāsvādadgomadyavamat suvīryam. Yūyaṁ hi soma pitaro mama sthana divo mūrdhānaḥ prasthitā vaya-skṛtaḥ.

O Soma, lord of peace, progress and joy, bring us, purify and let flow, the wealth of peace and honour replete and overflowing with settlement and security, golden glory, progressive achievement, lands, cows and culture graces, food and good health, and noble courage, strength and forbearance. You alone are our father and mother, you alone would stay so constant, light of heaven, top of excellence, stable as earth, and giver of food, health and sustenance for a long full age.
These soma joys of life, pure and purifying, like divine radiations of victory, flow to the karma-yogi, man of holy action and enthusiasm. Distilled and concentrated, they flow to the sacred heart, dispel ill health and infirmity, and, ever fresh and inspiring, they bring showers of divine bliss.

O lord of peace, beauty and joy, giver of happiness and well being, adorable divinity, destroyer of violence, enemies and impediments, flow for the great Indra, for the glory of the karma-yogi. Bring the beauties of wealth, settlement and security, honour and excellence of life for the celebrant. O heaven and earth, come along with the divinities of nature and humanity and protect and promote us with happiness and well being.

Mandala 9/Sukta 70

Pavamana Soma Devata, Renu Vaishvamitra Rshi

Thrice seven cows, creative powers of natural evolution, generate the milky strain of vitality added to the evolving reality in the service of the creator Soma in the cosmic yajna in absolute time and space, Soma who also created four other beautiful orders of existence for the glory and sanctity of existence which grows by the laws of cosmic dynamics.

(The seven cows may be interpreted as the seven evolutes of Prakrti: mahan, ahankara and five subtle elements of ether or akasha, energy or vayu, fire or agni, water or apah, and earth or prthivi. Three are orders of sattva or thought, rajas or motion, and tamas or matter. This makes the thrice seven, the four other beautiful orders of existence may be interpreted as mana (mind), buddhi (discriminative intelligence), chitta (memory) and ahankara (I-sense or existential personality). Another interpretation could be the four Vedas, knowledge, the corresponding order of existence in terms of awareness and expression.

May those radiations of the light and power of this divine Soma, spirit of bliss, free from mortality, deception or unreality, by which the lord strengthens, purifies and sanctifies acts and virtues both human and natural, be in accord with life, human as well as of other forms, and may humanity receive and internalise that divine spirit of love, peace and refulgence with all their thought, thoughtful action and meditation.

He, blissful and watchful guardian of humanity both pious and impious, exalted by ten efficient senses and pranas and by ten holy observances of Dharma, who is pervasive in the midst of human faculties of perception and volition, awareness and understanding to watch and warn us, thereby strengthening and promoting the holy and immortal dharmic discipline of humanity, He watches at first hand what people do in thought, word and deed.

He, adorable and exalted, pervades and abides in both heaven and earth and in the middle regions, happy, blissful and generous with showers of joy for humanity for their honour and exaltation, to help them to wield their potential efficiently. With divine power, he warns men of negative understanding, even commanding them like a warrior who wards off the evil and finally destroys the forces of violence and destruction.

6.

\[ \text{Sa mātāra na dadṛśāna usriyo nānadadeti marutāmiva svanaḥ. Jānannṛtaṁ prathamaṁ yat svarṇaram praśastaye kamavṛṇīta sukraṭuḥ.} \]

As mother cows watch and guard the calves, so does Soma, lord of light and power of life, vibrant and resonant like roaring winds, pervade, watch and vitalise heaven and earth, mother givers of life and sustenance. And the man of holy action, knowing the cosmic law of divinity and the prime paradisal agent of the good of humanity, should love and worship that Soma for his Mighty, virile and generous all-watching soma spirit of divinity, sharpening its top powers of perfection of good and elimination of evil, settles in the heart centre of the man of holy action, vibrates and resounds, and then the man’s perceptive and discriminative intelligence becomes definitive, protective and creative, inviolable.

Pure, purifying and sanctifying the holy man in body, the protective and gracious Soma spirit of divinity is enshrined on top of the holy man’s inviolable being, loved and adored for the sake of the spirit of friendship, veneration for judgement and vibrant enthusiasm for life, and then honey sweets of triple powers for body, mind and spirit are created by men of holy action.

O Soma spirit of life and divinity, virile and generous, pure and purifying, favourite of divine hearts, come for the service of the divine Lord and join the soma yajna and the soma yajis. Take us across the evil before its onslaught. After all, he alone can guide the traveller asking for directions who knows the area on earth and the field of life.

Like a war horse directed to the field of battle, come Indu, Soma spirit of peace, power and joyous action, flow, enter and purify the spirit of Indra, man of action and the social order. Like the mariner crossing the sea by boat, advance, O scholar and warrior, fighting on. Protect us, destroy the scandal mongers and take us across the sea of life.

Pavamana Soma Devata, Rshabha Vaishvamittra Rshi

1. Ā dakṣiṇā srjyate śuṣmyāsadam āṃ veta druho rakṣasah pāti jāgrviḥ. Hariropaśaṃ krṇute nabhaspaya upastire camvorbrahma nirṇijē.

   The gift is given liberally, the mighty, Soma, comes to the hall and presides, the wakeful protects against the evil and the jealous, and the omnipotent Soma, lord of peace and plenty, creates water vapours as a pillar and cover between the green earth and heaven of light and reveals the Vedas to sanctify and glorify existence.

   The mighty hero of peace, power and plenty, Soma, goes forward roaring like a warrior, loud and bold, revealing, manifesting and displaying that vibrant, assertive and tempestuous character of his which dispels and destroys darkness and evil, realises and maintains the purest sacred spirit of his ancestral tradition in action and attains the perfect, unsullied and absolute fulfilment of his earthly existence.

The soma spirit of life vibrates and sanctifies, distilled and condensed by clouds, realised by sages, shining in sun-rays and reflecting in meditative minds of the yogis. Virile and generous, it waxes in strength, showers with the cloud and inspires all with intelligence. It rejoices, reaches all, makes everything possible, and with the divine voice joins humanity, cleanses and sanctifies, and blesses all in yajna and in their yajnic actions.

Honey showers of peace, patience and fortitude rain on the master of homely fire-side, lover of light and dedicated performer of soma yajna, in whose life and family senses, mind and memory, fed on positive and yajnic perceptual and conceptual food of experience, retain and sanctify high moral and spiritual values of prime importance with the highest reflections of divinity.

Just as ten fingers of both hands control and direct the chariot's course so, if the ten faculties of perception and volition and the ten pranas collected together in meditation were to raise the yogi's intelligence and awareness and he were to rise as reborn and reach the lap of mother Infinity, he would attain to the top of the blissful stage of existence which all his faculties in unison would generate for him.

The divine Soma Spirit of peace and power self-refulgent beyond the lights of heaven, omniscient creator, omnificent giver, visionary and watchful over the three orders of time and space, delights in the songs of adoration as a committed listener. It is omnipotent guide over a thousand ways, immanent and transcendent, and rules and illuminates the eternal dawns of light and vision like the sun.

As the eagle bird comes to rest in its nest, so does the light of the soul rise and shine in the golden cave of the heart, the seat of divinity, prepared by the light of higher intelligence and awareness. There on the seat of sanctity the celebrants adore the dear Soul with holy song where the divine Spirit, loving and adorable, blesses the divine soul of the yogi and his transparent faculties and rules as an emperor over the dominion.

The divine Soma Spirit of peace and power selfrefulgent beyond the lights of heaven, omniscient creator, omnipotent giver, visionary and watchful over the three orders of time and space, delights in the songs of adoration as a committed listener. Its form assumes a lustrous character of blazing refulgence, and wherever it reflects, shines and abides, there in the battles of human life and existence it destroys negativities and inner conflicts. Commanding the dynamic powers of life with its innate potential it goes to the pious celebrant and abides there in the heart adored with the highest words of exaltation.

Just as cosmic energy comprehends and controls all systems of the universe and with its thunderous dynamics vests the sun with light, so does Soma, supreme spirit of creativity, peace and joy, the light of life and cosmic intelligence, watches the earth and nature and, with its holy creativity, controls and enlightens all systems and species it has created.

Mandala 9/Sukta 72

Pavamana Soma Devata, Harimanta Angirasa Rshi

   Devout celebrants love Soma divine like the warmth of fire, admire it like beauty of the dawn, and exalt it like light of the sun. You join the bliss of this divinity with all your senses, mind, intelligence and awareness. And then you would realise that Soma vibrates in the heart as bliss and rolls as waves of the sea. It inspires men to burst forth in song, energises thoughts and intellect, and sharpens the vision and imagination. Indeed there are no bounds to the precious gifts of Soma, infinite are they, universally adored and exalted as it is.

When intelligent celebrants experience the Soma ecstasy in the heart core of personality, when brilliant people, leading lights of high mind and soul, with all ten senses and pranas collected, controlled and exalted with Soma, realise the bliss they cherish, they all celebrate the divine presence and burst forth in song.

3. Aramamāṇo atyeti gā abhi sūryasya priyaṁ duhi-tustiro ravam. Anvasmai joṣamabhara-dvināṃ-gṛsaḥ saṁ dvayībhīḥ svasṛbhīḥ kṣeti jāṃbhiḥ.

Bearing love and enthusiasm for this Soma, the devotee abides with both sister senses of perception and volition, but indifferent to sense experience and pleasure, he moves on to the sweet message of the dawn, daughter of the sun, and goes still beyond to bliss of the absolute divinity.

4. Nṛdhūto adriśuto barhiṣi priyah patirgavāṁ pradiva indur-ṛtviyah. Purandhivān manuṣo yajñasādhanaḥ śucirdhiyā pavate soma indra te.

O soul, master of senses, mind and intelligence, the soma joy of existence flows free for you everywhere. Exercised in practice by holy men, distilled and realised in the heart and on the holy grass of yajna, darling of the soul, ruler of sense and mind, it masters, controls and governs the stars and planets. It is refulgent, heavenly and illuminative, and blissful across the seasons, time and space. It holds and sustains all systems of nature and humanity, it is the harbinger of success and fulfilment for us in all our yajnic corporate acts, and it is pure and immaculate beyond possibility of sin, evil and pollution.

5. *Nṛbāhubhyāṁ codito dhārayāṁ suto’nusvadhāṁ pavate soma indra te. Āprāḥ kratūntsamajairadhavare maṁirverna druṣac-camvoroṁsadadd-

Indra, O soul, the soma joy of divinity flows free for you, impelled by human arms of karma, showered in streams with resonant hymns. Move on to holy actions in yajna, and Soma, lord of peace and power, pervading in heaven and earth and the middle regions like cosmic energy and the dynamics of cause and effect, would fulfill your desires, intentions and resolutions of mind.

All perceptions, volitions, thoughts and feelings, collected together into the mind through repeated practice, absorb into the heart centre of the original seat of meditative meet of the soul with divinity, and there in awareness wise men of holy action and creative vision receive and experience soma showers of joy, vital, voluble, imperishable, creative and blissful.

7. Nābhā pṛthivyā dharuṇo maho divo’pāmūrmāu sindhuṣvantarukṣitāh. Indrasya vajro vṛṣabho vibhūvasuḥ somo hṛde pavate cāru matsaraḥ.

Centre-hold of the earth, wielder of the mighty heaven of light, showers of living energy on the waves of the sea, adamantine force of the thunderbolt of Indra, virile and generous, treasure-hold of the wealth of the universe, Soma, ecstatic joy of creative divinity, flows in the holy heart and blesses it with purity.

8. Sa tū pavasva pari pārthivairāḥ rajāḥ stotre śikṣa- mnādhūnvate ca sukrato. Mā no nirbhāgva-sunaḥ sādanaspṛśo rayim piśāgam bahulaṁ vasīmahī.

O lord of holy action and yajnic dynamics of the universe, flow and purify everything of the globe and the skies, giving me, your enthusiastic celebrant, the vision and wisdom for the good life. Deprive us not of the peace, power and wealth of the home and family.
Bless us that we may live in peace and enjoy peace and homely wealth of golden plenty and variety.

O lord of light and bliss of peace, pure and all purifying, giver of a hundred-and-thousandfold wealth of advancement and achievement, creator and ordainer of all human, animal and golden wealth of the beauty of the world, come to bless our yajna, listen to our songs of adoration, and bless us with vast expansive wealth of food and energy, knowledge and culture along with a sense of values of those divine gifts for our good.

Mandala 9/Sukta 73

Pavamana Soma Devata, Pavitra Angirasa Rshi

Streams of the waves and particles of exuberant soma of the creator singing in unison flow into forms in the cosmic home of existence, and the centre-holds of the forms of systems and sub-systems flow back into the vedi of the cosmic yajna, completing the cycle. The highest and omnipotent lord of cosmic vitality, to begin this yajna, brought into manifestation three modes of Prakrti, sattva, rajas and tamas, and the emergence of living forms of species, boat-like carriers-on, finally complete the holy creative process.

Mighty men, sages, scholars and leaders, wise, ambitious and good intentioned, holily all together stirring on top of the oceanic waves of existence, keep it moving fast and faster and, creating beautiful things, doing good work in honour of the lord creator, advance this dear world of the Almighty with streams of the honey sweets of soma.

3. Pavitravantah pari vācam-āsate pitaiśāṁ pratno abhi rakṣati vratam. Mahāḥ samudraṁ varaṇastiro dadhe dhīrā icchēkurduḥśrūṇaḥśvār- bhṛm."

Men of soma purity of mind and character, they stand by the holy voice of divinity and the dynamics of... nature. The eternal father and ruler over all protects and promotes their discipline of Dharma. Just as the all enveloping space alone can cover the mighty ocean and the cosmic vapours, similarly men of stable mind only can keep original human commitment in matters of cosmic law.

In this world of a thousand streams of soma joy and divine generosity, the soma souls in humanity sing and swim in action, sweet of tongue, mind and will, joining the paradisal vision of heavenly light. The instant and watchful eyes of the dynamics of divinity, all enveloping and all beholding, are ever awake without a wink for the moment. O lord, at every step the binding bonds are there, and there are saviour bridges as well.

Like the rays of sunlight radiating from above to mother earth in unison, shining with their brilliance, illuminating and purifying, and burning off those pollutants which act against natural law, the soma souls of humanity acting in unison around father and mother in holy tradition, shining and sanctifying life with divine hymns, reducing and eliminating powers of negative character and habit against natural law and human values, they drive off and eliminate the defilers and violators of cosmic law, and, with the knowledge and power of the light of great heaven, they remove the veil of the darkness of ignorance.

Soma souls that act in unison with faith in eternal values, who are self-controlled by the divine Word and follow the spirit of lord Almighty pursue the path of universal law and reach the divine destination. But men of negative disposition see not what they see and hear not what they hear, abandon the path of truth and fail to reach the divine destination of life.

7. \textit{Sahasradhāre vitate pavitra ā vācaṁ punanti kavayo maniśiṇah. Rudrāsa eśām-iśirāso adruhaḥ spaśaḥ svāncaḥ sudṛśo nṛcakṣasaḥ.}

In this expansive world of a thousand streams of purity flowing on and on, men of noble thought and poetic vision create, speak and sanctify their word. Men of judgement and rectitude, they discriminate between right and wrong and the natural consequences thereof. They are dynamic, free from jealousy, penetrative observers, worthy of reverence, holy visionaries and constant watchers of humanity.

The man of universal truth, guardian of law, is undaunted, he is not for fear, nor for deceit. Pure at heart and holy of action, he maintains that strength and purity in his threefold conduct in thought, word and deed. Man of knowledge, vision and practical wisdom, he overwatches the entire regions of the world, brings to book the sceptics and the uncommitted, and fixes the saboteurs and the violators of law.

The web of Truth and Law is vast and universal. It extends enshrined in the pure at heart and speaks at the tip of the tongue by virtue of the wondrous power of Varuna, lord of love and justice, choice and discrimination. The brave, settled at heart and mind, receive it and follow it to self-fulfilment. The sceptics, dissenting and denying, fall from grace into negation and utter frustration.

Pavamana Soma Devata, Kakshivan Dairghatamas Rshi

When in this vernal wood of existence, man clamours like a new born baby for sustenance, then that mighty refulgent heavenly giver of light and bliss waxes with love and desire overflowing with the milk of grace and blesses him with the living energy of heavenly divinity. To that divine lord of light and peace we pray with songs of holiness for life’s well being and spiritual freedom.
foundation of existence, boundless holy presence all pervasive and perfect, covering all space all round who holds both these worlds of earth and heaven with the middle regions together and sustains them like a yajamana. He is the omniscient visionary, poetic creator and giver of food and energy for sustenance and knowledge for enlightenment.

Of mighty form is he, generous, adorable, exceedingly refulgent controller of universal dynamics, shelter home of life who rules over the rains of living waters on earth. The honey sweets of soma homage well expressed and distilled are for him, yajamana of the yajnic wide paths of rectitude of mother earth and nature.

Living energising showers of soma ghrta and waters are received from space. The centre-hold of eternal truth and spirit of immortality here constantly manifests in the flow of existence. Joint integrated generous powers of nature serve that divinity and leading lights of humanity too offer service in abundance.
to the munificent power.

The soma spirit of divine vitality, one in love with life, vitalises and strengthens the holy earth and body health of humanity with the waves of its joy and love desire. It vests the womb of earth with seed and fertility by virtue of which we beget our children and grand children.

Those creative vitalities in the sun of a thousand streams of light and life be there above in the third region of light in space and come down to earth. Four treasure casks of Dharma, artha, kama and moksha abide well guarded in the region of light and, overflowing with ghṛta, living water and divine sanctity, bring down the spirit and message of full life on earth for the joy of human life, imperishable and immortal.
7. "Śvetāṁ rūpaṁ krṣṇute yat siśāsati somo mīḍhvāṁ asuro veda bhūmanāḥ. Dhiyā śamī sacate semabhi pravad-divaskabandham-ava darṣadudriṇam."

Whenever man desires, Soma, life of life on earth and virile controller of solar energy that pervades vast natural resources, forms shining clouds of vapour, parjanya, then, with its intelligential dynamics, joins with the vapour powers, and, going forward from light to the cloud, breaks the flood of water vapours into rain. (Like the clouds of rain showers of water, also, come the rain showers of knowledge and wisdom for humanity).

8. "Adha śvetāṁ kalaśaṁ gobhir-aktaṁ kārṣmannā vājyakramūt sasavān. Ā hinvire manasā devayantaḥ kakṣīvate satahīmāya gonaṁ."

Just as a well trained race horse shoots to the victory line, so does Soma, lord of light, life and peace, proceed to the pure heart of the devotee, a transparent receiver refined and consecrated by the holy voice of divinity. To him do celebrants of divinity with sincere mind enthusiastically pray to bless the scholars, the teacher and the disciple, with a hundred years of enlightened life of knowledge and wisdom.
O Soma, lord of light and bliss, pure and purifying, lover of life with showers of living consecrating nectar, the immortal bliss of your presence flows to the chosen soul of humanity. As such, celebrated and exalted by poets, O Spirit immaculate most ecstatic, pray flow and be sweet and gracious for the delight and fulfilment of Indra, virile soul of pious humanity.

Mandala 9/Sukta 75

Pavamana Soma Devata, Kavi Bhargava Rshi

Soma, spirit of life and joy of existence, mighty, infinite, omnipresent, pervades and vitalises all dear beautiful systems of waters and light, expansive and exalted therein. Greater than the great, all watching, it rides the grand chariot of the sun which comprehends and illuminates the whole world.
2. \( \text{ṛtasya jihvā pavate madhu priyāṁ vaktā patirdhiyo asyā adābhyah. Dadhāti putrāḥ pitrorapīcyāṁ nāma tṛṇiyamadhi rocane divaḥ.} \)

The flame of yajna as the voice of eternal truth rises and expresses the dear delicious beauty and glory of Soma, spirit of universal light and bliss. The speaker and protector of the acts of yajna and Soma truth of life is fearless, undaunted. Just as progeny is the continuance and illumination of the honour and reverence of parents, so is yajna the progeny and illuminative soma of Soma refulgent in the third and highest region of the light of existence.

3. \( \text{āva dyutānah kalaśāṁ acikradan-ñrbhiryemā-ñah kośa ā hiraṇyaye. Abhīmrtaṣya dohanā anūṣatā’dhi tripṛṣṭha uṣaso vi rājati.} \)

Evoked and concentrated in the golden cave of the heart by veteran yogis, leading them to a vision of divinity, illuminating the sacred hearts, it vibrates and speaks loud and bold in the spirit. Those who distil the eternal truth of existence in their yajnic communion with divinity celebrate and exalt it in song as it abides over three regions of earth, heaven and the skies and shines over the glory of dawns.

Distilled in essence and presence in the heart, realised in bliss by veteran wise, pure, immaculate and brilliant, illuminating mother earth and mother heavens of life and existence, Soma radiates, blessing sacred hearts in communion and augmenting systemic unions of existence all round flowing in streams of honey joy.

O Soma spirit of joy and victory of existence, radiate and come for the happiness and all round well-being of life. Pure and purifying, exalted by the veteran wise, come and sanctify the beauty of life. With all those joyous gifts of yours which are mighty universal and radiant in the dynamics of existence, pray inspire Indra, the ruling soul, to create the honour, wealth and excellence of life and bless us with the highest bliss.
Mandala 9/Sukta 76

Pavamana Soma Devata, Kavi Bhargava Rshi

1. Dhartā divāḥ pavate kṛtvya raso dakṣo devānā-manumādyo nṛbhiḥ. Hariḥ srjāno atyo na satvabhir-vṛthā pājāmsi kṛṇute nadīṣvā.

Soma, joyous spirit of the universe, sustainer of the regions of light, constant doer, eternal delight and bliss of divinities, perfect omnipotent power, sole worthy of worship by humanity vibrates omnipresent, purifies and sanctifies the life of existence. Destroyer of want and suffering, ever creative, with its own powers spontaneously, like energy itself creates movement and growth in the channels of existence.

2. Śūro na dhatta āyudhā gabhastyoḥ svāḥ siṣāsan rathīro gaviṣṭiṣu. Indrasya suṣmam-īrayannapa-syubhir-indur-hinvāno ajyate manīṣibhiḥ.

Wielding the powers and instrumentalities of nature, like a warrior and victor in immanent will and omniscience, keen to share the joy of existence with humanity in paths of daily business, commanding the chariot of the universe in micro and macro systems of its dynamics, inspiring and elevating the soul’s potential, itself stimulated and energised into manifestation by thinkers and men of yajnic action in meditation, the spirit of universal light and glory is aroused to raise and bless humanity.

3. Indrasya soma pavamāna ūrmiṇā taviṣyamāṇo jaṭharesvā viśa. Pra ṇaḥ pinva vidyudabhreva rodasī dhiyā na vājān upa māsi sāsvataḥ.

Soma, vigorous spirit of joyous power and generosity, pure, purifying and constantly flowing, brilliant, blazing and advancing in strength, come by the stream and waves of energy and enter in the heart core of the soul. As thunder, lightning and clouds of rain shower and augment heaven and earth, pray strengthen us, and with divine intelligence, as it were, extend our food, energies, progress and victories for all time. You are the creator, you are the maker, you are the giver.

Soma is refulgent ruler of the world. It flows pure, purifying those who see the light divine. Loving, commanding, and illuminating the dynamics of nature unto waves and particles, seer of the seers as it is, exalted by sun beams, father generator and giver of knowledge, it transcends the vision and word of the wise and poet’s poetry.

As a generous chief rules over multitudes so, O Soma, mighty virile spirit of divinity, thundering in the depth of clouds of vapour, you overflow the clouds. Thus, O most joyous and blissful spirit of the universe, you flow for the soul. Pray bless us so that under your natural protections of grace we may win in the struggles of life.

Mandala 9/Sukta 77

Pavamana Soma Devata, Kavi Bhargava Rshi

This soma, blissful spirit of the universe, full of honey sweets of joy, vibrates and reveals itself aloud in the ananda-maya kosha at the heart’s core of the soul, potent as thunderbolt of Indra, beauty, power and bliss incarnate, more beautiful and vigorous than beauty and power itself. All voices of speech replete with the spirit of truth and divinity, generous and overflowing with liquidity of meaning and spirit of divinity and divine law flow from it, about it and to it like milch cows overflowing with milk for the calf.

That eternal joy, which the brilliant light of divinity moved in the heart core distils from heaven through the middle regions of human fluctuations of existence, vibrates omnipresent and purifies all who care. That same joy full of honey sweets, vibrating with power and bliss joins with the weaker humanity stricken with fear and anxiety and may, we pray, inspire the devotee with new strength and vigour.

3. Te naḥ pūrvāsa uparāsa indavo mahe vājāya dhanvantu gomate. Īkṣenyāso ahyo na cāravo brahmabrahma ye jujuśuḥ-havirhaviḥ.

May those ancients of vision and the later ones present and future blest with light and power, inspire us to win new prizes of great advancement and victory rich in wealth and advancement. May they, thinkers and seekers, generous and sublime like clouds of rain showers, who meditate on the essence of vast existence and offer the essence of sacred oblations of yajnic fragrances with love and faith, inspire us.

This our sagely scholar, brilliant and generous, widely admired and adored, loving the loving and dispelling the violent with a disciplined and concentrated mind, who has received the eternal seed of knowledge in the presence of the glorious lord of divinity, proceeds to the highest abundant origin of the mind and senses and moves further forward.

The creator of the universe flows omnipresent, purifies, sanctifies and blesses. Constant doer adorable, delight of the celebrants, great, undauntable, lord of judgement and choice, abandons men of crooked nature and behaviour and fulfils the mission of the holy. Friend on all paths of life, companionable, giver of fulfilment, He vibrates in the multitude of existence and roars like thunder in the depth of clouds.

Soma, creative ruling spirit of the universe, self moved with will and desire, producing the cosmic sound of speech, releasing the flow of cosmic energies, pleased and pervasive, proceeds to the yajnic formation of stars and planets. The kind protective sun fertilises the manifestive earthly forms with its own living energy and the immaculate soul proceeds to nature’s womb of divinities for their manifestation and self-realisation.

Soma, spirit of universal joy, is poured from one form into another for the sake of Indra, the soul. The all-watching, all-knowing creative, all rolling pervasive spiritual cosmic flow is loved and worshipped in the beautiful world of divinity. O lord, eternal and universal are the holy dynamics of your creation for humanity to pursue and follow, infinite your moving forces, advancing, arresting and absorbing in the yajnic world.

Vibrations of divine presence flowing in space and enshrined in the heart radiate to the enlightened soul at peace. They inspire and move this resident companion soul of the beautiful mind and body so that the devotees pray for imperishable peace and bliss of the pure and purifying divinity.

Soma, universal spirit of peace and bliss, is the creator master controller and giver of earthly and divine wealth and enlightenment, movement and progress, golden graces of beauty and excellence, happiness and fulfilment and fluid assets, it purifies us and wins us a thousand victories of existence. This spirit of universal joy, exciting, most delightful, streaming forth, enlightening, giver of peace and fulfilment, the divines reveal to us for our enlightenment and well being.

O Soma, our well wisher, pure and purifying, these are the real and true acts of kindness and grace, doing which you vibrate for our prosperity, honour and excellence everywhere. Pray destroy our negativities and enemities far as well as near, and open for us the paths of progress wide, straight and free from fear.

1. Acodaso no dhanvantvindavaḥ pra suvānāso bhṛhaddiveṣu harayah. Vi ca naṣan na iṣo arātayo’ryo naṣanta saniṣanta no dhiyah.

May the bright and blissful soma streams of divinity, self-moved and self-inspired, life-giving, gracious dispellers of darkness and suffering, inspire us to move forward in the vast yajnas of celestial proportions. Let the enemies of our food and energy perish. Let the saboteurs be destroyed. Let our hopes and plans be realised and fulfilled.

May the bright and blissful Soma streams of divine honey joy inspire us, by which we, warriors of advancement and progress, may win and acquire wealth and, warding off the crookedness of any human power whatever it be, we may always achieve wealth of universal value.

He is the enemy of one’s own adversity, and of another’s adversity too, he is the enemy, a very thunderbolt, against adversity and enmity. Deal with adversity and enmity the way you deal with thirst in the desert, driving it off any way, O Soma, pure, purifying and dynamic spirit, dispel the negative will and understanding of the obstinates and the malignants.

The veteran wise exalt you in the vedi on the floor of the earth, and thinkers and seekers distil the bliss in their actions as they milk the cow with their hands for milk.

O Soma, bright and blissful divine spirit of existence, pure and purifying power, thus do veteran devotees of noble dedicated mind distil the gracious, delicious and inspiring bliss of divine joy. Pray dispel the malice of all malignant minds so that your dear delightful power and bliss shines pure and bright every where in every living being.
Mandala 9/Sukta 80

Pavamana Soma Devata, Vasu Bharadvaja Rshi

The stream of soma, light and bliss of divinity, flows free. It purifies, sanctifies, embraces and enlightens all humanity and arouses the divinities with the yajnic call of divine law. It vibrates and shines with the voice of omniscient lord transcendent, Brhaspati, and, like the vaulting oceans and expansive space, the generative vibrations of divinity extend beyond the lights of heaven.

You, O vibrant lord of omnipotence, whom all inviolable forces of nature and communities of humanity adore and exalt, rise in all your glory and manifest in the golden heart cave of the soul. O lord of infinite joy, you promote the health and age of the men of piety and prosperity. Bless Indra, the ruling soul with honour and high renown and shower boundless bliss upon humanity.

The ceaseless flow goes on.

3. *Endrasya kukṣā pavate madintama ūrjam vasā- nah śravase sumaṅgalaḥ. Pratyān sa viśvā bhu-

The stream of Soma divinity most joyous and exhilarating, radiating energy, auspicious harbinger of good fortune, honour and excellence, purifies and vibrates in the heart and soul of man. All pervasive, Soma generates and extends all regions of the universe, playful, beatific saviour, infinite mover, and it continues to flow in boundless omnipresence, a fact of direct observation and experience for the wise.

4. *Tam tvā devebhyo madhumattamam naraḥ sahasradhārām duhate daśa kṣipah. Nṛbhiḥ soma Men of vision and wisdom blest with ten senses of intense perception, thought and imagination experience the most beatific presence in infinite showers of bliss for the devotees from the divinities. O Soma, lord of bliss, winner, master and controller of infinite gifts and powers, vibrant presence, distilled by the veteran wise by experience with meditative mind and senses, pray come and bless the holy celebrants with fulfilment.

$Taṁ tvā hastino madhumantam-adribhir-duhantyapsu vrṣabhaṁ daśa kṣipah. Indraṁ soma mādayan daivyam janaṁ sindhorivormih pava-māno arṣasi.$

Such as you are, Soma, sweetest presence of bliss, infinitely generous, men of mighty arm for action and ten senses of intense perception, will and imagination experience your presence and realise the message in their actions, manners and behaviour. O spirit of light and bliss, pure and purifying, like waves of the sea you roll on giving delight and beatitude to the ruling soul and general humanity blest with love of divinity.

Charming vibrations of the presence and power of pure and purifying Soma, supreme spirit of light and peace, radiate to the heart core of Indra, lover of knowledge and light of divinity, when, seasoned and supplemented with experiences of senses and mind elevated through higher states of inversion and concentration in Dharma and Dhyana, they exhilarate the brave soul with strength and excellence and exhort it to divine love and total self-surrender.

Soma, lord of radiant peace and power, generous and omnipotent reaches and vibrates in all forms of existence and in the heart core versatile movement at the fastest. It knows and vibrates among the divinities simultaneously in their present life as well as in the past and future and reaches from here to there and there to here at the same time (since it is omnipresent and presently comprehends both time and space, and, as Yajurveda says, it moves and yet it does not move).

(So versatile is the yogi also by attainment blest by Soma.)

Mandala 9/Sukta 82

Pavamana Soma Devata, Vasu Bharadvaja Rshi

Soma, self-refulgent supreme creative spirit of the universe, virile and generous, dispeller of darkness and deprivation, regal and gracious like a ruler, self-moves, vibrating to the generation of stars and planets. Itself pure, purifying and sanctifying, it moves to manifest in the heart of imperishable Prakrti as it chooses and, like the sun that warms and fertilises, it enlivens the generative centre of life as its own womb of manifestive existence. Thus does Soma create and generate the universe.

Kavirvedhasyā paryesi māhinamatyo na mṛśto abhi vājamarśasi. Apasedhan duritā soma mṛlaya ghṛtam vasānah pari yāsi nirṇijam. ॥ ॥

Soma, omniscient visionary and poetic creator, with the desire to enlighten, you radiate to great minds and move to dynamic yajnas of humanity like accelerated energy to its target of achievement. O lord of light and peace, be kind, dispelling all evil to nullity. Wearing the grace of beauty and purity of yajnic love and sweetness, you move and embrace humanity for fulfilment.

Parjanyaḥ pitā mahiṣasya parṇino nābha prthivyā girisu ratho dath. Svāsāra āpo abhi gā utāsaranatsam grāvabhir-nasate vīte adhvare. ॥ ॥

Father and sustainer of all great and small, birds and trees, serious realists and flying dreamers, centre hold of the earth and showers of rain, you abide in the mighty clouds and over the mountains. Your waves and vibrations flow and radiate, flow as sister streams and radiate to the stars and planets, and in holy yajna you vibrate with the music of soma stones and the chant of high priests.
4. Jāyeva patyāvadhi śeva mamhase pajrāyā garbha śṛṇuhi bravimi te. Antarvāniṣu pra carā su jīvase 'nindyo vṛjane soma jāgrhi.

O Soma, blessed man, child of the earth and solid reality of existence, listen, I say: As a wife feels elevated in love and service for her husband, you too love and serve life and the lord of life within the laws and values of the voice divine for the fulfilment of your self in action. Live free from calumny and scandal and keep awake in the paths of life.

5. Yathā pūrvebhyaḥ śatasā amṛdhraḥ sahasrasāḥ paryayā vājamindo. Evā pavaśva suvītāya navyaye tava vratamanvāpaḥ sacante.

O Soma, Spirit of peace, prosperity and bliss vibrating in the dynamics of existence, free from violence, unviolated and inviolable, as you ever blest the ancients of all time with hundredfold, thousandfold food, energy, safeguards and victories of progress, same way, we pray, bring us peace, progress and well being for the new generations. All our people and all our actions honour and obey the law and discipline enshrined in the voice divine.
Pavamana Soma Devata, Pavitra Angirasa Rshi

Vast and expansive is your holy creation of existence and the voice divine, O Brhaspati, lord of expansive universe. You are the master and supreme controller who pervade and transcend its parts from the particle to the whole. The immature man who has not passed through the crucibles of discipline cannot reach to that presence, but the mature and seasoned ones who still maintain the ordeal of fire and abide by the presence attain to it and the divine joy.

The holy light of the cosmic sun extends and lights the regions of heaven where the rays shine and blaze, radiate all round and abide in constancy. Those instant radiations in heavenly state protect the devotee of holy commitment. Indeed the devotees abide there on top of the state of heavenly light with their mind stabilised in peace and joy.
3. Arūrucaduṣasaḥ pṛśniragriya ukṣā bibharti bhuvanāṇi vājayuḥ. Māyāvino mamire asya māyayā nṛcakṣasaḥ pitaro garbhamā dadhuḥ.

   Lighting up the dawns, stars and planets in space, the sun, prime and abundant source of light, warmth of life and waters of sustenance, giver of food and energy sustains the regions of the world. By the light, power and causal effects of it on other objects in existence such as planets and satellites, scholars of science do their astronomical calculations, and parental, kind and studious scholars studying humanity and divinity realise the nature and character of Soma, the original seed of life and source of energy for the world of existence.

4. Gandharva itthā padamasya rakṣati pāti devānāṁ janimānyabhutaḥ. Gṛbhāṇī ripuṁ nidhāyā nidhāpatiḥ sukṛttamā madhuno bhakṣamāśata.

   The true, eternal and marvellous sustainer of the universe wields and sustains its state of existence and sustains and promotes the evolution of divine refulgent stars and planets as well as the birth cycles of brilliant and generous people. Omnipotent power, it seizes the adverse forces and subdues them into systemic conformity. Devotees and yogis of holy action make it an object of experience in meditation and enjoy the honey sweets of its presence as spiritual food for elevation to the divinity.

Soma, lord of light and bliss, you are the prime yajamana of universal yajna. Holding the holy materials, wearing divine space as refugent cloak, you move to the great hall of creative yajna free from negativity and violence. Supreme ruler, riding the divine chariot, rising to omnipotence, wielding a thousand arms, you are the supreme victor of infinite glory.

Mandala 9/Sukta 84

Pavamana Soma Devata, Prajapati Vachya Rshi

O lord inspirer of divines with joy, all watcher of the universal flow of karmic evolution, flow on with gifts of purity for Indra, ruling powers, Varuna, powers of judgement and knowledge, and Vayu, vibrant leaders and pioneers. Bless us now with wealth and excellence for well being, and in this great house of the world, pray, accept this noble humanity and raise it to be worthy of divine praise and grace.

2. Ā yastasthau bhuvanānyamartyo viśvāni somaḥ pari tānyaḷarṇati. Kṛṇvant-saṃcṛtaṁ vicṛtam-abhiṣṭaya induḥ sīṣaktyuṣasam na sūryaḥ.

Flow, purify and consecrate all, O Soma, immortal and eternal light, life and joy of existence, who pervade constant in all regions of the universe and vibrate therein, over, above and beyond, who, making one single unity into infinite variety (specifcic in generalities, tensions in balance, centrifugals in centripetal motion, all differences and contrarieties moving in complementarity within the dynamics of a single, central, unmoved mind, all re-attaining to the same unity) for the common good and self-fulfilment of all, abide, the One in union with all like the sun with the dawns, illuminating all.

3. Ā yo gobhiḥ srjyata oṣadhiṣvā devānāṁ sumna īṣayannupāvasuḥ. Āvidyutā pavate dhārayā suta indraṁ somo mādayan daivyam janam.
Soma who, abiding by all, wishing to create the beauty of variety for the good and self-fulfilment of all divine creations, creates the sap of life in herbs and trees with solar radiations, flows on with streams of energy, and when the presence is distilled and realised in the consciousness, Soma consecrates the soul of the karma-yogi and vibrates to the delight of divine humanity.

Thus this Soma flows, constant, victor of a thousand victories, energising and accelerating the sound of Aum, the Big Bang of creative manifestation in continuous motion that wakes and awakens at the dawn. Light, life and joy of existence, it rises to the oceans of space with the waves of cosmic energy and, being the joy of the soul’s heart core, it abides in all forms of life in existence (some know and care, others don’t, but it is there everywhere, all time).

5. Abhi tyam gāvaḥ payasā payovṛdham somaṁ śriṇanti matibhiḥ svarvidam. Dhanāṇjayaḥ pavate kṛtyo raso vipraḥ kaviḥ kāvyenā svar-canāḥ.
That divine Spirit of life and inspiration, joyous and omniscient, abounding in the life-giving energy of the universe, all senses and mind with higher intelligence and elevated thoughts join, perceive and present to the enlightened soul with the thrill of its radiance. Master giver of all wealth and excellence of life, the Spirit flows, vibrates and beatifies, all doer, all joy, all intelligent, all creative, and sublime as splendour of heaven by the beauty of poetic creation.

Mandala 9/Sukta 85

Pavamana Soma Devata, Vena Bhargava Rshi

1. Indrāya soma suṣutaḥ pari sravā’pāmīvā bhavatu rakṣasā saha. Mā te rasasya matsata dvayāvino draviṇasvanta iha santvindavah.

O Soma, divine joy of life, distilled and realised in meditation, flow for the delight of the soul. Let adversities and ailments be far off, give us freedom from negativities, contradictions, adversities and violence. Double dealers would not have the joy of that experience and freedom. May all streams of Soma be abundant in wealth, honour and excellence.
2. Asmānt-samarye pavamāna codaya dakṣo devānāmasi hi priyo madaḥ. Jahi śatrūṇrabhyā

O lord pure and purifying, dynamic power of life, inspire and strengthen us in the yajnic battle of life. You are the perfect power among the divines for the divines, dear inspiration, exhilaration and joy.
Eliminate the contradictions. Accept the Soma homage of the celebrant, throw out the adversaries for our sake.

3. Ababdha indo pavase madintama ātmendrasya manīśiṇo rājānamasya bhuvaṇasya niṁsate.

Indu, Spirit of universal love, peace and power, inviolable, awful and imperishable, pure and purifying, most joyous you flow in the dynamics of existence, being the soul of energy and highest wielder of power and sustenance for life. All wise men of serious thought celebrate you in song as the refulgent ruler of this world and pay homage in reverence.

4. Sahasraṅīthāḥ śatadhāro abdhuta indrāyenduḥ pavate kāmyaṁ madhu. Jayan kṣetramabhyarṣā jayannapa uruṁ no gāturī kṛṇu soma mīdhvah.
Marvellous lord of a thousand powers and possibilities, Soma, spirit of cosmic beauty and joy, flows in a thousand streams of cosmic dynamics for the human soul and brings us the honey sweets of human choice. Flow on forward, O Soma, winning fields of life’s battles for us, winning fields of karmic dynamics, broaden our paths of activity and possibility, O lord generous and omnipotent.

Kanikradat kalaśe gobhirajyase vyavyayāṁ samayā vāramarśasi. Marmṛjyamāno atyo na sānasir-indrasya soma jaṭhare samakṣaraḥ.

O Soma, you vibrate voluble in the heart core of the soul. Your presence is conducted through vibrations of perception by the senses and mind and, alongwith the vibrations, you reach the imperishable soul. Adored and exalted there, the blissful presence like waves of divine energy continues to radiate and shine in the heart core of the soul as shower of ananda, ecstasy of divine bliss.

Svāduḥ pavasva divyāya janmane svādurindrāya suhavitunāmne. Svādurimirāya varuṇāya vā-yave bṛhaspataye madhumāṁ adābhyaḥ.

O Soma, delicious ecstasy of divine presence, continue to flow for the soul reborn into divine self-realisation, delicious for the karma yogi of high status who can invoke your presence at will. Flow to the ecstasy of the soul of universal love, for the soul of discriminative intelligence and awareness, for the vibrant potent soul, for the soul attained to the presence of Infinity. Flow delicious as honey, bring freedom from fear, admit no distraction, no obstruction at all.

7. \textit{Atyaṁ mṛjanti kalaśe daśa kṣipah pra viprāṇāṁ matayo vāca īraye. Pavamānā abhyarṣanti suṣṭu-timendram viśanti madirāsa indavaḥ.}

Ten faculties of the soul, senses, mind and pranas, receive, intensify and exalt the vibrations of divinity in the heart core of the soul. With these, the perceptions and vibrations, the understanding and awareness of realised souls spontaneously burst into song. The vibrations of divinity radiate and continue to radiate to the celebrant soul, and they enter, settle and integrate with the soul.

8. \textit{Pavamānō abhyarṣā suvīryamurvīṁ gavyūtīṁ mahī śarma saprathaḥ. Mākirno asya pariṣū-tirīṣatendo jayema tvayā dhanaṁdhanam.}

O Soma, pure, purifying and dynamic presence of peace and inspiring power, bring us holy strength and generosity, wide paths of possibility and progress, great expansive home of peace and joy. Let no violence and oppression of this world rule over us. Let us by your grace win the wealth of ultimate value.

Self-refulgent light of heavens, omniscient, all watching Soma, omnipotent and omnificent, illuminates the heavens, pervades and rules over the space and the highest heaven. Shining, blazing, rising and resounding, it vibrates and goes to the heart core of the sacred soul and over, and enlightened souls of humanity distil the nectar of it there from the heavens.

Dedicated celebrants of Soma, sweet of tongue, having risen above material attachments, distil the honey sweet nectar, ecstatic essence of fluent elixir exuberant in the clouds, resounding in the holy Word, abounding in the waves of the seas in the oceans of space. They distil it and enshrine it in their sacred heart, established in the light of heaven.

Universal voices of the dedicated celebrants of old reach and adore the Soma spirit radiant and resounding in the heaven of freedom and showering on earth. The thoughts and prayers of the wise too reach and celebrate with love the adorable subtle presence of Soma, eloquent, golden great, omnipotent, pervasive on earth and settled in universal peace.

High over the regions of light, freedom and bliss abides the sustainer of earth and space in motion, illuminating and revealing all manifestive forms of existence. Thus the sun shines pure and radiant with the power of divine splendour illuminating both mother earth and mother heaven and the middle regions.
O pure and purifying Soma, peace and power of divinity, the ecstatic vibrations of your bliss, instantly radiant and inspiring for the mind, flow spontaneously like rays of light at the speed of thought. The divine, flying, honey sweet effusions of bliss, most exhilarating, overwhelm the mind and settle in the heart core of the soul.

O Soma, spirit of peace, power and pleasure of divinity, the vibrations of your joy, ecstatic and instant, rise and flow, beautiful and pleasing, separate but in successive showers like drops in a ceaseless chain and, as the mother cow’s milk flows for the calf, the delicious and shining waves of honey sweets flow for the soul wielding the spiritual power of thunder.

Atyo na hiyāṇa abhi vājamarṣa svarvit kośaṁ divo adrimātaram. Vṛṣā pavitre adhi sânō avyaye somaḥ punāna indriyāya dhāyase.

Inspired and energised like a shot fired for the target of battle, O soma spirit of omniscience, flow to the victorious soul of the celebrant like liquid energy showering from the sun to the cloud in formation in the sky. O generous vibrant presence, pure and purifying on top of the sanctified and imperishable soul, flow on for the sustenance of its honour and excellence.

O pure and purifying Soma, your divine showers of joy streaming fast at the speed of thought flow on with the milk of grace into the heart cave of the soul, they are the showers of fulfilment in the heart core of the soul within, which the wise sages, realised souls of knowledge, create and exalt in the heart.
successive showers like drops in a ceaseless chain and, as the mother cow's milk flows for the calf, the delicious and shining waves of honey sweets flow for the soul wielding the spiritual power of thunder.

5. Viśvā dhāmāni viśvacakṣa ṛbhvasaḥ prabhōste sataḥ pariyyanti ketavaḥ. Vyānaśiḥ pavase soma dharmabhiḥ patirviśvasya bhuvanasya rājasi.

O Soma, all seeing lord of existence, the mighty radiations of your power reach and prevail over all regions of the world. All pervasive, you flow and vibrate with the virtues of your own nature, power and function and, O sovereign sustainer of the entire universe, you shine and rule supreme.

6. Udbhayataḥ pavamānasya raśmayo dhruvasya sataḥ pari yanti ketavaḥ. Yaḍī pavitre adhi mrjyate hariḥ sattā ni yonā kalaśeṣu sīdati.

The rays of the light of Soma, lord existent, immovable, pure and purifying, pervading over both earth and the skies, radiate all round. When it is felt and adored, exalted in the pure heart, then the sanctifier presence settles and abides in the sacred hearts of the celebrants, the real seat of its own love and choice.

Soma is the mark and summit of yajna, ultimate master and prime yajamana of cosmic yajna free from hate and violence and, in love, it radiates to the pure and sanctified heart of the holy celebrants. It moves and manifests in the heart core of the soul in a thousand streams of shower and, generous and potent, it transcends all existential purity and power as absolute bliss.

Shining and ruling it plunges and rolls in the oceans of space and plays with the currents of winds. It joins the waves of floods of water and waxes with the seas. Pure, purifying and flowing, it rises on top of imperishable existence. It is the centre-hold of the universe and mighty foundation of the heavens of light.

Roaring as thunder on top of the regions of light, holding heaven and earth by its universal laws of nature, thus having the company of Indra, its own essential nature power, Soma flows pure and purifying and pervades in all forms of existence.

10. Jyotiryajñasya pavate madhu priyaṁ pitā devānāṁ janītā vibhūvasuḥ. Dadhāti ratnāṁ svadha-yorapīcyāṁ madintamo matsara indriyo rasah.

Light of human and cosmic yajna, Soma vibrates pure, purifying and omnipresent, dearest most delicious honeyed spirit of life, creator and sustainer of divinities and master of infinite wealth and power. It holds and commands the jewel wealth of its own power and potential hidden in earth and heaven and vibrates in the mysteries of nature and humanity — divinity most joyous, ecstatic, glorious, pure bliss that it is.

Roaring, the omnipotent pervades in the universe and flows with a thousand streams, all watching sustainer of the light of existence. Beatific, glorious, dispeller of darkness and sufferance, it abides in the homes of love and friendship, cleansing, purifying and consecrating with its protective favours and showers of grace, infinitely potent and generous since it is.

Soma, prime spirit of the world in existence, pure and purifying, moves as the first cause of flowing waters, first cause of the flow of thought and speech, and it moves as the prime cause of the motions of stars and planets. First, before the start of evolution, it takes on the great warlike dynamics of the creative evolutionary flow of existence. The same omnipotent generous power, mighty of arms, is adorned and exalted in yajna by celebrants on the vedi designed by the lord and structured by his Shakti, Prakṛti.

13. Ayaṁ matavāñchakuno yathā hito ’vye sasāra pavamāna ūrmiṇā. Tava kravvā rodasī antara kave śucirdhiyā pavate soma indra te.

This omniscient Soma, spirit of light and divine joy, like a bird of good omen just in front, flows pure and purifying for you with waves of joy in this protected world. O poetic soul of humanity, Indra, it vibrates over earth and the firmament for you and feels happy and exalted by your thought and action in service and adoration of divinity.

Whoever the self-controlled and dedicated seeker that surrenders and attains to the original and essential presence and abode of Soma, the abode that is in the highest heavens above the worldly turmoil or in the deepest core of the self, the lord grants him great peace and joy on this attainment, and the celebrant faces all situations of life with equanimity of mind.
16. _Pro ayāśīd-indur-indrasya niṣkṛtam sakhā sakhyurna pra mināti saṁgiram. Marya iva yuvatibhiḥ samarṣati somah kalaśe śatayāmnā pathā._

Indu, Soma, light of life and divine ecstasy, goes forward to the sacred heart of the devotee and, like a friend of friends, destroys contradictions, confirms complementarities and advances human growth. Thus, just as youthful mortals go with their lady love, join and protect them, and live a full life with vows kept within the bounds of discretion and the law, so does Soma in the sacred heart inspire the loved soul as a friend in covenant by a hundred paths of human possibilities of growth and advancement within the bounds of Dharma. The Lord does not break the promise ever.

17. _Pra vo dhiyo mandrayuvo vipanyuvah pana-syuvaḥ samvasaneṣvakramuḥ. Somam maniśa abhyanuṣata stubho 'bhi dhenavah payasema-śiśrayuḥ._

O joyous devotees, celebrants and seekers of divinity, let all your thoughts, actions and prayers converge and concentrate on the omnipresence of Soma, on the universal vedi of Soma yajna. With mental reflections and spiritual meditation, your self wrapped in the beauty and bliss of Soma, adore the divinity. Let all your voices of adoration and songs of prayer be for the master with love and total surrender as cows with milk serve their master.

O Soma, lord of light, Indu, spirit of beauty and bliss, pure and purifying divinity, bless us with controlled and well directed ever increasing food and energy, knowledge and culture of imperishable character and value which may for all time past, present and future without error, violence, violation or obstruction bring us and continue to bring for us honour, dignity and heroic courage and forbearance full of energy, excellence and sweetness.

Generous inspirer of the intelligent and meditative souls, Soma pervades, flows and purifies. Omniscient and all watching, it is the illuminator of the day, the dawn and the sun. Maker of floods, rivers, oceans and the seas, it vibrates in all forms of existence. It loves the sacred heart and with love it enters and blesses the heart core of the pious and powerful soul of humanity. Such is Soma celebrated by the sages and wise scholars.

Eternal, all-watchful, poetic creator celebrated by sages and meditated by pious people pervades, energises and holds to the centre all forms of existence from the cell and particle upto the expansive universe, creating from Prakṛti and its three modes of sattva, rajas and tamas all forms and names of things, letting streams of honey sweets flow, and releasing the joint, cooperative and friendly activity of Indra and Vayu, energy and its flow at the cosmic level, and the soul and mind at the human level.

This Soma, illuminating the dawns, became the maker of the worlds from the oceanic flood of particles of Prakrti, the one material cause of the universe. Creating the milk of nourishment and sustenance of life from thrice seven orders of Prakrti, Mother Nature, its own shakti, that is, three modes of sattva, rajas and tamas (mind, motion and matter), two generalities of Mahat and Ahankara (tangible nature from the intangible, and identity from the tangible) and five specificities of basic elements (Akasha, Vayu, Agni, Apah and Prthivi), it flows pure, purifying, beatific and ecstatic in the heart core of the soul.

Flow on, O Soma, spirit of life in the divine worlds of existence, creating and ecstatic. Vibrate, O light and lustre of life, in the heart core of the sacred soul. Abiding in the heart core of the soul, vibrant loud and bold, energising and illuminating, meditated and realised by devout people, rise to the sun in the highest regions of the universe where you illuminate the sun, the dawns and the days.

O Soma, spirit of life realised by veteran saints, you flow and vibrate in the sacred heart. Indu, O spirit of light divine, abiding in the heart core of the soul, be the all watching illuminator and unfailing guardian of humanity. O Soma, spirit of protective life and light of the world, open the secret treasures of knowledge and vision for the lovers of life and the piety of yajna.

24. Tvāṁ soma pavamānāṁ svādhyāyaṁnu viprāso amadann-avasyavah. Tvāṁ suparṇa ābharad divasparīndu viśvābhimuktibhiḥ pariṇīṣṭham || 24 ||

O Soma, pure and purifying dynamic spirit of the world of existence, men of noble thought, will and action, veteran saints, seekers of divine favour and protection adore and exalt you. Indu, O spirit of life and light higher than highest regions of light, exalted and glorified in purity by all sages of the world of wisdom, the imaginative seeker of divinity attains to you by his flights of meditation.

Seven faculties of the soul, i.e., five senses, mind and intellect, and seven metres of the Vedic voice exult in the presence of Hari, divine dispeller of darkness and want, pure, purifying and streaming forth in waves in the heart of the chosen and protected soul of the devotee. Holy men and veteran sages and scholars delight and adore the omniscient all watching Soma at the closest in their actions at the yajnic level of universal truth and observance of divine law.

Induḥ punāno ati gāhate mṛdhō viśvāni kṛṇ-vant-supathāṇi yajyave. Gāḥ kṛṇvāno nirṇijaṁ haryataḥ kaviratyo na kṛīlan pari vāramaṛṣati.

Indu, soma spirit of life and light of the world, pure and purifying, overcomes all adversaries, clearing all paths of life, making them simple for the man of self-sacrifice for social and creative purposes. Revealing its own real form in its original purity, the refulgent and omniscient lord goes forward to the chosen soul, bright as a flash of light.

Asaścataḥ śatadhārā abhiśriyo harim navante'-va tā udanyuvaḥ. Kṣipo mṛjanti pari gobhirāvṛ-tatm tṛtiye pṛṣṭhe adhi rocane divaḥ.

Those ceaseless, overflowing, bright and extensive showers of adoration in love and homage flowing in a hundred streams reach beatific Soma, light of life. Holy vibrations of mind in faith exalt the lord wrapped in sun-rays abiding in the third and highest region over the bright heaven and enshrine it in the soul.

These people, these birds and beasts, all these worlds of existence, are yours, born of your divine creative power, the original divine seed. You shine and rule over this entire world of existence. And O Spirit pure and purifying and omnipresent, this entire universe is under your control. Indu, O light of life and life of the world, you are the only, first, original and eternal cause, foundation and sustainer of the world order.

29. Tvaṁ samudro asi viśvavit kave tavemāḥ pañca pradiśo vidharmanī. Tvaṁ dyāṁ ca prthivīṁ cāti jabhriše tava jyotīṁśi pavamāna sūryaḥ.

You are the original infinite womb of life in existence and the ultimate haven, absolute master of the entire universe, O poet creator. Within you and in your order of Dharma are contained and sustained all the five dimensions of existence, material, psychic, spiritual, temporal and spatial. You hold and sustain the heaven and earth, absolutely, and, O lord immaculate, purifying and vibrant, the stars are but reflections of your self-refulgence.

30.

In this holy order of existence governed by the law of divinity, O Soma, light of life immaculate, your presence emanates from every particle of the divine elements of Prakrti, from all the divine regions of the universe in balanced motion, and the same presence is distilled in purity by the wise for noble humanity. The first vibrant lovers of divinity perceive and realise this presence at the dawn of creation. From you the entire worlds of existence emerge and unto you they all return.

31.

The Absolute divine, Shabda Brahma, emerges roaring with a bang, AUM, goes forward creating and sounding over and across the imperishable world of his desire, potent in creative showers, and transcends his own creation. The same all potent and overflowing presence, blissful, projecting all and withdrawing all, roars loud and bold in moments of time and acts of love, desire and worshipful creations. That do the wise sages, loving and worshipful, adore and exalt in prayer. The wise and vibrant all love and adore the admirable presence living and breathing in the entire world of existence.

That Soma, creative Spirit of the universe, wrapped in the light of his own refulgence, radiating by the rays of the sun, weaving and expanding the three dimensional web of existence as he intends and plans, inducting the newest and latest designs of the laws of cosmic evolution as father generator of successive generations, radiates and moves to the creative vedi of cosmic yajna.

35. Iṣamūrjaṁ pavamānābhārṣasi Śyeno na vaṁsu kalaśeṣu sīdasi. Indrāya madvā madyo madaḥ suto divo viṣṭambha upamo vicakṣaṇah.

O Soma, spirit of the cosmos in evolutionary flux, you move food and energy in the process of creative evolution, and like the speediest harbinger of joy you settle in the heart core of devoted celebrants. You are the self-existent joyous and inspiring source of ecstasy for the soul, pillar of the light of heaven, most excellent beyond comparison and all watching omniscient spirit.

Seven sisterly perceptive, conceptive and discriminative organs of sense and mind jointly confirm the presence of Soma, all pervasive, ever new, informing, victorious, universally wise, sustainer of waters and earth, heavenly, and constant watchful guardian of humanity. They perceive you, Soma, as you pervade and illuminate all regions of the world.

O Soma, Indu, lord of life, beauty and grace, flow, pure and purifying, vibrant omnipresent in all regions of the world. You master and control the wealth of lands and cows, light of knowledge and culture, jewels of peace and settlement, and the beauty of gold and grace. You are virile and command creative energy. You are mighty brave, ruler over the world. We, vibrant devotees, adore you with songs of praise and prayer, and pray we may be close to you.

modes of Prakṛti, sattva, rajas and tamas, is the pillar of the highest heavens, up and wakeful, highest of reality and inspires humanity with divine ecstasy. The wise love and worship the self-manifestive, self-expressive, vibrant Soma with songs of praise while the celebrants adore the immaculate divinity with hymns of praise, the holy Rks, and realise it.

Indu, Spirit of life and light of the world, Soma, pure and purifying, the streams of your creative power, extremely subtle, virile and generous, move united at the speed of thought when, between heaven and earth, you vibrate and radiate, one with the rays of the sun, and, inspiring, worshipped and consecrated within, you abide in the heart core of the realised souls.

48.  \textit{Pavasva soma kratuvinna ukthyo’vyo väre pari dhāva madhu priyam. Jahi viśvān rakṣasa indo atrīṇo bṛhadvadema vidathe suvīrāḥ.}

O Soma, Spirit of life and peace, Indu, light of the world, all knowing master of yajnic action, radiate and flow for us, lord adorable and all protective. Distil the dearest honey sweets of life for the chosen soul and bless. Destroy all ogres and demons who devour human wealth. Blest with heroic courage and noble progeny, we celebrate and glorify you with abundant praise in the yajnic congregation.

\textbf{Mandala 9/Sukta 87}

\textit{Pavamana Soma Devata, Ushana Kavya Rshi}

1.  \textit{Pra tu drava pari kośam ni śida nrbhiḥ punāno abhi vājamarṣa. Aśvaṁ na tvā vājināṁ marja- yanto ’cchā barhī raśanābhir-nayanti.}

O Soma, radiate, flow into the sanctity of the heart and sink into the soul of the devotee. Adored by the yajakas on the vedi, let the showers of joy stream forth. The celebrants, exalting your power and presence, invoke and invite you like energy itself with adorations to the grass seats of the yajna.

Divine Indu, light of life, equipped with noble arms, destroyer of scandal and malignity, protector of yajna vedi against crookedness and intrigue, flows pure and purifying. It is the generator and sustainer of the divine powers of nature and humanity, perfect and expert original agent of action, pillar of heaven and foundation support of the earth.

Divine seer, vibrant and sagely power, potent maker, stable of will and action, Soma is brilliant with innate vision and wisdom. He alone knows what is the hidden secret and mystery of these stars and planets.
Indra, omnipotent generous creator and ruler of the universe, this Soma is your honeyed shower of beneficence and grace which profusely flows over and across the immaculate world of life. May this Soma, giving a thousand boons in a hundred forms of infinite values, a mighty victorious divine force, abide by us and bless the universal vedi of human life with eternal grace.

परि हि ष्मा पुरुहुता जर्नानां विश्वासरङ्ग द्राजत्ज्ञा पूयमानः।

O Soma, pure and purifying divine spirit of joyous energy, invoked by all people, enshrined in the heart core of the soul, bring all forms of life’s joy. Flow for our battle of life for the victory of immortality over the state of mortality and bring us food, wealth and honour and excellence created by divine energy for the soul’s sustenance on way to the final victory.

This Soma, pure and purifying creative energy diety, vibrates in immaculate nature and flows in the devotee’s pure heart like the mighty force of nature itself, sharpening its rays of light for dispelling darkness and negation. It goes on like a poised hero keen on his determination for victory in the battle.

8. \textit{E}\text{ṣ}ā yayau paramād-antaradreṣ kūcit saṅirūrve Indra, lord almighty, this Soma stream of your power and bliss flows from the highest regions of existence and, sustained somewhere in the vast expanse of space, reaches the earthly regions of the universe like lightning from the regions of light, thundering with the clouds in the middle regions of the skies, seen and heard on the earth.

Soma, O spirit of life and ecstasy of being, you move together with Indra, the noble soul riding the body chariot, you move together to the multitude of things perceivable and radiate to the senses, mind and intelligence of man, pure and purifying. O lord of all power and knowledge, infinite giver of vast possibilities, worshipped at the closest in the heart core of the soul, bless us with those abundant and eternal gifts of food and energy, honour, power and excellence and the wisdom and vision of divinity which we need for ultimate freedom.

Mandala 9/Sukta 88

Pavamana Soma Devata, Ushana Kavya Rshi

1. Ayāṁ soma indra tubhyāṁ sunve tubhyāṁ pavate tvamasya pāhi. Tvāṁ ha yaṁ cakṛṣe tvāṁ vavṛṣa induṁ madāya yuṣyāya somam.

Indra, O soul of life, O man, this soma spirit of life and light, this beauty and joy is created for you; it flows, illuminates and sanctifies, for you; take it, live it, protect and advance it, don’t destroy it. Indeed you create it, it is your choice to create it. And whatever you do and choose to do is for your mutual joy and indispensable togetherness. O man, enjoy the beauty and vibrancy of life, maintain and advance it for peace in mutual interest in a spirit of interdependence and cooperation.

2. Sa īṁ ratho na bhūriśālayoji mahaḥ purūṇi sātaye vasūni. Ādiṁ viśvā nahuṣyāṇi jatā svarṣātā vana ūrdhvā navanta.

The great exalted soma spirit of life’s vibrancy, like a great chariot of abundant comfort, capacity and possibility is enjoined for achieving many kinds of wealth, honours and excellences, and then all things born, created and achieved, all high ups, giving showers of joy in the exciting field of life honour, adore and celebrate the soma spirit of life divine.

3. Vyāurna yo niyutvāṇī iṣṭayāmā nāsatyeva hava ā śambhaviṣṭhaḥ. Viśvavāro draviṇodā iva tman pūṣeva dhījavano’si soma.

O Soma, vibrant spirit of life in ceaseless flow like energy reaching the cherished goal, most blissful like the Ashvins, circuitous currents of nature’s energy in the exciting field of life, you are the treasure-hold of world’s wealth of universal value, infinite giver of everything like the parental beneficence and nourishment of divinity, and you move forward at the speed of thought.

4. Indro na yo mahā karmāṇi cakrīrhattā vrtrāṇāmāsī soma pūrbhit. Paidvo na hi tvamahināmnāṁ hantā viśvasyāsī soma dasyoh.

O Soma, who are a great performer like Indra, the omnipotent, you are the destroyer of demonic forces and the breaker of their strongholds. Like lazer beams, you are the killer of the malignant, the poisonous and all the other negativities of the world.

5. Agnirna yo vana ā srjyamāno vrthā pājāmsi krūnte nadīṣu. jano na yudhvā mahata upabdi-riyarti somaḥ pavamāna ūrmim.

Created like fire by friction in the serious business of life, Soma spontaneously creates mighty motions of flow in the dynamics of existence. Like a mighty man warrior roaring and resounding as a great victor, soma goes forward to billows of the sea sending out waves of purity and power all round.

These soma currents of fluent joyous divine energy pass through higher regions of purity and refinement in the process of nature, and then these divine and protected treasure-holds of joy like vapours of rain bearing clouds, cleansed and sanctified, flow to the heart core of the devoted celebrants in the same manner as showers of rain from the clouds bless the earth and rivers flow down to the deep sea.

7. Śuṣmī śardho na mārutaṁ pavasvānahīśastā divyā yathā viṭ. Āpo na makṣū sumatirbhavā naḥ sahasrāpsāḥ pṛtanāśāṇna yajñāḥ.

O mighty power of purity and action like the force of winds, flow and purify, blow away the dead leaves, dry up the roots of negativity so that the nation of humanity may be clean and brilliant, free from malice, hate and fear of misfortune. Be instant cleanser and sanctifier of our will and understanding like holy waters of grace and give us a noble mind. Be like yajna, giver of a thousand noble powers and a victor in conflicts within and outside.
8.  Rājño nu te varuṇasya vratāni brhad-gabhīram tava soma dhāma. Śuciṣ-tyamasi priyo na mitro dakṣāyyo aryamevāsi soma.

Bless us, O Soma, that we may observe the rules and laws of your discipline, refulgent ruler and highest justicier. Profound is your presence, infinite your space.
Immaculate you are, dear as a friend, unfailing as an expert guide, adorable, all bliss, beauty and pure joy.

Mandala 9/Sukta 89

Pavamana Soma Devata, Ushana Kavya Rshi

That Soma, Spirit of life and life’s joy, burden bearer and harbinger of living energy and divine vision may, we pray, descend by auspicious paths of existence and, like showers of divine bliss, pure and purifying, bless us. May divine Soma of a thousand streams proceed for our yajnic home, pervade over mother earth’s lap of love and flourish in the deep clouds, flowing streams, dense forests and the profuse greenery of fields and gardens.

The ruler, mover and controller of the flow of rivers, Soma takes on the forms of holy waters and the laws of nature as helmsman of the ship of life with honesty and naturalness. Inspired and moved by divine imagination, open minded with the social dynamics of humanity, he receives the blessings of heavenly father and the father blesses the daughter earth. Thus does Soma, the ruler, grow in stature and augment the earth.

3. Śūrō' yutsu pāṭham: pūrčhāt gā āsā 'ṛśa pari pāṭyū gā asya caṅkṭasā pari pātyukṣā.

Honey sweets of heaven and enlightened humanity come to the chief, valiant and benevolent sustainer of this world, the mighty hero who longs to be the first in the struggles of existence and who, generous and vigorous ruler, protects and promotes its lands and cows and its culture and traditions with his radiance.

The leader, pioneer and ruler, loving burden bearer, awful for the awful, instant in action, indefatigable in endeavour and sublime in achievement of the goal, such as he is, all enlightened powers of the world enjoin him to the highest and foremost position in the vast and mighty moving chariot order of the world. All dynamic, self-controlled autonomous forces and sub-systems anoint and cosecrate the high soma power, and all people joined to the centre of the order support, strengthen and energise the dynamic, blazing, onrushing leader, controller and ruler of the order.

4. चतरस्त्र ईं घृतदुहाः सचन्त समान अन्तःधरुण निर्वर्त्ता:। ता इम्मध्यस्ति नर्मसा पुनानास्ता ईं विश्ववत: परिषिन्ति पूर्वी: ॥ ५ ॥

(In the cosmic system, the four are earth, water, fire and air in time and space. In the social order, they are the four classes: intellectuals, teachers and researchers; rulers, administrators and organisers of defence and law and order of peace and justice system; producers and distributors in the economic system; and the support services.) At the individual level, they are mana (mind and senses), buddhi (intelligence and discrimination), chitta (memory), and ahankara (I-sense).

Soma, cosmic spirit of peace and glory, is the pillar of heaven, and it is the foundation support of the earth. Indeed all stars and planets of the universe and all people of the earth are in its hand for control and sustenance. O man, may this soma spirit, this fount of infinite glory and benevolence, commanding all forces of the universe, the honey sweet vibrations and radiations of it, be for the good and glory of the celebrant humanity. Indeed they all flow for humanity.

7. Vanvannavāto abhi devavītimindrāya soma vrtrahā pavasva. Śagdhi mahaḥ puruścandra-sya rāyah suvīryasya patayah syāma.

O Soma, lord of universal peace and bliss, winsome, gracious giver unsolicited, inviolable power of the universe, destroyer of evil and darkness, let the gifts of divinities flow to the yajna of humanity for our worldly good and spiritual glory. Pray give us strength so that we may be masters, protectors and promoters of great and glorious wealth of excellence and enlightenment and a brave virile and generous progeny.

Mandala 9/Sukta 90

Pavamana Soma Devata, Vasishtha Maitravaruni Rshi

   Inspiring the celebrants to action and achievement, creator of heaven and earth, winning strength and victory like a chariot warrior, moving to the karma-yogi, sharpening and calibrating weapons of warlike action, bearing all wealth and power of the world in hands, may the spirit of peace and power come and bless us.

   The celebrants’ songs of adoration in honour of the generous, virile and life bearing Soma, sustainer of three worlds arise in homage of love and faith. Holding precious treasures and powers of the world like Varuna, all covering space and the ocean holding the deep seas, the wielder of world jewels bestows gifts of choice on mankind.

3. Šūrāgraṃaḥ sarvavīraḥ sahāvāṃjetā pavasva sanitā dhanāni. Tigmāyudhaḥ kṣipradhanvā samatsvasaṃśāḥ sāhvān pṛtanāsū śatrūn.

Commander of a multitude of heroes, himself brave in every way, patient and mighty, all time victor, generous giver of all wealth, honour and excellence, wielding weapons of instant light and fire power, unconquerable in contests of values and destroyer of the enemy in battles of arms, may we pray, flow and purify us.

Bountiful bearer of the abundant world of heaven and earth, creating and clearing the wide paths of truth and rectitude, making them free from fear and mutual conflict, enlightening us on the dynamics of karma in the flow of existence, expanding heavenly lights of the dawns of successive days, pray speak loud and bold and clear and bring us great victories of sustenance, power, honour and excellence in the struggle for progress in a state of purity.

5. Matsi soma varuṇarīn matsi mitraṁ matsīndra-mindo pavamāṇa viṣṭum. Matsi śardho māru-taṁ matsi devān matsi mahām-indrām-indo madāya.

O Soma, universal spirit of life’s joy, Indu, spirit of brilliancy, pure and purifying divinity, you inspire and exhilarate Varuna, freedom of choice, law and justice, advance and inspire Mitra, spirit of love, friendship and cooperation, inspire and exhilarate Indra, ruling powers of governance and defence, honour, exhort and advance Vishnu, all prevailing powers of intelligence and enlightenment, exhort and intensify the force and powers of Maruts, stormy pioneers and fighters, honour and advance brilliant scholars and creative artists and technologists. O divine and brilliant spirit of divinity, Indra, inspire and exhilarate the great ruler Indra for the sake of high honour and excellence of humanity.

6. *Evā rājeva kratumāṁ āmen viśvā ghanighnadduritā pavasva. Indo sūktāya vacase vayo dhā
yūyam pāta svastibhiḥ sadā naḥ.*
Thus like a brilliant ruler, presiding power of universal action and human endeavour, pray flow on and purify us with your divine powers destroying all evils and undesirables of the world. O lord of refulgence and life’s joy, bless us with good health and long age for the sake of holy speech and grateful songs of adoration. O divinities of heaven and earth, pray bless us with all time peace, progress and all round happiness and well being.

Mandala 9/Sukta 91

Pavamana Soma Devata, Kashyapa Maricha Rshi

1. Asarji vakvā rathye yathājau dhiyā manotā prathamo manīṣi. Daśa svasāro adhi sāno avye-’janti vahniś sadanānyaccha.

As in a chariot race, so in the progressive business of organised society, an eloquent speaker, prominent thinker and manager of imaginative and decisive first order is appointed to take on the business of governance and administration. Ten cooperative persons capable of independent thinking, working in perfect unison like sister powers or ten pranas or ten senses of perception and volition, in the house, assist the leader on top of the protective social order of yajnic sanctity.

The high priest of the yajnic social order, brilliant and benevolent, immortal soul, consecrated by wisest of the brilliant people and the general community and exalted by leading lights and ordinary mortals with common voice, supportive actions and protective thoughts and opinions, goes forward leading the yajnic order for their common good.

Virile and generous Soma, leading power of the yajnic order, pure and purifying, creative and brilliant, goes forward for the abundant social order, roaring and illuminating, and elevating the fertility and abundance of the earth. Speaking and chanting a thousand holy words, visionary of thought and communication, the hero goes on by paths of love and non-violence, reaches and opens the subtlest secrets and even breaks through the atom.

Indra, lord of power, break down the strongholds of demonic destroyers. Pure, purifying and consecrated, cover the forces of positive strength of creativity. Uproot the saboteurs and the destroyers coming from above, break with the bolt those who are far off or near within, destroy their leaders.

O lord of universal acceptance and adoration, open the paths of advancement for the modern celebrant as ever before and let the paths be constant as the ancient ones. O lord of infinite action and munificent giver, let us have those means, methods and weapons which are of high uncounterable calibre over a vast effective area of operation.

6. Evā punāno apiḥ svargā asmahyāṁ tokā tanayāni bhūri. Šām nah kṣetramuru jyoīmsi soma jyoīnaḥ sūryaṁ dṛṣayē rirīhi.

O Soma, spirit of peace and joy, pure, purifying and thus adored and consecrated, bless us with the abundance of earth, showers of the skies and illuminations of the highest regions of light, wealth of children and grand children. Give us peace and well being, vast field of action for expansion, and brilliant illuminations of knowledge and wisdom. And give us the vision to see the light of the sun for all time.

Mandala 9/Sukta 92

Pavamana Soma Devata, Kashyapa Maricha Rshi

1. Pari suvāno hariraṃṣuḥ pavitre ratho na sarji sanaye hiyānaḥ. Āpacchholakamindriyam pūyamānaḥ prati devāḥ aṃjuṣaḥ prayobhiḥ.

Invoked and adored for the attainment of fulfilment, inspired and pleased, may the divine destroyer of suffering and frustration, unifying omnipresence of divinity, radiate as joy and bless the soul. Worshipped as pure presence, may the divine Spirit come, acknowledge and receive my song of prayer and exaltation, and bless the noble nature of humanity with food and inspiration for the body and mind, and freedom for the soul.

Soma, all watchful guardian of humanity and omniscient creator, bearing the divine name and the essential nature of divine bliss, radiates and vibrates with joy in the pure heart core of the soul, abiding there as chief high priest at the head of congregations at yajna, and around him concentrate and join seven seers, that is, five organs of perception, mind and will, and the discriminative intelligence. (That personal yajna of the individual and the joint yajna of society is the essential seat of Soma.)

Soma, Spirit of divine intelligence, knowing all ways of the earthly world, universal refulgent generous giver, pure and purifying power, always moves and takes its divine seat in the heart core of the soul and on the yajnic grass of the vedi. Rejoicing in all intellectual and poetic holy meets of the world and, inspiring the constant spirit of steady wisdom and resolution, it joins the five orders of universal humanity and exhorts them together to move forward on the common way to collective progress.
4. \(\text{Tava tye soma pavamāna niñye viśve devāstrya ekādaśāsaḥ. Dāsa svadhābhīradhi sāno avye mṛjantī tvā nadyaḥ sapta yahvīḥ.}\)

O Soma, vibrant omnipresent spirit of life, pure and purifying, all those thirty three divinities of existence, for sure, integrate in the mysterious depth of your presence. Ten pranas, ten subtle and gross elements of nature and seven mighty constant streams of existence at the cosmic and microcosmic levels with their own oblations serve, adore and glorify you on top of the protected and protective world of existence.

5. \(\text{Tannu satyaṃ pavamānasyāstu yatra viśve kāravah samānasanta. Jyotiryadahne akṛṇodu lokāṁ prāvanmanum dashyave karabhīkam.}\)

True it is of Soma, pure and purifying, Truth itself of Soma, wherein all basic causes of existence converge, merge and integrate: Soma it is who created the sun and light of knowledge for the day and enlightenment, which protects the man of thought and knowledge, which for the ignorant lost in darkness is but a distant possibility or even a cause for collision.

6. \(\text{Pari sadmeva paśumānti hotā rājā na satyaḥ samitīriyānaḥ. somaḥ punānaḥ kalaśān ayāsīt sīdan mṛgo na mahiṣo vaneṣu.}\)
Like a high priest going to a prosperous and enlightened hall of yajna, and like a real kingly ruler going to the assemblies of state, may Soma, pure and purifying, consecrate the heart and soul of a dedicated devotee and reign there as a mighty lion ruling majestically over the forests.

Ten generous, agile, spontaneous and simultaneous sister faculties of the self-controlled, self-established yogi together concentrate, communicate and glorify Hari, Soma spirit of divine joy that eliminates want and suffering, and the Spirit, pervading the vibrations of divinity, the light born of the sun, radiates like a constant wave, reaches and settles in the heart core of the blessed soul, the seat of divinity. (The faculties are faculties of perception, thought and will which normally wander over the world of outside reality but which are controlled, concentrated and inverted in meditation and focussed on the presence of divinity within, and then the presence reveals itself in all its refugent glory.)

Like a child fulfilled and secure with mother’s and grandmother’s love, the loving Soma, generous treasure home of universal gifts of life, fulfils the celebrant with showers of pranic energy and, like a lover meeting his lady love, blesses his consecrated heart, and therein vibrates with the dedicated soul with divine radiations of light in thought, word and deed.

Soma, spirit of blessed light and omniscient power, essence of self-refulgent beauty, fills the inviolable receptacles of nature with milky nourishment which the man of enlightenment, joining the milky flow, enjoys. The radiations of light, currents of energy and the words of wisdom all shine and elevate the soul in all situations of life with spiritual food as they shower him with the wealth and honours of immaculate order.

Lord of light and love, refulgent and illuminative, pure, purifying and vibrating with the divinities of nature and humanity, loving and commanding dynamic wealth and virtues of existence, give us the wealth and virtues of the world and open the paths of fast, penetrative, brilliant and all sustaining intelligence and will so that we may achieve the gifts of wealth, honour and excellence without delay or procrastination.

1. \text{Adhi yadasmin vājinīva śubhāh spardhante dhiyāḥ sūrye na viśaḥ. Apo vṛṇānaḥ pavate kaviyān vrajaṁ na paśuwardhanāya manma.}\]
As people exert themselves for the achievement of light and brilliance and when their mind, thoughts and higher intelligence concentrate on this Soma, divine spirit of peace and inspiring brilliance, for illumination, then the Soma spirit, choosing, loving and enlightening the intelligence, thought and creativity of the devotee, radiates into the mind and spirit of the devotee for the augmentation and elevation of the thought, imagination and sensibility of the celebrant.

2. Dvītā vyūrṇvannamṛtasya dhāma svarvide bhuvanāni prathanta. Dhiyaḥ pinvānāḥ svasare na gāva ṇtāyanirabhi vāvasra indum.

For the man of divine vision the worlds of existence extend revealing the twofold, physical and spiritual, grandeur of the treasure-hold of immortal Soma. Like cows lowing in their own stall, the songs of divine Veda, inspiring and expanding in their own abode of the mind and nature, resound and celebrate the refulgent Indu, Soma, divine spirit of beauty, peace, power and bliss.

Soma, omniscient poetic spirit of the universe, which holds and brings us all celebrated beauties of the world and, as the omnipotent hero and master of the universal chariot, bears and sustains all regions of the universe, is the living glory in all divinities, magnificence for mortal humanity, wealth for the expert artist and ever new life in all forms of existence.

Soma manifests in glory for the grace and magnificence of the world, moves simultaneously, omnipresent, for glory and bears beauty and grace, health and age for the celebrants. The yajakas wearing vestments of immortality, with their oblations into the fire of measured law and movement, join together in truth and achieve their immortal meaning and purpose in the battle of life.

O Soma, spirit of divine peace and power, move and bring us food, energy and excellence, move and bring movement and progress, lands, cows and light of knowledge. Make these expansive and rising. Give joy and fulfilment to the noble sages, scholars and generous people. You are the power and courage of forbearance. O pure and purifying power, we pray and ask for these of you. You prevent and cast off the enemies and negative forces of life.

Soma, divine spirit blithe and blissful, saviour and sustainer, invoked in meditation, abiding in the heart core of the soul, pure and purifying, vibrates loud and bold. Served and adored and celebrated by devotees, it renders the senses, mind and intelligence pure and immaculate and then it gives rise to spontaneous songs of praise offered with complete surrender and self-sacrifice.

2. Hari¬ s¾jŒna¬ pathyŒm¾tasyeyarti vŒcamariteva nŒvam. Devo devŒnŒÅ guhyŒni nŒmŒ''vi¦k¾Äoti barhi¦i pravŒce.

Soma, saviour and sustainer of life, invoked and self-manifested, reveals and proclaims aloud the divine voice of the path to eternal truth guiding listeners to the shores of Infinity like a pilot rowing man to the sea shore. That same spirit, further, reveals the names, definitions, secrets and mysteries of existences in the meditative yajnic mind for expression and communication on the vedi.

3. Apâmivedûrmayastarturān̄aḥ pra manîśā īrate somamaccha. Namasyanîrūpa ca yanti saṁ cā’’ca viśantyuśaṭîr-uśantam.

Like waves of the sea pressing onward with force and speed, the songs of adoration rise and radiate with love to Soma. Expressive of ardent love, faith and reverence, they reach and join the divine presence which too is equally ardent and anxious to receive them.

4. Taṁ marmrjānāṁ mahiśaṁ na sānāvanśuṁ duḥhantyaÅ somamaccha. Taṁ vāvaśaṇāṁ matayaḥ sacante trito bibharti varaṇaṁ samu-dre.

That Soma spirit of existence, adored and exalted by devotees like the supreme presence on top of existence, subtlest and self-refulgent, virile and generous, abiding over clouds and mountains and reflected in divine voices, that same loving and beloved spirited and divinity, leading lights of humanity adore, join and milk forth for the nectar of life. The Spirit of three worlds over three times bears and sustains the law, justice and Dharma in space.

5. Isyan vācam-upavakтеva hotuḥ punāna indo vi ṣyā maniśām. Indraśca yat kṣayathāḥ saubha-gāya suvīryasya patayah syāma.

Indu, spirit of peace, light and life of the world, lover of songs of adoration, pure and purifying, we pray you and Indra, omnipotent ruler, like prompter of the priest, abiding both together, give us the vision and wisdom of divinity for our good so that we may be masters of that courage, endurance and fighting force which is worthy of the brave.

Mandala 9/Sukta 96

Pavamana Soma Devata, Pratardana Daivodasi Rshi

Soma, heroic brave leader, warrior and commander, marches at the head of chariots, ardently ambitious for positive gains for the commonalty, his army follows with joyous enthusiasm. Thus nobly fulfilling the divine call of Indra for the advancement and excellence of the friends of humanity, Soma takes on the robe and role of peace and protection and the arms for the defence of humanity.

2. Samasya hariṁ harayo mṛjantyaśvahayairanisitam namobhiḥ. Ā tiṣṭhati ratham-indrasya sakhā vidvān enā sumatiṁ yātyaccha.

Active and self-sacrificing people of society with fast driving forces and incessant inputs of men, materials and committed loyalties empower the chariot of this leader of humanity. Also, the ruling Indra’s friend, a sagely scholar, comes up and joins the chariot, and with him Soma goes forward well with proper understanding, principles and policies.

O divine Soma, you are the protector of the honour and excellence of humanity, indeed of the very soul of life. Come and bless our great and beautiful social yajna in honour of divinities, initiating, stimulating and exciting noble thoughts and actions, blessing this earth from heaven and the vast spaces with showers of divine favours of grace, purifying us and giving us fulfilment of our highest order of desire and Soma, spirit of divine peace, power and generous creativity, flows and purifies universally. It is generator of heavens, maker of the earth and creator of the nobilities of sagely wisdom, generator of fire, maker of the stars, manifester of its own omnipotence, and manifester of the omnipresence of its own self in expansive space.

6. Brahmā devānāṁ padavīḥ kavīnāmrṣirviprāṇāṁ mahiṣo mṛgāṇāṁ. Śyeno gṛdhāṇāṁ svadhītirvanānāṁ somāḥ pavitramatyeti rebhan.

The Soma Spirit is Brahma, supreme over divinities, highest of the poets, divine seer among the wise, lion among the strongest animals, eagle among the birds of power, sword among the killers and, roaring and thundering, it goes forward, excels all others, and blesses the pure heart core of the soul.

7. Prāvivipadvāca ūrmiṁ na sindhur-giraḥ somāḥ pavamāno manīṣāḥ. Antaḥ paśyān vrjanemā-varā-ṇyā tiṣṭhati vrṣabho goṣu jānan.

Soma stirs and inspires the flow of thought into speech as the sea stirs and rolls the waves of the flood.
Pure and purifying, it inspires imagination, poetry and adoration. Pervading all within and watching, it abides in the closest intimacies of all yajna within and without and, potent as it is, knowing every thing, it energises all organs of thought and sense.

8. Sa matsaraḥ pr̥tsu vanvannavātah sahasraretā abhi vājamarṣa. Indrāyendo pavamāno manīṣyamśorūrмирimitraya gā iṣāṇyan.
Soma is inspiration, excitement and ecstasy. Itself unmoved, it destroys negativities in the yajnic battles of life. Power and generative vigour of a thousand sort, pray move and energise all power, energy and enthusiasm of life. Pure and purifying, O spirit of beauty, peace and power, thinker and imaginative creator, inspiring and energising all senses and imagination, pray let the waves of ecstasy roll and flow for Indra, spirit, honour and excellence of life for humanity.

Soma, spirit of peace, beauty and joy, dearest favourite of all, inspirer and worshipped of divinities and nobilities, beatific shower of joy in a thousand streams, commanding a hundred forms and orders of energy and power, all bliss at heart, radiates like the spirit of energy itself, moves, vibrates and blesses the pure heart core of the soul for its joy, honour and excellence.

Soma, eternal spirit, master sustainer of the world and its wealth, universally manifestive, adored and exalted, distilled in the cloud and envisioned in thought and action, protector from evil and calumny, ruler and sustainer of the universe, knower and revealer of the paths to divinity is realised in purity and illumined in spiritual yajna of meditation for the attainment of the vision of eternity.

O Soma, pure and purifying spirit of the world, it is only by your grace that our forefathers of yore all time performed their acts of Dharma in life. Unhurt, unmoved and unchallenged, pray open up all inhibiting limitations and raise us to honour, excellence and glory with brave heroes and dynamic forces of progress and achievement.

As ever before for all time immemorial you vibrate, flow and purify humanity for their good, bearing good health and happy age, destroying negativities and enmities, knowing the wealth we need and bearing the wealth unbounded with honour and excellences of life and holy fragrances of the yajna of living, so now too, pray, vibrate, flow and purify, bearing wealth, honour and excellence, vest in the spirit of humanity and in human glory, and create the weapons of defence against the onslaughts of conflict and contradictions.

Flow, purify and bless, O Soma, rich in the honey sweets of life, high priest of cosmic yajna, reflecting in the cosmic processes of evolution on top of protective nature. Flow and abide in the depth of holy hearts deep in love and faith divine, O spirit most exhilarating, ecstatic and infinite source of fulfilment for Indra, potent vibrant soul, lover of divine glory.

O lord of thousandfold speed, power and victory, harbinger of a hundred showers of bliss, bring us showers of heavenly light for our yajnic worship of divinity. Loving and abiding in the holy hearts of celebrants, let streams of good health and joyous age flow to us with infinite oceans of love and bliss and showers of the light of knowledge.

This, the lord Soma, celebrated and exalted by devotees and wise sages, overcomes contradictions and negativities like a victor war horse trampling the enemies. It is delicious like the milk of the inviolable cow, sure guide like a wide path on earth, and unfailing carrier and saviour like a trained courser for the destination.

Wielding powers of law and justice, exalted by lovers and celebrants, O Name and Word beatific, come and bless the secret cave of the heart. O Soma, like an instant power of transportive ecstasy, take us to the strength and speed of success and fulfilment, lead us to honour and fame of excellence, take us to the vibrancy of the winds and, O lord of light and generosity, give us illuminative knowledge and perceptive and discriminative intelligence.

Dedicated celebrants perceive the presence beatific, manifested and expansive in the experience of nature around, cleanse it like a new born baby, discover and distil it in the spirit and adore it in song. As winds in storm raise a spark to blazing fire, bands of admirers celebrate it in its native glory. Omnipresent all-watching sagely divine, exalted to its omniscience and omnipotence in human consciousness by the music of the poetic voice, Soma, divine presence, radiates into the pure human heart loud and bold and transcends the soul to infinite space.

Soma is the presence that is the universal seer and poetic creator, maker of poets, exalted by sages, shower streams of bliss, adored a thousand ways for infinite power and glory, ultimate love and desire of poets, awful refulgence radiating to the third blazing space beyond the earthly and paradisal regions of life, the presence that rules and illuminates the heart and soul beyond the state of existential involvement, the one loving, blessing, beatific ultimate object of adoration and worship.

Pervading every form of life and nature, adorable supreme Soma presence of divinity, abiding with stars and planets in motion, bearing infinite powers, vibrating with the waves of nature’s dynamics, vesting the cosmic structure, transcends to the fourth state of absolute bliss. Only the mighty sage speaks of the presence beyond speech.

\text{मया न शुभस्तुन्वेऽ मूजानाचत्या न सृत्वा सनुयं धर्मानाम। वृष्णब युथा परि काश्मुषन्त्नकरिकद्विध्वारुन्या विवशं॥ २० ॥}

20. \textit{Maryo na śubhrastavanm mṛjāno’tyo na sṛtvā sanaye dhanānām. Vṛṣeva yūthā pari kośamar-ṣan kanikradaccamvoro vīveṣa.}

Radiant and adorable Soma wearing the manifestive cosmic form like the mortal human wearing the body form, moving fast like radiations of light for the realisation of world’s wealth by pervading, vibrating like a mighty power across the cosmic structure as a virile leader, fills the skies between earth and heaven and abides there proclaiming its presence loud and bold.

O spirit of light divine, beauty and peace, flow, pure and purifying, adored and exalted by great souls, radiate bright and bold and self-proclaimed, and seep into the heart core of chosen souls. Come playing over and between heaven and earth, enter pure and exalted, and may your exalting spirit of ecstasy exhilarate and exalt the soul and its glory in the world of existence.

The streams of this Soma joy flow vaulting full, and the spirit adorned by songs of celebration seeps into the heart core of chosen souls. Thus does Soma, creating peace, supreme peace itself, cosmic intelligence omniscient, goes forward with humanity proclaiming its presence and loving like a twin brother and sister.

23. Apaghannanesi pavamāna śatrūn priyāṁ na jāro abhigita induḥ. Śidan vaneśu śakuno na patvā somāḥ punānāḥ kalaśeṣu sattā.
O spirit pure and purifying, you go forward bright and blissful, loving life, casting off and destroying enemy forces of negation and contradiction against life, moving like a lover cleansed by fire to meet his lady love, sitting in the hearts of lovers and admirers, flying like the eagle bird to its nest, and pure, exalted and edifying, abiding in the heart core of the celebrants.

The rays of your light and glory, O Soma, spirit pure, purifying and radiating, replete with life energy streaming forth, rain in showers like the love of a youthful mother. The divine spirit, destroyer of want and suffering, love and choice of all humanity, manifests bright and beautiful in the dynamics of nature and in the heart and actions of the lovers of divinity.

Mandala 9/Sukta 97

Pavamana Soma Devata, Vasishttha Maitravaruni (1-3), Indrapramati Vasishttha (4-6), Vrshagana Vasishttha (7-9), Manyu Vasishttha (10-12), Upamanyu Vasishttha (13-15), Vyaghrapada Vasishttha (16-18), Shakti Vasishttha (19-21), Karnashrut Vasishttha (22-24), Mrlika Vasishttha (25-27), Vasukra Vasishttha (28-30), Parashara Shaktya (31-44), Kutsa Angirasa (45-58) Rshis
1. Asya presā hemanā pūyamāno devo devebhiḥ samāprkta rasam. Sutaḥ pavitrām paryeti rebhan miteva sadma paśumānti hotā.

Divine Soma, moved and energised by the surge of golden impulse, joins its potency with the senses and mind, and thus seasoned and empowered, vibrant with vitality, it moves to the holiness of the heart like a sanative, or as a priest going to a yajnic enclosure, seat and anchor of sensitive visionary powers of humanity.

O holy Soma power, pure, purified and purifying, wearing vestments of a fighting force, great and creative, expressive loud and bold, come, expand and resound between heaven and earth over all things material and spiritual, ever watchful, ever awake, in the service of divinities in yajna.

O Soma spirit of power and poetic creativity, exalted on top of protection, defence and advancement, honoured of the honourable, of the earth earthy for our sake, shine and resound across the spaces. O divinities, pray protect and promote us with all round well being and good fortune for all time.

Sing and celebrate, let us honour the divinities and exhort Soma for great victory and achievement of wealth, honour and excellence. Sweet and lovable, Soma rises to the protective position of choice and, loving the divinities, it abides in the right position at the centre.

5. Indurdevānupāṇa sakhyamāya†ant-sahasradhā-raḥ pavate madāya. Nyrbhiḥ stavāṇo anu dhāma pūrvam-agann-indraṁ mahate saubhagāya.

Indu, Soma spirit of light and life, coming close to friendship of the divinities, purifies and flows in a thousand streams for the joy of humanity. Adored by leading lights, it rises to the top of honour and glory in keeping with its position and reaches Indra, the ruling soul, for the great good fortune of society.

O Hari, Soma spirit destroyer of suffering, flow pure and purifying for the achievement of wealth, honour and excellence when songs are sung and yajna is performed. O Soma, may your vigour and ecstasy flow to Indra, the ruling soul, for the sake of victory and human glory. May your power and potential come well with the light and vigour of divinities by the chariot of glory and may all the divinities protect and promote us with all round well being and good fortune for all time.

The brilliant poet, singing like an inspired fiery power divine, reveals the origin of nature’s divinities and the rise of human brilliances. Great is his commitment, inviolable his discipline, bonded is he with purity as a brother, having chosen light of the sun and shower of clouds for his element, and he goes forward proclaiming the message of his vision by the paths of piety.
8. Pra haṁsāsas-trpalam manyum-acchāmād-astāṁ vrṣagaṇā ayāsuh. Āṅgūṣyaṁ pavamānaṁ sakāyo durmarṣaṁ sākaṁ pra vadanti vāṇam.

Like hansa birds of discriminative taste by instinct, judicious poets and scholars spontaneously come home to passion and ardour of thought and imagination free from fear and violence and, together in unison as a band of friends, generous and mighty of power and understanding, sing and celebrate the adorable, pure and purifying unforgettable Soma source of beauty, music and poetry.

9. Sa ramhata urugāyasya jūtīṁ vrthā krīlantamāṁ mimate na gāvaḥ. Parīṇasaṁ kṛṇute tigmaśrṁgo divā harirdāḍrśe naktamṛjraḥ.

That Soma source of beauty, music and poetry is ever dynamic spontaneously playing the sportive game. The power, force and velocity of that presence, the mind and senses do not comprehend. The spirit of ultimate penetrative and pervasive power reflects infinite possibilities, the beatific saviour manifests its omnipotence day and night.
Indu, brilliant Soma, energetic and victorious, pure and purifying, vibrant and dynamic, creating strength, patience and endurance for the soul’s joy, is ever on the move. It destroys evil, prevents negativities and opposition and casts them far off, and, giving wealth, honour and excellence of the best order of our choice, rules as the brilliant creator, controller and dispenser of strength, courage, power and life saving vitality in existence.

And by streams of honey shower, joining spiritual awareness, overflowing the heart cave, Soma, distilled from the adamantine practice of meditative self-control, flows pure, purifying, wholly fulfilling. The brilliant divine spirit of joy cherishing friendly communion with Indra, the Soul, is the ecstasy meant for the joyous fulfilment of the soul.

To all dear loving ones flows divine and brilliant Soma, pure, purifying and fulfilling the noble sages with its nectar of ecstasy. May the brilliant joyous divinity, pervading and shining with virtues according to time and season, purify and fulfill us on top of this protective world of ten senses, ten pranas and ten gross and subtle elements.

Generous, joyous and refulgent Soma spirit divine pervades the stars and planets and vibrates in the sun rays, making the heaven and earth resound. It is the very voice of Indra, lord omnipotent, heard in the dynamics of existence, awakening the spirit, and it inspires this holy speech to burst forth in adoration.

O Soma, stream of divine joy exalted with songs of praise, inspiring honey sweets of vital growth and enlightenment, you go forward, pure and purifying, and release continuous showers of ecstasy for the soul for its grandeur and glory when you are honoured and adored by the celebrants.
its nectar of ecstasy. May the brilliant joyous divinity, pervading and shining with virtues according to time and season, purify and fulfill us on top of this protective world of ten senses, ten pranas and ten gross and subtle elements.

Vṛṣā śoṇo abhikanikradadgā nadayanneti prthi-vimuta dyām. Indrasyeva vagnurā śṛṇva ājau pracetayann-arṣati vācamemām.

Generous, joyous and refulgent Soma spirit divine pervades the stars and planets and vibrates in the sun rays, making the heaven and earth resound. It is the very voice of Indra, lord omnipotent, heard in the dynamics of existence, awakening the spirit, and it inspires this holy speech to burst forth in adoration.

14.

Rasāyyaḥ payasā pinvamāṇa īrayanneśi madhumantamāṃśum. Pavamāṇaḥ samtanim-eṣi kṛṇvann-indrāya soma pariṣicyamānāḥ.

O Soma, stream of divine joy exalted with songs of praise, inspiring honey sweets of vital growth and enlightenment, you go forward, pure and purifying, and release continuous showers of ecstasy for the soul for its grandeur and glory when you are honoured and adored by the celebrants.

Thus vibrate and flow on, spirit of ecstasy, for joy, bending and breaking the clouds which hold up the rain and radiations of light, and, bearing bright light and illuminative varieties of knowledge, continue to flow on, O Soma, generous and exalted presence, lover of showers and light and bearer of the bolt of power and force to strike down the negativities.

Indu, refulgent Soma, happy and kind, flow and purify us, creating simple and straight paths of living in the wide world and giving us honest and virtuous wealth and honours of our choice. Destroying all evils of the world as thunder of the clouds, let ceaseless streams of joy flow for us and protect us on top of the protective world.
17. Vṛṣṭiṁ no arṣa divyāṁ jigatnumiḷāvatīṁ śaṁ- gayīṁ jīradānum. Stukeva vītā dhanvā vicinvan bandhūṇrimāṁ avarāṁ indo vāyūn.

O Soma, refulgent giver, bring us celestial rains, dynamic and universal, productive and illuminative, peace giving and abundantly generous. Selecting and favouring like loved children these friendly and brotherly people here and elsewhere, vibrant as winds, pray inspire and energise them to live a full joyous life.

18. Granthiṁ na vi ṣya grathitam punāna ṛjum ca gātuṁ vṛjitam ca soma. Atyo na krado harirā sṛjāno maryo deva dhanvā pastyāvān.

O Soma, pure, purifying and refulgent divinity, liberate the man in chains, breaking the bond as you untie a tough knot. Make the paths of life simple and straight, let the strength be natural and sincere, free from guile. Spirit of divinity, you roar as thunder, you are saviour and sustainer, creator and maker of the mortal humanity, and you are the sole master of the universe, your home.

19. Juṣṭo madāya devatāta indo pari śṇunā dhanva sāno avye. Sahasradhāraḥ surabhir-adabdhaḥ pari srava vājasātau nṛṣahye.
O Soma, refulgent spirit of divinity, lover of joy and loved for the sake of joy, in yajna, pray flow, inspire and energise us on top of safety, security and prosperity with incessant stream of joy. Undaunted and invincible, let a thousand streams of ecstasy flow, let the breeze of fragrance blow, in the battle for victory worthy of brave humanity.

अर्शमाना यंच्‍च्चा अर्येप्पा अत्योसा न संसृजानासे आजाङ्गुपत शुकासी धन्वन्ति सामा दर्वासस्ताँ उपे याता पिबध्यान २०।।

20. Araśmāno ye’rathā ayuktā atyāso na sasṛjānāsa ājau. Ete śukrāso dhanvanti somā devāsastāṇ upa yātā pibadhyai.

Soma streams of ecstasy, unfettered, unbound, uninvolved, flow free like radiations of energy, refulgent, pure and consecrated, inspiring and energising in the yajnic battle of life. Let the leading lights of humanity advance and join the yajna to drink of the nectar.

एवा नेन्द्रा अभि द्रव्वीति परिस्वन नभा अर्णश्चमूषै। सामाय अस्मभ्यं काम्यं इच्छं ददातु बीरवंतमु-गम ॥ २१ ॥

21. Evā na indo abhi devavītiṃ pari srava nabho arṇaścamūṣu. Somo asmabhyaṃ kāmyaṃ bṛ- hantāṃ rayiṃ dadātu vīravantam-ugram.

Thus O self-refulgent Indu, spirit of divine peace, power, beauty and prosperity, let there be a shower of light and knowledge on us in yajna. Let showers of rain fill our tanks, lakes and rivers and fructify our fields and gardens. May Soma give us wealth, honour and excellence of the highest order of our choice with mighty brave heroes.

22. Taksadyadhi manaso venato vāgijyeshthasya vā dharmāṇi kṣoranīke. Ādīmāyan varamā vāvasānā juṣṭam patim kalaśe gāva indum.

If the language of the mind in words of love of the vibrant sage of worshipful devotion, established in the beauty and splendour of the supreme spirit and law of the universe, were to visualise the picture-presence of Soma, ultimate sustenance of life, then all perceptions, thoughts and imaginations, loving and faithful, would move and concentrate into that presence of the choicest, most loved and beatific master vibrating in the heart core of the soul.

Most charitable giver, heavenly, promoter of liberal philanthropists, self-refulgent inspirer of noble intelligence, Soma purifies and enhances the rectitude of the enlightened. Being the sustainer of Dharma, master ruler of all powers and forces of the universe, the mighty Soma sustains the world by the dynamics of the ten gross and subtle elements of nature.

Flowing and purifying by its pervasive presence of sanctity, all watching Soma is the ruler of all divine forces of both nature and humanity. Controller of both nature and humanity, presiding over the dynamics of universal law, bearing and sustaining the cosmos, brilliant and beatific, Soma is the master, ruler and dispenser of all wealth, honours and excellence of the world.

Vibrate and flow for the good of Indra, the soul in search of power, and for Vayu, the vibrant seeker of Karma, radiating like energy itself for the sake of honour and success in yajna. O Soma, knowing and commanding wealth and power, pure and purifying, be the giver of a thousand powers of sustenance, energy and enlightenment for us.

May showers of the power and grace of Soma, generous to the divinities of nature and nobilities of humanity, served, adored and sanctifying, bless our peaceful home with noble heroes of action. Creative they are by nature’s yajna, overflowing with universal light and intelligence like yajakas in the regions of the sun where universal Soma yajna is going on, and they are the most inspiring and most beatific.

O self-refulgent Soma, sanctifier and giver of fulfilment to the holy and nobly brave in yajna, flow, inspire and energise us for the achievement of a great organised social order. Pure and purifying power of divinity, great we shall be, for sure, nobly inspired and committed to the good in the battle of life. Make the earth and the global environment, heavens and the skies, noble, good and creative as a home good for the progress of life.
28. Asvo na krado vrśabhiryujānaḥ sinho na bhīmo manaso javīyān. Arvācīnaiḥ pathibhirye rajiṣṭhā ā pavasva saumanasam na indo.

Roaring as thunder and lightning, awful as a lion, faster than mind, enjoining and inspiring the generous and the brave, O lord self-refulgent and gracious, come by the latest modern paths which are simple, natural and true, and purify, inspire and energise the noble power and virtue of our mind and soul.

29. Śataṁ dhārā devajātā asrgrantsahasramenāḥ kavayo mṛjanti. Indo sanitrāṃ diva ā pavasva pura etāsi mahato dhanasya.

Hundred streams of soma joy born of divinity flow for the divinities of nature and nobilities of humanity. A thousand ways poets and sages sing of them, adore and exalt them. O self-refulgent lord of bliss and generosity, let the holiest wealth and virtue flow from the light of divinity. You alone are the eternal, original and prime giver of the great wealth, honour and excellence of life.

As the rays of day light radiate from the sun, as a good ruler does not hurt the people and treats them as friends, as the son tries by yajnic actions to win the father’s love and favour, so O Soma, come to bless this people and assure their victory and progress.

O Soma, the honeyed showers of your gifts radiate and flow when you, with your power and purity, move to your favourite choices well protective and well protected. Indeed, pure and purifying, you move and bless the treasure homes of light, and, self-manifesting and generative, you vest the sun with the light that illuminates the days.

Loud and bold you reveal the path of truth and rectitude and define the eternal law of existence. Self-refulgent, immaculate and omnipotent, you shine in glory, the very abode of immortality. You vibrate, radiate and sanctify for the sake of Indra, the soul of the karma-yogi, and for the conscience of humanity, inspiring the poets and sages with vision and imagination and the visionary scientists with thought to burst forth in spontaneous songs of adoration, you being the treasure-hold of ecstasy, indeed ecstasy itself.

Heavenly light, super-abundant spirit of peace, protection and divine bliss, O Soma, reveal yourself, speak and shine, and let the rising streams of your presence flow into our divine life-yajna with higher and higher potential. O Spirit of peace and protection, bliss and beauty, consecrate this heart-core of the soul open to Soma, awaiting, come resounding, and let the radiations of refulent divinity illuminate and sanctify us.

34. Tisro vāca ārayati pra vahnir-ṛtasya dhītiṁ brahmaṇo maniśāṁ. Gāvo yanti gopatiṁ pṛcchamānāṁ somaṁ yanti matayo vāvasānāḥ.

Soma inspires three orders of speech: practical speech that carries on the daily business of life, the thought that conceives of the vibrant immanent divine presence, and the deeper language of silence which is the mode of transcendent reality. The language operations of daily business move in search of the master source of world mystery as in science and philosophy, and the speech of thought and imagination and of love and worship moves to the presence of peace and bliss, Soma. (The three speeches in Vedic language are Ida, Sarasvati, and Mahi or Bharati as described in Rgveda 1, 13, 9 and Yajurveda 21, 19. Explained another way these are the language of the Rks or knowledge, Yajus or karma, and Samans or worship.)

Dynamic and creative languages of love and faith celebrate Soma, the languages of scholars enquiring into reality with thought and analysis concentrate on Soma. It is Soma which, distilled from observation and experience and crystallised in nature and function, is sought to be comprehended or apprehended in the language medium. Indeed all speech media of description, definition, comprehension, apprehension, celebration or adoration arise from Soma and merge into Soma.
36. Evā naḥ soma pariṣicyamāṇa a pavasva pūya-mānaḥ svasti. Indramā vīṣa bṛhatā raveṇa vardhayā vācam janayā purandhim.

Thus, O Soma, served, adored and celebrated with your power and purity, let your presence radiate and purify us for our good and all round well being.
Come and settle in the soul with the mighty voice of divinity. Generate and exalt the awareness and speech of vision and celebration communicative of high divine realisation.

37. Ā jāgravr ipvipra rtā maṭināṃ somah punāno asadaccamūṣu. Sapanti yaṁ mithunāso nikāmā adhvaryaavo rathirāśaḥ suhastāḥ.

Ever wakeful, all intelligent, ever true, pure, purifying and celebrated, Soma abides in the heart core of the visionary sages, and him, loving yajakas dedicated to yajna of love and non-violence, noble of action commanding their body chariot of personality, together serve, adore and worship with high love and devotion of their mind and soul.
38. Sa punāna upa sūre na dhātobhe aprā rodasī viṣa āvah. Priyā cidyasya priyasāsa utī sa tū dhanam kāriṇe na pra yaṁsat.

That Soma, pure and purifying, creator and sustainer, pervades and fills the heaven and earth as it abides in the sun and destroys darkness and ignorance. Dearer than dear are its powers for our protection for sure. May Soma give us wealth, honour and excellence as one would give wealth to the artist.

39. Sa vardhitā vardhanah pūyamānah somo mīdhvān abhi no jyotiśāvīt. Yenā naḥ pūrve pitaraḥ padajñāḥ svarvido abhi gā adrimuṣṭan.

Soma, exalted and exalting, pure and purifying, virile and generous, may, we pray, protect and promote us with the light of knowledge by which our forefathers, knowing the meaning and purpose of life step by step with a passionate desire for knowledge, rising to the sun, attained to the ultimate freedom and bliss of heaven.

40. Akrāntsamudraḥ prathame vidharmaṇjanayan praṇā bhuvanasya rājā. Vṛṣā pavitre adhi sāno avye bṛhat somo vāyṛdhe suvāna induḥ.

Soma, prime cause of the world of existence, unfathomable as ocean, taking on by itself countless causes of existence in the vast vault of space and time, roaring and generating the evolving stars, planets and forms of life, is the ruling power of the universe. Potent and generous, infinite, creative and generative, refulgent Soma pervades the immaculate, sacred and protective universe and on top of it expands it and transcends.

Soma, potent absolute, generated the Mahat mode of Prakṛti, Mother Nature, which is the womb of all elements, energies and forms of existence and which comprehends all perceptive, intelligential and psychic powers as well. And then the creative-generative lord of evolutionary action, Soma, vested lustre and energy in Indra, the soul, and, lord of light as it is, Soma vested light in the sun.

O self-refulgent Soma, you energise the Vayu for its windy fulfilment and accomplishment of the purpose of creative evolution and, purifying and sanctifying as you are, you energise and fulfil the centripetal and centrifugal modes of energy. You energise the sense of courage, boldness and even defiance of stormy energy, you energise the senses, mind and intelligence, and you energise and fulfil the heaven, earth and the skies of space.

43. Rjuḥ pavaṣvā vṛjinasya hantā’pāṁivāṁ bādaṁ-māno mṛdhaśca. Abhiśrīṇan payah payasābhi gonāmindrasya tvam tava vayaṁ sakhāyah.

Flow on, creative power, pure and purifying, simple, straight and natural, destroyer of crookedness, driving away and warding off violence and negativities, extending and refining knowledge with knowledge of the dynamics of nature, mind and senses. You and we, then, are friends and cooperators in progress, O friend of the karma-yogi.

44. Madhvaḥ sūdāṁ pavaṣvā vasva utsaṁ vīraṁ ca na ā pavaṣvā bhagaṁ ch. Svadavendrāya pava-māna indo rayim ca na ā pavaṣvā samudrāt.

Pacify and consecrate the springs of honey sweets and let these flow free, let abundance of wealth, honour and excellence, let power, prosperity and glory flow to us all. Spirit and power of peace and purity, refulgent and beatific Indu, be sweet and kind for the soul. Let immense wealth flow from the bottomless sea.

Somaḥ suto dhārayātyo na hitvā sindhurna nimnamabhi vājyakṣāḥ. Ā yoniṁ vanyamasadat punānaḥ samindur-gobhir-asarat samadbhiḥ.

Soma, self-existent Spirit of creativity realised and exalted by humanity, inspiring and energising like radiations of light, rushing down in streams like a flood, pray come with the glory of victory. May the spirit of Soma, pure and purifying, flow and bless the loved heart core of the soul. May the spirit, bright and illuminating, flow with showers of knowledge and enlightenment and beatify us with the soothing waters of peace for the mind, senses and the soul.

Eṣa sya te pavata indra somaścamūśu dhīra uṣate tavasvān. Svarcakṣā rathirāḥ satyaśuṣ mahā kāmo na yo devayatām-atarjī.

Hey Indra, dear soul, it is that Soma, Spirit of divinity which flows free and purifying for you, the human lover that cherish the Spirit. Pervasive in the holy hearts and indeed in all forms of existence, constant, almighty, watching, radiating and revealing, itself the light of heaven, master of the cosmic chariot, inviolably true in its potential, it flows free like the love as well as the lover of the celebrants of divinity.

Verily to us for our vision and experience, you, O master of the cosmic chariot, refulgent Soma, flow on in the mighty forms of existence both physical and psychic. Flow on, pure, purifying and sanctifying in the dynamics of nature, flow into our actions, thoughts and words. Flow on, sweetest spirit, bearing honeyed joys of life, the very spirit of truth and eternal law, you who are self-refulgent and generous like the life-giving sun, sole lord of truth and laws of constant mutability at heart.

O Soma, pure and purifying, resounding across the spaces, flow, sung and celebrated, and bring peace, progress and fulfilment to humanity, to the man of vibrant enthusiasm, to the man of love and judgement. To humanity, bring readiness of intellect and understanding, firm and undisturbed yet dynamic like a master of the chariot sitting at peace, unmoving and undisturbed, while the chariot may be speeding at the velocity of light. So also flow to Indra, master ruler of the arms of thunder, virile and generous, mighty yet calm.

O refulgent Soma, pure and purifying, sung and celebrated, bring us vestments of beauty and grace, cows, abundant and fertile, words of knowledge brilliant, deep and creative, bring us golden graces of beauty and soothing vitality for sustenance and success, bring us the energy and motive powers for our chariot of corporate life.

Generous, refulgent Soma spirit of beauty, peace and glory, sanctify us by these streams of grace. In the ocean depths of this honourable universe, energise and move all forms of wealth and peaceful settlements and consecrate us in the space of divine voice and wisdom. Spirit of the expansive universe, dynamic like the stormy winds, high-priest of cosmic yajna for all, bless us with a settled state of humanity in the vibrant system of a

And by this sacred stream of divinity, cleanse and sanctify us in this holy lake of the divine Word worth hearing over and above what has been heard. Master of infinite power and wealth, destroyer of hoards of negativities, give us boundless forms of wealth for our battle of life, shaking, as if, like a tree of ripe fruit this mighty tree of the world.

54. Mahīme asya vrṣanāma śuṣe mānścatve vā prśane

These are the mighty great and constructive works of the virile and generous Soma in the battles of life either in social dynamics or close encounters or in fierce conflicts: sending the destroyers to sleep, separating off the unfriendly and removing the unawake and unaware from here where they are, (by constructive, waking up friendly exercise).
54. Sam tṛi pavitrā vitāṁyaśyanvekaṁ dhāvasi pūyamānaḥ. Asi bhago asi dātrasya dātā ’si maghavā maghavadbhya indo.

Hey Indu, spirit of beauty, power and glory of divinity, you move and bless three holy expansive loved favourites of your choice and, pure and purifying, you hasten to them one by one since you are the wealth and power for the mighty, you are the giver for the generous, and you are the glory for the glorious.

55. Eṣa viśvavit pavate maniṣi somi viśvasya bhuvanasya rājā. drapsāṁ īrayan vidatheṣvindur-vi vāramavyaṁ samayāti yāti.

This Soma knows, holds and consecrates the world as a holy place for life. Omniscient and all-sentient, it is the refulgent ruler of the entire universe. Spirit of light, beauty and grace of generosity, inspiring and energising perception and awareness of the holy performers in yajnas, it moves and enlightens the chosen protected soul, abides there and moves on.

56. Induṁ rihanti mahiśā adabdhāḥ pade rebhanti kavayo na gṛdhraḥ. Hinvanti dhīrā daśabhiḥ ksipābhiḥ samaṇjate rūmapapāṁ rasena.

Great undaunted celebrants love and adore Soma on the yajna vedi. Passionate strivers as well as poets sing and celebrate it in song. Constant devotees with all ten senses and pranic energies worship it in peace and quiet, and by the fluent pleasure and power of it they join the very presence of it.

4. Sa hi tvām deva śaśvate vasu marīyā dāśuṣe. Indo sahasriṇaṁ rayim śatātmānam vivāsasi.
O Soma, refulgent and generous spirit of peace, prosperity and beauty, you shine upon the charitable mortal of relentless discipline and bestow upon him wealth, honour and excellence of a hundredfold power and a thousandfold value.

O spirit of instant mantra movement, lord of world’s wealth and shelter home of life, destroyer of evil, darkness and ignorance, let us be closest to you and the all desired world’s wealth, let us be closest to your treasure of food, energy, and knowledge and to your divine peace and comfort.

Dvīryāṁ pañca svayaśasamō svasāro adrisamha-tam. Priyamindrasya kāmyāṁ prasnāpayantyūr-miṇam.

Soma, dearest love of the soul, innately glorious, the glory intensified by spiritual light, vibrant spirit rolling in the consciousness whom ten psychic powers of mind and sense perceive, conceive and exalt, that spirit we cherish and adore.

Ten psychic powers with the best of their potential adore and exalt that dear divinity, omniscience itself, who, omnipresent, pervades and rejoices with all divinities of the world with divine ecstasy.

This spirit of beauty and perfection, sublime like the sun, by virtue of its own innate potential which vests all great ones with their mighty power and honour, that spirit you all adore for protection and perfection of your life.

That divine spirit of beauty and perfection, brilliant and generous, resounding over heaven and earth, vested in cloud showers and mountain tops, loving, gracious and deeply human at heart, O men and women of the earth, create in your yajnas and realise in life.
10. Indrāya soma pātave vṛtraghne pari śicyase. Nare ca dakṣināvate devāya sadanāsade.

O Soma spirit of light and ecstasy of grace, you are adored and served for the soul’s experience of divinity, for the man of charity and the brilliant sage on the vedi of yajnic service so that the demon of evil, darkness and ignorance may be expelled from the soul of humanity and destroyed.

Those eternal, natural and universal vibrations of divine love and grace flow and beatify the human soul in the purity of heart core in the holy light of the dawn, subduing, expelling and destroying those crooked and clandestine forces of evil, darkness and ignorance of the human mind.

Come friends, all of us and all the wise and brave, let us reach that Soma spirit of light and grace and achieve the spirit as a prize and treasure home of peace, fragrance and life’s victory.
Mandala 9/Sukta 99

Pavamana Soma Devata, Rebhasunus Kashyapas Rshis

For the lovely bold Soma, devotees wield and stretch the manly bow, and joyous celebrants of heaven and earth before the vibrants create and sing exalting songs of power and purity in honour of the life giving spirit of divinity.

That power and ecstasy of this Soma, worthiest

That power and ecstasy of this Soma, worthiest of the soul’s delight, we adore and exalt, which the sense and mind with their perceptions and reflection receive and which, for sure, veteran sages too have experienced for times immemorial.

4. \textit{Taṁ gāthayā purāṇyā punānam-abhyanūṣata. Uto kṛpanta dhūtayo devānāṁ nāma bibhratīḥ.}

That spirit of Soma, pure and purifying, the celebrants adore and exalt by songs of old in Vedic voice and, the same, thoughts and actions of veteran sages with the divine name content of the lord supplicate and glorify.

5. \textit{Tam-ukṣamāṇam-avyaye vāre punanti dharāsim. Dūtaṁ na pūrvacittaya ā śāsate maniśiṇah.}

That omnipotent virile generative Soma creator, the very pillar and foundation of the universe, thinkers and meditative sages sanctify and hold in the pure heart core of their soul and celebrate as the prime divine voice of revelation of the eternal Vedic knowledge for enlightenment of the human soul.

6. \textit{Sa punāna madintamaḥ somaścamūṣu sīdati. Paśau na reta ādadhat patirvacasyate dhiyāḥ.}
That Soma, pure and purifying, most ecstatic and exhilarating, abides in all forms of yajnic existence and, holding the cosmic seed and impregnating Nature as a living organism, is worshipped as the father and sustainer of all thoughts of living beings.

7. Sa mrjyate sukarmabhir-devo devebhyah sutah.

That divine, refulgent and generous Soma, realised by sages of holy action for noble humanity, is celebrated and glorified in the human world, and when it is known as the sole giver of every thing among these people, then it releases mighty floods of living waters for life sustenance.

8. Suta indo pavitra a nbhiryato vi niyase.

O spirit of divinity, brilliant and blissful, perceived, reflected and meditated with constant exercise of spiritual discipline, you are distilled from experience and realised by devoted people in the purity of heart for the soul. It is thus that, most ecstatic and exhilarating, you abide in the heart and soul of humanity.
Mandala 9/Sukta 100

Pavamana Soma Devata, Rebhasunus Kashyapas Rshis

1. Abhī navante adruhaḥ priyamindrasya kāmyam.
Vatsaṁ na pūrva āyuni jātaṁ rihanti mātaraḥ.

Just as young mothers love and caress the first born baby in early age, so do people free from malice and jealousy take to Soma, meditative realisation of divinity, dear favourite love of Indra, the soul.

2. Punāna indavā bhara soma dvibharasāṁ rayim.
Tvāṁ vasūni puṣyasi viśvāni dāśuṣo grhe.

O Soma spirit of divinity, bright and blissful, bring us twofold wealth and excellence, expansive for both life on earth and beyond, and give us complete fulfilment. Indeed, you create and augment the wealth, honour and excellence of the world in the house of the man of generosity and charity.

3. Tvāṁ dhiyaṁ manoyuṣam sṛjā vrśtim na tan-yatuḥ. Tvāṁ vasūni pārthivā divyā ca soma puṣyasi.

O Soma, like the rain showers of the clouds, pray create, inspire and augment the vision, intelligence, understanding and will which may stabilise the mind in the state of peace and constancy. Indeed, you create and augment the wealth, honour and excellence of both earthly and heavenly order.

4. Pari te jigyuo yathā dhārā sutasya dhāvati.

When you are distilled from experience and meditation, then the stream of your bliss, fast and ceaseless, flows to the chosen and protected heart of the devotee like the prize winning spirit of a victorious warrior.

5. Kratve dakṣāya naḥ kave pavasva soma dhā-rayā.

Soma, spirit of poetic omniscience, flow and purify us by streams of bliss distilled from experience and meditation for our intelligence, expertise and enlightenment, for fulfilment of Indra, man of power, Mitra, man of love, and Varuna, man of judgement.

Soma, all inspiring spirit of the universe, sweetest presence distilled and realised in the holy heart, flow on purifying by the stream of exhilaration, giving food, energy and fulfilment for the soul, for the universal vibrancy of nature and humanity, and for all the noble, generous and enlightened people.

O Soma, pure and purifying saviour spirit of universal sanctity, just as mother cows love and caress a new born calf, so do the motherly forces of nature and humanity free from the negativities of malice and jealousy love and cherish you arising in the heart and inspiring the soul in various dharmic situations of life.

Soma, pure, purifying vibrant spirit of life divine commanding great power, honour and glory, you go forward with wondrous manifestations of your power, bold and indomitable, destroying the darkness and evils of the world, and reach and bless the yajnic house of the man of charity and generosity.
Soma, all inspiring spirit of the universe, sweetest presence distilled and realised in the holy heart, flow on purifying by the stream of exhilaration, giving food, energy and fulfilment for the soul, for the universal vibrancy of nature and humanity, and for all the noble, generous and enlightened people.

O Soma, universal soul of high commitment of Dharma, pure and purifying energy of omnipresent divine flow, you wear the armour of omnipotence, bear, sustain and edify the heaven and earth by your majesty and transcend.

Mandala 9/Sukta 101

Pavamana Soma Devata, Andhigu Shyavashvi (1-3), Yayati Nahusha (4-6), Nahusha Manava (7-9), Manu Samvarana (10-12), Vaishvamitra or Vachya Prajapati (13-16) Rshis

O friends, for your attainment of the purified and exhilarating Soma bliss of existence, eliminate vociferous disturbances of the mind and concentrate on the deep resounding voice of divinity.

2. Yo dhārāyā pāvakayā pariprasyandate sutāḥ. Induraśvo na kṛtyaḥ.

Brilliant and blissful Soma, when, filtered and exhilarated, vibrates and flows in clear purifying streams like waves of energy itself.

That blazing unassailable Soma, adorable in yajna, leading lights invoke and impel with universal thought and speech, with controlled mental reflection for self-realisation.

Filtered, felt and cleansed, honey sweet soma streams, pure and exhilarating, flow for Indra, the soul, and may the exhilarations reach you, noble favourites of divinity.

5. Indurindrāya pavata iti devāso abruvan. Vācaspatir-makhasyate viśvasyeśāna ojasā.

Soma, divine, brilliant and blissful, flows for Indra, the soul, say the noble sages, and thus Soma, divine source and master of speech and thought, ruler and sustainer of the entire world by his own lustre and power, is honoured at all yajnas of knowledge, yoga and austerity, for advancement.

6. Sahasradhāraḥ pavate samudro vācamāṇkhyayḥ. Somāḥ patī rayināṁ sakhendrasya divedive.

A thousand streams of Soma joy and enlightenment flow, inspiring and purifying. It is a bottomless ocean that rolls impelling the language and thought of new knowledge. It is the preserver, promoter and sustainer of all wealths and honours and a friend of the soul, inspiring and exalting us day by day.

7. Ayam pūṣā rayirbhagaḥ somāḥ punāno arṣati. Patir-viśvasya bhūmano vyakhyad-rodasī ubhe.

It is Pusha, life-sustaining and nourishing protector, wealth and honour of the world, power and the glory, Soma that is pure and purifying, ever going forward with the world. It is the master, sustainer and ruler of the vast expansive universe and illuminates both heaven and earth.

8. Samu priyā anūṣata gāvo madāya ghrṣvayyah. Somāsaḥ kṛṇvate pathaḥ pavamānāsa indavah.

Dear daring voices exalt and extol Soma for the sheer joy of illumination. Indeed men of Soma vision and courage, blazing brilliant, pure, purifying and pursuing, create and carve their own paths of progress.

Ya ojiṣṭhastamā bhara pavamāna śravāyyam.
Yaḥ paṇca carṣaṇīrābhi rayim yena vanāmahai.

O pure and purifying Soma, bring us honour and excellence most lustrous and renowned, valued among all the five classes of people by which we may be able to win the real material and spiritual wealth of life.

Streams of Soma flow for us, brilliant, eloquent and expansive, friendly, inspiring, free from sin, intellectually creative and spiritually illuminative.

Reflective, inspiring and generative by controlled operations of higher mind in the purified heart core, let the Soma streams, vibrant and vocal, bring us spiritual energy, intelligent illumination and divine awareness all round in the world.

As a child feels secure with joy in the arms of its parents, as the lover goes to the beloved, as the groom sits on the wedding vedi, so does the Soma spirit pervade in the natural form of its choice love.
15. Sa víro dakṣasādhano vi yastastambha rodasī.
   Harih pavitre avyata vedhā na yonim-āsadam.

That potent Soma, master controller of all powers, means and materials of success in existence, who sustains both heaven and earth, is the saviour power of protection and pervades the universe presiding as omniscient high priest over the vedi of cosmic yajna.

16. Avyo vārebhiḥ pavate somo gavye adhi tvaci.

Soma, omnipresent protector, abides with the souls of its choice discipline, vibrating in the heart core across the fluctuations of mind and senses. Loud and bold and voluble, thus, the generous potent saviour spirit blesses the original nature of the soul in its innate purity.

Mandala 9/Sukta 102

Pavamana Soma Devata, Trita Aptya Rshi

1. Krāṇā śiśur-mahīnāṁ hinvannṛtasya dīdhitim.
   Viśvā pari priyā bhuvadadha dvitā.

Maker of stars and planets, inspiring the light and law of the dynamics of existence, dear adorable giver of fulfilment, Soma rules over both spirit and nature, heaven and earth.

2.  Upa tritasya pāṣyorabhakta yadguhā padam.
    Yajñasya sapta dhāmabhir-adha priyam.

Close to the adamantine integration of Purusha and Prakṛti in human form is the secret seat of heart and clairvoyant intelligence wherein the climactic presence of the master of three orders of Prakṛti and super presence of divinity, and there it is shared by seven prakṛtic, pranic and psychic orders of existence and adored by seven metres of Vedic hymns as the dearest supreme object of worship.

3.  Trīṇi tritasya dhārayā pṛṣṭhesverayā rayim.
    Mimūte asya yojanā vi sukratuḥ.

   By three streams of the moving particles of matter, energy and mind does the triple master, Soma, move the dynamics of existence, and thus does the supreme high priest order and accomplish his cosmic plan.

    Ayaṁ dhruvo ryīṇāṁ ciketa yat.

   Seven measured motherly orders of existence at the material, pranic and psychic level join, reveal and celebrate Soma manifesting in beauty and glory, this constant unmoved mover who, being omnipresent and pervasive, knows of the wealth and sublimity of the universe.

�स्य व्रत सुजार्पसा विश्व दुःस्वत अदुहः।

The great joint spontaneous generators of the dynamic world in existence are Soma, supreme Purusha, and Prakrti, which the sages, who enact and advance the meditative yajna of science and direct realisation, constantly adore and glorify.

8.  \textit{Kratvā śukrebhirakṣabhirṇorapa vrajaṁ divaḥ. Hinvann-ṛtasya didhitim prādhvare.}

O Soma, creative spirit of the universe, by holy action, brilliant light of pure knowledge and the inner vision of the spirit, pray open wide the paths and doors of the light of divinity, thereby inspiring and advancing yajnic revelations of the divine law and its operation in this advancing world of love and non-violence.

Mandala 9/Sukta 103

\textit{Pavamana Soma Devata, Dvita Aptya Rshi}

1.  \textit{Pra punānāya vedhase somāya vaca udyatam. Bhṛtīṁ na bharā matibhir-jujoṣate.}

Sing rising songs of adoration in honour of Soma, pure and purifying, omniscient and inspiring ordainer of life, and offer the songs as homage of yajnic gratitude. Soma feels pleased with enlightened songs of love and faith.
2. Pari vārāṇyavyayā gobhir-aṅjāno arṣati.
Tṛī śadhasthā punānāḥ kṛṣṇute hariḥ.

Pleased and exalted with songs of adoration, Soma, saviour spirit of bliss, radiates with its protective presence to the distinguished hearts and, purifying the body, mind and soul of the celebrants, blesses them in their physical, subtle and causal body states of existence.

Abhi vāṇīr-ṛṣīnāṁ sapta nūṣata.

In the protected heart core of the blessed soul overflowing with honey joy, the Soma presence vibrates, and hymnal voices of the seer sages in seven Vedic musical metres adore and glorify the divine presence in ecstatic response to the guiding spirit of divinity.

Somaḥ punānaś-camvor-viśaddhariḥ.

Soma, guiding spirit of the mind and soul, self-refulgent soul of the universe, undaunted and invincible, pure and purifying, pervading the heaven and earth, manifests inspiring in the mind and soul of meditative celebrants, eliminating their darkness and sufferance.
5. Pari daivīranu svadhā indrenā yāhi saratham.
Punāno vāghadvāghadbhir-amartyah.

O Soma, immortal spirit of existence, pure, purifying and realised in the pure heart core of the soul, vibrant and voluble with the celebrants in response to their yajnic homage and divine attainments, radiate with the human soul as a chariot mate of its physical existence on the move.

O Soma, saviour spirit of bliss, radiates with its protective presence to the distinguished hearts and, purifying the body, mind and soul of the celebrants, blesses them in their physical, subtle and causal body states of existence.

6. Pari saptirna vājayurdevo devebhyaḥ sutaḥ.
Vyānaśiḥ pavamāno vi dhāvati.

Like universal energy, the glorious Soma, all victorious, brilliant, realised by sages in its original nature and character, pervades vibrant here, there, everywhere and beyond, transcending.

Come friends, sit on the yajna vedi, sing and celebrate Soma, pure and purifying spirit of life, and with yajna exalt him like an adorable power for the grace and glory of life.
2. Samī vatsaṁ na mātṛbhiḥ srjatā gayasādhanam.
Devāvayaṁ madamabhi dviśavasam.

As mothers love, adore and adorn a child with beauty and ornaments, so energise and exalt Soma as versatile beauty and grace of life, protector of divinities, source of ecstasy and doubly strong both physically and spiritually.

3. Punātā daksasādhanam yathā śardhāya vītaye.
Yathā mitrāya varuṇāya śantamaḥ.

Realise and exalt Soma in the essential purity of its nature, power and presence as the very foundation of perfection and achievement in life, so that it may be the surest and most peaceful base of strength, power and fulfilment for the spirit of love and friendship as well as for freedom and judgement.

4. Asmabhyaṁ tvā vasuvidamabhi vānīranuṣata.
Gobhiṣte varṇamabhi vāsayāmasi.

Our songs of adoration celebrate and exalt you as creator, knower and giver of peace, power, wealth and honours of the world. Indeed, with thoughts, words and vision, we glorify your power and presence as it emerges in our experience.
5.  Sa no madānāṁ pata indo devapsarā asi.
Sakheva sakhye gātuvittamo bhava.

O spirit of beauty, brightness and bliss, controller, protector and promoter of life’s joys, divine and heavenly indeed is your power and presence. We pray be the guide and pioneer as a friend and spirit of love for friends.

Apādevamāṁ dvayumaṁho yuyodhi naḥ.

O Soma, let us be together in peace and friendship, in arms and in the daily business rounds forward as ever before. Keep off the demonic destroyer, the ogre, the impious, the double dealer, and the sin and sinner.

Mandala 9/Sukta 105

Pavamana Soma Devata, Parvata and Narada Kanvas Rshis presence of divinity, with songs of praise, and exalt and adorn him as a darling adorable power for winning the joy of life’s fulfilment.

2. Sam vatsa iva māṭbhīrindurhinvāno ajyate. Devāvīrmado matibhiḥ pariṣkṛtaḥ.

Holily is Soma, brilliant presence of beauty, peace and power of divinity, protector of sages, ecstasy of life, realised in the essence, and, adorned by devotees as a darling presence, it is invoked and worshipped with creative acts of meditation by the celebrants.

This is the means to efficiency for perfection, this is for strength and success for fulfilment, and when it is realised, it is the sweetest, most honeyed experience for the divines.

4. Gomanna indo aśvavat sutaḥ sudakṣa dhanva. Śucim te varṇamadhi goṣu didharam.

O Soma, refulgent spirit of divine bliss and beauty, manifest every where and realised within, commanding universal power and perfection, pray set in motion for us the flow of wealth full of lands, cows, knowledge and culture, and of horses, movement, progress and achievement. I pray bless me that I may honour and worship your pure divine presence above all, above mind and senses and above the things mind and senses are involved with.

5.
Sa no harīṇāṁ pata indo devapsarastamaḥ.
Sakheva sakhye naryo ruce bhava.

O spirit of beauty and universal majesty, controller of all movements, beauties and perfections, divine presence that comprehend all forms of refulgence and generosity, like a friend for friends, be good for our pioneer leadership and brilliance on the vedi.

6.
Sanemi tvamasmadāṁ advaṁ kaṁ cidatriṇam.
Sāhvāṁ indo pari bādho apa dvayum.

O spirit of divine beauty, bliss and brilliance, one with us in all acts and movements, courageous, bold and forbearing, ward off from us all impieties and keep away the impious and ungenerous people wherever they be, whoever is a devouring destroyer, and a double dealer.
Mandala 9/Sukta 106

Pavamana Soma Devata, Agni Chakshusha (1-3, 10-14), Chakshu Manava (4-6), Manu Apsava (7-9) Rshis

1. Indramaccha sutā ime vrśaṇam yantu harayaḥ. Śruṣṭi jātāsa indavaḥ svarvidaḥ.

May these realised, cleansed and confirmed, blessed, beautiful and brilliant virtues and sanskars touching the bounds of divine bliss, emerging and risen in the mind, well reach and seep into the heart core of the soul completely and permanently.

This Soma, competent and victorious for the battle of life, when realised, flows for Indra, the winning soul, and enlightens it about the world’s reality as it is and as it knows.

Under the inspiration and ecstasy of this soma of divine love, let the soul seize the victorious bow, take on the generous virile and mighty bolt of will and power of faith and win the target of the battle of Karma to the attainment of Divinity.

Flow on, O Soma, spirit of divine bliss, ever awake, brilliant and enlightening, streaming on and on for Indra, the soul, bear and bring the light and fire of the sun and vision of heaven.

5. Indrāya vrṣaṇaṁ madam pavasva viśvadar-śataḥ. Sahasrayāmā pathikṛdvicakṣaṇaḥ.

Let divine showers and streams of visionary ecstasy rain and flow for Indra, the soul, O Soma, charming cosmic power, moving a thousand ways, maker of a thousand paths, shining, all watching and revealing.

Best pioneer, path finder and highest honeyed joy for us, for the divines, come roaring by a thousand paths of light and holiness.
Ā kalaśam madhumāntsoma naḥ sadah.*

O Soma of divine light and peace, harbinger of honeyed joy, flow in streams with power and lustre for our attainment of the path of divinity and abide in our heart core of the soul.

Tvāṁ devāso amṛtāya kaṁ papuḥ.*

The streams of your peace, beauty and bliss swell like streams of water in flood, and the divines drink of the ecstasy for the attainment of immortality.

9. Ā naḥ sutāsa indavaḥ punāna dhāvatā rayim. Vṛṣṭidīvvo rītyāpaḥ svarvidah.

O streams of the beauty and bliss of peace and joy filtered from experience, heavenly showers, liquid floods, paradisal bliss pure and purifying, bring us the wealth, honour and excellence of the highest order.

Agré vācaḥ pavamānah kanikradat.*
Soma, pure and purifying, protective and blissful, flowing by streams and sanctifying, roaring with ancient and original hymns of divine adoration, rushes to the heart core of the distinguished soul.

11. Dhībhirhinvanti vājināṁ vane kṛīlantamatya-vim.
   Abhi triprṣṭhaṁ matayaḥ samasvaran.

Men of distinguished mind, adoring Soma with holy thoughts, words and action, invoke and celebrate all protective Soma, victorious spirit and cosmic energy, playing in the beautiful world over three regions of heaven, earth and the skies.

12. Asarji kalaśaṁ abhi mīlhe saptirna vājayuḥ.
   Punāno vācaṁ janayannasiṣyadat.

Soma, vibrant spirit of divinity, rushes to the heart core of realised souls like instant energy radiating to the centre of its target in the human battle of survival and distinguished search for immortality, there stimulating, creating and sanctifying hymns of adoration, and there in the soul it abides.

   Abhyarṣantstotr-bhyo vīravadyaśaḥ.

The beauteous and beatific divine saviour spirit of Soma vibrates, purifies and flows with tremendous force, casting off all crookedness and contradictions, and overflowing with valour, honour and excellence for the celebrants and their heroic progeny for generations.

अया पवस्व दत्तमध्यधारा असृ ।
रथ्यन्यविन्न पर्यंषि विश्वतः ॥ १४ ॥

Rebhan pavitraṁ paryesi viśvataḥ.

Thus vibrate, purify and flow, friend of sages and divines, releasing these honey streams of joy, and go on eloquent to bless the pure heart all round all ways in the world.

Mandala 9/Sukta 107

Pavamana Soma Devata, Saptarshis Rshis

\text{sā śrīṇanto gobhiruttaram.}

For sure, pure and purifying, flow on with protective and promotive forces, gracious, undaunted, more and more charming and blissful. When you are realised in our actions, mixed as one with our energies, will and senses, then we rejoice and celebrate you in our perceptions with hymns of praise, and later in silent communion.

3. \text{Pari suvānaś-cakṣase devamādanah kraturin-durvicakṣaṇaḥ.}

Celebrated in our thoughts and perceptions, joy of the sages, power of holy yajnic action, brilliant and blissful, all intelligent and omniscient, we adore you for the augmentation of our intelligence and enlightenment.

4. \text{Punanaḥ soma dhārayā’po vasāno arṣasi. Ā ratnadhā yonimṛtasya sīdasyutso deva hiranya-}

O Soma, pure and purifying our thought, will and actions, abiding in the heart, you move and flow on in our consciousness. Bearing treasures of jewels, pray come and sit on the seat of yajna vedi and our sense of truth and eternal law. Indeed, O lord refulgent, you are the fountain head of life’s golden treasures.

Giver of fulfilment, treasure trove of life’s sustaining milk, yielding celestial dear honey sweets of living strength and joy, pervasive in its eternal universal loved seat, all conqueror all watching and knowing, when moved by meditative celebrants, Soma radiates and vibrates in the faithful heart of earnest seekers.

Pure and all purifying, O Soma, spirit of peace and bliss, ever awake and awakening with your eternal consciousness, all protective and promotive, dearest in the heart of the cherished loving soul, you are the vibrant awareness of omniscience and the very life energy of life. O Spirit of peace, joy and divine bliss, pray bless our yajna of life with the honey sweets of existence.
Soma, pure and purifying our thought, will and actions, abiding in the heart, you move and flow in our consciousness. Bearing treasures of jewels, pray come and sit on the seat of yajna vedi and our sense of truth and eternal law. Indeed, O lord refulgent, you are the fountain head of life’s golden treasures.

Soma, virile and generous giver of fulfilment, omniscient master of the ways of existence, supreme creative seer, vibrant super-soul, all watching and knowing, flows and purifies all. O Soma, you are the poetic creator, dearest friend of the divines, and it is you who generate and raise the sun over to the heaven of light.

Soma, invoked by celebrants, manifests with blissful inspiring powers of protection and promotion and, saving, watching, fascinating, goes forward, rushing, compelling, in an impetuous stream like waves of energy, and it also goes forward by a stream of mild motion, soothing and refreshing.

Soma, invoked by celebrants, manifests with blissful inspiring powers of protection and promotion and, saving, watching, fascinating, goes forward, rushing, compelling, in an impetuous stream like waves of energy, and it also goes forward by a stream of mild motion, soothing and refreshing.

Soma, invoked by celebrants, manifests with blissful inspiring powers of protection and promotion and, saving, watching, fascinating, goes forward, rushing, compelling, in an impetuous stream like waves of energy, and it also goes forward by a stream of mild motion, soothing and refreshing.
Soma, divine master of holy speech, emerges in the depth of the heart with the voice of divinity and blesses the devotee with the revelation of the milk of spiritual sustenance. Just as streams of water flow and reach the sea, so is the divine stream and spirit of joy invoked and celebrated for the central bliss of the soul.

10. Ā soma suvāno adribhistiro vārānyavyayā. Jano na puri camvorviśaddhariḥ sado vanēṣu dadhiṣe.

O Soma, spirit of universal bliss and protection, invoked and stirred by acts of meditation, radiating across the covers of darkness, enter the heart core of the soul as citizens enter their home in town, arise in the depth of heart and intelligence and abide there in the love and faith of the soul, your own cherished seat of existence among the wise.

Like a war horse in victorious battle, Soma radiates across the fine fluctuations of senses, ecstatic, flowing in exuberant streams, when it is impelled and realised by the wise, vibrant Vedic sages in meditation.
O Soma, be full with the liquid spirit of joy like the sea which is full with the flood of streams and rivers, and, like the very spirit of ecstasy overflowing with delicious exuberance of light divine, ever awake, flow into the devotee’s heart blest with the honeyed joy of divinity.

Dear, loved and fascinating, Soma emerges in transparent unsullied form, winsome worth refinement like a child’s and inspiring as a sanative. Devotees stimulate it with holy karma, a thing beautiful and inspiring, and let it join and flow in the streams of thought and action between their intellect and emotion and their prana and apana energies.

Intelligent and dedicated lovers of Soma refine and sublimate their pleasurable joy of the heart and emotion, direct it to divinity on top of the existential ocean of daily business and, thoughtful, ecstatic and divinely oriented, experience the heavenly ecstasy of Soma as in samadhi.

15. Tarat samudraṁ pavamāṇa īrminaḥ rājā deva ṛtam brhat. Ārṣan-mitrasya varuṇasya dharmāṇaḥ pra hinvāna ṛtam brhat.

Across the ocean of existence, pure, purifying and flowing by waves of ecstasy, refulgent generous divine ruler of life, itself the law of expansive universe, radiating by and with the Dharma of Mitra, spirit of love, and Varuna, spirit of justice, inspiring and stimulating the universal law of truth and advancement, rolls Soma.

16. Nṛbhīr-yemāṇpo haryato vicakṣaṇo rājā devah samudriyāḥ.

Invoked and impelled by leading lights of intelligent humanity, graciously charming, all watching, self-refulgent divine light of life, omnipresent in the universe, it rolls for Indra, the soul.

17. Indrāya pavate madaḥ somo marutvate sutah. Sahasradhāro atyavyamarṣati tamī mṛjantyāyavah.
Soma, joy of existence, invoked and realised, flows purifying and consecrating for Indra, the vibrant soul, in a thousand streams of ecstasy and overflows the heart and soul of the devotee. That Spirit of the universe, intelligent dedicated yogis realise, exalt and glorify.

Pervading and energising heaven and earth, indeed the entire world of Prakṛti and Jīva, stimulating intelligence, the poetic creator rejoices among the divinities, stars and planets and the senses and mind of humanity. Wearing the cosmic waters as a cloak, inspiring and sanctifying our thoughts and actions, manifesting in all beautiful things, and thus perceived by our senses and apprehended by intelligence, it abides higher and somewhere beyond our apprehension.

O Soma, light of life and universal joy of existence, I rejoice in your friendly company day in and day out. O mighty bearer sustainer of the universe, a host of negativities surround me, pray break through their bounds and come and save me.

उताहं नक्तमुत सामं तु दिवां सुख्याय बभु उधनि।
घृणा तर्पन्तमति सूर्यं पुरं शौकुनावन पतिम॥ २० ॥

And I, O Soma, bearer and sustainer, yearn day and night to abide in your presence for the sake of your love and friendship, and pray that we may rise, flying like birds beyond the sun blazing with its refulgence, and reach you, the Ultimate.

३३६ ।।

मृज्यमाणः सुहस्त्य समुद वाचिंविन्वति।
रूढिं विनिशांत बहुर्ल पुरुस्य्यः पर्वमानाभ्यं सिः॥ २१ ॥

O Spirit omnipotent with the world in your generous hands, celebrated and exalted, you stimulate and inspire the song of adoration in the depths of the heart and, pure, purifying, radiating and exalting, set in motion immense wealth of golden graces of universal love and desire for us.

३३६ ।।

मृज्यानाः वार पर्वमानं अव्ययं वृषावर्च चक्रद्रव वर्ण।
दुवानां साम पवमानं निष्कृतं गाभिरवज्ञानं अष्टं॥ २२ ॥

O Soma, universal spirit of generosity, cleansing, purifying and radiating in the protected heart of the cherished celebrant, you manifest loud and bold in the deep and beautiful world of existence and, sung and celebrated with songs of adoration, you move and manifest in the holy heart of divinities, pure, purifying, vibrating.

O Soma, spirit of universal light and joy, radiate and move, purifying and inspiring, toward the spirit of universal vision and creativity for the achievement of knowledge and enlightenment. You are the first highest and original master poet creator who bore the mighty treasure trove of infinite light and joy and let it open to flow for the divine sages.

24. Sa tū pavasva pari pārthivam rajo divyā ca soma dharmabhiḥ. Tvāṁ viprāso matibhirvicakṣaṇa śubhram hinvanti dhītibhiḥ.

O Soma, with all your power, laws and virtues, flow purifying and inspiring all that is earthly, heavenly and in the middle regions of the universe. O Spirit all knowing and watching, bright and pure, the sages with their thoughts and actions invoke and exalt you for inspiration and enlightenment.

Pavamānā asṛkṣata pavitramati dhārayā. Marutvanto matsarā indriyā hayā medhāmabhi prayāṃsi ca.

Purifying, energising and inspiring currents of ecstasy and nourishment for the senses, will, intellect and imagination flow by stream and shower at the speed of winds to the holy heart of the sagely celebrant.

Invoked and exalted by celebrants, the Soma spirit of light and joy radiates to the heart and soul of the devotee, there inspiring and enlightening the thoughts, will and imagination to action, creating the light of joyous vision and energising the mind and senses, as if shaping the original spirit of purity and divinity of the soul anew.
Mandala 9/Sukta 108

Pavamana Soma Devata, Gauriviti Shaktya (1-2), Shakti Vasishtha (3, 14-16), Uru Angirasa (4-5), Rjishva Bharadvaja (6-7), Urdhvasadma Angirasa (8-9), Krtayasha Angirasa (10-11), and Rnanchaya Rajarshī (12-13) Rshis

1. Pvasvā madhumattama indrāya soma kṛatuvittamo madah. Mahi dyuksatamo madah.

O Soma, sweetest honey spirit of light, action and joy, radiate purifying for Indra, the soul. You are the wisest spirit of the knowledge of holy action, greatest and most enlightened spirit of joy.

2. Yasya te pītvā vṛṣabho vṛṣāyate’sya pīṭā svarvi-daḥ. Sa supraketo abhyakramīdiśo’cchā vājaṁ naitaśaḥ.

Having drunk of the Soma spirit of light, action and joy, Indra, the soul, overflows with strength and virile generosity. Having drunk of it, the soul receives the light of heavenly knowledge. And the soul, also, blest with inner light of spiritual awareness, rushes to achieve food, energy and enlightenment as a warrior wins the battle of his challenges.

O Soma, dear as life, pure and purifying, most refulgent enlightened spirit, only you can call up born humanity to holy life and proclaim the path to immortality.

Soma is that spirit of enlightenment by which the meditative sages on way to divinity open up the path to immortality, by which the saints attain to the peace and well being worthy of divinities, and by which the lovers of immortality obtain their desired ambition and fulfilment.

It is that Soma, most joyous spirit of life’s beauty, which, when realised by controlled minds of choice meditative order, flows pure and purifying by the stream of ecstasy, playful and exalting like waves of the sea.

You who with your might and lustre break open the cloud and release the streams of water from the womb of the cloud, who pervade and extend your power over the vault of the universe, pray come like a warrior in arms and break open the paths of progress in knowledge and advancement.

O celebrants, come, realise and all-ways serve Soma like sacred adorable energy impelling as particles of water and rays of light, the spirit pervasive in the universe and deep as the bottomless ocean.

For the rise of the self to the state of divine refulgence, let us serve and adore Soma, divine spirit of a thousand streams and showers, potent and generous, augmenter of the milk of life, dear as father and friend, who, manifestive in the laws of universal existence, pervades the expansive creativity of divine power and is the self-refulgent ruler, generous divinity and the infinite law, truth and ultimate reality itself.

O refulgent generous Soma spirit of life, lover of divinities, master of food and energy for body, mind and soul, give us the light to rise to the honour and excellence of higher life towards divinity, and for that pray open the middle cover of the soul and let us rise to the state of divine bliss.

10. Ā vacyasva sudakṣa camvoḥ suto viśāṁ vahnirna viśpatiḥ. Vṛṣṭiṁ divaḥ pavasva rītimapāṁ jīnvā gaviṣṭaye dhiyāḥ.

O Spirit omnipotent of divine action, invoked, adored and vibrant in the internal world of mind and soul and in the external world of nature, sustainer and ruler as burden bearer of humanity, stimulate the radiation of light from heaven, sanctify the shower of bliss, and inspire and illuminate the mind and intelligence for the seeker of enlightenment.

This treasure trove of the wealth, honour and excellence of existence, overflowing with honey sweets of ecstasy in a thousand streams, virile, brilliant and generous, the sages worship and they receive the milky grace of divinity for life and joy.

12. Vṛṣā vi jajñē janayannamartyaḥ pratapañjyotisā tamaḥ. Sa suṣṭūtāḥ kavibhir-nirṇijāṁ dadhe tri-dhātvasya damśasā.

Generous immortal Soma, supreme spirit of eternal light, manifests, generating life and removing darkness with light. Celebrated and worshipped by visionary sages, it manifests in their consciousness wearing its immaculate garb of threefold Prakṛti of matter, mind and motion by virtue of its omnipotence.

13. Sa sunve yo vasūnāṁ yo rāyāmānetā ya iḻanāṁ. Somo yaḥ sukiśītinām.

That Soma which is the generator, harbinger and ruler guide of all forms of wealth, honour and excellence, lands, knowledge and awareness, and of happy homes is thus realised in its divine manifestation.

14. Yasya na indraḥ pibādyasya maruto yasya vāryamanāḥ bhagaḥ. Ā yena mitrāvaruṇā karā-maha endramavase mahe.
Soma is the omniscient and omnipotent divine spirit, whose ecstatic presence, our soul experiences, whose powers, our vibrant forces experience and adore, by whose path and guidance our power and honour moves and moves forward, by whose grace we develop our pranic energies and our sense of love and judgement, and by whose word and grace we anoint and consecrate our ruler for our high level of defence and security.

15. Indrāya soma pātave nṛbhiryataḥ svāyudho madintamaḥ. Pavasva madhumattamaḥ.

O Soma, life divine, realised by leading lights, wielding noble arms of defence, being most exciting and bearing sweetest honey gifts, flow forth in consciousness for the soul’s fulfilment and for glory of the social order.

O Soma spirit of life divine dear to humanity, come, enter the heart core of the soul of humanity’s social order full of love and reverence for the joy and glory of life. Come, enter as rivers flow to the sea. Loved and worshipped for Mitra, spirit of friendship, for Varuna, spirit of freedom and choice with justice and vision, and for Vayu, vibrant power and dignity of the human nation, come and bless, supreme sustainer of heaven and earth.

Mandala 9/Sukta 109

Pavamana Soma Devata, Agnis Dhishnyas Aishvaris Rshis

1. Pari pra dhanvendrāya soma svādurmitrāya pūṣṇe bhagāya.

O Soma, come and inspire as the most delicious psychic and spiritual experience for the soul and the nation, for friends, for the sustaining guardians and for the spirit of honour and glory of humanity.

2. Indraste soma sutasya peyāḥ kratve dakṣāya viśve ca devāḥ.

Soma, spirit of glory and grandeur, loved, realised and reverenced, let Indra, the ruling soul, experience the ecstasy for noble action and efficiency. Let all divinities of the world enjoy the divine presence.

3. Evāmrṭāya mahe kṣayāya sa śukro arṣa divyāḥ pīyūṣah.

Thus for immortality, for great dominion and for highest ascension, may that pure, potent and celestial Soma presence flow and radiate as the sweetest taste of life.
Pavasva soma mahāntsamudraḥ pitā devānāṃ viśvābhi dhāma.

Flow forth and consecrate, O Soma presence of divinity, as great ocean of life, father, generator and sustainer of divinities and ultimate haven and home of all the worlds of existence.

Śukraḥ pavasva devebhyaḥ soma dive pṛthivyai śaṁ ca prajāyai.

O pure and potent Soma spirit of divinity, consecrate and radiate for the generous brilliant nobilities and divinities and bring showers of peace and joy for heaven and earth and for the human people and all other forms of life.

Divo dhartāsi ākṣaraḥ pīyūṣaḥ satye vidharman vājī pavasva.

You are the sustainer of the heavenly regions of light, most blissful presence for experience in the yajna of truth and divine law, and the ultimate winner of the victory. Flow forth, divine Soma, purify and consecrate us in the presence.

Pavasva soma dyumnī sudhāro mahāmavīn-āmanu pūrvyah.

O Soma, you are the glory and the grandeur, holy stream and shower, the first and eternal of the greatest of the great, pray flow forth in presence, radiate and purify as ever before.

8. Nṛbhīryemāno jajñānah pūtaḥ kṣaradvīśvāni mandraḥ svarvit.

Realised by leading lights, manifestive in the world and consciousness, presence consecrated in the heart core, blessing the world with divinity, ecstatic, the presence of heaven itself, that’s what you are, Soma.

9. Induḥ punānah prajāmurāṇah karadvīśvāni draviṇāni nah.

Soma, generous, brilliant and blissful spirit of divinity, pure and purifying, inspirer and energiser of people, may, we pray, generate all wealth and honours of the world for us.

10. Pavasva soma kratve dakṣāyā’śvo na nikto vājī dhanāya.

O Soma, as victor of life and divine glory, flow, radiate and inspire us like energy itself controlled and consecrated for creative and productive holy work, expert technique and the production and achievement of wealth.
11. Taṁ te sotāro rasam maṁ madāya punanti somam mahe dyumnāya.

O Soma, spirit of divine energy and peace, your yajnic celebrants create and consecrate that very blissful liquid flow of your ecstatic energy for joy and for the great honour and glory of life.

12. Śiśuṁ jajñānam hariṁ mrjanti pavitre somam devebhya indum.

They adore and exalt that Soma spirit of divine beauty, peace and glory in their pure heart core, the spirit that is creative and lovable, manifestive, saviour and inspirer, for the achievement of noble virtues worthy of the noble and generous people.

13. Induḥ paviṣṭa cārumadāyā’pāmupasthe kavir-bhagāya.

Indu, Soma spirit of refulgent divinity, blissful and poetically creative is the omniscient highest purifying and saving spirit and power for the sake of honour and joy on the basis of one’s own Karmic performance.

14. Bibharti cārvindrasya nāma yena viśvāni vṛtrā jaghāna.

That Soma spirit of beauteous and blissful divinity bears the name of Indra, power of omnipotence, by virtue of which it overcomes and destroys all the darkness and evil of the world.

15. Pibantyasya viśve devāso gobhīḥ śrītasya nṛbhiḥ sutasya.

All the divine nobilities and brilliances of the world drink of this soma sweetness of divine joy realised by leading lights of humanity and exalted with the beauty and grace of art and imagination.

The Soma spirit of divinity realised and exalted by the celebrant, streaming in a thousand showers, reaches and sanctifies the pure, protected and sanctified heart of its cherished devotee.

17. Sa vājyakṣāḥ sahasraretā adbhirmṛjāno gobhīḥ śrīnānāḥ.

May that victor spirit of Soma divinity of infinite power, realised with meditative Karma and crystallized by perception and awareness, manifest in the heart and bless us.

18. Pra soma yāhīndrasya kukṣā nṛbhiryemāno adribhīḥ sutah.

O Soma spirit of divinity, pursued in practice by men and realised in name and presence through senses, mind and intelligence of the yogis, come and abide in the heart core of the soul.

19. Asarji vājī tīrāḥ pavitram-indrāya somaḥ sahasrāharaḥ.

Soma, the vibrant victor spirit of divinity of infinite streams of joy, manifests through the purity of heart for the soul’s experience.

20. Añjantyaenam madhvo rasenendrāya vṛṣṇa induṁ madāya.

Celebrants exalt this Soma spirit of beauty and bliss with honey sweets of poetic flavour for the joy of generous and virile human soul.

They spontaneously exalt you, Soma, vibrant in Prakṛti and in Karma, the saviour spirit, for the sages and for achievement of strength.

22. Indurindrāya toṣate ni toṣate śrīnangnugro riṇanapaḥ.

The mighty self-refulgent Soma spirit of beauty and bliss is realised for the soul and, mingling and moving with the flow of karma, it is attained for the salvation of the soul in ultimate freedom from karma.

Mandala 9/Sukta 110
Pavamana Soma Devata, Tryaruna Traivrshna, Trasadasyu Paurukutsya Rshis

O Soma, vibrant Spirit of life, victor over evils and darkness, move on with us, inspiring and energising us for the achievement of food, energy and enlightenment, for elimination of malignity, negativities and contradictions, with the obligation that we pay the debts and never overdraw on our karmic account.

Anu हि त्वा सुतं सां म पद्ममसि मह संमयराज्यः

While you are with us at heart, O Soma, spirit of constant peaceful life, we rejoice with you in the great common-wealth order of governance where, dynamic, pure and purifying, you ever advance to victories in honour, excellence and glory.

अजीजना हि पवमान सूर्यं विधार शक्मना पयः ॥
गाजीर्या रंहेमाण: पुरुस्थ्या ॥ ३ ॥

Soma, pure, purifying and dynamic by your essential omnipotence, mighty moving with cosmic intelligence and ignition of oceanic particles of Prakrti, you create the sun, generate bio-energy in all containing space and set in motion the stars and planets of the universe.

4.  आजीजानो अम्रता मर्यश्वान ऋतस्य धर्माने प्रान्तस्या सारुणः।
सदासरो वाजमाच्छाव सानिवयादत।

Immortal Soma, manifesting in mortal forms, radiating in the operative laws of eternal and immortal blissful dynamics of existence, vesting in mortals the energy and ambition to live, you move on ever in union with mortals and immortals.

5.  अभ्याब्हि हि स्रवसा तत्तदिक्षि ना कम्चिज्जनापानमक्षितम।
श्रयाभिर्ना भारमानो गज्बत्स्योह।

Bearing in hands as if, and maintaining in balance by evolutionary powers, you hold and control the means of life sustenance, and release them in constant flow of food and energy like an inexhaustible stream of water for the maintenance and fulfilment of common humanity.

6. Ādīṃ ke cit pāśyamāṇāsa āpyaṁ vasurucō divyā abhyanūṣata. Vāraṁ na devaḥ savitā vyūrṇute.

And some men of vision who can perceive the adorable presence worthy of attainment, and some divinely blest lovers of the life sustainer Soma who adore and exalt him, these reveal the mystery and majesty of the supreme Soma spirit as the sun reveals the world of physical reality.

7. Tve soma prathamā vrktabarhiṣo mahe vājāya śravase dhiyam dadhuḥ. Sa tvam no vīra vīryāya codaya.

Into you, O Soma, did ancient sages of uninvolved mind with yajnic dedication concentrate and focus their mind and senses for the attainment of a high order of spiritual enlightenment. O Soma spirit of divinity that enlightened the sages, pray inspire and enlighten us too with that same divine manliness of vision and action.

That nectar of divinity, eternal and adorable, which the ancient sages distilled from the mighty great and infinite heaven of light, and which they perceived rising for the soul while they sang in adoration, that same nectar, O Soma, may shower on us too, we pray.

And then, O pure and purifying Soma, as long as these heaven and earth and all these regions of the world you wield with your might abide, you abide as the master in the centre of the multitude,

And that long may Soma bless us, pure and purifying, vibrant as wind and joyously manifesting playfully as a darling spirit in the protective world of choice beauty, flowing with a thousand streams and commanding a hundred forces of existence, blissful, brilliant and gracious as it is.

This Soma, pure and purifying, honeyed presence, ruling lord of truth and eternal law, bright and beautiful, treasurehold of power and sustenance, master of wealth and honour, mighty warrior and victor, pervades and vibrates as the sweetest presence in waves of ecstasy.

स पर्वस्य सहमानः पूर्तन्यून्तस्थद्रुन ांस्यर्प दुर्गाह्वणि ।

O Soma, spirit of power, patience and fortitude, wielder of mighty arms, flow pure, protect and purify us, warding off fighting forces of evil, eliminating difficulties, and challenging and defeating enemies.

This Soma spirit of the fighting force of divinity, protecting and purifying by its own victorious lustre of innate powers, overcomes all forces of jealousy and enmity as the sun dispels all darkness with its own rays of light. The stream of its radiance, realised and purifying, shines beautiful and blissful. The lustrous saviour spirit which pervades all existent forms of the world, goes forward pure and purifying with seven notes of its exalting voice and seven rays of light and seven pranic energies expressive of its mighty force.

You win the wealth of advantage over hard bargainers in exchange and, in trade and commerce, turn deficit into surplus and make it shine with native resources in your own home, yes with open, honest, yajnic transactions of law and truth as on the vedi of yajna. Songs of praise and appreciation from afar are heard where expert organisers and workers rejoice in action. Bright and brilliant Soma spirit of peace holds life and sustenance in hand by shining wealth of matter, mind and motion in open peaceable circulation, yes Soma holds life and sustenance in hand, under control, and provides it freely.

Intelligent and well aware, Soma warrior goes forward in the line and to the destination in consonance and continuation of living tradition of law and custom, his glorious divine chariot is directed by rays of light and vibrant enthusiasm, thus the glorious chariot goes on. Songs of praise in honour of the brave resound, exalting Indra, the ruling soul of the order, for the victory, when the ruling soul and the fighting force both become the one thunderbolt infallible in battles, verily one invincible power in battle.

1. Nānānam vā u no dhiyo vi vṛtāni janānām. Takṣā riṣṭaṁ rutauṁ bhiṣaṅg brahmā sunvantami-cchaṭindhrayendo pari srava.

Different are our thoughts and ways of thinking, different are people’s acts, plans and commitments. The maker wants to repair the broken, the physician looks for the sick, the Vedic scholar loves the maker of soma and soma yajna, and you, O Soma, spirit of life’s joy, flow for Indra, soul of the system.
2. \[ \text{Jaratibhir-o\textasciitilde{sadh}ibhi\textasciitilde{h} par\textasciitilde{nebhi\textasciitilde{h}} sakun\textasciitilde{n\textasciitilde{a}}} \]

I am an artist, maker, craftsman, father, a physician, mother, a miller. We are of different mind, competence and interests and in search of wealth and sustenance we go in different directions like the senses and yet stay together. You, O Soma, flow for Indra, centre and soul of the system.

4. \[ \text{A\textasciitilde{\acute{s}}vo v}ol\textasciitilde{\acute{h}}\textasciitilde{\acute{a}} sukham ratham hasan\textasciitilde{\acute{a}mupamantri\textasciitilde{n}ah}. \text{S}epo \text{roman\textasciitilde{y}vantau bhedau v\textasciitilde{\acute{r}}inma\textasciitilde{n\textasciitilde{d}}\textasciitilde{\acute{u}}ka iccha\textasciitilde{ti}}ndr\textasciitilde{\acute{a}}yendo pari srava}. \]

The motive power needs a smooth carrier, close friends in concert love fun, the beautician wants the cosmetics of her choice, and the vibrant sensitive loves to appreciate and value the subtlest distinctions between the seductive sweets and elevating beauties of life in experience. O Soma, spirit of peace and joy of life, you flow for the soul’s bliss. (That’s what I am. I am the soul. I love Soma.)

MANDAL - 9 / SUKTA - 113 417 418 RGVEDA
flow, pure and purifying, for Indra, the ruling soul, in the service of divinity.

3. Parjanyavṛddham mahiṣam tam sūryasya duhitābhara. Tam gandharvāḥ pratyagṛbhṇan taṁ some rasamādadhurindrīyendo pari śrava.

That Soma, glory of life, growing great as the cloud by the cloud, daughter of the sun, the dawn and divine faith, brings to the earth. The forces that sustain the earth take and fill that glory of soma with beauty and joy of life. O Indu, spirit of power and grace of glory, flow for the power and majesty of Indra in the service of divinity.

4. Rtaṁ vaddann-rtadyumna satyaṁ vaddant-satya-karman. Śraddhāṁ vaddant-soma rājan dhātrā soma pariśkṛta indrāyendo pari śrava.

O Soma, spirit of glory and majesty of the order, great with the light and lustre of truth, reflecting the truth and rectitude of the order, speaking the truth, doing things aright, reflecting divine faith in action and policy, shining bright and ruling, purified and consecrated by the universal divine ordainer, O Soma, flow for Indra, soul of the system in the service of divinity.
5. Satyamugrasya bṛhataḥ saṁ sravanti saṁsra-vāḥ. saṁ yanti rasino rasāḥ punāno brahmaṇā hara indrāyendo pari srava.

Together and in truth flow the laws of infinite potent majesty. Beauties and graces of gracious blissful divinity flow together delicious sweet. O Indu, saviour spirit of beauty and joy, purified and energised by the spirit of Infinity, flow for the sake of Indra, ruling soul of the system in the service of divinity.

Where the sage, pure at heart and purifying, chanting the sacred word of the Veda grows to spiritual dignity by the control of mind and senses, there, creating the joy of life by the experience of divine ecstasy, O Spirit of glory and majesty, flow for Indra, the ruling soul in the service of divinity.

Where light is eternal, where divine bliss is vested in life itself, in that immortal imperishable haven of freedom and bliss place me, O Spirit of beauty, majesty and grace, and flow for the sake of Indu, soul of the system I love and admire.

O Soma, let the divine power and presence vibrate and flow for Indra, the soul of humanity.

O Soma, spirit of light and life of the universe, whatever your ripest gifts of knowledge and power, with those, pray, bless and promote us. Let no enemy oppress us. Let none hurt anything of ours. O Indu, spirit of light and bliss, may your presence flow for the soul and promote the life and spirit of humanity.
Mandala 10/Sukta 1

Agni Devata, Trita Aptya Rshi

1. Agre bṛhannuṣasāmūrdhvo asthānnirjaganvān tamaso jyotiśāgāt. Agnirbhānunā ruṣatā svaṅga ā jāto viśvā sadmānyaprāḥ.

There on the eastern horizon, with the first lights of the dawn emerging out of darkness, rises up the sun, mighty Agni, great and glorious with radiant light, and as it rises it covers and lights up all regions of the world.

Agni, born of the womb of earth and heaven covered in darkness over night, you are beautiful, lovely as a child and wonderful, and as you rise over night and darkness, you radiate your rays over mother heaven and earth proclaiming them bright, and immediately you are received and held over them in the herbs and trees for life.
3. Viṣṇuriththā paramamasya vidvāṇjāto bṛhannabhi pāti trātyam. Āsā yadasya payo akrata svam sacetaso abhyarcantyatra.

Omnipresent Agni, Vishnu, thus risen as the sun, attains to its third and supreme state of the expansive light of infinite divinity which it radiates, protects and promotes. Those wide-awake sages who receive this divine light energy through direct presence and internalise it celebrate it in song and worship it as the nectar gift of divinity here on earth.

And you, Agni, who bear and augment the food for life, life creative and food productive agents of nature and humanity, bearing food for you, serve you in response to you, and as they feed you, you reach them again while they are in different form, and thus you are the leading power in the yajnic cycle of life among nature and the human people and communities.

Agni, high priest of all non-violent and inviolable yajna, all creative and productive activity in nature and humanity, moving forward by wondrous beautiful chariot, blazing banner-bearer and pioneer of progress, cyclic augmenter and promoter of every brilliant and generous divinity in nature and humanity, is loved, cherished and reverenced of humanity by virtue of its divine grandeur, generosity and grace: this Agni we worship and serve by yajna.

Agni, wearing different manifestations, assuming different modes of form and function, holding on at the centre hold of the earth, burning in the vedi, arising on top of the world, bright and beautiful, at the heart of clouds flashing with lights of thunder, present in advance of evolution, present all time upfront, high priest of cosmic yajna, ruling supreme, pray join all divinities of nature and humanity, bring them here and bless us.

Agni, you always pervade and illuminate both mother earth and heaven as a saviour child illuminates both parents at heart with elation. Go forth ever strong, ever youthful climactic power and presence bright and beautiful, mighty forbearing, come to the loving celebrants and bring in all that is divine, here and now.

Agni Devata, Trita Aptya Rshi

Agni, you produce, procure, energise and mother earth and heaven as a saviour child illuminates both parents at heart with elation. Go forth ever strong, ever youthful climactic power and presence bright and beautiful, mighty forbearing, come to the loving celebrants and bring in all that is divine, here and now.

Mandala 10/Sukta 2
Agni Devata, Trita Aptya Rshi

Ever youthful Agni, cosmic sun, omnipresent all-reaching all pervasive power and presence, ordainer and maintainer of the seasons of time and nature, fulfil the loving and aspiring seekers, dedicated scholars and divine powers, and be with energy they should have. O self-refulgent divine energy, light and intelligence, of all the divine powers and presences, stars and planets, which together carry on the dynamics of cosmic yajna, you are the closest, highest and most adorable power worthy of attainment.

Agni, you produce, procure, energise and provide all yajnic inputs, refinements and purifying agents of life for humanity at the individual and social level for life’s maintenance and promotion. You are the harbinger of intelligence and knowledge and giver of wealth and honour, and you are the observer and presiding power of holy rites, laws and seasons of time and nature. We enact the yajna with holy inputs and with truth and honey of thought, word and deed, and pray may divine and adorable fire carry the fragrance to the divinities for human fulfilment.

3. Ā devānāmapi panthām-aganma yacchaknavāma tadanu pravoḥhum. Agnirvidvāntsa yajāt sedu hotā so adhvarāntsa ṛtūn kalpayāti.

Let us follow the path of the divinities, sagely scholars, stars and planets as far as we can and do that in proper order so that we may be able to continue: Agni knows, the scholar knows, the sun is the base of knowledge in relation to its systemic position, that is the high priest of the solar system, that controls the harmonious movements of the planets, that ordains the pattern of the seasons.

(Let the sun be the base of our knowledge of the stars and planets in our pursuit of yajnic astronomy. Similarly let the sagely scholar who knows the science of yajna be our guide in our studies and our actions.)
MANDAL - 10 / SUKTA - 2

And if we, being ignorant and deficient, neglect or transgress or overstep the laws and disciplines of those who know, then, O divinities, Agni, the sun, the sage, being abundant and graciously fulfilling, makes all that up and saves us by those very powers and actions in time and seasons by which it keeps the sages and divinities in the systemic order.

And if we mortals, either because of immature mind or poor faith and want of expertise, do not know and do not understand and appreciate the way the divine solar yajna is going on, even so Agni, the high priest of that yajna, knowing, ordering and conducting that yajna, the most adorable pervasive all reaching partner, carries on the yajna of heavenly bodies in order according to the time and seasons.

The creator of all the stars and planets of the universe moving in their orbits created you too, O Agni, O sun, wonderful pioneer and commander of the solar system. Pray come, join us and give us lands and earths blest with noble people, and bring us cherished foods, energies and knowledges, and let there be showers of rain giving us abundance of food and fertility for the life species of the world.

O Agni, you whom the heavens bear as sun and light, the middle regions bear as wind and electricity, and the earth bears as fire and magnetic energy, whom Tvāshtra, cosmic maker of all forms of existence, fashioned forth and brought into existence, you, O Agni, O Sun, knower of the paths of father Time and mother Niyati, cosmic intelligence, and of the Karma and fate of ancestors, children of time, you, lighted in the vedi and blazing in the heavens, pray shine on us and illuminate the paths of life for us.
Mandala 10/Sukta 3
Agni Devata, Trita Aptya Rshi

1. Ino rājannaratīḥ samiddho raudro daksīya suṣumāṇ adarśi. Cikidvi bhāti bhāsā bhṛhatā’siknīmeti ruṣātīmapājan.

Mighty self-refulgent sun, Agni, constant master illuminator of heaven and earth, blazing and commanding terrible power, abundant with life giving energy, is seen on high, energising life for intelligent and industrious work on earth and shining with boundless light, and then relinquishing the day light and projecting the light far away ahead, passes on to the area of erstwhile darkness of the night. (Then night follows the day here and the day follows night there.)

Then again, overcoming the dark passage of the night with its illumination of light and manifesting the youthful daughter of great and vast heaven bearing the light of the sun up above, the same Agni shines with heavenly light constantly for the day.

The sun of auspicious light, dispeller of darkness of the night, has come up close at the heels of its love, the beauteous holy dawn now on the run on its own and thus Agni, prevailing with beautiful sun shine of the morning holds off the darkness for the day.

The mighty floods of the solar light version of this Agni, bursting forth like thunderous explosions of the voice of kindly, friendly, adorable, potent and sublime power, are fair and blissful reflections of the eternal Spirit, the Purusha, for the man of vision and knowledge on way to divinity.

Agni, beauteous and blissful, mighty and sublime presence whose brilliant rays and reflections radiate, resound and flow like roaring winds and thunderous lightning illumines the heavens with its highest lustre and with its sportive and most potent splendours reaches the summit of refulgent space.

अस्य शुभ्राः ददृशाः जहांमानस्य स्वनयुष्युद्रिः ।
पतंज्यिः रुणादिवुत्तमः वि रभद्रदिर्तिभाति विभवः ॥ ६ ॥

The mighty radiations of this solar Agni, universally vibrant and armed with thunder, roar with the winds while this divinest and most refulgent universal presence pervades and relentlessly energises the universe with its eternal, brilliant and resounding reflections and vibrations.

स आ वैः महिः न आ च सति दिवस्युष्यिव्यारार्तियुः
वर्त्याः । अग्रिः सुतुकः सुतुक्कभिरश्रव्वर्वस्यानी र्वर्भस्वां
एह गॉम्याः ॥ ७ ॥

7. Sa ā vakṣi mahi na ā ca satsi divasprthivyor-aratiryuvatyoh. Agniḥ sutuḥaḥ sutuḥbhiraśvai rabhasvadbhi rabhasvāḥ eha gamyāḥ.

Agni, bring us great wealth, honour and light of the world. Be with us on the yajna vedi, being radiant, vibrant and ever on the move between the joint world of heaven and earth. Agni, commanding light, illumination and instant motion, eloquent by expression, come by the waves of energy with the voice of thunder, come and bless us here on the vedi.
1. Pra te yakṣī pra ta iyarmi manma bhuvo yathā vandyo no haveṣu. Dhanvannīva prapā asi tvamagnan iyakṣave pūrave pratna rājan.

Agni, eternal, self-refulgent and universal spirit of light, I join you in yajnic self surrender, I send up my thoughts and prayers to you so that you may be always with us, adorable and present, in our yajnas and joint battles of life. Just as rain is the shower of bliss in the desert, so you are the giver of fulfilment to the yajnic celebrant and the needy supplicant.

2. Yaṁ tvā janāsā abhi saṁcaranti gāva uśṇamiva vrajaṁ yaviṣṭha. Dūto devānāmasi martyānām- antarmahāṁścarasi rocanena.

To you, most youthful Agni, people move and they join you for bliss as cows move to the warm stall to escape the cold outside. You are the saviour and vibrant presence at the heart of divinities and mortal humanity, and by your radiant presence and grandeur you exist and vibrate in every thing.
3. Śiśuṁ na tvā jenyam vardhayantī mātā bibharti sacanasyamānā. Dhanoradhi pravatā yāsi haryāñjigīṣase paśurivāvasṛṣṭah.

Just as a mother nurtures a promising child, loving it and raising it, so does mother earth hold and bear you, victorious, as fire and magnetic energy, augmenting you and loving to be with you, and you, radiating through the middle space, rush down, loving and ambitious to win and excel, like a captive animal set free.

4. Mūrā amūra na vayam cikitvo mahitvamagne tvamaṅga vitse. Śaye vavriścarati jihvayādan rerihyate yuvatīṁ viśapatiḥ san.

O wise one, enlightened presence, light and fire of knowledge and energy, we are ignorant, but you know and bear your grandeur, dear loving Agni. You pervade, vibrate and radiate, lying immanent in various forms, touch, lick and consume with your flames and rays various assimilative forms of existence, being master of the world.

Somewhere it arises and manifests in old and dried woods with the banner of smoke or streak of a falling star in dead worlds. New, adorable as well as ancient bright, it abides unattached in floods of water and vibrates and radiates in vapours and clouds like a mighty force of energy which intelligent knowledgeable people visualise, realise and generate in various ways for various uses and purposes.

6. \textit{Tanūtyajeva taskarā vanargū raśanābhirdaśa-bhir-abhyadhītām. Iyāṁ te agne navyasī manīṣā yukṣvā ratham na śucayadbhir-āṅgaiḥ.}

Like dedicated self-insulated researchers in pursuit of light and energy scholars study Agni with the application of light rays and ten senses and pranas and then say: this is the latest new knowledge about you, Agni, pray come and join us as a new chariot of achievement with brilliant rays of power for energy.

7. \textit{Brahma ca te jātavedo namaśceyam ca gīḥ sadamidvardhanī bhūt. Rakṣāḥ no agne tanayāṇi tokā rakṣotā nastanvo aprayucchan.}

O Agni, all pervasive, all knowing and born anew, this voice of knowledge, this offering is homage and this song of adoration may ever be progressive and rising for us. Pray protect and promote our children, protect our grand children, and protect and watchfully guard our body and mind without relent.

Mandala 10/Sukta 5

Agni Devata, Trita Aptya Rshi

The one deep oceanic treasure hold of all world’s wealth, manifestive in many ways, Agni inspires and expands our hearts with light and generosity, fills the middle space between heaven and earth with vapours of the cloud, and abides at the hidden centre of the mystery deep in the cloud.

Great, generous, animated and impregnated forces such as clouds, bearing the same one inner law and spirit of Agni, join with impetuously fast moving forces and, open ended, vibrant, expressive and expansive, observe the universal dynamics of the law, and at their centre continue to bear many other forms and forces of water and energy yet to develop and act further in evolution.

The forces of law and change and the forces of form and intelligence evolving things together in measure of form and time create every new form as a lovely baby and thus, with the mind of the cosmic seer, designer and maker, extend the genetic thread of Agni, the centre seed and centre hold of the entire world of moving and non-moving versions of cosmic reality.

Visionary scholars who know the paths of law and change in evolution study and apply the versions of Agni evolved and developed in latest form for the achievement of new and extended food, energy and knowledge of reality which heaven and earth both sustaining all forms of life feed for extension with inputs and refinements of the honey sweets of water and energy.

The sun rising and illuminating the world radiates seven rays of bright light and raises them from the honey sweets of mists of the morning in order to illuminate the world for all to see. The sun, of ancient and eternal birth, radiates them across the middle regions and, with love for the earth, shines over, meets and energises the nutritious forms of things on earth.

Seven are the bounds between good behaviour and evil set up by the wise. If one violates even one of them, he is a sinner. Agni is the pillar and centre hold of humanity. At the end of the journey, one, who in life has observed these bounds, reaches and rests in the shelter of the highest and closest, Agni, and abides in the highest states of being.

Being and Becoming, constant and mutable, both in the Supreme Absolute mystery, then the seed of perfect existence in the womb of Mother Nature, and then Agni, self-manifested at the earliest stage of creative evolution, all this, our father and mother as one, was in the ultimate infinite mystery of Brahma, -the Supreme Reality, the Absolute Soul, One with its own potential Prakrti.

   paryeti parivīto vibhāvā.

   This is that Agni under whose shelter with all protection the celebrant rises towards the attainment of total fulfilment and who, self-refulgent and gracious, infinitely abundant, transcends all with the highest and most blazing lights of divinity.

   ṛṭāvājasraḥ. Ā yo vivāya sakhyā sakhibhyo’parihvṛto atyo na saptiḥ.

   Agni who, self-refulgent and gracious, shines along with the light of divinities and light of cosmic stars, keeps the eternal laws and values of life and nature, and who, ever true, inviolable and unviolated, goes on with love and friendship with the friends and celebrants of divinity like energy itself, constantly.
Agni who rules over all the divine bliss and yajnic gifts of the world, who, life of the world, is the life giver and rules over lights of the dawn and maturation of wisdom, for whom oblations of yajna are offered into the fire with heart and soul, that Agni of the unviolated cosmic chariot sustains the universe by his omnipotent powers.

Agni, self-exalted by its own powers and majesty, loved and adored with Vedic hymns, awakens and inspires the divinities at the earliest and fastest. Charming and adorable, holy receiver and liberal giver, most highly worshipped with heart and soul, universally immanent and pervasive, Agni blesses the sages with divine gifts of holiness and grace.
5. \( \text{Tamusrām-indrāṁ na rejāmānam-agnim gīrbhir-namobhirā kṛṇudhvam. Ā yaṁ viprāso matibhir-grñanti jātavedasam juhvāṁ sahānām.} \)

That Agni, giver of prosperity, shining and radiating like light energy, you should study, realise and exalt with words of adoration and oblations of holy offerings. Agni, universally immanent and wakeful giver of strength and power, sages and scholars study and exalt with high words and application of mind and thought.

6. \( \text{Sanīṁ yasmin viśvā vasūni jagmurvāje nāsvāḥ sapṭivanta evaiḥ. Asme ūśirindravātatamā arvā-cīnā agna ā kṛṇuṣva.} \)

Agni, brilliant divinity and power, into which all wealth, honours and excellences of the world concentrate like stormy war horses in close formation by swift movements and converge in battle victory, pray create and bring us the latest, fastest and most powerful means of defence, protection and advancement.

7. \( \text{Adhā hyagne mahnā niṣadyā sadyo jajñāno havyo babhūtha. Tamā te devāso anu ketamāyannadhā-vardhanta prathamāsa ūmāḥ.} \)

Agni, leading light and power, instantly ignited, enflamed, rising and growing to admirable stature, come and abide in our heart and home with grandeur, grace
1. Svasti no divo agne prthivyā viśvāyurdhehi yajathāya deva. Sacemahi tava dasma praketairuruṣyā ṇa urubhirdeva śaṁsaiḥ.

Agni, divine power and presence, life of the world, bless us with life, health and food of universal order and quality, and bring us all round happiness and well being for yajnic fulfilment of our life. Protect and promote us, Spirit of wondrous powers and performance, by your wide, comprehensive and far reaching intelligence and open declarations of laws and values, and finally let us join you.

2. Imā agne matayas-tubhyain jātā gobhiraśvairabhi grṇanti rādhaḥ. Yadā te marto anu bhogamāna-ṇvaso dadhāno matibhiḥ sujāta.

Agni, Spirit of life and giver of light, these hymns of adoration spontaneously arisen in praise of your glory, with all our mind and senses, celebrate your gifts of success and achievement when, O shelter home... of life and giver of wealth, the mortal receives his reward according to your law, bears and manages it with his mind and senses in order and feels the divine awareness vibrating in the soul.

Agni, may our thoughts, prayers and adorations be effectual and give us fulfilment. O constant giver of light and life, home mate in yajna, whoever you protect and promote, grows higher in dedication to truth, divine law and yajnic living, blest with holy and bright sense and mind, abundance of food, energy and life’s joy. We pray may our life be good and prosperous with brightness day by day.

Refulgent with lights of life and knowledge, helpful and cooperative as a friend, ancient and eternal, constant yajaka by seasons, lover and accomplisher of yajna, such is Agni. People generate it with dexterity of hands, awaken it in the soul with constant practice and renunciation, and establish it among people as giver of life and sustenance.

O self-refulgent spirit of the universe, by yourself you energise the divine forces of nature in the higher regions of life and conduct the yajna of evolution. What can man, limited in knowledge, accomplish for you in this cosmic yajna? O lord omnipotent, as you have eternally carried the yajna according to time and seasons, similarly, O lord, carry on the yajna of the cosmic body.

7. Bhavā no agne’vitota gopā bhavā vayaskṛduta no vayodhāḥ. Rāsvā ca naḥ sumaho havyadātim trāsvota nastanvo aprayucchan.
Agni, pray be our protector and be our preserver against external fears and internal weaknesses. Be our protector of health and good age and bring us greater and higher strength and vigour. O lord of grandeur, give us the wealth and competence to carry on our yajnic homage to the divinities and humanity in the yajnic evolution of the divine cosmos. Save us, protect and promote us, without neglecting the well being of our physical existence.

Mandala 10/Sukta 8

Agni (1-6), Indra (7-9) Devata, Trishira Tvashtra Rshi

Agni, mighty abundant power and presence, goes forward with lofty lightning force and banner roaring over heaven and earth. It goes to the very heights and bounds of heaven in all directions and sub-directions and pervades in the middle regions in the depth of vapours and the mighty one grows mightier there at the heart of clouds.

2. Mumoda garbho vrṣabhaḥ kakudmānasremā vatsah śimīvāṁ arāvīt. Sa devatātyudyatāni kṛṇvantsvesu kṣayeṣu prathamo jīgāti.
Agni waxes with joyous energy, all pervasive and comprehending, mighty abundant, virile and invigorating, lovely as a child yet perfect and powerful as accomplisher, and expresses itself loud and bold from silence of the night to roar of the winds and thunder of the clouds. Thus does Agni go on, the quintessence of divine powers, raising and energising all presences, as the prime power and presence in its own universal dwellings over and across spaces (as agni, fire and magnetic force on earth, as vayu, electric energy in the middle regions, and as aditya, light in the high heavenly regions).

In the cosmic yajna of motherly earth and paternal heaven, Agni, the sun, enlightens the top regions, in the middle regions the oceanic vapours and vibrant winds hold it as electric energy, and in its lower paths of radiation on earth on the yajna vedi all physical forms of existence join its bright flames and radiations and benefit from it.

Uṣauṣo hi vaso agrameṣi tvaiṁ yamayorabhavo vibhāvā. Ṛtāya sapta dadhiṣe padāṇi janayan mitraṁ tanve svāyai.
Agni, Vasu, sustainer of life, generating the sun for the manifestation of your self, you rise first with every dawn, illuminate the day and distinguish both day and night, and for conduct of the yajna of existence you bear the seven flames of fire and seven rays of light.

You are the eye and guardian of the mighty yajnic order of the cosmos, and when you proceed for the dynamics of the order you become the great evolutionary force of the process of formative evolution. You are the omnipresent power that sustain the waters and energies of the cosmic evolution against devolution, and you are the inspirer and promoter of the yajamana who offers you the holy inputs of the evolutionary yajaka.

Agni, you are the leader and carrier of yajnic energies and energiser of the regions through which the energies rise and radiate, where you join and conduct the holy waves of energy onward. In the regions of light you sustain the blissful sun high and on the earth you enjoin your flames of fire to carry the fragrance up and around for the world.

Trita, the human soul, wearing three body covers of gross, subtle and causal forms in earthly existence, with the desire to win the love of this supreme paternal divinity by concentrative meditation, chooses to meditate on divinity within the self and, thus nestled in the parental presence praying as a child for protection, obtains the arms for defence against internal and external onslaughts of material involvement.

That divinely self realised soul, having got the paternal arms of defence and inspired by Indra, omnipotent supreme divinity, fights against the material adversaries and, having controlled and subdued the three headed seven bridled bondage of sense and mind, gets free of the bonds.

manyamānām. Tvāṣṭrasya cidviśvarūpasya gonām-ācakrāṇa-strīṇi śīrṣā parā vārk.

Indra, protector and saviour of the pious and true devotees, destroying the mighty lustrous, rising and proud adversaries of the child of cosmic materiality, breaks the bonds of seven fold sense-mind complex, destroys the three headed cover of physicality and sets the soul free.

Mandala 10/Sukta 9

Apah Devata, Trishira Tvashtra or Sindhudveepa
Ambarisha Rshi

1. Āpo hi śṭhā mayobhuvastā na ūrje dadhātana.
Mahe raṇāya cakṣase.

Apah, liquid energies of cosmic space, surely you are creators and givers of peace and joy. Pray inspire and energise us for the achievement of food and energy for body, mind and soul so that we may see and enjoy the mighty splendour of divinity.

2. Yo vah śivatamo rasastasya bhājayateha nah.
Uṣatīriva mātaraḥ.
Let us share here in body that nectar sweet taste of yours which is most blissful, be like loving mothers for their children.

3.

\[ \text{Tasmā arāṁ gamāma vo yasya kṣayāya jinvatha. Āpo janayathā ca nah.} \]

O holy waters, lovers of peace and pleasure of bliss, we come to you without delay for that pleasure, peace and enlightenment for the promotion and stability of which you move and impel people and powers and invigorate us too. Pray bless us with vigour and vitality.

4.

May the divine waters be for our peace and bliss for body, mind and soul and bring us showers of peace, protection and blessedness.

5.

\[ \text{Īśānā vāryānāṁ kṣayanīś-carṣaṇīnām. Apo yācāmi bheṣajam.} \]

Sovereign givers of the cherished gifts of our choice, harbingers of peace and settlement to people, I pray may waters of peace bring me health, sanatives and blessedness.

Soma in the waters touches and speaks to me: All sanatives reside in the waters which also contain the vital warmth and fire of Agni for peace and blessedness of all.

O waters, give me peace, stability and sanative vitality for my body so that I may see the sun for a long long time in life.

Holy waters, wash off all this negativity and whatever is ill or deficient in me, or whatever I disapprove and hate, or whatever wrong, false or indecent I may speak or do.

Today I have enjoyed the touch, taste and sanctity of waters in the right spirit. We are all one with the spirit of waters. O fire, divine Agni, master of the nectar spirit of waters, come, take me on to bless me. Consecrate me with valour and lustre into a new life.

Mandala 10/Sukta 10

Devata: Yama Vaivasvata (1, 3, 5-7, 11, 13) and Yami Vaivasvati (2, 4, 8-10, 12, 14) Rshi: Yami Vaivasvati (1, 3, 5-7, 11, 13) and Yama Vaivasvata (2, 4, 8-10, 12, 14)

This sukta is a beautiful poem in the form of a dialogue between Yama, the bright day, and Yami, the dark night. They are children of Vivasvan, the sun. The theme is desire of the night to commingle with the day, which is not possible as long as the earth rotates and revolves round the sun and the world continues to exist as it is. Yama and Yami can commingle only when all this variety of existence goes back into the unity of absolute essence beyond physicality. The dialogue thus is a nature myth which borders on the mysterious sublime.

Yama and Yami are treated as human characters. For this reason certain commentators as Sayana and others who follow Sayana and popular mythology interpret Yama and Yami as twin brother and sister. The theme then is reduced to a story of incestuous love unfulfilled. This interpretation is not correct because if Yama and Yami were brother and sister, the name of the sister would be Yama ending with long a, and not Yami. Yami can be the name of the female partner of a wedded couple (Panini, 1, 4, 48) and not of a twin sister. They are interpreted here as complementarities.
It may be further suggested here that Yama and Yami on the human plane need not necessarily be interpreted as a wedded couple either. They may better be interpreted as two close friends in love, Yami proposing and soliciting the love of Yama and Yama replying that the love possibly cannot be consummated because the day and night can never meet except at that point of time where meeting and parting are identical and simultaneous. And whenever the meeting would be possible in remote future, at pralaya, the time of dissolution then meeting, parting or separation all would have lost their meaning.

आ खित्सख्छायं सुख्या द्वारक्त्यां तिरं: पुरु चिद्दांबं मंगान्वान।
पितुनपात्त्वम दष्ट्वेत वृधा अधिः गमिं पतं दीर्घ्यां।। १ ।।

1. O cit sakhāyaṁ sakhyā vavṛtyāṁ tirah purū cidar-

Yami: With love and desire I come to my friend of my own choice, a friend who has crossed the vast ocean of life a long long way, and I solicit and pray that knowing and thinking of your fulfilment of familial obligation on earth, you beget a successor saviour of your father’s familial line and (in marriage) bless me with a child.
It may be further suggested here that Yama and Yami on the human plane need not necessarily be interpreted as a wedded couple either. They may better be interpreted as two close friends in love, Yami proposing and soliciting the love of Yama and Yama replying that the love possibly cannot be consummated because the day and night can never meet except at that point of time where meeting and parting are identical and simultaneous. And whenever the meeting would be possible in remote future, at pralaya, the time of dissolution then meeting, parting or separation all would have lost their meaning.

Yama: Your friend accepts not your proposal of love, friendship and union since you are not homogeneous with him in character and versatility of merit and maturity, in fact you are the contrary. Indeed the brave progeny of the great lord of life and energy of nature, refugent with light and wisdom, who maintain the light of heaven along with the earth take exception to such a proposal of union, in fact they watch, wonder and rule out such a proposal for union.

Yami: The immortal sustainers of earth and heaven do wish that every mortal should leave at least one descendant child. I have accepted your mind and soul as one with me, so pray come and join me in body as life giver husband of your child.
4. Na yat purā cakrāmā kaddha nūnamṛtā vadanto anṛtaṁ rapema. Gandharvo apsvapyā ca yośā sā no nābhiḥ paramam jāmi tannau.

Yama: Having observed the laws of divine nature and observing them now, what we have never done before how can we do now in violation of the truth and law? Gandharva, the sun, sustainer of the earth, is there in the middle region, the moon too is there, so are you, youthful night, as I am. But the earth is the common axis between you and me both, and that is the extreme opposition between you and me. (We cannot possibly meet while the earth is in orbit.)

5. Garbhe nu nau janitā dampati kardevastvaśṭā savitā viśvarūpāḥ. Nakirasya pra minanti vratāni veda nāvasya pṛthivī uta dyauḥ.

Yami: Our generator Savita, creator of the universe, Tvashta, maker of forms and Kah, sustainer of created forms, made us a couple in nature’s womb of generation itself as keepers of this earthly home. None can now violate the rules of the lord’s discipline, they don’t. Mother earth and father heavenly sun know of this complementarity of ours.

Who knows of this complementarity created at the dawn of creation? He alone knows. As of now, who witnessed it? Who can vouchsafe it now? Vast is the distance between east, the house of Mitra, sun and the day, and west, house of Varuna, presiding deity of the night. O wanton dear, having seen the people now, who can say anything about that?

I, the night, feel stricken with desire to share life with you, Yama, in one house and one bed and wish I should surrender my body as a wife does to the husband so that we may carry on the business of life like the two wheels of a chariot.

Yama: These watchful lights of divinities which sojourn here around in space neither stop nor deviate from their path, nor do they wink their eye. O love-lorn maiden, go soon to one of these, other than me and with him carry on the business of life like a chariot wheel.

9. Rātrībhirasmā ahabhirdaśasyet sūryasya caksur-muhurunmimīyāt. Divā prthivyā mithunā sabandhū yamīryamasya bibhryādajāmi.

If for a moment the lord of existence were to reduce the earth to the axis and its centre point and the light of the sun were exhausted along with days and nights, then like heaven and earth together we too may be together and the night may enjoy conjugal union with the day without any obstruction.

10. Ā ghā tā gacchānuttarā yugāni yatra jāmayāḥ kṛṇavannajāmi. Upa barbhṛi vrśabhāya bāhumanyamicchasva subhage pātim mat.

But O night, those times would follow long long ages hence when contraries would lie together and coexist without contradictions. Therefore for the time, O sweet and debonair, extend your hand of love to someone other than me, a real virile husband.

11. Kim bhrātāsadyadanāthām bhavāti kimu svasā yannirṛtirnigacchāt. Kāmamūtā bahvetadrapāmi tanvā me tanvāṁ saṁ pipṛgdhi.
Yami: What? then have you become as a brother to me? And I, deprived of love and care, become a sister, bereft, going away elsewhere in search of another? Lovelorn, I am babbling so much, pray join me, body with body. (Are you just a complementary support and I just a complementary way farer, nothing more?)

Yama: No, I would never touch your body with my body. The wise say that to go and meet a sister like that is a sin, to meet a corresponding way farer in orbit is a violation of the law of nature. O dear and fortunate one, go, be happy with another other than me and make it possible if you can. Your brother way farer does not love this proposal, no he cannot.

Yami: Sorry Yama, O day, it is a pity I did not know your mind and heart this way of nature. May be some one other than me too may join you like a girdle round your waist and embrace you like a creeper clinging by a tree.
14. Anyamū ṣu tvam yamyanya u tvam pari śvajāte libujeva vrksam. Tasya vā tvam mana icchā sa vā tavādhā kṛṣṇaśva saṁvidaṁ subhadrām ● १४ ●

Yama: Some other may embrace you too and you embrace him like a creeper by the tree. Love you the other man and his heart, may he too love you and yours. Thus may you create and achieve a happy union in love and good fortune.

Mandala 10/Sukta 11
Agni Devata, Angi Havirdhana Rshi

Generous, omnipotent and indomitable Agni, self-refulgent ruling Spirit of life in the systemic order of existence, with its natural art and intelligence and creativity, creates and showers the waters of growth and sustenance from the divine infinity of inexhaustible plenty of light, life and joy for the yajnic and generous powers of nature and humanity. The Spirit is Varuna, omniscient intelligence with universal discrimination, knowing the world as it is and the way it behaves. May the lovable and adorable Agni worshipped at yajna love, vṛṣṇa vṛṣṇe duduhe dohasā divaḥ payāṁsi yahvo aditeradābhyah. Viśvaṁ sa veda varuṇo yathā dhiyā sa yajñīyo yajatu yajñīyāṁ ṛtūn. ● १ ● join and bless the yajnic celebrants of life divine according to the seasons and its own love and judgement.

2. \textit{Rapadgandharvīrapyā ca yośanā nadasya nāde pari pātu me manahl. Iṣṭasya madhye aditirni dhātu no bhrātā no jyeṣṭhaḥ prathamo vi vocati.}

May the spirit and power of Agni blazing in the sun, thundering in the clouds, vibrating in vapours, flashing in lightning, burning in the vedi and roaring in rivers, protect, promote and inspire my mind. May imperishable Infinity, indomitable nature and inviolable policy establish us all at the heart of what we love to do, accomplish and worship in life and society, and may our chief, eldest, supportive and sustaining brother, speak to us and enlighten us in matters of Dharma, artha, kama and moksha.

3. \textit{So cinnu bhadrā kṣumati yaśasvatyuṣā uvāsa manave svarvaṭi. Yadīmuṣantam-uṣatāmanu kratum-agnim hotāram vidathāya jījanan.}

Instantly does that blessed, blissful, inspiring and elevating dawn, light of life, vision of wisdom, harbinger of honour, excellence and divine virtue, arise and shine in response to dedicated action bearing the bliss of heaven for all humanity when, in pursuit of corporate creative living and search for total freedom, people light the yajna fire for Agni, lover of the lovers of divinity and chief high priest of the yajna of life.

4. Adha tyāṃ drapsāṁ vibhvaṁ vicaksāṇaṁ virābharaḍiśitaḥ śyeno adhvare. Yadī viśo vrṇate dasmamāryā agnim hotāramadha dhīrajāyata.

When noble and dynamic people, lovers of life dedicated to yajna fire, choose to worship the potent and gracious Agni, chief of cosmic yajna and harbinger of infinite gifts, then the celebrant soul of the individual, or society or the ruler of the social order, with flying super-intelligence inspired by the spirit of divinity, achieves that same great and ecstatic power and enlightenment of universal order both on earth and in the spirit by social yajna and spiritual meditation, and by that Agni itself, omniscient, omnipotent and omnificent, becomes the inviolable foundation of human karma, and all possible faculties of thought and action arise for the achievement of success.

5. Sadāsi raṇvo yavaseva puṣyate hotrābhiragne manuṣaḥ svadhvarah. Viprasya vā yacchaśamā- na ukthyaṁ vājaṁ sasavāṁ upayāsi bhūribhiḥ.
Agni, just as food is dear and auspicious to the robust lover of health, so are you dear, exciting and inspiring for humanity, being the holiest presiding power of social and spiritual yajna served with hymns of invocation and adoration, you who, pleased with the sage’s songs of adoration, sharing and fulfilling the yajnic homage of devotees, visit and bless the celebrants with plenty and immensities of gifts of enlightenment as well as powers.

उदररयः पितरः जारः आ भगमियः तति हयुता हृत इष्टति।
विचरक्ति वहः स्वप्तस्व भृक्ष्यविष्यति असुरः वर्णत मृति॥ 6 ॥

Agni, raise and augment the parental powers of heaven and earth and extend the honour and excellence of humanity there like the sun, stealer of the night, which spreads its light in space. The yajamana performs yajna in honour of the divinities of nature and humanity and loves the divinities and yajna with his heart and soul. The ruler, burden bearer of the life of humanity, is up and active and adores and exalts you. The fire is rising and blazing bright, the high priest is inspired, and the life giving energies vibrate with action and intelligence.

यस्तः अग्नि सुमुक्ति मतः अ त्त्वस्हेसः सूना अति स प शृण्व।
इति द्धरानां वहस्मानां अश्रूषा स द्वृष्मां अम्बरान्भूषति च्यून॥ 7 ॥

Agni, creator and augmenter of power, patience and fortitude, the mortal who reaches and internalises your divine favour of knowledge and wisdom rises to immortal honour and fame and, having abundant food, energy and life’s graces of his choice and enjoying equipment of horses and fast transport, rises in light, lustre and splendour of life day by day.

Adorable Agni, when this holy assembly of your yajnic powers and virtues honoured among the divines meets and, O Lord self-refulgent and self-sufficient, you distribute the jewels of life among them, then pray bless us too with our share of the honour and excellence of life.

9. Śrudhī no agne sadane sadhasthe yuṣvā ratha-mamṛtasya dravitnum. Ā no vaha rodasī deva-putre mākir-devānāmapa bhūriha syāḥ.

Listen to our prayer, Agni, in this hall of yajna, harness your chariot replete with the nectar of immortality, bring us the wealth of earth and light of heaven both divine, let none of the divinities forsake us. Pray abide in our heart here and ever.

Mandala 10/Sukta 12

Agni Devata, Angi Havirdhana Rshi

Heaven and earth are the first and closest divinities by virtue of the cosmic order to listen to the holy chant and proclaim their response with light and generosity, when Agni, refulgent spirit of life and light of the world, chief priest and inspirer of cosmic yajna, calling mortals to the altar, settles in the vedi itself upfront, generating and accelerating the radiation of its own energy in the yajnic process being enacted.

May Agni, supreme power and presence of the spirit over divinities of heaven and earth, first and instant cognizant of our invocation and prayers, radiate and carry our homage and oblations to the divinities of nature by the laws of its cosmic order, Agni, the power with the banner of light and fragrance, blazing with the flames of fuel fire, adorable sublime, divine call for action and creative evolution, eternal and imperishable, loving and companionable by words of sincere adoration.

3. \(\text{Svāvṛgdevasyāmrtaṁ yaḍī gorato jātāso dhāra-yanta urvī. Viśve devā anu tat te yajurgurduhe yadenī divyaṁ gḥṛtam vāḥ.}\)

When the celestial nectar of this refulgent power’s own essence radiates, then the energies generated by it support and sustain both earth and heaven, and all divinities of nature and humanity receive and celebrate these gifts of Agni, the divine beauty, radiance and liquid energies which the light divine showers on them.

4. \(\text{Arcāmi vāṁ vardhāyāpo gḥṛtasnū dyāvābhūmī śṛṇutam rodasī me. Ahā yad dyāvo’suṇītimayan madhvā no atra pitarā śiśitām.}\)

Listen both heaven and earth my words of adoration : I celebrate you both heaven and earth as father and mother, givers of the liquid energies of life for the growth and progress of humanity and the environment, which, may the brilliant geniuses of humanity, taking forward the energy projects and policies of the world, promote day and night incessantly, and which, may the parental powers and leadership of mankind refine and augment to further the light and sweetness of life here on earth.

Does the ruling and refulgent Agni receive and accept our homage? Do we sometime overstep its laws and limits of benediction and experimentation? Who knows this secret we ought to know? Agni after all is a friend. Invoked and served with excess or remiss, it would still accept our homage and adoration and convey it to the divinities, and we pray let there be success and ultimate victory.

Incomprehensible is this mystery of immortal Agni and its power, for sure, since arising from the same one origin and being homogeneous, it grows to boundless variety of forms, which, nevertheless, for the man who knows the One Supreme, Agni, ordainer and controller of this existential variety, is simple and clearly understood. This man, O lord great and gracious, protect and promote without relent.

In whose being the divinities of nature and humanity rejoice in the yajnic order of existence, carry on their assigned tasks in the regions of light and in the heart and mind of humanity, and vest light in the sun and the dark tinge in the moon, that self-refulgent Agni, the sun and moon and all other divinities constantly adore and serve.

In whose illuminative yet mysterious being all divine powers exist and act, we know not well. May the same self-refulgent Agni, the divine powers reveal to us, simple, sincere and conscientious seekers of divinity, so that we may distinctly and intelligently know and serve the divine power. May Mitra, universal spirit of divine love, Aditi, imperishable Mother Nature, self-refulgent Savita, the sun, reveal the mysterious power and presence to us.

amṛtasya dravitnum. Ā no vaha rodasī devaputre mākir-devānāmapa bhūriha syāḥ.

Listen to our invocation and exhortation, Agni, in this spatial hall of cosmic yajna. Harness the chariot replete with the nectar of immortality, bring us the wealth of earth and light of heaven both divine. Let none of the divinities forsake us. Pray abide in our heart and soul here and for ever.

_Havirdhane Devata, Angi Harvirdhana or Vivasvan Aditya Rshi_

युज वां बहु पूर्वं नमाभिवि श्लाकं एतु पथ्यव सूरः। श्रृण्वनु विश्वं अमृतस्य पुत्रा आ य धामीनि दिव्यानि tस्युः: ॥ १ ॥

1. Yuje vāṃ brahma pūrvyaṁ namobhirvi śloka etu pathyeva sūreḥ. Śrṇvantu viśve amṛtasya putrā ā ye dhāmāṇi divyāṇi tasthuḥ.

For you, O heaven and earth, men and women, bride and bride groom, bearers of the holy materials of yajna, I chant the holy Vedic voice of divinity with fragrant oblations into the vedi in honour of Agni, lord self-refulgent. May this voice spread around like the spirit of light and joy of the enlightened. Let all children of immortality across the world listen, and listen all those too who abide in the celestial regions of light and divine yajna.

2. Yame iva yatamâne yadaitam pra vâm bharan mânusã devayantaä. Ā sïdataän svamu lokam vidâne svâsasthe bhavatamindave naä.

Living and working together like a pair of twins in this home, when you perform this yajna, then the people around dedicated to divinity would accept and honour you as a holy couple. Abide in your own beautiful place as an enlightened couple and, happy and healthy in your own joint life, live on for the peace and joy of yourselves and all of us and for self-fulfilment in the service of divinity.

By the discipline of body mind and soul, I would cover the five stages of earthly existence from the annamaya kosha through pranamaya, manomaya, vijnanamaya kosha to the anandamaya state of divine joy. I would cover the four stages of brahmacharya, grhastha, vanaprastha and sanyasa to total freedom. By meditation on Aum I would cover the physical, psychic and spiritual stages to the fourth stage of turiya, the state of transcendent happiness. Thus would I reach and abide in the centre of the divine order of existence in the state of absolute purity of the spirit.

4.  Devebhyah kamavrñīta mṛtyum prajāyai kamamṛtam nāvṛñīta. Brhaspatim yajñamakṛṇvata ṛśiṁ priyāṁ yamastanvam prārireçīt.

Which death does Brhaspati or Yama choose for the divines? What immortality does he not choose for ordinary humans? Choose Brhaspati, universal divine Seer as the high priest as well as the object of yajna, self-sacrifice, and Yama would either strengthen the dear body vestment of the soul, or, otherwise empty it out of life energy.

5.  Sapta kṣaranti śīsave marutvate pitre putrāso apyavīvatannrtam. Ubhe idasyobhayasya rājata ubhe yatete ubhayasya puṣyataḥ.

As children for the parent, seven poetic compositions of the Veda shower the light and bliss of eternal truth on the soul, master of pranic energies and abiding within at the heart in the body. Both thought and speech, heaven and earth inspire and elevate both divines and humans, both exercise both to rise and both strengthen and refine both orders of life, both coexist with the Law.

Know Yama, cosmic Time, refulgent, all ruling all comprehending Time, pervading all that moves forward, stars and planets all, watching, showing the paths of movement for all and outlasting them all. Temporal correspondent dimension of Vivasvan, Savita, ultimate light and supreme spirit, immanent and transcendent, eternal and infinite, ordainer and controller of the world, ultimate end and destination of all that is born, it is the creator, mover and consumer all in one. Worship it with service and homage of yajna (if you wish to survive as spirit through the flux).

Note: In Surya Siddhanta time is Cosmic Time and, secondly, it is temporal which is the temporal correspondent of things in flux. One is called Lokanamanta-krt-Kala which comprehends all things in existence, and the other is time in respect of calculation, ‘Kalanatmaka’.* Yama in this hymn is not the god of death, it is the child of the sun, Vivasvan. Therefore Yama should be interpreted as time, in both aspects, i.e., temporal aspect and beyond the temporal in its eternal aspect which is the space-time continuum of eternity.

2. Yamo no gātuṁ prathamo viveda naiśā gavyūtir-

Time, first and highest of existence, knows as it comprehends our course of life, and that course no one can avoid, escape, alter or alternate, and that same is the path by which our earlier forefathers went their way, and that is the path by which all who are born go their way, knowing according to their Dharma and choice. Honour that time with homage.

Terrestrial fire and bodily heat grow by food and fuel, Yama, life time and life energy, grows by pranic energy, and Brhaspati, spirit and enlightenment, grows by Vedic words and divine joy. These capacities which divinities of earth and heaven and divine enlightenment augment, and the divinities of the environment on earth and above, which humans augment, grow mutually, the divinities by svaha oblations, and humans by svadha offerings of food, and thus they rejoice.

TIME, FIRST AND HIGHEST OF EXISTENCE, KNOWS AS IT COMPREHENDS OUR COURSE OF LIFE, AND THAT COURSE NO ONE CAN AVOID, ESCAPE, ALTER OR ALTERNATE, AND THAT SAME IS THE PATH BY WHICH OUR EARLIER FOREFATHERS WENT THEIR WAY, AND THAT IS THE PATH BY WHICH ALL WHO ARE BORN GO THEIR WAY, KNOWING ACCORDING TO THEIR DHARMA AND CHOICE. TERRITORIAL FIRE AND BODILY HEAT GROW BY FOOD AND FUEL, YAMA, LIFE TIME AND LIFE ENERGY, GROWS BY PRANIC ENERGY, AND BRHASPATI, SPIRIT AND ENLIGHTENMENT, GROWS BY VEDIC WORDS AND DIVINE JOY. THESE CAPACITIES WHICH DIVINITIES OF EARTH AND HEAVEN AND DIVINE ENLIGHTENMENT AUGMENT, AND THE DIVINITIES OF THE ENVIRONMENT ON EARTH AND ABOVE, WHICH HUMANS AUGMENT, GROW MUTUALLY, THE DIVINITIES BY SVĀHA OBLATIONS, AND HUMANS BY SVADHA OFFERINGS OF FOOD, AND THUS THEY REJOICE.

4. Imaṁ yama prastaramā hi śidāṅgirobhiḥ pitṛ-bhiḥ saṁvidānaḥ. Ā tvā mantrāḥ kaviśastā vahantvenā rājan havīśā mādayasva.

O Yama, happy life time of health and joy, come in union with nourishing and protective energies of nature and vest those energies in my yajnic body system. Let the thoughts and health mantras of the sages come with you here with exhilarating and inspiring poetic voices, and then, shining and ruling in the system within with all these gifts, rejoice and make me happy too.

O Yama, life time of health and age, come with pranic energies of nature of various and versatile sort worthy of union and assimilation according to time and seasons, be happy and rejoice with me. I invoke the refulgent Sun also, your generative father, and pray come and be seated in the holy heart core of this life yajna of mine for a full age of good health and joy. (Reference may be made to Atharva Veda 3, 8, 1: May the sun come with its rays joining and entering the earth and energising it according to the seasons. Rgveda 1, 71, 2 throws further light on the science of health and solar rays in relation to the earth and global atmosphere.)

May the pranic energies radiated by the sun in the seasons of summer, rains, autumn, early winter, peak of winter and spring be good for us for body, mind and spirit. Lovable, companionable and promotive they are, worthy of reverence. May they be agreeable to us and give us a healthy environment, pleasant, benevolent and exhilarating.

7. Prehi prehi pathibhīḥ pūrvyebhiryatrā naḥ pūrve pitaraḥ pareyuḥ. Ubhā rājāṇa svadhayā madantā yamam paśyāsi varuṇam ca devam.

Go forward, O man, move on by the ancient paths of life universally carved for you, by which the forefathers too went forward to complete their course of life. Intelligent you are and you see both the divine sun and the divine night, the all comprehending time and the spirit of cosmic judgement, the solar region and the cosmic waters, divine, brilliant, ruling mighty in terms of their own powers and agreeable by your service to them and to the environment.

O soul, join with pitr pranic energies and go forward, join with another life time for future existence and go forward, join with your acts of obligation and dharmic choice and go forward to the highest spaces, having left this exhausted body, go to a new home, join with a vigorous bright body full of fresh life again. (This is the journey from one life time to another.)

Pitr pranic energies of solar radiation which have carried this soul, departed, gone away, carried around by sun rays, have prepared this new home for it, and Yama, cosmic order of time, with days, nights, dawns and liquid energies, has provided this another stage of its existential being.

10. Ati asārameyau śvānau caturakṣau ādavalau sādhunā pathā. Athā pitṛntsuvidatrāṁ upēhi yamena ye sadhamādaṁ madanti.

O soul, by paths of divine law and rectitude, go forward to a life of day-night cycle, each being of twelve hour duration of colourful beauty, both children of dynamic energy, alert and on the move, lighted by the sun and moon. Then enjoy the auspicious rays of the sun which always rejoice with the passage of time.
O soul, join with pitr pranic energies and go forward, join with another life time for future existence and go forward, join with your acts of obligation and dharmic choice and go forward to the highest spaces, having left this exhausted body, go to a new home, join with a vigorous bright body full of fresh life again. (This is the journey from one life time to another.)

O time, those two day and night are your guardian sentinels of twelve hour duration each, all watching, protective companions of humanity on way. O ruling lord of light, to their care entrust this soul. Let there be peace and well being for it all round, bless it with good health and freedom from sin and ailment.

Those two night and day are the most perceptive, abundant and alert, mighty strong and relentless watchdogs of time immediately close ahead and on the heels of people. Let them now again give us happiness and well being full of bubbling energy so that we may see the light of the sun anew, giver of life and enlightenment.

Prepare the soma for Yama, lord of the light and life of cosmic order, offer the homage of soma oblations to Yama, the holy soma-yajna goes to Yama, with all its beauty and power conducted by the holy fire, divine messenger between the devoted yajakas and the sun.

\[\text{Yamāya ghṛtavaddhavir-juhota pra ca tiṣṭhata.} \]
\[\text{Sa no deveśvā yamad dirghamāyuḥ pra jīvase.} \]

Offer holy homage full of ghrta to Yama for harmony between your life and the cosmic order of time and nature, and abide in that mood and state of karma. And may the lord vest strength and efficiency in our body, senses and mind for a long life of good health.

\[\text{Yamāya madhumattamaṁ rājyaḥ hūvyaṁ jūhātana.} \]
\[\text{Idāṁ namaḥ ṛṣibhyāḥ pūrvajebhyāḥ pūrveebhyāḥ pathikṛdbhyāḥ.} \]

Offer the sweetest and holiest honeyed oblations to Yama, Lord of time and refulgent sovereign of the cosmic order. This homage is in honour of the sagely seers, the forefathers, the ancients who carved the paths of life for us.

\[\text{Trikadrukebhiḥ patati ṣaḷurvīr-ekamid-brhat.} \]
\[\text{Triṣṭubgāyatṛi chandāṃsi sarvā tā yama āhitā.} \]
One, pervading the variety of existence by three dimensions of time, present, past and future, and by six seasons of the year, three lokas of space, earth, sky and the heavens, and six directions, rules alone. Trishtubh, Gayatri and all other Chhandas abide in the One Word, Aum. All these orders of omniscience, omnipresence and omnipotence abide in One, emerge from That and converge into That, Yama, Time.

Mandala 10/Sukta 15
_Pitarah Devata, Shankha Yamayana Rshi_

Pitaras in this hymn means nature’s life giving, life preserving and life promoting pranic energies, especially the sun rays which start an invigorating yajna with the dawn and continue it upto sun set. It also means the flames and fragrances of yajna rising from the vedi and joining the natural energies to enhance the efficacy of nature’s recuperative power for life. On the human plane it means the seniors, the enlightened, the teachers and social workers, men of experience, vision and judgement who contribute to the welfare and progress of society with, their actions and ideas. It does not, however, rule out pitaras of human tradition and history who continue to live by their ideas and ideals they contributed for the progress of society, to whom we feel grateful for their living guidance even after their departure.

1. _Udiratamavara ut parasa unmadhyamah pitarah somyasah_. Asum ya iyuravrk a rtajnaaste no vantu pitaro haveшу.
May the sun rays of the morning, mid-day and evening time which radiate and inspire vital soma energy into the things they touch rise in power and efficacy and promote the strength and joy of life. May the wise seniors of the average, high and middle order, harbingers of peace and joy, friendly, dynamic scholars and scientists of yajna who know the cosmic order and the laws of nature and living truths of life rise, inspire us with energy and enthusiasm for life, and may all these saviour and protective powers of nature and humanity strengthen us to defend and promote ourselves in internal and external challenges of life and the environment.

Let this yajnic homage today be for the sun rays and pranic energies radiating from the east and west, for the energies which abide in the earthly sphere and in space and skies, and for the energy which vibrates in the living forms of nature anywhere and in humanity.

I know and join the holy, wise, generous and parental powers of humanity. I know the stable, radiative and expansive power and presence of yajna and its creative effects. O scholars and scientists of yajna who join the creative science here on the vedi with your inputs of knowledge and expertise, come and partake of the freshness and fragrance of fruits produced and given by yajna.

4. \[\text{Barhiśadāḥ pitara ātyarvāgimā vo havyā cakṛmā juṣadhvam. Ta ā gatāvasā śantame-nā’thā naḥ śaṁyorarapo dadhāta.}\]

O parental powers of humanity, scholars of the science of atmospheric and environmental management of the globe, for all round peace and protection of life here and hereafter, we have prepared these yajnic materials for you for homage which please accept and use with love and faith. O masters, come always with peaceful modes of universal protection, bear and bring us showers of peace and freedom from sin, violence and fear.

5. \[\text{Upahūtāḥ pitaraḥ somyāśo barhiśyesu nidhiṣu priyeṣu. Ta ā gamantu ta iha śruvantvadhi bru-vantu te’vantvasmān.}\]

Senior venerable sages eminent in the science of soma and yajnic production of the dearest valuable wealth forms for peace and progress, invoked and invited with reverence, pray, come here to the yajna, listen to our ideas and words, speak, consider and discuss, and protect and promote us with knowledge.

6. Ācyā jānu dakṣiṇato niṣadyemaṁ yajñamabhi grñīta viśve. Mā hiṁsiṣṭa pitaraḥ kena cinno yadva āgāḥ puruṣatā karāma.

O saviour sages of the world, with knees bent in honour of the vedi, please sit on our right, accept and accomplish the yajna with specific words, and if we happen to transgress some manners or ritual, or are impertinent to you because, after all, we are human, pray be kind and do not in any way hurt or punish us.

The radiations of sun rays in the lights of the dawn bear wealth and energy for the man of charity, and wealth and comfort for his children too. May the sages seated on the vedi realise and bring that wealth and energy for us and our future generations.

Those eastern lights of the dawn which awaken and inspire us bear pranic energies radiant and replete with life energy of the sun, treasure source of living soma. May the sun shining and rejoicing with those very bright rays accept and revitalise our oblations offered into the holy fire at dawn.

Those bright rays of the dawn, divine, sharp and inspiring, which come to earth thirsting for holy food and water, with those very rays, generous, truly divine, poetically sublime and soul satisfying, conveying pranic energies with morning, mid-day and evening warmth and heat of the day, O yajna fire, come and bless our yajna for the gift of rain.

10. Ye satyāso havirado havīṣpā indreṇa devaiḥ saratham dadhānāḥ. Āgne yāḥi sahasraṁ devavandaiḥ paraiḥ pūrvaiḥ pitṛbhir-gharmasadbhiḥ.
O yajnic fire, arise and come with those true and pervasive, oblation consuming, water promoting, electric energy borne eastern and western sun rays along with divine forces of nature which are laden with pranic energies of a thousand mind and sense inspiring sanatives pervasive in the light of the sun from dawn to dusk.

O senior sages and scientists of solar energy and yajnic production committed to policies of positive and creative technology, come here, take your positions assigned and reserved in the programme, accept the homage and yajnic materials offered and, by the conduct of yajna, bless us with wealth, power and honour worthy of brave humanity for generations.

O divine fire present in everything born, lighted, raised and developed to flaming power, you catalyse refine and energise the holy materials to tremendous power and fragrance. O brilliant divinity, consume the materials offered, feed them to the sun rays, and may they too further refine, energise and spread them all around in space for creative purposes of nature for life on earth.

O Jataveda, all pervasive all knowing Agni, those sun rays which are here, those which are not here, those which we know of and those which we do not know of, you know them all and, as far as you pervade and know, pray accept our oblations of yajna with pleasure, make them good, and turn them to universal power and goodness by radiant rays of the sun for the benefit of all humanity and all life on earth.

Those rays of the sun which carry the heat of fire, in summer, and those which do not carry the heat of fire, in winter, all these which radiate in the spaces between the solar region and the earth and bring joy to people by showers of rain, by all these, O self-refulgent Agni, strengthen to the utmost, energise and refine this body which is the seat of life energy.

Mandala 10/Sukta 16

Agni Devata, Damana Yamayana Rshi

1. Mainamagne vi daho mabhī śoco māsyā tvacaṁ cikṣipo mā śarīram. Yadā śṛtāṁ kṛṇavo jātavedo ’themenam pra hiṇutāt pitṛbhyah.

   Agni, do not burn it off wholly, do not consume it entirely, do not cast away its form, do not cast away its body entirely. When its gross body is reduced to ash, then, O Jataveda, all pervasive, all knowing Agni, deliver it to the sun rays.

2. Śṛtāṁ yadā karasi jātavado ’themenam pari dattāt pitṛbhyah. Yadā gacchātyasunītimetāma-thā devānāṁ vaśanīrbhavāti.

   O Jataveda, when you have reduced its gross body to ash and delivered it to the sun rays, when it comes to the process of transmigration to higher constituent elements, then it is subjected to the laws of other divinities.
3. Sūryaṁ cakṣurṣurgačchatu vātamātmā dyāṁ ca gaccha pṛthivīṁ ca dharmaṁ. Apo vā gaccha yadi tatra te hitamośadhiṣu prati tiṣṭhā śarīraiḥ.

Let the eye go the sun. Let the soul go to the wind or to the region of light or to the earth in consequence of its dharmic performance, or, if such be its interest and desire, let it go to the water or reach in herbs and trees there to stay in mere body form.

4. Ajo bhāgastapasā tāṁ tapasva tāṁ te śocistapatu tāṁ te arciḥ. Yāste śivāstanvo jātavedastābhirvahaināṁ sukṛtāmu lokam.

O Jataveda, that part of human personality which is unborn and eternal is the soul, purify and season it to its original purity by the heat of your divine discipline.
May your light and fire purify and shine it to its purity and lustre beyond the dross. And by those divine natural potentials of yours which are holy and blissful, pray carry this soul to noble body forms in blessed regions of life.

5. Ava sṛṇa punaragāṁ pitṛbhyaṁ yasta āhutaścarati svadhābhīḥ. Āyurvasāṇaṁ upa vetu śeṣaḥ saṁ gacchatāṁ tanvā jātavedaḥ.

O Agni, Jataveda, form and shape out once again from material elements and energy what, having been offered to you in the fire, roams around vested with its own potentials. The soul that remained alive after giving up its material vestments in the fire may, we pray, assume a life time of earthly existence and go about with the body once again doing its karmic business as earlier.

6. Yat te kṛṣṇah śakuna ātutoda pipīlaḥ sarpa uta vā śvāpadaḥ. Agniśadvīdādagaṃ kṛṇotu somaśca yo brāhmaṇān ā viveśa.

   O soul, in the course of life, whatever fear, harm or injury darkness, dark ones, birds, beasts, insects or reptiles may do to your body, may Agni and Soma and Soma science known to experts heal that and restore you back to good health.

7. Agnervarma pari gobhirvyayasva sam prorṇuṣva pīvasā medasā ca. Net tvā dhṛṣṇurharasā jarhṛ-ṣaño dadhrgvidhakṣyan paryaṅkhayāte.

   O soul, from fire itself, from the flames themselves, get another body form anew and cover it with flesh and marrow, and let not this fire, bold and crackling with blaze of power, embrace you and burnt you out.

8. Imamagne camasaṃ māṃ vi jihvaraṃ priyo devānāṃ somaṃ. Eṣa yaṃ camaso devaṃstasmin devā mādayante.

   O Agni, do not disturb and dislodge this new body form which is a darling of the divines and the sun rays of light and bliss, this body in which the immortal divinities rejoice and find their fulfilment with yajnic food and drink.
8. Imamagne camasāṁ mā vi jihvarah priyo devānāmuta somyānām. Eṣa yaścamasō devapā-nastasmin devā amṛtā mādayante.

O Agni, do not disturb and dislodge this new body form which is a darling of the divinities and the sun rays of light and bliss, this body in which the immortal divinities rejoice and find their fulfilment with yajnic food and drink.

9. Kravyādamagnim pra hiṇomi dūraṁ yamarājñō gacchatu ripravāhaḥ. Ihaivāyamitaro jātavedā devebhyo havyam vahatu prajānan.

I set in motion the fire which consumes the corpse, and may it, carrier of the material body, go up with it and reach the regions of life consuming spirit of Time. And here itself the other fire, Jataveda, all pervasive fire of life, all aware, may bring in the food for life for the sustenance and satisfaction of the divinities.

10. Yo agniḥ kravyāt praviveṣa vo grhamimam paśyanitaram jātavedasam. Tam harāmi pitṛyajñāya devam sa gharmaminvāt parame sadhasthe.

The fire that turns away from the corpse consuming fire enters your homes and, watching this other all pervasive fire, I give up that and take to this brilliant fire for honour to ancestors and the environment. May it carry our yajna to the sun in the highest heaven.

Yo agniḥ kravyavāhanah pitṛn yakṣadṛtāvṛdhah. Predu havyāṇi vocati devebhyaśca pitṛbya ā.

The fire, participant of natural law, which carries the elements of the corpse to nature, pervades in senior humanity and vibrates in natural energies too. The same fire carries the yajnic homage and proclaims the gifts for the ancestors, for the divines and for nature.

Uśantastvā ni dhīmahyuśantah samidhīmahi. Uśannuṣata ā vaha pitṛn haviṣe attave.

With love and passion we hold you at heart for thought and reflection. With love and faith we light you together and celebrate. You too with love and longing come and bring our loving seniors and blissful energies to receive our offerings and universally disperse them.

Yaṁ tvamagnē samadahastamu nirvāpayā punah. Kiyāmbvatra rohatu pākadūrvā vyalkaśā.

O fire, leave the place, extinguish the heat, let it cool where you scorched and burnt it, and let it be fresh with the growth of watery plants, luxuriant grass and leafy herbs.

14. Šíteku śitikāvati hlādike hlādikāvati.
Maṇḍūḍyā su sam gama imām svagnim harṣaya.

O cool grass, O refreshing land, growing with luxuriant grass, O delightful spot covered with delightful flowers, rejoice with beauty and grace, let this place of holy fire be renewed, joyous and gracious.

original and intangible essence into the tangible creative form and power in existence.

Transforming the original immortal constant Prakṛti in favour of mutable mortal forms of existence, the evolutionary power of divinity, creative and dynamic Prakṛti, offers this form of itself to self-refulgent creator and master, and then in that dynamic state as it is then, it bears a twin pair of evolved existence, the Ashvins, positive-negative complementarities of the evolutionary circuit of nature’s dynamics, and produces procreative couples such as Agni and Soma, energy and matter, prana and rayi, male and female, presence and absence (as the two may be described from different points of view).

O man, may Pusha, lord of life and nourishment, omniscient sustainer and pervasive protector of the world, whose light and life of forms never goes out of existence, inspire you and lead you on the right path from here. May he, leading lord self-refulgent Agni, dedicate you to noble parents and brilliant generous teachers.

5. Puṣemā āśā anu veda sarvāḥ so asmān abhaya-yatamena neṣat. Svastidā āghṛṇīḥ sarvavī- ro’prayucchan pura etu prajānan.

Pusha knows all these paths and directions of life and he fulfils all our hopes and ambitions too. May he lead us on the most fearless path of progress. May he, giver of all round good and well being, refulgent and vigilant, all mighty, all knowing, be our pioneer and path maker without neglect or relent.

पर्याः पुष्मायणर्जनिष्ठ पूषा पर्याः पद्वः पर्याः पृष्ठव्या: । उभ अभि पियतम सुधस्त्र आ च परा च चरति पजानन ॥ ६ ॥

Pusha inspires, strengthens and guides humanity to know and follow the best paths of life and reach the goal, the paths to heaven and the paths over earth. He pervades the dearest paths of progress here and the paths to freedom there and, all knowing and emerging in consciousness, guides us here and beyond.

Aspirants to knowledge and the light of divinity invoke Sarasvati, voice of divinity, they offer homage of faith and devotion in psychic and spiritual yajna which expands their intelligence and vision. Men of noble action invoke Sarasvati, ever flowing Spirit of Knowledge, for strength of will and direction. May Sarasvati grant cherished gifts of knowledge, will and vision to the generous yajakas.
with homage of faith and devotion and the inner vibrations of mind and soul, pray come, abide in this inner seat of mind and consciousness, bless us with divine joy and bring us food and energy free from sin and pollution for the enlightenment of mind and soul.

O divine Sarasvati, whom venerable sages dedicated to meditative yajna in mind and soul invoke and serve in right earnest, we pray, bless the yajamanas with their share here of food and nourishment, wealth, honour and excellence, and the vision and voice of divinity loved and sought for by thousands of seekers.

May the fluid and vibrant currents of cosmic energy, original mother source of nature’s dynamics of evolution, which, divine and inviolable, soaked in goodness and grace, wash away the entire sin, evil and pollution of life, purify and sanctify us with sweetness and beauty of manners and culture. Thus purified and sanctified, I rise and go on in life.
11. Drapsaścaskanda prathamāṇ anu dyūnimāṃ ca yonimanu yaśca pūrvaḥ. Samānaṃ yonimanu sanīcarantāṃ drapsaṁ juhomyanu sapta hotrāḥ.

The elixir of life showers on the earliest refulgent worlds by the dawn of days, on this world and this life also as did ever before. The same elixir of life, the same radiant sun, the same soma element of divine nature, vibrant in this world and this life, I invoke and celebrate with all my seven faculties in honour of the spectrum of its beauty and divinity.

O Savita, lord giver of life and light of the world, the soma nectar of life that showers ever from divinity, that vigour and inspiration which is released from your hands and from the loving heart of exuberant Mother Nature filtered through her pure sattvic elements in the cosmic yajna, that nectar received at heart in the soul, I offer in homage with prayer.

O Soma, lord of life, giver of light and bliss, your nectar of divinity that vibrates every where, the radiations of light and spiritual awareness expansive here in existence and existent there in absolute time and space, that very nectar of life and light of existence, may Brhaspati, this generous spirit of infinite knowledge and speech, shower upon us by the Word and vibrations of divinity for our fulfilment of life here and hereafter.

May the oshadhis, herbs and trees, which receive the sap and sweetness of their sustenance from sun light and moon rays, be full of exuberant Soma nectar of life. May this fluent song and speech of mine be full of love and sweetness of life’s joy. May this inspiring essence of the liquid flow of natural energies be full of universal nectar, and may all these with that nectar energise, purify and sanctify me.

Mandala 10/Sukta 18

Mṛtyu (1-4), Dhata (5), Tvashta (6), Pitrmedha or Prajapati (7-14) Devatah, Sankusuka Yamayana Rshi
1. Param mṛtyo anu parehi panthāṁ yaste sva itaro devayānāṁ. Cakṣuṣmate śṛṇvate te bravīmi mā naḥ prajāṁ rīriṣo mota vīrān.

O Death, go off to that other path that’s yours, of mutability other than the path of divinity. You have eyes to see and ears to hear, and to you I say: Do not hurt our people, do not destroy our brave.

2. Mṛtyohṛ padam yopayanto yadaita drāghīya āyuḥ prataram prajayā dhanena śuddhāḥ pūtā bhavata yajñīyāsah.

O travellers on the path of divinity, dedicated performers of yajna, as you go forward effacing the onset of death and living a long life of high order of happiness and virtue, may you be blest with wealth and noble progeny, may you be pure and sanctified at heart and in the soul.

3. Ime jīvā vi mṛtairāvavrtrannabhūdbhadrā devahūtirno adya. Prāṅco agāma nṛtaye hasāya drāghīya āyuḥ prataram dadhānāḥ.

May these living people, (we all), be free from the shades of death in life. May our dedication and service to divinity be auspicious and fruitful today. May we go forward living a long life of high order of virtue full of the joy of song and dance and laughter.

O Death, go off to that other path that's yours, of mutability other than the path of divinity. You have eyes to see and ears to hear, and to you I say: Do not hurt our people, do not destroy our brave.

O travellers on the path of divinity, dedicated performers of yajna, as you go forward effacing the onset of death and living a long life of high order of happiness and virtue, may you be blest with wealth and noble progeny, may you be pure and sanctified at heart and in the soul.

May these living people, (we all), be free from the shades of death in life. May our dedication and service to divinity be auspicious and fruitful today. May we go forward living a long life of high order of virtue full of the joy of song and dance and laughter.

I set this border line of order for these people. May none of these trespass this into the other territory of death. May they live a long age of full hundred years, bearing though the fact of death within with adamantine walls of resistance by the discipline of health.

Just as days follow in succession, the latter following the former and the former living on in the latter, just as seasons go on by order of the seasons of the year, just as the successor does not and cannot forsake the predecessor, so in the same order, O lord ordainer and sustainer of humanity, order and sustain the life line of these people.

Go forward high on course of life choosing a full age unto completion and fulfilment in the order of succession and renewal from former to latter, living in discipline actively, all of you, as many as you are. Nobly born here in life, living together in piety with love and devotion as you are, Tvashtä, the cosmic maker, ordains a full life of long years for you to live in joy.

Let these women, noble wives living with their husbands, enter and live in their homes, and let them, decked with jewels with beauty aids, creams and unguents, free from sorrow and ill health and blest with noble children, move forward high in life.

Rise, O woman, to a new phase of life, your husband is now dead and gone. Come take the hand of this man from among the living who offers to take your hand and maintain you, and live in consort with this other and new husband of yours for a life time.

MANDAL - 10 / SUKTA - 18

Taking the arms from the hand of the dead warrior for the sake of our social order and its strength and glory, here itself and now, you and we all blest with brave heroes shall overcome all our rivals and enemies of the world.

10. Upa sarpa mātaram bhūmim-etāmuru vyacasaṁ prthivīṁ suśeṣvām. Úrṇamradā yuvatirdaṅśiṅā-vata eṣā tvā pātu nirṛterupasthāt.

O man, go to this land, this motherly earth wide and expansive, kind and gracious. Soft, generous and youthful for the man of generosity and yajnic dedication, she would protect you from the clutches of adversity and premature death and promote you with prosperity.

O mother earth, receive this soul with elation, stop it not, hurt it not. Be a nursing mother for this child, be soft and caressing with love and affection. Just as mother covers the child with the hem of her sari, so, O mother earth, cover, caress and protect it to maturity.
May the earth stay abundant, generous and prosperous, giving life sustenance and shelter to uncountable souls which may live in here with peace and joy. O mother, may your homes be full of love and abound in food and delicacies, and may they always provide peace, pleasure and comfort for humanity.

O man, for you I sustain this earth up in space, for you I place this global atmosphere around, and this I would not hurt or dislodge. This well pillared, well sustained planet of clay the rays of the sun would sustain, and the sun would sustain and vitalise the homes of life.

O cows, fluent energies, flowing waters and radiant rays of light, O dynamic people, all treasure holds of wealth, go round and come, go not elsewhere, come bearing wealth of life. Agni and Soma, fire and water energy, Punarvasu, wealth in circulation, bring in wealth for us from all round.

O ruler, keep the dynamics in motion and circulation, control them back and forth. Let Indra, the controller, keep them in controlled circulation. Let Agni, the enlightened, keep them in radiation, watch them and keep them in ordered motion.

In the days ahead, as the archers fix feathers on the arrow to hit the target, so may I concentrate my attention with the arrow-like chant of Aum to reach the target of Divinity and, like a horse controlled by bridle reins, direct my voice of prayer in focus on the deity.
In the days ahead, as the archers fix feathers on the arrow to hit the target, so may I concentrate my attention with the arrow-like chant of Aum to reach the target of Divinity and, like a horse controlled by bridle reins, direct my voice of prayer in focus on the deity.

Mandala 10/Sukta 19

Apah or Gavah Devata, Mathita Yamana or Bhrgu Varuni or Chyavana Bhargava Rshi

1. Ni vartadhvan mānu gātā’ smāntisākta revatiḥ. Agnīṣomā punarvasū āṃśa dhārayataṁ rayim.

   O cows, fluent energies, flowing waters and radiant rays of light, O dynamic people, all treasure holds of wealth, go round and come, go not elsewhere, come bearing wealth of life. Bring us showers of abundant food and energy. Agni and Soma, fire and water energy, Punarvasu, wealth in circulation, bring in wealth for us from all round.

2. Punarenā ni vartaya punarenā nyā kuru. Indra eṇā ni yacchatvagnirenā upājatu.

   O ruler, keep the dynamics in motion and circulation, control them back and forth. Let Indra, the controller, keep them in controlled circulation. Let Agni, the enlightened, keep them in radiation, watch them and keep them in ordered motion.
3. Punaretā ni vartantāmasmin puṣyantu gopatau. Ihaivāgne ni dhārayeha tiṣṭhatu yā rayiḥ.

Let these dynamic forces in circulation come back again, grow and rise in this social system governed by the ruling power. Here itself, O Agni, keep their reins on hold, and let the wealth centre here in the soul of the system.

4. Yanniyānaṁ nyayanaṁ samñjñānam yat parāyaṇam. Āvartanaṁ nivartanaṁ yo gopā api tam huve.

Of the people in the society, of the dynamics of wealth in the socio-political system, of the fluctuations of mind and sense in the individual personality, the movement outward, movement inward, conscious balance and equilibrium, the expense out again, withdrawal, release and hold, I watch, and I invoke and call up whoever is the keeper, ruler and master.

5. Ya udānaḥ vyayanaṁ ya udānaḥ parāyaṇam. Āvartanaṁ nivartanaṁ api gopā ni vartatām.

Whatever the expense out, whatever the investment out, revolvement of wealth, energy and assets, whatever the total state of economy in action, let the managing powers constantly watch and control.

O constant, vibrant, ever present lord, turn to us. O lord ever vigilant, inspire us to turn to you. Four are the directions of the earth. From all these, let the wealth of the world, the energies of nature, the fluctuations of our mind and senses turn to us, revolve, concentrate and vibrate there and here.

Mandala 10/Sukta 20

Agni Devata, Vimada Aindra or Prajapatya, or Vasukrt Vasukra Rshi

1. Bhadram no api vātaya manah.

   O Agni, lord of light, inspire and enlighten our mind to turn to divinity and concentrate there.

2. Agnimūle bhujāṁ yaviṣṭhaṁ śāsā mitraṁ durdhāriṁ. Yasya dharmantsvarenīḥ saparyanti māturodhāḥ.

   I invoke, celebrate and worship Agni, ever most youthful and powerful of the divine givers of life’s joys, friend, irresistible in law and justice, in whose order and Dharma all earthly people and divine forces of light serve, live and enjoy life as on the mother’s breast.

   Agni, refulgent giver of light and sustenance, profound abode of love, power and kindness, source of light and knowledge, whom people exalt with prayer

Mandala 10/Sukta 20
Agni Devata, Vimada Aindra or Prajapatya, or Vāsukṛt Vāsukra Rṣi

1. Bhadrāno api vātaya mananā. O Agni, lord of light, inspire and enlighten our mind to turn to divinity and concentrate there.

2. Agnimūte bhujān yaviḥsūs mitraḥ durdhārṇautum. Yasya dharmantsvarenµ¬ saparyanti mūtārµudh¬. I invoke, celebrate and worship Agni, ever most youthful and powerful of the divine givers of life's joys, friend, irresistible in law and justice, in whose order and Dharma all earthly people and divine forces of light serve, live and enjoy life as on the mother's breast.

3. Yamāsāpanābhōṣāketuā vardhayanti. Bhrōjate ÜreÄidan. Agni, refulgent giver of light and sustenance, profound abode of love, power and kindness, source of light and knowledge, whom people exalt with prayer and adoration shines in glory.

like the earth, Agni pervades and vibrates upto the bounds of heaven. Omniscient poet and universal visionary, he gives the light of lightning to thunder and the clouds of rain.

5. Juṣaddhavyā mānuṣasyordhvasťasthāvṛbhvā yajñe. Minvantsadma pura eti. Accepting with love the homage of humanity, Agni abides in yajna and shines high by flames of fire and, transcending the hall of yajna, goes on vibrating across the spaces.

6. Sa hi kṣemo haviryajñāḥ śrusṭīdasya gātureti. Agnim devā vāśimantam. Agni is the source of peace and well being, receiver of yajnic homage, adorable in yajna. Unimpeded is his course, instant his motion, infinite the ways he goes by and ultimate his light and voice to which the divines reach for bliss.
7. Yajñāsāham duva iṣe’gnim pūrvasya śevasya.
   Adreḥ sūnum-āyum-āhuḥ.

   I love and adore Agni, the refulgent power that conducts the spiritual and social yajna of the highest order. A celebrity worthy of worship, inexhaustible treasure of eternal joy, inspirer of dedicated devotees, life giver, indeed the very life of existence as they call him.

8. Naro ye ke cāsmadā viśvet te vāma ā syuḥ.
   Agnim haviṣa vardhantaḥ.

   Those leading lights of humanity among us who serve and exalt Agni with yajnic offerings of homage may, we pray, enjoy your love and favour.

9. Krṣṇaḥ śveto’ruṣo yāmo asya bradhna ṛjra uta śoṇo yaśasvān.
   Hiraṇyarūpam janitā jajāna.

   Black, white and red is the order of this Agni moving the world forward, great bond maker, simple straight and fast, rich in food, wealth and honour, grand and glorious, which the lord creator has adorned with golden beauty and grace.
10. \( Evā \text{ te agne vimado manīśāmūrjo napādamṛte-bhiḥ sajōṣāḥ. Gira ā vakṣat sumatīriyāna iṣamūr-jam sukṣitam viśvamābhāḥ.} \)

Thus does the celebrant in ecstasy of adoration, O Agni, Spirit of universal light and life, inspirer and sustainer of cosmic energy, offer you homage in immortal words of love and faith. O refulgent spirit of life divine, bearing holy vision and wisdom for the devotee, bless us with food and energy for body, mind and soul, give us a happy home with wealth and honour of universal order.

Mandala 10/Sukta 21

Agni Devata, Vimada Aindra or Prajapatya, or Vasukrt Vasukra Rshi

1. \( Āgniṃ na svavṛktibhirhotāraṁ tvā vṛṇīmahe. Yajñāya stūrṇabarhiṣe vi vo made śīraṁ pāva-kaśociṣaṁ vivakṣase. \)

Like fire for comfort, with our own holy chant for the internal yajña of our spiritual purification and your joy, O fellow yajakas, we choose Agni, high priest of cosmic yajña, all pervasive purifier by the white heat of his divine radiance. Verily the lord is great and glorious for you.

Those self-radiant self reliant men of strength and success adore and exalt you. Their simple, honest and natural homage of oblations reaches you for your pleasure and satisfaction. Verily you are great for the devotees.

Devotees dedicated to your Dharma serve and feed you with profuse ladlefuls of ghrta, you who for your pleasure and excitement bear white and dark flames and fumes and assume all the beauties and graces of life. Verily you are great for your devotees.

4. Yamagne manyase rayim sahasāvannamartya. Tamā no vājasātaye vi vo made yajñēṣu citramā bharā vivakṣase.

Agni, immortal power of strength and fortitude, the wealth, honour and excellence you hold and believe is great, that very wondrous wealth bear and bring us in yajnas with your pleasure and magnificence for our victory in our struggle for progress. Surely you are great and glorious for the devotees.

   People set, establish and celebrate you in yajnas, Agni, charming, shining with oblations of gṛṭta, bright and pure, most illuminative accomplisher of yajna according to the seasons and your vision of the world. Agni, you are waxing great for your devotees.

8. Agne śukreṇa socīṣoru prathayase bṛhat. Abhi-krandan vṛṣāyase vi vo made garbhamād dadhāsi jāmiṣu vivakṣase.

   Agni, with pure and powerful flames you shine and expand infinitely in many many various ways. Roaring and thundering, you love to shower on earth from heaven and inspire life forms with new energy and vitality for your own joy and for joy of the people. Agni, you are always waxing great and glorious.

Mandala 10/Sukta 22

Indra Devata, Vimada Aindra or Prajapatya, or Vasukrt Vasukra Rshi

1. Kuha śrūta indraḥ kasminnadya jane mitro na śrūyate. Rśiṇāṁ vā yaḥ kṣaye guhā vā carkṛṣe girā.

   Where is Indra heard of today? Where like a friend, among what people, is he heard of? Indra who is exalted by words of prayer, in the homes of sages and realised in their mind?

2. Iha śrūta indro asme adya stave vajryṛcīśamaḥ. Mitro na yo janesvā yaśaścakre asāmyā.

   Indra, lord of justice and thunder is renowned and sung here among us, most adorable worthy of worship for us, who is glorified among people, perfect and absolute and kind as a friend.

   Mighty master, commander and giver of great strength is he, perfect, unequalled and great giver of wealth and power, wielder of the awful thunderbolt and father protector and promoter of humanity as of his own children.

4. Yujāno aśvā vātasya dhunī devo devasya vajrivaḥ. Syantā pathā virukmatā sṛjānaḥ stośyadhvanaḥ.

   O wielder of the thunderbolt and adamantine will, harnessing commander of cosmic energy mightier than the roaring winds, generous self-refulgent lord of divinities, guide of the travellers of the paths of light and creator of new paths of advancement open for humanity, you are adored as the master, protector and promoter of life and its possibilities.

Whoever or whatever be negative, incorrigible, corrosive, without commitment or ill-committed, anti-human and anti-life, that negative and destructive force, O destroyer of the unfriendly, saboteurs and destroyers, control, suppress and eliminate.

O lord most potent, Indra, protect and promote us by the brave so that even in terrible crises we may survive and prevail. Infinite are your gifts of fulfilment that abound all round, and multitudes of people over earth sing and celebrate your generosity.
Indra, lord most potent, wielder of thunder and justice who abide inspiring at the heart of visionary poets and thinkers, general people and those commanding the imperishable power of light and social order, pray inspire, and energise those heroic leaders, pioneers and leading lights who are engaged in decisive battle against darkness and evil, ignorance, want and injustice.

Indra, ruler most potent and wielder of the thunderbolt, adamantine will and justice, most generous giver, instant are your gifts of protection, charity and advancement in matters of success, achievement and fulfilment, since with your assistant cooperative forces you destroy all evils of darkness, ignorance and want of the world created by demonic forces of negativity and destruction.

O lord most potent, wielder of the thunderbolt and justice, may our desires, aims and ambitions, and achievements of wealth and victory never be fruitless. May we always be favoured with the blissful presence and joy of all these fulfilled ambitions and cherished desires.

Indra, omnipotent lord of the world, mighty ruler, pray accept our soma homage of worship. O shelter home of life, giver of peace, wealth, power and excellence, pray fail us not, protect and promote the celebrant blest with power and honour, O lord of wealth and magnificence, help us rise to great wealth of life and attain to mastery of that wealth and power for moral and spiritual grandeur.

Mandala 10/Sukta 23

Indra Devata, Vimada Aindra or Prajapatya, or Vasukrt Vasukra Rshi

We join and adore Indra, lord of cosmic energy, who wields the thunder in his right hand and controls the versatile potentials of complementary currents of cosmic energy in the universal circuit, who with energy shakes the earthly vegetation, rises high, and with his forces and implicit potentials acts as catalytic agent and vests us with natural power and success in achievement.

The wealth of energy which the currents bring into the solar rays are universal whereby Indra becomes powerful with natural forces to break the dark clouds of rain. Master of spiritual and physical strength, Indra rules and protects the wealth, power and honour of the world, under that protection I too wish to eliminate even the last trace of negativity and force of destruction.

When Indra, glorious lord ruler of the world rides his golden chariot of state which complementary forces draw on the course with the energy of solar rays in nature and the light and loyalty of leading citizens in society, then he is celebrated as universal master of the common wealth and the ruler and protector of lasting power, prosperity and honour of the world.

The real shower is that when with his own essential lustre and with his complementary forces Indra sprinkles and fills the waving greenery on earth with... life energy, when the divine presence pervades happy homes and weaves them into a happy web of life on earth with sweets of life, vibrates with power and shakes contradictory forces as the storm shakes the forest.

Who with one united forceful voice silences and eliminates many many hundreds of contradictory and confrontationist voices of manly violence, sabotage and destruction, that power and voice of this mighty Indra we admire and celebrate, the ruler who, like a parent power, promotes and elevates our strength, lustre and glory.

Free from pride and passion, we have created and offer you, O lord of divine charity, Indra, an ancient, unique and most copious song of celebration. We know the gifts of protection and promotion of this mighty lord, and, masters of our senses and mind, we keep his divine presence at heart as the all-seeing master of our life and karmic performance.
7. \textit{Mākirna enā sakhyā vi yauṣtava cendra vimadasya ca ṛṣeḥ. Vidmā hi te pramatiṁ deva jāmi-vad-asme te santu sakhyā śivāni.}

Indra, mighty ruler of life and the world, let not this bond of friendship between you and the sage free from the shackles of pride and passion ever sever. O generous lord of light and life, we know your good will and kindness toward us and we enjoy it too. May this bond of friendship and the gifts of the bond be good and blissful for us like the filial bond of parent and child.

\textbf{Mandala 10/Sukta 24}

\textit{Indra (1-3), Ashvins (4-6) Devata, Vimada Aindra or Prajapatya, or Vasukrt Vasukra Rshi}

1. \textit{Indra somam-imāṁ pība madhumantāṁ camū sutam. Asme rayiṁ ni dhāraya vi vo made saha-sriṇāṁ purūvaso vivakṣase.}

Indra, lord of infinite wealth, power, honour and excellence, accept and bless this soma homage of love and faith, honey sweet, distilled and offered in the ladle of yajna, protect and promote this joyous world of honey sweets extending from earth to the skies, bear and bring us wealth of the world as you in your own divine joy carry the thousandfold burden of this world. You are great, lord of glory.
2. Tvāṁ yajñesbhir-ukthairupa havyebhirīmahe. Śacīpate śacīnāṁ vi vo made śreṣṭham no dhehi vāryam vivakṣase.

With yajnas, mantras and oblations of holy fragrances we adore and worship you, O lord of omniscience and omnipotence, and we pray that in the ecstasy of your own self and generosity, bear and bring us the best and choicest of your grand gifts for us. O lord, you are ever waxing great and glorious.

Indra, you are the master and protector of the best of wealth, beauty and glory of the world, inspirer of the obedient devotee, and saviour and promoter of the celebrants. O lord, in the ecstasy of your own bliss and omnipotence, pray protect us from sin and jealousy. You are ever waxing great and glorious.

Ashvins, complementary powers of nature and humanity, currents of energy, teacher and preacher, scientist and engineer, men and women, powerful, miraculous, you are always working together, and when you are invoked and prayed together by the sage free form passion and pride, O powers ever true and committed, you come into action and generate the fire of life.

विश्व दुवा अकृपन्त समीच्छानिष्पत्तन्त्या: ।
नासत्यावबुवन्दुवा: पुनरा वहितादिति॥ ५ ॥

5. Viśve devā akṛpanta samīcyor-nispatantyoh.
Nāsatyāvabruvan devāḥ punarā vahatāditi.

All divinities of nature and humanity shower love and kindness on the complementary powers working together in unison without relent or remiss on their commitment, and as the work goes on, O divinities ever true and never false or failing, the powers of the world exclaim: Go on, go on, that way success lies.

मधुमन्म पुरार्यण्यं मधुमत्युनरार्यनम ।
ता ना दवा दृवतथा युवं मधुमतस्कृतम ॥ ६ ॥

Ashvins, complementary divinities of nature and humanity, let the way beyond be honey sweet for me. Let the way back on return be honey sweet for me. O divines, with your blessings, pray both of you make our life here, hereafter and here again full of honey sweets and joy.
Mandala 10/Sukta 25

_Pavamana Soma Devata, Vimada Aindra or Prajapatya, or Vasukrt Vasakra Rshi_

_O Soma, lord of peace and bliss, inspire our mind, skill and wisdom, and our yajnic actions to move in the direction of goodness and piety, so that, living in your love and friendship, we may enjoy food and life’s delicacies like cows enjoying their favourite grass and thus partake of your divine joy in life here itself. O Soma, you are great and glorious indeed._

1.  _Bhadram no api vātaya mano dakṣamuta kratūṃ. Adhā te sakhye andhaso vi vo made raṇan gāvo na yavase vivakṣase._

_O Soma, all over the world in all places, all these devoted seekers of wealth and all these heart felt desires and ambitions of mine worship you and concentrate and abide in your divine peace and joy. O Soma, you are great and glorious indeed._

2.  _Hṛdisprśasta āsate viśveṣu soma dhāmasu. Adhā kāmā ime mama vi vo made vi tiṣṭhante vasūyavo vivakṣase._
3. Uta vratāṇi soma te prāham mināmi pākyā. Adhā piteva sūnave vi vo made mrīlā no abhi cidvad-hād-vivakṣase.

   And O Soma, with a mature mind and intelligence, I follow the rules of your discipline. Then O Soma, as father for the child, pray bless us to partake of your divine joy, be kind and save us from death and deprivation all round. O lord, you are great for the good of all.

4. Samu pra yanti dhītayaḥ sargāso’vatān iva. Kratuṁ nah soma jīvase vi vo made dhārayā camasān iva vivakṣase.

   Just as showers of rain and streams of water flow down and rush to the sea, so all our thoughts, prayers, acts and adorations move and reach you, ultimate destination of holy works. Pray accept us and our adorations like ladlefuls of yajnic homage into the joy of your divine presence. O lord you are great for the joy of all.

5. Tava tye soma śktibhir-nikāmāso vyṛṇvire. Grtsasya dhīrāstavaso vi vo made vrajaṁ gomantam-aśvināṁ vivakṣase.

   Those devotees with a balanced mind, lovers of divinity, inspired with devotion to the loved and potent Soma, with all their power of concentration in meditation reach the state of joy in your presence, O Soma, wherein they find a settled haven with enlightened mind and senses and a vibrant will here itself. O lord you are really great for all.

Paśuṁ naḥ soma rakṣasi purutrā viṣṭhitam jagat. Samākrṇoṣi jivase vi vo made viśvā sampāśyan bhuvanā vivakṣase.

O Soma, you protect and elevate our enlightened soul. You generate, protect and promote the settled world of vast variety as well for our holy and joyous living for a full life in the presence of your divine bliss. Watching the entire world of existence, you wax great in your glory.

Tvāṁ naḥ soma viśvato gopā adābhya bhava. Sedha rājannapa sridho vi vo made mā no duḥśamsa īṣatā vivakṣase.

O Soma, be our guide and dauntless guardian and protector all round in the world. O ruler of the world, ward off all errors, failures, violence and foemen far from us. Let none wicked and malicious boss over us. O lord, you are waxing great in your glory for the joy of all.
8. \textit{Tvaṁ naḥ soma sukratur-vayodheyāya jāgrṛhi.} \textit{Kṣetra vitttaro manuṣo vi vo made druho naḥ pāhyāmhaso vivakṣase.}

Soma, lord of all knowledge and holy action, pray let us awake for living a full life of age and enthusiasm. You know the microcosm and the macrocosm of existence, none other knows. Pray protect us from evil men and from sin and jealousy. O lord you are waxing great in your glory for the joy of all.

9. \textit{Tvaṁ no vṛtrahantamendrasasyendo śivah sakha.} \textit{Yat simi havante samithe vi vo made yudhya- māṇās-tokasātau vivakṣase.}

O Soma, greatest dispeller of darkness and want and deprivation, our gracious friend as well as gracious friend of Indra, the ruler, people all round, struggling in their battle of life for the advancement of their future generations, call upon you for help, protection and success since, then, you are waxing great and glorious in your joy for the good of all.

10. \textit{Ayaṁ gha sa turo mada indrasya vardhata priyāḥ.} \textit{Ayaṁ kākṣīvato maho vi vo made matiṁ viprasya vardhayadvivakṣase.}

This Soma, instant fast, dear happy friend of Indra, the soul, is great, advances the wisdom and vision of the great sage dedicated to assiduous thought and work with concentration. Surely, O Soma, you are waxing great and glorious in your joy for the good of all.

11. Ayaṁ viprāya dāśuṣe vājaṁ iyartī gomataḥ. Ayaṁ saptabhya ā varaṁ vi made prāndham śroṇaṁ ca tāriṣad-vivakṣase.

This Soma moves, inspires and brings immortal vision and food, energy and the joy of victory for the sage who has wholly surrendered himself to the divine presence. He saves the blind and the lame and brings the highest learning, wisdom and freedom to the seven sagely yajakas. O Soma, you are ever waxing great and glorious in bliss for the joy of all.

Mandala 10/Sukta 26

Pusha Devata, Vimada Aindra or Prajapatya, or, Vasukrt Vasukra Rshi

With love and faith do our cherished thoughts, prayers and adorations well directed in meditation reach Pusha, lord of health and fulfilment. Great, beatific and blissful, his chariot of ultimate freedom of moksha is ever in readiness, may the lord ever protect and promote us to that ultimate freedom.
Yasya tyanmahitvam vātāpyamayam janaḥ. Vipra ā vāṃsad-dhītibhiś-ciketa suṣṭuṭīnāṁ.

Pusha, whose grandeur of that order, that food for the soul, may this humanity, this vibrant sage, attain by noble thoughts and actions. The lord knows of our sincere prayers and adorations.

Sa veda suṣṭuṭīnāṁindurna pūṣā vrṣā. Abhi psuraḥ pruṣāyati vrajam na ā pruṣāyati.

Pusha, like Soma, the moon, giver of showers, knows of our prayers and adorations. Assuming and pervading all forms of life, he showers his favours of grace on us, he also showers his kindness and favours on our foods, pastures and cows as well.

Mamśimahi tvā vayam-asmākāṁ deva pūṣan. Maṭiṇāṁ ca sādhanāṁ viprāṇam cādhavām.

We know and adore you, divine Pusha, sustainer of life, giver of success to our intelligentsia, pioneer guide and purifier of our vibrant sages.

Pusha is the promoter and accomplisher of yajnas, energy, power and mover of the shining stars, all seeing creator of joy, well wisher of humanity and inspiring guide and friend of the sages.

6. Ādhīṣamāṇāyāḥ patiḥ śucāyāśca śucasya ca. Vāsovāyō ’vināmā vāsāṃsi marmṛjat.

Pusha is the sustainer of immaculate Prakṛti and of the pure intelligent soul, and just as the weaver weaves a cloth of wool, so does he weave out the structure and texture of the physical web of the world and create the bodies of form and adorns them with beauty.

7. Ino vājānām patirināḥ puṣṭināṁ sakhā. Pra śmaśru haryato dūdhod vi vṛthā yo adābhyaḥ.

Mighty Pusha is the master controller of energies and powers of the world, generous friends of growth and progress, spontaneous energises and inspirer of rising youth, and he is the unchallengeable supreme power over all.
8.  Ā te rathasya pūṣannajā dhuraṁ vavṛtyuḥ.
Viśvasyārthinaḥ sakhā sanojā anapacyutaḥ.

O Pusha, unborn, eternal and undiminishing forces move your chariot wheels on and on, friend of all supplicants of the world, eternal, unborn and infinitely manifestive, imperishable.

Bhūvad-vājānāṁ vṛdha imaṁ naḥ śṝṇavaddhavam.

May the mighty Pusha power and protect our chariot of life with divine energy, may the lord be promoter and augmenter of our food, energy and onward progress, and may he listen and grant this prayer of ours.

Mandala 10/Sukta 27

Indra Devata, Vasukra Aindra Rshi

Asat su me jaritaḥ sābhivego yat sunvate yajamānāya śikṣam. Anāśīrdām-ahamasmi prahantā satyadhvṛtam vr̥jīnāyantam-ābhum.

O dedicated celebrant, the divine nature and power is good and true, it is this: I grant the prayer and give the desired object to the dedicated creative Soma yajaka. But I punish and strike down the ungenerous, selfish violator of eternal truth and law persistently addicted to sin, evil and falsehood.

2.  Yadīdahāṁ yudhayē saṁnayānyadevayūṁ tanvā śūṣujānān. Amā te tumraṁ vrṣabham pacāni tīvram sutaṁ pañcadaśāṁ ni śīñcam.

If I were to collect forces to fight out the selfish, ungenerous and audacious who are such by their sheer physical prowess and brute force in this house of yours, O divine Ruler of existence, I would train a mighty, generous, enlightened leader, warrior and protector, feed him on distilled essences of fourteen branches of knowledge, application and practice being the fifteenth, and thus perfect the ruler.

3.  Nāham taṁ veda ya iti bravītyadevayūntsamaraṇe jaghanvān. Yadāvākhyat samaraṇam-rghāva-dādiddha me vrṣabhā pra bruvanti.

I know not one who says: I have defeated and destroyed the evil and ungenerous in the battle between right and wrong by myself; instead, when the battle between good and evil is won, then the brave warriors declare that they attribute the victory only to me.
4. Yadajñāteṣu vrjanesvāsāṁ viśve sato maghavāno ma āsan. Jināmi vet kṣema ā santamābhum pra tam kṣinām parvate pādagṛhya.

When I am in regions and battles unknown, all existent holy powers are around me. Then in the interest of the good of the world I defeat all negative powers and, catching them by the root, I throw them on the rocks.

5. Na vā u māṁ vrjane vārayante na parvatāso yadahāṁ manasye. Mama svanāt kṛdhukarṇo bhayāta evedanu dyūn kiraṇāḥ samejāt.

When I decide to do what I want to do, no powers can obstruct me on the way, not even powers insurmountable as mountains otherwise. At my roar even persons of faintest ear shake with fear. And the sun, commanding boundless light rays goes on way day and night at my command.

6. Darśannvatra śṛtapāṅ anindrān-bāhuksaḍaḥ śarave patyamānān. Ghrṣum vā ye nīniduḥ sakhāyam-adhyū nveṣu pavayo vavṛtyuḥ.

When I see forces which oppose, contradict or deny Indra, presiding power of world order, people who wrest the food and drink prepared for honest labour, who twist others’ arm for extortion, who pounce upon the innocent to kill, or those who revile a friend for his candid but unflattering warmth, over all such the strokes of the thunderbolt of justice and punishment would fall and ultimately crush them.

7. Abhūrvaukṣirvyu āyurānaḍ darṣanu pūrvo aparo nu darṣat. Dve pavaste pari tam na bhūto yo asya pāre rajaso viveṣa.

Indra, unborn and eternal, the seed, the sower and nursing mother and the very life of the world, you destroy the anti-life forces of the earliest times and, later, of the others too. Both earth and heaven comprehend you not, you who transcend these and pervade the infinity beyond.

8. Gāvo yavaṁ prayutā aryo aḵsan tā apaśyaṁ sahagopāścarantīḥ. Havā idaryo abhitāḥ samāyan kiyadāsu svapatiś-chandayāte.

The cows ranged together in the pasture graze and enjoy the grass. I, the master, watch them along with the cowherd. When they are called back they come and stand round the master. The master rejoices in them.
Similarly Indra, the master, sees the life around as his cows, rejoices in all life forms, and in the evening of the created world calls them back, and they all abide by and abide in his presence.

Here in the pasture, in the midst of the vast world of experience and pleasure, we live and enjoy together with all those living beings which enjoy the grass and experience the things they love and find as the result of their karma, and I too among humans enjoy my share of karmic bhoga. Here then, joined to the lord giver of life, experience and ultimate freedom and peaceful abode, let the soul love and meditate on the master, Indra, and may the loving master accept the devotee, earlier separated, now joined.

And here in the world, take it as my own word of truth that it is I who generate the biped humans and the quadruped animals, and whoever aspires to win as a virile warrior but with indulgence with women, I take off their share of the desired attainment even before or without the interaction between their ambition and nature.
11. Yasyānaksā duhitā jātvāsa kastāṁ vidvāṁ abhi manyāte andhām. Kataro meniṁ prati tam mucāte ya āṁ vahāte ya āṁ vā vareyāt.

Who is the sage and scholar who knows that blind force, that eyeless generative power, Prakṛti, mother womb of existence that was there in the pre-existence state of divinity in absolute time and space? Indra, whose consort it was, the Shakti of divinity to generate the various forms of life in historical time and space. Who would wield that mighty force for himself as consort, as Word, as thunder? Who would release her? Who takes her on and controls? Who chooses and loves her? Who except Indra?

12. Kiyatīyoṣā maryato vadhaustūra pariprītā panyasā vāryeṇa. Bhadrā vadhursthavati yat supeṣāḥ svayaṁ sā mitrāṁ vanute jane cit.

Some maiden feels pleased and satisfied with the dear lovable wealth and speech of the man wooing her for a wife or she is herself pleasing and accepted for her speech and riches. But in reality, that wife is good and fortunate who, noble in person and manners, loves and chooses her friend and husband by herself from amongst the youth.

Indra emanates and manifests the generated world step by step, then he withdraws it also step by step at the end. The top light of Prakṛti, he places and holds up on high as head and heaven. All present and pervasive, the next high form of it he holds in his lap as the middle region, and the lowest of the high he forms as the earth and pervades it.

Infinitely great, imperishable beyond mutability and sufferance, all mover, all moving constant, beyond bonds and bounds, he is the all bearing mother womb of existence. Loving and pervading the living forms of the other, Prakṛti, as a mother, like his own progeny, he forms and sustains the world with divine peace and bliss of existence as the mother cow holds the milk for her calf.
15. Sapta vīrāso adharādāyann-aṣṭottarāttāt samajagmirante. Nava paścātāt sthivimanta āyan daśa prāk sānvi tirantyaśnaḥ.

Seven off-springs came up from the deepest of Prakṛti (they are five subtle elements, mind and senses), eight sprang from the upper part (they are eight vasus, sustainers of life, i.e., earth, water, fire, air, space, moon, sun and stars), from behind came nine well placed in position (they are nine planets and nine sense organs), and ten pranas arise from the front and move high up in air.

16. Daśānāmekaṁ kapilaṁ samānaṁ taṁ hinvanti kratave pāryāya. Garbhāṁ mātā sudhitaṁ vakṣaṇāsvavenataṁ tuṣayanī bibharti.

One is the darling of all the ten equally, which they energise and serve for fulfilment of the ultimate purpose of life. Mother Nature bears the soul as its baby well placed in the currents and atomic dynamics of existence, nourishing and pleasing it, though the baby at this stage is unaware of it, but still loves to stay on in the womb.

17. Pīvānāṁ meṣampacanta vīrā nyuptā akṣā anu dīva āsan. Dvā dhanum brhatīmapsvantaḥ pavitravantā carataḥ punantā.

Ten pranas together with the senses, positioned in the holy body for nature’s purpose, mature the living body of the soul. Two of these pranas, i.e., prana and apana, active in the vital waters with warm energy, mature, purify and perfect the growing body for the soul.

Sapta vṛśōsa adhārdudāyann-āottarōttāt samajagmirante. Nava pacōttāt sthivimanta āyan daūa prōk sōnvi tirantyaūna¬.

Seven offsprings came up from the deepest of Prakrti (they are five subtle elements, mind and senses), eight sprang from the upper part (they are eight vasus, sustainers of life, i.e., earth, water, fire, air, space, moon, sun and stars), from behind came nine well placed in position (they are nine planets and nine sense organs), and ten pranas arise from the front and move high up in air.

One is the darling of all the ten equally, which they energise and serve for fulfilment of the ultimate purpose of life. Mother Nature bears the soul as its baby well placed in the currents and atomic dynamics of existence, nourishing and pleasing it, though the baby at this stage is unaware of it, but still loves to stay on in the womb.

Souls come into the world from various directions in various ways, chanting the name of divinity. Some one matures, another does not mature, remains half way only. This is what Savita, lord of life, giver of light, says to me: the yajna fire which consumes the fuel wood and oblations of gṛhṭa helps the soul to mature through yajna and self-sacrifice. The man who lives on fruit and milk and butter matures with divine love and yajnic fire.

Souls come into the world from various directions in various ways, chanting the name of divinity. Some one matures, another does not mature, remains half way only. This is what Savita, lord of life, giver of light, says to me: the yajna fire which consumes the fuel wood and oblations of gṛhṭa helps the soul to mature through yajna and self-sacrifice. The man who lives on fruit and milk and butter matures with divine love and yajnic fire.

Vi krośanāso viṣvaṅca āyan pacāti nemo nahi pakṣadardhaḥ. Ayaṁ me devaḥ savitā tadāha dṛvanna idvanavat sarpirannāḥ.

From far off by observation of nature and from near by meditation, I have perceived and realised the divine power and presence bearing the multitudinous humanity and other forms of life by its own essential might, moving without wheels, that is, moving and yet not moving, being omnipresent, eternal, yet even new in manifestation, who, sole lord of life, creates the male and female pairs of humans from eternity.

_Etau me gāvau pramarasya yuktau mo ṣu pra sedhīr-muhurin-mamandhi. Āpaścidasya vi naśantyarthāṁ sūraśca marka uparo babhūvān._

Lord of life, pray do not deprive me, the mortal man, of these two vital energies of prana and apana joined to my existence, pray keep them integrated with me, active and pleasing. The subtle body and the pranic energies help us reach our divine goal, and may the sun and pranic energies, like the cloud, shower me here below with light and joy.

_Ayam yo vajraḥ purudhā vivṛtto ’vah sūryasya bṛhatāḥ puriśāt. Śrava idenā paro anyadasti tadavyathā jariṃaṇas-taranti._

This thunderous pranic energy, which radiates from the mighty orb of the sun in varied ways, comes down to us by the paths of Prakṛti. Beyond this is there another path and destination too, revealed and heard, to which the celebrants of divinity free from psychic travails of existence attain beyond the flood of pleasure and pain here.
The string fixed like destiny on every bow twangs with a clang, the arrows fly and fall like cannibals on humanity, consuming life and karma. And then the whole world shakes with fear. O yajaka on the vedi, keep on the offer of soma homage to Indra, the omniscient who knows it all.

For the formation of the first and basic divine natural causes of cosmic evolution, the original causes already existed in the primordial state of Prakrti. From the disturbance of those primordial causes in that state of unified equilibrium into dynamic state, arose the diversity of subtle and gross elements of material and psychic forms. Three of these (heat, air and water) together mature the earth for life, and two (heat and air) bring the life energy to it.
24. Sā te jīvāturuta tasya viddhi mā smaitādṛgapa gūhah samarye. Āvih svaḥ krṣute gūhate busaṁ sa pādurasya nirṇijo na mucyate.

That, O man, is your life line, the trinity of sun, air and water, Know it, and know that divine Indra. It’s all his. In the serious holy business of living, forget it not, nor let life slip away. Indra creates and opens out the bliss of life, consumes the waste to create further, and this evolutionary cyclic process of the life giver never ends, it continues.

Mandala 10/Sukta 28

Devata: Indra (1, 3-5, 7, 9, 11), Vasukra Aindra (2, 6, 8, 10, 12); Rshi: Indra snusha (1), Indra (2, 6, 8, 10, 12), Vasukra Aindra (3-5, 7, 9, 11)

This hymn is a dialogue between Indra and Vasukra. It is an allegory on the organismic, integrated, organised system of life from the individual to the social and the cosmic order. The chief and supreme master is the soul, the ruler, Indra. Others too are powers, but subordinate to the chief.

विस्वा ह्याः न्या अरिराज्जगाम ममदाहु श्रशुरा ना जगाम।
ज गैयाद्वाना उत सांम पप्पियात्स्वाशित पुनरस्तं जगायात् यात॥ १ ॥

1. Viśvo hyanyo arirājagāma mamedaha śvaśuro nā jagāma. Jakṣīyāddhānā uta somam papīyāt svāśitaḥ punarastam jagāyāt.

Vasukra’s wife says: All other masterly powers are arrived here. Only the chief is not come. I wish he were here, accept our hospitality of food and drink and, satisfied and fulfilled, go back to his seat.

(The soul emerges in the body, takes over and rules over the body system after all other powers have developed and the body is mature for emergence of the soul. So is the social system the soul of which is the sovereign ruling power. So is the cosmos, the ruling soul of the system is Indra.)

2. Sa roruvad-vṛṣabhastigmaśṛṅgo varṣman tasthau varimannā prthivyāḥ. Viśveśvenaṁ vṛja-neṣu pāmi yo me kukṣī sutasomāḥ prṛnāti.

Indra: I, mighty ruling power, harbinger of showers of plenty and prosperity, commanding sharpest forces of defence and offence, abide on top of the mighty expanse of the earth. Whoever the maker of soma that offers me homage and hospitality to my pleasure and satisfaction, I defend, protect and promote in all battles of life.

Vasukra: O mighty ruler of wealth and power, Indra, happy performers of the yajnic system, with the best of equipment, extract exciting soma juice and they prepare sanative tonics from vrshabha herbs, of which, when cordially invited, you drink and taste with pleasure to your satisfaction and fulfilment.

4.  Idam su me jaritarā cikiddhi pratīpam śāpam nadyo vahanti. Lopāsāḥ simhaṁ pratyaṅcamat-sāḥ kroṣṭā varāhaṁ niratakta kakṣat.

O celebrant, know this force of my power: By the dynamic force of my system and order, the stream of ordered life can carry off criticism, opposition and contradictions and throw out all poisonous elements, the ordinary vegetarian citizen faces and drives off the violent carnivorous enemy, and a single clarion call would dig out and throw out the most destructive terrorist forces from the darkest den.

5.  Kathā ta etadahamā ciketalī grītasya pākastavasō manīṣām. Tvaṁ no vidvāṁ rtuthā vi voco yamardhaṁ te maghavan kṣemyā dhūḥ.

O lord of wealth and power, all knowing all watching ruler of the world, Indra, how would I, a simple man, understand and know this mysterious ground power and policy of yours, wise and versatile master of the mighty order. O lord, you alone know, you alone can enlighten us about the admirable basis and direction of your policy of peace and progress of humanity.
when cordially invited, you drink and taste with pleasure to your satisfaction and fulfilment.

4. IdaÅ su me jaritarŒ cikiddhi prat¶paŠ܌paÅ nadyo vahanti. LopŒÜa¬ siÅhaÅ  pratyaÛcamatsŒ¬ kro¦¢Œ varŒhaÅ niratakta kak¦at.

O celebrant, know this force of my power: By the dynamic force of my system and order, the stream of ordered life can carry off criticism, opposition and contradictions and throw out all poisonous elements, the ordinary vegetarian citizen faces and drives off the violent carnivorous enemy, and a single clarion call would dig out and throw out the most destructive terrorist forces from the darkest den.

5. KathŒ ta etadahamŒ ciketaÅ g¾tsasya pŒkastavaso man¶¦Œm. TvaÅ no vidvŒ~n ¾tuthŒ vi voco yamardhaÅ te maghavan k¦emyŒ dhµu¬.

O lord of wealth and power, all knowing all watching ruler of the world, Indra, how would I, a simple man, understand and know this mysterious ground power and policy of yours, wise and versatile master of the mighty order. O lord, you alone know, you alone can enlighten us about the admirable basis and direction of your policy of peace and progress of humanity according to the time and season.

6. Evă hi mām tavasaṁ vardhayanti divaścinme brhata uttarā dhūḥ. Purū sahasrā ni śiśāmi sākamaśatruṁ hi mā janitā jajāna.

Thus do they (assistant powers) exalt me, mighty soul, ruler of the system. The foundation, structure, direction and stability of the system, the power I wield to sustain and rule the system is greater than the vast heavens. A thousand foes I eliminate, all at once, with a single stroke. Indeed the creative powers that generate and manifest me as power generate me without enemy and opposition.

7. Evă hi mām tavasaṁ jajūrugraṁ karmankarman vṛṣaṇamindra devāḥ. Vadhīṁ vrtraṁ vajrena mandasāno’pa vrajam mahinā dāśuṣe vam.

Thus do the devas, divine powers and faculties create and know me as mighty and formidable, virile and generous in every act of the system. Happily with the mighty vajra, vital power, I break the dark cloud of rain with mighty thunder and open the paths of progress for the creative and generous vital channels of the dynamics of the system.

Let men of power and enlightenment march forward bearing weapons of defence and action, felling forests and oppositions, march forward with people of the land, stay the floods of rivers, release the flow into streams and canals, burning the undergrowth and drying up pools of stagnant water.

The deer faces and beats up the tiger of fatal paw since I can break up the mountain with a lump of clay from far or near. I can crush the biggest with the tiniest, and the calf, waxing with strength, can force the bull to retreat and run. (This is the might of soul and prana).

10. Let Suparna, Indra, the soul on top all round of the living system and at the centre of the self, confirm, hold and monitor its power-in-readiness as this: Like the lion in the den ready with his paw, like a rhino in position thirsting to strike (as a battery of force and power calibrated unto the live switch) and the power like the bow string in optimum tension would strike and throw out and far off the negativities and enemies wherever they be, (such is the force and power of prana, spirit and soul of the living system at individual, social and cosmic level) in service for the master, Indra.

11. The systemic strength in optimum tension spontaneously throws out those who, feeding on the nutrimentos provided by the system itself, abuse, revile and sabotage the social order, eating into all the creativities of the system and thereby, at the same time, damage the strength of their bodies by themselves.
grandeur who, with holy words and noble acts of yajnic creations of soma peace and vitality serve life and humanity and strengthen and advance the body of the social order and thus address the ruling power: O ruling soul of the order, speaking and proclaiming as leader, pioneer and ruler, bring us all our share of sustenance and power, acknowledge our achievement and victory, and feel great that you wield the honour and power of the order, yours is the name and the glory from earth to heaven. You are the heroic brave.

Mandala 10/Sukta 29

Indra Devata, Vasukra Aindra Rshi

1. Vane na vā ya nṛvyādhāchy chaṅkṣu-chitvām stamāṁ bhūranaṅvājīgaṁ. Yasyedindraṁ purudineṣu hotā nṛṇāṁ naryo nṛtamaṁ kṣapāvāṁ.

   Like the baby bird placed in the nest on the tree, waiting and watching for the mother bird, and the mother bird arriving, may this song of love and purity reach you, O complementary powers of light, Ashvins, the song, of which Indra, ruler of the world, is the inspirer and deity, manliest leader of men, who rules over the day and night of human activity.

2. Pra te asyā uṣasāḥ prāparasyā nṛtau syāma nṛtamasya nṛṇām. Anu triśoṅkāḥ śatamāvahanṛṁ kutsena ratho yo asat sasavān.
Indra, ruler of the world, manliest leader of the leaders of humanity, lord of triple splendour of knowledge, action and spiritual advancement, who command a hundred heroes by virtue of power and thunder, source of peace, advancement and bliss, may we ever abide in the light and joy of the dawn of today and of other days to come in our course of life.

What is the most exhilarating song of prayer and presentation dear to you? O lustrous lord of force and power, come to us by the doors of yajna in response to our songs of invocation. Harbinger of power and peace, when shall I see you face to face? When will my prayer be fruitful? When shall I be able to regale you with homage and adoration, most eminent master and ruler?

Indra, when shall we have the light, power and honour of prosperity in life? What is that order of intelligence by which you transform humans to divine consciousness of your presence? When would you reveal your presence to us in direct experience? O lord adorable ever true as friend, when would our thoughts and actions be fruitful and win your favour of food, sustenance and stability for all mankind in peace and prosperity?

Indra, like the sun that leads from darkness to light, inspire and lead humanity to the attainment of their desire for freedom across the world, all who entertain this ambition like their love for home life earlier. O lord of infinite manifestation, bless all those people who adore you with songs of universal exhortation, who guide others to sing and pray with universal voice, and who offer homage to divinity with foods and charity in various forms.

O Indra, lord omniscient and omnipotent, mother earth and the heaven of light, both ancient and eternal in the existential cycle, are created in excellent measure of form and function by your vision and power. May the delicious and refined honey drinks of soma and sumptuous foods gifted by sun and earth be exhilarating and delightful for noble humanity and for their yajnic homage to you.

7. Ā madhvo asmā asicann-amatram-indrāya pūrṇam sa hi satyarādhāḥ. Sa vāvṛdhe varimannā pṛthivyā abhi kratvā naryah pauṁsyaiśca.

Let us offer the honey sweet bowl of our heart and soul overflowing with love and faith to Indra who is truly magnificent and munificent. He is the benevolent guide of humanity and supreme leader of leaders and by his powers, potentials and creative actions manifests higher and exalted over the expansive earth and space.

8. Vyānaḷindraḥ pṛtanāḥ svojā āsmai yatante sakhāya pūrviḥ. Ā smā rathāṁ na pṛtanāsu tiṣṭha yam bhadrayā sumatyā codayāse.

Indra, lord of holy light and lustre, pervades the peoples’ heart and soul within and joins them in their struggles in the world outside. The best of people since time immemorial try to win his love and friendship with homage, prayer and meditation. O lord of cosmic chariot, ruler of the world, come to us to bless us and our social order like a master of the chariot among people whom you inspire and bless with clear intelligence, noble ambition and holy enthusiasm in the right direction.

Mandala 10/Sukta 30

Apah or Apam-napat Devata, Kavasha Ailusha Rshi

   Let our voice of thanks and praise, our acts of yajnic creation and self-sacrifice in service of the cosmic sustainer, reach all the divine energies and powers of nature and humanity which are ever on the move and sustain life, and let this expression be the very symbol of the total dedication of our mind and soul. O celebrant, O high priest of yajna, proclaim and realise this our will to live as a mighty gift of the lord of love and judgement, and proclaim as well our vision of the ultimate freedom from selfish attachment, which we would realise in dedication to our own spirit, to the social order, and to the infinite lord of cosmic dynamics with the same love and judgement.

O priests and organisers of the socio-cosmic order, bear and bring the fragrant materials of yajnic action for development, rise with passion and enthusiasm, reach the vaulting waters of life, and with open expert hands today receive the waves which the moon and ocean raise and the flood of light and energy which the sun showers down.

अध्वर्यवाचप ईता समुद्रपां नपातं हविषा यजन्धवमः
स वा ददूमिमद्या सुपूर्तं तस्माभाः मधुमत्तं सुनात।

3. Adhvaryavo 'pa itā samudramapāṁ napātaṁ haviṣā yajadhvam. Sa vo dadad-ūrmimadyā supūtamā tasmaī somamā madhumantam sunota.

O priests and organisers, reach the ocean and the waters of space and connect with the sun and light in space and skies with the right materials of yajna. The sun never allows the waters to exhaust and gives you the purest showers ever. Create and offer the sweetest and most powerful soma oblations to the sun for permanent supply of liquid energies for the sustenance of life.

या अनिध्मा दीर्घदुम्प्रांच्छ विपासु इतलत्त अध्वरूपः
अपां नपांमद्वुभार्तो दा याभिब्रिन्दा वावृद्ध बीयायः

O sun who burn and shine in space without fuels of fire, whom priests and scientists serve and adore in yajna, who never allow liquid energies of the world to exhaust, pray give us the honey sweets of liquid energies by which Indra, ruler of the world order on earth, may rise to strength and accomplish great deeds for humanity.

5. Yābhiḥ somo modate harṣate ca kalyāṇībhir-yuvatibhirna maryāḥ. Tā adhvaryo apo acchā parehi yadāsiṅcā oṣadhībhiḥ punītāt.

The liquids with which Soma, the ruling spirit, rejoices and feels exhilarated as men feel happy and exhilarated by noble youthful women, those exciting liquid energies, O high priest of yajna, find from far and near, and when you find them, then cleanse and strengthen the drinks and sanatives for health and joy.

Just as youthful women submit to young men, and as men with love eagerly advance to loving women, so do the leaders of social and scientific yajna know the liquid energies of nature and with their science and intelligence create, obtain and develop. So do also they develop the energies and competence of the rising youthful generation for the social yajna of the world order of humanity.
O people of the social order of the world, committed to honesty and loyalty, the ruler who opens the doors of freedom against inhibition and creates a beautiful world for you, for that Indra, mighty ruler, create honey sweet fragrances of exhilarating environment and offer him divinely joyous foods and drinks of self-fulfilment.

O streams of life aflow, O dynamic people blest with wealth, honour and excellence, listen to my call and exhortation: Create and set in flow the sweetest honeyed waves of joy for this master power and ruler who is the fountain head and fathomless ocean source of your joy and fulfilment, refulgent and illustrious, adorable in the noblest yajnic meets of the world.

7. Yo vo vṛtābhya akrṇodu lokaiṁ yo vo mahyā abhiśasteramuñcat. Tasmā indrāya adhuman-tamūrimim devamādanaṁ pra hiṇotanāpah.

8. Prāsmai hinota madhumantamūrimiṁ garbho yo vah sindhavo madhva utsah. Ghṛtapṛṣṭham-īdyamadhvaresvä’po revatiḥ śṛṇutā havain me.

O streams of life, dynamic people of the world, inspire and set in motion that joyous wave of living and working worthy of all ruling Indra which helps to realise both ends of life, fulfilment over here and freedom of moksha hereafter, overflowing with divine ecstasy, admirable, heavenly, universal, good for earth, heaven and the middle regions, continuous for three living generations, dynamic as the river and deep as ocean.

O sage, visionary celebrant of the yajnic world order, respect, honour and celebrate the vibrant people of the land, fluent in action like winding streams, dedicated in thought, word and deed to the two streams of individual and collective good, observing a compact order of law like fighting forces deployed on fields of action over the same one earth, creators, planners and achievers of yajnic development, having a common origin and growing and moving together in one direction.

O dynamic powers of nature, O vibrant people of the earth, in worship of the lord supreme, in honour of mother nature’s divinities, and for love and well being of noble humanity, inspire and accelerate our yajnic action in cooperation, for the achievement of wealth, honour and excellence raise the voice of divine knowledge, application and action, in the pursuit of collective action under the laws of nature and grateful humanity, open the sluice gates of clouds and unlock the treasure holds of wealth. O powers of the dynamic flow of existence, be good, creative and blissful for our well being.

12. Āpo ravaṭīḥ kṣayathā hi vasvah kratum ca bhadram bibhṛthāmrtaṁ ca. Rāyaśca stha svapatyasya patnīḥ sarasvatiḥ tadgrṇate vayo dhāt.

O cosmic dynamics of mother nature, O fluent streams of earth and the environment, O vibrant people of the land, O generous mothers of mankind, be master rulers of the world’s wealth, promote the yajnic development, well being and immortal values of happy life, be protectors and promoters of the veins of nation’s wealth and makers of the noble generations of humanity’s heroes. May Sarasvati, mother stream of divine knowledge, culture and grace bear and bring good health, full age and vibrant energy for the celebrant.

Prati yadāpo adṛśram-āyatī-ṛghṛtam payāmsi bibhratīr-madhūni. Adhvaryūbhīr-манāsā sāṃvidānā indrāya somaṃ suṣutam bharantīh.

Apah, all fluent streams of nature and humanity, dynamic forces, powers and people of the world, I see you rising and coming in response to the call and prayer of the high priests and celebrants of yajna, bearing water, milk and ghrta and the honey sweets of life for fertility and life’s generation, in perfect union with the mind, hopes and aspirations of the priests and yajakas on the vedi and bringing pure distilled Soma beauty, prosperity and joy for Indra, ruling power and reigning glory of life.

Emā agman revatīr-jīvadhanyā adhvaryavah sādayatā sakhāyah. Ni barhiṣi dhattana somyāso ’pāṁ naptrā saṁvidānāsa enāḥ.
them on the holy grass and create the beauties and joy of life for all.

15. Āgmannāpa uṣaṭīr-barhiredaṁ nyadhvare asadan devayantīḥ. Adhvaryavaḥ sunutendrāya somama-bhūdu vah suṣakā devayajyā.

Brilliant, fluent and divine energies, powers and personalities, united in love with divinity and noble humanity have come and they are seated on the holy grass in the corporate yajna of love and non-violence for development and the creation of life divine for humanity. O priests, O yajakas, create the soma for Indra, ruling power and reigning glory of life, and may your yajnic prayers and programmes for life and humanity be realised successfully.

Mandala 10/Sukta 31

Vishvedeva Devatah, Kavasha Ailusha Rshi

1. Ā no devānāmupā vetu śaṁso viśvebhis-turair-avase yajatraḥ. Tebhīrvaṇaṁ suṣakhāyo bhavema taranto viśvā duritā syāma.

May the adorable word and wisdom of lord Supreme and all divinities of nature and humanity come to us in communion with all the speed, power and excellence of the world for our protection and progress. May we be good friends with them and cross over all hurdles, sins and evils of existence.

2. Pari cinmarto dravin̄am mamanyād-ṛtasya pathā namasā vivāset. Uta svena kratunā samād vada sreyāṁsam daks̄am manasā jagṛbhyaṁ.

Let mortal man love and desire wealth, honour and excellence in the comprehensive context of the world and divinity, shine and refine it with faith and reverence by the path of truth and universal law, speak of it, think and define it with his own conscience in communion with divinity, and then, with his own mind and soul, realise the high degree of expertise, vision and perfection of thought, action and achievement for himself. (Divinity, humanity, nature, the world around, these are the context of our success and achievement.)

Maturity of thought and concentration is achieved, vibrations of thought in waves flow in, protective and illuminative for the spirit in virile posture like waves of flood on the holy shore. Thus may we achieve the power of success and prosperity, thus may we be knowers and achievers of the boons of immortals in knowledge, awareness and, in fact, in our very being.

Nityaś-cākanyāt svapatirdamūnā yasmā u devah savitā jajāṇa. Bhago vā gobhir-aryamemanajyāt so asmai cāruś-chadayaduta syāt.

May the lord eternal, master of the world’s wealth of Prakṛti, generous and potent, love to give and bless humanity for whom Savita, lord creator and generator provides all things of existence, and may Bhaga, lord of universal power and prosperity, and Aryama, lord of justice and dispensation, enlighten him with the word of knowledge, and may the lord of love, beauty and bounty, provide man the sweet shade of protection for advancement.

Iyaṁ sā bhūyā uṣasāmiva kṣā yaddha kṣuman-taḥ śavasā samāyan. Asya stutim jariturbhikṣam-āṇāānaḥ ā naḥ śagmāsa upa yantu vājāḥ.

When clouds laden with power and plenty of rain, and sages with words of enlightenment and power come and bless the earth, then this world of humanity, like the light and freshness of the dawns, shines and prospers on earth, and seekers of wisdom and power asking the sages for knowledge and wisdom of divinity and power and advancement on earth flock here to us, and we pray may power and prosperity continue to flow in for us and our children.

This knowledge and wisdom, this Vedic voice of this sage of divinity, may, we pray, be universal, eternal and ever expansive, and may we, united and organised together on this equal and undivided earth, abide under the same one social order of this mighty life-giving ruler, living safe, secure and sustained in a state of peace and progress.

Which is that forest, which was that tree, that material cause, from which the Vishvedevas, divine powers of lord Supreme, fashioned forth the heaven and earth sustained in cosmic order in the imperishable universe, safe and protected, which the eternal days and nights and the dawns at morning and evening proclaim and adore.

There is no other universe like this nor beyond this, and yet there is one power not just exactly as this but beyond, and that is the mighty generous creator and generator who bears this heaven and earth. That is the master lord of Prakṛti, his own Shakti, the mighty material cause of the universe, and he creates and structures the sacred form of it and bears it all as the cosmic energies and space directions bear the sun.

As the sun lights up and transcends the earth, as the wind shakes the cloud of life showers and passes, so does he pervade and transcend the heaven and earth, so does he move the universe to creative activity. Where Mitra, the sun, and Varuna, the moon, i.e., the couple—prana and apana, heat and water, sun and air, sun and moon, energised and impassioned, create and release life energy, heat and desire, there Agni releases the life of life as fire releases heat and vests it in the wood.
pre-creation stage of existence) is immediately energised and impregnated by the Spirit of life Supreme, master of the herd of living forms. The original and efficient cause, first mover, creates motion in the unmoved and unmoving, and makes the potential forms move in their orbits. The saviour protector and presiding power that existed awake as ever, even before the parental couples, manifested in action and mother Prakrti gave birth to forms which now ask, seek and worship the mystery.

And man, the intelligent, they call the child of divine energy. The vibrant, the wise and bold achieve the wealth of life and divinity, and for such as draw the attention and love of divinity, the lord opens his treasure hold of joy and blesses them. None other than divinity can bless humanity with joy and ultimate fulfilment.

Mandala 10/Sukta 32

Indra Devata, Kavasha Ailusha Rshi

1. Pra su gmantā dhiyasānasya sakṣaṇi varebhir-varāḥ abhi su prasīdataḥ. Asmākamindra ubha-yam jujoṣati yat somasyāṇḍhaso bubodhati.
May Indra, omnificant spirit and highest presence of the universe, cherished object of the meditative seeker, move to accept the best of the seeker’s acts of homage and surrender and bless him in his state of clairvoyant ecstasy with the objects of his love and desire. Indeed Indra, who acknowledges the homage and service of the man dedicated to search for divinity, loves, joins and rewards our search for knowledge and action with fulfilment.

वीन्द्र यासि दिव्यानि राजचनावि पाठिेवानि जरसा पृष्ठु मय
य त्वा वहन्ति मुहुर्गढ़यां ऊप त सु वनवन्तु वग्वग्वा् अराधनाहः

2. \(Vindra\) \(yāsi\) \(divyāni\) \(rocanā\) \(vi\) \(pārthivāni\) \(rajasā\) \(puruṣṭūta\). \(Ye\) \(tvā\) \(vahanti\) \(muhuradvavarāṇ\) \(upā\) \(te\) \(su\) \(vānvantu\) \(vagvanāṇ\) \(arādhasaḥ\).

Indra, omnipotent light of the universe, adored and worshipped by all, by your universal light and energy you pervade and radiate over all divine luminaries of earth, heaven and all space. Those who continuously send up their prayers and dedicate their yajnic actions and endeavours to you win the fruits of their prayers and worship and thereby eliminate all their want and deprivations.

तदिन्म् छन्त्सदर्पुष्पा वर्पुष्टरं पुत्रा यज्ञां पित्रार्धीयति।

3. \(Tadinme\) \(chantsadvapuṣo\) \(vapuṣṭaram\) \(putro\) \(yajjānāṃ\) \(pitroradhīyati\). \(Jāyā\) \(patim\) \(vahati\) \(vagnunā\) \(sumat\) \(punśa\) \(idbhadro\) \(vahatuḥ\) \(pariṣkṛtah\).
Let it be more and more pleasing for me as soul in body form then when man grows more and more handsome than beauty itself in existence, when the child born of parents carries the family line higher forward, when the wife pleases the husband and exhorts him with sweet words to love and noble thoughts, and it is nice and auspicious for the man to be good and cleansed at heart by love and loyalty.

Indra, give us a bright happy home where illuminative voices of divine Vedic wisdom rule and lead the family as horses draw the chariot, where the mother is honoured as the first and intelligent centre of the family and where the inmates are healthy and virile with all the seven vitalities of physical health.

O seekers of divinity, there is only one guide and leader for you who creates and provides the ultimate haven for you with the divines. And that is Indra who readily and instantly comes with his powers of justice, reward and punishment. And among the seekers of immortality and freedom, divine worship and adoration alone is the ultimate and unfailing giver. Therefore offer honeyed hospitality and sincere worship for the divinities that provide the means of protection, advancement and immortality.

Let it be more and more pleasing for me as soul in body form then when man grows more and more handsome than beauty itself in existence, when the child born of parents carries the family line higher forward, when the wife pleases the husband and exhorts him with sweet words to love and noble thoughts, and it is nice and auspicious for the man to be good and cleansed at heart by love and loyalty.

The protector and preserver of the laws of divinities, Indra, divine spirit and teacher, enlightens me and speaks of the fire and spirit of life, Agni, pervasive and concealed in the waters, in particles of Prakrti abounding in space and in the will, awareness and acts of humanity. O Agni, Indra, the spirit, only experiences and watches your presence. Taught, enlightened and committed by Indra, I have come to the realisation of your presence.

Let the man ignorant of the field of life ask the teacher who knows the field and facts of life and who can communicate, and, thus taught and trained, go forward in the business of living. This only is the holy and auspicious end and aim of teaching and training for life. And this is the way of the evolution and development of tradition by which man gets enlightened on way to progress.

Just today Indra, the soul, starts receiving the energy of prana in the womb, then, covered in the womb these days, it has the feel of its existence, then, when born it sucks the mother’s milk, then it grows, thought and language comes to it, adolescence and youth, and finally old age takes it over the youth. O lord, let the resident soul in the body be holy at heart without anger and frustration.

O treasure hold of knowledge, Indra, O learned teacher, O listener of my praises and prayers, these are the holy acts of reverence and adoration which we, givers of thanks and presents, perform in homage to your honour. O men of wealth and power of knowledge, let this knowledge and this presentation of thanks and appreciation be a holy gift of gracefulness and culture, and so may this soma of knowledge be for you, the knowledge which I hold at heart in myself.

Mandala 10/Sukta 33

Vishvedevah (1), Indra (2-3), Kurushravana Trasadasyava Danastuti (4-5), Upamashrava Maitratithi (6-9) Devatah, Kavasha Ailusha Rshi

   May the divine givers of knowledge and enlightenment to the people inspire and enlighten me too, so I hold the lord giver of life and nourishment dear to my heart in the soul. May the divinities of heaven and earth in nature and humanity protect and promote me. The indomitable is come: this is the declaration.

   All round the pressures of life oppress me like rival mistresses, adversity, depression and exhaustion bind me down to loss of self-awareness, and my understanding is paralysed like the bird’s before the hunter.
3. Mūso na śiśnā vyadanti mādhyaḥ stotāraṁ te śatakraṭo. Sakṛt su no maghavannindra mṛlayā’-dhā piteva no bhava.

As mice eat up the weaver’s thread soaked in starch, so do the afflictions of want and worry consume me, your celebrant, O lord of a hundred grand acts of protection, promotion and boundless generosity. O lord of power and glory, Indra, be kind and save us now as ever, and always be our saviour and protector like a father.

4. Kuruśravaṇamāvṛṇi rājanāṁ trāsadasayavam. Maṁhiṣṭham vāghatāmrśih.

I, the man of vision and comprehensive judgement, choose and abide by the brilliant ruler, all attentive and universal listener, offspring of the destroyer of evil, want, injustice and violence, and most generous protector and patron of the wise and grateful celebrants.

5. Yasya mā harito rathe tisro vahanti sādhuyā. Stavai sahasradakṣiṇe.

I celebrate and adore Indra, generous lord of thousandfold charity of kindness and grace, whose threelfold gifts of divine knowledge, holy will and grateful prayer and adoration transport me like three horses of the divine chariot of human life well through and across the world of human existence to the state of freedom from limitations and eternal bliss.

I celebrate the brilliant ruler whose words of kindness and grace—fatherly protector, exemplary listener and exceptionally rich and honoured as he is—are like a field shower of joyous generosity for the supplicant.

O ruler, exemplary kind, exceptionally generous, honourable son and scion of the line of the ruler, friend of friends and strangers alike, I honour and adore your father and your family line. Pray come and bless.

If I were master controller and ruler of the mortal as well as of the immortal principles and elements of my existence, then I would be really alive in all my power and potential for all time.

न दूवानामति कुंते श्वतात्मा चन जीवति।
तथा युजा वि चावृत ॥ ९ ॥

9.

No soul of a hundred year life on earth, even if it had a hundred lives, can live beyond the laws of nature and divinity, therefore it has to leave and return to life with its natural concomitants of body and mind again and again in the cycle.

Mandala 10/Sukta 34

Aksha (1, 7, 9, 12), Krshi (13), Akshakita Ninda (2-6, 8, 10, 11, 14) Devata, Kavasha Ailusha or Aksha Maujavan Rshi

Prāvepā mā brhato mādayanti pravātejā iriṇe varvṛtānāḥ. Somasyeva maunjavatasya bhakṣo vibhīdako jāgṛvir-mahyam-acchān.

The large quivering dice, made of vibhidika tree grown on grassy green mountain slopes, shaking and rolling awesome on the dice board, tantalise me like the sight of exhilarating drink from a munja grass covered mountain valley, they excite me and I lose my sleep.
2. Na mā mimetha na jihīla eṣā śivā sakhibhya uta mahyamāsīt. Akṣasyāham-ekaparasya hetoranuvratāmapa jāyāmarodham.

This gentle lady, my wife, is good to me and to my friends, she never quarrels with me nor does she embarrass or hate me. Alas, for one reason, my persistent addiction to gambling, have I alienated my devoted wife totally dedicated to her life’s duty.

Normally speaking, the wife of a gambler feels indifferent and alienated from him, the mother-in-law hates him, the wretched man finds no friends’ sympathy, there is none to comfort him. Like an old, exhausted, broken horse, though he might have been valuable otherwise, no one bids for him. I set no value upon the gambler. Who would?

Others covet his wife as a possible prize since the mighty dice have cheated him of his money and all wealth. Father, mother, brother, all disown him and say: off with him, we bound and taken. We know him not.

5. Yadādīdhye na davīśāṇyebhīḥ parāyadbhyo’va hīye sakhibhyah. Nyuptāśca babhravo vācama-krataṇ emīdeśāṁ niṣkṛtaṁ jāriṇīva.

When I realise and think I must not play with dice and must not be miserable, even then, having so decided, I succumb to the approaching dice as to seductive friends. Red and shining dice cast in the game rattle and resound, and I walk into the den like a woman stealing to her paramour.

Puffed up in body and mind, the gambler moves to the gambling house asking, even assuring, himself in mind: Shall I win? I must, this time. And his dice, held and poised in hand to defeat his rival, inflame his fire to play and win, more and more.
Others covet his wife as a possible prize since the mighty dice have cheated him of his money and all wealth. Father, mother, brother, all disown him and say: off with him, we bound and taken. We know him not.

When I realise and think I must not play with dice and must not be miserable, even then, having so decided, I succumb to the approaching dice as to seductive friends. Red and shining dice cast in the game rattle and resound, and I walk into the den like a woman stealing to her paramour.

The dice hold the gambler by the hook, pierce like a dagger, hew down the man and even his family from the root, as a hatchet, burn like fire and torture like incessant pain. For the winner, they bring joyous gifts for the time but later in turn they destroy, and though soaked in honey for the moment, they tear the gambler to pieces at the end.

The group of fifty-three of those dice is played strictly within unsparing rules of the game like the divine sun observing the laws of its motion. They do not bow even to the strongest of men, indeed the ruler bows and offers obeisance to the dice (if he too is addicted).
Some time they go down, some time they spring up high, and although they are armless they beat the strongest armed warrior. Thrown upon the dice board, they can be burning brilliant and some time, even though ice cold, they burn the heart.

The forsaken wife of the gambler suffers at heart, the mother of her child wandering somewhere feels tortured by loss. Down under loss and debt, pining for money, he is oppressed by fear, and at night goes to other’s home either for shelter or for money the way he can get.

The gambler suffers when he sees his wife, and he regrets when he sees another’s wife well settled, their noble acts and comfortable home. Yet again in the forenoon he grabs the tempting dice as a warrior takes to his steed, but when the fire is gone cold, he falls down broken and farlorn.
12. Yo vah senāṇīrmahato gaṇasya rājā vrātasya prathamo babhūva. Tasmai kṛnomi na dhanā ruṇadhmi daśāhāṁ prācīnadṛtaṁ vadāmi.

O dice, O gamblers, to that which is the first and foremost of you, the ruler of your mighty order and organisation, the leading warrior over all of you, my homage and salutation with farewell with folded hands and all the ten fingers, open all in front with the vow that I would lose no money any more, and this is the truth I speak. (The gambler shows his ten fingers, may be, because his hands are empty now.)

13. Akṣairmaḥ dīvyah kṛṣimit kṛṣasva vitte ramasva bahu manyamānah. Tatra gāvaḥ kitava tatra jāyā tanme vi caṣṭe savitāyamaryāḥ.

Play not with dice. Till the land. Be happy with the land and wealth you produce. Take it that that much is enough and be content. There are the cows, O gambler, there your wife is happy. This is what Savita, lord of life and giver of light has revealed to me.

Be friends, make friends, be good and kind to us. Treat us not with the torture of fear and suppression. Let your anger and passion subside into peace and tranquillity, and may another unfortunate in adversity in the snares of dice be the same way free.

Mandala 10/Sukta 35

Vishvedevah Devata, Lusha Dhanaka Rshi

In the early hours of the dawn, those flames of morning fire bearing light and energy of the sun awake and awaken the great heaven and earth, dispelling the darkness, and arouse the people to the karmic business of the day. In this very morning hour of the day, we pray for the protection and promotive energy of the divinities of nature and humanity for enlightenment.

We pray for the good will, protection and inspiration of heaven and earth for light and nourishment. We want the love and blessings of mother powers, the energy and liquid flow of the streams and seas, showers of clouds, the cool of mountain snows and gifts of soma herbs. We pray for the energies of all that is dynamic and generous in life. Innocent and free from sin, we pray for the rise of a new dawn and light of the sun every day. May the peace, beauty and inspiration of nature at dawn inspired with the love and power of divinity bless us with vision, will and power to act here and now so that we too may rise and shine.

May this new day, the great mother powers of earth and heaven, generous givers of inspiration, light and settlement, protect and promote us, their innocent children, for the sake of happiness and well being. May the bright dawn now rising keep off sin and evil. We pray that the lighted fire and rising light and all enlightened powers of human will and action be good to us and all may be well and blissful.
4. Iyaṁ na usrā prathamā sudevyam revat sanibhyo revatī vyucchatu. Āre manyum durvidatrasya dhīmahi svastyagnim samidhā-nam-īmahe.

This dawn, this maiden, this first moving power of the early day, blest with wealth and energy of rising life may, we pray, shine, bring us and illuminate divine gifts of life worthy of the holies for the friendly community of seekers. May we cast off the anger and malice of the unbearables and take in and internalise the love and enthusiasm of the most challenging discipline of life divine. We pray may the lighted fire and rising dawn bring all happiness and all round well being of life.

The lights of dawn at the break of day which shine with rays of the sun, bearing the message of enlightenment, may, we pray, rise and radiate and be good for us today for our nourishment of body, mind and soul and for our honour and excellence of life. We pray may the lighted fire and rising dawn bring us all happiness and well being of life.
6. Anamīvā uṣasa ā carantu na udagnayo jihaṭāṁ jyotiśā bṛhat. Āyukṣātāmaśvinā tūtujim rathāṁ svastyagnim samidhānam-īmahe.

May the dawns free from ailments bring us good health, and may the yajna fires rise up high with blazing light. Let the day and night keep the fastest chariot in harness for us. We pray may the lighted fire and the rising dawn bring us all happiness and well being of life.

7. Śreṣṭham no adya savitarvareṇyam bhāgamā suva sa hi ratnadā asi. Rāyo janitrīṁ dhiṣa-ṇāmupa bruve svastyagnim samidhānam-īmahe.

O Savita, lord of life and giver of light, create for us the highest of our choice share of life’s joy to our satisfaction and pleasure as you are the treasure hold of the jewels of life. I speak and pray to the voice and omniscience of divinity, universal creator of life’s wealth: May the rising dawn and lighted fire bring us all happiness and well being of life.

May that original voice of divinities, which revealed the nature and laws of existence at the beginning of human creation and which we humans honour, adore and pray for, protect and promote us with fulfilment. The sun rises, the same one, and illuminates all the dawns. We pray may the lighted fire and rising dawn bless us with felicity and total fulfilment.

9. Adveṣo adya barhiṣṭhaḥ starīmaṇi grāvṇāṁ yoge manmanah śādha imahe. Ādityānāṁ śarmanī śthā bhuraṇyasi svastyagnīṁ samidhānam-imāhe.

Today in the congregation of the sages on the holy grass spread on the yajna vedi of search for knowledge without jealousy, anger and malice, we pray for the fulfilment of our aspirations. O man, smart and brilliant as you are, we wish that you enjoy the light and peace of the bliss and warmth of the sun in the zodiacs throughout the year in the inspiring company of eminent scholars and thus advance. We pray that the lighted fire and rising dawn bless us with felicity and total fulfilment.

10. Ā no barhiḥ sadhamāde bṛhaddivi devāṁ īle sādayā sapta hotīn. Indraṁ mitraṁ varuṇaṁ sātaye bhagāṁ svastyagnīṁ samidhānamīmahe.
O lord of light and bliss, O Adityas, phases of the sun and earth on the move, in this joyous hall of yajna in our open ended search for physical, mental and spiritual knowledge and well being, I invoke the brilliances of nature and humanity and pray let the seven priests be seated for the conduct of the yajna (the seven being senses of perception, senses of volition, speech, mind, discriminative intelligence, selective memory, and the self). We invoke Indra, divine and secular power, Mitra, divine and human love and cohesion with cooperation, Varuna, divine and human judgement and choice in relation to nature and society, and Bhaga, divine glory and human prosperity with power and self confidence, for sure success and victory. We pray may the lighted fire and rising dawn bless us with felicity and self fulfilment.

May the Adityas come and join us with love and favour for the advancement and comprehensive success of our yajna of universal character and save, protect and promote our yajnic projects of creative progress. We invoke Brhaspati, power of infinite knowledge and speech, Pushan, power of nourishment and growth, Ashvins, complementary powers of nature and humanity, and Bhaga, spirit of universal power and prosperity and pray may the lighted fire and the rising dawn bring us felicity and total self-fulfilment.

May the Adityas, divine harbingers of the light of omniscient divinity at the dawn of humanity, give us that universal word of knowledge and that peaceful settlement in life which holds all abundant power and prosperity for the protection and advancement of our human family, the animals, our children and grand children for our good health and full life of joy. We pray may the lighted fire and the rising dawn bring us all felicity and total fulfilment.

Today in this life of ours, may all the winds and pranic energies and all lighted fires of the world bring us all protections and promotions. May all divine powers of nature and humanity in the world come with all protection, power and progress. May all wealth, honour and excellence of the world, all speed, success and victory be our common human heritage, good fortune and universal victory.

14. \[\text{Yam devāso'vatha vājasātau yam trāyadhve yam pipṛthātyāṁhaḥ. Yo vo gopīthe na bhayasya veda te syāma devavītaye turāsaḥ.} \]

O Vishvedevas, divine powers of nature and humanity, pray let us be, help us all to be, a happy, vibrant and dynamic human community of noble nature, character and action living the life divine and moving ahead on the holy path of life to total fulfilment here and beyond: The person and the community whom you protect, guide and lead to victory in the struggle of existence, whom you save, guard and direct against sin and suffering to success knows no fear. Pray let us be that on the paths of pilgrimage to the Life Divine.

Mandala 10/Sukta 36

Vishvedevah Devata, Lusha Dhanaka Rshi

\[\text{उषासानक्तां बृहती सुपश्चासा द्वाः गाम्मा वरुण्णमा मित्रर्} \]
\[\text{अर्यमां। इन्दं हृव मरुतृं पर्वतां अप आदित्यां द्वारापृथिवी} \]

1. \[\text{Uṣāsānaktā ḥṝta supeśasā dyāvākṣāmā varuṇo} \]
\[\text{mitro aryamā. Indraṁ huve marutāḥ parvatāṁ} \]
\[\text{apa ādityān dyāvāprthivī apaḥ svaḥ.} \]

I invoke the rising dawn of the light of day and the soothing darkness of restful night, the radiant illuminative heaven and the vast sheltering stabilising earth, both great and expansive, beautiful and beatific,
I invoke Varuna, oceans of earth and spatial vapours, Mitra, friendly warmth of the sun, Aryama, refreshing breezes, Indra, infinite energy and power of nature, Maruts, stormy forces of the winds, clouds and mountains, sun rays, zodiacs of the sun, radiative energy of the sun and magnetic and gravitational energy of earth, the middle regions of space for expansion and the highest regions of light for illumination.

2. Dyauśca nah pṛthivī ca pracetasa rtāvarī rakṣatāmaṃhaso riṣāḥ. Mā durvidatrā nirṛtirna īṣata ta-ddevānāmavo adyā vr̥ṇīmahe.

The sun and the earth, father and mother, both sources of enlightenment, both committed to divine law and replete with dynamic energy, may, we pray, protect us from sin and violence. Let ignorance, injustice and adversity never dominate our life, let pain and suffering keep off. This is the safety, security and protection of our choice we pray for of the divinities today.

3. Viśvāsmānno aditiḥ pātvanāhaso mātā mitrasya varuṇasya revataḥ. Svarvajjyotiravṛkṣam naśi-mahi taddevānāmavo adyā vr̥ṇīmahe.

May the eternal mother power, the divine Shakti, Aditi, protect us from sin and suffering of the world, she being the mother of abundant sun and ocean, love and judgement. May we receive the light of heaven without violence. This is our prayer for protection we may make to the divinities with free choice today.

May the thundering voice of wise sages keep off all destructive forces, evil dreams, want, adversity and fear of death, and all voracious elements of society. May we obtain the protection, peace and enlightenment of the leading lights and stormy troops of society. This is the shelter and protection we now pray for, of our own choice, from the divinities.

5. Endro barhiḥ sī datu pinvatāmilā brhaspatiḥ sāmabhīrṛkvo arcatu. Supraketaṁ jīvase manma dhīmahi taddevānāmavo adyā vṛṇīmahe.

May Indra, omnipotent lord of the universe, enlighten us at heart and bless our yajnic home, may Ila, the earth and the divine voice, raise our health and awareness, may Brhaspati, sagely scholar of the divine Word, adore the spirit with songs of praise, and may we obtain divine wisdom and intelligence and meditate on the light divine. This is the favour and protection of the divinities we pray for today.

May the Ashvins, complementary fire and wind, refine and energise our yajña of love and non-violence, fed on ghrta, rising in high flames as ever before, and may they raise it to the regions of the sun to bring us peace and joy for the fulfilment of our aspirations. This is the favour and protection of the divinities we pray for today.

I invoke and call upon the band of Maruts, vibrant winds of nature and dynamic sages and pioneers of humanity, worthy of service and adoration, pure and purifying and harbingers of peace and well being, all heroic and sublime. I invoke them to win their love and friendship. We study and meditate upon wealth, energy and enrichment for participation in their grace and glory.
This is the protective and promotive favour of the divinities we choose to pray for today.

We bear Soma at heart, love and honour Soma, spirit of universal peace, vitality and ecstasy, protector and promoter of life’s liquid energies for action, inspirer of life adorable for the divinities, beauty of the yajna of love and non-violence, worthy of invocation and celebration. Beautiful are its flames of fire, its rays of light and its waves of fragrance worthy of being perceived, experienced and internalised, all these we love. And that Soma is the gift, favour and protection of the divinities we choose to pray for, this day.

Let us join and live that Soma spirit of life along with all others who live it with passion and enthusiasm. We are all children of life, living and vibrant with our children and grand children, free from sin and crime.
Let others who negate, hate and violate that universal Spirit of love, life and peace bear, for that reason, their negativities and the dispensation thereof. And that favour of the love of Soma and protection against negativities we beg of the divinities this day.

And listen all, those who are dedicated to yajna at heart in communion with divine Soma, be steadfast and, O divine souls, bear and bring us that we pray for from you : Bring us the spirit of success and victory, holy yajnic action, wealth, honour and fame with progeny worthy of the brave. That is the favour and prayer of our choice we ask of you this day.

Today, the grandeur of the great we ask for, of our own choice, and the protection of the grand progressive and irresistible divinities we pray for, so that we may acquire the security and stability created and established by brave generations of humanity: that is the favour and prayer of our choice for protection of the divinities we ask for this day.

11. Today, the grandeur of the great we ask for, of our own choice, and the protection of the grand progressive and irresistible divinities we pray for, so that we may acquire the security and stability created and established by brave generations of humanity: that is the favour and prayer of our choice for protection of the divinities we ask for this day.

12. Let us live under the shelter and protection of the great Agni, self-refulgent, self enlightened leading light of the cosmic yajna. Let us live free from sin and evil under the abundant care of Mitra, friendly sun, and Varuna, boundless ocean of space, for the achievement of plenty, prosperity and all round well being. Let us live under the guidance and ruling control of Savita, highest spirit of life, creation and regeneration. This is the gift of protection and progress we choose to ask of the divinities this day.
All those generous, brilliant and illuminative divinities of the world, both in nature and in humanity, which observe and work under the laws and discipline of Savita, creator of the world of truth and reality, Mitra, lord of light and love, and Varuna, lord of judgement and boundless abundance, may they all bear and bring for us all holy good fortune, power of choice and action, and wondrous variety of wealth blest with brave progeny, lands, cows and culture of enlightenment.

May Savita protect us from behind. May Savita protect us in front. May Savita protect us from above. May Savita protect us from below. May Savita bless us all round, create and give us universal wealth of existence. May Savita bless us with a long, happy and full life.

Mandala 10/Sukta 37
Surya Devata, Abhitapa Saurya Rshi

Namo mitrasya varuṇasya caṣṣate maho devāya tadṛtaṁ saparyata. Dūredṛśe devajātāya ketave divasputrāya sūryāya śāṁsata. || १ ||
Homage and salutations to the eye of the lord of universal love and cosmic judgement, lord of day and deep night, mighty generous light of the world. Observe and abide by that universal law of the lord. Sing and celebrate in honour of the Sun, child of Light, heavenly ensign of divine refulgence, born of space, the eye that can see as far as the bounds of existence.

2. Sa mā satyoktiḥ pari pātu viśvato dyāvā ca yatra tatanannahāṇi ca. Viśvamanyanni viśate yadejati viśvāhāpo viśvāhodeti sūryaḥ.

May the word of truth abide by me and protect and sustain me all round all time: That Sun, light of the world, is the presence in which the heavens of light and the green earth abide, days and nights arise and expand, wherein the other worlds abide and all else moves and abides, wherein all dynamics of the universe abide and move day and night, wherein the sun rises every morning for all time in the existential world.

3. Na te adevaḥ pradivo ni vāsate yadetaśeṣbih patarai ratharyasi. Prācīnām anyadanu var Tate raja udanyena jyotisā yāṣī sūrya.

O sun, when you ride your chariot and move on with the radiation of your rays, the earlier darkness of the night does not stay before you, instead it moves on to the other region you left behind, and as you move on, you go forward with your light for another region of the world.

O sun, by the light by which you dispel the darkness, and by the rise by which you go up and light up the moving world in the day, by that very light and enlightenment, pray, dispel and throw out all famine of food in the world, all poverty of yajnic programmes, all sickness and disease, and all depression and evil dreams born of want and poverty of light.

5. Visvasya hi preśito rakṣasi vrataṃahaṃlayannuccarasi svadhā anu. Yadadya tvā sūryopabra-vāmahai tan no devā anu māṃsirata kratum.

O lord of light, moved and inspired by your own divine self and invoked by prayers of the supplicants, you protect and rule the laws and disciplines of the world around, and without passion or disturbance you rise and move according to your own powers and in response to your celebrants’ homage (such as the homage of the planets and yajnic offers of devotees). O sun, whatever we pray for, may the divinities of nature and humanity favour and respond to our yajnic action and prayer.

That word of invocation and prayer, and that word of homage and prayer with supplication may the heaven and earth as father and mother, waters of earth and space and the learned sages of holy attainments, Indra, omnipotent lord and ruler of the earth, Maruts, pranic energies of life and leading lights of humanity listen, and may they favourably respond. May they never be indifferent. May we live blest in the light of the sun and the illumination of divinity. We pray that living in peace and felicity, we may enjoy a full life of good health and mental and spiritual fulfilment.

We pray, O sun, may we be happy at heart, enlightened of vision, blest with noble progeny, free from ill health, sin and evil, and thus happy and healthy, live long to see you rising every day all the time. May we, O sun, see you rising day by day as the greatest friend of ours and live long for a happy time in the light and bliss divine.

8. Mahi jyotirbibhrataṁ tvā vicaksana bhāsvantaṁ cakṣuṣe cakṣuṣe mayaḥ. Ārohantam brhataḥ pājasaspri vayaṁ jīvāḥ prati paśyema sūrya.

O sun, lord of vision watching all, we pray that while we live a long and full life time here on earth, we may continue to see you as the divine power bearing great light of life, shining bright and blessing every living eye with light and joy, and rising high over the vast order of mighty time and the world of existence.

O Sun, self-refulgent divinity, by whose light and sustaining power all regions of the universe, stars and planets move on with their tasks in their own orbits and then recede into their state of rest as into the night, O lord of radiant light and fire of life, by your inviolable purity of law and natural piety, shine, and emerge more and more bright and excellent for our experience, guidance and sustenance day by day for us.
we, O sun, see you rising day by day as the greatest friend of ours and live long for a happy time in the light and bliss divine.

By your light and gracious eye, let there be peace and bliss for us, peace and well being by day, peace and bliss by light and solar radiation, peace by the cool of snow and peace by soothing warmth of the sun, peace the way it may be possible on our paths of progress, and peace and all round well being in the home. That wondrous variety of wealth, honour and excellence, O Sun, give us by which there may be all round peace and total well being in life.

May all you Devas, divinities of nature and humanity, give us peace and felicity for our life, for both humans and animals. Let all that is eating, all that is drinking be strong, energetic and fulfilled. Pray give us that peace and well being which is free from violence, sin and evil.
12. Yadvo devāścakṛma jihvāyā guru manaso vā prayuñī devahelānanam. Arāvā yo no abhi succhunāyate tasmin tadeno vasavo ni dhētana.

O Devas, divinities of nature and humanity, if we trespass or do some grave offence by word, thought or action and behaviour to earn your displeasure or even provoke your anger, pray forgive us and cleanse us of that weakness and negativity. And if there be some mean and uncharitable person among us who behaves in a vile manner toward us, then O divine givers of peace and shelter, pray let that sin visit back upon the source.

Mandala 10/Sukta 38

Indra Devata, Mushkavan Indra Rshi

1. Asmin na indra pṛtсутau yaśасvati śīṃīvati kran-daśi prāva sātaye. Yatra gośātā dhṛṣīteśu khādiṣu viṣvāk patanti didyavo nṛṣahye.

Indra, O ruler of the world, in this mighty battle for honour and industry, you roar and thunder, pray defend and protect us to advance to the victory. This is a battle for the reclamation, defence and development of the lands and cows, between bold, undaunted soldiers thirsting for the enemy’s blood, and on them, in this murderous contest, sharp and blazing arrows fall on all sides.

2. Sa nah kṣumantaṁ sadane vyūrṇuḥi go-arṇasaṁ rayimindra śravāyyam. Syāma te jayataḥ śakra medino yathā vayamuśmasi tadvaso kṛdhi.

Indra, O lord of power and glory, in this house of the social order abundant in food, water and the wealth of lands and cows, cover, protect and promote the honoured wealth of the nation. O mighty victorious lord, let us be your friends, allies and admirers and, O lord giver of peace, settlement and a good home, pray do as we would wish to fulfil our aspirations.

3. Yo no dāsa āryo vā puruṣṭutā’deva indra yudhaye ciketati. Astābhīṣṭe suṣahāḥ santu śatrasvastvayā vayam tān vanuyāma saṁgame.

O lord most admired and celebrated, Indra, whether it is a power ignoble and slavish in character, or even one dynamic in character but undivine and negative, who challenges us to battle, let those enemies be boldly faced and fought out, and let us all under your leadership, overthrow and destroy them in battle.
4. Yo dabhebhirhavyo yaśca bhūribhiryo abhike varivovinnṛṣāhye. Taṁ vikhāde sasnimadya śrutam naramarvāṇcamindramavase karāmahe.

In the decisive battle of humanity to the point of the destruction of evil and negative forces, we now choose and install that man as Indra, leader for defence, protection and progress, who is adorable equally by the select few and the many, small as well as great, who is clean and pure, reputable and universally rich and powerful to create the space and freedom for thought and action around.

5. Svavrjaṁ hi tvām-aham-indra śuśravānānudāṁ vrṣabha radhracodanam. Pra muñcasva pari kutsādīhā gahi kimu tvāvān muskayorbaddha āsate.

Come Indra, lord potent and generous, rise and take on the leadership. We hear and know you are powerful by yourself to uproot evil, indefatigable, inspirer of fighting forces, uplifter of the weak and breaker of blockades. Pray be free and free us from terror and violence. How can the brave like you stay back stolen by ravishment in obscurity?
Mandala 10/Sukta 39

Ashvinau Devata, Ghosha Kakshivati Rshi

1. Yo vāṁ pariṃmā suvrdaśvinā ratho doṣāmuṣāso havyo havismatā. Śaśvattamāsastamu vāmidāṁ vayaṁ piturna nāma suhavaṁ havāmahe.

   Ashvins, complementary powers of nature and humanity like heat and cold, light and liquids, teacher and preacher, science and technology, swift and smooth is your chariot, turning, moving and going all over the world in all directions. Adored and adorable is it day and night by admiring priests, worthy of invocation by them with homage and havi. Since time immemorial we have been calling on you and this chariot of yours as we chant the holy name of father, and we call upon you, riders of the chariot, now.

   Ashvins, inspire, energise and raise the voice of truth and divine law of eternity. Nourish, strengthen and advance the intelligence and will of humanity for action. Raise up, strengthen and confirm the principles and policies which govern and sustain the values of human institutions. That is what we love and desire of you. Create and confirm our share of honour and excellence in the affairs of human society. Vest the beauty and grace of sweetness and culture for our sake among the men of wealth and power.

3. \textit{Amājuraścidbhavatho yuvāṁ bhago’nāśościda-vitārāpamasya cit. Andhasya cinnāsatyā kṛśasya cidyuvāmidāhurbiṣajā rutasya cit.}

Ashvins, you are the hope and inspiration of the bed-ridden home-confined old person. You are saviours of the debilitated and the weakest persons who are unable to eat and move. O lovers and observers of the truth and law of nature, you bring light for the blind, strength for the anaemic and health for the chronic sufferers. That is what people call you, “saviours of life”.

4. \textit{Yuvaṁ cyāvānaṁ sanayaṁ yathā rathāṁ purān-yuvānaṁ carathāya taksathuḥ. Niṣṭaughrya-mūhathuradbhyaspari viśvet tā vāṁ savaneṣu pravācyā.}

You rejuvenate the broken old man to fresh youth to go round and enjoy life as the craftsman repairs an old worn out chariot and converts it to new efficiency. You raise the drowned man from the water and revive him to life. That’s why all your works and achievements are praised and celebrated in holy gatherings.

O physician and surgeon dedicated to truth and goodness of life, your old and ancient deeds I proclaim and praise among people. Be you both harbingers of good health, peace and joy. We celebrate you both as adorable for the sake of health and protection so that this dynamic community may have faith and trust in you.

I, this supplicant girl, request you, Ashvins, pray listen to me, and as father speaks to the child, so please instruct me on matters of health. I am alone and unrelated, ignorant, without kith and kin and immature. Pray protect me with knowledge before the onslaught of the effects of that ignorance.
7. Yuvaṁ rathena vimadāya śundhyuvaṁ nyūhathuḥ purumitrasya yoṣaṇāṁ. Yuvaṁ havam vadhri-matyā agacchataṁ yuvaṁ suṣutiṁ cakrathuḥ purandhaye.

O Ashvins, with your knowledge of body and mind, you join the youthful, bright and intelligent daughter of the widely friendly father with a bright young man for their joy and fulfilment. You listen to the call of the barren woman, treat her, restore her fertility, and she is blest with a child for a joyous home life.

8. Yuvaṁ viprasya jaraṁ-upeyJuṣaḥ punaḥ kalerakṛṇutam yuvadvayaḥ. Yuvaṁ vandana-mṛśyadād-udāpatthu-yuvaṁ sadyo viśpalāṁ- etave kṛthaḥ.

You rejuvenate and restore to vibrant youthfulness the aging veteran scholar in pursuit of research. You raise the man of holiness from chronic ailment to renewed life. And you help the public health authority in community health programmes so that they may go on with their normal activity.

9. Yuvaṁ ha rebham vṛṣaṇā guhā hitamudair-ayatam mamṛvāmsam-aśvinā. Yuvaṁbīsamuta taptamatraya omanvantam cakrathuḥ sapta-vadhraye.
You revive the sinking man who has lost consciousness, all but surviving in the brain, and muttering from the subconscious. You cure the man in high fever in the state of delirium and restore him to health, full consciousness and self-immunity with all his five senses, mind and intelligence fully working in perfect order.

Ashvins, for the active intelligent soul you give pure unsullied virility and vitality and vibrant swift smartness blest with nine and ninety qualities and faculties of body (nine faculties of sense and mind each energised with ten pranic energies) ever in action onward like a constant friend as you bring for people plenty, prosperity and power full of peace and joy worthy of love and invocation in life for all time.

O brilliant, independent and inviolable twin twin... divine powers, nothing from any where, no sin, no evil, no hate, no fear touches him whom, O Ashvins, easily invoked and approachable, moving by paths free from the pain and suffering of ailments, you join in wedlock and lead forth to a happy home.

O Ashvins, morning stars divine, come by that chariot of yours faster than mind which the celestial artists crafted for you, that which you yoke in harness and the maiden of heaven walks forth to ride and rise and then both the happy day and soothing night born of the sun move on.

O Ashvins, divine powers of knowledge and action, enlightened men and women of the world, harness the victorious chariot of divine vision and inspiration, rise forth and move forward by the road to the clouds, strengthen and raise the rousing voice for sleeping humanity, and with your voice and actions free the poor victims seized and held in the jaws of wolves.

Ashvins, complementary twin powers of nature and humanity, this song of adoration we offer in your honour as the divine artists craft and offer the celestial chariot for you, and we have adorned it as we always adorn and prepare a bride for the groom. Blest with children and grand children we abide in life (and depend on you for strength and inspiration in the life cycle day and night, through the seasons, year in and year out).

Mandala 10/Sukta 40

Ashvinau Devata, Ghosha Kakshivati Rshi

O leading lights of life and humanity, who and where, with holy intelligence and action, crafts, adorns and prepares your mighty spacious, brilliant, and auspicious chariot ever on the move in action going every morning to yajna every day to every people, bearing and bringing all kinds of wealth for the sake of happiness and well being?

2. Kuha svid doṣā kuha vastoraśvinā kuhābhhipitvaṁ karataḥ kuhoṣatuh. Ko vāṁ śayutrā vidhaveva devaram maryaṁ na yośā kṛṣṇute sadhastha ā.

Ashvins, man and woman, where were you at night? Where in the day? Where do you find food and rest? Where do you live? Where do you sleep? Where do you stay together like the widow with her second husband, or a maiden married to a youth? Who invites you to yajna?

Early morning, like venerable divinities you are honoured with songs of praise. Venerable and adorable, you visit the devotee’s home day by day. Whose weaknesses do you destroy? And O leading lights of humanity, whose house and yajna do you visit like the princes of a royal realm?

Looking and searching for you as seekers and saviours, we invoke and invite you with homage day and night. All house holders invoke you and offer you homage of havi according to the seasons, and you, leading lights for humanity, treasure holds of good and promoters of the auspicious, bring food and energy for the people.

Ashvins, leading lights of the land, rulers and warriors, this voice of the ruling order like a daughter of the sovereign, going round and knowing every thing of the state, asks you and says : Be up and awake for me day and night and strengthen yourselves and strengthen me to meet the challenges of the forces of horse, chariot and the stormy troopers and thus save me and the social order.

Ashvins, you are visionary poetic creators, stay fast on the chariot, go to the people and appreciate their songs of adoration as a creator and maker of songs would. The honey sweets of your creation, the honey bees taste and drink with their mouth as a youthful woman loves the sweet beauty of her new home.

7. \textit{Yuvaṁ ha bhujyunṁ yuvamaśвинā vaśaṁ yuvaṁ śiñjāram-uśanām-upārathuh. Yuvo rarāva pari sakhyamāsate yuvor-ahamavasā sumnamā cake.}

Ashvins, protect the protector and sustainer of the people’s standard of living, protect the dependent and supporter, protect him who appreciates and adores, and protect the poet of love and beauty. Your generous admirer loves to be friends with you, and I too pray for your protection and gift of well being. Pray help all these people to complete their journey of life to self-fulfilment.

8. \textit{Yuvaṁ ha kṛśaṁ yuvamaśвинā śayuṁ yuvaṁ vidhantaṁ vidhavāṁ-uruṣyathāḥ. Yuvaṁ sanibhyah stanayantam-aśvinā’pa vrajamūrṇu-thaḥ saptāsyam.}

Ashvins, both of you, pray protect and support the weak, the depressed, the supporter of the weak, and... the widow who has lost all support. And, O Ashvins, for the lovers of knowledge and devotees of yajna and divinity, open the seven rousing flood gates of the seven metres of Vedic poetry for chanting and hearing.

9. \(\text{Janiṣṭa yoṣa paṭayat kaṇīnako vi cāruhaṇa vīrudho daṁsanā anu. Āsmai rīyante nivaneva sindhavo’-smā ahne bhavati tat patitvanam.}\)

The maiden is grown mature, the suitor comes seeking and proposes for marriage, the plants and creepers bloom according to innate power and potential, streams and rivers, desires and passions for living and continuing, flow down the slopes for the young man, and that is the stage for matrimony when the day of youthfulness is on the high and irrepressible.

10. \(\text{Jīvaṁ rudanti vi mayante adhvare dīrghāmanu prasitiṁ didhiyurnaraḥ. Vāmaṁ pitṛbhyo ya idaṁ samerire mayaḥ patibhyo janayaḥ parisvaje.}\)

People yearn for life, live it with tears and ecstasy, exchange vows and positions on the vedi of love and non-violence, and they desire that they live in wedlock as long as they may wish. Those who live in this felicity for their parents and elders, even away from them, would live happy, their wives would love them and bring them peace and joy in their conjugal relationship.

11. Na tasya vidma tudu śu pra vocata yuvā ha yadyuvatvyāḥ kṣetī yoniṣu. Priyosriyasya vṛṣabhasya retino gṛhanī gamemāśvinā tadvānmāsi.

We know not of that mystery of life, O Ashvins, pray speak of that mystery, that bond and felicity, to the youth who lives in the home of his youthful wife. We only wish that we may find a sweet home with a loving, generous, virile young man, loving at heart and winsome to his wife.

O Ashvins, twin powers of domestic complementarity of love and wisdom, masters of the science and art of wedlock and home life, may the benefit of your enlightenment come to us, may there be the joy of life with wisdom and emotional control in our hearts. That way, be our protectors as leading lights in our pursuit of happiness and well being. Bless us that we may love, desire and find a home with loving, enlightened, generous and caring husbands.

Tā mandasānā manuṣaṇa duroṇa ā dhattāṁ rayiṁ sahavīrāṁ vacasyave. Kṛtam tīrtham suprapā-ṇāṁ subhaspatiḥ sthāñum patheṣṭhāmapa durma-tīṁ hatam.

O Ashvins, joyous spirits of love and wisdom, prosperity and generosity, to the celebrant of life and divinity, to the house of humanity, bear and bring wealth, honour and excellence with brave progeny worthy of the celebrant. O givers, protectors and promoters of the good and well being of life, establish a happy home life overflowing with food, drink and freedom of holiness. Pray cast away infirmity, rigidity, hatred and negative disposition that may obstruct our path of progress in life.

14.

Kva svidadya katamāśvaśvinā vikṣu dasrā māda-yete subhaspatiḥ. Ka īṁ ni yeme katamasya jag-matur-viprasya vā yajamānasya vā grham.

Ashvins, lustrous divinities, wondrous workers, where have you been today? Among which people have you been enjoying yourselves for the day? Who can make you stay for the day? Which sage’s or which yajamana’s home did you visit for the day?
Mandala 10/Sukta 41

Ashvinau Devata, Suhastya Ghausheya Rshi

1. Samānamu tyāṁ puruhūtāṁ-ukṭhayāṁ rathaṁ tricakraṁ savanā āgamītām. Parijānam vida-thyāṁ suvṛktibhirvayāṁ vyuṣṭā uṣasco havāmahe.

O Ashvins, harbingers of new light and energy, in the light of the dawn with holy chant of mantric formulae, we invoke and call for that constant and invariable, universally loved and invoked, venerable and purposefully specialised three stage three wheeled chariot which would be constantly on the move to reach yajnic programmes all over the earth.

2. Prātaryujaṁ nāsatiyādhī tiṣṭhathaḥ prātaryā-vāṇaṁ madhvāhanam ratham. Viśo yena gac-chatho yajvarīrnarā kīreścidadjñāṁ hoṭṛmantamaśvinā.

O Ashvins, harbingers of the light of knowledge and energy of life, leading lights of humanity dedicated to truth and never deviating from your path of rectitude, you ride and guide the chariot harnessed, started and moving in the morning, which bears and brings honey sweets of life and by which you reach the yajnic communities and bless the celebrant’s yajna joined by devotees in unison and cooperation.

O Ashvins, harbingers of the light of knowledge and practical power and energy through yajna, whether you go to the dexterous organiser of yajna, bearing honeyed offerings, or you go to the initiator of yajna and fire kindler, expert in the science and power of yajna and at the same time generous and socially oriented, or whether you go to the yajnas of the vibrant scholar specialist, you would have a taste of the honey sweets of life for achievement.

Mandala 10/Sukta 42

Indra Devata, Krishna Angirasa Rshi

As an expert archer shoots a distant target with the arrow, similarly bear and offer a holy song in honour of divine Indra, thereby exalting him with the beauties of word and music. O sages, with your voice of song... overwhelm the other voice, of negation. O celebrant, hold the divine Indra at heart, be happy and let the Presence shine in your peaceful soul.

O celebrant, with constant churning of the mind, refine and energise your voice of adoration, send it in to your friend Indra, the soul within, and, like a treasurehold overflowing with wealth of light, stir it, wake up the brave soul for the gift of excellence and grandeur.

Indra, mighty soul, dear as breath of life, grand and sublime, don’t they say you are the giver of all pleasure and glory of life? Pray bless me too with the wealth of light and grandeur. I hear you are the all omnificient lord. O Lord Almighty, refine and sharpen my vision and understanding to the efficiency of divine attainment. Indra, pray bring us glory and good fortune full of wealth, power and peace.

Indra, people invoke you for help in contests of righteousness and call upon you while they march to the battle. Here too, however, he alone wins his help who offers faith and yajna, because the mighty one does not love, nor recognise, the friendship of the selfish and the non-performer of Soma-yajna.

Whoever the man of discipline and practice that offers precious gifts of holy and plenteous value and performs effective and powerful soma yajna of peace and pleasure for this divine Indra, ruling lord of humanity, for him Indra dispels all darkness and evil and eliminates all his enemies at the very outset of the day, howsoever strong, violent and well-armed the enemies might be.

Indra, the ruler in whom we repose our faith with admiration and who assures our fulfilment in all we want and aspire for, is great and all powerful. His enemies, even though they be far off cower with fear and flee, and to him all the wealth and powers born and produced in the land submit in reverence and loyalty.

7. Āraccatrum-apa bādhasva dūramugro yaḥ śambah puruhūta tena. Asme dhehi yavamadgomadindra kṛdhī dhiyaṁ jaritre vājaratnām.

Indra, ruler of the world, invoked and celebrated by all, by that thunderbolt of power and justice which is lustrous and awful, throw out and keep off from us all social and environmental enemies. Give us abundance of grain, lands and cows, and for the celebrant yajna create an environment of enlightened action productive of the jewel wealth of life.

The ruler to whom powerful creations of generous and imaginative artists and inspiring somaic achievements of peaceful projects are offered and dedicated from within the land for highly generative purposes and social values, that ruler, commanding wealth, power and majesty, does not impose any restrictions upon such veteran and generous artists, instead he provides manifold inspiring incentives to the creative minds.

9. Uta prahāmatidīvyā jayāti kṛtaṁ yacchvaghñī

Samit tam rāyā srjati svadhāvān.

A veteran winner, he counters an attack and wins the opponent just as an expert player or hunter rounds up his prey and chooses the right time to strike and win.
He does not restrict or restrain the philanthropist who loves divinity and spends on yajnic projects, instead, master, protector and promoter of wealth and power as he is, he blesses the giver with more and more of wealth.

गार्भिष्ट्रप्रमाणति दुरवां यत्तं युधं पुरुहूति विश्वाम।

10. Gobhiṣṭaremāmatim durevāṁ yavena kṣudhaṁ puruhūta viśvām. Vayaṁ rājabhiḥ prathamā dhanānyasmākena vṛjanenā jayema.

O ruler of the world invoked and celebrated by all humanity, let us solve the difficult problem of poverty and mental and cultural backwardness by cow development, land development and proper education, and the problem of hunger, by food production across the world. Let us take the initiative first to win wealth by cooperation with other rulers, and ultimately win our goals by our own power and effort.

May Brhaspati, omniscient lord of divine voice, protect us from sins and negative legacies of the past, from doubts and fears from above and below. May Indra, mighty ruler, be our friend and protect us from difficulties facing upfront. May he promote us on and on. May he place us at the centre of life’s problems, protect and promote us and create the wealth of honour and excellence for us, his friends.

Mandala 10/Sukta 43

Indra Devata, Krishna Angirasa Rshi

All my thoughts, words and actions, all together in perfect unison concentrated on the love and light of divinity, ecstatically adore and celebrate Indra, lord almighty of existence. Just as wives with love embrace their human lover, protector and husband, so do my prayers centre on Indra, lord of glory, power and purity, for all round protection, promotion and well being.

Na ghā tvadrigapa veti me manastve it kāmaṁ puruhūta śiśraya. Rājeva dasma ni ṣado’dhi barhiṣyasmintsu some’vapānamastu te.

Indra, lord universally invoked and celebrated, may my mind and soul having surrendered its love and ambition to you, never go astray from the presence such as yours. O lord beatific and glorious, you abide on my vedi and in my heart as the sovereign ruling presence. May your divine love, joy and protection ever abide in this mind and soul and bless it with peace and joy in your presence.

Viṣūvṛdindro amateruta kṣudhaḥ sa idrāyo maghavā vasva īsate. Tasyedime pravaṇe sapta sindhavo vayo vardhanti vrṣabhasya śuṣmiṇaḥ.
perfection. (This is true of both the external world of nature under the law of the cosmic spirit and of the internal world of mind and pranic energy under the law of the spirit within.)

Just as birds take to the tree of rich foliage for rest and replenishment of life energy, so the soma cheer and energy of the sevenfold fluent streams of cosmic and individual systems take to Indra, the soul, for life and peace and joy. Then the expressive face of these shines with the splendour of Indra, and thus the living light of divinity descends in showers for the bliss of man.

Just as a player in the game casts the die and wins and piles up his gains, so does Indra, lord omnipotent and omnificent, in this pleasure garden of the dynamics of existence win over the sun and the rain bearing cloud. O lord almighty, no one else can possibly equal your might, no one old or new.

Viśam-viśam maghavā paryaśāyata janānāṁ dhenā avacākaśadyṛṣā. Yasyāha śakrah savaneṣu raṇyati sa tīvraiḥ somaiḥ sahate pṛtanyataḥ.

The lord of glory abides with all people of the world whosoever they be. The generous lord knows, listens and grants all prayers of the people. Whosoever the devotee whose yajnas the mighty one joins and enjoys, that celebrant wins over all his rivals and adversaries by the power of his ardent soma offerings of holy action in yajna.

As rivers flow into the sea, as streams of rain flow into the lake, so do the beauties of faith and pleasure in soma yajnas concentrate on Indra, glory of the world. As showers of rain with profuse divine generosity raise the crops of barley and the plants grow up in ecstasy, so in the homely presence of this generous lord of sublimity, saints and sages rise and shine in moral and spiritual grandeur.
8. Vṛṣā na kruddhaḥ patayadrajaḥ svā yo aryapat-nirakṛṇodimā āpah. Sa sunvate maghavā jīrāda-nave’vindajjotirmanave haviṣmate.

Just as the swelling cloud causes the vapours of water in the skies to be released of itself and lets these showers of rain fall upon the earth, so does Indra, lord of glorious generosity, bring showers of light and bliss for the generous man of charity who offers the homage of soma to the lord for humanity.

9. Ujjāyatāṁ paraśurjotisā saha bhūyā rtasya sudughā purāṇavat. Vi rocatāmaruṣo bhānunā śucīḥ svarṇa śukrām śuśucīta satpatiḥ.

Let the thunderbolt of power and justice arise, let the voice of truth and law divine be generous, creative and fruitful as ever before, let the bright sun rise with its immaculate light and glory, may the lord protector and promoter of the good reveal the light and power of divinity as the bliss of heaven.

10. Gobhiṣṭaremāmatiṁ durevāṁ yavaṁ kṣudham puruhūta viśvām. Vayam rājabhiḥ prathamā dhānānyasmākena vṛjanena jayema.
Let us dispel the darkness of ignorance with the communication of universal knowledge, let us remove the world’s hunger with food production, let us reclaim our original wealth of knowledge, power and prosperity with our innate lights and enlightened actions.

May Brhaspati, lord of Infinity and the master of knowledge protect us against the violence of sin and sinners upfront, behind, above or below. May Indra, ruler and friend of humanity, create and lead us to the wealth of life for us and our friends, all at present and in our midst.

Mandala 10/Sukta 44

Indra Devata, Krishna Angirasa Rshi

May Indra, lord ruler of his world of reality, come, arise in view, in our consciousness, for the joy of his devotees. Mighty is he, loving, bright and accepting by his own essential nature and the laws of life, and, by his boundless grandeur and generosity, he takes on all challenges of counterforces and reduces them to naught for his people. (The mantra may be applied to Divinity or to the ruling power).

Suṣṭhāmā rathāḥ suyāmā hariḥ te mimyakṣa vajro nṛpate gabhastau. Śibham rājantsupathā yāhyar-vāṁ vardhāma te papuṣo vṛṣṇyāni.

Stable, strong and perfectly directed is your chariot, controlled and accurate your dual powers of motion. O refulgent ruler and protector of the people, in your hands you hold the controls of the thunder power of force and justice. Pray come at the fastest by the safest and straightest path to us right here. We celebrate and exalt your powers and generosity, and you love to protect and promote your celebrants.

3.

Endravāho nṛpatiṁ vajrabāhumugamugrāsa- staviśāsa enam. Pratvaksasaṁ vrṣabhaṁ satya- śuṣmamemasmatrā sadhamādo vahantu.

May the mighty, blazing, penetrating, vigorous and refining radiations of this Indra, protector and promoter of humanity, thunder armed, virile and generous, indomitable upholder of truth, come in unison with inspiring strength and bring him to us for our social and spiritual good.
4. Evā patin dرونāsācaṁ sacetasamūrjaḥ skambhām dharunā ā vṛṣāyase. Ojaḥ krṣva sam grbha-ya tve apyaso yatha kenipānāmino vṛdhe.

   Thus do solar radiations transmit the presence of Indra, lord protector and ruler pervasive in the world of humanity, all aware, the pillar of universal energy, strength and power. Thus do we exalt and celebrate Indra. O lord, you are the shower of power and generosity in the all-sustaining world of yours. Pray create and give us the strength of life, hold us in your power and presence for our promotion and progress since you are the ultimate lord and master of the dedicated aspirants for light.

5. Gamannasme vasūnyā hi 世界各地の財産や愛と栄誉、おまかせ $.

   Indra, may wealths, peace and honours of the world come to us, I wish and pray. Come, accept the homage of the celebrant’s song of praise. You rule all, come and abide in this holy seat of yajna and love of the heart. Bold and undaunted, we are your celebrants by the nature and Dharma of our being.

People of the first order dedicated to divinity and yajnic piety go forward by holy paths of the first order and perform admirable acts of the most difficult order. But those who cannot board the ark of yajnic order and divine love, men of unclean character, doubtful mind and crooked ways, lie about here in the lower and lowest orders of being.

Thus do people of evil disposition keep wallowing in low states of existence whose mind and senses are engaged in wrong things like restive horses. And thus do others of the first and higher disposition fare who are dedicated here itself to the higher omnificent divinity in which infinite gifts of freedom, peace and happiness abound.

He wields the dynamics of nature, fixes the mountains and moves the roaring clouds. He holds the raging heavens and shakes the violent skies. He holds both earth and heaven together and, the glorious sun having drunk up the vapours, showers down the rains in joy like the overflow of divine ecstasy in the music of song.

I happily abide by this law and discipline of yours, Indra, which is divinely maintained and sustained, the law by which, O lord of power and glory, you punish those who strike life by their hoof and claw. May your presence abide in this holy seat of my yajna in the heart and soul. May your divine majesty, O lord of glory, know and fulfil our desire in this cherished act of love and faith.

O lord universally invoked and celebrated, let us overcome the difficult problems of want, of moral and spiritual vision and knowledge, by the Vedic voice, and the problem of world hunger by cooperative production of food. And let us on top win wealth, honour and excellence by our own brilliance of intelligence and our own persistent effort.

May Brhaspati protect and promote us all round from behind, from above and from below against sin and evil. May Indra, our friend and ruler, create and give wealth, honour and excellence for us and for the entire fraternity of the world from within at the centre of humanity and may he continue the same into the future.

Mandala 10/Sukta 45

Agni Devata, Vatsapri Bhalandana Rshi

Agni first manifests as light in the high heavenly region in the form of the sun. Secondly it manifests as Jataveda, vital heat in all earthly forms around us. In the third form it manifests as energy in waters in the middle regions of space as electricity. Agni is the vital energy which enables humanity to live and work. Man as self-intelligent being lights this perpetual Agni and thereby exalts and celebrates the eternal creative spirit of existence.

In the third form it manifests as energy in waters in the middle regions of space as electricity. Agni is the vital energy which enables humanity to live and work. Man as self-intelligent being lights this perpetual Agni and thereby exalts and celebrates the eternal creative spirit of existence.

Agni, universal vital energy, we know the three modes in which you manifest in three different forms, structures, properties and functions. All pervasive energy, we know the three regions in which you abide. For sure we know the deepest secret cave where your abode is since we know the infinite source from where you arise and manifest as Agni, Vayu and Aditya on earth, in sky and in heaven.

Agni, the fluid energy excites and kindles you in the currents in the depths of the waters; in the region of light, the sun that illuminates the world of humanity produces and radiates you; and in the third region of the skies, the energy of the winds produces and augments you as you abide in the depths of the cloud.

Agni roars as if thundering and shaking the skies, at the same time reaching and kissing the earth and beautifying the greenery. Always present, instantly rising, it proclaims itself, shines, and fills the heaven and earth with its light.

Illuminator of the world, pervasive life energy of the universe, as it rises it fills the heaven and earth with light and life. Moving ahead and penetrating, it breaks the mighty strong cloud, and for this reason of its energy, power and light all communities of the world kindle and adore it in their yajnic projects of creation and production.

7. UŚik pāvako aratiḥ sumedhā martēsvagniramṛto ni dhāyi. Iyarti dhūmamaruṣaṁ bharibhra-ducchukrēṇa ściśā dyāminakṣan.

Charming, purifying, dynamic, inspiring the mind and intelligence to acts of holiness, immortal Agni pervades in all mortal forms of nature and humanity. It bears and emanates light, sets in motion free fragrance for life and, with powerful pure light, fills the heavens of space.

All watching and self-revealed, glorious Agni shines awfully, infinite light, indomitable life and pranic energy, all refulgent for the beauty and grace of life.
Agni is immortal and eternal with waves of living energy since the heavenly divine life spirit of existence generates it as it is.

Yastō adya kṛṇavād-bhadraśoce ’pūparṇ deva gṝ-tavantamagnē. Pra tam naya prataram ṣvasyo acchā’bhi sumnāṃ devabhaktam yaviṣṭha.

Agni, holy light of life, self-refulgent generous divinity, whoever the dedicated celebrant of the divine that prepares and offers you homage and yajna with perfect discipline of mind and sense, pray bless him, O power ever youthful, with honour and excellence of high order and the peace and comfort of a happy home.

Ā tam bhaja sauśravasāvagnā uktha-uktha ā bhaja śasyamāne. Priyah sūrye priyo agnā bhavātyujjātena bhinadad-ujjanitvaiḥ.

O self-refulgent Agni, love the celebrant, bless him among the celebrities of high renown, love and bless him in every celebrative song of adoration, Let him be dear to the sun, a darling of the fire to enjoy the favour and blessings of these divinities. May he rise with what he has created and achieved. May he rise by all that he is going to create and achieve.

Agni, lord of light and glory, those who offer you yajnic homage and worship are blest with all the world’s wealth, peace and comfort of their choice. Seeking and aspiring for honour and excellence, loving sages and pioneers of progress not only achieve but also open the gates of further possibilities on earth abounding in lands, cows, and culture of knowledge and grace.

Agni, self-refulgent light and fire of life, blissful guardian of humanity, world guide and pioneer of leading lights, protector and promoter of the soma beauty and glory of life is praised and exalted by seers and poetic celebrants. We invoke and pray for the blessings of loving heaven and earth free from anger and jealousy. We pray may the divinities bear and bring us wealth, honour and excellence with brave generations of progeny.

Mandala 10/Sukta 46

Agni Devata, Vatsapri Bhalandana Rshi

प हातां जाता महा त्र्भावि गृष्ठ्रि सीदुपामुपस्थः।

दधिया धायि स तव वयासि युन्ता वर्मुनि विध्वत् तनूपा: || १ ||

High priest of the cosmic yajna of creation, universally self-manifested, great and glorious, pervasive in space and things even beyond the senses, abiding in the heart and soul of humanity, Agni rolls at the heart of the dynamics of existence. O man, the omnipresent light of the universe which holds, controls and sustains everything is celebrated in the Vedas and worshipped at heart. It is Agni, sustainer of the individual body and the cosmic form, ruler and controller of everything, that bears and brings you all food and energies and blesses you with all wealth, honour and excellence of life.

2. Imāṁ vidhanto apāṁ sadhasthe paśuṁ na naṣṭaṁ padairanu gman. Guhā catantamuśijo namobhi- ricchanto dhīrā bhṛgavo’vindan.

Just as people search for a lost animal by following the foot prints of the animal in the forest, similarly seekers and aspirants of this Agni, omnipresent in the dynamics of existence, try to search for it by the overt as well as covert marks of its presence in the wide world of nature, and the deeply dedicated brilliant sages, loving and patient in their persistent search with yajnic homage, self-dedication and surrender, find it vibrating in the cave of the heart and soul.
Pra hotōjō mahōn nabhōvinn¾¦advŒ s¶dadapŒmupasthe. Dadhiryo dhŒyi sa te vayŒÅsi yantŒ vasµuni vidhate tanµupŒ¬.

High priest of the cosmic yajna of creation, universally self-manifested, great and glorious,
pervasive in space and things even beyond the senses, abiding in the heart and soul of humanity, Agni rolls at the heart of the dynamics of existence. O man, the omnipresent light of the universe which holds, controls and sustains everything is celebrated in the V edas and worshipped at heart. It is Agni, sustainer of the individual body and the cosmic form, ruler and controller of everything, that bears and brings you all food and energies and blesses you with all wealth, honour and excellence of life.

Just as people search for a lost animal by following the foot prints of the animal in the forest, similarly seekers and aspirants of this Agni, omnipresent in the dynamics of existence, try to search for it by the overt as well as covert marks of its presence in the wide world of nature, and the deeply dedicated brilliant sages, loving and patient in their persistent search with yajnic homage, self-dedication and surrender, find it vibrating in the cave of the heart and soul.

The ardent lover of divinity, Trita, the man having got over threefold suffering of body, mind and soul through knowledge, good work and meditation, finds this Agni presence on top of inviolable nature and earthly life in the absolute state of consciousness. Thus realised in spiritual manifestation, Agni, harbinger and augmenter of spiritual felicity, becomes the centre hold of happy homes and a youthful presence of divinity in the mind of enlightened souls.

Earnest men of love, passion and faith among people hold at heart and with homage serve Agni, the power that is joyous, yajnic creator giver and organiser, foremost leader directly realised, worthy of love and reverence, leading power of creative programmes of love and non-violence, cleanser and purifier, harbinger of holy materials for social development. They hold Agni at heart and create and exalt it as the prime power among the people.

Earnest men of love, passion and faith, but, being human, limited in intelligence, hold at heart, worship and serve Agni pervading and dominating the world of existence, great, sustainer of the vibrant wise, all knowing and wise, breaker of the strongholds of negativity and darkness, the original seed and source of life, beatific, supremely intelligent, golden flamed and divinely adorable. Men hold at heart, worship and serve this omnipresent Agni being more dynamic than the dynamics of nature, the instant presence that it is.

Agni, the light of three worlds, all supportive and sustaining, enveloped in light and flames, sits in the vedi in the homes as in the midst of regions of the universe, and from there, having received the homage of yajnic oblations, the generous Agni reaches the leading divinities of nature and humanity in various ways according to different laws of nature.
7. Asyājarāso damāmaritrā arcad-dhūmāso agnayāḥ pāvakāḥ. Śvīticayāḥ śvātrāso bhurānyavo vanarśado vāyavo na somāḥ.

The eternal, adorable and all saving flames and fragrances of the powerful fires of this Agni are purifying, sanctifying, invigorating, instantly effective, pervasive in forests, clouds and waters, and they are vibrant and blissful as the soothing pleasures of soma.

Agni, light of omniscience, vests humanity with the wisdom, will and power of action, and also with the awareness of the laws of the expansive universe, by the flames of its powerful Vedic voice of revelations. And the people hold, adore, serve and follow that Agni, the most lovable and adorable, purifying, sanctifying and joyous power which is the high priest of the dynamics of existence, the receiver and a thousandfold giver.

That Agni, self-refulgent spirit and light of the universe, is the universal presence which the heaven and earth manifest with their vastness, which the blazing lights of the stars reveal with their splendour, Agni, the first and supreme power and presence, lovable and adorable, which the mighty winds and other bright divinities of nature reveal for thinking humanity.

10. \( \text{Yaṁ tvā devā dadhire havyavāhaṁ puruspr̥ho mānuśāso yajatram. Sa yāmānagnē stuvate vayo dhāḥ pra devayan yaśasah saṁ hi pūrvih.} \)

Agni, self-refulgent light and spirit of the universe whom the divine forces of nature and ardent lovers and faithful people adore and worship as loving and friendly bearer of the gifts of yajna, we pray, bring the food, energy and health and light of life for the dedicated celebrant on the highways of existence. May the lover of divinity be blest with eternal fame, honour and excellence.

Mandala 10/Sukta 47

\( \text{Vaikuntha Indra Devata, Saptagu Angirasa Rshi} \)

\( \text{Jagṛbhṁā te daksin̄am-indra hastam vasūyavo vasupate vasūnām. Vidmā hi tvā gopatiṁ śūra gonaṁ-asmaṁcitram vr̥ṣaṇaṁ rayiṁ dāḥ.} \) Indra, lord ruler, controller, promoter and giver of the world’s wealth, peace, comfort and joy, we, seekers of wealth, honours and excellence, hold on to your liberal hand of generosity. Lord of omnipotence, we know that you are the ruler and controller of the earths, stars, knowledge, wisdom and culture of life.
Pray bless us with profuse and wondrous source wealth of the world with honours, excellence and happiness.

2. Svāyudhaṁ svavasam sunīthaṁ ca tuḥsam-udraṁ dharuṇām rayīṇām. Carkṛtyāṁ śaṁsyāṁ bhū-rivāragasmabhyaṁ citram vrṣaṇāṁ rayīṁ dāḥ.

We know you, Indra, wielder of mighty weapons, unfailing guardian, noble guide, pervasive all round in the four quarters of space, treasure-hold of universal wealth, constantly doing and glorified, adorable and infinite source of choicest boons. Pray bear and bring us abundant and wondrous wealth of the world.

3. Subrahmāṇaṁ devavantāṁ bṛhattam-urum gabhīraṁ prthubudhnam-indra. Śrūṭṛṣimugra-mabhimātiśāham-asmabhyaṁ citram vrṣaṇāṁ rayīṁ dāḥ.

We know you, Indra, lord of divine speech, highest lover of divinities, greatest, boundless, deepest, foundation of the expansive universe, exalted among seers and sages, blazing lustrous, destroyer of opponents. Pray, bear and bring us abundant and wondrous wealth of the world.

4. Sanadvājāṁ vipravīraṁ tarutraṁ dhanaspṛtaṁ śūśuvāṁsaṁ sudakṣam. Dasyuhanaṁ pūrbhidam-indra satyam-asmabhyaṁ citraṁ vrṣaṇaṁ rayim dāḥ.

We know you, Indra, abundant in food, energy and advancement, commanding the brave and intelligent, guiding presence over the ocean of existence, infinitely opulent, giver of strength and sure success, most powerful, destroyer of evil and negativity, breaker of mountainous obstructions, ever true and eternal. O lord omnipotent, give us wondrous wealth of life in abundance.

5. Aśvāvantam rathinam vīravantaṁ sahasrīnāṁ śatināṁ vājam-indra. Bhadrav-ātāṁ vipravīraṁ svarṣāmasmabhyaṁ citraṁ vrṣaṇaṁ rayim dāḥ.

We know you, Indra, equipped with dynamic forces, cosmic chariot and brave powers of the world, abundant in hundredfold, thousandfold, even infinite energy, power and victory, assisted by excellent powers of natural law, served by the wise and brave sages, the lord all blissful. Pray give us abundant and wondrous wealth of the wonderful world of life.

We know you Indra, lord of the seven-fold world of existence sung by seven priests with seven songs of the Veda, lord of infinite intelligence, presiding over the expansive universe whom the man of intelligence adores and who is directly invoked with homage and prayer of the man of dynamic faith. Pray give us the wondrous wealth of the world full of abundant creative possibilities.

My songs of adoration full of love and faith, vibrating with holy thoughts, expressive of the language of my mind and touching the heart, reach Indra like messengers of my soul. Indra, pray give us wondrous wealth of the world in abundance.
8. \( Yat \text{ tvā yāmi daddhi tanna indra br̥hantaṁ kṣaya-masamam janānām. Abhi tad dyāvāpṛthivī grṛti-tām-asмabhyaṁ citram vr̥ṣaṇaṁ rayiṁ dāḥ. } \)

Indra, what I pray for, graciously grant us, a boundless expansive abode of joy unlike any house of the people on earth. May heaven and earth approve of my prayer and join in the supplication. Indra, lord omnipotent, give us wondrous wealth of the world, creative, abundant, never ending.

Mandala 10/Sukta 48

_Indra Devata, Vaikuntha Indra Rshi_

\[
\text{आहं भुवं वसुन: पूव्यस्पतिर् हं धनानि सं जैयामि शाश्वतः । मां हैवन्त पितरं न जन्तवाच्छ दाशुष वि भंजामि भाज-नम ॥ १ ॥}

1. \( Aham bhuvaṁ vasunaḥ pūrvyaspatir-aham dhanāni sam jayāmi śaśvataḥ. Māṁ havante pitaram na jantavo’ham dāśuṣe vi bhajāmi bhojanam. \)

I am the eternal lord, master protector and promoter of the world of existence. I create, raise, protect and rule over the eternal wealths of the world. Living beings call on me as father, mother and saviour guardian. I provide food and sustenance for generous humanity dedicated to service and yajna.

\text{अहंमिन्दु राध्रा व गे अर्थवायस्त्रिताय गा अणजयमूलरथिः । अहं दस्युङ्ख्यः परि नृमणामा देद गात्रा शि त्यन्दधीच मात-रिश्रवण ॥ २ ॥}
2. Ahamindro rodho vakṣo atharvaṇastraḥritāya gā ajanayamaheradhi. Aham dasyubhyah pari nṛmṇamā dade gotrā śikṣan dadhīce māta-riśvane.

   I am the corselet and the centre-hold of pranic energy in the state of tension and equilibrium. I create the streams of vapour over the cloud and waves of energy for the three realms of earth, heaven and the middle regions. I collect and disburse wealth of materials and energies from and for the dynamics of evolution, and I give protection and perception of sense and response to the foetus in the mother’s womb.

3. Mahyam tvāṣṭā vajram-atakṣad-āyasam mayi devāso’vrjannapi kratum. Mamānīkam sūryasyeva duṣṭaram māmāryanti kṛtena kartvena ca.

   For me, Tvashta, formative faculty of divine nature, creates the thunderbolt of steel. For me, the divinities of nature and humanity perform their tasks and surrender them unto me. My blazing power is insurmountable like the sun’s, and all actions past, present and future in nature or humanity must come to me for effectual fulfilment.

When men of soma peace and piety chant hymns of praise in gratitude to cosmic divinity, it pleases me, and this man of perceptive senses, thinking mind, penetrative vision, energetic character and a golden heart, I vest with the abundance of a thousand capacities and capabilities of refinement for rooting out sin and evil.

5. Ahamindro na parā jigya iddhanaṁ na mṛtya-ve’va tasthe kadā cana. Somaminmā sunvanto yācatā vasu na me pūrvah sakhye riṣāthana.

I am Indra, the powerful, never defeated. None can deprive me of my identity. I exist not for death. O makers of soma, ask me for the wealth and peace of life. Men who abide in friendship with me never come to harm.

I destroy those challengers who, panting for battle in two’s, raise their thunder weapon and challenge the mighty ruling power of the system. I throw them off without the weapon, without bending in compromise either, but with a determined mind and the warning word of the inevitable.

7. Abhīdamekameko asmi niṣṣā-ṭabhī dvā kimu trayāḥ karanti. Khale na parśān prati hanmi bhūri kim mā nindanti šatravo’nindrāḥ.

   I am one, the absolute without a second. I am destroyer of the enemies who do not recognise me, Indra, centrality of the system. Those who challenge me, I destroy, whether it is one or two or three. I crush them all as sheaves of corn on the threshing floor. It is a pity they revile me.

8. Ahaṁ guṅgubhyo atithigvamīṣkaramiṣaṁ na vṛtraturāṁ vikṣu dhārayam. Yat pāṁayaghna uta vā karaṇjahe prāhaṁ mahe vṛtrahatye aśuśravi.

   For the protection and advancement of the unostentatious people of piety and creativity among humanity, I hold and maintain persons and powers that are hospitable, producers of food, and destroyers of sin, evil and violence, and I protect them like the very nourishment of society, since I am known and celebrated for what I am and what I do: eliminate the forces counter to growth, break the cloud for rain, and dispel darkness, want and ignorance.

My celebrant is worthy of love and honour, because he is for sustenance, enjoyment and procurement of knowledge for society. He is loved and honoured for two reasons: for friendship and for enlightenment. And when I have given him the light in abundance in the battles of life, only then I raise him to the position of praise and celebration.

Among some people, Indra manifests as soma, divine spirit of joy, beauty and peace, the protector within. Among others, the lord manifests as a bolt from the blue, the sudden fall of thunder. Fighting the sharply armed, strongly determined forces, he stands and subdues like a fury. Thus does Indra manifest, abiding within, among all.
11. Ādityānāṁ vasūnāṁ rudriyāṇāṁ devo devānāṁ na mināmi dhāma. Te mā bhadrāya  śavase tata- kṣur- aparājitaṁ- astrtam- aṣālham.

Light of lights, generous and potent, I never violate, frustrate or transgress the identity, function and power of the Adityas, zodiacs of the sun, of Vasus, natural spheres of life sustenance, or Rudras, forces such as winds and pranic energies. Nor do I ever disturb the aditya, rudra and vasu scholars of knowledge and divine service. Let them all realise me and manifest my spirit and presence for their good and fulfilment of their prowess: me, Indra, undaunted, unviolated and unopposed.

Mandala 10/Sukta 49
Indra Devata, Indra Vaikuntha Rshi

1. Ahaṁ dāṁ grñate pūrvyaṁ vasvahaṁ brahma kṛñavaṁ mahyaṁ vardhanam. Ahaṁ bhuvāṁ yajamānasya coditā’yajvanaḥ sākṣi viśvasmin bhare.

I give to the celebrant of divinity eternal peace and freedom of the soul, the highest value of life across the world of existence. I create the eternal song of existence for self celebration in joyous exaltation. I am the giver of inspiration to the yajnic performer and partner in cosmic evolution, and I subdue the negationist and uncreative soul in the entire struggle of life for evolution.

Living beings of land, waters, heaven and all spaces and all that move, they accept and adore me in faith as Indra, the omnipotent sustainer. I keep the twofold dynamic forces of high velocity constantly on the move in the cosmic process of evolution, and I, power supreme, wield the thunderbolt as my sceptre of omnipotent justice and dispensation.

3. Ahamatkaṁ kavaye śiṣṇathāṁ hathairahāṁ kutsamāvamābhirūtibhiḥ. Ahaṁ śuṣṇasya śnathitāṁ vadharyamaṁ na yo rara āryamāṁ nāma dasyave.

I pierce and dispel the darkness for the visionary seer, giving him the break-through and the light with radiations of illuminations and revelation. I protect the sage with these modes of protection and advancement. I, dispeller and destroyer of drought and want, wield the thunderbolt for the negationist and the destroyer whom I do not recognise by the name of a creative positivist.
4. Aham piteva vetasūrīrabhiṣṭaye tugram kutsāya smadibham ca randhayam. Aham bhuvaṁ yaja-mānasya rājani pra yadbhare tujaye na priyādhṛṣe.

Like a father for the good of the man of creative generosity, I subdue and throw out the obstinate and persistent forces of bruteness, violence and terror. I am for the advancement of the man of yajnic creativity and enlightenment, and I have nothing good for the violent and the bully.

5. Aham randhayāṁ mṛgayāṁ śrutarvāṇe yanmā-jihīta vayunā canānuṣak. Aham veśāṁ namrammāyave’karamahāṁ savvyāya padgrbhimaran-dhayam.

I subdue the roaming mind of the learned man so that it matures and, always by thought and action, it abides in me without going astray. I condition the inner spirit of man to humility, love and kindness, and I remove the obstacles from the path of the man on way to progress.

6. Aham sa yo navavāstvaṁ bṛhadṛatham saṁ vṝtreva dāsam vṝtrahārujami. Yadvaryadhayantaṁ prathayantamānusāgasdūre pāre rajaso rocanākaram.

I am that who, like breaking of the cloud, destroy the evil tendencies of body and mind extending to new areas like epidemics expanding and covering large territories, and thus I am that who throw away for all time all that sin and darkness which would otherwise go on rising and expanding in effect and intensity.

I manifest all round in glory as my presence is conducted by fast radiations of sun rays, and when the celebrant of soma yajna for peace and joy calls on me for fulfilment of his essential nature in divinity, immediately I strike off all impediments by strokes of the thunderbolt as the negativities deserve.

I am the destroyer of sevenfold darkness (of passion, anger, greed, infatuation, pride, fear and sorrow) by sevenfold light of divinity. I am the bond between humanity and divinity, stronger than strength itself. The aspiring man of action and effort, I raise to heights of honour and fame. Others, I fortify with courage and patience, and the rising ones, I cause to rise higher by nine and ninety times for a full life of hundred years.

Aham sapta sravato dhārayaṁ vṛṣā dravitnvah prthivyāṁ sīrā adhi. Ahamarṇāmsi vi tirāmi sukraturyudhā vidam manave gātumiṣṭaye.

Infinite, generous and omnipotent, I cause the seven streams to flow and the seven seas to roll on earth, and I cause the seven streams of blood and nerve to flow in the body. Master of holy action, I provide for the river’s flow, and with the dynamics of nature and society, I provide the paths of progress for humanity on way to fulfilment.

Aham tadāsu dhārayaṁ yadāsu na devaścana tvāstādhārayadrusat. Spārham gavāmūḍhāḥsu vakṣaṇāsvā madhormadhu śvātryaṁ somamā-śirām.

I create and cause to flow that bright fluid in these seas and streams of earth and the body which no bright power of nature or humanity, not even Tvashta, the divine artist, could have created and made to flow: the lovely milk in cow’s udders, honey sweet waters in the rivers, and the sparkling life blood in the body’s veins, the essence of vitality.

Thus does Indra, lord of glory and protector of Truth and Law, impel and inspire natural and human forces of generous and positive action with energy. As such, all men of action and excellence over the world exalt and adore you, O lord of radiant presence, omnipotence and innate excellence, and they feel blest in themselves.

Mandala 10/Sukta 50

Indra Devata, Indra Vaikuntha Rshi

You seekers and celebrants, offer reverence and homage with service, prayer and selfless work to Indra, omnipresent guide, giver of happiness and fulfilment to all people of the world, whose holiness of universal creativity, strength, grandeur, honour and glory, and gracious generosity, both heaven and earth proclaim and adore.
2. So cinnu sakhyā narya inaḥ stutaścarkṛtya indro māvate nare. Viśvāsu dhūrṣu vājakṛtyeṣu satpate vṛtre vāpsvabhi śūra mandase.

He, Indra, Lord of heaven and earth, leader and master of humanity with love and friendship for all, loved and adored universally, is worthy of worship for all men like me. O lord omnipotent protector and promoter of the good and true, you rejoice, exhilarate and energise us in all top situations worth challenging in the world, in all battles of the brave worth winning, and in all states of darkness and showers of the clouds.

3. Ke te nara indra ye ta iše ye te sumnaṁ sadhan-yamiyakṣān. Ke te vājāyāsuryāya hinvire ke apsu svāsūrvarāsu paumṣye.

Indra, who are those people that try to win your favour of sustenance and enlightenment, who realise your divine bliss of peace and well being, who exert themselves to win the strength and spirit of life and joy of divinity, and who delight in their own acts of ambition, manliness and generosity?

Indra, you are great by virtue of your infinity and eternity of Being and the eternal Word of Being and Divinity. In all holy works of creativity in the world, you are adorable. In all struggles of existence, you are the power and inspiration of humanity. And you are the first, highest and the most sacred chant of human consciousness of divinity, O lord all watching and inspiring for the world.

5. Avā nu kam jyāyān yajñavanaso mahīṁ ta omā-trāṁ kṛṣṭayo viduḥ. Aso nu kamajaro vardhāśca viśvedetā savanā tūtumā kṛṣe.

Indra, you are great, pray protect and promote the lovers and performers of the divine yajna of faith and creativity. People know the grandeur and greatness of your power of protection. Unaging and imperishable you are, pray promote life and all. Indeed, ultimately, it is you who effect all these acts of creation and progress with strength and speed.

You perform all these acts of holiness, O inspirer of force and power, which you hold and sustain. May your protection be for safety and peace, wealth for Dharma mantra, for communion, and the song be for Divinity.

7. Ye te vipra brahmakṛṭaḥ sute sacā vasūnāṁ ca vasunaśca dāvane. pra te sumnasya manasā pathā bhuvan made sutasya somasyāṇḍhasaḥ.

Lord of vibrant generosity, the celebrants of divinity in song together in this assembly wait for your gift of the highest wealth of wealths. May they, with their heart and soul and by the path of rectitude, abide in the peace and joy of the soma gift of your grace of spiritual food they pray for.

Mandala 10/Sukta 51

Agni (1, 3, 5, 7, 9), Devah (2, 4, 6, 8) Devata, Devah (1, 3, 5, 7, 9), Agni Sauchika (2, 4, 6, 8) Rshis

This sukta is a dialogue between the Devas such as Mitra, Varuna, pranic energies such as prana and udana and Agni. Agni here means many forms of energy of the world of existence: earthly agni that is fire, middle regions’ agni that is electricity, and self-refulgent agni that is light of the solar region. In Vedic literature, it means energy not only in these forms but also in many more forms, that is, the vital heat of life, the passion for living, the spirit of life, the body heat, the vital virility, life itself, the soul and the cosmic spirit. This wide context is relevant to the present sukta.

O Agni, Jataveda, cognizable in existential forms, great is that form, that cover, that medium, fine and firm, clothed in which you enter upon the course of life in existence. There is one Divinity which watches all your body forms existent in nature in various media in the world.

2. Ko mā dadarśa katamaḥ sa devo yo me tanvo bahudhā paryapaśyat. Kvāha mitrāvaruṇā kṣiyantyagnerviśvāḥ samidho devayānīḥ.

O Devas, who saw me? Which is that Divine who sees me in my body forms in so many ways? O Mitra and Varuna, O sun and moon, O vital energies of prana and udana, say where abide all my bright and vital waves and flames of fire and energy in the world which light up the paths of divinity and lead humanity there?
means energy not only in these forms but also in many more forms, that is, the vital heat of life, the passion for living, the spirit of life, the body heat, the vital virility, life itself, the soul and the cosmic spirit. This wide context is relevant to the present sukta.

3. Aicchāma tvā bahudhā jātavedaḥ praviṣṭa-magne apsvoṣadhīṣu. Taṁ tvā yamo acikeccitra-bhāno daśāntaruṣyādatirocamānam.

O Jataveda, manifest in all that is born and come into existence, Agni, we seek for you, co-existent as you are with all waters, motions, plants and trees. Yama, the One Divine who directs all things in existence knows you and watches you, O mysterious presence of infinite forms, shining, illuminating, energising and vitalising life from the depth of ten orders of existence: ten sense organs, ten pranas, and ten physical abodes, i.e., earth, skies, heavens of light, the fire, electric energy, the sun, waters, plants, trees and the living bodies.

4. Hotrādaham varuṇa bibhyadāyaṁ nedeva mā yunajannatra devāḥ. Tasya me tanvo bahudhā niviṣṭā etamarthāṁ na ciketāhamagniḥ.

O Varuna, lord of judgement and choice, soothing spirit of waters cool in peace, afraid of self-sacrifice to the senses and to the fiery divinities, I, the soul, come to you from the burning fire. Here neither the senses nor the divinities would consume me. As such my body and body organs with all waves and vibrations are completely merged in you. Here I know no such purpose as there in the fire.

Agni, come, you are the soul, director of your divine senses and mind, thoughtful and intelligent, lover of divinities, dedicated to yajna. But you are still steeped in darkness. Come, get ready for yajnic performer. Prepare the paths of divinity for yourself and, happy at heart, carry the holy fragrances to the divinities by yajna.

O Varuna, earlier my brothers created the same paths for themselves as a charioteer selects the road for himself, but they went off. For that reason I have come this far to you here, and I tremble with fear as a deer shakes with fear from the twang of the bow string of a hunter.

O Agni, O soul, known as born in the body, we create and ordain an unaging life for you so that joined to that life divine you come to no hurt, nor would you die, and then, happy at heart, happily born, you carry to the divinities that share of the yajnic homage which is meant to be dedicated to them.

O Devas, give me the prayaja, food part of yajnic offerings, and the anuyaja, supplementary part of food, and that part of the offerings which gives energy, light and vision, the lustre of liquid energy, vitality from herbs and plants, long age of health for the soul and freedom from death. O Devas, brilliant, illuminative generous givers. Give me only that part which is mine.

O Agni, O Soul, yours is the prayaja part of yajnic food, yours is anuyaja, the supplementary part. Let all this be for experience and for the realisation of your essential spiritual nature. And let your share be full of energy and light for you. Indeed all this yajna of your individual existence is for you, the soul, as the cosmic yajna of existence is for the cosmic soul. Let it not go counter to the soul. Let all four directions of space and all that therein is be for experience and self-realisation. (Let it be subservient to the soul, let not the soul be lost in the experience of it.)

Mandala 10/Sukta 52

Vishvedevah Devata, Agni Sauchika Rshi

1. Viśve devaḥ śāstana mā yattheha hotā vṛto manavai yanniṣādaya. Pra me brūta bhāgadhyaṁ yathā vo yena pathā havyamā vo vahāni.

O Vishvedevas, generous brilliances of nature and humanity, instruct me that, selected, elected, appointed and seated in my position as organiser and high priest of the yajnic social system, how I should think and act and how and in what way or ways I shall carry out my responsibilities and fulfil my obligations to you in the social system to offer you your share of sustenance.

I am the hota, performer of yajna, calling to the fire and offering oblations into the vedi, seated on the vedi one in unison with all people. All divinities of the world and Maruts, vibrant youth, like winds of storm, inspire and energise me. O Ashvins, complementary powers of nature and humanity, men and women, teachers and preachers in the socio-economic system, yours is the conduct of the organisation of yajna day by day at and from the very rise of dawn. Let the Vedic scholar, bright and cool like the moon be the Brahma, presiding high priest, and act like ignition and illumination of the fire, and let that light and fire be the concluding oblation into the fire.

Who is this hota, yajnic performer, who carries out any and all the powers and obligations of Yama, order and controller of the whole system, whom all the devas, brilliancies of the system, anoint, prepare and honour? He rises higher and higher day by day, month by month, and all the devas, divine powers, uphold and support him while he conducts the vital economy of the yajnic system.

Who is this hota, yajnic performer, who carries out any and all the powers and obligations of Yama, order and controller of the whole system, whom all the devas, brilliancies of the system, anoint, prepare and honour? He rises higher and higher day by day, month by month, and all the devas, divine powers, uphold and support him while he conducts the vital economy of the yajnic system.

Me the devas, divines, honour and uphold while I conduct the powers and obligations of the yajnic system for them and face the many difficult and most laborious situations even in the minutest details with perfect discipline. Hence they all say: This Agni, the light and fire of the system, well aware of life and its conduct, accomplishes the yajna, threefold, five ways and seven stages.

5. Ā vo yaksyamṛtatvam suvīram yathā vo devā varivah karāṇi. Ā bāhvorvajramindrasya dheyā-mathemā viśvāḥ pṛtanā jayāti.

O devas, as I do honour and service to you in the best manner, as I pray for your gifts of immortality, virility and vitality, and as I hold in hands the ruler’s thunderbolt of justice and dispensation, this way does man win all the battles of life.

Three thousand three hundred thirty and nine are the divinities that serve this yajaka, Agni, shower it with brightest ghrta and cover the vedi with holy grass, and they seat the high priest over the yajna of the cosmos, nature, society, and also the individual living soul.

Mandala 10/Sukta 53

Agni (1-3, 6-11), Devah (4-5) Devata, Devah (1-3, 6-11), Sauchika Agni (4-5) Rshis

1. Yamaicchāma manasā so’yamāgādyajñasya vidvān paruṣāścikitvān. Sa no yakṣad devatātā yajīyān ni hi ṣatsadantarāḥ pūrvo asmat.

   He whom we Devas loved and sought with heart and mind is come. He knows the integrated process of yajnic union, knows all and every part of it. May this unifying principle of life, most venerable, join us here in the yajna of life, infact it was abiding here itself within before we joined. (The Devas are the divine principles and faculties of life, and Agni whom the Devas love and seek is the life itself, the soul, which integrates the faculties with the identity that the soul acquires with the body and the faculties, all united in one organismic individual form. Reference may be made to Aitareya Upanishad, ch. 1, 2 and Atharva-Veda, 5, 30, 17).

The high priest, Agni, lovable and adorable, is seated on the vedi. Honoured and adored, he also observes with interest and favour the sacred offerings placed with faith and reverence on the vedi in homage. We adore and worship all the divine powers that deserve and command our worship and adoration. They deserve service and we adore and worship them with the homage of ghrta and fragrant havi.

May Agni beatify our yajnic service to the assemblage of divinities on the vedi today so that we may have their blessings and hear the secret voice of divinity by the flames. May the life spirit, harbinger of health and happiness, come today bearing the fragrance of life and render our divine worship full of blessings and all round well being.

I, Agni, presiding power of corporate life by yajna, now think and meditate upon that first, highest and eternal Word, AUM, by which we, yajnic souls dedicated to divinity, may overcome the evil adversaries.
Let all those who live on energy foods and join together for noble creative works in the spirit of yajna, and the people of all the five classes and communities listen and follow my call to action.

5. Pañca janā mama hotraṁ juśantāṁ gojātā uta ye yajñiyāsaḥ. Prḥivī nah pārthivāt pātvamha-so’ntarikṣaṁ divyāt pātvasmān.

Let the people of all five classes and communities listen to my call to action, children of the earth, lovers of the common voice of divinity, and all of those dedicated to united action for creativity and production, and may mother earth protect us against sin and evil earthly, and may the skies protect us against all dangers from the space above.

Spinning and expanding the thread of life divine, pursue the light of the sun across the skies and space. Protect and follow the paths of light created by the wise with thought and vision. Weave the web of the sinless spontaneous men of word and vision in action. Be Man, build up a community of enlightened people, human and close to divinity.

Lovers of Soma, peace and joy, bind the traces, harness the horses, tighten the reins and refine them to perfection, move on the eightfold chariot all round, the chariot by which the divines bring in the dearest treasures of life. (This mantra is a metaphor of the eightfold path of yoga from the control of senses and mind to the attainment of samadhi which marks the communion of the soul with divinity.)

The rocky river of life flows on in flood. Hold on fast together, friends, rise and swim to the shore. let us jettison all that is inauspicious here. Let us swim and cross over to attain the trophies of victory.
9. Tvaśṭā māyā vedapasāmapastamo bibhrat pātrā devapānāni śantamā. Śiśīte nūnam paraśum svāyasam yena vṛścādetaśo brahma-ṇasptatiḥ.

The cosmic maker Tvashta, supreme expert of the artists of the world, knows the mysteries of karma and the secrets of fortune or misfortune, and most beneficent as he is, he carves and fills the most delicious cups of joy for the holies. The lord of cosmic wisdom also makes and sharpens the golden axe of knowledge, justice and dispensation whereby the man who attains to this prize knowledge cuts at the root of his karmic tree and drinks the nectar of universal sweets of freedom from the divine cup.

10. Sato nūnam kavyaḥ saṁ śiśīta vāśībhiryābhira-mṛtāya takṣatha. Vidvāmsaḥ padā guhyāṇi kartana yena devāso amṛtatvamānaśuh.

O men of vision and seekers of divinity, sharpen and refine your golden axe of knowledge with the voice of Brahmanaspati, lord omniscient, by which you prepare for the attainment of immortality. O scholars of knowledge, carve out the mystical paths to divinity, work out the progressive stages by which the seekers of divinity attained to the nectar of life eternal.
11. Garbhe yośāmadadadhurvatsamāsanyapīcyena manasota jihvayā. Sa viśvāhā sumanā yogyā abhi siṣāsanirvanate kāra ijjitim.

The devas, seekers of divinity, hold the Word of omniscience like the sacred vedi fire in the depth of their mind along with the reality of existence signified by the Word, and they hold it with the sense of clarity of expression by their tongue controlled and disciplined in the mouth. Indeed such a man of divine word and action in control is always happy at heart and all round efficient, and only such a man wins the victory prizes of life.

Indra Devata, Brhaduktha Vamadevya Rshi

1. Tāṁ su te kārtim maghavan mahitvā yat tvā bhīte rodasī ahvayetām. Prāvo devāṁ ātiro dāsamojaḥ prajāyai tvasyai yadaśikṣa indra.

Indra, lord of glory, I celebrate that renown of yours by the greatness of which the earth and heaven, both struck with awe, call upon you and glorify, by which you protect the holy and generous brilliancies, subdue the unholy negatives and destroyers, and by which you award the strength and lustre of life to your people.

यददशस्त्रन्वी वावृधाना बलरोकीन्द्व पद्रुवाणा जनप्रथु ।

2. Yadacarastanvā vāvṛdhāno balānīndra prabru-vāno janesu. Māyet sā te yāni yuddhānyāhur-nādyā śatrunā nanu purā vivitse.

As you pervade among people, self-exalting by the power of your presence, and thereby manifest your own glory, and as poets and sages sing and celebrate your battles against evils within and without in the world of humanity, all this glory is but your own essential divine potential, and that is why you have had no enemy ever before nor do you have any even now.

3. Ka u nu te mahimanaḥ samasyā’smat pūrva ṛṣayo’ntamāpuḥ. Yanmātaraṁ ca pitaram ca sākam-ajanayathās-tanvāḥ svāyāḥ.

Which ancient sages and seers before us could ever comprehend the bounds of this absolute glory of yours since you brought into existence both earth and heaven together as mother and father of life from your own material power of Prakṛti?

4. Catvāri te asuryāni nāmā’dābhyaṇi mahiṣasya santi. Tvamanāga tāni viśvāṇi vitse yebhiḥ karmāṇi maghavaṇcakartha.

O great and glorious Indra, four are your states of being, four the modifications of existential manifestation, all of them living and imperishable, which all, O dear lord of life of the universe, you know and by which, O lord of cosmic majesty, you perform the acts of universal life in existence.

(The four states of cosmic being are waking, dreaming, sleeping and the transcendent Absolute. Four states of existence are generation, sustenance, withdrawal and the trans-existential state. Four Prakrti modifications are Prakrti, mahat, ahankara and the specifics of material and mental forms of physical, biological and psychic stages of evolution which are then absorbed into the Absolute state at the end.) Reference may also be made to ‘Om’ which is the divine Word, the name of divinity consisting of four matras A, U, and M and the fourth is silent and absolute. ‘A’ refers to the waking, that is, the objective state of existence which is the subject of science. ‘U’ refers to the imaginative and subjective state which is the subject of psychology and meditation upto the stage of ‘vitark’ and ‘vichara’ samadhi, and ‘M’ refers to the sleep state which is realisable in ‘Ananda’ state of Samadhi. All these are covered under the Samprajnata Samadhi. The fourth, transcendent state, is realisable in Asamprajnata samadhi which is Transcendental Meditation).

5. Tvaṁ viśvā dadhiṣe kevalāni yānyāviryā ca guhā stvamājñātā tvamindrāsi dātā.

You bear and absolutely comprehend all the treasures of existence, manifest as well as unmanifest. Pray do not frustrate my longing for fulfilment. Indra, you are the knower, the ordainer and the giver.

In honour of Indra who vests light in the stars and creates honey sweets of life with the honey sweets of divinity, and to that Indra, poets of divinity sing with love and faith songs of thought, beauty and power from their articulate meditation on the Infinite.

Mandala 10/Sukta 55

Indra Devata, Vrhaduktha Vamadevya Rshi

Far too distant and far too deep is that name and lustre, O lord of glory, Indra, for indifferent people to understand and appreciate which the heaven and earth struck with awe call upon for sustenance. O lord of glory, you sustain both heaven and earth in space in complementarity with each other and illuminate the rays of the sun and lightening of the cloud, both brotherly providers of sustenance to life.

Great and deeply glorious is that name and divine presence universally loved and adored by which you create all that has been and that which would be. That light and glory of this Indra is eternal, ever existent and dear to all into which all the five people that love him and are dear to him and all the five elements of nature retire (when the cycle of existence has run a full circle).

That glorious presence pervades and fills heaven and earth and the middle regions, fills and energises the five divine elements, five senses, five pranas, seven regions of the universe, seven rays of light, forty nine orders of the winds, all according to the seasons of time, and it watches and illuminates thirty four orders of divine powers of eight Vasus, eleven Rudras, twelve Adityas, nature’s nourishment by Prajapati, nature’s energy of fire, electricity and light, and Vak, the articulation of consciousness, all in many ways, with different functions and effects.

O Dawn, when you arise and shine first of the lights of the lord, Indra, and bring in fresh life for the world generated and nourished by Indra, then your motherly love for humanity is the one unique and great life giving blessing of the supreme spirit of divinity for humanity on this earth.

Old age consumes even the youthful man of versatile action whom many fear to face in battle and flee. Look at the inscrutable power of the lord divine by whose inevitable law of mutability the man who was living yesterday is dead today, and the one that dies today would be living to tomorrow.
6. Šākmanā śāko aruṇāḥ suparṇa ā yo mahaḥ śūraḥ sanādanīlaḥ. Yacciketa satyamit tanna mogham vasu spārhamaṭa jetota dātā.

He is Almighty by might supreme, blazing lustrous, high flying and all caring, great, brave, eternally unbound by space. What he knows is truth inviolable, never infructuous, he is universal haven, lovable, all conqueror, all giving.

With these potent and positive waves of natural energy, the virile Indra, wielder of thunderbolt, assumes those powers for breaking the clouds of darkness and want by which he brings about the showers of rain for the world of existence, which powers too for bringing about the showers of positive action and creativity arise from the grandeur of the omnipotent original doer of cosmic karma.

Originally causing and bringing about the dynamics of cosmic karma, the Lord Almighty of the world, destroyer of negatives and despicable, all-knowing cosmic mind, instant and total victor, protector of soma, augmenter of light, almighty, blows the conch and blows away the forces of nescience.

Mandala 10/Sukta 56

Vishvedevah Devata, Brhaduktha Vamadevya Rshi

1. Idam ta ekam para ū ta ekam tṛṭiyena jyotiśā sam viśasva. Saṁveśane tanvaścāruredhi priyo devānāṁ parame janitre.

   This (body, this life time) is one mode of your existence. The one next (mind and karma) is another such. By the third (spiritual and meditative life) join you with life eternal. On merging of the soul, happy and darling of the divinities, be free in the presence of the supreme creator of the world.

   O dynamic soul, may your life here in the body carrying your self bring precious wealth of joy to us and peace and comfort to you. Living an honest natural life, great in your own self, in service of the sustainer of divinities, create your own light and bliss for yourself, pursuing the light of the heart within as the light of heaven above.

You are the dynamic soul by virtue of your innate power and potential. Realising your love of life, living in peace and prosperity, rise to the heights of your own self-glory, happy and pious, and reach the heights of heaven. Happy in rectitude, follow the first, original and eternal Dharma. Happy and self-realised, rise to the life divine to the joy of the divines, and, a blessed soul, attain to the Spirit Eternal of the universe.

The forefathers lived in the grand manner of these divinities such as light of the sun and moon to their own will and desire as if commanding the bliss and beauty of these. Divine were they who raised their acts and worship to the presence and piety of divinities. They join those lights of divinity which shine and then again they come back to join life in their existential bodies.
5. Sahobhirviśvaṁ pari cakramū rajaḥ pūrvā dhā- mānyamitā mimānāḥ. Tanuṣū viśvā bhuvanā ni yemire prāsārayanta purudha prajā anu.

These souls by their own karmic potential roam around across all regions of the world, freely ranging over boundless worlds of high order, sajourning in various body forms across the spaces begetting and extending the creativity of life in various ways according to the law of karma.

6. Dvidhā sūnavo’surāṁ svarvidam-āsthāpayanta trātīyena karmanā. Svāṁ prajāṁ pitaraḥ pitryaṁ saha āvareśvadadhūs-tantum-ātatam.

Children of divinity, creative and procreative souls, by their third, familial, karma, vesting the vital and spiritual life principle further along with the procreative vitality, establish their own progeny in the next generation which is the extension of the thread of life in natural piety.

7. Nāvā na kṣodhaḥ pradīṣaḥ prthivyāḥ svastibhirati durgāṇī viśvā. Svāṁ prajāṁ bhṛaduktho mahi- tvā’vareśvadadhādā pāreṣu.
Just as you cross the flood by boat and, with noble acts of knowledge, action and piety, cross all difficult problems of earthly life, so does the man of praise-worthy knowledge, action and piety cross over the problems of life and death and leaves his own legacy, physical, intellectual and spiritual, by his own grand potential vesting it in the next and further generations to survive and continue.

Mandala 10/Sukta 57

Vishvedevah Devata, Bandhu, Shrutabandhu, Viprabandhu Gaupayanah Rshis

1. \( Mā \) pra gāma patho vayaṁ mā yajñādindra sominaḥ. Māntaḥ sthurno arātayāḥ.

Indra, O Lord Almighty, let us, lovers of soma peace, enlightenment and life’s joy never deviate from the path of rectitude and never forsake the creative way of yajnic living. Let no want, malignity, adversity and illiberality dwell among us.

2. \( Yo \) yajñasya prasādhanas-tantur-deveṣvātataḥ. Tamāhutaṁ naśīmahi.

There is a thread of unity, love, cooperation and active continuity in the web of life in nature’s divinities, and a similar bond of unity in an enlightened community which alone keeps it together and leads it on way to corporate progress. It is created and maintained with relentless self sacrifice in the spirit of yajna. Let us attain and maintain that very bond of yajnic unity for our progress and prosperity. (That is the bond of Agni, vital heat and love.)

We invoke the mind, alert ourselves and, with songs of human approbation and celebration, join with the thoughts and wisdom of our parents and ancestors to maintain the thread of continuity.

4. Ā ta etu manāḥ punaḥ kratve dakṣāya jīvase. Jyok ca sūryam dṛṣe.

Let your mind and spirit arise and be alert again and again, continuously, for noble action, expertise of performance, joyous living, and to see the sun for light and enlightenment for a long long time of health and happiness.

May our parents, seniors, the spirit and wisdom of our ancestors, and men of divine wisdom inspire our mind and spirit again and again, continuously for refreshment and energy, so that we may live a life of discipline and holiness.

O Soma, lord of peace and enlightenment, we pray that, holding our mind and senses in body in good health within your law and discipline and blest with noble progeny, we may live a happy life dedicated to you.

Mandala 10/Sukta 58

Mana avartanam Devata, Bandhu, Shrutabandhu, Viprabandhu Gaupayanah Rshis

The theme of this hymn is ‘Return of the mind’ from wandering and depression to normalcy for a healthy life.

1. Yat te yamaṁ vaivasvataṁ mano jagāma dūrākam. Tat ta ā vartayāmasīha kṣayāya āy[vase.

O man, that mind of yours that wanders far to the sun and broods over time and death, that we restore to normalcy, here to stay at peace for the good life.
2. Yat te divam yat pṛthiviṁ mano jagāma dūrakam. Tat ta ā vartayāmasīha kṣayāya jīvase.

Your mind that wanders far and roams over earth and heaven, we bring it back to normalcy, here to be at peace for the good life for you.

3. Yat te bhūmiṁ caturbhrṣṭim mano jagāma dūrakam. Tat ta ā vartayāmasīha kṣayāya jīvase.

Your mind that wanders far over lands and deserts burning and blazing all round, we bring it back for you, to be at peace here for the good life.

4. Yat te catasraḥ pradīso mano jagāma dūrakam. Tat ta ā vartayāmasiha kṣayāya jīvase.

Your mind which wanders far over all the four directions of space, that we bring back for you, here to be at peace for the good life.

5. Yat te samudram-arṇavaṁ mano jagāma dūrakam. Tat ta ā vartayāmasīha kṣayāya jīvase.

Your mind that wanders far over the sea and the waters of space, we bring back for you, here to be at peace for you for the good life.
6. Yat te marīcīḥ pravato mano jagāma dūrakam.
Tat ta ā vartayāmasīha kṣayāya jīvase.

Your mind that wanders far over heavenly heights and radiating rays of light, we bring back to normalcy here for you to be at peace for the good life.

7. Yat te apo yadoṣadhīrmano jagāma dūrakam.
Tat ta ā vartayāmasīha kṣayāya jīvase.

Your mind that wanders far over waters, herbs and trees, we bring back to normalcy for you to be at peace for the good life.

8. Yat te sūryam yaduṣasam mano jagāma dūrakam.
Tat ta ā vartayāmasīha kṣayāya jīvase.

Your mind that wanders far to the sun and the dawn, we bring back to normalcy, here to be at peace for you for the good life.

9. Yat te parvatān bṛhato mano jagāma dūrakam.
Tat ta ā vartayāmasīha kṣayāya jīvase.

Your mind that wanders far over mighty mountains and vast floating clouds, we bring back to normalcy, here to be at peace for your good life.

यत्त विश्वमिदं जग्न्यन्यां जुगां दूरकम्।
तत्त आ वंतयामसीह त्याय जीवस।॥ १० ॥

10. Yat te visvamidam jaganmano jagāma dūrakam. Tat ta ā vartayāmasīha kṣayāya jīvase.

Your mind that wanders far over this wide world, we bring back to normalcy, here to be at peace for you so that you may live happy.

यत्त परस्त: परावता मनां जुगां दूरकम्।
तत्त आ वंतयामसीह त्याय जीवस।॥ ११ ॥

11. Yat te parāḥ parāvato mano jagāma dūrakam. Tat ta ā vartayāmasīha kṣayāya jīvase.

Your mind that wanders far and farther over regions unknown, we bring back to normalcy, here to be at peace for your good life.

यत्त भूतं च भव्यं च मनां जुगां दूरकम्।
तत्त आ वंतयामसीह त्याय जीवस।॥ १२ ॥

12. Yat te bhūtāṁ bhavyaṁ ca mano jagāma dūrakam. Tat ta ā vartayāmasīha kṣayāya jīvase.

Your mind that wanders far over the past and the future that is unpredictable, we bring back to normalcy, here to be at peace for your happy life.

Devatah: Nirrti (1-3), Nirrti and Soma (4), Asuniti (5-6), Lingokta (7), Dyavaprthivyau (8-9), Dyavaprthivi-Indra (10); Rshis: Bandhu, Shrutabandhu, Viprabandhu

Gaupayanah

Let new life and new initiative rise and advance higher and higher as the dynamic master of the chariot constantly moves forward and as the progressive pioneer achieves his goal and moves higher and higher. Let want and adversity fall off and depart far and farther.

2. Sāman nu rāye nidhimannvannāṁ karāmahe su purudha śravāṃsi. Tā no viśvāni jaritā mamattu parātaramḥ su nurṣṭirjihītāṁ.

Let us create peace for wealth and food in abundance with security and many other forms of life’s values and excellence so that the poet, the singer and the senior too may enjoy life without worry and want, and adversity, fear and insecurity may fall off and depart far and farther for good.
3. Abhī śvaryaḥ pauṁsyairbhaveṁ dyauṁna bhūṁim girayō nājrān. Tā no viśvāni jaritā ciketa parātaram su nirṛtirjihitām.

As the sun overwhelms the earth, as thunder overpowers the clouds and clouds overwhelm the fields with rain, so may we overpower the negativities and enemies of life and society with our natural and essential strength, virtues and achievements so that the poet, the singer, the senior, the assessor and the admirer may know, and want and adversity, fear and insecurity may fall off and disappear for good.

O Soma, lord of peace and prosperity, give us not up to death and decay. Let us go on and advance with the rising sun day by day. Let our growth in time be positive for our good day by day. Let want, adversity, illness and death stay far away from us.

5. Asunīte mano asmāsū dhāraya jīvātevā su pra tirā na āyuḥ. Rārandhi naḥ sūryasya saṁdṛśi ghṛtena tvam tanvaṁ vardhayasva.

O mother harbinger of pranic energy, bless us with the strength of mind and morale, and for our good living give us good health and long full age. Mature and establish us in the light of the sun and the vision of divinity, and with the lustre and energy of nature raise our health and age to the heights of perfection.

O divine Spirit of life and energy, bless us constantly with the faculty of vision, constant pranic energy too, and vest in here in the body the capacity and faculties to live and enjoy the sweets of life. O motherly spirit of love and acceptance, may we see the rising sun for a long time. Be pleased and kind and bless us with happiness and well being all through in life.

May the earth give us pranic energy of life again. So may the divine sun and the generous sky give us life again. May Soma, divine spirit of joy and peace, give us the body again, and may Pusha, divine spirit of nourishment, place us on the journey of life again and give us happiness and well being.
8. Śamṇ rodasī subandhave yahvi ōtasya mātarā. Bharatāmapa yadrapo dyauḥ prthi kṣamā rapo mo ṣu te kim canāmamat.

May the mighty heaven and earth, mother spirits of truth and waters of life bring peace and joy for the holy child and loving brother of living beings. May the sun and earth, father and mother, make up whatever be wanting in body, mind and spirit and the child’s senses of values. May they strengthen the child against sin and evil and forgive him for his pitfalls in the struggle for self-realisation. O man, may nothing whatever, sin or sorrow, hurt and violate you ever against your self-identity.

In two’s (as the Ashvins or prana and apana) and in three’s (as Ila, Sarasvati and bharati, or as light, electric energy and water) the sanatives for life and health flow from the heavenly region of light and one by one be active on earth. May the sun and earth make up what is wanting in body, mind and spirit. May they strengthen humanity against sin and evil and forgive us in the struggle for self-realisation. O man, may nothing whatever, sin or sorrow, hurt and violate you ever against your self-identity.

O Lord omnipotent, Indra, O Sun, inspire and energise the pranic force of the body, inspire and energise the vitality of passion, will and understanding of the body. May the sun and earth make up what is wanting in body, mind and spirit. May they strengthen humanity against sin and evil and forgive us where we fail in our struggle. O man, may nothing whatever, sin or sorrow, hurt and violate you in your struggle for perfection.

आ जनं त्वष्ट्रसन्दुर्शं माहीनानामुपस्तुतम ।
अर्गन्म बिर्भता नर्मः । ॥ १ ॥

Bearing gifts of homage we come to the man of radiant glory, honoured and celebrated by the greatest of the great.

असंपातिं निताश्नं त्वष्ट्रं नियुक्तिनं रथ्यम ।
भुजरर्थस्य सत्यतिम ॥ २ ॥

   We come to the incomparable lord and protector of the true and the good, destroyer of evil and darkness, radiant illustrious, commander of the chariot of victory in the battles of rectitude.

3. Yo janān mahiśāṇī ivā’titasthau pavīrarvān. Utāpavīrarvān yudhā.

   We have come to the mighty hero who, whether armed or without arms, overthrows adversaries as a lion overthrows wild buffaloes.

   We have come to the ruling lord under whose order of law, justice and discipline, the enlightened, the opulent and the brilliant fighters and indeed all the five classes of people in their own professional fields live happy and free as in heaven on earth.

5. Indra kṣatrāsāmatiśu rathapraṣṭheṣu dhāraya. Divīva sūryam dṛṣe.

   Indra, lord of light and law, ruler of the world, first among exceptional equals of the chariot commanders of the world, pray hold and rule the order of the commonwealth of humanity as the lord supreme holds the sun in heaven for all the worlds to see.

For the supporters and admirers of the simple, sinless, enlightened and disciplined ruling soul of the order, you harness two nimble bright forces of internal discipline and external defence, and, O refulgent ruler of the system, you control all the greedy, selfish, uncreative and uncommitted elements of the world order.

O holy brother, O friend, O brilliant soul of the system, this systemic order is your mother, your father, come up as your life giver. Come in, come here, O soul and ruler of the system, this is your haven and home for life’s advancement, its meaning and purpose.

8. Yathā yugam varatrayā nahyanti dharuṇāya kam. Evā dādhāra te mano jīvātave na mṛtyave’tho ariṣṭatātaye.
As they bind the yoke fast with thongs for the balance and stability of the chariot on the move, so does the lord hold fast your mind and spirit, not for death but for your life, fulfilment and freedom from evil and misfortune.

O man, just as this great earth holds and bears these herbs and trees (for the sustenance of life), so does the soul hold and bear your mind and spirit, not for death but for your life, fulfilment and freedom from evil and misfortune.

I, the spirit of man, holy and blessed, bear my mind from Yama, lord of light and law, I receive my spirit of energy from the sun, I bear and hold it in equipoise, not for death but for the pleasure and fulfilment of life and freedom from sin and evil.

The wind blows downwards, the heat of the sun goes downwards to the earth, the holy cow lets her milk flow down. O man, let your sin and evil too go down, leaving you free.

12. Ayaṁ me hasto bhagavānayaṁ me bhagavatta-raḥ. Ayaṁ me viśvabheṣajo’yaṁ śivābhimar-śanaḥ.

This my hand is the hand of good fortune, this is even the hand of greater good fortune, this is the solution to all my problems of the world. This hand is for the touch of holiness with life, the instrument of action for fulfilment.

Mandala 10/Sukta 61

Vishvedevah Devata, Nabhanedishtha Manava Rshi

The eloquent scholar displays his knowledge, in theory and practice, of this divine Vedic voice of the mysterious truth of nature and divinity in relation to Rudra, lord omnipotent of natural justice and dispensation, in the assembly of the wise and brave where his parents, teachers and eminent scholars are present on the day of academic accomplishment and satisfies all the seven high priests of his educational yajna with a sense of fulfilment.

2. Sa iddānāya dabhyāya vanvañcyavānahā sūdai-ramimīta vedim. Tūrvayāno gūrtavacastamaḥ kṣodo na reta ita ūti sīncat.

Thus accomplished for a creative and corrective role in life, equipped with right means and methods of art and science, he prepares the vedi, i.e., a full programme of family life and social action, for himself. Dynamic and assertive in action, bold in speech, agreeable in tone and deep in meaning, he collects the spirit of virility in the mind as in a deep reservoir and expresses it for the protection and promotion of human dignity and happiness.

3. Mano na yeṣu havaneṣu tigmāṃ vipaḥ śacyā vanutho dravantā. Ā yah śaryābhis-tuvinṛmṇo asyā’śrīṇītādiśam gabhastau.

O men and women of the land, O Ashvins, O sun and moon, with voice and action, honour the call of this vibrant scholar and master of ample wealth and power who, with all the means and methods on hand, exhorts you to join the yajnic programmes of development to which you rush at the speed of the fastest and sharpest mind.
4. Krṣṇā yadgośvaruṇīśu sīdad divo napātāśvinā huve vām. Vītam me yajñamā gataṁ me annam vavanvāṁsā neṣamasmṛtadhrū.

Ashvins, children of light, when the darkness of night mingles with the crimson lights of the morning, I call upon you, come and join the lovely yajna for me, forget about all undesirables and negativities, enjoy yourselves and partake of the holy food to your heart’s desire.

That most expansive creativity and generative vitality of Rudra Prajapati, lord creator, animated and vested in nature, which also is an irresistible human impulse, further expands into life when it is received and borne to maturity by the loving youthful maiden, motherly agent of nature’s innate urge for self-fulfilment.

When the generator, father, and the youthful maiden, the mother, both joined in love and marriage with the desire to fulfil their obligation to Prajapati, lord of the household, have begot and brought up the progeny and have fulfilled their obligation in common, they give up and retire. All this, love, desire, accomplishment and fulfilment, is an extension of the process of divine creativity initiated on top of heaven at the centre of cosmic generation.

7. Pitā yat svāṁ duhitaram-adhiśkan kṣmayā retaḥ samjagamāno ni śiñcat. Svādhyo’janayan brahma devā vāstospatim vratapāṁ niratakṣan.

As the father, the sun, covers the skies and the earth, his counterpart, and, shedding his living light and lustre, fills them with the vitality of life, then the devas, radiant divinities of nature, create and form Agni, keeper of the vows of the law and master of the earthly home.

8. Sa ūṁ vṛṣā na phenamasyadājau smadā paraidapa dabhrcetāḥ. Sarat padā na daksinā parāvṛṇ na tā nu me prśanyo jagṛbhre.

That master of the home, Agni, like a mighty generous cloud, showers the vitality of life in the process of nature and sends our homage of oblations to far off distances from us except that if some small minded person of stingy character takes no step forward and neglects the ordinances of charity, then Agni, otherwise all embracing, does not accept our oblations.

9. \(\text{Makṣū na vahniḥ prajayā upabdiragnim na nagna upa sīdadūdhaḥ. Sanitedhman sanitota vājani sa dhartā jajñē sahasā yavīyut.}\)

The master of the home is the leader, burden bearer and the voice of the people. He must never defile the common wealth of this earthly home like a stingy selfish man defiling the sacred fire. In fact he is arisen as the protector, sharer and trustee of the common assets, energy, honour and progress of the nation, who works for its unity and advancement with his power, patience and fortitude.

10. \(\text{Makṣū kanāyāh sakhyāṁ navagvā ṛtayān vadanta ṛtayuktimagman. Dvibharhaso ya upa gopa-māgu-radakśiṇāso acyutā dudukṣan.}\)

Just as fresh waves of solar radiations in the morning, manifesting the laws of nature and flow of living energy, meet with homogeneity of the beautiful earth and, in contact with both the sun and earth, join the all sustaining gravitational life force, and, without taking anything for themselves create and give universal showers of imperishable creative and motherly fertility to the earth. (So do new generations of youthful men from institutions of education, knowing, proclaiming and living the laws of nature and the land with loyalty to both find the love and friendship of their dear choice maidens in marriage and, dedicated to both the family and humanity, join the high priest of the land and create permanent gains for the nation without any selfish considerations.)

11. Makṣu kanāyāḥ sakhyāṁ navīyo rādho na reta ṛtamit turāṇyan. Śuci yat te rekṣa āyajanta sabardughāyāḥ paya usriyāyāḥ.

Soon the solar radiations in unison with the homogeneity of fertile earth stimulate the vital process of nature’s creativity and produce the liquid living energy, pure life seed, latest prize like the legacy of divinity for you, O yajamana, the gift of generous earth and the mother’s milk. (Similarly the young men who win the love and friendship of the lovely maidens of their choice and earnestly observe the laws and discipline of nature and maintain the purity of their seed of life receive the generous mother’s gift of noble progeny.)
After the fulfilment of family obligations, the man having renounced the life of senses and materiality and exulting in the joy of divine revelation exclaims: O friends of knowledge and divine law, O celebrants of songs of divinity, the lord giver of the highest wealth and haven of peace, immaculate and free, brings us the ultimate food of divine joy and supreme wealth of existence.

Then the mind, pranic energies and senses, present all round, vested variously in the body, come into divine animation, having dissolved all carnal desires, when the man fulfilled in the soul knows and realises the presence of the all-mighty, all-pervasive supreme spirit in the depth of the heart and soul, interwoven indeed in the web of life itself.
Blazing brilliant and mighty sublime is that Spirit indeed whose refulgent and divine powers like paradisal bliss abide in the three regions of heaven, earth and the middle spaces. Agni, light and fire of the universe, is its name, animating all that is born in existence. O high priest of the yajnic dynamics of existence, clarion call of the universe, all love free from hate and animosity, pray listen to our call and prayer.

Indra, lord almighty, pray may those two offsprings of Rudra, lord of mercy, justice and dispensation, Ashvins, twin powers of natural complementarity, commanding the light of life, dedicated to infallible truth, both happy, givers of joy, adorable in yajna with homage, come to me, ready on the holy grass with my people, advance our yajna and acknowledge our homage and prayer among our community of celebrants.

16. Ayaṁ stuto rājā vandi vedhā apaśca viprastarati svasetuḥ. Sa kaksīvantāṁ rejayaḥ so agnim nemiṁ na cakramarvato raghudson.

This adored and refulgent ruler is worshipped.
All knowing, all doing, all vibrant pranic and soma force of divinity, all saviour bridge, by itself crosses all waters and spaces. It moves all spatial energies and all fiery elements just as horses move the centre and the circle of a fast whirling wheel.

17. Sa dvibandhurvaитaraṇa yaṣṭā sabardhūm dhenumasvaṁ duḥadhyai. Saṁ yanmitrāvaruṇā vṛñja ukthair-jyeṣṭhebhir-aryamaṇam varūthaiḥ.

He that holds the two worlds of heaven and earth in bond, the high priest of cosmic yajna, all pervasive power that helps us to cross over the flood of existence, gives us the immortal gift of eternal Word and vision when a person, with the best of chant and meditative practice, realises together Mitra, centripetal, and Varuna, centrifugal, processes of cosmic dynamics, and also Aryaman, the all-controlling spirit that controls both the centre and the circle of the wheel of existence.

18. Tadbandhuḥ sūrirdivi te dhiyandhā nābhānedi-ṣṭho rapati pra venan. Sā no nābhīḥ paramā-sya vā ghā’haṁ tat paścā katithaścidāsa.

O soul, says the celebrant in love with divinity, that binding bond, the sun in heaven, is the giver of your will and intelligence and also its guardian, your closest link of nature to life eternal. That navel link is our highest centre of existence and of that, in consequence, I am the devoted celebrant among many.

19. Iyāṁ me nābhirīha me sadhasṭhamīme me devā ayamasmi sarvāḥ. Dvijā aha prathamajā ṛtasye-dāṁ dhenuraduhajjāyamānā.

This is my navel link with life, here is my haven and ultimate home, all these divine brilliances, winds and pranic energies are mine, here I am all, complete. Whether first born of divinity or twice born of nature and education, all this universe is born of Prakṛti in motion and action under the law of divinity. The divine cow, Vak, nature coming into existential manifestation gives birth to it and to all we need.

20. Adhāsu mandro aratirvibhāvā’va syati dvivarta-nirvanesāt. Ūrdhvā yacchreṇirna śīṣurdan makṣū sthiraṁ śevṛdham sūta mātā.

And in the directions of space pervades Agni, joyous, dynamic, bright, moving across heaven and earth, lord of woods, high power admirable, lovely, which, like an army array, destroys in no time. That stable power, giver of comfort and joy, too, Mother Nature generates.
21. Adhā gāva upamātīṁ kanāyā anu śvāntasya kasya cīt pareyuḥ. Śrūdhi tvam sudraviṇo nastvam yāḷāśvaghnasya vāvṛde sūṁṛtābhiḥ.

And as the prayers of some veteran saint reach you, lord of love and favour, O holy lord of wealth and glory, listen to our prayer: Give us the yajnic gifts of life, you who feel exalted by the joyous and truthful adorations of devotees who have risen above their senses and passions of the mind.

And O lord of might and glory, Indra, magnanimous lord protector of humanity, wielder of thunder arms, pray know us and grant us our prayers for wealth, honour and excellence. O lord of nature’s forces and destroyer of suffering, protect us, promote us, all dedicated to the power and honour gifts of divine favour. We pray let us enjoy your love and good will that we may live in a state of freedom from sin and evil.

And then, O men of light and wisdom, the person who is keen to rise and is rising in the search for the lord’s love and good will, who seeks to adore and serve the lord creator, such a vibrant devotee becomes the dearest of all these seekers for the lord, crosses the flood of existence and, speaking of the highest absolute and inspiring them, helps others too to seek divine fulfilment.

And so for the sake of our growth and progress under the protection of this lord absolute and all victorious master of the universe, we spontaneously sing and pray: you are the creator and sole mover of this universe, all pervasive and dominant, all providing giver of fulfilment and most renowned harbinger of success and victory.

O enlightened men and women of the world, if for your love and friendship and the growth of our strength, the devotee were to offer a song of adoration with homage, humility and love to the lord to whom all earnest voices of prayer converge and reach for fulfilment all over the world, and the lord of all might were pleased to accept, he would bless us with a vision of the path of truth and progress.

Sa grñäño adbhir-devaväniti subandhur-namasä sūktaiḥ. Vardhad-ukthair-vacobhirä hi nūnaṁ vyadhvaiti payasa usriyäyäḥ.

Say the lord almighty adored by holies is a friend of the divines. Noble brother and all unifier, He is to be worshipped and exalted with homage of love, hymns of faith, rituals of service and words of praise. His grace rains in showers by paths of love in piety and meditation as the mother cow’s milk flows for the calf.

Ta ū śu ṇo maho yajatrā bhūta devāsa ītaye sajośāḥ. Ye vājāṁ anayatā viyanto ye sthā nicetāro amūrāḥ.

Great and glorious divinities, loving friends, adorable visionaries, decisive and discriminative in wisdom and judgement, pray ever abide by us for our protection and progress, you who are leading lights and harbingers of abundant food, energy, victory and ultimate fulfilment of life.
Mandala 10/Sukta 62

Vishvedevah or Angirasas (1-6), Vishvedevah (7), Savarni’s Danastuti (8-11) Devatah, Nabhanedishtha
Manava Rshi

Brilliant divinities of light and wisdom, Angirasas, self-realised souls dear as breath of life, who, distinguished and beautified by performance of yajna, self-sacrifice and liberal giving, have won the love and friendship of Indra, lord almighty, and attained the freedom of immortality, may there be all round auspicious good fortune for you in life. O sagely divines, pray take man under your kind care for spiritual refinement.

O parental sages and scholars, Angirasas, who research, recover and create the wealth of knowledge and the divine voice and thereby, through yajna and the study of nature’s law, break through and dispel the darkness of loss and ignorance all the year round in the seasonal cycle, may Indra bless you with a long happy life. Pray take the son of Manu under your kind care, sages of holy wisdom and knowledge.

3. Ya ṛtena sūryamaṇorohayan divyapratthayan pṛthivīṁ mātaram vi. Suprajāstvamaṅgiraso vo astu prati grbhṛṭita mānavaṁ sumedhasaḥ.

Angirasas, nature’s powers of creation and evolution who, by the divine law and cosmic yajna of nature, raised the sun and set it there and formed and expanded mother earth, may you have the wealth of noble progeny. Enlightened sages of noble intellect and wisdom who study and research the laws of nature, pray take the children of humanity under your kind care.

O children of divinity, seers and visionaries, this central soul speaks the voice divine in your yajnic home, in the core of your heart. Listen to that. O Angirasas, may this divine voice be yours and your heritage to your posterity. O sages of holy mind and wisdom, pray take the children of humanity under your care.
5. Virūpāsa idiṣhayasta idgambhiravepasah.
   Te aṅgirasah śūnavaste agneḥ pari jajñire.

Rshis are seers of various forms of existence including the structures and meanings of the voice divine. They are powers and performers of serious and mysterious actions. They are all Angirasas, children of the cosmic soul born as waves of cosmic energy. O cosmic soul, O cosmic energy, O Agni, they are your children, creators too in their own natural ways, born of you like sparks from the yajna fire.

Of these various forms of existence born of Agni in the regions of light, the waves called navagu and dashagu being most powerful excel among the divine forms of nature.

Similarly among the living forms of existence born of the divine soul and divine energy, the human form of five elements and four powers of the self, i.e., mana, buddhi, chitta and ahankara, all together nine, and further, ten pranas and ten senses, excels as the highest and most powerful of the divine forms of life.
7. Indreṇa yujā niḥ sṛjanta vāghato vrajam gomāntamaśvinam. Sahasram me dadato aṣṭakar-ṇyaḥ śravo deveṣvakraṭa.

The wise and visionary yajakas with the inspiration of Indra, lord ruler, create knowledge relating to senses, mind and will, and with their senses raised to eightfold power and sensitivity, giving me a thousand gifts, win praise among brilliant scholars.

May this man, for sure, arise and grow like a germinating seed in fertile soil, who creates and gives a thousand gifts of hundred horse-power achievement straight to be dedicated to charitable good.

No one can approach even the fringe of this wonder worker’s achievement as the sun’s on top of heaven. After all, the versatility and generosity of this man of universal competence flows ceaselessly like the flood of a river and expands as the sea.
10. Uta dāsā pariviṣe smaddiṣṭi goparīṇasā.

    Yadusturvaśca māmahe.

    And the giver, the visionary, the prosperous, the industrious and the victorious, all exalt him and feel honoured to serve and support him.

    सहस्रदा गर्मणिमा रिष्यन्मनुः सूर्यणास्य यत्मानवृ दरिणा। सार्वणात्वा: प तिरिन्त्वायुयस्मि अश्रान्ता अर्जनाम चाजौ ॥ ११ ॥

11. Sahasradā grāmaṇīrma riṣanmanuḥ sūryena-sya yatamānaitu dakṣīṇā. Sāvarnerdevāḥ pra tirantvāyur-yaśminn-aśrāntā asanāma vājam.

    The giver of thousands, leader of the community, must not be hurt, nor would he hurt anyone. May this generosity, active and advancing, rise with the sun day by day. May the divinities prolong and elevate the health and age of the man of versatile generosity and competence, and may we, under his guidance and leadership, relentlessly advancing, win the goal and victory of our aspirations.

Mandala 10/Sukta 63

_Vishvedevah (1-14, 17), pathyasvasti (15-16) Devatah, Gaya Plata Rshi_

May those divinities of humanity and bounties of nature that love humanity and come from afar anxious to meet and talk to the children of light under the sun, those who join the yajna on the vedi of dynamic and aspiring humanity bound and dedicated to karma across time through birth and death, may they all speak to us of the light divine and eternal wisdom.

विश्वाहि वानमस्योध्यं वन्द्यान्नाराज्ञिनी दवा उत्त युज्ज्ञैष्यानिव:। य स्तु ज्ञाता अदितराद्धग्यस्परिः य पृथिव्यास्त मेह श्रुताहि हवम्॥ ॥

O Devas, brilliancies of nature and humanity, all your names, nature and functions are venerable, adorable and worthy of yajnic communion. May all of you who are born of the earth, over the sky and space and mother Infinity may hear my call and invocation here on the vedi.

यद्वायं माता मधुमस्तिन्वत पवः पीयूषं दार्दितिरदिबहाः। उपक्ष्याब्राह्मण्वृषभरान्त्वप्रसस्तात आदित्यां अन्द्रु मदा स्वस्तय।॥ ॥

Serve, exhilarate and replenish those Adityas, children of light on earth and brilliancies of nature for whom mother earth yields and augments honey sweets of the milk of life, the sun, mother infinity and the cloud
May those divinities of humanity and bounties of nature that love humanity and come from afar anxious to meet and talk to the children of light under the sun, those who join the yajna on the vedi of dynamic and aspiring humanity bound and dedicated to karma across time through birth and death, may they all speak to us of the light divine and eternal wisdom.

2. Viśvāmbhara namasya viṣṇur jyotir yajñasya uta. Ye sthā jātāditer-adbhyasparīye pūthivīste ma iha śrutih havam.

O Devas, brilliancies of nature and humanity, all your names, nature and functions are venerable, adorable and worthy of yajnic communion. May all of you who are born of the earth, over the sky and space and mother Infinity may hear my call and invocation here on the vedi.

Serve, exhilarate and replenish those Adityas, children of light on earth and brilliancies of nature for whom mother earth yields and augments honey sweets of the milk of life, the sun, mother infinity and the cloud bearing sky shower nectar sweets of rain. Be grateful and rejoice with those, Adityas, who bring the resonance of mantric power to yajna, who move the mighty clouds of rain and who perform the noblest creative acts for the good, happiness and all round well being of life.

Ever watchful inspirers of humanity, active without a wink, adorable in their own right, mighty brilliant and generous, they attain to the freedom of immortality. They ride the chariot of light and, inviolable of might and free from sin and evil, they abide on top of heaven. May they come and bless our yajna for the good and all round well being of life. Serve them, exhilarate them, be grateful and rejoice.

5. Samrājo ye suvṛdho yajñamāyayur-apariḥrata dadhire divi kṣayam. Tāṅ ā vivāsa namasā suvṛktibhir mahō ādityān aditiṁ svastaye.

Those illustrious children of light, self-refulgent and steadily rising in knowledge and wisdom, who come and grace the yajna and, straight and unassailable in action and character, abide in the sphere of the light of divinity, those great children of inviolable mother Infinity and Mother Nature, serve, exhilarate and replenish with homage and humility for the good and all round well being of life. Be grateful with holy words of praise and rejoice.

O Vishvedevas, brilliancies of nature and humanity, O thoughtful people, all of you born on the earth that abide on the vedi, who leads your song of divinity to success? Whom do you love and serve with adoration? Who leads your yajna to auspicious completion? He that cleanses us of sin and evil. That same divinity whom you love and adore, that same lord of yajna, serve and exhilarate for the sake of the good and all round well being of life. Be grateful and rejoice.

7. Yebhyo hotrāṁ prathamāmāyeje manuḥ samiddhāgnirmanasā sapta hoṭṛbhiḥ. Ta ādityā abhayam śarma yacchata sugā naḥ karta supathā svastaye.

Those Adityas, children of eternal light blest with knowledge and wisdom of divinity, for whom Manu, omniscient creator, lighted the first fire of creative yajna with thought and tapas and conducted the yajna with seven priests (five elements with mahat and Ahankara, seven pranas, sevenfold sense and mind complex, seven rays of the sun, seven sages and seven chhandas of the Veda) may, we pray, bring a peaceful life and home with freedom from fear and make our paths of life simple, straight and clear from darkness and evil for the good and all round well being of life.

8. Ya īśire bhuvanasya pracetaso viśvasya sthātur-jagataśca mantavaḥ. Te naḥ kṛtādakṛtādena-saspayadyā devāsah pipṛtā svastaye.

Those divine, brilliant and generous powers of nature and humanity with a noble heart and mind that know and rule the entire moving and unmoving world of existence may, we pray, save us today and protect us from sin and evil whether past or future for the good and all round well being of life.

For success in our yajnic struggles of life and for victory against negativity and evils of the world, we call upon and pray to Indra, mighty ruler of the world, instant listener, noble doer and deliverer from sin and adversity. We call upon Agni, spirit of light and fire, Mitra, loving power of friendship, Varuna, power of judgement and discrimination, Bhaga, lord of power and prosperity, earth and heaven, Maruts, tempestuous forces, and the noble and brilliant people dedicated to positive good action so that we may enjoy the good life of all round well being.

In order to cross the oceanic flood of life and its challenges, let us board the boat of life equipped with sure safety measures, vast like earth, high and bright like the regions of light, free from sin and evil, comfortable and peaceful, unbreakable, well structured and well steered, divine and brilliant, fitted with fine oars, faultless and free from leakage, so that we may cross the flood with ease and enjoy the good life with all round well being.

Brilliant divinities of nature and humanity, pray remove all sickness and disease of the world, eliminate indifference and opposition to divine service, remove selfishness and miserliness, remove the malignance of the sinner souls, throw off hate and jealousy far from us and give us a spacious peaceful happy home so that we may live the good life with happiness and all round well being.

Unhurt does the mortal advance in the world,
O Devas, brilliant and venerable sagely scholars of the science and vision of yajna, pray enlighten us on our defence and protection. Protect us from chronic evils and strengthen us with safe-guards against sudden calamities. In earnest truth we call upon you with words of divinity, pray listen and come for our protection so that we may live the good life with all round well being and happiness.

Brilliant divinities of nature and humanity, pray remove all sickness and disease of the world, eliminate indifference and opposition to divine service, remove selfishness and miserliness, remove the malignance of the sinner souls, throw off hate and jealousy far from us and give us a spacious peaceful happy home so that we may live the good life with happiness and all round well being.

Unhurt does the mortal advance in the world, rises in values and practice of Dharma and thrives with family and progeny whom you, O brilliant divines, lead by noble paths of rectitude. Indeed, he crosses over all evils of the world whom you enlighten and guide for the good life and well being all round.

Yaṁ devāso’vatha vājasātau yaṁ śūrasātā maruto hite dhane. Prātaryāvāṇāṁ rathamindra sānasimarīṣyantamā ruhemā svastaye.

O Lord Almighty, Indra, O Maruts, vibrant and enlightened heroes of nature and humanity, let us ride that chariot of life, unhurt, inviolable and victorious, taking off early morning at dawn, which you protect in the battle of the brave when the action is on for the victory and attainment of food, energy, culture and advancement of all for the good life and well being all round. (The chariot here is the human body for the individual, and the social, economic and the organismic commonwealth of humanity on the political level.)

15.
Svasti naḥ pathyāsu dhanvasu svastyapsu vrjane svarvati. Svasti naḥ putrakrtheṣu yoniṣu svasti rāye maruto dadhātana.

O winds, O vibrant scientists and engineers, let there be peace, security and well being on the highways and desert lands, all well over the waterways, rivers and seas, all good and well being in our programmes of enlightened advancement for general happiness. Let there be general good and universal well being among our women’s lives and in family development programmes. O Maruts, bring us auspiciousness in our programmes of economic development for the growth of national wealth.

Let there be peace, goodness and all round well being of the highest order in our long term programmes of development, only that which brings abundant wealth, noble success and honour and splendour of grace. May that peace and splendour strengthen us at home and protect us abroad and may that peace, protected by noble and brilliant divine souls, have the rightful passion and pride of self-confidence.

O brilliant divine Adityas, children of light, O mother Aditi, thus does the intelligent and inspiring son of the fulfilled household and prosperous community exalt you. Thus are ruling masters of themselves and their wealth and power, leading lights, the people, the enlightened, praised and celebrated by the liberated immortal and the intelligent rising generation.

Mandala 10/Sukta 64

Vishvedevah Devata, Gaya Plata Rshi

   In the course of our life, which gracious name of the divinities that hear our prayer shall we adore and how? Who is kind to us first and most? Who brings us peace and pleasure? Who cares for us and turns to us with protection constantly?

2. Kratūyanti kratavo hṛtsu dhūtayo venanti venāḥ patayantyā diśaḥ. Na marḍitā śividye anya ebhyo deveṣu me adhi kāmā ayāṁsata.

   Thoughts, desires and resolutions arise in the heart and mind anxious to do honour to divinity. Dedicated celebrants love the objects of their love and ambition and their desires and ambitions fly in various directions. For them, there is no other source of comfort.
and happiness than the object of these desires, be it divine, human or material. I pray may my desires, ambitions and prayers converge and concentrate on the divinities.

3. Narā vā sāṁsām pūṣaṇām-agohyam-agnim deveddhamabhyarcase girā. Sūryāmāsā candra-masā yamaṁ divi trītam vātam-uṣasam-aktum-aśvinā.

   O man, with holy words worship the divine spirit adored by humanity, study, honour and celebrate Pusha, divine unfathomable source of nourishment, Agni present in direct experience and lighted by noble and brilliant yajakas, sun and moon and their relative monthly movements, the heavenly energy operative in the three regions of the sun, sky and the earth, the dawn, the night and day and the Ashvins, complementary dynamics of natural energy in motion.

4. Kathā kavistuvīravān kaya girā brhaspativā-vṛdhate suvṛktibhiḥ. Aja ekapāt suhavebhir-kvabhir-ahiḥ śrṇotu budhnyo havimani.

   How, by what words, with which mantric voices and yajnic actions is the omniscient poet, master ruler and almighty commander of infinite forces studied, celebrated and known in his infinite nature and presence? In yajnic acts of search for knowledge, with holy words of celebrative language used with honest intention, unambiguous resolution and faithful purpose, is the one absolute power, unborn and undying, thunderous presence in space, celebrated and, if you use that language with that resolution in those actions, he would listen and respond.

dakṣasya vādite janmanī vrate rājānā mitrāvaramuṇā vivāsasi.\]

5. \(\text{Dakṣasya vādite janmanī vrate rājānā mitrāvaramuṇā vivāsasi.}\) \(\text{Atūrtapanthāḥ pururatho aryamā saptahotā viṣurūpeṣu janmas.}\)

And O mother Aditi, eternal nature, at the dawn of the day, you energise and illuminate both Mitra and Varuna, complementarities of unity and diversity of energy and light, both luminant and bound in law like day and night, and you bring into action the all ordaining cosmic law, Aryama, like the sun ordaining the day and night, which is unobstructed in its course, which commands the many chariots of the universe such as solar systems and galaxies, and which has seven high priests in the dynamic universal yajna, like the seven rays of the sun showing up the infinite forms of things as they come to light.

t na avanīta hvanāśrutiḥ hvan viśvam śrūvamṇu vaṁśāṅa mhitadeva.\]

6. \(\text{t na avanīta hvanāśrutiḥ hvan viśvam śrūvamṇu vaṁśāṅa mhitadeva.}\)
6. Te no arvanto havanaśruto hvaṁ viśve śṛṣvantu vājino mitadravaḥ. Sahasrasā medhasātāviva tmanā maho ye dhanam samitēṣu jabhrire.

May all those veteran scholars and scientists who listen to the call of the nation and, moving at measured speed, win victories in their fields, who in their pioneering adventures discover and produce great wealth in all sincerity by their own competence while they bring us a thousand gifts in our yajnic programmes, listen to our invocation and exhortation at this juncture too.

7. Pra vo vāyuṁ rathayujam purandhim stomaiḥ kṛṇudhvaṁ sakhyāya pūṣanam. Te hi devasya savituḥ savīmāni kratuḥ sacante sacitaḥ sace-tasaḥ.

O yajakas, by your programmed yajnic sessions of scientific endeavour, study the munificent Vayu and Pusha, realise and harness the motive energy of wind usable in chariot and also the nourishing and invigorating power of nature as friends of life for the service of humanity. Both Vayu and Pusha in this cosmic yajna of Savita, lord creator and sustainer, are efficacious and together take life’s growth and evolution forwards.
8. Triḥ sapta sasrā nadyo mahīrapo vanaspaṭīn parvatānī agnimūtaye. Kṛśānumastīn tiṣyaṁ sadhastha ā rudram rudreṣu rudriyam havāmahe.

For our protection and advancement, in our yajnic sessions we invoke and exalt thrice seven rays of energy active in the three regions of heaven, earth and the sky, the flowing streams, floods of water and vapour great and greater, herbs and trees, clouds and mountains, various orders of fire energy, electric energy, catalytic currents of cloud breaking energy, solar energy and the yajnic fire which destroys the negativities of the environment.

9. Sarasvatī sarayuḥ sindhurūrmibhirmaho mahīra-vasā yantu vakṣaṇīḥ. Devīrāpo mātaraḥ sudayitṇvo ghṛtavat payo madhumanno arcata.

For our protection and progress may Sarasvati, cloud forming vapour streams, Sarayu, torrents of falling rain, rivers flowing on earth, and all mighty floods rushing and rolling at tempestuous speed flow for our benefit. O divine rivers, mother streams of nourishing waters full of living energy, ghrta, nectar and honey, pray flow shining and roaring and bring us honour and grandeur.
10.  Uta mātā bṛhaddīvā śṛṇotu nastvaṣṭā devebhirja-nibhiḥ pita vacāḥ. Rbhukṣā vājo rathaspātir bhago raṇvah śaṁsaḥ śaśamānasya pātu nāḥ.

And may mother Infinity of boundless light and father Tvashta, maker of body forms, with all divine generative forces, listen to our words of prayer and celebration. May Rbhuksha, light and energy sustaining the intelligent and wise, Vaja, spirit of nourishment and energy, the master lord of the cosmic chariot, Bhaga, spirit of grandeur, honour and power, all happy givers of felicity worthy of adoration by the celebrants, sustain, protect and promote us on the way forward.

11.  Raṇvah sandṛṣṭau pitumāṁ iva kṣayo bhadrā rudrāṇāṁ marutāṁ-upastutiḥ. Gobhiḥ śyāma yaśaso janeśvā sadā devāsa iḷayā sacemahi.

The celebration of Maruts and Rudras, scholars of the science of health and pranic energies, is full of blessings, joyous and beatific to the celebrant’s vision like a haven of peace and total fulfilment. O divinities, we pray, may we always adore you with holy songs of celebration, enjoy your love and friendship and, blest with honour and wealth, live happy among the people of the world.
12. Yāṁ me dhiyaṁ maruta indra devā adadāta varuṇa mitra yūyam. Tāṁ pīpayata payaseva dhenuṁ kuvidgiro adhi rathe vahātha.

O Maruts, vibrancies of divinity, O Indra, lord of honour and power, O divinities of nature and humanity, O Varuna, spirit of judgement, Mitra, spirit of love and friendship, let my intelligence and imagination, which is your gift to me, grow and overflow with exuberance like the cow’s milk. You do always carry our prayers on the chariot and convey these to the Lord Supreme, don’t you?

Dear Maruts, wise sages, you know and we pray enlighten us of our divine affinity and essential relationship with this Lord Supreme whatever way it is possible. May Aditi, mother Infinity, lead us to find our essential nature and identity and guide us to reach there where we may regain our first and original centre of being.

Heaven and earth, both of them great, divine, venerable mothers of life from their very birth in existence, are united with generative vitalities of nature here itself. Both sustain the moving and unmoving forms of life with their nourishing powers and both pour out abundant fertility and generative vitalities replete with the seeds of life essence in natural form.

That wonderful voice of divinity, the Vedic Word, which comprehends and corresponds to the entire world of cherished forms of existence is inviolable and sublime. Brhaspati, dedicated preserver and promoter of the divine Word adores it. Therein the master speaker and teacher of it is honoured as harbinger of honey sweets of joyous knowledge. Men of reason and faith with best of thought and action love and serve it beyond measure.

Thus does the poetic visionary, celebrant of divinities and the divine Word, vibrant devotee of the laws of Truth, worshipper of the highest wealth of Divinity, lover of the wealth and values of existence, with thoughts, words and songs of piety in a state of inspiration and ecstasy serve and celebrate the divinities here in the congregation of the learned in this life.

O Adityas, children of the inviolable light of the universe, O Aditi, mother Infinity, thus does the inspirer of the swimmer across the flood of existence adore you. O ruling powers of the world, O leading lights of humanity, thus is the brilliant and divine humanity celebrated by the inspired poet in a mood of ecstasy.

Agnirindro varuno mitro aryamā vāyuḥ pūṣā svarbṛhat somo rudro aditir-brahmaṇaspatiḥ.

May the cosmic spirit of divinity in its various and harmonious manifestations integrated in nature and humanity...: Agni, fire and magnetic energy of the earth, Indra, wind and electric energy of the skies, Varuna, beauty of the moon, peace of night and depth of oceans, Mitra, warmth of the sun and freshness of the day, Aryama, cosmic gravity that orders the stars and planets in the united orbit of existence, Vayu, cosmic energy, Pusha, life energy of nourishment and growth, Sarasvati, cosmic enlightenment and universal speech vibrant in universal mind, Adityas, inviolable light energy of the stars, Vishnu, centre-hold of existence and omnipresence of sustaining divinity, Maruts, various versions of wind energy in currents, Svah, cosmic light and universal bliss, Brhat, expansive space home of the universe, Soma, cosmic spirit of peace and divine ecstasy pervasive from the sun to earth, Rudra, thundering clouds and the voice of sublimity, Aditi, imperishable infinity of existence, and Brahmanaspati, the ultimate immanent and transcendent, evolution and involution of life, may all these together in love and unison bless the life of nature and humanity in spirit, awareness and expression in thought, word and deed.

2. \textit{Indrāgni vṛtrahatyeṣu satpatī mitho hīnvaṇā tanvā samokasā. Antarikṣaṁ mahyā papru-rojasā somo ghṛtaśrīr-mahimānāṁ-īrayan.}

In the dispelling of darkness and want and in the breaking of the clouds for rain, Indra and Agni, electric and fire energy, both protectors and promoters of the reality of substances, enhancing each other by their own essential power, work together in the same system, and these together and Soma, the great and soothing life-promoting spirit with its harmonious power and lustre, all fill, energise and vitalise the great middle spaces.

By the grandeur of these mighty, irresistible, self-sufficient powers of nature which observe and advance life’s evolution by the laws of divinity, I, knowing the laws of nature and exigencies of the environment, structure, realise and accomplish my programmes of development and social advancement within the specifics of the Vishvedevas which, harbingers of wondrous possibilities, friendly and helpful, may, we pray, give us rain showers of liquid prosperity and progress for our honour and glory.

These Vishvedevas, cosmic powers, by their glorious lustre and power, hold and sustain the bright sun, the shining stars, heaven and earth and the expansive universe. Brilliant celebrants adore and exalt them as divine powers, munificent givers and generous friends for humanity.

Offer homage to Mitra and Varuna, complementary centripetal and centrifugal currents of cosmic energy, both sovereign and self-lustrous which never fault on their observance of law and generosity by their very nature. Their abode and sphere of operation shines by their law of Dharma and the great heaven and the great earth both abide in their vast sphere of cosmic dynamics. Offer homage to these generous givers of the light of day and peace of the night.

The earth which goes about in her well defined orbit, ceaselessly moving on over the orbital stages of the revolution and yielding milky nourishments for life on the way for living beings, expresses her thanks to generous Varuna and does homage to Vivasvan, the refulgent sun, Varuna dispelling it and the sun attracting it, both holding it in balance for the worshipful humanity.

Cosmic divinities clothed in light with tongues of fire observe and augment the law of cosmic yajna, and together, in a spirit of grateful union, sit at the centre with the central cause of all cosmic evolution. Holding the heavens high with their lustre, creating the waters of life, and lighting up and sustaining the yajna fire, they anoint themselves with divine grace.

Extending and expanding, all embracing, each in its own sphere but both abiding together in the same one space, heaven and earth, earliest parents of life, rest in the original cause of cosmic evolution and both, dedicated to the law of divinity, replete with the waters of life, create and augment living energy for the great Varuna, pranic spirit of life.

Clouds and winds, mighty water bearer vapours, Indra and Vayu, currents of electric energy and the winds, Varuna, Mitra and Aryama, centrifugal, centripetal and all controlling cosmic energy, the devas, Adityas, rays of solar emissions, Aditi, mother nature, all we invoke, adore and exalt, all that pervade and abide by earth, heaven and the middle regions of the sky, for knowledge and its application in practice.

10. Tvāṣṭāraṁ vāyumṛbhavo ya ohate daivyā hotārā uṣasam svastaye. Brhaspatim vṛtrakhā-daṁ sumedhasamindriyam somaṁ dhanasā u īmahe.

O learned scholars of the science of yajna, for our achievement of wealth and all round well being, let us study and adore Tvashta, the specific natural energy that creates and shapes the forms of life, Vayu, wind and electric energy, the solar energy of the dawn, the vast space, the catalytic force that breaks the cloud and the soma energy which energises the heavenly yajakas, prana and apana, and enhances the efficacy of brain and the senses.

Let us invoke, study and adore for extension and improvement the natural processes producing and enhancing the quality of food, cows, horses, herbs and trees, earth, mountains, waters, and the facts of nature which shine and rise to the sun in heaven, all highly productive and generous givers, creating, causing and stimulating the best actions on earth.

Ashvins, complementary powers of divine light and regeneration, you save the man of suffering and suffering from sin and evil, refertilise the barren land and revitalise the seed to germinate, raise the genetic quality of seeds and plants for better taste and nourishment, and raise the general capacity of the seeker of knowledge to higher competence.
13.  पाविरविती तन्यतुर्कपादाजा दिवा ध्रुता सिन्धुराप: समुदिर्यः।
विश्रवं दुवास: शृणवन्वचांसिः म तरस्वती सुह धीभिः पुरुण्या॥ १३॥

Thunder and lightning, the one absolute unborn eternal sustainer of heaven, the sun, flowing rivers, oceanic waves and waters, rain bearing clouds, all the divinities of nature and the seasons, and the divine mother of knowledge and speech with the cosmic intelligence and will may hear my prayer and respond.

14.  Viśve devāḥ saha dhībhiḥ purandhyā manor-yajatrā amṛtā ṛtajñāḥ. Rātiṣāco abhiṣācaḥ svarvidaḥ svargiro brahma sūktam juṣerata.

May all divinities of nature and humanity, with their thoughts, intentions and will and actions, adorable at heart in yajna, immortal, self-established in divine truth and law, givers of intelligence and competence for accomplishment, loving and sociable, the very voice and vision of divinity, soul of bliss divine, listen and accept my song of divine adoration.
15.  Devān vasiṣṭho amṛtān vavande ye viśvā bhuva-nābhi pratasthuḥ. Te no rāsantāmuru-gāyamadya
yūyāṁ pāta svastibhiḥ sadā naḥ.

The most brilliant sage celebrates and adores
the immortals who abide in all regions of the world.
May they now give us universal knowledge and vision of the highest adorable lord divine. O Vishvedevas, pray always protect and promote us with all that is good for total well being of life.

Mandala 10/Sukta 66

Vishvedevah Devata, Vasukarna Vasukra Rshi

For the good and well being of life all round, I invoke the Vishvedevas, all bounties and divinities of nature and humanity. Abundant and renowned are they, refulgent givers of light, enlightened promoters of the yajña of love and non-violence, who enhance the creative and productive processes of overcoming ignorance, injustice and poverty. Immortal observers and promoters of universal law with Indra, the omnipotent, as their supreme leader, they know, command and promote the entire wealth and well being of the world.
1. Devōn vasūṃbhī pari pātu no gayamādityairno aditiḥ śarma yacchatu. Rudro rudrebhirdevo mṛlayāti nastvaṣṭā no gnābhiḥ suvitāya jinvatu.

May Indra protect and promote our home with the wealth of the eight Vasus. May Aditi, mother Infinity, give us peace by all the twelve Adityas. May Rudra, lord of justice and mercy, with the eleven Rudras be pleased with us. May Tvashta promote us with the power of all the divinities for happiness and peace.
4. Aditirdyāvāprthiṇī ṛtam mahadindrāviṣṇū marutaḥ svarbhṛhat. Devāṁ ādityāṁ avase havāmahe vasūn rudrāntsavitāram sudāṁsaṁ.

For our protection and promotion, we invoke Aditi, mother Nature, heaven and earth, the great cosmic law of Ṛtam, Indra, cosmic energy, Vishnu, omnipresent divinity that sustains the universe, Maruts, wind energies, cosmic joy, eight Vasus, eleven Rudras, Savita, lord of life and giver of light, lord supreme of cosmic action, and the twelve Adityas, all refugent divinities of the universe.

5. Sarasvāṁ dhībhirvaruṇo dhṝtavrataḥ pūṣā viṣṇur-maḥimā vāyur-aśvinā. Brahmakṛto amṛtā viśvavedasaḥ śarmano yāmsan trivarūthamamhasaḥ.

The rainy sky with its actions of showers, Varuna with its own laws of functioning, Pusha, nature’s energy of nourishment and growth, the mighty all pervasive Vishnu, the winds, and the Ashvins, all dedicated to the supreme spirit of the universe, immortal powers in direct contact with the Supreme Divine, may, we pray, give us peace and rest for body, mind and soul free from sin and evil.
6. Vṛṣā yajño vṛṣaṇah santu yajñīyā vṛṣaṇo devā vṛṣaṇo haviṣkṛtah. Vṛṣaṇā dyāvāprüthiṝī ṛtāvarī vṛṣā parjanyo vṛṣaṇo vṛṣastubhah.

May yajna bring us showers of peace and prosperity, may the yajakas be generous and abundant, may the divinities be generous and abundant, may the bearers of havi be generous and abundant, may heaven and earth replete with waters be generous and abundant, may the clouds be generous and abundant, may the celebrants of the generous divinities too be generous and abundant and bring us showers of peace and prosperity.

7. Agnīśomā vṛṣaṇā vājasātaye puruprāṣastā vṛṣaṇā upa bruve. Yāvījire vṛṣaṇo devayajyayā tā nah śarma trivarūthamaḥ vi yamsataḥ.

Agni and Soma, heat and cold, two complementarities of nature, both generous and abundant for the achievement of food, energy and advancement in knowledge and culture, universally praised and adored as generous and abundant, both of which others too serve and adore as generous and abundant by yajna, I glorify, and pray they may give us threefold peace and protection for body, mind and soul.

Dedicated Kshatriyas consecrated in yajna, brilliant in the knowledge of divinity, meticulous performers of yajna with beauty and grace with Agni as their high priest of yajna in observation and exaltation of the laws of divinity, free from hate and enmity, move forward in their battle against darkness and evil and set the waters of life aflow like rain showers on the break of dark clouds.

Vishvedevas, divinities of nature and humanity, dedicated to their duties and discipline, creating and promoting herbs and trees and forests for nature’s sacred purpose of protection and promotion of life, fill the regions of earth, sky, the sun and the highest heaven with replenitude and add beauty to their own body and the environment to their heart’s desire.

10. Dhartāro diva ṛbhavaḥ suhstā vātāparjanyā mahiṣasya tanyatoḥ. Āpa oṣadhīḥ pra tirantu no giro bhago rātivājino yantu me havam.
May the divine powers, sustainers of bright heaven, roaring winds and thundering clouds, faultless perfect waves of light and Rbhus, formative intelligence of nature and expert humanity, waters, herbs and trees listen, enjoy and augment our mantric voice, and may Bhaga, abundant spirit of highest grace, Rati, mother nature’s generosity, and the Vajins, fire, wind and sun, life energies of the three regions, listen to my invocation and join our yajna with abundance of gifts and teeming joy.

Samudraḥ sindhū rajo antarikṣamaja ekapāt tanayitnurarnavah. Ahirbudhnyah śṛṇavadvacaṁsi me viśve devāsā uta sūrayo mama.

May the ocean, the sea and rivers, the middle regions of vapour and air, the one absolute eternal sustainer of the universe, the thunder, the spatial ocean, the region of dark clouds, and all divinities and eminent sages and scholars of the world, listen to my invocation and prayer and respond.

Syāma vo manavo devavitaye prāṅcaṁ no yajñam pra ṇayata sādhuyā. Ādityā rudrā vasavaḥ sudānava imā brahma śasyamānāni jinvata.

O men of thought and enlightenment, may we all be for your advancement and well being on the path of holiness and rectitude. Please take our yajnic endeavours forward in the right direction in a simple and straight manner. O Vasus, Rudras and Adityas, scholars of the first, higher and highest order, noble and generous, please refresh, promote and advance these hymns of adoration to higher achievement in the programmes.

O divine yajakas, O high priests of nature and humanity, I follow the straight path of rectitude and universal law of nature’s creativity. And we pray to the lord ruler and protector of the universe immanent in every form of existence, and, join all the divine powers, immortal and relentlessly active in the universal process, for study and advancement through yajna.

Brilliant sages and scholars studying the divine powers and researching the divine resources of nature like the seers and, like parents and protectors, creating the knowledge and the language of knowledge for life’s well being, and, O noble benefactors, having known our cherished needs and desires like loving friends and relations, pray energise our economy and create wealth for the community.

The brilliant sage of the first and highest order adores and celebrates the immortal Vishvedevas who abide in all regions of the world. May they give us universal knowledge and vision of the highest adorable lord divine. O Vishvedevas, pray protect and promote us for all time with all that is good for the total well being of life.
like the seers and, like parents and protectors, creating the knowledge and the language of knowledge for life’s well being, and, O noble benefactors, having known our cherished needs and desires like loving friends and relations, pray energise our economy and create wealth for the community.

15. Devān vāsiṣṭho amṛtān vavande yeva viśvā bhuva nābhi pratasthuḥ. Te no rāsantāmurugāya-madya
yūyam pāta svastibhiḥ sadā naḥ.

The brilliant sage of the first and highest order adores and celebrates the immortal Vishvedevas who abide in all regions of the world. May they give us universal knowledge and vision of the highest adorable lord divine. O Vishvedevas, pray protect and promote us for all time with all that is good for the total well being of life.

Mandala 10/Sukta 67

Brhaspati Devata, Ayasya Angirasa Rshi

1. Imāṁ dhiyaṁ saptaśīrṣṇīṁ pitā na ṛtaprajātāṁ bṛhatīmavindat. Turīyaṁ svijjanayadviśvajanyo’yāsyā ukthamindrāya śāṁsān.

Our father creator, omniscient lord divine, revealed for us this universal voice of knowledge spontaneously. Structured in seven metres, it is born of the lord’s awareness of Satyam and Rtam, i.e., the eternal and mutable truth of existence and its laws of evolution, sustenance and involution. He, the original source of the birth of the universe and its knowledge and language, also revealed the fourth and silent mode of existence in the transcendent state of Moksha beyond the earlier three of Dharma, Artha and Kama without effort and spoke it for Indra, the soul.

2. Ṛtaṁ śaṁsanta ṛju dīdhyānā divasputrāso asurasya vīrāḥ. Vipraṁ padamaṅgirso dadhānā yajñasya dhāma prathamaṁ mananta.

    Speaking the Word of eternal knowledge, meditating on the natural, eternal spirit of omniscience, the Rshis, children of light, brave offsprings of divine virility, self-disciplined souls established in the position of vibrant sages among humanity, realise in direct experience the first and original presence of the adorable lord Supreme.

3.  Hamsairiva sakhibhir-vāvadadbhir-aśmanma-yāni nahanaḥ vyasyan. Brhaspatir-abhikanikradadgā utra prāstauducca vidvān agāyat.

    Chanting with friends as with hansa-like simple sinless souls of purity, breaking the adamantine chains of karmic bondage, loudly proclaiming the divine Word of omniscience, Brhaspati, master celebrant of the Infinite Spirit, blent with knowledge and vision divine, sings and adores the lord divine.

Brhaspati, master of language, wishing for the light of knowledge and expression in the midst of the darkness of the web of the world of mutability, expresses the two upper levels of language, i.e., madhyama and vaikhari, which he expresses by two media of thought and word, and the one hidden below, i.e., Pashyanti, he apprehends through one, the deeper mind in meditation. Thus he reveals the three modes of language. (The fourth is Para, the silent mode of language in its originality beyond the world of mutability which can be realised in the highest state of Samadhi.)

Brhaspati, the seeker of light, in the state of turiya beyond deep sleep, breaks through the three bonds of the city of darkness of the mutable world like thunder and lightning breaking the dark cloud and directly realises the dawn, the sun rays, the sun and the light beyond the sun.

6. Indro valaṁ rakṣitāram dudhānāṁ kareṇeva vi cakartā ravena. Svedāṇjibhir-āśiram-icchamāno’rodayan paṇimā gā amuṣṇāt.

Indra, mighty ruling soul, wishing to taste the sweetness of milk mixed with soma, i.e., divine ecstasy with vibrations of grace, removes the veil of darkness covering the light of knowledge and divine speech with an act of will as if with a stroke of thunder and lightning, throws the demon away lamenting, recovers and enjoys the light of knowledge with the voice of divinity and showers of bliss in a state of clairvoyance.

7. Sa īṁ satyebhīḥ sakhibhīḥ śucadbhir-godhāyasam vi dhanasair-adardah. Brahma-ṇaspatirvṛṣabhbir-varāhair-gharmasvedebhir-draviṇam vyānaṭ.

Brahmanaspati, master, protector, promoter and ruler of the world of existence, blest with divine light, vision and speech breaks down the thief of cows, i.e., hoarders, exploiters and destroyers of the wealth of life. He breaks them down with the help and cooperation of friends and associates who are generous, self-fulfilled, fervently dedicated to truth, purity of conduct, laws of Dharma and rectitude, and blest with ample means and materials for the achievement of their goal. Thus does he recover and establish wealth and common wealth for the individual and the society.

8. Te satyena manasā gopatiṁ gā iyānāsa iṣaṇayanta dhibhīḥ. Brhaspatirmitho avadyapebhirudusriyā asṛjata svayugbhīḥ.

They, friends and associates, with dedication to truth and with honest mind, intentions, thoughts and actions, wishing to promote the cows, i.e., the wealth and culture of the nation as a system, approach the ‘gopati’, i.e., the head of the commonwealth, and he, Brhaspati, master, protector and ruler of the expansive system, together with his associates at his full command, with safeguards against negativity, scandal and calamity, creates and organises a nation of freedom and progress ranging over the earth in peace and joy.

9. Taṁ vardhayanto matibhiḥ śivābhiḥ simhamiva nānadatam sadhasthe. Brhaspatim vrṣaṇam sūrasātau bharebhare anu madema jiṣṇum.

Exalting him with our thoughts and actions dedicated to peace, freedom and all round well being of life, supporting him waxing and roaring victorious as a lion in the world’s hall of yajnic freedom and progress, let us join Brhaspati, mighty and generous protector, for the sake of victory in every battle worthy of the brave, and win our goals and enjoy life with him.

When Brhaspati achieves food, energy and victories and higher possibilities of universal order and, like the sun, reaches and illuminates the heavens with light, then those who receive and shine with light like the planets, being many and various, exalt the mighty generous master ruler with words of adoration.

O Brhaspati, O leading lights of humanity, for food and energy, good health and age, fulfil the hopes and ambitions of the people and justify your words of purpose to the point of truth without compromise. Protect the cooperator and celebrant with your own power and security. Then let all violence, enmity and sabotage be overcome and cast off totally far away. And may the heaven and earth, givers of universal fulfilment listen to our prayer and adoration.

Indra with his might breaks the top of the great ocean of waters in space and, breaking the dark cloud, releases the seven seas and sets the rivers aflow. May the heaven and earth protect us by the divinities.

(The metaphor has been explained also as revelation of the Vedas in seven metres at the time of the creation of humanity. The revelation breaks through the darkness of ignorance and releases the light of knowledge to radiate in seven chhandas of the Vedas.)

Mandala 10/Sukta 68

Brhaspati Devata, Ayasya Angirasa Rshi

Like aquatic birds playing on water, like watchful guards raising their voice, like the rolling rumble of rain clouds, like rippling streams flowing down mountain slopes, the celebrants raise their hymns of adoration to Brhaspati.

Just as Angirasa, enlightened disciple of the sage of living knowledge, like Bhaga, divine lord of light and grandeur, leads his friend to knowledge and prosperity, as a friend leads a couple in the community to come together in marriage, so O Brhaspati, inspire and energise the aspirants to go forward and win their goal by the light and words of divinity.

Replete with pure, living energy, ever on the move, loved, coveted, brilliant golden, beautiful in form, such are the rays of light and vitality which Brhaspati, the sun, recovers from the deep caverns of darkness and sends them down to clouds and earth as a farmer sows the seeds of barley in the field.

Sprinkling the womb of life with the honey sweets of vitality like the sun radiating the rays of light from the regions of heaven, Brhaspati recovers the showers of life from the clouds and, as showers of water seep into the crust of earth, so the seeds of life are vested and borne in the earth.

As the sun removes darkness with light from the middle regions, as the wind removes the cover of moss and grass from the surface of water, so does Brhaspati, lord of the expansive universe, with deep thought, remove the cover of the darkness of nescience and sets in motion the dynamics of nature’s creativity in circuits of energy as the motions of the wind.

When Brhaspati with the flames of fire and rays of the light of his creative will breaks through the darkness of nescience covering the primeval potential existence and takes it over as the tongue takes over the food crushed by teeth, then he opens up and reveals the vast reservoir of his energies of the dynamics of creative nature.

Brhaspatiramata hi tyadāsaṁ nāma svarīnāṁ sadane guhā yat. Āṇdeva bhittvā śakunasya garbham-udusriyāḥ parvatasya tmanājat.

Brhaspati knows the name and identity of these voluble facts and processes of existence which are present but hidden in the deep womb of nature and which, radiating like rays of light and flowing like streams, grow and come into being as chicks on maturity break the bird’s egg and spring into full life.

Aśñāpinaddhaṁ madhu paryapaśyan-matsyaṁ na dīna udani kṣiyantam. Niṣṭajjabhāra camasaṁ na vṛkṣād brhaspatir-viraveṇā vikṛtya.

Brhaspati sees the sweetness and beauty of human life caught up in the bonds of pleasure and sufferance in the body like a fish caught up in shallow waters, and he raises and refines it like a cup of soma for the divinities, crafted from rough wood, having refined and blest it by the resounding voice of revelation.
The blessed man realises the light of the dawn of knowledge, the light and bliss of heaven, the vision of refulgent divinity, and with that light wards off the darkness of evil and ignorance. Indeed, Brhaspati raises the man subject to body, senses and mind, now blest with divine vision like a real man, otherwise completely sinking in the depths of darkness and evil.

Just as the leaves of forest trees are made to fall by winter, so darkness is dispelled and light is created, so is ignorance dispelled and the light of Vedic revelation revealed by Brhaspati, and that is an act he does unparalleled and unrepeat ed as long as the sun and moon shine together and illuminate the days and nights.

Like a dark horse adorned with golden trappings, the rays of light adorn the heavens with stars.
Brhaspati vests darkness in the night and light in the day, breaks the cloud, releases the light and showers recovering the light of existence from the night of annihilation, and enlightens the heart of darkness with revelations of the light of divinity.

This homage we offer to Brhaspati, lord of living waters and thunder, who reveals the eternal words of divine knowledge. May that lord bless us with good health and long age with lands, cows and the light of knowledge, horses, transport and advancement, brave progeny, leading lights and enlightened people.

Mandala 10/Sukta 69

Agni Devata, Sumitra Vadhryashva Rshi

May the controlled and directed radiations of light and yajna fire, Agni, be auspicious, may its inspiration and guidance be auspicious and rewarding, may its associations and functioning mutualities be auspicious. When noble and friendly people kindle and install it in the prime position in the vedic of yajna then, raised and fed on oblations of ghrta, it rises and shines, adored and exalted by the celebrants.

(This metaphor of physical fire and light, of which the flames and radiations are controlled and directed, is extendable to the socio-political and educational life of the human community. In this context Agni is to be interpreted as the leader, ruler, commander and teacher, leading the people to auspicious attainments. And, as in the case of all words indicative of divinity, Agni is the supreme lord of light and life whose divine functions are all self-refulgent and self-controlled, leading us all to auspicious attainments.)

Ghrṭa means and is the rise and exaltation of self-controlled self-directed Agni, ghrta is the food, and ghrta is the growth and expansion with love and grace. Fed on ghrta it rises and expands unbounded and, kindled, energised and exalted with ghrta, it shines glorious and beatific like the sun.
3. Yat te manuryadanīkaṁ sumitraḥ samīdhe agne tadidaṁ navīyaḥ. Sa revacchoca sa giro juṣasva sa vājam darṣi sa iha śravo dhāḥ.

O prime and pioneering power, Agni, the bright and blazing light and flame of yours which Manu, thoughtful intellectual and noble friend, kindles with positive intention and purpose is new and it is adorable. Let it shine rich in wealth. Listen and respond to our words and voices of hope and prayer. Destroy negative forces. Create and bring us honour and prosperity here and now.

4. Yam tvā pūrvamīlitto vadhryāśvaḥ samīdhe agne sa idam juṣasva. Sa nah stipā uta bhavā tanūpā dātraṁ rakṣasva yadidaṁ te asme.

Agni, you have been loved, studied and adored since the earliest times. The same you, I study and adore with controlled and concentrated mind, senses, intentions and motivations in my yajnic performance. Pray listen to my words and respond to this endeavour of mine. Be the protector of our homes and families and of our health of body and community, and protect this gift of yours which you have given to us.
5. Bhavā dyumṇī vādhryāsvota gopā mā tvā tārī- dabhimātirjanānām. Śūra iva dhṛṣṇuścyavanaḥ sumitraḥ pra nu vocām vādhryāśvasya nāma.

Agni, power of controlled light and flames of fire, be our protector and harbinger of splendour, and let no enemy of humanity challenge and assail you. Like a mighty warrior, Agni is all surpassing, all inspirer, a noble friend, and this is how I celebrate the name of the blazing power of self-control and splendour.

6. Samajrya parvatyā vasūni dāsā vṛtrāṇyāryā jigetha. Śūra iva dhṛṣṇuścyavano janānāṁ tvamagne pṛtanāyūṇrabhi śyāḥ.

Agni, you win the wealth of clouds and mountains, plains and seas, conquer destructive and darkening forces, and win over noble and dynamic powers. O mighty power of light and fire, like a mighty warrior all surpassing, inspirer of people, you challenge and defeat the adversaries.

7. Dīrghatanturbṛhadukṣāyamagniḥ sahasras-tarīḥ šatanītha ṛbhvā. Dyumān dyumatsu nṛbhīmṛjya- mānah sumitreṣu didayo devayatsu.

This Agni, of expansive unending life, vastly generous burden bearer, thousandfold protected, mysterious and revealing, a hundred ways dynamic leader, excellent expert wise, most radiant among brilliants, adored and exalted by leading lights among friends of noblest mind, shines among the lovers of divinity.

8.  \( Tve \text{ dhenuḥ sudughā jātavedo’saścateva samanā sabardhuk. Tvaṁ nṛbhir-dakṣiṇāvad-bhir-agne sumitrebhir-idhyase devayadbhiḥ. } \)

O Jataveda, omniscient lord of all existence, in you abides the perennial, inexhaustible mother cow, nature, the divine Word, agreeable and spontaneous giver of ceaseless streams of life sustaining light and natural energy. You are enkindled and adored by all leading lights of humanity bearing homage in abundance, noble friends, devotees who love and worship divinity.

9.  \( \text{Devāścitte amṛtā jātavedo mahimānaṁ vādhr-yaśva pra vocan. Yat samprccchaṁ mānu-ṣūrviśa āyan tvam nṛbhirajayas-ivāvrdhebhiḥ. } \)

O Jataveda, lord of infinite power and motion, the immortal divines proclaim your greatness and glory, and when mortal humans come and ask who destroys the dark and the wicked, the answer is: You win over the dark and the wicked with those noble people who adore and exalt you as the master, leader and commander.

As the father bears the child in his lap with love and supports it, so does the dedicated celebrant with controlled mind and sense place you in the vedi in the lap of mother earth, serving you with faith, reverence and awe. O power most youthful, loving and accepting his lighted faith, reverence and service, pray ward off all his enemies old as well as new.

Śaśvadagnir-vadhryaśvasya śatrūn nṛbhirjigāya sutasomavadbhiḥ. Samanāṁ cidadaha-ścitrabhāno'va vrādhantam-abhinadvṛdhastaścit.

Agni, divine leader of light and life, always wins over the enemies of the self-controlled man of dynamic mind and senses by heroic men who distil the soma with faith and reverence and offer it to Agni in homage. O wondrous lord of light and fire, eliminate conflict wherever it be and, yourself rising in glory, break down violence and destruction when it is raising its head.
12. Ayamagnir-vadhryāśvasya vṛtrahā sanakāt pre-ddho namasopavākyah. Sa no ajāmīṇruta vā vijāmīṇabhi tiṣṭha śardhato vādhryāśva.

This Agni, lord of self-refulgent light, all time invoked and lighted with prayer and homage, is the dispeller of darkness for the devotee of controlled mind and senses. O lord and leader of light and life, face upto and overthrow our enemies whether they are united as a community of saboteurs or as a hoard of heterogeneous antisocial destroyers.

1. Imāṁ me agne samidham juşasvelaspade prati haryā ghṛtācīm. Varşman prthivyāḥ sudinatve ahnāmūrdhvo bhava sukrato devayajyā.

O divine spirit of light and life, harbinger of knowledge and wisdom, on the sacred vedi of this holy earth, pray accept this homage of holy fuel and cherish this ladleful of ghrta and, O divine fire of noblest action, during this happy time of fine season rise on top of the world and shine by our faithful service to divinity by yajna.
2. May Agni, prime pioneer of divinities, universally valued, praised and adored, come here to yajna with all its universal powers of light and energy and, as highest of divine agents of yajna, catalyse, manage and carry our homage with holy offerings to nature’s bounties for their service and replenishment by the paths of natural laws and bring their blessings for us by the same paths of nature.

3. Men with homage of yajnic offerings always invoke, serve and pray to Agni to carry their offerings to the divinities and bring in their blessings. O high priest of yajna, pray come, bring in the divinities by the strongest fastest chariot drawn by most radiant carriers of natural dynamics, sit on the vedi and, by the same powers, transmit our fragrances to nature’s bounties.

May the yajnic light, fire and prosperity loved by the divinities, grow, expand and rise all round, long, wide and lofty in space and time so that there may be sweet fragrance for us all time. O divine light, fire and fragrance of yajna, O lord of space and divine bliss, help us with a gracious mind free from hate and anger to join the brilliant divinities with Indra, omnipotent Supreme, first and highest of them.

O divinities of yajnic energy of nature, treasure troves of prosperity, touch the highest top of heavenly light and open and expand the fertility of earth in ample measure. Loving, passionate and gracious, ride the cosmic chariot of Infinity with the great divinities by virtue of your own grandeur and open the doors of boundless prosperity and enlightenment for humanity.

O divine daughters of heaven, dawn of the busy day and restful night, both dexterous accomplishers of yajna, abide in the midst of the creative endeavours of humanity. Loving as you are, generous and gracious, may the dedicated and enthusiastic celebrants of divine nature come and abide in the boundless bosom of your love and good fortune.

7. Úrdhvo grāvā brhadagnih samiddhaḥ priyā dhāmānyaditerupasthe. Purohitāvr̥tvijā yajñe asmin viduṣṭarā draviṇamā yajethām.

When the sounding stone for soma goes up, the lighted fire rises in flames, and the havi vessels shine bright and lovely on the vedi in the lap of mother Infinity, then may the priest and the yajaka, Agni and Adityas, both brilliant and divine more and ever more create the wealth of life for humanity. (Yajna here is a metaphor of the creative endeavour of noble humanity in corporate action.)

O triple divinities, Ila, Sarasvati and Bharati, mother Infinity, vibrant spirit of knowledge, language and culture, and Bharati, all bearing nature and mother earth overflowing with ghrta, we pray, come and grace this lovely vedi which we have created for you with adoration, prayer and meditation. May divine Ila, transcendent Infinity, Sarasvati, inexhaustible spirit of light and stream of knowledge vested in awareness, well ordered, and Bharati, spirit of earthly prosperity, come, join the vedi as humans and partake of our homage with love and grace.

O divine Tvashta, creator and maker of the forms of existence, when you create the beauty and graces of life and become a friend and associate of the Angirasas, spirit and energy of the life of humanity, then O generous lord of the world’s wealth, loving and all knowing, pray give food and living sustenance for the holy creative people on their paths of life.

10. Vanaspate raṣanayā nīyūyā devānāṁ pātha upa vakṣi vidvān. Svadāti devaḥ kṛṇavadd-havīṁ-ṣyavatāṁ dyāvāprthrīvī havam me.

O lord of vanaspatis, life giving sun rays, and herbs, trees and forests which provide food for living beings, you are the light giver, all watching and energising, you create the food for divinities and give it the right form for their living systems. The generous lord of light makes the food palatable and thus forms the sacred materials as food for the living yajna of life’s evolution. May heaven and earth listen to my voice of prayer and exhortation and bless us with the right forms of food for us and for our yajna and protect us.

11. Āgne vaha varuṇamiśṭaye na indraṁ divo maruto antarikṣat. Śidantu barhirviśva añ yajatrāḥ svāhā devā amṛtā mādayantām.

Hey Agni, lord of cosmic light and living energy, bring us Varuna, water from the ocean and the clouds for our cherished yajna of the good life, Indra, light and power from the heavens, and Maruts, winds from the middle regions. May all divine yajna powers and holy yajakas of the world come and join our vedi with the chant of svaha, in truth of thought, word and deed. May all the immortal divinities rejoice and may they give us joy.

Mandala 10/Sukta 71

Jnana (Knowledge) Devata, Brhaspati Angirasa Rshi

O lord of Infinite Speech, Brhaspati, the first and original form of eternal speech, which is the integration of name, word and factual reality, which the sages receive and bear in mind and articulate at the dawn of human creation, lies immanent in the universal mind. It is borne in the best and immaculate minds of the sages who make it manifest from there by divine inspiration in a state of grace.

When the sages of patient and transparent mind, with their thought and imagination, conceive, visualise and articulate the divine word, crystallising it to the state of purity as they sift the grain of truth from the chaff of local variety, then the friends and associates come to know of the idea and the word and the union of word and meaning in communication, and then noble and holy is their knowledge manifested and received from the depth of the sage’s language.

By yajna and meeting of minds on the vedi, they get to the form and meaning of language, tracing it word by word in the structure, realising the reality of meaning hidden in the mind of the sages. And having reached, realised and received it, they bear it around and communicate it in many ways widely in many places at various times. Thus do seven eloquent sages honour, serve and worship it, structured and articulated in seven poetic forms.

4. Uta tvaḥ paśyān na dādaṛśa vācamuta tvaḥ śṛṇyaḥ na śṛṇothyenām. Uto tvasmāi tanvāṁ vi sasre jāyeva patya uṣāti suvāśāḥ.

However, even in association, in spite of discussion, someone having seen the language, let us say, in print, or having seen the meaning in practical reality, may not acknowledge it, some one having heard the language by the ear may not hear it in the soul. But Speech to someone, some honest, conscientious dedicated soul, opens up and reveals its hidden meaning as a loving wife beautifully clad opens and reveals herself, her very soul to her loving and faithful husband.

5. Uta tvam sakhye sthirāpiṭamāhurnainam hinvan-tyapi vājinēsu. Adhenvā carati māyayaiṣa vācam śuśruvaṁ aphalāmapuspām.

Such a realised soul, they say, is a sober scholar on solid foundations in matters of language, meaning and vision of reality. In scholarly meets they do not trifle with him, nor contradict him. But some may not even come to the fringe of his attainment. And another one moves around like a barren cow, struck by the magic of mere sound of words, hearing language without fruit or flower.

If someone forsakes the divine speech of the Veda, a real intimate friend for life and after, there remains no substance even in his speech of daily wear, and whoever listens to him listens in vain because he does not know the path of well being and of well doing.

Indeed friends and companions equal of eyes and ears are unequal in mind and intellectual efficiency. Some are like tanks just waist deep, others neck deep, and yet others are deep as lakes, rivers or even seas wherein you bathe and feel sanctified and absolved.
8. Hṛdā taṣṭeṣu manaso jāveṣu yadbrahmāṇāḥ saṁyajante sakhāyaḥ. Atrāha tvam vi jahurvedyābhīrohabrahmāṇo vi carantyu tve.

When scholars in close friendly association join in intellectual meets organised with careful thought and heartfelt good intentions, even there, some they leave aside as ignorant while others, scholars of valuable subjects, actively move on with discussions of latest knowledge worth attaining.

9. Ime ye nārvāṇa na paraścaranti na brāhmaṇāso na sutekarāsaḥ. Ta ete vācamabhipadya pāpayā sirīstantram tanvate aprajāṇayaḥ.

Those there are who pursue neither the knowledge of this material world nor the knowledge of the spiritual world, nor are they Brahmanas interested in the holiness of the world of reality, nor even do they follow ritual and worldly life consciously with open mind. So being ignorant people they use only the non-holy language of impiety and merely extend the thread of physical existence at the human level in their life.
All friends feel happy and celebrate with a learned person who comes as a friend with honour, reputation and social prestige, and such a person, eliminator of sin and evil, provider of food and knowledge, rises to the position of leadership among them, being good for their honour and enlightenment.

Of the devotees of the divine voice of the Veda, one chants, celebrates and maintains the energy and enthusiasm of life vibrating in the Rks, one, the udgata, sings the gayatri verses in the Shakvari hymns of power, the Brahma, presiding high priest, proclaims the verses of universal knowledge from all the Vedas, and another, the adhvaryu, orders and organises the entire programme of the yajna in all details.

Mandala 10/Sukta 72

Devah Devatah, Brhaspati Laukya, or Brhaspati Angirasa, or Aditi Dakshayani Rshi

Let us proclaim in clear words of grateful adoration the birth and evolution of nature’s divine manifestations which, when the verses are chanted, one may see and appreciate in later ages to come.

2. Brahmanaspatiretā saṁ karmāra ivādhamat.
_Devānāṁ pūrve yuge’sataḥ sadajāyata._

Brahmanaspati, lord, master and ordainer of the cycle of existence, sets these devas in motion like an artisan in the earliest age of evolution and they awake from the unmanifest state of Being into the manifest state of Becoming in existence. (The Avyakta, intangible, becomes the Vyakta, tangible, mode of Prakrti or Nature.)

3. *Devānāṁ yuge prathame’sataḥ sadajāyata._
_Tadāśā anvajāyanta taduttānapadaspari._

In the first age of the devas, the manifest stage of existence arose from the unmanifest Zero stage, i.e., the Zero state emerged into the first positive state of existence after Zero. Then in consequence arose space and the quarters of space. Thereafter arose Uttanapada, the open ended possibilities of boundless evolution further. (The one Vyakta gives rise to potential multiplicity.)
4.  Bhūrjajña uttānapado bhuva āśā ajāyanta.
    Aditerdakṣo ajāyata dakṣādvaditiḥ pari.

    From Uttanapada arose Bhu, specific possibility, and many more such arose in space in the spatial quarters. From Aditi, inviolable nature, arose Daksha, will and intelligence, and from will and intelligence, Aditi, the desire to grow and procreate further.

अदितिः
तां दुवा अन्वेंजायन्त भुदा अमृतवनिधवः ॥ 5 ॥

5.  Aditirhyajaniṣṭa dakṣa yā duhitā tava.
    Tāṁ devā anvajāyanta bhadrā amṛtabandhavah.

    O Daksha, lord of will and intelligence, Aditi is born which is your offspring, indeed your desire to be many. In consequence, the devas are born, the noble fraternity of the immortal (Nature and divinity).

    The order of the birth of the devas is thus described in the Upanishads and in Sankhya philosophy of natural evolution it is this: From avyakta Prakrti evolves Mahan or Pradhana which is vyakta Prakrti. From Mahan arises Ahankara which is described here as Uttanapad or the tree of the universe. From Prakrti are also manifested the three qualilative modes of existence: Sattva or intelligence, Rajas or energy, and Tamas or solid matter. This same is the order here in a different terminology. From Ahankara are born the five subtle bhutas and both mental and perceptive organs. From five subtle bhutas are born the five gross bhutas: Akasha, Vayu, Agni, Apah and Prthivi which all are composed of paramanus, the smallest units.
6. Yaddevā adah salile susaṁrabdhā atiśṭhata. Atrā vo nrtyatāmiva ūvrio reṇurapāyata.

O Devas, when you abide and play together dancing as if joyously in that vast space, then your radiant energy and ecstasy rises high (to receive the descent of life as the ripe gift of the sun on high).

7. Yaddevā yatayo yathā bhuvanānyapinvata. Atrā samudra ā gūḍha hema sūryaṃjñahartana.

O Devas, working joyously together as you energise and enliven the regions of the world, so here too in the ocean of matter, energy and prana, you hold, support and cherish the bright sun, the soul deep under the mysterious fivefold cover of existential body form.

8. Aṣṭau putrāso aditerye jātāstanvaspari. Devāṇ upa prait saptabhiḥ parā mārtāṇḍamāsyat.

Eight are the divine modes of Aditi, eternal inviolable Prakṛti, which are evolved from her personality like children born of the mother (these being Mahan, Ahankara, five material forms and the sense-mind complex which is called Martanda because it bears the soul which passes through the birth and death stages). With seven of these it goes on evolving and the eight, Martanda, it leaves aside free (to grow by itself with the soul in the human form).

With seven of her children mother Aditi retires to the post-pre-creation stage of the Avyakta absolute, but she continues to bear the Martanda, the soul with the subtle body cover during Pralaya, for birth and death again and again in the eternal cycle of existence. (For 8-9, further, refer to Gita, 7, 4-5, and Aitareya Upanishad, 1, 2, 3-5.)

Mandala 10/Sukta 73

Indra Devata, Gauriviti Shatya Rshi

Indra, ruler of humanity and the world, adorable, most illustrious, blazing brilliant, highly self-confident, is born to subdue pride and opposition to humanity, and when mother Infinity, or humanity, fortunate and rightfully proud, bears such a brave hero, leader and ruler, the Maruts, leading lights, adore and exalt him.
2. Druho niṣattā pṛṣanī cidevaiḥ purū śaṁsena vāvṛduṣṭa indram. Abhīvrteva tā mahāpadena dhvāntat prapitvāduduraranta garbhāḥ.

   The armies of the enemy of darkness and pride stand round him well ordered and deployed with fighting forces ready for the move, and they abundantly exalt Indra with universal songs of praise. The people safe all round covered with mighty defence and security rise and progress like showers of rain released from the depth of dark and dense expansive clouds.

3. Ṛṣyā te pādā pra yajjīgāsyavardhan vājā uta ye cidatra. Tvāmmindra sālāvṛkāntsahasr-amāsan dadhiṣe āśvinā vavṛtyāḥ.

   Indra, great and elevated are the columns and constituents of the system you rule over. When you advance and win your goal, the most eminent leaders, scientists and technologists, warriors and whoever others are here, all praise and exalt you. You appoint and maintain thousands of vigilant guards on the frontiers of the land. Indra, keep the social economy and all subsystems of the order moving, keep the circuit live without relent.

4. Samanā tūṁirupa yāsi yajñamā nāsatyā sakhyāya vakṣi. Vasāvyāminda dhārayaḥ sahasrā’śvinā śūra dadaturmaghāni.
Going fast forward in the struggle of life, you move close by the ways of yajna, holding on to the common creative values of corporate life and bringing all complementary forces of the system together for friendship ever in action for advancement. Indra, brave hero and ruler, hold and manage the wealth of the nation while the Ashvins, complementary forces of the system, create and contribute a thousand forms of honour, wealth and all round prosperity to the commonwealth.

\text{रत्तादर्थ पुजायुडःखिबिभिरिन्दे इषिरभिरथम्।}
\text{आभिभि माया उप दस्युमागान्मिहः य तत्मा अवप्यत-} \text{पांसि॥५॥}

5. Mandamāna ṛtādadhi prajāyai sakhibhirindra iṣirebhirartham. Ābhirhi māyā upa dasyumāgānmihāḥ pra tamrā avapat tamaṃsi.

Further, happy and joyous with the rule of inviolable law and dispensation of justice, Indra creates, holds, manages and provides wealth and well being for the people with the cooperation of his friendly and enthusiastic colleagues, and with these very cooperative forces faces the negative elements, negates their mischief and dispels all fog, depression and oppressive darkness from the land, uproots all these.

\[
\text{चिद ध्वसया न्यस्मा अवाहिनिन्दे उपसा}
\text{यथान्। ऋष्क्षाश्च सखिभिनिकोपसांकं पतिष्ठा हद्धा} \text{जघन्थ॥६॥}

Indra, dispel the darkness of the forces of equal name and power and subdue them with your light like the sun which overtakes the car of the dawns and turns it to day. Move forward with heroic friends who are brilliant and ambitious and with them together win the firmness and stability of your heart’s desire.

You subdue the miserly hoarder and the negative, destructive clever trickster and convert him to be a lover of yajna and social generosity, living a simple natural life for the advancement of the seer. You make the paths of human progress peaceful and enjoyable, holy, simple and natural to follow for the pilgrims of divinity.

Indra, you fill up all these agents of positivity with strength. Ruling and controlling, you hold the rule and justice like the thunderbolt in hand. Consequently all the divinities of nature and humanity rejoice and exalt you with power and joy. Indeed you turn all the clouds above downwards to release the showers of life giving rain.

\[ \text{चक्रं यदस्याप्स्वा निष्टतमुता तदर्स्मभ्यनविच्छङ्ख्यात।} \\
\text{पृथिश्चायमतिषितं यदूधः पया गाःस्वदधा आशंशीषु॥ १॥} \]

1. \text{Cakram\ yadasyāpsvā niṣattamuto tadasmai madhvicacchadyāt. Prthivyāmaṭisiṭam\ yadūduḥ\ payo gośvadathā ośadhīṣu.}

His wheel of power and presence which operates across the spaces and rules the dynamics of nature and humanity also fills and covers the whole system of existence with honey sweets of joy for life and for the lord’s own fulfilment too, the same honey which fertilises the earth and fills the clouds, the nectar that is filled in the cow’s udders and sweetens the sap in the herbs.

\[ \text{अश्वविद्यायति यद्यन्त्याजरीमार्गमुन्य एनम।} \\
\text{मून्यारियाय हुम्बयृ पत्स्वार्यत: पतुः इन्द्रा अस्य बद॥ १०॥} \]

10. \text{Aśvādiyāyeti yadvadantyojaso jātamuta manya enam. Manyoriyāya marmyesu tasthau yataḥ prajāṇ indro asya veda.}

While some say this power and presence comes from the system itself, and I think it is born of divine lustre, arisen from passion and subsisting in forms and subsystems, the truth is that wherefrom it arises Indra alone knows the mystery.

\[ \text{वर्षः सुपुर्णा उप सदुरिन्दें पियमधा ऋषया नाथ्माना:।} \\
\text{अर्थ ध्वान्तमूर्णुः पृथि च पुमपुरुः स्मा हिधर्यवच बर्षा॥ ११॥} \]

Men of vibrant intelligence and flying imagination, seers and sages with love and reason, in a mood of supplication, prayer and faith sit and abide by Indra. O lord, unveil the truth from darkness, perfect our vision for the light of truth, release us for we are bound like birds in snares.

Mandala 10/Sukta 74

Indra Devata, Gauriviti Shaktya Rshi

Wishing to honour the winners of the wealth and glories of heaven and earth by thought and action and by corporate yajnic performance, I celebrate the warriors of horse and commanders of wealth and honour of excellence who support the friends and destroy the assailants in the battles of life and who uphold and exalt the well received words and traditions of reputed sages and scholars.

हवे एषामसुपुरा न गत् व्याा श्रवस्यता मन्तसा निंसत् गाम।
च गौणा यत्रे सुवितायेय दुवा द्याह वारभिः कृणवन्त् स्वज्ज। ॥ ॥
2. Hava eṣāmasuro nakṣata dyāṁ śravasyatā manasā nīṁsata kṣām. Cakṣāṇā yatra suvitāya devā dyaurna vārebhiḥ kṛṇavanta svaiḥ.

Their call to action, with the fragrance of their yajnic performance full of freshness and rejuvenation for life, rises to heaven and, with their ideas and fame, spreads over the whole earth where brilliant sages of vision and generous leaders, with their own essential choices and best actions, create a heaven on earth for the good and all round well being of life.

3. Iyameśāmamṛtānāṁ gīh sarvatātā ye kṛpaṇantā ratnam. Dhiyam ca yajñām ca sādhantaste no dhāntu vasavyamasāmi.

This is the voice of song in adoration of these immortals who, in the general yajna of all humanity, create and bestow on us the jewel wealth of life, elevate ideas and actions and accomplish the corporate creative programmes of total humanity by yajna. May they, we pray, bear and bring unbounded wealth and honour for us all.

4. Ā tat ta indrāyavaḥ panantābhi ya ūrvāṁ gomantāṁ titṛtśān. Sakṛṣṭvaṁye puruputrāṁ mahīṁ sahasradhārāṁ bṛhatāṁ dudukṣan.

Indra, ruler of the world, the people adore and exalt you when they reap the harvest of abundant food and milk, and when they till the land, and, like the mother cow, wish to milk the great wide earth of a thousand streams who, for her many many children, produces all things together.

5. Śacīva indramavase kṛṇudhvamanānataṁ damayantauṁ pṛtanyūn. Rbhukṣanāṁ maghavā-naṁ svṛktīṁ bhartā yo vajraiṁ naryaiṁ purukṣuh.

O yajakas, for your protection and progress, adore and exalt Indra, lord of wondrous power and action, undaunted subduer of enemies, glorious, majestic, admirable and abundantly generous friend of humanity. And he wields the thunderbolt of power, justice and dispensation.

6. Yadvāvāna purutamaṁ purāṣālā vṛtrahendro nāmānyaprāh. Aceti prāṣahaspatistuvīṣmān yadīmuśmasi kartave kartat tat.

While Indra, subduer of the strongest enemy, destroyer of the strongholds of darkness, breaker of the clouds, is known as the justifier of his name and fame, he, lord of patience and fortitude, most powerful, helps us achieve whatever we wish to accomplish.
Mandala 10/Sukta 75

Nadyah Devata, Sindhukshit Praiyamedha Rshi

1. Pra su va āpo mahimānamuttamam kārurvacāti sadane vivasvataḥ. Pra sapta-sapta tredhā hi cakramuḥ pra sṛtvārśāhātī sindhurojasā.

O fluent streams of water, energy and light, your best and highest grandeur and quality in every region of the master of earth, skies and light (Vivasvan), the scholar scientist devotee adores, describes and celebrates. Seven streams flow three ways in every one of the three regions, and in all the flowing streams the one common current flows on with its own innate energy and power.

O flowing stream, as you flow for the energy and vitality of foods in plants, herbs and trees, or as you flow by the tops of mountains of the earth or as you elevate the first and best part of these living and moving forms of nature with pranic energy, the sun makes the path for your flow.
Divi svano yatate bhūmyoparyantarantam ūṣmamudiyarti bhānunā. Abhrādiva pra stanayanti vṛṣṭayāḥ sindhuryadeti vṛṣabho na roruvat.

When the force and flood of energy is set in motion by the sun, the rumble of infinite energy shakes the spaces in heaven and the atmosphere on earth. As thunder roars and reverberates from the sky, so do showers fall and the river flood flows resounding like the cloud.

Abhi tvā sindho śiśuminna mātaro vāśrā arṣanti payaseva dhenvaḥ. Rājeva yudhvā nayasi tvamit sicau yadāsāmagram pravatāminakṣasi.

O Sindhu, flood of water, just as mothers move with love to the child, just as lowing cows with milk move to the calf to promote life, so do streams flow to you and you take them forward flowing to the sea like a warrior king leading his armies to the battlefield for victory.
5. Imaṁ me gaṅge yamune sarasvati śutudri stomam sacatā paruṣṇyā. Asidnyā marudṛdhe vitastayār-jīkiye śṛṇuhyā suṣomayā.

O Ganga, ever flowing stream of water, life and life energy, Yamuna, stream that joins others and flows, Sarasvati, stream of abundant water and light of life, Shutudri, fast flowing stream of water and energy, Marudvrdha, stormy stream of water, prana and passion for life, Arjikiya, overflooding stream of life breaking over the banks, along with Parushni, sparkling stream flowing through stages, and Sushoma, stream of peace and vitality deep as the fathomless ocean, Asikni and Vistasta may all listen to this song of homage of mine and bless life.

Note: It is said that the words from Ganga to Sushoma are names of ten particular streams. It is not so. According to Yaska and Swami Dayananda, Veda is universal knowledge, there is no history and no geography in this body of knowledge. If particular streams are called by these names, the names were derived from the Vedas in which those name-words already existed, and the name-word and the characteristics of the stream corresponded. For this very correspondence, certain nerves, arteries and veins in the body also were named after these Vedic words. Pandit Jaya Deva Sharma in his translation of Rgveda (published Arya Sahitya Mandala, Ajmer, 1936, vol. 7, p. 131) quotes from a Kerala manuscript on music the following:

“Ida cha pingalakhya cha sushumna chasthi jihvika, Alambusa yatha pusha gandhari shankhini kuhuh, Dehamadhyagata etah mukhyah syurdasha nadyah”, and continues that Ganga is Ida, which leads us to spiritual enlightenment, Yamuna is Pingala which joins with and orders various organs of the body, Sarasvati is sushumna which leads us to the joy of knowledge, Parushni (paravati, bhaswati, kutilagamini) which goes through the vertibrae of the spine is shining, Asikni is dark, Marudvrdha is augmented by all nadis, Shutudri is fast and full, Vitasta controls body temperature, Arjikiya originates from a centre called Rjuka in the brain, also called vipat which, if it breaks, then death occurs and the pranas and the soul forsake the body. For this reason it is also called urunjara. Sindhu is the soul into which retire all the pranas and the nadis. Thus ‘streams’ and names of streams are general terms of life’s dynamics in different physical, psychic and spiritual contexts.

6.  \[\text{Tṛṣṭāmaya prathamaṁ yatave sajūḥ susartvā rasayā śvetyā tyā. Tvaṁ sindho kubhayā gomātīṁ krumuṁ mehatnvā saratham yābhirīyase.}\]

O Sindhu, flood and ocean of the dynamics of life, the streams which you first join and go on by the body chariot of existence are: Trshtama, the nadi with which food is first digested in the stomach, Susartu by which the energy produced is distributed over parts of the body system, Rasa by which energy vibrates across the whole system, Shveti by which food energy joins the blood stream, Kubha by which the skin cover is formed and sustained, Gomati by which speech and other senses are controlled, Krumu which controls and coordinates body movements, and Mehatnu which controls the urinary function.

Rjiti which moves peacefully, Eni which controls the white corpuscles, and Rushati which is bright and creates the body lustre, move by the energy and grandeur of the spiritual centre and communicate particles of energy and vitality across the system. Sindhu, the central stream and spirit, undaunted, is the most dynamic of all dynamics, wonderful as a ray of light and beautiful as a youthful maiden.

8. Svāsva sindhuḥ surathā suvāsā hiranyaḥ sukṛta vājinīvati. Īrṇāvati yuvatīḥ sīlamāvatyutadhi vaste subhagā madhuvṛdham.

Sindhu, the central psychic and spiritual stream of the system commands beautiful senses and mind and the beautiful body chariot, it is fragrant, golden, nobly active, energetic achiever, handsomely covered youthful, provided with an efficient structural body system, beatific, honey sweet and rich, which abides in and rules over all streams of the system.

Sukham ratham yuyuje sindhuraśvinam tena vājaṁ sanīṣdasminnājau. Mahān hyasya mahimā panasyate‘dabdhasya svayaśaso varapśinaḥ.

Sindhu, spirit of the stream of existence, flows incessantly, riding the cosmic chariot of all joy and comfort, wonderfully dynamic, by which it wins victories of attainments for its devotees and tributaries in this cosmic play. Great is its glory praised and celebrated by poets, undaunted and inviolable, innately glorious, infinitely abundant and generous.

Mandala 10/Sukta 76

Gravana Devata, Sarpa Airavata Jarakarkarna Rshi

O scholars and celebrants of yajna, creators of soma wealth, I honour and cooperate with you at the dawn of light and energy in the morning. Pray honour, celebrate and serve Indra, the sun, the winds, the earth and the environment and reveal their power and potential for us so that both day and night they may produce and give us wealth born of earth for every home.

Enact and accomplish that highest plan of yajnic action which like a goal-oriented programme of cloud showers in the hands of the creative maker of soma wins strength and power, progress and victory for the yajamana so that for the achievement of great wealth and progress he overcomes the worst hurdles and goes forward with quick mile stones of success.

Let that creative soma yajna programme of this yajamana promote and extend his actions and achievements the way as ever before it has opened and extended the paths of progress for humanity and inspired pioneers of positive acts of love and service to go forward in the scientific development of land, cows, culture and enlightenment and in the technological development of efficient means of transport and potential for us so that both day and night they may produce and give us wealth born of earth for every home.

4. Apa hata rakṣaso bhaṅgurāvataḥ skabḥāyata nirṛtim sedhatāmatim. Ā no rayim sarvavīraṁ sunotana devāvyāṁ bharata ślokamadrayaḥ.

O yajakas and creators of soma, destroy the wicked and the evil tendencies, hold off the crooked and negative forces from the ways of development and progress, drive off want and poverty, create and bring us wealth and progeny worthy of the brave, and sing songs of thanks and praise in honour of the divinities.

I sing in honour and appreciation of you all who create more and more energy and power from the light of the sun, more and more energy and speed from the electric energy of the middle regions, more and better energising tonics and sanatives from the fresh vitality of the winds, and more and better nourishing food from the heat and fertility of the earth.
6. Bharantu no yāsasaḥ sotvandhaso grāvāṇo vācā divitā divitmatā. Naro yatra duhate kāmyam madhvāghoṣayanto abhito mithasturah.

May the yajakas, creators of soma, bear and bring that nectar of honour and energy wherein, inspired by the heavenly voice of divinity rising to the skies, enlightened people together in unison distil the honey sweets of cherished love and fulfilment of life, their ecstasy resounding all round.

7. Sunvanti somam rathirāso adrayo nirasya rasaṁ gaviṣo duhanti te. Duhantyūdhār-upasecanāya kam naro havyā na marjayanta āsabhiḥ.

Devotees of Soma, lovers of divinity, riding the body chariot in the state of dharma-megha samadhi extract the nectar juice of divine joy. Loving the vision and word of that joy they distil the taste and flavour of it. They milk the presence, the taste, the flavour of divinity from the udders of Mother Nature to sprinkle on and around the vedi of life and, as people taste the holy food with their tongue, they sanctify and experience the joy in the state of clairvoyance.

8. Ete naraḥ svapaso abhūtana ya indrāya sunutha somamadrayaḥ. Vāmaṁ vāmaṁ vo divyāya dhāmne vasu vasu vah pārthivāya sunvate.
O enlightened sages, such you are, people of holy action, yajakas and creators of soma, to offer your homage of living joy to Indra, lord of glory. All the beauties and graces of life you create, all the wealth, honour and excellence of earthly life you achieve is for the service of Indra, your homage in totality to Divinity, Spirit of the earth.

Mandala 10/Sukta 77

Maruts Devata, Syumarashmi Bhargava Rshi

1. Abhrapruśo na vācā pruśā vasu haviśmanto na yajñā vijānuṣah. Sumārutam na brahmāṇamarhase gaṇamastōṣyesām na śobhase.

Like clouds of rain bringing showers of wealth and fertility to the earth, like yajakas bearing sacred offerings for the fire and replenishing the vitality of the environment, the vibrant currents of cosmic mind and holy sages of the divine Word bless humanity with the Vedic voice. Now, in order to do them the honour they deserve, sing and adore the assembly of the sages like the divine currents of Maruts, and do so in order that you too may deserve the honour and appreciation you would win.

2. Śriye maryāso añjīṃrakṛṇavata sumārutam na pūrvirati kṣapaḥ. Divasputrāsa etā na yetira ādityāsaste akrā na vāvṛduḥ.
For their honour and glory, mortals adore and celebrate them, even veteran powers of earliest fame cannot violate them. Children of light, they shoot forward like archers and do not deviate from the course. Children of Aditi, mother Eternity, they advance like rays of light and extend the bounds of knowledge.

By virtue of their own strength and power (they are great) but not separate, not unrelated to heaven and earth just as the sun is great but not unrelated to the cloud and the sky. Commanding power and grandeur like heroes, they are adorable like mortals who destroy negativity, and they are refulgent in their own right.

4. Yuṣmākaṁ buddhe apāṁ na yāmani vithuryati na mahī śratharyati. Viśvapsuryajño arvāgayaṁ su vah prayasvanto na strāca a gata.

In your area of operation you shine on together, as in the spaces of cosmic dynamics the earth does not shake, nor does it slacken, but goes on and on steadily on its course. Same way your yajnic operation in the cosmic law is universal, versatile and holy. Pray come to our sessions, bear and bring us the food, energy and the wealth we need and work for.

5. Yūyam dhūrṣu prayujo na raśmibhirjyotिमanto na bhāsā vyuṣṭiṣu. Śyenāso na svayaṇasato riṣādasah prayāsā na prasitāsah paripruṣah.

In our programmes of progress, be like the motive powers of the plan with rays of light and reins of control. Be like light givers with sun-light on the rise of the dawns of initiative on a new day. Self-refulgent and glorious like harbingers of soma, be destroyers of violence and negativity. Like world-travellers, shining and sinless on meticulous missions, be harbingers of universal showers of rain and prosperity.

O Maruts, creators, achievers and givers of wealth and providers of peace and settlement, when you come from afar and bring great wealth of choice human value and order capable of further and capital development, then you eliminate all hate, jealousy and enmity polluting the heart within and society outside.
7. Ya udṛci yajñe adhvareśṭhā marudbhyo na mānuśo dadāsat. Revat sa vayo dadhate suvīram sa devānāmapi gopīthe astu.

The man established in Vedic chant and yajnic programmes of creation and development who gives for yajna and also gives to the brilliant and versatile Maruts achieves good health and long age blest with plenty of wealth and noble children and he also enjoys the protection of divinities on the path of rectitude.

8. Te hi yajñēsu yajñiyāsa īmā ādityena nāmnā sāmbhaviṣṭhāḥ. Te no’vantu rathatūrmanīśāṁ mahaśca yāmannadhvare cakānāḥ.

May the Maruts, adorable at yajna, protectors and promoters most benevolent and blissful by the gift of solar light and enlightenment and showers of substantial waters and energy, versatile movers of the dynamics of cosmic yajna circuit protect and promote our mind, intelligence and knowledge while they love, cherish and extend our grand paths of progress in our social programmes of creation and production in the spirit of universal love, friendship and peace and non-violence.
Mandala 10/Sukta 78

Maruts Devata, Syumarashmi Bhargava Rshi

1. Viprāso na manmabhīḥ svādhyo devāvyo na yajñai svapnasah. Rājano na citrāḥ susamdrśaḥ kṣitīnāṁ na maryā arepasah.

Like sages holy and self-possessed by noble thoughts and meditation, like dreamers of dreams devoted to divinity by yajnic actions, like wondrous brilliant rulers noble in person and performance, the Maruts are pure and sinless like noble mortals among humanity.

Shining with golden halo and lustre like fire, always devoted to protection and promotion of life like winds by free will and dedication of the self, highest and wholly committed to noble policies like wise and enlightened sages, they work for the peace and holy soma joy of the men of action and endeavour as divine harbingers of mental peace and spiritual bliss.
3. \( Vātāso na ye dhunayo jigatnavo'gnīnāṁ na jihvā virokiṇāḥ. Varmaṇvanto na yodhāḥ śimīvantāḥ pitṝṇāṁ na śaṁśāḥ surātayāḥ. \) Stormy shakers are they of the stagnant as well as of the vibrant like winds, blazing like flames of fire, mighty strong like warriors clad in armour for battle, and profusely generous like blessings of the parents.

\[ \text{रथानां न येंचरा: सनाभया जिगीवासा न शूरी अभिद्वां: । वर्यवा न मयाः गृहपृशाचभिश्वतारा अर्क न सुषुभ: ॥ ४ ॥} \]

4. \( Rathānāṁ na ye’rāḥ sanābhayo jīgīvāṁso na śūrā abhidyavaḥ. Vareyavo na maryā gṛ̥̃ṭapruṣo- ’bhīsvartāro ar-kaṁ na suṣṭubhaḥ. \)

United in common with the centre as spokes of the wheel with the nave, lustrous like warriors thirsting for victory, liberal givers of the showers of prosperity, and soothing of speech like the holy chant of Rks, such are the Maruts for humanity.

\[ \text{अश्वासा न य ज्यष्टास आशवा दितिषवा न रथ्व: । सुदानव: । आपा न निम्नशद्धभिजितवा विश्वसेपाः अन्तससा न सामम्भि: ॥ ५ ॥} \]

They are vibrant winners of the highest order like rays of light in focus, generous givers like commanders of the chariots of plenty and charity, progressive seekers like rivers flowing down to the sea, and versatile workers of theoretical knowledge into practice like the Angiras sages of Atharva Veda realising their hymns with the music of Samans.

गावण न सूरयः सिन्धुमातर आदिरासा अद्या न विशवहृ। शिष्यूला न कीठयः सुमातरा महागाम न याम्युत त्विषा॥ ६ ॥

6. Grāvāṇo na sūrayaḥ sindhumātara ādardirāso adrayo na viśvahā. Śiśūlā na krīlayaḥ sumātaro mahāgrāmo na yāmannuta tviṣā.

Like the clouds of rain they are makers of the floods and oceans of collective wealth and knowledge, always opening the flood gates of showers like thunder across the world, playing like innocent children of noble mothers and going forward with light and lustre like a mighty community united in action.

उषसां न कृतवाच्यवर्षियं: शुभंयव साधिजिज्यशिवतन्।

7. Uṣasāṁ na ketavo’dhvaraśriyah śubhamyavo nāṁjibhirvyaśvitan. Sindhavo na yayiyō bhrāja-

Like lights of the dawn they illuminate the sky and beautify the yajña on earth, themselves shining with graces and wishing the world all well all round. Moving forward like rivers in flood they shine in arms, and like pioneer travellers over boundless woods and spaces they cover miles and miles of distance in progress and achievement.

सुभागा त दवः कृणुता सुरभ्रानुमान्त्सत्तृण्मरुता

O noble and divine Maruts, vibrant scholars and sages, blazing warriors, benevolent philanthropists and relentless seekers and creators, let us be sharers with you, blest with noble jewel wealth of existence. Yourselves exalted by our adorations, exalt us, the celebrants. Come and acknowledge our song of praise, appreciation and friendship. Liberal you are, and immense are the gifts of your generosity for all time past, present and future.

Mandala 10/Sukta 79

Agni Devata, Agni Sauchika or Vaishvanara, or Sapti Vajambhara Rshi

I see and realise the sublime presence of this immortal Agni among mortals whose complementary catalytic powers open and close and open like the jaws of a living being, disjoining and joining together insatiably and relentlessly, creating, destroying and recreating new forms from old ones, and ultimately consume all things thereby consummating and completing the process of evolution back into involution and annilation.

The highest presence of Agni is hidden in mystery, in the cave of the heart. Its eyes of universal vision are objectified separately in the sun and moon. With its tongue it consumes various things, even the best and most beautiful too, insatiably. In homage to it, yajakas all across humanity bear holy offerings with hands raised in reverence and adoration and bring them step by step for its consumption in the fire and in the crucibles of the discipline of meditation.

Loving and seeking the ultimate mystery of Agni, mother spirit of life and human evolution, the seeker comes like an innocent child moving up silently by and along the various folds of earthly existence, ultimately reaching the centre core of the mystery and attains the radiant presence deliciously ecstatic like the ripest fruit of life.

O heaven and earth, father and mother of life in existence, truly do I speak to you of that law of life which you observe and sustain: the baby life in the womb and, thereafter, receives its sustenance from father and mother. I, the rising vital form, the mortal, know not of the lord divine. For sure, Agni the omniscient alone knows all, Agni alone illuminates the spirit in the human form.

Whoever the person that readily and enthusiastically brings and offers food to this Agni, feeds the fire and raises the flames with gṛṛta and intensive oblations of havi, Agni watches and enlightens him with a thousand eyes and visions. O lord of light and life, Agni, you are always with us, all time, all round, with and within at the closest.

An ignorant man, I ask you, Agni, whether among the divinities, in sport or not in sport, you subject men to sin, anger and aversion, since the omnipotent power, creator and destroyer, to swallow what is to be swallowed at the end, cuts things into particles like a knife cutting leather into pieces.

Fortunately born in a beautiful body, the soul uses various and versatile senses controlled by simple and natural operations of the will and intelligence and, loving and enlightened by Agni, cosmic lord omniscient, grows stage by stage with pranic energies and prospers.

Mandala 10/Sukta 80

Agni Devata, Agni Sauchika or Vaishvanara, or Sapti Vajambhara Rshi

Agni gives us fast faculties of sense and mind which bring us food for life and experience with success in many fields. Agni gives valiant progeny, learned and cultured with dedication to noble action. Agni pervades heaven and earth, beautifying them, and blesses the family home of man and woman, beatifying it with light and passion for good action, and Agni blesses the woman with fertility, motherhood of the brave and wisdom to keep a happy home.

May the full fire, heat and light of Agni, versatile power of action be good for universal well being, Agni which pervades both heaven and earth. Agni inspires and energises every one in the battles of life, and Agni dispels and destroys all evils of want and darkness.

Agni protects the devotee’s health of sense and mind and establishes him in piety and prayer. Agni burns away the debilitating impurities from waters and from the blood stream of the body system. Agni protects the enlightened man free from triple bonds of infatuation with family, fame and finance. Agni establishes the man dedicated to yajnic advancement of humanity in the right relationship with family, friends and community.
Agni, heroic in form and pride of the brave, gives wealth, honour and excellence and all that is valuable in the world. Agni rewards the sage, seer and visionary scholar a thousand ways. Agni raises and diffuses the fragrance of oblations to the heavens. Indeed the presence and pervasions of Agni are boundless, infinitely spread out.

Seers invoke Agni with the chant of sacred hymns. People in crisis on the journey onward call on Agni for help and guidance. Like birds flying up in the sky, sages on the way higher up towards the heavens or deep in awareness in the mind adore Agni. Agni, indeed, pervades and transcends a thousand abodes of light and life and inspires and enlightens the souls that seek and find.
6. Agnim viśva īl̄ate mānuṣīryā aghniṁ manuṣo nahuṣo vi jātāh. Agnirgaṇḍharvīṁ pathyāṁrtasyāṅgnergavyūṭirghṛta ā niśattā.

Communities of humanity conscious of their humanity and social responsibility worship Agni for guidance. People who rise above their earthly bonds thank and adore Agni. Agni holds and proclaims the holy voice of eternal truth which guides humanity on the paths of rectitude. The path that leads to Agni exists in and radiates from the lustre of Agni itself.

7. Agnaye brahma ṛbhavastatakṣuragniṁ mahāmavocāmā suvṛktim. Agne prāva jarītāraṁ yaviṣṭhā
'gne mahi draviṇamā yajasva.

Rbhhus, sages of divine vision and genius, compose and sing songs of adoration in honour of Agni.
We too offer holy songs of reverence and worship in celebration of Agni. O Spirit of universal light and life, ever youthful Agni, pray protect and promote the celebrant and give us the highest wealth of yajnic life in communion with you.

Mandala 10/Sukta 81

Vishvakarma Devata, Bhauvana Vishvakarma Rshi

य हुमा विश्वा भूर्वनानि जुह्हूषिषिहाता न्यसीदस्थिता नः। स आशिषा दर्विणमिच्छहामानः पश्चस्चछदंबरः आ
विवश।। १।।
1. Ya imā viśvā bhuvanāni juhvadṛṣṭhirhotā nyasīdat pitā naḥ. Sa āśiṣā dravinamicchamānah prathamacchadavarāṁ ā viveṣa.

   The eternal Rshi, visionary creator and cosmic yajaka, our father generator, who calls up all these worlds of the universe into existence ever abides by himself. Moved with desire to give the wealth of life with his blessings to the souls, he first generates the original Prakṛti vesting it with his divine will and then simultaneously enters and pervades the modes and forms of Prakṛti as they evolve.

   What was the basis, what the beginning of the beginning, what sort and whence, from which Vishvakarma, omniscient all watching guardian of the universe, creating the heaven and earth shaped them and vested them with divine grandeur?

All watching with cosmic eyes, all speaking with cosmic voice, all protecting with cosmic arms and all sustaining on cosmic foundations, the sole self-refulgent maker creating heaven and earth shapes and controls the universe with his hands, i.e., thought and will with strokes of the natural forces forging things into form.

Which is that forest and which is that tree from which the divine forces of nature carve out and shape the heaven and earth? O sages and scholars of divine vision, with your heart and intelligence ask that omniscient lord who abides and presides over the worlds of all existence, holding and controlling them in order.

5. Yā te dhāmāni paramāṇi yāvamaṁ yā madhyamā viśvakarmannutemā. Śikṣā sakhibhyo haviśi svadhāvah svayaṁ yajasva tanvaṁ vṛdhānah.

O Vishvakarman, creator and maker of the universe, whatever the regions, their names and forms which are your creation, whether the highest and farthest, or the middle ones, or the lowest and closest, pray enlighten the friendly seekers and devotees about
All watching with cosmic eyes, all speaking with cosmic voice, all protecting with cosmic arms and all sustaining on cosmic foundations, the sole self-refulgent maker creating heaven and earth shapes and controls the universe with his hands, i.e., thought and will with strokes of the natural forces forging things into form.

O Vishvakarman, you yourself guide and perform the yajna of heaven and earth with the holy materials from within nature itself, yourself exalting in the expansive universe. Here the other people, unaware of the mystery, feel awe-stricken but, we pray, may you, Lord Almighty and omnificent, be the ultimate giver of enlightenment for us.

7. Vācaspatiṁ viśvakarmāṇamūtaye manojuvaṁ vāje adhyaḥ huvema. Sa no viśvāni havanāni joṣad viśvaśambhūravase sādhukarmā.

For our enlightenment and victory in our battle of existence and action today, we invoke Vishvakarma, lord of universal speech and the expanding universe, creative cosmic awareness inspiring human mind and thought, and we pray that the lord of holy action and universal well being be pleased to listen and grant us the fruit of all our invocations, prayers and adorations.
Mandala 10/Sukta 82

Vishvakarma Devata, Vishvakarma Bhauvana Rshi

The creator, protector and promoter of the light of the eye and sensitivity of mind, constant and inviolable, by his own will and resolution manifests the plasticity of nature’s potential, Ahankara, from Mahat, and then the double plastic potential of psychic and material forms, mind and senses on the one hand and tanmatras, subtle materials, on the other. And when these basic bounds are shaped and confirmed, then these tangible forms of intelligential and material existence, heavens and earths grow, extend and expand.

Vishvakarma is infinitely intelligent, infinitely pervasive, all sustaining, all controlling, supreme, all percipient, and all watchful. By virtue of his immanence and inspiration, living beings enjoy the cherished objects of their love and desire. It is that one Supreme Spirit which all sages celebrate and adore as One and Absolute. It is from him that all seven mantra chants arise and unto him return.

3. \( \textit{Yo naḥ pitā janitā yo vidhātā dhāmāni veda bhuvanāni viśvā. Yo devānām nāmadhā eka eva tam sampraśnam bhuvanā yantyanyā.} \)

Vishvakarma is our father and mother, he who is the sustainer, ruler and controller of existence, who knows all abodes and regions of the universe, who is the sole ordainer of the nature, functions and names of all divinities and the sole unity of all these in one, the one comprehensive question of all questions and the one complete answer to all questions, the one ultimate reality into whom all regions and worlds converge and merge.

4. \( \textit{Ta āyajanta draviṇaṁ samasmā rṣayaḥ pūrve jaritāro na bhūnā. Asūre sūrte rajasi niṣatte ye bhūtāni samakṛṣṇvannimāni.} \)

The earliest Rshis, i.e., the vital energies of nature in the process of creative evolution in their own right with their power of Being, did yajnic service to the creator and offered their best input in the formative process like celebrants. Placed and abiding in the tumult of the moving and unmoving elements and forms, they fashioned forth the later forms of Being in homage to the divine will.

Paro divā para enā pr̥thivyā paro devebhirasurairyadastī. Kaṁ svidgarbham prathamaṁ dadhra āpo yatra devāḥ samapaśyanta viśve.

What is that generative as well as emergent spirit and reality which is beyond the heavens, beyond this earth and this entire universe, beyond the divinities and the energies, beyond and above all that is in existence? What is that presence, that Hiranyagarbha, that golden seed model of the universe which the primeval Prakṛti particles contain and which contains and generates those particles themselves, wherein all the divine existences find and realise themselves?

Tamidgarbham prathamaṁ dadhra āpo yatra devāḥ samagacchanta viśve. Ajasya nābhāva-dhyekamarpitam yasmin viśvāni bhuvanāni tasthuḥ.

That Vishvakarma is the first power and presence which the particles of Prakṛti contain as the immanent generator and which also generates, contains and rules the particles as the transcendent presiding power wherein all the divinities converge, abide and realise themselves. All that is, is self-contained in the central generative core of the eternal unborn and undying spirit, and therein abide all the regions of the universe.

O Manyu, spirit of passion and ardour of mind for righteous action, awful as thunder and accurate as an arrow to hit the target, whoever bears, honours and commands you with strength and enthusiasm, rises in universal honour and splendour. We pray that with your friendly and unfailing spirit of courage, patience and vigour, we may be able to support the noble and defeat the violent and the destroyers. (Righteous passion is the gift and spirit of all the divinities.)

Manyu, righteous passion of the spirit and courage of mind, is Indra, glory and power. Manyu is brilliance, manyu is yajaka and performer of yajna, manyu is Varuna, deep as ocean, blazing as sun and self confidence of choice, manyu is Jataveda, spirit of intelligence and existential awareness. Communities which live all over the human world honour and adore manyu. O spirit of passion and universal intelligence of divine mind, dearest friend and inner inspiration, pray protect and promote us with the strength and discipline of body, mind and soul.

3. Abhīhi manyo tavasastavīyān tapasā yujā vi jahi śatrūn. Amitraḥa vṛtrahā dasyuhā ca viśvā vasū-nyā bharā tvam naḥ.

Come manyu, stronger than strength itself, one with valour and austerity of discipline, destroy the enemies. Come, saviour of friends and destroyer of adherers, dispeller of darkness, eliminator of evil and negativity, bear and bring us all wealth, honour and excellence of the world.

O noble wrath and passionate spirit of rectitude, you are illustrious subduer of adversaries, self-existent and self justified, awesome, challenger and destroyer of hostilities, universally present among men, patient and forbearing. Pray inspire us with strength and high morale in our battles of life.

Being void of righteous passion, O spiritual rectitude, giver of self confidence and assertive identity, I am gone far from my own self and, by action, deprived of your spirit of lustre and inspiration. O manyu, O Indra, O Varuna, O Jataveda, I am guilty of remiss toward you, and I pray bless me with the strength of body, mind and soul.
6. Ayaṁ te asmyupa mehyarvāṁ praṭīcīnaḥ sahure viśvadhāyaḥ. Manyo vajrinabhi māmā vavṛtsva hanāva dasyūṁrūta bodhyāpeḥ.

Here I am all for you, O spirit of courage and self assertion, challenging sustainer of all the world, come turn to me universal spirit. O spirit of awesome passion and undaunted self-identity, wielder of the thunderbolt, come constantly, let us together dispel darkness and destroy evil. Pray inspire and awaken me, your own self.

Pray come forward and be on my right side in your own place, and together we shall eliminate all darkness and adversities. I offer you the best, foremost and sweetest honeyed homage of the self, and we shall together drink of the joy of victory in closest intimacy.

Mandala 10/Sukta 84
Manyu Devata, Manyu Tapasa Rshi

O Manyu, spirit of vaulting passion without compromise with negativities, may our leading lights, warriors of universal rectitude, riding the chariot with you, breaking through paths of advancement, joyous, bold, undaunted, stormy like wind shears, their arrows like lazer beams, weapons sharp and blazing, move forward like flames of fire.

O Manyu, blazing like fire, commanding our forces, spirit of forbearance and challenge, invoked and called upon, come to lead our battles of life, face the enemies to destroy the adversaries and share the wealth, beauty and goodness of life with all. O spirit comprehending lustrous light of life, move forward, push the adversities back and throw out the adversaries.

O wrath of justice, rectitude and dispensation, arise, challenge our adversaries, breaking, smashing, eliminating the forces of negation. Blazing is your face and courage, none to obstruct and stay your advance. You are the master, all in control, leader of the forces of predominance, sole born of divinity without an equal.

   Manyu, you are the one unique among many, invoked and universally adored. Pray instruct, inspire, prepare and perfect every community to fight and win against negativity and adversity. Your lustre unimpaired and unchallengeable, with you as leader and inspirer, let us raise the blazing battle cry and raise the flag of victory flying sky high.

   Uncontradicted, irreproachable victorious like Indra, O Manyu, be our protector and promoter here throughout life. For sure, O spirit of courage, forbearance and victory, we adore you, dear and adorable of all. We know where you arise from, fountain head of the lust for life, inspiration and victory: Dharma and the universal love of life.

Twin brother of the ardour and glory of life, thunderbolt of divine humanity, unfailing pointed arrow, you bear the higher ardour of human love and passion for life. O Manyu, sweetest companion of living splendour universally invoked and adored, come to us with the force of unfailing yajnic action in the heat of the grand battle scene of life.

May Varuna, highest lord of life loved and worshipped with rational choice, and Manyu, highest ardour of life, give us integrated material and spiritual wealth of both this world of humanity and the light of divinity, and may the enemies, negativities and adversities, fear stricken at heart and defeated, run off and dissolve into the darkness of their origin.
Mandala 10/Sukta 85

Soma (1-5), Surya vivaha (6-16), Devah (17), Somarkau (18), Chandrama (19), Marriage (20-28), Vādhuvasa samsparsha ninda (29-30), Yaksha nashanam dampatyoh (31) Surya Savitri (32-47) Devatah; Savitri Surya Rshi

The earth is sustained by the force of its own identity within the truth of divine law, the heaven is sustained by the sun within the same truth of divine law, the Adityas are sustained by Rtam, the natural law of Divinity, and Soma is sustained in the highest heaven of the same law.

The Adityas are mighty by Soma, divine energy and law of existence. By Soma, the earth is great and adorable. And in the closest environment of these stars Soma is abiding in concentrations as sustaining energy.

The person who drinks the soma juice feels that the herb which they crush and squeeze for the juice is soma. But the Soma which the divine sages know and realise no one can drink like that.

Preserved by divine ordinances, protected by the measures of Brhat Samans, Soma is guarded safely by somapalas. O Soma, you abide somewhere in divinity hearing the roar of thunder and clouds, no one earthly can drink or experience the ecstasy of your celestial nature and identity.

5. Yat tvā deva prapibanti tata ā pyāyase punah. Vāyuḥ somasya raksitā samānāṁ māsa ākṛtiḥ.

O divine Soma, when the sun rays drink you as the moon in the first, dark half of the month, then you come up to full growth as the moon in the second, bright half of the month. The wind, cosmic energy, is the protector of soma in its place. Thus the month is the constituent of years and presents the full form of the two equal fortnights of the moon.

Note: Mantras from 6 to 16 are a metaphor which can be interpreted as wedding of the dawn in the context of nature and the Veda, and as wedding of a maiden and relevance of the Veda in the human context. The maiden and the dawn are synonymous.

Raibhi verses of the Veda are the bride’s wedding gifts, Narashansi verses, the bride’s ornaments, grace and good fortune, her bridal robes sanctified by exemplary verses relating to the good life.

When Surya, the dawn, the new bride, goes to the house of her groom, then her noble mind and thought is her resting couch, her gracious eye, the collyrium, and the earth and heaven, her treasure.

Hymns of adoration are the axle of her chariot wheels, music of the hymns, her head scarf and cushion, the Ashvins, prana and udana energies, are friends of the groom, and Agni is the first call of maturity.

Soma is the proposer and Ashvins, pranic energies, the first attraction and attention, when Savita, giver of life and light, gives away the bride, love-lorn at heart, to the groom.

10. Mano asyā ana āśīḍ daurāśiduta cchadiḥ. Śukrāvanaḍvāhāvāstāṁ yadayāt sūryā grham.

The mind is her bridal chariot, bright sky its canopy, the sun and moon the motive powers when the bride, like the glorious dawn, goes to her own home with the groom.

11. Rksāmabhyāmabhihitau gāvau te sāmanāvitaḥ. Śrotram te cakre āstāṁ divi panthāścarācraḥ.

Sun and moon, both equal and glorious, yoked and celebrated by Rks and Samans, move the chariot on the new procession. Let revelation of the Word and infinite Space be the movement towards advancement, and let the path be both tumultuous and restful over the moving and the unmoving world unto the light of heaven.
12. Śucī te cakre yātyā vyāno akṣa āhataḥ.
Ano manasmayaṁ sūryārohat prayatī patim.

Surya, the new bride, rides the chariot of the mind when she moves to the house of the groom (with her dreams of the future). When she moves, her pure ears are the wheels (on which the chariot moves because the mind moves in response to the stimulants of the senses) and the wind, psychic energy of thought, is the axis of the wheels.

Aghāsu hanyante gāvo‘rjunyoh paryuhyate.

The bridal procession of Surya proceeds which Savita, her father, starts. The bullocks are made to move the chariot in Magha constellations and the bride is inducted into the groom’s home in Phalgunī constellations.

Viśve devā anu tadvāmajānan putraḥ pitarāvavṛṇīta pūṣā.

O Ashvins, married couple, when you come together by the three wheeled mental chariot of Sattva, Rajas and Tamas constituents of personality in balance, asking for fulfilment of the wedding of Surya, let all the Vishvedevas, nobilities around and the mind and senses within, know and approve your intent and purpose, and then let Pusha, future progeny for sustenance, select the life giving parents for the arrival.

यदयातं शुभस्पत्ति वर्यं सूयामुपरः
क्रवङ् च चंक वौमासीत्क्र्वं दुधायं तस्थथुः || १५ ||

15. Yadayātāṁ śubhaspaṭī vareyaṁ sūryāmupā. Kvaikaṁ cakram vāmāsit kva deṣṭrāya tasthathuḥ.

O Ashvins, protectors and promoters of life’s good, noble men and women of reason and passion, when you come to the bride, darling choice of the groom, where is one of the wheels of your chariot and where abide the two for the purpose of benediction?

इ तं चक सूय ब्रह्माण्य ऋतुध्य विदुः ||
अथकं चकं यद गुहा तदद्कङ्गातय झिंदुः || १६ ||

Athaikāṁ cakram yadguhā taddadhātaya idviduḥ.*

O Surya, bride of the new home, the sages of knowledge know the two wheels of your life’s chariot according to the seasons, i.e., your words and actions according to your moods and circumstances. The third, thought, reflection and intentions, is hidden in the depths of the mind which only exceptional master minds know.
And that one is a mystery.
17. Sūryāyai devebhyo mitrāya varuṇāya ca. Ye bhūtasya pracetasa idaṁ tebhyo’karaṁ namah.

This homage I do and offer to Surya, the dawn, the divinities, the loving friend and the wise for the sake of intelligent progeny and to all those who know and enlighten all living beings.

These two, sun and moon, move on in sequential order by their own power and virtue, playing happily like innocent children and go on participating and contributing to the divine yajna of the cosmos. Of these, one watches and enlightens all regions of the world and the other rises again and again according to the season and thereby setting the seasons in order.

The moon rising again and again ever anew, proclaiming days and lunar dates, comes ahead of the dawn in the dark fortnight. While coming it brings its share of the havi for divinities and gives long life to biological and human life.
17. This homage I do and offer to Surya, the dawn, the divinities, the loving friend and the wise for the sake of intelligent progeny and to all those who know and enlighten all living beings.

18. These two, sun and moon, move on in sequential order by their own power and virtue, playing happily like innocent children and go on participating and contributing to the divine yajna of the cosmos. Of these, one watches and enlightens all regions of the world and the other rises again and again according to the season and thereby setting the seasons in order.

19. The moon rising again and again ever anew, proclaiming days and lunar dates, comes ahead of the dawn in the dark fortnight. While coming it brings its share of the havi for divinities and gives long life to biological and human life.

20. Welcome, O bride, bright dawn of a new morning, ride and rule the golden, well structured, well geared chariot of a homely world, beautiful and glowing like a shalmali garden in bloom and turn it into paradisal bliss of immortal joy for the husband and the family.

21. Rise from here. This girl is now married as wife to a husband. Thanks and salutations I offer to the master of the world’s wealth with homage and words of reverence and adoration. Love this girl, your other self, born, bred and raised to fullness in the parental home. She is now a part of your life. Know her, accept and take her as a complement of your self from the very birth by nature, culture and future growth of your life.

22. Rise from here. This girl is now married as wife to a husband. Thanks and salutations I offer to the master of the world’s wealth with homage and words of reverence and adoration. Love this girl, your other self, born, bred and raised to fullness in the parental home. She is now a part of your life. Know her, accept and take her as a complement of your self from the very birth by nature, culture and future growth of your life.
Rise from here and now, O master of the wealth of a new world, we honour and adore you with reverence and homage. Love this bride, this other self of yours, fully mature and cultured, accept, take and join her in the role of husband.

Let our paths be simple, natural and comfortable, free from obstacles, by which our friends may win the goal of their choice. May Aryama, lord of vision, justice and rectitude, and Bhaga, lord of power, prosperity and glory, lead us on to fulfilment. O divinities of nature and humanity, may our married life be happy, noble and fruitful.

I free you from the bonds of Varuna, discipline of virginity observed in the spirit of justice, freedom and responsibility in the parental home, into which Savita, lord giver of life and natural growth unto maturity, had bound you in full dedication without inhibition, and I settle and establish you with your husband into a new life of natural conjugal order in the world of noble action free from sin, violence and violation of the law.

I release you from here, the parental home and its discipline, but not from there, the husband’s home, where I establish you duly bound in the new conjugal law and discipline so that, O Indra, O noble husband, she may be the proud and fortunate mother of noble progeny.

May Pusha, the husband who would maintain you, having accepted your hand, lead you to the new home. May the Ashvins, other leading personalities, escort you by chariot to the husband’s home. O bride, go to the new home and new families as mistress of the new home and new family so that you become the darling ruler of the new hearth and home. You are come to a new yajnic order, and you speak a new language of Iha priyam prajayā te samṛdhyaatāmasmin grhe gārhapatyāya jāgrhi. Enā patyā tanvam sam sṛjasvādhā jivṛi vidathamā vadāthaḥ.

Here in the new home may your new love and happiness increase to new heights with family and children. In this new home keep awake for the good of the children and the family. Here with this husband of yours join in body and mind, and both of you enjoy good fellowship, company and converse till full age and fulfilment in yajnic life.

Nīlalohitam bhavati kṛtyāsaktirvyajyate.
Edhante asyā jñātayaḥ patirbandheṣu badhyate.

Then the blood grows dark and red, love and desire vibrates for fulfilment, the near kinsmen of this bride swell with hope and expectation, and the husband is bound in new responsibilities.

Parā dehi śāmulyam brahmabhyo vi bhajā vasu.
Kṛtyaiśā padvaiḥ bhūtvyā jāyā viśate patim.

Cast away the sense of sin and impurity, share wealth and knowledge with and from the holy and wise, and when the bride has taken the seven steps to conjugal duty, she joins the husband heart and soul.

अश्रीरा तनूभवति रुशतिः पापयामया।
पतियद्वध्याः वायस्या स्वमझूमभिधित्वम्॥ ३० ॥

30. Asrīrā tanūrbhavati ruśatī pāpayāmuyā. Patirya-dvadhavo vāsasā svamaṅgamabhidhītsate.

The body becomes polluted, injured and injurious by that impious act if the husband touches or wants to touch his body with the clothes of the wife in her period.

य वुध्वश्चन्द्रं वहतं य मा यन्ति जनादनू।
पुनस्तान्यज्ञियां दुवा नर्यन्तु यत्र आर्गता:॥ ३१ ॥

Those consumptive ailments which afflict the health and handsomeness of the husband or the beauty and fertility of the wife from birth, let the sages and brilliant specialists of yajna treat and cure upto the source whence, otherwise, they may come and afflict again.

मा विन्दनयिमाधिन्या य आसीदन्ति दम्पती।
सुगभीर्धूर्गमतीपर्य स्वान्त्वरात्तयः ॥ ३२ ॥

32. Mā vidan paripanthino ya āśīdanti dampaṭī. Sugebhirdurgamaṇītāmapa drāntvarātayaḥ.

And those which overtake and afflict the wedded couple on their course of life must not come, and may all adversities, wants and malignities disappear and go down to far off depths beyond recurrence.

33. Sumagaliriyam vadhirimam sameta paśyata. Saubhāgyamasyai dattvāya’thāstam vi paretana.

Auspicious is this bride, gracious, please come, see her to wish her all good fortune in life, and having thus blessed her, you may please retire homeward.

34. Trṣṭametat kaṭukametadapāṣṭhavadvishav-annaitadattave. Sūryāṁ yo brahmā vidyāt sa idvādhīya-marhati.

Matrimony? It is roughshod, it is thorny bitter, all barbs, all poison, it is dangerous to flirt with it. Only the wise youth of divine vision who knows and realises the light and sanctity of Surya, he deserves the prize he may carry away.

35. Āśasanaṁ viśasanamatho adhivikartanam. Sūryāyāḥ paśya rūpāṇi tāni brahmā tu śandhati.

Hope, fear and debasement, frustration, anger and cruelty, and the irony that cuts too deep to the very core, these are various moods and manners of women.
These the wise vision knows and corrects, purifies or excuses with superior understanding.

I take your hand for the sake of good fortune so that you may live a long full life till old age with me, your husband. Bhaga, lord of glory, Aryama, lord of cosmic order, Savita lord giver of life and light, and Purandhi, divine beneficence, have given you to me for the creation of a happy home and family.

37. Tāṁ pūṣaṅchivatamāmerayasva yasyāṁ bījam manuṣyā vapanti. Yā na ūrū uṣaṭī viśrayāte yasyāmuṣantaḥ praharāma śepam.

Pushan, O lord of creativity and growth, inspire her, the most auspicious wife, in whom men sow the seed of life, who, moved with love and desire for progeny, surrenders herself with body and mind and men too with love and passion enter into the conjugal rite of consummation.

O lord of divine fire, Agni, parents bring Surya, the bright bride to you with her gifts and ornaments. O yajna fire, pray give back the bride to the husband alongwith her potential to bear children for the husband.

Agni then gives Surya, now a wife, when the wedding ceremony is complete, to the husband along with her health and age, honour and lustre of life with the blessing: Long live the man who is her husband for a full hundred years.

40. Somā prathamo vivide gandharvo vivida uttaraḥ. Trīyo agniśte patistūryaste manusyajāḥ.

O Surya, bright girl, your first protective and promotive guardian is Soma, nature’s energy which leads you to puberty. The next is Gandharva which energises you with fertility. The third is Agni which inspires you with love and passion. And your fourth guardian is your husband, son of man, for the extension of humanity.

41. Somaṁ dadagandharvō ya gandharvo dadadagane. Rayiḥ ca putrō dagnimahyamatho imōm.

Soma gives you to Gandharva, Gandharva gives you to Agni, and O dear bride, Agni then gives this wife to me, the husband, and with her gives me progeny and wealth, honour and excellence of family life.

42. Ihaiva staṁ vi yauṣṭaḥ viśvam viśryuruṇam. Krūntau putairnaṁ bhirmodam aṁna sve gṛhe.

O man and wife, live here itself in the family joined together, never separate, live and enjoy a full life in your own home playing and celebrating life with children and grand children.

43. Naḥ prajāḥ janayatu prajāḥ patirjarasaḥ samanaktvaryam. Adurmāgalōnīpatilokam viśa no bhava dvipade viśa catupade.

May Prajapati bless us with children, may Aryama bring us honour and glory upto the completion of a long full age, may the blessed wife abide with grace in the husband's home of paradisal bliss, and may there be all round peace and well being for humans and animals all.
41. Somo dadadgandharvāya gandharvo dadadaggnaye. Rayīṁ ca putrāṁścādādagnirmahyam-atho imām.

    Soma gives you to Gandharva, Gandharva gives you to Agni, and O dear bride, Agni then gives this wife to me, the husband, and with her gives me progeny and wealth, honour and excellence of family life.

42. Ihaiva stāṁ mā vi yauṣṭaṁ viśvamāyuryaśnutam.
Kriḷantau putairnapṭṛbhirmodam-ānau sve ārhe.

    O man and wife, live here itself in the family joined together, never separate, live and enjoy a full life in your own home playing and celebrating life with children and grand children.

43. Ā naḥ prajāṁ janayatu prajāpatirājarasāya samanaktvanyayā. Adurmaṅgalīḥ patilokamā viśa śaṁ no bhava dvipade śaṁ catuṣpade.

    May Prajapati bless us with children, may Aryama bring us honour and glory upto the completion of a long full age, may the blessed wife abide with grace in the husband’s home of paradisal bliss, and may there be all round peace and well being for humans and animals all.
44. Aghoracakṣurapatighnyedhi śīvā paśubhyah sumanāḥ suvarcāḥ. Viṇasūrdevṛkāmā syonā śaṁ no bhava dvipade śaṁ catuspade.

Be lady of the gracious eye for the husband. Be kind and good to the animals, noble at heart and brilliant in mind and sense of honour and propriety. Be the mother of brave and noble children. Love your husband’s brothers. Be cheerful and blissful. Let there be all round peace and total well being for us all, peace and well being for humans and animals all.

45. Imāṁ tvamindra mīḍhavaḥ suputṛāṁ subhaṅgam kṛṇu. Daśāsyāṁ putrāṁ dhehi patimekādaśaṁ kṛdhī.

Lord of glory and fertility, Indra, bountiful ruler of the world and the home, bless this bride for noble progeny, honour and glory. Give her ten children, and let the husband be the eleventh, as guardian over all.

Be a darling queen for the father-in-law, be a favourite queen for the mother-in-law, be a loving queen for the sister-in-law, and a kind queen for the brothers-in-law.

सम्मज्जन्तु विश्वं दुवा: समापू हृदयानि नाकू सं मातृरिङ्गवा सं धाता समु दशीं दधातु नाखु ॥ ॥

47. Samañjantu viśve devāḥ samāpo hṛdayāni nau. Samā mātariśvä sama dhātā samu deṣṭrī dadhātu nau.

Listen and know all ye Vishvedevas, divinities of nature and nobilities of humanity, like the waters of two streams our hearts and mind are one. May the Vayu join us as one personality. May the lord controller of the world make us one personality. May mother Sarasvati of the divine voice join and proclaim us as one. May the Vishvedevas join and integrate our hearts and minds into one inseparable personality.

Mandala 10/Sukta 86

Indra Devata, Indra (1, 8, 11-12, 14, 19-22), Vrshakapi Aindra (7, 13, 23), and Indrani (2-6, 9, 10, 15-18) Rshis

वि हि सातारस्रृ गत नन्देन दुवर्म्यङ्गसत। यत्रार्मदद वृषाकर्किर्यः पुष्पवत्रृ मत्सेक्षा विश्वस्मादिन्दु उत्तर:। ॥ ॥

1. Vi hi sotorasṛkṣata nendram devamaṁsata. Yatrāmadadvṛṣākapiraryah puṣṭesu matsakhā viśvasmādindra uttarah.

The creatures having been created flowed forth, streamed too far and strayed from acknowledgement of the creator Indra, where Vrshapkapi, the human soul, jivatma, top master among the created, rejoiced among them.
My friend and favourite Indra, great and generous, is supreme over the whole creation, says Prakṛti, the mother consort.

Indra, far too far you move from Vṛshakapi who feels too sorrow stricken. O jivatma you would not find anywhere else other than Indra’s presence to enjoy the soma joy of life... Indra is supreme over all.

What has this Vṛshakapi done to you, this golden green natural, who needs initiation but who is the top master spirit of the created, toward whom you show so much resentment?

Indra is supreme over the whole creation.

4. Yamimaṁ tvāṁ vrṣākapīṁ priyamindrābhirkṣasi. Śvā nyasya jambhiṣadapi karṇe varāhayurviśvamādindra uttaraḥ.
Indra, your darling Vrshakapi whom you protect and favour so much falls a victim to greed which crushes him in its jaws as a hound seizes a boar by the ear.

Indra is supreme over the whole creation.

And all my dear forms of existence wrought into beauteous being, he pollutes. I would rather push his head down, I would not be good and never allow him anything too easily for this sinner.

Indra is supreme over all the world.

There is no other creative consort of Indra other than Prakrti, no female more charming, more agreeable, more pliant, more responsive, more attractive and more elevating, none other than me.

Indra is supreme over all the world.
7. Uveamba sulabhike yathevāṅga bhaviṣyati.
   Bhasanmeamba sakthime śiro me vīva hṛṣyati viśvasmādindra uttaraḥ.

   Mother Nature, Prakṛti, blessed and blissful fertility and giver of virility, whatever is to be shall be. My breast, my loins, my head all vibrate with energy, your gift. Indra is supreme over all.

8. Kim subāho svaṅgure prthuṣto prthujāghane. Kim śūrapatni nastvamabhyāmīṣi vṛṣākapim viśvasmādindra uttaraḥ.

   O lady of lovely arms and nimble fingers, wavy hair and ample zone, divine consort of omnipotence, why do you arraign Vṛṣaṇī, why blame jiva?

   Indra is supreme over all.

9. Avirāmiva māmayaṁ śarārurabhi manyate. Utāhamasmi vīriñindrapatnī marutsakhā viśvasmādindra uttaraḥ.

   This naughty thinks of me as naught, bereft of the brave, while I am blest with heroes, and I am the creative consort of Indra and friend of the Maruts, stormy troops of the winds of nature.

   Indra is supreme over all.
The creative force in original time receives the cosmic seed and stirs into action for the dynamics of creative evolution. For this very reason, Prakrti, impregnated with the cosmic seed, is exalted as the consort of Indra, mother of the universal brave, controller of the laws of existence.

Indra is supreme over all.

So have I heard of Indrani among the creative dames as the mother of glory. Never shall her lord, Indra, ever die of old age like others, men of mortal nature.
Indra is supreme over all.

O divine consort, Indrani, I never enjoy the play of existence without my friend and companion,
Vrshakapi, generous playful humanity, since the havi given by him and given for nature and humanity goes up and reaches the divinities which I share.

Indra is supreme over all.

O Vrshakapayi, mother Prakrti, provider of living beings, opulent and abundant power, mother of noble children and giver of joy and bliss, mother fertility, Indra would ultimately take over and consume whatever dear, creative and inspiring havi you would offer here in the created world.

Indra is supreme over all the world.

Natural powers of creative mother Prakrti ripen, mature and give up fifteen evolutionary forms of matter, energy and mind with twenty parts of the biological systems which I swallow at the completion of the existential cycle and I feel satisfied with the involutionary consumption of the Rtam and Satyam modes of existence. Indra is supreme over all.

Indra, just as a sharp horned bull bellows and lords over the herds of cattle with pride, so may the joyous process of the creative cycle which the dedicated celebrant and loving Prakṛti enacts for you give you satisfaction and joy at heart as lord and master of the world.

Indra is supreme over all.

That person does not rule over the self whose hedonic mind roams and rambles around among objects of sensual pleasure. That person rules as master of the self whose radiant mind in a state of peace and freedom blossoms and expands in spiritual wakefulness. Indra is supreme over all.

That person whose radiant mind in a state of peace and freedom blossoms and expands in spiritual wakefulness does not rule the world of Prakrti. The master that rules the world of Prakrti is the power whose ecstatic presence in peace and sovereignty pervades in and over space and time. Indra is supreme over all.

Indra, lord omnipresent and omnipotent, let this Vrshakapi, lover of joyous showers and shaker of thoughts of evil, know and realise that the duality between the self and the super self is ended. Then he will attain the soul inspiring pranic energy, creative intelligence, new spirit of yajnic performance and full achievement of the saving light of divinity.

Indra is supreme over all the world.

Perceiving the light of knowledge, building up my score of yajnic action, I come to the omnificent vibrant presence of divinity, and I drink of the nectar of the light and life of purity, eternity and direct realisation of divine communion. Indra is greater than the world.
That person whose radiant mind in a state of peace and freedom blossoms and expands in spiritual wakefulness does not rule the world of Prakṛti. The master that rules the world of Prakṛti is the power whose ecstatic presence in peace and sovereignty pervades in and over space and time. Indra is supreme over all.

The desert land, the dead-wood or the dark abyss, whatever, wherever, howsoever many they be, they must be given up. Come closer to your own homes, shelter of the closest divinity. Indra is supreme over all the world.

O Vṛshakapi, come again and both of us would create good things for your peace and comfort in well being. Thus destroying the state of dream and sleep, this lover of showers and breeze, Vṛshakapi comes home by the paths of existence and piety again and again. Indra is supreme over all the world.

O Vṛshakapi, O Indra, when the higher souls come rising to the state of peace in the divine home, then where does the sinner, the vexatious and the seeker roaming around go, to what state of life?

Great is Indra, supreme over all the world.

The creative and catalytic power of omniscient Indra, universal mother, together creates twenty varying modes of matter, energy and thought for physical, biological and intelligent forms of existence. O noble soul, blessed be the mother who suffers the travail to bear the transmigrant soul on way to earthly pleasure and pain and then the bliss divine. Great is Indra, greater than all, supreme over all the world.

Mandala 10/Sukta 87

Agni Rakshoha Devata, Payu Bharadvaja Rshi

1. Rakṣohanaṁ vājinamā jigharmi mitrāṁ prathi-śṭhamupa yāmi śarma. Śiśāno agniḥ kratubhiḥ samiddhaḥ sa no divā sa riṣaḥ pātu naktam.

I sprinkle the holy fire with ghrta and dedicate myself to Agni, light and fire of life, destroyer of evil and giver of victory, friend and saviour most boundless, and there I find peace and freedom for life eternal. May Agni, sharp and blazing with yajnic actions of creativity, protect and promote us against hate and enmity, violence and obstruction day and night.

2. Ayodamsśtro arcisā yātudhānanupā sprśa jātAVEDH śamiddhaḥ. Ājihvayā mūradevān rabhasva kravyādo vṛktvyāpi dhatsvāsan.

Omnipresent spirit of life and protection of existence, blazing with flames of fire and fierce with jaws of steel, destroy the anti-life elements with the touch of your lazer beams, seize the agents of death with flames, catch the blood suckers and flesh eaters with the jaws and crush them to naught.

Destroyer of the negative, refining the positive, commanding both creative and corrective powers for protective and punitive purposes, promote life both here and hereafter. O refulgent ruler of the world, fly over the skies and, with the force of both power and persuasion, overwhelm the violent and destructive, and either correct and integrate them or throw them out.
4. Yajñairiṣūḥ samnamamāna agne vācā śalyāṁ aśanibhirdihānaḥ. Tābhirvidhya hṛdaye yātudhānāṁ prāṭico bāhūṁ prati bhaṅdhyaśeṣām.

Organising the armed forces into order, alliance and submission by discussion, cooperation and submission, shining and updating the forces by the addition of lightning weapons and thereby paralysing the heart core of the terrorist forces, break their violent arms all round.

5. Agne tvacāṁ yātudhānasya bhindi himsrāśanir-harasā hantvenam. Pra parvaṇi jātavedaḥ śṛṇīhi kravyāt kraviṣṭurvi cinotu vṛkṇam.

Agni, Jataveda, present everywhere, break through the cover, camouflage, secret shelters and hideouts of the elements of evil, violence and sabotage with fatal light and penetrative power, split up every section and every unit of it to bits, disperse and destroy them all, and let the fire which consumes the dead collect and consume the remains and reduce them to ash.

And now, whenever you see, O ruler all knowing, Agni, the enemies of life, elements of darkness and destruction, covered in clusters or roaming around or even flying in the sky by paths of air, then sharp, shining and instantly shooting, destroy the enemy with a fatal shot of thunderous missile.

Agni, first and foremost power, bright and blazing, knowing and commanding over everything born, with the strike of your force, power and punishment, release the innocents caught up in the clutches of the forces of violence and terror, destroy the carnivorous, blood suckers and eaters into the flesh, and let them be thrown to the vociferous vultures.

8. Iha pra brūhu yatamah so agne yo yātudhāno ya idaṁ kṛṇoti. Tamā rabhasva samidhā yaviṣṭha nṛcakṣasaścaksuṣe randhayainam.

Agni, expose and proclaim right here whoever be the violent force that does this damage. O youthful power ever watchful of humanity, subject it to the fuel fire and destroy it that all may see.

O Agni, blazing ruling power of nature and the world, ever alert, ever watchful of humanity, with penetrative and comprehensive eye, guard, protect and promote the yajnic order of society enacted and proceeding so clearly and transparently, and let it progress for the achievement of wealth, honour and excellence for all the people. Unsparking destroyer of the negatives, shining, and burning the destructive, let no violent force terrorize or depress you ever.

Agni, all watchful power, watch for the wicked enemy hidden among the people, crush his three prime forces of intelligence, arms and follow up. With your blazing fire and passion, break his back three ways, financial, manpower and allies. Throw up and throw out the forces of violence and destruction root and branch wherever they be.

Agni, all knowing Jataveda, brilliant ruler, whoever violates the law of truth with the force of untruth, must suffer threefold shackles of your law and power, justice, punishment and deterrence. Crashing on him with the light and power of truth, crushing him down openly before the law abiding and socially dedicated people, root out the evil and the violent.

O Agni, cast the same eye of light on the law abiding celebrant of the social order by which you watch the violent and antisocial elements treading on the peace and order of society. As an enlightened power undisturbed at heart, with your divine light and power, light up or burn out the callous and violent destroyer of truth and law.
13. Yadagne adya mithunā śapāto yadvācastraṭam janayanta rebhāḥ. Manyormanasaḥ śaravyā jāyate yā tayā vidhya hṛdaye yātudhānān.

Agni, the sharp and shooting words with which fighting rivals revile and execrate, the rough and raging words which the poet creates for irony, the piercing pain that issues forth in words from the mind in a state of passion, with that language chastise and strike the demonic violent deep to the heart core (yourself undisturbed).

14. Parā śṛṇīhi tapasā yātudhānān parāgne rakṣo harasā śṛṇīhi. Parārciṣā mūrdevaṅchṛṇīhi parāsutrpo abhi śośucānaḥ.

Agni, shatter the violent with heat, destroy the demonic with passion, destroy the destroyers with blaze, and destroy the devitalizers with light.

15. Parādya devā vrjinaṁ śṛṇantu pratyagenaṁ saphathā yantu tṛṣṭāḥ. Vācāstenam śarava rcchantu marman viśvasyaitu prasitiṁ yātudhānāḥ.
Let the divinities break off the crooked, let the cruel curses visit back upon the crooked curser, let the arrows reach the heart core of the thief with the right message, and let the saboteur suffer universal bondage with loss of freedom under the rule of Agni.

Whoever feeds himself upon the flesh of humanity, whoever prospers by animal wealth at the cost of animal wealth by destroying it, whoever carries off the milk of the inviolable cow and destroys the fertility of the earth, O Agni, strike off their heads with light and passion for truth.

Agni, watchful guardian of humanity, let the oppressor not drink milk of the cow for a year, and if the oppressor drinks of the milk and excessively too, punish him with your flame unto the heart core.

Let the oppressors of the cows, earth and the environment drink poison instead of milk. Let the oppressors of Aditi, mother, sister and nature suffer in isolation. O Savita, saviour soul of renewal and replenishment, throw them off to ruin and let them be denied their share of herbs and trees. (Those who oppress the creative and productive powers of natural sustenance of life and pollute the sources of energy themselves deny the sustenance because that is the law of Agni in nature and life).

Agni, you destroy the oppressors since time immorial. Never can the evil dominate over you in their battles against the good. Let the flesh eaters along with the cruel and wicked be destroyed, and may they never escape the strike of your divine punishment and natural retribution.
20. Tvāṁ no agne adharādudaktāt tvāṁ paścāduduta rakṣā purastāt. Prati te te ajarāsastapiṣṭhā aghaśāṁsaṁ śośucato dahantu.

Agni, pray protect us from below, from above, from behind and in front against the oppressors facing us. May those unaging flames shining and blazing burn down the malignant and sinful enemies of life to ashes.

O refulgent ruler, divine visionary, protect us all round, from the back and front, from above and below, as now and hereafter, by the light of your vision and wisdom. O Agni, unaging friend, immortal divinity, save the mortals, save your friend, bless us all mortals to live a happy life till a full age of fulfilment.

22. Pari tvāgne puraṁ vayam vipraṁ sahasya dhīmaḥi. Dhṛṣadvarṇamāṁ divedive hantāraṁ bhaṅgu-rāvatām.

Agni, day in and day out all time, we celebrate and adore you, eternal giver of fulfilment, wise, resolute and brave, redoubtable vanquisher of the mischievous and destroyer of the destroyers of life and nature.
23. Viṣeṇa bhaṅgurāvataḥ prati śma raksaso daha.
    Agne tigmena sociṣā tapuragrābhirṣṭibhiḥ.

   Agni, with pervasive and expansive light, heat and penetrative flames and with beams of constant action against the negativities of life and society, pray burn up the crooked and destructive elements of life in every field of their activity.

24. Pratyagnē mithunā daha yātudhānā kimēdinā.
    Saṁ tvā śiśāmi jāgrhyadabdham vipra manma-bhiḥ.

   Agni, burn up the oppressive and destructive alliances and combinations of the negativities of life and nature on the prowl looking for where to strike. O power all intelligent and wise, with holy thoughts and prayers, I invoke and exhort you. Arise, O power indomitable, and strike against the killers.

25. Pratyagnē harasā haraḥ śṛṇīhi viśvataḥ prati.
    Yātudhānasya raksaso balm vi ruja viryam.

   Agni, universal spirit of light and fire, creator, protector and destroyer, refulgent ruler of nature, life and society, with your love and passion for life and goodness and with your wrath against evil, sabotage... and negativity, seize, cripple and all round destroy the strength, vigour, valour and resistance of the negative and destructive forces of evil and wickedness, lurking, working and persisting in nature, life and society. Save the good and destroy the demons.

Mandala 10/Sukta 88

Surya, Vaishvanaragni Devata, Murdhanvan Angirasa or Vamadevya Rshi

1. Havispāntamajaraṁ svarvidi divisprṣyāhutam juṣṭamagnau. Tasya bharmaṇe bhuvanaṁ devaṁ dharmaṇe kaṁ svadhayaṁ paprathanta.

Devas, the divines of humanity and divinities of nature, with food and reverence, offer delicious, expansive, loved and solemnly dedicated havi into the holy fire which rises to the skies and reaches the sun.
Thus do they exalt Agni so that they may well be, rise and exalt in the gracious order of Agni under the divine shelter and support of the order.

2. Gīrṇaṁ bhuvanaṁ tamasāpagūḥmāvih svara-bhavajjāte agnau. Tasya devaṁ prthivī dyaurutāpo'raṇapannoṣadhīḥ sakhye asya.

The world of existence lay deeply engulfed and covered in the darkness of the night of Pralaya, annihilation, and then on the rise of Agni, Lord Supreme of light and life, it rose and manifested: Akasha, time-space continuum manifested, and then others followed, earth, light and heat, waters, herbs and trees all arose, and all the devas, divine spirits of nature, rejoiced in the love and friendship of this Lord Supreme, Agni.

Inspired by Devas and lighting the fire of yajnas, I adore and exalt Agni, lord unaging and eternal, infinite, who, by his self-refulgence, pervades this earth and heaven and expands both heaven and earth and the middle regions of the skies.

I adore and exalt Agni who is the first, original and efficient cause of the cosmic yajna, loved and celebrated by the devas, whom the best of men with cherished love and choice sprinkle and serve with sacred ghrta, who creates, shapes and rules the world of flying, moving, non-moving and revolving objects and living beings. That is Agni, Jataveda, self-refulgent and omniscient.
5. Yajjātavedo bhuvanasya mūrdhannatiśtho agne saha rocanena. Tāṁ tvāhema matibhirgirbhirukthaiḥ sa yajñiyo abhavo rodasiprāḥ.

O Jataveda, Agni, who abide and shine on top of the world with the sun, with our thoughts, words and holy songs we adore and worship you. You are adorable, worthy of worship, pervasive all over heaven and earth.

Agni as Vaishvanara is awake and vibrates as the prime reality and spirit of existence at night when the whole world sleeps. Then in the morning, rising with the dawn, it shines as the sun. It is but the wondrous work of the highest of adorables, cosmic Maya, that it thus moves and vibrates at the fastest, knowing and watching all actions and movements of the world of moving and non-moving objects.

Wondrous in form, Agni, who, refulgent with its own grandeur, shines in heaven as the light most gracious is the divinity into whom, in sacred fire form, all devas, divinities of nature and humanity, guardians of our health and body, offer yajnic oblations of havi with the chant of Vedic mantras.

8. Sūktavākāṁ prathamamādīdagnididdhavirajanaṁ devaḥ. Sa eṣāṁ yajña abhavat taṁ pṛthivī tamāpah.

The devas, noble yajakas, first chant the divine Word, then they light the fire and then they prepare and offer the havi. That Agni is the adorable lord of them all, guardian and promoter of health and age. That the heaven receives, that the earth receives, and that the waters receive, and that all of them realise, the pervasive power and energiser.

Agni which all the divine powers of the universe create and serve, into which all worlds of the universe offer their oblations at the cosmic yajna of evolution and devolution, that Agni, radiant and natural ordainer, lights and energises this earth and heaven with its glory and self refulgence.
its own grandeur, shines in heaven as the light most gracious is the divinity into whom, in sacred fire form, all devas, divinities of nature and humanity, guardians of our health and body, offer yajnic oblations of havi with the chant of Vedic mantras.

By mantric power and their own potential the divine powers in heaven create and raise Agni which pervades earth and sky too, thus creating it in three ways: Agni or fire on earth, Vayu or electricity in the sky, and Aditya or light in heaven. This same Agni of all universal forms well matures and ripens herbs and all vegetation on earth.

By mantric power and their own potential the divine powers in heaven create and raise Agni which pervades earth and sky too, thus creating it in three ways: Agni or fire on earth, Vayu or electricity in the sky, and Aditya or light in heaven. This same Agni of all universal forms well matures and ripens herbs and all vegetation on earth.

When the divine powers, performers of cosmic yajna, place this sun, child of the refulgence of Aditi, mother Infinity, in the heavenly region, then it becomes two, moving together as twofold power, Agni and Vaishvanara, sun and dawn, and as they pervade all regions of the world, so do all regions of the world see them.

By mantric power and their own potential the divine powers in heaven create and raise Agni which pervades earth and sky too, thus creating it in three ways: Agni or fire on earth, Vayu or electricity in the sky, and Aditya or light in heaven. This same Agni of all universal forms well matures and ripens herbs and all vegetation on earth.
12. Viśvasmā agnim bhuṇāya devā vaiśvānarah ketumahāṃmakṛṣvan. Ā yastatānoṣaṃ vibhāti-rapo ārṇoti tamo arciśā yan.

Devas, divine powers, create and make the solar form of Vaishvanara Agni, and make it the flag sign of the day for the sake of the whole world, and the sun, radiating, lights up the bright dawns and dispels the darkness of the night with its light, unveiling the day.

Wise and visionary Devas, adorable divine powers, create the unaging Vaishvanara Agni, the ancient star unalterable and inviolable, moving as the ruling star of space, blazing and expansive.

With Vedic mantras we invoke and adore Agni, Vaishvanara, light divine ever shining bright, the very eye of omniscience which, with its might and grandeur, enlightens and overwhelms both heaven and earth, the ultimate light and bliss above and below, the end and the foundation both.
12. Viśvasmā agniḥ bhuvanāḥ devāḥ vaiśvanāraḥ

Devas, divine powers, create and make the solar form of Vaiśvanāra Agni, and make it the flag sign of the day for the sake of the whole world, and the sun, radiating, lights up the bright dawns and dispels the darkness of the night with its light, unveiling the day.

13. Vaiśvanāraḥ kavayo yajṛiyāḥ so'gniḥ devāḥ ajan-yannajuryam. Nakāatraḥ pratnamaminaccarīrū yakṣaḥ dhyakṣaḥ taviṣeṣaḥ bhaṁtam.

Wise and visionary Devas, adorable divine powers, create the unaging Vaiśvanāra Agni, the ancient star unalterable and inviolable, moving as the ruling star of space, blazing and expansive.

14. Vaiśvanāraḥ vīvahāḥ dviṣivaḥsaḥ mantrairagniḥ cavimacchaḥ vadmaḥaḥ. Yo mahimnā paribabhūvvorvāt utavastuḥ devāḥ parastānāḥ.

With Vedic mantras we invoke and adore Agni, Vaiśvanāra, light divine ever shining bright, the very eye of omniscience which, with its might and grandeur, enlights and overwhelms both heaven and earth, the ultimate light and bliss above and below, the end and the foundation both.

15. Dve srutī aśrṇavām pīṭṝnāmahāṁ devānāmuta martyānām. Tāḥyāmidaṁ viśvamejat sameti yadantarā pitaram mātaram ca.

I hear there are two paths of life in existence:
Pitryana, the path of average mortals to earthly bliss, and Devayana, the path of divine souls to divine bliss.
By these does the world of vibrant life travel transmigrating from birth by father and mother to death and attains whatever is between earth and heaven.

16. Dve samīcī bibhṛataścarantaṁ śīrṣato jātāṁ manasā vimṛṣṭām. Sa pratyāṁ viśvā bhuvanāṁi tasthāvaprayucchaṁ taraṇirbhrājāṇāṁ.

Two, earth and heaven, together bear Agni born on top, vibrant and radiating from the highest heaven, and that abides immanent and pervasive all over the worlds of existence, unremissive, radiant and divinely self-refulgent.

17. Yatrā vadete avaraḥ paraśca yajñanyoh kataro nau vi veda. Ā sekurit sadhamādāṁ sakhāyo nakṣanta yajñāṁ ka idāṁ vi vocat.

Where both terrestrial agni and supraterrestrial agni, both high priests of yajna, communicate and commingle then, for us, which one of these excels and proclaims the distinction? When yajakas do perform the yajna and serve and celebrate Agni together on the vedi, who would speak to us of the distinction?

How many are the fires? How many the suns? How many the dawns? How many the waters? O enlightened sages, I say this not out of curiosity, I ask you this in all seriousness for the sake of knowledge.

As long as the all moving glorious Vayu, the electric form of Agni, with radiant sun rays bears and wears the face of dawn as its banner of the day, so long would the holy yajaka, the Brahmana, go to the yajna vedi and sit and offer the fragrant havi in honour of the terrestrial fire, the high priest of yajna.

Note: The answer to these questions is given in Rgveda 8, 58, 2: The same one Agni shines and blazes in many forms, The same one sun shines in all lights of the universe, the same one dawn rises over all this world, and the same one lord of existence manifests in all forms of the world,

Mandala 10/Sukta 89

Indra-Varunau Devate, Renu Vaishvamitra Rshi

इन्द्रं स्तवं नृत्यं यस्य मूह्य विबबाध हरचना वि ज्ञा अन्तर्न। आ यः पुपाडङ्क्षणीधृतरांश्च: प सिन्धुभ्या रितिच्चाना महित्वां।

1. Indraṁ stavā nṛtamaṁ yasya mahnā vibabādhe rocanā vi jmo antān. Ā yah papraucarśaṁi-dhṛdvarobhiḥ pra sindhubhyo riricāno mahitvā.

Adore and celebrate Indra, highest over humanity, who overwhelms the lights of the world with his grandeur and rules over the ends of the earth, who, watchful sustainer of humanity, pervades and fills the worlds of the universe by his excellences and, all overpowering, exceeds the oceans of earth and space by his glory and grandeur.

स सूयं: पयुः वरांस्यन्त्र ववृत्यासन्त्रयच्चका। अतिष्ठतम-पुर्यं ९ न सर्गमं कृष्णा तमांसिस्तिविष्यं जघान।

Indra, self-refulgent cosmic Sun, greater than the greatest, he moves the worlds of existence like chariot wheels and, destroying the deepest darknesses of the world with his refulgence, keeps the dynamic universe in ceaseless flow like a particle in a wave of energy.

3. Samānamasmā anapāvṛdarca kṣmayā divo asamaṁ brahma navyam. Vi yah pṛṣṭheva janimā-nyarya indraścikāya na sakhāyamiṣe.

   Worship Indra, constant, evident and immanent, greater than heaven and earth, infinite, adorable ever new, who, as primary foundation and ultimate master, knows all that are born in existence and neither deserts friends nor hurts the devotees.

4. Indrāya giro atiśitasargā apah prarayam sagarasya budhnāt. Yo akṣeṇeva cakṛiya śacībhirvi-ṣvak tastambha pṛthivīmuta dyām.

   I sing songs of praise and make incessant streams of water flow from the oceans of space and sky in honour of Indra who, with his cosmic power and actions, sustains the heaven and earth in motion like wheels of a chariot held in balance by the axle.

5. Aparāntaṁ-yusṭaṁ-pralāpaṁ dhunīṁ śīṃmavāccharyam ādhyām. Sāmā vishvāṇyantasa varṇāṇi navāgriṇyā pataṁmaṇānī dabhūḥ.

   Destroying the demon of darkness like lightning striking the woods, Indra shatters the strongholds of evil. He breaks the clouds and mountains like a little
5. Āpāntamanyustrpalaprabharmā dhuniḥ śimīvāñcharumāṁ rjīṣī. Somo viśvānyatasā vanāni nārvāgindram pratimānāṁi debhuh.

Boundless in passion and potential, impetuous in action, mighty mover and shaker, awfully powerful, strongly armed, simple and natural, creative and inspiring like Soma, is Indra. Not all the winds and weapons of the world, not all the lights and blazes, no measures and comparisons of the finite world, can face, equal, much less exceed and overcome Indra.

6. Na yasya dyāvāprthivī na dhanva nāntarikṣaṁ nādrayaḥ somo akṣāḥ. Yadasya manyuradhiniyamānah śṛṇāti viḷu rujati sthirāṇi.

Neither heaven and earth, nor sky, nor space, nor clouds and mountains, equal his might, creative and inspiring Soma as he is, especially when his power and passion, overwhelming all, shatters the strongest and shakes the firmest fixed.

7. Jaghāna vrtraṁ svadhitirvaneva ruroja puro new earthen jar, and as he sets floods of rivers aflow, so with his own waves of divine energy, he lets the streams of psychic energy and spiritual enlightenment flow for the devotee.

You alone are the constant and magnificent giver of bliss, and you alone, like the sword severing every knot and joint of negativity, destroy the evil and crookedness of life for those good people who do not violate the light and law of Mitra and Varuna, universal spirit of love, friendship and judgement and for those who do not ever deceive a real sincere friend of all time.

And against those crooked men of unholy ways who deceive the friend, violate the progressive man of justice and rectitude, hurt dedicated men of positive social support and oppose the man of judgement and enlightenment, O lord of power and progress, Indra, prepare the thunderbolt, instant, overwhelming and blazing but just and unquestionable, and strike such unfriendly and negative forces without delay.
new earthen jar, and as he sets floods of rivers aflow, so with his own waves of divine energy, he lets the streams of psychic energy and spiritual enlightenment flow for the devotee.

10. Indro diva indra îše pîthivyà indro apàmindra it parvatànànîm. Indro vîrîhàmindra inmedhirànàmindrâh kùsême yoge havya indrah.

Indra rules over the heavens, Indra rules over the earth, Indra rules over the waters of earth and space, Indra rules over mountains and the clouds, and Índra rules over all our actions and ambitions. And Indra is the spirit and power for the rising wise on way to progress in times of peace and prosperity to be invoked and worshipped for protection and preservation of what has been gained and for the achievement of that what has yet to be gained further. (Yoga is achievement, and Kshema is preservation and protection of what has been achieved, and both these are two aspects of progress.)

11. Pràktubhya indrah pra vîdho ahabyàh pràntarikùtà prà samudrasyà dhàseh. Prà vàtasya prathamahà prà jmo antàt prà sindhubhyo rîrice prà kùsitibhyàh.

Indra is far greater than the nights of existence, greater than days, space, and the bounds of space. He crjsonscs the expansive currents of energy, the bounds of the universe, the flowing flux of existence, and all definitions of the flux in form.

Like the blazing flames of dawn dispelling the dark, let your boundless thunderbolt strike. With that blazing thunder, like a shot from heaven pierce the forces of hate and enmity.

Indeed, days and months, herbs and forests, clouds and mountains, shining skies and earth and the oceans and vapours of space, all move and proceed in accordance with Indra as it emerges into manifestation.

Where is that punitive power of yours, Indra, and when does it strike, the power that picks up and shatters the sinner, the criminal, and the perpetrator of evil, and struck by which the betrayers of friends, felled and dead, lie on the ground like cattle carcasses.

15. Šatrūyanto abhi ye nastatasre mahī vrādhanta ogaṇāsa indra. Andhenāmitrāstamasā sacantāṁ sujyotiṣo aktavastāṁ abhi ṣyuḥ.

Enemies of humanity, obstructionist forces, highly organised gangs which afflict us, may all unfriendly forces suffer deep darkness on their way, and may the powers of enlightenment and progressive culture face them and overcome them.

May all felicitative yajnas of the people and holy songs of celebrant seers adore and exalt you. O lord, listening to this prayer and invocation, proclaiming your acceptance and pleasure, come to all the devotees in direct experience and bless them with peace and protection.

Thus may we, O lord omnipotent, Indra, know of, experience and enjoy your protective, enlightening and ever new gifts of kindness and grace. And may we, being friends of the world, singing and celebrating your divine gifts, know you and be happy by your favour and protection day and night.

18. Śunāṁ huvema maghavānamindramasmin bhare nṛtamāṁ vājasātau. Śṛṇvantamugramūtaye samatsu ghnantaṁ vṛtrāṇi samjītam dhanānām.

We invoke and adore Indra, lord of bliss, omnipotent, highest leader and guide of humanity in this our battle of life for protection, victory and further advancement. Indra is listening, blazing in battles, destroying demons of darkness, negativity and obstructions, and winning the honours, wealth and excellences of the world for humanity.

Mandala 10/Sukta 90

Purusha Devata, Narayana Rshi

1. Sahasraśiṁśa puruṣaḥ sahasrākṣaḥ sahasrapāt. Sa bhūmim viśvato vṛtvātyatiṣṭhaddasaṅgulam.
Purusha, the cosmic soul of existence, is Divinity personified, of a thousand heads, a thousand eyes and a thousand feet. It pervades the universe wholly and entirely and, having pervaded and comprehended the universe of ten Prakrtic constituents, It transcends the world of existence.

All this that is and was and shall be is Purusha ultimately, sovereign over immortality and ruler of what expands by living food.

2. Vaiśvadānasya mahimāto jyāyāṁśca pūruṣaḥ.

So great is the grandeur and glory of It, and still the Purusha is greater. The entire worlds of existence are but one fourth of It. Three parts of Its mystery are in the transcendental heaven of immortality beyond the universe.

3. Etāvānasya mahimāto jyāyāṁśca pūruṣaḥ.
Pādo’sya viśvā bhūtāṁī tripādasyāmṛtaṁ divi.

Three parts higher rises the Purusha above the universe in which only one measure of Its glory manifests again and again, pervading all the material and biological world and thence remains transcendent over the universe.

5. Tasmādvirālajāyata virājo adhi pūruṣāh.
   Sa jāto atyaricyata paścādbhūmimatho puraḥ.

   From Purusha arose Virat, the cosmic idea, the blue-print in terms of Prakṛti. The Purusha manifests in the Virat and remains sovereign over it. Though manifested, it exceeds, transcends and then creates the universe and the world regions for forms of existence.

6. Yat puruṣeṇa haviṣā devā yajñamatanvata.
   Vasanto asyāsīdājyaṁ grīṣma idhmaḥ śara-ddhaviḥ.

   When the sages visualise the universal yajna of creation and enact it in communion with the Purusha in meditation, then the spring season is the gṛhta, summer is the fuel, and winter is the havi. (This meditative enactment is in terms of nature. In fact, the creation of the universe is an evolutionary process beginning with Prakṛti evolving into material, biological and psychic forms as follows in this very hymn.)
7. Tam yajñaṁ barhiṣi praukṣan puruṣaṁ jātama-grataḥ. Tena devā ayajanta sādhyā ṛṣyaśca ye.

The Rshis of universal vision, sages of universal accomplishment and scholars of the Veda, invoke and worship the eternal Purusha, self-manifested in advance of every thing else of the cosmic yajna. They spread and consecrate the grass over the vedi in mind and offer the oblations in the cosmic fire with Veda mantras.

From that cosmic yajna with total input of Prakṛti, by the universal Purusha was prepared and received the sacred ghrta, living plasma, the universal material of creation. He created the animals, all those birds of the air, rangers of the forest and inmates of the village.

From that Lord of universal yajna were born the Rks and the Samans. From him were born the Chhandas and from him were born the Yajus.
10. Tasmādaśvā ajāyanta ye ke cobhayādataḥ.
   Gāvo ha jajñire tasmāt tasmājjātā ajāvayaḥ.

   From that yajna were born the horses and those which have two rows of teeth up and down. From that were born the cows and from that were born the goat and sheep.

11. Yat puruṣāṁ vyadadhūḥ katidhā vyakalpayan.
   Mukhaṁ kimasya kau bāhu kā urū pādā ucyete.

   How do the Rshis visualise the manifestive modes of the Purusha? What was his mouth? What the arms? What the thighs? What are the feet as they are said to be?

12. Brāhmaṇo’sya mukhamāśidbhāhū rājanyaḥ kṛtaḥ.
   Ürū tadasya yadvaśyayāḥ padbhyaṁ śūdro ajāyata.

   The Brahmana, man of divine vision and the Vedic Word, is the mouth of the Samrat Purusha, the human community. Kshatriya, man of justice and polity, is created as the arms of defence. The Vaishya, who produces food and wealth for the society, is the thighs. And the man of sustenance and ancillary support with labour is the Shudra who bears the burden of the human family as the legs bear the burden of the body.
13. Candramā manaso jātaścakṣoḥ sūryo ajāyata. Mukhādindraścāgniśca prāṇādvāyurajāyata.

The moon is born of the cosmic mind, the sun is born of the eye, the fire and energy is born from the mouth and the wind is born from the breath.

14. Nābhyā āśīdantarikṣaṁ śīrṣo dyauḥ sama-vartata. Padbhyaṁ bhūmirdiśśaḥ śrotrāt tathā lokāṁ akalpayan.

The sky was born of the navel of the cosmic Purusha, that is, the sky is the navel part of the universe, the heaven of light arose from the head, the earth solidified from the dust of the feet, the space quarters emanated from the ear, and the other regions of the universe similarly arose from the Purusha.

15. Saptāsyāsan paridhayastrīḥ sapta samidhaḥ kṛtāḥ. Devā yadyajñāṁ tanvānā abadhnan puruṣāṁ paśum.

Seven are the bounds of the vedi of cosmic yajna in meditation, thrice seven, twenty one, are the samidhas, fuel sticks, ordained and offered into the yajna fire. When the sages enact the yajna within, they concentrate on the Purusha, the universal observer, whose presence they crystallise and fix upon in the soul for direct realisation.
Note: In this mantra the word ‘pashu’ does not mean ‘animal’ as has been interpreted by certain translators. The word ‘pashu’ is derived from the root ‘pash’ which means ‘to see, to observe’. ‘Pashu’ then means ‘one who sees’, and here it means the ‘Purusha, cosmic observer’ whose presence is the object of concentration in meditation.

Seven bounds and twenty one samidhas is the mystique of meditative yajna of creation which has been explained in different ways. Swami Dayanand explains it thus in his commentary on Yajurveda, 31, 15:

Seven bounds are the seven chhandas, metrical compositions of Veda mantras such as Gayatri. Twenty one samidhas are: Prakrti, potential material cause of the universe, Mahat, material cause actualised, Ahankara, individualised identity of the universe which may also be called the blue print of the universe, five subtle elements or tanmatras, five gross elements, five senses, and three qualitative orders of the creative materials, i.e., Sattva (thought), Rajas (energy) and Tamas (matter), and that makes up twenty one.

In the Introduction to his Commentary on the Vedas Swami Dayanand explains the same thing in a different and detailed manner in the chapter on creation.

For an average reader, a simpler way to understand is to refer to the seven stages of creative evolution: Prakrti, Mahat, Ahankara, Tanmatra, perceptive faculties, volition faculties, and gross elements. These stages of evolution are the seven bounds of creative yajnas performed by Purusha. They are also samidhas because each successive evolute arises from yajnic consumption of the preceding one. And each of these seven is of three orders of quality, Sattva, Rajas and Tamas. That makes it thrice seven.

Another way to realise the seven boundaries is to refer to the seven Vyahrtis: Bhuh, Bhuvah, Svah, Mahah, Janah, Tapah and Satyam which are the boundaries of each loka or region of existence.

By that yajna of the mind, and in meditative realisation of the cosmic process of evolution, the sages worship the master of cosmic yajna and realise the eternal and original Dharmas of existence. Blest with the light of the divine, they experience that heaven of freedom which the primeval sages of the world enjoyed at the dawn of creation.

In objective terms: Divine powers and potentials by integration and interaction conduct and accomplish the yajna of creation. They are the primary modes of the laws and causes of creative evolution which, while they wield and realise their potential in evolution, they also embody and realise the heavenly purpose, the original and efficient cause, the Purusha, and they are also the same original and eternal potentials of divinity which carry on the eternal cycle of existence.

Commanding excellent grace and grandeur, honoured like a holy guest, it abides in every home and every forest like a flying bird. Lover of humanity, it blesses every community, ignores none, scorns none, loves every class of people and lives with all classes and communities with equal love and favour.

3. Sudak¦o dak¦ai¬ kratunŒsi sukraturagne kavi¬kŒvyenŒsi viÜvavit. Vasurvasûnám kšayasi tvameka id dyāvā ca yāni pṛthivī ca puṣyataḥ.

Refulgent Agni, generous with immense gifts, noblest performer by holy works, you are the omniscient poetic creator evidently by your cosmic poetry of existence. You alone dwell in the world as the highest Vasu of life shelters and living forms, and you are the master of all that the heaven and earth create and sustain.

4. Prajānannagnē tava yonimṛtyamīlāyāspade ghṛtavantamāsadaḥ. Ā te cikitra uṣasāmīvetayo-'repasāḥ sūryasyeva raṣmayaḥ.

Agni, lighted and refulgent, come and take your holy seat in the vedi prepared and sprinkled with ghrta according to the season on the floor of the yajnic earth. The light and flames of your arrival shine and appear like rise of the dawns, like rays of the sun, pure, immaculate, beatific.
5. Tava śriyo varṣasyevasa vidyutaścitrāścikitra uṣasāṁ na ketavaḥ. Yadoṣadhīrhabhisṛṣto vanāni ca pari svayam cinuše annamāsyē.

Your wonderful lustre and beauties shine like lightning flashes of the clouds of rain, like lights of the rising dawns, specially when, radiating warm and free, you reach and shine upon the herbs and trees and fields of grain and receive them into the shining warmth of your maturing and ripening radiations.

That Agni, energy, the herbs and waters receive into them and they bear it as mothers, producing it on maturity as nourishment and energy for life forms. The same Agni, the herbs and trees of the forest receive equally, hold it in the womb and always produce it as the embodiment of energy.

7. Vātopadhūta iṣito vaśāṁ anu trṣu yadannā vevi-ṣadvitiṣṭhase. Ā te yatante rathyo yathā pṛthak śardhāṁsyagne ajarāṇi dhakṣataḥ.

When urged and impelled by wind, Agni, you
5. Your wonderful lustre and beauties shine like lightning flashes of the clouds of rain, like lights of the rising dawns, specially when, radiating warm and free, you reach and shine upon the herbs and trees and fields of grain and receive them into the shining warmth of your maturing and ripening radiations.

6. That Agni, energy, the herbs and waters receive into them and they bear it as mothers, producing it on maturity as nourishment and energy for life forms. The same Agni, the herbs and trees of the forest receive equally, hold it in the womb and always produce it as the embodiment of energy.

7. When urged and impelled by wind, Agni, you rush fast to objects of your choice love and consumption, then your youthful unaging flames, burning and blazing, rush on like the horses of a monarch’s chariot.

8. Devotees choose to worship Agni alone, none other than Agni, giver of intelligence, accomplisher of yajna and education for knowledge, high priest of yajnic existence, supreme over all, omniscient wise, and equally loving for all, whether the havi offered is small or great, whether the purpose is high or low. O lord of light, they choose none other than you.

9. Agni, here in the world, your loving devotees, wise sages, thoughtful people, choose to worship you, high priest of yajna, when dedicated to divinity and the divine potentials of nature, having spread the holy grass on the vedi and bearing sacred havi, they offer their dearest fragrant oblations to you.

Agni, you are the over all master and lord of yajna, yours are all the functions: you are the yajaka, you are the purifier, you are the leader, you are the kindler, you are the director, you are the manager, you are the Brahma, presiding priest, and you are the chief of our yajnic home.

11. Yastubhyamagnē amṛtāya martyah samidhā dāśaduta vā haviśkṛti. Tasya hotā bhavasi yāsi dūtyamupa bruše yajasyadhvarīyasi.

Agni, whoever the mortal that gives unto you, Spirit imperishable, Lord immortal, and surrenders himself by way of fuel fire, dedicates his total life as yajnic performance, you yourself become the yajaka for him, move as his messenger, speak to him in the soul, and take over his life itself as manager of the yajna. (Surrender, O man, to the Immortal for the sake of immortality.)

May all these thoughts, words, Rks, holy voices and songs of adoration, prayers for peace, prosperity and fulfilment reach this Agni, omniscient, omnipresent and ultimate haven of all that exists, the lord that waxes with love and exaltation when these rise and reach him.

Let me raise this new holy song of praise to the loving and gracious eternal Agni. May the Lord listen. And let it be like an inspiring creative poem full of love and passion in a beautiful form for the master, able to touch and move his heart within to bless me.

With love and devotion at heart I create this song of thoughtful praise for the kind and gracious Agni under whose order and dispensation horses, virile bulls, cows, sheep and goats are created and range around freely and then are called back to the stalls.

अहँव्यणे हविरास्ये त स्वच्छाय घृतं चम्बैव साम्। वाजसनिम् रूपेम पश्चात दधि योशसं ब्रह्मानम॥ १५॥

Agni, fragrant havi is offered into the sacred fire as ghṛta in the ladle and soma in the cup. Pray bear and bring us rising prosperity with food, sustenance and victory, wealth, noble progeny, and honour and glory of the noblest order.

Mandala 10/Sukta 92

Vishvedevah Devatah, Sharyata Manava Rshi

युज्वस्य च रथ्यं विशपतियतिविश्वं हातारमकारतियथियं विभावः
वंसुम्। शाचचुष्य्कारसु हरिणीशु जभुरुद वृषा कुरुक्कूजता
द्यामासायत॥ १॥

1. Yajñasya vo rathyaṁ viśpatim viśāṁ hotārama-ktoratithim vibhāvasam. Śocaṇchuṣkāsu hariṇīśu jarbhurad vrṣā keturyajato dyāmaśāyat.

Honour and adore Agni, leader of your life’s yajna, ruler and sustainer of communities of the people, pioneer and chief priest of the universe, useful giver of the peace of night, and spectrum light of the world. Generous and virile, brilliant illuminator, worthy of honour and adoration, burning the dry woods and vibrating in the greens it pervades every thing on earth and reposes in the regions of light.

Both humans and divines honour and adore this Agni, by nature energising life constantly, sustainer of the world and its dharma, accomplisher of yajna. They love and adore it like the mighty sun, harbinger of the dawn and child inviolable of the blazing cosmic energy.

Truly do we love and adore the various gifts of this Agni. May the food, energy and sustenance, all with light divine, blessed gifts, be good for consumption and advancement. Indeed, when relentless devotees come to realise the imperishable joy and freedom of immortality, then are the gifts of this divine Agni truly realised in actuality.
4. Ṛtasya hi prasitirdyaururu vyaco namo mahyaramatiḥ panīyasī. Indro mitro varuṇaḥ sam cikitrire’tho bhagaḥ savitā pūtadakṣasah.

All this existence is an extension, a web, of nature and her law under the ordinance of Agni: the heavens of light, the vast skies, adorable earth, expansive space, all are but fragrant manifestations of Agni, the cosmic high priest. Mitra, the sun, Varuna, the night, Bhaga, cosmic power, Savita, cosmic creativity, all reveal the omnipotence of the generous lord of light and purity that gives everything in plenty. They all do homage to Agni.

Showers of rain and floods of rivers which cover the earth move by the tempestuous currents of cosmic energy of the Maruts, and by the same currents the vast ocean of vapours far traversing across the middle regions roars in the womb of skies and showers and fertilises the world of life.

Active currents of the cosmic energy of the Maruts, dwelling all over the universe, move from the regions of the sun as directed companions of the ocean of vapours, and along with those dynamic currents are seen the dynamic Varuna, Mitra, Aryama and Indra, forces of nature’s catalysis, integration, direction and motive energy.

7. Indre bhujam šaśamānāsa āśata sūro dṛśīke vrṣa-ṇaśca paumṣye. Pra ye nyasyārhaṇā tatakṣire yujāṁ vajram nrṣadaneṣu kāravah.

Indra, cosmic energy, is self-potent, creative and immensely fertile. In Indra, in its splendid self-manifestive power to be observed and pursued with the mind, they find possibilities of human profit, and they, creative and competent craftsmen in elite human institutions, invent usable instruments of power, prosperity and protection.

8. Sūraścidā harito asya rīramadindrādā kaścidbha-yate tavīyasah. Bhīmasya vrṣṇo jaṭharādabhi-śvaso divedive suhuriḥ stannabādhitah.

Even the sun radiates its rays of light under the power and law of Indra, supreme omnipotent. Every powerful force obeys the law and power of Indra. Under the power of fertile and potent Indra, the whistling winds... blow from its vault and the mighty cloud roars without obstruction day by day.

Offer now a song of praise and adoration with homage to Rudra, mighty lord of justice and dispensation, leader, protector and ruler of the brave, self-existent, self-glorious, lover of peace and well being, commanding bright power and forces moving on their ordered course by which he blesses loving devotees with the fulfilment of their cherished desires.

They for sure hold and know the evolution of life, birth of divinity’s children: Brhaspati, lord of Prakrti and the Word of knowledge, Vrshabha, generator of the seed of life in the form of Hiranyagarbha, and the Soma currents of vitality which bear the seeds in life form. These, first Atharvan holds in knowledge and disseminates in form and word by processes of yajna, and later, the divine Bhrgus, sages of knowledge and austere discipline, acquire the knowledge by tradition and their own expertise.

11. Te hi dyāvāprthivīi bhūriretasā narāśamsaścatur-raṅgo yamo’ditiḥ. Devastvaśtā draviṇodā ṛbhuk-kṣaṇaḥ pra rodāsī maruto viṣṇurarihre.

These for sure are the divinities which contribute to the evolution and flow of life: the solar region and the earth both replete with life and fertility, the middle region which overflows with electric energy, air, vapour, and elements of nourishment, evolutionary law in its course, imperishable mother nature, divine Tvashta which is the formative power immensely generous and keen to structure the forms, pranic energy, wind energy, and Vishnu, divine power of sustenance. These are powers worthy of our gratitude, reverence and worship.

12. Uta sya na uṣijāmurviyā kaviṟaṁiḥ śṛṇoto budh-nyo havimani. Sūryāṁśa vicarantā divikṣitā dhiyā śamīnahuṣī asya bodhatam.

And may that Ahirbudhnya, omnipresent, omniscient and all watching lord of expansive Prakṛti, listen to our profuse prayer and adoration offered in our yajna with unbounded love and faith. And may the sun and moon, both stationed in heaven and moving in
And may Pusha, divine spirit of nature’s nourishment, protect and promote our living and moving wealth. May the life-giving Vayu energy, sustainer of life’s vitality, and all natural divinities protect and promote us to achieve our cherished desires for well being. O dedicated celebrants of divinity, honour and adore the glorious spiritual energy within the soul, and may the Ashvins, complementary currents of natural life energy in yajnic touch with us, perceive our earnestness on way and bring us blessings of divinity.

With songs of praise we celebrate Agni, ruling divine power abiding at heart among these fearless people, the divinity glorious by its own actions. Along with all the world’s divine powers of nature and humanity, we also praise Aditi, imperishable Prakrti, the moon, youthful ruler of the night, and the self-existent, self-refulgent sun, gracious life giver of the people.

By birth, the first and foremost sage Angira sings the song of divinity, the soma makers look up and watch the process of divine creation and all those powers by which the all watching creator waxes great and his omnipotence creates and provides the highest kind of food for humanity for the journey ahead.

Mandala 10/Sukta 93

_Vishvedevah Devatah, Tanva Parthya Rshi_

Mahi dyāvāprthivī bhūtamurvī nārī yahvī na rodasī sadām naḥ. Tebhirnaḥ pātaṁ sahyasa ebhirnaḥ pātaṁ ūśaṇī.

May the great earth and high heaven be vaster and greater, and always waxing and rising for us, may they like mothers help us rise and grow. May they, stronger and more prosperous, promote us by those heavenly gifts of light and rain. May they, ever stronger, amiable, procreative and productive, help us grow with these gifts of rain and food.

2. Yajñeyajñē sa martyo đamvāntsaparyati.
   Yaḥ sumnairdirghaśruttama āvivāsātyenān.

That mortal man serves and augments the divinities who, risen in knowledge and wisdom by reading and listening to the utmost, serves them in every yajnic programme with holy works of cleansing and replenishment to be creative and productive more and more.

3. Viṣveṣāmiraṭjavo devāṇāṁ vārvmahāḥ.
   Viṣve hi viṣvamahaso viṣve jayñēṣu jayniyāḥ.

O masters of the world, great is the glory of the divinities. All of them command universal majesty, all of them are adorable in yajnic congregations.

They are lights of immortality, happy and joyous, harbingers of well being to humanity: Aryama, spirit of justice and rectitude in conduct, Mitra, divine... love, friendship and unity, Varuna, spirit of judgement and choice, Parijma, all moving air, Rudra, destroyer of suffering, Maruts, cosmic currents of energy, Pushana, energy and nourishment for growth, Bhaga, spirit of divine glory and human power and prosperity. Everyone of them is valued, loved and respected by humanity.

5. Uta no naktamapāṁ vrṣaṇvasū sūryāmāsā sadanāya sadhanyā. Sacā yat sādyēṣāmahir-budhneṣu budhnyah.

And those harbingers of rain and wealth, the Ashvins, the sun and moon, auspicious givers of wealth for the home, the clouds of vapour floating in the skies and their auxiliaries which abide in nature, may all these be friendly and bless us with wealth and joy day and night.

And may the divine Ashvins, complementary currents of natural energy, Mitra and Varuna, prana and udana energies of the body system vibrating in nature, protect and promote us. One whom they protect and promote rises great in wealth, rules it as the master and crosses over all evils with a single leap.
7.  Uta no rudrā cinmṛlatāmaśvinā viśve devāso rathaspatirbhagaḥ. Rbhurvāja ṛbhukṣaṇaḥ pariṃma viśvavedasaḥ.

And may the health giving Rudra pranas, the Ashvins, prana and apana energies, all brilliant holy men of the world, Bhaga, spirit of honour, power and prosperity of life, the presiding power of the chariot of human life for the individual and society, Rbhu, the wise sage of creative expertise, Vaja, commander of strength and progressive advancement, Rbhuksha, skilful technician, all moving wind energy, and managers of the world’s wealth be kind and good for our welfare.

Great is Indra, cosmic energy, great is the joy of the creator of cosmic energy. O mighty lord of cosmic energy, great are the complementary currents of your energy circuit. Grand, not easy, is the knowledge and articulation of the divine energy of nature, and its management too at the human level as yajnic process is not easy.

Savita, O lord of light and life’s creativity, adored and exalted by the strong and powerful, pray make us bold and self-confident, let us never be subjected to shame and ignominy. Indra, lord of power, controls and directs the power and wisdom of these people of the earth with psychic currents of pranic energies as a driver controls and directs the movement of the chariot by reins and the wheels.

10. Aiṣu dyāvāprthivī dhātam mahadasme vīreṣu viśvacarṣaṇī śravāḥ. Pṛksaṁ vājasya sātaye pṛ- kṣaṁ rāyota turvaṇe.

O earth and heaven, mother and father of humanity, pray vest high honour and fame of universal human order in these brave heroes. Exalt them with food and energy, honour and enthusiasm, and wealth and excellence for the achievement of victory and conquest over evil forces.

Indra, lord omnipotent, you are our father, mother, protector and all, pray accept this celebrant all time wherever he be, protect him for his good, promote him for his cherished happiness and well being. Pray take on the seeker, enlighten the lover, save me, O shelter home of the world.

May the singers of divinity and celebrants of humanity exalt and extend this my song of divine adoration and united human celebration like radiant rays of the sun spreading light or a craftsman launching an infallible automotive fast chariot on boundless ways.

The prayer of devotees whose words are replete with the wealth of conscience and sincerity naturally and spontaneously bears the golden fruit of divine love and salvation, just as the heroic exploits of warriors in battle, united and directed to the same one end, lead to victory and never go waste.

To the restless, celebrated, emotional, sensual, exuberant and powerful, let me speak of that knowledge and wisdom which is heard of these our well wishers of humanity who control and direct five hundred fluctuations of their mind by meditation to peace and divinity. (That is the path of living, knowing and speaking.)

Here in the matter of body and mind, divine nature gives and simultaneously orders and controls seventy seven nerves of the body, seventy seven bone structures, and seventy seven articulatory functions.

Gravana Devata, Arbuda Sarpa Kadraveya Rshi

पञ्ज-वर्तदन्तु प वर्य वंदाम गार्भभ्या वाचं वदता वर्तद्रयः।
यद्वद्रयः पवतः साक्मास्वः श्लाकं घाषं भुर्थन्द्रायः

1. Praite vadantu pra vadāma grāvabhyo vācaṁ vadatā vadadbhyah. Yadadrayāḥ parvatā sākamāśavaḥ śālokaṁ ghoṣaṁ bharathendrāya sominah.

Let these veteran sages speak, let us also speak the Word from the sages who speak for us. You too, O yajakas, speak the Word when the sages of eminent standing, bearers of soma, together passionately offer the words of divine praise to Indra.

The sages speak as they do to hundreds and thousands, and proclaim the Word loud and bold with resounding voice. Eloquent sages of long standing, noble performers, sitting on the vedi, speak with noble tongue in sacred language and partake of the yajnic hospitality of the yajamana.

They speak only when they know the subject by experience, having tasted with relish the honey sweets of the juice in the ripe fruit. Enjoying the fruit of life on the bright branch of the tree of existence they, mighty wise, bearing the knowledge by experience in the mind, speak the word of wisdom and reveal the truth.
4.  Brhadvadanti madireṇa mandinendre krośanto’vidannanā madhu. Samrabhyā dhīrāh sv-śrūbhiranartīṣurāghoṣyantah pṛthivīmupabdibhiḥ.

They speak wide and bold, exalt Indra with joy in words of ecstasy, tasting, knowing and proclaiming sweets of honey by music of the tongue. Having experienced and enjoyed the taste of sweetness repeatedly, the veterans express the ecstasy in dance with gestures, movements and expressions, the earth resounding with the music of their joy.

5.  Suparnā vācamakratopa dyavyākhare kṛṣṇā iṣirā anartiṣuḥ. Nyaṇī yantyuparasya niṣkṛtaṁ purū reto dadhire sūryaśvltah.

Birds of imagination fly up to the bounds of heaven and raise their voice of adoration, vibrant clouds dance in the deepest caverns of space and celebrate their joy, the spirits distil the ecstasy of highest realisation and, pure and radiant as sunlight, receive profuse showers of immortal life.

6.  Ugrā iva pravahantaḥ samāyamuḥ sākam yuktā vrṣaṇo bibhrato dhuraḥ. Yacchvasanto jagrasānā arāviṣuḥ śṛṇva eṣāṁ prothatho arvatāmiva.

Like virile bulls yoked together bearing the chariot pole and drawing the chariot forward, they, inspired and mighty enthusiastic, lead humanity forward. Breathing, panting, happily accepting all pleasure and pain of social experience, they go on proclaiming their message, and the echoes of their proclamation is heard like the breathing of victorious race horses.

Honour those who work at ten levels of earthly life and create the soma joy of existence, ten equal cooperators like the ten fingers, ten equal cooperative faculties such as the senses, ten possible cooperatives such as energies of passion and understanding, ten partners such as the pranic energies, ten dynamic forces such as will and determination, ten unaging ones such as desires and ambitions, ten burden bearers joined to carry on the tenfold business of living such as the rules of personal and social discipline.

8. Te adrayo daśayantrāsa āśavasteśāmādhānāṁ paryeti haryatam. Ta ū sutasya somyasyāndha-somśoḥ pīyūṣaṁ prathamasya bhejire.
They are the sages and scholars strong as adamant, high as mountains, roaring as clouds, working with tenfold discipline and freedom of mind, fast and instant workers and thinkers whose total energy and attention is concentrated on the one central end and aim of life: the creation of joy. And they alone share and enjoy the first, original and immortal nectar sweet of the blissful energy and ecstasy of life created and refined by sages.

They, tasting of soma joy, attain to both knowledge and action toward both secular and sacred aims of life under divine dispensation and, distilling the joy of life, abide confident in the state of yoga on the earth and then on higher planes as well. Indra, the soul, drinking of the honey sweet milk of divine ecstasy, rises, expands and expresses itself in showers of creative joy and positive activity.

O lovers and creators of soma, strong, generous and inexhaustible is your soma of joy. You would never be hurt or violated. Blest with food, energy and enlightenment, live ever satisfied and happy. O sages, abide in life as great and brilliant as with the spirit of the wealth, honour and excellence of life. The stalk of your joy whose yajna you live by is deep, eternal and immortal.

11. \textit{Tṛdilā atṛdilāso adrayo’śramaṇāṇā aśṛthitā amṛ-tyavaḥ. Anāturā ajarāḥ sthāmaviṣṇavaḥ supi-vaso atṛṣitā atrṣṇajah.}

O revered sages, be ever relentless, inviolable, destroyers of evil, indefatigable, immortal, unafflicted, unaging, steadfast and dynamic, strong and healthy, uninhibited and unfrustrated, and free from greed.

12. \textit{Dhrvā eva vah pitaro yugeyuge kṣemakāmāsah sadaso na yuñjate. Ajuryāso hariṣājo haridrava ā dyāṁ ravena prthivīmaśuśravuḥ.}

O veteran sages, parental lovers of humanity, be all time strong and steadfast, well wishers of all as members of one joint family. Untouched by age, lovers of life’s greenery, inspirers of life’s joy, speak so that your voice resounds and is heard across the earth and skies.
and inexhaustible is your soma of joy. You would never be hurt or violated. Blest with food, energy and enlightenment, live ever satisfied and happy. O sages, abide in life as great and brilliant as with the spirit of the wealth, honour and excellence of life. The stalk of your joy whose yajna you live by is deep, eternal and immortal.

Veteran sages on way to freedom from the bonds of mortality speak of immortal Indra like bards in a state of ecstasy. As the farmer, having sowed the corn, guards it till ripeness, they, enjoying the soma experience, guard and mature the nectar, they do not violate it, never destroy the taste of immortality.

Just as children in love vex the mother while playing, so when the yajna is on and soma is extracted, let the sages recite the hymns with love and a sense of freedom and release in spontaneity and then let them retire with love and reverence into rest and silence.

Mandala 10/Sukta 95

Devata: Urvashi (1, 3, 6, 8-10, 12, 14, 17), Pururava (2, 4, 5, 7, 11, 13, 15, 16, 18), Rshi: Pururava Aila (1, 3, 6, 8-10, 12, 14, 17), Urvashi (2, 4, 5, 7, 11, 13, 15, 16, 18)

(This sukta is a dialogue between Pururava, the Hey venerable one, awful too though, stay awhile with mind at ease. Let us have a dialogue between us, words of mutual interest, of love and sweetness. These words and thoughts have remained unexpressed between us. Will they not do some good to us some later day?

What shall we do with these words of yours? I am yours but I go like mist of the morning before dawn. Go back to your abode, Pururava, I am unattainable, elusive like the winds.

I am not able to shoot the arrow from the quiver for victory and glory, and though I am strong and brave, I cannot win the hundreds of lands with the roar of victory. O lady bereft of the brave, I shine not in the rising battles of life, my own powerful forces forsake me.

(The dialogue develops as a dialogue between man in love with life and the search for inspiration, purpose and consummation of living. The love is intense, excessive and vociferous like the thundering cloud’s and the inspiration is lovely and seductive like the elusive lightning. It can be interpreted as a dialogue between the ambitious ruler and the social power, and ultimately, between the liver (man) and the possibilities of life, the passion and the unattainable, the dawn and the day, the night and the morrow.)

Note that Pururava is Aila, child of Ila, nature, and Urvashi is infinite beauty, and their consummation is joy and creativity.

Surely, O Ikshvaku, and Urvashi, the consort.

1. Haye jŒye manasŒ ti¦¢ha ghore vacŒÅsi miÜrŒ k¾ÄavŒvahai nu. Na nau mantrŒ anuditŒsa ete mayaskaran paratare canŒhan.

2. KimetŒ vŒcŒ k¾ÄavŒ tavŒha¬ prŒkra-mi¦amu¬ |masŒmagriyeva. Purµurava¬ punarastaÅ parehi durŒpanŒ vŒta ivŒhamasmi.

3. I¦urna Üriya i¦udherasanŒ go¦Œ¬ ÜatamŒ na raÅ¬ hi¬. Av¶re kratau vi davidyutannorŒ na mŒyuÅ citayanta dhunaya¬.

If Urvashi (electric energy or the dawn) bearing light and nourishment for the coming day were to rise from the depth of space or darkness of night, and stricken with love as catalytic agent, were to visit the lover’s chamber, the heart of the cloud or the sun on the rise, then she would be struck with three way charge of positive, negative and consummative ‘vaitasa’, process of nature’s evolutionary activity. Day and night, all time?

(‘Vaitasa’ is the name of a process of movement, attainment, fertility, enlightenment, extension, consumption and evolution in the natural cycle. The catalytic agent does not stay with the mode it causes to change and move toward growth. The electric charge causes the cloud thunder, breaks the cloud into rain, and that causes the earth to produce vegetation. The processes of catalysis, rain and growth are described in the Brahmanas and quoted by Swami Dayananda in his commentaries on Vedic mantras.)

5. Triḥ sma māhnaḥ śnathayo vaitasenota sma me’vyatayai prṇāsi. Purūravo’nu te ketamāyam rājā me viṣa tana tadāsīḥ.

O Pururava, cloud, day, thrice in a unit of time you would move me with the energy of procreative nature and thus achieve the fulfilment of nature’s purpose. Come to your chamber thus for fulfilment, O brave one, you would be the ruler of my body. (But stay I cannot.)

Mantras 4 and 5 are spoken by Urvashi like a thoughtful soliloquy.

Waves of energy flow, exciting, wavy, soothing, successive and cyclic, and move in circuit, beautiful, shining red rays, harbingers of beauty and prosperity like young loving cows of the family.

When this roaring cloud is formed or when the sun is risen for the day, then many forces like divine consorts of nature join and, self-energised and fluent like showers of rain and streams of water, exalt it. O Pururava, then the devas too, brilliant divinities of nature and humanity, prepare and exalt you for the mighty battle against want and darkness to destroy evil from nature and society.

(The metaphor of natural forces here may be said to touch the field of human society. Many divine, natural and human forces join in the wedding of the young man and in the investiture of the ruler in his office. Both are like the cloud formed for showers and like the sun risen for the day, and the function of both is to dispel want and darkness from nature and society.)

8. Sacā yadāsu jahatīṣvatkamamānuṣīṣu mānuṣo niṣeve. Apa sma mat tarasanī na bhujyustā atrasan rathaspṛśo nāśvāḥ.
When Pururava, the mighty cloud, takes over earthly form and joins the unearthly forms of nature after they have given up their natural super-human character, they, which earlier had feared him like the game fearing the hunter, do not fear him as horses joined to the chariot do not fear the master.

When the mortal Puruava loving these immortal beings joins them with loving words as well as with noble actions, then they, like swans playing in water, shine and show their bodies like horses playing with the bridle in their teeth.

Like lightning, falling and flashing, bringing me cherished gifts of water showers, Urvashi who creates blissful floods and streams for humanity blesses me with long life and health.
11. Jañiṣa itthā gopīthyaśya hi dadhātha tat purūravo ma ojaḥ. Asāsaṁ tvā viduṣī sasminnahanna ma āṣṛṇoh kimabhugvadāsi.

Pururava, you are born and destined for the protection of earth and promotion of life. Pray bear and command the lustre of life for me. Educated and cultured in the art of home life, I advised you day in and day out, pray listen to me. What can you say if you do not serve life and mother earth? Nothing.

When would the progeny born, grown, knowing and coming without tears and actively doing love and favour the parents? And who would separate the couple wedded in mutual love when the passion for life shines among the brave? None.

And I say to you, Pururava, by way of warning: if the untoward happens in case of separation, the child would come to you crying, in tears, yearning for consolation and comfort. I would send him to you who is now ours and spurn you off: O fool, impetuous, infructuous man, go off your way, I am not for you!

Sudevo adya prapatedanāvṛt parāvataṁ paramāṁ gantavā u. Adhā śayīta nirṛterupaste ’dhainam vrkā rabhasāso adyuah.

Urvashi, if such a calamity befall, let the ardent lover immediately fall to no redemption, go far to the farthest distance, let him lie in the depth of denial and adversity, and let voracious wolves devour him.

Purūravo mā mṛthā mā pra papto mā tvā vrkāso aśivāsa u kṣan. Na vai straiṁnī sakhyāṁ santi sālāvṛkāṁ hṛdayānyetā.

Pururava, let this never be: do not die, never fall, never must cursed wolves devour you, such are not the loves and friendships of women. It is only women of wolfish heart that deceive and betray the covenant.

Yadvirūpācarami martyēsvavaśaṁ rātriḥśarada-ścatasaḥ. Ghṛtasya stokāṁ sakṛdhaṁ āśnāṁ tādevēṁ tātṛpāṇā carāmi.

When I came down from the divine into this different earthly form living happily for four years among mortals, I have lived on one time little drop of ghrta a day, and content with that alone I sojourn among men.

Anneka  āpā ṛajñāsa vīmaṇīmupṝṇaṁ śī gṛṣṭhuṇaṁ vaṁśeṣṭ: । υρЕвро vṛṣṭaṁ rāttit: सुकृतस्य तिल्लक्षिति वर्तस्य ह्रदयं तत्पत म ॥ १७ ॥

I, Vasishtha, closest ardent lover, speak to Urvashi, spirit of boundless beauty, light and love, and celebrate this ranger of the skies, controller of vapours and breaker of the cloud. May the bounty of divine generosity ever abide by you. My heart is burning, pray turn, return and fulfil the divine purpose.

18. Iti tvā devā āhuraila yathemetadbhavasi mṛtyubandhuh. Prajā te devān haviṣa yajāti svarga u tvamapi mādayāse.

Pururava Aila, child of nature, word of divinity, this is what the divines have spoken: Kinsman of death you would be, your children would serve the divinities with homage and fragrant havi into the yajna fire, and you too would abide in paradise and be happy.

(This sukta is a myth, a mystery, until it is unraveled.)

It is a myth of the love between man and woman, fickle as well as unbreakable and sacred. The flower and fruit of it is the child, continuance of the race. And it may be called the myth of Purusha and Prakrti and the cycle of existence. It is a myth of the cloud, thunder and lightning. The cloud is a mass of gases, then the electric charge, thunder, lightning, rain and life on earth.
And it points to a wonder possibility:

The thunderous cloud, Pururava, is ineffective without Urvashi, the lightning charge. Urvashi, the heavenly nymph, lives on one drop of ghrta per day.
The children of the couple live and perform yajna, and the parents abide in paradise. Can we say: One drop of ghrta into the yajna fire per day feeds Urvashi which causes the cloud to rain and the yajaka contributes to a life of paradise on earth?

Mandala 10/Sukta 96

_Hari Devata, Baru Angirasa or Sarvahari Aindra Rshi_

1. _Pra te mahe vidathe śanīśaṁ hariḥ pra te vanve vanuṣo haryatam madam. Ghṛtāṁ na yo hari-bhiścāru secata ā tvā viśantu harivarpasam girah._

O lord omnipotent, Hari, in your great cosmic yajna, I adore your forces of Rtam and Satyam. Lord of beauty, glory and bliss, I pray for the joy of your ecstatic bliss, which, beautiful and beatific with showers of joy, blesses life on earth as ghrta exalts the sacred fire. May our words of adoration and prayer reach your blissful presence immanent in the universe.
2. Harim hi yonimabhi ye samasvaran hinvanto harī divyam yathā sadaḥ. Ā yam pṛṇanti haribhirna dhenava indrāya śūṣam harivantamarcata.

You, who in concert adore and exalt Hari, omnipotent original cause of the universe as he pervades the divine spatial home, whom hymns of Veda and rays of the sun please and fulfil with their vibrations and radiations as cows fulfil the yajna with ghrta and milk, whose powers of Rtam and Satyam with their centrifugal and centripetal forces you praise, please study and honour that power of his which bears the burden of the world of nature and humanity. Do so for the sake of the honour and excellence of life on the way forward.

3. So asya vajro harito ya āyaso harirnikāmo harirā gabhastyoh. Dyumnī suśipro hariman-yusāyaka indre ni rūpā haritā mimikṣire.

That power of Hari, omnipotent Indra, is the thunderbolt, and the thunderbolt is electric, magnetic, unfailing in aim and desire and it is borne in the hands of centrifugal and centripetal forces. It is bright and blazing, mighty passionate, punitive and destructive for the evil. Indeed in Indra as in the sun, all forms, all colours and all beauties are integrated.
4. Divi na keturadhi dhāyi haryato vivyacadvajro harito na ramhyā. Tudadahiṁ hariśipra ya āyasaḥ sahasraśokā abhavaddharimbharaḥ.

The power of Indra, the Bajra, is held as the sun blazing in heaven. It expands and pervades like the bright rays radiating all over space. Destroying evil, breaking the clouds of darkness, glorious and mighty, the adamantine Bajra of a thousand flames shines as the symbol of the power of omnipotence.

Indra, lord of light and knowledge, self-manifested universal spirit of light, love and beauty, loved and adored by the earliest celebrant sages, you alone received, acknowledged and blest the adorations of the past, and you alone are the sole, unique, beloved, universally adorable giver of success and fulfilment who love, receive, acknowledge and bless the gifts of adoration and yajna offered to you.

Those adorable carriers, centrifugal and centripetal forces of divine nature, bear and sustain the power and presence of the thunder armed, joyous, adorable Indra in the divine blissful chariot as the universe of existence. For this Indra, blissful lord, many yajna sessions, soma oblations and beautiful gifts of homage are prepared and offered.

आर्ण कामां न हरया दधन्निवर स्थिराय त्विन्नहरया हरी तुरा।
अवक्ष्ट्रया हरिभिजाष्मीयत सा अस्य कामं हरिकन्त-मानश॥ ७ ॥

The dynamics of divine nature sustain the refulgent Indra for its holy solar purpose. The same powers energise the gravitational forces to hold the sun in balanced orbit. By these energy forces does Indra’s presence vibrate in the universe with love. And through these very forces does Indra fulfil his dear divine purpose.

हरिश्माषु हरिकश आयुसस्तुरस्य या हरिण अर्वथत।
अवक्ष्ट्रया हरिभिवारिजीवसुरति विश्वादुरिण पारी-पश्चाद्ये॥ ८ ॥

The world’s greenery is his hair, golden rays of light, his locks. Wielding thunder and gravitation, his radiation enters waters of the earth and vapours of space, he expands in power and presence, and with powers of instant radiation, he shines as lord of abundant earth and overcomes all evils of disease and darkness with his catalytic forces.

His golden eyes, sun and moon, move and radiate light as two ladles of ghrta feed and exalt the fire, and the heaven and earth like his golden jaws move for the food, energy and advancement of life. In his created world, having tasted of the delicious and inspiring food and drink, man refines and exalts his will and understanding.

Potent and charming Indra pervades the regions of heaven and earth as his home and with his power and presence roars like a hero going to war. With his might he wields both the great earth and the refulgent heaven, loves them and bears abundant food, strength and joy for life there.

Lord of love and beauty, loved and loving all, you beautify and beatify the heaven and earth with new and newer favours, you love and create fresh and rising thoughts of admiration and adoration. O lord of vital energy and inspiration, pray open the homely state of earth and humanity to the illumination of the sun and light divine.

Indra, may the radiations of your light bear and bring you, glorious lord of golden visor, by your cosmic chariot to the people so that you, loving the yajna, drink of the honey sweet soma extracted and prepared with utmost dexterity of hand and care in the hall of yajna.

Indra, lord of light divine and solar radiations, you have drunk of the soma of the ancients of earliest sessions. This yajna session and the soma extracted in here is only for you. O lord of generous showers in this session, pray, drink of the honey sweet soma of our love and faith and let the showers of bliss flow and fill the skies and space unto the depth of our heart.

Mandala 10/Sukta 97

Oshadhayah Devata, Bhishag Atharvana Rshi

1. *Yā oṣadhīḥ pūrvā jāta ā devebhyaśrīयuगम पुरा।
Manai nu babhūṇāmahāṁ śataṁ dhāmāni sapta ca.*

Let me observe, investigate and know the herbs, ancient and best for all the three seasons and ages, born of the divine gifts of nature for people, herbs yellow, ripe and brown, and hundred and seven of them with places where they grow and where they work. (‘Shatam dhamani sapta cha’ can also be interpreted as seven hundred herbs and the places where they grow.)

2. शतं वा अम्ब धामानि सहस्रभूष मा रूहं। अर्धं शतकत्वा यूगमियं म अगुंदं कृतं॥ ॥
2. Śataṁ vo amba dhāmāni sahasramuta vo ruhaḥ. Adhā śatakratvo yūyamimāṁ me agadāṁ kṛta.

O mother herb, hundreds are the places where you arise and work, thousands your varieties and extensions, and hundreds your gifts and efficacies. Pray make this life free from affliction and disease.

O herbs, plants and creepers ever growing, rise and rejoice in response to life’s health, blossoming and fragrant, procreative and fructifying, victorious like winsome life energy itself, taking us across all suffering and disease.

“O herbs, mothers, divine gifts of nature,” thus do I speak of you in confidence and say: O man, the horse, the cow, the home, even your body, mind and soul, I entrust for health to the herbs.”

Your seat is on the ashvattha tree, on the air and the cloud, your residence is made on the leaf and on the parna tree, you share your efficacy with the earth, sun rays and the cow by which you bestow health and vitality for life.

6. Yatrauṣadhitḥ samagmata rājānaḥ samitāviva. Viprah śa ucyate bhiṣag rakṣohāmīvacātanaḥ.

Where herbs and medicines concentrate as ruling powers in consult, that sagely scholar is called ‘physician’, destroyer of evil, eliminator of disease and ill health.

7. Aśvāvatīṁ somāvatīṁurjayantīmudojasam. Āvitsī sarvā oṣadhīrasmā ariṣṭatātaye.

For the recovery and rehabilitation of the sick and for his freedom from ailment in future, I know and can provide all herbal medicines, for example, Ashvavati, the herb for revival and energy, Somavati, for soothing and energising, Urjayanti for strengthening, and Udojas, exceedingly powerful for life saving, and others.

8. Ucchusmaḥ oṣadhānāṁ gāvo goṣṭhādiverate. Dhanaṁ saniṣyanīṁātmānam tava pūruṣa.
And the strength and vitality of herbs which, O man, they bestow on you as the wealth of health for your body, mind and soul, stream forth to you like cows emerging from their stall or light rays radiating at dawn.

9. \(Iṣkṛrtināma \text{ vo } mātātha \text{ yūyam stha niṣkṛtiḥ.} \)
\(Sīrāḥ \text{ patatriṇīh sthana yadāmayati niṣkrtha.} \)

O herbs, the name of your mother is Işkṛtī, good health, immunity and prevention, gifts of food, earth and nature. And you are cleansers and protectors. Be circulating in veins and arteries, throw out all that ails the body’s health.

10. \(Aṭi \text{ viśvāḥ pariśṭhāḥ stena iva vrajamakramuḥ.} \)
\(Oṣadhīḥ \text{ prācucyavyāryat kim ca tanvo rapaḥ.} \)

Just as a thief breaks into a cattle stall (and is thrown out) so should all the herbals circulating all over the body attack and throw out the ailments that afflict the body.

11. \(Yadimā \text{ vājayannahamoṣadhīrhasta ādadhe.} \)
\(Ātmā \text{ yakṣmasya naśyati purā jīvagrībhō yathā.} \)

When I take up these medicines in hand to administer them against ailments, it is like a warning of death for them and their very soul and root disappears, totally destroyed, even before the dose.

O herbals, cure the sick whose body you spread over part by part, joint by joint, stop and throw out the disease like a sharp and aggressive mediator.

Consumptive disease is cured with increase in appetite, administration of medicine by mouth and cleansing by vomiting, with bitter medication, with strong and deep breathing in clean air, and cleansing of the system by eliminating the sputum and congestion.

Let one medicine supplement and cover another, and let the other follow another with the same effect, and let them all thus accordant and cooperative justify and prove this word of mine in effect.

Let those herbs which bear fruit, and those which do not bear fruit, let those which bloom with flowers and those which do not blossom, and all of those blest by Brhaspati, ripened by the sun, and prepared and energised by the physician deliver us from suffering.

Let them deliver me from ailments caused by curses and imprecations, dampness and stagnant waters, stiffness of joints and the whole body, and those coming from disturbance and depression of mind and senses.

17. Avapatanīravadan diva oṣadhayaspari. Yaṁ jīvamaśnavāmahai na sa riṣyti puruṣaḥ.

Descending from heaven the herbs, by their fragrance, energy and vitality, declare: the person whose life we pervade and vitalise comes to no harm.

---

MANDAL - 10 / SUKTA - 97 923 924 RGVEDA
18. Yā oṣadhīḥ somarājñīrbaḥvīḥ śatavicakṣaṇāḥ. Tāsāṁ tvamasyuttamāram kāmāya saṁ hṛde.

Of all those herbs which shine with the soma element from the moon, which are abundant and instantly effective, you that fulfil the desire and are blissful for the heart are the best. (That is soma.)

19. Yā oṣadhīḥ somarājñīrvisthitāḥ prthivīmanu. Brhaspatiprasūtā asyai saṁ datta vīryam.

You herbs which shine and abound in soma element and overspread the earth, blest by Brhaspati and energised by the sun, pray bless this ailing body with life saving vitality.

20. Mā vo riṣat khanitā yaṁmai cāhaṁ khanāmi vaḥ. Dvipacchatuspadasmākaṁ sarvamastvanāturam.

Let not the man who digs you from earth violate you, nor should he come to harm, nor should I come to harm who dig you out. May all human beings, all our animals, and all others be free from suffering and disease.

21. Yāścedamupaśṛnvanti yāśca dūraṁ parāgatāḥ. Sarvāḥ saṁgatyā virudho’ syai saṁ datta vīryam.
Those herbs which hear this word close by, and those which grow far away, may all these herbs join together and give life’s vitality to this patient.

आर्द्धय: सं बौद्धन्त सारमन सह राज्यः।
यस्मेक्षणाति बाल्याणस्तं राजन्यार्यामसिः॥ २२ ॥

The herbs joined together with the ruling radiant soma say: O ruling lord of health and life, for whosoever the sagely physician makes use of us we save and pilot him over suffering and disease.

तच्चु.तमस्याष्ट्रं तव वृ । उपस्तथः।
उपस्तिरस्टु सार्यं चस्माकं या अस्माः अभिवद्यस्तं॥ २३ ॥

23. Tvamuttamāsyoṣadhe tava vrkṣā upastayaḥ. Upastirastu so’smākaṁ yo asmāṁ abhidāsati.

O herb, O medicine, you are the best, most efficacious. The trees such as peepal and banyan are your auxiliaries, they are solid concentrations, next to you, of medical properties diffused all over. May all that helps us with health and comfort be our ally. May all that harms us, such as disease, be under our control.

Mandala 10/Sukta 98

Devah Devata, Devapi Arshtishena Rshi
Brhaspati, lord of unbounded rain and thunder, come and bless me as the epitome of divine powers, whether you are Mitra or Varuna or Pusha or commander of the Marut winds with Adityas and Vasus. Let the cloud rain for the man of peace and lover of knowledge.

(This mantra is a prayer for physical as well as for spiritual rain of water and peace for the lover of knowledge and peace. Brhaspati, Mitra, Varuna and other devas are physical powers of rain, and this process of vapourisation, electric catalysis of gases and condensation has been explained in his essays on the composition of water and atmosphere by late Pandit Gurudatta Viyarthi in his book Wisdom of the Rshis, republished by Dr. Ravi Prakash Arya, Email: vedicscience@hotmail.com).

आ तुवा तृता अजिरशिमिकित्वान्त्वद्वाय अभि मामगच्छत

2. Ā devo dūto ajiraścikitvān tvaddevāpe abhi māmagacchat. Praśīćināḥ prati māmā vaṃśvona dadhāmi te dyumaṭiṃ vācamāsan.

May the divine messenger, fast and brilliant, harbinger of collected light of knowledge come to me. Brhaspati, come to me constantly and continuously in circuitous series. I receive your illuminant Word into my mind and speech.

अस्म धृष्टी द्रुमाति वाचर्यामासन्वृत्तपत अनमीवार्मिकिराम
ययो वृक्षिः शान्तनव वर्नाव दिवा दुस्मा मधुमाँ आविवश

3.

Infinite lord of nature, knowledge and the divine word, bring us for our mind and speech illuminant shower of the divine voice, immaculate, unrestrained and inspiring energetic by which we may bring about an earthly rain of peace and enlightenment for the lover of knowledge and well being for all, and let a shower of paradisal honey sweets bless the earth from heaven.

Let showers of honey bless us, Indra, give us a thousandfold wealth of peace and prosperity of high order. O harbinger of Devas, sit on the vedi, perform the yajna according to the seasons and serve the divinities with oblations of havi as required for the purpose.

5. Ārṣtiśeṇo hotramṛṣirniṣīḍan devāpirdevasumatiṁ cikitvān. Sa uttarasmādadharam samudramapo divyā aṣṭiṣadvārṣā abhi.

Arshtishena Devapi, sagely seer knowing the dynamics of yajnic creation and the qualities and functioning of different divine facts of nature and life in full knowledge of the moods of beneficent divinities, may seat himself on the vedis of yajna, create clouds of divine water in the vast sky above and bring down showers from the ocean above to the earth for fields, rivers and the seas.

In this upper oceanic sky water vapours stay held up by divine forces of nature. Catalised by electric charge caused by divine marut energies, they condense, and, sent down into clouds, they shower, upon the earth in torrents.

When Devapi, friend of divinities, the priest appointed for the purpose of rain yajna, prays and shines with adoration, Brhaspati, listening to his prayer to divinity for rain, waxes with joy and grants him the gift of thunderous Word and shower for the peace and prosperity of humanity.
8. \(Yāṁ tvā devāpiḥ ṣuṣucāno agna ārṣṭiśeno manuṣyaḥ samīdhe. Viśvebhirdevairan-upadyamāṇaḥ pra parjanyamīraya vrṣṭimantam.\)

Agni, whom Devapi, priest and sagely scholar of the science of rain, shining with ardent adoration among men, lights and serves with sacred fire and prayer, be pleased along with all the divine powers and move the clouds laden with rain showers for humanity.

9. \(Tvāṁ pūrva ṛṣayo gīrbindrāyan tvāmadhvareṣu puruhūta viśve. Sahasrāṇyadhirathānyasme ā no yajñāṁ rohidaśvopa yāhi.\)

Agni, universally invoked and adored yajnic power and showers of rain, saints and seers of the world of all time approached you with songs of adoration and prayer in yajna. O lord of red flames and thunderous voice, pray visit our yajna and grant us a thousandfold gifts overflowing our chariots of life.

10. \(Etānyagne navatirnava tve āhutānyadhirathā sahasrā. Tebhirvardhasva tanvaḥ śūra pūrvirdivo no vrṣṭimīṣito rirīhi.\)

Agni, these ninety and nine chariots of life laden with overfulls of a thousand gifts of homage are offered to you. With these, O Lord Almighty, rise in flames of glory and grace and, thus loved and adorned, pray move the eternal showers of bliss for us from the light of heaven.

Agni, these ninety and nine thousand gifts of homage, pray, send up to Indra, generous lord of showers, for our share of his divine service and, knowing the paths of the divine movements of nature according to seasons, put the clusters of vapour in heaven among the divinities, Maruts, Mitra, Varuna and others for showers of rain.

(‘Aulana’ may also be interpreted as the devout human soul and ‘showers’ as showers of divine bliss.)

Agni, drive away the violent, open up the impassables, eliminate ill health and disease, repel and destroy the evil, and from that infinite ocean of the waters of life, release the showers of heavenly bliss on earth for us.
Mandala 10/Sukta 99

Indra Devata, Vanaka Vaikhanasa Rshi

Knowing us all, Indra wishes us well, gives us comfort and well being, gifts wondrous and varied, expansive and admirable, for our progress and advancement. Great is his gift of bliss, the mighty one, for our fulfilment. And what could be our gift in return for his kindness? He creates and wields the thunder for breaking the cloud and strikes the thunderbolt to destroy the evil, and he gives us the showers that we may grow and rise in life.

He, challenger of adversaries and destroyer of suffering and violence, goes on with light and lightning, pervades the vast space, and rules and breaks the mighty clouds with his kindred Maruts. Such is the power and splendour of the ruler and sustainer of the highest heavens.

He goes on with the dynamics of existence by straight unfailing paths of law and rectitude, giving showers of joy, presiding over it all, keen to share it with one and all, irresistible and unhurting, opening a hundred doors of possibility for wealth and excellence, and subduing the demons of lust and impiety with force, the one supreme ruling power.

That mighty Indra, moving, flowing and advancing, showers torrents of rain over fertile lands where fast and deep streams, cooperative friends of Indra, receive and make the precious waters move of themselves by gravity, without external aids such as legs and chariots.

(In the third and fourth mantras, Indra may be interpreted as human soul in the context of yoga meditation and control over mind and senses. In this context, the flow would mean the flow of consciousness. In the physical sense Indra may be interpreted as Vayu, the catalytic electric energy that breaks the clouds of vapour into showers of rain. Indra as the supreme cosmic power that rules and sustains the world of existence, of course, is obvious throughout the hymn.)

That Indra, mighty energy, free from despicable and undesirables, and possessed of indescribable wealth of force, moves with Rudras, catalytic forces, in serial motion leaving one place for another and, I believe, it gets to the gaseous couple that produce and deliver the waters, and having broken the cloud and taken away the waters, food of life, leaves it roaring.

That Indra, sustainer of life, attacking the six-eyed three-headed cloud, subdues it, and Trita, threefold Agni power, rising by the power and lustre of Indra, with currents sharp as razor’s edge, breaks the cloud and delivers the rain.

(The cloud is six eyed because it is active and awake all the six seasons of the year. It is three headed because it arises from three regions: from the solar region as soma, from the middle regions as parjanya and from the earthly region as water vapour.

Agni is threefold, Trita, because it has three varieties of its form and function: terrestrial fire as agni, middle region vayu or electric energy, and solar region aditya or light, and all of them play their part in the formation of the cloud in the form of water vapour on earth, parjanya in the middle region and soma in the solar region.)

7. Sa druḥvaṇe manuṣa ūrdhvasāna ā sāviṣadār-śasānāya śarum. Sa nṛtamo nahuṣo ’smat sujātaḥ puro’bhinarahān dasyuhatye.

Indra, lord supreme, highest potent, best and foremost leader among humanity committed to truth and right and controller of the lawless and violent, strikes the weapon of justice and punishment against the forces of jealousy, enmity and destruction and, risen to nobility and grandeur of personality in his own right, deserving the highest position, destroys the strongholds of negativity in our struggle against anti-social and anti-life elements.

8. So abhiryo na yavasa udanyan kṣayāya gātum vidanno asme. Upa yat sīdindram śārīraiḥ śyeno’yopāṣṭirhanti dasyūn.
Just as the cloud waxing with water vapours goes down in showers on earth for the nourishment of fields and pastures, so does Indra, ruling soul, overflowing with generosity, goes forward to the earth for our peaceful home life and with the iron spur of his heels strikes and drives away the evils around us, since he, a tempestuous soul in body like the eagle, sits close to the Indu, blissful source of the nectar of life.

He throws off the violent with his powerful forces, he removes drought and adversity, and he thereby gives strength and confidence to the supplicant devotee. He leads that man of vision and imagination to the heights of fame and admiration who, of all men, knows his real form and nature and in his spirit realises his divine presence.

He, generous giver of favours by the dynamics of his divine powers, gracious and wondrous like Varuna, cosmic spirit of justice and retribution, throws off evil, violence and negativity. He is known as gentle and kind, protector and ordainer of the seasons of the world and, existent in four states of cosmic being, overcomes jealousy and aggression.

When the simple, natural and ardent yajaka, having prepared the soma of adoration, shines with his words of praise, then, crossing the physical, pranic, mental and intellectual covers of the soul’s existential state, and breaking into the secret cave of the soul’s divinity by the showers of the grace of the lord giver of life and spiritual strength, he becomes established in his essential nature and shines in his natural spiritual essence.

Thus, O lord of life and pranic energy of the universe, the humble devotee bursting forth in song and adoration step by step moves on to you, great burden bearer and ordainer of the universe. Thus does the lord revealing the presence does good to this devotee giving him all the world’s wealth of food, energy, peace and shelter of divinity and shines to him in full glory.

Mandala 10/Sukta 100

Vishvedevah Devatah, Duvasyu Vandana Rshi

1. Indra dṛṇhya maghavan tvāvadidbhūja iha stutah sutapā bodhi no vṛdhe. Devebhirnaḥ savitā pra-vatu śrutamā sarvatātimaditiṁ vṛṇīmahe.

   Indra, lord almighty of universal glory, pray strengthen the soul akin to you so that it may be happy and feel exalted with life. Pleased with our songs of adoration here, accepting the soma of our love and faith, pray let the Presence be revealed to us for our spiritual growth. With our mind and senses and the Vishvedevas, all divinities of nature and humanity, may the self-refulgent spirit of light, life and energy, Savita, protect and promote our knowledge already revealed to us and bless us that we may by reason, faith and choice abide by the eternal, divine, imperishable spirit of total existence.

   Bharāya su bharata bhāgamṛtviyaṁ pra vāyave śucipe krandadīṣṭaye. Gaurasya yaḥ payasaḥ pītimānaśa ā sarvatātimaditiṁ vṛṇīmahe.
For the divine sustainer, bear and bring your part of homage and yajnic offerings for the vibrant winds and roaring clouds of divinity, all purifying for our good. They accept, taste and enjoy the nectar sweets of the songs and homage of the enlightened devotees. By reason, faith and choice of will, we wholly abide in and by the divine imperishable mother spirit of total existence.

3. आ ना दुः सैविता सौविष्ठुद्रय ऋजूऽ यज्ञमानाय सुन्वत्।
 यथान्द्रवानपतिभूषम पाक्वदा सृवतैतिमिदिति वृणीऽ-

May the self-refulgent generous Savita, divine inspirer and light giver, bless the simple, natural and creative yajamana with good health, long life and wealth of maturity and discipline of performance, so that we may serve and exalt the devas with homage and piety of mind and soul. With total submission and faith, we love and adore the universal mother Infinity.

4. Indro asme sumanā astu viśvahā rājā somah suvitasyādhyetu naḥ. Yathāyathā mitradhitāni sandadhurā sarvatātimaditiṁ vṛṇīmahe.

May Indra, lord of cosmic energy, ever be good and gracious to us, may the refulgent and inspiring soma, spirit of universal peace, bless us with prosperity, may all the divinities bear and bring all the good things of divine value for friends and devotees according to time and need. We honour and adore the universal spirit and power of imperishable eternal mother Infinity.

5. Indra ukthena śavasā parurdadhe brhaspate pratarītāśāyūṣah. Yajño manuḥ pramatirnāḥ pitā hi kamā sarvatātimaditiṁ vṛṇīmahe.

With divine energy realisable by adoration, Indra sustains every state and every stage of life and its structure. O lord of Infinity, Brhaspati, you are the harbinger of life and health of higher order for us. Reflected in yajna, power of thought and meditation, holiness of intelligence, you are our sustainer as father giver of happiness. We honour and adore Aditi, imperishable Infinity, the universal mother.

Agni in the home is a version and reflection of mighty Indra itself, holy performer, divine power, celebrant divinity, adorable in yajna, creator and giver of light and poetic vision, which is yajna itself, closest and most beautiful in the holiest creative and social acts.
We honour and adore Aditi, mother Infinity of universal and imperishable order of divine generosity.

7. \textit{Na vo guhā cakrma bhūri duśkṛtam nāviṣṭyam vasavo devahe_lanam. Mākirno devā anṛtasya varpasa ā sarvatātimaditiṁ vṛṇīmahe.}

O Devas, generous divinities of nature and humanity, O Vasus, givers of peace and settlement at heart, never must we do any act of sin and violence open or covert toward you, never incur the displeasure of divinity. Never must we put on the garb of untruth in thought, word and deed. We honour and adore the universal imperishable mother spirit of divine nature.

8. \textit{Apāmīvāṁ savitā sāviṣannyagvarīya idapa sedhantvadrayaḥ. Grāvā yatra madhuṣuducyate brhadā sarvatātimaditiṁ vṛṇīmahe.}

May Savita, self-refulgent light of the world, ward off and destroy all pollution and disease. May the wise, like clouds and mountains, stall and wash off even the tempting most irresistible sin and wrong wherever abundant soma is extracted and the wise are highly respected. We honour and adore the universal generosity and imperishable wisdom and purity of divinity.
9. Ūrdhvo grāvā vasavo’stu sotari viśvā dveṣāṁsi sanutaryuyota. Sa no devaḥ savitā pāyurīdyā ā sarvatātimaditīm vṛṇīmahe.

O Vasus, givers of peace and shelter, may the learned be highly respected in the soma yajaka’s yajna. Uproot and throw off all jealousies and enmities of the world from afflicted hearts. May the self-refulgent Savita be our saviour, protector and our adorable lord and master. We honour and adore the all generous and blissful imperishable mother Infinity.

10. Īrjam gāvo yavase pīvo attana ṛtasya yāḥ sadane kośe aṇdhve. Tanūreva tanvo astu bheṣajamā sarvatātimaditīm vṛṇīmahe.

O cows, knowledge, wisdom and culture, just as cows feed on grass in the pasture, drink from the water reservoir, grow and produce energy giving milk, similarly, O holy words of wisdom and knowledge, feed on whatever you find in the house of eternal truth on the flow, and in the depth of the heart core of spirit, grow abundant with light and energy, and let the body of language be the medicinal corrective and sanative for the body of knowledge and culture. We honour the universal imperishable Mother Nature and mother Ila.
and Sarasvati for our mother land, Mahi and Bharati, for universal progress of knowledge and culture.

11. Kratuprāvā jaritā śaśvatāmava indra idbhadrā pramatiḥ sutāvatām. Pūrnamūdhardivyaṁ yasya siktaya ā sarvatātimaditīṁ vṛṇīmahe.

Giver of success in actions, appraiser of the permanent, protector and promoter of the makers of soma, Indra is the giver of noble intelligence, understanding and wisdom for all. Full is his treasure of wealth like the mother cow’s stream of milk. We honour and adore the universal generosity of divine imperishable inexhaustible Mother Nature.

12. Citraste bhānuḥ kratuprā abhiṣṭih santi spṛdho jaraṇiprā adhṛṣṭāḥ. Rajiṣṭhayā rajyā paśva ā gostūtūrṣati paryagraṁ duvasyuḥ.

Wondrous is your light, adorable your gift of success in action, irresistible your will and power which gives fulfilment to the devotees. Just as a shepherd can lead a cow forward by a simple rope, so may the devotee realise your presence directly revealed before him by simple prayer and adoration.
Mandala 10/Sukta 101

Vishvedevah or Rtvijah Devatah, Budha Saumya Rshi

उद बुध्यध्वं सर्मनसः सखायः समुग्रिमिन्ध्वं बुहवः: सनीँङ्ङः। दुधिकामुग्रिमुषसं च दुधीमिन्दावताचवसः नि हःय वः। ॥ १ ॥

1. Udbudhyadhva samanasah sakhayah samagnimindhvas bahavah sanilah. Dadhikramagnimusasam ca devimindravato’vase ni hvaye vah.

Awake, arise, O friends of equal mind, light the fire together, more than many living and working together under the same one roof of equal order, lovers of energy, worshippers of Indra, one lord omnipotent of nature and entire humanity. I call upon you and exhort you for the sake of mutual defence and protection and for common progress of all. Light and develop the fire energy of the earth, atmospheric energy of thunder and lightning of the sky, and the divine energy of the rising dawn of the sun.

मन्दा कृणुध्वं धिया आ तनुध्वं नार्ममित्रिपरणां कृणुध्वम।
इष्कृणुध्वमायुद्धारं कृणुध्वं पाजञ्जं युञ्जं प राजयता सखायः। ॥ २ ॥

2. Mandra krṣudhvan dhiya a tanudhvan nāvarmaritraparanāṁ krṣudhvan. Iṣkrṣudhvan-āyudhāraṁ krṣudhvain prāṅcam yajñam pra ṇayatā sakhāyaḥ.

Create peace and joy, develop rational thought and science and extend the field of action, design and develop boats and ships to cross the seas with oars, produce food for body, mind and soul, promote the arms of peace and security, and take the yajnic programme forward that faces you upfront, O my friends and friends of humanity.

Take up the plough, yoke the bullocks and extend the process, and when the soil is prepared sow the seed. With songs of thanks and joy, let the crop grow green and mature, and when the grain is ripe, let the sickle approach to harvest the grain.

Intelligent and enlightened farmers use the plough for production and develop the infrastructure separately in each department, and the wise with peace and vision direct their efforts for development to human values and the divine gifts of nature and environment.

Develop the sources of water, manage the connections, and let us replenish and maintain the full water sources inexhaustibly good for the purpose of consumption and irrigation.

6. _Iṣṇṭāhāevamavatāṁ suvaratram suṣecanam. Udriṇam siṁce aksitam._

Protect and maintain the water reservoir well connected between the source and the outlet, keep it full for drinking and irrigation purposes, let it be self-abounding and inexhaustible, let me water plants and orchards and also keep it replenished.

7. _Pṛṇītāśvāṁ hitaṁ jayātha svastivāhaṁ rathamit kṛṇudhvam. Droṇāhāevamavatamaśmacakramamsatrakosaṁ siṁcatā nṛpāṇam._

Keep the horses well fed. Realise your common interests. Design, make and maintain the chariot that brings you comfort, peace, prosperity and well being. Protect and maintain the big water vessel. Maintain the rain cycle and keep the supply line on by drinking water tanks and wells for human consumption and irrigation.
8. Vṛjaṁ kṛṇudhvaṁ sa hi vo nṛpāṇo varma sīvya-dhvaṁ bahulā pṛthūni. Puraḥ kṛṇudhvamāyasīradhṛṣṭā mā vah susroccamaso dūhatā tam.

Establish stalls for cattle, build roads, sew corselets and build great walls, that would be the safety and security measure for people. Build cities of steel undaunted. May your ladle of yajna divine and human never suffer leakage. Strengthen the ladle, raise and expand the quality of life.

9. Ā vo dhiyaṁ yajñīyāṁ varta ētaye devā devīṁ yajatāṁ yajñīyāmaiha. Sā no duhīyadyavaseva gatī sahasradhārā payasā mahī gauḥ.

O saints and scholars, noble people all, I exhort your spirit of self-sacrifice for thought and action, exalt this holy yajnic spirit, will and intelligence. And may this great spirit and divine will bring us a thousand streams of nectar joy and prosperity like the cow fed on grass which gives us milk for life and health.

10. Ā tū śiṅca harimīṁ drorupasthe vāśibhistakṣataśmanmayībhiḥ. Pari śvajadhvaṁ daśa kākṣyābhirubhe dhurau prati vahniṁ yunakta.

O yajaka, pour inspiring soma into the cask, fill it to the brim, refine the cask with chiselled strokes of adamantine will, season the soma and secure the cask with ten sensitive fingers, and yoke the horse to the two suspension poles of the chariot.

उभ धृष्टःध्वंसायपिद्माणाचन्तत्यानं चरमि द्विजार्थःौ। वनस्पतीं वनं आस्थापद्धवं नि ्षू दिधिवमस्बन्त
उत्सम् ॥ ११ ॥

11. Ubhe dhurau vahnirāpibdamāno’ntaryoneva carati dvijāniḥ. Vanaspatim vana āsthāpayadhvaṃ ni ्ṣū dadhidhvamakhananta utsam.

Bearing two poles of life, the mind, like a chariot horse, goes voluble flying like a bird over the sky. O yajaka, place the fire amid the samits, dig into depths of the soul and hold on there.

कपृष्ठारा कपृष्ठाधातन चादर्येत खुद्दत वाजसातय।
निषिद्ग्राह् पुत्रमा च्यावयात्य मनैं सुबाधि कुह साम-पीतयं। ॥ १२ ॥

Noble yajakas, Divinity is kind. Hold the gracious presence in the depths of the mind, move it for grace, rejoice in the presence and pray for food, energy and fulfilment of life. Adore and exalt the divine spirit of Eternity, Indra, for freedom from bondage and for the ecstasy of being here on earth itself.

Mandala 10/Sukta 102

Drughana or Indra Devata, Mudgala Bharmyashva Rshi

प तु रथं मिश्रुकृतमिन्द्राचवतु धृष्णुया।
अस्मि ग्राजासङ्गुरुहत श्रवायं धनभु रषु नाचव॥ १ ॥
1. Pra te ratham mithūkṛtamindro’vatu dhṛṣṭuyā. Asminnājau puruhūta śravāyye dhanabhakṣeṣu no’va.

   O ruler and commander, may Indra with his irresistible might and weapon protect your chariot designed and structured by the team of scientist and technologist and working on double stream of energy. O universally invoked leader, in this famous and terrible battle of the nation against all-destroying forces, pray protect us and lead us to victory.

2. Ut sma vāto vahati vāso asyā adhiratham yadajayat sahasram. Rathīrabhūnmudgalanī gaviṣṭau bhare kṛtam vyacedindrasena.

   The wind raises and unfurls the banner of this force of Indra on the chariot which wins over thousands. The mace of the waxing force of Indra rides the chariot as commander in the heat of battle, the army moves and extends its exploits (against malice, hate and enmity).

   Indra, lord of glory, ruling soul of the human system, blunt, revert and recycle the weapons of hate and enmity of the violent who destroy and enslave the spirit of love and freedom. Whether the weapon of negativity belongs to a destroyer or a dynamic person, always turn it off from negativity and re-employ the energy for positive good.

4. Udno hradaimapibajjarhṛṣaṇaḥ kūṭaṁ sma tṛṁhadabhimātimeti. Pra muṣkabhāraḥ śrava icchamāṇo’jirāṁ bāhū abharat siṣāsan.

Indra, exalted spirit of energy and joyous generosity, overflows with the spirit of life and love and enmity. Abundant and rapturous as a roaring cloud, loving order and enlightenment, he wields the twin arms of positive and negative power and, building and breaking, breaking and building, he advances upon the areas of conflict and darkness seeking to bring in light and love.

5. Nykrandayannupayanta enamamehayvan vṛṣabhaṁ madhya ājeh. Tena sūbhavam āṭavat sahasraṁ gavāṁ mudgalaḥ pradhane jīgāya.

In the battle between the positive and negative forces of nature and humanity, the powers of evolution strike this abundant cloud of concentrated wealth and energy at the closest and make it roar as it breaks into showers. Thus, by the evolutionary process of positive catalysis, does Mudgala, Indra, joyous ruling power of nature and humanity in the struggle for progress, win a hundred-thousandfold sustaining wealth of lands, cows and culture of enlightenment against darkness and negativity.

6. Kakardave vṛṣabho yukta āsīdavāvacīt sārathirasya keśi. Dudsonyuktasya dravataḥ sahānasa ṛcchanti śmā nispado mudgalānīm.

Generous and joyous, lord of evolution and progress is Indra, Vrshabha, Mudgala, terribly strong, committed to positivity. Its chariot conductor like the electric force in the firmament, magnetic force on earth and socio-political forces in society, is vocal, thunderous and far reaching like hair on the head and radiations of the sun. Of this determined, committed, radiant lord in state along with its conductive force, the allies are like atoms of energy in nature and individuals in society. These all join its consort power, Mudgalani, of their own will, without any coercion or outside basis of supportive and persuasive elements.

7. Uta pradhimudahannasya vidvānupāyuna-gvamsagamatra śikṣan. Indra udāvat patimaghnyānā-maramhata padyābhiḥ kakudmān.

And taking on to the steering wheel of the system, the scholar leader should take to the leading power, at the same time energising it. Thus does Indra animate and drive the master power of the circuit of... currents, imperishable energies, and, more and more powerful, moves on his mission by motions of the wheels.

(The mantra may be applied to the individual human system and its spiritual advancement. Indra, the soul, takes on the Buddhi, intelligent steering wheel, controlling the master power of the senses, that is, the mind, and using the senses of perception and will for onward motion, lives a dynamic life of success and progress.)

The dynamic disciplined soul, Indra, insulated within the circuitous energies of the self by inviolable control of the fluctuations of mind, moves on happily on way to spiritual progress, and similarly the self-disciplined leader and ruler, concentrating on social welfare against outer disturbances, creating many positive gifts for all people, watching his personal actions and movements of society, bears and commands the strength and glory of the nation.

Watch this, the power and force of the might and mace of Indra within the battle field of existence, destroying hate and enmity and abiding at peace by which Mudgala, generous lord of abundance in the warlike contests of life forces, has won a hundred thousandfold wealth of lands, cows and culture for the enlightenment of people.

Who has seen that which thus drives away sin and crime, hate and enmity, poverty and adversity, the power which they use and establish among themselves? For this generous and virile power they bring no grass, no water, the one that is higher and higher as you try to know and see, that bears the centre hold of the world, points out the paths of life and directs us on the way.

Like a woman who has missed her husband for long and on reunion waxes with joy, like a water wheel that constantly moves and provides water for irrigation, let us win happiness and well being for life by constant endeavour and dynamic will and power, and let our victory be the giver of prosperity and fulfilment.

Indra, lord of power and energy, giver of fulfilment, you are the real and ultimate eye of the vision of the entire world of existence who, lord omnipotent, joined with cosmic powers of nature, inspiring and energising, win the battle of life’s evolution and rule over the world.

Mandala 10/Sukta 103

Indra (1-3, 5-11), Brhaspati (4), Apva (12), Indra or Maruts (13) Devatah; Apratiratha Aindra Rshi

Instantly swift, sharp as a lazer beam, terrible like a bull, breaker of the darkest cloud, shaker of mighty men, roaring awful without a wink, sole hero without a second, Indra overthrows a hundred armies together at once.
2. Samkrandanenānimiseṇa jisñunā yutkāreṇa duścyavanena dhṛṣṭunā. Tadindreṇa jayata tat sahadhvaṁ yudho nara iṣuḥastena vṛṣṇā.

   O warriors, leading lights of heroes, take up that challenge of antilife forces, fight that war and win with Indra, roaring and terrifying the enemy forces, relentless fighter, ambitious for victory, expert tactician, unshakable, irresistible, generous and brave, and armed with unfailing missiles for victory.

3. Sa iṣuḥastaiḥ sa niṣaṅgibhirvaṣīsamsraṣṭā sa yudha indro gaṇena. Saṁsrṣṭajit somapā bāhu-śardhyugradhanvā pratihitābhirastā.

   Indra is the warrior with bow and arrows in hand, conquers with joint armed forces, multiple enemy hosts, and wins over concentrated forces. Protector and promoter of soma peace and joy of life, strong of arms wielding a terrible bow, he throws out the enemies with the shots of his unfailing arrows.

4. Bṛhaspate pari diyā rathenarakṣohāmitrāṁ apabādhamānah. Prabhaṅjantsenaḥ pramṛṇo yudhā jayannasmākamedhyavītā rathānām.
Fly by the chariot, Brhaspati, destroyer of demons, repeller of enemies, breaking through and routing their forces. Fighting and conquering by battle, come, defend and save our chariots of the social order.

Indra, tactical organiser of deployable forces, venerable, strong, undisturbed and invulnerable, stout and brave, challenging, impetuous, blazing, steadfast, commander of the brave, highly intelligent, valiant, illustrious, pray ascend the chariot of victory over rebellious lands.

O friends, unite, prepare and mount the assault with Indra, our friend and comrade, breaker of enemy strongholds, winner of lands, hero of thunder arms and victorious breaker of dark mighty clouds by his valour. Follow the brave and advance.
7. *Abhi gotrāṇī sahasā gāhamāno’dayo vīraḥ satamanyurindraḥ. Duścyavanaḥ prtanāśālyudhyo
’smākaṁ senā avatu pra yutsu.*

May Indra, breaker of clouds and enemy strongholds, with his courage and valour, unmoved by pity, hero of a hundredfold passion, shaker of the strongest evils, destroyer of enemy forces, irresistible warrior, protect our army in our assaults and advances.

8. Indra āsāṁ netā brhaspatirdaśiniṁ yajñah pura etu somaḥ. Devasenānāmabhībhaṅjatīnāṁ jayantīnāṁ maruto yantvagram.

Of these armies of the Devas, divine forces of nature and humanity, men of noble intentions and far sight, breaking through and conquering evil and negative elements of life, Indra of lighting power is the leader and commander, Brhaspati, commanding knowledge, tactics and wide vision, is the guide with yajna on his right, and Soma, lover of peace and felicity, is the inspiration, while Maruts, warriors of passion and enthusiasm, march in front.
9. Indrasya vr̥ṣṇo varuṇasya rājña ādityānāṁ maru-tām śardha ugram. Mahāmanasaṁ bhuvana-cyavānāṁ ghoṣo devānāṁ jayatāmudasthāt.

Great is the valour and passion of victorious and virile Indra, of the ruler Varuna, visionary Adityas and impetuous Maruts, all great and magnanimous at heart who shake the world with their vision and performance, and so let these victorious divinities’ tumultuous uproar of victory rise and reverberate in the skies.

10. Uddharṣaya maghavannāyudhānyut satvanāṁ māmakānāṁ manāṁsi. Udvṛtrahan vājināṁ vājinānyudrathānāṁ jayatāṁ yantu ghoṣāḥ.

Indra, Maghavan, lord of glory, ruler of the land, raise, calibrate and sharpen your weapons, raise the mind and morale of my brave warriors, O breaker of the clouds and darkness of evil, raise the calibre and hitting efficiency of the fast moving forces of cavalry, armour and air force, and let the roar of the victorious warriors rise and rumble in space.
progeny and our brave warriors be higher than others in excellence, and may the divinities protect us in the call to action in the battle field.

12.  \textit{Amīśāṃ cittaṁ pratilobhayantī grhāṇāṅgānyapve parehi. Abhi prehi nirdaha Ṣṛtu śokairandhe-nāmitrāstamasā sacantām.}

Get off, schizophrenia, that torment the heart and delude their mind, depart, ill health, that afflict and disable the body system of those who are children of light. Go forward, be there and burn with pain in the heart of those who are negative souls and love to abide with darkness of mind and sloth of body with suffering and unfriendliness as their food of life.

13.  \textit{Pretā jayatā nara indro vah śarma yacchatu. Ugrāḥ vah santu bāhavo’ṅadhṛṣyā yathāsatha.}

Go forward, leading lights, achieve your goals and win your victories. May Indra, lord omnipotent of honour and glory, bless you with peace and fulfilment. Let your arms be strong and bold so that you may live an active life of irresistible honour and joy without fear.
1. Asāvi somaḥ purūhūta tubhyāṁ haribhyāṁ yajñamupa yāhi tūyam. Tubhyāṁ giro vipravīrā iyānā dadhanvira indra pibā sutasya.

Indra, omnipotent ruler of the world, lord invoked by all people, our soma of love and adoration is prepared and seasoned for you, come soon to our yajna by the radiations of your refulgent presence. Vibrant poets and sages have prepared songs of adoration for you. Pray come, accept and enjoy our homage, and protect and promote this world of your own creation for us.

Indra, lord omnipotent, Hariva, saviour from suffering and commander of nature’s forces, drink of the ecstatic soma created and seasoned in the joyous currents of our karma at heart in the soul by enlightened sages. Pray accept, protect and promote this soma of joy showered by clouds and seasoned by sages for you, and feel exalted with them all to your full satisfaction and ever increase the joy.

3. Progrāṃ pītiṁ vrṣṇa iyarmi satyāṁ prayai sutasya haryaśva tubhyam. Indra dhenābhiriha mādayasva dhībhirviśvābhiḥ śacyā grṇānaḥ.
O lord of showers and nature’s radiant rays, I move this prayer and offer this soma drink distilled so true and exalting for your pleasure. Indra, adored and exalted by all our songs, thoughts and holy actions here, pray rejoice and exalt us too.

4. Û티 śacīvastava vīryeṇavayo dadhānā uṣija ṛṭa-jnāḥ. Prajāvadindra manuṣo duroṇe tasthurgṛṇa-taḥ sadhamādyāsah.

Indra, lord of holy actions of creation, sustenance and finale, under your protection by your power and generosity, ardent devotees bearing food, good health and long age, knowing and pursuing the laws of truth and yajnic living, blest with good progeny and noble humanity, abide in their yajnic home, singing, rejoicing and celebrating your generosity.

5. Praṇītibhiṣṭe haryaśva suṣṭoh suṣumnasya puru-ruco janāsah. Maṁhiṣṭhāmūtiṁ vitire dadhānāḥ stotāra indra tava sūnṛtābhīḥ.

Indra, lord of radiant powers, adorable, gracious and self-refulgent, noble people, your celebrants, bearing the advantage of your generous protection, cross the seas of existence by virtue of your divine directions and the wisdom of your words of eternal truth.
6. Upa brahmāṇī harivo haribhyāṁ somasya yāhi pītaye sutasya. Indra tvā yajñāḥ kṣamamāṇaṁ dāśvāṁ asyadhvarasya praketaḥ.

Indra, lord of radiant powers, come by the radiations of your divine presence to our songs and acts of adoration to listen and to drink the soma of our love and homage distilled from the heart. May our yajna reach you, lord omnipotent, gracious and forgiving. You are the generous giver, you know the yajna, and you award the fruits of yajna.

Him, who is lord of a thousand powers, subduer of challenging enmities, lover of soma and his own creation, mighty glorious, adorable, matchless Indra, songs of adoration exalt and salutations of celebrants praise.

Indra, lord breaker of the strongholds of darkness, want and negativities, seven are the divine streams which flow free and unobstructed, by which you fill the sea and help us cross it, ninety are the streams flowing, and nine the sources of the flow by which you bless the divines and humans to find and follow the paths of life to the destination.

The great streams of water which you released from ignominious self-containment, i.e., from the hoarding clouds and the adamantine mountains, and over which you, the sole one divinity, keep relentless watch, ever awake, Indra, those which you brought into being by breaking the cloud and whatever else you did, by the same streams, O life of life, nourish and promote the body and health of all living beings of the world.

10. Vireṇyaḥ kraturindraḥ suṣastirutāpi dhenā puru-hūtamītte. Ārdadayāvṛtramakṛṇodu lokaṁ sasāhe śakrah pṛtanā abhiṣṭih.

Indra is brave, noble doer, admirable, and so does the Vedic voice adore him, universally loved and invoked. He breaks the demons of darkness, want and ignorance, brings in light, and, mighty protector as he is, conquers all antilife forces.

\[ \text{Indra, lord breaker of the strongholds of darkness, want and negativities, seven are the divine streams which flow free and unobstructed, by which you fill the sea and help us cross it, ninety are the streams flowing, and nine the sources of the flow by which you bless the divines and humans to find and follow the paths of life to the destination.} \]

We invoke and adore Indra, lord of bliss, glorious, best of men and leaders, in this our battle of life for protection, victory and further progress. He is the best listener, illustrious, blazing in battles, destroyer of the demons of darkness and winner of wealth and honours.

Mandala 10/Sukta 105

Indra Devata, Sumitra or Durmitra Kautsa Rshi

\[ \text{We invoke and adore Indra, lord of bliss, glorious, best of men and leaders, in this our battle of life for protection, victory and further progress. He is the best listener, illustrious, blazing in battles, destroyer of the demons of darkness and winner of wealth and honours.} \]

Kadā vāsa stotraṁ haryata āva śmaśā rudhadvāḥ. Dīrgham sutam vātāpyāya.

O Vasu, shelter home of life, when does the spirit inspire, impel and create the joyous song of celebration for Indra? When it controls the various flow of the mind, then the lasting soma is prepared for the ecstatic soul.

Hari yasvya suyujja vibhava varvāntānu śarīrā.

Ubbha rūjī n kusāṇa pathadān. 2.
2. Harī yasya suyujā vivṛtā veravantāṇi śēpā.

_Ubhā rajī na keśinā patirdan._

The person whose senses of perception and volition are properly under control, dedicated to the soul in repose and illuminative like the sun and moon in unison, is blest by the master with the gift of peace and divine ecstasy in the state of grace.

अप्र यारिन्द: पार्पज आ मता न शृंग्रमाणा विपिवधान।
शुभ यद्युयुज तविषीवधान॥ ३ ॥

3. Apa yorindraḥ pāpaja ā marto na śaśramāṇo bibhīvān.

_Śubhe yadyuyuje taviśīvān._

Repeller is Indra for the man of sin, fearsome like a person sitting in judgement for punishment, but for the man dedicated to good and joined to the divine spirit, he is the giver of light and power.

सचायारिन्दुर्चर्कृष्ण आँ उपानास: संप्रवान।
नदयैविचरत्या: शूर इन्द्र:॥ ४ ॥

4. Sacāyorindraścarṣaṇa āṁ upānasah saparyan.

_Nadayorvivratayoh śūra indraḥ._

For the person dedicated to him, serving him and faithfully depending on him as the master, Indra is a friend and comrade and does every good thing for him, but for the vociferous and the refractory, he is a mighty awful punitive and corrective power.

अधि यस्तस्थाङ्कशीवन्ता व्यर्च्वन्ता न पुष्टां
वनाति शिरांभ्यां शिलिषीवन।॥ ५ ॥

5. Adhi yasstasthau keśvantā vyacasvantā na puṣṭyai.

_Vanoti śiprābhīyāṁ śipriṃśīvān._
Indra who, like the sun of radiant and expansive light, abides and rules over the world of heaven and earth with his potent and pervasive presence for the evolution and progress of life, wins over the contraries and provides everything for the pious and law abiding by both his promotive and punitive powers.

Indra, glorious lord of omnipotence, is universally adored and served by cosmic forces and he, Matarishva, mighty presence active in universal nature, as Rbhu, cosmic architect, creates and structures the universe by his divine vision, intelligence and shaping powers.

He, the lord who made the Vajra, cosmic force of universal dynamics, for breaking and building, consumption and creation through transformation of the forms in evolutionary process, and for emergence of light over darkness and positive over negative, is the lord of golden glory. He commands golden blissful powers and inviolable creative imagination, and is mysterious and sublime like the expansive space and time continuum.

Reduce and remove our sin and crookedness. Let us win over the negationists with hymns of positive celebration of nature and divinity. Yajna, pursuit of knowledge and joint action, without grateful celebration of divinity with Vedic hymns does not at all win your approval and blessing.

9. Īrdhvā yat te tretinī bhūdyajñasya dhūrusu sadman. Sajūrnāvaṁ svayaśasam sacāyoḥ.

Your Trinity of divine glory and power rising with the flames of cosmic yajna, the Trinity of Purusha, Prakrti and Jiva, the soul, which pervades the threefold universe of Sattva, Rajas and Tamas, matter, energy and thought, which pervades the three worlds of heaven, earth and the skies, which activates divine stuti, prarthana and upasana (adoration, prayer and meditation) rising in the hearts of yajakas, and which perfumes the house of cosmic yajna in space, that is the ark, friend of humanity, with its own divine glory, and life companion of the human soul in the world of existence: that ark of life and divinity may we embark with the three-dimensional mantra of Rk, Sama and Yajus and cross the seas of existence.
Let the sun, the skies and the divine voice be for your glory, expression of the showers of bliss. Let the yajnic ladle of immaculate ghrta be for the celebration of your glory without a trace of human selfishness. By these you shower the grace of your light and bliss with water on your own seat of humanity, the earth.

O lord of cosmic energy of pranic existence, thus does the positive friend of divinity adore you a hundred ways and more. Thus does the negative friend of negativities adore you a hundred times and more, you who save the child of the pious in the elimination of evil, you who protect the darling child of the celebrant in the struggle against negationists.

Mandala 10/Sukta 106

Ashvins Devate, Bhutansha Kashyapa Rshi
O Ashvins, complementarities of nature’s energy and human resources, you want just that medium and opportunity for your operation by which you may extend your field of action like the weavers extending the warp and woof of their cloth. The yajamana has been waiting and waking so that you come together and, as in happy time, you may add beauty and comfort to life with joint relations and corporate activity.

As the loving and shining twins of nature at the beginning of creation, you take on work worth completion. Like a perfect team of fast and united experts, you move and work within the master’s order and design. Stay within the community with honour and fame like welcome prophets of good news, do not stay away as veteran achievers do not go away from their ideal station of self-fulfilment.
Team of simultaneous workers like wings of a bird, wondrous as visionaries, lovers of divinity bright as fire, come and join our yajna together and, like the winds blowing all time and seasons over spaces, continue the programme abundantly.

4. Āpī vo asme pitareva putrogreva rucā nṛpaśīva turyai. Iryeva puṣṭyai kiraṇeṇa bhujyai śruṣṭi-vāneva havamā gamiṣṭam.

Twin brothers of ours, protective as parents for children, bright as blazing fire and the sun, instant achievers like ruling twins, nourishing and strengthening life like pranic energies, soothing as warmth of sun rays for comfort and joy, pray listen to our call and come immediately as success itself.

Providers of food and nourishment like a team of bullocks, givers of love and peace like friends, omnipresent observers of truth and law, hundredfold performers, saviours and protectors in a hundred ways, high and great like the spirit of energy, harbingers of good health and age, dedicated to Dharma, strong like rams in raiment like the golden fleece, and worthy of service and reverence, that’s what you are.
6. Śrīṇyeva jārbhārī turphaṛiṭū naitośeva turphaṛī parphaṛīkā. Udanyajeva jemanā maderū tā me jarayvajaram marāyu.

Shining and supporting like the moon, destroyers of hate and enmity, distributors of boons, powers of punishment for evil, breakers of darkness, pearls of the sea, victorious, joyous, may the Ashvins give the aging mortal like me the gift of unaging health and immortality.

Ashvins, like mighty fast and illustrious pilots, take the uncertain, transitory, aging mortal through the objects of value and desire across the seas. Like artists of perfect expertise and builders of the chariot, may the Ashvins come like impetuous winds and bring us wealth and life’s fulfilment.

Like the warmth and cool of the sun and moon, you make us share the honey sweets of life at the heart of the nation. Protectors of the nation’s honour, well equipped with power, force, and armaments for defence, ever on the watch like birds on the move, blissful of form like the moon, dynamic as mind in action, perceptive and responsive as visionary wise sages and tacticians: Such you are, rulers and warriors of the nation of humanity.

Like all great men, you have attained stability of mind and action in the deeper situations of life. Like the feet of the traveller fording a stream, you feel the depth of the water. Like the ears, you listen to the ruler and you remember and remind all others of their duty. Pray, like rays of the sun, please share the wonders of our karma.

In approval and appreciation of our performance you excite and inspire us with the sweetness of life. Like humming bees filling the honey comb hanging down, you bring the milk and honey of nature from above down to the earth and the cow. Like toiling farmers sowing the seeds of their sweat in the field and the earth yielding food from crops and herbs, you bring life energy for the body, mind and soul.

11. Řdhvāma stomaṅ sanuyāma vājamā no mantram sarathehopa yātam. Yaśo na pakvāṁ madhu gośvantarā bhūtāṁśo aśvinoḥ kāmamaprāḥ.

Let us realise and extend the meaning and application of the mantric song of life and achieve further progress. O Ashvins, come close by your car, share and confirm our mantras and mantric success in practice. And may the honour and excellence of the nation as well as ripe grain, honey, and milk in the cow’s udders and our knowledge of the physical essence of the world fulfil the hopes and expectations of the Ashvins and of the men and women of the world.

Mandala 10/Sukta 107

Dakshina or Dakshina-datarah Devata, Divya Angirasa or Dakshina Prajapatiya Rshi

1. Āvirabhunmaṁi māghonamesāṁ viśvāṁ jīvaṁ tamaso niramoci. Mahi jyotiḥ piṭbhirdattamāgā-duṁ panthā dakṣiṇāyā adarsī.
Revealed and manifest is the great light and glory of these sun-rays, the entire life of the world is revealed and released from darkness. Mighty light given by parental radiations of the sun is come, yajña is accomplished, and the broad flow of generosity is seen on high.

2. Uccā divi daksināvanto asthurye aśvadāḥ saha te sūryeṇa. Hiranyadā amṛtatvam bhajante vāsodāḥ soma pra tiranta āyuḥ.

Generous givers of dakshina holy gift, abide on high in the regions of light and bliss. Those who give horse in charity ride with the sun. Givers of gold win immortality. O Soma, friend of peace and joy, givers of shelter and clothes cross the hurdles of life and live a long age.

Divine fulfilment and yajnic dakshina for the holy Devas is not for the stingy, selfish and the mean, because they give not for anyone, anything. And many are those who give liberally for fear of ignominy and shame, they give for the fulfilment of the deserving holy ones.

They know and give liberal dakshina for Vayu blowing in a hundred streams, for the sun in heaven and for many other Devas who love, watch and guard humanity. And those who serve the devas and offer homage and gifts in yajna wherein they join the divinities themselves receive the fruits of yajna flowing in by seven streams.

5. Dakṣiṇāvān prathamo hūta eti dakṣiṇāvān grā-manīriragrameti. Tameva manye nṛpatim janānāṁ yaḥ prathamo dakṣiṇāmavivāya.

The giver of dakshina is first invited and goes about in advance of all, the giver of dakshina is chosen as leader and head of the community and goes to occupy the first place. I accept him as leader and ruler of the people, who rises first and highest as the man of generous giving.

He alone they call Rshi, the seer, Brahma, presiding priest of yajna, Adhvaryu, prime organiser, Samaga, singer of Saman hymns, and Ukthashasa, scholar specialist of the Rks, and he alone is the knower of immaculate divinity, who has first realised the three mantras of Aum, three branches of Veda, Rk, Yajuḥ and Sama, three orders of yajnic fire, Agni, Vayu and Aditya, and who has first fulfilled the basic part and pre-requisite of yajna, Dakshina.

He who gives a horse as dakshina, who gives a cow, who gives silver, who gives gold, gives food and food grains, that giver is our own, the very soul of yajna and, knowing this secret of yajna, he creates a protective cover for himself by dakshina.

8. Na bhojā mamrurna nyardhamīyurna riṣyanti na vyathante ha bhojāḥ. Idam yadviśvam bhuvanam svaścaitāt sarvam dakṣiṇaibhyo dadāti.

The givers of food die not, nor do they suffer want and poverty, they are never hurt, never violated, never suffer pain, because they give food in charity. And all this that the world is, all this that is comfort, joy and bliss, all this, Dakshina gives to those who give in charity.

9. Bhojā jigyūḥ surabhiṁ yonimagre bhojā jigyur-vadhvaṁ yā suvāsāḥ. Bhojā jigyurantarḥpeyam surāyā bhojā jirgyurye ahūtāḥ prayanti.

   The givers of food and relief first get a good fragrant home, liberal givers win a fair accomplished wife, generous givers reach the end sweetness of all drinks, and they win over even those who assail them, without challenge or provocation.

10. Bhojāyāśvaṁ saṁ mṛjantyāśuṁ bhujāyāaste kanyā śumbhamānā. Bhojasyedaṁ puskariṇīva veśma pariṣḵṭaṁ devamāneva citram.

   For the generous giver they embellish and adorn the fleet horse, for the generous groom the maiden waits and sits on the wedding vedi in all her finery, and for the generous man is this home, lovely as a rose bouquet and decorated, wonder worked and sanctified as a temple of divinities.
want and poverty, they are never hurt, never violated, never suffer pain, because they give food in charity. And all this that the world is, all this that is comfort, joy and bliss, all this, Dakshina gives to those who give in charity.

Well trained horses bear the generous master along in his travels, by dakshina gift to the craftsman a comfortable chariot is obtained, the divinities protect and advance the generous yajamana in all his yajnic battles for life, and the generous giver alone is the winner over oppositions in all conflicts.

Mandala 10/Sukta 108

Devata: Sarama (1, 3, 5, 7, 9), Panayah (2, 4, 6, 8, 10, 11); Rshi: Panayah Asurah (1, 3, 5, 7, 9), Sarama Devashuni (2, 4, 6, 8, 10, 11)

This sukta is a dialogue between the Panis who are also Asuras, and Sarama. At the physical level the Panis are the dark clouds of vapours, and Sarama is thunder and lightning. At the spiritual, the Panis are the senses and pranas and Sarama is the energy of the spirit, the soul’s urge for living, elan vital or Ashish.

What does she want? Sarama, thunder voice of divinities, that is come here? The path which the higher ones tread is far off, not here. And what is our interest here in her coming? How deep is the darkness like the unfathomable night! How has she crossed the floods of the skies. (This is what the Panis say in response to Sarama’s approach.)

2. Indrasya dūūriśītī carāmi maha icchantī paṇayo nidhīn vaiḥ. Atiśkado bhiyasā tanna āvat tathā rasāyā ataramā payāṃsi.

    Sarama: O clouds, O pranic energies, I am the dynamic spirit of Indra, inspired by Indra, I sojourn here, anxious to take on the treasures and pleasures of your living possibilities. I wander from the boundless force of Indra, and I wander with fear. May Indra protect us. That’s how I have crossed the floods of water and the golden greens of Indra’s court.

3. Kīḍrṇīndraḥ sarame kā drṣṭīkā yasyedam dūūrasaraḥ parākāt. Ā ca gacchānmitramenā dadhāmā’thā gavāṁ gopatirno bhavāti.

    Panis: O Sarama, voice of thunder and lightning, O dynamic spirit of life, what sort is this Indra? What is his strength and splendour whose messenger you come travelling from far, whom we should receive as a friend and bear as one that he may be our master and the master of our cows, our powers and potentials for living?

Наїям таї веді дабхіам дадхаті са ўасядам дүтірасам паракат. На таї гўханті сразвание габхіра хіта Індрена паняя ўашадхве.

Sarama: O Panis, O clouds, O senses and pranic powers of practical living, I do not comprehend that power, Indra, which is undaunted, which is overpowering, whose messenger I am, come from afar. Mighty rolling oceans of unfathomable depth cannot cover it, nor contain it. Indeed, struck by Indra, the clouds fall in showers and lie on the ground.

ім ігвай сараме ўа айкчаі pari диво антін анрінду патанті. Каста ена арв ўрядыдхву тасмакамайудха санті тігма.

Panis: O noble and glorious Sarama, these streams of rain, these vibrations of senses, mind and energies which you want, travelling unto the bounds of heaven, who would release these for you without struggle? And our weapons too are sharp and powerful.

асуня ве: паняя вчаншнінікваштінв: санті папі.
ардшіда в етва арсту панта брухпаратів упрау а нріїта.
6. Asenyā vaḥ paṇayo vacāsyaniṣavyāstanvah santu pāpīḥ. Adhṛṣṭo va etavā astu panthā brhaspatirva ubhayā na mṛłāt.

Sarama: O Panis, clouds of vapour, mind and sense vibrations, your words are not worthy of fight, your bodies are too tenuous for the arrows, your path of motion too is not strong enough for any campaign. And even Brhaspati, lord of speech and space, himself would not be too indulgent toward you. You are too lost in the dust around to be free from sin.

7. Ayāṁ nidhiṁ sarame adribudhno gobhiraśve-bhirvasubhirnyṛṣṭaḥ. Rakṣanti tam paṇayo ye sugopā reku padamalakāmā jagantha.

Panis: O Sarama, light of lightning, spirit of life’s will, this treasure is locked in the cloud, it is vibrant with sunlight within, lustre of nature and wealths of life. And that treasure, practical possibilities guard. Wonderful guards are they. In vain have you come to this place, it is void of anything for you.

8. Eha gamannṛṣayaḥ somaśitā ayāsyo anāgiraso navagvāḥ. Ta etamūrvam vi bhajanta gōnā-mathaitadvacaḥ paṇayo vamannit.

Sarama: O Panis, calculative clouds of small gain, here come the sharpest shears of wind, stormy gusts of winds, sudden whirl winds, which all will shatter this concentration of waves and vapours of living possibilities of the rains of life, (render them meaningless and purposeless without the presence of Indra, the soul). Mind therefore, and withdraw those words.

\[
\text{एवा च त्वं सरम आजुगन्ध्य परबाधिता सहसा दब्बन्।}
\]
\[
\text{स्वसारं त्वा कृणचुड़मा पुरंगा अर्थ त गवां सुभग भजाम॥ ९ ॥}

9. Evā ca tvam saramā ājagantha prabādhitā sahasā daivyena. Svasāramā tvā kṛṇavai mā punargā apa te gavāṁ subhage bhajāma.

Panis: O Sarama, thunderous voice and lightning version of Indra, this way, then, you come equipped with divine powers and forces. We then accept you as our self-fluent and self-energised sister. O glorious sister, pray do not go back, we share the waves and vapours of life with you, and we give you what is yours.

\text{नाहं वदं भातूलं ना स्वरूपविन्द्वा विदुरञ्जितसश्च घारा:।}
\]
\[
\text{गाकामा म अच्छदयून्यदयमपारं जत पणया वरीयं:॥ १० ॥}

10. Nāham veda bhrātṛtvam no svasṛtvamindro viduraṅgarasaśca ghorāḥ. Gokāmā me acchadayayānām apāta ita paṇayo varīyāḥ.

Sarama: O Panis, I know no brotherliness, nor sisterhood. Indra and fiery winds and energies of nature’s law know what is to be known. Those who want to live by senses and pranas, the source whence I come, would move and win you. Hence you go off far from here.

O Panis, O clouds, go far away to the best place you can. Let the vapours break the bonds and go up by the law of nature, and Brhaspati, master of space and rain, Soma, master of herbs, Gravana, scholar scientist of vapours and condensation, the sages of vision and holily motivated specialists would obtain them wherever hidden, however so deep. So will Indra, the soul, win the senses and pranas to satisfy the will to live in the world of existence.

Mandala 10/Sukta 109

Vishvedevah Devata, Brahmajaya Juhu or Brahmaputra Urdhvanabha Rshi

In the beginning, to express and reveal the joyous manifestation of the creativity of Supreme Brahma, those first borns of the dynamics of divine law, Akupara, the light principle or Aditya Rshi, Salila, the liquid principle or Angira Rshi, Matarishva, the wind energy principle or Vayu Rshi, Viduhara, the fiery catalytic principle or Agni Rshi, all like yajnic fire burning and creative, illustrious, soothing, flowing, divine souls and spirits express and reveal the divine voice of the Veda. (This voice is the Iła.)

Soma, the ruling spirit of life, all at peace, having first received the divine Word, the Vedic voice, concomitant of omniscience, gives it again to Brahma in the dynamic Sarasvati form. Varuna, Mitra and Agni follow, and the yajaka Agni holds it by hand as in the yajnic ladle and leads it on.

The received form of this divine Vak is to be practically received by hard discipline. “This is the child of heaven,” this having been said, “This is not for communication without practice,” this is the important injunction. It does not wait for any one, it does not stand still, it moves on. Its meaning is hidden like the state of the dominion of a ruler.

The divinities of eternal time and seven ancient sages who sit down for tapas and cosmic yajna speak and communicate this. It is the mighty companion of the devotee of Brahman received through discipline of celibacy and initiation. Brhaspati, lord of Infinity holds this sublime Vak in infinite space and time.

The Brahmachari, dedicated to this sublime subject, goes on pursuing the discipline of the divine voice and, internalising it, becomes one of, and with, the nature and presence of the Devas. And thereby, O sages, the scholar obtains the Word and the wedded wife escorted to him by the blissful somaic preceptor like the ghrta ladle for yajnic offering and achievement.

Noble teachers and scholars continuously go on teaching the Vedic voice and noble people conduct the yajnic programmes of education. Rulers and brilliant men of knowledge and generous disposition serving the divine truth carry on the propagation of the holy Word and its extension in practice and application.

7. Purardāya brahmajāyāṁ kṛtvā devairnikilviśam. Ūrjaṁ pṛthivyā bhaktvāyorūgāyamupāsate.

Thus do sages, scholars and noble people, serving and spreading the light of divine knowledge and the Vedic Word, sanctified and energised for life’s purity, excellence and joy by Devas, serve Brahma, Lord Supreme in order that they may enjoy and extend the wealth and creativity of mother earth and the environment.

Mandala 10/Sukta 110

Aprīyaj (Idhama or Samiddhagni, Taru-napat, Ila, Barhi, Davidvara, Ushasanakta, Daivyu Hotaraus Prachetasau, Tisradevyah, Tvashta, Vanaspati, Svahakrtis) Devata, Jamadagni Bhargava or Rama Jamadagnya Rshi

1. Samiddho adya manuṣṇa duroṇe devo devān yajasi jātavedaḥ. Ā ca vaha mitramahāścikitvān tvam dūtaḥ kavirasi pracetāḥ.

O Jataveda, life pervasive in all that is born, lighted fire of life, light of light, greatest friend, bearer of the fragrance of life, all awareness, all intelligence, you are the poetic seer and creator, and when you are lighted faithfully in the human homes you invoke, bring in and join the divinities. Pray bring in today for us all that is divine in life and nature.

2. \textit{Tanūnapāt patha ṛtasya yānān madhvā samañjantsvadayā sujihva. Manmāni dhībhiruta yajñamṛndhan devatrā ca krṣuhyadhvaram naḥ.}

O Tanu-napat, sustainer of your own existential form and promoter of our health and mind, O divine light of holy flames, enjoy and sprinkle with honey the paths of yajna by which the fragrances rise and the yajakas proceed to the divinities by observance of the law of Truth, and, augmenting our thoughts with acts of holiness and beatifying the yajna, take over our songs and yajna of love and non-violence and establish it in the heights of divinities.

3. \textit{Ājuhvāna īḍyo vandyaścāyāhyagne vasubhiḥ sajośāḥ. Tvain devānāmasi yahva hotā sa enān yakṣiṣito yaṭiyān.}

Invoked and invoking, venerable and adorable Agni, come with all the pervasive wealth and excellences of life and join this yajna. Mighty great you are among the divinities, presiding priest of divine... nature, sociable, loved, admired and cherished for company, pray bring in the divinities to the yajna.

पाचींन बरहिः प्रदिश्वत पृथिव्या वस्तोरस्या वृज्ञत अगा अहाम। व्यु पश्चत विलं वरीया दुवभ्या अदितय स्या-नय | ॥ ॥

4. Prācīnam barhiḥ pradiśā pṛthivyā vastorasyā vṛjyate agre ahnām. vyu prathate vitaram varīyo devebhyo aditaye syonam.

In advance of the days and dawns for the vestment of this earth as ever, holy grass is gathered and spread out over the vedi by divine ordainment, and the creative yajna proceeds and expands wide and high, joyous and brilliant for mother earth and the divinities.

(This yajna may be interpreted either as the daily morning yajna or the first creative yajna at the dawn of each existential cycle.)

व्यचरस्वतीरुविया वि श्र्ययतां परित्वभ्या न जरत्स: शुष्क-माना:। दर्षेद्वया बृहत्विविशवमिन्वा दुबभ्या' भवत सुपायुणा:। ॥ ॥

Let the doors of divine vision and wisdom open wide and high, unbounded, unbarred, universal, accommodative and blissful for the divinities of nature and humanity, and sustain and promote the people as gracious women with open arms inspire and exalt their husbands.
6. Ā suṣvayantī yajate upāke uṣāsānaktā sadatāṁ ni yonau. Divye yoṣāne bṛhatī surukme adhi śriyāṁ śukrapiśaṁ dadhāne.

Creative, generous and peaceable, companionable and adorable day and night, divine, youthful, expansive, brilliant and beautiful, wearing and bearing grace and grandeur of the purest powerful order may abide together and join us in this yajna.

Divine Agni and Aditya, first and foremost universal yajakas of noble expression, participants in cosmic yajna, promoting all yajnic programmes of nature and humanity and projecting the universal light of existence, directing and showing it by various paths of nature, may, we pray, inspire and promote us in order to help us enact and accomplish all our human programmes of yajnic nature and purpose.

8. Ā no yajñaṁ bhāraṭī tūyametvilā manusvādiha cetayanī. Tisro devīrbarhiredam syonam sarasvati svapasaḥ sadantu.
May Ila, the spirit of transcendent divinity, Sarasvati, dynamic spirit of universal immanent omniscience, and Bharati, generous spirit of mother nature and mother earth, all three divinities of holy light, knowledge and love, noble doers of divine acts, come at the earliest and seat themselves here on the lovely sacred grass of our vedi like human mothers and bless us with vision, wisdom and enlightenment.

That shaping power of divinity which adorns with beautiful forms these two creative motherly heaven and earth and all other natural forms of existence, that divine refulgent Tvashta, O learned yajaka, loved and venerable, invoke, adore and worship in the yajna here today.

And sincerely with your heart and soul, offer holy havis into the yajnic fire, having prepared the holy materials, seasoning them with honey and ghrta for food of the divinities according to the seasons, and let...
Vanaspati, nature’s greenery, Shamita, breaker of the clouds for showers of peace and prosperity, and the refulgent sun taste and consume the offerings with delight.

\text{सुदा जाता व्यपिति युज्मपग्रिवानारामभवत्युरागा: । अस्य हातुः पदिश्यृतस्य वाचि स्वाहाकृतं हुविर्रदन्तु दुवा: ॥ ११ ॥}

11. \textit{Sadyo jāto vyamimītā yajñamagnirdevā- mabhavat purogāḥ. Asya hotuḥ pradiśyṛtasya vāci svāhākṛtam haviradantu devāḥ.}

Agni which is the first and pioneer of the divinities enacts and lights up the yajna as soon as it arises and accomplishes it to the end, so may the divinities, under the action and direction of this yajaka, share and consume the fragrant havis offered with Svaha into the flames of yajnic fire with complete faith and dedication.

\textbf{Mandala 10/Sukta 111}

\textit{Indra Devata, Ashtadanshtra Vairupa Rshi}

\[
\text{मनीषिणः प भरध्वं मनीषां यथायथा मतयः सन्ति नृणाम ।}
\text{इन्द्रं सुत्याययामः कृताभि: स हिंचीरा गिरवानास्युरविदानाः ॥ १ ॥}

1. \textit{Maniśiṇāḥ pra bharadhvaṁ maniśāṁ yathāyathā matayah santi nṛṇām. Indraṁ satyairerayāmā kṛtebhiḥ sa hi vīro girvaṇasyurvidānaḥ.}

O men of thought and wisdom, judgement and reflection, bear your thoughts and offer your songs and prayers to Indra according to whatever are the thoughts and faith of the people. With our sincere thoughts, words and actions, we praise and pray to Indra. He alone is the lord omnipotent and generous, he alone knows all that is, and he knows and accepts the thoughtful celebrant.

Indra is the splendour and sustainer of the regions of light and vapours of skies, he rises and shines, playful like the youthful calf of a heifer or Prakṛti at the dawn and comes up in glory with attendant radiations. He rises with the blaze of light and proclamation of its might pervading wide and bold the great expansive regions of space.

3. Indraḥ kila śrutiṣā asya veda sa hi jiṣṇuḥ pathikṛt sūryāya. Ānmenāṁ kṛṇvannacyuto bhuvadgoḥ patirdivaḥ sanajā apratītaḥ.

Indra knows the course of existence in entirety as is known by revelation of the Veda. He alone is the ultimate victorious over all, he alone sets the orbit for the sun, he alone reveals the sacred Word of divine knowledge. He alone is the master of heaven and earth, imperishable, eternal, infinite.
4. Indro mahnā mahato arṇavasya vratāminārdaḥgirobhirgrṇānaḥ. Puruṇī cinni tatānā rajāmsi dādhāra yo dharuṇam satyatātā.

Indra is lord almighty by his own omnipotence, ruling the spatial ocean of particles of matter and energy, both manifesting and withdrawing them, homage being done by vibrant sages and blazing stars of the universe. He creates and extends the many many worlds of space and he wields the law and the power that holds the entire worlds of existence.

5. Indro divah pratimānānā prthivyā viṣvā veda savanā hanti śuṣṇam. Mahī cid dyāmātanot sūryeṇa cāskambha cit kambhanena skabhīyān.

Indra is the maker and measure of heaven and earth, knows all operations of the world in existence, and destroys drought and adversity by showers of rain and divine grace. He enlightens the great heavens by the sun and he himself is the pillar of the universe holding it in dynamic balance by the law of divine Rtam working in nature.

6. Vajreṇa hi vṛtrah vṛtramśtrasrddavasya śrūṣṭivānasya māyāḥ. vi dhṛṣṭena atre śṛṣṭa jñānārthaśvābhava mahāvä ṣvā́ḥ.

O lord of glory, destroyer of darkness, negativity and want, destroy the demon of evil by the Bajra, unfailing catalytic power of nature you wield. O lord indomitable, be the mighty hero of arms of adamant and steel, destroy the violent forces of terror, frustrate the wiles and designs of the uncreative forces of society and be the saviour by unassailable power of Divinity.

7. Sacanta yaduṣasāḥ sūryeṇa citrāmasya ketavo rāmavindan. Ā yannakṣatraṁ dadṛśe divo na punaryato nakiddhā no veda.

When the lights of the dawn join the sun, then its rays assume wonderful beauty and glory. Then (in the day) I see no (other) star of heaven nor any joining the rising dawn again. Why? What is this mystery? Who knows of this? (Only Indra).

At the rise of the sun, the first rays and the first mists of the morning move and go far far away. Who knows what and where is their beginning, what is their basic foundation, what is their middle, and what and where their end? Who among you knows this mystery? (Only Indra).

Indra, when you release the showers of rain engulfed by the cloud, then these flow down free and rapidly. Thus those who want freedom and release from bondage are released by Indra, and once released, they do not stop on way involved in the bonds (they have cast away).

Together the streams released by Indra flow and join the sea like loving women joining their husband, the lord of time and breaker of the existential bonds always since eternity is their inspirer and freedom giver. O Indra, may all our earthly wealth and excellences of sense and mind, all your gifts here, and all our songs of adoration and voices of prayer ultimately reach you, the destination from existence to the essence.
Indra Devata, Nabha Prabhedana Vairupa Rshi

1. Indra piba pratikāmaṁ sutasya pṛātaḥ sāvastava hi pūrvapītiḥ. Harśasva hantave śūra śatrūnu-kthebhiṣṭe vīryā pra bravāma.

Indra, lord of glory, drink of the soma of love and adoration prepared and offered you as you please in response to our desire. This morning prayer, adoration and yajnic homage is primarily and exclusively for you. Pray be exalted and rise to destroy the enemies and negativities of life. With our songs and praise we celebrate your acts of omnipotence and generosity.

2. Yaste ratho manaso javīyānendra tena somapeyāya yāhi. Tūyamā te harayaḥ pra dvavantu yebhiryāsi vṛṣabhirmandamānaḥ.

Indra, come by that chariot of yours which is faster than the mind, come to taste the sweets of our soma of adoration and prayer. May the horses of your chariot instantly turn and speed hither, mighty horses by which, all happy and blissful, you come and bless the devotees.

Let our body, mind and soul be touched by golden glory of the sun and transmuted into the highest forms of beauties and graces of life. Indra, thus invoked and adored by us who yearn for company and communion with you, pray come, be seated in the heart and soul in union, joyous and exalted, and lead us to the divine goal.

4. Yasya tyat te mahimānam madesvime mahī rodasī nāviviktām. Tadoka ā haribhirindra yuktaiḥ priyebhīryāhi priyamannamaccha.

Indra, whose grandeur in the state of divine ecstasy even the great heaven and earth do not comprehend, exalted in that very halo and glory of ecstasy, come by the dear golden radiations of divinity harnessed to your chariot and well enjoy the presentations of our homage, the food cherished by Divinity.

5. Yasya śaśvata papivāṁ indra śatrūnāna ṇuktva raṇyā cakartha. Sa te purandhiṁ taviṣīmiyarti sa te madāya suta indra somaḥ.

Indra, that soma which you always enjoy, and that yajamana whom you always protect and destroy his enemies with inimitable and incomparable weapons, that soma is distilled and ready for your drink and, and that yajamana solicits your radiant attention and generous favour of grace.

Indra, lord of infinite action, this heart and soul is ever dedicated to you, pray accept and enjoy the love and homage presented by the celebrant. Over flowing is the heart and soul with ecstatic joy and honey sweets of devotion which all divinities of heaven and earth love and cherish.

Many many people with various kinds of homage and prayer invoke you, lord of infinite power and generosity. All these our presents of love, honour and adoration of the sweetest order are for you only. Pray accept these with love and favour.

Indra, I celebrate and glorify your eternal manifestations of might and the highest exploits you have ever before accomplished. Lord of essential power and passion, you break the cloud, open the mountains, and you break the deep silence of the night of annihilation and proclaim the Word for the men of vision and wisdom.

O lord of the people, stay and abide with the people, they celebrate you as the highest incomparable of the poets of the world of existence. Nothing happens, nothing is done without you far or near. O lord of glory, I offer you the highest and most wonderful tribute and homage and adoration.

10. Abhikhyāṇo maghavan nādhamānāntśakh’ bādhī varṣaṁpūrta sakhīnām. Raṇam kṛdhi raṇakṛt satya-śuṣmābhakte cīdā bhajā rāye asmān.

Pray turn to us, watch us with favour, lord of glory, we beseech you. O lord of world’s wealth, honour and excellence, O friend, know, acknowledge and accept the friend of divinity. Fight out our enemies, lord of battle, commander of imperishable power and force, lead us on to achieve and share the wealth and honour so far unshared and unknown.

Mandala 10/Sukta 113

Indra Devata, Shataprabhedana Vairupa Rshi

   May heaven and earth along with all the nobilities of nature and humanity, all of equal and agreeable mind, follow, protect and promote the might of Indra, this ruling power of the world, when he goes forward to display that power and grandeur of his mind and senses and, exalted by the happy and exhilarating glory of his dominion in action, rises in greatness and majesty.

   Vishnu, pervasive power and presence of nature and humanity, holding, sharing and sustaining its own part of the power and Dharma of Indra’s dominion by virtue of its own might and lustre, exalts the sweetness and grace of his system, and Indra, ruler of the glorious dominion, destroying the evil factors of darkness, want and ignorance with the assistance of his supporters and divine partners rises mightier, proves his greatness and majesty and becomes the object of his devotees’ choice all the more.

3. \textit{Vṛteṇa yadahinā bibhrdāyudhā samasthithā yudhaye ūṁsāmāvide. Viśve te atra marutaḥ saha tmanāvardhannugra mahimānamindriyam.}

When against forces of darkness and serpentine crookedness you bear weapons and stand firm to fight, win all agreement, approval and admiration that all is well, then, O blazing lord of might and glory, all the Maruts, vibrant powers of nature and humanity in the world, together with their heart and soul join and exalt your greatness and the magnanimity of your majesty of mind and soul.

4. \textit{Jajñāna eva vyabādhata spṛḍhaḥ prāpaśyadvīro abhi pauṁsyāṁ raṇam. Avṛścadadrimava sasyadaḥ sṛjadalabhnānākāṁ svapasyayā pṛthum.}
From the very rise and manifestation, repelling, expelling and removing conflicts and confrontations of jealous forces, watching, assessing and affirming his fighting forces, breaking down clouds of pent up waters and mountainous hoards of resources and releasing all stagnant potentials, and sustaining the mighty vast world of light and joy by his will, wisdom and active power, Indra rules and reigns in glory.

5. Ādindraḥ satrā tavisīrapatyata variyo dyāvā-ḥṛṣṭīvī abādhata. Avābhāraddhrṣito vajramāya-sāṁ śevāṁ mitrāya varuṇāya dāśuṣe.

Indra keeps, rules and controls all the dynamic forces of the world together in order, separates, holds, energises and moves heaven and earth and maintains the order of separate identity and togetherness in balance, and, undaunted and invincible, he wields the thunderbolt of justice and punishment as well as the golden sceptre of peace and law for people of love, justice, free choice and generosity.

When the blazing Indra with his might breaks the demonic cloud hoarding the waters of life covered in darkness, then in honour of the brave hero of shattering thunder and his brilliant forces, poets sing songs of adoration.

When two warriors, Indra and Vṛtra, meet in battle doing mighty acts of the first order of valour with their respective valour and power, then, when the covering darkness is destroyed, Indra with his might rules the scene and dominates over the first invocation and institution of yajna.

And then all saints and holy men of the world celebrate and exalt your mighty deeds with voices full of sweetness, love and adoration. And when Vṛtra is destroyed by the fatal blow of Indra and darkness is dispelled, Indra like the sun waxes in glory as fire rises in flames, having consumed fuel food with its jaws and crackling tongues.
9. Bhūri dakṣebhirvacanebhirṛkvabhiḥ sakhyebhiḥ sakhyāṇi pra vocata. Indro dhunīṁ ca cumurīṁ ca mambhayaṅchraddhāmanasya śṛṇute dabhī-tyaye.

O celebrants of Indra dedicated to yajnic union and cooperation, celebrate your kinship with Indra enthusiastically and proclaim with words of power, praise, love and friendship: Indra listens with faith, understanding and sympathy at heart to invocation and prayer for relief of the oppressed and subdues the vociferous ogres and terrorising destroyers of life and values of good living. (Such a person is worthy of being the ruler, Indra of the human nation.)

10. Tvam purūṇyā bharā svaśvya yebhirmaṁsaṁai nivacanāṁi śaṁsan. Sugebhirviśvā duritā tarema vido ṣu ṣa urviyā gādhamadya.

Indra, omnipotent ruler of the world, bear and bring us abundant wealth, honour and excellence flowing in from all sides so that I may be able to think and meditate with words of prayer, praise and thankfulness: O lord, let us get over all difficulties, evils and undesirables of the world by simple, natural and navigable paths of progress, and you now, today itself, firmly seat and settle yourself over the wide world and receive our homage and admiration as tribute of love at heart in faith.

Mandala 10/Sukta 114

Vishvedevah Devatah, Sadhri Vairupa or Gharma Tapasa Rshi

Bright heat and light in conjunction pervade the threefold universe of heaven, earth and the middle regions. Matarishva, basic cosmic energy and pranic vitality, joins these two in friendly alliance for love and service. From the heaven of light and divine awareness flow vibrations bearing the milk of life and the divine message of knowledge for human awareness, and divine souls receive the light of eternal illumination, the Vedic message with the music of Samans in ecstasy.

2. Tisro deṣṭrāya nirṛturupāsatedīrgaśruto vi hi jānanti vahnayaḥ. Tāsāṁ ni cikyuḥ kavayo nidānam paresu yā guhyesu vrateṣu.

Sages who have heard the divine message for long through discipline carry it on to pass it on to others. They know, closely watch, internalise and worship the trinity of eternal reality and its existential dynamics: Brahma, Prakṛti, and Jiva, three modes of Prakṛti: sattva, rajas and tamas, three phases of temporal existence: creation, continuance and completion, three aspects of the good life: knowledge, karma and worship, three aspects of worship: adoration, prayer and meditation in the triple world of earth, skies and heaven. Poetic vision arises and creative souls know the original cause of all these orders of existence and knowledge which operate in all other open and covert, lowest and highest facts, activities and disciplines of life. That cause is One, Supreme, Unique.

चतुष्कपर्दा युवति: सुपर्ण घृतप्रतीका वस्ता।
तस्या सुपर्णा वृहिणा नि प्रजात्यन्त्र दुधा दधिर्भाग-धर्मयम् ॥ ३ ॥

3. Catuskapardā yuvaṁ supeṣā ghṛtaprafikā vayunāni vaste. Tasyāṁ suparṇa vṛṣanā ni śedaturyatra devā dadhire bhāgadheyam.

Fourfold is that reality of existence, knowledge and the language of knowledge: Prakṛti, jiva, immanent ordainer and the transcendent; matter, energy, intelligence and avyakta Prakṛti; Rks, Samans, Yajus and Chhandas; Para, pashyanti, madhyama and vaikhari, in other words, nama, akhyata, upasarga and nipata. The vedi of existence in which it abides is ever young, beyond age and death, eternal. It is beautiful and exciting, golden gracious, which covers all the rules and laws of existence. In that abide two generous, creative beautiful birds on the tree of life: the one that watches is the Supreme Spirit of the cosmos, and the other that eats the fruit and tastes the sweet and the bitter of it is the individual human soul. In that existence, that knowledge and that Word of knowledge, noble souls find, live and experience their share of existence and the divine essence.

One and One only is the cosmic spirit which pervades and manifests in the boundless ocean of space-and-time. It watches, illuminates and inspires this entire universe. I see it with pure and transparent mind manifesting at the closest. Prakrti which is the mother medium of its manifestation embraces it in love, and it too loves and embraces the mother medium. So also, divine Speech which is the mother medium of its expression embraces it in love, and it too loves and embraces the mother medium.

Vibrant self-realised sages and visionary poets visualise and express the One immutable Spirit by words of their experiential vision. Taking on to the poetic compositions of Vedic mantras in yajnas and meditative sessions they visualise and restructure twelve cyclic manifestations and self-expressions of soma, the moon, the sun and the light beyond the sun and moon, and the spirit of life itself.

6. Saṭṭriśāṁśca caturāḥ kalpayantaśchandāṁsi ca dadhata ādvādaśam. Yajñāṁ vimāya kavayo maniṣa ṛksāmābhyāṁ pra rathāṁ vartayanti.

Visualising and re-structuring the modes and manifestations of the Soma spirit through thirty-six and four poetic structures bearing upto the twelfth of the forms, having enacted the yajna with their thought and imagination, the sages accomplish the yajnic cycle with Rks and Samans.

7. Caturdaśāṁye mahimāno asya taṁ dhīrā vācā pra ṇayanti sapta. Āpnaṁ tīrthāṁ ka iha pra vocadyena pathā prapibante sutasya.

Fourteen are other majestic manifestations of this soma spirit of the universe in dynamic yajnic form which seven grand sages conduct with the voice divine. And here, in this world of limited human imagination, who can explain and reveal in human terms that all-pervasive saviour spirit in its reality and that central path by which the sages move up to divinity and have a drink of the soma ecstasy of divinity distilled through experience?

Thousandfold are the Vedic hymns, fifteen of them the highest and best, all extended as far as the heaven and earth. Thousandfold are the majesties and glories of it, the Vedic Word and vision extending and abiding as far as the vision and omniscience of divinity.

Who is the constant sage that knows the structure, end and purpose of the hymns? Who attains to the centre meaning of divine reality corresponding to the word of divine voice? Who would say who is the eighth veteran of the sagely yajakas? Who knows the two mighty carriers of the cosmic chariot of Indra?
10. Bhūmyā antaiṁ paryeke caranti rathasya dhūrṣu yuktāsō asthuḥ. Śramasya dāyaṁ vi bhajantye-bhyo yadā yamo bhavati harmye hitaḥ.

Some of the horses of Indra, master of the solar chariot, as rays of the sun, reach the ends of the solar regions while they abide yoked to the poles of the chariot. The divinities of nature provide them with food to replenish the energy spent, when the sun rests inside its chamber.

Mandala 10/Sukta 115

Agni Devata, Upastuta Varshīhavya Rshi

चित्र इच्छिशास्तरङ्गस्य च । रथा न या मातरावृप्तिः धातव ।
अनूथा यदि जीजनानुर्धा च नु वव । सत्यं महिं दूर्यं । चररञ् ॥ १ ॥

Wondrous is the invigorating and sustaining power of the newly risen youthful Agni which never goes to its parental source for food and energy replenishment. And if you say that the udderless creator has given it birth, even so, going on its great ambassadorial mission, it carries the fragrant message of yajna to the divinities immediately on its birth.

अग्नि नाम धाविः द्वपत्तमः सं या वनी गुइत भर्माना
दुता । अभिपपुर्ण जुंही स्वध्वर हुना न पाथ्माना यवसं
वृषोऽ ॥ २ ॥
2. Agnirha nāma dhāyi dannapastamaḥ saṃ yo vanā yuvate bhasmanā datā. Abhipramurā juhvā svadhvara ino na prothamāno yavase vṛṣā.

Agni, ‘high priest’ is the name given to ‘fire’, fiery leader of yajna, which, heroic of action, giving generously, takes to the woods with blazing flames and crackling jaws and, noble deity of yajna as it is, with ladlefuls of havi joins us with gifts of life like a mighty roaring cloud raining on pastures and fields of corn.

3. Tam vo viṁ na druṣadaṁ devamandhasa induṁ prothantaṁ pravapantamarṇavam. Āsā vahnim na śociśā virapśinam mahivrataṁ na sarajanta-madhvanaḥ.

O celebrants of yajna, celebrate Agni, the leader, watching every thing like a bird on the tree, abiding in every thing dynamic, brilliant and generous, profuse giver of food and joy, thundering as a cloud of living showers and deep as the sea, consumer of havi by flames of fire and giver of light by sun rays, mighty strong and exalted, grand achiever of victories and pioneer path maker and illuminator like the sun.

4. Vi yasya te jrayasānasyājara dhakṣorona vātāḥ pari syntacyutāḥ. Ā raṇvāso yuyudhayo na stvanaṁ tritāṁ naśanta pra śiṣanta iṣṭaye.
Agni, power unaging and dynamic, inviolable and imperishable are your forces like the radiations of dazzling light and blazing fire which, like victorious warriors, come to you, power indomitable and presence pervasive in three worlds, and exhort you for their life’s fulfilment.

Sa idagnih kañvatamaḥ kañvasakhāryaḥ parasyāntarasya taruṣaḥ. Agnih pātu grñato agnih sūrīnagnirddatātu teṣāmavo nah.

That Agni, lord and leader of life, wisest pioneer and comrade of the warring wise, is the saviour giver of success and fulfilment to devotees far and near across difficulties within and outside. May Agni protect and promote the celebrants and the brave and give us the advantage of their protection and advancement.

Vājintamāya sahyase supitrya trṣu cyavāno anu jātavedase. Anudre cidyo dhṛṣatā varam sate mahintamāya dhanvanedavisyate.

Resplendent fatherly presence between heaven and earth, I, spontaneously inspired and exalted, offer homage and pray for protection to the most powerful presence, Agni, forbearing as well as challenging, all pervasive and aware, ever true, highest and most glorious protector and promoter who provides succour and sustenance of high order even in dry desert lands of no water by his indomitable power and potential.

7. Evāgnirmartaiḥ saha sūribhirvasuḥ śtave sahasāh sūnaro nṛbhiḥ. Mitrāso na ye sudhitā ṛtāyavo dyāvo na dyumnairabhi santi mānuśān.

Thus Agni, wealth, power and shelter of the world, inspirer of strength, ambition and enthusiasm for life, is adored and exalted by the brave along with the leading lights of vision and action, though mortals all, who, constantly disciplined in mind, dedicated to truth and yajnic action for creativity and production of good things for life, like friends of mankind in unison and united action, excel and lead ordinary humanity by virtue of their brilliance and shining achievements.

8. Ūrjo napāt sahasāvanniti vopastutasya vandate vrṣā vāk. Tvāṁ stoṣāma tvayā suvīrā drāghiya āyuḥ prataram dadhānāḥ.

“Child of energy, creator, sustainer and master of strength, energy and victory, undaunted and inviolable wielder of courage, patience and enthusiasm for living”, thus does the celebrant’s profound vision and word describe you as he closely watches and adores you. We, holy, brave and grateful, praise you while we enjoy your gift of good health, long life and the vision and hope of ultimate success and fulfilment.

Agni, lord omniscient, leading light of existence, cosmic energy of nature, thus do visionary sages, close watchful scholars, children of yajjakas pursuing, enacting and accomplishing yajnic acts for rain showers and gifts of generous nature, describe and adore you. Pray protect and promote them with success. Bless the celebrants. Advance the veteran scholars. “Here is the havi, pray accept the oblation”, saying this they raise the hand for offering and rise. “Salutations to Agni and honour to the generous giver for the achievement of showers, food and energy,” saying this with surrender and submission they rise and achieve their mission’s success and fulfilment.

Mandala 10/Sukta 116

Indra Devata, Agniyuta Sthaura or Agniyupa Sthaura Rshi

1. Pibā somaṁ mahata indriyāya pibā vṛtrāya hantave Śśaviṣṭha. Piba rāye savase hūyamānah piba madhvastrpadindrā vrṣasva.
Indra, lord omnipotent, light of life, ruler of the world, harbinger of the showers of prosperity, drink of the soma of our homage, and protect and promote the honour of your own creation for the power and glory of humanity on earth. Mightiest lord, take over and rule the world for the elimination of evil and the promotion of the positive values of life. Invoked and exalted, inspire your own people for the sake of strength, high morale and prosperity, honour and excellence. Promote the sweetness and culture of life and, happy and satisfied, bring us showers of all round progress and prosperity.

Indra, taste the best of beauty and sweetness of this abundant and powerful soma of the social and spiritual system prepared and seasoned to purity and sanctity of the highest order and presented in full faith. O giver of good and all round welfare of life, come straight to our vedi for the gift of wealth, honour and excellence of prosperity, happy at heart, and let us all rejoice.

Let the heavenly soma of the sun and moon exhilarate you. Let the soma sweetness and beauty of things earthly created here exhilarate you. Let the soma of your own grandeur by which you do wonders exhilarate you. And let the soma of your own valour by which you destroy the enemies exhilarate you.

May generous Indra, mighty ruler of the powers of heaven and earth, come with complementary powers of centrifugal and centripetal forces of nature and society and taste the sweet sustaining assets of food and energy created on earth. O lord breaker of clouds and destroyer of enemies, adversity and exhaustion, let there be ceaseless showers of abundant honey sweets of distilled and seasoned wealth, honour and excellence of life on earth.

Indra, lord of solar power, sharpening your catalysis and shining your blazing radiations, reduce and destroy the strong persistent life destroying forces from nature and society. I offer you power and persistent forces of resistance to cooperate with your blazing fight against the anti-life elements. Face the enemies and uproot them in our battle for health and the good life.

Indra, lord of life and human society, expand the resources of food, energy and sustenance, heighten the power and prestige of life and extend the spatial knowledge and power as on a permanent basis. Unresisted and inviolable by virtue of your own patience, persistence and power, rising in strength and lustre of glory before us, raise the power and prestige of the self and the total human organisation.

7. Idaṁ havirmaghavan tubhyāṁ rātam prati samrāḷahṛṇāno gṛbhāya. Tubhyāṁ suto maghavan tubhyāṁ pakvo ’ddhīndra piba ca prasthitasya.

Indra, lord of glory, this homage and tribute is offered to you. O ruler of self, humanity and all life, pray take it freely without inhibition or hesitation. For you is the soma distilled and offered, O lord of majesty. For you is the food prepared and seasoned. Pray accept it, taste of it and drink of it as it is prepared with faith and love without reservation.
forces of resistance to cooperate with your blazing fight against the anti-life elements. Face the enemies and uproot them in our battle for health and the good life.

Indra, ruling lord of nature and human society, pray accept these offers of homage as inputs in the natural and human system of evolution and progress. Take the food prepared and the soma distilled as our share of contribution and generate and bring the divine gifts of food and natural energy for health and joy. Bearing food and tribute of homage we love and honour you and pray may the cherished desires of the yajamana be fulfilled.

I send up this song of adoration to Indra, lord of power, and to Agni, lord of light. It is infused with the inspiration of mantras and I launch these prayers like a boat on the sea. Devas range around and move like harbingers of good fortune, they are abundant givers of wealth and they destroy misfortune and uproot evil.
Mandala 10/Sukta 117

Dana-stuti or Indra Devata, Bhikshu Angirasa Rshi

1. Na vā u devāh kṣudhamidvadham dadurutā-šitamupa gacchanti mṛtyavaḥ. Uto rayiḥ prṇato nopa dasyatyutāprṇan marṇitāram na vindate.

The devas have ordained death for mortals, but not for reasons of hunger alone, because death overtakes the rich and well provided too. The wealth of the generous giver of charity does not diminish while the uncharitable finds no grace, none to comfort him.

2. Ya ādhrāya cakamānāya pitvo’nnavāntsan raphitāyopajagmuṣe. sthirāṁ manah krṇute sevate puroto cit sa marṇitāram na vindate.

The man of means in plenty who does not give in charity to the poor, needy, hunger afflicted supplicant that comes to his door but hardens his heart and, further, himself enjoys the fruits of his riches in his very presence, finds no grace, no comfort, none to console him.

   Bounteous blest is he who gives to the needy seeker desirous of food and to the wanderer in search, gone feeble. Amplitude comes to him at his call for his purpose, and he creates friendly alliances even among those who once opposed him.

   न स सखः या न ददायि सख्यं सचाभुवं सर्वमानाय पित्वः।
   अर्पास्मात्वया तदाकां अस्ति पूणन्तमञ्चमर्गं चिदिच्छत।

4. Na sa sakhâ yo na dadâti sakhye sacâbhuve sacamânâya pitvâḥ. Apâsmât preyânna tadoko asti prântamanyamaraṇam cicicchet.

   No friend is he who gives no help and sustenance to the friend, the assistant and the associate. Denied, the friend goes away from him. No home is this house of the miser mean, if the friend in need has to knock at another door, the house of a generous helpful person.

   पृणियादित् राष्ट्रमानाय तद्वान्त्वधीयांसमनु पश्यत् पन्थाम।
   आ हि वर्तन्त रस्त्येव चक्कान्त्यमञ्चमुर्ग तिष्ठन्त रायः।

   The rich man should give for the poor seeker, he should see the paths of life in the long run. Riches move like wheels of the chariot: Now they are at one place, now they move to another.

The man of no knowledge and short vision gets food in vain and prosperity for nothing. Verity I say that prosperity is his ruin, his very death in life. He prospers not who helps neither the friend nor the wise, eating all by himself he eats nothing but sin.

The ploughman ploughing the land produces food for the hungry, the traveller while moving crosses the path to destination, the vocal sage is better than the silent, and the giving friend and brother is better than the non-giving.

In the process of evolution and mutual exhortation, the man of the first order of wealth looks... up to the man of double order of wealth and, if he be active and generous, may even surpass the doubly rich person. Similarly, the man of double order of wealth looks up to the man of triple wealth and may even surpass him. Later, the man of triple wealth looks up to the man of fourfold wealth and may overtake and even surpass him. Thus in evolution, competition, cooperation and mutual exhortation, the generous man of initiative goes on and on, watching and abiding in the line of the progressive evolution of humanity.

The two hands, howsoever alike, do not perform equally well, two mother cows, alike and equal otherwise, do not yield the same quality and quantity of milk, the power and performance of even twins is not equal and the same, and two persons may be closely related, still they are not equal and exactly alike in charity.

Mandala 10/Sukta 118

Agni Rakshoha Devata, Urukshaya Amahiyava Rshi

1. Agne haṃsi nyatrinaṃ dīdyanmartyesvā.
   Sve kṣaye śucivrata.

Agni, fire divine, you destroy the consumptive forces which damage life and, shining and blazing immortal among mortals, wherever you abide in your own form and place, you go on dedicated to your Dharma of purification and sanctification.

उत्तिष्ठसि स्वाहूता धृतानि पति मादस।
यत्त्वा स्नुचः समस्थिरन। ॥ २ ॥

2. Uttiṣṭai svāhuto ghṛtāni prati modase.
Yat tvā srucaḥ samasthiran.

You rise in flames of glory and respond with fragrant joy to the oblations of ghṛta when ladlefuls are brought close to the vedi and poured into the fire.

स आहुता वि रांचतचग्रीरीण्या गिरा।
स्नुवः पतीकमण्यत। ॥ ३ ॥

3. Sa āhuto vi rocate’gnirīlenyo girā.
Srucā pratiṣāmyate.

Venerable Agni, when it is invoked and adored with Vedic mantras, rises and shines when it is served and exalted with ladlefuls of ghṛta as the prime power of yajna.

घृतनाग्रि: समर्मण्यं मधुपतिकं आहुत।
राचमाना विभावमुः। ॥ ४ ॥

4. Ghṛtenāgniḥ samajyate madhupraṭīka āhutaḥ.
Rocamāno vibhāvasuḥ.

Agni, honoured and adored with ghṛta, served and adorned with honey sweets, invoked and exalted with Vedic hymns, shines and illuminates us as the sun.

Invoked, celebrated and exalted, you rise and shine, harbinger of fragrances for the divinities of nature and noble humanity, and as such the mortals invoke and adore you in their yajnic celebrations.

That immortal Agni, the mortals serve with ghrta, Agni that is the redoubtable master protector of the home and family.

Agni, with your inviolable and irresistible light and heat, burn the negative forces that damage life, and shine and blaze as protector and promoter of the yajna of life’s progress.

Agni, with your heat and light rays burn and destroy all forces of germs, viruses, insects and impurities that damage life, shine as you do in vast vedis of scientific programmes of yajna.

This and this alone is what I am at heart: Let me win over the cow and the horse, wealth of the earth and all possible progress onward, and wholly control my senses and dynamics of the mind, for I have drunk the soma of the divine spirit.

कुवितसमसरस्यायामिति || 2 ||

Pra vātā iva dodhata unmā pīṭā ayamsata.
Kuvit somasyāpāmiti.
Like impetuous winds have the exhilarations of the draughts of soma raised me to the state of ecstasy, as I have drunk the soma of the divine spirit.

   The draughts of divine soma have raised me up in ecstasy of body, mind and spirit like swift horses carrying the chariot and the master, for I have drunk of the soma of the divine spirit.

   My heart, mind and intelligence is stable and has stabilised me in the object of my divine love like the loving mother cow having reached its darling calf, for I have drunk of the soma of the divine spirit.

   Just as the maker makes and controls the well-structured chariot so do I control my mind and intellect at heart by soul, since I have drunk of the soma of the divine spirit.

Nor can all the five communities elude or blur the vision of my eye and what I see, for I have drunk of the soma of the divine spirit.

7. Nahi me rodasī ubhe anyāṁ pakṣāṁ cana prati. Kuvit somasyāpāmiti.

Nor can the physical earth and heaven both be the other and opposite side of my divine personality, for I have drunk of the soma of the divine spirit.

By the grandeur of my divine experience I realise the greatness of the solar regions and the greatness of this great earth, for I have drunk of the soma of the divine spirit.

And may be I shall hold the beauty and generosity of this earthly existence here or, later, there, for I have drunk of the soma of the spirit divine.

And I can heat up this earthly body to light and take it here, there, anywhere, for I have drunk of the soma of the spirit divine.

I realise one mode of my existence high up in heaven and the other down here on earth, for I have drunk of the soma of the spirit divine.

I am greatest of the greats, shining bright, radiating upwards to the skies and spaces, for I have drunk of the soma of the spirit divine.
13. Grho yāmyaramkrto devebhyo havyavāhānaḥ. Kuvit somasyāpāmiti.

Receiving the light and ecstasy of divinity, beatified by grace, I have become the fire that carries the fragrances of love and faith to the divinities and the highest Divine, for I have drunk of the soma of the spirit divine and I have become the divine ecstasy itself.

Mandala 10/Sukta 120

Indra Devata, Brhaddiva Atharvana Rshi

1. Tadidāsa bhuvaneṣu jyeṣṭham yato jajñā ugra-stveṣanṛṃṇaḥ. Sadyo jajñāno ni riṇāti śatṛūnaṇu yanī viśve madantyūmāḥ.

That Indra, Brahma, is the first and highest among all the worlds in existence, of which, as the original cause, is born the blazing, refulgent potent sun which, always rising every moment, destroys the negativities which damage life and by which all positive and protective powers and people of the world rejoice and celebrate life.

2. Vāvrđhānah śavasā bhūryojāḥ śaturdāsāya bhiyasaṁ dadhāti. Avyanacca vyanacca sasti saṁ te navanta prabhṛtā madeṣu.

Growing mighty in strength, immensely lustrous, destroyer of negativities, it strikes fear into the heart of forces causing damage to life and the environment. Bountiful purifier and sustainer of the breathing and non-breathing world, all the people and powers which receive sustenance from you join to do honour to you in their joy and celebration of life.

3. Tve kratumapi vrñjanti viśve dviryadete trirbha-vantyūmaḥ. Svādoh svādiyāḥ svādunā srjā samadaḥ su madhu madhunābhi yodhīḥ.

And they all, celebrants of divinity, surrender all actions and prayers to you when they join in couples and grow to three in the family. O lord sweeter than sweetness itself, join the sweets of life with honey and with divine sweetness and bliss create life overflowing with love and ecstasy.

Thus with joy on every happy occasion of life, grateful people and vibrant sages celebrate you, winner, creator and giver of wealth and excellence. Illustrious lord of shattering power, expand the commonwealth of permanent values. Let not the crooked and fiendish forces on the prowl suppress the creative gifts of divine generosity.

With your divine inspiration, well knowing the weapons of war, we fight out the enemies of life in the battles of humanity. I strengthen and calibrate the arms and ammunitions for battle by your divine words, and by the same divine formula I sharpen the target efficacy of the arrows and missiles of defence and offence.

We love and celebrate Indra in song, lord adorable infinite in form, all pervasive, most glorious and wisest of the self-realised wise. With his might he breaks seven types of clouds and seven orders of sin and evil, and he challenges and subdues the many adversaries that arise in the world of nature and humanity.

7. Ni taddadhiṣe’varam param ca yasminnāvithā-vasā duroṇe. Ā mātāra śthāpayase jigatnu ata inośi karvarā purūṇi.
You sustain this visible world of physical reality and the other invisible world of meta-physical and spiritual reality in which you maintain and protect everything with your might in their very home. And you hold and stabilise the revolving motherly earth and heaven, inspire many great actions therein and see them accomplished.

8. Imā brahma bhṛdaddivo vivaktīndrāya śūṣama-griyāḥ svarśāḥ. Maho gotrasya kṣayati svarājo duraśca viśvā avṛṇodapa svāḥ.

The poet of boundless heavenly light speaks these divine verses in honour of Indra for his own spiritual peace and pleasure. First and foremost among eminent poets, self-illuminant, self-refulgent and self-controlled, he masters the mighty treasure of Vedic wisdom and he opens the flood gates of his own vision of universal light and wisdom.

Thus does the sage of boundless light and vision of wisdom with settled mind address his song of adoration to Indra only, and the pure immaculate fluent streams of speech like motherly creations inspire the world and exalt humanity with strength and enthusiasm.

Kah (Prajapati) Devata, Hiranyakarbha Prajapatya Rshi

Hiranyagarbha: सम्म्बत्तथाय भूतास्य जात: पतिर्क आसीत।
स दौधार पृथिविः द्यामुतमां कस्म्भुवायं हविष्ण विधम।। 1 ||

1. Hiranyakarbhaḥ samavartatagre bhūtasya jātāḥ patireka āsīt. Sa dādhāra prthivīṁ dyāmutemāṁ kasmai devāya haviṣā vidhema.

Hiranyakarbha, the golden Seed, one lord of light and the sole creator of lights such as the sun, existed before creation (as he ever exists). He alone was and is the lord and sustainer of all forms of created being. He holds and sustains the earth and heaven and supports this whole universe. We worship the same one lord and offer him homage with oblations of fragrant materials.

Ya ātmadā baladā yasya viśva upāsate praśīṣam yasya devāḥ. Yasya cāyāmṛtam yasya mṛtyuḥ
kasmai devāya haviṣā vidhema।। 2 ||

2. The lord who is the giver of birth to the soul with its power and potential in body, whose glory all the divinities of the world celebrate in song, whose shade of protection is immortality and falling off is death, to him we offer our homage and worship in hymns with havi.

Ya: पौष्पक निविष्टता महिित्वस्म इदान जर्गता बश्रूव।
य इर्ष्य अस्य द्विपदुश्चतुष्प्दत: कस्म्भुवायं हविष्ण विधम।। 3 ||

The sole one lord who, with his own might, creates and rules over the world of those who breathe and see, the lord who rules over both men and animals, to that sovereign lord of bliss and majesty we offer homage and worship with our heart and soul.

4. Yasye me himavanto mahitvā yasya samudraṁ rasayā sahāhuḥ. Yasyemāḥ pradiṣo yasya bāhū kasmai devāya haviṣā vidhema.

Whose majesty these snow covered mountains proclaim, whose depth and grandeur the ocean with rivers declares, whose arms these quarters of space extend to infinity, that lord of light and sublimity let us worship with offers of homage in havis.

5. Yena dyaurugrā prthivī ca dṛḍhā yena svaḥ stabhitaṁ yena nākah. Yo antarikṣe rajaso vimānah kasmai devāya haviṣā vidhema.

By him the suns blaze, by him the earth is firm, by him the heaven of bliss is sustained, by him the ecstasy of Moksha is constant, and he is the creator of the worlds of space. Let us worship the lord refulgent and omnipotent with offers of homage in havis.

Whom eloquent heaven and earth sustained in balance by divine power, shining in splendour and inspired at heart, manifest in glory and celebrate in song, under whose law the sun rises, shines and illuminates the world, that self-refulgent lord let us worship with offers of havis.

When the boundless ocean of charged particles of Vayu energy comes into existence bearing the implicit blue print of the cosmos in seed form, creating the heat mode of existence, then the one supreme of the divinities, living breathing life itself, emerges in advance of all cosmic forms, and that One all-comprehensive divine lord let us worship with oblations of havi, who else? That is Hiranyagarbha.

The one who with his might pervades, watches and overall controls the ocean of charged particles of Vayu energy bearing the heat mode producing the yajnic process of life’s evolution, who is on top of all the divinities of existence, that One supreme lord let us worship with havis.

May the one lord supreme never hurt us, the lord that is creator of the earth, who also creates the heavens and who also creates the vast oceans of energies and waters, all beauteous, soothing and blissful, the master, controller and ordainer of all the laws of existence in operation in truth. Let us worship that one lord supreme with offers of faith and havis.

Prajapati, lord of life and your children, there is none other than you who rules over life forms and materials in existence, for yours are the laws of existence, none else’s. Whatever our desires, whatever you wish we should desire, all that we pray for, may all that be fulfilled in life for us. May we be masters in control of the wealths, honours and excellences of the world within your laws of life.

Mandala 10/Sukta 122

Agni Devata, Chitramaha Vasishtha Rshi

I adore Agni like my life’s parental home, wondrous generous and refulgent, lovely, comfortable, welcome as a noble guest, all love free from jealousy. Master protector of the home, yajamana as well as high priest of life’s yajna, he blesses us with all protective, universally nourishing and positive heroic powers and creative energies of life.
open up the paths of progress for him. Divinities and noble souls raising you in yajna adore you, join you and raise themselves in pursuance of your laws of life.

Immortal Agni, pervading seven regions of the universe, bhu, bhuva, sva, jana, tapa and satyam, advance and exalt the noble and generous yajamana of holy action. Whoever brings and offers holy fuel and fragrant havi to you, pray accept and bless him with noble progeny and abundant wealth of life.

Seven priests with seven pranas and seven faculties of sense and mind offer havi and adore Agni, first and original performer of creation yajna who bears on the banner of creative yajna to its victorious completion, and they go on serving the seven-rayed light of life, listening, fed on and rising by ghrta, generous lord refulgent who blesses the dedicated celebrant with noble strength and happy progeny.

Agni, you are the messenger and harbinger of the breeze of fresh life. You are the first divinity of our love and choice. As such, invoked and adored for the sake of immortality, pray rejoice at yajna and let us rejoice too. Vibrant celebrants and veteran sages, shining and raising you in the house of generous yajamana, honour and exalt you with holy songs of adoration.

Agni, light and presiding power of yajnic action, bringing plenty of food, energy, prosperity and the milk of human generosity by the mother spirit of the universe for the noble yajamana dedicated to yajna in love and faith, rising in flames of glory by oblations of ghṛta, pervading the three dynamic regions of heaven, earth and the skies with light and splendour, and suffusing the yajnic home in life’s fragrance, you carry on the divine purpose in the world of nature and humanity.

Agni, light of life, in the rising lights of this morning’s dawn, thoughtful people adore you in yajna as the harbinger of nature’s bounties and carrier of their love and faith with fragrance to the divinities. Nobilities adore you and divinities exalt you, great as you are, and pray for their own rise in merit while they suffuse you in ghrta in the yajna vedi.

Agni, men of light and vision established in divine consciousness invoke and adore you, light and spirit of cosmic power, and they celebrate your divine supremacy over nature and humanity. O victorious lord of universal knowledge, power and prosperity, pray bear and bring us the wealth of life’s health and excellence for the yajamanas. O sages and scholars of divinity and science of yajna, pray protect and promote us always with all round well being of life on earth.

Mandala 10/Sukta 123

_Vena Devata, Vena Bhargava Rshi_
1. Ayaṁ venaścodayat prṣṇigarbhā jyotirjarāyū rajaso vimāne. Imamapāṁ saṁgame suryasya śiśum na viprā matibhī rihanti.

This loving and lovely light, glorious sun, womb of light, shines in varied light and beauty in the ocean of particles of mist in middle space, moves and energises the clouds of vapour, and in the meeting of the sun rays and the vapours sages celebrate and adore the sun with songs of prayer and love with gratitude as a child of divinity.

2. Samudrādurmidumudiyarti veno nabhojāḥ prṣṭham haryatasya darṣi. Ṛtasya sānāvadhi viṣṭapi bhrāṭ samānāṁ yonimabhyanūṣata vrāḥ.

Rising from the skies, the sun radiates its waves of light, draws waves of mist from the ocean, energises clouds of mist from the ocean of space, the vault of glorious heaven across the skies is seen, the glory shines on top of the high heaven of nature’s yajna, and the sages celebrate both dawn and the vault of heaven together.

Equal and abundant, shining and thundering currents of natural energy, mother generators of clouds of rain, abiding together with vapours and sun rays in the skies, also active on top of nature’s dynamics, inspire the honey sweets of sage’s immortal songs of divine celebration.

The sages, knowing the form, structure and functioning of the cloud and the roaring thunder, celebrate it and realise it in practice. Going by laws of natural truth, waters, evaporation and cloud formation and catalysis in the depth of spatial ocean, they realise that it is really the sun which holds the earth and controls the immortal waters for sure.

Like a youthful belle holding on to her lover, the lightning with a brilliant smile holds on to and sustains with the cloud in the highest skies, and the cloud too, dear and lovely, moving about in the spatial home of his lovely light and lightning, stays by the side of the golden beloved.

O Sun, wrapped in wondrous rays flying around in the highest heaven, loving sages with their heart and soul see and realise you at the closest as a messenger of the supreme lord of love and justice and as a mighty bird blazing and flying with golden wings in the vast space of the lord ordainer of the universe.

High up over there abides the sun in the region of heavenly light. It bears wondrous weapons of divinity such as thunder and lightning. It wears a beautiful, fragrant form soothing for people to see, and like the light and bliss of heaven creates divine waters and many other dear divine gifts for life.

When the sun in the third, highest, heaven, shining on the oceans and vapours in the skies with the light of its fervent rays reaches the clouds of vapour, then the blazing heat with pure and powerful energy catalyses the clouds and condenses the vapours into dear valuable drops that shower in rain upon the earth.

Mandala 10/Sukta 124

Devata: Agni (1), Agni’s Atma (2-4), Varuna (5, 7-8), Soma (6), Indra (9); Rshi: Agni, Varuna, Soma (1, 5-9), Agni (2-4)

1. Imam no agna upa yajñamehi pañcayāmam trivṛtam saptatantum. Aso havyavāluta naḥ purogā jyogeva dīrgham tama āśayiṣṭhāḥ.

Agni, yajnic light of life, come to this life yajna of ours: which has five divisions, i.e., Brahma-yajna, Deva-yajna, Pitr-yajna, Atithi-yajna, and Balivaishvadeva-yajna; conducted by five people, i.e, four socio-economic classes of Brahmans, Kshatriyas, Vaishyas and Shudras and others like chance visitors from other groups there might be; which is threefold, i.e., paka yajna, haviryajna and somayajna; and which has seven extensions, i.e., Agnishtoma, Atyagnishtoma, Ukthya, Shodashi, Vajapeya, Atiratra and Aptyoyami. You are our leader and pioneer, Agni, and you are the carrier of our yajna to the divinities as well as harbinger of the fruits of yajna to us. Pray come and be our all time dispeller of the cavern of deep darkness from life.

(Yajna is a creative process of development in life from the individual to the social, national, global and environmental level of life. The explanation above is related to the social level. Swami Brahmamuni explains the yajna at the individual level, and that is also suggested in Rgveda 10, 7, 6: ‘Svayam yajasva’, and yajurveda 4, 13: “Iyam te yajniya tanu”, which means: Develop yourself by yajna according to the seasons of your growth, and remember your life in body, mind and soul is worthy of yajnic service for your personal development, your body being the first instrument of your wider yajna of life. This personal yajna is fivefold, for the elemental balance of earth, water, heat, air and ether; threefold for the balance of vata, pitta and kaf, and also for balanced growth of body, mind and soul; sevenfold for the growth of rasa, rakta, mansa, meda, asthi, majja and virya. Thus yajna is the process of growth beginning with the individual, accomplished at the cosmic level.) peace of divinity, then by reason of my essential affinity with divinity, I reach the life divine, sole centre of existence, just like fire existing at peace in the arani wood, its natural abode, rising into heat and light at yajna.

3. Paśyannanyasyā atithim vayāyā ētasya dhāma vi mime purūṇi. Śaṁśāmi pitre asurāya śevasmayajñīyādyajñīyan bhāgamemī.

Watching the traveller of another path of life other than the physical, the bird on another branch of the tree, and seeing the original home of the cosmic yajna, I enact many vedis to follow the yajnic paths of living. I sing songs of homage in honour of the omnipotent father giver of life and take to my share of yajnic living, away from the selfish ways of existence.

Having lived in this body, vedi of living yajna, and choosing Indra, omnipotent father, for worship, I give up the vedi. Agni, vital heat, Varuna, mind and senses and the water element, and Soma, living vitality, depart, and moving ahead I come to the freedom of existence which I cherish and protect for further life.

When I get the freedom of my state of being, let the demonic forces be void of their powers, and O Varuna, lord of love, justice and fulfilment, pray bless me with love and protection. O ruling lord of existence, eliminating untruth by the rule of truth and divine law, come and take over the ultimate sovereignty of my free state.

O Soma, spirit of life in the state of freedom, this is the state of bliss, this is beauty, this is the light of life, this is the expansive space to sojourn at will. Come up out of all sense of bondage. We two shall eliminate darkness and nescience. You are the havi and you the object of love and adoration too. We powers of divine law and truth of existence serve and bless you, our darling, with your real self and blessings of total fulfilment.

The sovereign creator with his divine vision and power created the light and placed it as the sun in heaven. Varuna, the same lord omnipotent of the element of waters, created and released the rivers aflow which, pure and creative mothers, harbingers of peace and joy, bear and manifest the generosity and majesty of the lord.

8. Tā asya jyeṣṭhamindriyam sacante tā ṯimā kṣeti svadhāyā madantīḥ. Tā ṯim viśo na rājānam vrāṇānā bibhatsuvo apa vṛtrādatisṭhan.

Those streams of living waters share and bear the highest power and beneficence of this lord Varuna, and the lord rules and abides in these streams which sparkle and flow, enjoying the fragrance of oblations offered in yajna. They, also, like people choosing and abiding by the ruler, free from fear and keeping off from darkness and evil, flow free from fear and obstruction.
holy waters, the poets call the ‘celestial bird’, and the wind and electric energy blowing and radiating in response to yajna with anushtup verses, they know with their vision and imagination, and this they call ‘Indra’.

Atma Devata, Vagambhrni Rshi

1. Aham rudrebhirvasubhiścarāmyahamādityair-utā viśvedevaiḥ. Aham mītrāvaruṇobhā bibhamrāyahamindrāgni ahamaśvinobhā.

I am Vak-ambhrni, voice of omniscience, Universal Speech all bearing, all borne, co-existent with eleven Rudras, pranic energies and the soul, eight Vasus, earth, water, fire, air, space, moon, sun and stars, all abodes and supports of life, twelve Adityas, year’s twelve phases of the sun, and all the Vishvedevas, divinities of nature and humanity. I pervade and support both Mitra and Varuna, day and night, I pervade and support Indra and Agni, wind and fire, and I bear and support both the Ashvins, all complementarities of nature and humanity such as positive and negative currents of energy and science and technology.

(Language, Vak or Word, is a system corresponding to and co-existent with existence as a system and the awareness or knowledge of existence. Hence language at the level of divine awareness is co-existent and co-extensive with existence itself. In other words, at the level of omniscience, existence is language and language is existence. In our life, our language is the seat of correspondence between our awareness and knowledge of existence and its articulation in experience, expression and communication.)

अहं सार्माहनुसं बिभमुंहूँ तत्तरार्मुत पूषणं भर्गम्। अहं
द्विजामि द्विजाम् हविष्मत सुपाव्यं च चर्ममनाय सुन्वत्॥ २ ॥

2. Ahaṁ somamāhanasāṁ bibharmyahāṁ tvāśṭāramuta pūṣaṇāṁ bhagam. Ahaṁ dadhāmi draviṇaṁ haviṣmate suprāvyye yajamanāya sunvate.

I bear the reception and expression of experience in communication and the soma joy of corporate existence. I bear the formative evolution, nourishment and growth, and the power and glory of life and its progress. I bear the wealth and prosperity of life for the yajamana who creates beauty and sweetness for life and bears liberal havis of corporate yajna for the common welfare of humanity and indeed all life. (In other words, the content of Language is Existence and the awareness of Existence.)

अहं राष्ट्री संगममी चिकित्तुषी पथ्मा यज्ञयानाम।
तं मा द्वा व्याधिः पुरुत्रा भूरिस्त्राट्रां भूर्यावृक्ष्यन्तीम।॥ ३ ॥

3. Ahaṁ rāṣṭrīṁ samgamanī vasūnāṁ cikituṣī prathamā yajñiyānāṁ. Tāṁ mā devā vyadadhūḥ purutrā bhūristhātrāṁ bhūryāvēśayanīṁ.

I am the spirit and organisation of the social system. I am the pioneer and harbinger of the wealth, honours and excellences of the corporate system with the people. I am the thought, awareness and determined organisation of the basics of human life and its values. Sages and scholars establish me in many socio-political forms with many permanent stabilities and many evolving powers and possibilities of progress in various directions.

O listener, listen, what I say to you is worth listening and doing in faith: Whoever sees whatever he sees, whoever breathes whatever he breathes, whoever hears what is said, he receives the food of life by me. Those who do not listen, do not care, do not believe what I say and neglect me, they waste away, they come to ruin.

(We may realise here that Vagambhrni is not only the voice of divinity, it is also the voice of the people who think and speak truly, positively and jointly whenever and wherever they happen to do so, whether it be in parliaments or assemblies or in the press or in the universities. And this voice must be invariably true and authentic.)

And all this that is loved, adored and spoken by the sages and veteran scholars and even by average mortals of honest mind, take it that I, voice of divinity, speak it myself. Whosoever I love by virtue of his or her merit of nature, character and performance, I raise to brilliance, to piety worthy of a yajnic Brahma, to the vision of a poetic sage and high intelligence of an exceptional thinker.

6. Aham rudraya dhanuratanimi brahmadvise
\( \text{śarave hantavā u. Aham janāya samadam kṛṇo-} \)
\( \text{myahāṃ dyāvāprthivī ā viveśa.} \)

I draw the bow for Rudra, powers of justice and punishment, to eliminate the forces of hate and violence against lovers and observers of piety and divinity. I fight for the people and create felicity and joy for them, and I reach and pervade the heaven and earth.

7. Aham suve pitaramasya mūrdhan mama yonir-
\( \text{psvantaḥ samudre. Tato vi tiṣṭhe bhuvanānu} \)
\( \text{viśvotāmuṁ dyāṁ varṣmaṇopa spṛśāmi.} \)

I create the parental protector on top of this human nation and this world in the form of the ruler and the sun. My place is in the depth of waters and the sea and in the particles of space. That same way I abide in all worlds of the universe, and I reach that heaven of light and touch the very top of it with my light and grandeur.
8. Ahameva vāta iva pra vāmyārabhamāṇā bhu-vanāni viśvā. Paro divā para enā pṛthivyaitāvatī mahinā sam babhūva.

Loving, embracing and pervading all regions of the universe, I flow forward like the wind that blows across the spaces. Beyond the heaven, beyond this world I am, so much is my power and potential, immanent and transcendent my presence.

Mandala 10/Sukta 126

1. Na tamaṁho na duritaiṁ dvarāsasā auṣṭrā patyām.

Na tamaṁho na duritaiṁ dvarāsasā auṣṭrā martyām. Sajoṣasato yamaryamanā mitro nayaṁti varunō ati dvīṣaḥ.

O devas, divinities of nature, noble scholars and sages, neither sin nor suffering, nor anything vicious can touch the mortal whom Aryama, spirit of enlightened guidance, Mitra, spirit of love and friendship, and Varuna, spirit of judgement and justice, all together with love and care without relent, lead across hate, jealousy and enmity.

2. Taddhi vayaṁ vāmyārabham yāna mitrāryaman.

Yuṁmaṁtā prājñā priye syātā supraṁtvātī dviṣaḥ.

Mitra, V aruna and Aryama, you protect, guide and lead the world to their goal of success and fulfilment. We pray, under the loving care, security and felicity of
2. Taddhi vayam vrñímahe varuña mitrāryaman. Yenā nirṇāṃhaso yūyam pātha nethā ca martyamati dviṣāḥ.

O Mitra, Varuna and Aryama, divinities of love, justice and rectitude within and without in society, nature and beyond, that protection and guidance of yours we seek of you, yourself all beyond sin and evil. Save the mortals from sins and lead them to success and fulfilment across and beyond hate, jealousy, enmity and all negativity.

3. Te nūnāṃ no’yamūteye varuṇo mitro aryamā. Naiṣṭhā u no neṣāṇi parśīṣṭhā u naḥ parṣṇyati dviṣāḥ.

This Varuna, this Mitra, this Aryama, surely they are for our protection, guidance and success. O protective and guiding divinities of rectitude, take us and guide us on the path we ought to take, lead us to the goal we ought to reach, take us across and beyond the hate, jealousy and enmity we ought to avoid.

4. Yuṣyam viśvam pari pātha varuṇo mitro aryamā. Yuṣmākam śarmaṇi priye syāma supraṇītayo’ti dviṣāḥ.

Mitra, Varuna and Aryama, you protect, guide and lead the world to their goal of success and fulfilment. We pray, under the loving care, security and felicity of your law and order, let us advance to our cherished goal, pursuing noble ethics and policies beyond the wicked.

5. Ādityāso ati sridho varuṇo mitro aryamā. Ugraṁ marudbhī rudram huvemendramagnim svastaye’-ti dviṣāḥ.

May the Adityas, brilliant scholars of the Aditya order of forty eight years discipline, Varuna, Mitra and Aryama, powers of justice, love and rectitude, protect us and guide us across violence and enmity and lead us to success. We invoke the blazing commander with his tempestuous commandos, Rudra, determined destroyer of evil and suffering, Indra, mighty ruler, and Agni, brilliant teacher and scholar, for all round protection and well being so that we may overcome the forces of hate, jealousy and enmity and reach our goals.

May Varuna, Mitra and Aryama, leaders and brilliant rulers of the people, judicious, loving and nobly motivated, safely pilot us across all sin and evil of the world and all forces of hate, jealousy and enmity of society.
May Varuna, Mitra and Aryama, powers of justice, and noble choice, love and friendship, and noble ethics and policy, bring us peace and progress for our protection and advancement. May the Adityas, brilliant scholars, teachers and researchers give us lasting comfort and well being of wide variety which we seek and pray for, and may all these divine nobilities lead us beyond the reach of the forces of hate and enmity.

O Vasus, world powers of peace and settlement, scholars of the Vasu order, all loving and adorable in yajnic association, just as you set a noble but fettered cow at freedom to roam around at peace with joy, so pray release us from the bonds of sin and evil. O Agni, lord of light, give us a life of enlightenment, a long life of good health and light of wisdom.

5. Ni grœmaso aviksœata ni padvantO ni paksœãVã. Ni ñyenãœasœcidarthœinO.

People come back home and rest in sleep. So do animals, so do birds, eagles too. They need rest and sleep after the day’s toil.

O peaceful night, keep away the wolf and the wolfish deeds. Keep away the thief. Fold them in sleep. Be peaceable, soothing and refreshing for us.

Enveloping darkness in all its intensity has come and smothered me. O dawn, take it off and give me relief like freedom from a heavy debt.

O night, daughter of heaven, I present this song of adoration like a gift of milch cows. Pray accept it as homage for the sake of the supplicant who is keen for victory of rest and light over the wolf and the darkness of life.

Mandala 10/Sukta 128

Vishvedeva Devata, Vihavya Angirasa Rshi

Mamāgne varco vihaveśvastu vayaṁ tvendhānāstavām puṣema. Mahyaṁ namantāṁ pradiśa-ścatasra-stvayādhyakṣeṇa pṛtanā jayema.

Agni, light of life, leader and pioneer of men, let there be vigour and lustre in me in the battles of life. Let us shine and rise in body, mind and soul while we kindle you in the yajnic development of human society. Let the four directions of life and the people there be favourable to me in love and faith, and let us win the battles of life under your leadership and presiding power.

Mamā nātirī guḍrakamastu mahān vāartā pavatāṁ kāmān anāśīn.

In the battle of life when the clarion call is given, let all the Devas, divinities of nature and nobilities of humanity be for me. Let the Maruts, Vishnu and Agni, all with Indra, stormy troops, all pervasive people power, and the leading lights of humanity, all inspired with passion and energy, all wielding weapons of fire, wind and electric power, be with me. Let the sky and space be the vast world for me. And let the winds blow for me in this beautiful world for the fulfilment of this yajnic ambition for personal and collective expansion.

3. May the Devas bless me with power, wealth and excellence. Let there be all good wishes, benediction and self fulfilment for me at yajna. May the invocation and homage to Devas bring me success. May veteran and divine yajakas in nature and humanity join me in our yajna for the general good. May we be blest with health of body, mind and spirit, be inviolable and blest with noble progeny.

4. May my havis that I offer in yajna bring me the success I plan. May the thoughts and intentions of my mind be true and fruitful. May I never take to sin or evil whatsoever. O divinities of the world, bless us and say:
May all be well with you!

May six divinities, heaven and earth, day and night, fire and water, through the six seasons of the year do us great favour so that we may rise and progress in power and achievement. O divinities of the world, be brave and great and help us rise to bravery and grandeur. Never deplete us either by loss of health and virility or by loss of progeny. O ruling Soma, lord of peace, light and glory, let us never fall a prey to the forces of hate, jealousy and enmity.

O Agni, sovereign ruling lord of light and fire, ever awake and protective, warding off the anger and attack of foreign and negative powers, defend, protect and promote us without relent. Let our enemies withdraw and go back, repulsed, frustrated and routed. Howsoever clever, intelligent tacticians they think they are, destroy their mind, morale and intelligence.
May all be well with you!

May six divinities, heaven and earth, day and night, fire and water, through the six seasons of the year do us great favour so that we may rise and progress in power and achievement. O divinities of the world, be brave and great and help us rise to bravery and grandeur. Never deplete us either by loss of health and virility or by loss of progeny. Let our enemies withdraw and go back, repulsed, frustrated and routed. Howsoever clever, intelligent tacticians they think they are, destroy their mind, morale and intelligence altogether.

The one lord sustainer of all sustainers of the world such as sun and earth, the one that is the supreme lord creator, ruler and protector of the universe, the one that subdues the proudest of the enemies of life and humanity, the one that saves and gives fulfilment, that One I worship and adore. May the Ashvins, twin divine complementarities of nature and humanity, Brhaspati, lord of Infinity and the sage dedicated to Infinity, and the infinite divine voice and all other divinities of the world, we pray, promote this yajña and save this yajamana from sin and evil.

Indra, all pervasive lord of the expansive universe, infinitely potent, universally invoked and adored, infinitely opulent and generous, may, we pray, give us peace and fulfilment in this great war-like yajña of life. O lord of the dynamics of existence, Indra, we pray give us the joy of fulfilment for our people and for our future generations, pray never hurt us, never forsake us.

Those who are our adversaries, enemies and hostile rivals, let them be off! We keep them off, we throw them out in conflict by Indra and Agni, divine air and fire power. May the Vasus, shelter and support givers of life and the general order of educated people, Rudras, powers of justice and order and the middle order of intellectuals, and Adityas, powers of light and the highest order of scholars and sages raise me high, inspire me with the brilliance of fire, enlighten me and anoint me as the highest ruling authority.

Mandala 10/Sukta 129

_Bhavavrttam Devata, Prajapati Parameshthi Rshi_

(It was the zero state of existence after the completion of one cycle and before the beginning of the next cycle, like the zero hour between two dates. It is a state intangible and inexplicable because thought and language too terminate into the intangible and inexplicable silence at the completion of the cycle. The zero hour exists and yet it does not, it doesn’t exist and yet it does, that’s the mystery of it. The state under meditation in this sukta is the hour of Infinity in the womb of Infinity self-brooding on the zero; the One upon the zero.)

There is, then, neither death nor deathlessness of immortality, neither night nor day as we know the night and day. There is only That, the One self-existent Brahma, breathing without breath, the sole One, one with its potential. Any other apart or beyond That there was none whatsoever.

There is only dark, darker and deeper than darkness itself before the world of existence comes into being, something misty beyond knowledge and experience, this all that now is. That living mystery, which then exists, covered in something more mysterious than mystery itself, self-manifests by the exercise of Its own grandeur of power and potential solely by Itself.

There is love and desire before the creation at the heart of Brahma which is the first, original and ultimate seed of the world of existence that comes into being. Sages blest with vision, by divine inspiration and mind in meditation, realise the world of existence from the tangible upto the intangible state implicit in the seed state of Prakrti subsisting in the divine mind.

5. Tiraścino vitato raśmiresāmadhaḥ svidāsīdupari svidāsīt. Retodhā āsan mahimāna āsantsvadhā avastāt prayatiḥ parastāt.
3. There is only dark, darker and deeper than darkness itself before the world of existence comes into being, something misty beyond knowledge and experience, this all that now is. That living mystery, which then exists, covered in something more mysterious than mystery itself, self-manifests by the exercise of Its own grandeur of power and potential solely by Itself.

Who for certain knows, who here would declare whence this universe has come, whence this variety has emerged? The visionary sages all come after the creation and diversity of it. Who of them would then know whence and why all this has come into existence? Only He, the creator, would know, only He can reveal and declare.

7. Iyam visṛṣṭiryata ābabhūva yadi vā dadhe yadi vā na. Yo asyādhyakṣah parame vyomantso aṅga veda yadi vā na veda.

O dear seeker, whence this multitudinous variety of existence arises, who holds and sustains it, or whether He doesn’t hold and sustain it while He terminates it, only He knows who is the presiding power of it at the highest heavenly level of mystery. Only He knows and pervades it, and He only knows when he doesn’t pervade it while it subsists in Him as in the state of Pralaya.

Mandala 10/Sukta 130

Bhavavrttam Devata, Yajna Prajapatya Rshi

या यज्ञा विश्वकालम् द्विपूर्णता एकसप्तं द्विकर्माभिष्रायते।
हृद बौद्धैति पिनग य अयायुः प व्यायं व्यत्थासत तत। ॥ १ ॥

1. Yo yajñō viśvatastantubhistata ekaśataṁ deva-karemebhirāyataḥ. Ime vayanti pitaro ya āyayuḥ pra vayāpa vayetyāsate tate.

The yajnic cosmos, the web of existence, which is extended and expands all round by vibrations, radiations, currents, flames, streams, fibres and filaments spun out and woven by a hundred plus one divine actions (by eight Vasus, twelve Adityas, eleven Rudras, eleven Vishvedevas, fortynine Maruts and ten Vishvasrj creative processes) all this web of yajna, these divinities universally prevailing weave up and down all round, and all these divinities, actions and processes abide therein, in the yajna itself.

पुमाँ एनं तनुं उत्कृष्णति पुमानि तत्त अधिनारं अस्मिन।
हृद मुयूङ्खा उप सदुर्स सदुः सामानि चक्र्सभ्ययातः तत्व। ॥ २ ॥

2. Pumāṁ enaṁ tanuta ut kṛṇatti pumān vi tatne adhi nāke asmin. Ime mayūkhā upa sedurū sadaḥ sāmāni cakrūṣatasarāṇyotave.

The supreme cosmic Purusha weaves this web of existence and the same Purusha winds it up on time. He alone in this cosmos and beyond the heaven of time and space extends it. These radiations, vibrations, threads, filaments and creative processes abide and act in this vast yajna of the cosmos, and they structure the holy formulas and they spin the threads of the warp and woof of this web.

3. Kāśīt pramā pratimā kim niḍanamājyaṁ kimāsīt paridhiḥ ka āsīt. Chandaḥ kimāsīt pra-ugāṁ kimukthāṁ yaddēvā devamayajanta viśve.

   What is the central vision and comprehensive blueprint of the design of cosmic yajna? What is the measure of the progressive stages of the yajna upto accomplishment? What is the basic cause and ultimate purpose? What is the ghrta input of the yajna? What is the ultimate bound? What is the chhanda, joyous formula, from the inception and conception to completion? What is the beginning, middle and the hymnal close of the divine yajna? When the divinities join the Supreme Divinity in the yajna of cosmic creation, what are these constituents of the creative process?

4. Agnergāyatryabhavat sayugvosnihayā savitā saṁ babhūva. Anuṣṭubhā soma ukthaırmahasvān ṛhospaterbrḥati vācamāvat.
Gayatri is the companion of Agni, Savita manifests with ushnik, Soma with anushtup, the sun manifests with uktha hymns of celebration, and brhati comes to express the voice of Brhaspati. (That is, the mantras associated with these deities are composed in these verse forms.)

Virāṇmitrāvaruṇayorabhiśrīrindrasya triṣṭubiha bhāgo ahnah. Viśvān devānjagatyā viveśa tena cāklṛpra rṣayo manuṣyāḥ.

Virat is associated with Mitra and Varuna together, trishtup is associated with Indra as share of the mid-day session, jagati joins with the Vishvedevas and by that the sages and ordinary people are joined and receive their strength of being. (The Chhandas, metres, of the Vedas, thus, are part of the process of creation.)

Cāklṛpre tena rṣayo manuṣyāḥ yajñē jāte pitaro nah purāne. Paśyan manye manasā cakṣasā tān ya imaṁ yajñamayajanta pūrve.

When the creation yajna of all time is accomplished, thereby our ancient forefathers, seers and ordinary mortals receive their being and strength of identity, and, visualising them with the eye of the mind and imagination, I honour and adore those who in times of yore enact this yajna of creation.

7. Sahastomāḥ sahachandasa āvṛtāḥ sahapramāṇṛṣayaḥ sa ṭaptaḥ sapta daivyāḥ. Pūrveśāṁ panthāmanuvādṛṣyā dhīrā anvālebhire rathyo na raśmīn.

Well versed in Vedic hymns of yajna and the cosmic process of evolution, the verse forms of Chhandas associated with divinities, and the evolutionary stages of the cosmos, seven divine sages of vision and wisdom, self-established in peace of mind and soul, having realised the holy path of the ancients and following in their footsteps, realise the cosmic process of divine evolution and live their life to perfection like the driver holding reins of his chariot and controlling his horses in the right direction.

Mandala 10/Sukta 131

Devata: Indra (1-3, 6, 7), Ashvins (4-5), Rshi: Sukirti Kakshivata

Indra, all powerful ruler of the world, subduer of all enemies of the world, drive off all enemies that stand in front, who attack from behind, who arise from below, and all those who descend from above so that we may live in peace with joy without fear in your vast territory.

2. Kuvidaṅga yavamanto yavaṁ cidyathā dāntyānūpūrvam viyūya. Ihehaiśāṁ krṇuhi bhojanāni ye barhiṣo namovṛktiṁ na jagmuḥ.

   Well then, just as master farmers of grain harvest the crop in order and separate the grain from the chaff, so, dear lord, here, there, everywhere, in order create and provide food and sustenance for those who never neglect yajñic offerings but bear the holy grass and bring homage to the vedi.

3. Nahi sthūryṛtuthā yātamasti nota śravo vivide saṅgamesu. Gavyanta indraṁ sakhyāya viprā aśvāyanto vṛṣaṇam vājayantah.

   A one horse cart never reaches the destination on time according to season and purpose, nor, in battle, supplies are received on time without the favour of Indra. Therefore nobles and sages well desirous of cows and horses, seeking success and victory, pray for the favour and friendship of the generous and virile Indra.

4. Yuvaṁ surāmamaśvinā namucāvāsure sacā. Vipipānā śubhastati indraṁ karmasvāvatam.
O Ashvins, complementary powers of humanity, men and women, scholars and teachers, masters and protectors of the good, valuable and auspicious, well enjoying the soma taste of life together, help and assist Indra, ruler of life in the world, in the struggles of life and society against the demonic forces of want, violence and meanness.

As parents support the child with all their power and potential, so O lord of power and glory, Indra, let the Ashvins, complementary powers of nature and society, men and women, scholars and scientists, leaders and followers, all support you with words of adoration and actions of profuse generosity when you defend the nation with bold actions and enjoy the peace, prosperity and power of the order, and may Sarasvati, divine intelligence, support and guide you.

May Indra, self-potent, saviour protector and promoter, master of all wealth, power and glory of the world, be gracious to us by his support and protection. for peace and security. May he ward off and drive away hate and enmity, grant freedom from fear, so that we too may be masters and protectors of noble strength and heroic splendour.

We pray may we ever abide in the good will and loving kindness of adorable Indra. May he, self-refulgent, self-potent, saviour protector, keep off and drive away for all time elements of hate and enmity far and near, all.

Mandala 10/Sukta 132

Mitra-Varuna (2-7) and others (1) Devata, Shakaputa

Narmedha Rshi

May the Heaven of welcome treasures of abundance bless and promote the man of love, non-violence and yajna with peace, plenty and joy. May the earth of abundant riches and beauty bless the man of love, charity and yajna with plenty, progress and joy. May the Ashvins, twin divines of nature and humanity, by their systemic complementarities bless and promote the man of dynamic creativity and yajna with personal success, social prestige and divine fulfilment.

O Mitra and Varuna, lord of light and love, and lord of sovereign judgement and freedom, you are both sustainers of the earth and givers of peace and comfort to mankind. We serve and worship you with love for the sake of cherished fulfilment. We pray, let us, with your favour and friendship, win over the forces of evil and negativity for the advancement of the lover and performer of yajna and deeds of charity.

And when we bear and bring liberal gifts of homage to you, ourselves being masters of our favourite wealth and property, or when the generous giver of gifts and homage augments his wealth, then the wealth, power and glory of such a person never diminishes, never exhausts, in fact it increases manifold.

O Mitra, sun, life giving light and pranic energy, that other, mother Infinity, has given you birth. O Varuna, breath of life and cosmic air, you are the ruler and life giver of the world. You, Mitra-Varuna, are the head of the chariot of life, the cosmic yajna. You are the antidote of death. Let not our yajna be vitiated even by a remote touch of sin.

In this yajna instituted by the yajamana, who is otherwise competent in his own right of strength, one sin of omission would vitiate the performance if Mitra, the sun, alone is invoked for oblations. The omission vitiates the inner strength and others in the family unless the other protector, Varuna, too is invoked. When this other protector is invoked and served, no want or short coming remains in the cherished body health of the yajna, the yajaka and the yajaka’s family.

Mitra and Varuna, givers of light and intelligence, known with special effort of the mind, your mother power is eternal Nature, the giver of knowledge about you is eternal Veda which washes the cover of ignorance as heaven and earth wash away the evils of darkness and want. The sun illuminates with rays of light, the earth gives cherished wealth of food.

O Mitra and Varuna, givers of light and life energy for positive action, be seated on the vedi of cosmic yajna. Ascend the chariot strongly structured and balanced, worthy of universal movement to fight out those vociferous forces of the enemy poised against us. You save the yajaka dedicated to the progress of united humanity from sin. You save the yajamana of intelligent and scientific yajna from going astray on the path of evil and destructivity.

Mandala 10/Sukta 133

Indra Devata, Sudah Paijavana Rshi
Offer a song of abundant praise in honour of this ruling lord Indra for his mighty force and front rank chariot. He, destroyer of darkness and evil, inspires us in our battles of life at the closest and enlightens us in our struggle for universal freedom. Let the strings of the alien enemy bows be snapped by the strike of the forces of Indra.

2. Tvaṁ sindhūṁravāśrijo’dharāco ahannahim. Aśatrurindra jajñiṣe viśvam puṣyasi vāryaṁ taṁ tvā pari ṣvajāmahe nabhantāmanayakeśāṁ jyākā adhi dhanvasu.

Indra, you release the floods of rivers to flow down on the earth. You destroy the demon of darkness, evil, want and ignorance. You are born without an equal, adversary and enemy, and you promote the choicest wealth and excellence of the world. Such as you are we love and embrace you as our closest loving friend and companion. Let the alien strings of the enemy bows snap upon their bows.

Indra, may the facts and forces of enmity, adversity and ungenerosity be eliminated from life and the world. May all our thoughts and actions be inspired by love and generosity. You strike the thunderbolt of justice and punishment upon the enemy who wants to destroy us or frustrate our love and generosity. May your grace and generosity bring us wealth, honour and excellence of life. Let the strings of enemy bows snap by the tension of their own negativities.

Yo na indrābhito jano vṛkāyurādideśati. Adhaspadam tamīṁ kṛdhi vibāḍho asi sāsahirnabhartāmanayakeśāṁ jyākā adhi dhanvasu.

And the thief and the man wolf that designs against us all round all time, pray crush down to naught. You are the protector, Indra, the power to resist and overthrow the danger. Let the strings of enemy bows snap under their own fear and frustration.

5.

Yo na indrābhidāsati sanābhiryaśca niṣṭyaḥ. Ava tasya bālam tira mahīva dauradha tmanā nabhartāmanayakeśāṁ jyākā adhi dhanvasu.

Indra, whoever the man or power equal or lower in rank, or strength that tries to suppress and enslave us, overcome his force and crush him by your own strength and power which is great as the blazing sun. Let the bow strings of the enemies snap under the heat of your blaze.

Indra, we are yours, we love you and cherish your friendship. Lead us forward by the path of truth and rectitude across all sins and evils of the world. Save us and let the alien strings and force of the bows of sin and evil snap under their own tension.

7. Asmabhyaṁ su tvamindra tāṁ śikṣa yā dohate prati varāṁ jaritre. Acchidrodhṇī pīpayadyathā nah sahasradhārā payasā mahī gauḥ.

Indra, lord of splendour, pray bless us with that perennial cow, that speech, knowledge and vision which gives the cherished milk of life for the celebrant so that this great earth, this light of divinity, an infinite ocean of living vitality, may shower us with abundance in a thousand streams.
Mandala 10/Sukta 134

Indra Devata, Mandhata Yauvanashva (1-6 first line), Godha (6 second line -7) Rshi

Indra, lord of light and glory, ruler of the world, when you fill the earth and the environment with splendour like the dawn, the divine Mother Nature raises you and manifests you as the great ruler of the great people of the world. The gracious mother elevates you in refulgence and majesty as the mighty Indra. (Indra at the cosmic level is the Lord Almighty; at the human level, the world ruler; and at the individual level, Indra is the soul, ruler of the body, senses, mind and intelligence.)

Strike down the adamantine stubbornness of the mortal enemy who wickedly injures the law and order of the system. Crush him down to naught who suppresses us and enslaves us. The divine mother create you, the gracious mother elevates you in glory as the great ruler.

3. Ava tyā bṛhatīrīśo viśvaścandrā amitrahan. Śacībhiḥ śakra dhūnuhīndra viśvābhirūṭibhir-devī janitryajī jananadbhadrā janitryajījanat.

O mighty ruler, grand achiever, destroyer of adversities, negativities and enmities, bring here those vast, magnificent wealths, energies and excellences of the world to the earth from the light of heaven by your grand actions and victorious exploits. Shake up and discover the resources of nature and humanity by positive, protective and regenerative techniques possible across the world. The divine mother creates you, the gracious mother elevates you to eminence.

Indra, lord of a hundred powers, actions and achievements, when you move and exploit the resources of the world’s possibilities by thousands of protective and regenerative techniques and grant the benefits of wealth to the creative partners in the developmental yajna, then the divine mother elevates you to honour, the gracious mother exalts you to glory.

5. Ava svedā ivābhito viśvak patantu didyavaḥ. Dūrvāyā iva tantavo vyasmatirdevī janitryajījanadbhadrā janitryajījanat.

Let the blazing warriors of the enemies and their shining weapons fall down all round like particles of mist. Let all hate, enmity and all malignant forces droop and fall like blades of grass. The divine mother exhorts you, the gracious mother exalts you.

Lord of intelligence, imagination and foresight, as an elephant driver wields the hook to control the strength and direction of the elephant, so you wield your power of far-reaching potential to control the world order, its forces and direction, and as the eternal ruler and controller holds the reins of time, so do you, O lord of might and magnanimity, hold the reins of the social order steps ahead of possibility long before actuality. The divine mother enlightens you, the gracious mother exalts you.

O devas, divinities of nature and nobilities of humanity, we never transgress the law, never frustrate any plan, never violate the order, never act surreptitiously. (We are an open minded people), we follow the law, and act according to the divine mantra, tradition and mantric declaration of the principles and policies of the order. In matters of the social order we love and cooperate with all parties of our view as well as with others whether they are rivals or people on the periphery.

Mandala 10/Sukta 135

Yama Devata, Kumara Yamayana Rshi

1. Yasmin vrkṣe supalāśe devaiḥ sampibate yamaḥ. Atrā no viśpatiḥ pitā purāṇāṁ anu venati.

On the leafy silken tree on which yama, the human soul in control of its senses and mind, sits and tastes the fruits of its own performance, on the same tree, our father, ruler and controller of the universe, sits, lives, loves, and watches the eternal human souls in accordance with their performance.
2. \( \text{Purāṇāṁ anuvenantam carantaṁ pāpayāmuyā.} \\ \text{Asūyannabhyacākaśaṁ tasmā asrṇḍhayam punaḥ.} \)

I see the father loving and watching the eternal human souls. I see the human soul discontented, displeased, protesting and still living with that same sinful conduct. I see all this and yet I wish I would love to live the same again.

3. \( \text{Yaññ kumāra navaṁ rathamacakraṁ manasākṛṇoḥ. Ekeśaṁ viśvataḥ prāṇcamapaśyannadhi tiśṭhasi.} \)

O soul, dear child, without seeing, without knowing, you ride a new chariot, of the body, which you have yourself caused to have been created, by your own mind. It goes round and round all round in various forms of life and states of existence without wheels and by only one pole of desire and energy.

4. \( \text{Yaññ kumāra prāvarতya रथं विर्प्भ्यस्परिः।} \\ \text{तं सामानु पार्वतत्तु समिता नाव्याहितम ः ४ ॥} \)

O soul, that body which you move like a chariot away from the sages, the wise man settled at peace in the heart moves the same chariot all secure as if it is safely placed in a boat to cross the seas.

Dear soul, who creates this chariot for the spirit? Who completes and who dismantles it? Who at all would speak of this to us now so that we could have a vision of the future and knowledge of restitution? The Lord alone can say.

As this body, this other than the soul, is created, similarly before this, mind and thought is created. Before that Prakṛti is all pervasive and expansive, and from that all forms emerge and evolve.

7. Idam yamasya sādananāṁ devamānāṁ yaducyate. Iyamasya dhanyate nālīrayam gīrbhiḥ pari-skṛtaḥ.

This body is the abode of the spirit, it is also the abode of death. It is said to be made of devas, divine evolutes of nature such as earth, water and others. This pulse of the body system beats, and as long as it beats the soul and body is celebrated and exalted with songs of adoration.
Mandala 10/Sukta 136

Keshina (Agni, Surya, Vayu) Devata, Vatarashanah Munayah Rshis. The Rshis’ details are: Juti (1), Vatajuti (2), Viprajuti (3), Vrshanaka (4), Karikrata (5), Etasha (6), Rshyashrnga (7)

Keshi, the sun of radiant rays, holds and sustains the fire, the water, the heaven and earth and, indeed, the world, and it is called the light that reveals the world, illuminating it, so that we may see and enjoy the beauty and bliss of it.

(This mantra as others too may also be interpreted at the microcosmic level. In that case Keshi is the soul which sustains the pranic energy and the elements, processes and subsystems of the body system. The soul is the inner light which itself is further illuminated by the cosmic spirit precisely in the way the sun itself is illuminated by the cosmic light of existence.)

Self-energised objects of space controlled by cosmic energy wear a dull yellow vestment and they follow the currents of cosmic energy when rays of the sun touch and affect their behaviour.

(Sages harmoniously self-controlled in tune with the currents of cosmic energy wear a soothing vestment of yellow hue, and when their senses become totally internalised, they identify their being with the cosmic energy of divinity.)

उन्मदिता माध्यम बाताँ आ तस्थिमा वृयम।
शरीरदुर्खमामें यूल्यं मर्तासा अभिप पश्यथ ॥ ३ ॥

3. Unmaditā mauneyena vāṭāṁ ā tasthimā vayam.
Śrīredasmākam yūyaṁ martāso abhi paśyatha.

Inspired by the sun we, space objects, abide in orbital stability by the cosmic currents of universal energy. O mortals, you may see our body on the surface, but nothing inside.

(Pranic energies of the sage inspired by spiritual energy, we abide in balance with the psychic currents of the soul. O mortals, you can visualise and observe our physical movements, but the inner reality, you can’t.)

अन्तरिणि रण पतति विश्वा सूपावचारकशात।
मुनिद्वस्त्वदवस्य साबृत्याय सखाहितः ॥ ४ ॥

4. Antarikṣeṇa patati viśvā rūpāvacākaśat.
Munirdevasyadevasya saukrtyāya sakhā hitaḥ.

The sun which is an object of meditative realisation flies through space, illuminating and watching the forms of heavenly bodies in the solar system. It itself is placed in orbit by the divine spiritual energy of the cosmos for the sake of harmony among the heavenly objects of the cosmic system.
So does the soul vibrate in the microcosmic system illuminating, the intelligence and energising the mind and senses and the pranas to achieve the individual’s harmony with himself and the totality of existence.)

The sun moves in orbit by the dynamics of cosmic energy. It is a cooperative friend of cosmic energy, inspired and energised by the supreme Divinity. An object of realisation in meditation, it illuminates both sides of its cosmic movement in space, the former and the latter both in the cosmic orbit.

(The soul in meditation can illuminate both sides of its orbit in time and space, the past and the future both as revealed by the sage Patanjali in accordance with the Veda.)

Pervasive and radiating in the course of light rays in the sky, over the earth and in the solar region itself, the sun, treasure source of radiation, concomitant with fire, warmth of life and light, is the highest inspirer of joy, most soothing source of the sweetness of existence.

(The soul itself is the reservoir of eternal joy in the microcosmic existence of the human individual in its spiritual journey on earth, in the sky, in the solar region, in short, all over in its state of existence all time all over space.)

7. \textit{Vāyurasmā upāmanthat pinaṣṭi små kunannamā. Keśī viṣasya pātreṇa yadrudreṇāpibat saha.}

When the sun drinks the soma fragrance of yajna and the vapours of water arising from the earthly vedi by the spatial cup along with the fire of the vedi, then the wind churns the wealth of nature’s bounties and the inviolable thunder grinds the grosser gifts of nature to the refined particles of rain for the earth and the moral and spiritual yajnic values for the soul of humanity.

\textbf{Mandala 10/Sukta 137}

\textit{Vishvedevah Devatah, Saptarshis Bharadvaja, Kashyapa, Gotama, Atri, Vishvamitra, Jamadagni, Vasishtha Rshis}

1. \textit{Uta devā avahitaṁ devā unnayathā punaḥ. Utāgaścakruṣāṁ devā devā jīvayathā punaḥ.}

O Devas, sages and noble scholars, raise the frustrated and the fallen. O divinities, save the despaired and raise him again. O saints, redeem the man committed to sin. O divines, give him the life again. Let the lost live once again.

2. Dvāvimau vātau vāta ā sindhorā parāvataḥ. Dakṣam te anya ā vātu parānyo vātu yadrapah.

Here are two winds of life that blow: one from and upto the sea, the other beyond. May the one bring you strength and vigour of freshness, let the other blow out sin, evil and pollution far away.

3. Ā vāta vāhi bheṣajam vi vāta vāhi yadrapah. Tvaṁ hi viśvabheṣajo devānāṁ dūta īyase.

O breeze of fresh life, bring in the healing balm, blow out whatever is sinful and polluted. You blow as the divine breath of life and freshness, and you alone bring in the universal sanative.

4. Ā tvāgamaṁ śaṅtātibhiratho ariṣṭatātibhiḥ. Dakṣam te bhadramābhārṣaṁ parā yakṣmaṁ suvāmi te.

I am come with all palliatives and protectives for peace and tranquillity. I bring you auspicious, resistant and regenerative vitality and root out all debility.
5. \textit{Trāyantāmiha devāstrāyatāṁ marutāṁ gaṇah}. \textit{Trāyantām viśvā bhūtāni yathāyamarapā asat.}

May the divinities save us here in body and mind. May the forces of Maruts, air, breeze, wind and even storm protect us. May all forms of nature and living beings protect and promote us so that this body system may be fine, free and immaculate.

6. \textit{Āpa idvā u bheṣajīrāpo amīvacātanīḥ. Āpah sarvasya bheṣajīstāste kṛṇvantu bheṣajam.}

All waters and other liquid energies are sanatives. Waters are cleansers and destroyers of disease and sickness. Waters are medicaments for all living beings. O man, O sufferer, let the waters cure and wash you clean as natural medicine.

7. \textit{Hastābhyām daśāśākhābhīyāṁ jihvā vācaḥ purogavī. Anāmayitnubhyāṁ tvā tābhīyāṁ tvopa sprśāmasi.}

The tongue is the leading articulator of the physician’s speech. The two hands and ten fingers are the physician’s magical touch. The soothing speech and soft sympathetic touch of both hands and ten fingers, with these two inspiring curatives, O suffering man, we touch and retouch you and caress you back to health and self-assurance.

Mandala 10/Sukta 138

Indra Devata, Anga Aurava Rshi

1. Tava tya indra sakhyeṣu vahnaya ātām manvānā vyadardirurvalam. Yatrā daśasyannuṣaso riṇa-\n\nnapaḥ kutsāya manmannahyaśca daṁsayah.

O lord of cosmic energy, Indra, in consonance with your will and law, these flames of fire carrying yajnic fragrance, and these currents of wind bearing electrical energy, break the vaporous force of the mighty cloud, and when the mantras are chanted and you radiate the lights of the dawn, catalytic power is initiated and showers of rain are released in response to the wishes of the yajakas.

2. Avāsrjaḥ prasvāḥ śvañcayo girinudāja usrā apibo madhu priyam. Avardhayo vanino asya daṁsaśā \n\nśuṣoca sūrya ṛtajātayā girā.

Indra, lord of cosmic winds and energy, creates the vapours, breaks the clouds, initiates radiations of light and energy, absorbs the honey sweets of fragrances, augments the oceans of water in space, and by the order and power of its liberal potential, will and voice, the winds blow and the sun shines in heaven.

3. Vi sūryo madhye amucadratham divo vida-ddāsāya pratimānāmaṇāraḥ. Dr̥ḷhāṇi piprora surasya māyina indro vyāsyaccakṛvāṁ rjiśvanā.

The sun in the midst of the regions of light releases the energy flood of its rays, creating thereby a complementary adversary for the mighty cloud which holds the wealth of vapours. Thus does Indra, omnipotent performer, controller of cosmic dynamics, break the formidable concentrations of the wondrous mighty collector’s hoard of living showers by the strike of the catalytic operation of its natural law.

4. Anādhrṣṭāṇi dhṛṣito vyāsyannidhiḥrādevaṁ amṛṇadādayāsyah. Māseva sūryo vasu puryamā dade gṛṇānaḥ śṛṇmaśṛṇādviḥrūkṛtsnataṁ.

Dauntless and valiant Indra, ruler of the world, breaks down the formidable unimpaired selfish hoarders of wealth and power and, just as the sun by seasonal heat of its rays takes up the waters, so does he take out the concealed wealth and power of the antisocial elements, and, adored and celebrated, destroys the enemies of humanity by the lustre of his justice and
and power of its liberal potential, will and voice, the winds blow and the sun shines in heaven.

3. Viṣṇurya madhye amucadratha dvoddhrasya pratimōnamōrya¬. Dväühōni piprora¬ surasya mōyina indro vyōsyaccakovôjiÜvanô. The sun in the midst of the regions of light releases the energy flood of its rays, creating thereby a complementary adversary for the mighty cloud which holds the wealth of vapours. Thus does Indra, omnipotent performer, controller of cosmic dynamics, break the formidable concentrations of the wondrous mighty collector's hoard of living showers by the strike of the catalytic operation of its natural law.

4. Anōdhōni dhōito vyōsyannidh¶radevô³ am¾Äadayōsya¬. Mōseva sµuryo vasu puryamōna¬ Ütrµu³raܾČdvirukmatō. Dauntless and valiant Indra, ruler of the world, breaks down the formidable unimpaired selfish hoarders of wealth and power and, just as the sun by seasonal heat of its rays takes up the waters, so does he take out the concealed wealth and power of the antisocial elements, and, adored and celebrated, destroys the enemies of humanity by the lustre of his justice and power.

5. Ayuddhaseno vibhyā vibhindatā dāśadvṛtrahā tujayāni tejate. Indrasya vajrādabhedabhhiśnathaḥ prākrāmacchundhyūrajahāduṣā anaḥ. Indra, heroic commander of irresistible force, omnipresent and boundless, destroyer of evil and darkness by his inviolable potential, is generous, reduces the hurtful and promotes the progressive. The evil and wicked fear the shattering thunderbolt of Indra who is ever moving forward, illuminating and purifying, and every day the morning moves his chariot for a new dawn of light and progress for humanity.

6. Etā tyā te śrutyāni kevalā yadeka ekamakṛṇorayajñam. Māsām vīḍhānamadadhā adhi dyavi tvayā vibhinnaṁ bharati pradhiṁ pitā. Indra, these are the celebrated deeds of yours, lord absolute, who alone by yourself fix every selfish uncreative power. You hold and sustain the sun in heaven, and the sun, inspirer and promoter of life on earth, regulates the months and seasons of the year and abides by the path carved out by you in space.
Savita (1-3) Vishvavasu Atma (4-6) Devata, Vishvavasu Devagandharva Rshi

Savita, eternal light of life, wearing the rays of the sun, golden haired, is risen there from the east. On his rise in the world of his creation, Pusha, living energy of divinity for life forms on earth, rises, seeing, blessing and promoting all regions of the world as protector of life and its activity.

Watching and enlightening humanity, this light divine of life abides in the midst of heaven, filling heaven, earth and the middle region with its light and glory. It illuminates all quarters of space with universal light and bliss before and after and everywhere in between over the planets and the node.
3. Rāyo budhnah saṅgamanam viśvā rūpābhi caṣṭe sacibhiḥ. Deva iva savitā satya-dharmendro na tasthau samare dhanānām.

The very root and foundation of wealth, power and excellence, giver of health, peace, comfort and security of life, Savita watches, illuminates and inspires every thing of life with its forms and powers of action. Like omnificent divinity itself, the very essence and spirit of truth and Dharma, Savita abides by us in our battles for life’s wealth, beauty and excellence.

4. Viśvāvasun soma gandharvamāpo dadṛśuṣiṣṭa-dṛtenā vyāyan. Tadanvavidindro rārahāṇa āsāṁ pari sūryasya paridhīṁrapaśyat.

O Soma, blessed seeker, just as vapours of water rise up by the heat of yajna and reach the sun, sustainer of the earth and life giver of the world, similarly self-realising souls by meditative yajna rise to the cosmic soul, and just as dynamic wind energy moves in consonance with the sun to the vaporous halo round the sun, similarly self-realising souls watch the cosmic halo round divinity, and the exceptional soul, having stayed existential complexities, reaches the divine presence at the centre of the halo.
5. Viśvāvasurabhi tanno grñātu divyo gandharvo rajaso vimānah. Yadvā ghā satyamuta yanna vidma dhiyo hinvāno dhiya inno avyāḥ.

May the spirit of the universe, shelter home of the world and world’s wealth and knowledge, divine sustainer of the universe and universal wisdom, maker and measurer of the universe in space and time, enlighten us of what is the truth of existence, what we do not know. May he inspire our vision and intelligence, and protect and promote our intelligence, will and actions.

6. Sasnimavindaccaraṇe nadīnāmapāvṛṇodduro aśmavrajānām. Prāsāṁ gandharvo amṛtāni voca-dindro dakṣaṁ pari jānādahīnām.

May Gandharva, eternal lord sustainer of the universe, knowledge and speech, abiding deep at the centre and on the circumference of the fluent streams and rolling oceans of speech and knowledge, open up for us the doors of knowledge locked in adamantine mystery and release the nectar streams of these mysteries in speech and vision. Indra, lord omnipotent and omniscient, alone knows in full the depth and far outreach of these mysteries.
Mandala 10/Sukta 140

Agni Devata, Agni Pavaka Rshi

Agni, leading light of life, great is your vigour, power and felicity, shining, inspiring and incessantly flowing. O refulgent lord, your flames rise high and blaze fiercely. Light and fire of Infinity, omniscient poet and creator, by your power, potential and abundance, you bear and bring admirable food, energy and fulfilment with the sense of victory for the generous giver and selfless yajaka.

Pāvakavarcāḥ śukravarcā anūnavarcā udiyarṣi bhānunā. Putro mātārā vicarannupāvasi prṇakṣi rodasī ubhe.

Lord of flames of purity, master of immaculate light and power absolutely free from want and weakness, you rise with self-refulgence and, just as the son closely abides by the parents, serves and protects them, so do you pervade, sustain and protect the heaven and earth.
3. Ūrjo napājjātavedah suśastibhirmandasva dhūti-bhirhitah. Tve iṣāṁ sam dadhurbhūrivarpaścitrotayo vāmajātāḥ.

O divine light and fire of life, child as well as protector and sustainer of energy pervasive in the entire world of existence, rise and rejoice as well as exhilarate us, with hymns and noble thoughts and actions as you are invoked and kindled in the vedi and in the heart and soul. Faithful celebrants bring you food in homage, and in you they vest their desires and aspirations of various forms and wondrous efficacy arisen from love of the heart and soul.

4. Irajyannagne prathayasva jntubhirasme rāyo amartya. Sa darśatasya vāpuṣo vi rājasi pṛṇakṣi sānasim kratum.

Immortal Agni, waxing and exalting with all living beings, develop and expand the wealth and excellence of life for us. Of noble and gracious form as you are and shine and rule as you do, join us with yajnic action and bless us with abundant fruit of success and victory.

5. Iṣkartāramadhvarasasya pracetasāṁ kṣayantaṁ rādhaso mahaḥ. Rātim vāmasya subhaṁ mahīmiṇam dadhāsi sānasim rayim.

Agni, lord, spirit, and power of the light and fire of life, we celebrate and adore you, inspirer, impeller and promoter of holy yajna of love and non-violence, omniscient treasure giver and controller of the great world’s wealth, who bear and bring us abundant gifts of beauty and splendour and the good fortune of life, high energy and food, plenty and prosperity, indeed all wealth, honour and excellence of life.

Men, first of all since earliest times, worship, adore and inculcate you, Agni, omniscient lord of life, yajna and the law of life, great and glorious, most gracious presence of the world, for the sake of peace, pleasure and prosperity for the good life. O lord of life and grace, mortals singly and in couples and family with holy words celebrate and exalt you, divine, kind listener, infinite presence.

Mandala 10/Sukta 141

Vishvedeva Devata, Agni Tapasa Rshi

1. Agne acchā vadeha naḥ pratyaṇa naḥ sumanā bhava. Pra no yaccha viśaspate dhanado asi nastvam.

Agni, lord of light, knowledge and speech, speak to us here of the knowledge of science and divinity, be good and gracious to us here and now, direct. O Vishpati, protector and promoter of the people, you are the giver of life’s wealth, knowledge and enlightenment, pray give us the wealth, knowledge and enlightenment about life and the art of living.

2. Pra no yacchatvaryaṁ ā pra bhagaḥ pra brhaspatiḥ. Pra devāḥ prota sunṛtaṁ rāyo devī dadātu naḥ.

May Aryama, lord of justice and rectitude, Bhaga, lord giver of wealth, power and glory, Brhaspati, lord of expansive space, universal vision and speech, Devas, all divinities of nature and nobilities of humanity, and divine Sunrta, Vedic voice of truth and law of existence, give us wealth, honour and prosperity of life, wisdom and enlightenment.

3. Somaiṁ rājānamavase’gnim gīrdbhirhavāmahe. Ādityāṁ viṣṇuṁ sūryaṁ brahmāŚnam ca brhaspatim.

We invoke brilliant Soma, exhilarating spirit of peace for protection and progress, Agni, spirit of light and warmth of life, with holy words and songs of devotion. We invoke and adore the Adityas, brilliant powers of enlightenment, Vishnu, lord omniscient and omnipresent awareness, Surya, self-refulgent divine source of light, Brahma, the sage of divinity, and Brhaspati, the scholar visionary of divinity.

4. \( \text{Indraväyū bṛhaspatiṁ suhāveha havāmahe.} \)
\( \text{Yathā nāḥ sarva ijjanaḥ saṅgatyāṁ sumanā asat.} \)

We invoke, adore and pray for the cosmic energy of omnipotent Indra, Vayu, wind energy of cosmic Vayu, Brhaspati, cosmic sustenance of the infinite wielder of the universe, all worthies of love, invocation and adoration so that our people, noble and happy at heart, be united in cooperation for the peace and progress of life on the earth.

5. \( \text{Aryamaṇāṁ bṛhaspatimindraṁ dānāya codaya.} \)
\( \text{Vātam viṣṇum sarasvatīṁ savitāram ca vājinam.} \)

For the gifts of wealth, honour and excellence of life, invoke, adore and inculcate Aryaman, law of life, Brhaspati, cosmic expansion and centrifugal energy, Indra, cosmic electric energy, Vata, wind energy, Vishnu, cosmic gravitation and centripetal energy, Sarasvati, cosmic knowledge and speech of divinity, and Savita, cosmic creative energy which is the overall and ultimate all winner over negativities.

\( \text{त्यान् न अग्र अग्निभिवर्ध्य युज्य च वधय।} \)
\( \text{त्यान् न दुर्वत्तात्त्व रूपाय दानाय चादय।} \)
6. Tvam no agne agnihirbrahma yajñaṁ ca variabilitya. Tvam no devatātaye rāyo dānāya codaya.

Agni, leading light of the world, by the gifts of enlightenment increase and develop our knowledge and corporate action, and inspire and enlighten us for the service of the divinities to win their gifts of wealth, honour and excellence.

Mandala 10/Sukta 142

_Agni Devata, Sharngah Rshis: Jarita (1-2), Drona (3-4), Sarisrkva (5-6), Stambamitra (7-8)_

MANDAL - 10 / SUKTA - 142 1103 1104 RGVEDA

1. Ayamagne jaritā tve abhūdapi sahasah sūno nahyanyadasyatyāpyam. Bhadram hi śarma trivarūthamasti ta āre himsānāmāpana didyumā kṛdhi.

O self-refulgent light of life, Agni, this celebrant is dedicated to you wholly in worship and service. O creator and inspirer of strength, patience and fortitude, there is none other than you worth attaining. Blissful is your power of body, mind and soul. Pray cast away the pain and sufferance caused by the burning oppression of violent enemies.
2. Pravat te agne janīmā pitūyataḥ sācīva viśvā bhuvaṇā nyṛṇjase. Pra saptayah pra saniṣanta no dhiyaḥ puraścarantī paśupā iva tmanā.

Agni, your presence radiates, desiring to take things into your fold like a companion power reaching all regions of the world. And our thoughts and songs of homage too, spontaneously flying vibrations of heart and soul, reach on to you like eager servants of the divine master.

3. Uta vā u pari vṛṇakṣi bapsadbaharagna ulapasya svadhāvah. Uta khilyā urvarānāṁ bhavanti mā te hetim taviśīṁ cukru dhām.

Agni, self-refulgent fire and power, when you burn and devour heaps of grass, sometimes you spare patches of green and sometimes vast areas of fertile lands become wastelands. Let us understand this mystery and the way so that we do not excite the onslaught of your blazing power of destruction.

When you rise and spread, devouring both high and low like a fierce army thirsting for victory, and specially when the wind blows favourable to your blaze, then like a barber shaving off beard and moustache you lay waste vast areas of land.

5. Pratyasya śreṇayo dadṛśra ekaṁ niyānaṁ bahavo rathāsāḥ. Bāhū yadagne anumarmṛjāno nyanūttānāmanveśi bhūmim.

The flames of Agni in rising sequence are seen like a row of chariots following one leader as engine when, Agni, you raise your arms waxing and shining and cover hills and valleys on the land.

6. Ut te śuṣmā jihatāmut te arcirut te agne śaśamānasya vājāḥ. Ucchvaṅcasva ni nama vardhamāna ā tvādyā viśve vasavaḥ sadantu.

Agni, lord of light, illuminative and enlightening power, may your bright flames rise higher, may the radiations of your light and grandeur and your victories over want and darkness rise high and elevate the body, mind and soul of the celebrant. Yourself rising and expanding, raise the high higher, condescend, save and raise the low, and may all the soothing, sheltering powers and personalities of the world sit by you on the vedi and rehabilitate the uprooted here today and now.

7. Apāṃśirind nyṛṇāṁ samudrasya nivṛśanam.

7.
7. Apāmidam nyayanaṁ samudrasya niveśanam.
Anyāṁ kṛṣṇuṣvetah panthāṁ tena yāḥi vāśāṁ anu.

This is the vast reservoir of waters, bottomless bound of the sea. Agni, create some other higher path from these here, so you may proceed to the fulfilment of your heart’s desire.

8. Āyane te parāyaṇe dūrvā rohantu puṣpiṇīḥ.
Hradāśca puṇḍarikāṇi samudrasya grhrā ime.

Agni, may flowers and holy grass grow on your arrival, may flowers and holy grass shower on your departure. Let all these homes be homes close to the infinite ocean, with reservoirs and flowers around.

(The seventh and eighth verses may be addressed to the human soul as well as to Agni, leading light and creative spirit of the cosmos.)

Mandala 10/Sukta 143

Ashvinau Devate, Atri Sankhya Rshi

Hey Ashvins, complementary energies of nature and complementary nobilities of humanity such as physician and surgeon, teacher and preacher, father and mother, men and women, the person who observes the laws of nature and principles of truth and grows up in the yajnic way of life, whether he or she loves to enjoy the experience of living or has grown out of life’s colourfulness and temptation, such a person you strengthen like a strong force in harness with every side of personality renewed to top condition of health and body to reach the goal and realise the purpose and values of life.

त्यं चिदश्वं न बाज्ञिनमरणवा यमलंत।
दृढः हें गुर्दिं न वि ध्यतमस्तिं यतिश्चया रजः॥२॥

2.  Tyam cidaśvam na vājinamareṇavo yamatnata. Dr̥ḥam grantim na vi śyatamatrim yaviṣṭhamā rajah.

And the person most youthful, dynamic, ever in harness for winning the goal of life, but bound by the web of life through senses, mind and pranas, all unsoiled though by dust, pray release, undo the bondage like a gordian knot of life so that the person may live free from possible dust and pollution.

नरा दर्सिष्ठावत्रये शुभा सिष्यासतं धिर्यं।
अथा हि वा दिवा नरा पुनः स्तामा न बिश्चस॥३॥

O leading lights, noble souls, brilliant scholars, pray release the worldly man in search of freedom from bondage, bless him with holy thoughts and intelligence, since the enlightened man’s song of prayer and adoration in order to celebrate you reaches you, harbingers of light, again and again.

न्‍युवं भृज्यु समुद्र आ राजस: पार इङ्कितम। ‍
यातमच्छ्र ग्रामक्षिणासतया सातय कृतम॥ ५ ॥

5. Cite tadvāṁ surādhasā rātiḥ sumatiraśvinā. ‍Ā yannahad sadane pṛthau samane parśatho narā.

Ashvins, harbingers of wealth, competence and success, that wealth of noble thoughts and intelligence, that generous gift of yours, is for the enlightenment of humanity which, O leading lights, you bring in showers in this vast world of life, in this hall of yajna, in this struggle of our life for happiness and freedom.

अथ च ममहिष्ठा विश्वावदसा ।
समस्म भृस्मं नरालस्य न पिप्युषिरिषः ॥ ६ ॥

Leading lights of the world, greatest and most liberal masters of universal wealth and knowledge, come like benevolent harbingers of peace and freshness of joy, bless us and refine us with your gracious favours of peace, freedom and happiness as abundant showers of rain fill the lake.

Mandala 10/Sukta 144

_Hindu Devata, Suparna Tarkshya or Urdbhvakrshana
Yamayana Rshi_

\[
\text{अयं हि त आर्मत्य इन्दुरत्या न पत्यत।} \text{द ग्र विब्रायूङ्क्धर्षे॥ १ ॥}
\]

1. Ayam hi te amartya induratyo na patyate.
_Dakشو viśvāyurvedhase._

Indra, lord eternal and omnipotent, this immortal soma rises to you like a flying courser. Versatile, living vitality of the world, it rises in homage to the lord creator of the world.

\text{अयमस्मासु काव्यं ऋभुवणं दास्वंत।}
\text{अयम विभत्तीःव्यक्तिश्च मदर्मभुन कृत्यं मदम॥ २ ॥}
\]

2. Ayamasmāsu kāvya ṛbhurvajro dāsvate. Ayam bibhṛtyūrdbhvakṛśanāṁ madamṛbhurna kṛtvyaṁ madam.

Here among us it is inspiring and adorable, brilliant, a very thunderbolt of protection for the generous, and scourge of punishment for the destructive.
And it bears the exhilaration that elevates like rising flames of fire just as the wise sage bears the passion for creativity.
3. Ghṛṣuḥ śyenāya kṛtvana āsu svāsu vamśagah.
   Ava dīdhedahīśuvah.

   Effulgent, agile and exhilarating for the dynamic creative personality, inspiring and vitalising among its own people, it blesses them and their progeny with high energy and enthusiasm.

4. Yāṁ suparāṇah parāvataḥ śyenasya putra ābharaṇat.
   Ṣatacakraṁ yo’hyo vartaniḥ.

   Soma, which Vayu, cosmic energy, child of all pervasive space, bears and carries from far off solar regions, is performer of a hundred divine acts of nature and it is the very life of the cloud and indestructible vitality of life.

5. Yāṁ te śyenāścārṣumārvrkaṁ padābharadar-ūṇaṁ mānamandhasaḥ.
   Enā vayo vi tāryāyurjīvasa enā jāgāra bandhutā.

   The essence of life’s vitality, soma, lovely and pleasing, unassailable and sunny bright, which nature’s energy brings by its own spirit and power, is the vitality by which health and fertility for life grows higher and the kinship and continuity of humanity keeps living and awake.

Thus does Indra, life of life, through soma life energy, disseminate and bear the great creative vitality in the divine forms of nature and humanity. O lord of holy action, the health and age of distinct life forms is extended and maintained by holy acts of soma activity, and this vitality is created and distilled from us by us through the holy discipline of yajnic living with brahmacharya.

Mandala 10/Sukta 145

Sapati-badhanam Devata, Indrani Rshi

The subject matter of this hymn at the surface level is getting rid of a rival wife, and for that purpose the speaker takes recourse to a herb also. Thus the hymn reads like a spell cure and possibly with a magical herb. But this approach would not do justice to the deeper meaning of the hymn which is integration or re-integration of personality with a single, undivided, focussed interest in the pursuit of a definite goal of positive value.

Split personality is a problem in modern times. So is schizophrenia, a devastating disease. The cure can be both herbal and psychological. The word ‘Upanishat’ helps us to read the hymn in this Vedic direction of practical yoga in which sanative herbs, mental concentration and spiritual faith all play an important role (refer Yoga Sutras of Patanjali, 4, 1.).

1. Imāṁ khanāmyoṣadhīṁ vīrudham balavattamāṁ. Yayā sapatnīṁ bādhate yayā saṁvindaṁ patim.

   I dig out this luxuriant and most powerful herb by which one can annul a rival fascination and by which the pursuant can recover a single, all absorbing love for successful attainment.

2. Uttānaparṇe subhage devajūte sahasvati. Sapatnīṁ me parā dhama patiṁ me kevalaṁ kuru.

   O soma plant growing up with luxuriant leaves and branches, nobly effective, divinely energised, giver of peace, patience and courageous vitality, transform me to concentrate on my one and only love. Throw off my evil fascination. Let me be with my master spirit of life.

   O soma, you are higher, more efficacious. I also am higher than the fascination, greater than all others who are superior, generally speaking. May that which is my rival be lower than the lowest fascinations.
4. Nahyasyā nāma grbhnāmi no asmin ramate jane. Parāmeva parāvataṁ sapatnīṁ gamayāmasi.

   I do not even think of its name. No one entertains this human distraction, no one is distracted by this human fascination. We throw this remote fascination far off at the farthest.

5. Ahamasmi sahamānātha tvamasi sāsahiḥ. Ubhe sahasvatī bhūtvī sapatnīṁ me sahāvahai.

   I am patient, challenging and victorious. O soma, you too are unassailable, you and I, both challenging and victorious, we shall subdue the rival.

6. Upa te’dhāṁ sahamānāmabhī tvādhāṁ sahīyasā. Māmanu pra te mano vatsaṁ gauriva dhāvatu pathā vāriva dhāvatu.

   O soma, O spirit of peace, O spiritual knowledge of the Upanishad, I love you at heart and hold on to you in faith, patient and victorious as you are. I hold on to you with a determined mind. May your spirit radiate and come to me like the mother cow hastening to the calf and water rushing straight down to the lake.

Aranyani Devata, Devamuni Airammada Rshi

अरण्यात्यरण्यात्यसाधः पञ्च नर्यैः।
कथा गाम्बे न पृङ्खलिते न त्वा भरिरव विन्दति। II 1 II

Tarry, O spirit of the forest, who disappear like a phantom in no time. Why not stay for a moment by the village? And you don’t fear even fear itself, which fears to touch your presence.

ृषारवाय वद्ये यदुपार्वति चिच्चिकः।

2. Yṛṣāravāya vadate yadupāvati ciccikah.
Āghāṭibhiriva dhāvayannaranyakānīnimmahīyate.

In response to howls and noises of the forest, birds chirp and crickets sing, all appears like temple bells and thereby the forest presence gets exalted.

उत्त गार्बिकावादन्त्यूत वश्मव दृश्यत।
उत्ता अरण्यानि: सायं श्राकटीरिव सजलि। II 3 II

3. Uta gāva ivādantyuta veśmeva dṛśyate.
Uto aranyakāṇiḥ sāyamāḥ śakaṭiriva sarjati.

Forest animals graze like cows, clusters of flowers give a homely look, and the forest spirit appears to say good bye to the carts that leave for village homes.

गामुङ्गः आ हृंङ्गति दावुङ्गः अपावधित।
वस्स रण्यन्यां सायमवः पदितिः मन्यत। II 4 II
4. Gāmaṅgaiśa ā hvayati dārvaṅgaiśo apāvadhūt. Vasannaraṇyāṇyāṁ sāyamakrukṣaditi manyate.

Dear spirit and forest presence, someone calls upon his cow to come home, this one cuts the tree, and in the evening someone staying in the forest shrieks, someone howls, someone bursts in song also.

5. Na vā arañyānirhantyanyaścennābhigacchati. Svādoḥ phalasya jagdhvāya yathākāmam ni padyate.

The forest does not hurt anyone. Whoever goes to the forest without the intent to damage eats the delicious fruit and roams around as he wishes at will.

6. Āñjanagandhim surabhīṁ bahvannāmakṛṣṭīvalāṁ. Prāham mṛgāṇaṁ mātaramaraṇyāṇīnīsamsisam.

I revere and celebrate the forest and the spirit of the forest not subjected to human encroachment by farming, abounding in wild fruit, fragrant, flowery beautiful, mother of wild life and sustaining friend of humanity.
Indra Devata, Suveda Shairishi Rshi

1. Śratte dadhāmi prathamāya manyave’hanyadvyṛtram naryam viverapaḥ. Ubhe yattvā bhavato rodasī anu rejate śuṣmāt prthivī cidadrivaḥ.

Indra, potent ruler of nature and humanity, lord of thunder and clouds, mover of mountains, I am all faith, reverence and admiration in truth of commitment for your first and foremost power and passion by which you break the clouds and release the showers of rain for humanity, by virtue of which both heaven and earth abide by your law, the power and force by which the firmament shakes with awe.

2. Tvaṁ māyābhirananavadya māyinām śravasyatā manasā vrṣtramardayaḥ. Tvaminnarō vrṇate gaviṣṭiṣu tvāṁ viśvāsu havyāsvaiṣṭiṣu.

Irreproachable power, with your mind and desire to produce more food and energy, by your mighty forces you break open the treasure-holds of mysterious hidden energies of nature. Leading lights of humanity take to you in their search for rays of light, and in all their cherished programmes of common good they honour you as the source of success.

O lord universally invoked and celebrated, be gracious and bring the light of knowledge to these noble leaders of humanity. O lord of power and glory, progressive men of wisdom who have achieved power and prosperity in life honour and adore you in their congregations as the chief power of success and victory for the attainment of irreproachable wealth and other values for themselves, their children and grand children.

He alone values and obtains wealth worthy of achievement who knows and realises in life the inspiring power and ecstasy of Indra. O lord of power and prosperity, the man inspired and empowered by you, who is dedicated to positive giving and yajnic programmes with leading lights of scientific yajna, achieves wealth and victory at the earliest because he knows the secret of success.
3. Aiśandhi puruṣaṁturu vadhosye mahagam. Arcanti toke tanaye pari-

O lord universally invoked and celebrated, be gracious and bring the light of knowledge to these noble leaders of humanity. O lord of power and glory, progressive men of wisdom who have achieved power and prosperity in life honour and adore you in their congregations as the chief power of success and victory for the attainment of irreproachable wealth and other values for themselves, their children and grandchildren.

Indra, lord giver and creator of glory, pray let us rise and expand in the field of knowledge and action.
Give us wealth and power of a high order of nobility.
You are Mitra and Varuna for us, friend and just guide, giver and commander of wondrous capability, noble and blissful, and one with us, you give us food for body, mind and soul for the individual and the human community.

Mandala 10/Sukta 148

Indra Devata, Prthu Vainya Rshi

1. Suṣvāṇāsā indra stumasi tvā sasavāṁsaśca tmanā tanā sanuyāma tvotāḥ.

Indra, lord of abundant wealth and power, creative and expressive devotees with divine gifts of heavenly food and energy, we celebrate and adore you.
Pray bless us with that wealth and well being which you please is for our good, so that, under your gracious protection, we may win the power and prosperity of life to live well and enjoy the beauty and goodness of life to the fulfilment of our heart and soul.

2. ऋष्ववस्त्वमिन्द्र शूर जाता दासीविश्वः सूय्र्यं सह्यः।
गुहां हिंतं गुहां गूढः हमस्यु बिभृत्तसिं पर्यावरण न सार्पम॥

Indra, you are the mighty maker and terrible breaker both at the same time in the creative process of nature and life, great and brave at the very manifestation of your power, who challenge and break open the negative forces of dark clouds by the sun, so that, on showers of the divine grace of rains, we receive and enjoy the soma nectar hidden in the mystery held at the heart of the vapours and water showers.

(In the spiritual sense, Indra is present deep in the self, and when by grace it breaks the darkness, we receive the light and the divine nectar.)

3. अया वा गिरां अभ्यच बिद्वाणृषीणां विपर्यः सुप्रति चक्रानं।
त स्यामु य रुणवर्ण्य सार्पकृत्त तुभ्यं रथाव्ध ह भु ाद॥

O lord of the cosmic chariot, ruler protector of the universe, vibrant and omniscient Indra, lover of the sages’ songs of adoration, pray accept and honour our words of prayer so that, serving and celebrating you with delicious homage of soma and ourselves exulting, we may ever abide in your gracious favour and presence.
4. Imā brahmendra tubhyam sāṃsi dā nṛbhyo nṛṇāṁ śūra śavah. Te bhīrthava sakraturyeṣu cāka-nnuta trāyasva grñata uta stīn.

Indra, lord omnipotent, brave leader, these songs of adoration are offered in homage to your honour. Be pleased to accept these. Pray bless us with strength and power worthy of the brave. Bless these leading lights with love and sure fulfilment in their holy acts of yajna. Save the celebrants and upraise the fallen who depend on you and look up for help.

5. Śrūdhī havaminrda śūra prthyā uta stavase venyasyārkaih. Ā yaste yonim ghrṭavantam-āsvārūṁ-mirna nimnairdravayanta vakvāh.

Indra, leading light of the world, omnipotent lord, brave all-presence, listen to the invocation and prayer of humanity at large. Adored and exalted you are by the celebrative songs of the wise, who sit in your hall of prayer round the vedi lighted and sprinkled with ghrta and attend to you, while the singer celebrants run to you like streams rushing down to sea, by paths of surrender.
1. Savitā yantraḥ pr̥thivīmaramṇādaskambhane savitā dyāmadṛśmat. Aśvatīṃdhukṣaddhumimantarikṣamatürte baddhaṃ savitā samudram.

Savita, lord creator, places the earth in orbit, and Savita places the region of light, in columnless space by the forces of cosmic gravitation. Savita moves the thundering cloud like a horse in skies and brings the showers, and Savita places the middle regions and the vast expanse of vapours and waters bound in boundless space.

2. Yatrā samudraḥ skabhito vyainadapāṃ napāt savitā tasya veda. Ato bhūrata ā utthitaṃ rajo’to dyāvāpr̥thivī apraṭhētam.

Where the ocean of vapours and water is sustained and whence it sprinkles the earth with showers, only Savita, eternal sustainer of waters, knows that mystery. Thence, from Savita, arises the earth, thence arises the sky and thence only the heaven and earth arise in mutual relation and expand.

Later all this other world arises in mutual relationship by the omnipotence of eternal lord Savita.
Dear seeker, from Savita only first arises the grand flying bird of fire, the sun, in conformity with the laws of Savita, and then the others.

Just as cows hasten to the village, the warrior takes to the horse, loving mother cow anxious at heart runs to the calf for milk, the husband goes to the wife for love, so may Savita, sustainer of the heavenly world, love of all humanity, come and bless us as his children.

O Savita, just as Angirasa, yogi with controlled pranic energy, established in the golden beauty of the spirit, invokes you in this yajna for the essence through existence, so do I, dedicated to worship and prayer with adoration, keep awake waiting for the revelation of divinity as my share of soma, divine ecstasy of ultimate freedom.

Agni Devata, Mrdika Vasishthha Rshi

1. Samiddhaścit samidhyase devebhoyo havyavāhana. Ādityai rudraivasubhurna ā gahi mṛśi-kāya na ā gahi.

Agni, fire of the vedi, heat and light of life, carrier of fragrance and freshness to nobilities and divine forces of nature, kindled, burning and ever awake, you are still kindled and raised to burn and shine for the renewal of life and life energy by yajna. Pray come to us with Aditya, radiations of the sun, with Rudras, electric catalysis of natural energy, and with Vasus, gifts of earth and pranic energies. Come to us for peace, prosperity and all round well being of life.

Loving, accepting and appreciating this yajna, this word of prayer and divine adoration, pray come close to join us. Shining, burning and blazing fire divine, we mortals invoke you, we kindle and adore you for peace, prosperity and all round well being of life.

Agni, lord omniscient and self-refulgent, Agni, universal spirit of life, was and is the high priest of all divine forces of nature and all nobilities of humanity. The same Agni, leading light and life of existence, ordinary people and enlightened sages invoke and light in the heart and home. I invoke and light the great Agni in the soul and in the home vedi for the achievement of wealth, honour and excellence of life. I pray to the spirit of divine peace for victory over all wealth and excellence of life.
3. \textit{Tvāmu jātavedasām viśvavārāṁ grīne dhiyā. Agne devāṁ ā vaha naḥ priyavratāṁ mṛlikāya priya-vratān.}

Agni, with sincerity of thought, word and action, I adore you, eternal knower of all that is born, universal lover and saviour of all by their own choice. O light and fire of universal life, bring hither the nobilities of humanity to join us, bring hither the divinities of nature to bless us, they are all lovers of the laws and discipline of life. Pray bring hither the lovers of law and discipline of life for peace, progress and all round well being of humanity.

4. \textit{Agnirdevo devānāmabhavat purohito’gniṁ manuṣyāḥ rṣayāḥ samīdhire. Agniṁ maho dhana-sātāvahāṁ huve mṛlikāṁ dhanasātaye.}

Agni, lord omniscient and self-refulgent, Agni, universal spirit of life, was and is the high priest of all divine forces of nature and all nobilities of humanity. The same Agni, leading light and life of existence, ordinary people and enlightened sages invoke and light in the heart and home. I invoke and light the great Agni in the soul and in the home vedi for the achievement of wealth, honour and excellence of life. I pray to the spirit of divine peace for victory over all wealth and excellence of life.
5. Agniratriṁ bharadvājam gaviśthiram prāvannah kaṇvam trasadasyumahave. Agnim vasiṣṭho havate purohito mṛśikāya purohitah.

Agni, self-refulgent fire and spirit of life, protects Atri, winner over the weaknesses of body, mind and soul, Bharadvaja, harbinger of food and energy with enlightenment for people, Gavishthira, victor over sense and mind, Kanva, enlightened visionary, and Trasadasyu, controller of the wicked negativists, and indeed all of us in our battle of life for peace and progress. Vasishtha, brilliant high priest and leader settled at heart, invokes and adores Agni at yajna, the leader adores and prays to Agni for the achievement of all round well being in life.

Mandala10/Sukta 151

Shraddha Devata, Shraddha Kamayani Rshi

1. Śraddhayāgniḥ samidhyate śraddhayā hūyate haviḥ. Śraddhām bhagasya mūrdhāni vacasā vedāyāmasi.

Agni is kindled with Shraddha, faith in truth pursued with commitment in thought, word and deed.
Oblations into fire are offered with complete faith and commitment to truth and sincerity of conviction. And we, on top of life’s highest glory, celebrate and exalt faith with the sacred Word of the Veda and declare it as commitment to truth and reason.
5. Agniratriñ bharadvœjañ gavishthirañ kanvova trasadasyu have. Agniñ vasiñ havañ. Purohitøya purohitø. Agni, self-refulgent fire and spirit of life, protects Atri, winner over the weaknesses of body, mind and soul, Bharadvaja, harbinger of food and energy with enlightenment for people, Gavishthira, victor over sense and mind, Kanva, enlightened visionary, and Trasadasyu, controller of the wicked negativists, and indeed all of us in our battle of life for peace and progress. Vasishtha, brilliant high priest and leader settled at heart, invokes and adores Agni at yajna, the leader adores and prays to Agni for the achievement of all round well being in life.

Mandala10/Sukta 151
Shraddha Devata, Shraddha Kamayani Rshi

O Shraddha, faith committed to truth, reason and more, do good to the faithful who give. Shraddha, do good to the faithful disposed to give. Do good to those who give and those who receive. Do good to the performers as well as to the beneficiaries of yajna. Pray do this and justify what I have said of faith and truth.

Just as noble and creative powers have faith in how they must deal with the cruel and the evil doers, so let my word of faith and truth be justified in relation to the generous and the yajnics for their success and fulfilment.

4. Śraddhāṁ devā yajamānā vāyugopā upāsate. Śraddhā hṛdayayākūtāṁ śraddhayā vindate vasu.

Divinities of nature and humanity, performers of yajna, all protected by the universal energy of Vayu in meditation, love and value Shraddha without compromise. Shraddha, unshakable faith, which is heartfelt and unquestionable in conviction, deserves and earns wealth, honour and excellence in life. This is possible only by Shraddha.
We invoke, love and worship divine faith in truth, at dawn. We love and worship faith in truth at the mid-day session of yajna. We love and worship Shraddha at the time of sun-set. O Shraddha, faith in truth and divinity, pray establish us all in faith in truth, charity and service of both divinity and humanity.

Mandala10/Sukta 152

Indra Devata, Shasa Bharadvaja Rshi

1. Savāśa itthā asyamitrakhādo abdhutaḥ.
   Na yasya hanyate sakhā na jīyate kadā cana.

   Indra, you are truly the great ruler and controller of the world, wondrous unique, destroyer of unfriendly and negative forces, supreme power whose friend and devotee is never destroyed, never hurt, never overcome.

2. Svastidā viśaspativṛtrahā vimṛdhho vaśī.
   Vṛṣendraḥ pura etu naḥ somapā abhayamkaraḥ.

   Generous and virile Indra, giver of happiness and all round well being, ruler and protector of the people, destroyer of darkness, sin and evil, who destroys enemies and rules and controls the world, may, we pray, ever be with us as protector and promoter of the soma joy of his creation and give us freedom from fear and oppression.

3. Vi rakṣo vi mṛdho jahi vi vṛtrasya hanū ruja.
   Vi manyumindra vṛtrahannamitrasyābhidāsataḥ.

   Destroyer of the demon and the destroyer, break the jaws of evil. O Indra, destroyer of evil and darkness, shatter the mind and morale of the enemy who tries to suppress, subdue and enslave us.

4. Vi na indra mṛdho jahi nīcā yaccha pṛtanyataḥ.
   Yo asmāṁ abhidāsatyadharam gamayā tamaḥ.

   Indra, throw off those powers and tendencies which seek to destroy us. Subdue those who seek to fight and subdue us. Take those down to deep darkness who seek to subdue and enslave us.

5. Apendra dviṣato mano ’pa jijyāsato vadham.
   Vi manyoḥ śarma yaccha varīyo yavayā vadham.

   Indra, beat off and eliminate the mind and intention of the jealous, blunt off the weapon of the powers that wish to destroy. Let anger be calmed down, give us peace and comfort of higher order, and remove the killer death.

Mandala 10/Sukta 153

Indra Devata, Indramatara Devajamaya Rshis

1. Īṅkhyānantīrapasyuva indraṁ jātampūpāsate. Bhejānāsaḥ suvīryam.

   Active, expressive and eloquent people, conscious of their rights and duties, serve and abide by the ruling power of the system, Indra, as it arises and advances, and while they do so they enjoy good health, honour and prosperity of life for themselves and their progeny.

   त्वमिन्द्र बलादद्धि सहसा जात आर्जसः ।
   त्वं वृष्णवृषदंसि ॥ २ ॥

2. Tvamindra balādadhi sahaso jāta ojasā. Tvaṁ vṛṣan vṛṣedasi.

   Ruling power, Indra, you have risen high by virtue of your strength, patient courage, and grandeur of personality. Generous as showers of blissful rain, you are mighty, excellent and refulgent as the sun.

   त्वमिन्द्र वृष्णवृषदसि व्यत्रहा व्यत्रांन्तरिः आर्जसः ।
   उद द्यामस्तभ्नाऽआर्जसः ॥ ३ ॥

3. Tvamindrāsi vṛtrahā vyntarīkṣamatirāḥ. Ud dyāmastabhnā ojasā.
You, Indra, are destroyer of evil and demonic darkness of the system, breaker of the clouds for rain, you cross the skies and, like the sun sustaining the regions of light by its self-refulgence, you sustain the rule of light and law by your own charismatic grandeur of character and personality.

4. \textit{Tvamindra sajośasamarkaṁ bibharṣi bāhvoḥ. Vajram śiśāna ojasā.}

You, Indra, bear a united and participative refulgence of personal dignity and social brilliance, keeping the force of your arms and blaze of justice and rectitude fresh and shining by the constant manifestation of your dynamic vigour of personality.

5. \textit{Tvamindrābhībhūrasi viśvā jātānyoajasā. Sa viśvā bhuva ābhavaḥ.}

You, Indra, are the supreme ruler over all things come into existence by your self-refulgence which indeed is the light and life of all the worlds. O ruler, you too be that all over the world.

\textbf{Mandala10/Sukta 154}

\textit{Bhava-vṛttam Devata, Yami Vaivasvati Rshi}
1. Soma ekebhyah pavate ghrtameka upasate.
   Yebhyo madhu pradhavati tamscidevapi gacchatat.

   Soma flows for many, they chant the Samans. Many love ghṛta for the yajna fire, they chant the Yajus. Honey flows for those who chant the Atharva verses, and knowledge for the lovers of Rks. The spirit of life flows for all them, universally.

   Tapo ye cakrire mahastamscidevapi gacchatat.

   There are those who by tapas rise undaunted, those who by tapas rise to the heaven of bliss, and those who perform tapas of high order. The spirit of life flows for all of them, universally.

3. Ye yudhyante pradhaneu urso ye tanutyaja.
   Ye vasahasradakshinastamscidevapi gacchatat.

   There are the brave who fight to the end in battles, who give up the body, and those who give in charity a thousand ways. The spirit of life flows to them also, universally.

4. Ye cit purva rtasapa rtavana rtavrdha.
And those ancients eternally committed to the truth of law, committed to the law of truth by yajna, promoters of truth and yajna, parents and forefathers established in tapas, O soul on travel in existence, the spirit of life flows to them and through them too, eternally.

Poets, seers and sages of hundredfold vision and virtue who adhere to the light of eternity at heart, and the Rshis established in tapas, O soul on the sojourn of existence, the spirit of life flows to them all and through them all, eternally.

Mandala10/Sukta 155

Alakshmighnam (1, 4), Brahmanaspati (2, 3), Vishvedevah (5) Devatah, Shirimbishtha Bharadvaja Rshi

1. Arāyi kāṇe vikaṭe girīṁ gaccha sadānve. Šīrimbiṭhasya satvabhistebhiṣṭvā cātayāmasi.

O Stingy depravation, famine and misfortune, distorted in vision, crooked of character, always whining and protesting, get away to naught. We scare you away by those superior forces of profuse rains of the cloud on mountains where you too may go.

Gone from here, be gone from there also, away from the mountain and the cloud. O lord of cosmic force, sharp with catalytic energy, come here, destroying this presence of deprivation, famine and indigence.

O man destroyer of want and deprivation, see that unmanned wooden boat that floats on water to cross the flood, take to that and sail to the other side (to fight out this want through enterprise and initiative).

When floods of water flow forth bearing iron ore, rejoicing as if with croaking frogs, all adversities, enemies of humanity, disappear like bubbles, at once.
5. Parīme gāmaneṣata paryagnimahṛṣata.
Deveṣvakrata śravaḥ ka imāṁ ā dadharṣati.

These farmers lead the bullocks to the fields. They light the fires all round to cook and for yajna. They offer libations to the fire for natural forces. Who can push them down to the state of poverty and misfortune? (None.)

Mandala10/Sukta 156
Agni Devata, Ketu Agneya Rshi

अग्नि हिन्वान्तु ना धियः सप्तिमाशुमिवाजिषु। तन्न जष्म धनंधनं ॥ १ ॥
1. Agnim hinvantu no dhiyaḥ saptimāśumivājiṣu.
Tena jeṣma dhanam dhanaṃdhanam.

Let our thought, will and actions research and develop fire energy like a fleet or horse spurred to battle for victory so that thereby we may achieve the real wealth of wealths.

यया गा आकरामहु सर्वयाग्र तवात्त्याः।
तां ना हिन्व मघत्तय ॥ २ ॥
2. Yayā gā ākarāmahe senayāgne tavotyā.
Tām no hinvā maghattaye.

O leading light of life, energy of fire, with your powers and means of protection by which we acquire our lands and develop our fields and cattle wealth, pray enhance and accelerate that same power for us for acquisition of wealth, power and honour.

O light and fire of life, bring us solid, vast and lasting wealth rich in lands, cows and culture, horses, transport and achievement, fill the firmament with profuse rain and vapour, and turn poverty and indigence into plenty and generosity.

Agni, light of life, ruler of existence, let the unaging sun, star of good fortune, rise high in heaven so that it may bring light and energy for humanity and enhance their well being.

Agni, light and fire of life, you are the essential brilliant definition and identity of humanity, blazing ensign of human culture, dearest, best, closest, freest, bearing food, energy and enlightenment for the celebrant. Pray listen, enlighten, and bless.

Vishvedeva devata, Bhuvana Aptya or Sadhana Bhauvana Rshi

druma nu kame bhuwanas srisadhameendra ca visve cha duva: II 1 II

1. Imā nu kāṁ bhuvanā sitadhamendraśca viśve ca devāḥ.

Let us proceed, study and win our goals, successfully and peacefully, across these regions of the world, study and harness electric energy, and let all divine forces of nature and nobilities of humanity be favourable to us.

"Yam c' nastanvam ca praśā cādityairindraḥ saha cikrpaṭi."  II 2 II

2. Yajñam ca nastanvam ca praśā cādityairindraḥ saha cikrpaṭi.

Indra, the sun, the wind, electric energy of the firmament with all year’s phases of the sun, supports, strengthens and promotes our yajna, our body’s health and our people and future generations.

"Aādityaṁ bhuṭtvavitā tanuṁ."  II 3 II

3. Ādityaṁ bhuṭtvavitā marudbhirasmākaṁ.

May Indra, ruling power of the world with all its natural and human forces, winds and stormy troops across the sun’s phases over the year, be the protector and promoter of our health of body and social organisations.

"Huvāy duva apsuṁ añayaṁ duva devatāṁbhur."  II 4 II
4. Hatvāya devā asurān yadāyan devā devetvama-bhirakṣamāṇāḥ.

Divine forces of nature and nobilities of humanity attain to their status of divine positivity when they come together to preserve, protect and promote the positive forces and destroy the demonic forces of negativity and destruction.

5. Pratyańcamarkamanayańcḥacībhirādīt svadhi-miśirāṁ paryapaśyan.

When the Vishvedevas, divinities of nature and human nobilities, offer their songs of adoration in their best of yajnic homage higher and higher forward, then only they see and experience divine inspiration and invigoration descending to them step by step from divinity through nature to humanity.

Mandala10/Sukta 158

Surya Devata, Chakshu Saurya Rshi

1. Sūryo no divaspātu vāto antarikṣāt.
Agniṁaḥ pārthivebhyaḥ.

May Surya, the sun, protect and promote us from the regions of light, may Vayu, the winds, protect and promote us from the middle regions of the sky, and may Agni, fire and vital heat, protect and promote us from the earthly regions.
2. Jośā saviraryasya te haraḥ śataṁ savāṁ arhati.
   Pāhi no didyutaḥ patantyāh.

   O Savita, lord creator and giver of light and life, O sun, whose receptive and radiative refulgence is worthy of a hundred yajnic activities on earth and other planets by human and natural forces, pray accept our homage and prayer and protect and save us from the flying and falling strikes of light and lightning.

3. Cakṣurno devaḥ savitā cakṣurna uta parvataḥ.
   Cakṣurdhātā dadhātu naḥ.

   May Savita, generous refulgent sun, give us light of the eye, may the cloud and mountain give us light of the eye, and may Dhata, lord controller and sustainer of life on earth, bless us with light of the eye.

4. Cakṣurno dhehi cakṣuṣe cakṣurvikhyai tanūbhyāḥ. Saṁ cedāṁ vi ca paśyema.

   Give us the light for vision outer and inner, give us the light to see the past and future for ourselves and our children, give us the vision to see this life and the world as a whole as well as in parts integrated in the essence.
5.  Susamādrśaṁ tvā vayam prati paśyema sūrya.
   Vi paśyema nṛcaṅkṣasah.

O refulgent Sun of blissful light, may we always see you, and again and again see you as high and higher divinity, and in your divine light see things worthy of being seen by humanity for our guidance.

Mandala10/Sukta 159

Shachi Devata, Shachi Paulomi Rshi

1.  Udasau sūryo agādudayaṁ māmako bhagaḥ.
   Aham tadvidvalā patimabhyaśākṣi viṣāsahīḥ.

There rises the sun. It is also my good fortune thus arisen. I know this for certain. I have found my protection and sustenance and I shall overcome all my rivals and adversaries.

2.  Aham keturahāṁ mūrdhāhamugrā vivācanī.
   Mamedanu kratuṁ patiḥ sohānāyaṁ ṛpaḥcāret.

I am my own refulgence, I am the one on top, I am the passion and the fire. I speak and I must have the response. I am the challenger, my master would surely know my acts and intentions positively and would respond favourably.
3. Mama putrāḥ satruhaṇo 'tho me duhitā virāṭ.
Utāhamasmī samjayaḥ patyau me śloka uttamaḥ.

My sons are destroyers of enmity. My daughter is refulgent. I am the victor all round, so my song of adoration rises to my master who is the light and life of the world.

4. Yenendro haviṣā kṛtvabhavad dyumnyuttamaḥ.
Idaṁ tadakri devā asapatanā kilābhuvam.

The means and holy materials by which Indra, master and ruler, rises to honour and glory in action, I create and follow, and thereby I become free from rivals and adversaries.

5. Asapatanā sapantaghrnī jayantyabhibhūvarī.
Āvrkṣamanvāsāṁ varco rādho astheyasāṁivā.

I have no rivals, I throw off the adversaries, I emerge the victor, greater than the challengers, I turn to naught the power and valour of others who are no better than passing gusts of mild winds.

I, ruling presence, must win over all these rivals so that I might shine in the eyes of my master and shine and rule over this people.

Mandala10/Sukta 160

Indra Devata, Purana Vaishvamitra Rshi

1. Tīvrasayābhivayaso asya pāhi sarvarathā vi harī iha muṇca. Indra mā tvā yajamānāso anye ni rīraman tubhyamime sutāsaḥ.

O ruler of the world, Indra, take on, protect and promote this vibrant youthful social order, release all the versatile and abundant resources of development here for this purpose, let no other programme or programmers distract your attention. For you and your purpose all these natural and human resources are ready, trained and matured to the full.

2. Tubhyam sutāstubhyamu sotvāsastvāṁ girāḥ svātryāḥ ā hvayanti. Indredamadya savanam juṣāṇo viśvasya vidvāṁ iha pāhi somam.

To you are these resources dedicated, those that are ripe and ready and those that are being prepared.
Voices of sincere devotion call on you. Indra, knowing well, loving and fully dedicated to this world programme of development, take it on here and now, protect, promote and raise the world to the heights of attainment.

Whoever is loyal and dedicated with enthusiastic mind and total devotion of heart and soul, and creates and matures the soma of universal value for Indra and the social order, the lord never ignores his words of prayer, never alienates his property and possessions, in fact he recognises his services with honour and makes him feel proud and blest.

The lord keeps in close and direct vicinity the person who, like a generous prosperous man, creates and offers the soma of sincere dedication to him. He, lord of all power and glory, protects him in full security without the shackles, and even without prayer, destroys the enemies of positivity and divinity in the social order.
5. Aśvāyanto gavyanto vājayanto havāmahe tvopa-gantavā u. Ābhūṣantaste sumatau navāyāṁ vayamindra tvā śunām huvema.

Enthusiastic and advancing for progress, prosperity and pride of achievement, we call upon you, Indra, ruling lord of the world, to come close to us and be with us. Winning the graces of life and doing glory to divinity, we pray, let us abide in your favour and adorable good will. We pray for peace and well being, we ask for divine grace.

Mandala10/Sukta 161

Indra-Agni or Rajayakshmanashanam Devata, Yakshmanashana Prajapatya Rshi

I cure you and release you from the consumptive killer disease even of the highest severity and immunize you against such disease, known or unknown, with the administration of medicine and tonics by homa so that you may live a full and happy life. And if stroke, atrophy or paralysis has seized this patient, then let Indra, penetrative beams of nature’s energy, and Agni, vital heat of life in the body, light of the sun and magnetic force of the earth cure and release the patient.

With medicines, herbs and tonics of a thousandfold efficacy of light power, a hundred year’s vitality capable of sustaining a hundred year span of life, I have brought this patient back to life and health just as Indra, lord of life and his physician version, the doctor, takes this patient across all evils and maladies of the world to a full life of hundred years.

4. Śatam jŒva śarado vardhamānaṁ śatam hemantā-

May Indra, lord of strength, power and glory, Agni, lord of light and fire in the fore front, Savita, lord of life’s generation and sustenance, and Brhaspati, lord of space and radiant knowledge, bless you with hundredfold joy and vest you with hundredfold span of life again with herbs and medications of high order for good health.

5. Āhārṣaṁ tvāvidam tvā punarāgāḥ punarnava. Sarvāṅga sarvam te cakṣuḥ sarvamāyuśca te’-vidam.

I have delivered you from death and disease, brought you back to life. Live life again, renewed, refreshed again, healthy over all in all limbs, organs and systems function. I have brought back your vision and understanding in full, your life and age in full.

Mandala10/Sukta 162

Garbha Samsrave Prayashchittam Devata, Rakshoha Brahma Rshi

ब्रह्मणाग्नि: संविदाना र गाह बाध्यतामिति: ।
अमीवा यस्त गर्भं दुः रुणामा यानिमाशयं। १ ॥

May Agni, ‘chitraka’, with Brahma, ‘udumbara’, combined according to the formula in medical literature, destroy the infection and viral pain that has entered, infects and afflicts your foetus, ovary and uterus in the reproductive system.

2. Yaste garbhamamīvā durṇāmā yonimāśaye.
   Agniṣṭaṁ brahmaṇā saha niśkravyādamanīnaṁ.

   The acute infection that has entered your womb in the reproductive system and consumes your foetus, let Agni, ‘chitraka’, in combination with Brahma, ‘udumbara’, according to the specific formula, destroy and eliminate.

3. Yaste hanti patayantam niṣatsnum yah sarīsṛpam.
   Jātaṁ yaste jighāṁsati tamito naśāyāmasi.

   Whatever afflicts the insemination and fertilisation process or the moving foetus or whatever hurts and damages your new born baby, we destroy from here.

4. Yasta ūrū viharatyantarā daṁpaṁi śaye.
   Yonīṁ yo antarāreṁhi tamito nāśayāmasi.

   Whatever disturbs your thighs, interferes with the conjugal relation of the wife and husband, disturbs the couple in sleep or destroys the seed and the embryo in the womb, we destroy and eliminate from here.

5. Yastvā bhrātā patirbhūtvā jāro bhūtvānipadyate. Prajāṁ yaste jighāṁsatī tamito nāśayāmāsī.

Whatever evil and affliction comes as brother, i.e., genetically, or as husband, i.e., through conjugal relationship, or otherwise through love and passion, and hurts, damages or destroys your progeny, we destroy and eliminate from here.

Whoever or whatever approaches you either by creating dreams of reality or in the state of sleep or under veil of darkness or by hypnosis, and hurts or destroys your progeny, that we eliminate from here.

Mandala10/Sukta 163

Yakshma Nashanam Devata, Vivrha Kashyapa Rshi

I eliminate the consumptive disease from your eyes, nostrils, ears, mouth, head, fore head and tongue.

I remove the consumption, cancerous disease, from your throat, sinews, bones, spine, shoulders, arms and hands.

3. Āntrebhyaṣte gudābhhyo vaniṣṭhorhrdayādaddhi. Yaksmaṁ matasnābhhyāṁ yakaṇḥ plāśibhyo vi vṛhāmi te.

I banish consumptive cancer from your intestines, rectum, colon, heart, kidneys, liver, and the lower and other parts of the digestive system.

4. Īrubhyaṁ te aṣṭhīvadbhyāṁ pāṛṣṇibhyāṁ prapadābhhyāṁ. Yaksmaṁ śroṇibhyāṁ bhāsadā-

I uproot the cancerous disease from your thighs, knees, heels, forefeet, hips, lower back and groin.

MANDAL - 10 / SUKTA - 163

I uproot the cancerous disease from your prostate and urinary system, hair, nails and indeed I eliminate whatever wastes and consumes the vitality of your entire living system, I throw it out.

I eliminate the cancer, consumption and canker from every limb, every hair, every joint, wherever this wasting negativity takes root, from your entire living system, I throw it out for your life.

Mandala10/Sukta 164

Duh-svapna Nashanam Devata, Pracheta Angirasa Rshi

Off with you, hypnosis of the mind, disturb not, get away and wander far around with death and adversity, and there proclaim that I am not for you, I am alive, awake and alert, my mind is wakeful and versatile.
2. Bhadram vai varam vrñate bhadram yuñjanti dakśinam. Bhadram vaivasvate cañṣurbahutrā dīvato manah.

People prefer to choose what is good and auspicious. They apply their mind to win the good and blissful. The eye is for the holy vision of the lord of refulgence. My mind is live and awake, alert and versatile.

3. Yadāsāsā nih śasābhiśasopārima jāgrato yat svapantaḥ. Agnirviśvānyapa duṣkṛtānyajuṣṭā-nyāre asmad dadhātu.

Whatever ill and undesirable we might have committed either in hope and expectation, or for fear and despair, or hate and calumny, while sleeping, dreaming or awake, may Agni, lord of light, giver of enlightenment, cast off all those alien evils and undesirables far away from us (leaving us only with the good and auspicious).

4. Yadindra brahmaṇaspate’bhidroham carāmasi.
Pracetā na ōṅgiraso dviṣatāṁ pātvāṁhasaḥ.

O lord omnipotent, Indra, O lord omniscient, giver of enlightenment, Brahmanaspati, whatever hateful or malicious we might be facing or entertaining in thought and behaviour, may the divine spirit of knowledge, wisdom and love ever awake protect and save us from the sin and wrath of the enemies.

अर्ज्ञमाद्यास्नामम चाभुमानानगसा वयम। जाग्रत्सवपनः संक्षल्य: पापा यं द्विष्मस्तं स ऋष्ट्राच्छतु या ना द्वषि

5. Ajaismādyāsanāmah ca bhūmānāgaso vayam. Jāgratsvapnah samkalpaḥ pāpo yam dvīṣmastaṁ sa ṛcchatu yo no dveṣṭi tamṛcchatu.

(By the grace of Indra, Brahmanaspati, wakeful Pracheta and ever vibrant and loving Angirasa) we have won over sin and evil today, we have obtained love and freedom, and we have become pure and immaculate. Let the residue of sin and undesirable thought in the mind, if any, retire into that negativity hates us and which we reject.

Mandala10/Sukta 165

Vishvedeva Devata, Nairrta Kapota Rshi

This is a hymn of the Vishvedeva’s, i.e., the leading lights’, response to the arrival of a ‘pigeon’, bird of mysterious message, something like a premonition of destiny, and the human response with honour, acknowledgement and self-preparation. Any such message can be a message of love, friendship and cooperation, or it can be a message of disaster. In either case humanity must respond and make proper preparations to face the consequences. In modern terms, it is an ambassadorial hymn.
O Devas, leading lights of the nation, here is the pigeon, bird of message, ambassador from the land of destiny, come to deliver some message of deep intent. We honour the messenger and prepare for the response. May there be peace and well being for us, for our birds, animals and our people.

May this bird sent from the land of destiny be good and auspicious for us. May the bird and its message be free from blame and violence in and for our homes. Let this vibrant messenger accept and enjoy our hospitality offered with faith and let there be no strike of the winged force of arms to disturb and uproot us from our settled land.
3. Hetih paksiṇī na dabhātyasmānaśtryāṁ padam kṛṇute agnidhāne. śaṁ no gobhyaśca puruṣe-bhyaścāstu mā no hiṃsādiha devāḥ kapotaḥ.

Let not the winged force of the messenger attack, destroy or deceive us. Let it create a place for itself in our space and in the yajnic hall. Let there be peace for our lands, cows and culture and for our people. O leading lights, this messenger must not hurt us here.

4. Yadulūko vadati moghametadyat kapotaḥ padamagnau kṛṇoti. Yasya dūtaḥ prahita eṣa etattasmai yamāya namo astu mṛtyave.

If the messenger is politic and speaks misleading and ambiguous language, that effort must be frustrated. If he thus risks his foot in the fire, then for his sender and controller let there be our thunderbolt for his death.

5. Rcā kapotaṁ nudata praṇodamīśaṁ madantaḥ pari gāṁ nayadhvam. Saṁyopayanto duritāni viśvā hitvā na ūrjaṁ pra paṭāt patiśṭhaḥ.

All the same, honour the messenger of the distant land with words of praise and courteous appreciation, and exhilarating him with choice hospitality, control your interpretaion positively and happily advance your message in response. Thus effacing all weaknesses and negativities of the message and the response, send him back without having touched and compromised our power and force of the nation.

Mandala10/Sukta 166

Sapatnaghnām Devata, Rshabha Vairaja or Rshabha Shakvara Rshi

   Make me brave and generous among equals, challenger of rivals and adversaries, subduer of enemies, and brilliant leader, protector and promoter of lands, cows and culture of the peoples of the earth.

2. Ahamasmi sapatnahendra ivāriṣṭo aksataḥ. Adhāḥ sapatnā me padorime sarve abhiṣhitāḥ.

   I am like Indra, destroyer of adversaries, unhurt, uninjured, and unbroken. All these rivals, adversaries and enemies ranged against me are under my foot.

   Here itself, both of you, rival parties, I bind and hold you together in balance like the bow string holding both ends of the bow in tension. O Vachaspati, speaker and master of the Word of order and law of judgement, control these so that they speak under my discipline and control.

4. Abhibhūrahāmāgamaṁ viśvakarmeṇa dhānmaṁ.
   Ā vaścittamā vo vratamā vo’ham samitiṁ dade.

I am the controller and disciplinarian over all, come with the light and power over the entire activity here. I take over, accept and honour your mind and speech, your law, discipline and behaviour, and your assembly under my power and control.

5. Yogakṣemāṁ va ādāyaṁ bhūyāsamuttama ā vo mūrdhānamakramāṁ. Adhaspadāṁma udvadata maṇḍūkā ivodakāṁmaṇḍūkā udakādiva.

Having taken over the power and responsibility of the defence, protection and security of public achievements and the progress and advancement of the nation further, and having become the highest and best of equals, I strive to lead you up to your highest and farthest possibility, and then under the law and discipline of the highest office of government, you would raise your voice of choice and freedom as free and vocal citizens in a state of transparent clarity, as a celebrant society in a joyous state of advancement upward.

Mandala10/Sukta 167

Indra and others Devata, Vishvamitra and Jamadagni Rshis

Indra, ruler of the human nation, this exciting sweet soma state of society is matured and perfected for you to govern and enjoy your office. You rule and administer the state of law and order in perfect form. Pray create for us now the wealth and honour of an abundant youthful nation worthy of the brave. You have achieved this happy and heavenly state of the commonwealth through an arduous discipline of life and work.

Mighty winner of high renown, creator of a high state of freedom and happiness, lover and giver of the joy of achievement, we invite and adore you. Pray acknowledge this yajnic success of our corporate creative struggle for social development, come and take it over. We invoke, exhort and exalt the mighty victor over rivals, adversaries and fighting forces of the enemies of life and humanity.

O Maghavan, lord of power and glory, Dhata, ruler, Vidhata, controller of the state and its administration, this day I invite you to the holy investiture and to take over the various departments and institutions of the state in the ruling order of the law of Soma, peace, and Varuna, justice, in the house of Brhaspati, supreme presiding power, and Anumati, will of the nation.

O Vishvamitra, holy spirit of universal love and friendship, Jamadagni, blazing fire and radiant light of yajna, as I come up to you duty bound in this ruling order enacted by the people, with the authority vested in me by the social will, now I, invested and anointed, take over the office of the state ruler, accept and honour this holy order, and first of all, with the best of knowledge, will and confidence, I would maintain the purity and glory of the order, I promise.

Mandala10/Sukta 168

Vayu Devata, Anila Vatayana Rshi

Let us describe the greatness of the impetuous chariot of the wind: the storm goes roaring, thundering, crashing, shattering as it blows, touching the heights of heaven, raising a storm of dust over earth, and turning the skies red in all directions.

Plants, creepers and solid structures on earth, like trees, wave and shake in deference to Vayu, wind energy, just as youthful maidens go to their love and flashes of lighting go with the sky. And one with all these, goes the ruling energy of this whole universe, divine wind on the chariot of its currents.

Ever on the move by its own paths in the sky, the wind energy does not relent even for an instant. Friend and comrade of the waters, first born of nature after space, observing the divine laws of existence, where was it born? Where and whence emerged?

Energy and identity of the divine forces of nature, sustainer of the universe, this divine wind roams around at will freely. We have heard the roar of it but we have not seen its form. To that divine Vayu, we offer homage and adoration with oblations of havi to develop energy.
May the wind blow fresh, delightful, exciting and blissful. Let cows feed on nourishing and energising herbs and grasses and drink abundant life giving waters. O Rudra, divine spirit of peace, joy and compassion, be kind and generous to the animals to provide them with ample food and water.

O Parjanya, generous powers of life and liquid nourishment, provide great peace, comfort, protection and felicity to cows and other animals of similar species, different forms but the same one genus, whose names and qualities, Agni, the scientist, knows through developmental study, and which the Angirasas, technologists, have developed through continuous dedicated research and experimentation.
3. \textit{Yā deveśu tanvamairayanta yāsāṁ somo viśvā rūpāṇi veda. Tā asmahīyāṁ payasā pinvamānāḥ praśāvatīrindra goṭhe rīrīhi.}

Indra, ruler and controller of life’s development and progress, bring to our dairy farms those cows which produce and yield abundant quality milk for noble and brilliant people, all forms, breeds and qualities, of which creative experts know, which yield more and more milk for our health and growth, and which produce better and better breed of calves.

4. \textit{Prajāpatirmahyametā raraṇo viśvairdevaiḥ pitr-bhīḥ samvidānaḥ. Śivāḥ saīrūpa nogośīhamākastāsāṁ vayām praśāya saṁ sadema.}

Prajapati, lord protector, sustainer and promoter of the people with all divine energies of nature’s brilliance and nourishment, and the nation’s food minister with active consultation and advice of all brilliant scholars and nutrition experts of the land, give us these cows with joyous enthusiasm and bring to our cow stall such cows as are the best and most abundant in nourishing milk. May we continue to benefit from the cow’s progeny of excellent breed.
Vibhād bṛhat somyaṁ madhvāyurdhadyajñapatāvavihrutam. Vātajūto yo abhirakṣati tmanā prajāḥ pūpoṣa purudhā vi rājati.

May the mighty refulgent sun hold, shower, protect and promote the honey sweets of life’s soma nourishment, and bear and bring untainted health and long life for the performer and promoter of yajna, the sun which, energised by Vayu energy of divine nature protects and sustains all forms of life by its very essence, shines and rules life in many ways.

Vibhād bṛhat subḥṛtam vājasātamaṁ dharman divo dharuṇe satyamarpitam. Amitraḥ vṛtrahā dasyuhantamaṁ jyotirjajñē asurahā sapatnāhā.

The mighty refulgent sun, destroyer of unfriendly forces, darkness and evil, anti-life elements, adversaries and enemies, rises, bearing the light that is the highest giver of food, energy and growing advancement. Truly vested in the established order of nature in the solar region, blissfully sustained, it is the highest killer of negative and destructive forces prevailing in life and nature.

This mighty best and highest light of lights is exalted as universally pervasive winner and giver of wealth. This world illuminant light, great sun, is the light for the world’s vision. It expands far and wide, undaunted lustre and majesty that it is, imperishable and eternal.

Blazing with self-refulgence, light of heaven, you pervade all regions from earth to heaven. By you are all these world regions sustained, omnipotent divine lord of universal action and universal glory: Vishvadeva.

Mandala10/Sukta 171

Indra Devata, Ita Bhargava Rshi

Indra, lord omnipotent, you hear the invocation and prayer of soma yajna, and you honour, protect and sustain the cherished desire of the celebrant who moves on way to divinity through meditation and yajna and distils the Soma for offering.

2. Tvaṁ makhasya dodhataḥ śiro’va tvaco bharah. Agacchaḥ somino grham.

You forsake the body and mind of the dissolute scoffer of yajna, and you reach and bless the house of the devotee who performs yajna and offers you the homage of exalted devotion, joyous divine soma.

Indra, for the man of meditative thought and vision on way to freedom of the spirit over body, pray slacken and cast off the bonds of mortal love, hate and jealousy constantly, without relent.

4. Tvaṁ tyamindra sūryam paścā puraskṛdhi. Devānāṁ cittiro vaśam.

Indra, let the sun, now gone out of sight in the west, arise upfront in the east, mystery otherwise beyond the reach of the devas, the senses.

Mandala10/Sukta 172
Usha Devata, Samvarta Angirasa Rshi

1. Ā yāhi vanasā saha gāvaḥ sacanta vartanim yadūḍhabhīḥ.

Come, O Dawn, with holy light, with rays of blissful radiance on the chariot. The cows are on the move with the wealth of milk.

2. Ā yāhi vasvyā dhiyā mamhīṣṭho jārayanmakhah sudānumbhīḥ.

Come with blessed intelligence and holy action. The most generous yajamana is on way to completion of the yajna with most liberal gifts of homage.

3. Pitubhṛto na tantumit sudānavaḥ prati dadhmo yajāmasi.

Like generous performers of yajna bearing homage of havi and food, we carry on the thread of life and yajna from dawn to dawn.

4. Uṣā apa svasustamaḥ saṁ vartayati vartanim sujātatā.

The dawn continuously removes the darkness of its sister night, by circular motion of its rise every Come, O Dawn, with holy light, with rays of blissful radiance on the chariot. The cows are on the move with the wealth of milk.

Come with blessed intelligence and holy action. The most generous yajamana is on way to completion of the yajna with most liberal gifts of homage.

Like generous performers of yajna bearing homage of havi and food, we carry on the thread of life and yajna from dawn to dawn.

The dawn continuously removes the darkness of its sister night, by circular motion of its rise every morning through the succession of day and night.

I, high priest of the nation, take you, O Ruler, to the high seat of governance and pray take it in our midst. Be firm, stay undisturbed. All the people have chosen and welcome you. Let not the state suffer embarrassment because of you, nor must the state fall foul of you.

Here only, on this seat, Indra, be firm as a rock, never vascillate. Here as the one supreme, pole star of the nation, stay, rule and sustain the Rashtra, one organismic, self-governing, well governed common wealth, brilliant, glorious.

Here are Adi, Dhruva, and Usha Devatas from Mandala 10/Sukta 172 and Mandala 10/Sukta 173 of the Rgveda.
This common wealth, Indra, lord all potent, is committed to you. And this common wealth, the ruler holds and maintains steady, firm, inviolable, with the homage gift of steady, unshaken and unshakable rule and governance. O Ruler, to you and for this Rashtra, Soma Brahmanaspati, the divine, peaceable Advisor who knows, observes and communicates the wisdom of universal vision and conscience, speaks, and to this he holds you committed.

Firm is heaven, firm is the earth, firm are these mountains. Firm is this universe which is ever on the move, steadily and balanced at the optimum. Firm is this ruler of the people, steady, dynamic with optimum balance of constant movement.

5. Dhruvāṃ te rājā varuṇaḥ dhruvāṃ devo brhaspatiḥ. Dhruvāṃ ta indraścāgniśca rāṣṭram dhārayatām dhruvam.

For you, the brilliant ruling Varuna, head of law and justice, firmly maintains the state of law and order. Brilliant and generous Brhaspati, chief advisor, with supreme vision and knowledge of the nation’s genius, firmly maintains the character and culture of the nation.
For you, the commander of the nation’s forces, Indra, firmly maintains the peace and protection of the state. For you does Agni, enlightened leader of education and research, maintain the system of education and employment. May all these chiefs help you maintain the Rashtra firm, dynamic, steady and inviolable.

6.  Dhruvaṁ dhruvena haviśābhi somaṁ mrśāmasi.
    Atho ta indrah kevalirviśo baliḥtāskarat.

With steady and undisturbed will and homage we accept, honour and support the firm, steady and unshakable Soma Ruler dedicated to peace and progress. May Indra, omnipotent ruler of the universe, enlighten and commit the people solely to the nation and the ruler so that they pay their due share of homage and gifts of havi for the yajnic governance of the common-wealth. (Let no one neglect the payment of taxes.)

Mandala10/Sukta 174
Raja Devata, Abhivarta Angirasa Rshi

1.  Abhīvartena haviśā yenendro abhivāvrte.
    Tenāsmān brahmaṇaspatē’bhi rāṣṭrāya vartaya.
which Indra, ruler, advances to planned and time bound goals of progress and victory.

abhicivrtya sapattanabhya na aranty.
abhivyottanatatijjaabhya na darsyat 2 II

2. Abhivṛtya sapatnānabhi yā no arātayah. Abhi pṛtanyantam tiṣṭhābhi yo na irasyati.

O ruler commander of the nation, having surrounded and cornered the adversaries, our selfish exploiters, whoever want to wage war against us, or who hate and envy to down us, break down their force and rule over them.

abhivyottana devaḥ saṃhitābhishāma abhivrutyat abhivyottanavijnābhīvad yathāśanām 3 II

3. Abhi tvā devaḥ savitābhi somo avīṛtat. Abhi tvā viśvā bhūtanābhīvarto yathāsasi.

May the self-refulgent Savita, creative sun, Soma, nature’s spirit of peace and joy, and all the forms of matter, energy, thought and life of the universe, ever advance you so that you may rule over the world.

yanvendra havisakṛtvyabhavad dyumnyuttamah. Idaṁ tadakri devā asapatnāḥ kilābhuvam.

That input of vision, knowledge and action, that homage of faith and havi into Rashtra yajna by which Indra becomes a great performer, glorious, best and highest, that homage, O devas, brilliances of nature and humanity, I have done so that I may become free from rivals, adversaries and enemies.

5. Asapathaḥ sapatnahāḥ 'bhirāśtra viṣāsahiḥ. Yathāhameśāṁ bhūtānāṁ virājānī janasya ca.

Destroyer of enemies, free from enemy forces, I must still be a challenger and subduer of rivals, adversaries, oppositions and contradictions so that as ruler of the state I may control and rule over these citizens and a host of other forms of life.

Mandala10/Sukta 175
Gravanah Devata, Urdhvagrava Sarpa Arbudi Rshi

O Gravana, veteran wise scholars and sages, may Savita, self-refulgent creator, the sun and the noble ruler inspire you with the sense of Dharma and noble performance so that you may be appointed to high positions and you play a positive and valuable part in state affairs.

2. Grāvāṇo apa ducchunāmapa sedhana durmatim. Usrāḥ kartana bheṣajam.
O Gravana, yajnic participants in state affairs, remove the evils of ignorance, injustice and poverty, stop and cast away nonsense, negativity and cynicism, and being generous and brilliant like rays of the sun, cure the ailments and distresses of society.

3. Grāvāṇa uparesvā mahīyante sajoṣasaḥ.

Vṛṣṇe dadhato vṛṣṇyam.

Sages and scholars in high positions, while they contribute generously to the power performance of the mighty generous ruler, they rise in honour and esteem among the people around since they love, respect and cooperate with them all.

4. Grāvāṇaḥ savitā nu vo devaḥ suvatu dharmaḥ.

Yajamānāya sunvate.

O Gravana, sagely participants in national rule and development with the ruler and the people, may Savita, lord creator, the Ruler and the cooperative people, all generous and brilliant, inspire you with Dharma by Dharma for the generous creative yajamana, the ruler in council with the people in the Rashtra yajna.

Mandala10/Sukta 176

Bhbhavah (1), Agni (2-4) Devata, Sunu Arbhava Rshi

प सूनव ऋभूणां बृह रविवं वृज्नानं ।

राम य विश्वधार्यसांचर्यन्दृश्नु न मातरं ॥ १ ॥
The children and disciples of Rbhus, expert makers, celebrate their mighty achievements of science and technology and, sustainers of world community, children of mother earth, they reach and explore the earth for service and resources like calves rushing to mother cows.

This Agni is the same lover of brilliant divines dedicated to life and nature which is the leading light and power of yajna and which is invoked and honoured for the completion and success of any creative project, the same which is radiant and dynamic like the solar chariot and, surrounded by celebrants, gives light, knowledge and showers of the joy of achievement.
4. Ayamagnirurusṭvatādiva janmanah.
Sahasaścit sahīyān devo jīvātave kṛtaḥ.

This Agni, self-refulgent power manifest in existence, saves and protects us as mortals born or reborn of immortal existence. Mightier than the mightiest, this divine power is kindled, honoured and adored for the victory of life over suffering and death.

Mandala10/Sukta 177

Mayabheda Devata, Patanga Prajapatiya Rshi

Men of wisdom with dedicated mind and heart see the ‘patanga’, bird-like soul, wrapped in golden hues of mysterious Maya, wondrous potential of the Lord’s Prakṛti, in the boundless ocean of the world of existence. Men of vision and imagination see it existing within the oceanic presence of the infinite spirit of the Lord and, inspired by the lord’s love and presence, love to reach nothing but the ultimate reality at the centre of the radiating rays of existence.
2. Pataṅga vācaṁ manasā bibharti tām gandharvo’vadadgarbhe antaḥ. Tām dyotamānāṁ svaryāṁ maniṣāmṛtasya pade kavayo ni pānti.

Patanga, the soul flying in various forms, bears the eternal Vak, divine Word, at the depth of its mind. Vak is the voice which Parameshvara, sustainer of the voice and the universe, speaks to the soul at the heart of existence. That same resonant and refulgent voice and its awareness, wise visionaries retain, hear and enjoy in the state of samadhi communion at the centre of the ultimate truth of existence.

3. Apaśyaṁ gopāmanipadyamānamā ca parā ca pathibhiścarantam. Sa sadhrīcīḥ sa viṣūcīrvasāna ā varīvartī bhuvaneśvantaḥ.

I see this retainer of the divine Voice and its senses and mind, the soul ranging over different paths around here and far off. Shining, wearing different forms, moving in the right central as well as various directions, it goes round and round in the worlds of existence.

(This verse can also be interpreted in continuation of the second verse: I see this eternal infallible master of the eternal Voice, existential and transcendental both, the Spirit that vibrates and manifests constantly in all directions, in all worlds of the universe.)
Mandala10/Sukta 178

Tarkshya Devata, Arishtanemi Tarkshya Rshi

For the sake of good and all round well being of life, we invoke and study that wind and electric energy of the middle regions which is fast and victorious, moved by divine nature, powerful, shaker of the clouds and energiser of sound waves, inviolable, war-like heroic and most dynamic, moving at the speed of energy.

Invoking Tarkshya, wind and electric energy, studying and exploring the power for all round well being as the gift of Indra, divine lord of energy, we wish to use it like a boat across the seas to overcome the problems we face. O earth, O sky, both vast and deep as well as abundant, may we never be hurt while this energy travels hither and back far off in circuit over and across you both.

Instantly does this wind-electric energy reach all five peoples of the earth with its force, power and speed like the sun which spreads its light and brings vapours and showers of rain over earth for humanity. Hundredfold and thousandfold is its power that travels, and just as none can stop the arrow fixed on the bow and shot, so no one can stop the flowing current of this energy once it is initiated for use.

Mandala10/Sukta 179

Indra Devata, Shivi Aushinara (1), Pratardana Kashiraja (2), and Rauhidashva Vasumana (3) Rshis

Citizens, friends, arise, see whether the seasonal yajnic share of Indra, the ruler, is ripe and ready. If so, offer it by way of yajnic oblation as tax duty. If not, do not remiss, accelerate the ripening process and give.
The havi is ripe and ready for the offering. O Ruler, Indra, come, the sun has reached the middle of its course. Friends sit with their treasure offering and wait like family heads for the chief commander of hosts out on the sojourn on the borders and around.

3. Šrātam manya ādhani śrātamagnau suśrātaṁ manye taddṛtaṁ navīyaḥ. Mādhyāṁdinasya savanasya dadhnaḥ pibendra vajrin purukṛjju-śāṇah.

I believe the milk is ripe in the cow’s udders. I know the grain is ripe in the heat of the sun. I am sure every thing is ripe and ready for the yajna, ripe and fresh truly. O lord of versatile action, wielder of the thunderbolt of justice, law and order, loving, kind and cooperative, come and taste the milky sweets of the mid day’s session of yajna. Receive, taste, protect and promote the milk of cows and harvests of the field.

Mandala10/Sukta 180

Indra Devata, Jaya Aindra Rshi

MANDAL - 10 / SUKTA - 180 1177 1178 RGVEDA
here which may, we pray, be a positive boon for us. Indra, with your efficiency and perfection of governance and administration, bring us wealth, honour and excellence for the nation. You are the master and controller of the abundant and opulent rivers of the land, and equally well you manage the flow of the economy and social advancement of the nation.

2. Mrgo na bhīmah kucaro giriṣṭhāḥ parāvata ā jaganthā parasyāḥ. Śṛkaṁ saṁśāya pavimindra tigmaṁ vi śatrūn tāṇiha vi mṛdho nudasva.

   Terrible like a mountain lion roaming around, pray come from the farthest of far off places and, having sharpened the lazer fiery thunderbolt, destroy the enemies and throw out the violent adversaries.

3. Indra kṣatramabhi vāmamojo’jāyathā vṛṣabha carṣañināṁ. Apānudo janamamitrayantamuruṁ devebhyo akrṣoru lokam.

   Indra, glorious ruler, virile and generous leader of the people, arise and create a beautiful, grand and powerful social order. Throw out the people who are unfriendly to the nation and create a vast, beautiful mighty world of peace and progress for the noble, brilliant and generous people dedicated to divine values.
Mandala 10/Sukta 181

Vishvedeva Devata, Pratha Vasishtha (1), Sapratha Bharadvaja (2), Gharma Saurya (3) Rshis

वर्तरूपः चर्यां समस्तरूपः नामानुष्टंभस्य हुविषाः हुविताः।
धातुन्तौतात्सविनित्यचं विष्णूर्म रथन्तरमा जंभारा वसित्ताः॥ १ ॥

Vasishtha, the most brilliant seeker and teacher, a man of versatile mind and boundless possibilities who was gifted with a radiative spirit and passion for enlightenment, received the pure, applied, beatific and life giving Word of the Veda, the first, original and eternal gift of the lord of omniscience into his yajna of cosmic creation, from Agni, sustainer of the light of knowledge, Vayu, vibrant sage with passion and strong will, Savita, i.e., Aditya, brilliant and inspiring like the sun, and Angiras, the sage inspiring as omnipresent Vishnu and breath of life.

(This Vasishtha, the brilliant disciple of the four sages, Agni, Vayu, Aditya and Angira, who then became the teacher of the Vedas, was Brahma. Swami Brahmamuni explains this interpretation of this mantra in his commentary on Rgveda and cites authoritative evidence from the Brahmana works. Swami Dayanand explains the cosmic process of creative evolution and Vedic revelation in his Introduction to his Commentary on the Vedas, Rgvedadi Bhashya Bhumika, saying on Vedic and ancient authority that the Vedas were first revealed to four sages: Rgveda to Agni, Yajurveda to Vayu, Samaveda to Aditya, and Atharva veda to Angira. Brahma, the brilliant disciple and later the inspired teacher, learnt the Veda from these four sages and passed on this knowledge to his disciples.)

1. Pratha yasya sapratha nāmubhasya haviḥ haviryat. Dhaturdyutānāt savitūr ācāreram jabhūr vasiṣṭha¬.

Those sages, i.e., Agni, Vayu, Aditya and Angira, received this knowledge, which was deeply hidden and perfectly preserved in the bottomless depths of omniscience of creative Divinity, and which is, still, deeply preserved in the depths of the human mind at the frequency of the cosmic mind, from the Lord Supreme that is all sustainer, self-refulgent, giver of light and life, immanent and omnipresent. From them and from the lord self-refulgent Agni, then, the disciple inspired with will and passion, Bharadvaja, receives and practically extends the knowledge which has, after all, no bounds.

3. Te’vindan manasā didhyānā yajuḥ śkannam prathāṃ devayānam. Dhaturdyutānāt savitūṃ viṣṇorā sūryādabharan gharmamete.

They, brilliant in mind and vision, vibrant at heart and burning with passion, received the knowledge for life and living, revealed and released in incessant flow, first and final for men on the path to divinity. And all these, Agni, Vayu, Aditya and Angira, Brahma, Bharadvaja and others that follow ultimately receive the knowledge, light and warmth of life, from the Supreme Sun, self-refulgent sustainer, giver of light, giver of life, omniscient, omnipresent Divinity.

Brhaspati Devata, Tapurmurdha Barhaspatya Rshi

1. Brhaspatirnayatu durgahā tirah punarnēśadaghaśaṁśāya manma. Kṣipadaśastimapa durma-tiṁ hannathā karadyajamānāya śaṁ yoḥ.

   May Brhaspati, lord of expansive universe, lead us across insufferable suffering and turn the thunderous strike of punishment to the supporter of wickedness, cast away malignity, destroy evil intention, and do good to the yajamana, free him from fear and disease and bestow good health and prosperity on him.

2. Naraśaṁso no’vatu prayāje śaṁ no astvanuyājo haveṣu. kṣipadaśastimapa durma-tiṁ hannathā karadyajamānāya śaṁ yoḥ.

   May Agni, adorable favourite of humanity, protect and promote us in Prayaja yajna, the preliminaries of the performance. May Agni support and bless us with success and prosperity at our performance... of Anuyaja yajna, the great finale. May Agni cast away malignity, destroy evil intention, and do good to the yajamana, free him from fear and disease, and bestow on him good health and prosperity.

In order that hate and violence may be eliminated from the world, may the lord of blazing light and refulgent intellect put to the crucibles of trial and punishment those who are wicked destroyers of the good and who malign and oppose the divine sages. May the great lord cast away scandal, strike away evil intention, and do good to the yajamana, free him from fear and disease and bless him with good health and prosperity.

Mandala10/Sukta 183

Yajamana, Yajamanapati, Hotrashisha Devata, Prajavan Prajapatya Rshi

I see you born of austere discipline and education with the lustre of discipline shining on your face and expressing your heart’s desire. Desirous of progeny and prosperity here in the household, pray be reborn through your own child and fulfil your desire for progeny and continuity in life.

(This verse may be taken as spoken by the wife to husband.)

अपर्यङ्ग्यं त्वा मनसा दीध्यादाना स्वायां तनू ऋत्व्य नार्थामानाम ।
उप मामुच्चा युवतिबिभूया: प जौयस्व पुजयां पुज्र-काम ॥ २ ॥

2. Apaśam tvā manasā didhyānāṁ svāyāṁ tanū ṛtvye nādhamānām. Upa māmucchā yuvatirba-bhūyāḥ pra jāyasva prajayā putrakāme.

I see you moved at heart with desire, earnestly praying that you be fulfilled in life with the timely gift of progeny. Come, rise to me, be fulfilled as a youthful woman, reborn in your child as a mother.

(This verse may be taken as spoken by the husband to the wife.)

अहं गर्भमदधामार्षधीव्यां विश्वेषु भूवनश्वन्तः।
अहं पुजां अजनयं पृथिव्यायां हनिष्यां अयपीष्यं पुज्रान। ॥ ३ ॥

3. Aham garbhamadadhāmośadhiśvaham viśveṣu bhuvanesvantaḥ. Aham prajā ajanayaṁ prthivyā-maham janibhyo aparīṣu putrān.

I plant the seed in herbs and plants. I plant the seed of life in all regions of the world. I engender the forms of life on the earth, and I would generate progeny for all others, women who love to be mothers for fulfilment.
Mandala10/Sukta 184

Lingokta Devata, Garbhakarta Tvashta or Vishnu
Prajapatya Rshi

1. Viṣṇuryonim kalpayatu tvaṣṭā rūpāṇi pimśatu.
   Ā siṅcatu praṇāpatirdhātā garbhaṁ dadhātu te.

   May Vishnu, omnipresent lord of life energy, prepare your womb through yajna. May Tvashta, nature’s formative intelligence of divinity, create the body form of the foetus in all details. May Prajapati, father spirit of divinity in nature, provide the life nutrients for the foetus. May Dhata, mother power of nature, hold and mature your foetus in the womb.

2. Garbhāṁ dhehi sinīvāli garbhaṁ dhehi sarasvati.
   Garbhaṁ te aśvinau devāvā dhattāṁ puṣkarasraja.

   O Sinivali, spirit of fecundity, sustain the foetus. O Sarasvati, universal spirit of intelligence, sustain the foetus. O fair expectant mother, may the Ashvins, sun and moon, nature’s complementary currents of creative and generative energy active in the firmament and on earth sustain and mature the foetus to fullness of its life and form.
3.  Hiraṇyayī araṇī yam nirmanthato aśvinā.
   Tam te garbham havāmahe daśame māsi sūtave.

Just as two golden arani woods produce the fire by friction, so do the Ashvins, by their dynamics of complementarity through nature’s nourishment and formative intelligence, nourish and mature your foetus. That baby in your womb we adore and welcome to emerge into full life in the tenth month of pregnancy.

Mandala10/Sukta 185

Aditya Devata, Satyadhṛti Varuni Rshi

1.  Mahi trīṇāmavo’stu dyukṣāṁ mitrasyāryamṇaḥ.
   Duradharṣam̄ varuṇasya.

May the great, refulgent and inviolable protection and promotion of the three, Mitra, Varuna and Aryaman bless the life of nature and humanity. (Mitra, Varuna and Aryaman are explained as prana, apana and heart energy, and as the sun of the summer, winter and spring seasons round the year.)

2.  Nahi teṣāmamā cana nādhvasu vāraṇeṣu.
   Īše ripuraghaśaṁsaḥ.

Neither in home nor on the roads under their invincible protection does any enemy or sinner or scandaliser dare to intrude and disturb a dedicated person. (Their rule and protection is complete and
3. Yasmai putrāso aditeḥ pra jīvase martyāya.

Jyotiryacchantyajasram.

No power can disturb or violate that mortal in life for whom the children of Aditi project their eternal light and protection for the life of man.

Mandala10/Sukta 186

Vayu Devata, Ula Vatayana Rshi

1. Vāta ā vātu bheṣajāṁ śaṁbhu mayobhu no hṛde.

Pra ṇa āyūṁṣi tāriṣat.

May the wind of life energy blow for us as harbinger of sanatives, good health and peace for our heart and help us to live a full life beyond all suffering and ailment.

2. Uta vāta pitāsi na uta bhrātota naḥ sakhā.

Sa no jīvātave kṛdhi.

O wind of life energy, you are our fatherly protector and promoter, our brother, our friend. Pray strengthen and inspire us to live a full life.
3. Yadado vāta te grhe ’mṛtasya nidhirhitaḥ.
   Tato no dehi jīvase.

In your treasure home of immortal, inviolable energy, O breath of life energy, Vayu, there is immeasurable wealth hidden for us. Of that, from that, give us some, our share, so that we may live a full life of good health and joy.

Mandala10/Sukta 187

Agni Devata, Vatsa Agneya Rshi

1. Prāgnaye vācamīraya vṛṣabhāya kṣitinām.
   Sa naḥ parṣadati dviṣah.

   O celebrant, sing your song of adoration in honour of Agni, virile, generous and refulgent leader and light giver of humanity. It casts away all our hate, jealousy and all enemies, and thus it washes us clean and immaculate.

2. Yaḥ parasyā parāvatastiro dhanyātirocate.
   Sa naḥ parṣadati dviṣah.

   Agni who pervades and shines beatific from far and farther, over the deserts and across the spaces, casts away all our jealous, malignant and enemy forces, and washes us clean and immaculate.

3. Yo rakṣāṃsi nijūrvati vṛṣā śukreṇa śociṣā.
   Sa nah parṣadati dviṣah.

Who, generous and potent as he is, destroys the evil, wicked, demonic force with his blazing purity and power, may, we pray, eliminate our hate, jealousy and enmities, and wash us clean and immaculate.

4. Yo viśvābhi vipaṣyati bhuvanā saṁ ca paśyati.
   Sa nah parṣadati dviṣah.

Who watches all the regions of the universe in their formal diversity as well as in their essential unity and integrity may, we pray, cast off our hate, jealousy and enmity and make us clean and immaculate.

5. Yo asya pāre rajasaḥ śukro agnirajāyata.
   Sa nah parṣadati dviṣah.

That Agni, self-refulgent supreme power that exists and manifests in and over and above this firmament and the oceanic depth of immeasurable space may, we pray, cast off our enemies and render us clean and free at peace.
Mandala10/Sukta 188

Jataveda Agni Devata, Shyena Agneya Rshi

1. Pra nūnaṁ jātavedasamaśvam hinota vājinam. Idaṁ no barhirāsade.

Invoke, kindle and delightfully feed Agni, all known, all knowing and all pervasive power and energy, sure achiever, all reacher and winner of victory. May this Agni grace the vedi of our yajna and lead our endeavour to success.

I raise my holy song of high adoration in honour of this Jataveda Agni, generous, virile and creative favourite of the brave and pioneering leading spirits of humanity.

May Agni bless and promote our yajna with those beatific flames of fire and light of omniscience which carry our homage to the divine power of nature for the gift of creativity.
Mandala10/Sukta 188

Jataveda Agni Devata, Shyena Agneya Rshi

1. Ayam gau prsnirakramidasadanmataram purah. Pitaram ca prayantsvah.

This earth moves round and round eastward abiding in its mother waters of the firmament and revolves round and round its father sustainer, the sun in heaven.

2. Antasarati rocanasya pranadapanati. Vyakhyanmahiyo divam.

The light of this sun radiates from morning till evening like the prana and apana of the cosmic body illuminating the mighty heaven and filling the space between heaven and earth.

3. Trimsaddhma vi raji vak patangaya dhiyate. Prati vastoraha dyubhi.

Thirty stages of the day from every morning to evening does the sun rule with the rays of its light while songs of adoration are raised and offered to the mighty ‘Bird’ of heavenly space.
Mandala10/Sukta 190

Bhava-vrttam Devata, Aghamarshana
Madhucchandasa Rshi

By the arduous will of Divinity, Prakrti manifested in existence in its simultaneous modes of Satyam and Rtam, constant and mutable, under the Eternal Law. Then arose the night and darkness of no positive name. Then arose the spatial ocean of indeterminate particles of existence.

1. Ṛtaṁ ca satyaṁ cābhīddhāttapaso’dhyajōyat.
Tato rātryajōyat tataḥ samudro arṇavaḥ.

By the arduous will of Divinity, Prakrti manifested in existence in its simultaneous modes of Satyam and Rtam, constant and mutable, under the Eternal Law. Then arose the night and darkness of no positive name. Then arose the spatial ocean of indeterminate particles of existence.

2. Samudrādārṇāvādhisamvatsaro ajōyata.
Ahorātrāni vidadhadviśvasya miṣato vaśi.

From the spatial ocean arose the time parameter of existence, and from there the master creator of the universe with his will created the conceptual days and nights.

Divām ca prthivīṁ cā’nrariṣamatho svāḥ.

The supreme master creator and controller planned the sun and moon, heaven and earth, the middle regions and the regions of bliss as ever before since eternity.

Mandala10/Sukta 191

Agni (1), Sanjnanam (2-4) Devata, Samvanana Angirasa Rshi

1. Saṁsamidyuvase vṛṣanagne viśvānyarya ā.
   Ilāspade samidhyase sa no asūnyā bhara.*

   Agni, self-refulgent, omnipotent master, giver of the showers of Infinity, you bring together and integrate all the elements and constituents of the universe of existence and shine in the earth-vedi fire and in the eloquence of the Voice divine of Veda. Pray bless us with the wealth, honour and excellence of life in the world.

2. Saṁ gacchadhvaṁ sam ṣadhyaiṁsaṁ vo manāṁsi jānatāṁ.
   Devā bhāgaṁ yathā pūrve-saṁjānānā upāṣate.*

   Move together forward in unison, speak together, and with equal mind all in accord, know you all together as the sages of old, knowing and doing together, play their part in life and fulfill their duty according to Dharma.

Let your guiding mantra be one and equal, your assembly, one and equal, your mind, one in accord in thinking and purpose for all of you. I commit you all to the same one mantra for thought, goals and policy, and I vest you all with equal and common means and methods for living and working.

Let your discussion and resolve be equal and common, your heart, feelings and passions equal and common. Let your thought and will be equal and common so that you may realise and enjoy a commonwealth of peace, progress and all round well being for all in commonalty.
3. Let your guiding mantra be one and equal, your assembly, one and equal, your mind, one in accord in thinking and purpose for all of you. I commit you all to the same one mantra for thought, goals and policy, and I vest you all with equal and common means and methods for living and working.

4. Let your discussion and resolve be equal and common, your heart, feelings and passions equal and common. Let your thought and will be equal and common so that you may realise and enjoy a common-wealth of peace, progress and all round well being for all in commonalty.
